- 27 And Baasha, the son of Ahijah, of the family of Issachar, made a secret design against him, attacking him at Gibbethon, a town of the Philistines; for Nadab and the armies of Israel were making war on Gibbethon.
Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha struck him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel were laying siege to Gibbethon.
And Baasha the son of Ahijah, of the house of Issachar, conspired against him; and Baasha smote him at Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philistines; for Nadab and all Israel laid siege to Gibbethon.
- 28 In the third year of the rule of Asa, king of Judah, Baasha put him to death, and became king in his place.
Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha kill him, and reigned in his place.
Even in the third year of Asa king of Judah did Baasha slay him, and reigned in his stead.
- 29 And straight away when he became king, he sent destruction on all the offspring of Jeroboam; there was not one living person of all the family of Jeroboam whom he did not put to death, so the word of the Lord, which he said by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite, came about;
It happened that, as soon as he was king, he struck all the house of Jeroboam: he didn't leave to Jeroboam any who breathed, until he had destroyed him; according to the saying of Yahweh, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite;
And it came to pass, when he reigned, that he smote all the house of Jeroboam; he left not to Jeroboam any that breathed, until he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Ahijah the Shilonite:
- 30 Because of the sins which Jeroboam did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath.
for the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and with which he made Israel to sin, because of his provocation with which he provoked Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger.
Because of the sins of Jeroboam which he sinned, and which he made Israel sin, by his provocation with which he provoked the LORD God of Israel to anger.

- 31 Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Nadab, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 32 And there was war between Asa and Baasha, king of Israel, all their days.
There was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
And there was war between Asa and Baasha king of Israel all their days.
- 33 In the third year of the rule of Asa, king of Judah, Baasha, the son of Ahijah, became king over all Israel in Tirzah, and was king for twenty-four years.
In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] twenty-four years.
In the third year of Asa king of Judah began Baasha the son of Ahijah to reign over all Israel in Tirzah, twenty and four years.
- 34 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the evil ways of Jeroboam and the sin which he made Israel do.
He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.
And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin.
- 1 And the word of the Lord came to Jehu, son of Hanani, protesting against Baasha and saying,
The word of Yahweh came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
Then the word of the LORD came to Jehu the son of Hanani against Baasha, saying,
- 2 Because I took you up out of the dust, and made you ruler over my people Israel; and you have gone in the ways of Jeroboam, and made my people Israel do evil, moving me to wrath by their sins;
Because I exalted you out of the dust, and made you prince over my people Israel, and you have walked in the way of Jeroboam, and have made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;
Forasmuch as I exalted thee from the dust, and made thee prince over my people Israel; and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sin, to provoke me to anger with their sins;

- 3 Truly, I will see that Baasha and all his family are completely brushed away; I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.
behold, I will utterly sweep away Baasha and his house; and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
Behold, I will take away the posterity of Baasha, and the posterity of his house; and will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
- 4 Anyone of the family of Baasha who comes to death in the town, will become food for the dogs; and he to whom death comes in the open country, will be food for the birds of the air.
Him who dies of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him who dies of his in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.
Him that dieth of Baasha in the city shall the dogs eat; and him that dieth of his in the fields shall the fowls of the air eat.
- 5 Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Baasha, and what he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 6 And Baasha went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth at Tirzah; and Elah his son became king in his place.
Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah; and Elah his son reigned in his place.
So Baasha slept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah: and Elah his son reigned in his stead.
- 7 And the Lord sent his word against Baasha and his family by the mouth of the prophet Jehu, the son of Hanani, because of all the evil he did in the eyes of the Lord, moving him to wrath by the work of his hands, because he was like the family of Jeroboam, and because he put it to death.
Moreover by the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of Yahweh against Baasha, and against his house, both because of all the evil that he did in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam, and because he struck him.
And also by the hand of the prophet Jehu the son of Hanani came the word of the LORD against Baasha, and against his house, even for all the evil that he did in the sight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the work of his hands, in being like the house of Jeroboam; and because he killed him.
- 8 In the twenty-sixth year that Asa was king of Judah, Elah, the son of Baasha, became king of Israel in Tirzah, and he was king for two years.
In the twenty-sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, [and reigned] two years.
In the twenty and sixth year of Asa king of Judah began Elah the son of Baasha to reign over Israel in Tirzah, two years.

- 9 And his servant Zimri, captain of half his war-carriages, made secret designs against him: now he was in Tirzah, drinking hard in the house of Arza, controller of the king's house in Tirzah. His servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him. Now he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza, who was over the household in Tirzah:
And his servant Zimri, captain of half his chariots, conspired against him, as he was in Tirzah, drinking himself drunk in the house of Arza steward of his house in Tirzah.
- 10 And Zimri went in and made an attack on him and put him to death, in the twenty-seventh year that Asa was king of Judah, and made himself king in his place. and Zimri went in and struck him, and killed him, in the twenty-seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his place.
And Zimri went in and smote him, and killed him, in the twenty and seventh year of Asa king of Judah, and reigned in his stead.
- 11 And straight away when he became king and took his place on the seat of the kingdom, he put to death all the family of Baasha: not one male child of his relations or his friends kept his life. It happened, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he struck all the house of Baasha: he didn't leave him a single man-child, neither of his relatives, nor of his friends.
And it came to pass, when he began to reign, as soon as he sat on his throne, that he slew all the house of Baasha: he left him not one male, neither of his kinsman, nor of his friends.
- 12 So Zimri put to death all the family of Baasha, so that the word which the Lord said against him by the mouth of Jehu the prophet came about; Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke against Baasha by Jehu the prophet,
Thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasha, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke against Baasha, by Jehu the prophet,
- 13 Because of all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath by their foolish acts. for all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, which they sinned, and with which they made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.
For all the sins of Baasha, and the sins of Elah his son, by which they sinned, and by which they made Israel to sin, in provoking the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.
- 14 Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel? Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

- 16 And news came to the people in the tents that Zimri had made a secret design and had put the king to death: so all Israel made Omri, the captain of the army, king that day in the tents.
The people who were encamped heard say, Zimri has conspired, and has also struck the king: therefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.
And the people that were encamped heard it said, Zimri hath conspired, and hath also slain the king: wherefore all Israel made Omri, the captain of the host, king over Israel that day in the camp.
- 17 Then Omri went up from Gibbethon, with all the army of Israel, and they made an attack on Tirzah, shutting in the town on every side.
Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Tirzah.
- 18 And when Zimri saw that the town was taken, he went into the inner room of the king's house, and burning the house over his head, came to his end,
It happened, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the castle of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,
And it came to pass, when Zimri saw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the king's house, and burnt the king's house over him with fire, and died,
- 19 Because of his sin in doing evil in the eyes of the Lord, in going in the way of Jeroboam and in his sin which he made Israel do.
for his sins which he sinned in doing that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.
For his sins which he sinned in doing evil in the sight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his sin which he did, to make Israel to sin.
- 20 Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and the secret design he made, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Zimri, and his treason that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

- 21 Then there was a division among the people of Israel; half the people were for making Tibni, son of Ginath, king, and half were supporting Omri.
Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.
Then were the people of Israel divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the son of Ginath, to make him king; and half followed Omri.
- 22 But the supporters of Omri overcame those who were on the side of Tibni, the son of Ginath; and death came to Tibni and to his brother Joram at that time: and Omri became king in the place of Tibni.
But the people who followed Omri prevailed against the people who followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.
But the people that followed Omri prevailed against the people that followed Tibni the son of Ginath: so Tibni died, and Omri reigned.

- 23 In the thirty-first year of Asa, king of Judah, Omri became king over Israel, and he was king for twelve years; for six years he was ruling in Tirzah.

Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and dealt wickedly above all who were before him.
But Omri wrought evil in the eyes of the LORD, and did worse than all that were before him.

- 26 Copying all the evil ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and all the sins he did and made Israel do, moving the Lord, the God of Israel, to wrath by their foolish ways.
For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sins with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger with their vanities.
For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and in his sin with which he made Israel to sin, to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger with their vanities.
- 27 Now the rest of the acts which Omri did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Omri which he did, and his might that he showed, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

- 30 And Ahab, the son of Omri, did evil in the eyes of the Lord, even worse than all who went before him.
Ahab the son of Omri did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh above all that were before him.
And Ahab the son of Omri did evil in the sight of the LORD above all that were before him.
- 31 And as if copying the evil ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, was a small thing for him, he took as his wife Jezebel, daughter of Ethbaal, king of Zidon, and became a servant and worshipper of Baal.
It happened, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took as wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshipped him.
And it came to pass, as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, that he took to wife Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and served Baal, and worshiped him.

- 33 And Ahab made an image of Asherah and did more than all the kings of Israel before him to make the Lord, the God of Israel, angry.
Ahab made the Asherah; and Ahab did yet more to provoke Yahweh, the God of Israel, to anger than all the kings of Israel who were before him.
And Ahab made a grove; and Ahab did more to provoke the LORD God of Israel to anger than all the kings of Israel that were before him.
- 34 In his days Hiel made Jericho; he put its base in position at the price of Abiram, his oldest son, and he put its doors in place at the price of his youngest son Segub; even as the Lord had said by Joshua, the son of Nun.
In his days did Hiel the Bethelite build Jericho: he laid the foundation of it with the loss of Abiram his firstborn, and set up the gates of it with the loss of his youngest son Segub, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.
In his days Hiel the Beth-elite built Jericho: he laid the foundation of it in Abiram his first-born, and set up the gates of it in his youngest son Segub, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Joshua the son of Nun.
- 1 And Elijah the Tishbite, of Tishbe in Gilead, said to Ahab, By the living Lord, the God of Israel, whose servant I am, there will be no dew or rain in these years, but only at my word.
Elijah the Tishbite, who was of the sojourners of Gilead, said to Ahab, As Yahweh, the God of Israel, lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.
And Elijah the Tishbite who was of the inhabitants of Gilead, said to Ahab, As the LORD God of Israel liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, but according to my word.
- 2 Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying,
The word of Yahweh came to him, saying,
And the word of the LORD came to him, saying,
- 3 Go from here in the direction of the east, and keep yourself in a secret place by the stream Cherith, east of Jordan.
Get you hence, and turn you eastward, and hide yourself by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan.
Depart hence, and turn thee eastward, and hide thyself by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.

- 4 The water of the stream will be your drink, and by my orders the ravens will give you food there.
It shall be, that you shall drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed you there.
And it shall be, that thou shalt drink of the brook; and I have commanded the ravens to feed thee there.
- 5 So he went and did as the Lord said, living by the stream Cherith, east of Jordan.
So he went and did according to the word of Yahweh; for he went and lived by the brook Cherith, that is before the Jordan.
So he went and did according to the word of the LORD: for he went and dwelt by the brook Cherith, that is before Jordan.
- 6 And the ravens took him bread in the morning and meat in the evening; and the water of the stream was his drink.
The ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.
And the ravens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and bread and flesh in the evening; and he drank of the brook.
- 7 Now after a time the stream became dry, because there was no rain in the land.
It happened after a while, that the brook dried up, because there was no rain in the land.
And it came to pass after a while, that the brook dried up, because there had been no rain in the land.
- 8 Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying,
The word of Yahweh came to him, saying,
And the word of the LORD came to him, saying,
- 9 Up! go now to Zarephath, in Zidon, and make your living-place there; I have given orders to a widow woman there to see that you have food.
Arise, get you to Zarephath, which belongs to Sidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow there to sustain you.
Arise, go to Zarephath, which belongeth to Zidon, and dwell there: behold, I have commanded a widow woman there to sustain thee.

- 10 So he got up and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the door of the town, he saw a widow woman getting sticks together; and crying out to her he said, Will you give me a little water in a vessel for my drink?
So he arose and went to Zarephath; and when he came to the gate of the city, behold, a widow was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, Please get me a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.
So he arose and went to Zarephath. And when he came to the gate of the city, behold, the widow woman was there gathering sticks: and he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a little water in a vessel, that I may drink.
- 11 And when she was going to get it, he said to her, And get me with it a small bit of bread.
As she was going to get it, he called to her, and said, Please bring me a morsel of bread in your hand.
And as she was going to bring it, he called to her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsel of bread in thy hand.
- 12 Then she said, By the life of the Lord your God, I have nothing but a little meal in my store, and a drop of oil in the bottle; and now I am getting two sticks together so that I may go in and make it ready for me and my son, so that we may have a meal before our death.
She said, As Yahweh your God lives, I aren't they a cake, but a handful of meal in the jar, and a little oil in the jar: and, behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and bake it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.
And she said, As the LORD thy God liveth, I have not a cake, but a handful of meal in a barrel, and a little oil in a cruse: and behold, I am gathering two sticks, that I may go in and dress it for me and my son, that we may eat it, and die.
- 13 And Elijah said to her, Have no fear; go and do as you have said, but first make me a little cake of it and come and give it to me, and then make something for yourself and your son.
Elijah said to her, Don't be afraid; go and do as you have said; but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it forth to me, and afterward make for you and for your son.
And Elijah said to her, Fear not; go and do as thou hast said: but make me of it a little cake first, and bring it to me, and afterward make for thee and for thy son.
- 14 For this is the word of the Lord, the God of Israel: The store of meal will not come to an end, and the bottle will never be without oil, till the day when the Lord sends rain on the earth.
For thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel, The jar of meal shall not empty, neither shall the jar of oil fail, until the day that Yahweh sends rain on the earth.
For thus saith the LORD God of Israel, The barrel of meal shall not waste, neither shall the cruse of oil fail, until the day that the LORD sendeth rain upon the earth.

- 15 So she went and did as Elijah said; and she and he and her family had food for a long time.
She went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, ate [many] days.
And she went and did according to the saying of Elijah: and she, and he, and her house, did eat many days.
- 16 The store of meal did not come to an end, and the bottle was never without oil, as the Lord had said by the mouth of Elijah.
The jar of meal didn't empty, neither did the jar of oil fail, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by Elijah.
And the barrel of meal wasted not, neither did the cruse of oil fail, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by Elijah.
- 17 Now after this, the son of the woman of the house became ill, so ill that there was no breath in him.
It happened after these things, that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.
And it came to pass after these things that the son of the woman, the mistress of the house, fell sick; and his sickness was so severe, that there was no breath left in him.
- 18 And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, O man of God? have you come to put God in mind of my sin, and to put my son to death?
She said to Elijah, What have I to do with you, you man of God? you are come to me to bring my sin to memory, and to kill my son!
And she said to Elijah, What have I to do with thee, O thou man of God? art thou come to me to call my sin to remembrance, and to slay my son?
- 19 And he said to her, Give your son to me. And lifting him out of her arms, he took him up to his room and put him down on his bed.
He said to her, Give me your son. He took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into the chamber, where he abode, and laid him on his own bed.
And he said to her, Give me thy son. And he took him out of her bosom, and carried him up into a loft, where he abode, and laid him upon his own bed.
- 20 And crying to the Lord he said, O Lord my God, have you sent evil even on the widow whose guest I am, by causing her son's death?
He cried to Yahweh, and said, Yahweh my God, have you also brought evil on the widow with whom I sojourn, by killing her son?
And he cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, hast thou also brought evil upon the widow with whom I sojourn, by slaying her son?

- 21 And stretching herself out on the child three times, he made his prayer to the Lord, saying, O Lord my God, be pleased to let this child's life come back to him again.
He stretched himself on the child three times, and cried to Yahweh, and said, Yahweh my God, please let this child`s soul come into him again.
And he stretched himself upon the child three times, and cried to the LORD, and said, O LORD my God, I pray thee, let this child's soul come into him again.
- 22 And the Lord gave ear to the voice of Elijah, and the child's spirit came into him again, and he came back to life.
Yahweh listened to the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.
And the LORD heard the voice of Elijah; and the soul of the child came into him again, and he revived.
- 23 And Elijah took the child down from his room into the house and gave him to his mother and said to her, See, your son is living.
Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother; and Elijah said, Behold, your son lives.
And Elijah took the child, and brought him down from the chamber into the house, and delivered him to his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.
- 24 Then the woman said to Elijah, Now I am certain that you are a man of God, and that the word of the Lord in your mouth is true.
The woman said to Elijah, Now I know that you are a man of God, and that the word of Yahweh in your mouth is truth.
And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.
- 1 Now after a long time, the word of the Lord came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go and let Ahab see you, so that I may send rain on the earth.
It happened after many days, that the word of Yahweh came to Elijah, in the third year, saying, Go, show yourself to Ahab; and I will send rain on the earth.
And it came to pass after many days, that the word of the LORD came to Elijah in the third year, saying, Go, show thyself to Ahab; and I will send rain upon the earth.
- 2 So Elijah went to let Ahab see him. Now there was no food to be had in Samaria.
Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. The famine was sore in Samaria.
And Elijah went to show himself to Ahab. And there was a grievous famine in Samaria.

- 3 And Ahab sent for Obadiah, the controller of the king's house. (Now Obadiah had the fear of the Lord before him greatly; Ahab called Obadiah, who was over the household. (Now Obadiah feared Yahweh greatly:
And Ahab called Obadiah who was the governor of his house. (Now Obadiah feared the LORD greatly:
- 4 For when Jezebel was cutting off the prophets of the Lord, Obadiah took a hundred of them, and kept them secretly in a hole in the rock, fifty at a time, and gave them bread and water.)
for it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of Yahweh, that Obadiah took one hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)
For it was so, when Jezebel cut off the prophets of the LORD, that Obadiah took a hundred prophets, and hid them by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water.)
- 5 And Ahab said to Obadiah, Come, let us go through all the country, to all the fountains of water and all the rivers, and see if there is any grass to be had for the horses and the transport beasts, so that we may be able to keep some of the beasts from destruction.
Ahab said to Obadiah, Go through the land, to all the springs of water, and to all the brooks: peradventure we may find grass and save the horses and mules alive, that we not lose all the animals.
And Ahab said to Obadiah, Go into the land, to all fountains of water, and to all brooks: it may be we may find grass to save the horses and mules alive, that we lose not all the beasts.
- 6 So they went through all the country, covering it between them; Ahab went in one direction by himself, and Obadiah went in another by himself.
So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
So they divided the land between them to pass throughout it: Ahab went one way by himself, and Obadiah went another way by himself.
- 7 And while Obadiah was on his way, he came face to face with Elijah; and seeing who it was, he went down on his face and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah?
As Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Is it you, my lord Elijah?
And as Obadiah was in the way, behold, Elijah met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and said, Art thou that my lord Elijah?
- 8 And Elijah in answer said, It is I; now go and say to your lord, Elijah is here.
He answered him, It is I: go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here].
And he answered him, I am: go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.

- 9 And he said, What sin have I done, that you would give up your servant into the hand of Ahab, and be the cause of my death?
He said, Wherein have I sinned, that you would deliver your servant into the hand of Ahab, to kill me?
And he said, What have I sinned, that thou wouldest deliver thy servant into the hand of Ahab to slay me?
- 10 By the life of the Lord your God, there is not a nation or kingdom where my lord has not sent in search of you; and when they said, He is not here; he made them take an oath that they had not seen you.
As Yahweh your God lives, there is no nation or kingdom, where my lord has not sent to seek you: and when they said, He is not here, he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they didn't find you.
As the LORD thy God liveth, there is no nation nor kingdom, whither my lord hath not sent to seek thee: and when they said, He is not there; he took an oath of the kingdom and nation, that they found thee not.
- 11 And now you say, Go, say to your lord, Elijah is here.
Now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here].
And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here.
- 12 And straight away, when I have gone from you, the spirit of the Lord will take you away, I have no idea where, so that when I come and give word to Ahab, and he sees you not, he will put me to death: though I, your servant, have been a worshipper of the Lord from my earliest years.
It will happen, as soon as I am gone from you, that the Spirit of Yahweh will carry you I don't know where; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can't find you, he will kill me: but I your servant fear Yahweh from my youth.
And it will come to pass, as soon as I have gone from thee, that the Spirit of the LORD will carry thee whither I know not; and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he cannot find thee, he will slay me: but I thy servant fear the LORD from my youth.
- 13 Has my lord not had word of what I did when Jezebel was putting the Lord's prophets to death? how I kept a hundred of them in a secret hole in the rock, fifty at a time, and gave them bread and water?
Wasn't it told my lord what I did when Jezebel killed the prophets of Yahweh, how I hid one hundred men of Yahweh's prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?
Was it not told my lord what I did when Jezebel slew the prophets of the LORD, how I hid a hundred men of the LORD'S prophets by fifty in a cave, and fed them with bread and water?
- 14 And now you say, Go and say to your Lord, Elijah is here; and he will put me to death.
Now you say, Go, tell your lord, Behold, Elijah [is here]; and he will kill me.
And now thou sayest, Go, tell thy lord, Behold, Elijah is here: and he will slay me.

- 15 And Elijah said, By the life of the Lord of armies, whose servant I am, I will certainly let him see me today.
Elijah said, As Yahweh of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him today.
And Elijah said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, I will surely show myself to him to-day.
- 16 So Obadiah went to Ahab and gave him the news; and Ahab went to see Elijah.
So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
So Obadiah went to meet Ahab, and told him; and Ahab went to meet Elijah.
- 17 And when he saw Elijah, Ahab said to him, Is it you, you troubler of Israel?
It happened, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Is it you, you troubler of Israel?
And it came to pass, when Ahab saw Elijah, that Ahab said to him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?
- 18 Then he said in answer, I have not been troubling Israel, but you and your family; because, turning away from the orders of the Lord, you have gone after the Baals.
He answered, I have not troubled Israel; but you, and your father`s house, in that you have forsaken the commandments of Yahweh, and you have followed the Baals.
And he answered, I have not troubled Israel; but thou, and thy father's house, in that ye have forsaken the commandments of the LORD, and thou hast followed Baalim.
- 19 Now send, and get Israel together before me at Mount Carmel, with the four hundred and fifty prophets of Baal who get their food at Jezebel's table.
Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to Mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred fifty, and the prophets of the Asherah four hundred, who eat at Jezebel`s table.
Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel to mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal four hundred and fifty, and the prophets of the groves four hundred, who eat at Jezebel's table.
- 20 So Ahab sent for all the children of Israel, and got the prophets together at Mount Carmel.
So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together to Mount Carmel.
So Ahab sent to all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets to mount Carmel.

- 21 And Elijah came near to all the people and said, How long will you go on balancing between two opinions? if the Lord is God, then give worship to him; but if Baal, give worship to him. And the people said not a word in answer.
Elijah came near to all the people, and said, How long go you limping between the two sides? if Yahweh be God, follow him; but if Baal, then follow him. The people answered him not a word.
And Elijah came to all the people, and said, How long halt ye between two opinions? if the LORD is God, follow him: but if Baal, then follow him. And the people answered him not a word.
- 22 Then Elijah said to the people, I, even I, am the only living prophet of the Lord; but Baal's prophets are four hundred and fifty men.
Then said Elijah to the people, I, even I only, am left a prophet of Yahweh; but Baal's prophets are four hundred fifty men.
Then said Elijah to the people, I even I only, remain a prophet of the LORD; but Baal's prophet's are four hundred and fifty men.
- 23 Now, let them give us two oxen; and let them take one for themselves, and have it cut up, and put it on the wood, but put no fire under it; I will get the other ox ready, and put it on the wood, and put no fire under it.
Let them therefore give us two bulls; and let them choose one bull for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under; and I will dress the other bull, and lay it on the wood, and put no fire under.
Let them therefore give us two bullocks; and let them choose one bullock for themselves, and cut it in pieces, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under: and I will dress the other bullock, and lay it on wood, and put no fire under:
- 24 And do you make prayers to your god, and I will make a prayer to the Lord: and it will be clear that the one who gives an answer by fire is God. And all the people in answer said, It is well said.
Call you on the name of your god, and I will call on the name of Yahweh; and the God who answers by fire, let him be God. All the people answered, It is well spoken.
And call ye on the name of your gods, and I will call on the name of the LORD: and the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. And all the people answered and said, It is well spoken.
- 25 Then Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Take one ox for yourselves and get it ready first, for there are more of you; and make your prayers to your god, but put no fire under.
Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bull for yourselves, and dress it first; for you are many; and call on the name of your god, but put no fire under.
And Elijah said to the prophets of Baal, Choose you one bullock for yourselves, and dress it first; for ye are many; and call on the name of your gods, but put no fire under.

- 26 So they took the ox which was given them, and made it ready, crying out to Baal from morning till the middle of the day, and saying, O Baal, give ear to us. But there was no voice and no answer. And they were jumping up and down before the altar they had made.
They took the bull which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any who answered. They leaped about the altar which was made.
And they took the bullock which was given them, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning even until noon, saying, O Baal, hear us. But there was no voice, nor any that answered. And they leaped upon the altar which was made.
- 27 And in the middle of the day, Elijah made sport of them, saying, Give louder cries, for he is a god; he may be deep in thought, or he may have gone away for some purpose, or he may be on a journey, or by chance he is sleeping and has to be made awake.
It happened at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud; for he is a god: either he is musing, or he is gone aside, or he is on a journey, or peradventure he sleeps and must be awakened.
And it came to pass at noon, that Elijah mocked them, and said, Cry aloud: for he is a god; either he is talking, or he is pursuing, or he is on a journey, or perhaps he sleepeth, and must be awaked.
- 28 So they gave loud cries, cutting themselves with knives and swords, as was their way, till the blood came streaming out all over them.
They cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lances, until the blood gushed out on them.
And they cried aloud, and cut themselves after their manner with knives and lancets, till the blood gushed out upon them.
- 29 And from the middle of the day they went on with their prayers till the time of the offering; but there was no voice, or any answer, or any who gave attention to them.
It was so, when midday was past, that they prophesied until the time of the offering of the [evening] offering; but there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any who regarded.
And it came to pass, when mid-day was past, and they prophesied until the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that there was neither voice, nor any to answer, nor any that regarded.
- 30 Then Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near. And he put up again the altar of the Lord which had been broken down.
Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me; and all the people came near to him. He repaired the altar of Yahweh that was thrown down.
And Elijah said to all the people, Come near to me. And all the people came near to him. And he repaired the altar of the LORD that was broken down.

- 31 And Elijah took twelve stones, the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the Lord had said, Israel will be your name:
Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of Yahweh came, saying, Israel shall be your name.
And Elijah took twelve stones, according to the number of the tribes of the sons of Jacob, to whom the word of the LORD came, saying, Israel shall be thy name:
- 32 And with the stones he made an altar to the name of the Lord; and he made a deep drain all round the altar, great enough to take two measures of seed.
With the stones he built an altar in the name of Yahweh; and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.
And with the stones he built an altar in the name of the LORD: and he made a trench about the altar, as great as would contain two measures of seed.
- 33 And he put the wood in order, and, cutting up the ox, put it on the wood. Then he said, Get four vessels full of water and put it on the burned offering and on the wood. And he said, Do it a second time, and they did it a second time;
He put the wood in order, and cut the bull in pieces, and laid it on the wood. He said, Fill four jars with water, and pour it on the burnt offering, and on the wood.
And he put the wood in order, and cut the bullock in pieces, and laid him on the wood, and said, Fill four barrels with water, and pour it on the burnt-sacrifice, and on the wood.
- 34 And he said, Do it a third time, and they did it a third time.
He said, Do it the second time; and they did it the second time. He said, Do it the third time; and they did it the third time.
And he said, Do it the second time. And they did it the second time. And he said, Do it the third time. And they did it the third time.
- 35 And the water went all round the altar, till the drain was full.
The water ran round about the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.
And the water ran around the altar; and he filled the trench also with water.

- 36 Then at the time of the offering, Elijah the prophet came near and said, O Lord, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be seen this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things by your order.
It happened at the time of the offering of the [evening] offering, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that you are God in Israel, and that I am your servant, and that I have done all these things at your word.
And it came to pass at the time of the offering of the evening sacrifice, that Elijah the prophet came near, and said, LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou art God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word.
- 37 Give me an answer, O Lord, give me an answer, so that this people may see that you are God, and that you have made their hearts come back again.
Hear me, Yahweh, hear me, that this people may know that you, Yahweh, are God, and [that] you have turned their heart back again.
Hear me, O LORD, hear me, that this people may know that thou art the LORD God, and that thou hast turned their heart back again.
- 38 Then the fire of the Lord came down, burning up the offering and the wood and the stones and the dust, and drinking up the water in the drain.
Then the fire of Yahweh fell, and consumed the burnt offering, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
Then the fire of the LORD fell, and consumed the burnt-sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked up the water that was in the trench.
- 39 And when the people saw it, they all went down on their faces, and said, The Lord, he is God, the Lord, he is God.
When all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, Yahweh, he is God; Yahweh, he is God.
And when all the people saw it, they fell on their faces: and they said, The LORD, he is the God; the LORD, he is the God.
- 40 And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal, let not one of them get away. So they took them, and Elijah made them go down to the stream Kishon, and put them to death there.
and Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal; don` t let one of them escape. They took them; and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and killed them there.
And Elijah said to them, Take the prophets of Baal; let not one of them escape. And they took them: and Elijah brought them down to the brook Kishon, and slew them there.

- 41 Then Elijah said to Ahab, Up! take food and drink, for there is a sound of much rain.
Elijah said to Ahab, Get you up, eat and drink; for there is the sound of abundance of rain.
And Elijah said to Ahab, Go up, eat and drink; for there is a sound of abundance of rain.
- 42 So Ahab went up to have food and drink, while Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he went down on the earth, putting his face between his knees.
So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he bowed himself down on the earth, and put his face between his knees.
So Ahab went up to eat and to drink. And Elijah went up to the top of Carmel; and he cast himself down upon the earth, and put his face between his knees,
- 43 And he said to his servant, Go now, and take a look in the direction of the sea. And he went up, and after looking said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times; and he went seven times.
He said to his servant, Go up now, look toward the sea. He went up, and looked, and said, There is nothing. He said, Go again seven times.
And said to his servant, Go up now, look towards the sea. And he went up and looked, and said, There is nothing. And he said, Go again seven times.
- 44 And the seventh time he said, I see a cloud coming up out of the sea, as small as a man's hand. Then he said, Go up and say to Ahab, Get your carriage ready and go down or the rain will keep you back.
It happened at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there arises a cloud out of the sea, as small as a man`s hand. He said, Go up, tell Ahab, Make ready [your chariot], and get you down, that the rain not stop you.
And it came to pass at the seventh time, that he said, Behold, there ariseth a little cloud out of the sea, like a man's hand. And he said, Go up, say to Ahab, Prepare thy chariot, and go down, that the rain may not hinder thee.
- 45 And after a very little time, the heaven became black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab went in his carriage to Jezreel.
It happened in a little while, that the sky grew black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel:
And it came to pass in the mean while, that the heaven was black with clouds and wind, and there was a great rain. And Ahab rode, and went to Jezreel.

- 46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elijah; and he made himself strong, and went running before Ahab till they came to Jezreel.
and the hand of Yahweh was on Elijah; and he girded up his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.
And the hand of the LORD was on Elijah; and he girded his loins, and ran before Ahab to the entrance of Jezreel.
- 1 Ahab gave Jezebel news of all Elijah had done, and how he had put all the prophets to death with the sword.
Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and withal how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.
And Ahab told Jezebel all that Elijah had done, and how he had slain all the prophets with the sword.
- 2 Then Jezebel sent a servant to Elijah, saying, May the gods' punishment be on me if I do not make your life like the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.
Then Jezebel send a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I don't make your life as the life of one of them by tomorrow about this time.
Then Jezebel sent a messenger to Elijah, saying, So let the gods do to me, and more also, if I make not thy life as the life of one of them by to-morrow about this time.
- 3 And he got up, fearing for his life, and went in flight, and came to Beer-sheba in Judah, parting there from his servant;
When he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba, which belongs to Judah, and left his servant there.
And when he saw that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beer-sheba, which belongeth to Judah, and left his servant there.
- 4 While he himself went a day's journey into the waste land, and took a seat under a broom-plant, desiring for himself only death; for he said, It is enough: now, O Lord, take away my life, for I am no better than my fathers.
But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die, and said, It is enough; now, O Yahweh, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.
But he himself went a day's journey into the wilderness, and came and sat down under a juniper-tree: and he requested for himself that he might die; and said, It is enough; now, O LORD, take away my life; for I am not better than my fathers.
- 5 And stretching himself on the earth, he went to sleep under the broom-plant; but an angel, touching him, said to him, Get up and have some food.
He lay down and slept under a juniper-tree; and, behold, an angel touched him, and said to him, Arise and eat.
And as he lay and slept under a juniper-tree, behold, then an angel touched him, and said to him, Arise and eat.

- 6 And looking up, he saw by his head a cake cooked on the stones and a bottle of water. So he took food and drink and went to sleep again.
He looked, and, behold, there was at his head a cake baked on the coals, and a jar of water. He ate and drink, and laid him down again.
And he looked, and behold, there was a cake baked on the coals, and a cruse of water at his head. And he ate and drank, and laid himself down again.
- 7 And the angel of the Lord came again a second time, and touching him said, Get up and have some food, or the journey will be overmuch for your strength.
The angel of Yahweh came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for you.
And the angel of the LORD came again the second time, and touched him, and said, Arise and eat, because the journey is too great for thee.
- 8 So he got up and took food and drink, and in the strength of that food he went on for forty days and nights, to Horeb, the mountain of God.
He arose, and ate and drink, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the Mount of God.
And he arose, and ate and drank, and went in the strength of that food forty days and forty nights to Horeb the mount of God.
- 9 And there he went into a hole in the rock for the night; then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, What are you doing here, Elijah?
He came there to a cave, and lodged there; and, behold, the word of Yahweh came to him, and he said to him, What do you here, Elijah?
And he came thither to a cave, and lodged there; and behold, the word of the LORD came to him, and he said to him, What doest thou here, Elijah?
- 10 And he said, I have been burning for the honour of the Lord, the God of armies; for the children of Israel have not kept your agreement; they have made destruction of your altars, and have put your prophets to death with the sword: till I, even I, am the only one living; and now they are attempting to take away my life.
He said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword: and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.
And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: for the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, I only, am left; and they seek my life to take it away.

- 11 Then he said, Go out and take your place on the mountain before the Lord. Then the Lord went by, and mountains were parted by the force of a great wind, and rocks were broken before the Lord; but the Lord was not in the wind. And after the wind there was an earth-shock, but the Lord was not in the earth-shock.
He said, Go forth, and stand on the mountain before Yahweh. Behold, Yahweh passed by, and a great and strong wind tore the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before Yahweh; but Yahweh was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but Yahweh was not in the earthquake:
And he said, Go forth, and stand upon the mount before the LORD. And behold, the LORD passed by, and a great and strong wind rent the mountains, and broke in pieces the rocks before the LORD; but the LORD was not in the wind: and after the wind an earthquake; but the LORD was not in the earthquake:
- 12 And after the earth-shock a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire. And after the fire, the sound of a soft breath.
and after the earthquake a fire; but Yahweh was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.
And after the earthquake a fire; but the LORD was not in the fire: and after the fire a still small voice.
- 13 And Elijah, hearing it, went out, covering his face with his robe, and took his place in the opening of the hole. And there a voice came to him saying, What are you doing here, Elijah?
It was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. Behold, there came a voice to him, and said, What do you here, Elijah?
And it was so, when Elijah heard it, that he wrapped his face in his mantle, and went out, and stood in the entrance of the cave. And behold, there came a voice to him, and said, What doest thou here, Elijah?
- 14 And he said, I have been burning for the honour of the Lord, the God of armies; for the children of Israel have not kept your agreement; they have had your altars broken down, and have put your prophets to death with the sword: till I, even I, am the only one living; and now they are attempting to take away my life.
He said, I have been very jealous for Yahweh, the God of hosts; for the children of Israel have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and slain your prophets with the sword; and I, even I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.
And he said, I have been very jealous for the LORD God of hosts: because the children of Israel have forsaken thy covenant, thrown down thy altars, and slain thy prophets with the sword; and I, I only, am left; and they seek my life, to take it away.
- 15 And the Lord said to him, Go back on your way through the waste land to Damascus; and when you come there, put the holy oil on Hazael to make him king over Aram;
Yahweh said to him, Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when you come, you shall anoint Hazael to be king over Syria;
And the LORD said to him, Go, return on thy way to the wilderness of Damascus: and when thou comest, anoint Hazael to be king over Syria:

- 16 And on Jehu, son of Nimshi, making him king over Israel; and on Elisha, the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah, to be prophet in your place.
and Jehu the son of Nimshi shall you anoint to be king over Israel; and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shall you anoint to be prophet in your room.
And Jehu the son of Nimshi shalt thou anoint to be king over Israel: and Elisha the son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah shalt thou anoint to be prophet in thy room.
- 17 And it will come about that the man who gets away safe from the sword of Hazael, Jehu will put to death; and whoever gets away safe from the sword of Jehu, Elisha will put to death.
It shall happen, that he who escapes from the sword of Hazael shall Jehu kill; and he who escapes from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha kill.
And it shall come to pass, that him that escapeth the sword of Hazael shall Jehu slay: and him that escapeth from the sword of Jehu shall Elisha slay.
- 18 But I will keep safe seven thousand in Israel, all those whose knees have not been bent to Baal, and whose mouths have given him no kisses.
Yet will I leave [me] seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which has not kissed him.
Yet I have left to me seven thousand in Israel, all the knees which have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth which hath not kissed him.
- 19 So he went away from there and came across Elisha, the son of Shaphat, ploughing with twelve yoke of oxen, he himself walking with the twelfth; and Elijah went up to him and put his robe on him.
So he departed there, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing, with twelve yoke [of oxen] before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed over to him, and cast his mantle on him.
So he departed thence, and found Elisha the son of Shaphat, who was plowing with twelve yoke of oxen before him, and he with the twelfth: and Elijah passed by him, and cast his mantle upon him.
- 20 And letting the oxen be where they were, he came running after Elijah, and said, Only let me give a kiss to my father and mother, and then I will come after you. But he said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?
He left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray you, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow you. He said to him, Go back again; for what have I done to you?
And he left the oxen, and ran after Elijah, and said, Let me, I pray thee, kiss my father and my mother, and then I will follow thee. And he said to him, Go back again: for what have I done to thee?

21 And he went back, and took the oxen and put them to death, and cooking their flesh with the yokes of the oxen, he gave the people a feast. Then he got up and went after Elijah and became his servant.
He returned from following him, and took the yoke of oxen, and killed them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.
And he returned back from him, and took a yoke of oxen, and slew them, and boiled their flesh with the instruments of the oxen, and gave to the people, and they ate. Then he arose, and went after Elijah, and ministered to him.

1 Now Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got all his army together, and thirty-two kings with him, and horses and carriages of war; he went up and made war on Samaria, shutting it in.
Ben-hadad the king of Syria gathered all his host together; and there were thirty-two kings with him, and horses and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and fought against it.
And Ben-hadad the king of Syria collected all his army: and there were thirty and two kings with him, and horses, and chariots: and he went up and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And he sent representatives into the town to Ahab, king of Israel;
He sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel, into the city, and said to him, Thus says Ben-hadad,
And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the city, and said to him, Thus saith Ben-hadad,

3 And they said to him, Ben-hadad says, Your silver and your gold are mine; and your wives and children are mine.
Your silver and your gold is mine; your wives also and your children, even the best, are mine.
Thy silver and thy gold is mine; thy wives also and thy children, even the most comely, are mine.

4 And the king of Israel sent him an answer saying, As you say, my lord king, I am yours with all I have.
The king of Israel answered, It is according to your saying, my lord, O king; I am yours, and all that I have.
And the king of Israel answered and said, My lord, O king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I have.

5 Then the representatives came back again, and said, These are the words of Ben-hadad: I sent to you saying, Give up to me your silver and your gold, your wives and your children;
The messengers came again, and said, Thus speaks Ben-hadad, saying, I sent indeed to you, saying, You shall deliver me your silver, and your gold, and your wives, and your children;
And the messengers came again, and said, Thus speaketh Ben-hadad, saying, Although I have sent to thee, saying, Thou shalt deliver to me thy silver, and thy gold, and thy wives, and thy children;

- 6 But I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, to make a search through your house and the houses of your people, and everything which is pleasing in your eyes they will take away in their hands.
but I will send my servants to you tomorrow about this time, and they shall search your house, and the houses of your servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in your eyes, they shall put it in their hand, and take it away.
Yet I will send my servants to thee to-morrow about this time, and they shall search thy house, and the houses of thy servants; and it shall be, that whatever is pleasant in thy eyes, they shall take it in their hand, and carry it away.
- 7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the responsible men of the land, and said, Now will you take note and see the evil purpose of this man: he sent for my wives and my children, my silver and my gold, and I did not keep them back.
Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Please notice how this man seeks mischief: for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold; and I didn't deny him.
Then the king of Israel called all the elders of the land, and said, Mark, I pray you, and see how this man seeketh mischief: for he sent to me for my wives, and for my children, and for my silver, and for my gold, and I denied him not.
- 8 And all the responsible men and the people said to him, Do not give attention to him or do what he says.
All the elders and all the people said to him, Don't you listen, neither consent.
And all the elders and all the people said to him, Hearken not to him, nor consent.
- 9 So he said to the representatives of Ben-hadad, Say to my lord the king, All the orders you sent the first time I will do; but this thing I may not do. And the representatives went back with this answer.
Therefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that you did send for to your servant at the first I will do; but this thing I may not do. The messengers departed, and brought him word again.
Wherefore he said to the messengers of Ben-hadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou didst send for to thy servant at the first, I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought him word again.
- 10 Then Ben-hadad sent to him, saying, May the gods' punishment be on me if there is enough of the dust of Samaria for all the people at my feet to take some in their hands.
Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people who follow me.
And Ben-hadad sent to him, and said, The gods do so to me, and more also, if the dust of Samaria shall suffice for handfuls for all the people that follow me.

- 11 And the king of Israel said in answer, Say to him, The time for loud talk is not when a man is putting on his arms, but when he is taking them off.
The king of Israel answered, Tell him, Don't let him who girds on [his armor] boast himself as he who puts it off.
And the king of Israel answered and said, Tell him, Let not him that girdeth on his harness boast himself as he that putteth it off.
- 12 Now when this answer was given to Ben-hadad, he was drinking with the kings in the tents, and he said to his men, Take up your positions. So they put themselves in position for attacking the town.
It happened, when [Ben-hadad] heard this message, as he was drinking, he and the kings, in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, Set [yourselves in array]. They set [themselves in array] against the city.
And it came to pass, when Ben-hadad heard this message as he was drinking, he and the kings in the pavilions, that he said to his servants, Set yourselves in array. And they set themselves in array against the city.
- 13 Then a prophet came up to Ahab, king of Israel, and said, The Lord says, Have you seen all this great army? See, I will give it into your hands today, and you will see that I am the Lord.
Behold, a prophet came near to Ahab king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Have you seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into your hand this day; and you shall know that I am Yahweh.
And behold, there came a prophet to Ahab king of Israel, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou seen all this great multitude? behold, I will deliver it into thy hand this day; and thou shalt know that I am the LORD.
- 14 And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, The Lord says, By the servants of the chiefs who are over the divisions of the land. Then he said, By whom is the fighting to be started? And he made answer, By you.
Ahab said, By whom? He said, Thus says Yahweh, By the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall begin the battle? He answered, You.
And Ahab said, By whom? And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Even by the young men of the princes of the provinces. Then he said, Who shall order the battle? And he answered, Thou.
- 15 Then he got together the servants of all the chiefs who were over the divisions of the land, two hundred and thirty-two of them; and after them, he got together all the people, all the children of Israel, seven thousand.
Then he mustered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty-two: and after them he mustered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.
Then he numbered the young men of the princes of the provinces, and they were two hundred and thirty two: and after them he numbered all the people, even all the children of Israel, being seven thousand.

- 16 And in the middle of the day they went out. But Ben-hadad was drinking in the tents with the thirty-two kings who were helping him.
They went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty-two kings who helped him.
And they went out at noon. But Ben-hadad was drinking himself drunk in the pavilions, he and the kings, the thirty and two kings that helped him.
- 17 And the servants of the chiefs who were over the divisions of the land went forward first; and when Ben-hadad sent out, they gave him the news, saying, Men have come out from Samaria.
The young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out from Samaria.
And the young men of the princes of the provinces went out first; and Ben-hadad sent out, and they told him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.
- 18 And he said, If they have come out for peace, take them living, and if they have come out for war, take them living.
He said, Whether they are come out for peace, take them alive, or whether they are come out for war, taken them alive.
And he said, Whether they have come out for peace, take them alive; or whether they have come out for war, take them alive.
- 19 So the servants of the chiefs of the divisions of the land went out of the town, with the army coming after them.
So these went out of the city, the young men of the princes of the provinces, and the army which followed them.
So these young men of the princes of the provinces came out of the city, and the army which followed them.
- 20 And every one of them put his man to death, and the Aramaeans went in flight with Israel after them; and Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got away safely on a horse with his horsemen.
They killed everyone his man; and the Syrians fled, and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with horsemen.
And they slew every one his man: and the Syrians fled; and Israel pursued them: and Ben-hadad the king of Syria escaped on a horse with the horsemen.
- 21 And the king of Israel went out and took the horses and the war-carriages, and made great destruction among the Aramaeans.
The king of Israel went out, and struck the horses and chariots, and killed the Syrians with a great slaughter.
And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and chariots, and slew the Syrians with a great slaughter.

- 22 Then the prophet came up to the king of Israel, and said to him, Now make yourself strong, and take care what you do, or a year from now the king of Aram will come up against you again.
The prophet came near to the king of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen yourself, and mark, and see what you do; for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against you.
And the prophet came to the king of Israel, and said to him, Go, strengthen thyself, and mark, and see what thou doest: for at the return of the year the king of Syria will come up against thee.
- 23 Then the king of Aram's servants said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; that is why they were stronger than we: but if we make an attack on them in the lowlands, we will certainly be stronger than they.
The servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their god is a god of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we: but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.
And the servants of the king of Syria said to him, Their gods are gods of the hills; therefore they were stronger than we; but let us fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they.
- 24 This is what you have to do: take away the kings from their positions, and put captains in their places;
Do this thing: take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their room;
And do this thing, Take the kings away, every man out of his place, and put captains in their rooms:
- 25 And get together another army like the one which came to destruction, horse for horse, and carriage for carriage; and let us make war on them in the lowlands, and certainly we will be stronger than they. And he gave ear to what they said, and did so.
and number you an army, like the army that you have lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot; and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. He listened to their voice, and did so.
And number thee an army, like the army that thou hast lost, horse for horse, and chariot for chariot: and we will fight against them in the plain, and surely we shall be stronger than they. And he hearkened to their voice, and did so.
- 26 So, a year later, Ben-hadad got the Aramaeans together and went up to Aphek to make war on Israel.
It happened at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad mustered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.
And it came to pass at the return of the year, that Ben-hadad numbered the Syrians, and went up to Aphek, to fight against Israel.

- 27 And the children of Israel got themselves together, and food was made ready and they went against them; the tents of the children of Israel were like two little flocks of goats before them, but all the country was full of the Aramaeans.
The children of Israel were mustered, and were provisioned, and went against them: and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.
And the children of Israel were numbered, and were all present, and went against them: and the children of Israel encamped before them like two little flocks of kids; but the Syrians filled the country.
- 28 And a man of God came up and said to the king of Israel, The Lord says, Because the Aramaeans have said, The Lord is a god of the hills and not of the valleys; I will give all this great army into your hands, and you will see that I am the Lord.
A man of God came near and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, Thus says Yahweh, Because the Syrians have said, Yahweh is a god of the hills, but he is not a god of the valleys; therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into your hand, and you shall know that I am Yahweh.
And there came a man of God, and spoke to the king of Israel, and said, Thus saith the LORD, Because the Syrians have said, The LORD is God of the hills, but he is not God of the valleys, therefore will I deliver all this great multitude into thy hand, and ye shall know that I am the LORD.
- 29 Now the two armies kept their positions facing one another for seven days. And on the seventh day the fight was started; and the children of Israel put to the sword a hundred thousand Aramaean footmen in one day.
They encamped one over against the other seven days. So it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined; and the children of Israel killed of the Syrians one hundred thousand footmen in one day.
And they encamped one over against the other seven days. And so it was, that in the seventh day the battle was joined: and the children of Israel slew of the Syrians a hundred thousand footmen in one day.
- 30 But the rest went in flight to Aphek, into the town, where a wall came down on the twenty-seven thousand who were still living. And Ben-hadad went in flight into the town, into an inner room.
But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and the wall fell on twenty-seven thousand men who were left. Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.
But the rest fled to Aphek, into the city; and there a wall fell upon twenty and seven thousand of the men that were left. And Ben-hadad fled, and came into the city, into an inner chamber.

- 31 Then his servants said to him, It is said that the kings of Israel are full of mercy: let us then put on haircloth, and cords on our heads, and go to the king of Israel; it may be that he will give you your life.
His servants said to him, See now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, we pray you, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes on our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: peradventure he will save your life.
And his servants said to him, Behold now, we have heard that the kings of the house of Israel are merciful kings: let us, I pray thee, put sackcloth on our loins, and ropes upon our heads, and go out to the king of Israel: it may be he will save thy life.
- 32 So they put on haircloth, and cords on their heads, and came to the king of Israel and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, Let me now keep my life. And he said, Is he still living? he is my brother.
So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and [put] ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Your servant Ben-hadad says, please let me live. He said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.
So they girded sackcloth on their loins, and put ropes on their heads, and came to the king of Israel, and said, Thy servant Ben-hadad saith, I pray thee, let me live. And he said, Is he yet alive? he is my brother.
- 33 Now the men took it as a sign, and quickly took up his words; and they said, Ben-hadad is your brother. Then he said, Go and get him. So Ben-hadad came out to him and he made him get up into his carriage.
Now the men observed diligently, and hurried to catch whether it were his mind; and they said, Your brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go you, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.
Now the men diligently observed whether any thing would come from him, and did hastily catch it: and they said, Thy brother Ben-hadad. Then he said, Go ye, bring him. Then Ben-hadad came forth to him; and he caused him to come up into the chariot.
- 34 And Ben-hadad said to him, The towns my father took from your father I will give back; and you may make streets for yourself in Damascus as my father did in Samaria. And as for me, at the price of this agreement you will let me go. So he made an agreement with him and let him go.
[Ben-hadad] said to him, The cities which my father took from your father I will restore; and you shall make streets for you in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. I, [said Ahab], will let you go with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and let him go.
And Ben-hadad said to him, The cities, which my father took from thy father, I will restore; and thou shalt make streets for thee in Damascus, as my father made in Samaria. Then said Ahab, I will send thee away with this covenant. So he made a covenant with him, and sent him away.

- 35 And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbour by the word of the Lord, Give me a wound. But the man would not.
A certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his fellow by the word of Yahweh, Please strike me. The man refused to strike him.
And a certain man of the sons of the prophets said to his neighbor in the word of the LORD, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man refused to smite him.
- 36 Then he said to him, Because you have not given ear to the voice of the Lord, straight away when you have gone from me a lion will put you to death. And when he had gone, straight away a lion came rushing at him and put him to death.
Then said he to him, Because you have not obeyed the voice of Yahweh, behold, as soon as you are departed from me, a lion shall kill you. As soon as he was departed from him, a lion found him, and killed him.
Then said he to him, Because thou hast not obeyed the voice of the LORD, behold, as soon as thou hast departed from me, a lion will slay thee. And as soon as he had departed from him, a lion found him, and slew him.
- 37 Then he came across another man, and said, Give me a wound. And the man gave him a blow wounding him.
Then he found another man, and said, Please strike me. The man struck him, smiting and wounding him.
Then he found another man, and said, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.
- 38 So the prophet went away, and pulling his head-band over his eyes to keep his face covered, took his place by the road waiting for the king.
So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with his headband over his eyes.
So the prophet departed, and waited for the king by the way, and disguised himself with ashes upon his face.
- 39 And when the king went by, crying out to him he said, Your servant went out into the fight; and a man came out to me with another man and said, Keep this man: if by any chance he gets away, your life will be the price of his life, or you will have to give a talent of silver in payment.
As the king passed by, he cried to the king; and he said, Your servant went out into the midst of the battle; and, behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he be missing, then shall your life be for his life, or else you shall pay a talent of silver.
And as the king passed by, he cried to the king: and he said, Thy servant went out into the midst of the battle; and behold, a man turned aside, and brought a man to me, and said, Keep this man: if by any means he shall be missing, then shall thy life be for his life, or else thou shalt pay a talent of silver.

- 40 But while your servant was turning this way and that, he was gone. Then the king of Israel said to him, You are responsible; you have given the decision against yourself.
As your servant was busy here and there, he was gone. The king of Israel said to him, So shall your judgment be; yourself have decided it.
And as thy servant was busy here and there, he was gone. And the king of Israel said to him, So shall thy judgment be; thyself hast decided it.
- 41 Then he quickly took the head-band from his eyes; and the king of Israel saw that he was one of the prophets.
He hurried, and took the headband away from his eyes; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.
And he hastened, and took the ashes away from his face; and the king of Israel discerned him that he was of the prophets.
- 42 And he said to him, These are the words of the Lord: Because you have let go from your hands the man whom I had put to the curse, your life will be taken for his life, and your people for his people.
He said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have let go out of your hand the man whom I had devoted to destruction, therefore your life shall go for his life, and your people for his people.
And he said to him, Thus saith the LORD, Because thou hast let go out of thy hand a man whom I appointed to utter destruction, therefore thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.
- 43 Then the king of Israel went back to his house, bitter and angry, and came to Samaria.
The king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.
And the king of Israel went to his house heavy and displeased, and came to Samaria.
- 1 Now Naboth the Jezreelite had a vine-garden in Jezreel, near the house of Ahab, king of Samaria.
It happened after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.
And it came to pass after these things, that Naboth the Jezreelite had a vineyard, which was in Jezreel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.

- 2 And Ahab said to Naboth, Give me your vine-garden so that I may have it for a garden of sweet plants, for it is near my house; and let me give you a better vine-garden in exchange, or, if it seems good to you, let me give you its value in money.
Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me your vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house; and I will give you for it a better vineyard than it: or, if it seem good to you, I will give you the worth of it in money.
And Ahab spoke to Naboth, saying, Give me thy vineyard, that I may have it for a garden of herbs, because it is near to my house: and I will give thee for it a better vineyard than it; or if it seemeth good to thee, I will give thee the worth of it in money.
- 3 But Naboth said to Ahab, By the Lord, far be it from me to give you the heritage of my fathers.
Naboth said to Ahab, Yahweh forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to you.
And Naboth said to Ahab, The LORD forbid it me, that I should give the inheritance of my fathers to thee.
- 4 So Ahab came into his house bitter and angry because Naboth the Jezreelite had said to him, I will not give you the heritage of my fathers. And stretching himself on the bed with his face turned away, he would take no food.
Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him; for he had said, I will not give you the inheritance of my fathers. He laid him down on his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.
And Ahab came into his house heavy and displeased, because of the word which Naboth the Jezreelite had spoken to him: for he had said, I will not give thee the inheritance of my fathers. And he laid himself down upon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eat no bread.
- 5 But Jezebel, his wife, came to him and said, Why is your spirit so bitter that you have no desire for food?
But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, Why is your spirit so sad, that you eat no bread?
But Jezebel his wife came to him, and said to him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?
- 6 And he said to her, Because I was talking to Naboth the Jezreelite, and I said to him, Let me have your vine-garden for a price, or, if it is pleasing to you, I will give you another vine-garden for it: and he said, I will not give you my vine-garden.
He said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me your vineyard for money; or else, if it please you, I will give you [another] vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give you my vineyard.
And he said to her, Because I spoke to Naboth the Jezreelite, and said to him, Give me thy vineyard for money; or else, if it pleaseth thee, I will give thee another vineyard for it: and he answered, I will not give thee my vineyard.

- 7 Then Jezebel, his wife, said, Are you now the ruler of Israel? Get up, take food, and let your heart be glad; I will give you the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite.
Jezebel his wife said to him, Do you now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let your heart be merry: I will give you the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.
And Jezebel his wife said to him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thy heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 8 So she sent a letter in Ahab's name, stamped with his stamp, to the responsible men and the chiefs who were in authority with Naboth.
So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles who were in his city, [and] who lived with Naboth.
So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters to the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.
- 9 And in the letter she said, Let a time of public sorrow be fixed, and put Naboth at the head of the people;
She wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:
And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:
- 10 And get two good-for-nothing persons to come before him and give witness that he has been cursing God and the king. Then take him out and have him stoned to death.
and set two men, base fellows, before him, and let them testify against him, saying, You did curse God and the king. Then carry him out, and stone him to death.
And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.
- 11 So the responsible men and the chiefs who were in authority in his town, did as Jezebel had said in the letter she sent them.
The men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who lived in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, according as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.
And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent to them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent to them.
- 12 They gave orders for a day of public sorrow, and put Naboth at the head of the people.
They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.
They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.

- 13 And the two good-for-nothing persons came in and took their seats before him and gave witness against Naboth, in front of the people, saying, Naboth has been cursing God and the king. Then they took him outside the town and had him stoned to death.
The two men, the base fellows, came in and sat before him: and the base fellows bore witness against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did curse God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him to death with stones.
And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth blasphemed God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.
- 14 And they sent word to Jezebel, saying, Naboth has been stoned and is dead.
Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
- 15 Then Jezebel, hearing that Naboth had been stoned and was dead, said to Ahab, Get up and take as your heritage the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he would not give you for money, for Naboth is no longer living but is dead.
It happened, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give you for money; for Naboth is not alive, but dead.
And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.
- 16 So Ahab, hearing that Naboth was dead, went down to the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite to take it as his heritage.
It happened, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab rose up to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.
And it came to pass, when Ahab heard that Naboth was dead, that Ahab arose to go down to the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, to take possession of it.
- 17 And the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

- 18 Go down to Ahab, king of Israel, in Samaria; see, he is in the vine-garden of Naboth the Jezreelite, where he has gone to take it as his heritage.
Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who dwells in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, where he is gone down to take possession of it.
Arise, go down to meet Ahab king of Israel, who is in Samaria: behold, he is in the vineyard of Naboth, whither he is gone down to possess it.
- 19 Say to him, The Lord says, Have you put a man to death and taken his heritage? Then say to him, The Lord says, In the place where dogs have been drinking the blood of Naboth, there will your blood become the drink of dogs.
You shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Yahweh, Have you killed and also taken possession? You shall speak to him, saying, Thus says Yahweh, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick your blood, even your.
And thou shalt speak to him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, Hast thou killed, and also taken possession? And thou shalt speak to him, saying, Thus saith the LORD, In the place where dogs licked the blood of Naboth shall dogs lick thy blood, even thine.
- 20 And Ahab said to Elijah, Have you come face to face with me, O my hater? And he said, I have come to you because you have given yourself up to do evil in the eyes of the Lord.
Ahab said to Elijah, Have you found me, my enemy? He answered, I have found you, because you have sold yourself to do that which is evil in the sight of Yahweh.
And Ahab said to Elijah, Hast thou found me, O my enemy? And he answered, I have found thee: because thou hast sold thyself to work evil in the sight of the LORD.
- 21 See, I will send evil on you and put an end to you completely, cutting off from Ahab every male child, him who is shut up and him who goes free in Israel;
Behold, I will bring evil on you, and will utterly sweep you away and will cut off from Ahab every man-child, and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel:
Behold, I will bring evil upon thee, and will take away thy posterity, and will cut off from Ahab the males, and him that is shut up and left in Israel,
- 22 And I will make your family like the family of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and like the family of Baasha, the son of Ahijah, because you have made me angry, and have made Israel do evil.
and I will make your house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah for the provocation with which you have provoked me to anger, and have made Israel to sin.
And will make thy house like the house of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, and like the house of Baasha the son of Ahijah, for the provocation with which thou hast provoked me to anger, and made Israel to sin.

- 23 And of Jezebel the Lord said, Jezebel will become food for dogs in the heritage of Jezreel.
Of Jezebel also spoke Yahweh, saying, The dogs shall eat Jezebel by the rampart of Jezreel.
And of Jezebel also spoke the LORD, saying, the dogs shall eat Jezebel by the wall of Jezreel.
- 24 Any man of the family of Ahab who comes to his death in the town will become food for the dogs; and he who comes to his death in the open country will be food for the birds of the air.
Him who dies of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him who dies in the field shall the birds of the sky eat.
Him that dieth of Ahab in the city the dogs shall eat; and him that dieth in the field shall the fowls of the air eat.
- 25 (There was no one like Ahab, who gave himself up to do evil in the eyes of the Lord, moved to it by Jezebel his wife.
(But there was none like Ahab, who did sell himself to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, whom Jezebel his wife stirred up.
But there was none like Ahab, who sold himself to work wickedness in the sight of the LORD, whom Jezebel his wife instigated.
- 26 He did a very disgusting thing in going after false gods, doing all the things the Amorites did, whom the Lord sent out before the children of Israel.)
He did very abominably in following idols, according to all that the Amorites did, whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel.)
And he did very abominably in following idols, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the LORD cast out before the children of Israel.
- 27 Hearing these words, Ahab, in great grief, put haircloth on his flesh and went without food, sleeping in haircloth, and going about quietly.
It happened, when Ahab heard those words, that he tore his clothes, and put sackcloth on his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.
And it came to pass, when Ahab heard those words, that he rent his clothes, and put sackcloth upon his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth, and went softly.
- 28 Then the word of the Lord came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
The word of Yahweh came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,
And the word of the LORD came to Elijah the Tishbite, saying,

- 29 Do you see how Ahab has made himself low before me? because he has made himself low before me, I will not send the evil in his life-time, but in his son's time I will send the evil on his family.
See you how Ahab humbles himself before me? because he humbles himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days; but in his son`s days will I bring the evil on his house.
Seest thou how Ahab humbleth himself before me? because he humbleth himself before me, I will not bring the evil in his days: but in his son`s days will I bring the evil upon his house.
- 1 Now for three years there was no war between Aram and Israel.
They continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
And they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.
- 2 And it came about in the third year, that Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, came down to the king of Israel.
It happened in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.
And it came to pass in the third year, that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah came down to the king of Israel.
- 3 And the king of Israel said to his servants, Do you not see that Ramoth-gilead is ours? and we are doing nothing to get it back from the hands of the king of Aram.
The king of Israel said to his servants, "You know that Ramoth-gilead is ours, and we are still, and don` t take it out of the hand of the king of Syria?"
And the king of Israel said to his servants, Know ye that Ramoth in Gilead is ours, and we are still, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?
- 4 And he said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to Ramoth-gilead to make war? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are: my people as your people, my horses as your horses.
He said to Jehoshaphat, Will you go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.
And he said to Jehoshaphat, Wilt thou go with me to battle to Ramoth-gilead? And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.
- 5 Then Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Let us now get directions from the Lord.
Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Please inquire first for the word of Yahweh.
And Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, Inquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to-day.

- 6 So the king of Israel got all the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Am I to go to Ramoth-gilead to make war or not? And they said, Go up: for the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
Then the king of Israel gathered the prophets together, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? They said, Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.
Then the king of Israel assembled the prophets, about four hundred men, and said to them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up; for the Lord will deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 7 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there no other prophet of the Lord here from whom we may get directions?
But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh besides, that we may inquire of him?
And Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD besides, that we may inquire of him?
- 8 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is still one man by whom we may get directions from the Lord, Micaiah, son of Imlah; but I have no love for him, for he is a prophet of evil to me and not of good. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, there is yet one man by whom we may inquire of Yahweh, Micaiah the son of Imlah: but I hate him; for he does not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. Jehoshaphat said, "Don't let the king say so."
And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man, Micaiah the son of Imlah, by whom we may inquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he doth not prophesy good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, Let not the king say so.
- 9 Then the king of Israel sent for one of his unsexed servants and said, Go quickly and come back with Micaiah, the son of Imlah.
Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Get quickly Micaiah the son of Imlah.
Then the king of Israel called an officer, and said, Hasten hither Micaiah the son of Imlah.
- 10 Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, were seated on their seats of authority, dressed in their robes, by the doorway into Samaria; and all the prophets were acting as prophets before them.
Now the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah were sitting each on his throne, arrayed in their robes, in an open place at the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets were prophesying before them.
And the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah sat each on his throne, having put on their robes, in a void place in the entrance of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets prophesied before them.

- 11 And Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, made himself horns of iron and said, The Lord says, Pushing back the Aramaeans with these, you will put an end to them completely.
Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron, and said, Thus says Yahweh, With these shall you push the Syrians, until they be consumed.
And Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah made him horns of iron: and he said, Thus saith the LORD, With these shalt thou push the Syrians, until thou hast consumed them.
- 12 And all the prophets said the same thing, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and it will go well for you, for the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
All the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper; for Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.
And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD will deliver it into the king's hand.
- 13 Now the servant who had gone to get Micaiah said to him, See now, all the prophets with one voice are saying good things to the king; so let your words be like theirs and say good things.
The messenger who went to call Micaiah spoke to him, saying, See now, the words of the prophets [declare] good to the king with one mouth: please let your word be like the word of one of them, and speak you good.
And the messenger that went to call Micaiah, spoke to him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good to the king with one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.
- 14 And Micaiah said, By the living Lord, whatever the Lord says to me I will say.
Micaiah said, As Yahweh lives, what Yahweh says to me, that will I speak.
And Micaiah said, As the LORD liveth, what the LORD saith to me, that will I speak.
- 15 When he came to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, are we to go to Ramoth-gilead to make war or not? And in answer he said, Go up, and it will go well for you; and the Lord will give it into the hands of the king.
When he was come to the king, the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? He answered him, Go up and prosper; and Yahweh will deliver it into the hand of the king.
So he came to the king. And the king said to him, Micaiah, shall we go against Ramoth-gilead to battle, or shall we forbear? And he answered him, Go, and prosper: for the LORD will deliver it into the hand of the king.
- 16 Then the king said to him, Have I not, again and again, put you on your oath to say nothing to me but what is true in the name of the Lord?
The king said to him, How many times shall I adjure you that you speak to me nothing but the truth in the name of Yahweh?
And the king said to him, How many times shall I adjure thee that thou tell me nothing but that which is true in the name of the LORD?

- 17 Then he said, I saw all Israel wandering on the mountains like sheep without a keeper; and the Lord said, These have no master: let them go back, every man to his house in peace.
He said, I saw all Israel scattered on the mountains, as sheep that have no shepherd: and Yahweh said, These have no master; let them return every man to his house in peace.
And he said, I saw all Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master: let them return every man to his house in peace.
- 18 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not say that he would not be a prophet of good but of evil?
The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Didn't I tell you that he would not prophesy good concerning me, but evil?
And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophesy no good concerning me, but evil?
- 19 And he said, Give ear now to the word of the Lord: I saw the Lord seated on his seat of power, with all the army of heaven in their places round him at his right hand and at his left.
[Micaiah] said, Therefore hear you the word of Yahweh: I saw Yahweh sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
And he said, Hear thou therefore the word of the LORD: I saw the LORD sitting on his throne, and all the host of heaven standing by him on his right hand and on his left.
- 20 And the Lord said, How may Ahab be tricked into going up to Ramoth-gilead to his death? And one said one thing and one another.
Yahweh said, Who shall entice Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? One said on this manner; and another said on that manner.
And the LORD said, Who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one said in this manner, and another said in that manner.
- 21 Then a spirit came forward and took his place before the Lord and said, I will get him to do it by a trick.
There came forth a spirit, and stood before Yahweh, and said, I will entice him.
And there came forth a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will persuade him.
- 22 And the Lord said, How? And he said, I will go out and be a spirit of deceit in the mouth of all his prophets. And he said, Your trick will have its effect on him: go out and do so.
Yahweh said to him, `How?' He said, `I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.' He said, `You shall entice him, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.'
And the LORD said to him, With what? And he said, I will go forth, and I will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets? And he said, Thou shalt persuade him, and prevail also: go forth, and do so.

- 23 And now, see, the Lord has put a spirit of deceit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and the Lord has said evil against you.
Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you.
Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of all these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil concerning thee.
- 24 Then Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, came near and gave Micaiah a blow on the side of the face, saying, Where is the spirit of the Lord whose word is in you?
Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of Yahweh from me to speak to you?
But Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah went near, and smote Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of the LORD from me to speak to thee?
- 25 And Micaiah said, Truly, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room to keep yourself safe.
Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself.
And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.
- 26 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon, the ruler of the town, and to Joash, the king's son;
The king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;
And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;
- 27 And say, It is the king's order that this man is to be put in prison and given prison food till I come again in peace.
and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.
And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction, and with water of affliction, until I come in peace.
- 28 And Micaiah said, If you come back at all in peace, the Lord has not sent his word by me.
Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. He said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.
And Micaiah said, If thou shalt return at all in peace, the LORD hath not spoken by me. And he said, Harken, O people, every one of you.

29 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

30 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will make a change in my clothing, so that I do not seem to be the king, and will go into the fight; but do you put on your robes. So the king of Israel made a change in his dress and went into the fight.

The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. The king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and enter into the battle; but put thou on thy robes. And the king of Israel disguised himself, and went into the battle.

31 Now the king of Aram had given orders to the thirty-two captains of his war-carriages, saying, Make no attack on small or great, but only on the king of Israel.

Now the king of Syria had commanded the thirty-two captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

But the king of Syria commanded his thirty and two captains that had rule over his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.

32 So when the captains of the war-carriages saw Jehoshaphat, they said, Truly, this is the king of Israel; and turning against him, they came round him, but Jehoshaphat gave a cry.

It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel; and they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned aside to fight against him: and Jehoshaphat cried out.

And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.

34 And a certain man sent an arrow from his bow without thought of its direction, and gave the king of Israel a wound where his breastplate was joined to his clothing; so he said to the driver of his war-carriage, Go to one side and take me away out of the army, for I am badly wounded.

A certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor: why he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sore wounded.

And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: wherefore he said to the driver of his chariot, Turn thy hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.

- 35 But the fight became more violent while the day went on; and the king was supported in his war-carriage facing the Aramaeans, and the floor of the carriage was covered with the blood from his wound, and by evening he was dead.
The battle increased that day: and the king was stayed up in his chariot against the Syrians, and died at even; and the blood ran out of the wound into the bottom of the chariot.

- 36 And about sundown a cry went up from all parts of the army, saying, Let every man go back to his town and his country, for the king is dead.

And there went a proclamation throughout the host about the setting of the sun, saying, Every man to his city, and every man to his own country.

- 38 And the war-carriage was washed by the pool of Samaria, which was the bathing-place of the loose women, and the dogs were drinking his blood there, as the Lord had said.
They washed the chariot by the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood (now the prostitutes washed themselves [there]); according to the word of Yahweh which he spoke.
And one washed the chariot in the pool of Samaria; and the dogs licked up his blood; and they washed his armor; according to the word of the LORD which he spoke.

- 52 \22:51\Ahaziah, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria in the seventeenth year of the rule of Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, and he was king over Israel for two years.
He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, in which he made Israel to sin.
\22:51\Ahaziah the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria the seventeenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned two years over Israel.

53 \22:52\He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, going in the ways of his father and his mother, and in the ways of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, who made Israel do evil. He served Baal, and worshipped him, and provoked to anger Yahweh, the God of Israel, according to all that his father had done. \22:52\And he did evil in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin:

1 After the death of Ahab, Moab made itself free from the authority of Israel. Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab. Then Moab rebelled against Israel after the death of Ahab.

2 Now Ahaziah had a fall from the window of his room in Samaria, and was ill. And he sent men, and said to them, Put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, about the outcome of my disease, to see if I will get well or not. Ahaziah fell down through the lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover of this sickness. And Ahaziah fell down through a lattice in his upper chamber that was in Samaria, and was sick: and he sent messengers, and said to them, Go, inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, whether I shall recover from this disease.

3 But the angel of the Lord said to Elijah the Tishbite, Go now, and, meeting the men sent by the king of Samaria, say to them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you are going to get directions from Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? But the angel of Yahweh said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and tell them, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you go to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? But the angel of the LORD said to Elijah the Tishbite, Arise, go up to meet the messengers of the king of Samaria, and say to them, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that ye go to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron?

4 Give ear then to the words of the Lord: You will never again get down from the bed on to which you have gone up, but death will certainly come to you. Then Elijah went away. Now therefore thus says Yahweh, You shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die. Elijah departed. Now therefore thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die. And Elijah departed.

5 And the men he had sent came back to the king; and he said to them, Why have you come back?

The messengers returned to him, and he said to them, Why is it that you have returned?

And when the messengers turned back to him, he said to them, Why have ye now returned?

6 And they said to him, On our way we had a meeting with a man who said, Go back to the king who sent you and say to him, The Lord says, Is it because there is no God in Israel that you send to put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? For this reason, you will not come down from the bed on to which you have gone up, but death will certainly come to you.

They said to him, There came up a man to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the king who sent you, and tell him, Thus says Yahweh, Is it because there is no God in Israel, that you send to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die.

And they said to him, There came up a man to meet us, and said to us, Go, turn again to the king that sent you, and say to him, Thus saith the LORD, Is it not because there is not a God in Israel, that thou sendest to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron? therefore thou shalt not come down from that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.

7 And he said to them, What sort of a man was it who came and said these words to you?

He said to them, What manner of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?

And he said to them, What manner of man was he who came up to meet you, and told you these words?

8 And they said in answer, He was a man clothed in a coat of hair, with a leather band about his body. Then he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

They answered him, He was a hairy man, and girt with a belt of leather about his loins. He said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

And they answered him, He was a hairy man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loins. And he said, It is Elijah the Tishbite.

9 Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty men; and he went up to him where he was seated on the top of a hill, and said to him, O man of God, the king has said, Come down.

Then [the king] sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. He went up to him: and, behold, he was sitting on the top of the hill. He spoke to him, man of God, the king has said, Come down.

Then the king sent to him a captain of fifty with his fifty. And he went up to him: and behold, he sat on the top of a hill. And he spoke to him, Thou man of God, the king hath said, Come down.

- 10 And Elijah in answer said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven on you and on your fifty men, and put an end to you. Then fire came down from heaven and put an end to him and his fifty men.
Elijah answered to the captain of fifty, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. Fire came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.
And Elijah answered and said to the captain of fifty, If I am a man of God, then let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And there came down fire from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.
- 11 Then the king sent another captain of fifty with his fifty men; and he said to Elijah, O man of God, the king says, Come down quickly.
Again he sent to him another captain of fifty and his fifty. He answered him, man of God, thus has the king said, Come down quickly.
Again also he sent to him another captain of fifty with his fifty. And he answered and said to him, O man of God, thus hath the king said, Come down quickly.
- 12 And Elijah in answer said, If I am a man of God, may fire come down from heaven on you and on your fifty men, and put an end to you. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and put an end to him and his fifty men.
Elijah answered them, If I be a man of God, let fire come down from the sky, and consume you and your fifty. The fire of God came down from the sky, and consumed him and his fifty.
And Elijah answered and said to them, If I am a man of God, let fire come down from heaven, and consume thee and thy fifty. And the fire of God came down from heaven, and consumed him and his fifty.
- 13 Then he sent a third captain of fifty with his fifty men; and the third captain of fifty went up, and falling on his knees before Elijah, requesting mercy of him, said, O man of God, let my life and the life of these your fifty servants be of value to you.
Again he sent the captain of a third fifty with his fifty. The third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and begged him, and said to him, man of God, please let my life, and the life of these fifty your servants, be precious in your sight.
And he sent again a captain of the third fifty with his fifty. And the third captain of fifty went up, and came and fell on his knees before Elijah, and besought him, and said to him, O man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of these fifty thy servants, be precious in thy sight.
- 14 For fire came down from heaven and put an end to the first two captains of fifty and their fifties; but now let my life be of value in your eyes.
Behold, fire came down from the sky, and consumed the two former captains of fifty with their fifties; but now let my life be precious in your sight.
Behold, there came fire down from heaven, and burnt up the two captains of the former fifties with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy sight.

- 15 Then the angel of the Lord said to Elijah, Go down with him; have no fear of him. So he got up and went down with him to the king.
The angel of Yahweh said to Elijah, Go down with him: don't be afraid of him. He arose, and went down with him to the king.
And the angel of the LORD said to Elijah, Go down with him: be not afraid of him. And he arose, and went down with him to the king.
- 16 And he said to him, This is the word of the Lord: Because you sent men to put a question to Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, for this reason you will never again get down from the bed on to which you have gone up, but death will certainly come to you.
He said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Because you have sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub, the god of Ekron, is it because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore you shall not come down from the bed where you are gone up, but shall surely die.
And he said to him, Thus saith the LORD, Forasmuch as thou hast sent messengers to inquire of Baal-zebub the god of Ekron, is it not because there is no God in Israel to inquire of his word? therefore thou shalt not come down off that bed on which thou art gone up, but shalt surely die.
- 17 So death came to him, as the Lord had said by the mouth of Elijah. And Jehoram became king in his place in the second year of the rule of Jehoram, son of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah; because he had no son.
So he died according to the word of Yahweh which Elijah had spoken. Jehoram began to reign in his place in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.
So he died according to the word of the LORD which Elijah had spoken. And Jehoram reigned in his stead in the second year of Jehoram the son of Jehoshaphat king of Judah; because he had no son.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Ahaziah which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 1 Now when the Lord was about to take Elijah up to heaven in a great wind, Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.
It happened, when Yahweh would take up Elijah by a whirlwind into heaven, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.
And it came to pass, when the LORD would take up Elijah into heaven by a whirlwind, that Elijah went with Elisha from Gilgal.

- 2 And Elijah said to Elisha, Come no farther for the Lord has sent me to Beth-el. But Elisha said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went down to Beth-el.
Elijah said to Elisha, Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me as far as Bethel. Elisha said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they went down to Bethel.
And Elijah said to Elisha, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Beth-el. And Elisha said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they went down to Beth-el.
- 3 And at Beth-el the sons of the prophets came out to Elisha and said, Has it been made clear to you that the Lord is going to take away your master from over you today? And he said, Yes, I have knowledge of it: say no more.
The sons of the prophets who were at Bethel came forth to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?" He said, "Yes, I know it; hold your peace."
And the sons of the prophets that were at Beth-el came forth to Elisha, and said to him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to-day? And he said, Yes, I know it; hold ye your peace.
- 4 Then Elijah said to him, Come no farther, for the Lord has sent me to Jericho. But he said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went on to Jericho.
Elijah said to him, Elisha, please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to Jericho. He said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. So they came to Jericho.
And Elijah said to him, Elisha, tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jericho. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. So they came to Jericho.
- 5 And at Jericho the sons of the prophets came up to Elisha and said to him, Has it been made clear to you that the Lord is going to take away your master from over you today? And he said in answer, Yes, I have knowledge of it: say no more.
The sons of the prophets who were at Jericho came near to Elisha, and said to him, "Do you know that Yahweh will take away your master from your head today?" He answered, "Yes, I know it. Hold your peace."
And the sons of the prophets that were at Jericho came to Elisha, and said to him, Knowest thou that the LORD will take away thy master from thy head to-day? And he answered, Yes, I know it; hold ye your peace.
- 6 Then Elijah said to him, Come no farther, for the Lord has sent me to Jordan. But he said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not be parted from you. So they went on together.
Elijah said to him, "Please wait here, for Yahweh has sent me to the Jordan." He said, "As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you." They two went on.
And Elijah said to him, Tarry here, I pray thee; for the LORD hath sent me to Jordan. And he said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And they two went on.

- 7 And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went out and took their places facing them a long way off, while the two of them were by the edge of Jordan.
Fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood over against them afar off: and they two stood by the Jordan.
And fifty men of the sons of the prophets went, and stood to view afar off: and they two stood by Jordan.
- 8 Then Elijah took off his robe, and, rolling it up, gave the water a blow with it, and the waters were parted, flowing back this way and that, so that they went over on dry land.
Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and struck the waters, and they were divided here and there, so that they two went over on dry ground.
And Elijah took his mantle, and wrapped it together, and smote the waters, and they were divided hither and thither, so that they two went over on dry ground.
- 9 And when they had come to the other side, Elijah said to Elisha, Say what you would have me do for you before I am taken from you. And Elisha said, Be pleased to let a special measure of your spirit be on me.
It happened, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for you, before I am taken from you. Elisha said, please let a double portion of your spirit be on me.
And it came to pass, when they had gone over, that Elijah said to Elisha, Ask what I shall do for thee, before I am taken away from thee. And Elisha said, I pray thee, let a double portion of thy spirit be upon me.
- 10 And he said, You have made a hard request: still, if you see me when I am taken from you, you will get your desire; but if not, it will not be so.
He said, You have asked a hard thing: [nevertheless], if you see me when I am taken from you, it shall be so to you; but if not, it shall not be so.
And he said, Thou hast asked a hard thing: nevertheless, if thou shalt see me when I am taken from thee, it shall be so to thee; but if not, it shall not be so.
- 11 And while they went on their way, going on talking together, suddenly there were carriages and horses of fire separating them from one another and Elijah went up to heaven in a great wind.
It happened, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, [there appeared] a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, which parted them both apart; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.
And it came to pass, as they still went on, and talked, that behold, there appeared a chariot of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both asunder; and Elijah went up by a whirlwind into heaven.

- 12 And when Elisha saw it he gave a cry, My father, my father, the carriages of Israel and its horsemen! And he saw him no longer; and he was full of grief.
Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it! He saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and tore them in two pieces.
And Elisha saw it, and he cried, My father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he saw him no more: and he took hold of his own clothes, and rent them in two pieces.
- 13 Then he took up Elijah's robe, which had been dropped from him, and went back till he came to the edge of Jordan.
He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of the Jordan.
He took up also the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and went back, and stood by the bank of Jordan;
- 14 And he took Elijah's robe, which had been dropped from him, and giving the water a blow with it, said, Where is the Lord, the God of Elijah? and at his blow the waters were parted this way and that; and Elisha went over.
He took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and struck the waters, and said, Where is Yahweh, the God of Elijah? and when he also had struck the waters, they were divided here and there; and Elisha went over.
And he took the mantle of Elijah that fell from him, and smote the waters, and said, Where is the LORD God of Elijah? And when he also had smitten the waters, they parted hither and thither: and Elisha went over.
- 15 And when the sons of the prophets who were facing him at Jericho saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah is resting on Elisha. And they came out to him, and went down on the earth before him.
When the sons of the prophets who were at Jericho over against him saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah does rest on Elisha. They came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.
And when the sons of the prophets who were to view at Jericho, saw him, they said, The spirit of Elijah doth rest on Elisha. And they came to meet him, and bowed themselves to the ground before him.
- 16 And they said, Your servants have with us here fifty strong men; be pleased to let them go in search of Elijah; for it may be that the spirit of the Lord has taken him up and put him down on some mountain or in some valley. But he said, Do not send them.
They said to him, See now, there are with your servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray you, and seek your master, lest the Spirit of Yahweh has taken him up, and cast him on some mountain, or into some valley. He said, You shall not send.
And they said to him, Behold now, there are with thy servants fifty strong men; let them go, we pray thee, and seek thy master: lest perhaps the Spirit of the LORD hath taken him up, and cast him upon some mountain, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shall not send.

17 But when they kept on requesting him, he was shamed and said, Send, then. So they sent fifty men; but after searching for three days, they came back without having seen him.
When they urged him until he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but didn't find him.

And when they urged him till he was ashamed, he said, Send. They sent therefore fifty men; and they sought three days, but found him not.

18 And they came back to him, while he was still at Jericho; and he said to them, Did I not say to you, Go not?

They came back to him, while he stayed at Jericho; and he said to them, "Didn't I tell you, 'Don't go?'"

And when they came again to him, (for he tarried at Jericho,) he said to them, Did I not say to you, Go not?

19 Now the men of the town said to Elisha, You see that the position of this town is good; but the water is bad, causing the young of the cattle to come to birth dead.

The men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, we pray you, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord sees: but the water is bad, and the land miscarries.

And the men of the city said to Elisha, Behold, I pray thee, the situation of this city is pleasant, as my lord seeth: but the water is bad, and the ground barren.

20 So he said, Get me a new vessel, and put salt in it; and they took it to him.

He said, Bring me a new jar, and put salt therein. They brought it to him.

And he said, Bring me a new cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 Then he went out to the spring from which the water came, and put salt in it, and said, The Lord says, Now I have made this water sweet; no longer will it be death-giving or unfertile.

He went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast salt therein, and said, Thus says Yahweh, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from there any more death or miscarrying.

And he went forth to the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in there, and said, Thus saith the LORD, I have healed these waters; there shall not be from thence any more death or barren land.

22 And the water was made sweet again to this day, as Elisha said.

So the waters were healed to this day, according to the word of Elisha which he spoke.

So the waters were healed to this day, according to the saying of Elisha which he spoke.

- 23 Then from there he went up to Beth-el; and on his way, some little boys came out from the town and made sport of him, crying, Go up, old no-hair! go up, old no-hair!
He went up from there to Bethel; and as he was going up by the way, there came forth young lads out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, you baldy; go up, you baldhead.
And he went up from thence to Beth-el: and as he was going up by the way, there came forth little children out of the city, and mocked him, and said to him, Go up, thou bald-head; go up, thou bald-head.
- 24 And turning back, he saw them, and put a curse on them in the name of the Lord. And two she-bears came out of the wood and put forty-two of the children to death.
He looked behind him and saw them, and cursed them in the name of Yahweh. There came forth two she-bears out of the wood, and mauled forty-two lads of them.
And he turned back, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the LORD. And there came forth two she bears out of the wood, and tore forty and two children of them.
- 25 From there he went to Mount Carmel, and came back from there to Samaria.
He went from there to Mount Carmel, and from there he returned to Samaria.
And he went from thence to mount Carmel, and from thence he returned to Samaria.
- 1 And Jehoram, the son of Ahab, became king over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of the rule of Jehoshaphat, king of Judah; and he was king for twelve years.
Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.
Now Jehoram the son of Ahab began to reign over Israel in Samaria in the eighteenth year of Jehoshaphat king of Judah, and reigned twelve years.
- 2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord; but not like his father and his mother, for he put away the stone pillar of Baal which his father had made.
He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, but not like his father, and like his mother; for he put away the pillar of Baal that his father had made.
And he wrought evil in the sight of the LORD; but not like his father, and like his mother: for he put away the image of Baal that his father had made.
- 3 But still he did the same sins which Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, did and made Israel do; he went on in them.
Nevertheless he cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart therefrom.
Nevertheless, he cleaved to the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

4 Now Mesha, king of Moab, was a sheep-farmer; and he gave regularly to the king of Israel the wool from a hundred thousand lambs and a hundred thousand sheep.
Now Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master; and he rendered to the king of Israel the wool of one hundred thousand lambs, and of one hundred thousand rams.

And Mesha king of Moab was a sheep-master, and rendered to the king of Israel a hundred thousand lambs, and a hundred thousand rams, with the wool.

5 But when Ahab was dead, the king of Moab got free from the authority of the king of Israel.

But it happened, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

But it came to pass, when Ahab was dead, that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 At that time, King Jehoram went out from Samaria and got all Israel together in fighting order.

King Jehoram went out of Samaria at that time, and mustered all Israel.

And king Jehoram went out of Samaria the same time, and numbered all Israel.

7 And he sent to Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has got free from my authority: will you go with me to make war on Moab? And he said, I will go with you: I am as you are, my people as your people, and my horses as your horses.

He went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab has rebelled against me: will you go with me against Moab to battle? He said, I will go up: I am as you are, my people as your people, my horses as your horses.

And he went and sent to Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against me: wilt thou go with me against Moab to battle? And he said, I will go: I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.

8 And he said, Which way are we to go? And he said in answer, By the waste land of Edom.

He said, Which way shall we go up? He answered, The way of the wilderness of Edom.

And he said, which way shall we go up? And he answered, The way through the wilderness of Edom.

9 So the king of Israel went with the king of Judah and the king of Edom by a roundabout way for seven days: and there was no water for the army or for the beasts they had with them.

So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom; and they made a circuit of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the host, nor for the animals that followed them.

So the king of Israel went, and the king of Judah, and the king of Edom: and they fetched a compass of seven days' journey: and there was no water for the army, and for the cattle that followed them.

- 10 And the king of Israel said, Here is trouble: for the Lord has got these three kings together to give them into the hands of Moab.
The king of Israel said, Alas! for Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
And the king of Israel said, Alas! that the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab!
- 11 But Jehoshaphat said, Is there no prophet of the Lord here, through whom we may get directions from the Lord? And one of the king of Israel's men said in answer, Elisha, the son of Shaphat, is here, who was servant to Elijah.
But Jehoshaphat said, Isn't there here a prophet of Yahweh, that we may inquire of Yahweh by him? One of the king of Israel's servants answered, Elisha the son of Shaphat is here, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.
But Jehoshaphat said, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD, that we may inquire of the LORD by him? And one of the king of Israel's servants answered and said, Here is Elisha the son of Shaphat, who poured water on the hands of Elijah.
- 12 And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the Lord is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
Jehoshaphat said, The word of Yahweh is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
And Jehoshaphat said, The word of the LORD is with him. So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat and the king of Edom went down to him.
- 13 But Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? go to the prophets of your father and your mother. And the king of Israel said, No; for the Lord has got these three kings together to give them up into the hands of Moab.
Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with you? get you to the prophets of your father, and to the prophets of your mother. The king of Israel said to him, No; for Yahweh has called these three kings together to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
And Elisha said to the king of Israel, What have I to do with thee? go to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel said to him, No: for the LORD hath called these three kings together, to deliver them into the hand of Moab.
- 14 Then Elisha said, By the life of the Lord of armies whose servant I am, if it was not for the respect I have for Jehoshaphat, king of Judah, I would not give a look at you, or see you.
Elisha said, As Yahweh of Hosts lives, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look toward you, nor see you.
And Elisha said, As the LORD of hosts liveth, before whom I stand, surely, were it not that I regard the presence of Jehoshaphat the king of Judah, I would not look towards thee, nor see thee.

- 15 But now, get me a player of music, and it will come about that while the man is playing, the hand of the Lord will come on me and I will give you the word of the Lord: and they got a player of music, and while the man was playing, the hand of the Lord was on him.
But now bring me a minstrel. It happened, when the minstrel played, that the hand of Yahweh came on him.
But now bring me a minstrel. And it came to pass, when the minstrel played, that the hand of the LORD came upon him.
- 16 And he said, The Lord says, I will make this valley full of water-holes.
He said, Thus says Yahweh, Make this valley full of trenches.
And he said, Thus saith the LORD, Make this valley full of ditches.
- 17 For the Lord says, Though you see no wind or rain, the valley will be full of water, and you and your armies and your beasts will have drink.
For thus says Yahweh, You shall not see wind, neither shall you see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, and you shall drink, both you and your cattle and your animals.
For thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not see wind, neither shall ye see rain; yet that valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drink, both ye, and your cattle, and your beasts.
- 18 And this will be only a small thing to the Lord: in addition he will give the Moabites into your hands.
This is but a light thing in the sight of Yahweh: he will also deliver the Moabites into your hand.
And this is but a light thing in the sight of the LORD: he will deliver the Moabites also into your hand.
- 19 And you are to put every walled town to destruction, cutting down every good tree, and stopping up every water-spring, and making all the good land rough with stones.
You shall strike every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all springs of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.
And ye shall smite every fortified city, and every choice city, and shall fell every good tree, and stop all wells of water, and mar every good piece of land with stones.

- 20 Now in the morning, about the time when the offering was made, they saw water flowing from the direction of Edom till the country was full of water.
It happened in the morning, about the time of offering the offering, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.
And it came to pass in the morning, when the meat-offering was offered, that behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the country was filled with water.

- 21 Now all Moab, hearing that the kings had come to make war against them, got together all who were able to take up arms and went forward to the edge of the country.
Now when all the Moabites heard that the kings had come up to fight against them, they gathered themselves together, all who were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood on the border.
And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come up to fight against them, they gathered all that were able to put on armor, and upward, and stood in the border.
- 22 And early in the morning they got up, when the sun was shining on the water, and they saw the water facing them as red as blood.
They rose up early in the morning, and the sun shone on the water, and the Moabites saw the water over against them as red as blood:
And they rose early in the morning, and the sun shone upon the water, and the Moabites saw the water on the other side as red as blood:
- 23 Then they said, This is blood: it is clear that destruction has come on the kings; they have been fighting one another: now come, Moab, let us take their goods.
and they said, This is blood; the kings are surely destroyed, and they have struck each man his fellow: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.
And they said, This is blood: the kings are surely slain, and they have smitten one another: now therefore, Moab, to the spoil.
- 24 But when they came to the tents of Israel, the Israelites came out and made a violent attack on the Moabites, so that they went in flight before them; and they went forward still attacking them;
When they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose up and struck the Moabites, so that they fled before them; and they went forward into the land smiting the Moabites.
And when they came to the camp of Israel, the Israelites rose and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they went forward smiting the Moabites, even in their country.
- 25 Pulling down the towns, covering every good field with stones, stopping up all the water-springs, and cutting down all the good trees; they went on driving Moab before them till only in Kir-hareseth were there any Moabites; and the fighting-men went round the town raining stones on it.
They beat down the cities; and on every good piece of land they cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the springs of water, and felled all the good trees, until in Kir-hareseth [only] they left the stones of it; however the men armed with slings went about it, and struck it.
And they beat down the cities, and on every good piece of land cast every man his stone, and filled it; and they stopped all the wells of water, and felled all the good trees: only in Kirhara-seth they left the stones of it; but the slingers went about it, and smote it.

- 26 And when the king of Moab saw that the fight was going against him, he took with him seven hundred men armed with swords, with the idea of forcing a way through to the king of Aram, but they were not able to do so.
When the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men who drew sword, to break through to the king of Edom; but they could not.
And when the king of Moab saw that the battle was too severe for him, he took with him seven hundred men that drew swords, to break through to the king of Edom: but they could not.
- 27 Then he took his oldest son, who would have been king after him, offering him as a burned offering on the wall. So there was great wrath against Israel; and they went away from him, back to their country.
Then he took his eldest son who would have reigned in his place, and offered him for a burnt offering on the wall. There was great wrath against Israel: and they departed from him, and returned to their own land.
Then he took his eldest son that was to reign in his stead, and offered him for a burnt-offering upon the wall. And there was great indignation against Israel: And they departed from him, and returned to their own land.
- 1 Now a certain woman, the wife of one of the sons of the prophets, came crying to Elisha and said, Your servant my husband is dead; and to your knowledge he was a worshipper of the Lord; but now, the creditor has come to take my two children as servants in payment of his debt.
Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Your servant my husband is dead; and you know that your servant did fear Yahweh: and the creditor is come to take to him my two children to be bondservants.
Now there cried a certain woman of the wives of the sons of the prophets to Elisha, saying, Thy servant my husband is dead; and thou knowest that thy servant feared the LORD: and the creditor hath come to take to him my two sons to be bond-men.
- 2 Then Elisha said to her, What am I to do for you? say now, what have you in the house? And she said, Your servant has nothing in the house but a pot of oil.
Elisha said to her, What shall I do for you? tell me; what have you in the house? She said, Your handmaid has nothing in the house, except a pot of oil.
And Elisha said to her, What shall I do for thee? tell me, what hast thou in the house? And she said, Thy handmaid hath not any thing in the house, save a pot of oil.
- 3 Then he said, Go out to all your neighbours and get vessels, a very great number of them.
Then he said, Go, borrow you vessels abroad of all your neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.
Then he said, Go, borrow thee vessels abroad of all thy neighbors, even empty vessels; borrow not a few.

- 4 Then go in, and, shutting the door on yourself and your sons, put oil into all these vessels, putting on one side the full ones.
You shall go in, and shut the door on you and on your sons, and pour out into all those vessels; and you shall set aside that which is full.
And when thou hast come in, thou shalt shut the door upon thee and upon thy sons, and shalt pour out into all those vessels, and thou shalt set aside that which is full.
- 5 So she went away, and when the door was shut on her and her sons, they took the vessels to her and she put oil into them.
So she went from him, and shut the door on her and on her sons; they brought [the vessels] to her, and she poured out.
So she went from him, and shut the door upon her and upon her sons, who brought the vessels to her; and she poured out.
- 6 And when all the vessels were full, she said to her son, Get me another vessel. And he said, There are no more. And the flow of oil was stopped.
It happened, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, Bring me yet a vessel. He said to her, There isn't another vessel. The oil stayed.
And it came to pass, when the vessels were full, that she said to her son, Bring me yet a vessel. And he said to her, There is not a vessel more. And the oil stayed.
- 7 So she came to the man of God and gave him word of what she had done. And he said, Go and get money for the oil and make payment of your debt, and let the rest be for the needs of yourself and your sons.
Then she came and told the man of God. He said, Go, sell the oil, and pay your debt, and live you and your sons of the rest.
Then she came and told the man of God. And he said, Go, sell the oil, and pay thy debt, and live thou and thy children on the remainder.
- 8 Now there came a day when Elisha went to Shunem, and there was a woman of high position living there, who made him come in and have a meal with her. And after that, every time he went by, he went into her house for a meal.
It fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a great woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. So it was, that as often as he passed by, he turned in there to eat bread.
And it fell on a day, that Elisha passed to Shunem, where was a distinguished woman; and she constrained him to eat bread. And so it was, that as oft as he passed by, he turned in thither to eat bread.
- 9 And she said to her husband, Now I see that this is a holy man of God, who comes by day after day.
She said to her husband, See now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, that passes by us continually.
And she said to her husband, Behold now, I perceive that this is a holy man of God, who passeth by us continually.

- 10 So let us make a little room on the wall; and put a bed there for him, and a table and a seat and a light; so that when he comes to us, he will be able to go in there.
Let us make, Please, a little chamber on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a seat, and a lamp stand: and it shall be, when he comes to us, that he shall turn in there.
Let us make a little chamber, I pray thee, on the wall; and let us set for him there a bed, and a table, and a stool, and a candlestick: and it shall be, when he cometh to us, that he shall turn in thither.
- 11 Now one day, when he had gone there, he went into the little room and took his rest there.
It fell on a day, that he came there, and he turned into the chamber and lay there.
And it fell on a day, that he came thither, and he turned into the chamber, and lay there.
- 12 And he said to Gehazi, his servant, Send for this Shunammite. So in answer to his voice she came before him.
He said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunammite. When he had called her, she stood before him.
And he said to Gehazi his servant, Call this Shunamite. And when he had called her, she stood before him.
- 13 And he said to him, Now say to her, See, you have taken all this trouble for us; what is to be done for you? will you have any request made for you to the king or the captain of the army? But she said, I am living among my people.
He said to him, Say now to her, Behold, you have been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for you? would you be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? She answered, I dwell among my own people.
And he said to him, Say now to her, Behold, thou hast been careful for us with all this care; what is to be done for thee? wouldst thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captain of the host? And she answered, I dwell among my own people.
- 14 So he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi made answer, Still there is this, she has no son and her husband is old.
He said, What then is to be done for her? Gehazi answered, Most assuredly she has no son, and her husband is old.
And he said, What then is to be done for her? And Gehazi answered, Verily she hath no child, and her husband is old.
- 15 Then he said, Send for her. And in answer to his voice she took her place at the door.
He said, Call her. When he had called her, she stood in the door.
And he said, Call her. And when he had called her, she stood in the door.

- 16 And Elisha said, At this time in the coming year you will have a son in your arms. And she said, No, my lord, O man of God, do not say what is false to your servant.
He said, At this season, when the time comes round, you shall embrace a son. She said, No, my lord, you man of God, do not lie to your handmaid.
And he said, About this season, according to the time of life, thou shalt embrace a son. And she said, No, my lord, thou man of God, do not lie to thy handmaid.
- 17 Then the woman became with child and gave birth to a son at the time named, in the year after, as Elisha had said to her.
The woman conceived, and bore a son at that season, when the time came round, as Elisha had said to her.
And the woman conceived, and bore a son at that season that Elisha had said to her, according to the time of life.
- 18 Now one day, when the child was older, he went out to his father to where the grain was being cut.
When the child was grown, it fell on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.
And when the child was grown, it happened on a day, that he went out to his father to the reapers.
- 19 And he said to his father, My head, my head! And the father said to a servant, Take him in to his mother.
He said to his father, My head, my head. He said to his servant, Carry him to his mother.
And he said to his father, My head, my head. And he said to a lad, Carry him to his mother.
- 20 And he took him in to his mother, and she took him on her knees and kept him there till the middle of the day, when his life went from him.
When he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees until noon, and then died.
And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, he sat on her knees till noon, and then died.
- 21 Then she went up and put him on the bed of the man of God, shutting the door on him, and went out.
She went up and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the door] on him, and went out.
And she went up, and laid him on the bed of the man of God, and shut the door upon him, and went out.

- 22 And she said to her husband, Send me one of the servants and one of the asses so that I may go quickly to the man of God and come back again.
She called to her husband, and said, Please send me one of the servants, and one of the donkeys, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.
And she called to her husband, and said, Send me, I pray thee, one of the young men, and one of the asses, that I may run to the man of God, and come again.
- 23 And he said, Why are you going to him today? it is not a new moon or a Sabbath. But she said, It is well.
He said, Why will you go to him today? it is neither new moon nor Sabbath. She said, It shall be well.
And he said, Why wilt thou go to him to-day? it is neither new-moon, nor sabbath. And she said, It shall be well.
- 24 Then she made the ass ready and said to her servant, Keep driving on; do not make a stop without orders from me.
Then she saddled a donkey, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; don't slacken me the riding, except I bid you.
Then she saddled an ass, and said to her servant, Drive, and go forward; slack not thy riding for me, except I bid thee.
- 25 So she went, and came to Mount Carmel, to the man of God. And when the man of God saw her coming in his direction, he said to Gehazi, his servant, See, there is the Shunammite;
So she went, and came to the man of God to Mount Carmel. It happened, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is the Shunammite:
So she went and came to the man of God to mount Carmel. And it came to pass, when the man of God saw her afar off, that he said to Gehazi his servant, Behold, yonder is that Shunamite:
- 26 Go quickly to her, and on meeting her say to her, Are you well? and your husband and the child, are they well? And she said in answer, All is well.
please run now to meet her, and ask her, Is it well with you? is it well with your husband? is it well with the child? She answered, It is well.
Run now, I pray thee, to meet her, and say to her, Is it well with thee? Is it well with thy husband? Is it well with the child? and she answered, It is well.

27 And when she came to where the man of God was on the hill, she put her hands round his feet; and Gehazi came near with the purpose of pushing her away; but the man of God said, Let her be, for her soul is bitter in her; and the Lord has kept it secret from me, and has not given me word of it.
When she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught hold of his feet. Gehazi came near to thrust her away; but the man of God said, Let her alone: for her soul is vexed within her; and Yahweh has hid it from me, and has not told me.
And when she came to the man of God to the hill, she caught him by the feet: but Gehazi came near to thrust her away. And the man of God said, Let her alone; for her soul is sorrowful within her: and the LORD hath hid it from me, and hath not told me?

28 Then she said, Did I make a request to my lord for a son? did I not say, Do not give me false words?
Then she said, Did I desire a son of my lord? Didn't I say, Do not deceive me?
Then she said, Did I ask a son from my lord? did I not say, Do not deceive me.

29 Then he said to Gehazi, Make yourself ready, and take my stick in your hand, and go: if you come across anyone on the way, give him no blessing, and if anyone gives you a blessing, give him no answer. And put my stick on the child's face.
Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up your loins, and take my staff in your hand, and go your way: if you meet any man, Don't greet him; and if anyone greets you, don't answer him again: and lay my staff on the face of the child.
Then he said to Gehazi, Gird up thy loins and take my staff in thy hand, and go thy way: and if thou shalt meet any man, salute him not; and if any shall salute thee, answer him not again: and lay my staff upon the face of the child.

30 But the mother of the child said, As the Lord is living and as your soul is living, I will not go back without you. So he got up and went with her.
The mother of the child said, As Yahweh lives, and as your soul lives, I will not leave you. He arose, and followed her.
And the mother of the child said, As the LORD liveth, and as thy soul liveth, I will not leave thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 And Gehazi went on before them and put the stick on the child's face; but there was no voice, and no one gave attention. So he went back, and meeting him gave him the news, saying, The child is not awake.
Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff on the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Why he returned to meet him, and told him, saying, The child has not awakened.
And Gehazi passed on before them, and laid the staff upon the face of the child; but there was neither voice, nor hearing. Wherefore he went again to meet him, and told him, saying, The child is not awaked.

32 And when Elisha came into the house he saw the child dead, stretched on his bed.

When Elisha was come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid on his bed.

And when Elisha had come into the house, behold, the child was dead, and laid upon his bed.

33 So he went in, and shutting the door on the two of them, made prayer to the Lord.

He went in therefore, and shut the door on them both, and prayed to Yahweh.

He went in therefore, and shut the door upon them both, and prayed to the LORD.

34 Then he got up on the bed, stretching himself out on the child, and put his mouth on the child's mouth, his eyes on his eyes and his hands on his hands; and the child's body became warm.

He went up, and lay on the child, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes on his eyes, and his hands on his hands: and he stretched himself on him; and the flesh of the child grew warm.

And he went up, and lay upon the child, and put his mouth upon his mouth, and his eyes upon his eyes, and his hands upon his hands: and he stretched himself upon the child; and the flesh of the child became warm.

35 Then he came back, and after walking once through the house and back, he went up, stretching himself out on the child seven times; and the child's eyes became open.

Then he returned, and walked in the house once back and forth; and went up, and stretched himself on him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

Then he returned, and walked in the house to and fro; and went up, and stretched himself upon him: and the child sneezed seven times, and the child opened his eyes.

36 And he gave orders to Gehazi, and said, Send for the Shunammite. And she came in answer to his voice. And he said, Take up your son.

He called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunammite. So he called her. When she was come in to him, he said, Take up your son.

And he called Gehazi, and said, Call this Shunamite. So he called her. And when she had come in to him, he said, Take up thy son.

37 And she came in, and went down on her face to the earth at his feet; then she took her son in her arms and went out.

Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground; and she took up her son, and went out.

Then she went in, and fell at his feet, and bowed herself to the ground, and took up her son, and went out.

- 38 And Elisha went back to Gilgal, now there was very little food in the land; and the sons of the prophets were seated before him. And he said to his servant, Put the great pot on the fire, and make soup for the sons of the prophets.
Elisha came again to Gilgal. There was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him; and he said to his servant, Set on the great pot, and boil stew for the sons of the prophets.
And Elisha came again to Gilgal. And there was a dearth in the land; and the sons of the prophets were sitting before him: and he said to his servant, Set on the great pot, and boil pottage for the sons of the prophets.
- 39 And one went out into the field to get green plants and saw a vine of the field, and pulling off the fruit of it till the fold of his robe was full, he came back and put the fruit, cut up small, into the pot of soup, having no idea what it was.
One went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered of it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of stew; for they didn't recognize them.
And one went out into the field to gather herbs, and found a wild vine, and gathered from it wild gourds his lap full, and came and shred them into the pot of pottage: for they knew them not.
- 40 Then they gave the men soup from the pot. And while they were drinking the soup, they gave a cry, and said, O man of God, there is death in the pot; and they were not able to take any more food.
So they poured out for the men to eat. It happened, as they were eating of the stew, that they cried out, and said, man of God, there is death in the pot. They could not eat of it.
So they poured out for the men to eat. And it came to pass, as they were eating of the pottage, that they cried out, and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eat of it.
- 41 But he said, Get some meal. And he put it into the pot, and said, Now give it to the people so that they may have food. And there was nothing bad in the pot.
But he said, Then bring meal. He cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. There was no harm in the pot.
But he said, Then bring meal. And he cast it into the pot; and he said, Pour out for the people, that they may eat. And there was no harm in the pot.
- 42 Now a man came from Baal-shalishah with an offering of first-fruits for the man of God, twenty barley cakes and garden fruit in his bag. And he said, Give these to the people for food.
There came a man from Baal-shalishah, and brought the man of God bread of the first-fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and fresh ears of grain in his sack. He said, Give to the people, that they may eat.
And there came a man from Baal-shalisha, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruits, twenty loaves of barley, and full ears of corn in its husk. And he said, Give to the people, that they may eat.

43 But his servant said, How am I to put this before a hundred men? But he said, Give it to the people for food; for the Lord says, There will be food for them and some over.
His servant said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? But he said, Give the people, that they may eat; for thus says Yahweh, They shall eat, and shall leave of it.

And his servitor said, What, should I set this before a hundred men? He said again, Give the people, that they may eat: for thus saith the LORD, They shall eat, and shall leave of it.

44 So he put it before them, and they had a meal and there was more than enough, as the Lord had said.
So he set it before them, and they ate, and left of it, according to the word of Yahweh.

So he set it before them, and they ate, and left of it, according to the word of the LORD.

1 Now Naaman, chief of the army of the king of Aram, was a man of high position with his master, and greatly respected, because by him the Lord had given salvation to Aram; but he was a leper.

Now Naaman, captain of the host of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him Yahweh had given victory to Syria: he was also a mighty man of valor, [but he was] a leper.

Now Naaman, captain of the army of the king of Syria, was a great man with his master, and honorable, because by him the LORD had given deliverance to Syria: he was also a mighty man in valor, but he was a leper.

2 Now the Aramaeans had gone out in bands, and taken prisoner from Israel a little girl, who became servant to Naaman's wife.

The Syrians had gone out in bands, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maiden; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

And the Syrians had gone out by companies, and had brought away captive out of the land of Israel a little maid; and she waited on Naaman's wife.

3 And she said to her master's wife, If only my lord would go to the prophet in Samaria, he would make him well.

She said to her mistress, Would that my lord were with the prophet who is in Samaria! then would he recover him of his leprosy.

And she said to her mistress, I would that my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria! for he would recover him of his leprosy.

4 And someone went and said to his lord, This is what the girl from the land of Israel says.

One went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maiden who is of the land of Israel.

And one went in, and told his lord, saying, Thus and thus said the maid that is of the land of Israel.

- 5 So the king of Aram said, Go then; and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he went, taking with him ten talents of silver and six thousand shekels of gold, and ten changes of clothing. The king of Syria said, Go now, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. He departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand [pieces] of gold, and ten changes of clothing.
And the king of Syria said, Come, go, and I will send a letter to the king of Israel. And he departed, and took with him ten talents of silver, and six thousand pieces of gold, and ten changes of raiment.
- 6 And he took the letter to the king of Israel, in which the king of Aram had said, See, I have sent my servant Naaman to you to be made well, for he is a leper. He brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter is come to you, behold, I have sent Naaman my servant to you, that you may recover him of his leprosy.
And he brought the letter to the king of Israel, saying, Now when this letter hath come to thee, behold, I have with this sent Naaman my servant to thee, that thou mayest recover him of his leprosy.
- 7 But the king of Israel, after reading the letter, was greatly troubled and said, Am I God, to give death and life? why does this man send a leper to me to be made well? is it not clear that he is looking for a cause of war?
It happened, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he tore his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man does send to me to recover a man of his leprosy? but consider, I pray you, and see how he seeks a quarrel against me.
And it came to pass, when the king of Israel had read the letter, that he rent his clothes, and said, Am I God, to kill and to make alive, that this man doth send to me to recover a man of his leprosy? wherefore consider, I pray you, and see how he seeketh a quarrel against me.
- 8 Now Elisha, the man of God, hearing that the king of Israel had done this, sent to the king, saying, Why are you troubled? send the man to me, so that he may see that there is a prophet in Israel.
It was so, when Elisha the man of God heard that the king of Israel had torn his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Why have you torn your clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.
And it was so, when Elisha the man of God had heard that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, that he sent to the king, saying, Why hast thou rent thy clothes? let him come now to me, and he shall know that there is a prophet in Israel.
- 9 So Naaman, with all his horses and his carriages, came to the door of Elisha's house.
So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariots, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.
So Naaman came with his horses and with his chariot, and stood at the door of the house of Elisha.

- 10 And Elisha sent a servant to him, saying, Go to Jordan, and after washing seven times in its waters your flesh will be well again and you will be clean.
Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in the Jordan seven times, and your flesh shall come again to you, and you shall be clean.
And Elisha sent a messenger to him, saying, Go and wash in Jordan seven times, and thy flesh shall come again to thee, and thou shalt be clean.
- 11 But Naaman was angry and went away and said, I had the idea that he would come out to see such an important person as I am, and make prayer to the Lord his God, and with a wave of his hand over the place make the leper well.
But Naaman was angry, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of Yahweh his God, and wave his hand over the place, and recover the leper.
But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and said, Behold, I thought, He will surely come out to me, and stand, and call on the name of the LORD his God, and strike his hand over the place, and recover the leper.
- 12 Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not be washed in them and become clean? So turning, he went away in wrath.
Aren't Abanah and Pharpar, the rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.
Are not Abana and Pharpar, rivers of Damascus, better than all the waters of Israel? may I not wash in them, and be clean? So he turned and went away in a rage.
- 13 Then his servants came to him and said, If the prophet had given you orders to do some great thing, would you not have done it? how much more then, when he says to you, Be washed and become clean?
His servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid you do some great thing, wouldn't you have done it? how much rather then, when he says to you, Wash, and be clean?
And his servants came near, and spoke to him, and said, My father, if the prophet had bid thee do some great thing, wouldst thou not have done it? how much rather then, when he saith to thee, Wash, and be clean?
- 14 Then he went down seven times into the waters of Jordan, as the man of God had said; and his flesh became like the flesh of a little child again, and he was clean.
Then went he down, and dipped [himself] seven times in the Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God; and his flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.
Then he went down, and dipped himself seven times in Jordan, according to the saying of the man of God: and his flesh came again like the flesh of a little child, and he was clean.

- 15 Then he went back to the man of God, with all his train, and, taking his place before him, said, Now I am certain that there is no God in all the earth, but only in Israel: now then, take an offering from me.
He returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came, and stood before him; and he said, See now, I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, please take a present from your servant.
And he returned to the man of God, he and all his company, and came and stood before him: and he said, Behold, now I know that there is no God in all the earth, but in Israel: now therefore, I pray thee, take a blessing from thy servant.
- 16 But he said, By the life of the Lord whose servant I am, I will take nothing from you. And he did his best to make him take it but he would not.
But he said, As Yahweh lives, before whom I stand, I will receive none. He urged him to take it; but he refused.
But he said, As the LORD liveth, before whom I stand, I will receive none. And he urged him to take it; but he refused.
- 17 Then Naaman said, If you will not, then let there be given to your servant as much earth as two beasts are able to take on their backs; because from now on, your servant will make no offering or burned offering to other gods, but only to the Lord.
Naaman said, If not, yet, please let there be given to your servant two mules` burden of earth; for your servant will henceforth offer neither burnt offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to Yahweh.
And Naaman said, Shall there not then, I pray thee, be given to thy servant two mules burden of earth? for thy servant will henceforth offer neither burnt-offering nor sacrifice to other gods, but to the LORD.
- 18 But may your servant have the Lord's forgiveness for this one thing: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon for worship there, supported on my arm, and my head is bent in the house of Rimmon; when his head is bent in the house of Rimmon, may your servant have the Lord's forgiveness for this thing.
In this thing Yahweh pardon your servant: when my master goes into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leans on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, when I bow myself in the house of Rimmon, Yahweh pardon your servant in this thing.
In this thing the LORD pardon thy servant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon to worship there, and he leaneth on my hand, and I bow myself in the house of Rimmon: when I bow down myself in the house of Rimmon, the LORD pardon thy servant in this thing.
- 19 And he said to him, Go in peace. And he went from him some distance.
He said to him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.
And he said to him, Go in peace. So he departed from him a little way.

- 20 But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha, the man of God, said, Now my master has taken nothing from Naaman, this Aramaean, of what he would have given him: by the living Lord, I will go after him and get something from him.
But Gehazi the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master has spared this Naaman the Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: as Yahweh lives, I will run after him, and take somewhat of him.
But Gehazi, the servant of Elisha the man of God, said, Behold, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, in not receiving at his hands that which he brought: but as the LORD liveth, I will run after him, and take somewhat from him.
- 21 So Gehazi went after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he got down from his carriage and went back to him and said, Is all well?
So Gehazi followed after Naaman. When Naaman saw one running after him, he alighted from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?
So Gehazi followed after Naaman. And when Naaman saw him running after him, he lighted down from the chariot to meet him, and said, Is all well?
- 22 And he said, All is well: but my master has sent me, saying, Even now, two young men of the sons of the prophets have come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim; will you give me a talent of silver and two changes of clothing for them?
He said, All is well. My master has sent me, saying, Behold, even now there are come to me from the hill-country of Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets; please give them a talent of silver, and two changes of clothing.
And he said, All is well. My master hath sent me, saying, Behold, even now there have come to me from mount Ephraim two young men of the sons of the prophets: give them, I pray thee, a talent of silver, and two changes of garments.
- 23 And Naaman said, Be good enough to take two talents. And forcing him to take them, he put two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and gave them to his two servants to take before him.
Naaman said, Be pleased to take two talents. He urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of clothing, and laid them on two of his servants; and they bore them before him.
And Naaman said, Be content, take two talents. And he urged him, and bound two talents of silver in two bags, with two changes of garments, and laid them upon two of his servants; and they bore them before him.
- 24 When he came to the hill, he took them from their hands, and put them away in the house; and he sent the men away, and they went.
When he came to the hill, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house; and he let the men go, and they departed.
And when he came to the tower, he took them from their hand, and bestowed them in the house: and he let the men go, and they departed.

- 25 Then he came in and took his place before his master. And Elisha said to him, Where have you come from, Gehazi? And he said, Your servant went nowhere.
But he went in, and stood before his master. Elisha said to him, Whence come you, Gehazi? He said, Your servant went nowhere.
But he went in, and stood before his master: and Elisha said to him, Whence comest thou Gehazi? and he said, Thy servant went no whither.
- 26 And he said to him, Did not my heart go with you, when the man got down from his carriage and went back to you? Is this a time for getting money, and clothing, and olive-gardens and vine-gardens, and sheep and oxen, and men-servants and women-servants?
He said to him, Didn't my heart go with you, when the man turned from his chariot to meet you? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive groves and vineyards, and sheep and oxen, and men-servants and maid-servants?
And he said to him, Went not my heart with thee, when the man turned again from his chariot to meet thee? Is it a time to receive money, and to receive garments, and olive-yards, and vineyards, and sheep, and oxen, and men-servants, and maid-servants?
- 27 Because of what you have done, the disease of Naaman the leper will take you in its grip, and your seed after you, for ever. And he went out from before him a leper as white as snow.
The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to you, and to your seed forever. He went out from his presence a leper [as white] as snow.
The leprosy therefore of Naaman shall cleave to thee, and to thy seed for ever. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snow.
- 1 Now the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, There is not room enough for us in the place where we are living under your care;
The sons of the prophets said to Elisha, See now, the place where we dwell before you is too strait for us.
And the sons of the prophets said to Elisha, Behold now, the place where we dwell with thee is too narrow for us.
- 2 So let us go to Jordan, and let everyone get to work cutting boards, and we will make a living-place for ourselves there. And he said to them, Go, then.
Let us go, we pray you, to the Jordan, and take there every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell.
He answered, Go you.
Let us go, we pray thee, to Jordan, and take thence every man a beam, and let us make us a place there, where we may dwell. And he answered, Go ye.

- 3 And one of them said, Be pleased to go with your servants. And he said, I will go.
One said, Be pleased, I pray you, to go with your servants. He answered, I will go.
And one said, Be content, I pray thee, and go with thy servants. And he answered, I will go.
- 4 So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they got to work cutting down trees.
So he went with them. When they came to the Jordan, they cut down wood.
So he went with them. And when they came to Jordan, they cut down wood.
- 5 But one of them, while cutting a board, let the head of his axe go into the water; and he gave a cry, and said, This is a bad business, my master, for it is another's.
But as one was felling a beam, the ax-head fell into the water; and he cried, and said, Alas, my master! for it was borrowed.
But as one was felling a beam, the ax head fell into the water: and he cried, and said, Alas, master! for it was borrowed.
- 6 And the man of God said, Where did it go in? and when he saw the place where it had gone into the water, cutting a stick, he put it into the water, and the iron came up to the top of the water.
The man of God said, Where fell it? He showed him the place. He cut down a stick, and cast it in there, and made the iron to swim.
And the man of God said, Where fell it? And he showed him the place. And he cut down a stick, and cast it in thither; and the iron floated.
- 7 Then he said, Take it up. So he put out his hand and took it.
He said, Take it up to you. So he put out his hand, and took it.
Therefore said he, Take it up to thee. And he put out his hand, and took it.
- 8 At that time the king of Aram was making war against Israel; and he had a meeting with the chiefs of his army and said, I will be waiting in secret in some named place.
Now the king of Syria was warring against Israel; and he took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.
Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and took counsel with his servants, saying, In such and such a place shall be my camp.

- 9 And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Take care to keep away from that place, for the Aramaeans are waiting there in secret.
The man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that you not pass such a place; for there the Syrians are coming down.
And the man of God sent to the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou pass not such a place; for thither the Syrians have come down.
- 10 So the king of Israel sent to the place where the man of God had said there was danger, and kept clear of it more than once.
The king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of; and he saved himself there, not once nor twice.
And the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God told him and warned him of, and saved himself there, not once nor twice.
- 11 And at this, the mind of the king of Aram was greatly troubled, and he sent for his servants and said to them, Will you not make clear to me which of us is helping the king of Israel?
The heart of the king of Syria was sore troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them, Won't you show me which of us is for the king of Israel?
Therefore the heart of the king of Syria was greatly troubled for this thing; and he called his servants, and said to them, Will ye not show me which of us is for the king of Israel?
- 12 And one of them said, Not one of us, my lord king; but Elisha, the prophet in Israel, gives the king of Israel news of the words you say even in your bedroom.
One of his servants said, No, my lord, O king; but Elisha, the prophet who is in Israel, tells the king of Israel the words that you speak in your bedchamber.
And one of his servants said, None, my lord, O king: but Elisha, the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel the words that thou speakest in thy bed-chamber.
- 13 Then he said, Go and see where he is, so that I may send and get him. And news came to him that he was in Dothan.
He said, Go and see where he is, that I may send and get him. It was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.
And he said, Go, and spy where he is, that I may send and bring him. And it was told him, saying, Behold, he is in Dothan.
- 14 So he sent there horses and carriages and a great army; and they came by night, circling the town.
Therefore sent he there horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and surrounded the city.
Therefore he sent thither horses, and chariots, and a great host: and they came by night, and encompassed the city.

- 15 Now the servant of the man of God, having got up early and gone out, saw an army with horses and carriages of war all round the town. And the servant said to him, O my master, what are we to do?
When the servant of the man of God was risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host with horses and chariots was round about the city. His servant said to him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?
And when the servant of the man of God had risen early, and gone forth, behold, a host compassed the city both with horses and chariots. And his servant said to him, Alas, my master! how shall we do?
- 16 And he said in answer, Have no fear; those who are with us are more than those who are with them.
He answered, Don't be afraid; for those who are with us are more than those who are with them.
And he answered, Fear not: for they that are with us are more than they that are with them.
- 17 Then Elisha made a prayer to the Lord, saying, Lord, let his eyes be open so that he may see. And the Lord made the young man's eyes open; and he saw that all the mountain was full of horses and carriages of fire round Elisha.
Elisha prayed, and said, Yahweh, Please open his eyes, that he may see. Yahweh opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and, behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire round about Elisha.
And Elisha prayed, and said, LORD, I pray thee, open his eyes, that he may see. And the LORD opened the eyes of the young man; and he saw: and behold, the mountain was full of horses and chariots of fire around Elisha.
- 18 Now when the Aramaeans came down to Elisha, he made a prayer to the Lord saying, Lord, make this people blind. And he made them blind at Elisha's request.
When they came down to him, Elisha prayed to Yahweh, and said, Please smite this people with blindness. He struck them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
And when they came down to him, Elisha prayed to the LORD, and said, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindness. And he smote them with blindness according to the word of Elisha.
- 19 And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, and this is not the town: come after me so that I may take you to the man you are searching for. And he took them to Samaria.
Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom you seek. He led them to Samaria.
And Elisha said to them, This is not the way, neither is this the city: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whom ye seek. But he led them to Samaria.

- 20 And when they had come into Samaria, Elisha said, Lord, let the eyes of these men be open so that they may see. And the Lord made their eyes open, and they saw that they were in the middle of Samaria.
It happened, when they were come into Samaria, that Elisha said, Yahweh, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. Yahweh opened their eyes, and they saw; and, behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.
And it came to pass, when they had come into Samaria, that Elisha said, LORD, open the eyes of these men, that they may see. And the LORD opened their eyes, and they saw; and behold, they were in the midst of Samaria.
- 21 And the king of Israel, when he saw them, said to Elisha, My father, am I to put them to the sword?
The king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I strike them? shall I strike them?
And the king of Israel said to Elisha, when he saw them, My father, shall I smite them? shall I smite them?
- 22 But he said in answer, You are not to put them to death; have you any right to put to death those whom you have not taken prisoner with your sword and your bow? put bread and water before them, so that they may have food and drink and go to their master.
He answered, You shall not strike them: would you strike those whom you have taken captive with your sword and with your bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.
And he answered, Thou shalt not smite them: wouldst thou smite those whom thou hast taken captive with thy sword and with thy bow? set bread and water before them, that they may eat and drink, and go to their master.
- 23 So he made ready a great feast for them, and when they had had food and drink, he sent them away and they went back to their master. And no more bands of Aramaeans came into the land of Israel.
He prepared great provision for them; and when they had eaten and drunk, he sent them away, and they went to their master. The bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.
And he prepared great provision for them: and when they had eaten and drank, he sent them away, and they went to their master. So the bands of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.
- 24 Now after this, Ben-hadad, king of Aram, got together all his army and went up to make an attack on Samaria, shutting the town in on all sides with his forces.
It happened after this, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went up, and besieged Samaria.
And it came to pass after this, that Ben-hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up, and besieged Samaria.

- 25 And they became very short of food in Samaria; for they kept it shut in till the price of an ass's head was eighty shekels of silver, and a small measure of doves' droppings was five shekels of silver.
There was a great famine in Samaria: and, behold, they besieged it, until a donkey`s head was sold for eighty [pieces] of silver, and the fourth part of a kab of dove`s dung for five [pieces] of silver.
And there was a great famine in Samaria: and behold, they besieged it, until an ass's head was sold for eighty pieces of silver, and the fourth part of a cab of dove's dung for five pieces of silver.
- 26 And when the king of Israel was going by on the wall, a woman came crying out to him, and said, Help! my lord king.
As the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, there cried a woman to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.
And as the king of Israel was passing by upon the wall, there cried a woman to him, saying, Help, my lord, O king.
- 27 And he said, If the Lord does not give you help, where am I to get help for you? from the grain-floor or the grape-crusher?
He said, If Yahweh doesn`t help you, whence shall I help you? out of the threshing floor, or out of the winepress?
And he said, If the LORD doth not help thee, whence shall I help thee? out of the barn-floor, or out of the wine-press?
- 28 And the king said to her, What is troubling you? And she said in answer, This woman said to me, Give your son to be our food today, and we will have my son tomorrow.
The king said to her, What ails you? She answered, This woman said to me, Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.
And the king said to her, What aileth thee? and she answered, This woman said to me, Give thy son, that we may eat him to-day, and we will eat my son to-morrow.
- 29 So, boiling my son, we had a meal of him; and on the day after I said to her, Now give your son for our food; but she has put her son in a secret place.
So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, Give your son, that we may eat him; and she has hid her son.
So we boiled my son, and ate him: and I said to her on the next day, Give thy son, that we may eat him: and she hath hid her son.

- 30 Then the king, hearing what the woman said, took his robes in his hands, violently parting them; and, while he was walking on the wall, the people, looking, saw that under his robe he had haircloth on his flesh.
It happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes (now he was passing by on the wall); and the people looked, and, behold, he had sackcloth within on his flesh.
And it came to pass, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he rent his clothes; and he passed by upon the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had sackcloth within upon his flesh.
- 31 Then he said, May God's punishment come on me if Elisha, the son of Shaphat, keeps his head on his body after this day.
Then he said, God do so to me, and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.
Then he said, God do so and more also to me, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat shall stand on him this day.
- 32 But Elisha was in his house, and the responsible men were seated there with him; and before the king got there, Elisha said to those who were with him, Do you see how this cruel and violent man has sent to take away my life?
But Elisha was sitting in his house, and the elders were sitting with him; and [the king] sent a man from before him: but before the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See you how this son of a murderer has sent to take away my head? behold, when the messenger comes, shut the door, and hold the door fast against him: isn't the sound of his master's feet behind him?
But Elisha sat in his house, and the elders sat with him; and the king sent a man from before him: but ere the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, See ye how this son of a murderer hath sent to take away my head? look, when the messenger cometh, shut the door, and hold him fast at the door: is not the sound of his master's feet behind him?
- 33 While he was still talking to them, the king came down and said, This evil is from the Lord; why am I to go on waiting any longer for the Lord?
While he was yet talking with them, behold, the messenger came down to him: and he said, Behold, this evil is of Yahweh; why should I wait for Yahweh any longer?
And while he yet talked with them, behold, the messenger came down to him: and he said, Behold, this evil is from the LORD; what should I wait for the LORD any longer?
- 1 Then Elisha said, Give ear to the word of the Lord: the Lord says, Tomorrow, about this time, a measure of good meal will be offered for the price of a shekel and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the market-place of Samaria.
Elisha said, Hear you the word of Yahweh: thus says Yahweh, Tomorrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.
Then Elisha said, Hear ye the word of the LORD; Thus saith the LORD, To-morrow about this time shall a measure of fine flour be sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, in the gate of Samaria.

- 2 Then the captain whose arm was supporting the king said to the man of God, Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, would such a thing be possible? And he said, Your eyes will see it, but you will not have a taste of the food.
Then the captain on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might this thing be? He said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it.
Then a lord on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God, and said, Behold, if the LORD would make windows in heaven, might this thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thy eyes, but shalt not eat of it.
- 3 Now there were four lepers seated at the doorway into the town: and they said to one another, Why are we waiting here for death?
Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?
And there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate: and they said one to another, Why sit we here until we die?
- 4 If we say, We will go into the town, there is no food in the town, and we will come to our end there; and if we go on waiting here, death will come to us. Come then, let us give ourselves up to the army of Aram: if they let us go on living, then life will be ours; and if they put us to death, then death will be ours.
If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there; and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall to the host of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.
If we say, We will enter into the city, then the famine is in the city, and we shall die there: and if we sit still here, we die also. Now therefore come, and let us fall to the army of the Syrians: if they save us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall but die.
- 5 So in the half light they got up to go to the tents of Aram; but when they came to the outer line of tents, there was no one there.
They rose up in the twilight, to go to the camp of the Syrians; and when they were come to the outermost part of the camp of the Syrians, behold, there was no man there.
And they rose in the twilight to go to the camp of the Syrians: and when they had come to the uttermost part of the camp of Syria, behold, there was no man there.
- 6 For the Lord had made the sound of carriages and horses, and the noise of a great army, come to the ears of the Aramaeans, so that they said to one another, Truly, the king of Israel has got the kings of the Hittites and of the Egyptians for a price to make an attack on us.
For the Lord had made the host of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great host: and they said one to another, Behold, the king of Israel has hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come on us.
For the Lord had made the army of the Syrians to hear a noise of chariots, and a noise of horses, even the noise of a great army: and they said one to another, Lo, the king of Israel hath hired against us the kings of the Hittites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come upon us.

- 7 So they got up and went in flight, in the half light, without their tents or their horses or their asses or any of their goods; they went in flight, fearing for their lives.
Therefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their donkeys, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.
Wherefore they arose and fled in the twilight, and left their tents, and their horses, and their asses, even the camp as it was, and fled for their life.
- 8 And when those lepers came to the outer line of tents, they went into one tent, and had food and drink, and took from it silver and gold and clothing, which they put in a secret place; then they came back and went into another tent from which they took more goods, which they put away in a secret place.
When these lepers came to the outermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drink, and carried there silver, and gold, and clothing, and went and hid it; and they came back, and entered into another tent, and carried there also, and went and hid it.
And when these lepers came to the uttermost part of the camp, they went into one tent, and ate and drank, and carried thence silver, and gold, and raiment, and went and hid it; and came again, and entered into another tent, and carried thence also, and went and hid it.
- 9 Then they said to one another, We are not doing right. Today is a day of good news, and we say nothing: if we go on waiting here till the morning, punishment will come to us. So let us go and give the news to those of the king's house.
Then they said one to another, We aren't doing right. This day is a day of good news, and we hold our peace: if we wait until the morning light, punishment will overtake us; now therefore come, let us go and tell the king's household.
Then they said one to another, We do not well: this day is a day of good tidings, and we hold our peace: if we tarry till the morning light, some mischief will come upon us: now therefore come, that we may go and tell the king's household.
- 10 So they came in, and, crying out to the door-keepers of the town, they gave them the news, saying, We came to the tents of the Aramaeans, and there was no one there and no voice of man, only the horses and the asses in their places, and the tents as they were.
So they came and called to the porter of the city; and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and, behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but the horses tied, and the donkeys tied, and the tents as they were.
So they came and called to the porter of the city: and they told him, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.
- 11 Then the door-keepers, crying out, gave the news to those inside the king's house.
He called the porters; and they told it to the king's household within.
And he called the porters; and they told it to the king's house within.

- 12 Then the king got up in the night and said to his servants, This is my idea of what the Aramaeans have done to us. They have knowledge that we are without food; and so they have gone out of their tents, and are waiting secretly in the open country, saying, When they come out of the town, we will take them living and get into the town.
The king arose in the night, and said to his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore are they gone out of the camp to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.
And the king arose in the night, and said to his servants, I will now show you what the Syrians have done to us. They know that we are hungry; therefore they have gone out of the camp, to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall take them alive, and get into the city.
- 13 And one of his servants said in answer, Send men and let them take five of the horses which we still have in the town; if they keep their lives they will be the same as those of Israel who are still living here; if they come to their death they will be the same as all those of Israel who have gone to destruction: let us send and see.
One of his servants answered, Please let some take five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are left in it; behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel who are consumed); and let us send and see.
And one of his servants answered and said, Let some take, I pray thee, five of the horses that remain, which are left in the city, (behold, they are as all the multitude of Israel that are left in it: behold, I say, they are even as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed:) and let us send and see.
- 14 So they took two horsemen; and the king sent them after the army of the Aramaeans, saying, Go and see.
They took therefore two chariots with horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.
They took therefore two chariot horses; and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go and see.
- 15 And they went after them as far as Jordan; and all the road was covered with clothing and vessels dropped by the Aramaeans in their flight. So those who were sent went back and gave the news to the king.
They went after them to the Jordan: and, behold, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. The messengers returned, and told the king.
And they went after them to Jordan: and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste. And the messengers returned, and told the king.
- 16 Then the people went out and took the goods from the tents of the Aramaeans. So a measure of good meal was to be had for the price of a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, as the Lord had said.
The people went out, and plundered the camp of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was [sold] for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of Yahweh.
And the people went out, and plundered the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

- 17 And the king gave authority to that captain, on whose arm he was supported, to have control over the doorway into the town; but he was crushed to death there under the feet of the people, as the man of God had said when the king went down to him.
The king appointed the captain on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trod on him in the gate, and he died as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.
And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned to have the charge of the gate: and the people trod upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spoke when the king came down to him.
- 18 So the words of the man of God came true, which he said to the king: Two measures of barley will be offered for the price of a shekel and a measure of good meal for a shekel, tomorrow about this time in the market-place of Samaria.
It happened, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be tomorrow about this time in the gate of Samaria;
And it came to pass as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to-morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:
- 19 And that captain said to the man of God, Even if the Lord made windows in heaven, would such a thing be possible? And he said to him, Your eyes will see it, but you will not have a taste of the food.
and that captain answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if Yahweh should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? and he said, Behold, you shall see it with your eyes, but shall not eat of it:
And that lord answered the man of God, and said, Now, behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thy eyes, but shalt not eat of it.
- 20 And such was his fate; for he was crushed to death under the feet of the people, in the doorway into the town.
it happened even so to him; for the people trod on him in the gate, and he died.
And so it happened to him: for the people trod upon him in the gate, and he died.
- 1 Now Elisha had said to the woman whose son he had given back to life, Go now, with all the people of your house, and get a living-place for yourselves wherever you are able; for by the word of the Lord, there will be great need of food in the land; and this will go on for seven years.
Now Elisha had spoken to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go you and your household, and sojourn wherever you can sojourn: for Yahweh has called for a famine; and it shall also come on the land seven years.
Then Elisha spoke to the woman, whose son he had restored to life, saying, Arise, and go thou and thy household, and sojourn wherever thou canst sojourn: for the LORD hath called for a famine; and it shall also come upon the land seven years.

- 2 So the woman got up and did as the man of God said; and she and the people of her house were living in the land of the Philistines for seven years.
The woman arose, and did according to the word of the man of God; and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.
And the woman arose, and did according to the saying of the man of God: and she went with her household, and sojourned in the land of the Philistines seven years.
- 3 And when the seven years were ended, the woman came back from the land of the Philistines and went to the king with a request for her house and her land.
It happened at the seven years' end, that the woman returned out of the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry to the king for her house and for her land.
And it came to pass at the seven years' end, that the woman returned from the land of the Philistines: and she went forth to cry to the king for her house, and for her land.
- 4 Now the king was talking with Gehazi, the servant of the man of God, saying, Now, give me an account of all the great things Elisha has done.
Now the king was talking with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Please tell me all the great things that Elisha has done.
And the king talked with Gehazi the servant of the man of God, saying, Tell me, I pray thee, all the great things that Elisha hath done.
- 5 And while he was giving the king the story of how Elisha had given life to the dead, the woman whose son had come back to life came to the king with a request for her house and her land.
And Gehazi said, My lord king, this is the woman and this is her son, whose life Elisha gave back to him.
It happened, as he was telling the king how he had restored to life him who was dead, that behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.
And it came to pass, as he was telling the king how he had restored a dead body to life, that behold, the woman, whose son he had restored to life, cried to the king for her house and for her land. And Gehazi said, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her son, whom Elisha restored to life.
- 6 And in answer to the king's questions, the woman gave him all the story. So the king gave orders to one of his unsexed servants, saying, Give her back all her property, and all the produce of her fields from the day when she went away from the land up till now.
When the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land, even until now.
And when the king asked the woman, she told him. So the king appointed to her a certain officer, saying, Restore all that was hers, and all the fruits of the field since the day that she left the land even till now.

- 7 And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad, king of Aram, was ill; and they said to him, The man of God has come.
Elisha came to Damascus; and Benhadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told him, saying, The man of God is come here.
And Elisha came to Damascus; and Ben-hadad the king of Syria was sick; and it was told to him, saying, The man of God hath come hither.
- 8 Then the king said to Hazael, Take an offering with you, and go to see the man of God and get directions from the Lord by him, saying, Am I going to get better from my disease?
The king said to Hazael, Take a present in your hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of Yahweh by him, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness?
And the king said to Hazael, Take a present in thy hand, and go, meet the man of God, and inquire of the LORD by him, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?
- 9 So Hazael went to see him, taking with him forty camels with offerings on their backs of every sort of good thing from Damascus; and when he came before him, he said, Your son Ben-hadad, king of Aram, has sent me to you, saying, Will I get better from this disease?
So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels` burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Your son Benhadad king of Syria has sent me to you, saying, Shall I recover of this sickness?
So Hazael went to meet him, and took a present with him, even of every good thing of Damascus, forty camels burden, and came and stood before him, and said, Thy son Ben-hadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recover of this disease?
- 10 And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, You will certainly get better; but the Lord has made it clear to me that only death is before him.
Elisha said to him, Go, tell him, You shall surely recover; however Yahweh has showed me that he shall surely die.
And Elisha said to him, Go, say to him, Thou mayest certainly recover: but the LORD hath showed me, that he shall surely die.
- 11 And he kept his eyes fixed on him till he was shamed, and the man of God was overcome with weeping.
He settled his gaze steadfastly [on him], until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.
And he settled his countenance steadfastly, until he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

- 12 And Hazael said, Why is my lord weeping? Then he said in answer, Because I see the evil which you will do to the children of Israel: burning down their strong towns, putting their young men to death with the sword, smashing their little ones against the stones, and cutting open the women who are with child.
Hazael said, Why weeps my lord? He answered, Because I know the evil that you will do to the children of Israel: their strongholds will you set on fire, and their young men will you kill with the sword, and will dash in pieces their little ones, and rip up their women with child.
And Hazael said, Why weepeth my lord? And he answered, Because I know the evil that thou wilt do to the children of Israel: their strong holds wilt thou set on fire, and their young men wilt thou slay with the sword, and wilt dash their children, and rip up their women with child.
- 13 And Hazael said, How is it possible that your servant, who is only a dog, will do this great thing? And Elisha said, The Lord has made it clear to me that you will be king over Aram.
Hazael said, But what is your servant, who is but a dog, that he should do this great thing? Elisha answered, Yahweh has showed me that you shall be king over Syria.
And Hazael said, But what, is thy servant a dog, that he should do this great thing? And Elisha answered, The LORD hath shown me that thou wilt be king over Syria.
- 14 Then he went away from Elisha and came in to his master, who said to him, What did Elisha say to you? And his answer was, He said that you would certainly get well.
Then he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to you? He answered, He told me that you would surely recover.
So he departed from Elisha, and came to his master; who said to him, What said Elisha to thee? And he answered, He told me that thou shouldest surely recover.
- 15 Now on the day after, Hazael took the bed-cover, and making it wet with water, put it over Ben-hadad's face, causing his death: and Hazael became king in his place.
It happened on the next day, that he took the coverlet, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his place.
And it came to pass on the morrow, that he took a thick cloth, and dipped it in water, and spread it on his face, so that he died: and Hazael reigned in his stead.

He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife; and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh.
And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for the daughter of Ahab was his wife: and he did evil in the sight of the LORD.
- 19 But it was not the Lord's purpose to send destruction on Judah, because of David his servant, to whom he had given his word that he would have a light for ever.
However Yahweh would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give to him a lamp for his children always.
Yet the LORD would not destroy Judah, for David his servant's sake, as he promised him to give him always a light, and to his children.

5 And when he came, he saw the captains of the army seated together; and he said, I have something to say to you, O captain. And Jehu said, To which of us? And he said, To you, O captain. 7 You are to see that the family of Ahab your master is cut off, so that I may take from Jezebel payment for the blood of my servants the prophets, and for the blood of all the servants of the Lord.

You shall strike the house of Ahab your master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of Yahweh, at the hand of Jezebel.

And thou shalt smite the house of Ahab thy master, that I may avenge the blood of my servants the prophets, and the blood of all the servants of the LORD, at the hand of Jezebel.

8 For the family of Ahab will come to an end; every male of Ahab's family will be cut off, he who is shut up and he who goes free in Israel.

For the whole house of Ahab shall perish; and I will cut off from Ahab every man-child, and him who is shut up and him who is left at large in Israel.

For the whole house of Ahab shall perish: and I will cut off from Ahab the males, and him that is shut up and left in Israel:

- 17 And the watchman on the tower in Jezreel saw Jehu and his band coming, and said, I see a band of people. And Joram said, Send out a horseman to them, and let him say, Is it peace?
Now the watchman was standing on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?
And there stood a watchman on the tower in Jezreel, and he spied the company of Jehu as he came, and said, I see a company. And Joram said, Take a horseman, and send to meet them, and let him say, Is it peace?
- 18 So a horseman went out to them and said, The king says, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? come after me. And the watchman gave them word, saying, The horseman went up to them, but has not come back.
So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? Jehu said, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me. The watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he isn't coming back.
So there went one on horseback to meet him, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu said, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying, The messenger came to them, but he doth not return.
- 19 Then he sent out a second horseman, who came up to them and said, The king says, Is it peace? And Jehu said in answer, What have you to do with peace? come after me.
Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus says the king, Is it peace? Jehu answered, What have you to do with peace? turn you behind me.
Then he sent out a second on horseback, who came to them, and said, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Jehu answered, What hast thou to do with peace? turn thee behind me.
- 20 And the watchman gave them word, saying, He went up to them and has not come back again; and the driving is like the driving of Jehu, son of Nimshi, for he is driving violently.
The watchman told, saying, He came even to them, and isn't coming back: and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he drives furiously.
And the watchman told, saying, He came even to them, and doth not return? and the driving is like the driving of Jehu the son of Nimshi; for he driveth furiously.

- 21 Then Joram said, Make ready. So they made his carriage ready; and Joram, king of Israel, with Ahaziah, king of Judah, went out in their carriages for the purpose of meeting Jehu; and they came face to face with him at the field of Naboth the Jezreelite.
Joram said, Make ready. They made ready his chariot. Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out to meet Jehu, and found him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.
And Joram said, Make ready. And his chariot was made ready. And Joram king of Israel and Ahaziah king of Judah went out, each in his chariot, and they went out against Jehu, and met him in the portion of Naboth the Jezreelite.
- 22 Now when Joram saw Jehu he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he said in answer, What peace is possible while all the land is full of the disgusting sins of your mother Jezebel, and her secret arts?
It happened, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? He answered, What peace, so long as the prostitution of your mother Jezebel and her witchcraft abound?
And it came to pass, when Joram saw Jehu, that he said, Is it peace, Jehu? And he answered, What peace, so long as the lewd acts of thy mother Jezebel and her witchcrafts are so many?
- 23 Then Joram, turning his horses in flight, said to Ahaziah, Broken faith, O Ahaziah!
Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, Ahaziah.
And Joram turned his hands, and fled, and said to Ahaziah, There is treachery, O Ahaziah.
- 24 Then Jehu took his bow in his hand, and with all his strength sent an arrow, wounding Joram between the arms; and the arrow came out at his heart, and he went down on his face in his carriage.
Jehu drew his bow with his full strength, and struck Joram between his arms; and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.
And Jehu drew a bow with his full strength, and smote Jehoram between his arms, and the arrow went out at his heart, and he sunk down in his chariot.
- 25 Then Jehu said to Bidkar, his captain, Take him up, and put him in the field of Naboth the Jezreelite: for is not that day in your memory when you and I together on our horses were going after Ahab, his father, and the Lord put this fate on him, saying:
Then said [Jehu] to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him in the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and you rode together after Ahab his father, Yahweh laid this burden on him:
Then said Jehu to Bidkar his captain, Take up, and cast him into the portion of the field of Naboth the Jezreelite; for remember how that, when I and thou rode together after Ahab his father, the LORD laid this burden upon him;

- 26 I saw the blood of Naboth and of his sons yesterday; and I will give you full payment in this field, says the Lord? So now, take him and put him in this field, as the Lord said.
Surely I have seen yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, says Yahweh; and I will requite you in this plat, says Yahweh. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat [of ground], according to the word of Yahweh.
Surely I saw yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sons, saith the LORD; and I will requite thee in this plat, saith the LORD. Now therefore take and cast him into the plat of ground, according to the word of the LORD.
- 27 Now when Ahaziah, king of Judah, saw this, he went in flight by the way of the garden house. And Jehu came after him and said, Put him to death in the same way; and they gave him a death-wound in his carriage, on the slope up to Gur, by Ibleam; and he went in flight to Megiddo, where death came to him.
But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden-house. Jehu followed after him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot: [and they struck him] at the ascent of Gur, which is by Ibleam. He fled to Megiddo, and died there.
But when Ahaziah the king of Judah saw this, he fled by the way of the garden house. And Jehu followed him, and said, Smite him also in the chariot. And they did so at the going up to Gur, which is by Ibleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and died there.
- 28 And his servants took him in a carriage to Jerusalem, and put him into the earth with his fathers in the town of David.
His servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his tomb with his fathers in the city of David.
And his servants carried him in a chariot to Jerusalem, and buried him in his sepulcher with his fathers in the city of David.
- 29 (In the eleventh year of the rule of Joram, the son of Ahab, Ahaziah became king over Judah.)
In the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
And in the eleventh year of Joram the son of Ahab began Ahaziah to reign over Judah.
- 30 And when Jehu came to Jezreel, Jezebel had news of it; and, painting her eyes and dressing her hair with ornaments, she put her head out of the window.
When Jehu was come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her eyes, and attired her head, and looked out at the window.
And when Jehu had come to Jezreel, Jezebel heard of it; and she painted her face, and adorned her head, and looked out at a window.
- 31 And when Jehu was coming into the town, she said, Is all well, O Zimri, taker of your master's life?
As Jehu entered in at the gate, she said, Is it peace, you Zimri, your master's murderer?
And as Jehu entered the gate, she said, Had Zimri peace, who slew his master?

- 32 Then, looking up to the window, he said, Who is on my side, who? and two or three unsexed servants put out their heads.
He lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? There looked out to him two or three eunuchs.
And he lifted up his face to the window, and said, Who is on my side? who? And there looked out to him two or three eunuchs.
- 33 And he said, Take her and put her out of the window. So they sent her down with force, and her blood went in a shower on the wall and on the horses; and she was crushed under their feet.
He said, Throw her down. So they threw her down; and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trod her under foot.
And he said, Throw her down. So they threw her down: and some of her blood was sprinkled on the wall, and on the horses: and he trod her under foot.
- 34 And he came in, and took food and drink; then he said, Now see to this cursed woman, and put her body into the earth, for she is a king's daughter.
When he was come in, he ate and drink; and he said, See now to this cursed woman, and bury her; for she is a king's daughter.
And when he had come in, he ate, and drank, and said, Go, see now this cursed woman, and bury her: for she is a king's daughter.
- 35 And they went out to put her body into the earth, but nothing of her was to be seen, only the bones of her head, and her feet, and parts of her hands.
They went to bury her; but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
And they went to bury her: but they found no more of her than the skull, and the feet, and the palms of her hands.
- 36 So they came back and gave him word of it. And he said, This is what the Lord said by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the heritage of Jezreel the flesh of Jezebel will become food for dogs;
Therefore they came back, and told him. He said, This is the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall the dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel;
Wherefore they came again, and told him. And he said, This is the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servant Elijah the Tishbite, saying, In the portion of Jezreel shall dogs eat the flesh of Jezebel:
- 37 And the dead body of Jezebel will be like waste dropped on the face of the earth in the heritage of Jezreel; so that they will not be able to say, This is Jezebel.
and the body of Jezebel shall be as dung on the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel, so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.
And the carcass of Jezebel shall be as dung upon the face of the field in the portion of Jezreel; so that they shall not say, This is Jezebel.

- 1 Now there were in Samaria seventy of Ahab's sons. And Jehu sent letters to Samaria, to the rulers of the town, and to the responsible men, and to those who had the care of the sons of Ahab, saying,
Now Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, even the elders, and to those who brought up [the sons of] Ahab, saying,
And Ahab had seventy sons in Samaria. And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, to the rulers of Jezreel, to the elders, and to them that brought up Ahab's children, saying,
- 2 Straight away, when you get this letter, seeing that your master's sons are with you, and that you have carriages and horses and a walled town and arms;
Now as soon as this letter comes to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor;
Now as soon as this letter cometh to you, seeing your master's sons are with you, and there are with you chariots and horses, a fortified city also, and armor;
- 3 Take the best and most upright of your master's sons, and make him king in his father's place, and put up a fight for your master's family.
look you out the best and meet of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.
Look out the best and meetest of your master's sons, and set him on his father's throne, and fight for your master's house.
- 4 But they were full of fear, and said, The two kings have gone down before him: how may we keep our place?
But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, the two kings didn't stand before him: how then shall we stand?
But they were exceedingly afraid, and said, Behold, two kings stood not before him: how then shall we stand?
- 5 So the controller of the king's house, with the ruler of the town, and the responsible men, and those who had the care of Ahab's sons, sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants and will do all your orders; we will not make any man king; do whatever seems best to you.
He who was over the household, and he who was over the city, the elders also, and those who brought up [the children], sent to Jehu, saying, We are your servants, and will do all that you shall bid us; we will not make any man king: you do that which is good in your eyes.
And he that was over the house, and he that was over the city, the elders also, and those who brought up the children, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy servants, and will do all that thou shalt bid us; we will not make any king: do thou that which is good in thy eyes.

- 6 Then he sent them a second letter, saying, If you are on my side, and if you will do my orders, come to me at Jezreel by this time tomorrow, with the heads of your master's sons. Now the king's seventy sons were with the great men of the town, who had the care of them.
Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, If you be on my side, and if you will listen to my voice, take the heads of the men your master`s sons, and come to me to Jezreel by tomorrow this time. Now the king`s sons, being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up.
Then he wrote a letter the second time to them, saying, if ye are mine, and if ye will hearken to my voice, take ye the heads of the men your master's sons, and come to me to Jezreel by to-morrow this time. Now the king's sons being seventy persons, were with the great men of the city, who brought them up.
- 7 And when the letter came to them, they took the king's sons and put them to death, all the seventy, and put their heads in baskets and sent them to him at Jezreel.
It happened, when the letter came to them, that they took the king`s sons, and killed them, even seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel.
And it came to pass, when the letter came to them, that they took the king's sons, and slew seventy persons, and put their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezreel.
- 8 And a man came and said to him, They have come with the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Put them down in two masses at the doorway of the town till the morning.
There came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king`s sons. He said, Lay you them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.
And there came a messenger, and told him, saying, They have brought the heads of the king's sons. And he said, Lay ye them in two heaps at the entrance of the gate until the morning.
- 9 And in the morning he went out and, stopping, said to all the people there, You are upright men: it is true that I made designs against my master, and put him to death; but who is responsible for the death of all these?
It happened in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, You are righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and killed him; but who struck all these?
And it came to pass in the morning, that he went out, and stood, and said to all the people, Ye are righteous: behold, I conspired against my master, and slew him: but who slew all these?
- 10 You may be certain that nothing which the Lord has said about the family of Ahab will be without effect; for the Lord has done what he said by his servant Elijah.
Know now that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of Yahweh, which Yahweh spoke concerning the house of Ahab: for Yahweh has done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah.
Know now that there shall fall to the earth nothing of the word of the LORD, which the LORD spoke concerning the house of Ahab; for the LORD hath done that which he spoke by his servant Elijah.

- 11 So Jehu put to death all the rest of the seed of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his relations and his near friends and his priests, till there were no more of them.
So Jehu struck all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his familiar friends, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
So Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Ahab in Jezreel, and all his great men, and his kinsmen, and his priests, until he left him none remaining.
- 12 Then he got up and came to Samaria. And he was at the meeting-place of the keepers of sheep, by the way,
He arose and departed, and went to Samaria. As he was at the shearing-house of the shepherds in the way,
And he arose and departed, and came to Samaria. And as he was at the shearing-house in the way,
- 13 When he came across the brothers of Ahaziah, king of Judah, and said, Who are you? And they said, We are the brothers of Ahaziah, king of Judah; we are going down to see the children of the king and of the queen.
Jehu met with the brothers of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are you? They answered, We are the brothers of Ahaziah: and we go down to Greet the children of the king and the children of the queen.
Jehu met with the brethren of Ahaziah king of Judah, and said, Who are ye? And they answered, We are the brethren of Ahaziah; and we go down to salute the children of the king and the children of the queen.
- 14 And he said, Take them living. So they took them living, and put them to death in the water-hole of Beth-eked; of the forty-two men he put every one to death;
He said, Take them alive. They took them alive, and killed them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.
And he said, Take them alive. And they took them alive, and slew them at the pit of the shearing-house, even two and forty men; neither left he any of them.
- 15 And when he had gone away from there, he came across Jehonadab, the son of Rechab: and he said good-day to him, and said to him, Is your heart true to mine, as mine is to yours? And Jehonadab in answer said, It is; and Jehu said, If it is, give me your hand. And he gave him his hand, and he made him come up into his carriage.
When he was departed there, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him; and he greeted him, and said to him, Is your heart right, as my heart is with your heart? Jehonadab answered, It is. If it be, give me your hand. He gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.
And when he had departed thence, he lighted on Jehonadab the son of Rechab coming to meet him: and he saluted him, and said to him, Is thy heart right, as my heart is with thy heart; And Jehonadab answered, It is. If it is, give me thy hand. And he gave him his hand; and he took him up to him into the chariot.

- 16 And he said, Come with me and see how I am on fire for the Lord's cause. So he made him go with him in his carriage.
He said, Come with me, and see my zeal for Yahweh. So they made him ride in his chariot.
And he said, Come with me, and see my zeal for the LORD. So they made him ride in his chariot.
- 17 And when he came to Samaria, he put to death all those of Ahab's family who were still in Samaria, till there were no more of them, as the Lord had said to Elijah.
When he came to Samaria, he struck all who remained to Ahab in Samaria, until he had destroyed him, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke to Elijah.
And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained to Ahab in Samaria, till he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the LORD, which he spoke to Elijah.
- 18 Then Jehu got all the people together and said to them, Ahab was Baal's servant in a small way, but Jehu will be his servant on a great scale.
Jehu gathered all the people together, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu will serve him much.
And Jehu convened all the people, and said to them, Ahab served Baal a little; but Jehu shall serve him much.
- 19 Now send for all the prophets of Baal and all his servants and all his priests, to come to me; let no one keep away: for I have a great offering to make to Baal; anyone who is not present, will be put to death. This Jehu did with deceit, his purpose being the destruction of the servants of Baal.
Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his worshippers, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice [to do] to Baal; whoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtlety, to the intent that he might destroy the worshippers of Baal.
Now therefore call to me all the prophets of Baal, all his servants, and all his priests; let none be wanting: for I have a great sacrifice to do to Baal: whoever shall be wanting, he shall not live. But Jehu did it in subtilty, to the intent that he might destroy the worshipers of Baal.
- 20 And Jehu said, Let there be a special holy meeting for the worship of Baal. So a public statement was made.
Jehu said, Sanctify a solemn assembly for Baal. They proclaimed it.
And Jehu said, Proclaim a solemn assembly for Baal. And they proclaimed it.
- 21 And Jehu sent out through all Israel; and all the servants of Baal came, not one kept away. And they came into the house of Baal, so that it was full from end to end.
Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshippers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that didn't come. They came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was filled from one end to another.
And Jehu sent through all Israel: and all the worshipers of Baal came, so that there was not a man left that came not. And they came into the house of Baal; and the house of Baal was full from one end to another.

- 22 And Jehu said to him who kept the robes, Get out robes for all the servants of Baal. So he got out robes for them.
He said to him who was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshippers of Baal. He brought them forth vestments.
And he said to him that was over the vestry, Bring forth vestments for all the worshipers of Baal. And he brought them forth vestments.
- 23 And Jehu, with Jehonadab, the son of Rechab, went into the house of Baal; and he said to the servants of Baal, Make a search with care, to see that no servant of the Lord is with you, but only servants of Baal.
Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal; and he said to the worshippers of Baal, Search, and look that there be here with you none of the servants of Yahweh, but the worshippers of Baal only.
And Jehu went, and Jehonadab the son of Rechab, into the house of Baal, and said to the worshipers of Baal, Search, and look that there are here with you none of the servants of the LORD, but the worshipers of Baal only.
- 24 Then they went in to make offerings and burned offerings. Now Jehu had put eighty men outside, and said to them, If any man whom I give into your hands gets away, the life of him who lets him go will be the price of his life.
They went in to offer sacrifices and burnt offerings. Now Jehu had appointed him eighty men outside, and said, If any of the men whom I bring into your hands escape, [he who lets him go], his life shall be for the life of him.
And when they went in to offer sacrifices and burnt-offerings, Jehu appointed eighty men without, and said, If any of the men whom I have brought into your hands escape, he that letteth him go, his life shall be for the life of him.
- 25 Then when the burned offering was ended, straight away Jehu said to the armed men and the captains, Go in and put them to death; let not one come out. So they put them to the sword; and, pulling the images to the earth, they went into the holy place of the house of Baal.
It happened, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and kill them; let none come forth. They struck them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.
And it came to pass, as soon as he had made an end of offering the burnt-offering, that Jehu said to the guard and to the captains, Go in, and slay them; let none come forth. And they smote them with the edge of the sword; and the guard and the captains cast them out, and went to the city of the house of Baal.
- 26 And they took out the image of Asherah from the house of Baal, and had it burned.
They brought forth the pillars that were in the house of Baal, and burned them.
And they brought forth the images out of the house of Baal, and burned them.

- 27 The altar of Baal was pulled down and the house of Baal was broken up and made an unclean place, as it is to this day.
They broke down the pillar of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught-house, to this day.
And they broke down the image of Baal, and broke down the house of Baal, and made it a draught-house to this day.
- 28 So Jehu put an end to the worship of Baal in Israel.
Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.
Thus Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.
- 29 But Jehu did not keep himself from all the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, and the evil he made Israel do; the gold oxen were still in Beth-el and in Dan.
However from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin, Jehu didn't depart from after them, [to wit], the golden calves that were in Bethel, and that were in Dan.
Yet from the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin, Jehu departed not from after them, to wit, the golden calves that were in Beth-el, and that were in Dan.
- 30 And the Lord said to Jehu, Because you have done well in doing what is right in my eyes and effecting all my purpose for the family of Ahab, your sons will be kings of Israel to the fourth generation.
Yahweh said to Jehu, Because you have done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, [and] have done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, your sons of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.
And the LORD said to Jehu, Because thou hast done well in executing that which is right in my eyes, and hast done to the house of Ahab according to all that was in my heart, thy children of the fourth generation shall sit on the throne of Israel.
- 31 But Jehu did not take care to keep the law of the Lord with all his heart: he did not keep himself from the sin which Jeroboam did and made Israel do.
But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of Yahweh, the God of Israel, with all his heart: he didn't depart from the sins of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin.
But Jehu took no heed to walk in the law of the LORD God of Israel with all his heart: for he departed not from the sins of Jeroboam, who made Israel to sin.
- 32 In those days the Lord was angry first with Israel; and Hazael made attacks on all the land of Israel,
In those days Yahweh began to cut off from Israel: and Hazael struck them in all the borders of Israel;
In those days the LORD began to cut Israel short: and Hazael smote them in all the borders of Israel;

33 East of Jordan, in all the land of Gilead, the Gadites and the Reubenites and the Manassites, from Aroer by the valley of the Arnon, all Gilead and Bashan.
from the Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the valley of the Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.
From Jordan eastward, all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, and the Reubenites, and the Manassites, from Aroer, which is by the river Arnon, even Gilead and Bashan.

34 Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all he did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehu, and all that he did, and all his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son became king in his place.
Jehu slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria. Jehoahaz his son reigned in his place.
And Jehu slept with his fathers: and they buried him in Samaria. And Jehoahaz his son reigned in his stead.

36 And the time of Jehu's rule over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.
The time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty-eight years.
And the time that Jehu reigned over Israel in Samaria was twenty and eight years.

1 Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she had all the rest of the seed of the kingdom put to death.
Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.
And when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal.

2 But Jehosheba, the daughter of King Joram, sister of Ahaziah, secretly took Joash, the son of Ahaziah, with the woman who took care of him, away from among the king's sons who were put to death, and put him in the bedroom; and they kept him safe from Athaliah, so that he was not put to death.
But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, even him and his nurse, [and put them] in the bedchamber; and they hid him from Athaliah, so that he was not slain;
But Jehosheba, the daughter of king Joram, sister of Ahaziah, took Joash the the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons who were slain; and they hid him, even him and his nurse, in the bed-chamber, from Athaliah, so that he was not slain.

- 3 And for six years she kept him safe in the house of the Lord, while Athaliah was ruling over the land.
He was with her hid in the house of Yahweh six years. Athaliah reigned over the land.
And he was with her hid in the house of the LORD six years. And Athaliah reigned over the land.
- 4 Then in the seventh year, Jehoiada sent for the captains of hundreds of the Carians, and the armed men, and taking them into the house of the Lord, made an agreement with them, and made them take an oath in the house of the Lord, and let them see the king's son.
In the seventh year Jehoiada sent and fetched the captains over hundreds of the Carites and of the guard, and brought them to him into the house of Yahweh; and he made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of Yahweh, and showed them the king's son.
And in the seventh year Jehoiada sent and took the rulers over hundreds, with the captains and the guard, and brought them to him into the house of the LORD, and made a covenant with them, and took an oath of them in the house of the LORD, and showed them the king's son.
- 5 And he gave them orders, saying, This is what you are to do: the third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath and keep the watch of the king's house,
He commanded them, saying, This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, shall be keepers of the watch of the king's house;
And he commanded them, saying, This is the thing that ye shall do; A third part of you that enter in on the sabbath shall even be keepers of the watch of the king's house;
- 6 ...
A third part shall be at the gate Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall you keep the watch of the house, and be a barrier.
And a third part shall be at the gate of Sur; and a third part at the gate behind the guard: so shall ye keep the watch of the house, that it be not broken down.
- 7 And the two divisions of you, who go out on the Sabbath and keep the watch of the house of the Lord,
The two companies of you, even all who go forth on the Sabbath, shall keep the watch of the house of Yahweh about the king.
And two parts of all you that go forth on the sabbath, even they shall keep the watch of the house of the LORD about the king.

- 8 Will make a circle round the king, every man being armed; and whoever comes inside your lines is to be put to death; keep with the king, when he goes out and when he comes in.
You shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and he who comes within the ranks, let him be slain: and be you with the king when he goes out, and when he comes in.
And ye shall compass the king around, every man with his weapons in his hand: and he that cometh within the ranges, let him be slain. And be ye with the king as he goeth out and as he cometh in.
- 9 And the captains of hundreds did as Jehoiada the priest gave them orders; every one took with him his men, those who came in and those who went out on the Sabbath, and they came in to Jehoiada the priest.
The captains over hundreds did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded; and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath, with those who were to go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.
And the captains over the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that should go out on the sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest.
- 10 And the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and body-covers which had been King David's, and which were kept in the house of the Lord.
The priest delivered to the captains over hundreds the spears and shields that had been king David`s, which were in the house of Yahweh.
And to the captains over hundreds the priest gave king David's spears and shields, that were in the temple of the LORD.
- 11 Then the armed men took up their positions, every man with his instruments of war in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left, round about the altar and the house.
The guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about.
And the guard stood, every man with his weapons in his hand, around the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left corner of the temple, along by the altar and the temple.
- 12 Then he made the king's son come out, and put the crown on him and the arm-bands, and made him king, and put the holy oil on him; and they all, making sounds of joy with their hands, said, Long life to the king.
Then he brought out the king`s son, and put the crown on him, and [gave him] the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, [Long] live the king.
And he brought forth the king's son, and put the crown upon him, and gave him the testimony; and they made him king, and anointed him; and they clapped their hands, and said, God save the king.

- 13 Now Athaliah, hearing the noise made by the people, came to the people in the house of the Lord;
When Athaliah heard the noise of the guard [and of] the people, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh:
And when Athaliah heard the noise of the guard and of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the LORD.
- 14 And looking, she saw the king in his regular place by the pillar, and the captains and the horns near him; and all the people of the land giving signs of joy and sounding the horns. Then Athaliah, violently parting her robes, gave a cry, saying, Broken faith, broken faith!
and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by the pillar, as the manner was, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and cried, Treason! treason!
And when she looked, behold, the king stood by a pillar, as the manner was, and the princes and the trumpeters by the king, and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew with trumpets. And Athaliah rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.
- 15 Then Jehoiada the priest gave orders to those who were placed in authority over the army, saying, Take her outside the lines, and let anyone who goes after her be put to death with the sword, for he said, Let her not be put to death in the house of the Lord.
Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth between the ranks; and him who follows her kill with the sword. For the priest said, Don`t let her be slain in the house of Yahweh.
But Jehoiada the priest commanded the captains of the hundreds, the officers of the host, and said to them, Have her forth without the ranges: and him that followeth her kill with the sword. For the priest had said, Let her not be slain in the house of the LORD.
- 16 So they put their hands on her, and she went to the king's house by the doorway of the horses, and there she was put to death.
So they made way for her; and she went by the way of the horses` entry to the king`s house: and there was she slain.
And they laid hands on her; and she went by the way by which the horses came into the king's house: and there was she slain.
- 17 And Jehoiada made an agreement between the Lord and the king and the people, that they would be the Lord's people; and in the same way between the king and the people.
Jehoiada made a covenant between Yahweh and the king and the people, that they should be Yahweh`s people; between the king also and the people.
And Jehoiada made a covenant between the LORD and the king and the people, that they should be the LORD'S people; between the king also and the people.

- 18 Then all the people of the land went to the house of Baal and had it pulled down: its altars and images were all broken to bits, and Mattan, the priest of Baal, they put to death before the altars. And the priest put overseers over the Lord's house.
All the people of the land went to the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images broke they in pieces thoroughly, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. The priest appointed officers over the house of Yahweh.
And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and broke it down; his altars and his images they broke wholly in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars. And the priest appointed officers over the the house of the LORD.
- 19 Then he took the captains of hundreds, and the Carians, and the armed men, and all the people of the land; and they came down with the king from the house of the Lord, through the doorway of the armed men, to the king's house. And he took his place on the seat of the kings.
He took the captains over hundreds, and the Carites, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of Yahweh, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. He sat on the throne of the kings.
And he took the rulers over hundreds, and the captains, and the guard, and all the people of the land; and they brought down the king from the house of the LORD, and came by the way of the gate of the guard to the king's house. And he sat on the throne of the kings.
- 20 So all the people of the land were glad, and the town was quiet; and they had put Athaliah to death with the sword at the king's house.
So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword at the king's house.
And all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was in quiet: and they slew Athaliah with the sword beside the king's house.
- 21 And Jehoash was seven years old when he became king.
Jehoash was seven years old when he began to reign.
Seven years old was Jehoash when he began to reign.
- 1 In the seventh year of Jehu's rule, Jehoash became king; and he was ruling for forty years in Jerusalem; his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.
In the seventh year of Jehu began Jehoash to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah of Beersheba.
In the seventh year of Jehu, Jehoash began to reign; and forty years reigned he in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

- 2 Jehoash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord all his days, because he was guided by the teaching of Jehoiada the priest.
Jehoash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all his days in which Jehoiada the priest instructed him.
And Jehoash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all his days wherein Jehoiada the priest instructed him.
- 3 But the high places were not taken away; the people went on making offerings and burning them in the high places.
However the high places were not taken away; the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
But the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places.
- 4 And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things, which comes into the house of the Lord, (the amount fixed for every man's payment,) and all the money given by any man freely from the impulse of his heart,
Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the holy things that is brought into the house of Yahweh, in current money, the money of the persons for whom each man is rated, and all the money that it comes into any man`s heart to bring into the house of Yahweh,
And Jehoash said to the priests, All the money of the dedicated things that is brought into the house of the LORD, even the money of every one that passeth the account, the money that every man is set at, and all the money that cometh into any man's heart to bring into the house of the LORD,
- 5 Let the priests take, every man from his friends and neighbours, to make good what is damaged in the house, wherever it is to be seen.
let the priests take it to them, every man from his acquaintance; and they shall repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found.
Let the priests take it to them, every man of his acquaintance: and let them repair the breaches of the house, wherever any breach shall be found.
- 6 But in the twenty-third year of King Jehoash, the priests had not made good the damaged parts of the house.
But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.
But it was so, that in the three and twentieth year of king Jehoash the priests had not repaired the breaches of the house.

- 7 Then King Jehoash sent for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, Why have you not made good what is damaged in the house? now take no more money from your neighbours, but give it for the building up of the house.
Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and for the [other] priests, and said to them, Why don't you repair the breaches of the house? now therefore take no [more] money from your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.
Then king Jehoash called for Jehoiada the priest, and the other priests, and said to them, Why repair ye not the breaches of the house? now therefore receive no more money of your acquaintance, but deliver it for the breaches of the house.
- 8 So the priests made an agreement to take no more money from the people, and not to make good what was damaged in the house.
The priests consented that they should take no [more] money from the people, neither repair the breaches of the house.
And the priests consented to receive no more money of the people, neither to repair the breaches of the house.
- 9 But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and making a hole in the cover of it, put it by the altar, on the right side when one comes into the house of the Lord; and the priests who kept the door put in it regularly all the money which was taken into the house of the Lord.
But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one comes into the house of Yahweh: and the priests who kept the threshold put therein all the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh.
But Jehoiada the priest took a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side as one cometh into the house of the LORD: and the priests that kept the door put in it all the money that was brought into the house of the LORD.
- 10 And when they saw that there was much money in the chest, the king's scribe and the high priest came and put it in bags, noting the amount of all the money there was in the house of the Lord.
It was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags and counted the money that was found in the house of Yahweh.
And it was so, when they saw that there was much money in the chest, that the king's scribe and the high priest came up, and they put up in bags, and counted the money that was found in the house of the LORD.

- 11 And the money which was measured out they gave regularly to those who were responsible for overseeing the work, and these gave it in payment to the woodworkers and the builders who were working on the house of the Lord,
They gave the money that was weighed out into the hands of those who did the work, who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh: and they paid it out to the carpenters and the builders, who worked on the house of Yahweh,
And they gave the money, being counted, into the hands of them that did the work, that had the oversight of the house of the LORD: and they laid it out to the carpenters and builders, that wrought upon the house of the LORD,
- 12 And to the wall-builders and the stone-cutters, and to get wood and cut stone for building up the broken parts of the house of the Lord, and for everything needed to put the house in good order.
and to the masons and the stone cutters, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the breaches of the house of Yahweh, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.
And to masons, and hewers of stone, and to buy timber and hewed stone to repair the breaches of the house of the LORD, and for all that was laid out for the house to repair it.
- 13 But the money was not used for making silver cups or scissors or basins or wind-instruments or any vessels of gold or silver for the house of the Lord;
But there were not made for the house of Yahweh cups of silver, snuffers, basins, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh;
Yet, there were not made for the house of the LORD bowls of silver, snuffers, basons, trumpets, any vessels of gold, or vessels of silver, of the money that was brought into the house of the LORD:
- 14 But it was all given to the workmen who were building up the house.
for they gave that to those who did the work, and repaired therewith the house of Yahweh.
But they gave that to the workmen, and repaired with it the house of the LORD.
- 15 And they did not get any statement of accounts from the men to whom the money was given for the workmen, for they made use of it with good faith.
Moreover they didn't demand an accounting from the men into whose hand they delivered the money to give to those who did the work; for they dealt faithfully.
Moreover, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hand they delivered the money to be bestowed on workmen: for they dealt faithfully.

- 16 The money of the offerings for error and the sin-offerings was not taken into the house of the Lord; it was the priests'.
The money for the trespass-offerings, and the money for the sin-offerings, was not brought into the house of Yahweh: it was the priests`.
The trespass-money and sin-money was not brought into the house of the LORD: it was the priests'.
- 17 Then Hazael, king of Aram, went up against Gath and took it; and his purpose was to go up to Jerusalem.
Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.
Then Hazael king of Syria went up, and fought against Gath, and took it; and Hazael set his face to go up to Jerusalem.
- 18 Then Jehoash, king of Judah, took all the holy things which Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah his fathers, the kings of Judah, had given to the Lord, together with the things he himself had given, and all the gold in the Temple store and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael, king of Aram; and he went away from Jerusalem.
Jehoash king of Judah took all the holy things that Jehoshaphat and Jehoram and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own holy things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and of the king`s house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.
And Jehoash king of Judah took all the hallowed things that Jehoshaphat, and Jehoram, and Ahaziah, his fathers, kings of Judah, had dedicated, and his own hallowed things, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the LORD, and in the king's house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria: and he went away from Jerusalem.

- 19 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, aren`t they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
- 20 And his servants made a secret design and put Joash to death at the house of Millo on the way down to Silla.
His servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and struck Joash at the house of Millo, [on the way] that goes down to Silla.
And his servants arose, and made a conspiracy, and slew Joash in the house of Millo, which goeth down to Silla.

21 And Jozacar, the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad, the son of Shomer, his servants, came to him and put him to death; and they put him into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; and Amaziah his son became king in his place.

For Jozacar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, struck him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: and Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

For Jozachar the son of Shimeath, and Jehozabad the son of Shomer, his servants, smote him, and he died; and they buried him with his fathers in the city of David: And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

1 In the twenty-third year of Joash, the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for seventeen years.

In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah, king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] seventeen years.

In the three and twentieth year of Joash the son of Ahaziah king of Judah, Jehoahaz the son of Jehu began to reign over Israel in Samaria, and reigned seventeen years.

2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the sins of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, which he did and made Israel do; he did not keep himself from them.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; he didn't depart therefrom.

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, and followed the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel to sin; he departed not therefrom.

3 So the wrath of the Lord was burning against Israel, and he gave them up into the power of Hazael, king of Aram, and into the power of Ben-hadad, the son of Hazael, again and again.

The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the son of Hazael, continually.

And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and he delivered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Ben-hadad the son of Hazael, all their days.

4 Then Jehoahaz made prayer to the Lord, and the Lord gave ear to him, for he saw how cruelly Israel was crushed by the king of Aram.

Jehoahaz begged Yahweh, and Yahweh listened to him; for he saw the oppression of Israel, how that the king of Syria oppressed them.

And Jehoahaz besought the LORD, and the LORD hearkened to him: for he saw the oppression of Israel, because the king of Syria oppressed them.

5 (And the Lord gave Israel a saviour, so that they became free from the hands of the Aramaeans; and the children of Israel were living in their tents as in the past.
(Yahweh gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians; and the children of Israel lived in their tents as before.
(And the LORD gave Israel a savior, so that they went out from under the hand of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tents, as formerly.

6 But still they did not give up the sin of Jeroboam, which he made Israel do, but went on with it; and there was an image of Asherah in Samaria.)
Nevertheless they didn't depart from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, with which he made Israel to sin, but walked therein: and there remained the Asherah also in Samaria.)
Nevertheless they departed not from the sins of the house of Jeroboam, who made Israel sin, but walked in them: and there remained the grove also in Samaria.)

7 For out of all his army, Jehoahaz had only fifty horsemen and ten carriages and ten thousand footmen; the king of Aram had given them up to destruction, crushing them like dust.
For he didn't leave to Jehoahaz of the people save fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like the dust in threshing.
Neither did he leave of the people to Jehoahaz but fifty horsemen, and ten chariots, and ten thousand footmen; for the king of Syria had destroyed them, and had made them like the dust by threshing.

8 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all he did, and his great power, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehoahaz, and all that he did, and his might, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Jehoahaz went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in Samaria; and Joash his son became king in his place.
Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his place.
And Jehoahaz slept with his fathers; and they buried him in Samaria: and Joash his son reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirty-seventh year of the rule of Joash, king of Judah, Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for sixteen years.
In the thirty-seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, [and reigned] sixteen years.
In the thirty and seventh year of Joash king of Judah began Jehoash the son of Jehoahaz to reign over Israel in Samaria, and he reigned sixteen years.

- 11 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, not turning away from the sin of Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, which he did and made Israel do, but he went on with it.
He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh; he didn't depart from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, with which he made Israel to sin; but he walked therein.
And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD: he departed not from all the sins of Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who made Israel sin: but he walked in them.
- 12 Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all he did, and the force with which he went to war against Amaziah, king of Judah, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
And the rest of the acts of Joash, and all that he did, and his might with which he fought against Amaziah king of Judah, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Israel?
- 13 And Joash went to rest with his fathers and Jeroboam took his place as king; and Joash was put into the earth in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat on his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
And Joash slept with his fathers; and Jeroboam sat upon his throne: and Joash was buried in Samaria with the kings of Israel.
- 14 Now Elisha became ill with the disease which was the cause of his death: and Joash, king of Israel, came down to him, and weeping over him said, My father, my father, the war-carriages of Israel and its horsemen!
Now Elisha was fallen sick of his sickness whereof he died: and Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over him, and said, My father, my father, the chariots of Israel and the horsemen of it!
Now Elisha had fallen sick of his disease of which he died. And Joash the king of Israel came down to him, and wept over his face, and said, O my father, my father, the chariot of Israel, and the horsemen thereof.
- 15 Then Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows: and he took bow and arrows.
Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows; and he took to him bow and arrows.
And Elisha said to him, Take bow and arrows. And he took to him bow and arrows.
- 16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow: and he put his hand on it; and Elisha put his hands on the king's hands.
He said to the king of Israel, Put your hand on the bow; and he put his hand [on it]. Elisha laid his hands on the king's hands.
And he said to the king of Israel, Put thy hand upon the bow. And he put his hand upon it: and Elisha put his hands upon the king's hands.

- 17 Then he said; Let the window be open to the east: and he got it open. Then Elisha said, Let the arrow go; and he let it go. And he said, The Lord's arrow of salvation, of salvation over Aram; for you will overcome the Aramaeans in Aphek and put an end to them.
He said, Open the window eastward; and he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot; and he shot. He said, Yahweh`s arrow of victory, even the arrow of victory over Syria; for you shall strike the Syrians in Aphek, until you have consumed them.
And he said, Open the window eastward. And he opened it. Then Elisha said, Shoot. And he shot. And he said, The arrow of the LORD'S deliverance, and the arrow of deliverance from Syria: for thou shalt smite the Syrians in Aphek, till thou hast consumed them.
- 18 And he said, Take the arrows: and he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Send them down into the earth; and he did so three times and no more.
He said, Take the arrows; and he took them. He said to the king of Israel, Smite on the ground; and he struck thrice, and stayed.
And he said, Take the arrows. And he took them. And he said to the king of Israel, Smite upon the ground. And he smote thrice, and ceased.
- 19 Then the man of God was angry with him and said, If you had done it five or six times, then you would have overcome Aram completely; but now you will only overcome them three times.
The man of God was angry with him, and said, You should have struck five or six times: then had you struck Syria until you had consumed it, whereas now you shall strike Syria but thrice.
And the man of God was wroth with him, and said, Thou shouldst have smitten five or six times; then hadst thou smitten Syria till thou hadst consumed it: whereas now thou shalt smite Syria but thrice.
- 20 And death came to Elisha and they put his body into the earth. Now in the spring of the year, armed bands of Moabites frequently came, overrunning the land.
Elisha died, and they buried him. Now the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.
And Elisha died, and they buried him. And the bands of the Moabites invaded the land at the coming in of the year.
- 21 And while they were putting a dead man into the earth, they saw a band coming; and they put the man quickly into the place where Elisha's body was; and the dead man, on touching Elisha's bones, came to life again, and got up on his feet.
It happened, as they were burying a man, that behold, they spied a band; and they cast the man into the tomb of Elisha: and as soon as the man touched the bones of Elisha, he revived, and stood up on his feet.

33 He was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he was ruling for sixteen years in Jerusalem; and his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.
He was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jerusha the daughter of Zadok.
Five and twenty years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jerusha, the daughter of Zadok.

34 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as his father Uzziah had done.
He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh; he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.
And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD: he did according to all that his father Uzziah had done.

35 But he did not take away the high places, and the people still went on making offerings and burning them in the high places. He was the builder of the higher doorway of the house of the Lord.
However the high places were not taken away: the people still sacrificed and burned incense in the high places. He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh.
Yet, the high places were not removed: the people sacrificed and burned incense still in the high places. He built the higher gate of the house of the LORD.

36 Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
Now the rest of the acts of Jotham, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

In those days Yahweh began to send against Judah Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.
In those days the LORD began to send against Judah, Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah.

38 And Jotham went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the town of David his father; and Ahaz his son became king in his place.
Jotham slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David his father: and Ahaz his son reigned in his place.

- 2 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king; he was ruling for sixteen years in Jerusalem. He did not do what was right in the eyes of the Lord his God, as David his father did.
Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh his God, like David his father.
Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.
- 3 But he went in the ways of the kings of Israel, and even made his son go through the fire, copying the disgusting ways of the nations whom the Lord had sent out of the land before the children of Israel.
But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yes, and made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel.
But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and even made his son to pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.
- 4 And he made offerings, burning them in the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.
He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.
- 5 Then Rezin, king of Aram, and Pekah, son of Remaliah, king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to make war; and they made an attack on Ahaz, shutting him in, but were not able to overcome him.
Then Rezin king of Syria and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but could not overcome him.

- 7 So Ahaz sent representatives to Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son; come to my help against the kings of Aram and Israel who have taken up arms against me.
So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am your servant and your son: come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me.
So Ahaz sent messengers to Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy servant and thy son: come up, and save me from the hand of the king of Syria, and from the hand of the king of Israel, who rise up against me.
- 8 And Ahaz took the silver and gold which were in the house of the Lord and in the king's store-house, and sent them as an offering to the king of Assyria.
Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.
And Ahaz took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.
- 9 And the king of Assyria, in answer to his request, went up against Damascus and took it, and took its people away as prisoners to Kir, and put Rezin to death.
The king of Assyria listened to him; and the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried [the people of] it captive to Kir, and killed Rezin.
And the king of Assyria hearkened to him: for the king of Assyria went up against Damascus, and took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.
- 10 Then King Ahaz went to Damascus for a meeting with Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria; and there he saw the altar which was at Damascus; and King Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest a copy of the altar, giving the design of it and all the details of its structure.
King Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw the altar that was at Damascus; and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship of it.
And king Ahaz went to Damascus to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship of it.
- 11 And from the copy King Ahaz sent from Damascus, Urijah made an altar and had it ready by the time King Ahaz came back from Damascus.
Urijah the priest built an altar: according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus, so did Urijah the priest make it against the coming of king Ahaz from Damascus.
And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest made it against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

- 12 And when the king came from Damascus, he saw the altar; and he went up on it and made an offering on it.
When the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king drew near to the altar, and offered thereon.
And when the king had come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and the king approached to the altar, and offered on it.
- 13 He made his burned offering and his meal offering and his drink offering there, draining out the blood of his peace-offerings on the altar.
He burnt his burnt offering and his meal-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings, on the altar.
And he burnt his burnt-offering and his meat-offering, and poured his drink-offering, and sprinkled the blood of his peace-offerings upon the altar.
- 14 And the brass altar, which was before the Lord, he took from the front of the house, from between his altar and the house of the Lord, and put it on the north side of his altar.
The brazen altar, which was before Yahweh, he brought from the forefront of the house, from between his altar and the house of Yahweh, and put it on the north side of his altar.
And he brought also the brazen altar, which was before the LORD, from the front of the house, from between the altar and the house of the LORD, and put it on the north side of the altar.
- 15 And King Ahaz gave orders to Urijah the priest, saying, Make the morning burned offering and the evening meal offering and the king's burned offering and meal offering, with the burned offerings of all the people and their meal offerings and drink offerings, on the great altar, and put on it all the blood of the burned offerings and of the beasts which are offered; but the brass altar will be for my use to get directions from the Lord.
King Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, On the great altar burn the morning burnt offering, and the evening meal-offering, and the king's burnt offering, and his meal-offering, with the burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meal-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle on it all the blood of the burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: but the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.
And king Ahaz commanded Urijah the priest, saying, Upon the great altar burn the morning burnt-offering, and the evening meat-offering, and the king's burnt-sacrifice, and his meat-offering, with the burnt-offering of all the people of the land, and their meat-offering, and their drink-offerings; and sprinkle upon it all the blood of the burnt-offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brazen altar shall be for me to inquire by.
- 16 So Urijah the priest did everything as the king said
Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.
Thus did Urijah the priest, according to all that king Ahaz commanded.

17 And King Ahaz took off the sides of the wheeled bases, and took down the great water-vessel from off the brass oxen which were under it and put it on a floor of stone.
King Ahaz cut off the panels of the bases, and removed the basin from off them, and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it on a pavement of stone.

And king Ahaz cut off the borders of the bases, and removed the laver from off them; and took down the sea from off the brazen oxen that were under it, and put it upon a pavement of stones.

18  the house of the Lord, because of the king of Assyria.

The covered way for the Sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry outside, turned he to the house of Yahweh, because of the king of Assyria.

And the covert for the sabbath that they had built in the house, and the king's entry without, he turned from the house of the LORD for the king of Assyria.

19 Now the rest of the things which Ahaz did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?

Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

Now the rest of the acts of Ahaz which he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

20 And Ahaz went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth with his fathers in the town of David; and Hezekiah his son became king in his place.

Ahaz slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David: and Hezekiah his son reigned in his place.

1 In the twelfth year of Ahaz, king of Judah, Hoshea, the son of Elah, became king over Israel in Samaria, ruling for nine years.

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel, [and reigned] nine years.

In the twelfth year of Ahaz king of Judah began Hoshea the son of Elah to reign in Samaria over Israel nine years.

2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, though not like the kings of Israel before him.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, yet not as the kings of Israel who were before him.

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

- 3 Against him came up Shalmaneser, king of Assyria, and Hoshea became his servant and sent him offerings.
Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and brought him tribute.
Against him came up Shalmaneser king of Assyria; and Hoshea became his servant, and gave him presents.
- 4 But Hoshea's broken faith became clear to the king of Assyria because he had sent representatives to So, king of Egypt, and did not send his offering to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: so the king of Assyria had him shut up in prison and put in chains.
The king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea; for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and offered no tribute to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.
And the king of Assyria found conspiracy in Hoshea: for he had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present to the king of Assyria, as he had done year by year: therefore the king of Assyria shut him up, and bound him in prison.
- 5 Then the king of Assyria went through all the land and came up to Samaria, shutting it in with his forces for three years.
Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.
Then the king of Assyria came up throughout all the land, and went up to Samaria, and besieged it three years.
- 6 In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and took Israel away to Assyria, placing them in Halah and in Habor on the river Gozan, and in the towns of the Medes.
In the ninth year of Hoshea the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away to Assyria, and placed them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.
In the ninth year of Hoshea, the king of Assyria took Samaria, and carried Israel away into Assyria, and placed them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes.
- 7 And the wrath of the Lord came on Israel because they had done evil against the Lord their God, who took them out of the land of Egypt from under the yoke of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, and had become worshippers of other gods,
It was so, because the children of Israel had sinned against Yahweh their God, who brought them up out of the land of Egypt from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,
For so it was, that the children of Israel had sinned against the LORD their God, who had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from under the hand of Pharaoh king of Egypt, and had feared other gods,

- 8 Living by the rules of the nations whom the Lord had sent out from before the children of Israel.
and walked in the statutes of the nations, whom Yahweh cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel, which they made.
And walked in the statutes of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel, and of the kings of Israel which they had made.
- 9 And the children of Israel did secretly against the Lord their God things which were not right, building high places for themselves in all their towns, from the tower of the watchmen to the walled town.
The children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against Yahweh their God: and they built them high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city;
And the children of Israel did secretly things that were not right against the LORD their God, and they built for themselves high places in all their cities, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.
- 10 They put up pillars of stone and wood on every high hill and under every green tree:
and they set them up pillars and Asherim on every high hill, and under every green tree;
And they set up for themselves images and groves on every high hill, and under every green tree:
- 11 Burning their offerings in all the high places, as those nations did whom the Lord sent away from before them; they did evil things, moving the Lord to wrath; and there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the nations whom Yahweh carried away before them; and they worked wicked things to provoke Yahweh to anger;
And there they burnt incense on all the high places, as did the heathen whom the LORD carried away before them; and wrought wicked things to provoke the LORD to anger:
- 12 And they made themselves servants of disgusting things, though the Lord had said, You are not to do this.
and they served idols, whereof Yahweh had said to them, You shall not do this thing.
For they served idols, of which the LORD had said to them, Ye shall not do this thing.

- 13 And he gave witness to Israel and Judah, by every prophet and seer, saying, Come back from your evil ways, and do my orders and keep my rules, and be guided by the law which I gave to your fathers and sent to you by my servants the prophets.
Yet Yahweh testified to Israel, and to Judah, by every prophet, and every seer, saying, Turn you from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.
Yet the LORD testified against Israel, and against Judah, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, Turn ye from your evil ways, and keep my commandments and my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my servants the prophets.
- 14 And they did not give ear, but became stiff-necked, like their fathers who had no faith in the Lord their God.
Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their neck, like the neck of their fathers, who didn't believe in Yahweh their God.
Notwithstanding, they would not hear, but hardened their necks, like the neck of their fathers, that did not believe in the LORD their God.
- 15 And they went against his rules, and the agreement which he made with their fathers, and his laws which he gave them; they gave themselves up to things without sense or value, and became foolish like the nations round them, of whom the Lord had said, Do not as they do.
They rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified to them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and [went] after the nations that were round about them, concerning whom Yahweh had charged those who they should not do like them.
And they rejected his statutes, and his covenant that he made with their fathers, and his testimonies which he testified against them; and they followed vanity, and became vain, and went after the heathen that were around them, concerning whom the LORD had charged them, that they should not do like them.
- 16 And turning their backs on all the orders which the Lord had given them, they made for themselves images of metal, and the image of Asherah, worshipping all the stars of heaven and becoming servants to Baal.
They forsook all the commandments of Yahweh their God, and made them molten images, even two calves, and made an Asherah, and worshipped all the host of the sky, and served Baal.
And they left all the commandments of the LORD their God, and made for themselves molten images, even two calves, and made a grove, and worshiped all the host of heaven, and served Baal.

- 17 And they made their sons and their daughters go through the fire, and they made use of secret arts and unnatural powers, and gave themselves up to doing evil in the eyes of the Lord, till he was moved to wrath.
They caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger.
And they caused their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire, and used divination and enchantments, and sold themselves to do evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.
- 18 So the Lord was very angry with Israel, and his face was turned away from them: only the tribe of Judah kept its place.
Therefore Yahweh was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.
Therefore the LORD was very angry with Israel, and removed them out of his sight: there was none left but the tribe of Judah only.
- 19 (But even Judah did not keep the orders of the Lord their God, but were guided by the rules which Israel had made.
Also Judah didn't keep the commandments of Yahweh their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.
Also Judah kept not the commandments of the LORD their God, but walked in the statutes of Israel which they made.
- 20 So the Lord would have nothing to do with all the offspring of Israel, and sent trouble on them, and gave them up into the hands of their attackers, till he had sent them away from before his face.)
Yahweh rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.
And the LORD rejected all the seed of Israel, and afflicted them, and delivered them into the hand of spoilers, until he had cast them out of his sight.
- 21 For Israel was broken off from the family of David, and they made Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, king, who, driving them away from the laws of the Lord, made them do a great sin.
For he tore Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following Yahweh, and made them sin a great sin.
For he rent Israel from the house of David; and they made Jeroboam the son of Nebat king: and Jeroboam drove Israel from following the LORD, and made them sin a great sin.
- 22 And the children of Israel went on with all the sins which Jeroboam did; they did not keep themselves from them;
The children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they didn't depart from them;
For the children of Israel walked in all the sins of Jeroboam which he did; they departed not from them;

- 23 Till the Lord put Israel away from before his face, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was taken away from their land to Assyria, to this day.
until Yahweh removed Israel out of his sight, as he spoke by all his servants the prophets. So Israel was carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.
Until the LORD removed Israel out of his sight, as he had said by all his servants the prophets. So was Israel carried away out of their own land to Assyria to this day.
- 24 Then the king of Assyria took men from Babylon and from Cuthah and Avva and Hamath and Sepharvaim, and put them in the towns of Samaria in place of the children of Israel; so they got Samaria for their heritage, living in its towns.
The king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Avva, and from Hamath and Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and lived in the cities of it.
And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria instead of the children of Israel: and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in its cities.
- 25 Now when first they were living there they did not give worship to the Lord. So the Lord sent lions among them, causing the death of some of them.
So it was, at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they didn't fear Yahweh: therefore Yahweh sent lions among them, which killed some of them.
And so it was at the beginning of their dwelling there, that they feared not the LORD: therefore the LORD sent lions among them, which slew some of them.
- 26 So they said to the king of Assyria, The nations whom you have taken as prisoners and put in the towns of Samaria, have no knowledge of the way of the god of the land: so he has sent lions among them, causing their death, because they have no knowledge of his way.
Therefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which you have carried away, and placed in the cities of Samaria, don't know the law of the god of the land: therefore he has sent lions among them, and, behold, they kill them, because they don't know the law of the god of the land.
Wherefore they spoke to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.
- 27 Then the king of Assyria gave orders, saying, Send there one of the priests whom you took away, and let him be living there and teaching the people the way of the god of the land.
Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry there one of the priests whom you brought from there; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the law of the god of the land.
Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither one of the priests whom ye brought from thence; and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land.

- 28 So one of the priests whom they had taken away as a prisoner from Samaria came back, and, living in Beth-el, became their teacher in the worship of the Lord.
So one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and lived in Bethel, and taught them how they should fear Yahweh.
Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria came and dwelt in Beth-el, and taught them how they should fear the LORD.
- 29 And every nation made gods for themselves, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in the towns where they were living.
However every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they lived.
Yet, every nation made gods of their own, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritans had made, every nation in their cities in which they dwelt.
- 30 The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,
The men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,
And the men of Babylon made Succoth-benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Ashima,
- 31 The Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites gave their children to be burned in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.
and the Avvites made Nibhaz and Tartak; and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.
And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in the fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech, the gods of Sepharvaim.
- 32 So they went on worshipping the Lord, and made for themselves, from among all the people, priests for the high places, to make offerings for them in the houses of the high places.
So they feared Yahweh, and made to them from among themselves priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.
So they feared the LORD, and made to themselves of the lowest of them priests of the high places, who sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.
- 33 They gave worship to the Lord, but they gave honour to their gods like the nations did from whom they had been taken as prisoners.
They feared Yahweh, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations from among whom they had been carried away.
They feared the LORD, and served their own gods, after the manner of the nations whom they carried away from thence.

- 34 So to this day they go on in their old ways, not worshipping the Lord or keeping his orders or his ways or the law and the rule which the Lord gave to the children of Jacob, to whom he gave the name Israel;
To this day they do after the former manner: they don't fear Yahweh, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law or after the commandment which Yahweh commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;
To this day they do after the former manners: they fear not the LORD, neither do they after their statutes, or after their ordinances, or after the law and commandment which the LORD commanded the children of Jacob, whom he named Israel;
- 35 And the Lord made an agreement with them and gave them orders, saying, You are to have no other gods; you are not to give worship to them or be their servants or make them offerings: with whom Yahweh had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, You shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:
With whom the LORD had made a covenant, and charged them, saying, Ye shall not fear other gods, nor bow yourselves to them, nor serve them, nor sacrifice to them:
- 36 But the Lord, who took you out of the land of Egypt with his great power and his outstretched arm, he is your God, to whom you are to give worship and make offerings: but Yahweh, who brought you up out of the land of Egypt with great power and with an outstretched arm, him shall you fear, and to him shall you bow yourselves, and to him shall you sacrifice:
But the LORD, who brought you out of the land of Egypt with great power and an out-stretched arm, him shall ye fear, and him shall ye worship, and to him shall ye do sacrifice.
- 37 And the rules and the orders and the law which he put in writing for you, you are to keep and do for ever; you are to have no other gods. and the statutes and the ordinances, and the law and the commandment, which he wrote for you, you shall observe to do forevermore; and you shall not fear other gods:
And the statutes, and the ordinances, and the law, and the commandment which he wrote for you, ye shall observe to do for evermore; and ye shall not fear other gods.
- 38 And you are to keep in memory the agreement which I have made with you; and you are to have no other gods. and the covenant that I have made with you you shall not forget; neither shall you fear other gods:
And the covenant that I have made with you ye shall not forget; neither shall ye fear other gods.
- 39 And you are to give worship to the Lord your God; for it is he who will give you salvation from the hands of all who are against you. but Yahweh your God shall you fear; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.
But the LORD your God ye shall fear; and he will deliver you out of the hand of all your enemies.

40 But they gave no attention, but went on in their old way.

However they did not listen, but they did after their former manner.

Yet they did not hearken, but they did after their former manner.

41 So these nations, worshipping the Lord, still were servants to the images they had made; their children and their children's children did the same; as their fathers did, so do they, to this day.

So these nations feared Yahweh, and served their engraved images; their children likewise, and their children's children, as did their fathers, so do they to this day.

So these nations feared the LORD, and served their graven images, both their children, and their children's children: as did their fathers, so do they to this day.

1 Now in the third year of Hoshea, son of Elah, king of Israel, Hezekiah, the son of Ahaz, became king of Judah.

3 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord as David his father had done.

He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that David his father had done.

And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that David his father did.

4 He had the high places taken away, and the stone pillars broken to bits, and the Asherah cut down; and the brass snake which Moses had made was crushed to powder at his order, because in those days the children of Israel had offerings burned before it, and he gave it the name Nehushtan.

He removed the high places, and broke the pillars, and cut down the Asherah: and he broke in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made; for to those days the children of Israel did burn incense to it; and he called it Nehushtan.

He removed the high places, and broke the images, and cut down the groves, and broke in pieces the brazen serpent that Moses had made: for till those days the children of Israel burnt incense to it: and he called it Nehushtan.

- 5 He had faith in the Lord, the God of Israel; so that there was no one like him among all the kings of Judah who were before him.
He trusted in Yahweh, the God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor [among them] that were before him.
He trusted in the LORD God of Israel; so that after him was none like him among all the kings of Judah, nor any that were before him.
- 6 For his heart was fixed on the Lord, not turning from his ways, and he did his orders which the Lord gave to Moses.
For he joined with Yahweh; he didn't depart from following him, but kept his commandments, which Yahweh commanded Moses
For he cleaved to the LORD, and departed not from following him, but kept his commandments, which the LORD commanded Moses.
- 7 And the Lord was with him; he did well in all his undertakings: and he took up arms against the king of Assyria and was his servant no longer.
Yahweh was with him; wherever he went forth he prospered: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and didn't serve him.
And the LORD was with him; and he prospered whithersoever he went forth: and he rebelled against the king of Assyria, and served him not.

- 8 He overcame the Philistines as far as Gaza and its limits, from the tower of the watchman to the walled town.
He struck the Philistines to Gaza and the borders of it, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.
He smote the Philistines, even to Gaza, and its borders, from the tower of the watchmen to the fortified city.

11 And the king of Assyria took Israel away as prisoners into Assyria, placing them in Halah and in Habor on the river Gozan, and in the towns of the Medes;
The king of Assyria carried Israel away to Assyria, and put them in Halah, and on the Habor, the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes,

And the king of Assyria carried away Israel to Assyria, and put them in Halah and in Habor by the river of Gozan, and in the cities of the Medes:

12 Because they did not give ear to the voice of the Lord their God, but went against his agreement, even against everything ordered by Moses, the servant of the Lord, and they did not give ear to it or do it.

because they didn't obey the voice of Yahweh their God, but transgressed his covenant, even all that Moses the servant of Yahweh commanded, and would not hear it, nor do it.

Because they obeyed not the voice of the LORD their God, but transgressed his covenant, and all that Moses the servant of the LORD commanded, and would not hear them, nor do them.

15 So Hezekiah gave him all the silver in the house of the Lord, and in the king's store-house.

Hezekiah gave [him] all the silver that was found in the house of Yahweh, and in the treasures of the king's house.

And Hezekiah gave him all the silver that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the king's house.

- 16 And at that time Hezekiah had the gold from the doors of the Lord's house, and from the door-pillars plated by him, cut off and gave it to the king of Assyria.
At that time did Hezekiah cut off [the gold from] the doors of the temple of Yahweh, and [from] the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.
At that time did Hezekiah cut off the gold from the doors of the temple of the LORD, and from the pillars which Hezekiah king of Judah had overlaid, and gave it to the king of Assyria.
- 17 Then the king of Assyria sent the Tartan and the Rab-saris and the Rab-shakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem, to King Hezekiah, with a strong force. And they went up and came to Jerusalem, and took up their position by the stream of the higher pool, by the highway of the washerman's field.
The king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rabshakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army to Jerusalem. They went up and came to Jerusalem. When they were come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.
And the king of Assyria sent Tartan and Rab-saris and Rab-shakeh from Lachish to king Hezekiah with a great army against Jerusalem: and they went up, and came to Jerusalem: and when they had come up, they came and stood by the conduit of the upper pool, which is in the highway of the fuller's field.

- 19 And the Rab-shakeh said to them, Say now to Hezekiah, These are the words of the great king, the king of Assyria: In what are you placing your hope?
Rabshakeh said to them, Say you now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust?
And Rab-shakeh said to them, Speak ye now to Hezekiah, Thus saith the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which thou trustest?
- 20 You say you have a design, and strength for war, but these are only words. Now to whom are you looking for support, that you have gone against my authority?
You say (but they are but vain words), [There is] counsel and strength for the war. Now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?
Thou sayest, but they are but vain words, I have counsel and strength for the war. Now in whom dost thou trust, that thou rebellest against me?

- 21 See, now, you are basing your hope on that broken rod of Egypt, which will go through a man's hand if he makes use of it for a support; for so is Pharaoh, king of Egypt, to all who put their faith in him.
Now, behold, you trust on the staff of this bruised reed, even on Egypt; whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all who trust on him.
Now behold, thou trustest upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, on which if a man leaneth, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him.
- 22 And if you say to me, Our hope is in the Lord our God: is it not he, whose high places and altars Hezekiah has taken away, saying to Judah and Jerusalem that worship may only be given before this altar in Jerusalem?
But if you tell me, We trust in Yahweh our God; isn't that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?
But if ye say to me, We trust in the LORD our God: is not that he whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah hath taken away, and hath said to Judah and Jerusalem, Ye shall worship before this altar in Jerusalem?
- 23 And now, take a chance with my master, the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you are able to put horsemen on them.
Now therefore, Please give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to set riders on them.
Now therefore, I pray thee, give pledges to my lord the king of Assyria, and I will deliver thee two thousand horses, if thou shalt be able on thy part to set riders upon them.
- 24 How then may you put to shame the least of my master's servants? and you have put your hope in Egypt for war-carriages and horsemen:
How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
How then wilt thou turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put thy trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
- 25 And have I now come up to send destruction on this place without the Lord's authority? It was the Lord himself who said to me, Go up against this land and make it waste.
Am I now come up without Yahweh against this place to destroy it? Yahweh said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.
Have I now come up without the LORD against this place to destroy it? The LORD said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.

- 26 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah said to the Rab-shakeh, Will you kindly make use of the Aramaean language in talking to your servants, for we are used to it, and do not make use of the Jews' language in the hearing of the people on the wall.
Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna, and Joah, to Rabshakeh, Please speak to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and don't speak with us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people who are on the wall.
Then said Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, and Shebna and Joah, to Rab-shakeh, Speak, I pray thee, to thy servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and talk not with us in the Jews language in the ears of the people that are on the wall.
- 27 But the Rab-shakeh said to them, Is it to your master or to you that my master has sent me to say these words? has he not sent me to the men seated on the wall? for they are the people who will be short of food with you when the town is shut in.
But Rabshakeh said to them, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? Hasn't he sent me to the men who sit on the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?
But Rab-shakeh said to them, Hath my master sent me to thy master, and to thee, to speak these words? hath he not sent me to the men who sit on the wall, that they may feed on their vilest excretions with you?
- 28 Then the Rab-shakeh got up and said with a loud voice in the Jews' language, Give ear to the words of the great king, the king of Assyria;
Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and spoke, saying, Hear you the word of the great king, the king of Assyria.
Then Rab-shakeh stood and cried with a loud voice in the Jews language, and spoke, saying, Hear the word of the great king, the king of Assyria:
- 29 This is what the king says: Do not be tricked by Hezekiah, for there is no salvation for you in him.
Thus says the king, Don't let Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you out of his hand:
Thus saith the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you: for he shall not be able to deliver you out of his hand:
- 30 And do not let Hezekiah make you put your faith in the Lord, saying, The Lord will certainly keep us safe, and this town will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Yahweh, saying, Yahweh will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
Neither let Hezekiah make you trust in the LORD, saying, The LORD will surely deliver us, and this city shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.

- 31 Do not give ear to Hezekiah, for this is what the king of Assyria says: Make peace with me and come out to me; and everyone will be free to take the fruit of his vine and of his fig-tree, and the water of his spring;
Don` t listen to Hezekiah: for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat you everyone of his vine, and everyone of his fig-tree, and everyone drink the waters of his own cistern;
Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus saith the king of Assyria, Make an agreement with me by a present, and come out to me, and then eat ye every man of his own vine, and every one of his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his cistern:
- 32 Till I come and take you away to a land like yours, a land of grain and wine, a land of bread and vine-gardens, a land of oil-giving olives and of honey, so that life and not death may be your fate. Give no attention to Hezekiah when he says to you, The Lord will keep us safe.
Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive-trees and of honey, that you may live, and not die: and don` t listen to Hezekiah, when he persuades you, saying, Yahweh will deliver us.
Until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of corn and wine, a land of bread and vineyards, a land of olive-oil and of honey, that ye may live, and not die: and hearken not to Hezekiah, when he persuadeth you, saying, The LORD will deliver us.
- 33 Has any one of the gods of the nations kept his land from falling into the hands of the king of Assyria?
Has any of the gods of the nations ever delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
Hath any of the gods of the nations delivered at all his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
- 34 Where are the gods of Hamath and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena and Ivvah? have they kept Samaria out of my hands?
Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
Where are the gods of Hamath, and of Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim, Hena, and Ivah? have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
- 35 Who among all the gods of these countries have kept their country from falling into my hands, to give cause for the thought that the Lord will keep Jerusalem from falling into my hands?
Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yahweh should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
Who are they among all the gods of the countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that the LORD should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?

36 But the people kept quiet and gave him no answer: for the king's order was, Give him no answer.
But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, saying, Don't answer him.
But the people held their peace, and answered him not a word: for the king's commandment was, saying, Answer him not.

37 Then Eliakim, the son of Hilkiah, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, came to Hezekiah, with their clothing parted as a sign of grief, and gave him an account of what the Rab-shakeh had said.
Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes torn, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.
Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah the son of Asaph the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rab-shakeh.

1 And on hearing it, King Hezekiah took off his robe, and put on haircloth, and went into the house of the Lord.
It happened, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he tore his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yahweh.
And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of the LORD.

2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the house, and Shebna the scribe, and the chief priests, dressed in haircloth, to Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz.
He sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.

3 And they said to him, Hezekiah says, This day is a day of trouble and punishment and shame; for the children are ready to come to birth, but there is no strength to give birth to them.
They said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of rejection; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.
And they said to him, Thus saith Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and blasphemy: for the children have come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.

- 4 It may be that the Lord your God will give ear to the words of the Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria, his master, sent to say evil things against the living God, and will make his words come to nothing: so then make your prayer for the rest of the people.
It may be Yahweh your God will hear all the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yahweh your God has heard: why lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.
It may be the LORD thy God will hear all the words of Rab-shakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master hath sent to reproach the living God; and will reprove the words which the LORD thy God hath heard: wherefore lift up thy prayer for the remnant that are left.
- 5 So the servants of King Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
- 6 And Isaiah said to them, This is what you are to say to your master: The Lord says, Be not troubled by the words which the servants of the king of Assyria have said against me in your hearing.
Isaiah said to them, Thus shall you tell your master, Thus says Yahweh, Don't be afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus saith the LORD, Be not afraid of the words which thou hast heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.

- 7 See, I will put a spirit into him, and bad news will come to his ears, and he will go back to his land; and there I will have him put to death by the sword.
Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear news, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
Behold, I will send a blast upon him, and he shall hear a rumor, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.

- 8 So the Rab-shakeh went back, and when he got there the king of Assyria was making war against Libnah, for it had come to his ears that he had gone away from Lachish.
So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
So Rab-shakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah: for he had heard that he had departed from Lachish.

And when he heard it said of Tirhakah king of Cush, Behold, he hath come out to fight against thee: he sent messengers again to Hezekiah, saying,

- 10 This is what you are to say to Hezekiah, king of Judah: Let not your God, in whom is your faith, give you a false hope, saying, Jerusalem will not be given into the hands of the king of Assyria.
Thus shall you speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Don't let your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not thy God in whom thou trustest deceive thee, saying, Jerusalem shall not be delivered into the hand of the king of Assyria.
- 11 No doubt the story has come to your ears of what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, putting them to the curse; and will you be kept safe?
Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shall you be delivered?
Behold, thou hast heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: and shalt thou be delivered?
- 12 Did the gods of the nations keep safe those on whom my fathers sent destruction, Gozan and Haran and Rezech and the children of Eden who were in Telassar?
Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezech, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar?
Have the gods of the nations delivered them which my fathers have destroyed; as Gozan and Haran, and Rezech, and the children of Eden who were in Thelesar?

And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezekiah went up into the house of the LORD, and spread it before the LORD.

- 15 And Hezekiah made his prayer to the Lord, saying, O Lord, the God of Israel, seated between the winged ones, you only are the God of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
Hezekiah prayed before Yahweh, and said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, who sit [above] the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
And Hezekiah prayed before the LORD, and said, O LORD God of Israel, who dwellest between the cherubim, thou art the God, even thou alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; thou hast made heaven and earth.
- 16 Let your ear be turned to us, O Lord, and let your eyes be open, O Lord, and see; take note of all the words of Sennacherib who has sent men to say evil against the living God.
Incline your ear, Yahweh, and hear; open your eyes, Yahweh, and see; and hear the words of Sennacherib, with which he has sent him to defy the living God.
LORD, bow down thy ear, and hear: open, LORD, thy eyes, and see: and hear the words of Sennacherib, who hath sent him to reproach the living God.
- 17 Truly, O Lord, the kings of Assyria have made waste the nations and their lands,
Of a truth, Yahweh, the kings of Assyria have laid waste the nations and their lands,
Of a truth, LORD, the kings of Assyria have destroyed the nations and their lands,
- 18 And have given their gods to the fire; for they were no gods, but wood and stone, the work of men's hands; so they have given them to destruction.
and have cast their gods into the fire; for they were no gods, but the work of men`s hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.
And have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but the work of men's hands, wood and stone: therefore they have destroyed them.
- 19 But now, O Lord our God, give us salvation from his hands, so that it may be clear to all the kingdoms of the earth that you and only you, O Lord, are God.
Now therefore, Yahweh our God, save you us, I beg you, out of his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you Yahweh are God alone.
Now therefore, O LORD our God, I beseech thee, save thou us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that thou art the LORD God, even thou only.

- 21 This is the word which the Lord has said about him: In the eyes of the virgin daughter of Zion you are shamed and laughed at; the daughter of Jerusalem has made sport of you.
This is the word that Yahweh has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you.
This is the word that the LORD hath spoken concerning him; The virgin the daughter of Zion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem hath shaken her head at thee.

- 22 Against whom have you said evil and bitter things? against whom has your voice been loud and your eyes lifted up? even against the Holy One of Israel.
Whom have you defied and blasphemed? and against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? [even] against the Holy One of Israel.
Whom hast thou reproached and blasphemed? and against whom hast thou exalted thy voice, and lifted up thy eyes on high: even against the Holy One of Israel.

- 23 You have sent your servants with evil words against the Lord, and have said, With all my war-carriages I have come up to the top of the mountains, to the inmost parts of Lebanon; its tall cedars will be cut down, and the best trees of its woods; I will come up into his highest places, into his thick woods.
By your messengers you have defied the Lord, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars of it, and the choice fir-trees of it; and I will enter into his farthest lodging-place, the forest of his fruitful field.
By thy messengers thou hast reproached the Lord, and hast said, With the multitude of my chariots I am come up to the height of the mountains, to the sides of Lebanon, and will cut down its tall cedar trees, and its choice fir trees: and I will enter into the lodgings of his borders, and into the forest of his Carmel.

- 25 Has it not come to your ears how I did it long before, purposing it in times long past? Now I have given effect to my design, so that by you strong towns might be turned into masses of broken walls.
Haven't you heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps.
Hast thou not heard long ago how I have done it, and of ancient times that I have formed it? now have I brought it to pass, that thou shouldst be to lay waste fortified cities in ruinous heaps.

- 26 This is why their townsmen had no power, they were broken and put to shame; they were like the grass of the field and the green plant, like grass on the house-tops.
Therefore their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as grain blasted before it is grown up.

But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me.
But I know thy abode, and thy going out, and thy coming in, and thy rage against me.
- 28 Because your wrath against me and your words of pride have come up to my ears, I will put my hook in your nose and my cord in your lips, and I will make you go back by the way you came.
Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance is come up into my ears, therefore will I put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.
Because thy rage against me and thy tumult is come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in thy nose, and my bridle in thy lips, and I will turn thee back by the way by which thou camest.

This shall be the sign to you: You shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow you, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of it.
And this shall be a sign to thee, Ye shall eat this year such things as grow of themselves, and in the second year that which springeth of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruits of it.

- 5 And let it be given to the overseers of the work of the Lord's house, to give to the workmen who are making good what was damaged in the house of the Lord;
and let them deliver it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and let them give it to the workmen who are in the house of Yahweh, to repair the breaches of the house,
And let them deliver it into the hand of the doers of the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD: and let them give it to the doers of the work, which is in the house of the LORD, to repair the breaches of the house,
- 6 To the woodworkers and the builders and the stone-cutters; and for getting wood and cut stones for the building up of the house.
to the carpenters, and to the builders, and to the masons, and for buying timber and hewn stone to repair the house.

Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Your servants have emptied out the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of the workmen who have the oversight of the house of Yahweh.
And Shaphan the scribe came to the king, and brought the king word again, and said, Thy servants have gathered the money that was found in the house, and have delivered it into the hand of them that do the work, that have the oversight of the house of the LORD.
- 10 Then Shaphan the scribe said to the king, Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book; and he was reading it before the king.

- 13 Go and get directions from the Lord for me and for the people and for all Judah, about the words of this book which has come to light; for great is the wrath of the Lord which is burning against us, because our fathers have not given ear to the words of this book, to do all the things which are recorded in it.
Go you, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not listened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.
Go ye, inquire of the LORD for me, and for the people, and for all Judah, concerning the words of this book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is kindled against us, because our fathers have not hearkened to the words of this book, to do according to all that which is written concerning us.
- 14 So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam and Achbor and Shaphan and Asaiah, went to Huldah the woman prophet, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the robes, (now she was living in Jerusalem, in the second part of the town;) and they had talk with her.
So Hilkiyah the priest, and Ahikam, and Achbor, and Shaphan, and Asaiah, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvah, the son of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter); and they talked with her.

- 15 And she said to them, The Lord, the God of Israel, says, Say to the man who sent you to me,
She said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Tell you the man who sent you to me,
And she said to them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,
- 16 These are the words of the Lord: See, I will send evil on this place and on its people, even everything which the king of Judah has been reading in the book;
Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah has read.
Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon its inhabitants, even all the words of the book which the king of Judah hath read:
- 17 Because they have given me up, burning offerings to other gods and moving me to wrath by all the work of their hands; so my wrath will be on fire against this place, and will not be put out.
Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the work of their hands, therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place, and it shall not be quenched.
Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be kindled against this place and shall not be quenched.

- 18 But to the king of Judah who sent you to get directions from the Lord, say, This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said: As to the words which have come to your ears,
But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus shall you tell him, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: As touching the words which you have heard,
But to the king of Judah who sent you to inquire of the LORD, thus shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, concerning the words which thou hast heard;
- 19 Because your heart was soft, and you made yourself low before me, when you had word of what I said against this place and its people, that they would become a waste and a curse, and you gave signs of grief, weeping before me: truly, I have given ear to you, says the Lord.
because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before Yahweh, when you heard what I spoke against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh.
Because thy heart was tender, and thou hast humbled thyself before the LORD, when thou heardest what I spoke against this place, and against its inhabitants, that they should become a desolation and a curse, and hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard thee, saith the LORD.
- 20 For this cause I will let you go to your fathers and be put in your last resting-place in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will send on this place. So they took this news back to the king.
Therefore, behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil which I will bring on this place. They brought the king word again.
Behold therefore, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered into thy grave in peace; and thy eyes shall not see all the evil which I will bring upon this place. And they brought the king word again.
- 1 Then the king sent and got together all the responsible men of Judah and of Jerusalem.

The king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of Yahweh.
And the king went up into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem with him, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the people, both small and great: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant which was found in the house of the LORD.

The king stood by the pillar, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all [his] heart, and all [his] soul, to confirm the words of this covenant that were written in this book: and all the people stood to the covenant.
And the king stood by a pillar, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all their heart and all their soul, to perform the words of this covenant that were written in this book. And all the people stood to the covenant.

- 4 Then the king gave orders to Hilkiah, the chief priest, and to the priests of the second order, and to the keepers of the door, to take out of the house of the Lord all the vessels made for Baal and for the Asherah and for all the stars of heaven; and he had them burned outside Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and took the dust of them to Beth-el.
The king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the threshold, to bring forth out of the temple of Yahweh all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the Asherah, and for all the host of the sky, and he burned them outside of Jerusalem in the fields of the Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Bethel.
And the king commanded Hilkiah the high priest, and the priests of the second order, and the keepers of the door, to bring forth out of the temple of the LORD all the vessels that were made for Baal, and for the grove, and for all the host of heaven: and he burned them without Jerusalem in the fields of Kidron, and carried the ashes of them to Beth-el.
- 5 And he put an end to the false priests, who had been put in their positions by the kings of Judah to see to the burning of offerings in the high places in the towns of Judah and the outskirts of Jerusalem, and all those who made offerings to Baal and to the sun and the moon and the twelve signs and all the stars of heaven.
He put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places round about Jerusalem; those also who burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of the sky.
And he put down the idolatrous priests, whom the kings of Judah had ordained to burn incense in the high places in the cities of Judah, and in the places around Jerusalem; them also that burned incense to Baal, to the sun, and to the moon, and to the planets, and to all the host of heaven.

- 9 Still the priests of the high places never came up to the altar of the Lord in Jerusalem; but they took their food of unleavened bread among their brothers.
Nevertheless the priests of the high places didn't come up to the altar of Yahweh in Jerusalem, but they ate unleavened bread among their brothers.
Nevertheless, the priests of the high places came not up to the altar of the LORD in Jerusalem, but they ate of the unleavened bread among their brethren.

- And the altars that were on the top of the upper chamber of Ahaz, which the kings of Judah had made, and the altars which Manasseh had made in the two courts of the house of the LORD, did the king beat down, and broke them down from thence, and cast the dust of them into the brook Kidron.

- 13 And the high places before Jerusalem, on the south side of the mountain of destruction, which Solomon, king of Israel, had made for Ashtoreth, the disgusting god of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh, the disgusting god of Moab, and for Milcom, the disgusting god of the children of Ammon, the king made unclean.
- The high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mountain of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Sidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of Moab, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.
- And the high places that were before Jerusalem, which were on the right hand of the mount of corruption, which Solomon the king of Israel had built for Ashtoreth the abomination of the Zidonians, and for Chemosh the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milcom the abomination of the children of Ammon, did the king defile.

- 16 Then Josiah, turning round, saw on the mountain the places of the dead, and he sent and had the bones taken out of their places and burned on the altar, so making it unclean, as the Lord had said by the man of God when Jeroboam was in his place by the altar on that feast-day. And he, turning his eyes to the resting-place of the man of God who had given word of these things, said:
- As Josiah turned himself, he spied the tombs that were there in the mountain; and he sent, and took the bones out of the tombs, and burned them on the altar, and defiled it, according to the word of Yahweh which the man of God proclaimed, who proclaimed these things.

And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keep the passover to the LORD your God, as it is written in the book of this covenant.
- 22 Truly, such a Passover had not been kept in all the days of the judges of Israel or of the kings of Israel or the kings of Judah;
Surely there was not kept such a Passover from the days of the judges who judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah;
Surely there was not held such a passover from the days of the judges that judged Israel, nor in all the days of the kings of Israel, nor of the kings of Judah.

Moreover those who had familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the teraphim, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might confirm the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of Yahweh.
Moreover the workers with familiar spirits, and the wizards, and the images, and the idols, and all the abominations that were seen in the land of Judah and in Jerusalem, did Josiah put away, that he might perform the words of the law which were written in the book that Hilkiah the priest found in the house of the LORD.

- 25 Never before had there been a king like him, turning to the Lord with all his heart and with all his soul and with all his power, as the law of Moses says; and after him there was no king like him.
Like him was there no king before him, who turned to Yahweh with all his heart, and with all his soul, and with all his might, according to all the law of Moses; neither after him arose there any like him.

- 26 But still the heat of the Lord's wrath was not turned back from Judah, because of all Manasseh had done in moving him to wrath.
Notwithstanding, Yahweh didn't turn from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocation with which Manasseh had provoked him.
Notwithstanding, the LORD turned not from the fierceness of his great wrath, with which his anger was kindled against Judah, because of all the provocations by which Manasseh had provoked him.

- 27 And the Lord said, I will send Judah away from before my face, as I have sent Israel; I will have nothing more to do with this town, which I had made mine, even Jerusalem, and the holy house of which I said, My name will be there.
Yahweh said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and I will cast off this city which I have chosen, even Jerusalem, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.
And the LORD said, I will remove Judah also out of my sight, as I have removed Israel, and will reject this city Jerusalem which I have chosen, and the house of which I said, My name shall be there.
- 28 Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
Now the rest of the acts of Josiah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

- 2 And the Lord sent against him bands of the Chaldeans and of the Edomites and of the Moabites and of the children of Ammon; sending them against Judah for its destruction, as he had said by his servants the prophets.
Yahweh sent against him bands of the Chaldeans, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of Yahweh, which he spoke by his servants the prophets.
And the LORD sent against him bands of the Chaldees, and bands of the Syrians, and bands of the Moabites, and bands of the children of Ammon, and sent them against Judah to destroy it, according to the word of the LORD, which he spoke by his servants the prophets.

3 Only by the word of the Lord did this fate come on Judah, to take them away from before his face; because of the sins of Manasseh and all the evil he did;
Surely at the commandment of Yahweh came this on Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did,
Surely at the commandment of the LORD came this upon Judah, to remove them out of his sight, for the sins of Manasseh, according to all that he did;

4 And because of the death of those who had done no wrong, for he made Jerusalem full of the blood of the upright; and the Lord had no forgiveness for it.
and also for the innocent blood that he shed; for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood: and Yahweh would not pardon.
And also for the innocent blood that he shed: for he filled Jerusalem with innocent blood; which the LORD would not pardon.

5 Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all he did, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Judah?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?
Now the rest of the acts of Jehoiakim, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Judah?

6 So Jehoiakim went to rest with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son became king in his place.
So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers; and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his place.
So Jehoiakim slept with his fathers: and Jehoiachin his son reigned in his stead.

7 And the king of Egypt did not come out of his land again, for the king of Babylon had taken all his country, from the stream of Egypt to the river Euphrates.
The king of Egypt didn't come again out of his land any more; for the king of Babylon had taken, from the brook of Egypt to the river Euphrates, all that pertained to the king of Egypt.
And the king of Egypt came not again any more out of his land: for the king of Babylon had taken from the river of Egypt to the river Euphrates all that pertained to the king of Egypt.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that his father had done.
And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father had done.

- 10 At that time the armies of Nebuchadnezzar came up to Jerusalem and the town was shut in on every side.
At that time the servants of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came up to Jerusalem, and the city was besieged.

- 12 Then Jehoiachin, king of Judah, went out to the king of Babylon, with his mother and his servants and his chiefs and his unsexed servants; and in the eighth year of his rule the king of Babylon took him.
and Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.
And Jehoiachin the king of Judah went out to the king of Babylon, he, and his mother, and his servants, and his princes, and his officers: and the king of Babylon took him in the eighth year of his reign.
- 13 And he took away all the stored wealth of the Lord's house, and the goods from the king's store-house, cutting up all the gold vessels which Solomon, king of Israel, had made in the house of the Lord, as the Lord had said.
He carried out there all the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold, which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of Yahweh, as Yahweh had said.
And he carried out thence all the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house, and cut in pieces all the vessels of gold which Solomon king of Israel had made in the temple of the LORD, as the LORD had said.
- 14 And he took away all the people of Jerusalem and all the chiefs and all the men of war, ten thousand prisoners; and all the expert workmen and the metal-workers; only the poorest sort of the people of the land were not taken away.
He carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the craftsmen and the smiths; none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.
And he carried away all Jerusalem, and all the princes, and all the mighty men of valor, even ten thousand captives, and all the artificers, and smiths: none remained, save the poorest sort of the people of the land.

15 He took Jehoiachin a prisoner to Babylon, with his mother and his wives and his unsexed servants and the great men of the land; he took them all as prisoners from Jerusalem to Babylon. He carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon; and the king`s mother, and the king`s wives, and his officers, and the chief men of the land, carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

And he carried away Jehoiachin to Babylon, and the king's mother, and the king's wives, and his officers, and the mighty of the land, those carried he into captivity from Jerusalem to Babylon.

16 And all the men of war, seven thousand of them, and a thousand expert workmen and metal-workers, all of them strong and able to take up arms, the king of Babylon took away as prisoners into Babylon.

All the men of might, even seven thousand, and the craftsmen and the smiths one thousand, all of them strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

And all the men of might, even seven thousand, and artificers and smiths a thousand, all that were strong and apt for war, even them the king of Babylon brought captive to Babylon.

17 And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah, his father's brother, king in place of Jehoiachin, changing his name to Zedekiah.

The king of Babylon made Mattaniah, [Jehoiachin`s] father`s brother, king in his place, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

And the king of Babylon made Mattaniah his father's brother king in his stead, and changed his name to Zedekiah.

18 Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he became king, and he was king in Jerusalem for eleven years; his mother's name was Hamutal, daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

Zedekiah was twenty-one years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother`s name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.

19 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Jehoiakim had done.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

And he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.

20 And because of the wrath of the Lord, this came about in Jerusalem and Judah, till he had sent them all away from before him: and Zedekiah took up arms against the king of Babylon.

For through the anger of Yahweh did it happen in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

For through the anger of the LORD it came to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence, that Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.

1 Now in the ninth year of his rule, on the tenth day of the tenth month, Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, came against Jerusalem with all his army and took up his position before it, building earthworks all round the town.

It happened in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.

And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came, he, and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it on all sides.

2 And the town was shut in by their forces till the eleventh year of King Zedekiah.

So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

And the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.

3 Now on the ninth day of the fourth month, the store of food in the town was almost gone, so that there was no food for the people of the land.

On the ninth day of the [fourth] month the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.

And on the ninth day of the fourth month the famine prevailed in the city, and there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 So an opening was made in the wall of the town, and all the men of war went in flight by night through the doorway between the two walls which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were stationed round the town:) and the king went by the way of the Arabah.

Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war [fled] by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about); and [the king] went by the way of the Arabah.

And the city was broken up, and all the men of war fled by night by the way of the gate between two walls, which is by the king's garden: (now the Chaldees were against the city on all sides:) and the king went the way towards the plain.

5 But the Chaldaean army went after the king, and overtook him in the lowlands of Jericho, and all his army went in flight from him in every direction.

But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.

And the army of the Chaldees pursued the king, and overtook him in the plains of Jericho: and all his army were scattered from him.

- 6 And they made the king a prisoner and took him up to the king of Babylon at Riblah to be judged.
Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment on him.
So they took the king, and brought him to the king of Babylon to Riblah; and they gave judgment upon him.
- 7 And they put the sons of Zedekiah to death before his eyes, and then they put out his eyes, and chaining him with iron bands, took him to Babylon.
They killed the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon.
And they slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes, and put out the eyes of Zedekiah, and bound him with fetters of brass, and carried him to Babylon.
- 8 Now in the fifth month, on the seventh day of the month, in the nineteenth year of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, a servant of the king of Babylon, came to Jerusalem;

- 9 And he had the house of the Lord and the king's house and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned with fire;
He burnt the house of Yahweh, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burnt he with fire.
And he burnt the house of the LORD, and the king's house, and all the houses of Jerusalem, and every great man's house he burnt with fire.
- 10 And the walls round Jerusalem were broken down by the Chaldaean army which was with the captain.
All the army of the Chaldeans, who were [with] the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem round about.
And all the army of the Chaldees, that were with the captain of the guard, broke down the walls of Jerusalem on all sides.
- 11 And the rest of the people who were still in the town, and all those who had given themselves up to the king of Babylon, and all the rest of the workmen, Nebuzaradan, the captain of the armed men, took away as prisoners;
The residue of the people who were left in the city, and those who fell away, who fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude, did Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carry away captive.
Now the rest of the people that were left in the city, and the fugitives that fell away to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the multitude, did Nebuzar-adan the captain of the guard carry away.

- 12 But he let the poorest of the land go on living there, to take care of the vines and the fields.
But the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to work the vineyards and fields.
But the captain of the guard left of the poor of the land to be vine-dressers and husbandmen.

- 14 And the pots and the spades and the scissors for the lights and the spoons, and all the brass vessels used in the Lord's house, they took away.
The pots, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, took they away.

- 15 And the fire-trays and the basins; the gold of the gold vessels and the silver of the silver vessels, were all taken away by the captain of the armed men.
The fire pans, and the basins, that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.
And the fire-pans, and the bowls, and such things as were of gold, in gold, and of silver, in silver, the captain of the guard took away.

The two pillars, one sea, and the bases which Solomon had made for the house of the LORD; the brass of all these vessels was without weight.

- 17 One of the pillars was eighteen cubits high, with a crown of brass on it; the crown was three cubits high, circled with a network and apples all of brass; and the second pillar had the same. - 19 And from the town he took the unsexed servant who was over the men of war, and five of the king's near friends who were in the town, and the scribe of the captain of the army, who was responsible for getting the people of the land together in military order, and sixty men of the people of the land who were in the town. and out of the city he took an officer who was set over the men of war; and five men of those who saw the king`s face, who were found in the city; and the scribe, the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, who were found in the city. And out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war, and five men of them that were in the king's presence, who were found in the city, and the principal scribe of the host, who mustered the people of the land, and sixty men of the people of the land that were found in the city:

- 21 And the king of Babylon put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was taken away prisoner from his land. The king of Babylon struck them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. 22 As for the people who were still living in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, did not take away, he made Gedaliah, the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler over them.
As for the people who were left in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, governor.

And as for the people that remained in the land of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon had left, even over them he made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, ruler.

23 Now the captains of the armed forces, hearing that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah ruler, came with their men to Gedaliah at Mizpah; Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan, the son of Kareah, and Seraiah, the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah, the son of the Maacathite, came with all their men.

Now when all the captains of the forces, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.

And when all the captains of the armies, they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah governor, there came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, even Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan the son of Careah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth the Netophathite, and Jaazaniah the son of Maachathite, they and their men.

24 Then Gedaliah gave his oath to them and their men, saying, Have no fear because of the servants of the Chaldeans; go on living in the land under the rule of the king of Babylon, and all will be well.

Gedaliah swore to them and to their men, and said to them, Don't be afraid because of the servants of the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

And Gedaliah swore to them, and to their men, and said to them, Fear not to be the servants of the Chaldees: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon; and it shall be well with you.

25 But in the seventh month, Ishmael, the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the king's seed, came with ten men and made an attack on Gedaliah, causing his death and the death of the Jews and the Chaldeans who were with him at Mizpah.

But it happened in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the royal seed came, and ten men with him, and struck Gedaliah, so that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldeans that were with him at Mizpah.

But it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal, came, and ten men with him, and smote Gedaliah, that he died, and the Jews and the Chaldees that were with him at Mizpah.

- 26 Then all the people, small and great, and the captains of the forces, got up and went away to Egypt, for fear of the Chaldeans.
All the people, both small and great, and the captains of the forces, arose, and came to Egypt; for they were afraid of the Chaldeans.
And all the people, both small and great, and the captains of the armies, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraid of the Chaldees.

2 They were armed with bows, and were able to send stones, and arrows from the bow, with right hand or left: they were Saul's brothers, of Benjamin.
They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in slinging stones and in shooting arrows from the bow: they were of Saul's brothers of Benjamin.
They were armed with bows, and could use both the right hand and the left in hurling stones, and shooting arrows from a bow, even of Saul's brethren of Benjamin.

David went out to meet them, and answered them, If you be come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you; but if [you be come] to betray me to my adversaries, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look thereon, and rebuke it.

And David went out to meet them, and answered and said to them, If ye have come peaceably to me to help me, my heart shall be knit to you: but if ye have come to betray me to my enemies, seeing there is no wrong in my hands, the God of our fathers look on it, and rebuke it.

18 Then the spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the captains, and he said, We are yours, David, we are on your side, O son of Jesse: may peace be with you and peace be with your helpers; for God is your helper. Then David took them into his army and made them captains of the band.

Then the Spirit came on Amasai, who was chief of the thirty, [and he said], Your are we, David, and on your side, you son of Jesse: peace, peace be to you, and peace be to your helpers; for your God helps you. Then David received them, and made them captains of the band.

2 And David said to all the men of Israel who had come together there, If it seems good to you and if it is the purpose of the Lord our God, let us send to all the rest of our brothers, everywhere in the land of Israel, and to the priests and the Levites in their towns and the country round them, and get them to come together here to us;

David said to all the assembly of Israel, If it seem good to you, and if it be of Yahweh our God, let us send abroad everywhere to our brothers who are left in all the land of Israel, with whom the priests and Levites are in their cities that have suburbs, that they may gather themselves to us;

And David said to all the congregation of Israel, If it seemeth good to you, and that it is of the LORD our God, let us send abroad to our brethren every where, that are left in all the land of Israel, and with them also to the priests and Levites who are in their cities and suburbs, that they may assemble to us:

- 3 And let us get back for ourselves the ark of our God: for in the days of Saul we did not go to it for directions.
and let us bring again the ark of our God to us: for we didn't seek it in the days of Saul.
And let us bring again to us the ark of our God: for we inquired not at it in the days of Saul.
- 4 And all the people said they would do so, for it seemed right to them.
All the assembly said that they would do so; for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.
And all the congregation said that they would do so: for the thing was right in the eyes of all the people.
- 5 So David sent for all Israel to come together, from Shihor, the river of Egypt, as far as the way into Hamath, to get the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.
So David assembled all Israel together, from the Shihor [the brook] of Egypt even to the entrance of Hamath, to bring the ark of God from Kiriath-jearim.
So David assembled all Israel, from Shihor of Egypt even to the entrance of Hemath, to bring the ark of God from Kirjath-jearim.
- 6 And David went up, with all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kiriath-jearim in Judah, to get up from there the ark of God, over which the holy Name is named, the name of the Lord whose place is between the winged ones.
David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, [that is], to Kiriath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up from there the ark of God Yahweh that sits [above] the cherubim, that is called by the Name.
And David went up, and all Israel, to Baalah, that is, to Kirjath-jearim, which belonged to Judah, to bring up thence the ark of God the LORD, that dwelleth between the cherubim, whose name is called on it.
- 7 And they put the ark of God on a new cart, and took it out of the house of Abinadab; and Uzza and Ahio were the drivers of the cart.
They carried the ark of God on a new cart, [and brought it] out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.
And they carried the ark of God in a new cart out of the house of Abinadab: and Uzza and Ahio drove the cart.
- 8 Then David and all Israel made melody before God with all their strength, with songs and corded instruments of music, and with brass instruments and horns.
David and all Israel played before God with all their might, even with songs, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with tambourines, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.
And David and all Israel played before God with all their might, and with singing, and with harps, and with psalteries, and with timbrels, and with cymbals, and with trumpets.

- 9 And when they came to the grain-floor of Chidon, Uzza put out his hand to keep the ark in its place, for the oxen were slipping.
When they came to the threshing floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.
And when they came to the threshing-floor of Chidon, Uzza put forth his hand to hold the ark; for the oxen stumbled.
- 10 And the wrath of the Lord, burning against Uzza, sent destruction on him because he had put his hand on the ark, and death came to him there before God.
The anger of Yahweh was kindled against Uzza, and he struck him, because he put forth his hand to the ark; and there he died before God.
And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzza, and he smote him, because he put his hand to the ark: and there he died before God.
- 11 And David was angry because of the Lord's outburst of wrath against Uzza, and he gave that place the name Perez-uzza, to this day.
David was displeased, because Yahweh had broken forth on Uzza; and he called that place Perez-uzza, to this day.
And David was displeased, because the LORD had made a breach upon Uzza: wherefore that place is called Perez-uzza to this day.
- 12 And so great was David's fear of God that day, that he said, How may I let the ark of God come to me?
David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?
And David was afraid of God that day, saying, How shall I bring the ark of God home to me?
- 13 So David did not let the ark come back to him to the town of David, but had it turned away and put into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
So David didn't move the ark to him into the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
So David brought not the ark to himself to the city of David, but carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.
- 14 And the ark of God was in the house of Obed-edom for three months; and the Lord sent a blessing on the house of Obed-edom and on all he had.
The ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months: and Yahweh blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.
And the ark of God remained with the family of Obed-edom in his house three months. And the LORD blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that he had.

David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and will you deliver them into my hand? Yahweh said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into your hand.
And David inquired of God, saying, Shall I go up against the Philistines? and wilt thou deliver them into my hand? And the LORD said to him, Go up; for I will deliver them into thy hand.
- 11 So they went up to Baal-perazim, and David overcame them there, and David said, God has let the forces fighting against me be broken by my hand, as a wall is broken down by rushing water; so they gave that place the name of Baal-perazim.

43 And all the people went away, every man to his house; and David went back to give a blessing to his family.

All the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

And all the people departed every man to his house: and David returned to bless his house.

1 Now when David was living in his house, he said to Nathan the prophet, See, I am living in a house of cedar-wood, but the ark of the Lord's agreement is under the curtains of a tent.

It happened, when David lived in his house, that David said to Nathan the prophet, Behold, I dwell in a house of cedar, but the ark of the covenant of Yahweh [dwells] under curtains.

Go and tell David my servant, Thus says Yahweh, You shall not build me a house to dwell in:

Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me a house to dwell in:

5 For from the day when I took Israel up, till this day, I have had no house, but have gone from tent to tent, and from living-place to living-place.

for I have not lived in a house since the day that I brought up Israel, to this day, but have gone from tent to tent, and from [one] tent [to another].

For I have not dwelt in a house since the day that I brought up Israel to this day; but have gone from tent to tent, and from one tabernacle to another.

- 6 In all the places where I have gone with all Israel, did I ever say to any of the judges of Israel, whom I made the keepers of my people, Why have you not made for me a house of cedar?
In all places in which I have walked with all Israel, spoke I a word with any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to be shepherd of my people, saying, Why have you not built me a house of cedar?
Wherever I have walked with all Israel, have I spoken a word to any of the judges of Israel, whom I commanded to feed my people, saying, Why have ye not built me a house of cedars?
- 7 So now, say to my servant David, The Lord of armies says, I took you from the fields, from keeping sheep, so that you might be a ruler over my people Israel;
Now therefore thus shall you tell my servant David, Thus says Yahweh of Hosts, I took you from the sheep pen, from following the sheep, that you should be prince over my people Israel:
Now therefore thus shalt thou say to my servant David, Thus saith the LORD of hosts, I took thee from the sheep-cote, even from following the sheep, that thou shouldst be ruler over my people Israel:
- 8 And I have been with you wherever you went, cutting off before you all those who were against you; and I will make your name like the name of the greatest ones of the earth.
and I have been with you wherever you have gone, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make you a name, like the name of the great ones who are in the earth.
And I have been with thee whithersoever thou hast walked, and have cut off all thy enemies from before thee, and have made thee a name like the name of the great men that are in the earth.
- 9 And I will make a resting-place for my people Israel, planting them there, so that they may be in the place which is theirs and never again be moved; and never again will they be made waste by evil men, as they were at first,
I will appoint a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, that they may dwell in their own place, and be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the first,
Also I will ordain a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more, as at the beginning.
- 10 From the time when I put judges over my people Israel; and I will overcome all those who are against you; and I will make you great and the head of a line of kings. and [as] from the day that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel; and I will subdue all your enemies. Moreover I tell you that Yahweh will build you a house.
And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel. Moreover, I will subdue all thy enemies. Furthermore, I tell thee that the LORD will build thee a house.

- 11 And when the time comes for you to go to your fathers, I will put in your place your seed after you, one of your sons, and I will make his kingdom strong.
It shall happen, when your days are fulfilled that you must go to be with your fathers, that I will set up your seed after you, who shall be of your sons; and I will establish his kingdom.
And it shall come to pass, when thy days shall be ended that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, who shall be of thy sons; and I will establish his kingdom.
- 12 He will be the builder of my house, and I will make the seat of his authority certain for ever.
He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne forever.
He shall build me a house, and I will establish his throne for ever.
- 13 I will be to him a father and he will be to me a son; and I will not take my mercy away from him as I took it from him who was before you;
I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my lovingkindness away from him, as I took it from him that was before you;
I will be his father, and he shall be my son: and I will not take my mercy away from him, as I took it from him that was before thee:
- 14 But I will make his place in my house and in my kingdom certain for ever; and the seat of his authority will never be overturned.
but I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom forever; and his throne shall be established forever.
But I will settle him in my house and in my kingdom for ever: and his throne shall be established for evermore.
- 15 So Nathan gave David an account of all these words and this vision.
According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.
According to all these words, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speak to David.
- 16 Then David the king went in and took his seat before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lord God, and what is my family, that you have been my guide till now?
Then David the king went in, and sat before Yahweh; and he said, Who am I, Yahweh God, and what is my house, that you have brought me thus far?
And David the king came and sat before the LORD, and said, Who am I, O LORD God, and what is my house, that thou hast brought me hitherto?

17 And this was only a small thing to you, O God; but your words have even been about the far-off future of your servant's family, looking on me as on one of high position, O Lord God.
This was a small thing in your eyes, God; but you have spoken of your servant's house for a great while to come, and have regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, Yahweh God.
And yet this was a small thing in thy eyes, O God; for thou hast also spoken of thy servant's house for a great while to come, and hast regarded me according to the estate of a man of high degree, O LORD God.

18 What more may David say to you? for you have knowledge of your servant.
What can David [say] yet more to you concerning the honor which is done to your servant? for you know your servant.
What can David speak more to thee for the honor of thy servant? for thou knowest thy servant.

19 O Lord, because of your servant, and from your heart, you have done all these great things and let them be seen.
Yahweh, for your servant's sake, and according to your own heart, have you worked all this greatness, to make known all [these] great things.
O LORD, for thy servant's sake, and according to thy own heart, hast thou done all this greatness, in making known all these great things.

20 O Lord, there is no one like you, and no other God but you, as is clear from everything which has come to our ears.
Yahweh, there is none like you, neither is there any God besides you, according to all that we have heard with our ears.
O LORD, there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

21 And what other nation in the earth, like your people Israel, did a god go out to take for himself, to be his people, making his name great and to be feared, driving out the nations from before your people whom you made free and took out of Egypt?
What one nation in the earth is like your people Israel, whom God went to redeem to himself for a people, to make you a name by great and awesome things, in driving out nations from before your people, whom you redeem out of Egypt?
And what one nation in the earth is like thy people Israel, whom God went to redeem to be his own people, to make thee a name of greatness and terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people, whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For your people Israel you made yours for ever; and you, Lord, became their God.
For your people Israel did you make your own people forever; and you, Yahweh, became their God.
For thy people Israel didst thou make thy own people for ever; and thou, LORD, becamest their God.

- 23 And now, Lord, let your words about your servant and about his family be made certain for ever, and do as you have said.
Now, Yahweh, let the word that you have spoken concerning your servant, and concerning his house, be established forever, and do as you have spoken.
Therefore now, LORD, Let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant and concerning his house be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.
- 24 So let your words be made certain and your name be made great, when men say, The Lord of armies is the God of Israel; and when the family of David your servant is made strong before you.
Let your name be established and magnified forever, saying, Yahweh of Hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and the house of David your servant is established before you.
Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.
- 25 For you, O my God, have let your servant see that you will make him head of a line of kings; and so it has come into your servant's heart to make his prayer to you.
For you, my God, have revealed to your servant that you will build him a house: therefore has your servant found [in his heart] to pray before you.
For thou, O my God, hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him a house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.
- 26 And now, O Lord, you are God, and you have said you will give this good thing to your servant:
Now, Yahweh, you are God, and have promised this good thing to your servant:
And now, LORD, thou art God, and hast promised this goodness to thy servant:
- 27 And now you have been pleased to give your blessing to the family of your servant, so that it may go on for ever before you; you, O Lord, have given your blessing, and a blessing will be on it for ever.
and now it has pleased you to bless the house of your servant, that it may continue forever before you: for you, Yahweh, have blessed, and it is blessed forever.
Now therefore let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou blessest, O LORD, and it shall be blessed for ever.

1 And it came about after this that David made an attack on the Philistines and overcame them, and took Gath with its daughter-towns out of the hands of the Philistines.
After this it happened, that David struck the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

Now after this it came to pass that David smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and its towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he overcame Moab, and the Moabites became his servants and gave him offerings.

He struck Moab; and the Moabites became servants to David, and brought tribute.

And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became David's servants, and brought gifts.

3 Then David overcame Hadadezer, king of Zobah, near Hamath, when he was going to make his power seen by the river Euphrates.

David struck Hadarezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

And David smote Hadarezer king of Zobah to Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

4 And David took from him a thousand war-carriages and seven thousand horsemen and twenty thousand footmen: and he had the leg-muscles of all the horses cut, keeping only enough of them for a hundred war-carriages.

David took from him one thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen; and David hamstrung all the chariot horses, but reserved of them for one hundred chariots.

And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousand horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but reserved of them a hundred chariots.

5 And when the Aramaeans of Damascus came to the help of Hadadezer, king of Zobah, David put to the sword twenty-two thousand Aramaeans.

When the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David struck of the Syrians twenty-two thousand men.

And when the Syrians of Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

6 Then David put armed forces in Damascus, and the Aramaeans became his servants and gave him offerings. And the Lord made David overcome wherever he went.

Then David put [garrisons] in Syria of Damascus; and the Syrians became servants to David, and brought tribute. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went.

Then David put garrisons in Syria-damascus; and the Syrians became David's servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

- 7 And the gold body-covers of the servants of Hadadezer, David took to Jerusalem.
David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.
- 8 And from Tibhath and from Cun, towns of Hadadezer, David took a great store of brass, of which Solomon made the great brass water-vessel and the brass pillars and vessels.
From Tibhath and from Cun, cities of Hadarezer, David took very much brass, with which Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.
Likewise from Tibhath, and from Chun, cities of Hadarezer, David brought very much brass, with which Solomon made the brazen sea, and the pillars, and the vessels of brass.
- 9 Now when Tou, king of Hamath, had news that David had overcome all the army of Hadadezer, king of Zobah,
When Tou king of Hamath heard that David had struck all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah,
Now when Tou king of Hamath heard how David had smitten all the host of Hadarezer king of Zobah;
- 10 He sent his son Hadoram to King David, to give him words of peace and blessing, because he had overcome Hadadezer in the fight, for Hadadezer had been at war with Tou; and he gave him all sorts of vessels of gold and silver and brass.
he sent Hadoram his son to king David, to Greet him, and to bless him, because he had fought against Hadarezer and struck him; (for Hadarezer had wars with Tou;) and [he had with him] all manner of vessels of gold and silver and brass.
He sent Hadoram his son to king David to inquire of his welfare, and to congratulate him, because he had fought against Hadarezer, and smitten him; (for Hadarezer had warred with Tou;) and with him all manner of vessels of gold, and silver, and brass.
- 11 These King David made holy to the Lord, together with the silver and gold he had taken from all nations; from Edom and Moab and from the children of Ammon and from the Philistines and from Amalek.
These also did king David dedicate to Yahweh, with the silver and the gold that he carried away from all the nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.
Them also king David dedicated to the LORD, with the silver and the gold that he brought from all these nations; from Edom, and from Moab, and from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines, and from Amalek.
- 12 And when he came back from putting to the sword eighteen thousand of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt,
Moreover Abishai the son of Zeruiah struck of the Edomites in the Valley of Salt eighteen thousand.
Moreover, Abishai the son of Zeruiah slew of the Edomites in the valley of salt eighteen thousand.

13 David put armed forces in all the towns of Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. The Lord made David overcome wherever he went.
He put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became servants to David. Yahweh gave victory to David wherever he went.
And he put garrisons in Edom; and all the Edomites became David's servants. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

14 So David was king over all Israel, judging and giving right decisions for all his people.
David reigned over all Israel; and he executed justice and righteousness to all his people.
So David reigned over all Israel, and executed judgment and justice among all his people.

15 And Joab, the son of Zeruiah, was chief of the army; and Jehoshaphat, son of Ahilud, was keeper of the records.
Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud was recorder;
And Joab the son of Zeruiah was over the host; and Jehoshaphat the son of Ahilud, recorder;

16 And Zadok, the son of Ahitub; and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was the scribe; and Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were priests; and Shavsha was scribe;
And Zadok the son of Ahitub, and Abimelech the son of Abiathar, were the priests; and Shavsha was scribe;

17 And Benaiah, the son of Jehoiada, was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief of those whose places were at the king's side.
and Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.
And Benaiah the son of Jehoiada was over the Cherethites and the Pelethites; and the sons of David were chief about the king.

1 Now it came about after this that death came to Nahash, the king of the children of Ammon, and his son became king in his place.
It happened after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his place.
Now it came to pass after this, that Nahash the king of the children of Ammon died, and his son reigned in his stead.

2 And David said, I will be a friend to Hanun, the son of Nahash, because his father was a friend to me. So David sent men to him, to give him words of comfort on account of his father. And the servants of David came to Hanun, to the land of the children of Ammon, offering him comfort.

David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. So David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. David`s servants came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

And David said, I will show kindness to Hanun the son of Nahash, because his father showed kindness to me. And David sent messengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the servants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the chiefs of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Does it seem to you that David is honouring your father, by sending comforters to you? is it not clear that these men have only come to go through the land and to make secret observation of it so that they may overcome it?

But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Think you that David does honor your father, in that he has sent comforters to you? Aren`t his servants come to you to search, and to overthrow, and to spy out the land?

But the princes of the children of Ammon said to Hanun, Thinkest thou that David doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comforters to thee? are not his servants come to thee to search, and to overthrow, and to explore the land?

4 So Hanun took David's servants, and cutting off their hair and the skirts of their robes up to the middle, sent them away.

So Hanun took David`s servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the middle, even to their buttocks, and sent them away.

Wherefore Hanun took David's servants, and shaved them, and cut off their garments in the midst hard by their buttocks, and sent them away.

5 Then certain men went and gave David word of what had been done to them. And he sent out with the purpose of meeting them; for the men were greatly shamed. And the king said, Keep where you are at Jericho till your hair is long again, and then come back.

Then there went certain persons, and told David how the men were served. He sent to meet them; for the men were greatly ashamed. The king said, Stay at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

Then there went certain, and told David how the men were served. And he sent to meet them: for the men were greatly ashamed. And the king said, Tarry at Jericho until your beards are grown, and then return.

- 6 And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves hated by David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver as payment for war-carriages and horsemen from Mesopotamia and Aram-maacah and Zobah.
When the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent one thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Arammaacah, and out of Zobah.
And when the children of Ammon saw that they had made themselves odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon sent a thousand talents of silver to hire them chariots and horsemen out of Mesopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.
- 7 So with this money they got thirty-two thousand war-carriages, and the help of the king of Maacah and his people, who came and took up their position in front of Medeba. And the children of Ammon came together from their towns for the fight.
So they hired them thirty-two thousand chariots, and the king of Maacah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. The children of Ammon gathered themselves together from their cities, and came to battle.
So they hired thirty and two thousand chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people, who came and encamped before Medeba. And the children of Ammon assembled from their cities, and came to battle.
- 8 And David, hearing of it, sent Joab with all the army of fighting-men.
When David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.
And when David heard of it, he sent Joab, and all the host of the mighty men.
- 9 So the children of Ammon came out and put their forces in position on the way into the town; and the kings who had come were stationed by themselves in the field.
The children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array at the gate of the city: and the kings who had come were by themselves in the field.
And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battle in array before the gate of the city: and the kings that had come were by themselves in the field.
- 10 Now when Joab saw that their forces were in position against him in front and at his back, he took all the best men of Israel, and put them in line against the Aramaeans;
Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he chose of all the choice men of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.
Now when Joab saw that the battle was set against him before and behind, he selected all the choice of Israel, and put them in array against the Syrians.

- 11 And the rest of the people he put in position against the children of Ammon with Abishai, his brother, at their head.
The rest of the people he committed into the hand of Abishai his brother; and they put themselves in array against the children of Ammon.
And the rest of the people he delivered to the hand of Abishai his brother, and they set themselves in array against the children of Ammon.
- 12 And he said, If the Aramaeans are stronger and get the better of me, then come to my help; and if the children of Ammon get the better of you, I will come to your help.
He said, If the Syrians be too strong for me, then you shall help me; but if the children of Ammon be too strong for you, then I will help you.
And he said, If the Syrians shall be too strong for me, then thou shalt help me: but if the children of Ammon shall be too strong for thee, then I will help thee.
- 13 Take heart, and let us be strong for our people and for the towns of our God; and may the Lord do what seems good to him.
Be of good courage, and let us play the man for our people, and for the cities of our God: and Yahweh do that which seems him good.
Be of good courage, and let us behave ourselves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his sight.
- 14 So Joab and the people who were with him went forward into the fight against the Aramaeans, and they went in flight before him.
So Joab and the people who were with him drew near before the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him.
So Joab and the people that were with him drew nigh before the Syrians to the battle; and they fled before him.
- 15 And when the children of Ammon saw the flight of the Aramaeans, they themselves went in flight from Abishai, his brother, and came into the town. Then Joab came back to Jerusalem.
When the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.
And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians had fled, they likewise fled before Abishai his brother, and entered into the city. Then Joab came to Jerusalem.

- 16 And when the Aramaeans saw that Israel had overcome them, they sent men to get the Aramaeans who were on the other side of the River, with Shophach, the captain of Hadadezer's army, at their head.
When the Syrians saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians who were beyond the River, with Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer at their head.
And when the Syrians saw that they were defeated before Israel, they sent messengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the river: and Shophach the captain of the host of Hadarezer went before them.
- 17 And word of this was given to David; and he got all Israel together and went over Jordan and came to Helam and put his forces in position against them. And when David's forces were in position against the Aramaeans, the fight was started.
It was told David; and he gathered all Israel together, and passed over the Jordan, and came on them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.
And it was told to David; and he gathered all Israel, and passed over Jordan, and came upon them, and set the battle in array against them. So when David had put the battle in array against the Syrians, they fought with him.
- 18 And the Aramaeans went in flight before Israel; and David put to the sword the men of seven thousand Aramaean war-carriages and forty thousand footmen, and put to death Shophach, the captain of the army.
The Syrians fled before Israel; and David killed of the Syrians [the men of] seven thousand chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.
But the Syrians fled before Israel; and David slew of the Syrians seven thousand men who fought in chariots, and forty thousand footmen, and killed Shophach the captain of the host.
- 19 And when the servants of Hadadezer saw that they were overcome by Israel, they made peace with David and became his servants: and the Aramaeans would give no more help to the children of Ammon.
When the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were put to the worse before Israel, they made peace with David, and served him: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.
And when the servants of Hadarezer saw that they were defeated before Israel, they made peace with David, and became his servants: neither would the Syrians help the children of Ammon any more.

1 Now in the spring, at the time when kings go out to war, Joab went out at the head of the armed forces and made waste all the land of the Ammonites and put his men in position before Rabbah, shutting it in. But David was still at Jerusalem. And Joab took Rabbah and made it waste.

It happened, at the time of the return of the year, at the time when kings go out [to battle], that Joab led forth the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David stayed at Jerusalem. Joab struck Rabbah, and overthrew it.

And it came to pass, that after the year had expired, at the time that kings go out to battle, Joab led forth the power of the army, and wasted the country of the children of Ammon, and came and besieged Rabbah. But David tarried at Jerusalem. And Joab smote Rabbah, and destroyed it.

2 And David took the crown of Milcom from off his head; its weight was a talent of gold and it had stones of great price in it; and it was put on David's head, and he took a great store of goods from the town.

David took the crown of their king from off his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set on David's head: and he brought forth the spoil of the city, exceeding much.

And David took the crown of their king from his head, and found it to weigh a talent of gold, and there were precious stones in it; and it was set upon David's head: and he brought also a great quantity of spoil out of the city.

3 And he took the people out of the town and put them to work with wood-cutting instruments, and iron grain-crushers, and axes. And this he did to all the towns of the children of Ammon. Then David and all the people went back to Jerusalem.

He brought forth the people who were therein, and cut [them] with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Thus did David to all the cities of the children of Ammon. David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

And he brought out the people that were in it, and cut them with saws, and with harrows of iron, and with axes. Even so David dealt with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And David and all the people returned to Jerusalem.

4 Now after this there was war with the Philistines at Gezer; then Sibbecai the Hushathite put to death Sippai, one of the offspring of the Rephaim; and they were overcome.

It happened after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: then Sibbecai the Hushathite killed Sippai, of the sons of the giant; and they were subdued.

And it came to pass after this, that there arose war at Gezer with the Philistines: at which time Sibbechai the Hushathite slew Sippai, that was of the children of the giant: and they were subdued.

- 5 And again there was war with the Philistines; and Elhanan, the son of Jair, put to death Lahmi, the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the stem of whose spear was like a cloth-worker's rod.
There was again war with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair killed Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, the staff of whose spear was like a weaver's beam.
And there was war again with the Philistines; and Elhanan the son of Jair slew Lahmi the brother of Goliath the Gittite, whose spear-staff was like a weaver's beam.
- 6 And again there was war at Gath, where there was a very tall man, who had twenty-four fingers and toes, six fingers on his hands and six toes on his feet; he was one of the offspring of the Rephaim.
There was again war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were twenty-four, six [on each hand], and six [on each foot]; and he also was born to the giant.
And yet again there was war at Gath, where was a man of great stature, whose fingers and toes were four and twenty, six on each hand, and six on each foot: and he also was the son of the giant.
- 7 And when he put shame on Israel, Jonathan, the son of Shimea, David's brother, put him to death.
When he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea David's brother killed him.
But when he defied Israel, Jonathan the son of Shimea, David's brother, slew him.
- 8 These were of the offspring of the Rephaim in Gath; they came to their death by the hands of David and his servants.
These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.
These were born to the giant in Gath; and they fell by the hand of David, and by the hand of his servants.
- 1 Now Satan, designing evil against Israel, put into David's mind the impulse to take the number of Israel.
Satan stood up against Israel, and moved David to number Israel.
And Satan stood up against Israel, and incited David to number Israel.
- 2 And David said to Joab and the captains of the people, Now let all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, be numbered; and give me word so that I may be certain of their number.
David said to Joab and to the princes of the people, Go, number Israel from Beersheba even to Dan; and bring me word, that I may know the sum of them.
And David said to Joab and to the rulers of the people, Go, number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

- 3 And Joab said, May the Lord make his people a hundred times more in number than they are; but, my lord king, are they not all my lord's servants? why would my lord have this done? why will he become a cause of sin to Israel?
Joab said, Yahweh make his people a hundred times as many as they are: but, my lord the king, aren't they all my lord's servants? why does my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of guilt to Israel?
And Joab answered, the LORD make his people a hundred times more numerous than they are: but, my lord the king, are they not all my lord's servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of trespass to Israel?
- 4 But the king's word was stronger than Joab's. So Joab went out and went through all Israel and came to Jerusalem.
Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Why Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.
Nevertheless the king's word prevailed against Joab. Wherefore Joab departed, and went throughout all Israel, and came to Jerusalem.
- 5 And Joab gave David the number of all the people; all the men of Israel, able to take up arms, were one million, one hundred thousand men; and those of Judah were four hundred and seventy thousand men, able to take up arms.
Joab gave up the sum of the numbering of the people to David. All those of Israel were one million one hundred thousand men who drew sword: and in Judah were four hundred seventy thousand men who drew sword.
And Joab gave the sum of the number of the people to David. And all they of Israel were a thousand thousand and a hundred thousand men that drew sword: and Judah was four hundred and seventy thousand men that drew sword.
- 6 But Levi and Benjamin were not numbered among them, for Joab was disgusted with the king's order.
But he didn't count Levi and Benjamin among them; for the king's word was abominable to Joab.
But Levi and Benjamin he counted not among them: for the king's word was abominable to Joab.
- 7 And God was not pleased with this thing; so he sent punishment on Israel.
God was displeased with this thing; therefore he struck Israel.
And God was displeased with this thing, therefore he smote Israel.

8 Then David said to God, Great has been my sin in doing this; but now, be pleased to take away the sin of your servant, for I have done very foolishly.
David said to God, I have sinned greatly, in that I have done this thing: but now, put away, I beg you, the iniquity of your servant; for I have done very foolishly.

And David said to God, I have sinned greatly, because I have done this thing: but now, I beseech thee, do away the iniquity of thy servant; for I have done very foolishly.

9 Then the word of the Lord came to Gad, David's seer, saying,
Yahweh spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,
And the LORD spoke to Gad, David's seer, saying,

10 Go and say to David, The Lord says, Three things are offered to you: say which of them you will have, so that I may do it to you.
Go and speak to David, saying, Thus says Yahweh, I offer you three things: choose you one of them, that I may do it to you.
Go and tell David, saying, Thus saith the LORD, I offer thee three things; choose thee one of them, that I may do it to thee.

11 So Gad came to David and said to him, The Lord says, Take whichever you will:
So Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus says Yahweh, Take which you will:
So Gad came to David, and said to him, Thus saith the LORD, Choose thee

12 Three years when there will not be enough food; or three months of war, when you will go in flight before your haters, being in great danger of the sword; or three days of the sword of the Lord, disease in the land, and the angel of the Lord taking destruction through all the land of Israel. Now give thought to the answer I am to take back to him who sent me.
either three years of famine; or three months to be consumed before your foes, while the sword of your enemies overtakes you; or else three days the sword of Yahweh, even pestilence in the land, and the angel of Yahweh destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore consider what answer I shall return to him who sent me.
Either three years' famine; or three months to be destroyed before thy foes, while the sword of thy enemies overtaketh thee; or else three days the sword of the LORD, even the pestilence, in the land, and the angel of the LORD destroying throughout all the borders of Israel. Now therefore advise thyself what word I shall bring again to him that sent me.

- 13 And David said to Gad, This is a hard decision for me to make: let me come into the hands of the Lord, for great are his mercies: let me not come into the hands of men.
David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall, I pray, into the hand of Yahweh; for very great are his mercies: and let me not fall into the hand of man.
And David said to Gad, I am in a great strait: let me fall now into the hand of the LORD; for very great are his mercies: but let me not fall into the hand of man.
- 14 So the Lord sent disease on Israel, causing the death of seventy thousand men.
So Yahweh sent a pestilence on Israel; and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.
So the LORD sent pestilence upon Israel: and there fell of Israel seventy thousand men.
- 15 And God sent an angel to Jerusalem for its destruction: and when he was about to do so, the Lord saw, and had regret for the evil, and said to the angel of destruction, It is enough; do no more. Now the angel of the Lord was by the grain-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was about to destroy, Yahweh saw, and he repented him of the evil, and said to the destroying angel, It is enough; now stay your hand. The angel of Yahweh was standing by the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
And God sent an angel to Jerusalem to destroy it: and as he was destroying, the LORD beheld, and he repented of the evil, and said to the angel that destroyed, It is enough, stay now thy hand. And the angel of the LORD stood by the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
- 16 And David, lifting up his eyes, saw the angel of the Lord there between earth and heaven, with an uncovered sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the responsible men, clothed in haircloth, went down on their faces.
David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of Yahweh standing between earth and the sky, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders, clothed in sackcloth, fell on their faces.
And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

- 17 And David said to God, Was it not I who gave the order for the people to be numbered? It is I who have done the sin and the great wrong; but these are only sheep; what have they done? let your hand, O Lord God, be lifted up against me and against my family, but not against your people to send disease on them.
David said to God, Isn't it I who commanded the people to be numbered? It is even I who have sinned and done very wickedly; but these sheep, what have they done? Please let your hand, O Yahweh my God, be against me, and against my father's house; but not against your people, that they should be plagued.
And David said to God, Is it not I that commanded the people to be numbered? even I it is that have sinned and done evil indeed; but as for these sheep, what have they done? let thy hand, I pray thee, O LORD my God, be on me, and on my father's house; but not on thy people, that they should be afflicted.
- 18 Then the angel of the Lord gave orders to Gad to say to David that he was to go and put up an altar to the Lord on the grain-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
Then the angel of Yahweh commanded Gad to tell David, that David should go up, and raise an altar to Yahweh in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
Then the angel of the LORD commanded Gad to say to David, that David should go up, and erect an altar to the LORD in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.
- 19 And David went up, as Gad had said in the name of the Lord.
David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of Yahweh.
And David went up at the saying of Gad, which he spoke in the name of the LORD.
- 20 And Ornan, turning back, saw the angel, and his four sons who were with him went to a secret place. Now Ornan was crushing his grain.
Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons who were with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.
And Ornan turned back, and saw the angel; and his four sons with him hid themselves. Now Ornan was threshing wheat.
- 21 And when David came, Ornan, looking, saw him, and came out from the grain-floor and went down on his face to the earth before him.
As David came to Ornan, Ornan looked and saw David, and went out of the threshing floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.
And as David came to Ornan, Ornan looked, and saw David, and went out of the threshing-floor, and bowed himself to David with his face to the ground.

- 22 Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place where this grain-floor is, so that I may put up an altar here to the Lord: let me have it for its full price; so that this disease may be stopped among the people.
Then David said to Ornan, Give me the place of this threshing floor, that I may build thereon an altar to Yahweh: for the full price shall you give it me, that the plague may be stayed from the people.
Then David said to Ornan, Grant me the place of this threshing-floor, that I may build an altar in it to the LORD: thou shalt grant it to me for the full price: that the plague may be stayed from the people.
- 23 And Ornan said to David, Take it, and let my lord the king do what seems right to him. See, I give you the oxen for burned offerings and the grain-cleaning instruments for fire-wood, and the grain for the meal offering; I give it all.
Ornan said to David, Take it to you, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: behold, I give [you] the oxen for burnt offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meal-offering; I give it all.
And Ornan said to David, Take it to thee, and let my lord the king do that which is good in his eyes: lo, I give thee the oxen also for burnt-offerings, and the threshing instruments for wood, and the wheat for the meat-offering; I give it all.
- 24 And King David said to Ornan, No; I will certainly give you the full price for it, because I will not take for the Lord what is yours, or give a burned offering without payment.
King David said to Ornan, No; but I will most assuredly buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is your for Yahweh, nor offer a burnt-offering without cost.
And king David said to Ornan, No; but I will verily buy it for the full price: for I will not take that which is thine for the LORD, nor offer burnt-offerings without cost.
- 25 So David gave Ornan six hundred shekels of gold by weight for the place.
So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.
So David gave to Ornan for the place six hundred shekels of gold by weight.
- 26 And David put up an altar there to the Lord, offering burned offerings and peace-offerings with prayers to the Lord; and he gave him an answer from heaven, sending fire on the altar of burned offering.
David built there an altar to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings and peace-offerings, and called on Yahweh; and he answered him from the sky by fire on the altar of burnt offering.
And David built there an altar to the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings and peace-offerings, and called upon the LORD; and he answered him from heaven by fire upon the altar of burnt-offering.

- 27 Then the Lord gave orders to the angel, and he put back his sword into its cover.
Yahweh commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into the sheath of it.
And the LORD commanded the angel; and he put up his sword again into its sheath.
- 28 At that time, when David saw that the Lord had given him an answer on the grain-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, he made an offering there.
At that time, when David saw that Yahweh had answered him in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.
At that time when David saw that the LORD had answered him in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite, then he sacrificed there.
- 29 For the House of the Lord, which Moses had made in the waste land, and the altar of burned offerings, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon.
For the tent of Yahweh, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of burnt offering, were at that time in the high place at Gibeon.
For the tabernacle of the LORD, which Moses made in the wilderness, and the altar of the burnt-offering, were at that season in the high place at Gibeon.
- 30 But David was not able to go before it to get directions from the Lord, so great was his fear of the sword of the angel of the Lord.
But David couldn't go before it to inquire of God; for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of Yahweh.
But David could not go before it to inquire of God: for he was afraid because of the sword of the angel of the LORD.
- 1 Then David said, This is the house of the Lord God, and this is the altar for Israel's burned offerings.
Then David said, This is the house of Yahweh God, and this is the altar of burnt-offering for Israel.
Then David said, This is the house of the LORD God, and this is the altar of the burnt-offering for Israel.
- 2 And David gave orders to get together all the men from strange lands who were in the land of Israel; and he put stone-cutters to work, cutting stones for building the house of God.
David commanded to gather together the sojourners who were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew worked stones to build the house of God.
And David commanded to assemble the strangers that were in the land of Israel; and he set masons to hew wrought stones to build the house of God.

3 And he got together a great store of iron, for the nails for the doors and for the joins; and brass, more in weight than might be measured;
David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the couplings; and brass in abundance without weight;

And David prepared iron in abundance for the nails for the doors of the gates, and for the joinings; and brass in abundance without weight;

4 And cedar-trees without number, for the Zidonians and the men of Tyre came with a great amount of cedar-trees for David.
and cedar-trees without number: for the Sidonians and they of Tyre brought cedar-trees in abundance to David.

Also cedar trees in abundance: for the Zidonians and they of Tyre brought much cedar wood to David.

5 And David said, Solomon my son is young and untested, and the house which is to be put up for the Lord is to be very great, a thing of wonder and glory through all countries; so I will make ready what is needed for it. So David got ready a great store of material before his death.

David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for Yahweh must be exceeding magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore make preparation for it. So David prepared abundantly before his death.

And David said, Solomon my son is young and tender, and the house that is to be built for the LORD must be very magnificent, of fame and of glory throughout all countries: I will therefore now make preparation for it. So David made abundant preparation before his death.

6 Then he sent for his son Solomon, and gave him orders for the building of a house for the Lord, the God of Israel.

Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for Yahweh, the God of Israel.

Then he called for Solomon his son, and charged him to build a house for the LORD God of Israel.

7 And David said to Solomon, My son, it was my desire to put up a house for the name of the Lord my God.

David said to Solomon his son, As for me, it was in my heart to build a house to the name of Yahweh my God.

And David said to Solomon, My son, as for me, it was in my mind to build a house to the name of the LORD my God:

8 But the word of the Lord came to me saying, You have taken lives without number and made great wars; I will not let you be the builder of a house for my name, because of the lives you have taken on the earth before my eyes.

But the word of Yahweh came to me, saying, You have shed blood abundantly, and have made great wars: you shall not build a house to my name, because you have shed much blood on the earth in my sight.

But the word of the LORD came to me, saying, Thou hast shed blood abundantly, and hast made great wars: thou shalt not build a house to my name, because thou hast shed much blood upon the earth in my sight.

9 But you will have a son who will be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from wars on every side. His name will be Solomon, and in his time I will give Israel peace and quiet;

Behold, a son shall be born to you, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies round about; for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days:

Behold, a son shall be born to thee, who shall be a man of rest; and I will give him rest from all his enemies around: for his name shall be Solomon, and I will give peace and quietness to Israel in his days.

10 He will be the builder of a house for my name; he will be to me a son, and I will be to him a father; and I will make the seat of his rule over Israel certain for ever.

he shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

He shall build a house for my name; and he shall be my son, and I will be his father; and I will establish the throne of his kingdom over Israel for ever.

11 Now, my son, may the Lord be with you; and may you do well, and put up the house of the Lord your God, as he has said of you.

Now, my son, Yahweh be with you; and prosper you, and build the house of Yahweh your God, as he has spoken concerning you.

Now, my son, the LORD be with thee; and prosper thou, and build the house of the LORD thy God, as he hath said of thee.

12 Only may the Lord give you wisdom, and knowledge of his orders for Israel, so that you may keep the law of the Lord your God.

Only Yahweh give you discretion and understanding, and give you charge concerning Israel; that so you may keep the law of Yahweh your God.

Only the LORD give thee wisdom and understanding, and give thee charge concerning Israel, that thou mayest keep the law of the LORD thy God.

- 13 And all will go well for you, if you take care to keep the laws and the rules which the Lord gave to Moses for Israel: be strong and take heart; have no fear and do not be troubled.
Then shall you prosper, if you observe to do the statutes and the ordinances which Yahweh charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; don't be afraid, neither be dismayed.
Then shalt thou prosper, if thou shalt take heed to fulfill the statutes and judgments which the LORD charged Moses with concerning Israel: be strong, and of good courage; dread not, nor be dismayed.
- 14 Now see, poor though I am, I have got ready for the house of the Lord a hundred thousand talents of gold and a million talents of silver; and a weight of brass and iron greater than may be measured; and wood and stone have I made ready, and you may put more to it.
Now, behold, in my affliction I have prepared for the house of Yahweh one hundred thousand talents of gold, and one thousand thousand talents of silver, and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and you may add thereto.
Now behold, in my trouble I have prepared for the house of the LORD a hundred thousand talents of gold, and a thousand thousand talents of silver; and of brass and iron without weight; for it is in abundance: timber also and stone have I prepared; and thou mayest add to them.
- 15 And you have a great number of workmen, cutters and workers of stone and wood, and experts in every sort of work,
Moreover there are workmen with you in abundance, cutters and workers of stone and timber, and all men who are skillful in every manner of work:
Moreover, there are workmen with thee in great numbers, hewers and workers of stone and timber, and all manner of skillful men for every manner of work.
- 16 In gold and silver and brass and iron more than may be numbered. Up! then, and to work; and may the Lord be with you.
of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise and be doing, and Yahweh be with you.
Of the gold, the silver, and the brass, and the iron, there is no number. Arise therefore, and be doing, and the LORD be with thee.
- 17 Then David gave orders to all the chiefs of Israel to give their help to Solomon his son, saying,
David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, [saying],
David also commanded all the princes of Israel to help Solomon his son, saying,

18 Is not the Lord your God with you? and has he not given you rest on every side? for the Lord has given the people of the land into my hands, and the land is overcome before the Lord and before his people.

Isn't Yahweh your God with you? and hasn't he given you rest on every side? for he has delivered the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before Yahweh, and before his people.

Is not the LORD your God with you? and hath he not given you rest on every side? for he hath given the inhabitants of the land into my hand; and the land is subdued before the LORD, and before his people.

19 Now give your heart and soul to the worship of the Lord your God; and get to work on the building of the holy place of the Lord God, so that you may put the ark of the Lord's agreement and the holy vessels of God in the house which is to be made for the name of the Lord.

Now set your heart and your soul to seek after Yahweh your God; arise therefore, and build you the sanctuary of Yahweh God, to bring the ark of the covenant of Yahweh, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of Yahweh.

Now set your heart and your soul to seek the LORD your God; arise, therefore, and build ye the sanctuary of the LORD God, to bring the ark of the covenant of the LORD, and the holy vessels of God, into the house that is to be built to the name of the LORD.

For David said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, has given rest to his people; and he dwells in Jerusalem forever:
For David said, The LORD God of Israel hath given rest to his people, that they may dwell in Jerusalem for ever;
- 26 And from now, there will be no need for the House of the Lord, and the vessels used in it, to be moved about by the Levites.
and also the Levites shall no more have need to carry the tent and all the vessels of it for the service of it.
And also to the Levites: they shall no more carry the tabernacle, nor any vessels of it for its service.
- 27 So among the last acts of David was the numbering of the sons of Levi, from twenty years old and over.
For by the last words of David the sons of Levi were numbered, from twenty years old and upward.
For by the last words of David the Levites were numbered from twenty years old and above:
- 28 Their place was by the side of the sons of Aaron in all the work of the house of the Lord, in the open spaces and in the rooms, in the making clean of all the holy things, in doing all the work of the house of the Lord,
For their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of Yahweh, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, even the work of the service of the house of God;
Because their office was to wait on the sons of Aaron for the service of the house of the LORD, in the courts, and in the chambers, and in the purifying of all holy things, and the work of the service of the house of God;
- 29 The holy bread was in their care, and the crushed grain for the meal offering, of unleavened cakes or meal cooked over the fire or in water; they had control of all sorts of weights and measures; for the show bread also, and for the fine flour for a meal-offering, whether of unleavened wafers, or of that which is baked in the pan, or of that which is soaked, and for all manner of measure and size;
Both for the show-bread, and for the fine flour for meat-offering, and for the unleavened cakes, and for that which is baked in the pan, and for that which is fried, and for all manner of measure and size;
- 30 They had to take their places every morning to give praise and make melody to the Lord, and in the same way at evening;
and to stand every morning to thank and praise Yahweh, and likewise at even;
And to stand every morning to thank and praise the LORD, and likewise at evening;

31 At every offering of burned offerings to the Lord, on Sabbaths, and at the new moons, and on the regular feasts, in the number ordered by the law, at all times before the Lord; and to offer all burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the Sabbaths, on the new moons, and on the set feasts, in number according to the ordinance concerning them, continually before Yahweh;
And to offer all burnt-sacrifices to the LORD on the sabbaths, in the new moons, and on the set feasts, by number, according to the order commanded to them, continually before the LORD:

32 And they had the care of the Tent of meeting and the holy place, under the direction of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the work of the house of the Lord. and that they should keep the charge of the tent of meeting, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brothers, for the service of the house of Yahweh.
And that they should keep the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the charge of the holy place, and the charge of the sons of Aaron their brethren, in the service of the house of the LORD.

1 Now the divisions into which the sons of Aaron were grouped were these: the sons of Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar. The courses of the sons of Aaron [were these]. The sons of Aaron: Nadab and Abihu, Eleazar and Ithamar.
Now these are the divisions of the sons of Aaron. The sons of Aaron; Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

2 But Nadab and Abihu came to their end before their father, and had no children; so Eleazar and Ithamar did the work of priests. But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priest's office.
But Nadab and Abihu died before their father, and had no children: therefore Eleazar and Ithamar executed the priests' office.

3 And David, with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, made distribution of them into their positions for their work. David with Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, divided them according to their ordering in their service.
And David distributed them, both Zadok of the sons of Eleazar, and Ahimelech of the sons of Ithamar, according to their offices in their service.

4 And there were more chiefs among the sons of Eleazar than among the sons of Ithamar; and this is how they were grouped: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, all heads of families; and of the sons of Ithamar, heads of families, there were eight.
There were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and [thus] were they divided: of the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen, heads of fathers` houses; and of the sons of Ithamar, according to their fathers` houses, eight.
And there were more chief men found of the sons of Eleazar than of the sons of Ithamar; and thus were they divided. Among the sons of Eleazar there were sixteen chief men of the house of their fathers, and eight among the sons of Ithamar according to the house of their fathers.

5 So they were put into groups, by the Lord's decision, one with another; for there were rulers of the holy place and rulers of the house of God among the sons of Eleazar and the sons of Ithamar.
Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for there were princes of the sanctuary, and princes of God, both of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.
Thus were they divided by lot, one sort with another; for the governors of the sanctuary, and governors of the house of God, were of the sons of Eleazar, and of the sons of Ithamar.

6 And Shemaiah, the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was a Levite, put down their names in writing, the king being present with the rulers, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech, the son of Abiathar, and the heads of families of the priests and the Levites; one family being taken for Eleazar and then one for Ithamar, and so on.
Shemaiah the son of Nethanel the scribe, who was of the Levites, wrote them in the presence of the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and the heads of the fathers` [houses] of the priests and of the Levites; one fathers` house being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.
And Shemaiah the son of Nethaneel the scribe, one of the Levites, wrote them before the king, and the princes, and Zadok the priest, and Ahimelech the son of Abiathar, and before the chief of the fathers of the priests and Levites: one principal household being taken for Eleazar, and one taken for Ithamar.

7 Now the first name to come out was that of Jehoiarib; the second Jedaiah,

- 19 So they were put into their different groups, to take their places in the house of the Lord, in agreement with the rules made by Aaron their father, as the Lord, the God of Israel, had given him orders.
This was the ordering of them in their service, to come into the house of Yahweh according to the ordinance [given] to them by Aaron their father, as Yahweh, the God of Israel, had commanded him.
These were the orderings of them in their service to come into the house of the LORD, according to their manner, under Aaron their father, as the LORD God of Israel had commanded him.

You, Solomon my son, know you the God of your father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind; for Yahweh searches all hearts, and understands all the imaginations of the thoughts: if you seek him, he will be found of you; but if you forsake him, he will cast you off forever.
And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart, and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou shalt seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou shalt forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever.

All this, [said David], have I been made to understand in writing from the hand of Yahweh, even all the works of this pattern.
All this, said David, the LORD made me understand in writing by his hand upon me, even all the works of this pattern.

20 And David said to his son Solomon, Be strong and of a good heart and do your work; have no fear and do not be troubled, for the Lord God, my God, is with you; he will not give you up, and his face will not be turned away from you, till all the work necessary for the house of the Lord is complete.
David said to Solomon his son, Be strong and of good courage, and do it: don't be afraid, nor be dismayed; for Yahweh God, even my God, is with you; he will not fail you, nor forsake you, until all the work for the service of the house of Yahweh is finished.
And David said to Solomon his son, Be strong, and of good courage, and do it: fear not, nor be dismayed, for the LORD God, even my God, will be with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee, until thou hast finished all the work for the service of the house of the LORD.

21 And see, there are the divisions of the priests and Levites for all the work of the house of God; and every trained and expert workman will be ready to do for you whatever is needed; and the captains and the people will be under your orders in everything.
Behold, there are the courses of the priests and the Levites, for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with you in all manner of work every willing man who has skill, for any manner of service: also the captains and all the people will be wholly at your commandment.
And behold, the courses of the priests and the Levites, even they shall be with thee for all the service of the house of God: and there shall be with thee for all manner of workmanship every willing skillful man, for any manner of service: also the princes and all the people will be wholly at thy command.

1 And David the king said to all the people, Solomon my son, the only one who has been marked out by God, is still young and untested, and the work is great, for this great house is not for man, but for the Lord God.
David the king said to all the assembly, Solomon my son, whom alone God has chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great; for the palace is not for man, but for Yahweh God.
Furthermore David the king said to all the congregation, Solomon my son, whom alone God hath chosen, is yet young and tender, and the work is great: for the palace is not for man, but for the LORD God.

2 Now as far as I am able, I have made ready what is needed for the house of my God; the gold for the things of gold, and the silver for the silver things, and the brass for the brass things, iron for the things of iron, and wood for the things of wood; beryls and jewels to be framed, and stones of different colours for ornament; all sorts of stones of great price, and polished building-stone, as much as is needed and more.

Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for the [things of] gold, and the silver for the [things of] silver, and the brass for the [things of] brass, the iron for the [things of] iron, and wood for the [things of] wood; onyx stones, and [stones] to be set, stones for inlaid work, and of various colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

Now I have prepared with all my might for the house of my God the gold for things to be made of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and the brass for things of brass, the iron for things of iron, and wood for things of wood; onyx-stones, and stones to be set, glittering stones, and of divers colors, and all manner of precious stones, and marble stones in abundance.

3 And because this house of God is dear to me, I give my private store of gold and silver to the house of my God, in addition to all I have got ready for the holy house;

Moreover also, because I have set my affection on the house of my God, seeing that I have a treasure of my own of gold and silver, I give it to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

Moreover, because I have set my affection to the house of my God, I have of my own possessions, of gold and silver, which I have given to the house of my God, over and above all that I have prepared for the holy house,

4 Even three thousand talents of gold of Ophir and seven thousand talents of the best silver, for plating the walls of the house:

even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, with which to overlay the walls of the houses;

Even three thousand talents of gold, of the gold of Ophir, and seven thousand talents of refined silver, to overlay the walls of the houses:

5 Gold for the gold things, and silver for the silver things, and for every sort of work to be done by the expert workmen. Who then will come forward, offering himself this day for the Lord's work?

of gold for the [things of] gold, and of silver for the [things of] silver, and for all manner of work [to be made] by the hands of artificers. Who then offers willingly to consecrate himself this day to Yahweh?

The gold for things of gold, and the silver for things of silver, and for all manner of work to be made by the hands of artificers. And who then is willing to consecrate his service this day to the LORD?

- 6 Then the heads of families and the chiefs of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the controllers of the king's business, freely gave themselves; Then the princes of the fathers` [houses], and the princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king`s work, offered willingly;
Then the chief of the fathers and princes of the tribes of Israel, and the captains of thousands and of hundreds, with the rulers over the king's work, offered willingly,
- 7 And they gave for the use of the house of the Lord, five thousand talents and ten thousand darics of gold, and ten thousand talents of silver, and eighteen thousand talents of brass, and a hundred thousand talents of iron.
and they gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand darics, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and of iron a hundred thousand talents.
And gave for the service of the house of God of gold five thousand talents and ten thousand drams, and of silver ten thousand talents, and of brass eighteen thousand talents, and one hundred thousand talents of iron.
- 8 And those who had stones of great price gave them to the store of the house of the Lord, under the care of Jehiel the Gershonite.
They with whom [precious] stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of Yahweh, under the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.
And they with whom precious stones were found gave them to the treasure of the house of the LORD, by the hand of Jehiel the Gershonite.
- 9 Then the people were glad because their offerings were freely given, for with a true heart they freely gave what they had to the Lord; and David the king was full of joy.
Then the people rejoiced, because they offered willingly, because with a perfect heart they offered willingly to Yahweh: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.
Then the people rejoiced, for that they offered willingly, because with perfect heart they offered willingly to the LORD: and David the king also rejoiced with great joy.
- 10 So David gave praise to the Lord before all the people; and David said, Praise be to you, O Lord the God of Israel, our father for ever and ever.
Therefore David blessed Yahweh before all the assembly; and David said, Blessed be you, Yahweh, the God of Israel our father, forever and ever.
Wherefore David blessed the LORD before all the congregation: and David said, Blessed be thou, LORD God of Israel our father, for ever and ever.

- 11 Yours, O Lord, is the strength and the power and the glory, and the authority and the honour: for everything in heaven and on earth is yours; yours is the kingdom, O Lord, and you are lifted up as head over all.
Yours, Yahweh, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heavens and in the earth [is your]; your is the kingdom, Yahweh, and you are exalted as head above all.
Thine, O LORD, is the greatness, and the power, and the glory, and the victory, and the majesty: for all that is in the heaven and on the earth is thine; thine is the kingdom, O LORD, and thou art exalted as head above all.
- 12 Wealth and honour come from you, and you are ruler over all, and in your hand is power and strength; it is in your power to make great, and to give strength to all.
Both riches and honor come of you, and you rule over all; and in your hand is power and might; and in your hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all.
Both riches and honor come from thee, and thou reignest over all; and in thy hand is power and might; and in thy hand it is to make great, and to give strength to all.
- 13 So now, our God, we give you praise, honouring the glory of your name.
Now therefore, our God, we thank you, and praise your glorious name.
Now therefore, our God, we thank thee, and praise thy glorious name.
- 14 But who am I and what is my people, that we have power to give so freely in this way? for all things come from you, and what we have given you is yours.
But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come of you, and of your own have we given you.
But who am I, and what is my people, that we should be able to offer so willingly after this sort? for all things come from thee, and of thy own have we given thee.
- 15 For we, as all our fathers were, are like men from a strange country before you, who have got a place for a time in the land; our days on the earth are like a shade, and there is no hope of going on.
For we are strangers before you, and sojourners, as all our fathers were: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding.
For we are strangers before thee, and sojourners, as were all our fathers: our days on the earth are as a shadow, and there is no abiding.

- 16 O Lord our God, all this store, which we have made ready for the building of a house for your holy name, comes from your hand and is yours.
Yahweh our God, all this store that we have prepared to build you a house for your holy name comes of your hand, and is all your own.
O LORD our God, all this store that we have prepared to build thee a house for thy holy name cometh from thy hand, and is all thy own.
- 17 And I am conscious, my God, that you are the searcher of hearts, taking pleasure in righteousness. As for me, with an upright heart I have freely given all these things; and I have seen with joy your people who are here to make their offerings freely to you.
I know also, my God, that you try the heart, and have pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy your people, that are present here, offer willingly to you.
I know also, my God, that thou triest the heart, and hast pleasure in uprightness. As for me, in the uprightness of my heart I have willingly offered all these things: and now have I seen with joy thy people, who are present here, to offer willingly to thee.
- 18 O Lord, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the deepest thoughts of your people, and let their hearts be fixed and true to you;
Yahweh, the God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this forever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of your people, and prepare their heart to you;
O LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, our fathers, keep this for ever in the imagination of the thoughts of the heart of thy people, and prepare their heart to thee:
- 19 And give to Solomon my son a true heart, to keep your orders, your rules, and your laws, and to do all these things, and to put up this great house for which I have made ready.
and give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep your commandments, your testimonies, and your statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.
And give to Solomon my son a perfect heart, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, and to do all these things, and to build the palace, for which I have made provision.
- 20 And David said to all the people, Now give praise to the Lord your God. And all the people gave praise to the Lord, the God of their fathers, with bent heads worshipping the Lord and the king.
David said to all the assembly, Now bless Yahweh your God. All the assembly blessed Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and bowed down their heads, and worshipped Yahweh, and the king.
And David said to all the congregation, Now bless the LORD your God. And all the congregation blessed the LORD God of their fathers, and bowed their heads, and worshiped the LORD, and the king.

- 21 And they made offerings to the Lord, and gave burned offerings to the Lord, on the day after, a thousand oxen, a thousand sheep, and a thousand lambs, with their drink offerings, and a great wealth of offerings for all Israel.
They sacrificed sacrifices to Yahweh, and offered burnt offerings to Yahweh, on the next day after that day, even one thousand bulls, one thousand rams, and one thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel, And they sacrificed sacrifices to the LORD, and offered burnt-offerings to the LORD, on the morrow after that day, even a thousand bullocks, a thousand rams, and a thousand lambs, with their drink-offerings, and sacrifices in abundance for all Israel:
- 22 And with great joy they made a feast before the Lord that day. And they made Solomon, the son of David, king a second time, putting the holy oil on him to make him holy to the Lord as ruler, and on Zadok as priest.

Then Solomon sat on the throne of the LORD as king instead of David his father, and prospered; and all Israel obeyed him.

And the LORD magnified Solomon exceedingly in the sight of all Israel, and bestowed upon him such royal majesty as had not been on any king before him in Israel.

the earth in multitude.

made request for wisdom and knowledge for yourself, so that you may be the judge of my people over whom I have made you king:
God said to Solomon, Because this was in your heart, and you have not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor the life of those who hate you, neither yet have asked long life; but have asked wisdom and knowledge for yourself, that you may judge my people, over whom I have made you king:
And God said to Solomon, Because this was in thy heart, and thou hast not asked riches, wealth, or honor, nor

- 4 See! I am building a house for the name of the Lord my God, to be made holy to him, where perfumes of sweet spices will be burned before him, and the holy bread will be placed at all times, and burned offerings will be offered morning and evening, on the Sabbaths and at the new moons, and on the regular feasts of the Lord our God. This is a law for ever to Israel.

- 5 And the house which I am building is to be great, for our God is greater than all gods.
The house which I build is great; for great is our God above all gods.
And the house which I build is great: for great is our God above all gods.
- 6 But who may have strength enough to make a house for him, seeing that the heaven and the heaven of heavens are not wide enough to be his resting-place? who am I then to make a house for him? But I am building it only for the burning of perfume before him.
But who is able to build him a house, seeing heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain him? who am I then, that I should build him a house, save only to burn incense before him?
But who is able to build him a house, seeing the heaven and heaven of heavens cannot contain him? who am I then that I should build him a house, save only to burn sacrifice before him?

- 9 To get trees for me in great numbers, for the house which I am building is to be great and a wonder.
even to prepare me timber in abundance; for the house which I am about to build shall be great and wonderful.
Even to prepare me timber in abundance: for the house which I am about to build shall be wonderfully great.

10 And I will give as food to your servants, the wood-cutters, twenty thousand measures of grain, and twenty thousand measures of barley and twenty thousand measures of wine and twenty thousand measures of oil.
Behold, I will give to your servants, the cutters who cut timber, twenty thousand measures of beaten wheat, and twenty thousand measures of barley, and twenty thousand baths of wine, and twenty thousand baths of oil.

11 Then Hiram, king of Tyre, sent Solomon an answer in writing, saying, Because of his love for his people the Lord has made you king over them.
Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because Yahweh loves his people, he has made you king over them.
Then Hiram the king of Tyre answered in writing, which he sent to Solomon, Because the LORD hath loved his people, he hath made thee king over them.

12 And Hiram said, Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, maker of heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, full of wisdom and good sense, to be the builder of a house for the Lord and a house for himself as king.
Hiram said moreover, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who has given to David the king a wise son, endowed with discretion and understanding, that should build a house for Yahweh, and a house for his kingdom.
Hiram said moreover, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, that made heaven and earth, who hath given to David the king a wise son, endued with prudence and understanding, that may build a house for the LORD, and a house for his kingdom.

13 And now I am sending you a wise and expert man, Hiram who is as my father,
Now I have sent a skillful man, endowed with understanding, of Hiram my father`s,
And now I have sent a skillful man, endued with understanding, of Hiram my father's,

14 The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, whose father was a man of Tyre, an expert worker in gold and silver and brass and iron, in stone and wood, in purple and blue and fair linen and red, trained in the cutting of every sort of ornament and the invention of every sort of design; let him be given a place among your expert workmen and those of my lord, your father David.
the son of a woman of the daughters of Dan; and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson, also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to devise any device; that there may be [a place] appointed to him with your skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David your father.

The son of a woman of the daughters of Dan, and his father was a man of Tyre, skillful to work in gold, and in silver, in brass, in iron, in stone, and in timber, in purple, in blue, and in fine linen, and in crimson; also to engrave any manner of engraving, and to find out every device which shall be put to him, with thy skillful men, and with the skillful men of my lord David thy father.

15 So now let my lord send to his servants the grain and the oil and the wine as my lord has said;

Now therefore the wheat and the barley, the oil and the wine, which my lord has spoken of, let him send to his servants:
Now therefore the wheat, and the barley, the oil, and the wine which my lord hath spoken of, let him send to his servants;

16 And we will have wood cut from Lebanon, as much as you have need of, and will send it to you on flat boats by sea to Joppa, and from there you may take it up to Jerusalem.
and we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as you shall need; and we will bring it to you in floats by sea to Joppa; and you shall carry it up to Jerusalem.

And we will cut wood out of Lebanon, as much as thou shalt need: and we will bring it to thee in floats by sea to Joppa; and thou mayest convey it to Jerusalem.

17 Then Solomon took the number of all the men from strange lands who were living in Israel, as his father David had done; there were a hundred and fifty-three thousand, six hundred.

Solomon numbered all the sojourners who were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found one hundred fifty-three thousand six hundred.

And Solomon numbered all the strangers that were in the land of Israel, after the numbering with which David his father had numbered them; and they were found a hundred and fifty thousand and three thousand and six hundred.

18 Seventy thousand he put to the work of transport, eighty thousand to cutting stone in the mountains, and three thousand, six hundred as overseers to put the people to work.

He set seventy thousand of them to bear burdens, and eighty thousand who were stone cutters in the mountains, and three thousand six hundred overseers to set the people at work.

And he set seventy thousand of them to be bearers of burdens, and eighty thousand to be hewers in the mountain, and three thousand and six hundred overseers to set the people to work.

1 Then Solomon made a start at building the house of the Lord on Mount Moriah in Jerusalem, where the Lord had been seen by his father David, in the place which David had made ready in the grain-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Then Solomon began to build the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem on Mount Moriah, where [Yahweh] appeared to David his father, which he made ready in the place that David had appointed, in the threshing floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

Then Solomon began to build the house of the LORD at Jerusalem in mount Moriah, where the LORD appeared to David his father, in the place that David had prepared in the threshing-floor of Ornan the Jebusite.

2 The building was started in the second month in the fourth year of his rule.

He began to build in the second [day] of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

And he began to build in the second day of the second month, in the fourth year of his reign.

3 And Solomon put the base of the house of God in position; by the older measure it was sixty cubits long and twenty cubits wide.

Now these are the foundations which Solomon laid for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

Now these are the things in which Solomon was instructed for the building of the house of God. The length by cubits after the first measure was sixty cubits, and the breadth twenty cubits.

4 And the covered way in front of the house was twenty cubits long, as wide as the house, and a hundred and twenty cubits high, all plated inside with the best gold.

The porch that was before [the house], the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the height one hundred twenty; and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

And the porch that was in the front of the house, the length of it was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the height was a hundred and twenty: and he overlaid it within with pure gold.

5 And the greater house was roofed with cypress-wood, plated with the best gold and ornamented with designs of palm-trees and chains.

The greater house he made a ceiling with fir-wood, which he overlaid with fine gold, and worked thereon palm-trees and chains.

And the greater house he ciled with fir tree, which he overlaid with fine gold, and set on it palm trees and chains.

6 And the house was made beautiful with stones of great value, and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

He garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

And he garnished the house with precious stones for beauty: and the gold was gold of Parvaim.

- 7 All the house was plated with gold, the supports, the steps, the walls and the doors; and the walls were ornamented with designs of winged ones.
He overlaid also the house, the beams, the thresholds, and the walls of it, and the doors of it, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls.
He overlaid also the house, the beams, the posts, and the walls of it, and the doors of it, with gold; and engraved cherubim on the walls.
- 8 And he made the most holy place; it was twenty cubits long, and twenty cubits wide, like the greater house, and was plated all over with the best gold; six hundred talents were used for it.
He made the most holy house: the length of it, according to the breadth of the house, was twenty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits; and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.
And he made the most holy house, the length of which was according to the breadth of the house, twenty cubits, and the breadth of it twenty cubits: and he overlaid it with fine gold, amounting to six hundred talents.
- 9 And fifty shekels weight of gold was used for the nails. He had all the higher rooms plated with gold.
The weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. He overlaid the upper chambers with gold.
And the weight of the nails was fifty shekels of gold. And he overlaid the upper chambers with gold.
- 10 And in the most holy place he made images of two winged beings, covering them with gold.
In the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work; and they overlaid them with gold.
And in the most holy house he made two cherubim of image work, and overlaid them with gold.
- 11 Their outstretched wings were twenty cubits across; one wing, five cubits long, touching the wall of the house, and the other, of the same size, meeting the wing of the other winged one.
The wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: the wing of the one [cherub] was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was [likewise] five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.
And the wings of the cherubim were twenty cubits long: one wing of the one cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was likewise five cubits, reaching to the wing of the other cherub.
- 12 And in the same way, the wings of the other, five cubits long, were stretched out, one touching the wall and the other meeting the wing of the first winged one.
The wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house; and the other wing was five cubits [also], joining to the wing of the other cherub.
And one wing of the other cherub was five cubits, reaching to the wall of the house: and the other wing was five cubits also, joining to the wing of the other cherub.

- 13 Their outstretched wings were twenty cubits across; they were placed upright on their feet, facing the inner part of the house.
The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were toward the house.
The wings of these cherubim spread themselves forth twenty cubits: and they stood on their feet, and their faces were inward.
- 14 And he made the veil of blue and purple and red, of the best linen, worked with winged ones.
He made the veil of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and worked cherubim thereon.
And he made the vail of blue, and purple, and crimson, and fine linen, and wrought cherubim upon it.
- 15 And in front of the house he made two pillars, thirty-five cubits high, with crowns on the tops of them, five cubits high.
Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty-five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.
Also he made before the house two pillars of thirty and five cubits high, and the capital that was on the top of each of them was five cubits.
- 16 And he made chains, like neck ornaments, and put them on the tops of the pillars, and a hundred apples on the chains.
He made chains in the oracle, and put [them] on the tops of the pillars; and he made one hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.
And he made chains, as in the oracle, and put them on the heads of the pillars; and made a hundred pomegranates, and put them on the chains.
- 17 He put up the pillars in front of the Temple, one on the right side and one on the left, naming the one on the right Jachin and that on the left Boaz.
He set up the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.
And he erected the pillars before the temple, one on the right hand, and the other on the left; and called the name of that on the right hand Jachin, and the name of that on the left Boaz.
- 1 Then he made a brass altar, twenty cubits long, twenty cubits wide and ten cubits high.
Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length of it, and twenty cubits the breadth of it, and ten cubits the height of it.
Moreover he made an altar of brass, twenty cubits the length of it, and twenty cubits the breadth of it, and ten cubits the height of it.

- 2 And he made the great water-vessel of metal, round in form, measuring ten cubits across from edge to edge; it was five cubits high and thirty cubits round.
Also he made the molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass; and the height of it was five cubits; and a line of thirty cubits compassed it round about.
Also he made a molten sea of ten cubits from brim to brim, round in compass, and five cubits the height of it; and a line of thirty cubits encompassed it.
- 3 And under it was a design of flowers all round it, ten to a cubit, circling the water-vessel in two lines; they were made from liquid metal at the same time as the water-vessel.
Under it was the likeness of oxen, which did compass it round about, for ten cubits, compassing the sea round about. The oxen were in two rows, cast when it was cast.
And under it was the similitude of oxen, which encompassed it: ten in a cubit, encompassing the sea. Two rows of oxen were cast, when it was cast.
- 4 It was supported on twelve oxen, three facing to the north, three to the west, three to the south, and three to the east, the water-vessel resting on top of them; their back parts were all turned to the middle of it.
It stood on twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the west, and three looking toward the south, and three looking toward the east: and the sea was set on them above, and all their hinder parts were inward.
It stood upon twelve oxen, three looking towards the north, and three looking towards the west, and three looking towards the south, and three looking towards the east: and the sea was set above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.
- 5 It was as thick as a man's open hand, and the edge of it was curved like the edge of a cup, like a lily flower; it would take three thousand baths.
It was a handbreadth thick; and the brim of it was worked like the brim of a cup, like the flower of a lily: it received and held three thousand baths.
And the thickness of it was a hand-breadth, and the brim of it like the work of the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; and it received and held three thousand baths.
- 6 And he made ten washing-vessels, putting five on the right side and five on the left; such things as were used in making the burned offering were washed in them; but the great water-vessel was to be used by the priests for washing themselves.
He made also ten basins, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them; such things as belonged to the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.
He made also ten lavers, and put five on the right hand, and five on the left, to wash in them: such things as they offered for the burnt-offering they washed in them; but the sea was for the priests to wash in.

- 7 And he made the ten gold supports for the lights, as directions had been given for them, and he put them in the Temple, five on the right side and five on the left.
He made the ten lampstands of gold according to the ordinance concerning them; and he set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.
And he made ten candlesticks of gold according to their form, and set them in the temple, five on the right hand, and five on the left.

- 9 Then he made the open space for the priests, and the great open space and its doors, plating the doors with brass.
Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.
Furthermore he made the court of the priests, and the great court, and doors for the court, and overlaid the doors of them with brass.
- 10 He put the great water-vessel on the right side of the house to the east, facing south.
He set the sea on the right side [of the house] eastward, toward the south.
And he set the sea on the right side of the east end, over against the south.
- 11 And Hiram made all the pots and the spades and the basins. So he came to the end of all the work he did for King Solomon in the house of God:
Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. So Hiram made an end of doing the work that he did for king Solomon in the house of God:
And Hiram made the pots, and the shovels, and the basins. And Hiram finished the work that he was to make for king Solomon for the house of God;
- 12 The two pillars, and the two crowns on the tops of the pillars, and the network covering the two cups of the crowns on the tops of the pillars;
the two pillars, and the bowls, and the two capitals which were on the top of the pillars, and the two networks to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the top of the pillars,
To wit, the two pillars, and the pommels, and the capitals which were on the top of the two pillars, and the two wreaths to cover the two pommels of the capitals which were on the top of the pillars;

- 13 And the four hundred apples for the network, two lines of apples for the network covering the two cups of the crowns on the pillars.
and the four hundred pomegranates for the two networks; two rows of pomegranates for each network, to cover the two bowls of the capitals that were on the pillars.
And four hundred pomegranates on the two wreaths; two rows of pomegranates on each wreath, to cover the two pommels of the capitals which were upon the pillars.
- 14 And he made the ten bases and the ten washing-vessels which were on the bases;
He made also the bases, and the basins made he on the bases;
He made also bases, and lavers he made upon the bases;
- 15 The great water-vessel with the twelve oxen under it.
one sea, and the twelve oxen under it.
One sea, and twelve oxen under it.
- 16 All the pots and the spades and the meat-hooks and their vessels, which Hiram, who was as his father, made for King Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of polished brass.
The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all the vessels of it, did Hiram his father make for king Solomon for the house of Yahweh of bright brass.
The pots also, and the shovels, and the flesh-hooks, and all their instruments, did Hiram his father make to king Solomon for the house of the LORD of bright brass.
- 17 The king made them of liquid metal in the lowland of Jordan, in the soft earth between Succoth and Zeredah.
In the plain of the Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredah.
In the plain of Jordan did the king cast them, in the clay ground between Succoth and Zeredathah.
- 18 So Solomon made all these vessels, a very great store of them, and the weight of the brass used was not measured.
Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be found out.
Thus Solomon made all these vessels in great abundance: for the weight of the brass could not be ascertained.

- 19 And Solomon made all the vessels used in the house of God, the gold altar and the tables on which the holy bread was placed,
Solomon made all the vessels that were in the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables whereon was the show bread;
And Solomon made all the vessels that were for the house of God, the golden altar also, and the tables on which the show-bread was set;
- 20 And the supports for the lights with their lights, to be burning in the regular way in front of the inmost room, of the best gold;
and the lampstands with their lamps, to burn according to the ordinance before the oracle, of pure gold;
Moreover the candlesticks with their lamps, that they should burn after the manner before the oracle, of pure gold;
- 21 The flowers and the vessels for the lights and the instruments used for them, were all of gold; it was the best gold.
and the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, of gold, and that perfect gold;
And the flowers, and the lamps, and the tongs, made he of gold, and that perfect gold;
- 22 The scissors and the basins and the spoons and the fire-trays, of the best gold; and the inner doors of the house, opening into the most holy place, and the doors of the Temple, were all of gold.
and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the fire pans, of pure gold: and as for the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the house, [to wit], of the temple, were of gold.
And the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and the censers, of pure gold: and the entry of the house, the inner doors of it for the most holy place, and the doors of the house of the temple, were of gold.
- 1 So all the work which Solomon did for the house of the Lord was complete. And Solomon took the holy things which David his father had given, the silver and the gold and all the vessels, and put them in the store-houses of the house of God.
Thus all the work that Solomon did for the house of Yahweh was finished. Solomon brought in the things that David his father had dedicated, even the silver, and the gold, and all the vessels, and put them in the treasuries of the house of God.
Thus all the work that Solomon made for the house of the LORD was finished: and Solomon brought in all the things that David his father had dedicated; and the silver, and the gold, and all the instruments, he put among the treasures of the house of God.

- 2 Then Solomon sent for all the responsible men of Israel, all the chiefs of the tribes and the heads of families of the children of Israel, to come to Jerusalem and take the ark of the Lord's agreement up out of the town of David, which is Zion.
Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the princes of the fathers` [houses] of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of Yahweh out of the city of David, which is Zion.
Then Solomon assembled the elders of Israel, and all the heads of the tribes, the chief of the fathers of the children of Israel, to Jerusalem, to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD from the city of David, which is Zion.
- 3 And all the men of Israel came together to the king at the feast in the seventh month.
And all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king at the feast, which was [in] the seventh month.
Wherefore all the men of Israel assembled themselves to the king in the feast which was in the seventh month.
- 4 All the responsible men of Israel came, and the Levites took up the ark.
All the elders of Israel came: and the Levites took up the ark;
And all the elders of Israel came; and the Levites took up the ark.
- 5 They took up the ark and the Tent of meeting and all the holy vessels which were in the Tent; all these the priests, the Levites, took up.
and they brought up the ark, and the tent of meeting, and all the holy vessels that were in the Tent; these did the priests the Levites bring up.
And they brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, these did the priests and the Levites bring up.
- 6 And King Solomon and all the men of Israel who had come together there with him, were before the ark, making offerings of sheep and oxen more than might be numbered.
King Solomon and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled to him, were before the ark, sacrificing sheep and oxen, that could not be counted nor numbered for multitude.
Also king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled to him before the ark, sacrificed sheep and oxen, which could not be told nor numbered for multitude.
- 7 And the priests took the ark of the Lord's agreement and put it in its place, in the inner room of the house, in the most holy place, under the wings of the winged ones.
The priests brought in the ark of the covenant of Yahweh to its place, into the oracle of the house, to the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim.
And the priests brought in the ark of the covenant of the LORD to its place, to the oracle of the house, into the most holy place, even under the wings of the cherubim:

- 8 For their wings were outstretched over the place where the ark was, covering the ark and its rods.
For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark and the poles of it above.
For the cherubim spread forth their wings over the place of the ark, and the cherubim covered the ark, and the staffs of it above.
- 9 The rods were so long that their ends were seen from the holy place before the inmost room; but they were not seen from outside; and there they are to this day.
The poles were so long that the ends of the poles were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen outside: and there it is to this day.
And they drew out the staffs of the ark, that the ends of the staffs were seen from the ark before the oracle; but they were not seen without. And there it is to this day.
- 10 Nothing was in the ark but the two flat stones which Moses put there at Horeb, where the Lord made an agreement with the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt.
There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put [there] at Horeb, when Yahweh made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.
There was nothing in the ark save the two tables which Moses put in it at Horeb, when the LORD made a covenant with the children of Israel, when they came out of Egypt.
- 11 Now when the priests had come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had made themselves holy, not keeping to their divisions;
It happened, when the priests were come out of the holy place, (for all the priests who were present had sanctified themselves, and did not keep their courses;
And it came to pass, when the priests had come out of the holy place: (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course:
- 12 And the Levites who made the music, all of them, Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and brothers, robed in fair linen, were in their places with their brass and corded instruments at the east side of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests blowing horns;)
also the Levites who were the singers, all of them, even Asaph, Heman, Jeduthun, and their sons and their brothers, arrayed in fine linen, with cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them one hundred twenty priests sounding with trumpets;)
Also the Levites who were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren; being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them a hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:)

13 And when the players on horns, and those who made melody in song, with one voice were sounding the praise and glory of the Lord; with loud voices and with wind instruments, and brass and corded instruments of music, praising the Lord and saying, He is good; his mercy is unchanging for ever: then the house was full of the cloud of the glory of the Lord, it happened, when the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking Yahweh;
and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised Yahweh, [saying], For he is good; for his lovingkindness endures forever; that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of Yahweh,
It came even to pass, as the trumpeters and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with the trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever: that then the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD;

14 So that the priests were not able to keep their places to do their work because of the cloud; for the house of God was full of the glory of the Lord.
so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of Yahweh filled the house of God.
So that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God.

1 Then Solomon said, O Lord, to the sun you have given the heaven for a living-place, but your living-place was not seen by men,
Then spoke Solomon, Yahweh has said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.
Then said Solomon, The LORD hath said that he would dwell in the thick darkness.

2 So I have made for you a living-place, a house in which you may be for ever present.
But I have built you a house of habitation, and a place for you to dwell in forever.
But I have built a house of habitation for thee, and a place for thy dwelling for ever.

3 Then, turning his face about, the king gave a blessing to all the men of Israel; and they were all on their feet together.
The king turned his face, and blessed all the assembly of Israel: and all the assembly of Israel stood.
And the king turned his face, and blessed the whole congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stood.

4 And he said, Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, who himself gave his word to my father David, and with his strong hand has made his word come true, saying,
He said, Blessed be Yahweh, the God of Israel, who spoke with his mouth to David my father, and has with his hands fulfilled it, saying,
And he said, Blessed be the LORD God of Israel, who hath with his hands fulfilled that which he spoke with his mouth to my father David, saying,

- 5 From the day when I took my people out of the land of Egypt, no town in all the tribes of Israel has been marked out by me for the building of a house for the resting-place of my name; and I took no man to be a ruler over my people Israel;
Since the day that I brought forth my people out of the land of Egypt, I chose no city out of all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be prince over my people Israel:
Since the day that I brought forth my people from the land of Egypt I chose no city among all the tribes of Israel to build a house in, that my name might be there; neither chose I any man to be a ruler over my people Israel:
- 6 But now I have made selection of Jerusalem, that my name might be there, and of David, to be over my people Israel.
but I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.
But I have chosen Jerusalem, that my name might be there; and have chosen David to be over my people Israel.
- 7 Now it was in the heart of my father David to put up a house for the name of the Lord, the God of Israel.
Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.
Now it was in the heart of David my father to build a house for the name of the LORD God of Israel:
- 8 But the Lord said to David my father, You did well to have in your heart the desire to make a house for my name:
But Yahweh said to David my father, Whereas it was in your heart to build a house for my name, you did well that it was in your heart:
But the LORD said to David my father, Forasmuch as it was in thy heart to build a house for my name, thou didst well in that it was in thy heart;
- 9 But you yourself will not be the builder of the house; but your son, the offspring of your body, he it is who will put up a house for my name.
nevertheless you shall not build the house; but your son who shall come forth out of your loins, he shall build the house for my name.
Notwithstanding thou shalt not build the house; but thy son who shall come forth out of thy loins, he shall build the house for my name.

- 10 And the Lord has kept his word; for I have taken my father David's place on the seat of the kingdom of Israel, as the Lord gave his word; and I have made the house for the name of the Lord the God of Israel.
Yahweh has performed his word that he spoke; for I am risen up in the room of David my father, and sit on the throne of Israel, as Yahweh promised, and have built the house for the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel.
The LORD therefore hath performed his word that he hath spoken; for I am raised up in the room of David my father, and am set on the throne of Israel, as the LORD promised, and have built the house for the name of the LORD God of Israel.
- 11 And there I have put the ark, in which is the agreement of the Lord, which he made with the people of Israel.
There have I set the ark, in which is the covenant of Yahweh, which he made with the children of Israel.
And in it have I put the ark, in which is the covenant of the LORD, that he made with the children of Israel.
- 12 Then he took his place in front of the altar of the Lord, all the men of Israel being present,
He stood before the altar of Yahweh in the presence of all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands
And he stood before the altar of the LORD in the presence of all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands:
- 13 (For Solomon had made a brass stage, five cubits long, five cubits wide and three cubits high, and had put it in the middle of the open space; on this he took his place and went down on his knees before all the meeting of Israel, stretching out his hands to heaven.)
(for Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court; and on it he stood, and kneeled down on his knees before all the assembly of Israel, and spread forth his hands toward heaven;)
(For Solomon had made a brazen scaffold, of five cubits long, and five cubits broad, and three cubits high, and had set it in the midst of the court: and upon it he stood, and kneeled upon his knees before all the congregation of Israel, and spread forth his hands towards heaven,)
- 14 And he said, O Lord, the God of Israel, there is no God like you in heaven or on earth; keeping faith and mercy unchanging for your servants, while they go in your ways with all their hearts; and he said, Yahweh, the God of Israel, there is no God like you, in heaven, or on earth; who keep covenant and lovingkindness with your servants, who walk before you with all their heart;
And said, O LORD God of Israel, there is no God like thee in the heaven, nor on the earth; who keepest covenant, and showest mercy to thy servants, that walk before thee with all their hearts:

- 15 For you have kept the word which you gave to your servant David, my father; with your mouth you said it and with your hand you have made it come true this day.
who have kept with your servant David my father that which you did promise him: yes, you spoke with your mouth, and have fulfilled it with your hand, as it is this day.
Thou who hast kept with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him; and hast spoken with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thy hand, as it is this day.
- 16 So now, O Lord, the God of Israel, let your word to your servant David, my father, come true, when you said, You will never be without a man to take his place before me on the seat of the kingdom of Israel; if only your children give attention to their ways, walking in my law, as you have done before me.
Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, keep with your servant David my father that which you have promised him, saying, There shall not fail you a man in my sight to sit on the throne of Israel, if only your children take heed to their way, to walk in my law as you have walked before me.
Now therefore, O LORD God of Israel, keep with thy servant David my father that which thou hast promised him, saying, There shall not fail thee a man in my sight to sit upon the throne of Israel; provided thy children take heed to their way to walk in my law, as thou hast walked before me.
- 17 So now, O Lord, the God of Israel, make your word come true which you said to your servant David.
Now therefore, Yahweh, the God of Israel, let your word be verified, which you spoke to your servant David.
Now then, O LORD God of Israel, let thy word be verified, which thou hast spoken to thy servant David.
- 18 But is it truly possible that God may be housed with men on earth? see, heaven and the heaven of heavens are not wide enough to be your resting-place: how much less this house which I have made:
But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens can't contain you; how much less this house which I have built!
But will God in very deed dwell with men on the earth? behold, heaven and the heaven of heavens cannot contain thee; how much less this house which I have built!
- 19 Still, let your heart be turned to the prayer of your servant and to his prayer for grace, O Lord my God, and give ear to the cry and the prayer which your servant makes before you;
Yet have you respect to the prayer of your servant, and to his supplication, Yahweh my God, to listen to the cry and to the prayer which your servant prays before you;
Have respect therefore to the prayer of thy servant, and to his supplication, O LORD my God, to hearken to the cry and the prayer which thy servant prayeth before thee:

- 20 That your eyes may be open to this house day and night, to this place of which you have said that you would put your name there; to give ear to the prayer which your servant may make, turning to this place.
that your eyes may be open toward this house day and night, even toward the place whereof you have said that you would put your name there; to listen to the prayer which your servant shall pray toward this place.
That thy eyes may be open upon this house day and night, upon the place of which thou hast said, that thou wouldst put thy name there; to hearken to the prayer which thy servant prayeth towards this place.
- 21 And give ear to the prayers of your servant and of your people Israel, when they make their prayers, turning to this place; give ear from heaven your living-place; and hearing have mercy.
Listen you to the petitions of your servant, and of your people Israel, when they shall pray toward this place: yes, hear from your dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when you hear, forgive.
Hearken therefore to the supplications of thy servant, and of thy people Israel, which they shall make towards this place: hear thou from thy dwelling-place, even from heaven; and when thou hearest, forgive.
- 22 If a man does wrong to his neighbour and has to take an oath, and comes before your altar to take his oath in this house:
If a man sin against his neighbor, and an oath is laid on him to cause him to swear, and he comes and swears before your altar in this house;
If a man shall sin against his neighbor, and an oath be laid upon him to make him swear, and the oath shall come before thy altar in this house;
- 23 Then let your ear be open in heaven, and be the judge of your servants, giving punishment to the wrongdoer, so that his sin may come on his head; and, by your decision, keeping from evil him who has done no wrong.
then hear from heaven, and do, and judge your servants, requiting the wicked, to bring his way on his own head; and justifying the righteous, to give him according to his righteousness.
Then hear thou from heaven, and do, and judge thy servants, by requiting the wicked, by recompensing his way upon his own head; and by justifying the righteous, by giving him according to his righteousness.
- 24 And if your people Israel are overcome in war, because of their sin against you; if they are turned to you again, honouring your name, making prayers and requesting your grace in this house:
If your people Israel be struck down before the enemy, because they have sinned against you, and shall turn again and confess your name, and pray and make supplication before you in this house;
And if thy people Israel shall be put to the worse before the enemy, because they have sinned against thee; and shall return and confess thy name, and pray and make supplication before thee in this house;

- 25 Then give ear from heaven, and let the sin of your people Israel have forgiveness, and take them back again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.
then hear from heaven, and forgive the sin of your people Israel, and bring them again to the land which you gave to them and to their fathers.
Then hear thou from the heavens, and forgive the sin of thy people Israel, and bring them again to the land which thou gavest to them and to their fathers.
- 26 When heaven is shut up and there is no rain, because of their sin against you: if they make prayers with their faces turned to this place, honouring your name and turning away from their sin when you send trouble on them:
When the sky is shut up, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against you; if they pray toward this place, and confess your name, and turn from their sin, when you do afflict them:
When the heaven is shut, and there is no rain, because they have sinned against thee; yet if they pray towards this place, and confess thy name, and turn from their sin, when thou dost afflict them;
- 27 Then give ear from heaven, so that the sin of your servants and the sin of your people Israel may have forgiveness, when you make clear to them the good way in which they are to go; and send rain on your land which you have given to your people for their heritage.
then hear in heaven, and forgive the sin of your servants, and of your people Israel, when you teach them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain on your land, which you have given to your people for an inheritance.
Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way in which they should walk; and send rain upon thy land, which thou hast given to thy people for an inheritance.
- 28 If there is no food in the land, if there is disease, if the fruits of the earth are damaged by heat or water, locust or worm; if their towns are shut in by their attackers: whatever trouble or whatever disease there may be:
If there be in the land famine, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting or mildew, locust or caterpillar; if their enemies besiege them in the land of their cities; whatever plague or whatever sickness there be;
If there shall be dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies shall besiege them in the cities of their land; whatever calamity, or whatever sickness there be:
- 29 Whatever prayer or request for your grace is made by any man, or by all your people Israel, whatever his trouble may be, whose hands are stretched out to this house:
whatever prayer and supplication be made by any man, or by all your people Israel, who shall know every man his own plague and his own sorrow, and shall spread forth his hands toward this house:
Then whatever prayer, or whatever supplication shall be made by any man, or by all the people of Israel, when every one shall know his own calamity, and his own grief, and shall spread forth his hands in this house:

- 30 Then give ear from heaven your living-place, answering with forgiveness, and give to every man, whose secret heart is open to you, the reward of all his ways; (for you, and you only, have knowledge of the hearts of the children of men;)
then hear from heaven, your dwelling-place and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart you know; (for you, even you only, know the hearts of the children of men;)
Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render to every man according to all his ways, whose heart thou knowest (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men:)
- 31 So that they may give you worship, walking in your ways, as long as they are living in the land which you gave to our fathers.
that they may fear you, to walk in your ways, so long as they live in the land which you gave to our fathers.
That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways, so long as they live in the land which thou gavest to our fathers.
- 32 And as for the man from a strange land, who is not of your people Israel but comes from a far country because of the glory of your name and your strong hand and your outstretched arm; when he comes to make his prayer, turning to this house:
Moreover concerning the foreigner, who is not of your people Israel, when he shall come from a far country for your great name's sake, and your mighty hand, and your outstretched arm; when they shall come and pray toward this house:
Moreover concerning the stranger, who is not of thy people Israel, but hath come from a distant country for thy great name's sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy out-stretched arm; if they come and pray in this house;
- 33 Then give ear from heaven your living-place, and give him his desire, whatever it may be; so that all the peoples of the earth may have knowledge of your name, worshipping you as do your people Israel, and may see that this house which I have made is truly named by your name.
then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, and do according to all that the foreigner calls to you for; that all the peoples of the earth may know your name, and fear you, as does your people Israel, and that they may know that this house which I have built is called by your name.
Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as do thy people Israel, and may know that this house which I have built is called by thy name.
- 34 If your people go out to war against their attackers, by whatever way you may send them, if they make their prayers to you turning their faces to this town of yours and to this house which I have put up for your name:
If your people go out to battle against their enemies, by whatever way you shall send them, and they pray to you toward this city which you have chosen, and the house which I have built for your name;
If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray to thee towards this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name;

- 35 Then give ear from heaven to their prayer and their cry for grace, and see right done to them.
then hear from heaven their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their cause.
- 36 If they do wrong against you, (for no man is without sin,) and you are angry with them, and give them up into the power of those who are fighting against them, so that they take them away prisoners to a land far off or near;
If they sin against you (for there is no man who doesn't sin), and you be angry with them, and deliver them to the enemy, so that they carry them away captive to a land far off or near;
If they sin against thee, (for there is no man who sinneth not,) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and they carry them away captives to a land far off or near;
- 37 And if they take thought, in the land where they are prisoners, turning again to you, crying out in prayer to you in that land, and saying, We are sinners, we have done wrong, we have done evil;
yet if they shall repent themselves in the land where they are carried captive, and turn again, and make supplication to you in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done perversely, and have dealt wickedly;
Yet if they bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray to thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;
- 38 If with all their heart and soul they are turned again to you, in the land where they are prisoners, the land where they have been taken, and make their prayers, turning their eyes to their land which you gave to their fathers, and to the town which you took for yourself, and the house which I have made for your name:
if they return to you with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, where they have carried them captive, and pray toward their land, which you gave to their fathers, and the city which you have chosen, and toward the house which I have built for your name:
If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray towards their land which thou gavest to their fathers, and towards the city which thou hast chosen, and towards the house which I have built for thy name:
- 39 Then give ear from heaven your living-place to their prayer and their cry, and see right done to them, answering with forgiveness your people who have done wrong against you.
then hear from heaven, even from your dwelling-place, their prayer and their petitions, and maintain their cause, and forgive your people who have sinned against you.
Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their cause, and forgive thy people who have sinned against thee.

40 Now, O my God, may your eyes be open and your ears awake to the prayers made in this place.
Now, my God, let, I beg you, your eyes be open, and let your ears be attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.
Now, my God, let, I beseech thee, thy eyes be open, and let thy ears be attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Up! now, O Lord God, come back to your resting-place, you and the ark of your strength: let your priests, O Lord God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints be glad in what is good.
Now therefore arise, Yahweh God, into your resting-place, you, and the ark of your strength: let your priests, Yahweh God, be clothed with salvation, and let your saints rejoice in goodness.
Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting-place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.

42 O Lord God, let him whom you have taken for yourself never be given up by you: keep in mind your mercies to David your servant.
Yahweh God, don't turn away the face of your anointed: remember [your] lovingkindnesses to David your servant.
O LORD God, turn not away the face of thy anointed: remember the mercies of David thy servant.

1 Now when Solomon's prayers were ended, fire came down from heaven, burning up all the offerings; and the house was full of the glory of the Lord.
Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of Yahweh filled the house.
Now when Solomon had made an end of praying, the fire came down from heaven, and consumed the burnt-offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the house.

2 And the priests were not able to go into the house of the Lord, for the Lord's house was full of the glory of the Lord.
The priests could not enter into the house of Yahweh, because the glory of Yahweh filled Yahweh's house.
And the priests could not enter into the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD'S house.

3 And all the children of Israel were looking on when the fire came down, and the glory of the Lord was on the house; and they went down on their knees, with their faces to the earth, worshipping and praising the Lord, and saying, He is good; for his mercy is unchanging for ever.
All the children of Israel looked on, when the fire came down, and the glory of Yahweh was on the house; and they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshipped, and gave thanks to Yahweh, [saying], For he is good; for his lovingkindness endures for ever.
And when all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD upon the house, they bowed themselves with their faces to the ground upon the pavement, and worshiped, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endureth for ever.

4 Then the king and all the people made offerings before the Lord.
Then the king and all the people offered sacrifice before Yahweh.
Then the king and all the people offered sacrifices before the LORD.

5 King Solomon made an offering of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people kept the feast of the opening of the house of God.
King Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty-two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep. So the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.
And king Solomon offered a sacrifice of twenty and two thousand oxen, and a hundred and twenty thousand sheep: so the king and all the people dedicated the house of God.

6 And the priests were in their places, and the Levites with their instruments of music for the Lord's song, which David the king had made for the praise of the Lord whose mercy is unchanging for ever, when David gave praise by their hand; and the priests were sounding horns before them; and all Israel were on their feet.
The priests stood, according to their offices; the Levites also with instruments of music of Yahweh, which David the king had made to give thanks to Yahweh, (for his lovingkindness endures for ever,) when David praised by their ministry: and the priests sounded trumpets before them; and all Israel stood.
And the priests waited on their offices: the Levites also with instruments of music of the LORD, which David the king had made to praise the LORD, because his mercy endureth for ever, when David praised by their ministry; and the priests sounded trumpets before them, and all Israel stood.

- 7 Then Solomon made holy the middle of the open square in front of the house of the Lord, offering the burned offerings there, and the fat of the peace-offerings; for there was not room on the brass altar which Solomon had made for all the burned offerings and the meal offerings and the fat.
- Moreover Solomon made the middle of the court holy that was before the house of Yahweh; for there he offered the burnt offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt offering, and the meal-offering, and the fat.
- Moreover Solomon hallowed the middle of the court that was before the house of the LORD: for there he offered burnt-offerings, and the fat of the peace-offerings, because the brazen altar which Solomon had made was not able to receive the burnt-offerings, and the meat-offerings, and the fat.
- 8 So Solomon kept the feast at that time for seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great meeting, for the people had come together from the way into Hamath and from as far as the river of Egypt.
- So Solomon held the feast at that time seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great assembly, from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of Egypt.
- Also at the same time Solomon kept the feast seven days, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, from the entrance of Hamath to the river of Egypt.
- 9 And on the eighth day they had a holy meeting; the offerings for making the altar holy went on for seven days, and the feast for seven days.
- On the eighth day they held a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
- And on the eighth day they made a solemn assembly: for they kept the dedication of the altar seven days, and the feast seven days.
- 10 And on the twenty-third day of the seventh month, he sent the people away to their tents, full of joy and glad in their hearts, because of all the good which the Lord had done to David and to Solomon and to Israel his people.
- On the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, joyful and glad of heart for the goodness that Yahweh had showed to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.
- And on the three and twentieth day of the seventh month he sent the people away to their tents, glad and merry in heart for the goodness that the LORD had shown to David, and to Solomon, and to Israel his people.
- 11 So Solomon came to the end of building the house of the Lord and the king's house; and everything which it was in his mind to make in the house of the Lord and for himself had been well done.
- Thus Solomon finished the house of Yahweh, and the king`s house: and all that came into Solomon`s heart to make in the house of Yahweh, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.
- Thus Solomon finished the house of the LORD, and the king's house: and all that came into Solomon's heart to make in the house of the LORD, and in his own house, he prosperously effected.

- 12 Now the Lord came to Solomon in a vision by night, and said to him, I have given ear to your prayer, and have taken this place for myself as a house where offerings are to be made. Yahweh appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard your prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.
And the LORD appeared to Solomon by night, and said to him, I have heard thy prayer, and have chosen this place to myself for a house of sacrifice.
- 13 If, at my word, heaven is shut up, so that there is no rain, or if I send locusts on the land for its destruction, or if I send disease on my people;
If I shut up the sky so that there is no rain, or if I command the locust to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;
If I shut up heaven that there be no rain, or if I command the locusts to devour the land, or if I send pestilence among my people;
- 14 If my people, on whom my name is named, make themselves low and come to me in prayer, searching for me and turning from their evil ways; then I will give ear from heaven, overlooking their sin, and will give life again to their land.
if my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
If my people, who are called by my name, shall humble themselves, and pray, and seek my face, and turn from their wicked ways; then will I hear from heaven, and will forgive their sin, and will heal their land.
- 15 Now my eyes will be open and my ears awake to the prayers made in this place.
Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive, to the prayer that is made in this place.
Now my eyes shall be open, and my ears attentive to the prayer that is made in this place.
- 16 For I have taken this house for myself and made it holy, so that my name may be there for ever; and my eyes and my heart will be there at all times.
For now have I chosen and made this house holy, that my name may be there forever; and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.
For now have I chosen and sanctified this house, that my name may be there for ever: and my eyes and my heart shall be there perpetually.

- 17 And as for you, if you will go on your way before me as David your father did, doing whatever I have given you orders to do and keeping my laws and my decisions:
As for you, if you will walk before me as David your father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded you, and will keep my statutes and my ordinances;
And as for thee, if thou wilt walk before me, as David thy father walked, and do according to all that I have commanded thee, and shalt observe my statutes and my judgments;
- 18 Then I will make strong the seat of your kingdom, as I gave my word to David your father, saying, You will never be without a man to be ruler in Israel.
then I will establish the throne of your kingdom, according as I covenanted with David your father, saying, There shall not fail you a man to be ruler in Israel.
Then will I establish the throne of thy kingdom, according as I have covenanted with David thy father, saying, There shall not fail thee a man to be ruler in Israel.
- 19 But if you are turned away from me, and do not keep my orders and my laws which I have put before you, but go and make yourselves servants to other gods, giving them worship:
But if you turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;
But if ye turn away, and forsake my statutes and my commandments, which I have set before you, and shall go and serve other gods, and worship them;
- 20 Then I will have this people uprooted out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, I will put away from before my eyes, and make it an example and a word of shame among all peoples.
then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have made holy for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and I will make it a proverb and a byword among all peoples.
Then will I pluck them up by the roots out of my land which I have given them; and this house, which I have sanctified for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and will make it to be a proverb and a by-word among all nations.
- 21 And this house will become a mass of broken walls, and everyone who goes by will be overcome with wonder, and will say, Why has the Lord done so to this land and to this house?
This house, which is so high, everyone who passes by it shall be astonished, and shall say, Why has Yahweh done thus to this land, and to this house?
And this house, which is high, shall be an astonishment to every one that passeth by it; so that he shall say, Why hath the LORD done thus to this land, and to this house?

22 And their answer will be, Because they were turned away from the Lord, the God of their fathers, who took them out of the land of Egypt, and took for themselves other gods and gave them worship and became their servants: that is why he has sent all this evil on them.
They shall answer, Because they forsook Yahweh, the God of their fathers, who brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshipped them, and served them: therefore has he brought all this evil on them.
And it shall be answered, Because they forsook the LORD God of their fathers, who brought them out of the land of Egypt, and laid hold on other gods, and worshiped them, and served them: therefore hath he brought all this evil upon them.

1 Now at the end of twenty years, in which time Solomon had put up the house of the Lord and a house for himself,
It happened at the end of twenty years, in which Solomon had built the house of Yahweh, and his own house,
And it came to pass at the end of twenty years, wherein Solomon had built the house of the LORD, and his own house,

2 He took in hand the building up of the towns which Hiram had given him, causing the children of Israel to make living-places for themselves there.
that the cities which Hiram had given to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.
That the cities which Hiram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah and overcame it.
Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.
And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he put up the buildings of Tadmor in the waste land, and of all the store-towns in Hamath;
He built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities, which he built in Hamath.
And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 And of Beth-horon the higher and the lower, walled towns with walls and doorways and locks;
Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars;
Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fortified cities, with walls, gates, and bars;

- 6 And of Baalath, and all the store-towns which Solomon had, and the towns where he kept his war-carriages and his horse men, and everything which it was his pleasure to put up in Jerusalem and in Lebanon and in all the land under his rule.
and Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the cities for his chariots, and the cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build for his pleasure in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and in all the land of his dominion.
And Baalath, and all the store cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.
- 7 As for all the rest of the Hittites and the Amorites and the Perizzites and the Hivites and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel:
As for all the people who were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel;
As for all the people that were left of the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites, who were not of Israel,
- 8 Their men who were still living in the land, and whom the children of Israel had not put an end to, these Solomon put to forced work, as is done to this day; of their children who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel didn't consume, of them did Solomon raise a levy [of bondservants] to this day.
But of their children, who were left after them in the land, whom the children of Israel consumed not, them did Solomon make to pay tribute until this day.
- 9 But Solomon did not make use of the children of Israel as servants for his work; they were men of war, his chiefs and his captains, and captains of his war-carriages and his horsemen.
But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and rulers of his chariots and of his horsemen.
But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work; but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

29 Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not recorded in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the words of Ahijah the prophet of Shiloh, and in the visions of Iddo the seer about Jeroboam, the son of Nebat?

Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, aren't they written in the history of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer concerning Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

Now the rest of the acts of Solomon, first and last, are they not written in the book of Nathan the prophet, and in the prophecy of Ahijah the Shilonite, and in the visions of Iddo the seer against Jeroboam the son of Nebat?

And Solomon slept with his fathers, and he was buried in the city of David his father: and Rehoboam his son reigned in his stead.

1 And Rehoboam went to Shechem, where all Israel had come together to make him king.
Rehoboam went to Shechem; for all Israel were come to Shechem to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, had news of it, (for he was in Egypt where he had gone in flight from King Solomon,) he came back from Egypt.
It happened, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat heard of it, (for he was in Egypt, where he had fled from the presence of king Solomon,) that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.
And it came to pass, when Jeroboam the son of Nebat, who was in Egypt, whither he had fled from the presence of Solomon the king, heard it, that Jeroboam returned from Egypt.

3 And they sent for him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came to Rehoboam and said,
They sent and called him; and Jeroboam and all Israel came, and they spoke to Rehoboam, saying,
And they sent and called him. So Jeroboam and all Israel came and spoke to Rehoboam, saying,

4 Your father put a hard yoke on us: if you will make the conditions under which your father kept us down less cruel, and the weight of the yoke he put on us less hard, then we will be your servants.
Your father made our yoke grievous: now therefore make you the grievous service of your father, and his heavy yoke which he put on us, lighter, and we will serve you.
Thy father made our yoke grievous: now therefore ease thou somewhat the grievous servitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will serve thee.

5 And he said to them, Come to me again after three days. So the people went away.
He said to them, Come again to me after three days. The people departed.
And he said to them, Come again to me after three days. And the people departed.

- 6 Then King Rehoboam took the opinion of the old men who had been with Solomon his father when he was living, and said, In your opinion, what answer am I to give to this people?
King Rehoboam took counsel with the old men, who had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give you me to return answer to this people?
And king Rehoboam took counsel with the old men that had stood before Solomon his father while he yet lived, saying, What counsel give ye me to return answer to this people?
- 7 And they said to him, If you are kind to this people, pleasing them and saying good words to them, then they will be your servants for ever.
They spoke to him, saying, If you be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, then they will be your servants forever.
And they spoke to him, saying, If thou wilt be kind to this people, and please them, and speak good words to them, they will be thy servants for ever.
- 8 But he gave no attention to the opinion of the old men, but went to the young men of his generation who were waiting before him.
But he forsook the counsel of the old men which they had given him, and took counsel with the young men who had grown up with him, who stood before him.
But he forsook the counsel which the old men gave him, and took counsel with the young men that were brought up with him, that stood before him.
- 9 And he said to them, What is your opinion? What answer are we to give to this people who have said to me, Make less the weight of the yoke which your father put on us?
He said to them, What counsel give you, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Make the yoke that your father did put on us lighter?
And he said to them, What advice give ye, that we may return answer to this people, who have spoken to me, saying, Ease somewhat the yoke that thy father put upon us?
- 10 And the young men of his generation said to him, This is the answer to give to the people who came to you saying, Your father put a hard yoke on us, but will you make it less; say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's body;
The young men who had grown up with him spoke to him, saying, Thus shall you tell the people who spoke to you, saying, Your father made our yoke heavy, but make you it lighter to us; thus shall you say to them, My little finger is thicker than my father's loins.
And the young men that were brought up with him, spoke to him, saying, Thus shalt thou answer the people that spoke to thee, saying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it somewhat lighter for us; thus shalt thou say to them, My little finger shall be thicker than my father's loins.

- 11 If my father put a hard yoke on you, I will make it harder: my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give you blows with snakes.
Now whereas my father did lade you with a heavy yoke, I will add to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scorpions.
For whereas my father put a heavy yoke upon you, I will put more to your yoke: my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
- 12 So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king had given orders, saying, Come to me again on the third day.
So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the third day, as the king bade, saying, Come to me again the third day.
So Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam on the third day, as the king directed, saying, Come again to me on the third day.
- 13 And the king gave them a rough answer. So King Rehoboam gave no attention to the suggestion of the old men,
The king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,
And the king answered them roughly; and king Rehoboam forsook the counsel of the old men,
- 14 But gave them the answer put forward by the young men, saying, My father made your yoke hard, but I will make it harder; my father gave you punishment with whips, but I will give it with snakes.
and spoke to them after the counsel of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chastised you with whips, but I [will chastise you] with scorpions.
And answered them after the advice of the young men, saying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add to it; my father chastised you with whips, but I will chastise you with scorpions.
- 15 So the king did not give ear to the people; for this came about by the purpose of God, so that the Lord might give effect to his word which he had said by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam, the son of Nebat.
So the king didn't listen to the people; for it was brought about of God, that Yahweh might establish his word, which he spoke by Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.
So the king hearkened not to the people: for the cause was of God, that the LORD might perform his word, which he spoke by the hand of Ahijah the Shilonite to Jeroboam the son of Nebat.

16 And when all Israel saw that the king would give no attention to them, the people in answer said to the king, What part have we in David? what is our heritage in the son of Jesse? every man to your tents, O Israel; now see to your house, David. So all Israel went to their tents.
When all Israel saw that the king didn't listen to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, Israel: now see to your own house, David. So all Israel departed to their tents.

And when all Israel saw that the king would not hearken to them, the people answered the king, saying, What portion have we in David? and we have no inheritance in the son of Jesse: every man to your tents, O Israel: and now, David, see to thy own house. So all Israel went to their tents.

17 But Rehoboam was still king over those of the children of Israel who were living in the towns of Judah.

But as for the children of Israel who lived in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

But as for the children of Israel that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then Rehoboam sent Adoniram, the overseer of the forced work; and he was stoned to death by all Israel. And King Rehoboam went quickly and got into his carriage to go in flight to Jerusalem.

Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram, who was over the men subject to forced labor; and the children of Israel stoned him to death with stones. King Rehoboam made speed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

Then king Rehoboam sent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Israel stoned him with stones, that he died. But king Rehoboam made speed to get into his chariot, to flee to Jerusalem.

19 So Israel was turned away from the family of David to this day.

So Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

And Israel rebelled against the house of David to this day.

1 And Rehoboam came to Jerusalem, and got together the men of Judah and Benjamin, a hundred and eighty thousand of his best fighting-men, to make war against Israel and get the kingdom back for Rehoboam.

2 But the word of the Lord came to Shemaiah, the man of God, saying,
But the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,
But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, saying,

3 Say to Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin,
Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,
Speak to Rehoboam the son of Solomon, king of Judah, and to all Israel in Judah and Benjamin, saying,

4 The Lord has said, You are not to go to war against your brothers: let every man go back to his house, for this thing is my purpose. So they gave ear to the words of the Lord and were turned back from fighting against Jeroboam.
Thus says Yahweh, You shall not go up, nor fight against your brothers: return every man to his house; for this thing is of me. So they listened to the words of Yahweh, and returned from going against Jeroboam.
Thus saith the LORD, Ye shall not go up, nor fight against your brethren: return every man to his house: for this thing is done by me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going against Jeroboam.

5 Now Rehoboam kept in Jerusalem, building walled towns in Judah.
Rehoboam lived in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.
And Rehoboam dwelt in Jerusalem, and built cities for defense in Judah.

6 He was the builder of Beth-lehem and Etam and Tekoa
He built Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,
He built even Beth-lehem, and Etam, and Tekoa,

7 And Beth-zur and Soco and Adullam
Beth-zur, and Soco, and Adullam,
And Beth-zur, and Shocho, and Adullam,

He fortified the strongholds, and put captains in them, and stores of victuals, and oil and wine.
And he fortified the strong holds, and put captains in them, and store of provisions, and of oil and wine.

- 13 And the priests and Levites who were in all Israel came together to him from every part of their country.
The priests and the Levites who were in all Israel resorted to him out of all their border.
And the priests and the Levites that were in all Israel resorted to him from all their borders.
- 14 For the Levites gave up their living-places and their property, and came to Judah and Jerusalem; for Jeroboam and his sons had sent them away, not letting them be priests to the Lord;
For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons cast them off, that they should not execute the priest's office to Yahweh;
For the Levites left their suburbs and their possession, and came to Judah and Jerusalem: for Jeroboam and his sons had cast them off from executing the priest's office to the LORD:
- 15 And he himself made priests for the high places, and for the images of he-goats and oxen which he had made.
and he appointed him priests for the high places, and for the male goats, and for the calves which he had made.
And he ordained him priests for the high places, and for the devils, and for the calves which he had made.

- 16 And after them, from all the tribes of Israel, all those whose hearts were fixed and true to the Lord, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to make offerings to the Lord, the God of their fathers.
After them, out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek Yahweh, the God of Israel, came to Jerusalem to sacrifice to Yahweh, the God of their fathers.
And after them out of all the tribes of Israel, such as set their hearts to seek the LORD God of Israel came to Jerusalem, to sacrifice to the LORD God of their fathers.
- 17 So they went on increasing the power of the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, strong for three years; and for three years they went in the ways of David and Solomon.
So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years; for they walked three years in the way of David and Solomon.
So they strengthened the kingdom of Judah, and made Rehoboam the son of Solomon strong, three years: for three years they walked in the way of David and Solomon.
- 18 And Rehoboam took as his wife Mahalath, the daughter of Jerimoth, the son of David and of Abihail, the daughter of Eliab, the son of Jesse;
Rehoboam took him a wife, Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David, [and of] Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;
And Rehoboam took to himself Mahalath the daughter of Jerimoth the son of David for a wife, and Abihail the daughter of Eliab the son of Jesse;
- 19 And she had sons by him, Jeush, Shemariah, and Zaham.
and she bore him sons: Jeush, and Shemariah, and Zaham.
Who bore him children, Jeush, and Shamariah, and Zaham.
- 20 And after her he took Maacah, the daughter of Absalom; and she had Abijah and Attai and Ziza and Shelomith by him.
After her he took Maacah the daughter of Absalom; and she bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.
And after her he took Maachah the daughter of Absalom; who bore him Abijah, and Attai, and Ziza, and Shelomith.
- 21 Maacah, the daughter of Absalom, was dearer to Rehoboam than all his wives and his servant-wives: (for he had eighteen wives and sixty servant-wives, and was the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.)
Rehoboam loved Maacah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines, and became the father of twenty-eight sons and sixty daughters.)
And Rehoboam loved Maachah the daughter of Absalom above all his wives and his concubines: (for he took eighteen wives, and sixty concubines; and begat twenty and eight sons, and sixty daughters.)

- 22 Rehoboam made Abijah, the son of Maacah, chief and ruler among his brothers, for it was his purpose to make him king.
Rehoboam appointed Abijah the son of Maacah to be chief, [even] the prince among his brothers; for [he was minded] to make him king.
And Rehoboam made Abijah the son of Maachah the chief, to be ruler among his brethren: for he thought to make him king.
- 23 And in his wisdom he had his sons stationed in every walled town through all the lands of Judah and Benjamin; and he gave them a great store of food, and took wives for them.
He dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his sons throughout all the lands of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them victuals in abundance. He sought [for them] many wives.
And he dealt wisely, and dispersed of all his children throughout all the countries of Judah and Benjamin, to every fortified city: and he gave them provisions in abundance. And he desired many wives.
- 1 Now when Rehoboam's position as king had been made certain, and he was strong, he gave up the law of the Lord, and all Israel with him.
It happened, when the kingdom of Rehoboam was established, and he was strong, that he forsook the law of Yahweh, and all Israel with him.
And it came to pass, when Rehoboam had established the kingdom, and had strengthened himself, he forsook the law of the LORD, and all Israel with him.
- 2 Now in the fifth year of King Rehoboam, Shishak, king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem, because of their sin against the Lord,
It happened in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, that Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had trespassed against Yahweh,
And it came to pass, that in the fifth year of king Rehoboam, Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, because they had transgressed against the LORD,
- 3 With twelve hundred war-carriages and sixty thousand horsemen: and the people who came with him out of Egypt were more than might be numbered: Lubim and Sukkiim and Ethiopians.
with twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen. The people were without number who came with him out of Egypt: the Lubim, the Sukkiim, and the Ethiopians.
With twelve hundred chariots, and sixty thousand horsemen: and the people were without number that came with him out of Egypt; the Lubims, the Sukkiims, and the Cushites.
- 4 And he took the walled towns of Judah, and came as far as Jerusalem.
He took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.
And he took the fortified cities which pertained to Judah, and came to Jerusalem.

- 5 Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam and the chiefs of Judah, who had come together in Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, The Lord has said, Because you have given me up, I have given you up into the hands of Shishak.
Now Shemaiah the prophet came to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, who were gathered together to Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus says Yahweh, You have forsaken me, therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.
Then came Shemaiah the prophet to Rehoboam, and to the princes of Judah, that were assembled at Jerusalem because of Shishak, and said to them, Thus saith the LORD, Ye have forsaken me, and therefore have I also left you in the hand of Shishak.
- 6 Then the chiefs of Israel and the king made themselves low and said, The Lord is upright.
Then the princes of Israel and the king humbled themselves; and they said, Yahweh is righteous.
Upon which the princes of Israel, and the king humbled themselves; and they said, The LORD is righteous.
- 7 And the Lord, seeing that they had made themselves low, said to Shemaiah, They have made themselves low: I will not send destruction on them, but in a short time I will give them salvation, and will not let loose my wrath on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
When Yahweh saw that they humbled themselves, the word of Yahweh came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves: I will not destroy them; but I will grant them some deliverance, and my wrath shall not be poured out on Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
And when the LORD saw that they humbled themselves, the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah, saying, They have humbled themselves; therefore I will not destroy them, but I will grant them some deliverance; and my wrath shall not be poured out upon Jerusalem by the hand of Shishak.
- 8 But still they will become his servants, so that they may see how different my yoke is from the yoke of the kingdoms of the lands.
Nevertheless they shall be his servants, that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.
Nevertheless they shall be his servants; that they may know my service, and the service of the kingdoms of the countries.
- 9 So Shishak, king of Egypt, came up against Jerusalem and took away all the stored wealth of the house of the Lord and the king's house: he took everything away, and with the rest the gold body-covers which Solomon had made.
So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of Yahweh, and the treasures of the king's house: he took all away: he took away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.
So Shishak king of Egypt came up against Jerusalem, and took away the treasures of the house of the LORD, and the treasures of the king's house; he took all: he carried away also the shields of gold which Solomon had made.

10 And in their place King Rehoboam had other body-covers made of brass and gave them into the care of the captains of the armed men who were stationed at the door of the king's house. King Rehoboam made in their place shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the captains of the guard, who kept the door of the king's house.

Instead of which, king Rehoboam made shields of brass, and committed them to the hands of the chief of the guard, that kept the entrance of the king's house.

11 And whenever the king went into the house of the Lord, the armed men went with him taking the body-covers, and then took them back to their room.

It was so, that as often as the king entered into the house of Yahweh, the guard came and bore them, and brought them back into the guard-chamber.

And when the king entered into the house of the LORD, the guard came and conveyed them, and brought them again into the guard-chamber.

12 And when he made himself low, the wrath of the Lord was turned back from him, and complete destruction did not come on him, for there was still some good in Judah.

When he humbled himself, the wrath of Yahweh turned from him, so as not to destroy him altogether: and moreover in Judah there were good things [found].

And when he humbled himself, the wrath of the LORD turned from him, that he would not destroy him altogether: and also in Judah things went well.

13 So King Rehoboam made himself strong in Jerusalem and was ruling there. Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he became king, and he was ruling for seventeen years in Jerusalem, the town which the Lord had made his out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there; and his mother's name was Naamah, an Ammonite woman.

So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was forty-one years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which Yahweh had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: and his mother's name was Naamah the Ammonitess.

So king Rehoboam strengthened himself in Jerusalem, and reigned: for Rehoboam was one and forty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned seventeen years in Jerusalem, the city which the LORD had chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there. And his mother's name was Naamah an Ammonitess.

14 And he did evil because his heart was not true to the Lord.

He did that which was evil, because he didn't set his heart to seek Yahweh.

And he did evil, because he prepared not his heart to seek the LORD.

- 15 Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not recorded in the words of Shemaiah the prophet and Iddo the seer? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam all their days.
Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, aren't they written in the histories of Shemaiah the prophet and of Iddo the seer, after the manner of genealogies? There were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.
Now the acts of Rehoboam, first and last, are they not written in the book of Shemaiah the prophet, and of Iddo the seer, concerning genealogies? And there were wars between Rehoboam and Jeroboam continually.
- 16 And Rehoboam went to rest with his fathers, and was put into the earth in the town of David; and Abijah his son became king in his place.
Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his place.
And Rehoboam slept with his fathers, and was buried in the city of David: and Abijah his son reigned in his stead.
- 1 In the eighteenth year of King Jeroboam, Abijah became king over Judah.
In the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.
Now in the eighteenth year of king Jeroboam began Abijah to reign over Judah.
- 2 He was king in Jerusalem for three years; his mother's name was Maacah, the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
Three years reigned he in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Micaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. There was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
He reigned three years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Michaiah the daughter of Uriel of Gibeah. And there was war between Abijah and Jeroboam.
- 3 And Abijah went out to the fight with an army of men of war, four hundred thousand of his best men; and Jeroboam put his forces in line against him, eight hundred thousand of his best men of war.
Abijah joined battle with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: and Jeroboam set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, who were mighty men of valor.
And Abijah set the battle in array with an army of valiant men of war, even four hundred thousand chosen men: Jeroboam also set the battle in array against him with eight hundred thousand chosen men, being mighty men of valor.

- 4 And Abijah took up his position on Mount Zemaraim, in the hill-country of Ephraim, and said, Give ear to me, O Jeroboam and all Israel:
Abijah stood up on Mount Zemaraim, which is in the hill-country of Ephraim, and said, Hear me, Jeroboam and all Israel:
And Abijah stood upon mount Zemaraim, which is in mount Ephraim, and said, Hear me, thou Jeroboam, and all Israel;
- 5 Is it not clear to you that the Lord, the God of Israel, gave the rule over Israel to David and to his sons for ever, by an agreement made with salt?
Ought you not to know that Yahweh, the God of Israel, gave the kingdom over Israel to David forever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?
Ought ye not to know that the LORD God of Israel gave the kingdom over Israel to David for ever, even to him and to his sons by a covenant of salt?
- 6 But Jeroboam, the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon, the son of David, took up arms against his lord.
Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat, the servant of Solomon the son of David, rose up, and rebelled against his lord.
Yet Jeroboam the son of Nebat the servant of Solomon the son of David, hath risen up, and hath rebelled against his lord.
- 7 And certain foolish and good-for-nothing men were joined with him, and made themselves strong against Rehoboam, the son of Solomon, when he was young and untested and not able to keep them back.
There were gathered to him worthless men, base fellows, who strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.
And there are gathered to him vain men, the children of Belial, and they have strengthened themselves against Rehoboam the son of Solomon, when Rehoboam was young and tender-hearted, and could not withstand them.
- 8 And now it is your purpose to put yourselves against the authority which the Lord has put into the hands of the sons of David, and you are a very great number, and you have with you the gold oxen which Jeroboam made to be your gods.
Now you think to withstand the kingdom of Yahweh in the hand of the sons of David; and you are a great multitude, and there are with you the golden calves which Jeroboam made you for gods.
And now ye think to withstand the kingdom of the LORD in the hand of the sons of David; and ye are a great multitude, and there are with you golden calves, which Jeroboam made you for gods.

- 9 And after driving out the priests of the Lord, the sons of Aaron and the Levites, have you not made priests for yourselves as the people of other lands do? so that anyone who comes to make himself priest by offering an ox or seven sheep, may be a priest of those who are no gods.
Haven't you driven out the priests of Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and made you priests after the manner of the peoples of [other] lands? so that whoever comes to consecrate himself with a young bull and seven rams, the same may be a priest of [those who are] no gods.
Have ye not cast out the priests of the LORD, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites, and have made for you priests after the manner of the nations of other lands? so that whoever cometh to consecrate himself with a young bullock and seven rams, the same may be a priest of them that are no gods.
- 10 But as for us, the Lord is our God, and we have not been turned away from him; we have priests who do the work of the Lord, even the sons of Aaron and the Levites in their places;
But as for us, Yahweh is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and [we have] priests ministering to Yahweh, the sons of Aaron, and the Levites in their work:
But as for us, the LORD is our God, and we have not forsaken him; and the priests, who minister to the LORD, are the sons of Aaron, and the Levites wait upon their business:
- 11 By whom burned offerings and perfumes are sent up in smoke before the Lord every morning and every evening; and they put out the holy bread on its table and the gold support for the lights with its lights burning every evening; for we keep the orders given to us by the Lord our God, but you have gone away from him.
and they burn to Yahweh every morning and every evening burnt offerings and sweet incense: the show bread also [set they] in order on the pure table; and the lampstand of gold with the lamps of it, to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of Yahweh our God; but you have forsaken him.
And they burn to the LORD every morning and every evening burnt-sacrifices and sweet incense: the show-bread also they set in order upon the pure table; and the candlestick of gold with its lamps to burn every evening: for we keep the charge of the LORD our God; but ye have forsaken him.
- 12 And now God is with us at our head, and his priests with their loud horns sounding against you. O children of Israel, do not make war on the Lord, the God of your fathers, for it will not go well for you.
Behold, God is with us at our head, and his priests with the trumpets of alarm to sound an alarm against you. Children of Israel, don't you fight against Yahweh, the God of your fathers; for you shall not prosper.
And behold, God himself is with us for our captain, and his priests with sounding trumpets to cry alarm against you. O children of Israel, fight ye not against the LORD God of your fathers; for ye will not prosper.
- 13 But Jeroboam had put some of his men to make a surprise attack on them from the back, so some were facing Judah and others were stationed secretly at their back.
But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them.
But Jeroboam caused an ambush to come about behind them: so they were before Judah, and the ambush was behind them.

- 14 And Judah, turning their faces, saw that they were being attacked in front and at the back; and they gave a cry for help to the Lord, while the priests were sounding their horns.
When Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind them; and they cried to Yahweh, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.
And when Judah looked back, behold, the battle was before and behind: and they cried to the LORD, and the priests sounded with the trumpets.
- 15 And the men of Judah gave a loud cry; and at their cry, God put fear into Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it happened, that God struck Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
Then the men of Judah gave a shout: and as the men of Judah shouted, it came to pass, that God smote Jeroboam and all Israel before Abijah and Judah.
- 16 And the children of Israel went in flight before Judah, and God gave them up into their hands.
The children of Israel fled before Judah; and God delivered them into their hand.
And the children of Israel fled before Judah: and God delivered them into their hand.
- 17 And Abijah and his people put them to death with great destruction: five hundred thousand of the best of Israel were put to the sword.
Abijah and his people killed them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.
And Abijah and his people slew them with a great slaughter: so there fell down slain of Israel five hundred thousand chosen men.
- 18 So at that time the children of Israel were overcome, and the children of Judah got the better of them, because they put their faith in the Lord, the God of their fathers.
Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied on Yahweh, the God of their fathers.
Thus the children of Israel were brought under at that time, and the children of Judah prevailed, because they relied upon the LORD God of their fathers.
- 19 And Abijah went after Jeroboam and took some of his towns, Beth-el with its small towns and Jeshanah with its small towns and Ephron with its small towns.
Abijah pursued after Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Bethel with the towns of it, and Jeshanah with the towns of it, and Ephron with the towns of it.
And Abijah pursued Jeroboam, and took cities from him, Beth-el with its towns, and Jeshanah with its towns, and Ephron with its towns.

- 20 And Jeroboam did not get back his power again in the life-time of Abijah; and the Lord sent death on him.
Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and Yahweh struck him, and he died.
Neither did Jeroboam recover strength again in the days of Abijah: and the LORD struck him, and he died.
- 21 But Abijah became great, and had fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons and sixteen daughters.
But Abijah grew mighty, and took to himself fourteen wives, and became the father of twenty-two sons, and sixteen daughters.
But Abijah became mighty, and married fourteen wives, and begat twenty and two sons, and sixteen daughters.
- 22 And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways and his sayings, are recorded in the account of the prophet Iddo.
The rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the commentary of the prophet Iddo.
And the rest of the acts of Abijah, and his ways, and his sayings, are written in the story of the prophet Iddo.
- 1 So Abijah went to rest with his fathers, and they put him into the earth in the town of David, and Asa his son became king in his place; in his time the land was quiet for ten years.
So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David; and Asa his son reigned in his place. In his days the land was quiet ten years.
So Abijah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the city of David: and Asa his son reigned in his stead. In his days the land was quiet ten years.
- 2 And Asa did what was good and right in the eyes of the Lord his God;
Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of Yahweh his God:
And Asa did that which was good and right in the eyes of the LORD his God:
- 3 For he took away the altars of strange gods and the high places, and had the upright stones broken and the wood pillars cut down;
for he took away the foreign altars, and the high places, and broke down the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim,
For he took away the altars of the strange gods, and the high places, and broke down the images, and cut down the groves:
- 4 And he made Judah go after the Lord, the God of their fathers, and keep his laws and his orders.
and commanded Judah to seek Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.
And commanded Judah to seek the LORD God of their fathers, and to do the law and the commandment.

- 5 And he took away the high places and the sun-images from all the towns of Judah; and the kingdom was quiet under his rule.
Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the sun-images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.
Also he took away out of all the cities of Judah the high places and the images: and the kingdom was quiet before him.
- 6 He made walled towns in Judah, for the land was quiet and there were no wars in those years, because the Lord had given him rest.
He built fortified cities in Judah; for the land was quiet, and he had no war in those years, because Yahweh had given him rest.
And he built fortified cities in Judah: for the land had rest, and he had no war in those years; because the LORD had given him rest.
- 7 He said to Judah, Let us make these towns, building walls round them with towers and doors and locks. The land is still ours, because we have been true to the Lord our God; we have been true to him and he has given us rest on every side. So they went on building and all went well for them.
For he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars; the land is yet before us, because we have sought Yahweh our God; we have sought him, and he has given us rest on every side. So they built and prospered.
Therefore he said to Judah, Let us build these cities, and make about them walls, and towers, gates, and bars, while the land is yet before us; because we have sought the LORD our God, we have sought him, and he hath given us rest on every side. So they built, and prospered.
- 8 And Asa had an army of three hundred thousand men of Judah armed with body-covers and spears, and two hundred and eighty thousand of Benjamin armed with body-covers and bows; all these were men of war.
Asa had an army that bore bucklers and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor.
And Asa had an army of men that bore targets and spears, out of Judah three hundred thousand; and out of Benjamin, that bore shields and drew bows, two hundred and eighty thousand: all these were mighty men of valor.
- 9 And Zerah the Ethiopian, with an army of a million, and three hundred war-carriages, came out against them to Mareshah.
There came out against them Zerah the Ethiopian with an army of a million troops, and three hundred chariots; and he came to Mareshah.
And there came out against them Zerah the Cushite, with a host of a thousand thousand, and three hundred chariots; and came to Mareshah.

- 10 And Asa went out against him, and they put their forces in position in the valley north of Mareshah.
Then Asa went out to meet him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathah at Mareshah.
Then Asa went out against him, and they set the battle in array in the valley of Zephathath at Mareshah.
- 11 And Asa made prayer to the Lord his God and said, Lord, you only are able to give help against the strong to him who has no strength; come to our help, O Lord our God, for our hope is in you, and in your name we have come out against this great army. O Lord, you are our God; let not man's power be greater than yours.
Asa cried to Yahweh his God, and said, Yahweh, there is none besides you to help, between the mighty and him who has no strength: help us, Yahweh our God; for we rely on you, and in your name are we come against this multitude. Yahweh, you are our God; don't let man prevail against you.
And Asa cried to the LORD his God, and said, LORD, it is nothing with thee to help, whether with many, or with them that have no power: help us, O LORD our God; for we rest on thee, and in thy name we go against this multitude. O LORD, thou art our God; let not man prevail against thee.
- 12 So the Lord sent fear on the Ethiopians before Asa and Judah; and the Ethiopians went in flight.
So Yahweh struck the Ethiopians before Asa, and before Judah; and the Ethiopians fled.
So the LORD smote the Cushites before Asa, and before Judah; and the Cushites fled.
- 13 And Asa and the people who were with him went after them as far as Gerar; and so great was the destruction among the Ethiopians that they were not able to get their army together again, for they were broken before the Lord and before his army; and they took away a great amount of their goods.
Asa and the people who were with him pursued them to Gerar: and there fell of the Ethiopians so many that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before Yahweh, and before his host; and they carried away very much booty.
And Asa and the people that were with him pursued them to Gerar: and the Cushites were overthrown, that they could not recover themselves; for they were destroyed before the LORD, and before his host; and they carried away very much spoil.
- 14 And they overcame all the towns round Gerar, because the Lord sent fear on them; and they took away their goods from the towns, for there were stores of wealth in them.
They struck all the cities round about Gerar; for the fear of Yahweh came on them: and they despoiled all the cities; for there was much spoil in them.
And they smote all the cities about Gerar; for the fear of the LORD came upon them: and they plundered all the cities; for there was exceeding much spoil in them.

15 And they made an attack on the tents of the owners of the cattle, and took away great numbers of sheep and camels and went back to Jerusalem.
They struck also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep in abundance, and camels, and returned to Jerusalem.
They smote also the tents of cattle, and carried away sheep and camels in abundance, and returned to Jerusalem.

1 And the spirit of God came on Azariah, the son of Oded;
The Spirit of God came on Azariah the son of Oded:
And the Spirit of God came upon Azariah the son of Oded:

2 And he came face to face with Asa and said to him, Give ear to me, Asa and all Judah and Benjamin: the Lord is with you while you are with him; if your heart's desire is for him, he will be near you, but if you give him up, he will give you up.
and he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear you me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin: Yahweh is with you, while you are with him; and if you seek him, he will be found of you; but if you forsake him, he will forsake you.
And he went out to meet Asa, and said to him, Hear ye me, Asa, and all Judah and Benjamin; The LORD is with you, while ye are with him; and if ye seek him, he will be found of you; but if ye forsake him, he will forsake you.

3 Now for a long time Israel has been without the true God, and without a teaching priest and without the law;
Now for a long season Israel was without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law:
Now for a long season Israel hath been without the true God, and without a teaching priest, and without law.

4 But when in their trouble they were turned to the Lord, the God of Israel, searching after him, he let their search be rewarded.
But when in their distress they turned to Yahweh, the God of Israel, and sought him, he was found of them.
But when they in their trouble returned to the LORD God of Israel, and sought him, he was found by them.

5 In those times there was no peace for him who went out or for him who came in, but great trouble was on all the people of the lands.

Then there came out a spirit, and stood before the LORD, and said, I will entice him. And the LORD said to him, With what?
- 21 And he said, I will go out and be a spirit of deceit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the Lord said, Your trick will have its effect on him: go out and do so.
He said, `I will go forth, and will be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets.` He said, `You shall entice him, and shall prevail also: go forth, and do so.`
And he said, I will go out, and be a lying spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD said, Thou shalt entice him, and thou shalt also prevail: go out and do even so.
- 22 And now, see, the Lord has put a spirit of deceit in the mouth of these prophets of yours; and the Lord has said evil against you.
Now therefore, behold, Yahweh has put a lying spirit in the mouth of these your prophets; and Yahweh has spoken evil concerning you.
Now therefore, behold, the LORD hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of these thy prophets, and the LORD hath spoken evil against thee.
- 23 Then Zedekiah, the son of Chenaanah, came near and gave Micaiah a blow on the side of his face, saying, Where is the spirit of the Lord whose word is in you?
Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and struck Micaiah on the cheek, and said, Which way went the Spirit of Yahweh from me to speak to you?
Then Zedekiah the son of Chenaanah came near, and smote Micaiah upon the cheek, and said, Which way went the spirit of the LORD from me to speak to thee?
- 24 And Micaiah said, Truly, you will see on that day when you go into an inner room to keep yourself safe.
Micaiah said, Behold, you shall see on that day, when you shall go into an inner chamber to hide yourself.
And Micaiah said, Behold, thou shalt see on that day when thou shalt go into an inner chamber to hide thyself.

- 25 And the king of Israel said, Take Micaiah and send him back to Amon, the ruler of the town, and to Joash, the king's son;
The king of Israel said, Take Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;
Then the king of Israel said, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governor of the city, and to Joash the king's son;

- 26 And say, By the king's order this man is to be put in prison, and given prison food till I come back in peace.
and say, Thus says the king, Put this fellow in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.
And say, Thus saith the king, Put this man in the prison, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.
- 27 And Micaiah said, If you come back at all in peace, the Lord has not sent his word by me.
Micaiah said, If you return at all in peace, Yahweh has not spoken by me. He said, Hear, you peoples, all of you.
And Micaiah said, If thou shalt certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD spoken by me. And he said, Hearken, all ye people.
- 28 So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat, the king of Judah, went up to Ramoth-gilead.
So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.
So the king of Israel and Jehoshaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.
- 29 And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will make a change in my clothing, so that I do not seem to be the king, and will go into the fight; but do you put on your robes. So the king of Israel made a change in his dress, and they went to the fight.
The king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and go into the battle; but put you on your robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went into the battle.
And the king of Israel said to Jehoshaphat, I will disguise myself, and will go to the battle; but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Israel disguised himself; and they went to the battle.
- 30 Now the king of Aram had given orders to the captains of his war-carriages, saying, Make no attack on small or great, but only on the king of Israel.
Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of his chariots, saying, Fight neither with small nor great, save only with the king of Israel.
Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, saying, Fight ye not with small or great, save only with the king of Israel.

- 31 So when the captains of the war-carriages saw Jehoshaphat, they said, It is the king of Israel. And turning about, they came round him, but Jehoshaphat gave a cry, and the Lord came to his help, and God sent them away from him.
It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they turned about to fight against him: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and Yahweh helped him; and God moved them [to depart] from him.
And it came to pass, when the captains of the chariots saw Jehoshaphat, that they said, It is the king of Israel. Therefore they compassed about him to fight: but Jehoshaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him; and God moved them to depart from him.
- 32 Now when the captains of the war-carriages saw that he was not the king of Israel, they went back from going after him.
It happened, when the captains of the chariots saw that it was not the king of Israel, that they turned back from pursuing him.
For it came to pass, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Israel, they turned back again from pursuing him.
- 33 And a certain man sent an arrow from his bow without thought of its direction, and gave the king of Israel a wound where his breastplate was joined to his clothing; so he said to the driver of his war-carriage, Go to one side and take me away out of the army, for I am badly wounded.
A certain man drew his bow at a venture, and struck the king of Israel between the joints of the armor: why he said to the driver of the chariot, Turn your hand, and carry me out of the host; for I am sore wounded.
And a certain man drew a bow at a venture, and smote the king of Israel between the joints of the harness: therefore he said to his chariot-man, Turn thy hand, that thou mayest carry me out of the host; for I am wounded.
- 34 But the fight became more violent while the day went on; and the king of Israel was supported in his war-carriage facing the Aramaeans till the evening; and by sundown he was dead.
The battle increased that day: however the king of Israel stayed himself up in his chariot against the Syrians until the even; and about the time of the going down of the sun he died.
And the battle increased that day: yet the king of Israel supported himself in his chariot against the Syrians until the evening: and about the time of the sun setting he died.

2 And Jehu, the son of Hanani the seer, went to King Jehoshaphat and said to him, Is it right for you to go to the help of evil-doers, loving the haters of the Lord? because of this, the wrath of the Lord has come on you.

Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Should you help the wicked, and love those who hate Yahweh? for this thing wrath is on you from before Yahweh.

And Jehu the son of Hanani the seer went out to meet him, and said to king Jehoshaphat, Shouldst thou help the ungodly, and love them that hate the LORD? therefore is wrath upon thee from before the LORD.

3 But still there is some good in you, for you have put away the wood pillars out of the land, and have given your heart to the worship of God.

Nevertheless there are good things found in you, in that you have put away the Asheroth out of the land, and have set your heart to seek God.

Nevertheless, there are good things found in thee, in that thou hast taken away the groves out of the land, and hast prepared thy heart to seek God.

4 And Jehoshaphat was living in Jerusalem; and he went out again among the people, from Beer-sheba to the hill-country of Ephraim, guiding them back to the Lord, the God of their fathers. Jehoshaphat lived at Jerusalem: and he went out again among the people from Beersheba to the hill-country of Ephraim, and brought them back to Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

And Jehoshaphat dwelt at Jerusalem: and he went out again through the people from Beer-sheba to mount Ephraim, and brought them back to the LORD God of their fathers.

5 And he put judges through all the land, in every walled town of Judah,

He set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,

And he set judges in the land throughout all the fortified cities of Judah, city by city,

6 And said to the judges, Take care what you do, for you are judging not for man but for the Lord, and he is with you in the decisions you give.

and said to the judges, Consider what you do: for you don't judge for man, but for Yahweh; and [he is] with you in the judgment.

And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

7 So now let the fear of the Lord be in you; do your work with care; for in the Lord our God there is no evil, or respect for high position, or taking of payment to do wrong.

Now therefore let the fear of Yahweh be on you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with Yahweh our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of bribes.

Wherefore now let the fear of the LORD be upon you; take heed and do it: for there is no iniquity with the LORD our God, nor respect of persons, nor taking of gifts.

- 8 Then in Jerusalem he gave authority to certain of the Levites and the priests and the heads of families of Israel to give decisions for the Lord, and in the causes of those living in Jerusalem. Moreover in Jerusalem did Jehoshaphat set of the Levites and the priests, and of the heads of the fathers` [houses] of Israel, for the judgment of Yahweh, and for controversies. - 10 And if any cause comes before you from your brothers living in their towns, where the death punishment is in question, or where there are questions of law or order, or rules or decisions, make them take care that they are not in the wrong before the Lord, so that wrath may not come on you and on your brothers; do this and you yourselves will not be in the wrong. Whenever any controversy shall come to you from your brothers who dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and ordinances, you shall warn them, that they not be guilty towards Yahweh, and so wrath come on you and on your brothers: this do, and you shall not be guilty. And whatever cause shall come to you of your brethren that dwell in their cities, between blood and blood, between law and commandment, statutes and judgments, ye shall even warn them that they trespass not against the LORD, and so wrath come upon you, and upon your brethren: this do, and ye shall not trespass.

- 11 And now, Amariah, the chief priest, is over you in all questions to do with the Lord; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the head of the family of Judah, in everything to do with the king's business; and the Levites will be overseers for you. Be strong to do the work; and may the Lord be with the upright. Behold, Amariah the chief priest is over you in all matters of Yahweh; and Zebadiah the son of Ishmael, the ruler of the house of Judah, in all the king`s matters: also the Levites shall be officers before you. Deal courageously, and Yahweh be with the good. - 1 Now after this, the children of Moab and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Meunim, made war against Jehoshaphat. It happened after this, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them some of the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle. It came to pass after this also, that the children of Moab, and the children of Ammon, and with them others besides the Ammonites, came against Jehoshaphat to battle.

- 10 And now, see, the children of Ammon and Moab and the people of Mount Seir, whom you kept Israel from attacking when they came out of Egypt, so that turning to one side they did not send destruction on them:

Now Jehoshaphat slept with his fathers, and was buried with his fathers in the city of David. And Jehoram his son reigned in his stead.
- 2 And he had brothers, sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, Jehiel, Zechariah, Azariah, Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were sons of Jehoshaphat, king of Israel.
He had brothers, the sons of Jehoshaphat: Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, and Shephatiah; all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.
And he had brethren the sons of Jehoshaphat, Azariah, and Jehiel, and Zechariah, and Azariah, and Michael, Shephatiah: all these were the sons of Jehoshaphat king of Israel.

3 And their father gave them much silver and gold and things of great value, as well as walled towns in Judah; but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram, because he was the oldest.
Their father gave them great gifts, of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah: but the kingdom gave he to Jehoram, because he was the firstborn.

And their father gave them great gifts of silver, and of gold, and of precious things, with fortified cities in Judah: but the kingdom he gave to Jehoram; because he was the first-born.

4 Now when Jehoram had taken his place over his father's kingdom, and had made his position safe, he put all his brothers to death with the sword, as well as some of the princes of Israel.
Now when Jehoram was risen up over the kingdom of his father, and had strengthened himself, he killed all his brothers with the sword, and various also of the princes of Israel.

Now when Jehoram had risen to the kingdom of his father, he strengthened himself, and slew all his brethren with the sword, and divers also of the princes of Israel.

5 Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he became king; and he was ruling in Jerusalem for eight years.

Jehoram was thirty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

Jehoram was thirty and two years old when he began to reign, and he reigned eight years in Jerusalem.

6 He went in the ways of the kings of Israel, and did as the family of Ahab did, for the daughter of Ahab was his wife; and he did evil in the eyes of the Lord.

He walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab; for he had the daughter of Ahab as wife: and he did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh.

And he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, as did the house of Ahab: for he had the daughter of Ahab for a wife: and he wrought that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD.

7 But it was not the Lord's purpose to send destruction on the family of David, because of the agreement he had made with David, when he said he would give to him and to his sons a light for ever.

However Yahweh would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a lamp to him and to his children always.

Yet the LORD would not destroy the house of David, because of the covenant that he had made with David, and as he promised to give a light to him and to his sons for ever.

8 In his time Edom made themselves free from the rule of Judah, and took a king for themselves.

In his days Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah, and made a king over themselves.

In his days the Edomites revolted from under the dominion of Judah, and made themselves a king.

9 Then Jehoram went over with his captains and all his war-carriages ... made an attack by night on the Edomites, whose forces were all round him ... on the captains of the war-carriages.
Then Jehoram passed over with his captains, and all his chariots with him: and he rose up by night, and struck the Edomites who surrounded him, along with the captains of the chariots.

Then Jehoram went forth with his princes, and all his chariots with him: and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites who encompassed him, and the captains of the chariots.

10 So Edom made themselves free from the rule of Judah, to this day: and at the same time Libnah made itself free from his rule; because he was turned away from the Lord, the God of his fathers.

So Edom revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day: then did Libnah revolt at the same time from under his hand, because he had forsaken Yahweh, the God of his fathers.

So the Edomites revolted from under the hand of Judah to this day. The same time also did Libnah revolt from under his hand; because he had forsaken the LORD God of his fathers.

11 And more than this, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, teaching the people of Jerusalem to go after false gods, and guiding Judah away from the true way.

Moreover he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and made the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, and led Judah astray.

Moreover, he made high places in the mountains of Judah, and caused the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit fornication, and compelled Judah to do the same.

12 And a letter came to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, The Lord, the God of your father David, says, Because you have not kept to the ways of your father Jehoshaphat or the ways of Asa, king of Judah,

There came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus says Yahweh, the God of David your father, Because you have not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat your father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

And there came a writing to him from Elijah the prophet, saying, Thus saith the LORD God of David thy father, Because thou hast not walked in the ways of Jehoshaphat thy father, nor in the ways of Asa king of Judah,

13 But have gone in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the people of Jerusalem go after false gods, as the family of Ahab did: and because you have put to death your father's sons, your brothers, who were better than yourself:

but have walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and have made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to play the prostitute, like as the house of Ahab did, and also have slain your brothers of your father's house, who were better than yourself:

But hast walked in the way of the kings of Israel, and hast made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to commit idolatry, like the idolatries of the house of Ahab, and also hast slain thy brethren of thy father's house, who were better than thyself:

- 14 Now, truly, the Lord will send a great destruction on your people and your children and your wives and everything which is yours:
behold, Yahweh will strike with a great plague your people, and your children, and your wives, and all your substance;
Behold, with a great plague will the LORD smite thy people, and thy children, and thy wives, and all thy goods:
- 15 And you yourself will undergo the cruel pains of a disease in your stomach, so that day by day your inside will be falling out because of the disease.
and you shall have great sickness by disease of your bowels, until your bowels fall out by reason of the sickness, day by day.
And thou shalt have great sickness by disease of thy bowels, until thy bowels fall out by reason of the sickness day by day.
- 16 Then the Philistines and the Arabians, who are by Ethiopia, were moved by the Lord to make war on Jehoram;
Yahweh stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians who are beside the Ethiopians:
Moreover, the LORD stirred up against Jehoram the spirit of the Philistines, and of the Arabians, that were near the Cushites.
- 17 And they came up against Judah, forcing a way into it, and took away all the goods in the king's house, as well as his sons and his wives; so that he had no son but only Jehoahaz, the youngest.
and they came up against Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was never a son left him, save Jehoahaz, the youngest of his sons.
And they came up into Judah, and broke into it, and carried away all the substance that was found in the king's house, and his sons also, and his wives; so that there was not a son left to him, save Jehoahaz the youngest of his sons.
- 18 And after all this the Lord sent on him a disease of the stomach from which it was impossible for him to be made well.
After all this Yahweh struck him in his bowels with an incurable disease.
And after all this the LORD smote him in his bowels with an incurable disease.
- 19 And time went on, and after two years, his inside falling out because of the disease, he came to his death in cruel pain. And his people made no burning for him like the burning made for his fathers.
It happened, in process of time, at the end of two years, that his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness, and he died of sore diseases. His people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.
And it came to pass, that in process of time, after the end of two years, his bowels fell out by reason of his sickness: so he died of severe diseases. And his people made no burning for him, like the burning of his fathers.

20 He was thirty-two years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for eight years: and at his death he was not regretted; they put his body into the earth in the town of David, but not in the resting-place of the kings.

Thirty-two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem eight years: and he departed without being desired; and they buried him in the city of David, but not in the tombs of the kings.

Thirty and two years old was he when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem, eight years, and departed without being desired: yet they buried him in the city of David, but not in the sepulchers of the kings.

1 And the people of Jerusalem made Ahaziah, his youngest son, king in his place, for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the army had put all the older sons to death. So Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, became king.

The inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his place; for the band of men who came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

And the inhabitants of Jerusalem made Ahaziah his youngest son king in his stead: for the band of men that came with the Arabians to the camp had slain all the eldest. So Ahaziah the son of Jehoram king of Judah reigned.

2 Ahaziah was twenty-two years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for one year. His mother's name was Athaliah, the daughter of Omri.

Forty-two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign; and he reigned one year in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

Forty and two years old was Ahaziah when he began to reign, and he reigned one year in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Athaliah the daughter of Omri.

3 He went in the ways of the family of Ahab, for his mother was his teacher in evil-doing.

He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab; for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

He also walked in the ways of the house of Ahab: for his mother was his counselor to do wickedly.

4 And he did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as the family of Ahab did; for after the death of his father they were his guides to his destruction.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did the house of Ahab; for they were his counselors after the death of his father, to his destruction.

Wherefore he did evil in the sight of the LORD like the house of Ahab: for they were his counselors, after the death of his father, to his destruction.

- 5 Acting on their suggestion, he went with Jehoram, son of Ahab, king of Israel, to make war on Hazael, king of Aram, at Ramoth-gilead: and Joram was wounded by the bowmen.
He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians wounded Joram.
He walked also after their counsel, and went with Jehoram the son of Ahab king of Israel to war against Hazael king of Syria at Ramoth-gilead: and the Syrians smote Joram.
- 6 And he went back to Jezreel to get well from the wounds which they had given him at Ramah when he was fighting against Hazael, king of Aram. And Ahaziah, the son of Jehoram, king of Judah, went down to Jezreel to see Jehoram, the son of Ahab, because he was ill.
He returned to be healed in Jezreel of the wounds which they had given him at Ramah, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria. Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab in Jezreel, because he was sick.
And he returned to be healed in Jezreel because of the wounds which were given him at Ramah, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria. And Azariah the son of Jehoram king of Judah went down to see Jehoram the son of Ahab at Jezreel, because he was sick.
- 7 Now by the purpose of God, Ahaziah's journey to see Jehoram was the cause of his downfall: for when he came there, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu, the son of Nimshi, who had been marked out by the Lord for the destruction of the family of Ahab.
Now the destruction of Ahaziah was of God, in that he went to Joram: for when he was come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom Yahweh had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
And the destruction of Ahaziah was from God by coming to Joram: for when he had come, he went out with Jehoram against Jehu the son of Nimshi, whom the LORD had anointed to cut off the house of Ahab.
- 8 Now when Jehu was effecting the punishment of the family of Ahab, he came to the princes of Judah and the sons of Ahaziah's brothers, the servants of Ahaziah, and put them to death.
It happened, when Jehu was executing judgment on the house of Ahab, that he found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brothers of Ahaziah, ministering to Ahaziah, and killed them.
And it came to pass, that when Jehu was executing judgment upon the house of Ahab, and found the princes of Judah, and the sons of the brethren of Ahaziah, that ministered to Ahaziah, he slew them.
- 9 And he went in search of Ahaziah; and when they came where he was, (for he was in a secret place in Samaria,) they took him to Jehu and put him to death; then they put his body to rest in the earth, for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, whose heart was true to the Lord. So the family of Ahaziah had no power to keep the kingdom.
He sought Ahaziah, and they caught him (now he was hiding in Samaria), and they brought him to Jehu, and killed him; and they buried him, for they said, He is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought Yahweh with all his heart. The house of Ahaziah had no power to hold the kingdom.
And he sought Ahaziah: and they caught him, (for he was hid in Samaria,) and brought him to Jehu: and when they had slain him, they buried him: Because, said they, he is the son of Jehoshaphat, who sought the LORD with all his heart. So the house of Ahaziah had no power to retain the kingdom.

- 10 Now when Athaliah, the mother of Ahaziah, saw that her son was dead, she had all the rest of the seed of the kingdom of Judah put to death.
Now when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.
But when Athaliah the mother of Ahaziah saw that her son was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the seed royal of the house of Judah.
- 11 But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, secretly took Joash, the son of Ahaziah, away from among the king's sons who were put to death, and put him and the woman who took care of him in a bedroom. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of King Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest and sister of Ahaziah, kept him safe from Athaliah, so that she did not put him to death.
But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him away from among the king's sons who were slain, and put him and his nurse in the bedchamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest (for she was the sister of Ahaziah), hid him from Athaliah, so that she didn't kill him.
But Jehoshabeath, the daughter of the king, took Joash the son of Ahaziah, and stole him from among the king's sons that were slain, and put him and his nurse in a bed chamber. So Jehoshabeath, the daughter of king Jehoram, the wife of Jehoiada the priest, (for she was the sister of Ahaziah,) hid him from Athaliah, so that she slew him not.
- 12 And she kept him safe with her in the house of God for six years, while Athaliah was ruling the land.
He was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.
And he was with them hid in the house of God six years: and Athaliah reigned over the land.
- 1 In the seventh year, Jehoiada made himself strong, and made an agreement with the captains of hundreds, Azariah, the son of Jeroham, Ishmael, the son of Jehohanan, Azariah, the son of Obed, Maaseiah, the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat, the son of Zichri.
In the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.
And in the seventh year Jehoiada strengthened himself, and took the captains of hundreds, Azariah the son of Jeroham, and Ishmael the son of Jehohanan, and Azariah the son of Obed, and Maaseiah the son of Adaiah, and Elishaphat the son of Zichri, into covenant with him.
- 2 And they went through Judah, getting together the Levites and the heads of families in Israel from all the towns of Judah, and they came to Jerusalem.
They went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the heads of fathers' [houses] of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.
And they went about in Judah, and gathered the Levites out of all the cities of Judah, and the chief of the fathers of Israel, and they came to Jerusalem.

- 3 And all the people made an agreement with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Truly, the king's son will be king, as the Lord has said about the sons of David.
All the assembly made a covenant with the king in the house of God. He said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as Yahweh has spoken concerning the sons of David.
And all the congregation made a covenant with the king in the house of God. And he said to them, Behold, the king's son shall reign, as the LORD hath said of the sons of David.
- 4 This is what you are to do: let a third of you, of the priests and Levites, who come in on the Sabbath, keep the doors;
This is the thing that you shall do: a third part of you, who come in on the Sabbath, of the priests and of the Levites, shall be porters of the thresholds;
This is the thing that ye shall do: A third part of you entering on the sabbath, of the priests, and of the Levites, shall be porters of the doors;
- 5 And a third are to be stationed at the king's house; and a third at the doorway of the horses: while all the people are waiting in the open spaces round the house of the Lord.
and a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of Yahweh.
And a third part shall be at the king's house; and a third part at the gate of the foundation: and all the people shall be in the courts of the house of the LORD.
- 6 But let no one come into the house of the Lord but only the priests and those of the Levites who have work to do there; they may go in for they are holy; but the rest of the people are to keep the orders of the Lord.
But let none come into the house of Yahweh, save the priests, and those who minister of the Levites; they shall come in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the charge of Yahweh.
But let none come into the house of the LORD, save the priests, and they that minister of the Levites; they shall go in, for they are holy: but all the people shall keep the watch of the LORD.
- 7 And the Levites are to make a circle round the king, every man being armed; and any man who comes into the house is to be put to death; you are to keep with the king when he comes in and when he goes out.
The Levites shall compass the king round about, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever comes into the house, let him be slain: and be you with the king when he comes in, and when he goes out.
And the Levites shall encompass the king, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whoever else cometh into the house, he shall be put to death: but be ye with the king when he cometh in, and when he goeth out.

- 8 So the Levites and all Judah did as Jehoiada the priest had given them orders: every one took with him his men, those who were to come in and those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada had not sent away the divisions.
So the Levites and all Judah did according to all that Jehoiada the priest commanded: and they took every man his men, those who were to come in on the Sabbath; with those who were to go out on the Sabbath; for Jehoiada the priest didn't dismiss the shift.
So the Levites and all Judah did according to all things that Jehoiada the priest had commanded, and took every man his men that were to come in on the sabbath, with them that were to go out on the sabbath: for Jehoiada the priest dismissed not the courses.
- 9 Then Jehoiada the priest gave to the captains of hundreds the spears and body-covers which had been King David's and which were kept in the house of God.
Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds the spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.
Moreover, Jehoiada the priest delivered to the captains of hundreds, spears, and bucklers, and shields, that had been king David's, which were in the house of God.
- 10 And he put all the people in position, every man with his instruments of war in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left, by the altar and the house and all round the king.
He set all the people, every man with his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the house to the left side of the house, along by the altar and the house, by the king round about.
And he set all the people, every man having his weapon in his hand, from the right side of the temple to the left side of the temple, along by the altar and the temple, by the king on all sides.
- 11 Then they made the king's son come out, and they put the crown on his head and gave him the arm-bands and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons put the holy oil on him and said, Long life to the king.
Then they brought out the king's son, and put the crown on him, and [gave him] the testimony, and made him king: and Jehoiada and his sons anointed him; and they said, [Long] live the king.
Then they brought out the king's son, and put upon him the crown, and gave him the testimony, and made him king. And Jehoiada and his sons anointed him, and said, God save the king.
- 12 Now Athaliah, hearing the noise of the people running and praising the king, came to the people in the house of the Lord:
When Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of Yahweh:
Now when Athaliah heard the noise of the people running and praising the king, she came to the people into the house of the LORD:

- 13 And looking, she saw the king in his place by the pillar at the doorway, and the captains and the horns by his side; and all the people of the land were giving signs of joy and sounding the horns; and the makers of melody were playing on instruments of music, taking the chief part in the song of praise. Then Athaliah, violently parting her robes, said, Broken faith, broken faith! and she looked, and, behold, the king stood by his pillar at the entrance, and the captains and the trumpets by the king; and all the people of the land rejoiced, and blew trumpets; the singers also [played] on instruments of music, and led the singing of praise. Then Athaliah tore her clothes, and said, Treason! treason!
And she looked, and behold, the king stood at his pillar at the entrance, and the princes and the trumpets by the king: and all the people of the land rejoiced, and sounded with trumpets, also the singers with instruments of music, and such as taught to sing praise. Then Athaliah rent her clothes, and said, Treason, treason.
- 14 Then Jehoiada the priest gave orders to the captains of hundreds who had authority over the army, saying, Take her outside the lines, and let anyone who goes after her be put to death with the sword. For the priest said, Let her not be put to death in the house of the Lord.
Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds who were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth between the ranks; and whoever follows her, let him be slain with the sword: for the priest said, Don`t kill her in the house of Yahweh.
Then Jehoiada the priest brought out the captains of hundreds that were set over the host, and said to them, Have her forth without the ranges: and whoever followeth her, let him be slain with the sword. For the priest said, Slay her not in the house of the LORD.
- 15 So they put their hands on her, and she went to the king's house by the doorway of the king's horses; and there she was put to death.
So they made way for her; and she went to the entrance of the horse gate to the king`s house: and they killed her there.
So they laid hands on her; and when she had come to the entrance of the horse gate by the king's house, they slew her there.
- 16 And Jehoiada made an agreement between the Lord and all the people and the king, that they would be the Lord's people.
Jehoiada made a covenant between himself, and all the people, and the king, that they should be Yahweh`s people.
And Jehoiada made a covenant between him, and between all the people, and between the king, that they should be the LORD'S people.
- 17 Then all the people went to the house of Baal and had it pulled down, and its altars and images broken up; and Mattan, the priest of Baal, they put to death before the altars.
All the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and killed Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.
Then all the people went to the house of Baal, and broke it down, and broke his altars and his images in pieces, and slew Mattan the priest of Baal before the altars.

- 18 And Jehoiada put the work and the care of the house of the Lord into the hands of the priests and the Levites, who had been grouped in divisions by David to make burned offerings to the Lord, as it is recorded in the law of Moses, with joy and song as David had said.
Jehoiada appointed the officers of the house of Yahweh under the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of Yahweh, to offer the burnt offerings of Yahweh, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, according to the order of David.
Also Jehoiada appointed the offices of the house of the LORD by the hand of the priests the Levites, whom David had distributed in the house of the LORD, to offer the burnt-offerings of the LORD, as it is written in the law of Moses, with rejoicing and with singing, as it was ordained by David.
- 19 And he put door-keepers at the doors of the Lord's house, to see that no one who was unclean in any way might come in.
He set the porters at the gates of the house of Yahweh, that no one who was unclean in anything should enter in.
And he set the porters at the gates of the house of the LORD, that none who was unclean in any thing should enter.
- 20 Then he took the captains of hundreds and the chiefs and the rulers of the people and all the people of the land, and they came down with the king from the house of the Lord through the higher doorway into the king's house, and put the king on the seat of the kingdom.
He took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of Yahweh: and they came through the upper gate to the king's house, and set the king on the throne of the kingdom.
And he took the captains of hundreds, and the nobles, and the governors of the people, and all the people of the land, and brought down the king from the house of the LORD: and they came through the high gate into the king's house, and set the king upon the throne of the kingdom.
- 21 So all the people of the land were glad and the town was quiet, for they had put Athaliah to death with the sword.
So all the people of the land rejoiced, and the city was quiet. Athaliah they had slain with the sword.
And all the people of the land rejoiced: and the city was quiet, after they had slain Athaliah with the sword.
- 1 Joash was seven years old when he became king, and he was ruling for forty years in Jerusalem: his mother's name was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.
Joash was seven years old when he began to reign; and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Zibiah, of Beersheba.
Joash was seven years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years in Jerusalem. His mother's name also was Zibiah of Beer-sheba.

2 And Joash did what was right in the eyes of the Lord as long as Jehoiada the priest was living.

Joash did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

And Joash did that which was right in the sight of the LORD all the days of Jehoiada the priest.

3 And Jehoiada took two wives for him, and he became the father of sons and daughters.

Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he became the father of sons and daughters.

And Jehoiada took for him two wives; and he begat sons and daughters.

4 Now after this Joash had a desire to put the house of the Lord into good order again;

It happened after this, that Joash was minded to restore the house of Yahweh.

And it came to pass after this, that Joash was minded to repair the house of the LORD.

5 And getting together the priests and Levites, he said to them, Go out into the towns of Judah year by year, and get from all Israel money to keep the house of your God in good condition; and see that this is done without loss of time. The Levites, however, were slow in doing so.

He gathered together the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather of all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year; and see that you hasten the matter. However the Levites didn't hurry.

And he convened the priests and the Levites, and said to them, Go out to the cities of Judah, and gather from all Israel money to repair the house of your God from year to year, and see that ye hasten the matter. But the Levites hastened it not.

6 Then the king sent for Jehoiada, the chief priest, and said to him, Why have you not given the Levites orders that the tax fixed by Moses, the servant of the Lord, and by the meeting of Israel, for the Tent of witness, is to be got in from Judah and Jerusalem and handed over?

The king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why haven't you required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the tax of Moses the servant of Yahweh, and of the assembly of Israel, for the tent of the testimony?

And the king called for Jehoiada the chief, and said to him, Why hast thou not required of the Levites to bring in out of Judah and out of Jerusalem the collection, according to the commandment of Moses the servant of the LORD, and of the congregation of Israel, for the tabernacle of witness?

7 For the house of the Lord had been broken up by Athaliah, that evil woman, and her sons; and all its holy things they had given to the Baals.

For the sons of Athaliah, that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of Yahweh did they bestow on the Baals.

For the sons of Athaliah that wicked woman, had broken up the house of God; and also all the dedicated things of the house of the LORD they bestowed upon Baalim.

- 8 So at the king's order they made a chest and put it outside the doorway of the house of the Lord.
So the king commanded, and they made a chest, and set it outside at the gate of the house of Yahweh.
And at the king's commandment they made a chest, and set it without at the gate of the house of the LORD.
- 9 And an order was sent out through all Judah and Jerusalem that payment was to be made to the Lord of the tax which Moses, the servant of God, had put on Israel in the waste land.
They made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in for Yahweh the tax that Moses the servant of God laid on Israel in the wilderness.
And they made a proclamation through Judah and Jerusalem, to bring in to the LORD the collection that Moses the servant of God laid upon Israel in the wilderness.
- 10 And all the chiefs and all the people came gladly and put their money into the chest, till they had all given.
All the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.
And all the princes and all the people rejoiced, and brought in, and cast into the chest, until they had made an end.
- 11 So when the chest was taken to the king's servants by the Levites, and they saw that there was much money in it, the king's scribe and the chief priest's servant took the money out, and put the chest back in its place. They did this day by day, and got together a great amount of money.
It was so, that whenever the chest was brought to the king's officers by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the chief priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and gathered money in abundance.
Now it came to pass, that at the time the chest was brought to the king's office by the hand of the Levites, and when they saw that there was much money, the king's scribe and the high priest's officer came and emptied the chest, and took it, and carried it to its place again. Thus they did day by day, and collected money in abundance.
- 12 Then the king and Jehoiada gave it to those who were responsible for getting the work done on the Lord's house, and with it they got wall-builders and woodworkers and metal-workers to put the house of the Lord in good order again.
The king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of Yahweh; and they hired masons and carpenters to restore the house of Yahweh, and also such as worked iron and brass to repair the house of Yahweh.
And the king and Jehoiada gave it to such as did the work of the service of the house of the LORD, and hired masons and carpenters to repair the house of the LORD, and also such as wrought iron and brass to mend the house of the LORD.

- 13 So the workmen did their work, making good what was damaged and building up the house of God till it was strong and beautiful again.
So the workmen worked, and the work of repairing went forward in their hands, and they set up the house of God in its state, and strengthened it.
So the workmen wrought, and the work was perfected by them, and they set the house of God in its state, and strengthened it.
- 14 And when the work was done, they took the rest of the money to the king and Jehoiada, and it was used for making the vessels for the house of the Lord, all the vessels needed for the offerings, the spoons and the vessels of gold and silver. And as long as Jehoiada was living, the regular burned offerings were offered in the house of the Lord.
When they had made an end, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, whereof were made vessels for the house of Yahweh, even vessels with which to minister and to offer, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. They offered burnt offerings in the house of Yahweh continually all the days of Jehoiada.
And when they had finished it, they brought the rest of the money before the king and Jehoiada, of which were made vessels for the house of the LORD, even vessels to minister, and to offer with, and spoons, and vessels of gold and silver. And they offered burnt-offerings in the house of the LORD continually all the days of Jehoiada.
- 15 But Jehoiada became old and full of days, and he came to his end; he was a hundred and thirty years old at the time of his death.
But Jehoiada grew old and was full of days, and he died; one hundred thirty years old was he when he died.
But Jehoiada grew old, and was full of days when he died; a hundred and thirty years old was he when he died.
- 16 And they put him into his last resting-place in the town of David, among the kings, because he had done good in Israel for God and for his house.
They buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, and toward God and his house.
And they buried him in the city of David among the kings, because he had done good in Israel, both towards God, and towards his house.
- 17 Now after the death of Jehoiada, the chiefs of Judah came and went down on their faces before the king. Then the king gave ear to them.
Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king listened to them.
Now after the death of Jehoiada came the princes of Judah, and made obeisance to the king. Then the king hearkened to them.

- 18 And they gave up the house of the Lord God of their fathers, and became worshippers of pillars of wood and of the images; and because of this sin of theirs, wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem.
They forsook the house of Yahweh, the God of their fathers, and served the Asherim and the idols: and wrath came on Judah and Jerusalem for this their guiltiness.
And they left the house of the LORD God of their fathers, and served groves and idols: and wrath came upon Judah and Jerusalem for this their trespass.
- 19 And the Lord sent them prophets to make them come back to him; and they gave witness against them, but they would not give ear.
Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to Yahweh; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.
Yet he sent prophets to them, to bring them again to the LORD; and they testified against them: but they would not give ear.
- 20 Then the spirit of God came on Zechariah, the son of Jehoiada the priest, and, getting up before the people, he said to them, God has said, Why do you go against the orders of the Lord, so that everything goes badly for you? because you have given up the Lord, he has given you up.
The Spirit of God came on Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest; and he stood above the people, and said to them, Thus says God, Why disobey you the commandments of Yahweh, so that you can't prosper? because you have forsaken Yahweh, he has also forsaken you.
And the Spirit of God came upon Zechariah the son of Jehoiada the priest, who stood above the people, and said to them, Thus saith God, Why transgress ye the commandments of the LORD, that ye cannot prosper? because ye have forsaken the LORD, he hath also forsaken you.
- 21 But when they had made a secret design against him, he was stoned with stones, by the king's order, in the outer square of the Lord's house.
They conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of Yahweh.
And they conspired against him, and stoned him with stones at the commandment of the king in the court of the house of the LORD.
- 22 So King Joash did not keep in mind how good Jehoiada his father had been to him, but put his son to death. And in the hour of his death he said, May the Lord see it and take payment!
Thus Joash the king didn't remember the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but killed his son. When he died, he said, Yahweh look on it, and require it.
Thus Joash the king remembered not the kindness which Jehoiada his father had done to him, but slew his son. And when he died, he said, The LORD look upon it, and require it.

23 Now in the spring, the army of the Aramaeans came up against him; they came against Judah and Jerusalem, putting to death all the great men of the people and sending all the goods they took from them to the king of Damascus.

It happened at the end of the year, that the army of the Syrians came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king of Damascus.

And it came to pass at the end of the year, that the army of Syria came up against him: and they came to Judah and Jerusalem, and destroyed all the princes of the people from among the people, and sent all the spoil of them to the king of Damascus.

24 For though the army of Aram was only a small one, the Lord gave a very great army into their hands, because they had given up the Lord, the God of their fathers. So they put into effect the punishment of Joash.

For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men; and Yahweh delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers. So they executed judgment on Joash.

For the army of the Syrians came with a small company of men, and the LORD delivered a very great host into their hand, because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers. So they executed judgment against Joash.

25 And when they had gone away from him, (for he was broken with disease,) his servants made a secret design against him because of the blood of the son of Jehoiada the priest, and they put him to death on his bed; and they put his body into the earth in the town of David, but not in the resting-place of the kings.

When they were departed for him (for they left him very sick), his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and killed him on his bed, and he died; and they buried him in the city of David, but they didn't bury him in the tombs of the kings.

And when they had departed from him, (for they left him in great diseases,) his own servants conspired against him for the blood of the sons of Jehoiada the priest, and slew him on his bed, and he died: and they buried him in the city of David, but they buried him not in the sepulchers of the kings.

26 Those who made designs against him were Zabad, the son of Shimeath, an Ammonite woman, and Jehozabad, the son of Shimrith, a Moabite woman.

These are those who conspired against him: Zabad the son of Shimeath the Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith the Moabitess.

And these are they that conspired against him; Zabad the son of Shimeath an Ammonitess, and Jehozabad the son of Shimrith a Moabitess.

27 Now the story of his sons, and all the words said by the prophet against him, and the building up again of the Lord's house, are recorded in the account in the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son became king in his place.

Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens [laid] on him, and the rebuilding of the house of God, behold, they are written in the commentary of the book of the kings. Amaziah his son reigned in his place.

Now concerning his sons, and the greatness of the burdens laid upon him, and the repairing of the house of God, behold, they are written in the story of the book of the kings. And Amaziah his son reigned in his stead.

1 Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for twenty-nine years; his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

Amaziah was twenty-five years old when he began to reign; and he reigned twenty-nine years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Jehoaddan, of Jerusalem.

Amaziah was twenty and five years old when he began to reign, and he reigned twenty and nine years in Jerusalem. And his mother's name was Jehoaddan of Jerusalem.

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, but his heart was not completely true to the Lord.

He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, but not with a perfect heart.

And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, but not with a perfect heart.

3 Now when he became strong in the kingdom, he put to death those men who had taken the life of the king his father.

Now it happened, when the kingdom was established to him, that he killed his servants who had killed the king his father.

Now it came to pass, when the kingdom was established to him, that he slew his servants that had killed the king his father.

4 But he did not put their children to death, for he kept the orders of the Lord recorded in the book of the law of Moses, saying, The fathers are not to be put to death for their children or the children for their fathers, but a man is to be put to death for the sin which he himself has done.

But he didn't put their children to death, but did according to that which is written in the law in the book of Moses, as Yahweh commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers; but every man shall die for his own sin.

But he slew not their children, but did as it is written in the law of the book of Moses, where the LORD commanded, saying, The fathers shall not die for the children, neither shall the children die for the fathers, but every man shall die for his own sin.

- 5 Then Amaziah got all Judah together and put them in order by their families, even all Judah and Benjamin, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds: and he had those of twenty years old and over numbered, and they came to three hundred thousand of the best fighting-men, trained for war and in the use of the spear and the body-cover.
Moreover Amaziah gathered Judah together, and ordered them according to their fathers` houses, under captains of thousands and captains of hundreds, even all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and upward, and found them three hundred thousand chosen men, able to go forth to war, who could handle spear and shield.
Moreover, Amaziah assembled Judah, and made them captains over thousands, and captains over hundreds, according to the houses of their fathers, throughout all Judah and Benjamin: and he numbered them from twenty years old and above, and found them three hundred thousand choice men, able to go forth to war, that could handle spear and shield.
- 6 And for a hundred talents of silver, he got a hundred thousand fighting-men from Israel.
He hired also one hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for one hundred talents of silver.
He hired also a hundred thousand mighty men of valor out of Israel for a hundred talents of silver.
- 7 But a man of God came to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with you; for the Lord is not with Israel, that is, the children of Ephraim.
But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, don` t let the army of Israel go with you; for Yahweh is not with Israel, [to wit], with all the children of Ephraim.
But there came a man of God to him, saying, O king, let not the army of Israel go with thee; for the LORD is not with Israel, to wit, with all the children of Ephraim.
- 8 But go yourself, and be strong in war; God will not let you go down before those who are fighting against you; for God has power to give help or to send you down before your attackers.
But if you will go, do [valiantly], be strong for the battle: God will cast you down before the enemy; for God has power to help, and to cast down.
But if thou wilt go, do it, be strong for the battle: God will make thee fall before the enemy: for God hath power to help, and to cast down.
- 9 Then Amaziah said to the man of God, But what is to be done about the hundred talents which I have given for the armed band of Israel? And the man of God in answer said, God is able to give you much more than this.
Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? The man of God answered, Yahweh is able to give you much more than this.
And Amaziah said to the man of God, But what shall we do for the hundred talents which I have given to the army of Israel? And the man of God answered, The LORD is able to give thee much more than this.

10 So Amaziah, separating the armed band which had come to him from Ephraim, sent them back again; which made them very angry with Judah, and they went back burning with wrath. Then Amaziah separated them, [to wit], the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: why their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in fierce anger.

Then Amaziah separated them, to wit, the army that had come to him out of Ephraim, to go home again: wherefore their anger was greatly kindled against Judah, and they returned home in great anger.

11 Then Amaziah took heart, and went out at the head of his people and came to the Valley of Salt, where he put to death ten thousand of the children of Seir; Amaziah took courage, and led forth his people, and went to the Valley of Salt, and struck of the children of Seir ten thousand. And Amaziah strengthened himself, and led forth his people, and went to the valley of salt, and smote of the children of Seir ten thousand.

12 And ten thousand more the children of Israel took living, and made them go up to the top of the rock, pushing them down from the top of the rock so that their bodies were broken by the fall. [other] ten thousand did the children of Judah carry away alive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, so that they all were broken in pieces. And other ten thousand left alive the children of Judah carried away captive, and brought them to the top of the rock, and cast them down from the top of the rock, that they were all broken in pieces.

13 But the men of the band which Amaziah sent back and did not take with him to the fight, made attacks on the towns of Judah from Samaria to Beth-horon, putting to death three thousand of their people and taking away a great store of their goods. But the men of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell on the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth-horon, and struck of them three thousand, and took much spoil. But the soldiers of the army whom Amaziah sent back, that they should not go with him to battle, fell upon the cities of Judah, from Samaria even to Beth-horon, and smote three thousand of them, and took much spoil.

14 Now when Amaziah came back from the destruction of the Edomites, he took the gods of the children of Seir and made them his gods, worshipping them and burning offerings before them. Now it happened, after that Amaziah was come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed down himself before them, and burned incense to them. Now it came to pass, after that Amaziah had come from the slaughter of the Edomites, that he brought the gods of the children of Seir, and set them up to be his gods, and bowed himself before them, and burned incense to them.

- 15 And so the wrath of the Lord was moved against Amaziah, and he sent a prophet to him, who said, Why have you gone after the gods of the people who have not given their people salvation from your hands?
Therefore the anger of Yahweh was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why have you sought after the gods of the people, which have not delivered their own people out of your hand?
Wherefore the anger of the LORD was kindled against Amaziah, and he sent to him a prophet, who said to him, Why hast thou sought after the gods of the people, which could not deliver their own people out of thy hand?
- 16 But while he was talking to him the king said to him, Have we made you one of the king's government? say no more, or it will be the cause of your death. Then the prophet gave up protesting, and said, It is clear to me that God's purpose is your destruction, because you have done this and have not given ear to my words.
It happened, as he talked with him, that [the king] said to him, Have we made you of the king's counsel? Stop! Why should you be struck down? Then the prophet stopped, and said, I know that God has determined to destroy you, because you have done this, and have not listened to my counsel.
And it came to pass, as he talked with him, that the king said to him, Art thou made of the king's council? forbear? why shouldst thou be smitten? Then the prophet forbore, and said, I know that God hath determined to destroy thee, because thou hast done this, and hast not hearkened to my counsel.
- 17 Then Amaziah, king of Judah, acting on the suggestion of his servants, sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us have a meeting face to face.
Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us look one another in the face.
Then Amaziah king of Judah took advice, and sent to Joash, the son of Jehoahaz, the son of Jehu, king of Israel, saying, Come, let us see one another in the face.
- 18 And Joash, king of Israel, sent to Amaziah, king of Judah, saying, The thorn-tree in Lebanon sent to the cedar in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son for a wife: and a beast from the woodland in Lebanon went by, crushing the thorn under his feet.
Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give your daughter to my son as wife: and there passed by a wild animal that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.
And Joash king of Israel sent to Amaziah king of Judah, saying, The thistle that was in Lebanon sent to the cedar that was in Lebanon, saying, Give thy daughter to my son for a wife: and there passed by a wild beast that was in Lebanon, and trod down the thistle.

- 19 You say, See, I have overcome Edom; and your heart is lifted up with pride: now keep in your country; why do you make causes of trouble, putting yourself, and Judah with you, in danger of downfall?
You say, Behold, you have struck Edom; and your heart lifts you up to boast: abide now at home; why should you meddle to [your] hurt, that you should fall, even you, and Judah with you?
Thou sayest, Lo, thou hast smitten the Edomites; and thy heart lifteth thee up to boast: abide now at home; why shouldst thou meddle to thy hurt, that thou shouldst fall, even thou, and Judah with thee?
- 20 But Amaziah gave no attention; and this was the purpose of God, so that he might give them up into the hands of Joash, because they had gone after the gods of Edom.
But Amaziah would not hear; for it was of God, that he might deliver them into the hand [of their enemies], because they had sought after the gods of Edom.
But Amaziah would not hear; for it came from God, that he might deliver them into the hand of their enemies, because they sought after the gods of Edom.
- 21 And so Joash, king of Israel, went up; and he and Amaziah, king of Judah, came face to face at Beth-shemesh in Judah.
So Joash king of Israel went up; and he and Amaziah king of Judah looked one another in the face at Beth-shemesh, which belongs to Judah.
So Joash the king of Israel went up; and they saw one another in the face, both he and Amaziah king of Judah, at Beth-shemesh, which belongeth to Judah.

- 24 And he took all the gold and silver and all the vessels which were in the house of the Lord, under the care of Obed-edom, and all the wealth from the king's house, as well as those whose lives would be the price of broken faith, and went back to Samaria.
[He took] all the gold and silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.
And he took all the gold and the silver, and all the vessels that were found in the house of God with Obed-edom, and the treasures of the king's house, the hostages also, and returned to Samaria.

And Amaziah the son of Joash king of Judah, lived after the death of Joash, son of Jehoahaz king of Israel, fifteen years.
- 26 Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, are they not recorded in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, aren't they written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?
Now the rest of the acts of Amaziah, first and last, behold, are they not written in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel?

- 5 He gave himself to searching after God in the days of Zechariah, who made men wise in the fear of God; and as long as he was true to the Lord, God made things go well for him.
He set himself to seek God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the vision of God: and as long as he sought Yahweh, God made him to prosper.
And he sought God in the days of Zechariah, who had understanding in the visions of God: and, as long as he sought the LORD, God made him to prosper.

And the Ammonites gave gifts to Uzziah: and his name spread abroad even to the entrance of Egypt: for he strengthened himself exceedingly.

He built towers in the wilderness, and hewed out many cisterns, for he had much cattle; in the lowland also, and in the plain: [and he had] farmers and vineyard keepers in the mountains and in the fruitful fields; for he loved farming.

Moreover Uzziah had an army of fighting men, who went out to war by bands, according to the number of their reckoning made by Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the officer, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.
Moreover, Uzziah had an army of fighting men, that went out to war, by bands, according to the number of their account by the hand of Jeiel the scribe and Maaseiah the ruler, under the hand of Hananiah, one of the king's captains.

- 14 And Uzziah had all these forces armed with body-covers and spears and head-covers and coats of metal and bows and stones for sending from leather bands.
Uzziah prepared for them, even for all the host, shields, and spears, and helmets, and coats of mail, and bows, and stones for slinging.
And Uzziah prepared for them throughout all the army, shields, and spears, and helmets, and habergeons, and bows, and slings to cast stones.
- 15 And in Jerusalem he made machines, the invention of expert men, to be placed on the towers and angles of the walls for sending arrows and great stones. And his name was honoured far and wide; for he was greatly helped till he was strong.
He made in Jerusalem engines, invented by skillful men, to be on the towers and on the battlements, with which to shoot arrows and great stones. His name spread far abroad; for he was marvelously helped, until he was strong.

- 16 But when he had become strong, his heart was lifted up in pride, causing his destruction; and he did evil against the Lord his God; for he went into the Temple of the Lord for the purpose of burning perfumes on the altar of perfumes.
But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up, so that he did corruptly, and he trespassed against Yahweh his God; for he went into the temple of Yahweh to burn incense on the altar of incense.
But when he was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction: for he transgressed against the LORD his God, and went into the temple of the LORD to burn incense upon the altar of incense.
- 17 And Azariah the priest went in after him, with eighty of the Lord's priests, who were strong men;
Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of Yahweh, who were valiant men:
And Azariah the priest went in after him, and with him eighty priests of the LORD, that were valiant men:

- 18 And they made protests to Uzziah the king, and said to him, The burning of perfumes, Uzziah, is not your business but that of the priests, the sons of Aaron, who have been made holy for this work: go out of the holy place, for you have done wrong, and it will not be to your honour before God.
and they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, It pertains not to you, Uzziah, to burn incense to Yahweh, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for you have trespassed; neither shall it be for your honor from Yahweh God.
And they withstood Uzziah the king, and said to him, It appertaineth not to thee, Uzziah, to burn incense to the LORD, but to the priests the sons of Aaron, that are consecrated to burn incense: go out of the sanctuary; for thou hast trespassed; neither will it be for thy honor from the LORD God.
- 19 Then Uzziah was angry; and he had in his hand a vessel for burning perfume; and while his wrath was bitter against the priests, the mark of the leper's disease came out on his brow, before the eyes of the priests in the house of the Lord by the altar of perfumes.
Then Uzziah was angry; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense; and while he was angry with the priests, the leprosy broke forth in his forehead before the priests in the house of Yahweh, beside the altar of incense.
Then Uzziah was wroth, and had a censer in his hand to burn incense: and while he was wroth with the priests, the leprosy even rose up in his forehead before the priests in the house of the LORD, from beside the incense altar.
- 20 And Azariah, the chief priest, and all the priests, looking at him, saw the mark of the leper on his brow, and they sent him out quickly and he himself went out straight away, for the Lord's punishment had come on him.
Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests, looked on him, and, behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out quickly from there; yes, himself hurried also to go out, because Yahweh had struck him.
And Azariah the chief priest, and all the priests looked upon him, and behold, he was leprous in his forehead, and they thrust him out from thence; yea, himself hasted also to go out, because the LORD had smitten him.
- 21 So King Uzziah was a leper till the day of his death, living separately in his private house; for he was cut off from the house of God; and Jotham his son was ruling over his house, judging the people of the land.
Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and lived in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of Yahweh: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.
And Uzziah the king was a leper to the day of his death, and dwelt in a separate house, being a leper; for he was cut off from the house of the LORD: and Jotham his son was over the king's house, judging the people of the land.

23 So Uzziah went to rest with his fathers; and they put his body into the earth in the field used for the resting-place of the kings, for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son became king in his place.
So Uzziah slept with his fathers; and they buried him with his fathers in the field of burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his place.
So Uzziah slept with his fathers, and they buried him with his fathers in the field of the burial which belonged to the kings; for they said, He is a leper: and Jotham his son reigned in his stead.

1 Jotham was twenty-five years old when he became king; and he was ruling in Jerusalem for sixteen years; and his mother's name was Jerushah, the daughter of Zadok.

2 He did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, as his father Uzziah had done; but he did not go into the Temple of the Lord. And the people still went on in their evil ways.
He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, according to all that his father Uzziah had done: however he didn't enter into the temple of Yahweh. The people did yet corruptly.
And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, according to all that his father Uzziah did: yet, he entered not into the temple of the LORD. And the people did yet corruptly.

3 He put up the higher doorway of the house of the Lord, and did much building on the wall of the Ophel.
He built the upper gate of the house of Yahweh, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.
He built the high gate of the house of the LORD, and on the wall of Ophel he built much.

4 In addition, he made towns in the hill-country of Judah, and strong buildings and towers in the woodlands.
Moreover he built cities in the hill-country of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.
Moreover, he built cities in the mountains of Judah, and in the forests he built castles and towers.

- 5 He went to war with the king of the children of Ammon and overcame them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same amount the second year and the third.
He fought also with the king of the children of Ammon, and prevailed against them. The children of Ammon gave him the same year one hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon render to him, in the second year also, and in the third.
He fought also with the king of the Ammonites, and prevailed against them. And the children of Ammon gave him the same year a hundred talents of silver, and ten thousand measures of wheat, and ten thousand of barley. So much did the children of Ammon pay to him, both the second year, and the third.

- 6 So Jotham became strong, because in all his ways he made the Lord his guide.
So Jotham became mighty, because he ordered his ways before Yahweh his God.
So Jotham became mighty, because he prepared his ways before the LORD his God.

- 1 Ahaz was twenty years old when he became king, and he was ruling in Jerusalem for sixteen years; he did not do what was right in the eyes of the Lord, like David his father:
Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: and he didn't do that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, like David his father;
Ahaz was twenty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem: but he did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD, like David his father:

2 But he went in the ways of the kings of Israel and made images of metal for the Baals.

but he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for the Baals.

For he walked in the ways of the kings of Israel, and made also molten images for Baalim.

3 More than this, he had offerings burned in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and made his children go through fire, copying the disgusting ways of the nations whom the Lord had sent out of the land before the children of Israel.

Moreover he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, according to the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel.

Moreover, he burnt incense in the valley of the son of Hinnom, and burnt his children in the fire, after the abominations of the heathen whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

4 And he made offerings and had perfumes burned in the high places and on the hills and under every green tree.

He sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

He sacrificed also and burnt incense in the high places, and on the hills, and under every green tree.

5 So the Lord his God gave him up into the hands of the king of Aram; and they overcame him, and took away a great number of his people as prisoners to Damascus. Then he was given into the hands of the king of Israel, who sent great destruction on him.

Why Yahweh his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they struck him, and carried away of his a great multitude of captives, and brought them to Damascus. He was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who struck him with a great slaughter.

Wherefore the LORD his God delivered him into the hand of the king of Syria; and they smote him, and carried away a great multitude of them captives, and brought them to Damascus. And he was also delivered into the hand of the king of Israel, who smote him with a great slaughter.

6 For Pekah, the son of Remaliah, in one day put to death a hundred and twenty thousand men of Judah, all of them good fighting-men; because they had given up the Lord, the God of their fathers.

For Pekah the son of Remaliah killed in Judah one hundred twenty thousand in one day, all of them valiant men; because they had forsaken Yahweh, the God of their fathers.

For Pekah the son of Remaliah slew in Judah a hundred and twenty thousand in one day, who were all valiant men; because they had forsaken the LORD God of their fathers.

7 And Zichri, a great fighting-man of Ephraim, put to death Maaseiah, the king's son, and Azrikam, the controller of his house, and Elkanah, who was second in authority to the king.
Zichri, a mighty man of Ephraim, killed Maaseiah the king`s son, and Azrikam the ruler of the house, and Elkanah who was next to the king.

8 And the children of Israel took away as prisoners from their brothers, two hundred thousand, women and sons and daughters, and a great store of their goods, and took them to Samaria.
The children of Israel carried away captive of their brothers two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and took also away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

And the children of Israel carried away captive of their brethren two hundred thousand, women, sons, and daughters, and also took away much spoil from them, and brought the spoil to Samaria.

9 But a prophet of the Lord was there, named Oded; and he went out in front of the army which was coming into Samaria and said to them, Truly, because the Lord, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he gave them up into your hands, and you have put them to death in an outburst of wrath stretching up to heaven.

But a prophet of Yahweh was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out to meet the host that came to Samaria, and said to them, Behold, because Yahweh, the God of your fathers, was angry with Judah, he has delivered them into your hand, and you have slain them in a rage which has reached up to heaven.

But a prophet of the LORD was there, whose name was Oded: and he went out before the army that came to Samaria, and said to them, Behold, because the LORD God of your fathers was wroth with Judah, he hath delivered them into your hand, and ye have slain them in a rage that reacheth to heaven.

10 And now your purpose is to keep the children of Judah and Jerusalem as men-servants and women-servants under your yoke: but are there no sins against the Lord your God to be seen among yourselves?

Now you purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bondservants and bondmaids to you: [but] aren`t there even with you trespasses of your own against Yahweh your God?

And now ye purpose to keep under the children of Judah and Jerusalem for bond-men and bond-women to you: but are there not with you, even with you, sins against the LORD your God?

11 And now give ear to me, and send back the prisoners whom you have taken from your brothers: for the wrath of the Lord is burning against you.

Now hear me therefore, and send back the captives, that you have taken captive of your brothers; for the fierce wrath of Yahweh is on you.

Now hear me therefore, and deliver the captives again, which ye have taken captive of your brethren: for the fierce wrath of the LORD is upon you.

12 Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah, the son of Johanan, Berechiah, the son of Meshillemoth Jehizkiah, the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, put themselves against those who had come from the war,
Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against those who came from the war,
Then certain of the heads of the children of Ephraim, Azariah the son of Johanan, Berechiah the son of Meshillemoth, and Jehizkiah the son of Shallum, and Amasa the son of Hadlai, stood up against them that came from the war.

13 And said to them, You are not to let these prisoners come here; for what you are designing to do will be a cause of sin against the Lord to us, making even greater our sin and our wrongdoing, which now are great enough, and his wrath is burning against Israel.
and said to them, You shall not bring in the captives here: for you purpose that which will bring on us a trespass against Yahweh, to add to our sins and to our trespass; for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.
And said to them, Ye shall not bring in the captives hither: for whereas we have offended against the LORD already, ye intend to add more to our sins and to our trespass: for our trespass is great, and there is fierce wrath against Israel.

14 So the armed men gave up the prisoners and the goods they had taken to the heads and the meeting of the people.
So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the assembly.
So the armed men left the captives and the spoil before the princes and all the congregation.

15 And those men who have been named went up and took the prisoners, clothing those among them who were uncovered, with things from the goods which had been taken in the war, and putting robes on them and shoes on their feet; and they gave them food and drink and oil for their bodies, and seating all the feeble among them on asses, they took them to Jericho, the town of palm-trees, to their people, and then went back to Samaria.
The men who have been mentioned by name rose up, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all who were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them on donkeys, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm-trees, to their brothers: then they returned to Samaria.
And the men who were expressed by name arose, and took the captives, and with the spoil clothed all that were naked among them, and arrayed them, and shod them, and gave them to eat and to drink, and anointed them, and carried all the feeble of them upon asses, and brought them to Jericho, the city of palm trees, to their brethren: then they returned to Samaria.

16 At that time King Ahaz sent for help to the king of Assyria.
At that time did king Ahaz send to the kings of Assyria to help him.
At that time king Ahaz sent to the kings of Assyria to help him.

For again the Edomites had come and struck Judah, and carried away captives.
For again the Edomites had come and smitten Judah, and carried away captives.
- 18 And the Philistines, forcing their way into the towns of the lowlands and the south of Judah, had taken Beth-shemesh and Aijalon and Gederoth and Soco, with their daughter-towns, as well as Timnah and Gimzo and their daughter-towns, and were living there.
The Philistines also had invaded the cities of the lowland, and of the South of Judah, and had taken Beth-shemesh, and Aijalon, and Gederoth, and Soco with the towns of it, and Timnah with the towns of it, Gimzo also and the towns of it: and they lived there.

- 19 For the Lord made Judah low, because of Ahaz, king of Israel; for he had given up all self-control in Judah, sinning greatly against the Lord.
For Yahweh brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel; for he had dealt wantonly in Judah, and trespassed sore against Yahweh.
For the LORD brought Judah low because of Ahaz king of Israel: for he made Judah naked, and greatly transgressed against the LORD.
- 20 Then Tiglath-pileser, king of Assyria, came to him, but was a cause of trouble and not of strength to him.
Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but didn't strengthen him.
And Tilgath-pilneser king of Assyria came to him, and distressed him, but strengthened him not.
- 21 For Ahaz took a part of the wealth from the house of the Lord, and from the house of the king and of the great men, and gave it to the king of Assyria; but it was no help to him.
For Ahaz took away a portion out of the house of Yahweh, and out of the house of the king and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but it didn't help him.
For Ahaz took away a portion from the house of the LORD, and from the house of the king, and of the princes, and gave it to the king of Assyria: but he helped him not.
- 22 And in the time of his trouble, this same King Ahaz did even more evil against the Lord.

- 23 For he made offerings to the gods of Damascus, who were attacking him, and said, Because the gods of the kings of Aram are giving them help, I will make offerings to them so that they may give me help. But they were the cause of his downfall, and of that of all Israel.
For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which struck him; and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria helped them, [therefore] will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.
For he sacrificed to the gods of Damascus, which smote him: and he said, Because the gods of the kings of Syria help them, therefore will I sacrifice to them, that they may help me. But they were the ruin of him, and of all Israel.

- 6 For our fathers have done evil, sinning in the eyes of the Lord our God, and have given him up, turning away their faces from the house of the Lord, and turning their backs on him.
For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of Yahweh, and turned their backs.
For our fathers have trespassed, and done that which was evil in the eyes of the LORD our God, and have forsaken him, and have turned away their faces from the habitation of the LORD, and turned their backs.

- 8 And so the wrath of the Lord has come on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has given them up to be a cause of fear and wonder and shame, as your eyes have seen.
Therefore the wrath of Yahweh was on Judah and Jerusalem, and he has delivered them to be tossed back and forth, to be an astonishment, and a hissing, as you see with your eyes.
Wherefore the wrath of the LORD hath been upon Judah and Jerusalem, and he hath delivered them to trouble, to astonishment, and to hissing, as ye see with your eyes.

- 11 My sons, take care now: for you have been marked out by the Lord to come before him and to be his servants, burning offerings to him.
My sons, don't be negligent now; for Yahweh has chosen you to stand before him, to minister to him, and that you should be his ministers, and burn incense.
My sons, be not now negligent: for the LORD hath chosen you to stand before him, to serve him, and that ye should minister to him, and burn incense.

And of the sons of Heman; Jehiel, and Shimei: and of the sons of Jeduthun; Shemaiah, and Uzziel.
- 15 And they got their brothers together and made themselves holy, and went in, as the king had said by the word of the Lord, to make the house of the Lord clean.
They gathered their brothers, and sanctified themselves, and went in, according to the commandment of the king by the words of Yahweh, to cleanse the house of Yahweh.
And they assembled their brethren, and sanctified themselves, and came, according to the commandment of the king, by the words of the LORD, to cleanse the house of the LORD.
- 16 And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the Lord to make it clean, and everything unclean which was to be seen in the Temple of the Lord they took out into the outer square of the Lord's house, and the Levites got it together and took it away to the stream Kidron.
The priests went in to the inner part of the house of Yahweh, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of Yahweh into the court of the house of Yahweh. The Levites took it, to carry it out abroad to the brook Kidron.
And the priests went into the inner part of the house of the LORD, to cleanse it, and brought out all the uncleanness that they found in the temple of the LORD into the court of the house of the LORD. And the Levites took it, to carry it out abroad into the brook Kidron.

- 17 On the first day of the first month the work of making the house holy was started, and on the eighth day they came to the covered way of the Lord; in eight days they made the Lord's house holy, and on the sixteenth day of the first month the work was done.
Now they began on the first [day] of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month came they to the porch of Yahweh; and they sanctified the house of Yahweh in eight days: and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.
Now they began on the first day of the first month to sanctify, and on the eighth day of the month they came to the porch of the LORD: so they sanctified the house of the LORD in eight days; and on the sixteenth day of the first month they made an end.
- 18 Then they went in to King Hezekiah and said, We have made all the house of the Lord clean, as well as the altar of burned offerings with all its vessels, and the table for the holy bread, with all its vessels.
Then they went in to Hezekiah the king within [the palace], and said, We have cleansed all the house of Yahweh, and the altar of burnt offering, with all the vessels of it, and the table of show bread, with all the vessels of it.
Then they went in to Hezekiah the king, and said, We have cleansed all the house of the LORD, and the altar of burnt-offering, with all its vessels, and the show-bread table, with all its vessels.
- 19 And all the vessels which were turned out by King Ahaz in his sin while he was king, we have put in order and made holy, and now they are in their places before the altar of the Lord.
Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign did cast away when he trespassed, have we prepared and sanctified; and, behold, they are before the altar of Yahweh.
Moreover all the vessels, which king Ahaz in his reign cast away in his transgression, have we prepared and sanctified, and behold, they are before the altar of the LORD.
- 20 Then Hezekiah the king got up early, and got together the great men of the town, and went up to the house of the Lord.
Then Hezekiah the king arose early, and gathered the princes of the city, and went up to the house of Yahweh.
Then Hezekiah the king rose early, and convened the rulers of the city, and went up to the house of the LORD.
- 21 And they took with them seven oxen and seven male sheep and seven lambs and seven he-goats as a sin-offering for the kingdom and for the holy house and for Judah. And he gave orders to the sons of Aaron, the priests, that these were to be offered on the altar of the Lord.
They brought seven bulls, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven male goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom and for the sanctuary and for Judah. He commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of Yahweh.
And they brought seven bullocks, and seven rams, and seven lambs, and seven he-goats, for a sin-offering for the kingdom, and for the sanctuary, and for Judah. And he commanded the priests the sons of Aaron to offer them on the altar of the LORD.

- 22 So they put the oxen to death and their blood was given to the priests to be drained out against the altar; then they put the male sheep to death, draining out their blood against the altar, and they put the lambs to death, draining out their blood against the altar.
So they killed the bulls, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: and they killed the rams, and sprinkled the blood on the altar: they killed also the lambs, and sprinkled the blood on the altar.
So they killed the bullocks, and the priests received the blood, and sprinkled it on the altar: likewise, when they had killed the rams, they sprinkled the blood upon the altar: they killed also the lambs, and they sprinkled the blood upon the altar.
- 23 Then they took the he-goats for the sin-offering, placing them before the king and the meeting of the people, and they put their hands on them:
They brought near the male goats for the sin-offering before the king and the assembly; and they laid their hands on them:
And they brought forth the he-goats for the sin-offering before the king and the congregation; and they laid their hands upon them:
- 24 And the priests put them to death, and made a sin-offering with their blood on the altar, to take away the sin of all Israel: for the king gave orders that the burned offering and the sin-offering were for all Israel.
and the priests killed them, and they made a sin-offering with their blood on the altar, to make atonement for all Israel; for the king commanded [that] the burnt offering and the sin-offering [should be made] for all Israel.
And the priests killed them, and they made reconciliation with their blood upon the altar, to make an atonement for all Israel: for the king commanded that the burnt-offering and the sin-offering should be made for all Israel.
- 25 Then he put the Levites in their places in the house of the Lord, with brass and corded instruments of music as ordered by David and Gad, the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for the order was the Lord's, given by his prophets.
He set the Levites in the house of Yahweh with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet; for the commandment was of Yahweh by his prophets.
And he set the Levites in the house of the LORD with cymbals, with psalteries, and with harps, according to the commandment of David, and of Gad the king's seer, and Nathan the prophet: for so was the commandment of the LORD by his prophets.
- 26 So the Levites took their places with David's instruments, and the priests with their horns.
The Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.
And the Levites stood with the instruments of David, and the priests with the trumpets.

- 27 And Hezekiah gave the word for the burned offering to be offered on the altar. And when the burned offering was started, then the song of the Lord was started, with the blowing of horns and with all the instruments of David, king of Israel.
Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt offering on the altar. When the burnt offering began, the song of Yahweh began also, and the trumpets, together with the instruments of David king of Israel.
And Hezekiah commanded to offer the burnt-offering upon the altar. And when the burnt-offering began, the song of the LORD began also with the trumpets, and with the instruments ordained by David king of Israel.
- 28 And all the people gave worship, to the sound of songs and the blowing of horns; and this went on till the burned offering was ended.
All the assembly worshipped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded; all this [continued] until the burnt offering was finished.
And all the congregation worshiped, and the singers sang, and the trumpeters sounded: and all this continued until the burnt-offering was finished.
- 29 And at the end of the offering, the king and all who were present with him gave worship with bent heads.
When they had made an end of offering, the king and all who were present with him bowed themselves and worshipped.
And when they had made an end of offering, the king and all that were present with him bowed themselves, and worshiped.
- 30 Then King Hezekiah and the captains gave orders to the Levites to give praise to God in the words of David and Asaph the seer. And they made songs of praise with joy, and with bent heads gave worship.
Moreover Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praises to Yahweh with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. They sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshipped.
Moreover, Hezekiah the king and the princes commanded the Levites to sing praise to the LORD, with the words of David, and of Asaph the seer. And they sang praises with gladness, and they bowed their heads and worshiped.
- 31 Then Hezekiah made answer and said, Now that you have given yourselves to the Lord, come near and take offerings and praise-offerings into the house of the Lord. So all the people took in offerings and praise-offerings: and those whose hearts were moved, took in burned offerings.
Then Hezekiah answered, Now you have consecrated yourselves to Yahweh; come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of Yahweh. The assembly brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and as many as were of a willing heart [brought] burnt offerings.
Then Hezekiah answered and said, Now ye have consecrated yourselves to the LORD, come near and bring sacrifices and thank-offerings into the house of the LORD. And the congregation brought in sacrifices and thank-offerings; and, as many as were of a free heart, burnt-offerings.

- 32 The number of burned offerings which the people took in was seventy oxen, a hundred male sheep, and two hundred lambs: all these were for burned offerings to the Lord.
The number of the burnt offerings which the assembly brought was seventy bulls, one hundred rams, and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt offering to Yahweh.
And the number of the burnt-offerings, which the congregation brought, was seventy bullocks, a hundred rams: and two hundred lambs: all these were for a burnt-offering to the LORD.
- 33 And the holy things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.
The consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.
And the consecrated things were six hundred oxen and three thousand sheep.
- 34 There were not enough priests for the work of cutting up all the burned offerings; so their brothers the Levites gave them help till the work was done and the priests had made themselves holy: for the Levites were more upright in heart to make themselves holy than the priests.
But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt offerings: why their brothers the Levites did help them, until the work was ended, and until the priests had sanctified themselves; for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.
But the priests were too few, so that they could not flay all the burnt-offerings: wherefore their brethren the Levites helped them, till the work was ended, and until the other priests had sanctified themselves: for the Levites were more upright in heart to sanctify themselves than the priests.
- 35 And there was a great amount of burned offerings, with the fat of the peace-offerings and the drink offerings for every burned offering. So the work of the Lord's house was put in order.
Also the burnt offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and with the drink-offerings for every burnt offering. So the service of the house of Yahweh was set in order.
And also the burnt-offerings were in abundance, with the fat of the peace-offerings, and the drink-offerings for every burnt-offering. So the service of the house of the LORD was set in order.
- 36 And Hezekiah and all the people were full of joy, because God had made the people ready: for the thing was done suddenly.
Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, because of that which God had prepared for the people: for the thing was done suddenly.
And Hezekiah rejoiced, and all the people, that God had prepared the people: for the thing was done suddenly.

- 1 Then Hezekiah sent word to all Israel and Judah, and sent letters to Ephraim and Manasseh, requesting them to come to the house of the Lord at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to the Lord, the God of Israel.
Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of Yahweh at Jerusalem, to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel.
And Hezekiah sent to all Israel and Judah, and wrote letters also to Ephraim and Manasseh, that they should come to the house of the LORD at Jerusalem, to keep the passover to the LORD God of Israel.
- 2 For the king, after discussion with his chiefs and all the body of the people in Jerusalem, had made a decision to keep the Passover in the second month.
For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the assembly in Jerusalem, to keep the Passover in the second month.
For the king had taken counsel, and his princes, and all the congregation in Jerusalem, to keep the passover in the second month.
- 3 It was not possible to keep it at that time, because not enough priests had made themselves holy, and the people had not come together in Jerusalem.
For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves in sufficient number, neither had the people gathered themselves together to Jerusalem.
For they could not keep it at that time, because the priests had not sanctified themselves sufficiently, neither had the people assembled themselves at Jerusalem.
- 4 And the thing was right in the eyes of the king and all the people.
The thing was right in the eyes of the king and of all the assembly.
And the thing pleased the king and all the congregation.
- 5 So it was ordered that word was to be sent out through all Israel, from Beer-sheba to Dan, that they were to come to keep the Passover to the Lord, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: because they had not kept it in great numbers in agreement with the law.
So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beersheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the Passover to Yahweh, the God of Israel, at Jerusalem: for they had not kept it in great numbers in such sort as it is written.
So they established a decree to make proclamation throughout all Israel, from Beer-sheba even to Dan, that they should come to keep the passover to the LORD God of Israel at Jerusalem: for they had not done it of a long time in the manner as it was written.

- 6 So runners went with letters from the king and his chiefs through all Israel and Judah, by the order of the king, saying, O children of Israel, come back again to the Lord, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, so that he may come again to that small band of you which has been kept safe out of the hands of the kings of Assyria.
- So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, You children of Israel, turn again to Yahweh, the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, that he may return to the remnant that have escaped of you out of the hand of the kings of Assyria.
- So the posts went with the letters from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again to the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and he will return to the remnant of you that have escaped from the hand of the kings of Assyria.
- 7 Do not be like your fathers and your brothers, who were sinners against the Lord, the God of their fathers, so that he made them a cause of fear, as you see.
- Don't be you like your fathers, and like your brothers, who trespassed against Yahweh, the God of their fathers, so that he gave them up to desolation, as you see.
- And be not ye like your fathers, and like your brethren, who trespassed against the LORD God of their fathers, who therefore gave them up to desolation, as ye see.
- 8 Now do not be hard-hearted, as your fathers were; but give yourselves to the Lord, and come into his holy place, which he has made his for ever, and be the servants of the Lord your God, so that the heat of his wrath may be turned away from you.
- Now don't you be stiff-necked, as your fathers were; but yield yourselves to Yahweh, and enter into his sanctuary, which he has sanctified forever, and serve Yahweh your God, that his fierce anger may turn away from you.
- Now be ye not stiff-necked, as your fathers were, but yield yourselves to the LORD, and enter into his sanctuary, which he hath sanctified for ever: and serve the LORD your God, that the fierceness of his wrath may turn away from you.
- 9 For if you come back to the Lord, those who took away your brothers and your children will have pity on them, and let them come back to this land: for the Lord your God is full of grace and mercy, and his face will not be turned away from you if you come back to him.
- For if you turn again to Yahweh, your brothers and your children shall find compassion before those who led them captive, and shall come again into this land: for Yahweh your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if you return to him.
- For if ye turn again to the LORD, your brethren and your children will find compassion before them that lead them captive, so that they will return into this land: for the LORD your God is gracious and merciful, and will not turn away his face from you, if ye return to him.

- 10 So the runners went from town to town through all the country of Ephraim and Manasseh as far as Zebulun: but they were laughed at and made sport of.
So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh, even to Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.
So the posts passed from city to city through the country of Ephraim and Manasseh even to Zebulun: but they laughed them to scorn, and mocked them.
- 11 However, some of Asher and Manasseh and Zebulun put away their pride and came to Jerusalem.
Nevertheless certain men of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.
Nevertheless, divers of Asher and Manasseh and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.
- 12 And in Judah the power of God gave them one heart to do the orders of the king and the captains, which were taken as the word of the Lord.
Also on Judah came the hand of God to give them one heart, to do the commandment of the king and of the princes by the word of Yahweh.
Also in Judah the hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, by the word of the LORD.
- 13 So a very great number of people came together at Jerusalem to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month.
There assembled at Jerusalem much people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great assembly.
And there assembled at Jerusalem many people to keep the feast of unleavened bread in the second month, a very great congregation.
- 14 And they got to work and took away all the altars in Jerusalem, and they put all the vessels for burning perfumes into the stream Kidron.
They arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense took they away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.
And they arose and took away the altars that were in Jerusalem, and all the altars for incense they took away, and cast them into the brook Kidron.
- 15 Then on the fourteenth day of the second month they put the Passover lambs to death: and the priests and the Levites were shamed, and made themselves holy and took burned offerings into the house of the Lord.
Then they killed the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought burnt offerings into the house of Yahweh.
Then they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the second month: and the priests and the Levites were ashamed, and sanctified themselves, and brought in the burnt-offerings into the house of the LORD.

16 And they took their places in their right order, as it was ordered in the law of Moses, the man of God: the priests draining out on the altar the blood given them by the Levites.
They stood in their place after their order, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood [which they received] of the hand of the Levites.

And they stood in their place after their manner, according to the law of Moses the man of God: the priests sprinkled the blood, which they received from the hand of the Levites.

17 For there were still a number of the people there who had not made themselves holy: so the Levites had to put Passover lambs to death for those who were not clean, to make them holy to the Lord.

For there were many in the assembly who had not sanctified themselves: therefore the Levites had the charge of killing the Passovers for everyone who was not clean, to sanctify them to Yahweh.

For there were many in the congregation that were not sanctified: therefore the Levites had the charge of the killing of the passovers for every one that was not clean, to sanctify them to the LORD.

18 For a great number of the people from Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not made themselves clean, but they took the Passover meal, though not in the right way. For Hezekiah had made prayer for them, saying, May the good Lord have mercy on everyone

For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the Passover otherwise than it is written. For Hezekiah had prayed for them, saying, The good Yahweh pardon everyone

For a multitude of the people, even many of Ephraim, and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet they ate the passover otherwise than it was written. But Hezekiah prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one,

19 Who, with all his heart, is turned to God the Lord, the God of his fathers, even if he has not been made clean after the rules of the holy place.

who sets his heart to seek God, Yahweh, the God of his fathers, though not [cleansed] according to the purification of the sanctuary.

That prepareth his heart to seek God, the LORD God of his fathers, though he is not cleansed according to the purification of the sanctuary.

20 And the Lord gave ear to Hezekiah, and made the people well.

Yahweh listened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

And the LORD hearkened to Hezekiah, and healed the people.

- 21 So the children of Israel who were present in Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread for seven days with great joy: and the Levites and the priests gave praise to the Lord day by day, making melody to the Lord with loud instruments.
The children of Israel who were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness; and the Levites and the priests praised Yahweh day by day, [singing] with loud instruments to Yahweh.
And the children of Israel that were present at Jerusalem kept the feast of unleavened bread seven days with great gladness: and the Levites and the priests praised the LORD day by day, singing with loud instruments to the LORD.
- 22 And Hezekiah said kind words to the Levites who were expert in the ordering of the worship of the Lord: so they kept the feast for seven days, offering peace-offerings and praising the Lord, the God of their fathers.
Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites who had good understanding [in the service] of Yahweh. So they ate throughout the feast for the seven days, offering sacrifices of peace-offerings, and making confession to Yahweh, the God of their fathers.
And Hezekiah spoke comfortably to all the Levites that taught the good knowledge of the LORD: and they ate throughout the feast seven days, offering peace-offerings, and making confession to the LORD God of their fathers.
- 23 And by the desire of all the people, the feast went on for another seven days, and they kept the seven days with joy.
The whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days; and they kept [other] seven days with gladness.
And the whole assembly took counsel to keep other seven days: and they kept other seven days with gladness.
- 24 For Hezekiah, king of Judah, gave to the people for offerings, a thousand oxen and seven thousand sheep; and the rulers gave a thousand oxen and ten thousand sheep; and a great number of priests made themselves holy.
For Hezekiah king of Judah did give to the assembly for offerings one thousand bulls and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the assembly a thousand bulls and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.
For Hezekiah king of Judah gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and seven thousand sheep; and the princes gave to the congregation a thousand bullocks and ten thousand sheep: and a great number of priests sanctified themselves.
- 25 And all the people of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and those who had come from Israel, and men from other lands who had come from Israel or who were living in Judah, were glad with great joy.
All the assembly of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the assembly who came out of Israel, and the sojourners who came out of the land of Israel, and who lived in Judah, rejoiced.
And all the congregation of Judah, with the priests and the Levites, and all the congregation that came out of Israel, and the strangers that came from the land of Israel, and that dwelt in Judah, rejoiced.

- 26 So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for nothing like this had been seen in Jerusalem from the time of Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel.
So there was great joy in Jerusalem; for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.
So there was great joy in Jerusalem: for since the time of Solomon the son of David king of Israel there was not the like in Jerusalem.
- 27 Then the priests and the Levites gave the people a blessing: and the voice of their prayer went up to the holy place of God in heaven.
Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer came up to his holy habitation, even to heaven.
Then the priests the Levites arose and blessed the people: and their voice was heard, and their prayer ascended to his holy dwelling-place, even to heaven.
- 1 Now when all this was over, all the men of Israel who were present went out into the towns of Judah, causing the stone pillars to be broken up and the wood pillars to be cut down, pulling down the high places and the altars in all Judah and Benjamin, as well as in Ephraim and Manasseh, till all were gone. Then all the children of Israel went back to their towns, every man to his property.
Now when all this was finished, all Israel who were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke in pieces the pillars, and hewed down the Asherim, and broke down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned, every man to his possession, into their own cities.
Now when all this was finished, all Israel that were present went out to the cities of Judah, and broke the images in pieces, and cut down the groves, and threw down the high places and the altars out of all Judah and Benjamin, in Ephraim also and Manasseh, until they had utterly destroyed them all. Then all the children of Israel returned every man to his possession into their own cities.
- 2 Then Hezekiah put in order the divisions of the priests and Levites, every man in his division, in relation to his work, for the burned offerings and peace-offerings, and for the ordering of worship and for giving praise at the doors of the Lord's house.
Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, both the priests and the Levites, for burnt offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the camp of Yahweh.
And Hezekiah appointed the courses of the priests and the Levites after their courses, every man according to his service, the priests and Levites for burnt-offerings and for peace-offerings, to minister, and to give thanks, and to praise in the gates of the tents of the LORD.

3 And he gave the king's part of his private property for the burned offerings, that is, for the morning and evening offerings, and the offerings for the Sabbath and the new moons and the regular feasts, as it is recorded in the law of the Lord.
[He appointed] also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, [to wit], for the morning and evening burnt offerings, and the burnt offerings for the Sabbaths, and for the new moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of Yahweh.

He appointed also the king's portion of his substance for the burnt-offerings, to wit, for the morning and evening burnt-offerings, and the burnt-offerings for the sabbaths, and for the new-moons, and for the set feasts, as it is written in the law of the LORD.

4 In addition, he gave orders to the people of Jerusalem to give to the priests and Levites that part which was theirs by right, so that they might be strong in keeping the law of the Lord.
Moreover he commanded the people who lived in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might give themselves to the law of Yahweh.

Moreover, he commanded the people that dwelt in Jerusalem to give the portion of the priests and the Levites, that they might be encouraged in the law of the LORD.

5 And when the order was made public, straight away the children of Israel gave, in great amounts, the first-fruits of their grain and wine and oil and honey, and of the produce of their fields; and they took in a tenth part of everything, a great store.
As soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel gave in abundance the first-fruits of grain, new wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things brought they in abundantly.

And as soon as the commandment came abroad, the children of Israel brought in abundance the first-fruits of corn, wine, and oil, and honey, and of all the increase of the field; and the tithe of all things they brought in abundantly.

6 And the children of Israel and Judah, who were living in the towns of Judah came with the tenth part of their oxen and sheep, and a tenth of all the holy things which were to be given to the Lord their God, and put them in great masses.

The children of Israel and Judah, who lived in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of dedicated things which were consecrated to Yahweh their God, and laid them by heaps.

And the children of Israel and Judah, that dwelt in the cities of Judah, they also brought in the tithe of oxen and sheep, and the tithe of holy things which were consecrated to the LORD their God, and laid them by heaps.

7 The first store of things was put down in the third month, and in the seventh month the masses were complete.

In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

In the third month they began to lay the foundation of the heaps, and finished them in the seventh month.

- 8 And when Hezekiah and the rulers came and saw all the store of goods, they gave praise to the Lord and to his people Israel.
When Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed Yahweh, and his people Israel.
And when Hezekiah and the princes came and saw the heaps, they blessed the LORD, and his people Israel.
- 9 Then Hezekiah put questions to the priests and Levites about the store of goods.
Then Hezekiah questioned the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
Then Hezekiah questioned with the priests and the Levites concerning the heaps.
- 10 And Azariah, the chief priest, of the family of Zadok, said in answer, From the time when the people first came with their offerings into the house of the Lord, we have had food enough, and more than enough: for the blessing of the Lord is on his people; and there is this great store which has not been used.
Azariah the chief priest, of the house of Zadok, answered him and said, Since [the people] began to bring the offerings into the house of Yahweh, we have eaten and had enough, and have left plenty: for Yahweh has blessed his people; and that which is left is this great store.
And Azariah the chief priest of the house of Zadok answered him, and said, Since the people began to bring the offerings into the house of the LORD, we have had enough to eat, and have left plenty: for the LORD hath blessed his people; and that which is left is this great abundance.
- 11 Then Hezekiah said that store-rooms were to be made ready in the house of the Lord; and this was done.
Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of Yahweh; and they prepared them.
Then Hezekiah commanded to prepare chambers in the house of the LORD; and they prepared them,
- 12 And in them they put all the offerings and the tenths and the holy things, keeping nothing back, and over them was Conaniah the Levite, with Shimei his brother second to him.
They brought in the offerings and the tithes and the dedicated things faithfully: and over them Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was second.
And brought in the offerings and the tithes, and the dedicated things faithfully: over which Conaniah the Levite was ruler, and Shimei his brother was the next.

- 13 And Jehiel and Azaziah and Nahath and Asahel and Jerimoth and Jozabad and Eliel and Ismachiah and Mahath and Benaiah were overseers, under the directions of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the order of Hezekiah the king and Azariah, the ruler of the house of God.
Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, by the appointment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.
And Jehiel, and Azaziah, and Nahath, and Asahel, and Jerimoth, and Jozabad, and Eliel, and Ismachiah, and Mahath, and Benaiah, were overseers under the hand of Conaniah and Shimei his brother, at the commandment of Hezekiah the king, and Azariah the ruler of the house of God.
- 14 And Kore, the son of Imnah the Levite, the keeper of the east door, had control of the offerings freely given to God, and the distribution of the offerings of the Lord and the most holy things. Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter at the east [gate], was over the freewill-offerings of God, to distribute the offerings of Yahweh, and the most holy things.
And Kore the son of Imnah the Levite, the porter towards the east, was over the free-will-offerings of God, to distribute the oblations of the LORD, and the most holy things.
- 15 And under him were Eden and Miniamin and Jeshua and Shemaiah and Amariah and Shecaniah, in the towns of the priests, who were made responsible for giving it to all their brothers, by divisions, to small and great:
Under him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their office of trust, to give to their brothers by courses, as well to the great as to the small:
And next him were Eden, and Miniamin, and Jeshua, and Shemaiah, Amariah, and Shecaniah, in the cities of the priests, in their set office, to give to their brethren by courses, as well to the great as to the small:
- 16 As well as to all the males, of three years old and over, listed by their families, who went into the house of the Lord to do what was needed day by day, for their special work with their divisions.
besides those who were reckoned by genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even everyone who entered into the house of Yahweh, as the duty of every day required, for their service in their offices according to their courses;
Besides their genealogy of males, from three years old and upward, even to every one that entereth into the house of the LORD, his daily portion for their service in their charges according to their courses;
- 17 And the families of the priests were listed by their fathers' names, but the Levites, of twenty years old and over, were listed in relation to their work in their divisions;
and those who were reckoned by genealogy of the priests by their fathers' houses, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their offices by their courses;
Both to the genealogy of the priests by the house of their fathers, and the Levites from twenty years old and upward, in their charges, by their courses;

- 18 And in the lists were all their little ones and their wives and their sons and daughters, through all the people: they made themselves holy in the positions which they were given.
and those who were reckoned by genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their office of trust they sanctified themselves in holiness.
And to the genealogy of all their little ones, their wives, and their sons, and their daughters, through all the congregation: for in their set office they sanctified themselves in holiness:
- 19 And as for the sons of Aaron, the priests, living in the country on the outskirts of their towns, every different town there were men, marked out by name, to give their part of the goods to all the males among the priests, and to all who were listed among the Levites.
Also for the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every city, there were men who were mentioned by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all who were reckoned by genealogy among the Levites.
Also of the sons of Aaron the priests, who were in the fields of the suburbs of their cities, in every several city, the men that were expressed by name, to give portions to all the males among the priests, and to all that were reckoned by genealogies among the Levites.
- 20 This Hezekiah did through all Judah; he did what was good and right and true before the Lord his God.
Thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah; and he worked that which was good and right and faithful before Yahweh his God.
And thus did Hezekiah throughout all Judah, and performed that which was good and right and truth before the LORD his God.
- 21 And for everything he undertook, in connection with the work of the house of God and his law and orders, he got directions from God and did it with serious purpose; and things went well for him.
In every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.
And in every work that he began in the service of the house of God, and in the law, and in the commandments, to seek his God, he did it with all his heart, and prospered.
- 1 Now after these things and this true-hearted work, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, came into Judah, and put his army in position before the walled towns of Judah, designing to make his way into them by force.
After these things, and this faithfulness, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself.
After these things, and their establishment, Sennacherib king of Assyria came, and entered into Judah, and encamped against the fortified cities, and thought to win them for himself.

- 2 And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come for the purpose of fighting against Jerusalem,
When Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib was come, and that he was purposed to fight against Jerusalem,
And when Hezekiah saw that Sennacherib had come, and that he purposed to fight against Jerusalem,
- 3 He took up with his rulers and men of war the question of stopping up the water-springs outside the town; and they gave him their support.
he took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the springs which were outside of the city; and they helped him.
He took counsel with his princes and his mighty men to stop the waters of the fountains which were without the city: and they helped him.
- 4 So they got together a great number of people, and had all the water-springs and the stream flowing through the land stopped up, saying, Why let the kings of Assyria come and have much water?
So there was gathered much people together, and they stopped all the springs, and the brook that flowed through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?
So there were assembled many people, who stopped all the fountains, and the brook that ran through the midst of the land, saying, Why should the kings of Assyria come, and find much water?
- 5 Then he took heart, building up the wall where it was broken down, and making its towers higher, and building another wall outside; and he made strong the Millo in the town of David, and got together a great store of all sorts of instruments of war.
He took courage, and built up all the wall that was broken down, and raised [it] up to the towers, and the other wall outside, and strengthened Millo [in] the city of David, and made weapons and shields in abundance.
Also he strengthened himself, and built up all the wall that was broken, and raised it up to the towers, and another wall without, and repaired Millo in the city of David, and made darts and shields in abundance.
- 6 And he put war chiefs over the people, and sent for them all to come together to him in the wide place at the doorway into the town, and to give them heart he said to them,
He set captains of war over the people, and gathered them together to him in the broad place at the gate of the city, and spoke comfortably to them, saying,
And he set captains of war over the people, and assembled them to him in the street of the gate of the city, and encouraged them, saying,

7 Be strong and take heart; have no fear, and do not be troubled on account of the king of Assyria and all the great army with him: for there is a greater with us.
Be strong and of good courage, don't be afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude who is with him; for there is a greater with us than with him:

Be strong and courageous, be not afraid nor dismayed for the king of Assyria, nor for all the multitude that is with him: for there are more with us than with him:

8 With him is an arm of flesh; but we have the Lord our God, helping us and fighting for us. And the people put their faith in what Hezekiah, king of Judah, said.
with him is an arm of flesh; but with us is Yahweh our God to help us, and to fight our battles. The people rested themselves on the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

With him is an arm of flesh; but with us is the LORD our God to help us, and to fight our battles. And the people rested themselves upon the words of Hezekiah king of Judah.

9 After this, Sennacherib, king of Assyria, sent his servants to Jerusalem (at that time he was stationed with all his army in front of Lachish), to say to Hezekiah and all the men of Judah in Jerusalem,

After this did Sennacherib king of Assyria send his servants to Jerusalem, (now he was before Lachish, and all his power with him,) to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah who were at Jerusalem, saying,

After this Sennacherib king of Assyria sent his servants to Jerusalem, (but he himself laid siege against Lachish, and all his power with him,) to Hezekiah king of Judah, and to all Judah that were at Jerusalem, saying,

10 Sennacherib, king of Assyria, says, In what are you placing your hope, waiting here in the walled town of Jerusalem?

Thus says Sennacherib king of Assyria, Whereon do you trust, that you abide the siege in Jerusalem?

Thus saith Sennacherib king of Assyria, On what do ye trust, that ye abide in the siege in Jerusalem?

11 Is it not Hezekiah who has got you to do it, causing your death from need of food and water, by saying, The Lord our God will give us salvation out of the hands of the king of Assyria?

Does not Hezekiah persuade you, to give you over to die by famine and by thirst, saying, Yahweh our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

Doth not Hezekiah persuade you to give over yourselves to die by famine and by thirst, saying, The LORD our God will deliver us out of the hand of the king of Assyria?

- 12 Has not this same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, saying to Judah and Jerusalem, Give worship before one altar only, burning offerings on it?
Has not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, You shall worship before one altar, and on it shall you burn incense?
Hath not the same Hezekiah taken away his high places and his altars, and commanded Judah and Jerusalem, saying, Ye shall worship before one altar, and burn incense upon it?
- 13 Have you no knowledge of what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of every land? were the gods of the nations of those lands able to keep their land from falling into my hands?
Don't you know what I and my fathers have done to all the peoples of the lands? Were the gods of the nations of the lands in any wise able to deliver their land out of my hand?
Know ye not what I and my fathers have done to all the people of other lands? were the gods of the nations of those lands any ways able to deliver their lands out of my hand?
- 14 Who was there among all the gods of those nations, which my fathers put to destruction, who was able to keep his people safe from my hands? and is it possible that your God will keep you safe from my hands?
Who was there among all the gods of those nations which my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?
Who was there among all the gods of those nations that my fathers utterly destroyed, that could deliver his people out of my hand, that your God should be able to deliver you out of my hand?
- 15 So do not be tricked by Hezekiah or let him get you to do this, and do not put any faith in what he says: for no god of any nation or kingdom has been able to keep his people safe from my hands, or the hands of my fathers: how much less will your God keep you safe from my hands!
Now therefore don't let Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you after this manner, neither believe you him; for no god of any nation or kingdom was able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?
Now therefore let not Hezekiah deceive you, nor persuade you in this manner, neither yet believe him: for no god of any nation or kingdom hath been able to deliver his people out of my hand, and out of the hand of my fathers: how much less shall your God deliver you out of my hand?
- 16 And his servants said even more against the Lord God and against his servant Hezekiah.
His servants spoke yet more against Yahweh God, and against his servant Hezekiah.
And his servants spoke yet more against the LORD God, and against his servant Hezekiah.

- 17 And he sent letters, in addition, to put shame on the Lord, the God of Israel, and to say evil against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not been able to keep their people safe from my hands, no more will the God of Hezekiah keep his people safe from my hands.
He wrote also letters, to rail on Yahweh, the God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of the lands, which have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall the God of Hezekiah not deliver his people out of my hand.
He wrote also letters to rail at the LORD God of Israel, and to speak against him, saying, As the gods of the nations of other lands have not delivered their people out of my hand, so shall not the God of Hezekiah deliver his people out of my hand.
- 18 These things they said, crying out with a loud voice in the Jews' language, to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, with the purpose of troubling them and putting fear into them, so that they might take the town;
They cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language to the people of Jerusalem who were on the wall, to frighten them, and to trouble them; that they might take the city.
Then they cried with a loud voice in the Jews' speech to the people of Jerusalem that were on the wall, to affright them, and to fill them with consternation; that they might take the city.
- 19 Talking of the God of Jerusalem as if he was like the gods of the peoples of the earth, the work of men's hands.
They spoke of the God of Jerusalem, as of the gods of the peoples of the earth, which are the work of men's hands.
And they spoke against the God of Jerusalem, as against the gods of the people of the earth, the work of the hands of man.
- 20 And Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, made prayer because of this, crying out to heaven.
Hezekiah the king, and Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, prayed because of this, and cried to heaven.
And for this cause Hezekiah the king, and the prophet Isaiah the son of Amoz, prayed and cried to heaven.
- 21 And the Lord sent an angel who put to death all the men of war and the chiefs and the captains in the army of the king of Assyria. So he went back to his country in shame. And when he came into the house of his god, his sons, the offspring of his body, put him to death there with the sword.
Yahweh sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains, in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. When he was come into the house of his god, those who came forth from his own bowels killed him there with the sword.
And the LORD sent an angel, who cut off all the mighty men of valor, and the leaders and captains in the camp of the king of Assyria. So he returned with shame of face to his own land. And when he had come into the house of his god, they that came forth from his own bowels slew him there with the sword.

- 22 So the Lord gave Hezekiah and the people of Jerusalem salvation from the power of Sennacherib, the king of Assyria, and from all others, giving them rest on every side.
Thus Yahweh saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all [others], and guided them on every side.
Thus the LORD saved Hezekiah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem from the hand of Sennacherib the king of Assyria, and from the hand of all others, and guided them on every side.
- 23 And great numbers came to Jerusalem with offerings for the Lord, and things of great price for Hezekiah, king of Judah: so that he was honoured among all nations from that time.
Many brought gifts to Yahweh to Jerusalem, and precious things to Hezekiah king of Judah; so that he was exalted in the sight of all nations from thenceforth.
And many brought gifts to the LORD to Jerusalem, and presents to Hezekiah king of Judah: so that from thenceforth he was magnified in the sight of all nations.
- 24 In those days Hezekiah was ill and near death; and he made prayer to the Lord, and the Lord in answer gave him a sign.
In those days Hezekiah was sick even to death: and he prayed to Yahweh; and he spoke to him, and gave him a sign.
In those days Hezekiah was sick and near to death, and he prayed to the LORD: and he spoke to him, and he gave him a sign.
- 25 But Hezekiah did not do as had been done to him; for his heart was lifted up in pride; and so wrath came on him and on Judah and Jerusalem.
But Hezekiah didn't render again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath on him, and on Judah and Jerusalem.
But Hezekiah rendered not again according to the benefit done to him; for his heart was lifted up: therefore there was wrath upon him, and upon Judah and Jerusalem.
- 26 But then, Hezekiah, in sorrow for what he had done, put away his pride; and he and all Jerusalem made themselves low, so that the wrath of the Lord did not come on them in Hezekiah's life-time.
Notwithstanding Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of Yahweh didn't come on them in the days of Hezekiah.
Notwithstanding, Hezekiah humbled himself for the pride of his heart, both he and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that the wrath of the LORD came not upon them in the days of Hezekiah.

- 27 And Hezekiah had very great wealth and honour; and he made himself store-houses for his gold and silver and jewels and spices, and for body-covers and all sorts of beautiful vessels.
Hezekiah had exceeding much riches and honor: and he provided him treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of goodly vessels;
And Hezekiah had very great riches and honor: and he made himself treasuries for silver, and for gold, and for precious stones, and for spices, and for shields, and for all manner of pleasant jewels:
- 28 And store-houses for the produce of grain and wine and oil; and buildings for all sorts of beasts and flocks.
store-houses also for the increase of grain and new wine and oil; and stalls for all manner of animals, and flocks in folds.
Store-houses also for the increase of corn, and wine, and oil; and stalls for all manner of beasts, and cotes for flocks.
- 29 And he made towns for himself, and got together much property in flocks and herds: for God had given him great wealth.
Moreover he provided him cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance; for God had given him very much substance.
Moreover, he provided for himself cities, and possessions of flocks and herds in abundance: for God had given him substance in great abundance.
- 30 It was Hezekiah who had the higher spring of the water of Gihon stopped, and the water taken down on the west side of the town of David. In everything he undertook, Hezekiah did well.
This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper spring of the waters of Gihon, and brought them straight down on the west side of the city of David. Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
This same Hezekiah also stopped the upper watercourse of Gihon, and brought it straight down to the west side of the city of David. And Hezekiah prospered in all his works.
- 31 However, in the business of the representatives sent by the rulers of Babylon to get news of the wonder which had taken place in the land, God gave up guiding him, testing him to see what was in his heart.
However in [the business of] the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.
But, in the business of the ambassadors of the princes of Babylon, who sent to him to inquire of the wonder that was done in the land, God left him, to try him, that he might know all that was in his heart.

32 Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and the good he did, are recorded in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.
Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his good deeds, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz, in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

Now the rest of the acts of Hezekiah, and his goodness, behold, they are written in the vision of Isaiah the prophet, the son of Amoz, and in the book of the kings of Judah and Israel.

33 So Hezekiah went to rest with his fathers, and they put his body into the higher part of the resting-places of the sons of David: and all Judah and the people of Jerusalem gave him honour at his death. And Manasseh his son became king in his place.

Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the ascent of the tombs of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death. Manasseh his son reigned in his place.

And Hezekiah slept with his fathers, and they buried him in the chief of the sepulchers of the sons of David: and all Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem did him honor at his death: and Manasseh his son reigned in his stead.

1 Manasseh was twelve years old when he became king, and he was ruling for fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign; and he reigned fifty-five years in Jerusalem.

Manasseh was twelve years old when he began to reign, and he reigned fifty and five years in Jerusalem:

2 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, copying the disgusting ways of the nations whom the Lord had sent out of the land before the children of Israel.

He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, after the abominations of the nations whom Yahweh cast out before the children of Israel.

But did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, like the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD had cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he put up again the high places which had been pulled down by his father Hezekiah; and he made altars for the Baals, and pillars of wood, and was a worshipper and servant of all the stars of heaven;

For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for the Baals, and made Asheroth, and worshipped all the host of the sky, and served them.

For he built again the high places which Hezekiah his father had broken down; and he reared up altars for Baalim, and made groves, and worshipped all the host of heaven, and served them.

- 4 And he made altars in the house of the Lord, of which the Lord had said, In Jerusalem will my name be for ever.
He built altars in the house of Yahweh, whereof Yahweh said, In Jerusalem shall my name be forever.
Also he built altars in the house of the LORD, of which the LORD had said, In Jerusalem shall my name be for ever.
- 5 And he made altars for all the stars of heaven in the two outer squares of the house of the Lord.
He built altars for all the host of the sky in the two courts of the house of Yahweh.
And he built altars for all the host of heaven in the two courts of the house of the LORD.
- 6 More than this, he made his children go through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he made use of secret arts, and signs for reading the future, and unnatural powers, and gave positions to those who had control of spirits and to wonder-workers: he did much evil in the eyes of the Lord, moving him to wrath.
He also made his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom; and he practiced sorcery, and used enchantments, and practiced sorcery, and dealt with those who had familiar spirits, and with wizards: he worked much evil in the sight of Yahweh, to provoke him to anger.
And he caused his children to pass through the fire in the valley of the son of Hinnom: also he observed times, and used enchantments, and used witchcraft, and dealt with a familiar spirit, and with wizards: he wrought much evil in the sight of the LORD, to provoke him to anger.
- 7 And he put the image he had made in the house of God, the house of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, the town which I have made mine out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:
He set the engraved image of the idol, which he had made, in the house of God, of which God said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen out of all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name forever:
And he set a carved image, the idol which he had made, in the house of God, of which God had said to David and to Solomon his son, In this house, and in Jerusalem, which I have chosen before all the tribes of Israel, will I put my name for ever:
- 8 And never again will I let the feet of Israel be moved out of the land which I have given to their fathers; if only they will take care to do all my orders, even all the law and the orders and the rules given to them by Moses.
neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from off the land which I have appointed for your fathers, if only they will observe to do all that I have commanded them, even all the law and the statutes and the ordinances [given] by Moses.
Neither will I any more remove the foot of Israel from the land which I have appointed for your fathers; provided they will take heed to do all that I have commanded them, according to the whole law and the statutes and the ordinances by the hand of Moses.

9 And Manasseh made Judah and the people of Jerusalem go out of the true way, so that they did more evil than those nations whom the Lord gave up to destruction before the children of Israel.

Manasseh seduced Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so that they did evil more than did the nations whom Yahweh destroyed before the children of Israel.

So Manasseh made Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem to err, and to do worse than the heathen, whom the LORD had destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the word of the Lord came to Manasseh and his people, but they gave no attention.

Yahweh spoke to Manasseh, and to his people; but they gave no heed.

And the LORD spoke to Manasseh, and to his people: but they would not hearken.

11 So the Lord sent against them the captains of the army of Assyria, who made Manasseh a prisoner and took him away in chains to Babylon.

Therefore Yahweh brought on them the captains of the host of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh in chains, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

Wherefore the LORD brought upon them the captains of the army of the king of Assyria, who took Manasseh among the thorns, and bound him with fetters, and carried him to Babylon.

12 And crying out to the Lord his God in his trouble, he made himself low before the God of his fathers,

When he was in distress, he begged Yahweh his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers.

And when he was in affliction, he besought the LORD his God, and humbled himself greatly before the God of his fathers, 13 And made prayer to him; and in answer to his prayer God let him come back to Jerusalem and to his kingdom. Then Manasseh was certain that the Lord was God.

He prayed to him; and he was entreated of him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that Yahweh he was God.

And prayed to him: and he was entreated by him, and heard his supplication, and brought him again to Jerusalem into his kingdom. Then Manasseh knew that the LORD he is God.

- 14 After this he made an outer wall for the town of David, on the west side of Gihon in the valley, as far as the way into the town by the fish doorway; and he put a very high wall round the Ophel; and he put captains of the army in all the walled towns of Judah.
Now after this he built an outer wall to the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish gate; and he compassed Ophel about [with it], and raised it up to a very great height: and he put valiant captains in all the fortified cities of Judah.
Now after this, he built a wall without the city of David, on the west side of Gihon, in the valley, even to the entrance at the fish-gate, and compassed about Ophel, and raised it up a very great highth, and put captains of war in all the fortified cities of Judah.
- 15 He took away the strange gods and the image out of the house of the Lord, and all the altars he had put up on the hill of the Lord's house and in Jerusalem, and put them out of the town. He took away the foreign gods, and the idol out of the house of Yahweh, and all the altars that he had built in the mountain of the house of Yahweh, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.
And he took away the strange gods, and the idol out of the house of the LORD, and all the altars that he had built in the mount of the house of the LORD, and in Jerusalem, and cast them out of the city.
- 16 And he put the altar of the Lord in order, offering peace-offerings and praise-offerings on it, and said that all Judah were to be servants of the Lord, the God of Israel. He built up the altar of Yahweh, and offered thereon sacrifices of peace-offerings and of thanksgiving, and commanded Judah to serve Yahweh, the God of Israel.
And he repaired the altar of the LORD, and sacrificed on it peace-offerings and thank-offerings, and commanded Judah to serve the LORD God of Israel.
- 17 However, the people still made offerings in the high places, but only to the Lord their God.
Nevertheless the people sacrificed still in the high places, but only to Yahweh their God.
Nevertheless, the people sacrificed still in the high places, yet to the LORD their God only.
- 18 Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words which the seers said to him in the name of the Lord, the God of Israel, are recorded among the acts of the kings of Israel.
Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers who spoke to him in the name of Yahweh, the God of Israel, behold, they are written among the acts of the kings of Israel.
Now the rest of the acts of Manasseh, and his prayer to his God, and the words of the seers that spoke to him in the name of the LORD God of Israel, behold, they are written in the book of the kings of Israel.

- 19 And the prayer which he made to God, and how God gave him an answer, and all his sin and his wrongdoing, and the places where he made high places and put up pillars of wood and images, before he put away his pride, are recorded in the history of the seers.
His prayer also, and how [God] was entreated of him, and all his sin and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up the Asherim and the engraved images, before he humbled himself: behold, they are written in the history of Hozai.
His prayer also, and how God was entreated by him, and all his sin, and his trespass, and the places in which he built high places, and set up groves and graven images, before he was humbled: behold, they are written among the sayings of the seers.
- 20 So Manasseh went to rest with his fathers, and they put his body to rest in his house, and Amon his son became king in his place.
So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his place.
So Manasseh slept with his fathers, and they buried him in his own house: and Amon his son reigned in his stead.
- 21 Amon was twenty-two years old when he became king; and he was ruling for two years in Jerusalem.
Amon was twenty-two years old when he began to reign; and he reigned two years in Jerusalem.
Amon was two and twenty years old when he began to reign, and reigned two years in Jerusalem.
- 22 He did evil in the eyes of the Lord, as Manasseh his father had done; and Amon made offerings to all the images which his father Manasseh had made, and was their servant.
He did that which was evil in the sight of Yahweh, as did Manasseh his father; and Amon sacrificed to all the engraved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them.
But he did that which was evil in the sight of the LORD, as did Manasseh his father: for Amon sacrificed to all the carved images which Manasseh his father had made, and served them;
- 23 He did not make himself low before the Lord, as his father Manasseh had done, but went on sinning more and more.
He didn't humble himself before Yahweh, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but this same Amon trespassed more and more.
And humbled not himself before the LORD, as Manasseh his father had humbled himself; but Amon trespassed more and more.
- 24 And his servants made a secret design against him, and put him to death in his house.
His servants conspired against him, and put him to death in his own house.
And his servants conspired against him, and slew him in his own house.

25 But the people of the land put to death all those who had taken part in the design against King Amon, and made his son Josiah king in his place.

But the people of the land killed all those who had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his place.

But the people of the land slew all them that had conspired against king Amon; and the people of the land made Josiah his son king in his stead.

1 Josiah was eight years old when he became king; he was ruling in Jerusalem for thirty-one years.

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign; and he reigned thirty-one years in Jerusalem.

Josiah was eight years old when he began to reign, and he reigned in Jerusalem one and thirty years.

2 And he did what was right in the eyes of the Lord, walking in the ways of his father David, without turning to the right hand or to the left.

He did that which was right in the eyes of Yahweh, and walked in the ways of David his father, and didn't turn aside to the right hand or to the left.

And he did that which was right in the sight of the LORD, and walked in the ways of David his father, and declined neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

3 In the eighth year of his rule, while he was still young, his heart was first turned to the God of his father David; and in the twelfth year he undertook the clearing away of all the high places and the pillars and the images of wood and metal from Judah and Jerusalem.

For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father; and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images.

For in the eighth year of his reign, while he was yet young, he began to seek after the God of David his father: and in the twelfth year he began to purge Judah and Jerusalem from the high places, and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images.

4 He had the altars of the Baals broken down, while he himself was present; and the sun-images which were placed on high over them he had cut down; and the pillars of wood and the metal images he had broken up and crushed to dust, dropping the dust over the resting-places of the dead who had made offerings to them.

They broke down the altars of the Baals in his presence; and the sun-images that were on high above them he hewed down; and the Asherim, and the engraved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them, and strewed it on the graves [of those] who had sacrificed to them.

And they broke down the altars of Baalim in his presence; and the images, that were on high above them, he cut down; and the groves, and the carved images, and the molten images, he broke in pieces, and made dust of them and strewed it upon the graves of them that had sacrificed to them.

- 5 And he had the bones of the priests burned on their altars, and so he made Judah and Jerusalem clean.
He burnt the bones of the priests on their altars, and purged Judah and Jerusalem.
And he burnt the bones of the priests upon their altars, and cleansed Judah and Jerusalem.
- 6 And in all the towns of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon as far as Naphtali, he made waste their houses round about.
[So did he] in the cities of Manasseh and Ephraim and Simeon, even to Naphtali, in their ruins round about.
And so did he in the cities of Manasseh, and Ephraim, and Simeon, even to Naphtali, with their mattocks around.
- 7 He had the altars and the pillars of wood pulled down and the images crushed to dust, and all the sun-images cut down, through all the land of Israel, and then he went back to Jerusalem.
He broke down the altars, and beat the Asherim and the engraved images into powder, and hewed down all the sun-images throughout all the land of Israel, and returned to Jerusalem.
And when he had broken down the altars and the groves, and had beaten the graven images into powder, and cut down all the idols throughout all the land of Israel, he returned to Jerusalem.
- 8 Now in the eighteenth year of his rule, when the land and the house had been made clean, he sent Shaphan, the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah, the ruler of the town, and Joah, the son of Joahaz, the recorder, to make good what was damaged in the house of the Lord his God.
Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of Yahweh his God.
Now in the eighteenth year of his reign, when he had purged the land, and the house, he sent Shaphan the son of Azaliah, and Maaseiah the governor of the city, and Joah the son of Joahaz the recorder, to repair the house of the LORD his God.
- 9 And they came to Hilkiah, the chief priest, and gave him all the money which had been taken into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the door, had got from Manasseh and Ephraim and those of Israel who had not been taken away as prisoners, and from all Judah and Benjamin and the people of Jerusalem.
They came to Hilkiah the high priest, and delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites, the keepers of the threshold, had gathered of the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and of all the remnant of Israel, and of all Judah and Benjamin, and of the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And when they came to Hilkiah the high priest, they delivered the money that was brought into the house of God, which the Levites that kept the doors had collected from the hand of Manasseh and Ephraim, and from all the remnant of Israel, and from all Judah and Benjamin; and they returned to Jerusalem.

10 And they gave it to the overseers of the work of the Lord's house, and the overseers gave it to the workmen working in the house, for building it up and making good what was damaged; They delivered it into the hand of the workmen who had the oversight of the house of Yahweh; and the workmen who labored in the house of Yahweh gave it to mend and repair the house;
And they put it in the hand of the workmen that had the oversight of the house of the LORD, and they gave it to the workmen that wrought in the house of the LORD, to repair and mend the house:

11 Even to the woodworkers and builders to get cut stone and wood for joining the structure together and for making boards for the houses which the kings of Judah had given up to destruction.
even to the carpenters and to the builders gave they it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to make beams for the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.
Even to the artificers and builders they gave it, to buy hewn stone, and timber for couplings, and to floor the houses which the kings of Judah had destroyed.

12 And the men did the work well; and those who had authority over them were Jahath and Obadiah, Levites of the sons of Merari, and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, who were to be responsible for seeing that the work was done; and others of the Levites, who were expert with instruments of music,
The men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to set it forward; and [others of] the Levites, all who were skillful with instruments of music.
And the men did the work faithfully: and the overseers of them were Jahath and Obadiah, the Levites, of the sons of Merari; and Zechariah and Meshullam, of the sons of the Kohathites, to superintend it; and others of the Levites, all that had skill in instruments of music.

13 Had authority over the transport workers, giving directions to all who were doing any sort of work; and among the Levites there were scribes and overseers and door-keepers.
Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and set forward all who did the work in every manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.
Also they were over the bearers of burdens, and were overseers of all that wrought the work in any manner of service: and of the Levites there were scribes, and officers, and porters.

14 Now when they were taking out the money which had come into the Lord's house, Hilkiyah the priest came across the book of the law of the Lord, which he had given by the mouth of Moses.
When they brought out the money that was brought into the house of Yahweh, Hilkiyah the priest found the book of the law of Yahweh [given] by Moses.
And when they brought out the money that was brought into the house of the LORD, Hilkiyah the priest found the book of the law of the LORD given by Moses.

- 15 Then Hilkiyah said to Shaphan the scribe, I have made discovery of the book of the law in the house of the Lord. And Hilkiyah gave the book to Shaphan.
Hilkiyah answered Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of Yahweh. Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan.
And Hilkiyah answered and said to Shaphan the scribe, I have found the book of the law in the house of the LORD. And Hilkiyah delivered the book to Shaphan.
- 16 And Shaphan took the book to the king; and he gave him an account of what had been done, saying, Your servants are doing all they have been given to do;
Shaphan carried the book to the king, and moreover brought back word to the king, saying, All that was committed to your servants, they are doing.
And Shaphan carried the book to the king, and brought the king word back again, saying, All that was committed to thy servants, they perform.
- 17 They have taken out all the money which was in the Lord's house and have given it to the overseers and to the workmen.
They have emptied out the money that was found in the house of Yahweh, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and into the hand of the workmen.
And they have collected the money that was found in the house of the LORD, and have delivered it into the hand of the overseers, and to the hand of the workmen.
- 18 Then Shaphan the scribe said to the king, Hilkiyah the priest has given me a book; and he made a start at reading some of it to the king.
Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest has delivered me a book. Shaphan read therein before the king.
Then Shaphan the scribe told the king, saying, Hilkiyah the priest hath given me a book. And Shaphan read it before the king.
- 19 And the king, hearing the words of the law, took his robe in his hands, violently parting it as a sign of his grief.
It happened, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he tore his clothes.
And it came to pass, when the king had heard the words of the law, that he rent his clothes.
- 20 And he gave orders to Hilkiyah and to Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, and Abdon, the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe and Asaiah, the king's servant, saying,
The king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah the king's servant, saying,
And the king commanded Hilkiyah, and Ahikam the son of Shaphan, and Abdon the son of Micah, and Shaphan the scribe, and Asaiah a servant of the king's, saying,

- 21 Go and get directions from the Lord for me and for those who are still in Israel and for Judah, about the words of this book which has come to light; for great is the wrath of the Lord which has been let loose on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the Lord or done what is recorded in this book.
Go you, inquire of Yahweh for me, and for those who are left in Israel and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found; for great is the wrath of Yahweh that is poured out on us, because our fathers have not kept the word of Yahweh, to do according to all that is written in this book.
Go, inquire of the LORD for me, and for them that are left in Israel, and in Judah, concerning the words of the book that is found: for great is the wrath of the LORD that is poured out upon us, because our fathers have not kept the word of the LORD, to do after all that is written in this book.
- 22 So Hilkiyah, and those whom the king sent, went to Huldah the woman prophet, the wife of Shallum, the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, the keeper of the robes (now she was living in Jerusalem, in the second part of the town); and they had talk with her about this thing.
So Hilkiyah, and they whom the king [had commanded], went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tokhath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she lived in Jerusalem in the second quarter;) and they spoke to her to that effect.
And Hilkiyah, and they that the king had appointed, went to Huldah the prophetess, the wife of Shallum the son of Tikvath, the son of Hasrah, keeper of the wardrobe; (now she dwelt in Jerusalem in the college:) and they spoke to her to that effect.
- 23 And she said to them, The Lord, the God of Israel, has said, Say to the man who sent you to me,
She said to them, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: Tell you the man who sent you to me,
And she answered them, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel, Tell ye the man that sent you to me.
- 24 These are the words of the Lord: See, I will send evil on this place and on its people, even all the curses in the book which they have been reading before the king of Judah;
Thus says Yahweh, Behold, I will bring evil on this place, and on the inhabitants of it, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah.
Thus saith the LORD, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, and upon its inhabitants, even all the curses that are written in the book which they have read before the king of Judah:
- 25 Because they have given me up, burning offerings to other gods and moving me to wrath by all the works of their hands; so my wrath is let loose on this place and will not be put out.
Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore is my wrath poured out on this place, and it shall not be quenched.
Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 But to the king of Judah who sent you to get directions from the Lord, say, This is what the Lord, the God of Israel, has said: Because you have given ear to my words,
But to the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of Yahweh, thus shall you tell him, Thus says Yahweh, the God of Israel: As touching the words which you have heard,
And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to inquire of the LORD, so shall ye say to him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard;

27 And your heart was soft, and you made yourself low before God, on hearing his words about this place and its people, and with weeping and signs of grief have made yourself low before me, I have given ear to you, says the Lord God.
because your heart was tender, and you did humble yourself before God, when you heard his words against this place, and against the inhabitants of it, and have humbled yourself before me, and have torn your clothes, and wept before me; I also have heard you, says Yahweh.
Because thy heart was tender, and thou didst humble thyself before God, when thou didst hear his words against this place, and against its inhabitants, and didst humble thyself before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

28 See, I will let you go to your fathers, and be put in your last resting-place in peace, and your eyes will not see all the evil which I will send on this place and on its people. So they took this news back to the king.
Behold, I will gather you to your fathers, and you shall be gathered to your grave in peace, neither shall your eyes see all the evil that I will bring on this place, and on the inhabitants of it. They brought back word to the king.
Behold, I will gather thee to thy fathers, and thou shalt be gathered to thy grave in peace, neither shall thy eyes see all the evil that I will bring upon this place, and upon the inhabitants of the same. So they brought the king word again.

29 Then the king sent and got together all the responsible men of Judah and of Jerusalem.
Then the king sent and gathered together all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.
Then the king sent and convened all the elders of Judah and Jerusalem.

- 30 And the king went up to the house of the Lord, with all the men of Judah and the people of Jerusalem, and the priests and the Levites and all the people, small and great; and they were present at his reading of the book of the law which had come to light in the house of the Lord.
The king went up to the house of Yahweh, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, both great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of Yahweh.
And the king went into the house of the LORD, and all the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the priests, and the Levites, and all the people, great and small: and he read in their ears all the words of the book of the covenant that was found in the house of the LORD.
- 31 Then the king, taking his place by the pillar, made an agreement before the Lord, to go in the way of the Lord, and to keep his orders and his decisions and his rules with all his heart and with all his soul, and to keep the words of the agreement recorded in this book.
The king stood in his place, and made a covenant before Yahweh, to walk after Yahweh, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant that were written in this book.
And the king stood in his place, and made a covenant before the LORD, to walk after the LORD, and to keep his commandments, and his testimonies, and his statutes, with all his heart, and with all his soul, to perform the words of the covenant which are written in this book.
- 32 And he made all the people in Jerusalem and Benjamin give their word to keep it. And the people of Jerusalem kept the agreement of God, the God of their fathers.
He caused all who were found in Jerusalem and Benjamin to stand [to it]. The inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
And he caused all that were present in Jerusalem and Benjamin, to stand to it. And the inhabitants of Jerusalem did according to the covenant of God, the God of their fathers.
- 33 Josiah took away all the disgusting things out of all the lands of the children of Israel, and made all who were in Israel servants of the Lord their God. And as long as he was living they were true to the Lord, the God of their fathers.
Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all who were found in Israel to serve, even to serve Yahweh their God. All his days they didn't depart from following Yahweh, the God of their fathers.
And Josiah took away all the abominations out of all the countries that pertained to the children of Israel, and made all that were present in Israel, to serve, even to serve the LORD their God. And all his days they departed not from following the LORD, the God of their fathers.

- 1 And Josiah kept a Passover to the Lord in Jerusalem; on the fourteenth day of the first month they put the Passover lamb to death.
Josiah kept a Passover to Yahweh in Jerusalem: and they killed the Passover on the fourteenth [day] of the first month.
Moreover, Josiah kept a passover to the LORD in Jerusalem: and they killed the passover on the fourteenth day of the first month.
- 2 And he gave the priests their places, making them strong for the work of the house of God.
He set the priests in their offices, and encouraged them to the service of the house of Yahweh.
And he set the priests in their charges, and encouraged them to the service of the house of the LORD,
- 3 And he said to the Levites, the teachers of all Israel, who were holy to the Lord, See, the holy ark is in the house which Solomon, the son of David, king of Israel, made; it will no longer have to be transported on your backs: now be the servants of the Lord your God and his people Israel,
He said to the Levites who taught all Israel, who were holy to Yahweh, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel did build; there shall no more be a burden on your shoulders: now serve Yahweh your God, and his people Israel.
And said to the Levites that taught all Israel, who were holy to the LORD, Put the holy ark in the house which Solomon the son of David king of Israel built; it shall not be a burden upon your shoulders: serve now the LORD your God, and his people Israel,
- 4 And make yourselves ready in your divisions, by your families, as it is ordered in the writings of David, king of Israel, and of Solomon his son;
Prepare yourselves after your fathers` houses by your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.
And prepare yourselves by the houses of your fathers after your courses, according to the writing of David king of Israel, and according to the writing of Solomon his son.
- 5 And take your positions in the holy place, grouped in the families of your brothers, the children of the people, and for every division let there be a part of a family of the Levites.
Stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the fathers` houses of your brothers the children of the people, and [let there be for each] a portion of a fathers` house of the Levites.
And stand in the holy place according to the divisions of the families of the fathers of your brethren the people, and after the division of the families of the Levites.

- 6 And put the Passover lamb to death, and make yourselves holy, and make it ready for your brothers, so that the orders given by the Lord through Moses may be done.
Kill the Passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare for your brothers, to do according to the word of Yahweh by Moses.
So kill the passover, and sanctify yourselves, and prepare your brethren, that they may do according to the word of the LORD by the hand of Moses.
- 7 And Josiah gave lambs and goats from the flock as Passover offerings for all the people who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand oxen: these were from the king's private property.
Josiah gave to the children of the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all of them for the Passover-offerings, to all who were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bulls: these were of the king's substance.
And Josiah gave to the people, of the flock, lambs and kids, all for the passover-offerings, for all that were present, to the number of thirty thousand, and three thousand bullocks: these were of the king's substance.
- 8 And his captains freely gave an offering to the people, the priests, and the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover offerings two thousand, six hundred small cattle and three hundred oxen.
His princes gave for a freewill- offering to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites. Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, the rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the Passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred [small cattle], and three hundred oxen.
And his princes gave willingly to the people, to the priests, and to the Levites: Hilkiah and Zechariah and Jehiel, rulers of the house of God, gave to the priests for the passover-offerings two thousand and six hundred small cattle, and three hundred oxen.
- 9 And Conaniah and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover offerings five thousand small cattle and five hundred oxen.
Conaniah also, and Shemaiah and Nethanel, his brothers, and Hashabiah and Jeiel and Jozabad, the chiefs of the Levites, gave to the Levites for the Passover-offerings five thousand [small cattle], and five hundred oxen.
Conaniah also, and Shemaiah, and Nethaneel, his brethren, and Hashabiah and Jehiel and Jozabad, chief of the Levites, gave to the Levites for passover-offerings five thousand small cattle, and five hundred oxen.
- 10 So everything was made ready and the priests took their places with the Levites in their divisions, as the king had said.
So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites by their courses, according to the king's commandment.
So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the king's commandment.

- 11 And they put the Passover lambs to death, the blood being drained out by the priests when it was given to them, and the Levites did the skinning.
They killed the Passover, and the priests sprinkled [the blood which they received] of their hand, and the Levites flayed them.
And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites flayed them.
- 12 And they took away the burned offerings, so that they might give them to be offered to the Lord for the divisions of the families of the people, as it is recorded in the book of Moses. And they did the same with the oxen.
They removed the burnt offerings, that they might give them according to the divisions of the fathers' houses of the children of the people, to offer to Yahweh, as it is written in the book of Moses. So did they with the oxen.
And they removed the burnt-offerings, that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer to the LORD, as it is written in the book of Moses. And so did they with the oxen.
- 13 And the Passover lamb was cooked over the fire, as it says in the law; and the holy offerings were cooked in pots and basins and vessels, and taken quickly to all the people.
They roasted the Passover with fire according to the ordinance: and the holy offerings boiled they in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and carried them quickly to all the children of the people.
And they roasted the passover with fire according to the ordinance: but the other holy offerings they boiled in pots, and in caldrons, and in pans, and divided them speedily among all the people.
- 14 And after that, they made ready for themselves and for the priests; for the priests, the sons of Aaron, were offering the burned offerings and the fat till night; so the Levites made ready what was needed for themselves and for the priests, the sons of Aaron.
Afterward they prepared for themselves, and for the priests, because the priests the sons of Aaron [were busied] in offering the burnt offerings and the fat until night: therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.
And afterwards they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves, and for the priests the sons of Aaron.
- 15 And the sons of Asaph, the makers of melody, were in their places, as ordered by David and Asaph and Heman and Jeduthun, the king's seer; and the door-keepers were stationed at every door: there was no need for them to go away from their places, for their brothers the Levites made ready for them.
The singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters were at every gate: they didn't need to depart from their service; for their brothers the Levites prepared for them.
And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their place, according to the commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the king's seer; and the porters waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

- 16 So everything needed for the worship of the Lord was made ready that same day, for the keeping of the Passover and the offering of burned offerings on the altar of the Lord, as King Josiah had given orders.
So all the service of Yahweh was prepared the same day, to keep the Passover, and to offer burnt-offerings on the altar of Yahweh, according to the commandment of king Josiah.
So all the service of the LORD was prepared the same day, to keep the passover, and to offer burnt-offerings upon the altar of the LORD, according to the commandment of king Josiah.
- 17 And all the children of Israel who were present kept the Passover and the feast of unleavened bread at that time for seven days.
The children of Israel who were present kept the Passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.
And the children of Israel that were present kept the passover at that time, and the feast of unleavened bread seven days.
- 18 No Passover like it had been kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; and not one of the kings of Israel had ever kept a Passover like the one kept by Josiah and the priests and the Levites and all those of Judah and Israel who were present, and the people of Jerusalem.
There was no Passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did any of the kings of Israel keep such a Passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel who were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
And there was no passover like that kept in Israel from the days of Samuel the prophet; neither did all the kings of Israel keep such a passover as Josiah kept, and the priests, and the Levites, and all Judah and Israel that were present, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
- 19 In the eighteenth year of the rule of Josiah this Passover was kept.

But he sent ambassadors to him, saying, What have I to do with you, you king of Judah? [I come] not against you this day, but against the house with which I have war; and God has commanded me to make haste: forbear you from [meddling with] God, who is with me, that he not destroy you.

- 3 They put the altar on its base; for fear was on them because of the people of the countries: and they made burned offerings on it to the Lord, even burned offerings morning and evening.

They gave money also to the masons, and to the carpenters; and food, and drink, and oil, to them of Sidon, and to them of Tyre, to bring cedar-trees from Lebanon to the sea, to Joppa, according to the grant that they had of Cyrus king of Persia.

- 8 Now in the second year of their coming into the house of God in Jerusalem, in the second month, the work was taken in hand by Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who had come from the land where they were prisoners to Jerusalem: and they made the Levites, of twenty years old and over, responsible for overseeing the work of the house of the Lord.
Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the rest of their brothers the priests and the Levites, and all those who were come out of the captivity to Jerusalem, and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to have the oversight of the work of the house of Yahweh.
Now in the second year of their coming to the house of God at Jerusalem, in the second month, began Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and the remnant of their brethren the priests and the Levites, and all they that had come out of the captivity to Jerusalem; and appointed the Levites, from twenty years old and upward, to set forward the work of the house of the LORD.

- 10 And when the builders put in position the base of the Temple of the Lord, the priests, dressed in their robes, took their places with horns, and the Levites, the sons of Asaph, with brass instruments, to give praise to the Lord in the way ordered by David, king of Israel.
When the builders laid the foundation of the temple of Yahweh, they set the priests in their clothing with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise Yahweh, after the order of David king of Israel.
And when the builders laid the foundation of the temple of the LORD, they set the priests in their apparel with trumpets, and the Levites the sons of Asaph with cymbals, to praise the LORD, after the ordinance of David king of Israel.

11 And they gave praise to the Lord, answering one another in their songs and saying, For he is good, for his mercy to Israel is eternal. And all the people gave a great cry of joy, when they gave praise to the Lord, because the base of the Lord's house was put in place.

They sang one to another in praising and giving thanks to Yahweh, [saying], For he is good, for his lovingkindness endures forever toward Israel. All the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised Yahweh, because the foundation of the house of Yahweh was laid.

And they sang together by course in praising and giving thanks to the LORD; because he is good, for his mercy endureth for ever towards Israel. And all the people shouted with a great shout, when they praised the LORD, because the foundation of the house of the LORD was laid.

12 But a number of the priests and Levites and the heads of families, old men who had seen the first house, when the base of this house was put down before their eyes, were overcome with weeping; and a number were crying out with joy:

But many of the priests and Levites and heads of fathers` [houses], the old men who had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, old men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:

13 So that in the ears of the people the cry of joy was mixed with the sound of weeping; for the cries of the people were loud and came to the ears of those who were a long way off.

so that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people; for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of the joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off.

1 Now news came to the haters of Judah and Benjamin that the people who had come back were building a Temple to the Lord, the God of Israel;

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building a temple to Yahweh, the God of Israel;

Now when the adversaries of Judah and Benjamin heard that the children of the captivity were building the temple to the LORD God of Israel;

2 Then they came to Zerubbabel and to the heads of families, and said to them, Let us take part in the building with you; for we are servants of your God, even as you are; and we have been making offerings to him from the days of Esar-haddon, king of Assyria, who put us here.

then they drew near to Zerubbabel, and to the heads of fathers` [houses], and said to them, Let us build with you; for we seek your God, as you do; and we sacrifice to him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assyria, who brought us up here.

Then they came to Zerubbabel, and to the chief of the fathers, and said to them, Let us build with you: for we seek your God, as ye do; and we do sacrifice to him since the days of Esar-haddon king of Assur, who brought us up hither.

- 3 But Zerubbabel and Jeshua and the rest of the heads of families in Israel said to them, You have no part with us in the building of a house for our God; we ourselves will do the work together for the Lord, the God of Israel, as Cyrus, king of Persia, has given us orders.
But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the heads of fathers` [houses] of Israel, said to them, You have nothing to do with us in building a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to Yahweh, the God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia has commanded us.
But Zerubbabel, and Jeshua, and the rest of the chief of the fathers of Israel, said to them, Ye have nothing to do with us to build a house to our God; but we ourselves together will build to the LORD God of Israel, as king Cyrus the king of Persia hath commanded us.
- 4 Then the people of the land made the hands of the people of Judah feeble, troubling them with fear in their building;
Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,
Then the people of the land weakened the hands of the people of Judah, and troubled them in building,
- 5 And they gave payment to men who made designs against them and kept them from effecting their purpose, all through the time of Cyrus, king of Persia, till Darius became king.
and hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.
And hired counselors against them, to frustrate their purpose, all the days of Cyrus king of Persia, even until the reign of Darius king of Persia.
- 6 And in the time of Ahasuerus, when he first became king, they put on record a statement against the people of Judah and Jerusalem.
In the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, wrote they an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
And in the reign of Ahasuerus, in the beginning of his reign, they wrote to him an accusation against the inhabitants of Judah and Jerusalem.
- 7 And in the time of Artaxerxes, Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his friends, sent a letter to Artaxerxes, king of Persia, writing it in the Aramaean writing and language.
In the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of his companions, to Artaxerxes king of Persia; and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian [character], and set forth in the Syrian [language].
And in the days of Artaxerxes wrote Bishlam, Mithredath, Tabeel, and the rest of their companions to Artaxerxes king of Persia, and the writing of the letter was written in the Syrian language, and interpreted in the Syrian language.

- 8 Rehum, the chief ruler, and Shimshai the scribe, sent a letter against Jerusalem, to Artaxerxes the king;
Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:
Rehum the chancellor and Shimshai the scribe wrote a letter against Jerusalem to Artaxerxes the king in this sort:
- 9 The letter was sent by Rehum, the chief ruler, and Shimshai the scribe and their friends; the Dinaites and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites, then [wrote] Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions, the Dinaites, and the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Shushanchites, the Dehaites, the Elamites,
Then wrote Rehum the chancellor, and Shimshai the scribe, and the rest of their companions; the Dianites, the Apharsathchites, the Tarpelites, the Apharsites, the Archevites, the Babylonians, the Susanchites, the Dehavites, and the Elamites,
- 10 And the rest of the nations which the great and noble Osnappar took over and put in Samaria and the rest of the country over the river:
and the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Osnappar brought over, and set in the city of Samaria, and in the rest [of the country] beyond the River, and so forth.
And the rest of the nations whom the great and noble Asnapper brought over, and set in the cities of Samaria, and the rest that are on this side of the river, and at such a time.
- 11 This is a copy of the letter which they sent to Artaxerxes the king: Your servants living across the river send these words:
This is the copy of the letter that they sent to Artaxerxes the king: Your servants the men beyond the River, and so forth.
This is the copy of the letter that they sent to him, even to Artaxerxes the king: Thy servants the men on this side of the river, and at such a time.
- 12 We give news to the king that the Jews who came from you have come to us at Jerusalem; they are building up again that uncontrolled and evil town; the walls are complete and they are joining up the bases.
Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came up from you are come to us to Jerusalem; they are building the rebellious and the bad city, and have finished the walls, and repaired the foundations.
Be it known to the king, that the Jews who came from thee to us are come to Jerusalem, building the rebellious and the noxious city, and have set up its walls, and joined the foundations.

- 13 The king may be certain that when the building of this town and its walls is complete, they will give no tax or payment in goods or forced payments, and in the end it will be a cause of loss to the kings.
Be it known now to the king that if this city is built, and the walls finished, they will not pay tribute, custom, or toll, and in the end it will be hurtful to the kings.
Be it known now to the king, that, if this city shall be built, and the walls set up again, then they will not pay toll, tribute, and custom, and so thou wilt endamage the revenue of the kings.
- 14 Now because we are responsible to the king, and it is not right for us to see the king's honour damaged, we have sent to give the king word of these things,
Now because we eat the salt of the palace, and it is not appropriate for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and informed the king;
Now because we have maintenance from the king's palace, and it was not meet for us to see the king's dishonor, therefore have we sent and certified the king;
- 15 So that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: and you will see in the book of the records that this town has been uncontrolled, and a cause of trouble to kings and countries, and that there were outbursts against authority there in the past: for which reason the town was made waste.
that search may be made in the book of the records of your fathers: so shall you find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time; for which cause was this city laid waste.
That search may be made in the book of the records of thy fathers: so wilt thou find in the book of the records, and know that this city is a rebellious city, and hurtful to kings and provinces, and that they have moved sedition within the same of old time: for which cause was this city destroyed.
- 16 We give you word, that if the building of this town and its walls is made complete, there will be an end of your power in the country across the river.
We inform the king that, if this city be built, and the walls finished, by this means you shall have no portion beyond the River.
We certify the king that, if this city shall be built again, and its walls set up, by this means thou wilt have no portion on this side of the river.
- 17 Then the king sent an answer to Rehum, the chief ruler, and Shimshai the scribe, and their friends living in Samaria, and to the rest of those across the river, saying, Peace to you:
[Then] sent the king an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions who dwell in Samaria, and in the rest [of the country] beyond the River: Peace, and so forth.
Then the king sent an answer to Rehum the chancellor, and to Shimshai the scribe, and to the rest of their companions that dwell in Samaria, and to the rest beyond the river, Peace, and at such a time.

- 18 And now the sense of the letter which you sent to us has been made clear to me,
The letter which you sent to us has been plainly read before me.
The letter which ye sent to us hath been plainly read before me.
- 19 And I gave orders for a search to be made, and it is certain that in the past this town has made trouble for kings, and that outbursts against authority have taken place there.
I decreed, and search has been made, and it is found that this city of old time has made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made therein.
And I commanded, and search hath been made, and it is found that this city of old time hath made insurrection against kings, and that rebellion and sedition have been made in it.
- 20 Further, there have been great kings in Jerusalem, ruling over all the country across the river, to whom they gave taxes and payments in goods and forced payments.
There have been mighty kings also over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all [the country] beyond the River; and tribute, custom, and toll, was paid to them.
There have also been mighty kings over Jerusalem, who have ruled over all countries beyond the river; and toll, tribute, and custom, was paid to them.
- 21 Give an order now, that these men are to do nothing more, and that the building of the town is to be stopped, till I give an order.
Make you now a decree to cause these men to cease, and that this city not be built, until a decree shall be made by me.
Give ye now commandment to cause these men to cease, and that this city be not built, until another commandment shall be given from me.
- 22 Be certain to do this with all care: do not let trouble be increased to the king's damage.
Take heed that you not be slack herein: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?
Take heed now that ye fail not to do this: why should damage grow to the hurt of the kings?
- 23 Then, after reading the king's letter, Rehum and Shimshai the scribe and their friends went quickly to Jerusalem, to the Jews, and had them stopped by force.
Then when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.
Now when the copy of king Artaxerxes' letter was read before Rehum, and Shimshai the scribe, and their companions, they went up in haste to Jerusalem to the Jews, and made them to cease by force and power.

24 So the work of the house of God at Jerusalem came to an end; so it was stopped, till the second year of the rule of Darius, king of Persia.
Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

Then ceased the work of the house of God which is at Jerusalem. So it ceased until the second year of the reign of Darius king of Persia.

1 Now the prophets Haggai and Zechariah, the son of Iddo, were preaching to the Jews in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel.

Now the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews who were in Judah and Jerusalem; in the name of the God of Israel [prophesied they] to them.

Then the prophets, Haggai the prophet, and Zechariah the son of Iddo, prophesied to the Jews that were in Judah and Jerusalem in the name of the God of Israel, even to them.

2 Then Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua, the son of Jozadak, got up and made a start at building the house of God at Jerusalem: and the prophets of God were with them, helping them.

Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem; and with them were the prophets of God, helping them.

Then rose up Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Jeshua the son of Jozadak, and began to build the house of God which is at Jerusalem: and with them were the prophets of God helping them.

3 At the same time, Tattenai, ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai, and their men, came to them and said, Who gave you orders to go on building this house and this wall?

At the same time came to them Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?

At the same time came to them Tatnai, governor on this side of the river, and Shethar-boznai, and their companions, and said thus to them, Who hath commanded you to build this house, and to make up this wall?

4 Then they said these words to them: What are the names of the men who are at work on this building?

Then we told them after this manner, what the names of the men were who were making this building.

Then said we to them after this manner, What are the names of the men that make this building?

5 But the eye of their God was on the chiefs of the Jews, and they did not make them give up working till the question had been put before Darius and an answer had come by letter about it.
But the eye of their God was on the elders of the Jews, and they did not make them cease, until the matter should come to Darius, and then answer should be returned by letter concerning it.

But the eye of their God was upon the elders of the Jews, that they could not cause them to cease, till the matter came to Darius: and then they returned answer by letter concerning this matter.

6 This is a copy of the letter which Tattenai, the ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai and his friends the Apharsachites, living across the river, sent to Darius the king:

The copy of the letter that Tattenai, the governor beyond the River, and Shethar-bozenai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were beyond the River, sent to Darius the king;

The copy of the letter that Tatnai, governor on this side of the river, and Shethar-boznai, and his companions the Apharsachites, who were on this side of the river, sent to Darius the king:

7 They sent him a letter saying, To Darius the king, all peace:

they sent a letter to him, in which was written thus: To Darius the king, all peace.

They sent a letter to him, in which was written thus; To Darius the king, all peace.

8 This is to give the king word that we went into the land of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is made of great stones, and has its walls supported with wood, and the work is going on with industry, and they are doing it well.

Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judah, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls; and this work goes on with diligence and prospers in their hands.

Be it known to the king, that we went into the province of Judea, to the house of the great God, which is built with great stones, and timber is laid in the walls, and this work proceedeth rapidly, and prospereth in their hands.

9 Then we said to the men responsible, who gave you authority for the building of this house and these walls?

Then asked we those elders, and said to them thus, Who gave you a decree to build this house, and to finish this wall?

Then we asked those elders, and said to them thus, Who commanded you to build this house, and to erect these walls?

10 And we made request for their names, so that we might send you word, and give you the names of the men at the head of them.

We asked them their names also, to inform you that we might write the names of the men who were at the head of them.

We asked their names also, to certify thee, that we might write the names of the men that were the chief of them.

- 11 And they made answer to us, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and we are building the house which was put up in times long past and was designed and made complete by a great king of Israel.
Thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and are building the house that was built these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and finished.
And thus they returned us answer, saying, We are the servants of the God of heaven and earth, and build the house that was erected these many years ago, which a great king of Israel built and set up.

- 12 But when the God of heaven was moved to wrath by our fathers, he gave them up into the hands of Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, the Chaldaean, who sent destruction on this house and took the people away into Babylon.
But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.
But after that our fathers had provoked the God of heaven to wrath, he gave them into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, the Chaldean, who destroyed this house, and carried the people away into Babylon.
- 13 But in the first year of Cyrus, king of Babylon, Cyrus the king gave an order for the building of this house of God;
But in the first year of Cyrus king of Babylon, Cyrus the king made a decree to build this house of God.
But in the first year of Cyrus the king of Babylon, the same king Cyrus made a decree to build this house of God.
- 14 And the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple which was in Jerusalem, and put into the house of his god in Babylon, these Cyrus the king took from the house of his god in Babylon, and gave to one named Sheshbazzar, whom he had made ruler;
The gold and silver vessels also of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;
And the vessels also of gold and silver of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple that was in Jerusalem, and brought them into the temple of Babylon, those did Cyrus the king take out of the temple of Babylon, and they were delivered to one, whose name was Sheshbazzar, whom he had made governor;
- 15 And he said to him, Go, take these vessels, and put them in the Temple in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be put up again in its place.
and he said to him, Take these vessels, go, put them in the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place.
And said to him, Take these vessels, go, carry them into the temple that is in Jerusalem, and let the house of God be built in its place.

16 Then this same Sheshbazzar came and put the house of God in Jerusalem on its bases: and from that time till now the building has been going on, but it is still not complete.
Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundations of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now has it been in building, and yet it is not completed.

Then came the same Sheshbazzar, and laid the foundation of the house of God which is in Jerusalem: and since that time even until now hath it been in building, and yet it is not finished.

17 So now, if it seems good to the king, let search be made in the king's store-house at Babylon, to see if it is true that an order was given by Cyrus the king for the building of this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send us word of his pleasure in connection with this business.

Now therefore, if it seem good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it be so, that a decree was made of Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem; and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

Now therefore, if it seemeth good to the king, let there be search made in the king's treasure-house, which is there at Babylon, whether it is so, that a decree was made by Cyrus the king to build this house of God at Jerusalem, and let the king send his pleasure to us concerning this matter.

In the first year of Cyrus the king, Cyrus the king made a decree: Concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, let the house be built, the place where they offer sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid; the height of it sixty cubits, and the breadth of it sixty cubits;

In the first year of Cyrus the king, the same Cyrus the king made a decree concerning the house of God at Jerusalem, Let the house be built, the place where they offered sacrifices, and let the foundations of it be strongly laid; the hight of it sixty cubits, and the breadth of it sixty cubits;

- 5 And let the gold and silver vessels from the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took from the Temple at Jerusalem to Babylon, be given back and taken again to the Temple at Jerusalem, every one in its place, and put them in the house of God.
Also let the gold and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took forth out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, everyone to its place; and you shall put them in the house of God.
And also let the golden and silver vessels of the house of God, which Nebuchadnezzar took out of the temple which is at Jerusalem, and brought to Babylon, be restored, and brought again to the temple which is at Jerusalem, every one to its place, and place them in the house of God.
- 6 So now, Tattenai, ruler of the land across the river, and Shethar-bozenai and your people the Apharsachites across the river, keep far from that place:
Now therefore, Tattenai, governor beyond the River, Shethar-bozenai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the River, be you far from there:
Now therefore, Tatnai governor beyond the river, Shethar-boznai, and your companions the Apharsachites, who are beyond the river, be ye far from thence:

- 7 Let the work of this house of God go on; let the ruler of the Jews and their responsible men put up this house of God in its place.
let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews and the elders of the Jews build this house of God in its place.
Let the work of this house of God alone; let the governor of the Jews, and the elders of the Jews, build this house of God in its place.
- 8 Further, I give orders as to what you are to do for the responsible men of the Jews in connection with the building of this house of God: that from the king's wealth, that is, from the taxes got together in the land over the river, the money needed is to be given to these men readily, so that their work may not be stopped.
Moreover I make a decree what you shall do to these elders of the Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king`s goods, even of the tribute beyond the River, expenses be given with all diligence to these men, that they be not hindered.
Moreover, I make a decree what ye shall do to the elders of these Jews for the building of this house of God: that of the king's goods, even of the tribute beyond the river, forthwith expenses be given to these men, that they be not hindered.

9 And whatever they have need of, young oxen and sheep and lambs, for burned offerings to the God of heaven, grain, salt, wine, and oil, whatever the priests in Jerusalem say is necessary, is to be given to them day by day regularly:
That which they have need of, both young bulls, and rams, and lambs, for burnt offerings to the God of heaven; [also] wheat, salt, wine, and oil, according to the word of the priests who are at Jerusalem, let it be given them day by day without fail;

11 And I have given orders that if anyone makes any change in this word, one of the supports is to be pulled out of his house, and he is to be lifted up and fixed to it; and his house is to be made waste for this;
Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let a beam be pulled out from his house, and let him be lifted up and fastened thereon; and let his house be made a dunghill for this:
Also I have made a decree, that whoever shall alter this word, let timber be pulled down from his house, and being set up, let him be hanged upon it; and let his house be made a dunghill for this.

12 And may the God who has made it a resting-place for his name send destruction on all kings and peoples whose hands are outstretched to make any change in this or to do damage to this house of God at Jerusalem. I, Darius, have given this order, let it be done with all care.
and the God who has caused his name to dwell there overthrow all kings and peoples who shall put forth their hand to alter [the same], to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with all diligence.
And the God that hath caused his name to dwell there destroy all kings and people, that shall attempt to alter and to destroy this house of God which is at Jerusalem. I Darius have made a decree; let it be done with speed.

- 26 And if anyone does not keep the law of your God and the law of the king, take care that punishment is given to him, by death or by driving him from his country or by taking away his goods or by putting him in prison.
Whoever will not do the law of your God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed on him with all diligence, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.
And whoever will not do the law of thy God, and the law of the king, let judgment be executed speedily upon him, whether it be to death, or to banishment, or to confiscation of goods, or to imprisonment.

- 27 Praise be to the Lord, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing into the heart of the king, to make fair the house of the Lord which is in Jerusalem;
Blessed be Yahweh, the God of our fathers, who has put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of Yahweh which is in Jerusalem;
Blessed be the LORD God of our fathers, who hath put such a thing as this in the king's heart, to beautify the house of the LORD which is in Jerusalem:
- 28 And has given mercy to me before the king and his government and before all the king's great captains. And I was made strong by the hand of the Lord my God which was on me, and I got together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.
and has extended lovingkindness to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes. I was strengthened according to the hand of Yahweh my God on me, and I gathered together out of Israel chief men to go up with me.
And hath extended mercy to me before the king, and his counselors, and before all the king's mighty princes.
And I was strengthened as the hand of the LORD my God was upon me, and I assembled out of Israel chief men to go up with me.

- 17 And I sent them to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and gave them orders what to say to Iddo and his brothers the Nethinim at the place Casiphia, so that they might come back to us with men to do the work of the house of our God.
I sent them forth to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia; and I told them what they should tell Iddo, [and] his brothers the Nethinim, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God.
And I sent them with commandment to Iddo the chief at the place Casiphia, and I told them what they should say to Iddo, and to his brethren the Nethinims, at the place Casiphia, that they should bring to us ministers for the house of our God.

- 21 Then I gave orders for a time of going without food, there by the river Ahava, so that we might make ourselves low before our God in prayer, requesting from him a straight way for us and for our little ones and for all our substance.
Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might humble ourselves before our God, to seek of him a straight way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.
Then I proclaimed a fast there, at the river Ahava, that we might afflict ourselves before our God, to seek of him a right way for us, and for our little ones, and for all our substance.
- 22 For I would not, for shame, make request to the king for a band of armed men and horsemen to give us help against those who might make attacks on us on the way: for we had said to the king, The hand of our God is on his servants for good, but his power and his wrath are against all those who are turned away from him.
For I was ashamed to ask of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way, because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is on all those who seek him, for good; but his power and his wrath is against all those who forsake him.
For I was ashamed to require of the king a band of soldiers and horsemen to help us against the enemy in the way: because we had spoken to the king, saying, The hand of our God is upon all them for good that seek him; but his power and his wrath is against all them that forsake him.
- 23 So we went without food, requesting our God for this: and his ear was open to our prayer.
So we fasted and begged our God for this: and he was entreated of us.
So we fasted and besought our God for this: and he was entreated by us.
- 24 So I put on one side twelve of the chiefs of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them,
Then I set apart twelve of the chiefs of the priests, even Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brothers with them,
Then I separated twelve of the chief of the priests, Sherebiah, Hashabiah, and ten of their brethren with them,
- 25 And gave to them by weight the silver and the gold and the vessels, all the offering for the house of our God which the king and his wise men and his captains and all Israel there present had given:
and weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering for the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his princes, and all Israel there present, had offered:
And weighed to them the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, even the offering of the house of our God, which the king, and his counselors, and his lords, and all Israel there present, had offered:

26 Measuring into their hands six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels, a hundred talents' weight, and a hundred talents of gold,
I weighed into their hand six hundred fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels one hundred talents; of gold one hundred talents;
I even weighed to their hand six hundred and fifty talents of silver, and silver vessels a hundred talents, and of gold a hundred talents;

27 And twenty gold basins, of a thousand darics, and two vessels of the best bright brass, equal in value to gold.
and twenty bowls of gold, of one thousand darics; and two vessels of fine bright brass, precious as gold.
Also twenty basins of gold, of a thousand drams; and two vessels of fine copper, precious as gold.

28 And I said to them, You are holy to the Lord and the vessels are holy: and the silver and the gold are an offering freely given to the Lord, the God of your fathers.
I said to them, You are holy to Yahweh, and the vessels are holy; and the silver and the gold are a freewill-offering to Yahweh, the God of your fathers.
And I said to them, Ye are holy to the LORD; the vessels are holy also; and the silver and the gold are a free-will-offering to the LORD God of your fathers.

29 Take care of them and keep them, till you put them on the scales before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and the chiefs of the families of Israel, in Jerusalem, in the rooms of the house of the Lord.
Watch you, and keep them, until you weigh them before the chiefs of the priests and the Levites, and the princes of the fathers' [houses] of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of Yahweh.
Watch ye, and keep them, until ye weigh them, before the chief of the priests and the Levites, and chief of the fathers of Israel, at Jerusalem, in the chambers of the house of the LORD.

30 So the priests and the Levites took the weight of silver and gold and the vessels, to take them to Jerusalem into the house of our God.
So the priests and the Levites received the weight of the silver and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.
So the priests and the Levites took the weight of the silver, and the gold, and the vessels, to bring them to Jerusalem to the house of our God.

31 Then we went away from the river of Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem; and the hand of our God was on us, and he gave us salvation from our haters and those who were waiting to make an attack on us by the way.
Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth [day] of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was on us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy and the bandit by the way.
Then we departed from the river Ahava on the twelfth day of the first month, to go to Jerusalem: and the hand of our God was upon us, and he delivered us from the hand of the enemy, and of such as lay in wait by the way.

- 32 And we came to Jerusalem and were there for three days.
We came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.
And we came to Jerusalem, and abode there three days.
- 33 And on the fourth day, the silver and the gold and the vessels were measured out by weight in the house of our God into the hands of Meremoth, the son of Uriah, the priest; and with him was Eleazar, the son of Phinehas; and with them were Jozabad, the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah, the son of Binnui, the Levites;
On the fourth day the silver and the gold and the vessels were weighed in the house of our God into the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, the Levite;
Now on the fourth day was the silver and the gold and the vessels weighed in the house of our God by the hand of Meremoth the son of Uriah the priest; and with him was Eleazar the son of Phinehas; and with them was Jozabad the son of Jeshua, and Noadiah the son of Binnui, Levites;
- 34 All was handed over by number and by weight: and the weight was put on record at that time.
the whole by number and by weight: and all the weight was written at that time.
By number and by weight of every one: and all the weight was written at that time.
- 35 And those who had been prisoners, who had come back from a strange land, made burned offerings to the God of Israel, twelve oxen for all Israel, ninety-six male sheep, seventy-seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burned offering to the Lord.
The children of the captivity, who had come out of exile, offered burnt offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bulls for all Israel, ninety-six rams, seventy-seven lambs, and twelve male goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt offering to Yahweh.
Also the children of those that had been carried away, who had come out of the captivity, offered burnt-offerings to the God of Israel, twelve bullocks for all Israel, ninety and six rams, seventy and seven lambs, twelve he-goats for a sin-offering: all this was a burnt-offering to the LORD.
- 36 And they gave the king's orders to the king's captains and the rulers across the river, and they gave the people and the house of God the help which was needed.
They delivered the king`s commissions to the king`s satraps, and to the governors beyond the River: and they furthered the people and the house of God.
And they delivered the king's commissions to the king's lieutenants, and to the governors on this side of the river: and they furthered the people, and the house of God.

- 1 Now after these things were done, the captains came to me and said, The people of Israel and the priests and Levites have not kept themselves separate from the people of the lands, but have taken part in the disgusting ways of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.
Now when these things were done, the princes drew near to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the peoples of the lands, [doing] according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.
Now when these things were done, the princes came to me, saying, The people of Israel, and the priests, and the Levites, have not separated themselves from the people of the lands, doing according to their abominations, even of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Perizzites, the Jebusites, the Ammonites, the Moabites, the Egyptians, and the Amorites.
- 2 For they have taken their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed has been mixed with the peoples of the lands; and in fact the captains and rulers have been the first to do this evil.
For they have taken of their daughters for themselves and for their sons, so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the peoples of the lands: yes, the hand of the princes and rulers has been chief in this trespass.
For they have taken of their daughters for themselves, and for their sons: so that the holy seed have mingled themselves with the people of those lands: yea, the hand of the princes and rulers hath been chief in this trespass.
- 3 And hearing this, with signs of grief and pulling out the hair of my head and my chin, I took my seat on the earth deeply troubled.
When I heard this thing, I tore my garment and my robe, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded.
And when I heard this thing, I rent my garment and my mantle, and plucked off the hair of my head and of my beard, and sat down confounded.
- 4 Then everyone who went in fear of the words of the God of Israel, because of the sin of those who had come back, came together to me; and I kept where I was, overcome with grief, till the evening offering.
Then were assembled to me everyone who trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the trespass of them of the captivity; and I sat confounded until the evening offering.
Then were assembled to me every one that trembled at the words of the God of Israel, because of the transgression of those that had been carried away; and I sat confounded until the evening sacrifice.

- 5 And at the evening offering, having made myself low before God, I got up, and with signs of grief, falling down on my knees, with my hands stretched out to the Lord my God,
At the evening offering I arose up from my humiliation, even with my garment and my robe torn; and I fell on my knees, and spread out my hands to Yahweh my God;
And at the evening sacrifice I arose from my heaviness; and having rent my garment and my mantle, I fell upon my knees, and spread out my hands to the LORD my God,
- 6 I said, O my God, shame keeps me from lifting up my face to you, my God: for our sins are increased higher than our heads and our evil-doing has come up to heaven.
and I said, my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to you, my God; for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our guiltiness is grown up to the heavens.
And said, O my God, I am ashamed and blush to lift up my face to thee, my God: for our iniquities are increased over our head, and our trespass is grown up to the heavens.
- 7 From the days of our fathers till this day we have been great sinners; and for our sins, we and our kings and our priests have been given up into the hands of the kings of the lands, to the sword and to prison and to loss of goods and to shame of face, as it is this day.
Since the days of our fathers we have been exceeding guilty to this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to plunder, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.
Since the days of our fathers have we been in a great trespass to this day; and for our iniquities have we, our kings, and our priests, been delivered into the hand of the kings of the lands, to the sword, to captivity, and to a spoil, and to confusion of face, as it is this day.
- 8 And now for a little time grace has come to us from the Lord our God, to let a small band of us get free and to give us a nail in his holy place, so that our God may give light to our eyes and a measure of new life in our prison chains.
Now for a little moment grace has been showed from Yahweh our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.
And now for a little space grace hath been shown from the LORD our God, to leave us a remnant to escape, and to give us a nail in his holy place, that our God may lighten our eyes, and give us a little reviving in our bondage.

- 9 For we are servants; but our God has not been turned away from us in our prison, but has had mercy on us before the eyes of the kings of Persia, to give us new strength to put up again the house of our God and to make fair its waste places, and to give us a wall in Judah and Jerusalem.
For we are bondservants; yet our God has not forsaken us in our bondage, but has extended lovingkindness to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the ruins of it, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.
For we were bond-men; yet our God hath not forsaken us in our bondage, but hath extended mercy to us in the sight of the kings of Persia, to give us a reviving, to set up the house of our God, and to repair the desolations of it, and to give us a wall in Judah and in Jerusalem.
- 10 And now, O our God, what are we to say after this? for we have not kept your laws,
Now, our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken your commandments,
And now, O our God, what shall we say after this? for we have forsaken thy commandments,
- 11 Which you gave to your servants the prophets, saying, The land into which you are going, to take it for a heritage, is an unclean land, because of the evil lives of the peoples of the land and their disgusting ways, which have made the land unclean from end to end.
which you have commanded by your servants the prophets, saying, The land, to which you go to possess it, is an unclean land through the uncleanness of the peoples of the lands, through their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their filthiness:
Which thou hast commanded by thy servants the prophets, saying, The land, to which ye go to possess it, is an unclean land with the filthiness of the people of the lands, with their abominations, which have filled it from one end to another with their uncleanness.
- 12 So now do not give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons or do anything for their peace or well-being for ever; so that you may be strong, living on the good of the land, and handing it on to your children for a heritage for ever.
now therefore don't give your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their prosperity forever; that you may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children forever.
Now therefore give not your daughters to their sons, neither take their daughters to your sons, nor seek their peace or their wealth for ever: that ye may be strong, and eat the good of the land, and leave it for an inheritance to your children for ever.

- 13 And after everything which has come on us because of our evil-doing and our great sin, and seeing that the punishment which you, O God, have given us, is less than the measure of our sins, and that you have kept from death those of us who are here;
After all that is come on us for our evil deeds, and for our great guilt, seeing that you our God have punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and have given us such a remnant,
And after all that hath come upon us for our evil deeds, and for our great trespass, seeing that thou our God hast punished us less than our iniquities deserve, and hast given us such deliverance as this;
- 14 Are we again to go against your orders, taking wives from among the people who do these disgusting things? would you not be angry with us till our destruction was complete, till there was not one who got away safe?
shall we again break your commandments, and join in affinity with the peoples that do these abominations? would not you be angry with us until you had consumed us, so that there should be no remnant, nor any to escape?
Should we again break thy commandments, and join in affinity with the people of these abominations? wouldst thou not be angry with us till thou hadst consumed us, so that there should be no remnant nor escaping?
- 15 O Lord God of Israel, righteousness is yours; we are only a small band which has been kept from death, as at this day: see, we are before you in our sin; for no one may keep his place before you because of this.
Yahweh, the God of Israel, you are righteous; for we are left a remnant that is escaped, as it is this day: behold, we are before you in our guiltiness; for none can stand before you because of this.
O LORD God of Israel, thou art righteous: for we having escaped, remain yet, as it is this day: behold, we are before thee in our trespasses: for we cannot stand before thee because of this.
- 1 Now while Ezra was making his prayer and his statement of wrongdoing, weeping and falling down before the house of God, a very great number of men and women and children out of Israel came together round him: for the people were weeping bitterly.
Now while Ezra prayed and made confession, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there was gathered together to him out of Israel a very great assembly of men and women and children; for the people wept very sore.
Now when Ezra had prayed, and when he had confessed, weeping and casting himself down before the house of God, there assembled to him out of Israel a very great congregation of men and women and children: for the people wept very bitterly.
- 2 And Shecaniah, the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answering, said to Ezra, We have done evil against our God, and have taken as our wives strange women of the peoples of the land: but still there is hope for Israel in this question.
Shecaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have married foreign women of the peoples of the land: yet now there is hope for Israel concerning this thing.
And Shechaniah the son of Jehiel, one of the sons of Elam, answered and said to Ezra, We have trespassed against our God, and have taken foreign wives of the people of the land: yet now there is hope in Israel concerning this thing.

3 Let us now make an agreement with our God to put away all the wives and all their children, if it seems right to my lord and to those who go in fear of the words of our God; and let it be done in keeping with the law.

Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those who tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

Now therefore let us make a covenant with our God to put away all the wives, and such as are born of them, according to the counsel of my lord, and of those that tremble at the commandment of our God; and let it be done according to the law.

4 Up, now! for this is your business, and we are with you; take heart and do it.

Arise; for the matter belongs to you, and we are with you: be of good courage, and do it.

Arise; for this matter belongeth to thee: we also will be with thee: be of good courage, and do it.

5 Then Ezra got up, and made the chiefs of the priests and the Levites and all Israel take an oath that they would do this. So they took an oath.

Then arose Ezra, and made the chiefs of the priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. So they swore.

Then arose Ezra, and made the chief priests, the Levites, and all Israel, to swear that they would do according to this word. And they swore.

6 Then Ezra got up from before the house of God and went into the room of Jehohanan, the son of Eliashib; but when he came there, he took no food or drink, for he was sorrowing for the sin of those who had come back.

Then Ezra rose up from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Jehohanan the son of Eliashib: and [when] he came there, he ate no bread, nor drink water; for he mourned because of the trespass of them of the captivity.

Then Ezra arose from before the house of God, and went into the chamber of Johanan the son of Eliashib: and when he came thither, he ate no bread, nor drank water: for he mourned because of the transgression of them that had been carried away.

7 And they made a public statement through all Judah and Jerusalem, to all those who had come back, that they were to come together to Jerusalem;

They made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should gather themselves together to Jerusalem;

And they made proclamation throughout Judah and Jerusalem to all the children of the captivity, that they should assemble at Jerusalem;

- 8 And that if anyone did not come before three days were past, as ordered by the rulers and the responsible men, all his goods would be put under the curse, and he himself would be cut off from the meeting of the people who had come back.
and that whoever didn't come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the assembly of the captivity.
And that whoever would not come within three days, according to the counsel of the princes and the elders, all his substance should be forfeited, and himself separated from the congregation of those that had been carried away.
- 9 Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin came together to Jerusalem before three days were past; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth day of the month; and all the people were seated in the wide square in front of the house of God, shaking with fear because of this business and because of the great rain.
Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin gathered themselves together to Jerusalem within the three days; it was the ninth month, on the twentieth [day] of the month: and all the people sat in the broad place before the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.
Then all the men of Judah and Benjamin assembled at Jerusalem within three days. It was the ninth month, and the twentieth day of the month; and all the people sat in the street of the house of God, trembling because of this matter, and for the great rain.
- 10 And Ezra the priest got to his feet and said to them, You have done wrong and taken strange women for your wives, so increasing the sin of Israel.
Ezra the priest stood up, and said to them, You have trespassed, and have married foreign women, to increase the guilt of Israel.
And Ezra the priest stood up, and said to them, Ye have transgressed, and have taken foreign wives to increase the trespass of Israel.
- 11 So now, give praise to the Lord, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and make yourselves separate from the peoples of the land and from the strange women.
Now therefore make confession to Yahweh, the God of your fathers, and do his pleasure; and separate yourselves from the peoples of the land, and from the foreign women.
Now therefore make confession to the LORD God of your fathers, and do his pleasure: and separate yourselves from the people of the land, and from the foreign wives.
- 12 Then all the people, answering, said with a loud voice, As you have said, so it is right for us to do.
Then all the assembly answered with a loud voice, As you have said concerning us, so must we do.
Then all the congregation answered and said with a loud voice, As thou hast said, so must we do.

- 13 But the number of people is great, and it is a time of much rain; it is not possible for us to go on waiting outside, and this is not a thing which may be done in one day or even two: for our sin in this business is great.
But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand outside: neither is this a work of one day or two; for we have greatly transgressed in this matter.
But the people are many, and it is a time of much rain, and we are not able to stand abroad, neither is this a work of one day or two: for we are many that have transgressed in this thing.
- 14 So now let our rulers be representatives for all the people, and let all those in our towns who are married to strange women come at fixed times, and with them the responsible men and the judges of every town, till the burning wrath of our God is turned away from us, and this has been done.
Let now our princes be appointed for all the assembly, and let all those who are in our cities who have married foreign women come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and the judges of it, until the fierce wrath of our God be turned from us, until this matter be dispatched.
Let now our rulers of all the congregation stand, and let all them who have taken foreign wives in our cities come at appointed times, and with them the elders of every city, and its judges, until the fierce wrath of our God for this matter shall be turned from us.
- 15 Only Jonathan, the son of Asahel, and Jahzeiah, the son of Tikvah, were against this, Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite supporting them.
Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahzeiah the son of Tikvah stood up against this [matter]: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.
Only Jonathan the son of Asahel and Jahaziah the son of Tikvah were employed about this matter: and Meshullam and Shabbethai the Levite helped them.
- 16 So those who had come back did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain heads of families, by their fathers' families, all of them by their names, were marked out; and on the first day of the tenth month they took their places to go into the question with care.
The children of the captivity did so. Ezra the priest, [with] certain heads of fathers' [houses], after their fathers' houses, and all of them by their names, were set apart; and they sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.
And the children of the captivity did so. And Ezra the priest, with certain chief of the fathers, after the house of their fathers, and all of them by their names, were separated, and sat down in the first day of the tenth month to examine the matter.

They made an end with all the men who had married foreign women by the first day of the first month.
And they made an end with all the men that had taken foreign wives by the first day of the first month.

- 19 And they gave their word that they would put away their wives; and for their sin, they gave an offering of a male sheep of the flock.
They gave their hand that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, [they offered] a ram of the flock for their guilt.
And they gave their hands that they would put away their wives; and being guilty, they offered a ram of the flock for their trespass.

1 The history of Nehemiah, the son of Hacaliah. Now it came about, in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, when I was in Shushan, the king's town,
The words of Nehemiah the son of Hacaliah. Now it happened in the month Chislev, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,
The words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brothers, came with certain men from Judah; and in answer to my request for news of the Jews who had been prisoners and had got away, and of Jerusalem, that Hanani, one of my brothers, came, he and certain men out of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews who had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah; and I asked them concerning the Jews that had escaped, who were left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

3 They said to me, The small band of Jews now living there in the land are in great trouble and shame: the wall of Jerusalem has been broken down, and its doorways burned with fire. They said to me, The remnant who are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and the gates of it are burned with fire.

And they said to me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is broken down, and its gates are burned with fire.

4 Then, after hearing these words, for some days I gave myself up to weeping and sorrow, seated on the earth; and taking no food I made prayer to the God of heaven, It happened, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days; and I fasted and prayed before the God of heaven,

And it came to pass, when I heard these words, that I sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

5 And said, O Lord, the God of heaven, the great God, greatly to be feared, keeping faith and mercy with those who have love for him and are true to his laws: and said, I beg you, Yahweh, the God of heaven, the great and awesome God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with those who love him and keep his commandments:

And said, I beseech thee, O LORD God of heaven, the great and terrible God, that keepeth covenant and mercy for them that love him and observe his commandments:

6 Let your ear now take note and let your eyes be open, so that you may give ear to the prayer of your servant, which I make before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel, your servants, while I put before you the sins of the children of Israel, which we have done against you: truly, I and my father's people are sinners.

Let your ear now be attentive, and your eyes open, that you may listen to the prayer of your servant, which I pray before you at this time, day and night, for the children of Israel your servants while I confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against you. Yes, I and my father's house have sinned:

Let thy ear now be attentive, and thy eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned against thee: both I and my father's house have sinned.

- 7 We have done great wrong against you, and have not kept the orders, the rules, and the decisions, which you gave to your servant Moses.
we have dealt very corruptly against you, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the ordinances, which you commanded your servant Moses.
We have dealt very corruptly against thee, and have not kept the commandments, nor the statutes, nor the judgments, which thou commandedst thy servant Moses.
- 8 Keep in mind, O Lord, the order you gave your servant Moses, saying, If you do wrong I will send you wandering among the peoples:
Remember, I beg you, the word that you commanded your servant Moses, saying, If you trespass, I will scatter you abroad among the peoples:
Remember, I beseech thee, the word that thou commandedst thy servant Moses, saying, If ye transgress, I will scatter you abroad among the nations:
- 9 But if you come back to me and keep my orders and do them, even if those of you who have been forced out are living in the farthest parts of heaven, I will get them from there, and take them back to the place marked out by me for the resting-place of my name.
but if you return to me, and keep my commandments and do them, though your outcasts were in the uttermost part of the heavens, yet will I gather them from there, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen, to cause my name to dwell there.
But if ye turn to me, and keep my commandments, and do them; though there were of you driven to the uttermost part of the heaven, yet will I gather them from thence, and will bring them to the place that I have chosen to set my name there.
- 10 Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have made yours by your great power and by your strong hand.
Now these are your servants and your people, whom you have redeemed by your great power, and by your strong hand.
Now these are thy servants and thy people, whom thou hast redeemed by thy great power, and by thy strong hand.
- 11 O Lord, let your ear take note of the prayer of your servant, and of the prayers of your servants, who take delight in worshipping your name: give help, O Lord, to your servant this day, and let him have mercy in the eyes of this man. (Now I was the king's wine-servant.)
Lord, I beg you, let now your ear be attentive to the prayer of your servant, and to the prayer of your servants, who delight to fear your name; and please prosper your servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. Now I was cup bearer to the king.
O Lord, I beseech thee, let now thy ear be attentive to the prayer of thy servant, and to the prayer of thy servants, who desire to fear thy name: and prosper, I pray thee, thy servant this day, and grant him mercy in the sight of this man. For I was the king's cup-bearer.

1 And it came about in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine and gave it to the king. Now I had never before been sad when the king was present.
It happened in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, when wine was before him, that I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not been [before] sad in his presence.
And it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it to the king. Now I had not before been sad in his presence.

2 And the king said to me, Why is your face sad, seeing that you are not ill? this is nothing but sorrow of heart. Then I was full of fear;
The king said to me, Why is your face sad, seeing you are not sick? this is nothing else but sorrow of heart. Then I was very sore afraid.
Wherefore the king said to me, Why is thy countenance sad, seeing thou art not sick? this is nothing but sorrow of heart. Then I was very greatly afraid,

3 And said to the king, May the king be living for ever: is it not natural for my face to be sad, when the town, the place where the bodies of my fathers are at rest, has been made waste and its doorways burned with fire?
I said to the king, Let the king live forever: why should not my face be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' tombs, lies waste, and the gates of it are consumed with fire?
And said to the king, Let the king live for ever: why should not my countenance be sad, when the city, the place of my fathers' sepulchers, lieth waste, and its gates are consumed with fire?

4 Then the king said to me, What is your desire? So I made prayer to the God of heaven.
Then the king said to me, For what do you make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.
Then the king said to me, For what dost thou make request? So I prayed to the God of heaven.

5 And I said to the king, If it is the king's pleasure, and if your servant has your approval, send me to Judah, to the town where the bodies of my fathers are at rest, so that I may take in hand the building of it.
I said to the king, If it please the king, and if your servant have found favor in your sight, that you would send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' tombs, that I may build it.
And I said to the king, If it should please the king, and if thy servant hath found favor in thy sight, that thou wouldst send me to Judah, to the city of my fathers' sepulchers, that I may build it.

6 And the king said to me (the queen being seated by his side), How long will your journey take, and when will you come back? So the king was pleased to send me, and I gave him a fixed time. The king said to me (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall your journey be? and when will you return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

And the king said to me, (the queen also sitting by him,) For how long shall thy journey be? and when wilt thou return? So it pleased the king to send me; and I set him a time.

7 Further, I said to the king, If it is the king's pleasure, let letters be given to me for the rulers across the river, so that they may let me go through till I come to Judah;

Moreover I said to the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the River, that they may let me pass through until I come to Judah;

Moreover, I said to the king, If it should please the king, let letters be given me to the governors beyond the river, that they may convey me over till I come into Judah:

8 And a letter to Asaph, the keeper of the king's park, so that he may give me wood to make boards for the doors of the tower of the house, and for the wall of the town, and for the house which is to be mine. And the king gave me this, for the hand of my God was on me.

and a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the castle which appertains to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. The king granted me, according to the good hand of my God on me.

And a letter to Asaph the keeper of the king's forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter.

And the king granted me, according to the good hand of my God upon me.

9 Then I came to the rulers of the lands across the river and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen.

Then I came to the governors beyond the River, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent with me captains of the army and horsemen.

Then I came to the governors beyond the river, and gave them the king's letters. Now the king had sent captains of the army and horsemen with me.

10 And Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, hearing of it, were greatly troubled because a man had come to the help of the children of Israel.

When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly, because a man had come to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, heard of it, it grieved them exceedingly that there had come a man to seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

- 11 So I came to Jerusalem and was there three days.
So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.
So I came to Jerusalem, and was there three days.
- 12 And in the night I got up, taking with me a small band of men; I said nothing to any man of what God had put into my heart to do for Jerusalem: and I had no beast with me but the one on which I was seated.
I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God put into my heart to do for Jerusalem; neither was there any animal with me, except the animal that I rode on.
And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me; neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.
- 13 And I went out by night, through the doorway of the valley, and past the dragon's water-spring as far as the place where waste material was put, viewing the walls of Jerusalem which were broken down, and the doorways which had been burned with fire.
I went out by night by the valley gate, even toward the jackal's well, and to the dung gate, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates of it were consumed with fire.
And I went out by night by the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and their gates were consumed with fire.
- 14 Then I went on to the door of the fountain and to the king's pool: but there was no room for my beast to get through.
Then I went on to the spring gate and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the animal that was under me to pass.
Then I went on to the gate of the fountain, and to the king's pool: but there was no place for the beast that was under me to pass.
- 15 Then in the night, I went up by the stream, viewing the wall; then turning back, I went in by the door in the valley, and so came back.
Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall; and I turned back, and entered by the valley gate, and so returned.
Then I went up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entered by the gate of the valley, and so returned.
- 16 And the chiefs had no knowledge of where I had been or what I was doing; and I had not then said anything to the Jews or to the priests or the great ones or the chiefs or the rest of those who were doing the work.
The rulers didn't know where I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest who did the work.
And the rulers knew not whither I went, or what I did; neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that did the work.

- 17 Then I said to them, You see what a bad condition we are in; how Jerusalem is a waste, and its doorways burned with fire: come, let us get to work, building up the wall of Jerusalem, so that we may no longer be put to shame.
Then said I to them, You see the evil case that we are in, how Jerusalem lies waste, and the gates of it are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a reproach.
Then said I to them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and its gates are burned with fire: come, and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we may be no more a reproach.
- 18 Then I gave them an account of how the hand of my God was on me, helping me; and of the king's words which he had said to me. And they said, Let us get to work on the building. So they made their hands strong for the good work.
I told them of the hand of my God which was good on me, as also of the king's words that he had spoken to me. They said, Let us rise up and build. So they strengthened their hands for the good [work].
Then I told them of the hand of my God which was good upon me; as also the king's words that he had spoken to me. And they said, Let us rise and build. So they strengthened their hands for this good work.
- 19 But Sanballat the Horonite and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, hearing of it, made sport of us, laughing at us and saying, What are you doing? will you go against the king?
But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that you do? will you rebel against the king?
But when Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah the servant, the Ammonite, and Geshem the Arabian, heard it, they laughed us to scorn, and despised us, and said, What is this thing that ye do? will ye rebel against the king?
- 20 Then answering them I said, The God of heaven, he will be our help; so we his servants will go on with our building: but you have no part or right or any name in Jerusalem.
Then answered I them, and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but you have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.
Then I answered them, and said to them, The God of heaven, he will prosper us; therefore we his servants will arise and build: but ye have no portion, nor right, nor memorial, in Jerusalem.
- 1 Then Eliashib, the chief priest, got up with his brothers the priests, and took in hand the building of the sheep doorway; they made it holy and put its doors in position; as far as the tower of Hammeah they made it holy, even to the tower of Hananel.
Then Eliashib the high priest rose up with his brothers the priests, and they built the sheep gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even to the tower of Hammeah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hananel.
Then Eliashib the high priest arose with his brethren the priests, and they built the sheep-gate; they sanctified it, and set up the doors of it; even to the tower of Meah they sanctified it, to the tower of Hananeel.

Hear, O our God; for we are despised: and turn their reproach upon their own head, and give them for a prey in the land of captivity:

- 12 And it came about that when the Jews who were living near them came, they said to us ten times, From all directions they are coming against us.

And it came to pass, that when the Jews who dwelt by them came, they said to us ten times, From all places whence ye shall return to us they will be upon you.
- 13 So in the lowest part of the space at the back of the walls, in the open places, I put the people by families, with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
Therefore set I in the lowest parts of the space behind the wall, in the open places, I set [there] the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
Therefore I set in the lower places behind the wall, and on the higher places, I even set the people after their families with their swords, their spears, and their bows.
- 14 And after looking, I got up and said to the great ones and to the chiefs and to the rest of the people, Have no fear of them: keep in mind the Lord who is great and greatly to be feared, and take up arms for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives and your houses.
I looked, and rose up, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Don't be you afraid of them: remember the Lord, who is great and awesome, and fight for your brothers, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.
And I looked, and arose, and said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, Be ye not afraid of them: remember the Lord who is great and terrible, and fight for your brethren, your sons, and your daughters, your wives, and your houses.

- 15 And when it came to the ears of those who were against us, that we had knowledge of their designs and that God had made their purpose come to nothing, we all went back to the wall, everyone to his work
It happened, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to nothing, that we returned all of us to the wall, everyone to his work.
And it came to pass, when our enemies heard that it was known to us, and God had brought their counsel to naught, that we returned all of us to the wall, every one to his work.
- 16 And from that time, half of my servants were doing their part of the work, and half kept the spears and body-covers and the bows and the metal war-dresses; and the chiefs were at the back of the men of Judah.
It happened from that time forth, that half of my servants worked in the work, and half of them held the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the coats of mail; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.
And it came to pass, from that time forth, that the half of my servants wrought in the work, and the other half of them held both the spears, the shields, and the bows, and the habergeons; and the rulers were behind all the house of Judah.
- 17 Those who were building the wall and those who were moving material did their part, everyone working with one hand, with his spear in the other;
They all built the wall and those who bore burdens loaded themselves; everyone with one of his hands worked in the work, and with the other held his weapon;
They who built on the wall, and they that bore burdens, with those that laded, every one with one of his hands wrought in the work, and with the other hand held a weapon.
- 18 Every builder was working with his sword at his side. And by my side was a man for sounding the horn.
and the builders, everyone had his sword girded by his side, and so built. He who sounded the trumpet was by me.
For the builders, every one had his sword girded by his side, and so built. And he that sounded the trumpet was by me.
- 19 And I said to the great ones and the chiefs and the rest of the people, The work is great and widely spaced and we are far away from one another on the wall:
I said to the nobles, and to the rulers and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated on the wall, one far from another:
And I said to the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the rest of the people, The work is great and large, and we are separated upon the wall, one far from another.

- 20 Wherever you may be when the horn is sounded, come here to us; our God will be fighting for us.
in whatever place you hear the sound of the trumpet, resort you there to us; our God will fight for us.
In what place therefore ye hear the sound of the trumpet, resort ye thither to us: our God will fight for us.
- 21 So we went on with the work: and half of them had spears in their hands from the dawn of the morning till the stars were seen.
So we worked in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning until the stars appeared.
So we labored in the work: and half of them held the spears from the rising of the morning till the stars appeared.
- 22 And at the same time I said to the people, Let everyone with his servant come inside Jerusalem for the night, so that at night they may keep watch for us, and go on working by day.
Likewise at the same time said I to the people, Let everyone with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and may labor in the day.
Likewise at the same time said I to the people, Let every one with his servant lodge within Jerusalem, that in the night they may be a guard to us, and labor in the day.
- 23 So not one of us, I or my brothers or my servants or the watchmen who were with me, took off his clothing, everyone went armed to the water.
So neither I, nor my brothers, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, everyone [went with] his weapon [to] the water.
So neither I, nor my brethren, nor my servants, nor the men of the guard who followed me, none of us put off our clothes, saving that every one put them off for washing.
- 1 Then there was a great outcry from the people and their wives against their countrymen the Jews.
Then there arose a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brothers the Jews.
And there was a great cry of the people and of their wives against their brethren the Jews.
- 2 For there were some who said, We, our sons and our daughters, are a great number: let us get grain, so that we may have food for our needs.
For there were that said, We, our sons and our daughters, are many: let us get grain, that we may eat and live.
For there were that said, We, our sons, and our daughters, are many: therefore we take up corn for them, that we may eat, and live.

- 3 And there were some who said, We are giving our fields and our vine-gardens and our houses for debt: let us get grain because we are in need.
Some also there were that said, We are mortgaging our fields, and our vineyards, and our houses: let us get grain, because of the dearth.
Some also there were that said, We have mortgaged our lands, vineyards, and houses, that we might buy corn, because of the dearth.
- 4 And there were others who said, We have given up our fields and our vine-gardens to get money for the king's taxes.
There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute [on] our fields and our vineyards.
There were also that said, We have borrowed money for the king's tribute, and that upon our lands and vineyards.
- 5 But our flesh is the same as the flesh of our countrymen, and our children as their children: and now we are giving our sons and daughters into the hands of others, to be their servants, and some of our daughters are servants even now: and we have no power to put a stop to it; for other men have our fields and our vine-gardens.
Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brothers, our children as their children: and, behold, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought into bondage [already]: neither is it in our power to help it; for other men have our fields and our vineyards.
Yet now our flesh is as the flesh of our brethren, our children as their children: and lo, we bring into bondage our sons and our daughters to be servants, and some of our daughters are brought to bondage already: neither is it in our power to redeem them; for other men have our lands and vineyards.
- 6 And on hearing their outcry and what they said I was very angry.
I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.
And I was very angry when I heard their cry and these words.
- 7 And after turning it over in my mind, I made a protest to the chiefs and the rulers, and said to them, Every one of you is taking interest from his countryman. And I got together a great meeting of protest.
Then I consulted with myself, and contended with the nobles and the rulers, and said to them, You exact usury, everyone of his brother. I held a great assembly against them.
Then I consulted with myself, and I rebuked the nobles, and the rulers, and said to them, Ye exact interest, every one of his brother. And I set a great assembly against them.

- 8 And I said to them, We have given whatever we were able to give, to make our brothers the Jews free, who were servants and prisoners of the nations: and would you now give up your brothers for a price, and are they to become our property? Then they said nothing, answering not a word.
I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brothers the Jews, that were sold to the nations; and would you even sell your brothers, and should they be sold to us? Then held they their peace, and found never a word.
And I said to them, We after our ability have redeemed our brethren the Jews, who were sold to the heathen; and will ye even sell your brethren? or shall they be sold to us? Then they held their peace, and found nothing to answer.
- 9 And I said, What you are doing is not good: is it not the more necessary for you to go in the fear of our God, because of the shame which the nations may put on us?
Also I said, The thing that you do is not good: ought you not to walk in the fear of our God, because of the reproach of the nations our enemies?
Also I said, That is not good which ye do: ought ye not to walk in the fear of our God because of the reproach of the heathen our enemies?
- 10 Even I and my servants have been taking interest for the money and the grain we have let them have. So now, let us give up this thing.
I likewise, my brothers and my servants, do lend them money and grain. Please let us leave off this usury.
I likewise, my brethren, and my servants, might exact of them money and corn: I pray you, let us leave off this usury.
- 11 Give back to them this very day their fields, their vine-gardens, their olive-gardens, and their houses, as well as a hundredth part of the money and the grain and the wine and the oil which you have taken from them.
Please restore to them, even this day, their fields, their vineyards, their olive groves, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, that you exact of them.
Restore, I pray you, to them, even this day, their lands, their vineyards, their olive-yards, and their houses, also the hundredth part of the money, and of the corn, the wine, and the oil, that ye exact of them.
- 12 Then they said, We will give them back, and take nothing for them; we will do as you say. Then I sent for the priests and made them take an oath that they would keep this agreement.
Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do, even as you say. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise.
Then said they, We will restore them, and will require nothing of them; so will we do as thou sayest. Then I called the priests, and took an oath of them, that they would do according to this promise.

- 13 And shaking out the folds of my robe, I said, So may God send out from his house and his work every man who does not keep this agreement; even so let him be sent out and made as nothing. And all the meeting of the people said, So be it, and gave praise to the Lord. And the people did as they had said.
Also I shook out my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that doesn't perform this promise; even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. All the assembly said, Amen, and praised Yahweh. The people did according to this promise.
Also I shook my lap, and said, So God shake out every man from his house, and from his labor, that performeth not this promise, even thus be he shaken out, and emptied. And all the congregation said, Amen, and praised the LORD. And the people did according to this promise.
- 14 Now from the time when I was made ruler of the people in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year till the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes the king, for twelve years, I and my servants have never taken the food which was the right of the ruler.
Moreover from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, [that is], twelve years, I and my brothers have not eaten the bread of the governor.
Moreover, from the time that I was appointed to be their governor in the land of Judah, from the twentieth year even to the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes the king, that is, twelve years, I and my brethren have not eaten the bread of the governor.
- 15 But earlier rulers who were before me made the people responsible for their upkeep, and took from them bread and wine at the rate of forty shekels of silver; and even their servants were lords over the people: but I did not do so, because of the fear of God.
But the former governors who were before me were chargeable to the people, and took of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people: but I didn't do so, because of the fear of God.
But the former governors, that had been before me were chargeable to the people, and had taken of them bread and wine, besides forty shekels of silver; yes, even their servants bore rule over the people: but so did not I, because of the fear of God.
- 16 And I kept on with the work of this wall, and we got no land for ourselves: and all my servants were helping with the work.
Yes, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered there to the work.
Yea, also I continued in the work of this wall, neither bought we any land: and all my servants were gathered thither to the work.
- 17 And more than this, a hundred and fifty of the Jews and the rulers were guests at my table, in addition to those who came to us from the nations round about us.
Moreover there were at my table, of the Jews and the rulers, one hundred fifty men, besides those who came to us from among the nations that were round about us.
Moreover, there were at my table a hundred and fifty of the Jews and rulers, besides those that came to us from among the heathen that were about us.

- 18 Now the food made ready for one day was one ox and six fat sheep, as well as fowls; and once in ten days a store of all sorts of wine: but all the same, I did not take the food to which the ruler had a right, because the people were crushed under a hard yoke.
Now that which was prepared for one day was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days store of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I didn't demand the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy on this people.
Now that which was prepared for me daily was one ox and six choice sheep; also fowls were prepared for me, and once in ten days an abundance of all sorts of wine: yet for all this I required not the bread of the governor, because the bondage was heavy upon this people.
- 19 Keep in mind, O my God, for my good, all I have done for this people.
Remember to me, my God, for good, all that I have done for this people.
Think upon me, my God, for good, according to all that I have done for this people.

- 1 Now when word was given to Sanballat and Tobiah and to Geshem the Arabian and to the rest of our haters, that I had done the building of the wall and that there were no more broken places in it (though even then I had not put up the doors in the doorways);
Now it happened, when it was reported to Sanballat and Tobiah, and to Geshem the Arabian, and to the rest of our enemies, that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left therein; (though even to that time I had not set up the doors in the gates;)
Now it came to pass, when Sanballat, and Tobiah, and Geshem the Arabian, and the rest of our enemies, heard that I had built the wall, and that there was no breach left in it, (though at that time I had not set up the doors upon the gates;)
- 2 Sanballat and Geshem sent to me saying, Come, let us have a meeting in one of the little towns in the lowland of Ono. But their purpose was to do me evil.
that Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in [one of] the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.
That Sanballat and Geshem sent to me, saying, Come, let us meet together in some one of the villages in the plain of Ono. But they thought to do me mischief.
- 3 And I sent men to them saying, I am doing a great work, so that it is not possible for me to come down: is the work to be stopped while I go away from it and come down to you?
I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I can't come down: why should the work cease, while I leave it, and come down to you?
And I sent messengers to them, saying, I am doing a great work, so that I cannot come down: why should the work cease, whilst I leave it, and come down to you?

4 And four times they sent to me in this way, and I sent them the same answer.

They sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

Yet they sent to me four times after this sort; and I answered them after the same manner.

5 Then Sanballat sent his servant to me a fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

Then sent Sanballat his servant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand,

Then Sanballat sent his servant to me in like manner the fifth time with an open letter in his hand;

6 And in it these words were recorded: It is said among the nations, and Geshem says so, that you and the Jews are hoping to make yourselves free from the king's authority; and that this is why you are building the wall: and they say that it is your purpose to be their king;

in which was written, It is reported among the nations, and Gashmu says it, that you and the Jews think to rebel; for which cause you are building the wall: and you would be their king, according to these words.

In which was written, It is reported among the heathen, and Gashmu saith it, that thou and the Jews think to rebel: for which cause thou buildest the wall that thou mayest be their king, according to these words.

7 And that you have prophets preaching about you in Jerusalem, and saying, There is a king in Judah: now an account of these things will be sent to the king. So come now, and let us have a discussion.

You have also appointed prophets to preach of you at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

And thou hast also appointed prophets to preach of thee at Jerusalem, saying, There is a king in Judah: and now shall it be reported to the king according to these words. Come now therefore, and let us take counsel together.

8 Then I sent to him, saying, No such things as you say are being done, they are only a fiction you have made up yourself.

Then I sent to him, saying, There are no such things done as you say, but you feign them out of your own heart.

Then I sent to him, saying, There are no such things done as thou sayest, but thou feignest them out of thy own heart.

9 For they were hoping to put fear in us, saying, Their hands will become feeble and give up the work so that it may not get done. But now, O God, make my hands strong.

For they all would have made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it not be done. But now, [God], strengthen you my hands.

For they all made us afraid, saying, Their hands shall be weakened from the work, that it may not be done. Now therefore, O God, strengthen my hands.

- 10 And I went to the house of Shemaiah, the son of Delaiah, the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us have a meeting in the house of God, inside the Temple, and let the doors be shut: for they will come to put you to death; truly, in the night they will come to put you to death.
I went to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to kill you; yes, in the night will they come to kill you.
Afterward I came to the house of Shemaiah the son of Delaiah the son of Mehetabeel, who was shut up; and he said, Let us meet together in the house of God, within the temple, and let us shut the doors of the temple: for they will come to slay thee; yea, in the night will they come to slay thee.
- 11 And I said, Am I the sort of man to go in flight? what man, in my position, would go into the Temple to keep himself safe? I will not go in.
I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there that, being such as I, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.
And I said, Should such a man as I flee? and who is there, that, being as I am, would go into the temple to save his life? I will not go in.
- 12 Then it became clear to me that God had not sent him: he had given this word of a prophet against me himself: and Tobiah and Sanballat had given him money to do so.
I discerned, and, behold, God had not sent him; but he pronounced this prophecy against me: and Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
And lo, I perceived that God had not sent him; but that he pronounced this prophecy against me: for Tobiah and Sanballat had hired him.
- 13 For this reason they had given him money, in order that I might be overcome by fear and do what he said and do wrong, and so they would have reason to say evil about me and put shame on me.
For this cause was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.
Therefore was he hired, that I should be afraid, and do so, and sin, and that they might have matter for an evil report, that they might reproach me.
- 14 Keep in mind, O my God, Tobiah and Sanballat and what they did, and Noadiah, the woman prophet, and the rest of the prophets whose purpose was to put fear into me.
Remember, my God, Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and also the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.
My God, think thou upon Tobiah and Sanballat according to these their works, and on the prophetess Noadiah, and the rest of the prophets, that would have put me in fear.

- 15 So the wall was complete on the twenty-fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty-two days.
So the wall was finished in the twenty-fifth [day] of [the month] Elul, in fifty-two days.
So the wall was finished in the twenty and fifth day of the month Elul, in fifty and two days.
- 16 And when our haters had news of this, all the nations round about us were full of fear and were greatly shamed, for they saw that this work had been done by our God.
It happened, when all our enemies heard [of it], that all the nations that were about us feared, and were much cast down in their own eyes; for they perceived that this work was worked of our God.
And it came to pass, that when all our enemies heard of it, and all the heathen that were about us saw these things, they were much cast down in their own eyes: for they perceived that this work was wrought by our God.
- 17 And further, in those days the chiefs of Judah sent a number of letters to Tobiah, and his letters came to them.
Moreover in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and [the letters] of Tobiah came to them.
Moreover, in those days the nobles of Judah sent many letters to Tobiah, and the letters of Tobiah came to them.
- 18 For in Judah there were a number of people who had made an agreement by oath with him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah, the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken as his wife the daughter of Meshullam, the son of Berechiah.
For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shecaniah the son of Arah; and his son Jehohanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah as wife.
For there were many in Judah sworn to him, because he was the son-in-law of Shechaniah the son of Arah; and his son Johanan had taken the daughter of Meshullam the son of Berechiah.
- 19 And they said much before me of the good he had done, and gave him accounts of my words. And Tobiah sent letters with the purpose of causing me fear.
Also they spoke of his good deeds before me, and reported my words to him. Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.
Also they reported his good deeds before me, and uttered my words to him. And Tobiah sent letters to put me in fear.

- 1 Now when the building of the wall was complete and I had put up the doors, and the door-keepers and the music-makers and the Levites had been given their places,
Now it happened, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed,
Now it came to pass, when the wall was built, and I had set up the doors, and the porters and the singers and the Levites were appointed, 2 I made my brother Hanani, and Hananiah, the ruler of the tower, responsible for the government of Jerusalem: for he was a man of good faith, fearing God more than most.

that I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the governor of the castle, charge over Jerusalem; for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

That I gave my brother Hanani, and Hananiah the ruler of the palace, charge over Jerusalem: for he was a faithful man, and feared God above many.

3 And I said to them, Do not let the doors of Jerusalem be open till the sun is high; and while the watchmen are in their places, let the doors be shut and locked: and let the people of Jerusalem be put on watch, every one in his watch, opposite his house.

I said to them, Don` t let the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun be hot; and while they stand [on guard], let them shut the doors, and bar you them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, everyone in his watch, and everyone [to be] over against his house.

And I said to them, Let not the gates of Jerusalem be opened until the sun shall be hot; and while they stand by, let them shut the doors, and bar them: and appoint watches of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, every one in his watch, and every one to be over against his house.

4 Now the town was wide and great: but the people in it were only a small number, and the houses had not been put up.

Now the city was wide and large; but the people were few therein, and the houses were not built.

Now the city was large and great: but the people in it were few, and the houses were not built.

5 And my God put it into my heart to get together the rulers and the chiefs and the people so that they might be listed by families. And I came across a record of the names of those who came up at the first, and in it I saw these words:

My God put into my heart to gather together the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. I found the book of the genealogy of those who came up at the first, and I found written therein:

And my God put into my heart to assemble the nobles, and the rulers, and the people, that they might be reckoned by genealogy. And I found a register of the genealogy of them who came up at the first, and found written in it,

- 6 You are the Lord, even you only; you have made heaven, the heaven of heavens with all their armies, the earth and all things in it, the seas and everything in them; and you keep them from destruction: and the armies of heaven are your worshippers.
You are Yahweh, even you alone; you have made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth and all things that are thereon, the seas and all that is in them, and you preserve them all; and the host of heaven worships you.
Thou, even thou, art LORD alone; thou hast made heaven, the heaven of heavens, with all their host, the earth, and all things that are in it, the seas, and all that is in them, and thou preservest them all; and the host of heaven worshipeth thee.
- 7 You are the Lord, the God, who took Abram and made him yours, guiding him from Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham;
You are Yahweh the God, who did choose Abram, and brought him forth out of Ur of the Chaldees, and gave him the name of Abraham,
Thou art the LORD the God, who chocest Abram, and broughtest him forth from Ur of the Chaldees, and gavest him the name of Abraham;

- 8 You saw that his heart was true to you, and made an agreement with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite and the Perizzite and the Jebusite and the Girgashite, even to give it to his seed, and you have done what you said; for righteousness is yours:
and found his heart faithful before you, and mad a covenant with him to give the land of the Canaanite, the Hittite, the Amorite, and the Perizzite, and the Jebusite, and the Girgashite, to give it to his seed, and have performed your words; for you are righteous.
And foundest his heart faithful before thee, and madest a covenant with him, to give the land of the Canaanites, the Hittites, the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Jebusites, and the Girgashites, to give it, I say, to his seed, and hast performed thy words; for thou art righteous:
- 9 And you saw the trouble of our fathers in Egypt, and their cry came to your ears by the Red Sea;
You saw the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heard their cry by the Red Sea,
And thou sawest the affliction of our fathers in Egypt, and heardest their cry by the Red sea;
- 10 And you did signs and wonders on Pharaoh and all his servants and all the people of his land; for you saw how cruel they were to them. So you got yourself a name as it is today.
and showed signs and wonders on Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land; for you knew that they dealt proudly against them, and did get you a name, as it is this day.
And shewedst signs and wonders upon Pharaoh, and on all his servants, and on all the people of his land: for thou knewest that they dealt proudly against them. So didst thou get thee a name, as it is this day.
- 11 By you the sea was parted before them, so that they went through the sea on dry land; and those who went after them went down into the deep, like a stone into great waters.
You divided the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their pursuers you did cast into the depths, as a stone into the mighty waters.
And thou didst divide the sea before them, so that they went through the midst of the sea on the dry land; and their persecutors thou threwest into the deeps, as a stone into the mighty waters.
- 12 And you went before them by day in a pillar of cloud, and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light on the way they were to go.
Moreover in a pillar of cloud you led them by day; and in a pillar of fire by night, to give them light in the way in which they should go.
Moreover, thou leddest them in the day by a cloudy pillar; and in the night by a pillar of fire, to give them light in the way in which they should go.

13 And you came down on Mount Sinai, and your voice came to them from heaven, giving them right decisions and true laws, good rules and orders:
You came down also on Mount Sinai, and spoke with them from heaven, and gave them right ordinances and true laws, good statutes and commandments,
Thou camest down also upon mount Sinai, and spokest with them from heaven, and gavest them right judgments, and true laws, good statutes and commandments:

14 And you gave them word of your holy Sabbath, and gave them orders and rules and a law, by the hand of Moses your servant:
and mad known to them your holy Sabbath, and commanded them commandments, and statutes, and a law, by Moses your servant,
And madest known to them thy holy sabbath, and commandedst them precepts, statutes, and laws, by the hand of Moses thy servant:

15 And you gave them bread from heaven when they were in need, and made water come out of the rock for their drink, and gave them orders to go in and take for their heritage the land which your hand had been lifted up to give them.
and gave them bread from the sky for their hunger, and brought forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and commanded those who they should go in to possess the land which you had sworn to give them.
And gavest them bread from heaven for their hunger, and broughtest forth water for them out of the rock for their thirst, and promisedst them that they should go in to possess the land which thou hadst sworn to give them.

16 But they and our fathers, in their pride, made their necks stiff, and gave no attention to your orders,
But they and our fathers dealt proudly and hardened their neck, and didn't listen to your commandments,
But they and our fathers dealt proudly, and hardened their necks, and hearkened not to thy commandments,

17 And would not do them, and gave no thought to the wonders you had done among them; but made their necks stiff, and turning away from you, made a captain over themselves to take them back to their prison in Egypt: but you are a God of forgiveness, full of grace and pity, slow to wrath and great in mercy, and you did not give them up.
and refused to obey, neither were mindful of your wonders that you did among them, but hardened their neck, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage. But you are a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and didn't forsake them.
And refused to obey, neither were mindful of thy wonders that thou didst perform among them; but hardened their necks, and in their rebellion appointed a captain to return to their bondage: but thou art a God ready to pardon, gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and of great kindness, and forsookest them not.

- 18 Even when they had made for themselves an ox of metal, and said, This is your God who took you up out of Egypt, and had done so much to make you angry;
Yes, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is your God who brought you up out of Egypt, and had committed awful blasphemies;
Yea, when they had made them a molten calf, and said, This is thy God that brought thee out of Egypt, and had wrought great provocations;
- 19 Even then, in your great mercy, you did not give them up in the waste land: the pillar of cloud still went before them by day, guiding them on their way, and the pillar of fire by night, to give them light, and make clear the way they were to go.
yet you in your manifold mercies didn't forsake them in the wilderness: the pillar of cloud didn't depart from over them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go.
Yet thou in thy manifold mercies forsookest them not in the wilderness: the pillar of the cloud departed not from them by day, to lead them in the way; neither the pillar of fire by night, to show them light, and the way in which they should go.
- 20 And you gave your good spirit to be their teacher, and did not keep back your manna from their mouths, and gave them water when they had need of it.
You gave also your good Spirit to instruct them, and didn't withhold your manna from their mouth, and gave them water for their thirst.
Thou gavest also thy good spirit to instruct them, and withheldest not thy manna from their mouth, and gavest them water for their thirst.
- 21 Truly, for forty years you were their support in the waste land, and they were in need of nothing; their clothing did not get old or their feet become tired.
Yes, forty years did you sustain them in the wilderness, [and] they lacked nothing; their clothes didn't grow old, and their feet didn't swell.
Yea, forty years didst thou sustain them in the wilderness, so that they lacked nothing; their clothes grew not old, and their feet swelled not.
- 22 And you gave them kingdoms and peoples, making distribution to them in every part of the land: so they took for their heritage the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og, king of Bashan.
Moreover you gave them kingdoms and peoples, which you did allot after their portions: so they possessed the land of Sihon, even the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.
Moreover, thou gavest them kingdoms and nations, and didst divide them into corners: so they possessed the land of Sihon, and the land of the king of Heshbon, and the land of Og king of Bashan.

- 23 And you made their children as great in number as the stars of heaven, and took them into the land, of which you had said to their fathers that they were to go in and take it for themselves. Their children also multiplied you as the stars of the sky, and brought them into the land concerning which you did say to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
- Their children also multipliedst thou as the stars of heaven, and broughtest them into the land, concerning which thou hadst promised to their fathers, that they should go in to possess it.
- 24 So the children went in and took the land, and you overcame before them the people of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them up into their hands, with their kings and the people of the land, so that they might do with them whatever it was their pleasure to do.
- So the children went in and possessed the land, and you subdued before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gave them into their hands, with their kings, and the peoples of the land, that they might do with them as they would.
- So the children went in and possessed the land, and thou subduedst before them the inhabitants of the land, the Canaanites, and gavest them into their hands, with their kings, and the people of the land, that they might do with them as they would.
- 25 And they took walled towns and a fat land, and became the owners of houses full of all good things, water-holes cut in the rock, vine-gardens and olive-gardens and a wealth of fruit-trees: so they had food enough and became fat, and had joy in the good you gave them.
- They took fortified cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all good things, cisterns hewn out, vineyards, and olive groves, and fruit-trees in abundance: so they ate, and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in your great goodness.
- And they took strong cities, and a fat land, and possessed houses full of all goods, wells digged, vineyards and olive-yards, and fruit trees in abundance: so they ate and were filled, and became fat, and delighted themselves in thy great goodness.
- 26 But they were hard-hearted, and went against your authority, turning their backs on your law, and putting to death your prophets, who gave witness against them with the purpose of turning them back again to you, and they did much to make you angry.
- Nevertheless they were disobedient, and rebelled against you, and cast your law behind their back, and killed your prophets that testified against them to turn them again to you, and they committed awful blasphemies.
- Nevertheless, they were disobedient, and rebelled against thee, and cast thy law behind their backs, and slew thy prophets who testified against them to turn them to thee, and they wrought great provocations.

- 27 And so you gave them up into the hands of their haters who were cruel to them: and in the time of their trouble, when they made their prayer to you, you gave ear to them from heaven; and in your great mercy gave them saviours, who made them free from the hands of their haters.
Therefore you delivered them into the hand of their adversaries, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to you, you heard from heaven; and according to your manifold mercies you gave them saviors who saved them out of the hand of their adversaries.
Therefore thou deliveredst them into the hand of their enemies, who distressed them: and in the time of their trouble, when they cried to thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and according to thy manifold mercies thou gavest them deliverers, who saved them out of the hand of their enemies.
- 28 But when they had rest, they did evil again before you: so you gave them into the hands of their haters, who had rule over them: but when they came back and made their prayer to you, you gave ear to them from heaven; again and again, in your mercy, you gave them salvation;
But after they had rest, they did evil again before you; therefore left you them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned, and cried to you, you heard from heaven; and many times did you deliver them according to your mercies,
But after they had rest, they did evil again before thee: therefore thou leftest them in the hand of their enemies, so that they had the dominion over them: yet when they returned and cried to thee, thou hearest them from heaven; and many times didst thou deliver them according to thy mercies;
- 29 And gave witness against them so that you might make them come back again to your law: but their hearts were lifted up, and they gave no attention to your orders and went against your decisions (which, if a man keeps them, will be life to him), and turning their backs on you, made their necks stiff and did not give ear.
and testified against them, that you might bring them again to your law. Yet they dealt proudly, and didn't listen to your commandments, but sinned against your ordinances, (which if a man do, he shall live in them,) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.
And testifiedst against them, that thou mightest bring them again to thy law: yet they dealt proudly, and hearkened not to thy commandments, but sinned against thy judgments, (which if a man doeth, he shall live in them:) and withdrew the shoulder, and hardened their neck, and would not hear.
- 30 Year after year you put up with them, and gave witness against them by your spirit through your prophets: still they did not give ear: and so you gave them up into the hands of the peoples of the lands.
Yet many years did you bear with them, and testified against them by your Spirit through your prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore gave you them into the hand of the peoples of the lands.
Yet many years didst thou forbear over them, and testifiedst against them by thy spirit in thy prophets: yet would they not give ear: therefore thou gavest them into the hand of the people of the lands.

- 31 Even then, in your great mercy, you did not put an end to them completely, or give them up; for you are a God of grace and mercy.
Nevertheless in your manifold mercies you did not make a full end of them, nor forsake them; for you are a gracious and merciful God.
Nevertheless, for thy great mercies' sake thou didst not utterly consume them, nor forsake them; for thou art a gracious and merciful God.
- 32 And now, our God, the great, the strong, the God who is to be feared, who keeps faith and mercy, let not all this trouble seem small to you, which has come on us, and on our kings and our rulers and on our priests and our prophets and our fathers and on all your people from the time of the kings of Assyria till this day.
Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the awesome God, who keep covenant and lovingkindness, don't let all the travail seem little before you, that has come on us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all your people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.
Now therefore, our God, the great, the mighty, and the terrible God, who keepest covenant and mercy, let not all the trouble seem little before thee, that hath come upon us, on our kings, on our princes, and on our priests, and on our prophets, and on our fathers, and on all thy people, since the time of the kings of Assyria to this day.
- 33 But still, you have been in the right in everything which has come on us; you have been true to us, but we have done evil:
However you are just in all that is come on us; for you have dealt truly, but we have done wickedly;
But thou art just in all that is brought upon us; for thou hast done right, but we have done wickedly:
- 34 And our kings, our rulers, our priests, and our fathers have not kept your law or given attention to your orders and your witness, with which you gave witness against them.
neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept your law, nor listened to your commandments and your testimonies with which you did testify against them.
Neither have our kings, our princes, our priests, nor our fathers, kept thy law, nor hearkened to thy commandments and thy testimonies, with which thou didst testify against them.
- 35 For they have not been your servants in their kingdom, and in all the good things you gave them, and in the great and fat land you gave them, and they have not been turned away from their evil-doing.
For they have not served you in their kingdom, and in your great goodness that you gave them, and in the large and fat land which you gave before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.
For they have not served thee in their kingdom, and in thy great goodness that thou gavest them, and in the large and fat land which thou gavest before them, neither turned they from their wicked works.

- 36 Now, today, we are servants, and as for the land which you gave to our fathers, so that the produce of it and the good might be theirs, see, we are servants in it:
Behold, we are servants this day, and as for the land that you gave to our fathers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, behold, we are servants in it.
Behold, we are servants this day, and for the land that thou gavest to our fathers to eat the fruit of it and the good of it, behold, we are servants in it:
- 37 And it gives much increase to the kings whom you have put over us because of our sins: and they have power over our bodies and over our cattle at their pleasure, and we are in great trouble.
It yields much increase to the kings whom you have set over us because of our sins: also they have power over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.
And it yieldeth much increase to the kings whom thou hast set over us because of our sins: also they have dominion over our bodies, and over our cattle, at their pleasure, and we are in great distress.
- 38 And because of all this we are making an agreement in good faith, and putting it in writing; and our rulers, our Levites, and our priests are putting their names to it.
Yet for all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, our Levites, [and] our priests, seal to it.
And because of all this we make a sure covenant, and write it; and our princes, Levites, and priests, set their seals to it.
- 1 Now those who put down their names were Nehemiah the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zedekiah,
Now those who sealed were: Nehemiah the governor, the son of Hachaliah, and Zedekiah,
Now those that sealed were, Nehemiah, the Tirshatha, the son of Hachaliah, and Zidkijah,

28 And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the door-keepers, the music-makers, the Nethinim, and all those who had made themselves separate from the peoples of the lands, to keep the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge and wisdom;
The rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinim, and all those who had separated themselves from the peoples of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, everyone who had knowledge, and understanding;
And the rest of the people, the priests, the Levites, the porters, the singers, the Nethinims, and all they that had separated themselves from the people of the lands to the law of God, their wives, their sons, and their daughters, every one having knowledge, and having understanding;

29 They were united with their brothers, their rulers, and put themselves under a curse and an oath, to keep their steps in the way of God's law, which was given by Moses, the servant of God, and to keep and do all the orders of the Lord, our Lord, and his decisions and his rules;
They joined with their brothers, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of Yahweh our Lord, and his ordinances and his statutes;
They united with their brethren, their nobles, and entered into a curse, and into an oath, to walk in God's law, which was given by Moses the servant of God, and to observe and do all the commandments of the LORD our Lord, and his judgments and his statutes;

- 30 And that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the lands, or take their daughters for our sons; and that we would not give our daughters to the peoples of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons;
And that we would not give our daughters to the people of the land, nor take their daughters for our sons:
- 31 And if the peoples of the lands come to do trade in goods or food on the Sabbath day, that we would do no trade with them on the Sabbath or on a holy day: and that in the seventh year we would take no payment from any debtor.
and if the peoples of the land bring wares or any grain on the Sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy of them on the Sabbath, or on a holy day; and that we would forego the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.
And if the people of the land should bring wares or any provisions on the sabbath day to sell, that we would not buy it of them on the sabbath, or on the holy day: and that we would leave the seventh year, and the exaction of every debt.
- 32 And we made rules for ourselves, taxing ourselves a third of a shekel every year for the upkeep of the house of our God;
Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;
Also we made ordinances for us, to charge ourselves yearly with the third part of a shekel for the service of the house of our God;
- 33 For the holy bread, and for the regular meal offering and the regular burned offering on the Sabbaths and at the new moon and the fixed feasts, and for the sin-offerings to take away the sin of Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
for the show bread, and for the continual meal-offering, and for the continual burnt-offering, for the Sabbaths, for the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin-offerings to make atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
For the show-bread, and for the continual meat-offering, and for the continual burnt-offering, of the sabbaths, of the new moons, for the set feasts, and for the holy things, and for the sin-offerings to make an atonement for Israel, and for all the work of the house of our God.
- 34 And we, the priests and the Levites and the people, made selection, by the decision of the Lord, of those who were to take the wood offering into the house of God, by families at the regular times, year by year, to be burned on the altar of the Lord our God, as it is recorded in the law;
We cast lots, the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, according to our fathers' houses, at times appointed, year by year, to burn on the altar of Yahweh our God, as it is written in the law;
And we cast the lots among the priests, the Levites, and the people, for the wood-offering, to bring it into the house of our God, after the houses of our fathers, at times appointed year by year, to burn upon the altar of the LORD our God, as it is written in the law:

- 35 And to take the first-fruits of our land, and the first-fruits of every sort of tree, year by year, into the house of the Lord;
and to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all manner of trees, year by year, to the house of Yahweh;
And to bring the first-fruits of our ground, and the first-fruits of all fruit of all trees, year by year, to the house of the LORD:
- 36 As well as the first of our sons and of our cattle, as it is recorded in the law, and the first lambs of our herds and of our flocks, which are to be taken to the house of our God, to the priests who are servants in the house of our God:
also the firstborn of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstborn of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests who minister in the house of our God;
Also the first-born of our sons, and of our cattle, as it is written in the law, and the firstlings of our herds and of our flocks, to bring to the house of our God, to the priests that minister in the house of our God:
- 37 And that we would take the first of our rough meal, and our lifted offerings, and the fruit of every sort of tree, and wine and oil, to the priests, to the rooms of the house of our God; and the tenth of the produce of our land to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take a tenth in all the towns of our ploughed land.
and that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our heave-offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, the new wine and the oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites; for they, the Levites, take the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
And that we should bring the first-fruits of our dough, and our offerings, and the fruit of all manner of trees, of wine and of oil, to the priests, to the chambers of the house of our God; and the tithes of our ground to the Levites, that the same Levites might have the tithes in all the cities of our tillage.
- 38 And the priest, the son of Aaron, is to be with the Levites, when the Levites take the tenths: and the Levites are to take a tenth of the tenths into the house of our God, to the rooms, into the store-house;
The priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tithe of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure-house.
And the priest the son of Aaron shall be with the Levites, when the Levites take tithes: and the Levites shall bring up the tenth of the tithes to the house of our God, to the chambers, into the treasure house.

39 For the children of Israel and the children of Levi are to take the lifted offering of the grain and wine and oil into the rooms where the vessels of the holy place are, together with the priests and the door-keepers and the makers of music: and we will not give up caring for the house of our God.

For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the heave-offering of the grain, of the new wine, and of the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests who minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

For the children of Israel and the children of Levi shall bring the offering of the corn, of the new wine, and the oil, to the chambers, where are the vessels of the sanctuary, and the priests that minister, and the porters, and the singers: and we will not forsake the house of our God.

- 29 And from Beth-gilgal and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the music-makers had made daughter-towns for themselves round about Jerusalem.
also from Beth-gilgal, and out of the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages round about Jerusalem.
Also from the house of Gilgal, and from the fields of Geba and Azmaveth: for the singers had built them villages around Jerusalem.

- 31 Then I made the rulers of Judah come up on the wall, and I put in position two great bands of them who gave praise, walking in ordered lines; one went to the right on the wall, in the direction of the doorway where the waste was put;
Then I brought up the princes of Judah on the wall, and appointed two great companies who gave thanks and went in procession; [whereof one went] on the right hand on the wall toward the dung gate:
Then I brought up the princes of Judah upon the wall, and appointed two great companies of them that gave thanks, of which one went on the right hand upon the wall towards the dung-gate:

and after them went Hoshaiiah, and half of the princes of Judah,

- 37 And by the doorway of the fountain and straight in front of them, they went up by the steps of the town of David, at the slope up of the wall, over the house of David, as far as the water-doorway to the east.
By the spring gate, and straight before them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water gate eastward.
And at the fountain-gate, which was over against them, they went up by the stairs of the city of David, at the ascent of the wall, above the house of David, even to the water-gate eastward.
- 38 And the other band of those who gave praise went to the left, and I went after them with half the people, on the wall, over the tower of the ovens, as far as the wide wall;
The other company of those who gave thanks went to meet them, and I after them, with the half of the people, on the wall, above the tower of the furnaces, even to the broad wall,
And the other company of them that gave thanks went over against them, and I after them, and the half of the people upon the wall, from beyond the tower of the furnaces even to the broad wall;
- 39 And over the doorway of Ephraim and by the old door and the fish door and the tower of Hananel and the tower of Hammeah, as far as the sheep door: and at the doorway of the watchmen they came to a stop.
and above the gate of Ephraim, and by the old gate, and by the fish gate, and the tower of Hananel, and the tower of Hammeah, even to the sheep gate: and they stood still in the gate of the guard.
And from above the gate of Ephraim, and above the old gate, and above the fish-gate, and the tower of Hananeel, and the tower of Meah, even to the sheep-gate: and they stood still in the prison-gate.
- 40 So the two bands of those who gave praise took up their positions in the house of God, and I and half of the chiefs with me:
So stood the two companies of those who gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me;
So stood the two companies of them that gave thanks in the house of God, and I, and the half of the rulers with me:

And Maaseiah, and Shemaiah, and Eleazar, and Uzzi, and Jehohanan, and Malchijah, and Elam, and Ezer. And the singers sang loud, with Jezrahiah their overseer.

- 43 And on that day they made great offerings and were glad; for God had made them glad with great joy; and the women and the children were glad with them: so that the joy of Jerusalem came to the ears of those who were far off.
They offered great sacrifices that day, and rejoiced; for God had made them rejoice with great joy; and the women also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.
Also that day they offered great sacrifices, and rejoiced: for God had made them rejoice with great joy: the wives also and the children rejoiced: so that the joy of Jerusalem was heard even afar off.
- 44 And on that day certain men were put over the rooms where the things which had been given were stored, for the lifted offerings and the first-fruits and the tenths, and to take into them the amounts, from the fields of every town, fixed by the law for the priests and the Levites: for Judah was glad on account of the priests and the Levites who were in their places.
On that day were men appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the heave-offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them, according to the fields of the cities, the portions appointed by the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites who waited.
And at that time were some appointed over the chambers for the treasures, for the offerings, for the first-fruits, and for the tithes, to gather into them out of the fields of the cities the portions of the law for the priests and Levites: for Judah rejoiced for the priests and for the Levites that waited.
- 45 And they kept the watch of their God, and were responsible for making things clean, and so did the music-makers and the door-keepers, as it was ordered by David and Solomon his son.
They kept the charge of their God, and the charge of the purification, and [so did] the singers and the porters, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.
And both the singers and the porters kept the ward of their God, and the ward of the purification, according to the commandment of David, and of Solomon his son.
- 46 For in the days of David and Asaph in the past, there was a master of the music, and songs of blessing and praise to God.
For in the days of David and Asaph of old there was a chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
For in the days of David, and Asaph of old there were chief of the singers, and songs of praise and thanksgiving to God.
- 47 And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel and in the days of Nehemiah gave what was needed by the music-makers and the door-keepers day by day: and they made the offerings holy for the Levites; and the Levites did the same for the sons of Aaron.
All Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, as every day required: and they set apart [that which was] for the Levites; and the Levites set apart [that which was] for the sons of Aaron.
And all Israel in the days of Zerubbabel, and in the days of Nehemiah, gave the portions of the singers and the porters, every day his portion: and they sanctified holy things to the Levites; and the Levites sanctified them to the children of Aaron.

- 1 On that day there was a reading from the book of Moses in the hearing of the people; and they saw that it said in the book that no Ammonite or Moabite might ever come into the meeting of God;
On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that an Ammonite and a Moabite should not enter into the assembly of God forever,
On that day they read in the book of Moses in the audience of the people; and therein was found written, that the Ammonite and the Moabite should not come into the congregation of God for ever:
- 2 Because they did not give the children of Israel bread and water when they came to them, but got Balaam to put a curse on them: though the curse was turned into a blessing by our God.
because they didn't meet the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Balaam against them, to curse them: however our God turned the curse into a blessing.
Because they met not the children of Israel with bread and with water, but hired Baalam against them, that he should curse them: but our God turned the curse into a blessing.
- 3 So after hearing the law, they took out of Israel all the mixed people.
It came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.
Now it came to pass, when they had heard the law, that they separated from Israel all the mixed multitude.
- 4 Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who had been placed over the rooms of the house of our God, being a friend of Tobiah,
Now before this, Eliashib the priest, who was appointed over the chambers of the house of our God, being allied to Tobiah,
And before this, Eliashib the priest, having the oversight of the chamber of the house of our God, was allied to Tobiah:
- 5 Had made ready for him a great room, where at one time they kept the meal offerings, the perfume, and the vessels and the tenths of the grain and wine and oil which were given by order to the Levites and the music-makers and the door-keepers, and the lifted offerings for the priests.
had prepared for him a great chamber, where before they laid the meal-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tenths of the grain, the new wine, and the oil, which were given by commandment to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the heave-offerings for the priests.
And he had prepared for him a great chamber, where formerly they laid the meat-offerings, the frankincense, and the vessels, and the tenths of the corn, the new wine, and the oil, which was commanded to be given to the Levites, and the singers, and the porters; and the offerings of the priests.

- 6 But all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the thirty-second year of Artaxerxes, king of Babylon, I went to the king; and after some days, I got the king to let me go,
But in all this [time] I was not at Jerusalem; for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I went to the king: and after certain days asked I leave of the king,
But in all this time I was not at Jerusalem: for in the two and thirtieth year of Artaxerxes king of Babylon I came to the king, and after certain days I obtained leave of the king:
- 7 And I came to Jerusalem; and it was clear to me what evil Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in making ready for him a room in the buildings of the house of God.
and I came to Jerusalem, and understood the evil that Eliashib had done for Tobiah, in preparing him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.
And I came to Jerusalem, and understood of the evil that Eliashib did for Tobiah, in preparing for him a chamber in the courts of the house of God.
- 8 And it was evil in my eyes: so I had all Tobiah's things put out of the room.
It grieved me sore: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.
And it grieved me greatly: therefore I cast forth all the household stuff of Tobiah out of the chamber.
- 9 Then I gave orders, and they made the rooms clean: and I put back in them the vessels of the house of God, with the meal offerings and the perfume.
Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and there brought I again the vessels of the house of God, with the meal-offerings and the frankincense.
Then I commanded, and they cleansed the chambers: and thither I brought again the vessels of the house of God, with the meat-offering and the frankincense.
- 10 And I saw that the Levites had not been given what was needed for their support; so that the Levites and the music-makers, who did the work, had gone away, everyone to his field.
I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them; so that the Levites and the singers, who did the work, were fled everyone to his field.
And I perceived that the portions of the Levites had not been given them: for the Levites and the singers, that did the work, had fled every one to his field.
- 11 Then I made protests to the chiefs, and said, Why has the house of God been given up? And I got them together and put them in their places.
Then contended I with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? I gathered them together, and set them in their place.
Then I contended with the rulers, and said, Why is the house of God forsaken? and I assembled them, and set them in their place.

- 12 Then all Judah came with the tenth part of the grain and wine and oil and put it into the store-houses.
Then brought all Judah the tithe of the grain and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries.
Then all Judah brought the tithe of the corn and the new wine and the oil to the treasuries.
- 13 And I made controllers over the store-houses, Shelemiah the priest and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and with them was Hanan, the son of Zaccur the son of Mattaniah: they were taken to be true men and their business was the distribution of these things to their brothers.
I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah; for they were counted faithful, and their business was to distribute to their brothers.
And I made treasurers over the treasuries, Shelemiah the priest, and Zadok the scribe, and of the Levites, Pedaiah: and next to them was Hanan the son of Zaccur, the son of Mattaniah: for they were accounted faithful; and their office was to distribute to their brethren.
- 14 Keep me in mind, O my God, in connection with this, and do not let the good which I have done for the house of my God and its worship go from your memory completely.
Remember me, my God, concerning this, and don't wipe out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for the observances of it.
Remember me, O my God, concerning this, and wipe not out my good deeds that I have done for the house of my God, and for its offices.
- 15 In those days, I saw in Judah some who were crushing grapes on the Sabbath, and getting in grain and putting it on asses; as well as wine and grapes and figs and all sorts of goods which they took into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I gave witness against them on the day when they were marketing food.
In those days saw I in Judah some men treading wine-presses on the Sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading donkeys [therewith]; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the Sabbath day: and I testified [against them] in the day in which they sold victuals.
In those days I saw in Judah some treading wine presses on the sabbath, and bringing in sheaves, and lading asses; as also wine, grapes, and figs, and all manner of burdens, which they brought into Jerusalem on the sabbath day: and I testified against them in the day in which they sold provisions.
- 16 And there were men of Tyre there, who came with fish and all sorts of goods, trading with the children of Judah and in Jerusalem on the Sabbath.
There lived men of Tyre also therein, who brought in fish, and all manner of wares, and sold on the Sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.
There dwelt men of Tyre also therein, who brought fish, and all manner of wares, and sold on the sabbath to the children of Judah, and in Jerusalem.

- 17 Then I made protests to the chiefs of Judah, and said to them, What is this evil which you are doing, not keeping the Sabbath day holy?
Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, What evil thing is this that you do, and profane the Sabbath day?
Then I contended with the nobles of Judah, and said to them, What evil thing is this that ye do, and profane the sabbath day?
- 18 Did not your fathers do the same, and did not our God send all this evil on us and on this town? but you are causing more wrath to come on Israel by not keeping the Sabbath holy.
Didn't your fathers do thus, and did not our God bring all this evil on us, and on this city? yet you bring more wrath on Israel by profaning the Sabbath.
Did not your fathers thus, and did not our God bring all this evil upon us, and upon this city? yet ye bring more wrath upon Israel by profaning the sabbath.
- 19 And so, when the streets of Jerusalem were getting dark before the Sabbath, I gave orders for the doors to be shut and not to be open again till after the Sabbath: and I put some of my servants by the door so that nothing might be taken in on the Sabbath day.
It came to pass that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the Sabbath, I commanded that the doors should be shut, and commanded that they should not be opened until after the Sabbath: and some of my servants set I over the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the Sabbath day.
And it came to pass, that, when the gates of Jerusalem began to be dark before the sabbath, I commanded that the gates should be shut, and charged that they should not be opened till after the sabbath: and I set some of my servants at the gates, that there should no burden be brought in on the sabbath day.
- 20 So the traders in all sorts of goods took their night's rest outside Jerusalem once or twice.
So the merchants and sellers of all kind of wares lodged outside of Jerusalem once or twice.
So the merchants and sellers of all kind of wares lodged without Jerusalem once or twice.
- 21 Then I gave witness against them and said, Why are you waiting all night by the wall? if you do so again I will have you taken prisoners. From that time they did not come again on the Sabbath.
Then I testified against them, and said to them, Why lodge you about the wall? if you do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth came they no more on the Sabbath.
Then I testified against them, and said to them, Why lodge ye about the wall? if ye do so again, I will lay hands on you. From that time forth they came no more on the sabbath.

- 22 And I gave the Levites orders to make themselves clean and come and keep the doors and make the Sabbath holy. Keep this in mind to my credit, O my God, and have mercy on me, for great is your mercy.
I commanded the Levites that they should purify themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the Sabbath day. Remember to me, my God, this also, and spare me according to the greatness of your lovingkindness.
And I commanded the Levites, that they should cleanse themselves, and that they should come and keep the gates, to sanctify the sabbath day. Remember me, O my God, concerning this also, and spare me according to the greatness of thy mercy.

- 23 And in those days I saw the Jews who were married to women of Ashdod and Ammon and Moab:
In those days also saw I the Jews who had married women of Ashdod, of Ammon, [and] of Moab:
In those days also I saw Jews that had married wives of Ashdod, of Ammon, and of Moab:
- 24 And their children were talking half in the language of Ashdod; they had no knowledge of the Jews' language, but made use of the language of the two peoples.
and their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews' language, but according to the language of each people.
And their children spoke half in the speech of Ashdod, and could not speak in the Jews language, but according to the language of each people.
- 25 And I took up the cause against them, cursing them and giving blows to some of them and pulling out their hair; and I made them take an oath by God, saying, You are not to give your daughters to their sons or take their daughters for your sons or for yourselves.
I contended with them, and cursed them, and struck certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, [saying], You shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters for your sons, or for yourselves.
And I contended with them, and cursed them, and smote certain of them, and plucked off their hair, and made them swear by God, saying, Ye shall not give your daughters to their sons, nor take their daughters to your sons, or for yourselves.

- 26 Was it not in these things that Solomon, king of Israel, did wrong? among a number of nations there was no king like him, and he was dear to his God, and God made him king over all Israel: but even he was made to do evil by strange women.
Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, and he was beloved of his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did foreign women cause to sin.
Did not Solomon king of Israel sin by these things? yet among many nations was there no king like him, who was beloved by his God, and God made him king over all Israel: nevertheless even him did outlandish women cause to sin.

- 27 Are we then without protest to let you do all this great evil, sinning against our God by taking strange women for your wives?
Shall we then listen to you to do all this great evil, to trespass against our God in marrying foreign women?
Shall we then hearken to you to do all this great evil, to transgress against our God in marrying foreign wives?
- 28 And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib, the chief priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: so I sent him away from me.
One of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.
And one of the sons of Joiada, the son of Eliashib the high priest, was son-in-law to Sanballat the Horonite: therefore I chased him from me.
- 29 Keep them in mind, O my God, because they have put shame on the priests' name and on the agreement of the priests and the Levites.
Remember them, my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood, and of the Levites.
Remember them, O my God, because they have defiled the priesthood, and the covenant of the priesthood and of the Levites.
- 30 So I made them clean from all strange people, and had regular watches fixed for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work;
Thus cleansed I them from all foreigners, and appointed charges for the priests and for the Levites, everyone in his work;
Thus I cleansed them from all strangers, and appointed the wards of the priests and the Levites, every one in his business;
- 31 And for the wood offering, at fixed times, and for the first fruits. Keep me in mind, O my God, for good.
and for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, my God, for good.
And for the wood-offering, at times appointed, and for the first-fruits. Remember me, O my God, for good.

- 1 Now it came about in the days of Ahasuerus, (that Ahasuerus who was ruler of a hundred and twenty-seven divisions of the kingdom, from India as far as Ethiopia:)
Now it happened in the days of Ahasuerus (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Ethiopia, over one hundred twenty-seven provinces),
Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus who reigned from India even to Cush, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces:)

- 2 That in those days, when King Ahasuerus was ruling in Shushan, his strong town, that in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,
That in those days, when the king Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace,
- 3 In the third year of his rule he gave a feast to all his captains and his servants; and the captains of the army of Persia and Media, the great men and the rulers of the divisions of his kingdom, were present before him;
in the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him;
In the third year of his reign, he made a feast to all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him:
- 4 And for a long time, even a hundred and eighty days, he let them see all the wealth and the glory of his kingdom and the great power and honour which were his.
when he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even one hundred eighty days.
When he showed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honor of his excellent majesty many days, even a hundred and eighty days.
- 5 And at the end of that time, the king gave a feast for all the people who were present in Shushan, the king's town, small as well as great, for seven days, in the outer square of the garden of the king's house.
When these days were fulfilled, the king made a feast to all the people who were present in Shushan the palace, both great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace.
And when these days had expired, the king made a feast for all the people that were present in Shushan the palace, both for great and small, seven days, in the court of the garden of the king's palace;
- 6 There were fair hangings of white and green and blue, fixed with cords of purple and the best linen to silver rings and pillars of polished stone: the seats were of gold and silver on a floor of red and white and yellow and black stone.
[There were hangings of] white [cloth], [of] green, and [of] blue, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the couches were of gold and silver, on a pavement of red, and white, and yellow, and black marble.
Where were white, green, and blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple to silver rings and pillars of marble: the beds were of gold and silver, upon a pavement of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

7 And they gave them drink in gold vessels, every vessel being different, and wine of the kingdom, freely given by the king.
They gave them drink in vessels of gold (the vessels being diverse one from another), and royal wine in abundance, according to the bounty of the king.

And they gave them drink in vessels of gold, (the vessels being diverse one from another,) and royal wine in abundance, according to the state of the king.

8 And the drinking was in keeping with the law; no one was forced: for the king had given orders to all the chief servants of his house to do as was pleasing to every man.
The drinking was according to the law; none could compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man`s pleasure.

And the drinking was according to the law; none constrained: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every man's pleasure.

9 And Vashti the queen gave a feast for the women in the house of King Ahasuerus.

Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was glad with wine, he gave orders to Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven unsexed servants who were waiting before Ahasuerus the king,

On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcass, the seven chamberlains who ministered in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar, and Carcas, the seven chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king, 11 That Vashti the queen was to come before him, crowned with her crown, and let the people and the captains see her: for she was very beautiful.

to bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the peoples and the princes her beauty; for she was beautiful to look on.

To bring Vashti the queen before the king with the crown royal, to show the people and the princes her beauty: for she was fair to look on.

- 12 But when the servants gave her the king's order, Vashti the queen said she would not come: then the king was very angry, and his heart was burning with wrath.
But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king`s commandment by the chamberlains: therefore was the king very angry, and his anger burned in him.
But the queen Vashti refused to come at the king's commandment by his chamberlains: therefore was the king very wroth, and his anger burned in him.
- 13 And the king said to the wise men, who had knowledge of the times, (for this was the king's way with all who were expert in law and in the giving of decisions:
Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for so was the king`s manner toward all who knew law and judgment;
Then the king said to the wise men, who knew the times, (for so was the king's manner towards all that knew law and judgment:
- 14 And second only to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven rulers of Persia and Media, who were friends of the king, and had the first places in the kingdom:)
and the next to him were Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king`s face, and sat first in the kingdom), And the next to him was Carshena, Shethar, Admatha, Tarshish, Meres, Marsena, and Memucan, the seven princes of Persia and Media, who saw the king's face, and who sat the first in the kingdom;)
- 15 What is to be done by law to Vashti the queen, because she has not done what King Ahasuerus, by his servants, gave her orders to do?
What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she has not done the bidding of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?
What shall we do to the queen Vashti according to law, because she hath not performed the commandment of the king Ahasuerus by the chamberlains?
- 16 And before the king and the captains, Memucan gave his answer: Vashti the queen has done wrong, not only to the king, but to all the captains and to all the peoples in all the divisions of the kingdom of King Ahasuerus;
Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen has not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the peoples who are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.
And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

- 17 For news of what the queen has done will come to the ears of all women, and they will no longer give respect to their husbands when it is said to them, King Ahasuerus gave orders for Vashti the queen to come before him and she came not.
For this deed of the queen will come abroad to all women, to make their husbands contemptible in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she didn't come.
For this deed of the queen will come abroad to all women, so that they will despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.
- 18 And the wives of the captains of Persia and Media, hearing what the queen has done, will say the same to all the king's captains. So there will be much shame and wrath.
This day will the princesses of Persia and Media who have heard of the deed of the queen say [the like] to all the king's princes. So [will there arise] much contempt and wrath.
Likewise will the ladies of Persia and Media say this day to all the king's princes, who have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus will there arise too much contempt and wrath.
- 19 If it is pleasing to the king, let an order go out from him, and let it be recorded among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, so that it may never be changed, that Vashti is never again to come before King Ahasuerus; and let the king give her place to another who is better than she.
If it please the king, let there go forth a royal commandment from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it not be altered, that Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another who is better than she.
If it pleaseth the king, let a royal commandment go from him, and let it be written among the laws of the Persians and the Medes, that it be not altered, That Vashti come no more before king Ahasuerus; and let the king give her royal estate to another that is better than she.
- 20 And when this order, given by the king, is made public through all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give honour to their husbands, great as well as small.
When the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his kingdom (for it is great), all the wives will give to their husbands honor, both to great and small.
And when the king's decree which he shall make shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great,) all the wives will give to their husbands honor, both to great and small.
- 21 And this suggestion seemed good to the king and the captains; and the king did as Memucan said;
The saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:
And the saying pleased the king and the princes; and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 And sent letters to all the divisions of the kingdom, to every division in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in the language which was theirs, saying that every man was to be the ruler in his house, and that this order was to be given out in the language of his people.
for he sent letters into all the king`s provinces, into every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and should speak according to the language of his people.
For he sent letters into all the king's provinces, into every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, that every man should bear rule in his own house, and that it should be published according to the language of every people.

1 After these things, when the king's feelings were calmer, the thought of Vashti and what she had done and the order he had made against her, came back to his mind.
After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was pacified, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.
After these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he remembered Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

2 Then the servants who were waiting on the king said to him, Let search be made for some fair young virgins for the king:
Then said the king`s servants who ministered to him, Let there be beautiful young virgins sought for the king:
Then said the king's servants that ministered to him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king:

3 Let the king give authority to certain men in all the divisions of his kingdom, to get together all the fair young virgins and send them to Shushan, the king's town, to the women's house, under the care of Hegai, the king's servant, the keeper of the women: and let the things needed for making them clean be given to them;
and let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the beautiful young virgins to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, to the custody of Hegai the king`s chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them;
And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may collect all the fair young virgins to Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, into the custody of Hege the king's chamberlain, keeper of the women; and let their things for purification be given them:

4 And let the girl who is pleasing to the king be queen in place of Vashti. And the king was pleased with this suggestion; and he did so.
and let the maiden who pleases the king be queen instead of Vashti. The thing pleased the king; and he did so.
And let the maiden who pleaseth the king be queen instead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king; and he did so.

- 5 Now there was a certain Jew in Shushan named Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;
There was a certain Jew in Shushan the palace, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite,
Now in Shushan the palace there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite;
- 6 Who had been taken away from Jerusalem among those who had been made prisoner with Jeconiah, king of Judah, when Nebuchadnezzar, king of Babylon, had taken him away.
who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captives who had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.
Who had been carried away from Jerusalem with the captivity which had been carried away with Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.
- 7 And he had been a father to Hadassah, that is Esther, the daughter of his father's brother: for she had no father or mother, and she was very beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his daughter.
He brought up Hadassah, who is, Esther, his uncle`s daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maiden was fair and beautiful; and when her father and mother were dead, Mordecai took her for his own daughter.
And he brought up Hadassah, that is, Esther, his uncle's daughter: for she had neither father nor mother, and the maid was fair and beautiful; whom Mordecai, when her father and mother were dead, took for his own daughter.
- 8 So when the order made by the king was publicly given out, and a number of girls had been placed in the care of Hegai in the king's house in Shushan, Esther was taken into the king's house and put in the care of Hegai, the keeper of the women.
So it happened, when the king`s commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together to Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was taken into the king`s house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.
So it came to pass, when the king's commandment and his decree were heard, and when many maidens were assembled at Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also to the king's house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And he was pleased with the girl and was kind to her; and he quickly gave her what was needed for making her clean, and the things which were hers by right, and seven servant-girls who were to be hers from the king's house: and he had her and her servant-girls moved to the best place in the women's part of the house.
The maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness of him; and he speedily gave her things for her purification, with her portions, and the seven maidens who were meet to be given her out of the king`s house: and he removed her and her maidens to the best place of the house of the women.

And the maiden pleased him, and she obtained kindness from him; and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens who were meet to be given her, out of the king's house: and he preferred her and her maids to the best place of the house of the women.

10 Esther had not said what family or people she came from, for Mordecai had given her orders not to do so.
Esther had not made known her people nor her relatives; for Mordecai had charged her that she should not make it known.
Esther had not showed her people nor her kindred: for Mordecai had charged her that she should not show it.

11 And every day Mordecai took his walk before the square of the women's house, to see how Esther was and what would be done to her.
Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women`s house, to know how Esther did, and what would become of her.
And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the women's house, to know how Esther did, and what would become of her.

12 Now every girl, when her turn came, had to go in to King Ahasuerus, after undergoing, for a space of twelve months, what was ordered by the law for the women (for this was the time necessary for making them clean, that is, six months with oil of myrrh and six months with sweet perfumes and such things as are needed for making women clean):
Now when the turn of every maiden was come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after it had been done to her according to the law for the women twelve months (for so were the days of their purification accomplished, [to wit], six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors and with the things for the purifying of the women),
Now when every maid's turn had come to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oil of myrrh, and six months with sweet odors, and with other things for the purifying of the women;)

13 And in this way the girl went in to the king; whatever she had a desire for was given to her to take with her from the women's house into the house of the king.
then in this wise came the maiden to the king: whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king`s house.
Then thus came every maiden to the king; whatever she desired was given her to go with her out of the house of the women to the king's house.

- 14 In the evening she went, and on the day after she came back to the second house of the women, into the keeping of Shaashgaz, one of the king's unsexed servants who had the care of the king's wives: only if the king had delight in her and sent for her by name did she go in to him again.
- In the evening she went, and on the next day she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she came in to the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and she were called by name.
- In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the king's chamberlain, who kept the concubines: she came in to the king no more, except that the king delighted in her, and she was called by name.
- 15 Now when the time came for Esther, the daughter of Abihail, his father's brother, whom Mordecai had taken as his daughter, to go in to the king, she made request for nothing but what Hegai, the king's servant and keeper of the women, had given her. And Esther was looked on kindly by all who saw her.
- Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, was come to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. Esther obtained favor in the sight of all those who looked at her.
- Now when the turn of Esther, the daughter of Abihail the uncle of Mordecai, who had taken her for his daughter, had come to go in to the king, she required nothing but what Hegai the king's chamberlain, the keeper of the women, appointed. And Esther obtained favor in the sight of all them that looked upon her.
- 16 So Esther was taken in to King Ahasuerus in his house in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his rule.
- So Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
- So Esther was taken to king Ahasuerus into his house royal in the tenth month, which is the month Tebeth, in the seventh year of his reign.
- 17 And Esther was more pleasing to the king than all the women, and to his eyes she was fairer and more full of grace than all the other virgins: so he put his crown on her head and made her queen in place of Vashti.
- The king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained favor and kindness in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown on her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.
- And the king loved Esther above all the women, and she obtained grace and favor in his sight more than all the virgins; so that he set the royal crown upon her head, and made her queen instead of Vashti.

18 Then the king gave a great feast for all his captains and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he gave orders through all the divisions of his kingdom for a day of rest from work, and gave wealth from his store.

Then the king made a great feast to all his princes and his servants, even Esther`s feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the bounty of the king.

Then the king made a great feast to all his princes and his servants, even Esther's feast; and he made a release to the provinces, and gave gifts, according to the state of the king.

19 And when the virgins came together in the second house of the women, Mordecai took his seat in the doorway of the king's house.

When the virgins were gathered together the second time, then Mordecai was sitting in the king`s gate.

And when the virgins were assembled the second time, then Mordecai sat in the king's gate.

20 Esther had still said nothing of her family or her people, as Mordecai had given her orders; for Esther did what Mordecai said, as when she was living with him.

Esther had not yet made known her relatives nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther did the commandment of Mordecai, like as when she was brought up with him.

Esther had not yet showed her kindred, nor her people; as Mordecai had charged her: for Esther performed the commandment of Mordecai, as when she was brought up with him.

21 In those days, while Mordecai was seated at the king's doorway, two of the king's servants, Bigthan and Teresh, keepers of the door, being angry, were looking for a chance to make an attack on King Ahasuerus.

In those days, while Mordecai was sitting in the king`s gate, two of the king`s chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the threshold, were angry, and sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.

In those days, while Mordecai sat in the king's gate, two of the king's chamberlains, Bigthan and Teresh, of those who kept the door, were wroth, and sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.

22 And Mordecai, having knowledge of their purpose, sent word of it to Esther the queen; and Esther gave the news to the king in Mordecai's name.

The thing became known to Mordecai, who showed it to Esther the queen; and Esther told the king [of it] in Mordecai`s name.

And the thing was known to Mordecai, who told it to Esther the queen; and Esther certified the king of it in Mordecai's name.

23 And when the thing had been looked into, it was seen to be true, and the two of them were put to death by hanging on a tree: and it was put down in the records before the king.

When inquisition was made of the matter, and it was found to be so, they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

And when inquisition was made of the matter, it was discovered; therefore they were both hanged on a tree: and it was written in the book of the chronicles before the king.

1 After these things, by the order of the king, Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, was lifted up and given a position of honour and a higher place than all the other captains who were with him.
After these things did king Ahasuerus promote Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes who were with him.

After these things king Ahasuerus promoted Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, and advanced him, and set his seat above all the princes that were with him.

2 And all the king's servants who were in the king's house went down to the earth before Haman and gave him honour: for so the king had given orders. But Mordecai did not go down before him or give him honour.

All the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, bowed down, and did reverence to Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai didn't bow down, nor did him reverence.

And all the king's servants that were in the king's gate, bowed, and revered Haman; for the king had so commanded concerning him. But Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence.

3 Then the king's servants who were in the king's house said to Mordecai, Why do you go against the king's order?

Then the king's servants, who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, Why disobey you the king's commandment?

Then the king's servants who were in the king's gate, said to Mordecai, Why dost thou transgress the king's commandment?

4 Now when they had said this to him day after day and he gave no attention, they let Haman have news of it, to see if Mordecai's behaviour would be overlooked: for he had said to them that he was a Jew.

Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he didn't listen to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told those who he was a Jew.

Now it came to pass, when they spoke daily to him, and he hearkened not to them, that they told Haman, to see whether Mordecai's matters would stand: for he had told them that he was a Jew.

5 And when Haman saw that Mordecai did not go down before him and give him honour, Haman was full of wrath.

When Haman saw that Mordecai didn't bow down, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

And when Haman saw that Mordecai bowed not, nor did him reverence, then was Haman full of wrath.

6 But it was not enough for him to make an attack on Mordecai only; for they had made clear to him who Mordecai's people were; so Haman made it his purpose to put an end to all the Jews, even Mordecai's people, through all the kingdom of Ahasuerus.
But he thought scorn to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had made known to him the people of Mordecai: why Haman sought to destroy all the Jews who were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.
And he scorned to lay hands on Mordecai alone; for they had shown him the people of Mordecai: wherefore Haman sought to destroy all the Jews that were throughout the whole kingdom of Ahasuerus, even the people of Mordecai.

7 In the first month, the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of King Ahasuerus, from day to day and from month to month they went on looking for a sign given by Pur (that is chance) before Haman, till the sign came out for the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar.
In the first month, which is the month Nisan, in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, [to] the twelfth [month], which is the month Adar.
In the first month, (that is, the month Nisan,) in the twelfth year of king Ahasuerus, they cast Pur, that is, the lot, before Haman from day to day, and from month to month, to the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar.

8 And Haman said to King Ahasuerus, There is a certain nation living here and there in small groups among the people in all the divisions of your kingdom; their laws are different from those of any other nation, and they do not keep the king's laws: for this reason it is not right for the king to let them be.
Haman said to king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the peoples in all the provinces of your kingdom; and their laws are diverse from [those of] every people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to allow them.
And Haman said to king Ahasuerus, There is a certain people scattered abroad and dispersed among the people in all the provinces of thy kingdom; and their laws are diverse from all people; neither keep they the king's laws: therefore it is not for the king's profit to suffer them.

9 If it is the king's pleasure, let a statement ordering their destruction be put in writing: and I will give to those responsible for the king's business, ten thousand talents of silver for the king's store-house.
If it please the king, let it be written that they be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver into the hands of those who have the charge of the [king's] business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.
If it shall please the king, let it be written that they may be destroyed: and I will pay ten thousand talents of silver to the hands of those that have the charge of the business, to bring it into the king's treasuries.

10 And the king took his ring from his hand and gave it to Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the hater of the Jews.
The king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews' enemy.
And the king took his ring from his hand, and gave it to Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the Jews enemy.

- 11 And the king said to Haman, The money is yours, and the people, to do with them whatever seems right to you.
The king said to Haman, The silver is given to you, the people also, to do with them as it seems good to you.
And the king said to Haman, The silver is given to thee, the people also, to do with them as it seemeth good to thee.
- 12 Then on the thirteenth day of the first month, the king's scribes were sent for, and they put in writing Haman's orders to all the king's captains and the rulers of every division of his kingdom and the chiefs of every people: for every division of the kingdom in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in the language which was theirs; it was signed in the name of King Ahasuerus and stamped with the king's ring.
Then were the king`s scribes called in the first month, on the thirteenth day of it; and there was written according to all that Haman commanded to the king`s satraps, and to the governors who were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with the king`s ring.
Then were the king's scribes called on the thirteenth day of the first month, and there was written according to all that Haman had commanded to the king's lieutenants, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the rulers of every people of every province, according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and sealed with the king's ring.
- 13 And letters were sent by the runners into every division of the kingdom ordering the death and destruction of all Jews, young and old, little children and women, on the same day, even the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar, and the taking of all their goods by force.
Letters were sent by posts into all the king`s provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.
And the letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey.
- 14 A copy of the writing, to be made public in every part of the kingdom, was sent out to all the peoples, so that they might be ready when that day came.
A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day.
The copy of the writing for a commandment to be given in every province, was published to all people, that they should be ready against that day.

15 The runners went out quickly by the king's order, and a public statement was made in Shushan: and the king and Haman took wine together: but the town of Shushan was troubled.
The posts went forth in haste by the king's commandment, and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace. The king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city of Shushan was perplexed.

The posts departed, being hastened by the king's commandment, and the decree was given in Shushan the palace. And the king and Haman sat down to drink; but the city Shushan was perplexed.

1 Now when Mordecai saw what was done, pulling off his robe, he put on haircloth, with dust on his head, and went out into the middle of the town, crying out with a loud and bitter cry.
Now when Mordecai knew all that was done, Mordecai tore his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

When Mordecai perceived all that was done, Mordecai rent his clothes, and put on sackcloth with ashes, and went out into the midst of the city, and cried with a loud and a bitter cry;

2 And he came even before the king's doorway; for no one might come inside the king's door clothed in haircloth.

and he came even before the king's gate: for none might enter within the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

And came even before the king's gate: for none might enter into the king's gate clothed with sackcloth.

3 And in every part of the kingdom, wherever the king's word and his order came, there was great sorrow among the Jews, and weeping and crying and going without food; and numbers of them were stretched on the earth covered with dust and haircloth.

In every province, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

And in every province whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, there was great mourning among the Jews, and fasting, and weeping, and wailing; and many lay in sackcloth and ashes.

4 And Esther's women and her servants came and gave her word of it. Then great was the grief of the queen: and she sent robes for Mordecai, so that his clothing of haircloth might be taken off; but he would not have them.

Esther's maidens and her chamberlains came and told it her; and the queen was exceedingly grieved: and she sent clothing to clothe Mordecai, and to take his sackcloth from off him; but he didn't receive it.

So Esther's maids and her chamberlains came and told it to her. Then was the queen exceedingly grieved; and she sent raiment to clothe Mordecai, and to take away his sackcloth from him: but he received it not.

- 5 Then Esther sent for Hathach, one of the king's unsexed servants whom he had given her for waiting on her, and she gave him orders to go to Mordecai and see what this was and why it was.
Then called Esther for Hathach, one of the king`s chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend on her, and charged him to go to Mordecai, to know what this was, and why it was.
Then called Esther for Hatach, one of the king's chamberlains, whom he had appointed to attend upon her, and gave him a commandment to Mordecai, to know what it was, and why it was.
- 6 So Hathach went out and saw Mordecai in the open square of the town before the king's doorway.
So Hathach went forth to Mordecai to the broad place of the city, which was before the king`s gate.
So Hatach went forth to Mordecai, to the street of the city, which was before the king's gate.
- 7 And Mordecai gave him an account of what had taken place, and of the amount of money which Haman had said he would put into the king's store for the destruction of the Jews.
Mordecai told him of all that had happened to him, and the exact sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king`s treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.
And Mordecai told him all that had happened to him, and of the sum of the money that Haman had promised to pay to the king's treasuries for the Jews, to destroy them.
- 8 And he gave him the copy of the order which had been given out in Shushan for their destruction, ordering him to let Esther see it, and to make it clear to her; and to say to her that she was to go in to the king, requesting his mercy, and making prayer for her people.
Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given out in Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him, for her people.
Also he gave him the copy of the writing of the decree that was given at Shushan to destroy them, to show it to Esther, and to declare it to her, and to charge her that she should go in to the king, to make supplication to him, and to make request before him for her people.
- 9 And Hathach came back and gave Esther an account of what Mordecai had said.
Hathach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.
And Hatach came and told Esther the words of Mordecai.
- 10 Then Esther sent Hathach to say to Mordecai:
Then Esther spoke to Hathach, and gave him a message to Mordecai [saying]:
Again Esther spoke to Hatach, and gave him commandment to Mordecai;

11 It is common knowledge among all the king's servants and the people of every part of the kingdom, that if anyone, man or woman, comes to the king in his inner room without being sent for, there is only one law for him, that he is to be put to death; only those to whom the king's rod of gold is stretched out may keep their lives: but I have not been sent for to come before the king these thirty days.

All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law for him, that he be put to death, except those to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days.

All the king's servants, and the people of the king's provinces, do know, that whoever, whether man or woman, shall come to the king into the inner court, who is not called, there is one law of his to put him to death, except him to whom the king shall hold out the golden scepter, that he may live: but I have not been called to come in to the king these thirty days.

12 And they said these words to Mordecai.

They told to Mordecai Esther's words.

And they told to Mordecai Esther's words.

13 Then Mordecai sent this answer back to Esther: Do not have the idea that you in the king's house will be safe from the fate of all the Jews.

Then Mordecai bade them return answer to Esther, Don't think to yourself that you shall escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews.

Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house more than all the Jews.

14 If at this time you say nothing, then help and salvation will come to the Jews from some other place, but you and your father's family will come to destruction: and who is to say that you have not come to the kingdom even for such a time as this?

For if you altogether hold your peace at this time, then will relief and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place, but you and your father's house will perish: and who knows whether you haven't come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

For if thou shalt altogether hold thy peace at this time, then will there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house will be destroyed: and who knoweth, whether thou hast come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 Then Esther sent them back to Mordecai with this answer:

Then Esther bade them return answer to Mordecai,

Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, get together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and go without food for me, taking no food or drink night or day for three days: and I and my women will do the same; and so I will go in to the king, which is against the law: and if death is to be my fate, then let it come.
Go, gather together all the Jews who are present in Shushan, and fast you for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast in like manner; and so will I go in to the king, which is not according to the law: and if I perish, I perish.

Go, assemble all the Jews that are present in Shushan, and fast ye for me, and neither eat nor drink three days, night or day: I also and my maidens will fast likewise; and so will I go in to the king, which is not according to the law; and if I perish, I perish.

17 So Mordecai went away and did everything as Esther had said.

So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

So Mordecai went his way, and did according to all that Esther had commanded him.

1 Now on the third day, Esther put on her queen's robes, and took her place in the inner room of the king's house, facing the king's house: and the king was seated on his high seat in the king's house, facing the doorway of the house.

Now it happened on the third day, that Esther put on her royal clothing, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat on his royal throne in the royal house, over against the entrance of the house.

Now it came to pass on the third day, that Esther put on her royal apparel, and stood in the inner court of the king's house, over against the king's house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And when the king saw Esther the queen waiting in the inner room, looking kindly on her he put out the rod of gold in his hand to her. So Esther came near and put her fingers on the top of the rod.

It was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight; and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the scepter.

And it was so, when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she obtained favor in his sight: and the king held out to Esther the golden scepter that was in his hand. So Esther drew near, and touched the top of the scepter.

3 Then the king said, What is your desire, Queen Esther, and what is your request? I will give it to you, even to the half of my kingdom.

Then said the king to her, What will you, queen Esther? and what is your request? it shall be given you even to the half of the kingdom.

Then said the king to her, What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee to the half of the kingdom.

- 4 And Esther in answer said, If it seems good to the king, let the king and Haman come today to the feast which I have made ready for him.
Esther said, If it seem good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.
And Esther answered, If it shall seem good to the king, let the king and Haman come this day to the banquet that I have prepared for him.
- 5 Then the king said, Let Haman come quickly, so that what Esther has said may be done. So the king and Haman came to the feast which Esther had made ready.
Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that it may be done as Esther has said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
- 6 And while they were drinking wine the king said to Esther, What is your prayer? for it will be given to you and what is your request? for it will be done, even to the half of my kingdom.
The king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is your petition? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.
And the king said to Esther at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.
- 7 Then Esther said in answer, My prayer and my request is this:
Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is:
Then answered Esther, and said, My petition and my request is:
- 8 If I have the king's approval, and if it is the king's pleasure to give me my prayer and do my request, let the king and Haman come to the feast which I will make ready for them, and tomorrow I will do as the king has said.
if I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do tomorrow as the king has said.
If I have found favor in the sight of the king, and if it shall please the king to grant my petition, and to perform my request, let the king and Haman come to the banquet that I shall prepare for them, and I will do to-morrow as the king hath said.

- 9 Then on that day Haman went out full of joy and glad in heart; but when he saw Mordecai in the king's doorway, and he did not get to his feet or give any sign of fear before him, Haman was full of wrath against Mordecai.
Then went Haman forth that day joyful and glad of heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king`s gate, that he didn`t stand up nor move for him, he was filled with wrath against Mordecai.
Then went Haman forth that day joyful and with a glad heart: but when Haman saw Mordecai in the king's gate, that he stood not up, nor moved for him, he was full of indignation against Mordecai.
- 10 But controlling himself, he went to his house; and he sent for his friends and Zeresh, his wife.
Nevertheless Haman refrained himself, and went home; and he sent and fetched his friends and Zeresh his wife.
Nevertheless, Haman refrained himself: and when he came home, he sent and called for his friends, and Zeresh his wife.
- 11 And he gave them an account of the glories of his wealth, and the number of children he had, and the ways in which he had been honoured by the king, and how he had put him over the captains and servants of the king.
Haman recounted to them the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.
And Haman told them of the glory of his riches, and the multitude of his children, and all the things in which the king had promoted him, and how he had advanced him above the princes and servants of the king.
- 12 And Haman said further, Truly, Esther the queen let no man but myself come in to the feast which she had made ready for the king; and tomorrow again I am to be her guest with the king.
Haman said moreover, Yes, Esther the queen did let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and tomorrow also am I invited by her together with the king.
Haman said moreover, Yes, Esther the queen let no man come in with the king to the banquet that she had prepared but myself; and to-morrow I am invited to her also with the king.
- 13 But all this is nothing to me while I see Mordecai the Jew seated by the king's doorway.
Yet all this avails me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king`s gate.
Yet all this availeth me nothing, so long as I see Mordecai the Jew sitting at the king's gate.

- 14 Then his wife Zeresh and all his friends said to him, Let a pillar, fifty cubits high, be made ready for hanging him, and in the morning get the king to give orders for the hanging of Mordecai: then you will be able to go to the feast with the king with a glad heart. And Haman was pleased with the suggestion, and he had the pillar made.
Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends to him, Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and in the morning speak you to the king that Mordecai may be hanged thereon: then go you in merrily with the king to the banquet. The thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.
Then said Zeresh his wife and all his friends to him, Let a gallows be made fifty cubits high, and to-morrow speak thou to the king that Mordecai may be hanged upon it: then go thou in merrily with the king to the banquet. And the thing pleased Haman; and he caused the gallows to be made.
- 1 That night the king was unable to get any sleep; and he sent for the books of the records; and while some one was reading them to the king,
On that night the king couldn't sleep; and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles, and they were read before the king.
In that night the king could not sleep, and he commanded to bring the book of records of the chronicles; and they were read before the king.
- 2 It came out that it was recorded in the book how Mordecai had given word of the designs of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's servants, keepers of the door, by whom an attack on the king had been designed.
It was found written that Mordecai had told of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, of those who kept the threshold, who had sought to lay hands on the king Ahasuerus.
And it was found written, that Mordecai had informed of Bigthana and Teresh, two of the king's chamberlains, the keepers of the door, who sought to lay hand on the king Ahasuerus.
- 3 And the king said, What honour and reward have been given to Mordecai for this? Then the servants who were waiting on the king said, Nothing has been done for him.
The king said, What honor and dignity has been bestowed on Mordecai for this? Then the king's servants who ministered to him said, "Nothing has been done for him."
And the king said, What honor and dignity hath been done to Mordecai for this? Then said the king's servants that ministered to him, There is nothing done for him.
- 4 Then the king said, Who is in the outer room? Now Haman had come into the outer room to get the king's authority for the hanging of Mordecai on the pillar which he had made ready for him.
The king said, "Who is in the court?" Now Haman was come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.
And the king said, Who is in the court? Now Haman had come into the outward court of the king's house, to speak to the king to hang Mordecai on the gallows that he had prepared for him.

- 5 And the king's servants said to him, See, Haman is waiting in the outer room. And the king said, Let him come in.
The king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman stands in the court. The king said, Let him come in.
And the king's servants said to him, Behold, Haman standeth in the court. And the king said, Let him come in.
- 6 So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What is to be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring? Then the thought came into Haman's mind, Whom, more than myself, would the king have pleasure in honouring?
So Haman came in. The king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delights to honor? Now Haman said in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself?
So Haman came in. And the king said to him, What shall be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honor? Now Haman thought in his heart, To whom would the king delight to do honor more than to myself?
- 7 And Haman, answering the king, said, For the man whom the king has delight in honouring,
Haman said to the king, For the man whom the king delights to honor,
And Haman answered the king, For the man whom the king delighteth to honor,
- 8 Let them take the robes which the king generally puts on, and the horse on which the king goes, and the crown which is on his head:
let royal clothing be brought which the king uses to wear, and the horse that the king rides on, and on the head of which a crown royal is set:
Let the royal apparel be brought which the king useth to wear, and the horse that the king rideth upon, and the crown royal which is set upon his head:
- 9 And let the robes and the horse be given to one of the king's most noble captains, so that they may put them on the man whom the king has delight in honouring, and let him go on horseback through the streets of the town, with men crying out before him, So let it be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring.
and let the clothing and the horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man therewith whom the king delights to honor, and cause him to ride on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.
And let this apparel and horse be delivered to the hand of one of the king's most noble princes, that they may array the man whom the king delighteth to honor, and bring him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaim before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honor.

- 10 Then the king said to Haman, Go quickly, and take the robes and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who is seated at the king's doorway: see that you do everything as you have said.
Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the clothing and the horse, as you have said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, who sits at the king`s gate: let nothing fail of all that you have spoken.
Then the king said to Haman, Make haste, and take the apparel and the horse, as thou hast said, and do even so to Mordecai the Jew, that sitteth at the king`s gate: let nothing fail of all that thou hast spoken.
- 11 Then Haman took the robes and the horse, and dressing Mordecai in the robes, he made him go on horseback through the streets of the town, crying out before him, So let it be done to the man whom the king has delight in honouring.
Then took Haman the clothing and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and caused him to ride through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delights to honor.
Then Haman took the apparel and the horse, and arrayed Mordecai, and brought him on horseback through the street of the city, and proclaimed before him, Thus shall it be done to the man whom the king delighteth to honor.
- 12 And Mordecai came back to the king's doorway. But Haman went quickly back to his house, sad and with his head covered.
Mordecai came again to the king`s gate. But Haman hurried to his house, mourning and having his head covered.
And Mordecai came again to the king's gate. But Haman hasted to his house mourning, and having his head covered.
- 13 And Haman gave his wife Zeresh and all his friends an account of what had taken place. Then his wise men and his wife Zeresh said to him, If Mordecai, who is starting to get the better of you, is of the seed of the Jews, you will not be able to do anything against him, but you will certainly go down before him.
Haman recounted to Zeresh his wife and all his friends everything that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife to him, If Mordecai, before whom you have begun to fall, be of the seed of the Jews, you shall not prevail against him, but shall surely fall before him.
And Haman told Zeresh his wife and all his friends every thing that had befallen him. Then said his wise men and Zeresh his wife to him, If Mordecai is of the seed of the Jews, before whom thou hast begun to fall, thou wilt not prevail against him, but wilt surely fall before him.
- 14 While they were still talking, the king's servants came to take Haman to the feast which Esther had made ready.
While they were yet talking with him, came the king`s chamberlains, and hurried to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.
And while they were yet talking with him, came the king's chamberlains, and hasted to bring Haman to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

- 1 So the king and Haman came to take wine with Esther the queen.
So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.
So the king and Haman came to banquet with Esther the queen.
- 2 And the king said to Esther again on the second day, while they were drinking, What is your prayer, Queen Esther? for it will be given to you; and what is your request? for it will be done, even to the half of my kingdom.
The king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is your petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted you: and what is your request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.
And the king said again to Esther on the second day at the banquet of wine, What is thy petition, queen Esther? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? and it shall be performed, even to the half of the kingdom.
- 3 Then Esther the queen, answering, said, If I have your approval, O king, and if it is the king's pleasure, let my life be given to me in answer to my prayer, and my people at my request:
Then Esther the queen answered, If I have found favor in your sight, O king, and if it please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:
Then Esther the queen answered and said, If I have found favor in thy sight, O king, and if it shall please the king, let my life be given me at my petition, and my people at my request:
- 4 For we are given up, I and my people, to destruction and death and to be cut off. If we had been taken as men-servants and women-servants for a price, I would have said nothing, for our trouble is little in comparison with the king's loss.
for we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondservants and bondmaids, I had held my peace, although the adversary could not have compensated for the king's damage.
For we are sold, I and my people, to be destroyed, to be slain, and to perish. But if we had been sold for bondmen and bond-women, I had held my tongue, although the enemy could not countervail the king's damage.
- 5 Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen, Who is he and where is he who has had this evil thought in his heart?
Then spoke the king Ahasuerus and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that dared presume in his heart to do so?
Then the king Ahasuerus answered and said to Esther the queen, Who is he, and where is he, that durst presume in his heart to do so?

- 6 And Esther said, Our hater and attacker is this evil Haman. Then Haman was full of fear before the king and the queen.
Esther said, An adversary and an enemy, even this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.
And Esther said, The adversary and enemy is this wicked Haman. Then Haman was afraid before the king and the queen.
- 7 And the king in his wrath got up from the feast and went into the garden: and Haman got to his feet to make a prayer for his life to Esther the queen: for he saw that the king's purpose was evil against him.
The king arose in his wrath from the banquet of wine [and went] into the palace garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.
And the king arising from the banquet of wine in his wrath went into the palace-garden: and Haman stood up to make request for his life to Esther the queen; for he saw that there was evil determined against him by the king.
- 8 Then the king came back from the garden into the room where they had been drinking; and Haman was stretched out on the seat where Esther was. Then the king said, Is he taking the queen by force before my eyes in my house? And while the words were on the king's lips, they put a cloth over Haman's face.
Then the king returned out of the palace garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman was fallen on the couch whereon Esther was. Then said the king, Will he even force the queen before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.
Then the king returned out of the palace-garden into the place of the banquet of wine; and Haman had fallen upon the bed on which Esther was. Then said the king, Will he force the queen also before me in the house? As the word went out of the king's mouth, they covered Haman's face.
- 9 Then Harbonah, one of the unsexed servants waiting before the king, said, See, the pillar fifty cubits high, which Haman made for Mordecai, who said a good word for the king, is still in its place in Haman's house. Then the king said, Put him to death by hanging him on it.
Then said Harbonah, one of the chamberlains who were before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman has made for Mordecai, who spoke good for the king, stands in the house of Haman. The king said, Hang him thereon.
And Harbonah, one of the chamberlains, said before the king, Behold also, the gallows fifty cubits high, which Haman had made for Mordecai, who had spoken good for the king, standeth in the house of Haman. Then the king said, Hang him upon it.
- 10 So Haman was put to death by hanging him on the pillar he had made for Mordecai. Then the king's wrath became less.
So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.
So they hanged Haman on the gallows that he had prepared for Mordecai. Then was the king's wrath pacified.

1 That day the king gave all the family of Haman, the hater of the Jews, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king, for Esther had made clear what he was to her.
On that day did the king Ahasuerus give the house of Haman the Jews' enemy to Esther the queen. Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her.

On that day the king Ahasuerus gave the house of Haman, the Jews' enemy, to Esther the queen. And Mordecai came before the king; for Esther had told what he was to her.

2 And the king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther put Mordecai over the family of Haman.
The king took off his ring, which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

And the king took off his ring which he had taken from Haman, and gave it to Mordecai. And Esther set Mordecai over the house of Haman.

3 Then Esther again came before the king, falling down at his feet, and made request to him with weeping, that he would put a stop to the evil purposes of Haman the Agagite and the designs which he had made against the Jews.

Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and begged him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

And Esther spoke yet again before the king, and fell down at his feet, and besought him with tears to put away the mischief of Haman the Agagite, and his device that he had devised against the Jews.

4 Then the king put out the rod of gold to Esther, and she got up before the king.

Then the king held out to Esther the golden scepter. So Esther arose, and stood before the king.

Then the king held out the golden scepter towards Esther. So Esther arose, and stood before the king,

5 And she said, If it is the king's pleasure and if I have his approval and this thing seems right to the king and I am pleasing to him, then let letters be sent giving orders against those which Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, sent out for the destruction of the Jews in all divisions of the kingdom:

She said, If it please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing seem right before the king, and I be pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces:

And said, If it shall please the king, and if I have found favor in his sight, and the thing shall seem right before the king, and I am pleasing in his eyes, let it be written to reverse the letters devised by Haman the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, which he wrote to destroy the Jews who are in all the king's provinces:

- 6 For how is it possible for me to see the evil which is to overtake my nation? how may I see the destruction of my people?
for how can I endure to see the evil that shall come to my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my relatives?
For how can I endure to see the evil that will come to my people? or how can I endure to see the destruction of my kindred?
- 7 Then King Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, See now, I have given Esther the family of Haman, and he has come to his death by hanging, because he made an attack on the Jews.
Then the king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, See, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged on the gallows, because he laid his hand on the Jews.
Then the king Ahasuerus said to Esther the queen and to Mordecai the Jew, Behold, I have given Esther the house of Haman, and him they have hanged upon the gallows, because he laid his hand upon the Jews.
- 8 So now send a letter about the Jews, writing whatever seems good to you, in the king's name, and stamping it with the king's ring: for a writing signed in the king's name and stamped with the king's ring may not be changed.
Write you also to the Jews, as it pleases you, in the king`s name, and seal it with the king`s ring; for the writing which is written in the king`s name, and sealed with the king`s ring, may no man reverse.
Write ye also for the Jews, as it pleaseth you, in the king's name, and seal it with the king's ring: for the writing which is written in the king's name, and sealed with the king's ring, no man may reverse.
- 9 Then at that time, on the twenty-third day of the third month, which is the month Sivan, the king's scribes were sent for; and everything ordered by Mordecai was put in writing and sent to the Jews and the captains and the rulers and the chiefs of all the divisions of the kingdom from India to Ethiopia, a hundred and twenty-seven divisions, to every division in the writing commonly used there, and to every people in their language, and to the Jews in their writing and their language.
Then were the king`s scribes called at that time, in the third month Sivan, on the three and twentieth [day] of it; and it was written according to all that Mordecai commanded to the Jews, and to the satraps, and the governors and princes of the provinces which are from India to Ethiopia, one hundred twenty-seven provinces, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.
Then were the king's scribes called at that time in the third month, that is, the month Sivan, on the three and twentieth day of it; and it was written, according to all that Mordecai commanded, to the Jews, and to the lieutenants, and the deputies and rulers of the provinces which are from India to Cush, a hundred twenty and seven provinces, to every province according to the writing of it, and to every people after their language, and to the Jews according to their writing, and according to their language.

- 10 The letters were sent in the name of King Ahasuerus and stamped with his ring, and they were taken by men on horseback, going on the quick-running horses used for the king's business, the offspring of his best horses:
He wrote the name of king Ahasuerus, and sealed it with the king`s ring, and sent letters by post on horseback, riding on swift steeds that were used in the king`s service, bred of the stud:
And he wrote in the king Ahasuerus's name, and sealed it with the king's ring, and sent letters by posts on horseback, and riders on mules, camels, and young dromedaries:
- 11 In these letters the king gave authority to the Jews in every town to come together and make a fight for their lives, and to send death and destruction on the power of any people in any part of the kingdom attacking them or their children or their women, and to take their goods from them by force, in which the king granted the Jews who were in every city to gather themselves together, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to kill, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, [their] little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,
In which the king granted the Jews who were in every city to assemble, and to stand for their life, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all the power of the people and province that would assault them, both little ones and women, and to take the spoil of them for a prey,
- 12 On one day in every division of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, that is, on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, the month Adar.
on one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, [namely], on the thirteenth [day] of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar.
Upon one day in all the provinces of king Ahasuerus, namely, upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar,
- 13 A copy of the writing, to be made public as an order in every division of the kingdom, was given out to all the peoples, so that the Jews might be ready when that day came to give punishment to their haters.
A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published to all the peoples, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.
The copy of the writing for a commandment, to be given in every province was published to all people, and that the Jews should be ready against that day to avenge themselves on their enemies.
- 14 So the men went out on the quick-running horses used on the king's business, wasting no time and forced on by the king's order; and the order was given out in Shushan, the king's town.
So the posts who rode on swift steeds that were used in the king`s service went out, being hurried and pressed on by the king`s commandment; and the decree was given out in Shushan the palace.
So the posts that rode upon mules and camels went out, being hastened and pressed on by the king's commandment. And the decree was given at Shushan the palace.

- 15 And Mordecai went out from before the king, dressed in king-like robes of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold and clothing of purple and the best linen: and all the town of Shushan gave loud cries of joy.
Mordecai went forth from the presence of the king in royal clothing of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a robe of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan shouted and was glad.
And Mordecai went out from the presence of the king in royal apparel of blue and white, and with a great crown of gold, and with a garment of fine linen and purple: and the city of Shushan rejoiced, and was glad:
- 16 And the Jews had light and joy and honour.
The Jews had light and gladness, and joy and honor.
The Jews had light, and gladness, and joy, and honor.
- 17 And in every part of the kingdom and in every town, wherever the king's letter and his order came, the Jews were glad with great joy, and had a feast and a good day. And a great number of the people of the land became Jews: for the fear of the Jews had come on them.
In every province, and in every city, wherever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had gladness and joy, a feast and a good day. Many from among the peoples of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews was fallen on them.
And in every province, and in every city, whithersoever the king's commandment and his decree came, the Jews had joy and gladness, a feast and a good day. And many of the people of the land became Jews; for the fear of the Jews fell upon them.
- 1 Now on the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, when the time came for the king's order to be put into effect, on the very day when the haters of the Jews had been hoping to have rule over them; though the opposite had come about, and the Jews had rule over their haters;
Now in the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, on the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have rule over them, (whereas it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over those who hated them,)
Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them;)
- 2 On that day, the Jews came together in their towns through all the divisions of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, for the purpose of attacking all those who were attempting evil against them: and everyone had to give way before them, for the fear of them had come on all the peoples.
the Jews gathered themselves together in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them was fallen on all the peoples.
The Jews assembled in their cities throughout all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, to lay hand on such as sought their hurt: and no man could withstand them; for the fear of them fell upon all people.

3 And all the chiefs and the captains and the rulers and those who did the king's business gave support to the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai had come on them.
All the princes of the provinces, and the satraps, and the governors, and those who did the king`s business, helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai was fallen on them.
And all the rulers of the provinces, and the lieutenants, and the deputies, and officers of the king helped the Jews; because the fear of Mordecai fell upon them.

4 For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and word of him went out through every part of the kingdom: for the man Mordecai became greater and greater.
For Mordecai was great in the king`s house, and his fame went forth throughout all the provinces; for the man Mordecai grew greater and greater.
For Mordecai was great in the king's house, and his fame went out throughout all the provinces: for this man Mordecai became greater and greater.

5 So the Jews overcame all their attackers with the sword and with death and destruction, and did to their haters whatever they had a desire to do.
The Jews struck all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and with slaughter and destruction, and did what they would to those who hated them.
Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would to those that hated them.

6 And in Shushan the Jews put to death five hundred men.
In Shushan the palace the Jews killed and destroyed five hundred men.
And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men.

7 They put to death Parshandatha, Dalphon, Aspatha,
Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,
And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha,

8 Poratha, Adalia, Aridatha,
and Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,
And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha,

9 Parmashta, Arisai, Aridai, and Vaizatha, and Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vaizatha,
And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha,

10 The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the hater of the Jews; but they put not a hand on any of their goods.
the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Jew`s enemy, killed they; but they didn`t lay their hand on the spoil.
The ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, they slew; but on the spoil they laid not their hand.

11 On that day the number of those who had been put to death in the town of Shushan was given to the king.
On that day the number of those who were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.
On that day the number of those that were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

12 And the king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have put five hundred men to death in Shushan, as well as the ten sons of Haman: what then have they done in the rest of the kingdom! Now what is your prayer? for it will be given to you; what other request have you? and it will be done.
The king said to Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what then have they done in the rest of the king`s provinces! Now what is your petition? and it shall be granted you: or what is your request further? and it shall be done.
And the king said to Esther the queen, the Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman; what have they done in the rest of the king's provinces? now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done.

13 Then Esther said, If it is the king's pleasure, let authority be given to the Jews in Shushan to do tomorrow as has been done today, and let orders be given for the hanging of Haman's ten sons.
Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do tomorrow also according to this day`s decree, and let Haman`s ten sons be hanged on the gallows.
Then said Esther, If it shall please the king, let it be granted to the Jews who are in Shushan to do to-morrow also according to this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows.

14 And the king said that this was to be done, and the order was given out in Shushan, and the hanging of Haman's ten sons was effected.
The king commanded it so to be done: and a decree was given out in Shushan; and they hanged Haman`s ten sons.
And the king commanded it so to be done: and the decree was given at Shushan; and they hanged Haman's ten sons.

- 15 For the Jews who were in Shushan came together again on the fourteenth day of the month Adar and put to death three hundred men in Shushan; but they put not a hand on their goods.
The Jews who were in Shushan gathered themselves together on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and killed three hundred men in Shushan; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil.
For the Jews that were in Shushan assembled on the fourteenth day also of the month Adar, and slew three hundred men at Shushan; but on the prey they laid not their hand.
- 16 And the other Jews in every division of the kingdom came together, fighting for their lives, and got salvation from their haters and put seventy-five thousand of them to death; but they did not put a hand on their goods.
The other Jews who were in the king's provinces gathered themselves together, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and killed of those who hated them seventy-five thousand; but they didn't lay their hand on the spoil.
But the other Jews that were in the king's provinces assembled, and stood for their lives, and had rest from their enemies, and slew of their foes seventy and five thousand, (but they laid not their hands on the prey.)
- 17 This they did on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same month they took their rest, and made it a day of feasting and joy.
[This was done] on the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
On the thirteenth day of the month Adar; and on the fourteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
- 18 But the Jews in Shushan came together on the thirteenth and on the fourteenth day of the month; and on the fifteenth day they took their rest, and made it a day of feasting and joy.
But the Jews who were in Shushan assembled together on the thirteenth [day] of it, and on the fourteenth of it; and on the fifteenth [day] of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
But the Jews that were at Shushan assembled on the thirteenth day of the month, and on the fourteenth of it: and on the fifteenth day of the same they rested, and made it a day of feasting and gladness.
- 19 So the Jews of the country places living in unwalled towns make the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of feasting and joy and a good day, a day for sending offerings one to another.
Therefore do the Jews of the villages, who dwell in the unwalled towns, make the fourteenth day of the month Adar [a day of] gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.
Therefore the Jews of the villages, that dwelt in the unwalled towns, made the fourteenth day of the month Adar a day of gladness and feasting, and a good day, and of sending portions one to another.

20 And Mordecai sent letters to all the Jews in every division of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, near and far,
Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews who were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both near and far,

And Mordecai wrote these things, and sent letters to all the Jews that were in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus, both nigh and far,

21 Ordering them to keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar and the fifteenth day of the same month, every year, to enjoin those who they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,
To establish this among them, that they should keep the fourteenth day of the month Adar, and the fifteenth day of the same, yearly,

22 As days on which the Jews had rest from their haters, and the month which for them was turned from sorrow to joy, and from weeping to a good day: and that they were to keep them as days of feasting and joy, of sending offerings to one another and good things to the poor.
as the days in which the Jews had rest from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to gladness, and from mourning into a good day; that they should make them days of feasting and gladness, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.
As the days in which the Jews rested from their enemies, and the month which was turned to them from sorrow to joy, and from mourning into a good day, that they should make them days of feasting and joy, and of sending portions one to another, and gifts to the poor.

23 And the Jews gave their word to go on as they had been doing and as Mordecai had given them orders in writing;
The Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them;
And the Jews undertook to do as they had begun, and as Mordecai had written to them;

24 Because Haman, the son of Hammedatha the Agagite, the hater of all the Jews, had made designs for their destruction, attempting to get a decision by Pur (that is, chance) with a view to putting an end to them and cutting them off;
because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had plotted against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;
Because Haman the son of Hammedatha, the Agagite, the enemy of all the Jews, had devised against the Jews to destroy them, and had cast Pur, that is, the lot, to consume them, and to destroy them;

- 25 But when the business was put before the king, he gave orders by letters that the evil design which he had made against the Jews was to be turned against himself; and that he and his sons were to be put to death by hanging.
but when [the matter] came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he had devised against the Jews, should return on his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
But when Esther came before the king, he commanded by letters that his wicked device, which he devised against the Jews, should return upon his own head, and that he and his sons should be hanged on the gallows.
- 26 So these days were named Purim, after the name of Pur. And so, because of the words of this letter, and of what they had seen in connection with this business, and what had come to them, Therefore they called these days Purim, after the name of Pur. Therefore because of all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and that which had come to them, Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and of that which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come to them,
- 27 The Jews made a rule and gave an undertaking, causing their seed and all those who were joined to them to do the same, so that it might be in force for ever, that they would keep those two days, as ordered in the letter, at the fixed time every year;
the Jews ordained, and took on them, and on their seed, and on all such as joined themselves to them, so that it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to the writing of it, and according to the appointed time of it, every year;
The Jews ordained, and took upon them, and upon their seed, and upon all such as joined themselves to them, so as it should not fail, that they would keep these two days according to their writing, and according to their appointed time every year;
- 28 And that those days were to be kept in memory through every generation and every family, in every division of the kingdom and every town, that there might never be a time when these days of Purim would not be kept among the Jews, or when the memory of them would go from the minds of their seed.
and that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memory of them perish from their seed.
And that these days should be remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and that these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.
- 29 Then Esther the queen, daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, sent a second letter giving the force of their authority to the order about the Purim.
Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority to confirm this second letter of Purim.
Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

30 And he sent letters to all the Jews in the hundred and twenty-seven divisions of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with true words of peace,
He sent letters to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty-seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, [with] words of peace and truth,

And he sent the letters to all the Jews, to the hundred twenty and seven provinces of the kingdom of Ahasuerus, with words of peace and truth,

31 Giving the force of law to these days of Purim at their fixed times, as they had been ordered by Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen, and in keeping with the rules they had made for themselves and their seed, in connection with their time of going without food and their cry for help.

to confirm these days of Purim in their appointed times, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had ordained for themselves and for their seed, in the matter of the fastings and their cry.

To confirm these days of Purim in their times appointed, according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

32 The order given by Esther gave the force of law to the rules about the Purim; and it was recorded in the book.

The commandment of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.

1 And King Ahasuerus put a tax on the land and on the islands of the sea.

The king Ahasuerus laid a tribute on the land, and on the isles of the sea.

And the king Ahasuerus laid a tribute upon the land, and upon the isles of the sea.

2 And all his acts of power and his great strength and the full story of the high place which the king gave Mordecai, are they not recorded in the book of the history of the kings of Media and Persia?

All the acts of his power and of his might, and the full account of the greatness of Mordecai, whereunto the king advanced him, aren't they written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

And all the acts of his power and of his might, and the declaration of the greatness of Mordecai, to which the king advanced him, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Media and Persia?

3 For Mordecai the Jew was second only to King Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews and respected by the body of his countrymen; working for the good of his people, and saying words of peace to all his seed.

For Mordecai the Jew was next to king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted of the multitude of his brothers, seeking the good of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

For Mordecai the Jew was next to king Ahasuerus, and great among the Jews, and accepted by the multitude of his brethren, seeking the wealth of his people, and speaking peace to all his seed.

1 There was a man in the land of Uz whose name was Job. He was without sin and upright, fearing God and keeping himself far from evil.

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job. That man was blameless and upright, and one who feared God, and turned away from evil.

There was a man in the land of Uz, whose name was Job; and that man was perfect and upright, and one that feared God, and shunned evil.

2 And he had seven sons and three daughters.

There were born to him seven sons and three daughters.

And there were born to him seven sons and three daughters.

3 And of cattle he had seven thousand sheep and goats, and three thousand camels, and a thousand oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great number of servants. And the man was greater than any of the sons of the east.

His possessions also were seven thousand sheep, three thousand camels, five hundred yoke of oxen, five hundred she-donkeys, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the children of the east.

His substance also was seven thousand sheep, and three thousand camels, and five hundred yoke of oxen, and five hundred she-asses, and a very great household; so that this man was the greatest of all the men of the east.

4 His sons regularly went to one another's houses, and every one on his day gave a feast: and at these times they sent for their three sisters to take part in their feasts with them.

His sons went and held a feast in the house of each one on his birthday; and they sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

And his sons went and feasted in their houses, every one his day; and sent and called for their three sisters to eat and to drink with them.

5 And at the end of their days of feasting, Job sent and made them clean, getting up early in the morning and offering burned offerings for them all. For, Job said, It may be that my sons have done wrong and said evil of God in their hearts. And Job did this whenever the feasts came round.

It was so, when the days of their feasting had run their course, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose up early in the morning, and offered burnt offerings according to the number of them all. For Job said, "It may be that my sons have sinned, and renounced God in their hearts." Thus did Job continually.

And it was so, when the days of their feasting were ended, that Job sent and sanctified them, and rose early in the morning, and offered burnt-offerings according to the number of them all; for Job said, It may be that my sons have sinned, and cursed God in their hearts. Thus did Job continually.

6 And there was a day when the sons of the gods came together before the Lord, and the Satan came with them.

Now it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan also came among them.

Now there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them.

7 And the Lord said to the Satan, Where do you come from? And the Satan said in answer, From wandering this way and that on the earth, and walking about on it.

Yahweh said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

And the LORD said to Satan, Whence comest thou? Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down upon it.

8 And the Lord said to the Satan, Have you taken note of my servant Job, for there is no one like him on the earth, a man without sin and upright, fearing God and keeping himself far from evil?

Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant, Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil."

And the LORD said to Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and shunneth evil?

9 And the Satan said in answer to the Lord, Is it for nothing that Job is a god-fearing man?

Then Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "Does Job fear God for nothing?"

Then Satan answered the LORD, and said, Doth Job fear God for naught?

- 10 Have you yourself not put a wall round him and his house and all he has on every side, blessing the work of his hands, and increasing his cattle in the land?
Haven't you made a hedge around him, and around his house, and around all that he has, on every side? You have blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
Hast not thou made a hedge about him, and about his house, and about all that he hath on every side? thou hast blessed the work of his hands, and his substance is increased in the land.
- 11 But now, put out your hand against all he has, and he will be cursing you to your face.
But put forth your hand now, and touch all that he has, and he will renounce you to your face."
But put forth thy hand now, and touch all that he hath, and he will curse thee to thy face.
- 12 And the Lord said to the Satan, See, I give all he has into your hands, only do not put a finger on the man himself. And the Satan went out from before the Lord.
Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, all that he has is in your power. Only on himself don't put forth your hand." So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh.
And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, all that he hath is in thy power; only upon himself put not forth thy hand. So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD.

- 13 And there was a day when his sons and daughters were feasting in the house of their oldest brother,
It fell on a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house,
And there was a day when his sons and his daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:
- 14 And a man came to Job, and said, The oxen were ploughing, and the asses were taking their food by their side:
that there came a messenger to Job, and said, "The oxen were plowing, and the donkeys feeding beside them,
And there came a messenger to Job, and said, The oxen were plowing, and the asses feeding beside them:
- 15 And the men of Sheba came against them and took them away, putting the young men to the sword, and I was the only one who got away safe to give you the news.
and the Sabeans attacked, and took them away. Yes, they have killed the servants with the edge of the sword, and I alone have escaped to tell you."
And the Sabeans fell upon them, and took them away; yes, they have slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only have escaped alone to tell thee.

- 16 And this one was still talking when another came, and said, The fire of God came down from heaven, burning up the sheep and the goats and the young men completely, and I was the only one who got away safe to give you the news.
While he was still speaking, there also came another, and said, "The fire of God has fallen from the sky, and has burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them, and I alone have escaped to tell you."
While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The fire of God hath fallen from heaven, and hath burned up the sheep and the servants, and consumed them; and I only have escaped alone to tell thee.
- 17 And this one was still talking when another came, and said, The Chaldaean made themselves into three bands, and came down on the camels and took them away, putting the young men to the sword, and I was the only one who got away safe to give you the news.
While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "The Chaldeans made three bands, and swept down on the camels, and have taken them away, yes, and killed the servants with the edge of the sword; and I alone have escaped to tell you."
While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, The Chaldeans made three bands, and fell upon the camels, and have carried them away, yes, and slain the servants with the edge of the sword; and I only have escaped alone to tell thee.
- 18 And this one was still talking when another came, and said, Your sons and your daughters were feasting together in their oldest brother's house,
While he was still speaking, there came also another, and said, "Your sons and your daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house,
While he was yet speaking, there came also another, and said, Thy sons and thy daughters were eating and drinking wine in their eldest brother's house:
- 19 When a great wind came rushing from the waste land against the four sides of the house, and it came down on the young men, and they are dead; and I was the only one who got away safe to give you the news.
and, behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and struck the four corners of the house, and it fell on the young men, and they are dead. I alone have escaped to tell you."
And behold, there came a great wind from the wilderness, and smote the four corners of the house, and it fell upon the young men, and they are dead; and I only have escaped alone to tell thee.
- 20 Then Job got up, and after parting his clothing and cutting off his hair, he went down on his face to the earth, and gave worship, and said,
Then Job arose, and tore his robe, and shaved his head, and fell down on the ground, and worshipped.
Then Job arose, and rent his mantle, and shaved his head, and fell upon the ground, and worshiped, 21 With nothing I came out of my mother's body, and with nothing I will go back there; the Lord gave and the Lord has taken away; let the Lord's name be praised.

He said, "Naked I came out of my mother's womb, and naked shall I return there. Yahweh gave, and Yahweh has taken away. Blessed be the name of Yahweh."

And said, Naked came I from my mother's womb, and naked shall I return thither: The LORD gave, and the LORD hath taken away; blessed be the name of the LORD.

22 In all this Job did no sin, and did not say that God's acts were foolish.

In all this, Job did not sin, nor charge God with wrongdoing.

In all this Job sinned not, nor charged God foolishly.

1 And there was a day when the sons of the gods came together before the Lord, and the Satan came with them.

Again it happened on the day when the sons of God came to present themselves before Yahweh, that Satan came also among them to present himself before Yahweh.

Again there was a day when the sons of God came to present themselves before the LORD, and Satan came also among them to present himself before the LORD.

2 And the Lord said to the Satan, Where do you come from? And the Satan said in answer, From wandering this way and that on the earth, and walking about on it.

Yahweh said to Satan, "Where have you come from?" Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "From going back and forth in the earth, and from walking up and down in it."

And the LORD said to Satan, Whence comest thou? and Satan answered the LORD, and said, From going to and fro on the earth, and from walking up and down upon it.

3 And the Lord said to the Satan, Have you taken note of my servant Job, for there is no one like him on the earth, a man without sin and upright, fearing God and keeping himself far from evil? and he still keeps his righteousness, though you have been moving me to send destruction on him without cause.

Yahweh said to Satan, "Have you considered my servant Job? For there is none like him in the earth, a blameless and an upright man, one who fears God, and turns away from evil. He still maintains his integrity, although you incited me against him, to ruin him without cause."

And the LORD said to Satan, Hast thou considered my servant Job, that there is none like him on the earth, a perfect and an upright man, one that feareth God, and shunneth evil? and still he holdeth fast his integrity, although thou movedst me against him, to destroy him without cause.

- 4 And the Satan said in answer to the Lord, Skin for skin, all a man has he will give for his life.
Satan answered Yahweh, and said, "Skin for skin. Yes, all that a man has will he give for his life.
And Satan answered the LORD, and said, Skin for skin, even, all that a man hath will he give for his life.
- 5 But now, if you only put your hand on his bone and his flesh, he will certainly be cursing you to your face.
But put forth your hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will renounce you to your face."
But put forth thy hand now, and touch his bone and his flesh, and he will curse thee to thy face.
- 6 And the Lord said to the Satan, See, he is in your hands, only do not take his life.
Yahweh said to Satan, "Behold, he is in your hand. Only spare his life."
And the LORD said to Satan, Behold, he is in thy hand; but save his life.
- 7 And the Satan went out from before the Lord, and sent on Job an evil disease covering his skin from his feet to the top of his head.
So Satan went forth from the presence of Yahweh, and struck Job with painful sores from the sole of his foot to his head.
So Satan went forth from the presence of the LORD, and smote Job with sore boils from the sole of his foot to his crown.
- 8 And he took a broken bit of a pot, and, seated in the dust, was rubbing himself with the sharp edge of it.
He took for himself a potsherd to scrape himself with, and he sat among the ashes.
And he took him a potsherd to scrape himself with it; and he sat down among the ashes.
- 9 And his wife said to him, Are you still keeping your righteousness? Say a curse against God, and put an end to yourself.
Then his wife said to him, "Do you still maintain your integrity? Renounce God, and die."
Then said his wife to him, Dost thou still retain thy integrity? curse God, and die.
- 10 And he said to her, You are talking like one of the foolish women. If we take the good God sends us, are we not to take the evil when it comes? In all this Job kept his lips from sin.
But he said to her, "You speak as one of the foolish women would speak. What? Shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil?" In all this Job didn't sin with his lips.
But he said to her, Thou speakest as one of the foolish women speaketh. What? shall we receive good at the hand of God, and shall we not receive evil? In all this did not Job sin with his lips.

- 11 And Job's three friends had word of all this evil which had come on him. And they came every one from his place, Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite. So they came together to a meeting-place, in order that they might go and make clear to Job their grief for him, and give him comfort.
Now when Job`s three friends heard of all this evil that had come on him, they each came from his own place: Eliphaz the Temanite, Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, and they made an appointment together to come to sympathize with him and to comfort him.
Now when Job's three friends heard of all this evil that had come upon him, they came every one from his own place; Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite; for they had made an appointment together to come to mourn with him, and to comfort him.
- 12 And lifting up their eyes when they were still far off, it did not seem that the man they saw was Job because of the change in him. And they gave way to bitter weeping, with signs of grief, and put dust on their heads.
When they lifted up their eyes from a distance, and didn`t recognize him, they raised their voices, and wept; and they each tore his robe, and sprinkled dust on their heads toward the sky.
And when they lifted up their eyes afar off, and knew him not, they raised their voice, and wept; and they rent every one his mantle, and sprinkled dust upon their heads towards heaven.
- 13 And they took their seats on the earth by his side for seven days and seven nights: but no one said a word to him, for they saw that his pain was very great.
So they sat down with him on the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him, for they saw that his grief was very great.
So they sat down with him upon the ground seven days and seven nights, and none spoke a word to him: for they saw that his grief was very great.
- 1 Then, opening his mouth, and cursing the day of his birth,
After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed the day of his birth.
After this Job opened his mouth, and cursed his day.
- 2 Job made answer and said,
Job answered:
And Job spoke, and said,
- 3 Let destruction take the day of my birth, and the night on which it was said, A man child has come into the world.
"Let the day perish in which I was born, The night which said, `There is a man-child conceived.`"
Let the day perish in which I was born, and the night in which it was said, There is a mail child conceived.

- 4 That day--let it be dark; let not God take note of it from on high, and let not the light be shining on it;
Let that day be darkness; Don't let God from above seek for it, Neither let the light shine on it.
Let that day be darkness; let not God regard it from above, neither let the light shine upon it.
- 5 Let the dark and the black night take it for themselves; let it be covered with a cloud; let the dark shades of day send fear on it.
Let darkness and the shadow of death claim it for their own. Let a cloud dwell on it. Let all that makes black the day terrify it.
Let darkness and the shades of death stain it; let a cloud dwell upon it; let the blackness of the day terrify it.
- 6 That night--let the thick dark take it; let it not have joy among the days of the year; let it not come into the number of the months.
As for that night, let thick darkness seize on it. Let it not rejoice among the days of the year. Let it not come into the number of the months.
As for that night, let darkness seize upon it; let it not be joined to the days of the year, let it not come into the number of the months.
- 7 As for that night, let it have no fruit; let no voice of joy be sounded in it;
Behold, let that night be barren. Let no joyful voice come therein.
Lo, let that night be solitary, let no joyful voice come therein.
- 8 Let it be cursed by those who put a curse on the day; who are ready to make Leviathan awake.
Let them curse it who curse the day, Who are ready to rouse up leviathan.
Let them curse it that curse the day, who are ready to raise up their mourning.
- 9 Let its morning stars be dark; let it be looking for light, but may it not have any; let it not see the eyes of the dawn.
Let the stars of the twilight of it be dark. Let it look for light, but have none, Neither let it see the eyelids of the morning,
Let the stars of its twilight be dark; let it look for light, but have none; neither let it see the dawning of the day:
- 10 Because it did not keep the doors of my mother's body shut, so that trouble might be veiled from my eyes.
Because it didn't shut up the doors of my mother's womb, Nor did it hide trouble from my eyes.
Because it prevented not my birth, nor hid sorrow from my eyes.

- 11 Why did death not take me when I came out of my mother's body, why did I not, when I came out, give up my last breath?
"Why didn't I die from the womb? Why didn't I give up the spirit when my mother bore me?
Why died I not from the womb? why did I not expire at the time of my birth?"
- 12 Why did the knees take me, or why the breasts that they might give me milk?
Why did the knees receive me? Or why the breast, that I should suck?
Why did the knees receive me? or why the breasts that I should be nursed?
- 13 For then I might have gone to my rest in quiet, and in sleep have been in peace,
For now should I have lain down and been quiet. I should have slept, then I would have been at rest,
For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest,
-
- 14 With kings and the wise ones of the earth, who put up great houses for themselves;
With kings and counselors of the earth, Who built up waste places for themselves;
With kings and counselors of the earth, who built desolate places for themselves;
- 15 Or with rulers who had gold, and whose houses were full of silver;
Or with princes who had gold, Who filled their houses with silver:
Or with princes that had gold, who filled their houses with silver:
-
- 16 Or as a child dead at birth I might never have come into existence; like young children who have not seen the light.
Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been, As infants who never saw light.
Or as a hidden untimely birth I had not been; as infants which never saw light.
- 17 There the passions of the evil are over, and those whose strength has come to an end have rest.
There the wicked cease from troubling; There the weary are at rest.
There the wicked cease from troubling; and there the weary are at rest.

- 18 There the prisoners are at peace together; the voice of the overseer comes not again to their ears.
There the prisoners are at ease together. They don't hear the voice of the taskmaster.
There the prisoners rest together; they hear not the voice of the oppressor.
- 19 The small and the great are there, and the servant is free from his master.
The small and the great are there. The servant is free from his master.
The small and great are there; and the servant is free from his master.
- 20 Why does he give light to him who is in trouble, and life to the bitter in soul;
"Why is light given to him who is in misery, Life to the bitter in soul,
Why is light given to him that is in misery, and life to the bitter in soul;
- 21 To those whose desire is for death, but it comes not; who are searching for it more than for secret wealth;
Who long for death, but it doesn't come; Dig for it more than for hidden treasures,
Who long for death, but it cometh not; and dig for it more than for hid treasures;
- 22 Who are glad with great joy, and full of delight when they come to their last resting-place;
Who rejoice exceedingly, Are glad, when they can find the grave?
Who rejoice exceedingly, and are glad, when they can find the grave?
- 23 To a man whose way is veiled, and who is shut in by God?
Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, Whom God has hedged in?
Why is light given to a man whose way is hid, and whom God hath hedged in?
- 24 In place of my food I have grief, and cries of sorrow come from me like water.
For my sighing comes before I eat, My groanings are poured out like water.
For my sighing cometh before I eat, and my roarings are poured out like the waters.

25 For I have a fear and it comes on me, and my heart is greatly troubled.
For the thing which I fear comes on me, That which I am afraid of comes to me.
For the thing which I greatly feared hath come upon me, and that which I dreaded hath come to me.

26 I have no peace, no quiet, and no rest; nothing but pain comes on me.
I am not at ease, neither am I quiet, neither have I rest; But trouble comes."
I was not in safety, neither had I rest, neither was I quiet; yet trouble came.

1 And Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,
Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 If one says a word, will it be a weariness to you? but who is able to keep from saying what is in his mind?
"If someone ventures to talk with you, will you be grieved? But who can withhold himself from speaking?
If we essay to commune with thee, wilt thou be grieved? but who can refrain from speaking?

3 Truly, you have been a helper to others, and you have made feeble hands strong;
Behold, you have instructed many, You have strengthened the weak hands.
Behold, thou hast instructed many, and thou hast strengthened the weak hands.

4 He who was near to falling has been lifted up by your words, and you have given strength to bent knees.
Your words have supported him who was falling, You have made firm the feeble knees.
Thy words have upheld him that was falling, and thou hast strengthened the feeble knees.

5 But now it has come on you and it is a weariness to you; you are touched by it and your mind is troubled.
But now it is come to you, and you faint; It touches you, and you are troubled.
But now it hath come upon thee, and thou faintest; it toucheth thee, and thou art troubled.

- 6 Is not your fear of God your support, and your upright way of life your hope?
Isn't your piety your confidence, The integrity of your ways your hope?
Is not this thy fear, thy confidence, thy hope, and the uprightness of thy ways?
- 7 Have you ever seen destruction come to an upright man? or when were the god-fearing ever cut off?
"Remember, now, whoever perished, being innocent? Or where were the upright cut off?
Remember, I pray thee, who ever perished, being innocent? or where were the righteous cut off;
- 8 What I have seen is that those by whom trouble has been ploughed, and evil planted, get the same for themselves.
According to what I have seen, those who plow iniquity, And sow trouble, Reap the same.
Even as I have seen, they that plow iniquity, and sow wickedness, reap the same.
- 9 By the breath of God destruction takes them, and by the wind of his wrath they are cut off.
By the breath of God they perish, By the blast of his anger are they consumed.
By the blast of God they perish, and by the breath of his nostrils are they consumed.
- 10 Though the noise of the lion and the sounding of his voice, may be loud, the teeth of the young lions are broken.
The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, The teeth of the young lions, are broken.
The roaring of the lion, and the voice of the fierce lion, and the teeth of the young lions, are broken.
- 11 The old lion comes to his end for need of food, and the young of the she-lion go wandering in all directions.
The old lion perishes for lack of prey, The whelps of the lioness are scattered abroad.
The old lion perisheth for lack of prey, and the stout lion's whelps are scattered abroad.
- 12 A word was given to me secretly, and the low sound of it came to my ears.
"Now a thing was secretly brought to me, My ear received a whisper of it.
Now a thing was secretly brought to me, and my ear received a small sound of it.

- 13 In troubled thoughts from visions of the night, when deep sleep comes on men,
In thoughts from the visions of the night, When deep sleep falls on men,
In thoughts from the visions of the night, when deep sleep falleth on men.
- 14 Fear came on me and shaking, and my bones were full of trouble;
Fear came on me, and trembling, Which made all my bones shake.
Fear came upon me, and trembling, which made all my bones to shake.
- 15 And a breath was moving over my face; the hair of my flesh became stiff:
Then a spirit passed before my face; The hair of my flesh stood up.
Then a spirit passed before my face; the hair of my flesh stood up:
- 16 Something was present before me, but I was not able to see it clearly; there was a form before my eyes: a quiet voice came to my ears, saying:
It stood still, but I couldn't discern the appearance of it; A form was before my eyes. Silence, then I heard a voice, saying,
It stood still, but I could not discern its form: an image was before my eyes, there was silence, and I heard a voice, saying,
- 17 May a man be upright before God? or a man be clean before his Maker?
`Shall mortal man be more just than God? Shall a man be more pure than his Maker?
Shall mortal man be more just than God? shall a man be more pure than his maker?
- 18 Truly, he puts no faith in his servants, and he sees error in his angels;
Behold, he puts no trust in his servants. He charges his angels with error.
Behold, he put no trust in his servants; and his angels he charged with folly:
- 19 How much more those living in houses of earth, whose bases are in the dust! They are crushed more quickly than an insect;
How much more, those who dwell in houses of clay, Whose foundation is in the dust, Who are crushed before the moth!
How much less in them that dwell in houses of clay, whose foundation is in the dust, who are crushed before the moth?

20 Between morning and evening they are completely broken; they come to an end for ever, and no one takes note.

Between morning and evening they are destroyed. They perish forever without any regarding it.

They are destroyed from morning to evening: they perish for ever without any regarding it.

21 If their tent-cord is pulled up, do they not come to an end, and without wisdom?

Isn't their tent-cord plucked up within them? They die, and that without wisdom.

Doth not their excellence which is in them depart? they die, even without wisdom.

1 Give now a cry for help; is there anyone who will give you an answer? and to which of the holy ones will you make your prayer?

"Call now; is there any who will answer you? To which of the holy ones will you turn?"

Call now, if there is any that will answer thee; and to which of the saints wilt thou turn?

2 For wrath is the cause of death to the foolish, and he who has no wisdom comes to his end through passion.

For resentment kills the foolish man, And jealousy kills the simple.

For wrath killeth the foolish man, and envy slayeth the silly one.

3 I have seen the foolish taking root, but suddenly the curse came on his house.

I have seen the foolish taking root, But suddenly I cursed his habitation.

I have seen the foolish taking root: but suddenly I cursed his habitation.

4 Now his children have no safe place, and they are crushed before the judges, for no one takes up their cause.

His children are far from safety, They are crushed in the gate. Neither is there any to deliver them,

His children are far from safety, and they are crushed in the gate, neither is there any to deliver them.

5 Their produce is taken by him who has no food, and their grain goes to the poor, and he who is in need of water gets it from their spring.

Whose harvest the hungry eats up, Takes it even out of the thorns; The snare gapes for their substance.

Whose harvest the hungry eateth up, and taketh it even out of the thorns, and the robber swalloweth up their substance.

6 For evil does not come out of the dust, or trouble out of the earth;
For affliction doesn't come forth from the dust, Neither does trouble spring out of the ground;
Although affliction cometh not forth from the dust, neither doth trouble spring out of the ground;

7 But trouble is man's fate from birth, as the flames go up from the fire.
But man is born to trouble, As the sparks fly upward.
Yet man is born to trouble, as the sparks fly upward.

8 But as for me, I would make my prayer to God, and I would put my cause before him:
"But as for me, I would seek God, To God would I commit my cause;
I would seek to God, and to God would I commit my cause:

9 Who does great things outside our knowledge, wonders without number:
Who does great things that can't be fathomed, Marvelous things without number;
Who doeth great things and unsearchable; wonderful things without number:

10 Who gives rain on the earth, and sends water on the fields:
Who gives rain on the earth, And sends waters on the fields;
Who giveth rain upon the earth, and sendeth waters upon the fields:

11 Lifting up those who are low, and putting the sad in a safe place;
So that he sets up on high those who are low, Those who mourn are exalted to safety.
To set on high those that are low: that those who mourn may be exalted to safety.

12 Who makes the designs of the wise go wrong, so that they are unable to give effect to their purposes.
He frustrates the devices of the crafty, So that their hands can't perform their enterprise.
He disappointeth the devices of the crafty, so that their hands cannot perform their enterprise.

- 13 He takes the wise in their secret designs, and the purposes of the twisted are cut off suddenly.
He takes the wise in their own craftiness; The counsel of the cunning is carried headlong.
He taketh the wise in their own craftiness: and the counsel of the froward is carried headlong.
- 14 In the daytime it becomes dark for them, and in the sunlight they go feeling about as if it was night.
They meet with darkness in the day-time, And grope at noonday as in the night.
They meet with darkness in the day-time, and grope in the noon-day as in the night.
- 15 But he keeps safe from their sword those who have no father, and the poor from the power of the strong.
But he saves from the sword of their mouth, Even the needy from the hand of the mighty.
But he saveth the poor from the sword, from their mouth, and from the hand of the mighty.
- 16 So the poor man has hope, and the mouth of the evil-doer is stopped.
So the poor has hope, And injustice shuts her mouth.
So the poor hath hope, and iniquity stoppeth her mouth.
- 17 Truly, that man is happy who has training from the hand of God: so do not let your heart be shut to the teaching of the Ruler of all.
"Behold, happy is the man whom God corrects: Therefore do not despise the chastening of the Almighty.
Behold, happy is the man whom God correcteth: therefore despise not thou the chastening of the Almighty:
- 18 For after his punishment he gives comfort, and after wounding, his hands make you well.
For he wounds, and binds up; He injures, and his hands make whole.
For he maketh sore, and bindeth up: he woundeth, and his hands make whole.
- 19 He will keep you safe from six troubles, and in seven no evil will come near you.
He will deliver you in six troubles; Yes, in seven there shall no evil touch you.
He will deliver thee in six troubles: yea, in seven there shall no evil touch thee.

- 20 When there is need of food he will keep you from death, and in war from the power of the sword.
In famine he will redeem you from death; In war, from the power of the sword.
In famine he will redeem thee from death: and in war from the power of the sword.
- 21 He will keep you safe from the evil tongue; and you will have no fear of wasting when it comes.
You shall be hidden from the scourge of the tongue, Neither shall you be afraid of destruction when it comes.
Thou shalt be hid from the scourge of the tongue: neither shalt thou be afraid of destruction when it cometh.
- 22 You will make sport of destruction and need, and will have no fear of the beasts of the earth.
At destruction and dearth you shall laugh, Neither shall you be afraid of the animals of the earth.
At destruction and famine thou shalt laugh: neither shalt thou be afraid of the beasts of the earth.
- 23 For you will be in agreement with the stones of the earth, and the beasts of the field will be at peace with you.
For you shall be in league with the stones of the field. The animals of the field shall be at peace with you.
For thou shalt be in league with the stones of the field: and the beasts of the field shall be at peace with thee.
- 24 And you will be certain that your tent is at peace, and after looking over your property you will see that nothing is gone.
You shall know that your tent is in peace. You shall visit your fold, and shall miss nothing.
And thou shalt know that thy tabernacle will be in peace; and thou shalt visit thy habitation, and shalt not sin.
- 25 You will be certain that your seed will be great, and your offspring like the plants of the earth.
You shall know also that your seed shall be great, Your offspring as the grass of the earth.
Thou shalt know also that thy seed will be great, and thy offspring as the grass of the earth.
- 26 You will come to your last resting-place in full strength, as the grain is taken up to the crushing-floor in its time.
You shall come to your grave in a full age, Like a shock of grain comes in its season.
Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, as a shock of corn cometh in in its season.

27 See, we have made search with care, and it is so; it has come to our ears; see that you take note of it for yourself.
Look this, we have searched it, so it is; Hear it, and know it for your good."
Lo this, we have searched it, so it is; hear it, and know thou it for thy good.

1 And Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
But Job answered and said,

2 If only my passion might be measured, and put into the scales against my trouble!
"Oh that my anguish were weighed, And all my calamity laid in the balances!
Oh that my grief were thoroughly weighed, and my calamity laid in the balances together!

3 For then its weight would be more than the sand of the seas: because of this my words have been uncontrolled.
For now it would be heavier than the sand of the seas, Therefore have my words been rash.
For now it would be heavier than the sand of the sea: therefore my words are swallowed up.

4 For the arrows of the Ruler of all are present with me, and their poison goes deep into my spirit: his army of fears is put in order against me.
For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, My spirit drinks up their poison. The terrors of God set themselves in array against me.
For the arrows of the Almighty are within me, the poison of which drinketh up my spirit: the terrors of God set themselves in array against me.

5 Does the ass of the fields give out his voice when he has grass? or does the ox make sounds over his food?
Does the wild donkey bray when he has grass? Or does the ox low over his fodder?
Doth the wild ass bray when he hath grass? or loweth the ox over his fodder?

6 Will a man take food which has no taste without salt? or is there any taste in the soft substance of purslain?
Can that which has no flavor be eaten without salt? Or is there any taste in the white of an egg?
Can that which is unsavory be eaten without salt? or is there any taste in the white of an egg?

- 7 My soul has no desire for such things, they are as disease in my food.
My soul refuses to touch them; They are as loathsome food to me.
The things that my soul refused to touch are as my sorrowful food.
- 8 If only I might have an answer to my prayer, and God would give me my desire!
"Oh that I might have my request; That God would grant the thing that I long for!
Oh that I might have my request; and that God would grant me the thing that I long for!
- 9 If only he would be pleased to put an end to me; and would let loose his hand, so that I might be cut off!
Even that it would please God to crush me; That he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
Even that it would please God to destroy me; that he would let loose his hand, and cut me off!
- 10 So I would still have comfort, and I would have joy in the pains of death, for I have not been false to the words of the Holy One.
Be it still my consolation, Yes, let me exult in pain that doesn't spare, That I have not denied the words of the Holy One.
Then should I yet have comfort; yes, I would harden myself in sorrow: let him not spare; for I have not concealed the words of the Holy One.
- 11 Have I strength to go on waiting, or have I any end to be looking forward to?
What is my strength, that I should wait? What is my end, that I should be patient?
What is my strength, that I should hope? and what is my end, that I should prolong my life?
- 12 Is my strength the strength of stones, or is my flesh brass?
Is my strength the strength of stones? Or is my flesh of brass?
Is my strength the strength of stones? or is my flesh of brass?
- 13 I have no help in myself, and wisdom is completely gone from me.
Isn't it that I have no help in me, That wisdom is driven quite from me?
Is not my help in me? and is wisdom driven quite from me?

- 14 He whose heart is shut against his friend has given up the fear of the Ruler of all.
"To him who is ready to faint, kindness should be shown from his friend; Even to him who forsakes the fear of the Almighty
To him that is afflicted pity should be shown from his friend; but he forsaketh the fear of the Almighty.
- 15 My friends have been false like a stream, like streams in the valleys which come to an end:
My brothers have dealt deceitfully as a brook, As the channel of brooks that pass away;
My brethren have dealt deceitfully as a brook, and as the stream of brooks they pass away;
- 16 Which are dark because of the ice, and the snow falling into them;
Which are black by reason of the ice, in which the snow hides itself:
Which are blackish by reason of the ice, and in which the snow is hid:
- 17 Under the burning sun they are cut off, and come to nothing because of the heat.
In the dry season, they vanish. When it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
In the time when they become warm, they vanish: when it is hot, they are consumed out of their place.
- 18 The camel-trains go out of their way; they go up into the waste and come to destruction.
The caravans that travel beside them turn aside; They go up into the waste, and perish.
The paths of their way are turned aside; they go to nothing, and perish.
- 19 The camel-trains of Tema were searching with care, the bands of Sheba were waiting for them:
The caravans of Tema looked, The companies of Sheba waited for them.
The troops of Tema looked, the companies of Sheba waited for them.
- 20 They were put to shame because of their hope; they came and their hope was gone.
They were put to shame because they had hoped; They came there, and were confounded.
They were confounded because they had hoped; they came thither, and were ashamed.

- 21 So have you now become to me; you see my sad condition and are in fear.
For now you are nothing. You see a terror, and are afraid.
For now ye are nothing: ye see my casting down, and are afraid.
- 22 Did I say, Give me something? or, Make a payment for me out of your wealth?
Did I say, `Give to me?` Or, `Offer a present for me from your substance?`
Did I say, Bring to me? or Give a reward for me of your substance?
- 23 Or, Get me out of the power of my hater? or, Give money so that I may be free from the power of the cruel ones?
Or, `Deliver me from the adversary's hand?` Or, `Redeem me from the hand of the oppressors?`
Or, Deliver me from the enemy's hand? or, Redeem me from the hand of the mighty?
- 24 Give me teaching and I will be quiet; and make me see my error.
"Teach me, and I will hold my peace; Cause me to understand wherein I have erred.
Teach me, and I will hold my tongue: and cause me to understand in what I have erred.
- 25 How pleasing are upright words! but what force is there in your arguments?
How forcible are words of uprightness! But your reproof, what does it reprove?
How forcible are right words! but what doth your arguing reprove?
- 26 My words may seem wrong to you, but the words of him who has no hope are for the wind.
Do you intend to reprove words, Seeing that the speeches of one who is desperate are as wind?
Do ye imagine to reprove words, and the speeches of one that is desperate, which are as wind?
- 27 Truly, you are such as would give up the child of a dead man to his creditors, and would make a profit out of your friend.
Yes, you would even cast lots for the fatherless, And make merchandise of your friend.
Yes, ye overwhelm the fatherless, and ye dig a pit for your friend.

- 28 Now then, let your eyes be turned to me, for truly I will not say what is false to your face.
Now therefore be pleased to look at me, For surely I shall not lie to your face.
Now therefore be content, look upon me; for it is evident to you if I lie.
- 29 Let your minds be changed, and do not have an evil opinion of me; yes, be changed, for my righteousness is still in me.
Please return. Let there be no injustice; Yes, return again, my cause is righteous.
Return, I pray you, let it not be iniquity; yes, return again, my righteousness is in it.
- 30 Is there evil in my tongue? is not the cause of my trouble clear to me?
Is there injustice on my tongue? Can't my taste discern mischievous things?
Is there iniquity in my tongue? cannot my taste discern perverse things?
- 1 Has not man his ordered time of trouble on the earth? and are not his days like the days of a servant working for payment?
"Isn't a man forced to labor on earth? Aren't his days like the days of a hired hand?
Is there not an appointed time to man upon earth? are not his days also like the days of a hireling?
- 2 As a servant desiring the shades of evening, and a workman looking for his payment:
As a servant who earnestly desires the shadow, As a hireling who looks for his wages,
As a servant earnestly desireth the shadow, and as a hireling looketh for the reward of his work;
- 3 So I have for my heritage months of pain to no purpose, and nights of weariness are given to me.
So am I made to possess months of misery, Wearisome nights are appointed to me.
So am I made to possess months of vanity, and wearisome nights are appointed to me.
- 4 When I go to my bed, I say, When will it be time to get up? but the night is long, and I am turning from side to side till morning light.
When I lie down, I say, `When shall I arise, and the night be gone?` I toss and turn until the dawning of the day.
When I lie down, I say, When shall I arise, and the night be gone? and I am full of tossings to and fro to the dawning of the day.

- 5 My flesh is covered with worms and dust; my skin gets hard and then is cracked again.
My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust. My skin closes up, and breaks out afresh.
My flesh is clothed with worms and clods of dust; my skin is broken and become loathsome.
- 6 My days go quicker than the cloth-worker's thread, and come to an end without hope.
My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, And are spent without hope.
My days are swifter than a weaver's shuttle, and are spent without hope.
- 7 O, keep in mind that my life is wind: my eye will never again see good.
Oh remember that my life is a breath. My eye shall no more see good.
O remember that my life is wind: my eye will no more see good.
- 8 The eye of him who sees me will see me no longer: your eyes will be looking for me, but I will be gone.
The eye of him who sees me shall see me no more. Your eyes shall be on me, but I shall not be.
The eye of him that hath seen me shall see me no more: thy eyes are upon me, and I am not.
- 9 A cloud comes to an end and is gone; so he who goes down into the underworld comes not up again.
As the cloud is consumed and vanishes away, So he who goes down to Sheol shall come up no more.
As the cloud is consumed and vanisheth away: so he that goeth down to the grave shall come up no more.
- 10 He will not come back to his house, and his place will have no more knowledge of him.
He shall return no more to his house, Neither shall his place know him any more.
He shall return no more to his house, neither shall his place know him any more.
- 11 So I will not keep my mouth shut; I will let the words come from it in the pain of my spirit, my soul will make a bitter outcry.
"Therefore I will not keep silent. I will speak in the anguish of my spirit. I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.
Therefore I will not restrain my mouth; I will speak in the anguish of my spirit; I will complain in the bitterness of my soul.

12 Am I a sea, or a sea-beast, that you put a watch over me?

Am I a sea, or a sea-monster, That you put a guard over me?

Am I a sea, or a whale, that thou settest a watch over me?

13 When I say, In my bed I will have comfort, there I will get rest from my disease;

When I say, `My bed shall comfort me, My couch shall ease my complaint;`

When I say, My bed shall comfort me, my couch shall ease my complaint;

14 Then you send dreams to me, and visions of fear;

Then you scar me with dreams, And terrify me through visions:

Then thou scarest me with dreams, and terrifiest me through visions:

15 So that a hard death seems better to my soul than my pains.

So that my soul chooses strangling, Death rather than my bones.

So that my soul chooseth strangling, and death rather than my life.

16 I have no desire for life, I would not be living for ever! Keep away from me, for my days are as a breath.

I loathe my life. I don't want to live forever. Leave me alone; for my days are but a breath.

I lothe it; I would not live always: let me alone; for my days are vanity.

17 What is man, that you have made him great, and that your attention is fixed on him,

What is man, that you should magnify him, That you should set your mind on him,

What is man, that thou shouldst magnify him? and that thou shouldst set thy heart upon him?

18 And that your hand is on him every morning, and that you are testing him every minute?

That you should visit him every morning, And test him every moment?

And that thou shouldst visit him every morning, and try him every moment?

- 19 How long will it be before your eyes are turned away from me, so that I may have a minute's breathing-space?
How long will you not look away from me, Nor leave me alone until I swallow down my spittle?
How long wilt thou not depart from me, nor let me alone till I swallow my spittle?
- 20 If I have done wrong, what have I done to you, O keeper of men? why have you made me a mark for your blows, so that I am a weariness to myself?
If I have sinned, what do I do to you, you watcher of men? Why have you set me as a mark for you, So that I am a burden to myself?
I have sinned; what shall I do to thee, O thou preserver of men? why hast thou set me as a mark against thee, so that I am a burden to myself?
- 21 And why do you not take away my sin, and let my wrongdoing be ended? for now I go down to the dust, and you will be searching for me with care, but I will be gone.
Why do you not pardon my disobedience, and take away my iniquity? For now shall I lie down in the dust. You will seek me diligently, but I shall not be."
And why dost thou not pardon my transgression, and take away my iniquity? for now shall I sleep in the dust; and thou shalt seek me in the morning, but I shall not be.
- 1 Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,
Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
- 2 How long will you say these things, and how long will the words of your mouth be like a strong wind?
"How long will you speak these things? Shall the words of your mouth be a mighty wind?
How long wilt thou speak these things? and how long shall the words of thy mouth be like a strong wind?
- 3 Does God give wrong decisions? or is the Ruler of all not upright in his judging?
Does God pervert justice? Or does the Almighty pervert righteousness?
Doth God pervert judgment; or doth the Almighty pervert justice?
- 4 If your children have done evil against him, then their punishment is from his hand.
If your children have sinned against him, He has delivered them into the hand of their disobedience;
If thy children have sinned against him, and he hath cast them away for their transgression;

- 5 If you will make search for God with care, and put your request before the Ruler of all;
If you want to seek God diligently, Make your supplication to the Almighty.
If thou wouldst seek to God betimes, and make thy supplication to the Almighty;
- 6 If you are clean and upright; then he will certainly be moved to take up your cause, and will make clear your righteousness by building up your house again.
If you were pure and upright, Surely now he would awaken for you, And make the habitation of your righteousness prosperous.
If thou wert pure and upright; surely now he would awake for thee, and make the habitation of thy righteousness prosperous.
- 7 And though your start was small, your end will be very great.
Though your beginning was small, Yet your latter end would greatly increase.
Though thy beginning was small, yet thy latter end would greatly increase.
- 8 Put the question now to the past generations, and give attention to what has been searched out by their fathers:
"Please inquire of past generations, Find out about the learning of their fathers.
For inquire, I pray thee, of the former age, and prepare thyself to the search of their fathers:
- 9 (For we are but of yesterday, and have no knowledge, because our days on earth are gone like a shade:)
(For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, Because our days on earth are a shadow.)
(For we are but of yesterday, and know nothing, because our days upon earth are a shadow:)
- 10 Will they not give you teaching, and say words of wisdom to you?
Shall they not teach you, tell you, And utter words out of their heart?
Will they not teach thee, and tell thee, and utter words out of their heart?
- 11 Will the river-plant come up in its pride without wet earth? will the grass get tall without water?
"Can the papyrus grow up without mire? Can the rushes grow without water?
Can the rush grow without mire? can the flag grow without water?

- 12 When it is still green, without being cut down, it becomes dry and dead before any other plant.
While it is yet in its greenness, not cut down, It withers before any other reed.
Whilst it is yet in its greenness, and not cut down, it withereth before any other herb.
- 13 So is the end of all who do not keep God in mind; and the hope of the evil-doer comes to nothing:
So are the paths of all who forget God. The hope of the godless man shall perish,
So are the paths of all that forget God; and the hypocrite's hope shall perish:
- 14 Whose support is cut off, and whose hope is no stronger than a spider's thread.
Whose confidence shall break apart, Whose trust is a spider's web.
Whose hope shall be cut off, and whose trust shall be a spider's web.
- 15 He is looking to his family for support, but it is not there; he puts his hope in it, but it comes to nothing.
He shall lean on his house, but it shall not stand. He shall cling to it, but it shall not endure.
He shall lean upon his house, but it shall not stand: he shall hold it fast, but it shall not endure.
- 16 He is full of strength before the sun, and his branches go out over his garden.
He is green before the sun, His shoots go forth over his garden.
He is green before the sun, and his branch shooteth forth in his garden.
- 17 His roots are twisted round the stones, forcing their way in between them.
His roots are wrapped around the rock pile, He sees the place of stones.
His roots are wrapped about the heap, and seeth the place of stones.
- 18 If he is taken away from his place, then it will say, I have not seen you.
If he is destroyed from his place, Then it shall deny him, saying, 'I have not seen you.'
If he shall destroy him from his place, then it shall deny him, saying, I have not seen thee.

19 Such is the joy of his way, and out of the dust another comes up to take his place.

Behold, this is the joy of his way: Out of the earth shall others spring.

Behold, this is the joy of his way, and out of the earth shall others grow.

20 Truly, God will not give up him who is without sin, and will not take evil-doers by the hand.

"Behold, God will not cast away a blameless man, Neither will he uphold the evil-doers.

Behold, God will not cast away a perfect man, neither will he help the evil doers:

21 The time will come when your mouth will be full of laughing, and cries of joy will come from your lips.

He will still fill your mouth with laughter, Your lips with shouting.

Till he shall fill thy mouth with laughing, and thy lips with rejoicing.

22 Your haters will be clothed with shame, and the tent of the sinner will not be seen again.

Those who hate you shall be clothed with shame. The tent of the wicked shall be no more."

They that hate thee shall be clothed with shame; and the dwelling place of the wicked shall come to naught.

1 And Job made answer and said,

Then Job answered,

Then Job answered and said,

2 Truly, I see that it is so: and how is it possible for a man to get his right before God?

"Truly I know that it is so, But how can man be just with God?

I know it to be so of a truth: but how should man be just with God?

3 If a man was desiring to go to law with him, he would not be able to give him an answer to one out of a thousand questions.

If he is pleased to contend with him, He can't answer him one time in a thousand.

If he will contend with him, he cannot answer him one of a thousand.

4 He is wise in heart and great in strength: who ever made his face hard against him, and any good came of it?
God who is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: Who has hardened himself against him, and prospered?
He is wise in heart, and mighty in strength: who hath hardened himself against him, and hath prospered?

5 It is he who takes away the mountains without their knowledge, overturning them in his wrath:
Who removes the mountains, and they don't know it, When he overturns them in his anger
Who removeth the mountains, and they know not: who overturneth them in his anger.

6 Who is moving the earth out of its place, so that its pillars are shaking:
Who shakes the earth out of its place; The pillars of it tremble;
Who shaketh the earth out of her place, and its pillars tremble.

7 Who gives orders to the sun, and it does not give its light; and who keeps the stars from shining.
Who commands the sun, and it doesn't rise, And seals up the stars;
Who commandeth the sun, and it riseth not; and sealeth up the stars.

8 By whose hand the heavens were stretched out, and who is walking on the waves of the sea:
Who alone stretches out the heavens, Treads on the waves of the sea;
Who alone spreadeth out the heavens, and treadeth upon the waves of the sea.

9 Who made the Bear and Orion, and the Pleiades, and the store-houses of the south:
Who makes the Bear, Orion, and the Pleiades, And the chambers of the south;
Who maketh Arcturus, Orion, and Pleiades, and the chambers of the south.

10 Who does great things not to be searched out; yes, wonders without number.
Who does great things past finding out, Yes, marvelous things without number.
Who doeth great things past finding out; yes, and wonders without number.

- 11 See, he goes past me and I see him not: he goes on before, but I have no knowledge of him.
Behold, he goes by me, and I don't see him. He passes on also, but I don't perceive him.
Lo, he goeth by me, and I see him not: he passeth on also, but I perceive him not.
- 12 If he puts out his hand to take, by whom may it be turned back? who may say to him, What are you doing?
Behold, he snatches away; who can hinder him? Who will ask him, `What are you doing?`
Behold, he taketh away, who can hinder him? who will say to him, What doest thou?
- 13 God's wrath may not be turned back; the helpers of Rahab were bent down under him.
"God will not withdraw his anger; The helpers of Rahab stoop under him.
If God will not withdraw his anger, the proud helpers do stoop under him.
- 14 How much less may I give an answer to him, using the right words in argument with him?
How much less shall I answer him, Choose my words to argue with him?
How much less shall I answer him, and choose out my words to reason with him?
- 15 Even if my cause was good, I would not be able to give an answer; I would make request for grace from him who was against me.
Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer. I would make supplication to my judge.
Whom, though I were righteous, yet would I not answer, but I would make supplication to my judge.
- 16 If I had sent for him to be present, and he had come, I would have no faith that he would give ear to my voice.
If I had called, and he had answered me, Yet would I not believe that he listened to my voice.
If I had called, and he had answered me; yet I would not believe that he had hearkened to my voice.
- 17 For I would be crushed by his storm, my wounds would be increased without cause.
For he breaks me with a tempest, Multiplies my wounds without cause.
For he breaketh me with a tempest, and multiplieth my wounds without cause.

- 18 He would not let me take my breath, but I would be full of bitter grief.
He will not allow me to take my breath, But fills me with bitterness.
He will not suffer me to take my breath, but filleth me with bitterness.
- 19 If it is a question of strength, he says, Here I am! and if it is a question of a cause at law, he says, Who will give me a fixed day?
If it is a matter of strength, behold, he is mighty! If of justice, `Who,` says he, `will summon me?`
If I speak of strength, lo, he is strong: and if of judgment, who shall set me a time to plead?
- 20 Though I was in the right, he would say that I was in the wrong; I have done no evil; but he says that I am a sinner.
Though I am righteous, my own mouth shall condemn me. Though I am blameless, it shall prove me perverse.
If I justify myself, my own mouth will condemn me: if I say, I am perfect, that also will prove me perverse.
- 21 I have done no wrong; I give no thought to what becomes of me; I have no desire for life.
I am blameless. I don't regard myself. I despise my life.
Though I were perfect, yet would I not know my soul: I would despise my life.
- 22 It is all the same to me; so I say, He puts an end to the sinner and to him who has done no wrong together.
"It is all the same. Therefore I say, He destroys the blameless and the wicked.
This is one thing, therefore I said it, he destroyeth the perfect and the wicked.
- 23 If death comes suddenly through disease, he makes sport of the fate of those who have done no wrong.
If the scourge kills suddenly, He will mock at the trial of the innocent.
If the scourge shall slay suddenly, he will laugh at the trial of the innocent.
- 24 The land is given into the power of the evil-doer; the faces of its judges are covered; if not by him, then who has done it?
The earth is given into the hand of the wicked. He covers the faces of the judges of it. If not he, then who is it?
The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: he covereth the faces of its judges; if not, where, and who is he?

25 My days go quicker than a post-runner: they go in flight, they see no good.
"Now my days are swifter than a runner. They flee away, they see no good,
Now my days are swifter than a post: they flee away, they see no good.

26 They go rushing on like reed-boats, like an eagle dropping suddenly on its food.
They have passed away as the swift ships, As the eagle that swoops on the prey.
They are passed away as the swift ships: as the eagle that hasteth to the prey.

27 If I say, I will put my grief out of mind, I will let my face be sad no longer and I will be bright;
If I say, `I will forget my complaint, I will put off my sad face, and cheer up;`
If I say, I will forget my complaint, I will leave off my heaviness, and comfort myself:

28 I go in fear of all my pains; I am certain that I will not be free from sin in your eyes.
I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that you will not hold me innocent.
I am afraid of all my sorrows, I know that thou wilt not hold me innocent.

29 You will not let me be clear of sin! why then do I take trouble for nothing?
I shall be condemned; Why then do I labor in vain?
If I am wicked, why then do I labor in vain?

30 If I am washed with snow water, and make my hands clean with soap;
If I wash myself with snow, And cleanse my hands with lye,
If I wash myself with snow water, and make my hands never so clean;

31 Then you will have me pushed into the dust, so that I will seem disgusting to my very clothing.
Yet you will plunge me in the ditch. My own clothes shall abhor me.
Yet wilt thou plunge me in the ditch, and my own clothes shall abhor me.

- 32 For he is not a man as I am, that I might give him an answer, that we might come together before a judge.
For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, That we should come together in judgment.
For he is not a man, as I am, that I should answer him, and we should come together in judgment.
- 33 There is no one to give a decision between us, who might have control over us.
There is no umpire between us, That might lay his hand on us both.
Neither is there any judge between us, that might lay his hand upon us both.
- 34 Let him take away his rod from me and not send his fear on me:
Let him take his rod away from me, Let his terror not make me afraid:
Let him take away his rod from me, and let not his fear terrify me:
- 35 Then I would say what is in my mind without fear of him; for there is no cause of fear in myself.
Then I would speak, and not fear him, For I am not so in myself.
Then would I speak, and not fear him; but it is not so with me.
- 1 My soul is tired of life; I will let my sad thoughts go free in words; my soul will make a bitter outcry.
"My soul is weary of my life; I will give free course to my complaint. I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
My soul is weary of my life; I will leave my complaint upon myself; I will speak in the bitterness of my soul.
- 2 I will say to God, Do not put me down as a sinner; make clear to me what you have against me.
I will tell God, `Do not condemn me, Show me why you contend with me.
I will say to God, Do not condemn me; show me why thou contendest with me.
- 3 What profit is it to you to be cruel, to give up the work of your hands, looking kindly on the design of evil-doers?
Is it good to you that you should oppress, That you should despise the work of your hands, And smile on the counsel of the wicked?
Is it good to thee that thou shouldst oppress, that thou shouldst despise the work of thy hands, and shine upon the counsel of the wicked?

4 Have you eyes of flesh, or do you see as man sees?

Do you have eyes of flesh? Or do you see as man sees?

Hast thou eyes of flesh? or seest thou as man seeth?

5 Are your days as the days of man, or your years like his,

Are your days as the days of mortals, Or your years as man`s years,

Are thy days as the days of man? are thy years as man's days,

6 That you take note of my sin, searching after my wrongdoing,

That you inquire after my iniquity, And search after my sin?

That thou inquirest after my iniquity, and searchest after my sin?

7 Though you see that I am not an evil-doer; and there is no one who is able to take a man out of your hands?

Although you know that I am not wicked, There is no one who can deliver out of your hand.

Thou knowest that I am not wicked; and there is none that can deliver out of thy hand.

8 Your hands made me, and I was formed by you, but then, changing your purpose, you gave me up to destruction.

`Your hands have framed me and fashioned me altogether; Yet you destroy me.

Thy hands have made me and fashioned me in all my parts; yet thou dost destroy me.

9 O keep in mind that you made me out of earth; and will you send me back again to dust?

Remember, I beg you, that you have fashioned me as clay. Will you bring me into dust again?

Remember, I beseech thee, that thou hast made me as the clay; and wilt thou bring me into dust again?

10 Was I not drained out like milk, becoming hard like cheese?

Haven`t you poured me out like milk, And curdled me like cheese?

Hast thou not poured me out as milk, and curdled me like cheese?

- 11 By you I was clothed with skin and flesh, and joined together with bones and muscles.
You have clothed me with skin and flesh, And knit me together with bones and sinews.
Thou hast clothed me with skin and flesh, and hast fenced me with bones and sinews.
- 12 You have been kind to me, and your grace has been with me, and your care has kept my spirit safe.
You have granted me life and lovingkindness. Your visitation has preserved my spirit.
Thou hast granted me life and favor, and thy visitation hath preserved my spirit.
- 13 But you kept these things in the secret of your heart; I am certain this was in your thoughts:
Yet you hid these things in your heart. I know that this is with you:
And these things hast thou hid in thy heart: I know that this is with thee.
- 14 That, if I did wrong, you would take note of it, and would not make me clear from sin:
If I sin, then you mark me. You will not acquit me from my iniquity.
If I sin, then thou markest me, and thou wilt not acquit me from my iniquity.
- 15 That, if I was an evil-doer, the curse would come on me; and if I was upright, my head would not be lifted up, being full of shame and overcome with trouble.
If I am wicked, woe to me. If I am righteous, I still shall not lift up my head, Being filled with disgrace, And conscious of my affliction.
If I be wicked, woe to me; and if I be righteous, yet will I not lift up my head. I am full of confusion; therefore see thou my affliction;
- 16 And that if there was cause for pride, you would go after me like a lion; and again put out your wonders against me:
If my head is held high, you hunt me like a lion. Again you show yourself powerful to me.
For it increaseth. Thou huntest me as a fierce lion: and again thou showest thyself wonderful upon me.
- 17 That you would send new witnesses against me, increasing your wrath against me, and letting loose new armies on me.
You renew your witnesses against me, And increase your indignation on me. Changes and warfare are with me.
Thou renewest thy witnesses against me, and increasest thy indignation upon me; changes and war are against me.

18 Why then did you make me come out of my mother's body? It would have been better for me to have taken my last breath, and for no eye to have seen me,
"Why, then, have you brought me forth out of the womb? I wish I had given up the spirit, and no eye had seen me.
Why then hast thou brought me forth from the womb? O that I had expired, and no eye had seen me!

19 And for me to have been as if I had not been; to have been taken from my mother's body straight to my last resting-place.
I should have been as though I had not been. I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.
I should have been as though I had not been; I should have been carried from the womb to the grave.

20 Are not the days of my life small in number? Let your eyes be turned away from me, so that I may have a little pleasure,
Aren't my days few? Cease then, Leave me alone, that I may find a little comfort,
Are not my days few? cease then, and let me alone, that I may take comfort a little,

21 Before I go to the place from which I will not come back, to the land where all is dark and black,
Before I go where I shall not return from, To the land of darkness and of the shadow of death;
Before I go whence I shall not return, even to the land of darkness, and the shades of death;

22 A land of thick dark, without order, where the very light is dark.
The land dark as midnight, Of the shadow of death, without any order, Where the light is as midnight."
A land of darkness, as darkness itself; and of the shades of death, without any order, and where the light is as darkness.

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite made answer and said,
Then Zophar, the Naamathite, answered,
Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 Are all these words to go unanswered? and is a man seen to be right because he is full of talk?
"Shouldn't the multitude of words be answered? Should a man full of talk be justified?
Should not the multitude of words be answered? and should a man full of talk be justified?

- 3 Are your words of pride to make men keep quiet? and are you to make sport, with no one to put you to shame?
Should your boastings make men hold their peace? When you mock, shall no man make you ashamed?
Should thy falsehoods make men hold their peace? and when thou mockest, shall no man make thee ashamed?
- 4 You may say, My way is clean, and I am free from sin in your eyes.
For you say, `My doctrine is pure, I am clean in your eyes.`
For thou hast said, My doctrine is pure, and I am clean in thy eyes.
- 5 But if only God would take up the word, opening his lips in argument with you;
But oh that God would speak, And open his lips against you,
But Oh that God would speak, and open his lips against thee;
- 6 And would make clear to you the secrets of wisdom, and the wonders of his purpose!
That he would show you the secrets of wisdom! For true wisdom has two sides. Know therefore that God exacts of you less than your iniquity deserves.
And that he would show thee the secrets of wisdom, that they are double to that which is! Know therefore that God exacteth of thee less than thy iniquity deserveth.
- 7 Are you able to take God's measure, to make discovery of the limits of the Ruler of all?
"Can you fathom the mystery of God? Or can you probe the limits of the Almighty?
Canst thou by searching find out God? canst thou find out the Almighty to perfection?
- 8 They are higher than heaven; what is there for you to do? deeper than the underworld, and outside your knowledge;
They are high as heaven. What can you do? Deeper than Sheol: what can you know?
It is as high as heaven; what canst thou do? deeper than hell; what canst thou know?
- 9 Longer in measure than the earth, and wider than the sea.
The measure of it is longer than the earth, And broader than the sea.
The measure of it is longer than the earth, and broader than the sea.

- 10 If he goes on his way, shutting a man up and putting him to death, who may make him go back from his purpose?
If he passes by, or confines, Or convenes a court, then who can oppose him?
If he shall cut off, and shut up, or gather together, then who can hinder him?
- 11 For in his eyes men are as nothing; he sees evil and takes note of it.
For he knows false men. He sees iniquity also, even though he doesn't consider it.
For he knoweth vain men: he seeth wickedness also; will he not then consider it?
- 12 And so a hollow-minded man will get wisdom, when a young ass of the field gets teaching.
But vain man can become wise If a man can be born as a wild donkey's colt.
For vain man would be wise, though man is born like a wild ass's colt.
- 13 But if you put your heart right, stretching out your hands to him;
"If you set your heart aright, Stretch out your hands toward him.
If thou preparest thy heart, and stretchest out thy hands towards him;
- 14 If you put far away the evil of your hands, and let no wrongdoing have a place in your tent;
If iniquity is in your hand, put it far away, Don't let unrighteousness dwell in your tents.
If iniquity is in thy hand, put it far away, and let not wickedness dwell in thy tabernacles.
- 15 Then truly your face will be lifted up, with no mark of sin, and you will be fixed in your place without fear:
Surely then shall you lift up your face without spot; Yes, you shall be steadfast, and shall not fear:
For then shalt thou lift up thy face without spot; yes, thou shalt be steadfast, and shalt not fear:
- 16 For your sorrow will go from your memory, like waters flowing away:
For you shall forget your misery; You shall remember it as waters that are passed away,
Because thou shalt forget thy misery, and remember it as waters that pass away:

- 17 And your life will be brighter than day; though it is dark, it will become like the morning.
Life shall be clearer than the noonday; Though there is darkness, it shall be as the morning.
And thy age shall be clearer than the noon-day; thou shalt shine forth, thou shalt be as the morning.
- 18 And you will be safe because there is hope; after looking round, you will take your rest in quiet;
You shall be secure, because there is hope; Yes, you shall search, and shall take your rest in safety.
And thou shalt be secure, because there is hope; yes, thou shalt dig about thee, and thou shalt take thy rest in safety.
- 19 Sleeping with no fear of danger; and men will be desiring to have grace in your eyes;
Also you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; Yes, many shall court your favor.
Also thou shalt lie down, and none shall make thee afraid; yes, many shall make suit to thee.
- 20 But the eyes of the evil-doers will be wasting away; their way of flight is gone, and their only hope is the taking of their last breath.
But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, They shall have no way to flee; Their hope shall be the giving up of the spirit."
But the eyes of the wicked shall fail, and they shall not escape, and their hope shall be as the expiration of the breath.
- 1 And Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
And Job answered and said,
- 2 No doubt you have knowledge, and wisdom will come to an end with you.
"No doubt, but you are the people, And wisdom shall die with you.
No doubt but ye are the people, and wisdom shall die with you.
- 3 But I have a mind as well as you; I am equal to you: yes, who has not knowledge of such things as these?
But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: Yes, who doesn't know such things as these?
But I have understanding as well as you; I am not inferior to you: yes, who knoweth not such things as these?

- 4 It seems that I am to be as one who is a cause of laughing to his neighbour, one who makes his prayer to God and is answered! the upright man who has done no wrong is to be made sport of!
I am like one who is a joke to his neighbor, I, who called on God, and he answered. The just, the blameless man is a joke.
I am as one mocked by his neighbor, who calleth upon God, and he answereth him: the just upright man is derided.
- 5 In the thought of him who is in comfort there is no respect for one who is in trouble; such is the fate of those whose feet are slipping.
In the thought of him who is at ease there is contempt for misfortune, It is ready for them whose foot slips.
He that is ready to slip with his feet is as a lamp despised in the thought of him that is at ease.
- 6 There is wealth in the tents of those who make destruction, and those by whom God is moved to wrath are safe; even those whose god is their strength.
The tents of robbers prosper, Those who provoke God are secure; Who carry their God in their hands.
The tabernacles of robbers prosper, and they that provoke God are secure; into whose hand God bringeth abundantly.
- 7 But put now a question to the beasts, and get teaching from them; or to the birds of the heaven, and they will make it clear to you;
"But ask the animals, now, and they shall teach you; The birds of the sky, and they shall tell you.
But ask now the beasts, and they shall teach thee; and the fowls of the air, and they shall tell thee:
- 8 Or to the things which go flat on the earth, and they will give you wisdom; and the fishes of the sea will give you news of it.
Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach you; The fish of the sea shall declare to you.
Or speak to the earth, and it shall teach thee: and the fishes of the sea shall declare to thee.
- 9 Who does not see by all these that the hand of the Lord has done this?
Who doesn't know that in all these, The hand of Yahweh has done this,
Who knoweth not in all these that the hand of the LORD hath wrought this?
- 10 In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all flesh of man.
In whose hand is the life of every living thing, The breath of all mankind?
In whose hand is the soul of every living thing, and the breath of all mankind.

- 11 Are not words tested by the ear, even as food is tasted by the mouth?
Doesn't the ear try words, Even as the palate tastes its food?
Doth not the ear try words? and the mouth taste its food?
- 12 Old men have wisdom, and a long life gives knowledge.
With aged men is wisdom, In length of days understanding.
With the ancient is wisdom; and in length of days understanding.
- 13 With him there is wisdom and strength; power and knowledge are his.
"With God is wisdom and might. He has counsel and understanding.
With him is wisdom and strength, he hath counsel and understanding.
- 14 Truly, there is no building up of what is pulled down by him; when a man is shut up by him, no one may let him loose.
Behold, he breaks down, and it can't be built again; He imprisons a man, and there can be no release.
Behold, he breaketh down, and it cannot be built again: he shutteth up a man, and there can be no opening.
- 15 Truly, he keeps back the waters and they are dry; he sends them out and the earth is overturned.
Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up; Again, he sends them out, and they overturn the earth.
Behold, he withholdeth the waters, and they dry up: also he sendeth them out, and they overturn the earth.
- 16 With him are strength and wise designs; he who is guided into error, together with his guide, are in his hands;
With him is strength and wisdom; The deceived and the deceiver are his.
With him is strength and wisdom: the deceived and the deceiver are his.
- 17 He takes away the wisdom of the wise guides, and makes judges foolish;
He leads counselors away stripped. He makes judges fools.
He leadeth counselors away spoiled, and maketh the judges fools.

- 18 He undoes the chains of kings, and puts his band on them;
He loosens the bond of kings, He binds their loins with a belt.
He looseth the bond of kings, and girdeth their loins with a girdle.
- 19 He makes priests prisoners, overturning those in safe positions;
He leads priests away stripped, And overthrows the mighty.
He leadeth princes away spoiled, and overthroweth the mighty.
- 20 He makes the words of responsible persons without effect, and takes away the good sense of the old;
He removes the speech of those who are trusted, And takes away the understanding of the elders.
He removeth away the speech of the trusty, and taketh away the understanding of the aged.
- 21 He puts shame on chiefs, and takes away the power of the strong;
He pours contempt on princes, And loosens the belt of the strong.
He poureth contempt upon princes, and weakeneth the strength of the mighty.
- 22 Uncovering deep things out of the dark, and making the deep shade bright;
He uncovers deep things out of darkness, And brings out to light the shadow of death.
He revealeth deep things out of darkness, and bringeth to light the shades of death.
- 23 Increasing nations, and sending destruction on them; making wide the lands of peoples, and then giving them up.
He increases the nations, and he destroys them. He enlarges the nations, and he leads them captive.
He increaseth nations, and destroyeth them: he enlargeth nations, and straiteneth them again.
- 24 He takes away the wisdom of the rulers of the earth, and sends them wandering in a waste where there is no way.
He takes away understanding from the chiefs of the people of the earth, And causes them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.
He taketh away the heart of the chief of the people of the earth, and causeth them to wander in a wilderness where there is no way.

25 They go feeling about in the dark without light, wandering without help like those overcome with wine.
They grope in the dark without light. He makes them stagger like a drunken man.
They grope in the dark without light, and he maketh them to stagger like a drunken man.

1 Truly, my eye has seen all this, word of it has come to my ear, and I have knowledge of it.
"Behold, my eye has seen all this, My ear has heard and understood it.
Lo, my eye hath seen all this, my ear hath heard and understood it.

2 The same things are in my mind as in yours; I am equal to you.
What you know, I know also. I am not inferior to you.
What ye know, the same do I know also: I am not inferior to you.

3 But I would have talk with the Ruler of all, and my desire is to have an argument with God.
"Surely I would speak to the Almighty. I desire to reason with God.
Surely I would speak to the Almighty, and I desire to reason with God.

4 But you put a false face on things; all your attempts to put things right are of no value.
But you are forgers of lies. You are all physicians of no value.
But ye are forgers of lies, ye are all physicians of no value.

5 If only you would keep quiet, it would be a sign of wisdom!
Oh that you would be completely silent! Then you would be wise.
O that ye would altogether hold your peace and it would be your wisdom.

6 Give ear to the argument of my mouth, and take note of the words of my lips.
Hear now my reasoning. Listen to the pleadings of my lips.
Hear now my reasoning, and hearken to the pleadings of my lips.

- 7 Will you say in God's name what is not right, and put false words into his mouth?
Will you speak unrighteously for God, And talk deceitfully for him?
Will ye speak wickedly for God? and talk deceitfully for him?
- 8 Will you have respect for God's person in this cause, and put yourselves forward as his supporters?
Will you show partiality to him? Will you contend for God?
Will ye accept his person? will ye contend for God?
- 9 Will it be good for you to be searched out by him, or have you the thought that he may be guided into error like a man?
Is it good that he should search you out? Or as one deceives a man, will you deceive him?
Is it good that he should search you out? or as one man mocketh another, do ye so mock him?
- 10 He will certainly put you right, if you have respect for persons in secret.
He will surely reprove you If you secretly show partiality.
He will surely reprove you, if ye do secretly accept persons.
- 11 Will not his glory put you in fear, so that your hearts will be overcome before him?
Shall not his majesty make you afraid, And his dread fall on you?
Shall not his excellence make you afraid? and his dread fall upon you?
- 12 Your wise sayings are only dust, and your strong places are only earth.
Your memorable sayings are proverbs of ashes, Your defenses are defenses of clay.
Your remembrances are like to ashes, your bodies to bodies of clay.
- 13 Keep quiet, and let me say what is in my mind, whatever may come to me.
"Be silent, leave me alone, that I may speak. Let come on me what will.
Hold your peace, let me alone, that I may speak, and let come on me what will.

- 14 I will take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand.
Why should I take my flesh in my teeth, And put my life in my hand?
Why do I take my flesh in my teeth, and put my life in my hand?
- 15 Truly, he will put an end to me; I have no hope; but I will not give way in argument before him;
Behold, he will kill me; I have no hope. Nevertheless, I will maintain my ways before him.
Though he shall slay me, yet will I trust in him: but I will maintain my own ways before him.
- 16 And that will be my salvation, for an evil-doer would not come before him,
This also shall be my salvation, That a godless man shall not come before him.
He also shall be my salvation: for a hypocrite shall not come before him.
- 17 Give ear with care to my words, and keep what I say in your minds.
Hear diligently my speech. Let my declaration be in your ears.
Hear diligently my speech, and my declaration with your ears.
- 18 See now, I have put my cause in order, and I am certain that I will be seen to be right.
See now, I have set my cause in order. I know that I am righteous.
Behold now, I have ordered my cause; I know that I shall be justified.
- 19 Is any one able to take up the argument against me? If so, I would keep quiet and give up my breath.
Who is he who will contend with me? For then would I hold my peace and give up the spirit.
Who is he that will plead with me? for now, if I hold my tongue, I shall expire.
- 20 Only two things do not do to me, then I will come before your face:
"Only don't do two things to me; Then I will not hide myself from your face:
Only do not two things to me: then will I not hide myself from thee.

- 21 Take your hand far away from me; and let me not be overcome by fear of you.
Withdraw your hand far from me; And don't let your terror make me afraid.
Withdraw thy hand far from me: and let not thy dread make me afraid.
- 22 Then at the sound of your voice I will give answer; or let me put forward my cause for you to give me an answer.
Then call, and I will answer; Or let me speak, and you answer me.
Then call thou, and I will answer: or let me speak, and answer thou me.
- 23 What is the number of my evil-doings and my sins? give me knowledge of them.
How many are my iniquities and sins? Make me know my disobedience and my sin.
How many are my iniquities and sins? make me to know my transgression and my sin.
- 24 Why is your face veiled from me, as if I was numbered among your haters?
Why hide you your face, And hold me for your enemy?
Why hidest thou thy face, and holdest me for thy enemy?
- 25 Will you be hard on a leaf in flight before the wind? will you make a dry stem go more quickly on its way?
Will you harass a driven leaf? Will you pursue the dry stubble?
Wilt thou break a leaf driven to and fro? and wilt thou pursue the dry stubble?
- 26 For you put bitter things on record against me, and send punishment on me for the sins of my early years;
For you write bitter things against me, And make me inherit the iniquities of my youth:
For thou writest bitter things against me, and makest me to possess the iniquities of my youth.
- 27 And you put chains on my feet, watching all my ways, and making a limit for my steps;
You also put my feet in the stocks, And mark all my paths. You set a bound to the soles of my feet:
Thou puttest my feet also in the stocks, and lookest narrowly to all my paths; thou settest a print upon the heels of my feet.

28 Though a man comes to nothing like a bit of dead wood, or like a robe which has become food for the worm.
Though I am decaying like a rotten thing, Like a garment that is moth-eaten.
And he, as a rotten thing, consumeth, as a garment that is moth-eaten.

1 As for man, the son of woman, his days are short and full of trouble.
"Man, who is born of a woman, Is of few days, and full of trouble.
Man that is born of a woman is of few days, and full of trouble.

2 He comes out like a flower, and is cut down: he goes in flight like a shade, and is never seen again.
He comes forth like a flower, and is cut down. He also flees like a shadow, and doesn't continue.
He cometh forth like a flower, and is cut down: he fleeth also as a shadow, and continueth not.

3 Is it on such a one as this that your eyes are fixed, with the purpose of judging him?
Do you open your eyes on such a one, And bring me into judgment with you?
And dost thou open thy eyes upon such one, and bring me into judgment with thee?

4 If only a clean thing might come out of an unclean! But it is not possible.
Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? Not one.
Who can bring a clean thing out of an unclean? not one.

5 If his days are ordered, and you have knowledge of the number of his months, having given him a fixed limit past which he may not go;
Seeing his days are determined, The number of his months is with you, And you have appointed his bounds that he can't pass;
Seeing his days are determined, the number of his months is with thee, thou hast appointed his bounds that he cannot pass;

6 Let your eyes be turned away from him, and take your hand from him, so that he may have pleasure at the end of his day, like a servant working for payment.
Look away from him, that he may rest, Until he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.
Turn from him, that he may rest, till he shall accomplish, as a hireling, his day.

- 7 For there is hope of a tree; if it is cut down, it will come to life again, and its branches will not come to an end.
"For there is hope for a tree, If it is cut down, that it will sprout again, That the tender branch of it will not cease.
For there is hope of a tree, if it is cut down, that it will sprout again, and that its tender branch will not cease.
- 8 Though its root may be old in the earth, and its cut-off end may be dead in the dust;
Though the root of it grows old in the earth, And the stock of it dies in the ground;
Though its root shall become old in the earth, and its stock die in the ground;
- 9 Still, at the smell of water, it will make buds, and put out branches like a young plant.
Yet through the scent of water it will bud, And put forth boughs like a plant.
Yet through the scent of water it will bud, and bring forth boughs like a plant.
- 10 But man comes to his death and is gone: he gives up his spirit, and where is he?
But man dies, and is laid low. Yes, man gives up the spirit, and where is he?
But man dieth, and wasteth away: yes, man yieldeth his breath, and where is he?
- 11 The waters go from a pool, and a river becomes waste and dry;
As the waters fail from the sea, And the river wastes and dries up,
As the waters fail from the sea, and the flood decayeth and drieth up:
- 12 So man goes down to his last resting-place and comes not again: till the heavens come to an end, they will not be awake or come out of their sleep.
So man lies down and doesn't rise; Until the heavens are no more, they shall not awake, Nor be roused out of their sleep.
So man lieth down, and riseth not: till the heavens shall be no more, they shall not awake, nor be raised out of their sleep.
- 13 If only you would keep me safe in the underworld, putting me in a secret place till your wrath is past, giving me a fixed time when I might come to your memory again!
"Oh that you would hide me in Sheol, That you would keep me secret, until your wrath is past, That you would appoint me a set time, and remember me!
O that thou wouldst hide me in the grave, that thou wouldst keep me secret, until thy wrath is past, that thou wouldst appoint me a set time, and remember me!

- 14 If death takes a man, will he come to life again? All the days of my trouble I would be waiting, till the time came for me to be free.
If a man dies, shall he live again? All the days of my warfare would I wait, Until my release should come.
If a man dieth, shall he live again? all the days of my appointed time will I wait, till my change shall come.
- 15 At the sound of your voice I would give an answer, and you would have a desire for the work of your hands.
You would call, and I would answer you. You would have a desire to the work of your hands.
Thou shalt call, and I will answer thee: thou wilt have a desire to the work of thy hands.
- 16 For now my steps are numbered by you, and my sin is not overlooked.
But now you number my steps. Don't you watch over my sin?
For now thou numberest my steps: dost thou not watch over my sin?
- 17 My wrongdoing is corded up in a bag, and my sin is shut up safe.
My disobedience is sealed up in a bag. You fasten up my iniquity.
My transgression is sealed up in a bag, and thou sewest up my iniquity.
- 18 But truly a mountain falling comes to dust, and a rock is moved from its place;
"But the mountain falling comes to nothing; The rock is removed out of its place;
And surely the mountain falling cometh to naught, and the rock is removed out of its place.
- 19 The stones are crushed small by the force of the waters; the dust of the earth is washed away by their overflowing: and so you put an end to the hope of man.
The waters wear the stones; The torrents of it wash away the dust of the earth: So you destroy the hope of man.
The waters wear the stones: thou washest away the things which grow out of the dust of the earth; and thou destroyest the hope of man.
- 20 You overcome him for ever, and he is gone; his face is changed in death, and you send him away.
You forever prevail against him, and he passes; You change his face, and send him away.
Thou prevailest for ever against him, and he passeth: thou changest his countenance, and sendest him away.

21 His sons come to honour, and he has no knowledge of it; they are made low, but he is not conscious of it.
His sons come to honor, and he doesn't know it; They are brought low, but he doesn't perceive it of them.
His sons come to honor, and he knoweth it not; and they are brought low, but he perceiveth it not of them.

22 Only his flesh still has pain, and his soul is sad.
But his flesh on him has pain; His soul within him mourns."
But his flesh upon him shall have pain, and his soul within him shall mourn.

1 And Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,
Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Then answered Eliphaz the Temanite, and said,

2 Will a wise man make answer with knowledge of no value, or will he give birth to the east wind?
"Should a wise man answer with vain knowledge, And fill himself with the east wind?
Should a wise men utter vain knowledge, and fill his belly with the east wind?

3 Will he make arguments with words in which is no profit, and with sayings which have no value?
Should he reason with unprofitable talk, Or with speeches with which he can do no good?
Should he reason with unprofitable talk? or with speeches with which he can do no good?

4 Truly, you make the fear of God without effect, so that the time of quiet worship before God is made less by your outcry.
Yes, you do away with fear, And hinder devotion before God.
Yes, thou castest off fear, and restrainest prayer before God.

5 For your mouth is guided by your sin, and you have taken the tongue of the false for yourself.
For your iniquity teaches your mouth, And you choose the language of the crafty.
For thy mouth uttereth thy iniquity, and thou chooseth the tongue of the crafty.

6 It is by your mouth, even yours, that you are judged to be in the wrong, and not by me; and your lips give witness against you.
Your own mouth condemns you, and not I; Yes, your own lips testify against you.
Thy own mouth condemneth thee, and not I: yes, thy own lips testify against thee.

7 Were you the first man to come into the world? or did you come into being before the hills?
"Are you the first man who was born? Or were you brought forth before the hills?
Art thou the first man that was born? or wast thou made before the hills?

8 Were you present at the secret meeting of God? and have you taken all wisdom for yourself?
Have you heard the secret counsel of God? Do you limit wisdom to yourself?
Hast thou heard the secret of God? and dost thou restrain wisdom to thyself?

9 What knowledge have you which we have not? is there anything in your mind which is not in ours?
What do you know, that we don't know? What do you understand, which is not in us?
What knowest thou that we know not? what understandest thou, which is not in us?

10 With us are men who are grey-haired and full of years, much older than your father.
With us are both the gray-headed and the very aged men, Much elder than your father.
With us are both the gray headed and very aged men, much older than thy father.

11 Are the comforts of God not enough for you, and the gentle word which was said to you?
Are the consolations of God too small for you, Even the word that is gentle toward you?
Are the consolations of God small with thee? is there any secret thing with thee?

12 Why is your heart uncontrolled, and why are your eyes lifted up;
Why does your heart carry you away? Why do your eyes flash,
Why doth thy heart carry thee away? and what do thy eyes wink at,

- 13 So that you are turning your spirit against God, and letting such words go out of your mouth?
That you turn your spirit against God, And let such words go out of your mouth?
That thou turnest thy spirit against God, and lettest such words go out of thy mouth?
- 14 What is man, that he may be clean? and how may the son of woman be upright?
What is man, that he should be clean? He who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
What is man, that he should be clean? and he who is born of a woman, that he should be righteous?
- 15 Truly, he puts no faith in his holy ones, and the heavens are not clean in his eyes;
Behold, he puts no trust in his holy ones; Yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight:
Behold, he putteth no trust in his saints; yes, the heavens are not clean in his sight.
- 16 How much less one who is disgusting and unclean, a man who takes in evil like water!
How much less one who is abominable and corrupt, A man who drinks iniquity like water!
How much more abominable and filthy is man, who drinketh iniquity like water?
- 17 Take note and give ear to my words; and I will say what I have seen:
"I will show you, listen to me; That which I have seen I will declare:
I will show thee, hear me; and that which I have seen, I will declare;
- 18 (The things which wise men have got from their fathers, and have not kept secret from us; (Which wise men have told From their fathers, and have not hidden it;
Which wise men have told from their fathers, and have not hid it:
- 19 For only to them was the land given, and no strange people were among them:)
To whom alone the land was given, And no stranger passed among them):
To whom alone the earth was given, and no stranger passed among them.

- 20 The evil man is in pain all his days, and the number of the years stored up for the cruel is small.
The wicked man travails with pain all his days, Even the number of years that are laid up for the oppressor.
The wicked man travaileth with pain all his days, and the number of years is hidden to the oppressor.
- 21 A sound of fear is in his ears; in time of peace destruction will come on him:
A sound of terrors is in his ears; In prosperity the destroyer shall come on him.
A dreadful sound is in his ears: in prosperity the destroyer shall come upon him.
- 22 He has no hope of coming safe out of the dark, and his fate will be the sword;
He doesn't believe that he shall return out of darkness, He is waited for by the sword.
He believeth not that he shall return out of darkness, and he is waited for by the sword.
- 23 He is wandering about in search of bread, saying, Where is it? and he is certain that the day of trouble is ready for him:
He wanders abroad for bread, saying, 'Where is it?' He knows that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
He wandereth abroad for bread, saying, Where is it? he knoweth that the day of darkness is ready at his hand.
- 24 He is greatly in fear of the dark day, trouble and pain overcome him:
Distress and anguish make him afraid; They prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
Trouble and anguish shall make him afraid; they shall prevail against him, as a king ready to the battle.
- 25 Because his hand is stretched out against God, and his heart is lifted up against the Ruler of all,
Because he has stretched out his hand against God, And behaves himself proudly against the Almighty;
For he stretcheth out his hand against God, and strengtheneth himself against the Almighty.
-
- 26 Running against him like a man of war, covered by his thick breastplate; even like a king ready for the fight,
He runs at him with a stiff neck, With the thick shields of his bucklers;
He runneth upon him, even on his neck, upon the thick bosses of his bucklers:

- 27 Because his face is covered with fat, and his body has become thick;
Because he has covered his face with his fatness, And gathered fat on his loins.
Because he covereth his face with his fatness, and maketh collops of fat on his flanks.
- 28 And he has made his resting-place in the towns which have been pulled down, in houses where no man had a right to be, whose fate was to become masses of broken walls.
He has lived in desolate cities, In houses which no one inhabited, Which were ready to become heaps.
And he dwelleth in desolate cities, and in houses which no man inhabiteth, which are ready to become heaps.
- 29 He does not get wealth for himself, and is unable to keep what he has got; the heads of his grain are not bent down to the earth.
He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, Neither shall their possessions be extended on the earth.
He shall not be rich, neither shall his substance continue, neither shall he prolong the perfection of it upon the earth.
- 30 He does not come out of the dark; his branches are burned by the flame, and the wind takes away his bud.
He shall not depart out of darkness; The flame shall dry up his branches, By the breath of God's mouth shall he go away.
He shall not depart out of darkness; the flame shall dry up his branches, and by the breath of his mouth shall he go away.
- 31 Let him not put his hope in what is false, falling into error: for he will get deceit as his reward.
Let him not trust in emptiness, deceiving himself; For emptiness shall be his reward.
Let not him that is deceived trust in vanity: for vanity shall be his recompense.
- 32 His branch is cut off before its time, and his leaf is no longer green.
It shall be accomplished before his time. His branch shall not be green.
It shall be accomplished before his time, and his branch shall not be green.
- 33 He is like a vine whose grapes do not come to full growth, or an olive-tree dropping its flowers.
He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, And shall cast off his flower as the olive-tree.
He shall shake off his unripe grape as the vine, and shall cast off his flower as the olive.

34 For the band of the evil-doers gives no fruit, and the tents of those who give wrong decisions for reward are burned with fire.
For the company of the godless shall be barren, And fire shall consume the tents of bribery.
For the congregation of hypocrites shall be desolate, and fire shall consume the tabernacles of bribery.

35 Evil has made them with child, and they give birth to trouble; and the fruit of their body is shame for themselves.
They conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity. Their heart prepares deceit."
They conceive mischief, and bring forth vanity, and their belly preparereth deceit.

1 And Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
Then Job answered and said,

2 Such things have frequently come to my ears: you are comforters who only give trouble.
"I have heard many such things. Miserable comforters are you all!
I have heard many such things: miserable comforters are ye all.

3 May words which are like the wind be stopped? or what is troubling you to make answer to them?
Shall vain words have an end? Or what provokes you that you answer?
Shall vain words have an end? or what emboldeneth thee that thou answerest?

4 It would not be hard for me to say such things if your souls were in my soul's place; joining words together against you, and shaking my head at you:
I also could speak as you do. If your soul were in my soul's place, I could join words together against you, And shake my head at you.
I also could speak as ye do: if your soul were in my soul's stead, I could heap up words against you, and shake my head at you.

5 I might give you strength with my mouth, and not keep back the comfort of my lips.
But I would strengthen you with my mouth. The solace of my lips would relieve you.
But I would strengthen you with my mouth and the moving of my lips should assuage your grief.

- 6 If I say what is in my mind, my pain becomes no less: and if I keep quiet, how much of it goes from me?
"Though I speak, my grief is not subsided. Though I forbear, what am I eased?
Though I speak, my grief is not assuaged: and though I forbear, what am I eased?
- 7 But now he has overcome me with weariness and fear, and I am in the grip of all my trouble.
But now, God, you have surely worn me out. You have made desolate all my company.
But now he hath made me weary: thou hast made desolate all my company.
- 8 It has come up as a witness against me, and the wasting of my flesh makes answer to my face.
You have shriveled me up. This is a witness against me. My leanness rises up against me, It testifies to my face.
And thou hast filled me with wrinkles, which is a witness against me: and my leanness rising up in me beareth witness to my face.
- 9 I am broken by his wrath, and his hate has gone after me; he has made his teeth sharp against me: my haters are looking on me with cruel eyes;
He has torn me in his wrath, and persecuted me; He has gnashed on me with his teeth: My adversary sharpens his eyes on me.
He teareth me in his wrath, who hateth me: he gnasheth upon me with his teeth; my enemy sharpeneth his eyes upon me.
- 10 Their mouths are open wide against me; the blows of his bitter words are falling on my face; all of them come together in a mass against me.
They have gaped on me with their mouth; They have struck me on the cheek reproachfully. They gather themselves together against me.
They have gaped upon me with their mouth; they have smitten me upon the cheek reproachfully; they have gathered themselves against me.
- 11 God gives me over to the power of sinners, sending me violently into the hands of evil-doers.
God delivers me to the ungodly, And casts me into the hands of the wicked.
God hath delivered me to the ungodly, and turned me over into the hands of the wicked.

- 12 I was in comfort, but I have been broken up by his hands; he has taken me by the neck, shaking me to bits; he has put me up as a mark for his arrows.
I was at ease, and he broke me apart. Yes, he has taken me by the neck, and dashed me to pieces. He has also set me up for his target.
I was at ease, but he hath broken me asunder: he hath also taken me by my neck, and shaken me to pieces, and set me up for his mark.
- 13 His bowmen come round about me; their arrows go through my body without mercy; my life is drained out on the earth.
His archers surround me. He splits my kidneys apart, and does not spare. He pours out my gall on the ground.
His archers encompass me; he cleaveth my reins asunder, and doth not spare; he poureth out my gall upon the ground.
- 14 I am broken with wound after wound; he comes rushing on me like a man of war.
He breaks me with breach on breach. He runs on me like a giant.
He breaketh me with breach upon breach, he runneth upon me like a giant.
- 15 I have made haircloth the clothing of my skin, and my horn is rolled in the dust.
I have sewed sackcloth on my skin, And have thrust my horn in the dust.
I have sewed sackcloth upon my skin, and defiled my horn in the dust.
- 16 My face is red with weeping, and my eyes are becoming dark;
My face is red with weeping. Deep darkness is on my eyelids.
My face is foul with weeping, and on my eyelids are the shades of death;
- 17 Though my hands have done no violent acts, and my prayer is clean.
Although there is no violence in my hands, And my prayer is pure.
Not for any injustice in my hands: also my prayer is pure.
- 18 O earth, let not my blood be covered, and let my cry have no resting-place!
"Earth, don't cover my blood, Let my cry have no place to rest.
O earth, cover not thou my blood, and let my cry have no place.

19 Even now my witness is in heaven, and the supporter of my cause is on high.
Even now, behold, my witness is in heaven. He who vouches for me is on high.
Also now, behold, my witness is in heaven, and my record is on high.

20 My friends make sport of me; to God my eyes are weeping,
My friends scoff at me. My eyes pour out tears to God,
My friends scorn me: but my eye poureth out tears to God.

21 So that he may give decision for a man in his cause with God, and between a son of man and his neighbour.
That he would maintain the right of a man with God, Of a son of man with his neighbor!
O that one might plead for a man with God, as a man pleadeth for his neighbor!

22 For in a short time I will take the journey from which I will not come back.
For when a few years are come, I shall go the way from whence I shall not return.
When a few years are come, then I shall go the way whence I shall not return.

1 My spirit is broken, my days are ended, the last resting-place is ready for me.
"My spirit is consumed, my days are extinct, And the grave is ready for me.
My breath is corrupt, my days are extinct, the graves are ready for me.

2 Truly, those who make sport of me are round about me, and my eyes become dark because of their bitter laughing.
Surely there are mockers with me, My eye dwells on their provocation.
Are there not mockers with me? and doth not my eye continue in their provocation?

3 Be pleased, now, to be responsible for me to yourself; for there is no other who will put his hand in mine.
"Now give a pledge, be collateral for me with yourself. Who is there who will strike hands with me?
Lay down now, put me in a surety with thee; who is he that will strike hands with me?

- 4 You have kept their hearts from wisdom: for this cause you will not give them honour.
For you have hidden their heart from understanding, Therefore shall you not exalt them.
For thou hast hid their heart from understanding: therefore shalt thou not exalt them.
- 5 As for him who is false to his friend for a reward, light will be cut off from the eyes of his children.
He who denounces his friends for a prey, Even the eyes of his children shall fail.
He that speaketh flattery to his friends, even the eyes of his children shall fail.
- 6 He has made me a word of shame to the peoples; I have become a mark for their sport.
"But he has made me a byword of the people. They spit in my face.
He hath made me also a by-word of the people; and in former time I was as a tabret.
- 7 My eyes have become dark because of my pain, and all my body is wasted to a shade.
My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow. All my members are as a shadow.
My eye also is dim by reason of sorrow, and all my members are as a shade.
- 8 The upright are surprised at this, and he who has done no wrong is troubled because of the evil-doers.
Upright men shall be astonished at this. The innocent shall stir up himself against the godless.
Upright men shall be astonished at this, and the innocent shall stir up himself against the hypocrite.
- 9 Still the upright keeps on his way, and he who has clean hands gets new strength.
Yet shall the righteous hold on his way. He who has clean hands shall grow stronger and stronger.
The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger.
- 10 But come back, now, all of you, come; and I will not see a wise man among you.
But as for you all, come on now again; I shall not find a wise man among you.
But as for you all, do ye return, and come now: for I cannot find one wise man among you.

11 My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the desires of my heart.
My days are past, my plans are broken off, As are the thoughts of my heart.
My days are past, my purposes are broken off, even the thoughts of my heart.

12 They are changing night into day; they say, The light is near the dark.
They change the night into day, Saying `The light is near` in the presence of darkness.
They change the night into day: the light is short because of darkness.

13 If I am waiting for the underworld as my house, if I have made my bed in the dark;
If I look for Sheol as my house, If I have spread my couch in the darkness,
If I wait, the grave is my house: I have made my bed in the darkness.

14 If I say to the earth, You are my father; and to the worm, My mother and my sister;
If I have said to corruption, `You are my father;` To the worm, `My mother,` and `my sister;`
I have said to corruption, Thou art my father: to the worm, Thou art my mother, and my sister.

15 Where then is my hope? and who will see my desire?
Where then is my hope? As for my hope, who shall see it?
And where is now my hope? as for my hope, who will see it?

16 Will they go down with me into the underworld? Will we go down together into the dust?
Shall it go down with me to the gates of Sheol, Or descend together into the dust?"
They shall go down to the bars of the pit, when our rest together is in the dust.

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,
Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

- 2 How long will it be before you have done talking? Get wisdom, and then we will say what is in our minds.
"How long will you hunt for words? Consider, and afterwards we will speak.
How long will it be ere ye make an end of words? mark, and afterwards we will speak.
- 3 Why do we seem as beasts in your eyes, and as completely without knowledge?
Why are we counted as animals, Which have become unclean in your sight?
Why are we counted as beasts, and reputed vile in your sight?
- 4 But come back, now, come: you who are wounding yourself in your passion, will the earth be given up because of you, or a rock be moved out of its place?
You who tear yourself in your anger, Shall the earth be forsaken for you? Or shall the rock be removed out of its place?
He teareth himself in his anger: shall the earth be forsaken for thee? and shall the rock be removed out of its place?
- 5 For the light of the sinner is put out, and the flame of his fire is not shining.
"Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, The spark of his fire shall not shine.
Yes, the light of the wicked shall be put out, and the spark of his fire shall not shine.
- 6 The light is dark in his tent, and the light shining over him is put out.
The light shall be dark in his tent, His lamp above him shall be put out.
The light shall be dark in his tabernacle, and his candle shall be put out with him.
- 7 The steps of his strength become short, and by his design destruction overtakes him.
The steps of his strength shall be shortened, His own counsel shall cast him down.
The steps of his strength shall be straitened, and his own counsel shall cast him down.
- 8 His feet take him into the net, and he goes walking into the cords.
For he is cast into a net by his own feet, And he wanders into its mesh.
For he is cast into a net by his own feet, and he walketh upon a snare.

- 9 His foot is taken in the net; he comes into its grip.
A snare shall take him by the heel; A trap shall lay hold on him.
The gin shall take him by the heel, and the robber shall prevail against him.
- 10 The twisted cord is put secretly in the earth to take him, and the cord is placed in his way.
A noose is hidden for him in the ground, A trap for him in the way.
The snare is laid for him in the ground, and a trap for him in the way.
- 11 He is overcome by fears on every side, they go after him at every step.
Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, And shall chase him at his heels.
Terrors shall make him afraid on every side, and shall drive him to his feet.
- 12 His strength is made feeble for need of food, and destruction is waiting for his falling footstep.
His strength shall be famished, Calamity shall be ready at his side.
His strength shall be hunger-bitten, and destruction shall be ready at his side.
- 13 His skin is wasted by disease, and his body is food for the worst of diseases.
The members of his body shall be devoured, The firstborn of death shall devour his members.
It shall devour the strength of his skin: even the first-born of death shall devour his strength.
- 14 He is pulled out of his tent where he was safe, and he is taken away to the king of fears.
He shall be rooted out of his tent where he trusts. He shall be brought to the king of terrors.
His confidence shall be rooted out of his tabernacle, and it shall bring him to the king of terrors.
- 15 In his tent will be seen that which is not his, burning stone is dropped on his house.
There shall dwell in his tent that which is none of his. Sulfur shall be scattered on his habitation.
It shall dwell in his tabernacle, because it is none of his: brimstone shall be scattered upon his habitation.

- 16 Under the earth his roots are dry, and over it his branch is cut off.
His roots shall be dried up beneath, Above shall his branch be cut off.
His roots shall be dried up beneath, and above shall his branch be cut off.
- 17 His memory is gone from the earth, and in the open country there is no knowledge of his name.
His memory shall perish from the earth. He shall have no name in the street.
His remembrance shall perish from the earth, and he shall have no name in the street.
- 18 He is sent away from the light into the dark; he is forced out of the world.
He shall be driven from light into darkness, And chased out of the world.
He shall be driven from light into darkness, and chased out of the world.
- 19 He has no offspring or family among his people, and in his living-place there is no one of his name.
He shall have neither son nor grandson among his people, Nor any remaining where he sojourned.
He shall neither have son nor nephew among his people, nor any remaining in his dwellings.
- 20 At his fate those of the west are shocked, and those of the east are overcome with fear.
Those who come after shall be astonished at his day, As those who went before were frightened.
They that come after him shall be astonished at his day, as they that went before were affrighted.
- 21 Truly, these are the houses of the sinner, and this is the place of him who has no knowledge of God.
Surely such are the dwellings of the unrighteous, This is the place of him who doesn't know God."
Surely such are the dwellings of the wicked, and this is the place of him that knoweth not God.
- 1 And Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
Then Job answered and said,

2 How long will you make my life bitter, crushing me with words?

"How long will you torment me, And crush me with words?

How long will ye vex my soul, and break me in pieces with words?

3 Ten times now you have made sport of me; it gives you no sense of shame to do me wrong.

You have reproached me ten times. You aren't ashamed that you attack me.

These ten times have ye reproached me: ye are not ashamed that ye make yourselves strange to me.

4 And, truly, if I have been in error, the effect of my error is only on myself.

If it is true that I have erred, My error remains with myself.

And be it indeed that I have erred, my error remaineth with myself.

5 If you make yourselves great against me, using my punishment as an argument against me,

If indeed you will magnify yourselves against me, And plead against me my reproach;

If indeed ye will magnify yourselves against me, and plead against me my reproach:

6 Be certain that it is God who has done me wrong, and has taken me in his net.

Know now that God has subverted me, And has surrounded me with his net.

Know now that God hath overthrown me, and hath encompassed me with his net.

7 Truly, I make an outcry against the violent man, but there is no answer: I give a cry for help, but no one takes up my cause.

"Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry for help, but there is no justice.

Behold, I cry out of wrong, but I am not heard: I cry aloud, but there is no judgment.

8 My way is walled up by him so that I may not go by: he has made my roads dark.

He has walled up my way so that I can't pass, And has set darkness in my paths.

He hath fenced up my way that I cannot pass, and he hath set darkness in my paths.

- 9 He has put off my glory from me, and taken the crown from my head.
He has stripped me of my glory, And taken the crown from my head.
He hath stripped me of my glory, and taken the crown from my head.
- 10 I am broken down by him on every side, and I am gone; my hope is uprooted like a tree.
He has broken me down on every side, and I am gone. My hope he has plucked up like a tree.
He hath destroyed me on every side, and I am gone: and my hope hath he removed like a tree.
- 11 His wrath is burning against me, and I am to him as one of his haters.
He has also kindled his wrath against me. He counts me among his adversaries.
He hath also kindled his wrath against me, and he counteth me to him as one of his enemies.
- 12 His armies come on together, they make their road high against me, and put up their tents round mine.
His troops come on together, Build a siege ramp against me, And encamp around my tent.
His troops come together, and raise up their way against me, and encamp around my tabernacle.
- 13 He has taken my brothers far away from me; they have seen my fate and have become strange to me.
"He has put my brothers far from me. My acquaintances are wholly estranged from me.
He hath put my brethren far from me, and my acquaintance are verily estranged from me.
- 14 My relations and my near friends have given me up, and those living in my house have put me out of their minds.
My relatives have gone away. My familiar friends have forgotten me.
My kinsmen have failed, and my familiar friends have forgotten me.
- 15 I am strange to my women-servants, and seem to them as one from another country.
Those who dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger. I am an alien in their sight.
They that dwell in my house, and my maids, count me for a stranger: I am an alien in their sight.

- 16 At my cry my servant gives me no answer, and I have to make a prayer to him.
I call to my servant, and he gives me no answer; I beg him with my mouth.
I called my servant, and he gave me no answer; I entreated him with my mouth.
- 17 My breath is strange to my wife, and I am disgusting to the offspring of my mother's body.
My breath is offensive to my wife. I am loathsome to the children of my own mother.
My breath is strange to my wife, though I entreated for the children's sake of my own body.
- 18 Even young children have no respect for me; when I get up their backs are turned on me.
Even young children despise me. If I arise, they speak against me.
Yes, young children despised me; I arose, and they spoke against me.
- 19 All the men of my circle keep away from me; and those dear to me are turned against me.
All my familiar friends abhor me. They whom I loved have turned against me.
All my intimate friends abhorred me: and they whom I loved are turned against me.
- 20 My bones are joined to my skin, and I have got away with my flesh in my teeth.
My bones stick to my skin and to my flesh. I have escaped by the skin of my teeth.
My bone cleaveth to my skin and to my flesh, and I have escaped with the skin of my teeth.
- 21 Have pity on me, have pity on me, O my friends! for the hand of God is on me.
"Have pity on me, have pity on me, you my friends; For the hand of God has touched me.
Have pity upon me, have pity upon me, O ye my friends; for the hand of God hath touched me.
- 22 Why are you cruel to me, like God, for ever saying evil against me?
Why do you persecute me as God, And are not satisfied with my flesh?
Why do ye persecute me as God, and are not satisfied with my flesh?

- 23 If only my words might be recorded! if they might be put in writing in a book!
"Oh that my words were now written! Oh that they were inscribed in a book!
Oh that my words were now written! oh that they were printed in a book!
- 24 And with an iron pen and lead be cut into the rock for ever!
That with an iron pen and lead They were engraved in the rock forever!
That they were graven with an iron pen in lead, in the rock for ever!
- 25 But I am certain that he who will take up my cause is living, and that in time to come he will take his place on the dust;
But as for me, I know that my Redeemer lives. In the end, he will stand upon the earth.
For I know that my redeemer liveth, and that he will stand at the latter day upon the earth:
- 26 And ... without my flesh I will see God;
After my skin is destroyed, Then in my flesh shall I see God,
And though after my skin worms destroy this body, yet in my flesh shall I see God:
- 27 Whom I will see on my side, and not as one strange to me. My heart is broken with desire.
Whom I, even I, shall see on my side. My eyes shall see, and not as a stranger. "My heart is consumed within me.
Whom I shall see for myself, and my eyes shall behold, and not another; though my reins be consumed within me.
- 28 If you say, How cruel we will be to him! because the root of sin is clearly in him:
If you say, `How we will persecute him!` Because the root of the matter is found in me,
But ye would say, Why persecute we him, seeing the root of the matter is found in me?
- 29 Be in fear of the sword, for the sword is the punishment for such things, so that you may be certain that there is a judge.
Be afraid of the sword, For wrath brings the punishments of the sword, That you may know there is a judgment."
Be ye afraid of the sword: for wrath bringeth the punishments of the sword, that ye may know there is a judgment.

1 Then Zophar the Naamathite made answer and said,
Then Zophar the Naamathite answered,
Then answered Zophar the Naamathite, and said,

2 For this cause my thoughts are troubling me and driving me on.
"Therefore do my thoughts give answer to me, Even by reason of my haste that is in me.
Therefore do my thoughts cause me to answer, and for this I make haste.

3 I have to give ear to arguments which put me to shame, and your answers to me are wind without wisdom.
I have heard the reproof which puts me to shame; The spirit of my understanding answers me.
I have heard the check of my reproach, and the spirit of my understanding causeth me to answer.

4 Have you knowledge of this from early times, when man was placed on the earth,
Don't you know this from old time, Since man was placed on earth,
Knowest thou not this of old, since man was placed upon earth,

5 That the pride of the sinner is short, and the joy of the evil-doer but for a minute?
That the triumphing of the wicked is short, The joy of the godless but for a moment?
That the triumphing of the wicked is short, and the joy of the hypocrite but for a moment?

6 Though he is lifted up to the heavens, and his head goes up to the clouds;
Though his height mount up to the heavens, And his head reach to the clouds,
Though his excellence shall mount up to the heavens, and his head reach to the clouds;

7 Like the waste from his body he comes to an end for ever: those who have seen him say, Where is he?
Yet he shall perish forever like his own dung, Those who have seen him shall say, `Where is he?`
Yet he shall perish for ever like his own dung: they who have seen him shall say, Where is he?

8 He is gone like a dream, and is not seen again; he goes in flight like a vision of the night.
He shall fly away as a dream, and shall not be found: Yes, he shall be chased away like a vision of the night.
He shall fly away as a dream, and will not be found: yea, he shall be chased away as a vision of the night.

9 The eye which saw him sees him no longer; and his place has no more knowledge of him.
The eye which saw him shall see him no more, Neither shall his place any more see him.
The eye also which saw him shall see him no more; neither shall his place any more behold him.

10 His children are hoping that the poor will be kind to them, and his hands give back his wealth.
His children shall seek the favor of the poor. His hands shall give back his wealth.
His children shall seek to please the poor, and his hands shall restore their goods.

11 His bones are full of young strength, but it will go down with him into the dust.
His bones are full of his youth, But youth shall lie down with him in the dust.
His bones are full of the sin of his youth, which shall lie down with him in the dust.

12 Though evil-doing is sweet in his mouth, and he keeps it secretly under his tongue;
"Though wickedness is sweet in his mouth, Though he hide it under his tongue,
Though wickedness may be sweet in his mouth, though he may hide it under his tongue;

13 Though he takes care of it, and does not let it go, but keeps it still in his mouth;
Though he spare it, and will not let it go, But keep it still within his mouth;
Though he may spare it, and forsake it not; but keep it still within his mouth:

14 His food becomes bitter in his stomach; the poison of snakes is inside him.
Yet his food in his bowels is turned. It is cobra venom within him.
Yet his food in his bowels is turned, it is the gall of asps within him.

- 15 He takes down wealth as food, and sends it up again; it is forced out of his stomach by God.
He has swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again. God will cast them out of his belly.
He hath swallowed down riches, and he shall vomit them up again: God shall cast them out of his belly.
- 16 He takes the poison of snakes into his mouth, the tongue of the snake is the cause of his death.
He shall suck cobra venom. The viper's tongue shall kill him.
He shall suck the poison of asps: the viper's tongue shall slay him.
- 17 Let him not see the rivers of oil, the streams of honey and milk.
He shall not look at the rivers, The flowing streams of honey and butter.
He shall not see the river, the floods, the brooks of honey and buttermilk.
- 18 He is forced to give back the fruit of his work, and may not take it for food; he has no joy in the profit of his trading.
That for which he labored he shall restore, and shall not swallow it down; According to the substance that he has gotten, he shall not rejoice.
That which he labored for shall he restore, and shall not swallow it: according to his substance shall the restitution be, and he shall not rejoice in it.
- 19 Because he has been cruel to the poor, turning away from them in their trouble; because he has taken a house by force which he did not put up;
For he has oppressed and forsaken the poor. He has violently taken away a house, and he shall not build it up.
Because he hath oppressed and hath forsaken the poor; because he hath violently taken away a house which he did not build.
- 20 There is no peace for him in his wealth, and no salvation for him in those things in which he took delight.
"Because he knew no quietness within him, He shall not save anything of that in which he delights.
Surely he shall not feel quietness in his belly, he shall not save of that which he desired.
- 21 He had never enough for his desire; for this cause his well-being will quickly come to an end.
There was nothing left that he didn't devour, Therefore his prosperity shall not endure.
There shall none of his food be left; therefore shall no man look for his goods.

- 22 Even when his wealth is great, he is full of care, for the hand of everyone who is in trouble is turned against him.
In the fullness of his sufficiency, distress shall overtake him: The hand of everyone who is in misery shall come on him.
In the fullness of his sufficiency he shall be in straits: every hand of the wicked shall come upon him.
- 23 God gives him his desire, and sends the heat of his wrath on him, making it come down on him like rain.
When he is about to fill his belly, God will cast the fierceness of his wrath on him. It will rain on him while he is eating.
When he is about to fill his belly, God shall cast the fury of his wrath upon him, and shall rain it upon him while he is eating.
- 24 He may go in flight from the iron spear, but the arrow from the bow of brass will go through him;
He shall flee from the iron weapon. The bronze arrow shall strike him through.
He shall flee from the iron weapon, and the bow of steel shall strike him through.
- 25 He is pulling it out, and it comes out of his back; and its shining point comes out of his side; he is overcome by fears.
He draws it forth, and it comes out of his body. Yes, the glittering point comes out of his liver. Terrors are on him.
It is drawn, and cometh out of the body; yes, the glittering sword cometh out of his gall: terrors are upon him.
- 26 All his wealth is stored up for the dark: a fire not made by man sends destruction on him, and on everything in his tent.
All darkness is laid up for his treasures. An unfanned fire shall devour him. It shall consume that which is left in his tent.
All darkness shall be hid in his secret places: a fire not blown shall consume him; it shall go ill with him that is left in his tabernacle.
- 27 The heavens make clear his sin, and the earth gives witness against him.
The heavens shall reveal his iniquity, The earth shall rise up against him.
The heaven shall reveal his iniquity; and the earth shall rise up against him.
- 28 The produce of his house is taken away into another country, like things given into the hands of others in the day of wrath.
The increase of his house shall depart; They shall rush away in the day of his wrath.
The increase of his house shall depart, and his goods shall flow away in the day of his wrath.

29 This is the reward of the evil man, and the heritage given to him by God.
This is the portion of a wicked man from God, The heritage appointed to him by God."
This is the portion of a wicked man from God, and the heritage appointed to him by God.

1 Then Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
But Job answered and said,

2 Give attention with care to my words; and let this be your comfort.
"Listen diligently to my speech. Let this be your consolation.
Hear diligently my speech, and let this be your consolations.

3 Let me say what is in my mind, and after that, go on making sport of me.
Allow me, and I also will speak; After I have spoken, mock on.
Suffer me that I may speak; and after I have spoken, mock on.

4 As for me, is my outcry against man? is it then to be wondered at if my spirit is troubled?
As for me, is my complaint to man? Why shouldn't I be impatient?
As for me, is my complaint to man? and if it were so, why should not my spirit be troubled?

5 Take note of me and be full of wonder, put your hand on your mouth.
Look at me, and be astonished. Lay your hand on your mouth.
Mark me, and be astonished, and lay your hand upon your mouth.

6 At the very thought of it my flesh is shaking with fear.
When I remember, I am troubled. Horror takes hold of my flesh.
Even when I remember I am afraid, and trembling taketh hold on my flesh.

- 7 Why is life given to the evil-doers? why do they become old and strong in power?
"Why do the wicked live, Become old, yes, and grow mighty in power?
Why do the wicked live, become old, and, are mighty in power?
- 8 Their children are ever with them, and their offspring before their eyes.
Their child is established with them in their sight, Their offspring before their eyes.
Their seed is established in their sight with them, and their offspring before their eyes.
- 9 Their houses are free from fear, and the rod of God does not come on them.
Their houses are safe from fear, Neither is the rod of God upon them.
Their houses are safe from fear, neither is the rod of God upon them.
- 10 Their ox is ready at all times to give seed; their cow gives birth, without dropping her young.
Their bulls breed without fail. Their cows calve, and don't miscarry.
Their bull gendereth, and faileth not; their cow calveth, and casteth not her calf.
- 11 They send out their young ones like a flock, and their children have pleasure in the dance,
They send forth their little ones like a flock. Their children dance.
They send forth their little ones like a flock, and their children dance.
- 12 They make songs to the instruments of music, and are glad at the sound of the pipe.
They sing to the tambourine and harp, And rejoice at the sound of the pipe.
They take the timbrel and harp, and rejoice at the sound of the organ.
- 13 Their days come to an end without trouble, and suddenly they go down to the underworld.
They spend their days in prosperity. In an instant they go down to Sheol.
They spend their days in wealth, and in a moment go down to the grave.

- 14 Though they said to God, Go away from us, for we have no desire for the knowledge of your ways.
They tell God, `Depart from us, For we don't want to know about your ways.
Therefore they say to God, Depart from us; for we desire not the knowledge of thy ways.
- 15 What is the Ruler of all, that we may give him worship? and what profit is it to us to make prayer to him?
What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? What profit should we have, if we pray to him?`
What is the Almighty, that we should serve him? and what profit should we have, if we pray to him?
- 16 Truly, is not their well-being in their power? (The purpose of the evil-doers is far from me.)
Behold, their prosperity is not in their hand: The counsel of the wicked is far from me.
Lo, their good is not in their hand: the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
- 17 How frequently is the light of the evil-doers put out, or does trouble come on them? how frequently does his wrath take them with cords?
"How often is it that the lamp of the wicked is put out? That their calamity comes on them? That God distributes sorrows in his anger?
How oft is the candle of the wicked put out? and how oft cometh their destruction upon them? God distributeth sorrows in his anger.
- 18 How frequently are they as dry stems before the wind, or as grass taken away by the storm-wind?
That they are as stubble before the wind, As chaff that the storm carries away?
They are as stubble before the wind, and as chaff that the storm carrieth away.
- 19 You say, God keeps punishment stored up for his children. Let him send it on the man himself, so that he may have the punishment of it!
You say, `God lays up his iniquity for his children.` Let him recompense it to himself, that he may know it.
God layeth up his iniquity for his children: he rewardeth him, and he shall know it.
- 20 Let his eyes see his trouble, and let him be full of the wrath of the Ruler of all!
Let his own eyes see his destruction. Let him drink of the wrath of the Almighty.
His eyes shall see his destruction, and he shall drink of the wrath of the Almighty.

21 For what interest has he in his house after him, when the number of his months is ended?
For what does he care for his house after him, When the number of his months is cut off?
For what pleasure hath he in his house after him, when the number of his months is cut off in the midst?

22 Is anyone able to give teaching to God? for he is the judge of those who are on high.
"Shall any teach God knowledge, Seeing he judges those who are high?
Shall any teach God knowledge? seeing he judgeth those that are high.

23 One comes to his end in complete well-being, full of peace and quiet:
One dies in his full strength, Being wholly at ease and quiet.
One dieth in his full strength, being wholly at ease and quiet.

24 His buckets are full of milk, and there is no loss of strength in his bones.
His pails are full of milk. The marrow of his bones is moistened.
His breasts are full of milk, and his bones are moistened with marrow.

25 And another comes to his end with a bitter soul, without ever tasting good.
Another dies in bitterness of soul, And never tastes of good.
And another dieth in the bitterness of his soul, and never eateth with pleasure.

26 Together they go down to the dust, and are covered by the worm.
They lie down alike in the dust, The worm covers them.
They shall lie down alike in the dust, and the worms shall cover them.

27 See, I am conscious of your thoughts, and of your violent purposes against me;
"Behold, I know your thoughts, The devices with which you would wrong me.
Behold, I know your thoughts, and the devices which ye wrongfully imagine against me.

28 For you say, Where is the house of the ruler, and where is the tent of the evil-doer?

For you say, `Where is the house of the prince? Where is the tent in which the wicked lived?`

For ye say, Where is the house of the prince? and where are the dwelling places of the wicked?

29 Have you not put the question to the travellers, and do you not take note of their experience?

Haven`t you asked wayfaring men? Don`t you know their evidences,

Have ye not asked them that go by the way? and do ye not know their tokens, 30 How the evil man goes free in the day of trouble, and has salvation in the day of wrath?

That the evil man is reserved to the day of calamity? That they are led forth to the day of wrath?

That the wicked is reserved to the day of destruction? they will be brought forth to the day of wrath.

31 Who will make his way clear to his face? and if he has done a thing, who gives him punishment for it?

Who shall declare his way to his face? Who shall repay him what he has done?

Who shall declare his way to his face? and who shall repay him what he hath done?

32 He is taken to his last resting-place, and keeps watch over it.

Yet shall he be borne to the grave, Men shall keep watch over the tomb.

Yet he shall be brought to the grave, and shall remain in the tomb.

33 The earth of the valley covering his bones is sweet to him, and all men come after him, as there were unnumbered before him.

The clods of the valley shall be sweet to him. All men shall draw after him, As there were innumerable before him.

The clods of the valley will be sweet to him, and every man will draw after him, as there are innumerable before him.

34 Why then do you give me comfort with words in which there is no profit, when you see that there is nothing in your answers but deceit?

So how can you comfort me with nonsense, Seeing that in your answers there remains only falsehood?"

How then comfort ye me in vain, seeing in your answers there remaineth falsehood?

1 Then Eliphaz the Temanite made answer and said,

Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered,
Then Eliphaz the Temanite answered and said,

2 Is it possible for a man to be of profit to God? No, for a man's wisdom is only of profit to himself.

"Can a man be profitable to God? Surely he who is wise is profitable to himself.

Can a man be profitable to God, as he that is wise may be profitable to himself?

3 Is it of any interest to the Ruler of all that you are upright? or is it of use to him that your ways are without sin?

Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that you are righteous? Or does it benefit him, that you make your ways perfect?

Is it any pleasure to the Almighty, that thou art righteous? or is it gain to him, that thou makest thy ways perfect?

4 Is it because you give him honour that he is sending punishment on you and is judging you?

Is it for your piety that he reprove you, That he enters with you into judgment?

Will he reprove thee for fear of thee? will he enter with thee into judgment?

5 Is not your evil-doing great? and there is no end to your sins.

Isn't your wickedness great? Neither is there any end to your iniquities.

Is not thy wickedness great? and thy iniquities infinite?

6 For you have taken your brother's goods when he was not in your debt, and have taken away the clothing of those who have need of it.

For you have taken pledges from your brother for nothing, And stripped the naked of their clothing.

For thou hast taken a pledge from thy brother for naught, and stripped the naked of their clothing.

7 You do not give water to the tired traveller, and from him who has no food you keep back bread.

You haven't given water to the weary to drink, And you have withheld bread from the hungry.

Thou hast not given water to the weary to drink, and thou hast withheld bread from the hungry.

- 8 For it was the man with power who had the land, and the man with an honoured name who was living in it.
But as for the mighty man, he had the earth. The honorable man, he lived in it.
But as for the mighty man, he had the earth; and the honorable man dwelt in it.
- 9 You have sent widows away without hearing their cause, and you have taken away the support of the child who has no father.
You have sent widows away empty, And the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
Thou hast sent widows away empty, and the arms of the fatherless have been broken.
- 10 For this cause nets are round your feet, and you are overcome with sudden fear.
Therefore snares are round about you. Sudden fear troubles you,
Therefore snares are around thee, and sudden fear troubleth thee;
-
- 11 Your light is made dark so that you are unable to see, and you are covered by a mass of waters.
Or darkness, so that you can not see, And floods of waters cover you.
Or darkness, that thou canst not see; and abundance of waters cover thee.
- 12 Is not God as high as heaven? and see the stars, how high they are!
"Isn't God in the heights of heaven? See the height of the stars, how high they are!
Is not God in the height of heaven? and behold the height of the stars, how high they are!"
- 13 And you say, What knowledge has God? is he able to give decisions through the deep dark?
You say, `What does God know? Can he judge through the thick darkness?
And thou sayest, How doth God know? can he judge through the dark cloud?
- 14 Thick clouds are covering him, so that he is unable to see; and he is walking on the arch of heaven.
Thick clouds are a covering to him, so that he doesn't see. He walks on the vault of the sky.
Thick clouds are a covering to him, that he seeth not; and he walketh in the circuit of heaven.

- 15 Will you keep the old way by which evil men went?
Will you keep the old way Which wicked men have trodden,
Hast thou marked the old way which wicked men have trodden?
- 16 Who were violently taken away before their time, who were overcome by the rush of waters:
Who were snatched away before their time, Whose foundation was poured out as a stream,
Who were cut down out of time, whose foundation was overflowed with a flood!
- 17 Who said to God, Go away from us; and, What is the Ruler of all able to do to us?
Who said to God, `Depart from us;` And, `What can the Almighty do for us?`
Who said to God, depart from us: and what can the Almighty do for them!
- 18 Though he made their houses full of good things: but the purpose of the evil-doers is far from me!
Yet he filled their houses with good things, But the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
Yet he filled their houses with good things: but the counsel of the wicked is far from me.
- 19 The upright saw it and were glad: and those who had done no wrong made sport of them,
The righteous see it, and are glad; The innocent laugh them to scorn,
The righteous see it, and are glad: and the innocent deride them.
- 20 Saying, Truly, their substance is cut off, and their wealth is food for the fire.
Saying, `Surely those who rose up against us are cut off, The fire has consumed the remnant of them.`
Whereas our substance is not cut down, but the remnant of them the fire consumeth.
- 21 Put yourself now in a right relation with him and be at peace: so will you do well in your undertakings.
"Acquaint yourself with him, now, and be at peace. Thereby good shall come to you.
Acquaint now thyself with him, and be at peace: by this good shall come to thee.

- 22 Be pleased to take teaching from his mouth, and let his words be stored up in your heart.
Please receive the law from his mouth, And lay up his words in your heart.
Receive, I pray thee, the law from his mouth, and lay up his words in thy heart.
- 23 If you come back to the Ruler of all, making yourself low before him; if you put evil far away from your tents;
If you return to the Almighty, you shall be built up, If you put away unrighteousness far from your tents.
If thou shalt return to the Almighty, thou shalt be built up, thou shalt put away iniquity far from thy tabernacles.
- 24 And put your gold in the dust, even your gold of Ophir among the rocks of the valleys;
Lay your treasure in the dust, The gold of Ophir among the stones of the brooks.
Then shalt thou lay up gold as dust, and the gold of Ophir as the stones of the brooks.
- 25 Then the Ruler of all will be your gold, and his teaching will be your silver;
The Almighty will be your treasure, Precious silver to you.
Yea, the Almighty shall be thy defense and thou shalt have plenty of silver.
- 26 For then you will have delight in the Ruler of all, and your face will be lifted up to God.
For then shall you delight yourself in the Almighty, And shall lift up your face to God.
For then shalt thou have thy delight in the Almighty, and shalt lift up thy face to God.
- 27 You will make your prayer to him, and be answered; and you will give effect to your oaths.
You shall make your prayer to him, and he will hear you. You shall pay your vows.
Thou shalt make thy prayer to him, and he shall hear thee, and thou shalt pay thy vows.
- 28 Your purposes will come about, and light will be shining on your ways.
You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established to you. Light shall shine on your ways.
Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established to thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways.

29 For God makes low those whose hearts are lifted up, but he is a saviour to the poor in spirit.
When they cast down, you shall say, `be lifted up.` He will save the humble person.
When men are cast down, then thou shalt say, There is exaltation; and he shall save the humble person.

30 He makes safe the man who is free from sin, and if your hands are clean, salvation will be yours.
He will even deliver him who is not innocent; Yes, he shall be delivered through the cleanness of your hands."
He shall deliver the island of the innocent: and it is delivered by the pureness of thy hands.

1 And Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
Then Job answered and said,

2 Even today my outcry is bitter; his hand is hard on my sorrow.
"Even today is my complaint rebellious. His hand is heavy in spite of my groaning.
Even to-day is my complaint bitter: my stroke is heavier than my groaning.

3 If only I had knowledge of where he might be seen, so that I might come even to his seat!
Oh that I knew where I might find him! That I might come even to his seat!
Oh that I knew where I might find him! that I might come even to his seat!

4 I would put my cause in order before him, and my mouth would be full of arguments.
I would set my cause in order before him, And fill my mouth with arguments.
I would order my cause before him, and fill my mouth with arguments.

5 I would see what his answers would be, and have knowledge of what he would say to me.
I would know the words which he would answer me, And understand what he would tell me.
I would know the words which he would answer me, and understand what he would say to me.

- 6 Would he make use of his great power to overcome me? No, but he would give attention to me.
Would he contend with me in the greatness of his power? No, but he would listen to me.
Would he plead against me with his great power? No; but he would put strength in me.
- 7 There an upright man might put his cause before him; and I would be free for ever from my judge.
There the upright might reason with him, So I should be delivered forever from my judge.
There the righteous might dispute with him; so should I be delivered for ever from my judge.
- 8 See, I go forward, but he is not there; and back, but I do not see him;
"If I go east, he is not there; If west, I can't find him;
Behold, I go forward, but he is not there; and backward, but I cannot perceive him:
- 9 I am looking for him on the left hand, but there is no sign of him; and turning to the right, I am not able to see him.
He works to the north, but I can't see him; He turns south, but I can't catch a glimpse of him.
On the left hand, where he doth work, but I cannot behold him: he hideth himself on the right hand, that I cannot see him:
- 10 For he has knowledge of the way I take; after I have been tested I will come out like gold.
But he knows the way that I take. When he has tried me, I shall come forth like gold.
But he knoweth the way that I take: when he hath tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
- 11 My feet have gone in his steps; I have kept in his way, without turning to one side or to the other.
My foot has held fast to his steps. His way have I kept, and not turned aside.
My foot hath held his steps, his way have I kept, and not declined.
- 12 I have never gone against the orders of his lips; the words of his mouth have been stored up in my heart.
I haven't gone back from the commandment of his lips. I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
Neither have I gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have esteemed the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.

- 13 But his purpose is fixed and there is no changing it; and he gives effect to the desire of his soul.
But he stands alone, and who can oppose him? What his soul desires, even that he does.
But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? and what his soul desireth, even that he doeth.
- 14 For what has been ordered for me by him will be gone through to the end: and his mind is full of such designs.
For he performs that which is appointed for me. Many such things are with him.
For he performeth the thing that is appointed for me: and many such things are with him.
- 15 For this cause I am in fear before him, my thoughts of him overcome me.
Therefore I am terrified at his presence. When I consider, I am afraid of him.
Therefore am I troubled at his presence: when I consider, I am afraid of him.
-
- 16 For God has made my heart feeble, and my mind is troubled before the Ruler of all.
For God has made my heart faint. The Almighty has terrified me.
For God maketh my heart soft, and the Almighty troubleth me:
- 17 For I am overcome by the dark, and by the black night which is covering my face.
Because I was not cut off before the darkness, Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.
Because I was not cut off before the darkness, neither hath he covered the darkness from my face.
- 1 Why are times not stored up by the Ruler of all, and why do those who have knowledge of him not see his days?
"Why aren't times laid up by the Almighty? Why don't those who know him see his days?
Why, seeing times are not hid from the Almighty, do they that know him not see his days?"
- 2 The landmarks are changed by evil men, they violently take away flocks, together with their keepers.
There are people who remove the landmarks. They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
Some remove the landmarks: they violently take away flocks, and their feed.

- 3 They send away the ass of him who has no father, they take the widow's ox for debt.
They drive away the donkey of the fatherless, And they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
They drive away the ass of the fatherless, they take the widow's ox for a pledge.
- 4 The crushed are turned out of the way; all the poor of the earth go into a secret place together.
They turn the needy out of the way. The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
They turn the needy out of the way: the poor of the earth hide themselves together.
- 5 Like asses in the waste land they go out to their work, looking for food with care; from the waste land they get bread for their children.
Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert, They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food; The wilderness yields them bread for their children.
Behold, as wild asses in the desert, they go forth to their work; rising betimes for a prey: the wilderness yieldeth food for them and for their children.
- 6 They get mixed grain from the field, and they take away the late fruit from the vines of those who have wealth.
They cut their provender in the field. They glean the vineyard of the wicked.
They reap every one his corn in the field: and they gather the vintage of the wicked.
- 7 They take their rest at night without clothing, and have no cover in the cold.
They lie all night naked without clothing, And have no covering in the cold.
They cause the naked to lodge without clothing, that they have no covering in the cold.
- 8 They are wet with the rain of the mountains, and get into the cracks of the rock for cover.
They are wet with the showers of the mountains, And embrace the rock for lack of a shelter.
They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
- 9 The child without a father is forced from its mother's breast, and they take the young children of the poor for debt.
There are those who pluck the fatherless from the breast, And take a pledge of the poor,
They pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor.

- 10 Others go about without clothing, and though they have no food, they get in the grain from the fields.
So that they go around naked without clothing. Being hungry, they carry the sheaves.
They cause him to go naked without clothing, and they take away the sheaf from the hungry;
- 11 Between the lines of olive-trees they make oil; though they have no drink, they are crushing out the grapes.
They make oil within the walls of these men. They tread wine presses, and suffer thirst.
Who make oil within their walls, and tread their wine-presses, and suffer thirst.
- 12 From the town come sounds of pain from those who are near death, and the soul of the wounded is crying out for help; but God does not take note of their prayer.
From out of the populous city, men groan. The soul of the wounded cries out, Yet God doesn't regard the folly.
Men groan from out of the city, and the soul of the wounded crieth out: yet God layeth not folly to them.
- 13 Then there are those who are haters of the light, who have no knowledge of its ways, and do not go in them.
"These are of those who rebel against the light; They don't know the ways of it, Nor abide in the paths of it.
They are of those that rebel against the light; they know not its ways, nor abide in its paths.
- 14 He who is purposing death gets up before day, so that he may put to death the poor and those in need.
The murderer rises with the light. He kills the poor and needy. In the night he is like a thief.
The murderer rising with the light killeth the poor and needy, and in the night is as a thief.
- 15 And the man whose desire is for the wife of another is waiting for the evening, saying, No eye will see me; and he puts a cover on his face. And in the night the thief goes about;
The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, Saying, `No eye shall see me.` He disguises his face.
The eye also of the adulterer waiteth for the twilight, saying, No eye shall see me: and disguiseth his face.
- 16 In the dark he makes holes in the walls of houses: in the daytime they are shutting themselves up, they have no knowledge of the light.
In the dark they dig through houses. They shut themselves up in the daytime. They don't know the light.
In the dark they dig through houses, which they had marked for themselves in the day-time: they know not the light.

- 17 For the middle of the night is as morning to them, they are not troubled by the fear of the dark.
For the morning is to all of them like thick darkness, For they know the terrors of the thick darkness.
For the morning is to them even as the shades of death: if one knoweth them, they are in the terrors of the shades of death.
- 18 They go quickly on the face of the waters; their heritage is cursed in the earth; the steps of the crusher of grapes are not turned to their vine-garden.
"They are foam on the surface of the waters. Their portion is cursed in the earth: They don't turn into the way of the vineyards.
He is swift as the waters; their portion is cursed in the earth: he beholdeth not the way of the vineyards.
- 19 Snow waters become dry with the heat: so do sinners go down into the underworld.
Drought and heat consume the snow waters; So does Sheol those who have sinned.
Drouth and heat consume the snow-waters: so doth the grave those who have sinned.
- 20 The public place of his town has no more knowledge of him, and his name has gone from the memory of men: he is rooted up like a dead tree.
The womb shall forget him. The worm shall feed sweetly on him. He shall be no more remembered. Unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.
The womb shall forget him; the worm shall feed sweetly on him; he shall be no more remembered; and wickedness shall be broken as a tree.
- 21 He is not kind to the widow, and he has no pity for her child.
He devours the barren who don't bear. He shows no kindness to the widow.
He oppresseth the barren that beareth not: and doeth not good to the widow.
- 22 But God by his power gives long life to the strong; he gets up again, though he has no hope of life.
Yet God preserves the mighty by his power. He rises up who has no assurance of life.
He draweth also the mighty with his power: he riseth up, and no man is sure of life.
- 23 He takes away his fear of danger and gives him support; and his eyes are on his ways.
God gives them security, and they rest in it. His eyes are on their ways.
Though it is given him to be in safety, on which he resteth; yet his eyes are upon their ways.

24 For a short time they are lifted up; then they are gone; they are made low, they are pulled off like fruit, and like the heads of grain they are cut off.
They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone. Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, And are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
They are exalted for a little while, but are gone and brought low; they are taken out of the way as all others, and cut off as the tops of the ears of corn.

25 And if it is not so, now, who will make it clear that my words are false, and that what I say is of no value?
If it isn't so now, who will prove me a liar, And make my speech worth nothing?"
And if it is not so now, who will make me a liar, and make my speech of no worth?

1 Then Bildad the Shuhite made answer and said,
Then Bildad the Shuhite answered,
Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,

2 Rule and power are his; he makes peace in his high places.
"Dominion and fear are with him; He makes peace in his high places.
Dominion and fear are with him, he maketh peace in his high places.

3 Is it possible for his armies to be numbered? and on whom is not his light shining?
Can his armies be counted? On whom does his light not arise?
Is there any number of his armies? and upon whom doth not his light arise?

4 How then is it possible for man to be upright before God? or how may he be clean who is a son of woman?
How then can man be just with God? Or how can he who is born of a woman be clean?
How then can man be justified with God? or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?

5 See, even the moon is not bright, and the stars are not clean in his eyes:
Behold, even the moon has no brightness, And the stars are not pure in his sight;
Behold even to the moon, and it shineth not; and the stars are not pure in his sight.

6 How much less man who is an insect, and the son of man who is a worm!
How much less man, who is a worm! The son of man, who is a worm!"
How much less man, that is a worm; and the son of man, who is a worm?

1 Then Job made answer and said,
Then Job answered,
But Job answered and said,

2 How have you given help to him who has no power! how have you been the salvation of the arm which has no strength!
"How have you helped him who is without power! How have you saved the arm that has no strength!
How hast thou helped him that is without power? how savest thou the arm that hath no strength?

3 How have you given teaching to him who has no wisdom, and fully made clear true knowledge!
How have you counseled him who has no wisdom, And plentifully declared sound knowledge!
How hast thou counseled him that hath no wisdom? and how hast thou abundantly declared the thing as it is?

4 To whom have your words been said? and whose spirit came out from you?
To whom have you uttered words? Whose spirit came forth from you?
To whom hast thou uttered words? and whose spirit came from thee?

5 The shades in the underworld are shaking; the waters and those living in them.
"Those who are deceased tremble, Those beneath the waters and all that live in them.
Dead things are formed from under the waters, and the inhabitants thereof.

6 The underworld is uncovered before him, and Destruction has no veil.
Sheol is naked before God, And Abaddon has no covering.
Hell is naked before him, and destruction hath no covering.

7 By his hand the north is stretched out in space, and the earth is hanging on nothing.
He stretches out the north over empty space, And hangs the earth on nothing.
He stretcheth out the north over the empty place, and hangeth the earth upon nothing.

8 By him the waters are shut up in his thick clouds, and the cloud does not give way under them.
He binds up the waters in his thick clouds, And the cloud is not burst under them.
He bindeth up the waters in his thick clouds; and the cloud is not rent under them.

9 By him the face of his high seat is veiled, and his cloud stretched out over it.
He encloses the face of his throne, And spreads his cloud on it.
He holdeth back the face of his throne, and spreadeth his cloud upon it.

10 By him a circle is marked out on the face of the waters, to the limits of the light and the dark.
He has described a boundary on the surface of the waters, And to the confines of light and darkness.
He hath encompassed the waters with bounds, until the day and night come to an end.

11 The pillars of heaven are shaking, and are overcome by his sharp words.
The pillars of heaven tremble And are astonished at his rebuke.
The pillars of heaven tremble and are astonished at his reproof.

12 By his power the sea was made quiet; and by his wisdom Rahab was wounded.
He stirs up the sea with his power, And by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
He divideth the sea by his power, and by his understanding he smiteth through the proud.

13 By his wind the heavens become bright: by his hand the quickly moving snake was cut through.
By his Spirit the heavens are garnished. His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
By his spirit he hath garnished the heavens; his hand hath formed the crooked serpent.

14 See, these are only the outskirts of his ways; and how small is that which comes to our ears about him! But the thunder of his acts of power is outside all knowledge.
Behold, these are but the outskirts of his ways. How small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?"

Lo, these are parts of his ways: but how little a portion is heard of him? but the thunder of his power who can understand?

1 And Job again took up the word and said,
Job again took up his parable, and said,
Moreover, Job continued his parable, and said,

2 By the life of God, who has taken away my right; and of the Ruler of all, who has made my soul bitter;
"As God lives, who has taken away my right, The Almighty, who has made my soul bitter.
As God liveth, who hath taken away my judgment; and the Almighty who hath afflicted my soul;

3 (For all my breath is still in me, and the spirit of God is my life;)
(For the length of my life is still in me, And the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
All the while my breath is in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

4 Truly, there is no deceit in my lips, and my tongue does not say what is false.
Surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, Neither shall my tongue utter deceit.
My lips shall not speak wickedness, nor my tongue utter deceit.

5 Let it be far from me! I will certainly not say that you are right! I will come to death before I give up my righteousness.
Far be it from me that I should justify you. Until I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
Far be it from me that I should justify you: till I die I will not remove my integrity from me.

6 I will keep it safe, and will not let it go: my heart has nothing to say against any part of my life.
I hold fast to my righteousness, and will not let it go. My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: my heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.

- 7 Let my hater be like the evil man, and let him who comes against me be as the sinner.
"Let my enemy be as the wicked, Let him who rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
Let my enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me as the unrighteous.
- 8 For what is the hope of the sinner when he is cut off, when God takes back his soul?
For what is the hope of the godless, when he is cut off, When God takes away his life?
For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath gained, when God taketh away his soul?
- 9 Will his cry come to the ears of God when he is in trouble?
Will God hear his cry, When trouble comes on him?
Will God hear his cry when trouble cometh upon him?
- 10 Will he take delight in the Ruler of all, and make his prayer to God at all times?
Will he delight himself in the Almighty, And call on God at all times?
Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he always call upon God?
- 11 I will give you teaching about the hand of God; I will not keep secret from you what is in the mind of the Ruler of all.
I will teach you about the hand of God. That which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
I will teach you by the hand of God: that which is with the Almighty will I not conceal.
- 12 Truly, you have all seen it yourselves; why then have you become completely foolish?
Behold, all of you have seen it yourselves; Why then have you become altogether vain?
Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; why then are ye thus altogether vain?
- 13 This is the punishment of the evil-doer from God, and the heritage given to the cruel by the Ruler of all.
"This is the portion of a wicked man with God, The heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty.
This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

14 If his children are increased, it is for the sword; and his offspring have not enough bread.
If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword. His offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
If his children are multiplied, it is for the sword: and his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.

15 When those of his house who are still living come to their end by disease, they are not put into the earth, and their widows are not weeping for them.
Those who remain of him shall be buried in death. His widows shall make no lamentation.
Those that remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall not weep.

16 Though he may get silver together like dust, and make ready great stores of clothing;
Though he heap up silver as the dust, And prepare clothing as the clay;
Though he should heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay?

17 He may get them ready, but the upright will put them on, and he who is free from sin will take the silver for a heritage.
He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, And the innocent shall divide the silver.
He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 His house has no more strength than a spider's thread, or a watchman's tent.
He builds his house as the moth, As a booth which the watchman makes.
He buildeth his house as a moth, and as a booth that the keeper maketh.

19 He goes to rest full of wealth, but does so for the last time: on opening his eyes, he sees it there no longer.
He lies down rich, but he shall not do so again. He opens his eyes, and he is not.
The rich man shall lie down, but he shall not be gathered: he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

20 Fears overtake him like rushing waters; in the night the storm-wind takes him away.
Terrors overtake him like waters; A tempest steals him away in the night.
Terrors take hold on him as waters, a tempest stealeth him away in the night.

21 The east wind takes him up and he is gone; he is forced violently out of his place.

The east wind carries him away, and he departs; It sweeps him out of his place.

The east wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 God sends his arrows against him without mercy; he goes in flight before his hand.

For it hurls at him, and does not spare, As he flees away from his hand.

For God shall cast upon him, and not spare: he would fain flee out of his hand.

23 Men make signs of joy because of him, driving him from his place with sounds of hissing.

Men shall clap their hands at him, And shall hiss him out of his place.

Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.

1 Truly there is a mine for silver, and a place where gold is washed out.

"Surely there is a mine for silver, And a place for gold which they refine.

Surely there is a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and stone is changed into brass by the fire.

Iron is taken out of the earth, And copper is smelted out of the ore.

Iron is taken out of the earth, and brass is melted out of the stone.

3 Man puts an end to the dark, searching out to the farthest limit the stones of the deep places of the dark.

Man sets an end to darkness, And searches out, to the furthest bound, The stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.

He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out all perfection: the stones of darkness, and the shades of death.

4 He makes a deep mine far away from those living in the light of day; when they go about on the earth, they have no knowledge of those who are under them, who are hanging far from men, twisting from side to side on a cord.

He breaks open a shaft away from where people live. They are forgotten by the foot. They hang far from men, they swing back and forth.

The flood breaketh out from the inhabitant: even the waters forgotten by the foot: they are dried up, they have gone away from men.

- 5 As for the earth, bread comes out of it; but under its face it is turned up as if by fire.
As for the earth, out of it comes bread; Underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and under it is turned up as it were fire.
- 6 Its stones are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
Sapphires come from its rocks. It has dust of gold.
The stones of it are the place of sapphires: and it hath dust of gold.
- 7 No bird has knowledge of it, and the hawk's eye has never seen it.
That path no bird of prey knows, Neither has the falcon's eye seen it.
There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vultur's eye hath not seen:
- 8 The great beasts have not gone over it, and the cruel lion has not taken that way.
The proud animals have not trodden it, Nor has the fierce lion passed by there.
The lion's whelps have not trodden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.
- 9 Man puts out his hand on the hard rock, overturning mountains by the roots.
He puts forth his hand on the flinty rock, And he overturns the mountains by the roots.
He putteth forth his hand upon the rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.
- 10 He makes deep ways, cut through the rock, and his eye sees everything of value.
He cuts out channels among the rocks. His eye sees every precious thing.
He cutteth out rivers among the rocks; and his eye seeth every precious thing.
- 11 He keeps back the streams from flowing, and makes the secret things come out into the light.
He binds the streams that they don't trickle; The thing that is hidden he brings forth to light.
He bindeth the floods from overflowing; and the thing that is hid he bringeth forth to light.

12 But where may wisdom be seen? and where is the resting-place of knowledge?

"But where shall wisdom be found? Where is the place of understanding?

But where shall wisdom be found? and where is the place of understanding?

13 Man has not seen the way to it, and it is not in the land of the living.

Man doesn't know its price; Neither is it found in the land of the living.

Man knoweth not the price of it; neither is it found in the land of the living.

14 The deep waters say, It is not in me: and the sea says, It is not with me.

The deep says, `It isn't in me.` The sea says, `It isn't with me.`

The depth saith, It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

15 Gold may not be given for it, or a weight of silver in payment for it.

It can't be gotten for gold, Neither shall silver be weighed for its price.

It cannot be obtained for gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price of it.

16 It may not be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the onyx of great price, or the sapphire.

It can't be valued with the gold of Ophir, With the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 Gold and glass are not equal to it in price, and it may not be exchanged for jewels of the best gold.

Gold and glass can't equal it, Neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.

The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for jewels of fine gold.

18 There is no need to say anything about coral or crystal; and the value of wisdom is greater than that of pearls.

No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal: Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.

No mention shall be made of coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies.

- 19 The topaz of Ethiopia is not equal to it, and it may not be valued with the best gold.
The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
The topaz of Cush shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
- 20 From where then does wisdom come, and where is the resting-place of knowledge?
Whence then comes wisdom? Where is the place of understanding?
Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?
- 21 For it is kept secret from the eyes of all living, unseen by the birds of the air.
Seeing it is hidden from the eyes of all living, And kept close from the birds of the sky.
Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the air.
- 22 Destruction and Death say, We have only had word of it with our ears.
Destruction and Death say, `We have heard a rumor of it with our ears.`
Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame of it with our ears.
- 23 God has knowledge of the way to it, and of its resting-place;
"God understands its way, And he knows its place.
God understandeth the way of it, and he knoweth its place.
- 24 For his eyes go to the ends of the earth, and he sees everything under heaven.
For he looks to the ends of the earth, And sees under the whole sky.
For he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven;
- 25 When he made a weight for the wind, measuring out the waters;
He establishes the force of the wind; Yes, he measures out the waters by measure.
To make the weight for the winds; and he weigheth the waters by measure.

- 26 When he made a law for the rain, and a way for the thunder-flames;
When he made a decree for the rain, And a way for the lightning of the thunder;
When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder:
- 27 Then he saw it, and put it on record; he gave it its fixed form, searching it out completely.
Then did he see it, and declare it. He established it, yes, and searched it out.
Then did he see it, and declare it; he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.
- 28 And he said to man, Truly the fear of the Lord is wisdom, and to keep from evil is the way to knowledge.
To man he said, `Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom. To depart from evil is understanding.`"
And to man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; and to depart from evil is understanding.
- 1 And Job again took up the word and said,
Job again took up his parable, and said,
Moreover, Job continued his parable, and said,
- 2 If only I might again be as I was in the months which are past, in the days when God was watching over me!
"Oh that I were as in the months of old, As in the days when God watched over me;
Oh that I were as in months past, as in the days when God preserved me;
- 3 When his light was shining over my head, and when I went through the dark by his light.
When his lamp shone on my head, And by his light I walked through darkness;
When his candle shined upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;
- 4 As I was in my flowering years, when my tent was covered by the hand of God;
As I was in the ripeness of my days, When the friendship of God was in my tent;
As I was in the days of my youth, when the secret of God was upon my tabernacle;

- 5 While the Ruler of all was still with me, and my children were round me;
When the Almighty was yet with me, And my children were around me;
When the Almighty was yet with me, when my children were about me;
- 6 When my steps were washed with milk, and rivers of oil were flowing out of the rock for me.
When my steps were washed with butter, And the rock poured out streams of oil for me!
When I washed my steps with butter, and the rock poured me out rivers of oil;
- 7 When I went out of my door to go up to the town, and took my seat in the public place,
When I went forth to the city gate, When I prepared my seat in the street,
When I went out to the gate through the city, when I prepared my seat in the street!
- 8 The young men saw me, and went away, and the old men got up from their seats;
The young men saw me and hid themselves, The aged rose up and stood;
The young men saw me, and hid themselves: and the aged arose, and stood up.
- 9 The rulers kept quiet, and put their hands on their mouths;
The princes refrained from talking, And laid their hand on their mouth;
The princes refrained talking, and laid their hand on their mouth.
- 10 The chiefs kept back their words, and their tongues were joined to the roofs of their mouths.
The voice of the nobles was hushed, And their tongue stuck to the roof of their mouth.
The nobles held their peace, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
- 11 For when it came to their ears, men said that I was truly happy; and when their eyes saw, they gave witness to me;
For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; And when the eye saw me, it commended me:
When the ear heard me, then it blessed me; and when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:

- 12 For I was a saviour to the poor when he was crying for help, to the child with no father, and to him who had no supporter.
Because I delivered the poor who cried, And the fatherless also, who had none to help him.
Because I delivered the poor that cried, and the fatherless, and him that had none to help him.
- 13 The blessing of him who was near to destruction came on me, and I put a song of joy into the widow's heart.
The blessing of him who was ready to perish came on me, And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me: and I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.
- 14 I put on righteousness as my clothing, and was full of it; right decisions were to me a robe and a head-dress.
I put on righteousness, and it clothed me. My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: my judgment was as a robe and a diadem.
- 15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet to him who had no power of walking.
I was eyes to the blind, And feet to the lame.
I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
- 16 I was a father to the poor, searching out the cause of him who was strange to me.
I was a father to the needy. The cause of him who I didn't know, I searched out.
I was a father to the poor: and the cause which I knew not I searched out.
- 17 By me the great teeth of the evil-doer were broken, and I made him give up what he had violently taken away.
I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, And plucked the prey out of his teeth.
And I broke the jaws of the wicked, and plucked the spoil out of his teeth.
- 18 Then I said, I will come to my end with my children round me, my days will be as the sand in number;
Then I said, I shall die in my own house, I shall number my days as the sand.
Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand.

- 19 My root will be open to the waters, and the night mist will be on my branches,
My root is spread out to the waters, The dew lies all night on my branch;
My root was spread out by the waters, and the dew lay all night upon my branch.
- 20 My glory will be ever new, and my bow will be readily bent in my hand.
My glory is fresh in me, My bow is renewed in my hand.`
My glory was fresh in me, and my bow was renewed in my hand.
- 21 Men gave ear to me, waiting and keeping quiet for my suggestions.
"Men listened to me, waited, And kept silence for my counsel.
To me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence at my counsel.
- 22 After I had said what was in my mind, they were quiet and let my words go deep into their hearts;
After my words they didn` t speak again; My speech fell on them.
After my words they spoke not again; and my speech dropped upon them.
- 23 They were waiting for me as for the rain, opening their mouths wide as for the spring rains.
They waited for me as for the rain. Their mouths drank as with the spring rain.
And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
- 24 I was laughing at them when they had no hope, and the light of my face was never clouded by their fear.
I smiled on them when they had no confidence. They didn` t reject the light of my face.
If I laughed on them, they believed it not; and the light of my countenance they cast not down.
- 25 I took my place as a chief, guiding them on their way, and I was as a king among his army. ...
I chose out their way, and sat as chief. I lived as a king in the army, As one who comforts the mourners.
I chose out their way, and sat chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforteth the mourners.

- 1 But now those who are younger than I make sport of me; those whose fathers I would not have put with the dogs of my flocks.
"But now those who are younger than I, have me in derision, Whose fathers I would have disdained to put with my sheep dogs.
But now they that are younger than I, have me in derision, whose fathers I would have disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
- 2 Of what use is the strength of their hands to me? all force is gone from them.
Of what use is the strength of their hands to me, Men in whom ripe age has perished?
Yes, to what might the strength of their hands profit me, in whom old age had perished?
- 3 They are wasted for need of food, biting the dry earth; their only hope of life is in the waste land.
They are gaunt from lack and famine. They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of waste and desolation.
For want and famine they were solitary; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste.
- 4 They are pulling off the salt leaves from the brushwood, and making a meal of roots.
They pluck salt herbs by the bushes. The roots of the broom are their food.
Who cut up mallows by the bushes, and juniper roots for their food.
- 5 They are sent out from among their townsmen, men are crying after them as thieves
They are driven forth from the midst of men; They cry after them as after a thief;
They were driven forth from among men, (they cried after them, as after a thief;)
- 6 They have to get a resting-place in the hollows of the valleys, in holes of the earth and rocks.
So that they dwell in frightful valleys, And in holes of the earth and of the rocks.
To dwell in the clefts of the valleys, in caves of the earth, and in the rocks.
- 7 They make noises like asses among the brushwood; they get together under the thorns.
Among the bushes they bray; And under the nettles they are gathered together.
Among the bushes they brayed; under the nettles they were collected.

- 8 They are sons of shame, and of men without a name, who have been forced out of the land.
They are children of fools, yes, children of base men. They were flogged out of the land.
They were children of fools, yes, children of base men: they were viler than the earth.
- 9 And now I have become their song, and I am a word of shame to them.
"Now I have become their song. Yes, I am a byword to them.
And now I am their song, yes, I am their by-word.
- 10 I am disgusting to them; they keep away from me, and put marks of shame on me.
They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, And don't hesitate to spit in my face.
They abhor me, they flee far from me, and spare not to spit in my face.
- 11 For he has made loose the cord of my bow, and put me to shame; he has sent down my flag to the earth before me.
For he has loosed his cord, and afflicted me; And they have thrown off restraint before me.
Because he hath loosed my cord, and afflicted me, they have also let loose the bridle before me.
- 12 The lines of his men of war put themselves in order, and make high their ways of destruction against me:
On my right hand rise the rabble. They thrust aside my feet, They cast up against me their ways of destruction.
Upon my right hand rise the youth; they push away my feet, and they raise up against me the ways of their destruction.
- 13 They have made waste my roads, with a view to my destruction; his bowmen come round about me;
They mar my path, They set forward my calamity, Without anyone's help.
They mar my path, they set forward my calamity, they have no helper.
- 14 As through a wide broken place in the wall they come on, I am overturned by the shock of their attack.
As through a wide breach they come, In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves in.
They came upon me as a wide breaking in of waters: in the desolation they rolled themselves upon me.

15 Fears have come on me; my hope is gone like the wind, and my well-being like a cloud.
Terrors are turned on me. They chase my honor as the wind. My welfare has passed away as a cloud.
Terrors are turned upon me: they pursue my soul as the wind: and my welfare passeth away as a cloud.

16 But now my soul is turned to water in me, days of trouble overtake me:
"Now my soul is poured out within me. Days of affliction have taken hold on me.
And now my soul is poured out upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

17 The flesh is gone from my bones, and they give me no rest; there is no end to my pains.
In the night season my bones are pierced in me, And the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.

18 With great force he takes a grip of my clothing, pulling me by the neck of my coat.
By great force is my garment disfigured. It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
By the great force of my disease is my garment changed: it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

19 Truly God has made me low, even to the earth, and I have become like dust.
He has cast me into the mire. I have become like dust and ashes.
He hath cast me into the mire, and I have become like dust and ashes.

20 You give no answer to my cry, and take no note of my prayer.
I cry to you, and you do not answer me. I stand up, and you gaze at me.
I cry to thee, and thou dost not hear me: I stand up, and thou regardest me not.

21 You have become cruel to me; the strength of your hand is hard on me.
You have turned to be cruel to me. With the might of your hand you persecute me.
Thou hast become cruel to me: with thy strong hand thou opposest thyself against me.

22 Lifting me up, you make me go on the wings of the wind; I am broken up by the storm.
You lift me up to the wind, and drive me with it. You dissolve me in the storm.
Thou liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me to ride upon it, and dissolvest my substance.

23 For I am certain that you will send me back to death, and to the meeting-place ordered for all living.
For I know that you will bring me to death, To the house appointed for all living.
For I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

24 Has not my hand been stretched out in help to the poor? have I not been a saviour to him in his trouble?
"However doesn't one stretch out a hand in his fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?
Yet he will not stretch out his hand to the grave, though they cry in his destruction.

25 Have I not been weeping for the crushed? and was not my soul sad for him who was in need?
Didn't I weep for him who was in trouble? Wasn't my soul grieved for the needy?
Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

26 For I was looking for good, and evil came; I was waiting for light, and it became dark.
When I looked for good, then evil came; When I waited for light, there came darkness.
When I looked for good, then evil came: and when I waited for light, there came darkness.

27 My feelings are strongly moved, and give me no rest; days of trouble have overtaken me.
My heart is troubled, and doesn't rest. Days of affliction have come on me.
My bowels boiled, and rested not: the days of affliction came upon me.

28 I go about in dark clothing, uncomforted; I get up in the public place, crying out for help.
I go mourning without the sun. I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
I went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried in the congregation.

29 I have become a brother to the jackals, and go about in the company of ostriches.
I am a brother to jackals, And a companion to ostriches.
I am a brother to dragons, and a companion to owls.

30 My skin is black and dropping off me; and my bones are burning with the heat of my disease.
My skin grows black and peels from me. My bones are burned with heat.
My skin is black upon me, and my bones are burned with heat.

31 And my music has been turned to sorrow, and the sound of my pipe into the noise of weeping.
Therefore is my harp turned to mourning, And my pipe into the voice of those who weep.
My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

1 I made an agreement with my eyes; how then might my eyes be looking on a virgin?
"I made a covenant with my eyes, How then should I look lustfully at a young woman?
I Made a covenant with my eyes; why then should I think upon a maid?

2 For what is God's reward from on high, or the heritage given by the Ruler of all from heaven?
For what is the portion from God above, And the heritage from the Almighty on high?
For what portion of God is there from above? and what inheritance of the Almighty from on high?

3 Is it not trouble for the sinner, and destruction for the evil-doers?
Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, And disaster to the workers of iniquity?
Is not destruction to the wicked? and a strange punishment to the workers of iniquity?

4 Does he not see my ways, and are not my steps all numbered?
Doesn't he see my ways, And number all my steps?
Doth not he see my ways, and count all my steps?

- 5 If I have gone in false ways, or my foot has been quick in working deceit;
"If I have walked with falsehood, And my foot has hurried to deceit
If I have walked with vanity, or if my foot hath hasted to deceit;
- 6 (Let me be measured in upright scales, and let God see my righteousness:)
(Let me be weighed in an even balance, That God may know my integrity);
Let me be weighed in an even balance, that God may know my integrity.
- 7 If my steps have been turned out of the way, or if my heart went after my eyes, or if the property of another is in my hands;
If my step has turned out of the way, If my heart walked after my eyes, If any defilement has stuck to my hands,
If my step hath turned out of the way, and my heart walked after my eyes, and if any blot hath cleaved to my hands;
- 8 Let me put seed in the earth for another to have the fruit of it, and let my produce be uprooted.
Then let me sow, and let another eat; Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.
Then let me sow, and let another eat; yes, let my offspring be rooted out.
- 9 If my heart went after another man's wife, or if I was waiting secretly at my neighbour's door;
"If my heart has been enticed to a woman, And I have laid wait at my neighbor`s door;
If my heart hath been deceived by a woman, or if I have laid wait at my neighbor's door;
- 10 Then let my wife give pleasure to another man and let others make use of her body.
Then let my wife grind for another, And let others sleep with her.
Then let my wife grind to another, and let others bow down upon her.
- 11 For that would be a crime; it would be an act for which punishment would be measured out by the judges:
For that would be a heinous crime; Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
For this is a hainous crime; yea, it is an iniquity to be punished by the judges.

- 12 It would be a fire burning even to destruction, and taking away all my produce.
For it is a fire that consumes to destruction, And would root out all my increase.
For it is a fire that consumeth to destruction, and would root out all my increase.
- 13 If I did wrong in the cause of my man-servant, or my woman-servant, when they went to law with me;
"If I have despised the cause of my man-servant Or of my maid-servant, When they contended with me;
If I despised the cause of my man-servant or of my maid-servant, when they contended with me;
- 14 What then will I do when God comes as my judge? and what answer may I give to his questions?
What then shall I do when God rises up? When he visits, what shall I answer him?
What then shall I do when God riseth up? and when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
- 15 Did not God make him as well as me? did he not give us life in our mothers' bodies?
Didn't he who made me in the womb make him? Didn't one fashion us in the womb?
Did not he that made me in the womb make him? and did not one fashion us in the womb?
- 16 If I kept back the desire of the poor; if the widow's eye was looking for help to no purpose;
"If I have withheld the poor from their desire, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
If I have withheld the poor from their desire, or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail;
- 17 If I kept my food for myself, and did not give some of it to the child with no father;
Or have eaten my morsel alone, And the fatherless has not eaten of it
Or have eaten my morsel myself alone, and the fatherless hath not eaten of it;
- 18 (For I was cared for by God as by a father from my earliest days; he was my guide from the body of my mother;)
(No, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, Her have I guided from my mother's womb);
(For from my youth he was brought up with me, as with a father, and I have guided her from my mother's womb;)

- 19 If I saw one near to death for need of clothing, and that the poor had nothing covering him;
If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, Or that the needy had no covering;
If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, or any poor without covering;
- 20 If his back did not give me a blessing, and the wool of my sheep did not make him warm;
If his heart hasn't blessed me, If he hasn't been warmed with my sheep's fleece;
If his loins have not blessed me, and if he hath not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
- 21 If my hand had been lifted up against him who had done no wrong, when I saw that I was supported by the judges;
If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, Because I saw my help in the gate:
If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, when I saw my help in the gate:
- 22 May my arm be pulled from my body, and be broken from its base.
Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder-blade, And my arm be broken from the bone.
Then let my arm fall from my shoulder-blade, and my arm be broken from the bone.
- 23 For the fear of God kept me back, and because of his power I might not do such things.
For calamity from God is a terror to me, By reason of his majesty I can do nothing.
For destruction from God was a terror to me, and by reason of his highness I could not endure.
- 24 If I made gold my hope, or if I ever said to the best gold, I have put my faith in you;
"If I have made gold my hope, And have said to the fine gold, 'You are my confidence;'
If I have made gold my hope, or have said to the fine gold, Thou art my confidence;
- 25 If I was glad because my wealth was great, and because my hand had got together a great store;
If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, And because my hand had gotten much;
If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gained much;

- 26 If, when I saw the sun shining, and the moon moving on its bright way,
If I have seen the sun when it shined, Or the moon moving in splendor,
If I have beheld the sun when it shined, or the moon walking in brightness;
- 27 A secret feeling of worship came into my heart, and my hand gave kisses from my mouth;
And my heart has been secretly enticed, My hand threw a kiss from my mouth:
And my heart hath been secretly enticed, or my mouth hath kissed my hand:
- 28 That would have been another sin to be rewarded with punishment by the judges; for I would have been false to God on high.
This also would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges; For I should have denied the God who is above.
This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judge: for I should have denied the God that is above.
- 29 If I was glad at the trouble of my hater, and gave cries of joy when evil overtook him;
"If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him who hated me, Or lifted up myself when evil found him;
If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, or have lifted up myself when evil found him:
- 30 (For I did not let my mouth give way to sin, in putting a curse on his life;)
(Yes, I have not allowed my mouth to sin By asking his life with a curse);
Neither have I suffered my mouth to sin by wishing a curse to his soul.
- 31 If the men of my tent did not say, Who has not had full measure of his meat?
If the men of my tent have not said, `Who can find one who has not been filled with his meat?`
If the men of my tabernacle have not said, Oh that we had of his flesh! we cannot be satisfied.
- 32 The traveller did not take his night's rest in the street, and my doors were open to anyone on a journey;
(The sojourner has not lodged in the street; But I have opened my doors to the traveler);
The stranger did not lodge in the street: but I opened my doors to the traveler.

- 33 If I kept my evil doings covered, and my sin in the secret of my breast,
If like Adam I have covered my transgressions, By hiding my iniquity in my heart,
If I have covered my transgressions as Adam, by hiding my iniquity in my bosom:
- 34 For fear of the great body of people, or for fear that families might make sport of me, so that I kept quiet, and did not go out of my door;
Because I feared the great multitude, And the contempt of families terrified me, So that I kept silence, and didn't go out of the door--
Did I fear a great multitude, or did the contempt of families terrify me, that I kept silence, and went not out of the door?
- 35 If only God would give ear to me, and the Ruler of all would give me an answer! or if what he has against me had been put in writing!
Oh that I had one to hear me! (Behold, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me); Let the accuser write my indictment!
Oh that one would hear me! behold, my desire is, that the Almighty would answer me, and that my adversary had written a book.
- 36 Truly I would take up the book in my hands; it would be to me as a crown;
Surely I would carry it on my shoulder; And I would bind it to me as a crown.
Surely I would take it upon my shoulder, and bind it as a crown to me.
- 37 I would make clear the number of my steps, I would put it before him like a prince! The words of Job are ended.
I would declare to him the number of my steps. As a prince would I go near to him.
I would declare to him the number of my steps; as a prince would I go near to him.
- 38 If my land has made an outcry against me, or the ploughed earth has been in sorrow;
If my land cries out against me, And the furrows of it weep together;
If my land crieth against me, or its furrows likewise complain;
- 39 If I have taken its produce without payment, causing the death of its owners;
If I have eaten the fruits of it without money, Or have caused the owners of it to lose their life:
If I have eaten the fruits of it without money, or have caused its owners to lose their life:

40 Then in place of grain let thorns come up, and in place of barley evil-smelling plants.
Let briars grow instead of wheat, And stinkweed instead of barley." The words of Job are ended.
Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.

1 So these three men gave no more answers to Job, because he seemed to himself to be right.
So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.

2 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was angry, burning with wrath against Job, because he seemed to himself more right than God;
Then the wrath of Elihu, the son of Barachel, the Buzite, of the family of Ram, was kindled against Job. His wrath was kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.
Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.

3 And he was angry with his three friends, because they had been unable to give him an answer, and had not made Job's sin clear.
Also his wrath was kindled against his three friends, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.

4 Now Elihu had kept quiet while Job was talking, because they were older than he;
Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.
Now Elihu had waited till Job had spoken because they were older than he.

5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of the three men, he was very angry.
When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

- 6 And Elihu, the son of Barachel the Buzite, made answer and said, I am young, and you are very old, so I was in fear, and kept myself from putting my knowledge before you.
Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered, "I am young, and you are very old; Therefore I held back, and didn't dare show you my opinion.
And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; wherefore I was afraid, and durst not show you my opinion.
- 7 I said to myself, It is right for the old to say what is in their minds, and for those who are far on in years to give out wisdom.
I said, `Days should speak, And multitude of years should teach wisdom.`
I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.
- 8 But truly it is the spirit in man, even the breath of the Ruler of all, which gives them knowledge.
But there is a spirit in man, And the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
But there is a spirit in man: and the inspiration of the Almighty giveth them understanding.
- 9 It is not the old who are wise, and those who are full of years have not the knowledge of what is right.
It is not the great who are wise, Nor the aged who understand justice.
Great men are not always wise: neither do the aged understand judgment.
- 10 So I say, Give ear to me, and I will put forward my knowledge.
Therefore I said, `Listen to me; I also will show my opinion.`
Therefore I said, Harken to me; I also will show my opinion.
- 11 I was waiting for your words, I was giving ear to your wise sayings; while you were searching out what to say,
"Behold, I waited for your words, And I listened for your reasoning, While you searched out what to say.
Behold, I waited for your words; I gave ear to your reasons, whilst ye searched out what to say.
- 12 I was taking note; and truly not one of you was able to make clear Job's error, or to give an answer to his words.
Yes, I gave you my full attention, But there was no one who convinced Job, Or who answered his words, among you.
Yes, I attended to you, and behold, there was none of you that convinced Job, or that answered his words:

- 13 Take care that you do not say, Wisdom is here; God may overcome him, but not man.
Beware lest you say, `We have found wisdom, God may refute him, not man:`
Lest ye should say, We have found out wisdom: God thrusteth him down, not man.
- 14 I will not put forward words like these, or make use of your sayings in answer to him.
For he has not directed his words against me; Neither will I answer him with your speeches.
Now he hath not directed his words against me: neither will I answer him with your speeches.
- 15 Fear has overcome them, they have no more answers to give; they have come to an end of words.
"They are amazed. They answer no more. They don't have a word to say.
They were amazed, they answered no more: they left off speaking.
- 16 And am I to go on waiting while they have nothing to say? while they keep quiet and give no more answers?
Shall I wait, because they don't speak, Because they stand still, and answer no more?
When I had waited, (for they spoke not, but stood still, and answered no more;)
- 17 I will give my answer; I will put forward my knowledge:
I also will answer my part, And I also will show my opinion.
I said, I will answer also my part, I also will show my opinion.
- 18 For I am full of words, I am unable to keep in my breath any longer:
For I am full of words. The spirit within me constrains me.
For I am full of matter, the spirit within me constraineth me.
- 19 My stomach is like wine which is unable to get out; like skins full of new wine, it is almost burst.
Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; Like new wineskins it is ready to burst.
Behold, my belly is as wine which hath no vent; it is ready to burst like new bottles.

20 Let me say what is in my mind, so that I may get comfort; let me give answer with open mouth.

I will speak, that I may be refreshed. I will open my lips and answer.

I will speak, that I may be refreshed: I will open my lips and answer.

21 Let me not give respect to any man, or give names of honour to any living.

Please don't let me respect any man's person, Neither will I give flattering titles to any man.

Let me not, I pray you, accept any man's person, neither let me give flattering titles to man.

22 For I am not able to give names of honour to any man; and if I did, my Maker would quickly take me away.

For I don't know how to give flattering titles; Or else my Maker would soon take me away.

For I know not to give flattering titles; in so doing, my Maker would soon take me away.

1 And now, O Job, give ear to my words, and take note of all I say.

"However, Job, Please hear my speech, And listen to all my words.

Wherefore, Job, I pray thee, hear my speeches, and hearken to all my words.

2 See, now my mouth is open, my tongue gives out words.

See now, I have opened my mouth. My tongue has spoken in my mouth.

Behold, now I have opened my mouth, my tongue hath spoken in my mouth.

3 My heart is overflowing with knowledge, my lips say what is true.

My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart; That which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.

My words shall be of the uprightness of my heart: and my lips shall utter knowledge clearly.

4 The spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Ruler of all gives me life.

The Spirit of God has made me, And the breath of the Almighty gives me life.

The Spirit of God hath made me, and the breath of the Almighty hath given me life.

- 5 If you are able, give me an answer; put your cause in order, and come forward.
If you can, answer me; Set your words in order before me, and stand forth.
If thou canst answer me, set thy words in order before me, stand up.
- 6 See, I am the same as you are in the eyes of God; I was cut off from the same bit of wet earth.
Behold, I am toward God even as you are: I am also formed out of the clay.
Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.
- 7 Fear of me will not overcome you, and my hand will not be hard on you.
Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, Neither shall my pressure be heavy on you.
Behold, my terror shall not make thee afraid, neither shall my hand be heavy upon thee.
- 8 But you said in my hearing, and your voice came to my ears:
"Surely you have spoken in my hearing, I have heard the voice of your words, saying,
Surely thou hast spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the voice of thy words, saying,
- 9 I am clean, without sin; I am washed, and there is no evil in me:
I am clean, without disobedience. I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me:
I am clean without transgression, I am innocent; neither is there iniquity in me.
- 10 See, he is looking for something against me; in his eyes I am as one of his haters;
Behold, he finds occasions against me, He counts me for his enemy:
Behold, he findeth occasions against me, he counteth me for his enemy,
- 11 He puts chains on my feet; he is watching all my ways.
He puts my feet in the stocks, He marks all my paths.
He putteth my feet in the stocks, he marketh all my paths.

- 12 Truly, in saying this you are wrong; for God is greater than man.
"Behold, I will answer you. In this you are not just; For God is greater than man.
Behold, in this thou art not just: I will answer thee, that God is greater than man.
- 13 Why do you put forward your cause against him, saying, He gives no answer to any of my words?
Why do you strive against him, Because he doesn't give account of any of his matters?
Why dost thou strive against him? for he giveth not account of any of his matters.
- 14 For God gives his word in one way, even in two, and man is not conscious of it:
For God speaks once, Yes twice, though man pays no attention.
For God speaketh once, yes twice, yet man perceiveth it not.
- 15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep comes on men, while they take their rest on their beds;
In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls on men, In slumbering on the bed;
In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falleth upon men, in slumberings upon the bed;
- 16 Then he makes his secrets clear to men, so that they are full of fear at what they see;
Then he opens the ears of men, And seals their instruction,
Then he openeth the ears of men, and sealeth their instruction,
- 17 In order that man may be turned from his evil works, and that pride may be taken away from him;
That he may withdraw man from his purpose, And hide pride from man.
That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man.
- 18 To keep back his soul from the underworld, and his life from destruction.
He keeps back his soul from the pit, And his life from perishing by the sword.
He keepeth back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.

- 19 Pain is sent on him as a punishment, while he is on his bed; there is no end to the trouble in his bones;
He is chastened also with pain on his bed, With continual strife in his bones;
He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and the multitude of his bones with strong pain:
- 20 He has no desire for food, and his soul is turned away from delicate meat;
So that his life abhors bread, And his soul dainty food.
So that his life abhorreth bread, and his soul dainty food.
- 21 His flesh is so wasted away, that it may not be seen, and his bones. ...
His flesh is so consumed away, that it can't be seen; His bones that were not seen stick out.
His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; and his bones that were not seen stick out.
- 22 And his soul comes near to the underworld, and his life to the angels of death.
Yes, his soul draws near to the pit, And his life to the destroyers.
Yes, his soul draweth near to the grave, and his life to the destroyers.
- 23 If now there may be an angel sent to him, one of the thousands which there are to be between him and God, and to make clear to man what is right for him;
"If there is beside him an angel, An interpreter, one among a thousand, To show to man what is right for him;
If there is a messenger with him, an interpreter, one among a thousand, to show to man his uprightness:
- 24 And if he has mercy on him, and says, Let him not go down to the underworld, I have given the price for his life:
Then God is gracious to him, and says, `Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.`
Then he is gracious to him, and saith, Deliver him from going down to the pit: I have found a ransom.
- 25 Then his flesh becomes young again, and he comes back to the days of his early strength;
His flesh shall be fresher than a child's; He returns to the days of his youth.
His flesh shall be fresher than a child's: he will return to the days of his youth:

- 26 He makes his prayer to God, and he has mercy on him; he sees God's face with cries of joy; he gives news of his righteousness to men;
He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, So that he sees his face with joy: He restores to man his righteousness.
He shall pray to God, and he will be favorable to him: and he shall see his face with joy: for he will render to man his righteousness.
- 27 He makes a song, saying, I did wrong, turning from the straight way, but he did not give me the reward of my sin.
He sings before men, and says, `I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, And it didn't profit me.
He looketh upon men, and if any shall say, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it profited me not;
- 28 He kept my soul from the underworld, and my life sees the light in full measure.
He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit, My life shall see the light.`
He will deliver his soul from going into the pit, and his life shall see the light.
- 29 Truly, God does all these things to man, twice and three times,
"Behold, God works all these things, Twice, yes three times, with a man,
Lo, all these things God often worketh with man,
- 30 Keeping back his soul from the underworld, so that he may see the light of life.
To bring back his soul from the pit, That he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
To bring back his soul from the pit, to be enlightened with the light of the living.
- 31 Take note O Job, give ear to me; keep quiet, while I say what is in my mind.
Mark well, Job, and listen to me: Hold your peace, and I will speak.
Mark well, O Job, hearken to me: hold thy peace, and I will speak.
- 32 If you have anything to say, give me an answer; for it is my desire that you may be judged free from sin.
If you have anything to say, answer me: Speak, for I desire to justify you.
If thou hast any thing to say, answer me: speak, for I desire to justify thee.

33 If not, give attention to me, and keep quiet, and I will give you wisdom.
If not, listen to me: Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom."
If not, hearken to me: hold thy peace, and I shall teach thee wisdom.

1 And Elihu made answer and said,
Moreover Elihu answered,
Furthermore Elihu answered and said,

2 Give ear, you wise, to my words; and you who have knowledge, give attention to me;
"Hear my words, you wise men; Give ear to me, you who have knowledge.
Hear my words, O ye wise men; and give ear to me, ye that have knowledge.

3 For words are tested by the ear, as food is tasted by the mouth.
For the ear tries words, As the palate tastes food.
For the ear trieth words, as the mouth tasteth food.

4 Let us make the decision for ourselves as to what is right; let us have the knowledge among ourselves of what is good.
Let us choose for us that which is right. Let us know among ourselves what is good.
Let us choose to us judgment: let us know among ourselves what is good.

5 For Job has said, I am upright, and it is God who has taken away my right;
For Job has said, I am righteous, God has taken away my right:
For Job hath said, I am righteous: and God hath taken away my judgment.

6 Though I am right, still I am in pain; my wound may not be made well, though I have done no wrong.
Notwithstanding my right I am considered a liar; My wound is incurable, though I am without disobedience.
Should I lie against my right? my wound is incurable without transgression.

- 7 What man is like Job, a man who freely makes sport of God,
What man is like Job, Who drinks up scoffing like water,
What man is like Job, who drinketh up scorning like water?
- 8 And goes in the company of evil-doers, walking in the way of sinners?
Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, And walks with wicked men?
Who goeth in company with the workers of iniquity, and walketh with wicked men.
- 9 For he has said, It is no profit to a man to take delight in God.
For he has said, `It profits a man nothing That he should delight himself with God.`
For he hath said, It profiteth a man nothing that he should delight himself with God.
- 10 Now then, you wise, take note; you men of knowledge, give ear to me. Let it be far from God to do evil, and from the Ruler of all to do wrong.
"Therefore listen to me, you men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, From the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
Therefore hearken to me, ye men of understanding: far be it from God, that he should do wickedness; and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
- 11 For he gives to every man the reward of his work, and sees that he gets the fruit of his ways.
For the work of a man will he render to him, And cause every man to find according to his ways.
For the work of a man he shall render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.
- 12 Truly, God does not do evil, and the Ruler of all is not a false judge.
Yes surely, God will not do wickedly, Neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
Yes, surely God will not do wickedly, neither will the Almighty pervert judgment.
- 13 Who put the earth into his care, or made him responsible for the world?
Who gave him a charge over the earth? Or who has appointed him over the whole world?
Who hath given him a charge over the earth? or who hath disposed the whole world?

- 14 If he made his spirit come back to him, taking his breath into himself again,
If he set his heart on himself, If he gathered to himself his spirit and his breath;
If he should set his heart upon man, if he should gather to himself his spirit and his breath;
- 15 All flesh would come to an end together, and man would go back to the dust.
All flesh would perish together, And man would turn again to dust.
All flesh would perish together, and man would turn again to dust.
- 16 If you are wise, take note of this; give ear to the voice of my words.
"If now you have understanding, hear this. Listen to the voice of my words.
If now thou hast understanding, hear this: hearken to the voice of my words.
- 17 How may a hater of right be a ruler? and will you say that the upright Ruler of all is evil?
Shall even one who hates justice govern? Will you condemn him who is righteous and mighty?-- Shall even he that hateth right govern? and wilt thou condemn him that is most just?
- 18 He who says to a king, You are an evil-doer; and to rulers, You are sinners;
Who says to a king, `Vile!' Or to nobles, `Wicked!'
Is it fit to say to a king, Thou art wicked? and to princes, Ye are ungodly?
- 19 Who has no respect for rulers, and who gives no more attention to those who have wealth than to the poor, for they are all the work of his hands.
Who doesn't respect the persons of princes, Nor regards the rich more than the poor; For they all are the work of his hands.
How much less to him that accepteth not the persons of princes, nor regardeth the rich more than the poor?
for they all are the work of his hands.
- 20 Suddenly they come to an end, even in the middle of the night: the blow comes on the men of wealth, and they are gone, and the strong are taken away without the hand of man.
In a moment they die, even at midnight; The people are shaken and pass away, The mighty are taken away without hand.
In a moment they shall die, and the people shall be troubled at midnight, and pass away: and the mighty shall be taken away without hand.

- 21 For his eyes are on the ways of a man, and he sees all his steps.
"For his eyes are on the ways of a man, He sees all his goings.
For his eyes are upon the ways of man, and he seeth all his goings.
- 22 There is no dark place, and no thick cloud, in which the workers of evil may take cover.
There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
There is no darkness, nor shadow of death, where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
- 23 For he does not give man a fixed time to come before him to be judged.
For he doesn't need to consider a man further, That he should go before God in judgment.
For he will not lay upon man more than right; that he should enter into judgment with God.
- 24 He sends the strong to destruction without searching out their cause, and puts others in their place.
He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out, And sets others in their place.
He shall break in pieces mighty men without number, and set others in their stead.
- 25 For he has knowledge of their works, overturning them in the night, so that they are crushed.
Therefore he takes knowledge of their works. He overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
Therefore he knoweth their works, and he overturneth them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
- 26 The evil-doers are broken by his wrath, he puts his hand on them with force before the eyes of all onlookers.
He strikes them as wicked men In the open sight of others;
He striketh them as wicked men in the open sight of others;
- 27 Because they did not go after him, and took no note of his ways,
Because they turned aside from following him, And wouldn't have regard in any of his ways:
Because they turned back from him, and would not consider any of his ways:

28 So that the cry of the poor might come up to him, and the prayer of those in need come to his ears.

So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, He heard the cry of the afflicted.

So that they cause the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heareth the cry of the afflicted.

29 ...

When he gives quietness, who then can condemn? When he hides his face, who then can see him? Alike whether to a nation, or to a man:

When he giveth quietness, who then can make trouble? and when he hideth his face, who then can behold him? whether it be done against a nation, or against a man only:

30 ...

That the godless man may not reign, That there be no one to ensnare the people.

That the hypocrite may not reign, lest the people should be ensnared.

31 ...

"For has any said to God, 'I am guilty, but I will not offend any more.

Surely it is meet to be said to God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:

32 ...

Teach me that which I don't see. If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more`?

That which I see not teach thou me: if I have done iniquity, I will do no more.

33 ...

Shall his recompense be as you desire, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I. Therefore speak what you know.

Should it be according to thy mind? he will recompense it, whether thou shalt refuse, or whether thou shalt choose; and not I: therefore speak what thou knowest.

34 Men of knowledge, and all wise men, hearing me, will say,

Men of understanding will tell me, Yes, every wise man who hears me:

Let men of understanding tell me, and let a wise man hearken to me.

35 Job's words do not come from knowledge; they are not the fruit of wisdom.

`Job speaks without knowledge, His words are without wisdom.`

Job hath spoken without knowledge, and his words were without wisdom.

36 May Job be tested to the end, because his answers have been like those of evil men.

I wish that Job were tried to the end, Because of his answering like wicked men.

My desire is that Job may be tried to the end, because of his answers for wicked men.

37 For in addition to his sin, he is uncontrolled in heart; before our eyes he makes sport of God, increasing his words against him.

For he adds rebellion to his sin. He claps his hands among us, And multiplies his words against God."

For he addeth rebellion to his sin, he clappeth his hands among us, and multiplieth his words against God.

1 And Elihu made answer and said,

Moreover Elihu answered,

Elihu spoke moreover, and said,

2 Does it seem to you to be right, and righteousness before God, to say,

"Do you think this to be your right, Or do you say, `My righteousness is more than God's,` Thinkest thou this to be right, that thou saidst, My righteousness is more than God's?

3 What profit is it to me, and how am I better off than if I had done wrong?

That you ask, `What advantage will it be to you? What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?`

For thou saidst, What advantage will it be to thee? and, What profit shall I have, if I be cleansed from my sin?

4 I will make answer to you and to your friends:

I will answer you, And your companions with you.

I will answer thee, and thy companions with thee.

- 5 Let your eyes be turned to the heavens, and lifted up to see the skies; they are higher than you.
Look to the heavens, and see. See the skies, which are higher than you.
Look to the heavens, and see; and behold the clouds which are higher than thou.
- 6 If you have done wrong, is he any the worse for it? and if your sins are great in number, what is it to him?
If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him? If your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
If thou sinnest, what doest thou against him? or if thy transgressions are multiplied, what doest thou to him?
- 7 If you are upright, what do you give to him? or what does he take from your hand?
If you are righteous, what do you give him? Or what does he receive from your hand?
If thou art righteous, what givest thou to him? or what receiveth he from thy hand?
- 8 Your evil-doing may have an effect on a man like yourself, or your righteousness on a son of man.
Your wickedness may hurt a man as you are; And your righteousness may profit a son of man.
Thy wickedness may hurt a man as thou art: and thy righteousness may profit the son of man.
- 9 Because the hand of the cruel is hard on them, men are making sounds of grief; they are crying out for help because of the arm of the strong.
"By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
By reason of the multitude of oppressions they make the oppressed to cry: they cry out by reason of the arm of the mighty.
- 10 But no one has said, Where is God my Maker, who gives songs in the night;
But none says, `Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night,
But none saith, Where is God my maker, who giveth songs in the night;
- 11 Who gives us more knowledge than the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heaven?
Who teaches us more than the animals of the earth, And makes us wiser than the birds of the sky?
Who teacheth us more than the beasts of the earth, and maketh us wiser than the fowls of heaven?

- 12 There they are crying out because of the pride of the evil-doers, but he gives them no answer.
There they cry, but none gives answer, Because of the pride of evil men.
There they cry, but none giveth answer, because of the pride of evil men.
- 13 But God will not give ear to what is false, or the Ruler of all take note of it;
Surely God will not hear an empty cry, Neither will the Almighty regard it.
Surely God will not hear vanity, neither will the Almighty regard it.
- 14 How much less when you say that you do not see him; that the cause is before him, and you are waiting for him.
How much less when you say you don't see him. The cause is before him, and you wait for him!
Although thou sayest thou shalt not see him, yet judgment is before him; therefore trust thou in him.
- 15 And now ... ;
But now, because he has not visited in his anger, Neither does he greatly regard arrogance.
But now, because it is not so, he hath visited in his anger; yet he knoweth it not in great extremity:
- 16 And Job's mouth is open wide to give out what is of no profit, increasing words without knowledge.
Therefore Job opens his mouth with empty talk, And he multiplies words without knowledge."
Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain; he multiplieth words without knowledge.
- 1 And Elihu went on to say,
Elihu also continued, and said,
Elihu also proceeded, and said,
- 2 Give me a little more time, and I will make it clear to you; for I have still something to say for God.
"Bear with me a little, and I will show you; For I still have something to say on God's behalf.
Suffer me a little, and I will show thee that I have yet to speak on God's behalf.

- 3 I will get my knowledge from far, and I will give righteousness to my Maker.
I will get my knowledge from afar, And will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
I will bring my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
- 4 For truly my words are not false; one who has all knowledge is talking with you.
For truly my words are not false. One who is perfect in knowledge is with you.
For truly my words shall not be false: he that is perfect in knowledge is with thee.
- 5 Truly, God gives up the hard-hearted, and will not give life to the sinner.
"Behold, God is mighty, and doesn't despise anyone. He is mighty in strength of understanding.
Behold, God is mighty, and despiseth not any: he is mighty in strength and wisdom.
- 6 His eyes are ever on the upright, and he gives to the crushed their right;
He doesn't preserve the life of the wicked, But gives to the afflicted their right.
He preserveth not the life of the wicked: but giveth right to the poor.
- 7 Lifting them up to the seat of kings, and making them safe for ever.
He doesn't withdraw his eyes from the righteous, But with kings on the throne, He sets them forever, and they are exalted.
He withdraweth not his eyes from the righteous: but with kings are they on the throne; yes, he doth establish them for ever, and they are exalted.
- 8 And if they have been prisoned in chains, and taken in cords of trouble,
If they are bound in fetters, And are taken in the cords of afflictions,
And if they are bound in fetters, and are held in cords of affliction;
- 9 Then he makes clear to them what they have done, even their evil works in which they have taken pride.
Then he shows them their work, And their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
Then he showeth them their work, and their transgressions that they have exceeded.

- 10 Their ear is open to his teaching, and he gives them orders so that their hearts may be turned from evil.
He also opens their ears to instruction, And commands that they return from iniquity.
He openeth also their ear to discipline, and commandeth that they return from iniquity.
- 11 If they give ear to his voice, and do his word, then he gives them long life, and years full of pleasure.
If they listen and serve him, They shall spend their days in prosperity, And their years in pleasures.
If they obey and serve him, they shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
- 12 But if not, they come to their end, and give up their breath without knowledge.
But if they don't listen, they shall perish by the sword; They shall die without knowledge.
But if they obey not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.
- 13 Those who have no fear of God keep wrath stored up in their hearts; they give no cry for help when they are made prisoners.
"But those who are godless in heart lay up anger. They don't cry for help when he binds them.
But the hypocrites in heart heap up wrath: they cry not when he bindeth them.
- 14 They come to their end while they are still young, their life is short like that of those who are used for sex purposes in the worship of their gods.
They die in youth. Their life perishes among the unclean.
They die in youth, and their life is among the unclean.
- 15 He makes the wrong done to the poor the way of their salvation, opening their ears by their trouble.
He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, And opens their ear in oppression.
He delivereth the poor in his affliction, and openeth their ears in oppression.
- 16 ...
Yes, he would have allured you out of distress, Into a broad place, where there is no restriction. That which is set on your table would be full of fatness.
Even so would he have removed thee out of the strait into a broad place, where there is no straitness; and that which should be set on thy table would be full of fatness.

- 17 ...
"But you are full of the judgment of the wicked. Judgment and justice take hold of you.
But thou hast fulfilled the judgment of the wicked: judgment and justice take hold on thee.
- 18 ...
Don't let riches entice you to wrath, Neither let the great size of a bribe turn you aside.
Because there is wrath, beware lest he take thee away with his stroke: then a great ransom cannot deliver thee.
- 19 ...
Would your wealth sustain you in distress, Or all the might of your strength?
Will he esteem thy riches? no, not gold, nor all the forces of strength.
- 20 ...
Don't desire the night, When people are cut off in their place.
Desire not the night, when people are cut off in their place.
- 21 Take care not to be turned to sin, for you have taken evil for your part in place of sorrow.
Take heed, don't regard iniquity; For this you have chosen rather than affliction.
Take heed, regard not iniquity: for this hast thou chosen rather than affliction.
- 22 Truly God is lifted up in strength; who is a ruler like him?
Behold, God is exalted in his power. Who is a teacher like him?
Behold, God exalteth by his power: who teacheth like him?
- 23 Who ever gave orders to him, or said to him, You have done wrong?
Who has prescribed his way for him? Or who can say, `You have committed unrighteousness?`
Who hath enjoined him his way? or who can say, Thou hast wrought iniquity?

- 24 See that you give praise to his work, about which men make songs.
"Remember that you magnify his work, Whereof men have sung.
Remember that thou magnify his work, which men behold.
- 25 All people are looking on it; man sees it from far.
All men have looked thereon. Man sees it afar off.
Every man may see it; man may behold it afar off.
- 26 Truly, God is great, greater than all our knowledge; the number of his years may not be searched out.
Behold, God is great, and we don't know him. The number of his years is unsearchable.
Behold, God is great, and we know him not, neither can the number of his years be searched out.
- 27 For he takes up the drops from the sea; he sends them through his mist as rain,
For he draws up the drops of water, Which distill in rain from his vapor,
For he maketh small the drops of water: they pour down rain according to the vapor of it.
- 28 Flowing down from the sky, and dropping on the peoples.
Which the skies pour down And drop on man abundantly.
Which the clouds do drop and distill upon man abundantly.
- 29 And who has knowledge of how the clouds are stretched out, or of the thunders of his tent?
Yes, can any understand the spreading of the clouds, And the thunderings of his pavilion?
Also can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, or the noise of his tabernacle?
- 30 See, he is stretching out his mist, covering the tops of the mountains with it.
Behold, he spreads his light around him. He covers the bottom of the sea.
Behold, he spreadeth his light upon it, and covereth the bottom of the sea.

- 31 For by these he gives food to the peoples, and bread in full measure.
For by these he judges the people. He gives food in abundance.
For by them he judgeth the people; he giveth food in abundance.
- 32 He takes the light in his hands, sending it against the mark.
He covers his hands with the lightning, And commands it to strike the mark.
With clouds he covereth the light; and commandeth it not to shine by the intervening cloud.
- 33 The thunder makes clear his passion, and the storm gives news of his wrath.
The noise of it tells about him, And the cattle also concerning the storm that comes up.
The noise of it showeth concerning it, the cattle also concerning the vapor.
- 1 At this my heart is shaking; it is moved out of its place.
"Yes, at this my heart trembles, And is moved out of its place.
At this also my heart trembleth, and is moved out of its place.
- 2 Give ear to the rolling noise of his voice; to the hollow sound which goes out of his mouth.
Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice, The sound that goes out of his mouth.
Hear attentively the noise of his voice, and the sound that goeth out of his mouth.
- 3 He sends it out through all the heaven, and his thunder-flame to the ends of the earth.
He sends it forth under the whole sky, And his lightning to the ends of the earth.
He directeth it under the whole heaven, and his lightning to the ends of the earth.
- 4 After it a voice is sounding, thundering out the word of his power; he does not keep back his thunder-flames; from his mouth his voice is sounding.
After it a voice roars. He thunders with the voice of his majesty; He doesn't hold back anything when his voice is heard.
After it a voice roareth: he thundereth with the voice of his excellence; and he will not stay them when his voice is heard.

- 5 He does wonders, more than may be searched out; great things of which we have no knowledge;
God thunders marvelously with his voice. He does great things, which we can't comprehend.
God thundereth marvelously with his voice; great things he doeth, which we cannot comprehend.
- 6 For he says to the snow, Make the earth wet; and to the rain-storm, Come down.
For he says to the snow, `Fall on the earth;` Likewise to the shower of rain, And to the showers of his mighty rain.
For he saith to the snow, Be thou on the earth; likewise to the small rain, and to the great rain of his strength.
- 7 He puts an end to the work of every man, so that all may see his work.
He seals up the hand of every man, That all men whom he has made may know it.
He sealet up the hand of every man; that all men may know his work.
- 8 Then the beasts go into their holes, and take their rest.
Then the animals go into coverts, And remain in their dens.
Then the beasts go into dens, and remain in their places.
- 9 Out of its place comes the storm-wind, and the cold out of its store-houses.
Out of its chamber comes the storm, And cold out of the north.
From the south cometh the whirlwind: and cold from the north.
- 10 By the breath of God ice is made, and the wide waters are shut in.
By the breath of God, ice is given, And the breadth of the waters is frozen.
By the breath of God frost is given: and the breadth of the waters is straitened.
- 11 The thick cloud is weighted with thunder-flame, and the cloud sends out its light;
Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture. He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning.
Also by watering he wearieth the thick cloud: he scattereth his bright cloud:

- 12 And it goes this way and that, round about, turning itself by his guiding, to do whatever he gives orders to be done, on the face of his world of men,
It is turned round about by his guidance, That they may do whatever he commands them On the surface of the habitable world,
And it is turned around by his counsels: that they may do whatever he commandeth them upon the face of the world on the earth.
- 13 For a rod, or for a curse, or for mercy, causing it to come on the mark.
Whether it is for correction, or for his land, Or for lovingkindness, that he causes it to come.
He causeth it to come, whether for correction, or for his land, or for mercy.
- 14 Give ear to this, O Job, and keep quiet in your place; and take note of the wonders worked by God.
"Listen to this, Job: Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
Hearken to this, O Job: stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
- 15 Have you knowledge of God's ordering of his works, how he makes the light of his cloud to be seen?
Do you know how God controls them, And causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
Dost thou know when God disposed them, and caused the light of his cloud to shine?
- 16 Have you knowledge of the balancings of the clouds, the wonders of him who has all wisdom?
Do you know the workings of the clouds, The wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
Dost thou know the balancings of the clouds, the wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
- 17 You, whose clothing is warm, when the earth is quiet because of the south wind,
You whose clothing is warm, When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?
How thy garments are warm, when he quieteth the earth by the south wind?
- 18 Will you, with him, make the skies smooth, and strong as a polished looking-glass?
Can you, with him, spread out the sky, Which is strong as a cast metal mirror?
Hast thou with him spread out the sky which is strong, and as a molten looking-glass?

- 19 Make clear to me what we are to say to him; we are unable to put our cause before him, because of the dark.
Teach us what we shall tell him; For we can't make our case by reason of darkness.
Teach us what we shall say to him; for we cannot order our speech by reason of darkness.
- 20 How may he have knowledge of my desire for talk with him? or did any man ever say, May destruction come on me?
Shall it be told him that I would speak? Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?
Shall it be told him that I speak? If a man shall speak, surely he will be swallowed up.
- 21 And now the light is not seen, for it is dark because of the clouds; but a wind comes, clearing them away.
Now men don't see the light which is bright in the skies, But the wind passes, and clears them.
And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth, and cleanseth them.
- 22 A bright light comes out of the north; God's glory is greatly to be feared.
Out of the north comes golden splendor; With God is awesome majesty.
Fair weather cometh from the north: with God is terrible majesty.
- 23 There is no searching out of the Ruler of all: his strength and his judging are great; he is full of righteousness, doing no wrong.
We can't reach the Almighty, He is exalted in power; In justice and great righteousness he will not oppress.
Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out: he is excellent in power, and in judgment, and in abundance of justice: he will not afflict.
- 24 For this cause men go in fear of him; he has no respect for any who are wise in heart.
Therefore men revere him. He doesn't regard any who are wise of heart."
Men therefore fear him: he respecteth not any that are wise of heart.
- 1 And the Lord made answer to Job out of the storm-wind, and said,
Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind,
Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,

2 Who is this who makes the purpose of God dark by words without knowledge?

"Who is this who darkens counsel By words without knowledge?

Who is this that darkeneth counsel by words without knowledge?

3 Get your strength together like a man of war; I will put questions to you, and you will give me the answers.

Brace yourself like a man, For I will question you, then you answer me!

Gird up now thy loins like a man; for I will demand of thee, and answer thou me.

4 Where were you when I put the earth on its base? Say, if you have knowledge.

"Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding.

Where wast thou when I laid the foundations of the earth? declare, if thou hast understanding.

5 By whom were its measures fixed? Say, if you have wisdom; or by whom was the line stretched out over it?

Who determined the measures of it, if you know? Or who stretched the line on it?

Who hath laid the measures of it, if thou knowest? or who hath stretched the line upon it?

6 On what were its pillars based, or who put down its angle-stone,

Whereupon were the foundations of it fastened? Or who laid its cornerstone,

Upon what are the foundations of it fastened? or who laid its corner stone;

7 When the morning stars made songs together, and all the sons of the gods gave cries of joy?

When the morning stars sang together, And all the sons of God shouted for joy?

When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?

8 Or where were you when the sea came to birth, pushing out from its secret place;

"Or who shut up the sea with doors, When it broke forth from the womb,

Or who shut up the sea with doors, when it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb?

- 9 When I made the cloud its robe, and put thick clouds as bands round it,
When I made clouds the garment of it, Thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
When I made a cloud its garment, and thick darkness a swaddling band for it,
- 10 Ordering a fixed limit for it, with locks and doors;
Marked out for it my bound, Set bars and doors,
And broke up for it my decreed place, and set bars and doors,
- 11 And said, So far you may come, and no farther; and here the pride of your waves will be stopped?
And said, `Here you may come, but no further; Here shall your proud waves be stayed?`
And said, Hitherto shalt thou come, but no further: and here shall thy proud waves be stayed.
- 12 Have you, from your earliest days, given orders to the morning, or made the dawn conscious of its place;
"Have you commanded the morning in your days, And caused the dawn to know its place;
Hast thou commanded the morning since thy days; and caused the day-spring to know its place;
- 13 So that it might take a grip of the skirts of the earth, shaking all the evil-doers out of it?
That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, And shake the wicked out of it?
That it might take hold of the ends of earth, that the wicked might be shaken out of it?
- 14 It is changed like wet earth under a stamp, and is coloured like a robe;
It is changed as clay under the seal, And stands forth as a garment.
It is turned as clay to the seal; and they stand as a garment.
- 15 And from the evil-doers their light is kept back, and the arm of pride is broken.
From the wicked, their light is withheld, The high arm is broken.
And from the wicked their light is withheld, and the high arm shall be broken.

- 16 Have you come into the springs of the sea, walking in the secret places of the deep?
"Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
Hast thou entered into the springs of the sea? or hast thou walked in the search of the depth?
- 17 Have the doors of death been open to you, or have the door-keepers of the dark ever seen you?
Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
Have the gates of death been opened to thee? or hast thou seen the doors of the shades of death?
- 18 Have you taken note of the wide limits of the earth? Say, if you have knowledge of it all.
Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if you know it all.
Hast thou perceived the breadth of the earth? declare if thou knowest it all.
- 19 Which is the way to the resting-place of the light, and where is the store-house of the dark;
"What is the way to the dwelling of light? As for darkness, where is the place of it,
Where is the way where light dwelleth? and as for darkness, where is its place,
- 20 So that you might take it to its limit, guiding it to its house?
That you should take it to the bound of it, That you should discern the paths to the house of it?
That thou shouldest take it to its bound, and that thou shouldest know the paths to its house?
- 21 No doubt you have knowledge of it, for then you had come to birth, and the number of your days is great.
Surely you know, for you were born then, And the number of your days is great!
Knowest thou it, because thou wast then born? or because the number of thy days is great?
- 22 Have you come into the secret place of snow, or have you seen the store-houses of the ice-drops,
Have you entered the treasuries of the snow, Or have you seen the treasures of the hail,
Hast thou entered into the treasures of the snow? or hast thou seen the treasures of the hail,

- 23 Which I have kept for the time of trouble, for the day of war and fighting?
Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, Against the day of battle and war?
Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?
- 24 Which is the way to the place where the wind is measured out, and the east wind sent out over the earth?
By what way is the lightning distributed, Or the east wind scattered on the earth?
By what way is the light parted, which scattereth the east wind upon the earth?
- 25 By whom has the way been cut for the flowing of the rain, and the flaming of the thunder;
Who has cut a channel for the flood water, Or the path for the thunderstorm;
Who hath divided a watercourse for the overflowing of waters, or a way for the lightning of thunder;
- 26 Causing rain to come on a land where no man is living, on the waste land which has no people;
To cause it to rain on a land where no man is; On the wilderness, in which there is no man;
To cause it to rain on the earth, where no man is; on the wilderness in which there is no man;
- 27 To give water to the land where there is waste and destruction, and to make the dry land green with young grass?
To satisfy the waste and desolate ground, To cause the tender grass to spring forth?
To satisfy the desolate and waste ground; and to cause the bud of the tender herb to spring forth?
- 28 Has the rain a father? or who gave birth to the drops of night mist?
Does the rain have a father? Or who fathers the drops of dew?
Hath the rain a father? or who hath begotten the drops of the dew?
- 29 Out of whose body came the ice? and who gave birth to the cold mist of heaven?
Out of whose womb came the ice? The gray frost of the sky, who has given birth to it?
Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

30 The waters are joined together, hard as a stone, and the face of the deep is covered.

The waters become hard like stone, When the surface of the deep is frozen.

The waters are hid as with a stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.

31 Are the bands of the Pleiades fixed by you, or are the cords of Orion made loose?

"Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, Or loosen the cords of Orion?"

Canst thou bind the sweet influences of Pleiades, or loose the bands of Orion?

32 Do you make Mazzaroth come out in its right time, or are the Bear and its children guided by you?

Can you lead forth the constellations in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with her cubs?

Canst thou bring forth Mazzaroth in its season? or canst thou guide Arcturus with its sons?

33 Have you knowledge of the laws of the heavens? did you give them rule over the earth?

Do you know the laws of the heavens? Can you establish the dominion of it over the earth?

Knowest thou the ordinances of heaven? canst thou set its dominion on the earth?

34 Is your voice sent up to the cloud, so that you may be covered by the weight of waters?

"Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover you?"

Canst thou lift thy voice to the clouds, that abundance of waters may cover thee?

35 Do you send out the thunder-flames, so that they may go, and say to you, Here we are?

Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go? Do they report to you, 'Here we are?'

Canst thou send lightnings, that they may go, and say to thee, Here we are?

36 Who has put wisdom in the high clouds, or given knowledge to the lights of the north?

Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind?

Who hath put wisdom in the inward parts? or who hath given understanding to the heart?

- 37 By whose wisdom are the clouds numbered, or the water-skins of the heavens turned to the earth,
Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of the sky,
Who can number the clouds in wisdom? or who can stay the bottles of heaven,
- 38 When the earth becomes hard as metal, and is joined together in masses?
When the dust runs into a mass, And the clods of earth stick together?
When the dust groweth into hardness, and the clods cleave fast together?
- 1 \38:39\Do you go after food for the she-lion, or get meat so that the young lions may have enough,
"Do you know the time when the mountain goats give birth? Do you watch when the doe bears fawns?
\38:39\Wilt thou hunt the prey for the lion? or fill the appetite of the young lions,
- 2 \38:40\When they are stretched out in their holes, and are waiting in the brushwood?
Can you number the months that they fulfill? Or do you know the time when they give birth?
\38:40\When they couch in their dens, and abide in the covert to lie in wait?
- 3 \38:41\Who gives in the evening the meat he is searching for, when his young ones are crying to God; when the young lions with loud noise go wandering after their food?
They bow themselves, they bring forth their young, They end their labor pains.
\38:41\Who provideth for the raven his food? when his young ones cry to God, they wander for want of food.
- 4 \39:1\Have you knowledge of the rock-goats? or do you see the roes giving birth to their young?
Their young ones become strong. They grow up in the open field. They go forth, and don't return again.
\39:1\Knowest thou the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? or canst thou mark when the hinds do calve?
- 5 \39:2\Is the number of their months fixed by you? or is the time when they give birth ordered by you?
"Who has set the wild donkey free? Or who has loosened the bonds of the swift donkey, \39:2\Canst thou number the months that they fulfill? or knowest thou the time when they bring forth?"

- 6 \39:3\They are bent down, they give birth to their young, they let loose the fruit of their body.
Whose home I have made the wilderness, And the salt land his dwelling-place?
\39:3\They bow themselves, they bring forth their young ones, they cast out their sorrows.
- 7 \39:4\Their young ones are strong, living in the open country; they go out and do not come back again.
He scorns the tumult of the city, Neither hears he the shouting of the driver.
\39:4\Their young ones are in good liking, they grow up with corn; they go forth, and return not to them.
- 8 \39:5\Who has let the ass of the fields go free? or made loose the bands of the loud-voiced beast?
The range of the mountains is his pasture, He searches after every green thing.
\39:5\Who hath sent out the wild ass free? or who hath loosed the bands of the wild ass?
- 9 \39:6\To whom I have given the waste land for a heritage, and the salt land as a living-place.
"Will the wild ox be content to serve you? Or will he stay by your feeding trough?
\39:6\Whose house I have made the wilderness, and the barren land his dwellings.
- 10 \39:7\He makes sport of the noise of the town; the voice of the driver does not come to his ears;
Can you hold the wild ox in the furrow with his harness? Or will he till the valleys after you?
\39:7\He scorneth the multitude of the city, neither regardeth he the crying of the driver.
- 11 \39:8\He goes looking for his grass-lands in the mountains, searching out every green thing.
Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave to him your labor?
\39:8\The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searcheth after every green thing.
- 12 \39:9\Will the ox of the mountains be your servant? or is his night's resting-place by your food-store?
Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, And gather the grain of your threshing floor?
\39:9\Will the unicorn be willing to serve thee, or abide by thy crib?

- 13 \39:10\Will he be pulling your plough with cords, turning up the valleys after you?
"The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; But are they the pinions and plumage of love?
\39:10\Canst thou bind the unicorn with his band in the furrow? or will he harrow the valleys after thee?
- 14 \39:11\Will you put your faith in him, because his strength is great? will you give the fruit of your work into his care?
For she leaves her eggs on the earth, Warms them in the dust, \39:11\Wilt thou trust him, because his strength is great? or wilt thou leave thy labor to him?
- 15 \39:12\Will you be looking for him to come back, and get in your seed to the crushing-floor?
And forgets that the foot may crush them, Or that the wild animal may trample them.
\39:12\Wilt thou believe him, that he will bring home thy seed, and gather it into thy barn?
- 16 \39:13\Is the wing of the ostrich feeble, or is it because she has no feathers,
She deals harshly with her young ones, as if they were not hers. Though her labor is in vain, she is without fear, \39:13\Gavest thou the goodly wings to the peacocks? or wings and feathers to the ostrich!
- 17 \39:14\That she puts her eggs on the earth, warming them in the dust,
Because God has deprived her of wisdom, Neither has he imparted to her understanding.
\39:14\Which leaveth her eggs in the earth, and warmeth them in the dust,
- 18 \39:15\Without a thought that they may be crushed by the foot, and broken by the beasts of the field?
When she lifts up herself on high, She scorns the horse and his rider.
\39:15\And forgetteth that the foot may crush them, or that the wild beast may break them.
- 19 \39:16\She is cruel to her young ones, as if they were not hers; her work is to no purpose; she has no fear.
"Have you given the horse might? Have you clothed his neck with a quivering mane?
\39:16\She is hardened against her young ones, as though they were not hers: her labor is in vain without fear;

- 20 \39:17\For God has taken wisdom from her mind, and given her no measure of knowledge.
Have you made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is awesome.
\39:17\Because God hath withheld wisdom from her, neither hath he imparted to her understanding.
- 21 \39:18\When she is shaking her wings on high, she makes sport of the horse and of him who is seated on him.
He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength: He goes out to meet the armed men.
\39:18\When she lifteth herself on high, she scorneth the horse and his rider.
- 22 \39:19\Do you give strength to the horse? is it by your hand that his neck is clothed with power?
He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed; Neither does he turn back from the sword.
\39:19\Hast thou given the horse strength? hast thou clothed his neck with thunder?
- 23 \39:20\Is it through you that he is shaking like a locust, in the pride of his loud-sounding breath?
The quiver rattles against him, The flashing spear and the javelin.
\39:20\Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory of his nostrils is terrible.
- 24 \39:21\He is stamping with joy in the valley; he makes sport of fear.
He eats up the ground with fierceness and rage, Neither does he stand still at the sound of the trumpet.
\39:21\He paweth in the valley, and rejoiceth in his strength: he goeth on to meet the armed men.
- 25 \39:22\In his strength he goes out against the arms of war, turning not away from the sword.
As often as the trumpet sounds he snorts, `Aha!' He smells the battle afar off, The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
\39:22\He mocketh at fear, and is not affrighted; neither turneth he back from the sword.
- 26 \39:23\The bow is sounding against him; he sees the shining point of spear and arrow.
"Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soars, And stretches her wings toward the south?
\39:23\The quiver rattleth against him, the glittering spear and the shield.

- 27 \39:24\Shaking with passion, he is biting the earth; he is not able to keep quiet at the sound of the horn;
Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, And makes his nest on high?
\39:24\He swalloweth the ground with fierceness and rage: neither believeth he that it is the sound of the trumpet.
- 28 \39:25\When it comes to his ears he says, Aha! He is smelling the fight from far off, and hearing the thunder of the captains, and the war-cries.
On the cliff he dwells, and makes his home, On the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
\39:25\He saith among the trumpets, Ha, ha; and he smelleth the battle afar off, the thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
- 29 \39:26\Is it through your knowledge that the hawk takes his flight, stretching out his wings to the south?
From there he spies out the prey. His eyes see it afar off.
\39:26\Doth the hawk fly by thy wisdom, and stretch her wings towards the south?
- 30 \39:27\Or is it by your orders that the eagle goes up, and makes his resting-place on high?
His young ones also suck up blood. Where the slain are, there he is."
\39:27\Doth the eagle mount up at thy command, and make her nest on high?
- 1 \40:6\Then the Lord made answer to Job out of the storm-wind, and said,
Moreover Yahweh answered Job,
\40:6\Then the LORD answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
- 2 \40:7\Get your strength together like a man of war: I will put questions to you, and you will give me the answers.
"Shall he who argues contend with the Almighty? He who argues with God, let him answer it."
\40:7\Gird up thy loins now like a man: I will demand of thee, and declare thou to me.
- 3 \40:8\Will you even make my right of no value? will you say that I am wrong in order to make clear that you are right?
Then Job answered Yahweh,
\40:8\Wilt thou also disannul my judgment? wilt thou condemn me, that thou mayest be righteous?

- 4 \40:9\Have you an arm like God? have you a voice of thunder like his?
"Behold, I am of small account. What shall I answer you? I lay my hand on my mouth.
\40:9\Hast thou an arm like God? or canst thou thunder with a voice like his?
- 5 \40:10\Put on the ornaments of your pride; be clothed with glory and power:
I have spoken once, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further."
\40:10\Deck thyself now with majesty and excellence; and array thyself with glory and beauty.
- 6 \40:11\Let your wrath be overflowing; let your eyes see all the sons of pride, and make them low.
Then Yahweh answered Job out of the whirlwind,
\40:11\Cast abroad the rage of thy wrath: and behold every one that is proud, and abase him.
- 7 \40:12\Send destruction on all who are lifted up, pulling down the sinners from their places.
"Now brace yourself like a man. I will question you, and you will answer me.
\40:12\Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; and tread down the wicked in their place.
- 8 \40:13\Let them be covered together in the dust; let their faces be dark in the secret place of the underworld.
Will you even annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?
\40:13\Hide them in the dust together; bind their faces in secret.
- 9 \40:14\Then I will give praise to you, saying that your right hand is able to give you salvation.
Or have you an arm like God? Can you thunder with a voice like him?
\40:14\Then will I also confess to thee that thy own right hand can save thee.
- 10 \40:15\See now the Great Beast, whom I made, even as I made you; he takes grass for food, like the ox.
"Now deck yourself with excellency and dignity. Array yourself with honor and majesty.
\40:15\Behold now behemoth, which I made with thee; he eateth grass as an ox.

- 11 \40:16\His strength is in his body, and his force in the muscles of his stomach.
Pour forth the fury of your anger. Look on everyone who is proud, and bring him low.
\40:16\Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the navel of his belly.
- 12 \40:17\His tail is curving like a cedar; the muscles of his legs are joined together.
Look on everyone who is proud, and humble him. Crush the wicked in their place.
\40:17\He moveth his tail like a cedar: the sinews of his male organs are wrapped together.
- 13 \40:18\His bones are pipes of brass, his legs are like rods of iron.
Hide them in the dust together. Bind their faces in the hidden place.
\40:18\His bones are as strong pieces of brass; his bones are like bars of iron.
- 14 \40:19\He is the chief of the ways of God, made by him for his pleasure.
Then I will also admit to you That your own right hand can save you.
\40:19\He is the chief of the ways of God: he that made him can make his sword to approach him.
- 15 \40:20\He takes the produce of the mountains, where all the beasts of the field are at play.
"See now, behemoth, which I made as well as you. He eats grass as an ox.
\40:20\Surely the mountains bring him forth food, where all the beasts of the field play.
- 16 \40:21\He takes his rest under the trees of the river, and in the pool, under the shade of the water-plants.
Look now, his strength is in his loins, His force is in the muscles of his belly.
\40:21\He lieth under the shady trees, in the covert of the reed, and fens.
- 17 \40:22\He is covered by the branches of the trees; the grasses of the stream are round him.
He moves his tail like a cedar: The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
\40:22\The shady trees cover him with their shadow; the willows of the brook encompass him.

18 \40:23\Truly, if the river is overflowing, it gives him no cause for fear; he has no sense of danger, even if Jordan is rushing against his mouth.
His bones are like tubes of brass. His limbs are like bars of iron.
\40:23\Behold, he drinketh up a river, and hasteth not: he trusteth that he can draw up Jordan into his mouth.

19 \40:24\Will anyone take him when he is on the watch, or put metal teeth through his nose?
He is the chief of the ways of God. He who made him gives him his sword.
\40:24\He taketh it with his eyes: his nose pierceth through snares.

20 \41:1\Is it possible for Leviathan to be pulled out with a fish-hook, or for a hook to be put through the bone of his mouth?
Surely the mountains bring him forth food, Where all the animals of the field do play.
\41:1\Canst thou draw out leviathan with a hook? or his tongue with a cord which thou lettest down?

21 \41:2\Will you put a cord into his nose, or take him away with a cord round his tongue?
He lies under the lotus-trees, In the covert of the reed, and the marsh.
\41:2\Canst thou put a hook into his nose? or bore his jaw through with a thorn?

22 \41:3\Will he make prayers to you, or say soft words to you?
The lotuses cover him with their shade. The willows of the brook surround him.
\41:3\Will he make many supplications to thee? will he speak soft words to thee?

23 \41:4\Will he make an agreement with you, so that you may take him as a servant for ever?
Behold, if a river overflows, he doesn't tremble. He is confident, though the Jordan swells even to his mouth.
\41:4\Will he make a covenant with thee? wilt thou take him for a servant for ever?

24 \41:5\Will you make sport with him, as with a bird? or put him in chains for your young women?
Shall any take him when he is on the watch, Or pierce through his nose with a snare?
\41:5\Wilt thou play with him as with a bird? or wilt thou bind him for thy maidens?

1 \41:10\He is so cruel that no one is ready to go against him. Who then is able to keep his place before me?
"Can you draw out Leviathan with a fishhook? Or press down his tongue with a cord?
\41:10\None is so fierce that he dare rouse him: who then is able to stand before me?

2 \41:11\Who ever went against me, and got the better of me? There is no one under heaven!
Can you put a rope into his nose? Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
\41:11\Who hath first benefited me, that I should repay him? whatever is under the whole heaven is mine.

3 \41:12\I will not keep quiet about the parts of his body, or about his power, and the strength of his frame.
Will he make many petitions to you? Or will he speak soft words to you?
\41:12\I will not conceal his parts, nor his power, nor his comely proportion.

4 \41:13\Who has ever taken off his outer skin? who may come inside his inner coat of iron?
Will he make a covenant with you, That you should take him for a servant forever?
\41:13\Who can discover the face of his garment? or who can come to him with his double bridle?

5 \41:14\Who has made open the doors of his face? Fear is round about his teeth.
Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your girls?
\41:14\Who can open the doors of his face? his teeth are terrible around.

6 \41:15\His back is made of lines of plates, joined tight together, one against the other, like a stamp.
Will traders barter for him? Will they part him among the merchants?
\41:15\His scales are his pride, shut together as with a close seal.

7 \41:16\One is so near to the other that no air may come between them.
Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, Or his head with fish-spears?
\41:16\One is so near to another, that no air can come between them.

- 8 \41:17\They take a grip of one another; they are joined together, so that they may not be parted.
Lay your hand on him. Remember the battle, and do so no more.
\41:17\They are joined one to another, they stick together, that they cannot be sundered.
- 9 \41:18\His sneezings give out flames, and his eyes are like the eyes of the dawn.
Behold, the hope of him is in vain. Will not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
\41:18\His sneezings flash light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
- 10 \41:19\Out of his mouth go burning lights, and flames of fire are jumping up.
None is so fierce that he dare stir him up. Who then is he who can stand before me?
\41:19\Out of his mouth go burning lamps, and sparks of fire dart forth.
- 11 \41:20\Smoke comes out of his nose, like a pot boiling on the fire.
Who has first given to me, that I should repay him? Everything under the heavens is mine.
\41:20\Out of his nostrils issueth smoke, as out of a seething pot or caldron.
- 12 \41:21\His breath puts fire to coals, and a flame goes out of his mouth.
"I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, Nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
\41:21\His breath kindleth coals, and a flame issueth from his mouth.
- 13 \41:22\Strength is in his neck, and fear goes dancing before him.
Who can strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws?
\41:22\In his neck remaineth strength, and sorrow is turned into joy before him.
- 14 \41:23\The plates of his flesh are joined together, fixed, and not to be moved.
Who can open the doors of his face? Around his teeth is terror.
\41:23\The flakes of his flesh are joined together: they are firm in themselves; they cannot be moved.

- 15 \41:24\His heart is as strong as a stone, hard as the lower crushing-stone.
Strong scales are his pride, Shut up together with a close seal.
\41:24\His heart is as firm as a stone; yes, as hard as a piece of the nether millstone.
- 16 \41:25\When he gets ready for the fight, the strong are overcome with fear.
One is so near to another, That no air can come between them.
\41:25\When he raiseth himself, the mighty are afraid: by reason of breakings they purify themselves.
- 17 \41:26\The sword may come near him but is not able to go through him; the spear, or the arrow, or the sharp-pointed iron.
They are joined one to another; They stick together, so that they can't be pulled apart.
\41:26\The sword of him that attacketh him cannot hold: the spear, the dart, nor the habergeon.
- 18 \41:27\Iron is to him as dry grass, and brass as soft wood.
His sneezing flashes forth light, His eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
\41:27\He esteemeth iron as straw, and brass as rotten wood.
- 19 \41:28\The arrow is not able to put him to flight: stones are no more to him than dry stems.
Out of his mouth go burning torches, Sparks of fire leap forth.
\41:28\The arrow cannot make him flee: sling-stones are turned with him into stubble.
- 20 \41:29\A thick stick is no better than a leaf of grass, and he makes sport of the onrush of the spear.
Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, As of a boiling pot over a fire of reeds.
\41:29\Darts are counted as stubble: he laugheth at the shaking of a spear.
- 21 \41:30\Under him are sharp edges of broken pots: as if he was pulling a grain-crushing instrument over the wet earth.
His breath kindles coals. A flame goes forth from his mouth.
\41:30\Sharp stones are under him: he spreadeth sharp pointed things upon the mire.

22 \41:31\The deep is boiling like a pot of spices, and the sea like a perfume-vessel.
In his neck there is strength. Terror dances before him.
\41:31\He maketh the deep to boil like a pot: he maketh the sea like a pot of ointment.

23 \41:32\After him his way is shining, so that the deep seems white.
The flakes of his flesh are joined together. They are firm on him. They can't be moved.
\41:32\He maketh a path to shine after him; one would think the deep to be hoary.

24 \41:33\On earth there is not another like him, who is made without fear.
His heart is as firm as a stone, Yes, firm as the lower millstone.
\41:33\Upon earth there is not his like, who is made without fear.

25 \41:34\Everything which is high goes in fear of him; he is king over all the sons of pride.
When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid. They retreat before his thrashing.
\41:34\He beholdeth all high things: he is a king over all the children of pride.

1 And Job said in answer to the Lord,
Then Job answered Yahweh,
Then Job answered the LORD, and said,

2 I see that you are able to do every thing, and to give effect to all your designs.
"I know that you can do all things, And that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
I know that thou canst do every thing, and that no thought can be withheld from thee.

3 Who is this who makes dark the purpose of God by words without knowledge? For I have been talking without knowledge about wonders not to be searched out.
You asked, 'Who is this who hides counsel without knowledge?' Therefore I have uttered that which I did not understand, Things too wonderful for me, which I didn't know.
Who is he that hideth counsel without knowledge? therefore have I uttered that which I understood not; things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.

4 Give ear to me, and I will say what is in my mind; I will put questions to you, and you will give me the answers.

You said, `Listen, now, and I will speak; I will question you, and you will answer me.`

Hear, I beseech thee, and I will speak: I will ask of thee, and declare thou to me.

5 Word of you had come to my ears, but now my eye has seen you.

I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear, But now my eye sees you.

I have heard of thee by the hearing of the ear: but now my eye seeth thee.

6 For this cause I give witness that what I said is false, and in sorrow I take my seat in the dust.

Therefore I abhor myself, And repent in dust and ashes."

Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.

7 And it came about, after he had said these words to Job, that the Lord said to Eliphaz the Temanite, I am very angry with you and your two friends, because you have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has.

It was so, that after Yahweh had spoken these words to Job, Yahweh said to Eliphaz the Temanite, "My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has.

And it was so, that after the LORD had spoken these words to Job, the LORD said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against thee, and against thy two friends: for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job hath.

8 And now, take seven oxen and seven sheep, and go to my servant Job, and give a burned offering for yourselves, and my servant Job will make prayer for you, that I may not send punishment on you; because you have not said what is right about me, as my servant Job has.

Now therefore, take to yourselves seven bulls and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you, for I will accept him, that I not deal with you according to your folly. For you have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has."

Therefore take to you now seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer for yourselves a burnt-offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you: for him will I accept: lest I deal with you after your folly, in that ye have not spoken of me the thing which is right, like my servant Job.

9 And Eliphaz the Temanite, and Bildad the Shuhite, and Zophar the Naamathite, went and did as the Lord had said. And the Lord gave ear to Job.
So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did what Yahweh commanded them, and Yahweh accepted Job.

So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as the LORD commanded them: the LORD also accepted Job.

10 And the Lord made up to Job for all his losses, after he had made prayer for his friends: and all Job had before was increased by the Lord twice as much.
Yahweh turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends. Yahweh gave Job twice as much as he had before.

And the LORD turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: also the LORD gave Job twice as much as he had before.

11 And all his brothers and sisters, and his friends of earlier days, came and took food with him in his house; and made clear their grief for him, and gave him comfort for all the evil which the Lord had sent on him; and they all gave him a bit of money and a gold ring.

Then came there to him all his brothers, and all his sisters, and all those who had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house. They comforted him, and consoled him concerning all the evil that Yahweh had brought on him. Everyone also gave him a piece of money, and everyone a ring of gold.

Then came there to him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and ate bread with him in his house: and they condoled with him, and comforted him over all the evil that the LORD had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one an ear-ring of gold.

12 And the Lord's blessing was greater on the end of Job's life than on its start: and so he came to have fourteen thousand sheep and goats, and six thousand camels, and two thousand oxen, and a thousand she-asses.

So Yahweh blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning. He had fourteen thousand sheep, six thousand camels, one thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand female donkeys.

So the LORD blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: for he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she asses.

13 And he had seven sons and three daughters.

He had also seven sons and three daughters.

He had also seven sons, and three daughters.

14 And he gave the first the name of Jemimah, the second Keziah, and the third Keren-happuch;
He called the name of the first, Jemimah; and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.
And he called the name of the first, Jemima; and the name of the second, Kezia; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.

15 And there were no women so beautiful as the daughters of Job in all the earth: and their father gave them a heritage among their brothers.
In all the land were no women found so beautiful as the daughters of Job. Their father gave them an inheritance among their brothers.
And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

16 And after this Job had a hundred and forty years of life, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.
After this Job lived one hundred forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, to four generations.
After this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.

17 And Job came to his end, old and full of days.
So Job died, being old and full of days. BOOK I Psalm 1
So Job died, being old and full of days.

1 Happy is the man who does not go in the company of sinners, or take his place in the way of evil-doers, or in the seat of those who do not give honour to the Lord.
Blessed is the man who doesn't walk in the counsel of the wicked, Nor stand in the way of sinners, Nor sit in the seat of scoffers;
Blessed is the man that walketh not in the counsel of the ungodly, nor standeth in the way of sinners, nor sitteth in the seat of scoffers.

2 But whose delight is in the law of the Lord, and whose mind is on his law day and night.
But his delight is in the law of Yahweh; On his law he meditates day and night.
But his delight is in the law of the LORD; and in his law doth he meditate day and night.

3 He will be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, which gives its fruit at the right time, whose leaves will ever be green; and he will do well in all his undertakings.
He shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, That brings forth its fruit in its season, Whose leaf also does not wither. Whatever he does shall prosper.
And he shall be like a tree planted by the rivers of water, that bringeth forth its fruit in season; its leaf also shall not wither; and whatever he doeth shall prosper.

4 The evil-doers are not so; but are like the dust from the grain, which the wind takes away.
The wicked are not so, But are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
The ungodly are not so: but are like the chaff which the wind driveth away.

5 For this cause there will be no mercy for sinners when they are judged, and the evil-doers will have no place among the upright,
Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, Nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
Therefore the ungodly shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.

6 Because the Lord sees the way of the upright, but the end of the sinner is destruction.
For Yahweh knows the way of the righteous, But the way of the wicked shall perish. Psalm 2
For the LORD knoweth the way of the righteous: but the way of the ungodly shall perish.

1 Why are the nations so violently moved, and why are the thoughts of the people so foolish?
Why do the nations rage, And the peoples plot a vain thing?
Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing?

2 The kings of the earth have taken their place, and the rulers are fixed in their purpose, against the Lord, and against the king of his selection, saying,
The kings of the earth take a stand, And the rulers take counsel together, Against Yahweh, and against his anointed, saying,
The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying,

3 Let their chains be broken, and their cords taken from off us.
"Let us break their bonds apart, And cast away their cords from us."
Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.

- 4 Then he whose seat is in the heavens will be laughing: the Lord will make sport of them.
He who sits in the heavens will laugh. The Lord will have them in derision.
He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.
- 5 Then will his angry words come to their ears, and by his wrath they will be troubled:
Then he will speak to them in his anger, And terrify them in his wrath:
Then shall he speak to them in his wrath, and trouble them in his sore displeasure.
-
- 6 But I have put my king on my holy hill of Zion.
"Yet I have set my king on my holy hill of Zion."
Yet have I set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.
- 7 I will make clear the Lord's decision: he has said to me, You are my son, this day have I given you being.
I will tell of the decree. Yahweh said to me, "You are my son. Today I have become your father.
I will declare the decree: the LORD hath said to me, Thou art my Son; this day have I begotten thee.
- 8 Make your request to me, and I will give you the nations for your heritage, and the farthest limits of the earth will be under your hand.
Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, The uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.
Ask of me, and I will give thee the heathen for thy inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for thy possession.
- 9 They will be ruled by you with a rod of iron; they will be broken like a potter's vessel.
You shall break them with a rod of iron. You shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel."
Thou shalt break them with a rod of iron; thou shalt dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
- 10 So now be wise, you kings: take his teaching, you judges of the earth.
Now therefore be wise, you kings. Be instructed, you judges of the earth.
Be wise now therefore, O ye kings: be instructed, ye judges of the earth.

- 11 Give worship to the Lord with fear, kissing his feet and giving him honour,
Serve Yahweh with fear, And rejoice with trembling.
Serve the LORD with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
- 12 For fear that he may be angry, causing destruction to come on you, because he is quickly moved to wrath. Happy are all those who put their faith in him.
Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and you perish in the way, For his wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all those who take refuge in him. Psalm 3 A Psalm by David, when he fled from Absalom, his son.

Listen to the voice of my cry, my King, and my God; For to you do I pray.

\5:1\To the chief Musician upon Nehiloth, A Psalm of David. Give ear to my words, O LORD, consider my meditation.

3 \5:2\Let the voice of my cry come to you, my King and my God; for to you will I make my prayer.

Yahweh, in the morning shall you hear my voice. In the morning I will lay my requests before you, and will watch expectantly.

\5:2\Hearken to the voice of my cry, my King, and my God: for to thee will I pray.

- 4 \5:3\My voice will come to you in the morning, O Lord; in the morning will I send my prayer to you, and keep watch.
For you are not a God who has pleasure in wickedness. Evil can't live with you.
\5:3\My voice shalt thou hear in the morning, O LORD; in the morning will I direct my prayer to thee, and will look up.
- 5 \5:4\For you are not a God who takes pleasure in wrongdoing; there is no evil with you.
The arrogant shall not stand in your sight. You hate all workers of iniquity.
\5:4\For thou art not a God that hath pleasure in wickedness: neither shall evil dwell with thee.
- 6 \5:5\The sons of pride have no place before you; you are a hater of all workers of evil.
You will destroy those who speak lies. Yahweh abhors the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.
\5:5\The foolish shall not stand in thy sight: thou hatest all workers of iniquity.
- 7 \5:6\You will send destruction on those whose words are false; the cruel man and the man of deceit are hated by the Lord.

\5:6\Thou shalt destroy them that speak falsehood: the LORD will abhor the bloody and deceitful man.
- 8 \5:7\But as for me, I will come into your house, in the full measure of your mercy; and in your fear I will give worship, turning my eyes to your holy Temple.
Lead me, Yahweh, in your righteousness because of my enemies. Make your way straight before my face.

- 9 \5:8\Be my guide, O Lord, in the ways of your righteousness, because of those who are against me; make your way straight before my face.
For there is no faithfulness in their mouth. Their inward part is destruction. Their throat is an open tomb. They flatter with their tongue.
\5:8\Lead me, O LORD, in thy righteousness, because of my enemies; make thy way straight before my face.

10 \5:9\For no faith may be put in their words; their inner part is nothing but evil; their throat is like an open place for the dead; smooth are the words of their tongues.
Hold them guilty, God. Let them fall by their own counsels; Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions, For they have rebelled against you.

\5:9\For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; their inward part is very wickedness; their throat is an open sepulcher; they flatter with their tongue.

11 \5:10\Send them to destruction, O Lord; let their evil designs be the cause of their fall; let them be forced out by all their sins; because they have gone against your authority.
But let all those who take refuge in you rejoice, Let them always shout for joy, because you defend them. Let them also who love your name be joyful in you.

\5:10\Destroy thou them, O God; let them fall by their own counsels; cast them out in the multitude of their transgressions; for they have rebelled against thee.

Yahweh, don't rebuke me in your anger, Neither discipline me in your wrath.

- 5 \6:4\Come back, O Lord, make my soul free; O give me salvation because of your mercy.
For in death there is no memory of you. In Sheol, who shall give you thanks?
\6:4\Return, O LORD, deliver my soul: Oh save me for thy mercies sake.
- 6 \6:5\For in death there is no memory of you; in the underworld who will give you praise?
I am weary with my groaning; Every night I flood my bed; I drench my couch with my tears.
\6:5\For in death there is no remembrance of thee: in the grave who will give thee thanks?
- 7 \6:6\The voice of my sorrow is a weariness to me; all the night I make my bed wet with weeping; it is watered by the drops flowing from my eyes.
My eye wastes away because of grief; It grows old because of all my adversaries.
\6:6\I am weary with my groaning; all the night I make my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.
- 8 \6:7\My eyes are wasting away with trouble; they are becoming old because of all those who are against me.
Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity, For Yahweh has heard the voice of my weeping.
\6:7\My eye is consumed because of grief; it groweth old because of all my enemies.
- 9 \6:8\Go from me, all you workers of evil; for the Lord has given ear to the voice of my weeping.
Yahweh has heard my supplication. Yahweh will receive my prayer.
\6:8\Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; for the LORD hath heard the voice of my weeping.

\6:9\The LORD hath heard my supplication; the LORD will receive my prayer.

- 1 <Shiggaion of David; a song which he made to the Lord, about the words of Cush the Benjamite.>
Yahweh, my God, I take refuge in you. Save me from all those who pursue me, and deliver me,
- 2 \7:1\O Lord my God, I put my faith in you; take me out of the hands of him who is cruel to me, and make me free;
Lest they tear apart my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
\7:1\Shiggaion of David, which he sang to the LORD, concerning the words of Cush the Benjaminite. O LORD my God, in thee do I put my trust: save me from all them that persecute me, and deliver me:
- 3 \7:2\So that he may not come rushing on my soul like a lion, wounding it, while there is no one to be my saviour.
Yahweh, my God, if I have done this, If there is iniquity in my hands, \7:2\Lest he tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is none to deliver.
- 4 \7:3\O Lord my God, if I have done this; if my hands have done any wrong;
If I have rewarded evil to him who was at peace with me (Yes, I have delivered him who without cause was my adversary),
\7:3\O LORD my God, if I have done this; if there is iniquity in my hands;
- 5 \7:4\If I have given back evil to him who did evil to me, or have taken anything from him who was against me without cause;

- 8 \7:7\The meeting of the nations will be round you; take your seat, then, over them, on high.
Yahweh administers judgment to the peoples. Judge me, Yahweh, according to my righteousness, And to my integrity that is in me.
\7:7\So shall the congregation of the people encompass thee: for their sakes therefore return thou on high.
- 9 \7:8\The Lord will be judge of the peoples; give a decision for me, O Lord, because of my righteousness, and let my virtue have its reward.
Oh let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, But establish the righteous; Their minds and hearts are searched by the righteous God.

\7:12\If he turn not, he will whet his sword; he hath bent his bow, and made it ready.

- 14 \7:13\He has made ready for him the instruments of death; he makes his arrows flames of fire.
Behold, he travails with iniquity; Yes, he has conceived mischief and brought forth falsehood.
\7:13\He hath also prepared for him the instruments of death; he ordaineth his arrows against the persecutors.

- 2 \8:1\O Lord, our Lord, whose glory is higher than the heavens, how noble is your name in all the earth!
From the lips of babes and infants you have established strength, Because of your adversaries, that you might silence the enemy and the avenger.
\8:1\To the chief Musician upon Gittith, A Psalm of David. O LORD our Lord, how excellent is thy name in all the earth! who hast set thy glory above the heavens.
- 3 \8:2\You have made clear your strength even out of the mouths of babies at the breast, because of those who are against you; so that you may put to shame the cruel and violent man.
When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, The moon and the stars, which you have ordained;
\8:2\Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings hast thou ordained strength because of thy enemies, that thou mightest still the enemy and the avenger.

What is man, that you think of him? The son of man, that you care for him?
\8:3\When I consider thy heavens, the work of thy fingers; the moon and the stars, which thou hast ordained;

5 \8:4\What is man, that you keep him in mind? the son of man, that you take him into account?
For you have made him a little lower than the angels, And crowned him with glory and honor.
\8:4\What is man, that thou art mindful of him? and the son of man, that thou visitest him?

6 \8:5\For you have made him only a little lower than the gods, crowning him with glory and honour.

\19:3\When my enemies are turned back, they shall fall and perish at thy presence.
- 5 \19:4\For you gave approval to my right and my cause; you were seated in your high place judging in righteousness.
You have rebuked the nations. You have destroyed the wicked. You have blotted out their name forever and ever.
\19:4\For thou hast maintained my right and my cause; thou sittest on the throne judging right.
- 6 \19:5\You have said sharp words to the nations, you have sent destruction on the sinners, you have put an end to their name for ever and ever.
The enemy is overtaken by endless ruin. The very memory of the cities which you have overthrown has perished.
\19:5\Thou hast rebuked the heathen, thou hast destroyed the wicked, thou hast put out their name for ever and ever.
- 7 \19:6\You have given their towns to destruction; the memory of them has gone; they have become waste for ever.

For he who avenges blood remembers them. He doesn't forget the cry of the afflicted.
\9:11\Sing praises to the LORD, who dwelleth in Zion: declare among the people his doings.
- 13 \9:12\When he makes search for blood, he has them in his memory: he is not without thought for the cry of the poor.

- 1 Why do you keep far away, O Lord? why are you not to be seen in times of trouble?
Why do you stand far off, Yahweh? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
Why standest thou afar off, O LORD? why hidest thou thyself in times of trouble?
- 2 The evil-doer in his pride is cruel to the poor; let him be taken by the tricks of his invention.
In arrogance, the wicked hunt down the weak; They are caught in the schemes that they devise.
The wicked in his pride doth persecute the poor: let them be taken in the devices that they have imagined.

- 3 For the evil-doer is lifted up because of the purpose of his heart, and he whose mind is fixed on wealth is turned away from the Lord, saying evil against him.
For the wicked boasts of his heart's cravings, He blesses the greedy, and condemns Yahweh.
For the wicked boasteth of his heart's desire, and blesseth the covetous, whom the LORD abhorreth.

The wicked, in the pride of his face, Has no room in his thoughts for God.
The wicked, through the pride of his countenance, will not seek after God: God is not in all his thoughts.
- 5 His ways are ever fixed; your decisions are higher than he may see: as for his haters, they are as nothing to him.
His ways are prosperous at all times; He is haughty, and your laws are far from his sight: As for all his adversaries, he sneers at them.
His ways are always grievous; thy judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his enemies, he puffeth at them.
- 6 He has said in his heart, I will not be moved: through all generations I will never be in trouble.
He says in his heart, "I shall not be shaken; For generations I shall have no trouble."
He hath said in his heart, I shall not be moved: for I shall never be in adversity.
-
- 7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and false words: under his tongue are evil purposes and dark thoughts.
His mouth is full of cursing, deceit, and oppression. Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and fraud: under his tongue is mischief and vanity.
- 8 He is waiting in the dark places of the towns: in the secret places he puts to death those who have done no wrong: his eyes are secretly turned against the poor.
He lies in wait near the villages. From ambushes, he murders the innocent. His eyes are secretly set against the helpless.
He sitteth in the lurking places of the villages: in the secret places doth he murder the innocent: his eyes are privily set against the poor.

- 9 He keeps himself in a secret place like a lion in his hole, waiting to put his hands on the poor man, and pulling him into his net.
He lurks in secret as a lion in his ambush. He lies in wait to catch the helpless. He catches the helpless, when he draws him in his net.
He lieth in wait secretly as a lion in his den: he lieth in wait to catch the poor: he doth catch the poor, when he draweth him into his net.
- 10 The upright are crushed and made low, and the feeble are overcome by his strong ones.
The helpless are crushed, they collapse, They fall under his strength.
He croucheth, and humbleth himself, that the poor may fall by his strong ones.
- 11 He says in his heart, God has no memory of me: his face is turned away; he will never see it.
He says in his heart, "God has forgotten. He hides his face. He will never see it."
He hath said in his heart, God hath forgotten: he hideth his face; he will never see it.
- 12 Up! O Lord; let your hand be lifted: give thought to the poor.
Arise, Yahweh! God, lift up your hand! Don't forget the helpless.
Arise, O LORD; O God, lift up thy hand: forget not the humble.
- 13 Why has the evil-doer a low opinion of God, saying in his heart, You will not make search for it?
Why does the wicked condemn God, And say in his heart, "God won't call me into account?"
Why doth the wicked contemn God? he hath said in his heart, Thou wilt not require it.
- 14 You have seen it; for your eyes are on sorrow and grief, to take it into your hand: the poor man puts his faith in you; you have been the helper of the child who has no father.
But you do see trouble and grief; You consider it to take it into your hand. You help the victim and the fatherless.
Thou hast seen it; for thou beholdest mischief and spite, to requite it with thy hand: the poor committeth himself to thee; thou art the helper of the fatherless.
- 15 Let the arm of the sinner and the evil-doer be broken; go on searching for his sin till there is no more.
Break the arm of the wicked. As for the evil man, seek out his wickedness until you find none.
Break thou the arm of the wicked and the evil man: seek out his wickedness till thou shalt find none.

- 16 The Lord is King for ever and ever; the nations are gone from his land.
Yahweh is King forever and ever! The nations will perish out of his land.
The LORD is King for ever and ever: the heathen have perished out of his land.
- 17 Lord, you have given ear to the prayer of the poor: you will make strong their hearts, you will give them a hearing:
Yahweh, you have heard the desire of the humble. You will prepare their heart. You will cause your ear to hear,
LORD, thou hast heard the desire of the humble: thou wilt prepare their heart, thou wilt cause thy ear to hear:
- 18 To give decision for the child without a father and for the broken-hearted, so that the man of the earth may no longer be feared.
To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, That man who is of the earth may terrify no more. Psalm 11 For the Chief Musician. By David.
To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, that the man of the earth may no more oppress.
- 1 <For the chief music-maker. Of David.> In the Lord put I my faith; how will you say to my soul, Go in flight like a bird to the mountain?
In Yahweh do I take refuge. How can you say to my soul, "Flee as a bird to your mountain!"
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. In the LORD I put my trust: how say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain?
- 2 See, the bows of the evil-doers are bent, they make ready their arrows on the cord, so that they may send them secretly against the upright in heart.
For, behold, the wicked bend their bows. They set their arrows on the strings, That they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart.
For lo, the wicked bend their bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may privily shoot at the upright in heart.
- 3 If the bases are broken down, what is the upright man to do?
If the foundations are destroyed, What can the righteous do?
If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?
- 4 The Lord is in his holy Temple, the Lord's seat is in heaven; his eyes are watching and testing the children of men.
Yahweh is in his holy temple. Yahweh is on his throne in heaven. His eyes observe. His eyes examine the children of men.
The LORD is in his holy temple, the LORD'S throne is in heaven: his eyes behold, his eyelids try the children of men.

- 5 The Lord puts the upright and the sinner to the test, but he has hate in his soul for the lover of violent acts.
Yahweh examines the righteous, But the wicked and him who loves violence his soul hates.
The LORD trieth the righteous: but the wicked and him that loveth violence his soul hateth.
- 6 On the evil-doer he will send down fire and flames, and a burning wind; with these will their cup be full.
On the wicked he will rain blazing coals; Fire, sulfur, and scorching wind shall be the portion of their cup.
Upon the wicked he shall rain snares, fire and brimstone, and a horrible tempest: this shall be the portion of their cup.
- 7 For the Lord is upright; he is a lover of righteousness: the upright will see his face.
For Yahweh is righteous. He loves righteousness. The upright shall see his face. Psalm 12 For the Chief Musician; upon an eight-stringed lyre. A Psalm of David.
For the righteous LORD loveth righteousness; his countenance beholdeth the upright.
- 1 <For the chief music-maker on the Sheminith. A Psalm. Of David.>
Help, Yahweh; for the godly man ceases. For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
- 2 \12:1\Send help, Lord, for mercy has come to an end; there is no more faith among the children of men.
Everyone lies to his neighbor. With flattering lips, and with a double heart, do they speak.
\12:1\To the chief Musician upon Sheminith. A Psalm of David. Help, LORD; for the godly man ceaseth; for the faithful fail from among the children of men.
- 3 \12:2\Everyone says false words to his neighbour: their tongues are smooth in their talk, and their hearts are full of deceit.
May Yahweh cut off all flattering lips, And the tongue that boasts, \12:2\They speak vanity every one with his neighbor: with flattering lips and with a double heart do they speak.
- 4 \12:3\The smooth lips and the tongue of pride will be cut off by the Lord.
Who have said, "With our tongue will we prevail. Our lips are our own. Who is lord over us?"
\12:3\The LORD shall cut off all flattering lips, and the tongue that speaketh proud things:

- 5 \12:4\They have said, With our tongues will we overcome; our lips are ours: who is lord over us?
"Because of the oppression of the weak and because of the groaning of the needy, I will now arise," says Yahweh; "I will set him in safety from those who malign him."
\12:4\Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; our lips are our own: who is lord over us?
- 6 \12:5\Because of the crushing of the poor and the weeping of those in need, now will I come to his help, says the Lord; I will give him the salvation which he is desiring.
The words of Yahweh are flawless words, As silver refined in a clay furnace, purified seven times.
\12:5\For the oppression of the poor, for the sighing of the needy, now will I arise, saith the LORD; I will set him in safety from him that puffeth at him.
- 7 \12:6\The words of the Lord are true words: like silver tested by fire and burned clean seven times.
You will keep them, Yahweh, You will preserve them from this generation forever.
\12:6\The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times.
- 8 \12:7\You will keep them, O Lord, you will keep them safe from this generation for ever.
The wicked walk on every side, When what is vile is exalted among the sons of men. Psalm 13 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.
\12:7\Thou shalt keep them, O LORD, thou shalt preserve them from this generation for ever.
- 1 <To the chief music-maker. A Psalm. Of David.> Will you for ever put me out of your memory, O Lord? will your face for ever be turned away from me?
How long, Yahweh? Will you forget me forever? How long will you hide your face from me?
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. How long wilt thou forget me, O LORD? for ever? how long wilt thou hide thy face from me?
- 2 How long is my soul to be in doubt, with sorrow in my heart all the day? how long will he who is against me be given power over me?
How long shall I take counsel in my soul, Having sorrow in my heart every day? How long shall my enemy triumph over me?
How long shall I take counsel in my soul, having sorrow in my heart daily? how long shall my enemy be exalted over me?
- 3 Let my voice come before you, and give me an answer, O Lord my God; let your light be shining on me, so that the sleep of death may not overtake me;
Behold, and answer me, Yahweh, my God. Give light to my eyes, lest I sleep in death;
Consider and hear me, O LORD my God: lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;

4 And he who is against me may not say, I have overcome him; and those who are troubling me may not be glad when I am moved.
Lest my enemy say, "I have prevailed against him;" Lest my adversaries rejoice when I fall.
Lest my enemy say, I have prevailed against him; and those that trouble me rejoice when I am moved.

5 But I have had faith in your mercy; my heart will be glad in your salvation.
But I trust in your lovingkindness. My heart rejoices in your salvation.
But I have trusted in thy mercy; my heart shall rejoice in thy salvation.

6 I will make a song to the Lord, because he has given me my reward.
I will sing to Yahweh, Because he has been good to me. Psalm 14 For the Chief Musician. By David.
I will sing to the LORD, because he hath dealt bountifully with me.

1 <To the chief music-maker. Of David.> The foolish man has said in his heart, God will not do anything. They are unclean, they have done evil works; there is not one who does good.
The fool has said in his heart, "There is no God." They are corrupt, they have done abominable works. There is none who does good.
To the chief Musician, A Psalm of David. The fool hath said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works, there is none that doeth good.

2 The Lord was looking down from heaven on the children of men, to see if there were any who had wisdom, searching after God.
Yahweh looked down from heaven on the children of men, To see if there were any who did understand, Who did seek after God.
The LORD looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God.

3 They have all gone out of the way together; they are unclean, there is not one who does good, no, not one.
They have all gone aside; they have together become corrupt. There is none who does good, no, not one.
They are all gone aside, they are all together become filthy: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

4 Have all the workers of evil no knowledge? they take my people for food as they would take bread; they make no prayer to the Lord.
Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, Who eat up my people as they eat bread, And don't call on Yahweh?
Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge? who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon the LORD.

5 Then were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the upright.
There were they in great fear, For God is in the generation of the righteous.
There were they in great fear: for God is in the generation of the righteous.

6 You have put to shame the thoughts of the poor, but the Lord is his support.
You put to shame the counsel of the poor, Because Yahweh is his refuge.
Ye have shamed the counsel of the poor, because the LORD is his refuge.

7 May the salvation of Israel come out of Zion! when the fate of his people is changed by the Lord, Jacob will have joy and Israel will be glad.
Oh that the salvation of Israel would come out of Zion! When Yahweh restores the fortunes of his people, Then Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad. Psalm 15 A Psalm by David.
Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! when the LORD bringeth back the captivity of his people, Jacob shall rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

1 <A Psalm. Of David.> Lord, who may have a resting-place in your tent, a living-place on your holy hill?
Yahweh, who shall dwell in your sanctuary? Who shall live on your holy hill?
A Psalm of David. LORD, who shall abide in thy tabernacle? who shall dwell in thy holy hill?

2 He who goes on his way uprightly, doing righteousness, and saying what is true in his heart;
He who walks blamelessly, does what is right, And speaks truth in his heart;
He that walketh uprightly, and worketh righteousness, and speaketh the truth in his heart.

3 Whose tongue is not false, who does no evil to his friend, and does not take away the good name of his neighbour;
He who doesn't slander with his tongue, Nor does evil to his friend, Nor casts slurs against his fellow man;
He that backbiteth not with his tongue, nor doeth evil to his neighbor, nor taketh up a reproach against his neighbor.

4 Who gives honour to those who have the fear of the Lord, turning away from him who has not the Lord's approval. He who takes an oath against himself, and makes no change.
In whose eyes a vile man is despised, But who honors those who fear Yahweh; He who keeps an oath even when it hurts, and doesn't change;

In whose eyes a vile person is contemned; but he honoreth them that fear the LORD. He that sweareth to his own hurt, and changeth not.

5 He who does not put out his money at interest, or for payment give false decisions against men who have done no wrong. He who does these things will never be moved.
He who doesn't lend out his money for usury, Nor take a bribe against the innocent. He who does these things shall never be shaken. Psalm 16 A Poem by David.

He that putteth not out his money to usury, nor taketh reward against the innocent. He that doeth these things shall never be moved.

1 <Michtam. Of David.> Keep me safe, O God: for in you I have put my faith.

Preserve me, God, for in you do I take refuge.

Michtam of David. Preserve me, O God: for in thee do I put my trust.

2 O my soul, you have said to the Lord, You are my Lord: I have no good but you.

My soul, you have said to Yahweh, "You are my Lord. Apart from you I have no good thing."

O my soul, thou hast said to the LORD, Thou art my Lord: my goodness extendeth not to thee;

3 As for the saints who are in the earth, they are the noble in whom is all my delight.

As for the saints who are in the earth, They are the excellent ones in whom is all my delight.

But to the saints that are in the earth, and to the excellent, in whom is all my delight.

4 Their sorrows will be increased who go after another god: I will not take drink offerings from their hands, or take their names on my lips.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied who give gifts to another god. Their drink-offerings of blood I will not offer, Nor take their names on my lips.

Their sorrows shall be multiplied that hasten after another god: their drink-offerings of blood will I not offer, nor take their names into my lips.

- 5 The Lord is my heritage and the wine of my cup; you are the supporter of my right.
Yahweh assigned my portion and my cup. You made my lot secure.
The LORD is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: thou maintainest my lot.
- 6 Fair are the places marked out for me; I have a noble heritage.
The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places. Yes, I have a good inheritance.
The lines have fallen to me in pleasant places; yes, I have a goodly heritage.
- 7 I will give praise to the Lord who has been my guide; knowledge comes to me from my thoughts in the night.
I will bless Yahweh, who has given me counsel. Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
I will bless the LORD, who hath given me counsel: my reins also instruct me in the night season.
- 8 I have put the Lord before me at all times; because he is at my right hand, I will not be moved.
I have set Yahweh always before me. Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
I have set the LORD always before me: because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
- 9 Because of this my heart is glad, and my glory is full of joy: while my flesh takes its rest in hope.
Therefore my heart is glad, and my tongue rejoices. My body shall also dwell in safety.
Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoiceth: my flesh also shall rest in hope.
- 10 For you will not let my soul be prisoned in the underworld; you will not let your loved one see the place of death.
For you will not leave my soul in Sheol, Neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
For thou wilt not leave my soul in hell; neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.
- 11 You will make clear to me the way of life; where you are joy is complete; in your right hand there are pleasures for ever and ever.
You will show me the path of life. In your presence is fullness of joy. In your right hand there are pleasures forevermore.
Psalm 17 A Prayer by David.
Thou wilt show me the path of life: in thy presence is fullness of joy; at thy right hand are pleasures for evermore.

- 1 <A Prayer. Of David.> Let my cause come to your ears, O Lord, give attention to my cry; give ear to my prayer which goes not out from false lips.
Hear, Yahweh, my righteous plea; Give ear to my prayer, that doesn` t go out of deceitful lips.
A Prayer of David. Hear the right, O LORD, attend to my cry, give ear to my prayer, that goeth not out of feigned lips.
- 2 Be my judge; for your eyes see what is right.
Let my sentence come forth from your presence; Let your eyes look on equity.
Let my sentence come forth from thy presence; let thy eyes behold the things that are equal.
- 3 You have put my heart to the test, searching me in the night; you have put me to the test and seen no evil purpose in me; I will keep my mouth from sin.
You have proved my heart; you have visited me in the night; You have tried me, and found nothing; I have resolved that my mouth shall not disobey.
Thou hast proved my heart; thou hast visited me in the night; thou hast tried me, and shalt find nothing; I have purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
- 4 As for the works of men, by the word of your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
As for the works of men, by the word of your lips I have kept myself from the ways of the violent.
Concerning the works of men, by the word of thy lips I have kept me from the paths of the destroyer.
- 5 I have kept my feet in your ways, my steps have not been turned away.
My steps have held fast to your paths, My feet have not slipped.
Uphold my goings in thy paths, that my footsteps slip not.
- 6 My cry has gone up to you, for you will give me an answer, O God: let your ear be turned to me, and give attention to my words.
I have called on you, for you will answer me, God: Turn your ear to me. Hear my speech.
I have called upon thee, for thou wilt hear me, O God: incline thy ear to me, and hear my speech.
- 7 Make clear the wonder of your mercy, O saviour of those who put their faith in your right hand, from those who come out against them.
Show your marvelous lovingkindness, You who save those who take refuge by your right hand from their enemies.
Show thy wonderful loving-kindness, O thou that savest by thy right hand them who put their trust in thee from those that rise up against them.

- 8 Keep me as the light of your eyes, covering me with the shade of your wings,
Keep me as the apple of your eye; Hide me under the shadow of your wings,
Keep me as the apple of the eye, hide me under the shade of thy wings.
- 9 From the evil-doers who are violent to me, and from those who are round me, desiring my death.
From the wicked who oppress me, My deadly enemies, who compass me about.
From the wicked that oppress me, from my deadly enemies, who encompass me,
- 10 They are shut up in their fat: with their mouths they say words of pride.
They close up their callous hearts. With their mouth they speak proudly.
They are inclosed in their own fat: with their mouth they speak proudly.
- 11 They have made a circle round our steps: their eyes are fixed on us, forcing us down to the earth;
They have now surrounded us in our steps. They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.
They have now compassed us in our steps: they have set their eyes bowing down to the earth;
- 12 Like a lion desiring its food, and like a young lion waiting in secret places.
He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, As it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
Like as a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
- 13 Up! Lord, come out against him, make him low, with your sword be my saviour from the evil-doer.
Arise, Yahweh, Confront him, cast him down. Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;
Arise, O LORD disappoint him, cast him down: deliver my soul from the wicked, who is thy sword:
- 14 With your hand, O Lord, from men, even men of the world, whose heritage is in this life, and whom you make full with your secret wealth: they are full of children; after their death their offspring take the rest of their goods.
From men by your hand, Yahweh, From men of the world, whose portion is in this life, Whose belly you fill with your treasure:
They are satisfied with children, Leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
From men who are thy hand, O LORD, from men of the world, who have their portion in this life, and whose belly thou fillest with thy hid treasure: they are full of children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.

15 As for me, I will see your face in righteousness: when I am awake it will be joy enough for me to see your form.

As for me, I shall see your face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with seeing your form. Psalm 18 For the Chief Musician. By David, the servant of Yahweh, who spoke to Yahweh the words of this song in the day that Yahweh delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul. He said,

- 19 \18:18\They came on me in the day of my trouble; but the Lord was my support.
He brought me forth also into a large place. He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
\18:18\They attacked me in the day of my calamity: but the LORD was my stay.

- 20 \18:19\He took me out into a wide place; he was my saviour because he had delight in me.
Yahweh has rewarded me according to my righteousness. According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
\18:19\He brought me forth also in a large place; he delivered me, because he delighted in me.
- 21 \18:20\The Lord gives me the reward of my righteousness, because my hands are clean before him.
For I have kept the ways of Yahweh, And have not wickedly departed from my God.
\18:20\The LORD rewarded me according to my righteousness; according to the cleanness of my hands hath he recompensed me.
- 22 \18:21\For I have kept the ways of the Lord; I have not been turned away in sin from my God.
For all his ordinances were before me. I didn't put away his statutes from me.
\18:21\For I have kept the ways of the LORD, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
- 23 \18:22\For all his decisions were before me, and I did not put away his laws from me.
I was also blameless with him. I kept myself from my iniquity.
\18:22\For all his judgments were before me, and I did not put away his statutes from me.
- 24 \18:23\And I was upright before him, and I kept myself from sin.
Therefore has Yahweh recompensed me according to my righteousness, According to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
\18:23\I was also upright before him, and I kept myself from my iniquity.
- 25 \18:24\Because of this the Lord has given me the reward of my righteousness, because my hands are clean in his eyes.
With the merciful you will show yourself merciful. With the perfect man, you will show yourself perfect.
\18:24\Therefore hath the LORD recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his sight.
- 26 \18:25\On him who has mercy you will have mercy; to the upright you will be upright;
With the pure, you will show yourself pure. With the crooked you will show yourself shrewd.
\18:25\With the merciful thou wilt show thyself merciful; with an upright man thou wilt show thyself upright;

- 27 \18:26\He who is holy will see that you are holy; but to the man whose way is not straight you will be a hard judge.
For you will save the afflicted people, But the haughty eyes you will bring down.
\18:26\With the pure thou wilt show thyself pure; and with the froward thou wilt contend.
- 28 \18:27\For you are the saviour of those who are in trouble; but eyes full of pride will be made low.
For you will light my lamp. Yahweh, my God, will light up my darkness.
\18:27\For thou wilt save the afflicted people; but wilt bring down high looks.
- 29 \18:28\You, O Lord, will be my light; by you, my God, the dark will be made bright for me.
For by you, I advance through a troop. By my God, I leap over a wall.
\18:28\For thou wilt light my candle: the LORD my God will enlighten my darkness.
- 30 \18:29\By your help I have made a way through the wall which was shutting me in; by the help of my God I have gone over a wall.
As for God, his way is perfect. The word of Yahweh is tried. He is a shield to all those who take refuge in him.
\18:29\For by thee I have run through a troop; and by my God have I leaped over a wall.
- 31 \18:30\As for God, his way is completely good; the word of the Lord is tested; he is a breastplate for all those who put their faith in him.
For who is God, except Yahweh? Who is a rock, besides our God, \18:30\As for God, his way is perfect: the word of the LORD is tried: he is a buckler to all those that trust in him.
- 32 \18:31\For who is God but the Lord? or who is a Rock but our God?
The God who arms me with strength, and makes my way perfect?
\18:31\For who is God save the LORD? or who is a rock save our God?
- 33 \18:32\God puts a strong band about me, guiding me in a straight way.
He makes my feet like hinds` feet, And sets me on my high places.
\18:32\It is God that girdeth me with strength, and maketh my way perfect.

- 34 \18:33\He makes my feet like roes' feet, and puts me on high places.
He teaches my hands to war; So that my arms bend a bow of bronze.
\18:33\He maketh my feet like hinds' feet, and setteth me upon my high places.
- 35 \18:34\He makes my hands expert in war, so that a bow of brass is bent by my arms.
You have also given me the shield of your salvation. Your right hand sustains me. Your gentleness has made me great.
\18:34\He teacheth my hands to war, so that a bow of steel is broken by my arms.
- 36 \18:35\You have given me the breastplate of your salvation: your right hand has been my support, and your mercy has made me great.
You have enlarged my steps under me, My feet have not slipped.
\18:35\Thou hast also given me the shield of thy salvation: and thy right hand hath held me up and thy gentleness hath made me great.
- 37 \18:36\You have made my steps wide under me, so that my feet are kept from slipping.
I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them. Neither will I turn again until they are consumed.
\18:36\Thou hast enlarged my steps under me, that my feet did not slip.
- 38 \18:37\I go after my haters and overtake them; not turning back till they are all overcome.
I will strike them through, so that they will not be able to rise. They shall fall under my feet.
\18:37\I have pursued my enemies, and overtaken them: neither did I turn again till they were consumed.
- 39 \18:38\I will give them wounds, so that they are not able to get up: they are stretched under my feet.
For you have girded me with strength to the battle. You have subdued under me those who rose up against me.
\18:38\I have wounded them that they were not able to rise: they have fallen under my feet.
- 40 \18:39\For I have been armed by you with strength for the fight: you have made low under me those who come out against me.
You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, That I might cut off those who hate me.
\18:39\For thou hast girded me with strength to battle: thou hast subdued under me those that rose up against me.

- 41 \18:40\By you their backs are turned in flight, so that my haters are cut off.
They cried, but there was none to save; Even to Yahweh, but he didn't answer them.
\18:40\Thou hast also given me the necks of my enemies; that I might destroy them that hate me.
- 42 \18:41\They were crying out, but there was no one to come to their help: even to the Lord, but he gave them no answer.
Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind. I cast them out as the mire of the streets.
\18:41\They cried, but there was none to save them: even to the LORD, but he answered them not.
- 43 \18:42\Then they were crushed as small as dust before the wind; they were drained out like the waste of the streets.
You have delivered me from the strivings of the people. You have made me the head of the nations. A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
\18:42\Then I beat them small as the dust before the wind: I cast them out as the dirt in the streets.
- 44 \18:43\You have made me free from the fightings of the people; you have made me the head of the nations: a people of whom I had no knowledge will be my servants.
As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me. The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.
\18:43\Thou hast delivered me from the strivings of the people; and thou hast made me the head of the heathen: a people whom I have not known shall serve me.
- 45 \18:44\From the time when my name comes to their ears they will be ruled by me: men of other countries will, with false hearts, put themselves under my authority.
The foreigners shall fade away, And shall come trembling out of their close places.
\18:44\As soon as they hear of me, they shall obey me: the strangers shall submit themselves to me.
- 46 \18:45\They will be wasting away, they will come out of their secret places shaking with fear.
Yahweh lives; and blessed be my rock. Exalted be the God of my salvation, \18:45\The strangers shall fade away, and be afraid from their close places.
- 47 \18:46\The Lord is living; praise be to my Rock, and let the God of my salvation be honoured.
Even the God who executes vengeance for me, And subdues peoples under me.
\18:46\The LORD liveth; and blessed be my rock; and let the God of my salvation be exalted.

48 \18:47\It is God who sends punishment on my haters, and puts peoples under my rule.
He rescues me from my enemies. Yes, you lift me up above those who rise up against me. You deliver me from the violent man.

\18:47\It is God that avengeth me, and subdueth the people under me.

49 \18:48\He makes me free from my haters; I am lifted up over those who come up against me: you have made me free from the violent man.

Therefore I will give thanks to you, Yahweh, among the nations, And will sing praises to your name.

\18:48\He delivereth me from my enemies: yes, thou liftest me up above those that rise up against me: thou hast delivered me from the violent man.

50 \18:49\Because of this I will give you praise, O Lord, among the nations, and will make a song of praise to your name.

He gives great deliverance to his king, And shows lovingkindness to his anointed, To David and to his seed, forevermore.
Psalm 19 For the Chief Musician. A Psalm by David.

\18:49\Therefore will I give thanks to thee, O LORD, among the heathen, and sing praises to thy name.

11 \19:10\More to be desired are they than gold, even than much shining gold; sweeter than the dropping honey.
Moreover by them is your servant warned. In keeping them there is great reward.

12 \19:11\By them is your servant made conscious of danger, and in keeping them there is great reward.
Who can discern his errors? Forgive me from hidden errors.
