6 But there were certain of the scribes seated there, and reasoning in their hearts,

But there were some of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

But there were certain of the scribes sitting there, and reasoning in their hearts,

7 Why does this man say such things? he has no respect for God: from whom does forgiveness come but from God only?

"Why does this man speak blasphemies like that? He blasphemes! Who can forgive sins but one - God?"

Why doth this man thus speak blasphemies? who can forgive sins but God only?

8 And Jesus, having knowledge in his spirit of their thoughts, said to them, Why are you reasoning about these things in your hearts?

Immediately Jesus, perceiving in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, said to them, "Why do you reason these things in your hearts?"

And immediately, when Jesus perceived in his spirit that they so reasoned within themselves, he said to them, Why reason ye these things in your hearts?

9 Which is the simpler, to say to a man who is ill, You have forgiveness for your sins, or, Get up, take up your bed, and go?

Which is easier, to tell the paralytic, `Your sins are forgiven;` or to say, `Arise, and take up your bed, and walk?`

Which is easier, to say to the sick with the palsy, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Arise, and take up thy bed, and walk?

- 10 But so that you may see that the Son of man has authority for the forgiveness of sins on earth, (he said to the man,)
But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" -- he said to the paralytic,
But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power on earth to forgive sins, he saith to the sick with the palsy,
- 11 I say to you, Get up, take up your bed, and go to your house.
"I tell you, arise, take up your mat, and go to your house."
I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy bed, and go into thy house.
- 12 And he got up, and straight away took up the bed and went out before them all, so that they were all full of wonder, and gave glory to God, saying, We have never seen anything like this.
He arose, and immediately took up the mat, and went out in front of them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, "We never saw anything like this!"
And immediately he arose, took up the bed, and went forth before them all; so that they were all amazed, and glorified God, saying, We never saw it on this fashion.
- 13 And he went out again by the seaside; and all the people came to him, and he gave them teaching.
He went out again by the seaside. All the multitude came to him, and he taught them.
And he went forth again by the sea-side; and all the multitude resorted to him, and he taught them.
- 14 And when he went by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, seated at the place where taxes were taken, and he said to him, Come with me. And he got up, and went with him.
As he passed by, he saw Levi, the son of Alphaeus, sitting at the place of toll, and he said to him, "Follow me." And he arose and followed him.
And as he passed by, he saw Levi the son of Alpheus, sitting at the receipt of custom, and said to him, Follow me. And he arose, and followed him.
- 15 And it came about that he was seated at meat in his house, and a number of tax-farmers and sinners were at table with Jesus and his disciples: for there were a great number of them, and they came after him.
It happened, that he was reclining at the table in his house, and many tax collectors and sinners sat down with Jesus and his disciples, for there were many, and they followed him.
And it came to pass, that as Jesus sat at table in his house, many publicans and sinners sat also together with Jesus and his disciples; for there were many, and they followed him.

- 16 And the scribes of the Pharisees, when they saw that he was taking food with the tax-farmers and sinners, said to his disciples, Why does he take food and drink with such men?
The scribes and the Pharisees, when they saw that he was eating with the sinners and tax collectors, said to his disciples, "Why is it that he eats and drinks with tax collectors and sinners?"
And when the scribes and Pharisees saw him eating with publicans and sinners, they said to his disciples, How is it that he eateth and drinketh with publicans and sinners.
- 17 And Jesus, hearing it, said to them, Those who are well have no need of a medical man, but those who are ill: I have come not to get the upright but sinners.
When Jesus heard it, he said to them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick. I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
When Jesus heard it, he saith to them, They that are in health, have no need of a physician, but they that are sick; I came not to call the righteous, but sinners, to repentance.
- 18 And John's disciples and the Pharisees were taking no food: and they came and said to him, Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees go without food, but your disciples do not?
John's disciples and the Pharisees were fasting, and they came and asked him, "Why do John's disciples and the disciples of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples don't fast?"
And the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees, used to fast: and they come, and say to him, Why do the disciples of John, and of the Pharisees fast, but thy disciples fast not?
- 19 And Jesus said to them, Will the friends of a newly-married man go without food while he is with them? as long as they have him with them they will not go without food.
Jesus said to them, "Can the sons of the bride chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they can't fast.
And Jesus said to them, Can the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them? As long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast.
- 20 But the days will come when the husband will be taken away from them, and then they will go without food.
But the days will come, when the bridegroom will be taken away from them, and then will they fast in that day.
But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days.

- 21 No man puts a bit of new cloth on an old coat: or the new, by pulling away from the old, makes a worse hole.
No one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth on an old garment, or else the patch shrinks and the new tears away from the old, and a worse hole is made.
No man also seweth a piece of new cloth on an old garment: else the new piece that filled it up, taketh away from the old, and the rent is made worse.
- 22 And no man puts new wine into old wine-skins: or the skins will be burst by the wine, and the wine and the skins will be wasted: but new wine has to be put into new wine-skins.
No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and the wine pours out, and the skins will be destroyed; but they put new wine into fresh wineskins."
And no man putteth new wine into old bottles, else the new wine doth burst the bottles, and the wine is spilled, and the bottles will be marred: but new wine must be put into new bottles.
- 23 And it came about that on the Sabbath day he was going through the grain-fields; and while they were walking, his disciples took the heads of grain.
It happened, that he was going on the Sabbath day through the grain fields, and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of grain.
And it came to pass, that he went through the corn-fields on the sabbath; and his disciples began, as they went, to pluck the ears of corn.
- 24 And the Pharisees said to him, Why are they doing what it is not right to do on the Sabbath?
The Pharisees said to him, "Behold, why do they do that which is not lawful on the Sabbath day?"
And the Pharisees said to him, Behold, why do they on the sabbath that which is not lawful?
- 25 And he said to them, Have you no knowledge of what David did, when he had need and was without food, he, and those who were with him?
He said to them, "Did you never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he, and they who were with him?
And he said to them, Have ye never read what David did, when he had need, and was hungry, he and they that were with him?
- 26 How he went into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and took for food the holy bread, which only the priests may take, and gave it to those who were with him?
How he entered into the house of God when Abiathar was high priest, and ate the show bread, which it is not lawful to eat except for the priests, and gave also to those who were with him?"
How he went into the house of God, in the days of Abiathar the high priest, and ate the show-bread, which it is not lawful to eat, but for the priests, and gave also to them who were with him?

- 27 And he said to them, The Sabbath was made for man, and not man for the Sabbath;
He said to them, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath."
And he said to them, The sabbath was made for man, and not man for the sabbath:
- 28 So that the Son of man is lord even of the Sabbath.
Therefore the Son of Man is lord even of the Sabbath."
Therefore the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.
- 1 And he went again into the Synagogue; and there was a man there whose hand was dead.
He entered again into the synagogue, and there was a man there who had his hand withered.
And he entered again into the synagogue; and there was a man there who had a withered hand.
- 2 And they were watching him to see if he would make him well on the Sabbath day, so that they might have something against him.
They watched him, whether he would heal him on the Sabbath day, that they might accuse him.
And they watched him, to see whether he would heal him on the sabbath; that they might accuse him.
- 3 And he said to the man, Get up and come forward.
He said to the man who had his hand withered, "Stand up."
And he saith to the man who had the withered hand, Stand forth.
- 4 And he said to them, Is it right to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil? to give life or to put to death? But they said nothing.
He said to them, "Is it lawful on the Sabbath day to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?" But they were silent.
And he saith to them, Is it lawful to do good on the sabbath, or to do evil? to save life, or to kill? but they held their peace.
- 5 And looking round on them he was angry, being sad because of their hard hearts; and he said to the man, Put out your hand. And he put it out, and his hand was made well.
When he had looked around at them with anger, being grieved at the hardening of their hearts, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He stretched it out, and his hand was restored as healthy as the other.
And when he had looked around on them with anger, being grieved for the hardness of their hearts, he saith to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he stretched it out: and his hand was restored whole as the other.

- 6 And the Pharisees went out, and straight away made designs with the Herodians about how they might put him to death.
The Pharisees went out, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.
And the Pharisees went forth, and immediately took counsel with the Herodians against him, how they might destroy him.
- 7 And Jesus went away with his disciples to the sea, and a great number from Galilee came after him: and from Judaea,
Jesus withdrew to the sea with his disciples, and a great multitude followed him from Galilee, from Judea,
But Jesus withdrew himself with his disciples to the sea: and a great multitude from Galilee followed him, and from Judea.
- 8 And from Jerusalem, and from Idumaea, and the other side of Jordan, and the country about Tyre and Sidon, a great number, hearing what great things he did, came to him.
from Jerusalem, from Idumaea, beyond the Jordan, and those from around Tyre and Sidon. A great multitude, hearing what great things he did, came to him.
And from Jerusalem, and from Idumea, and from beyond Jordan; and they about Tyre and Sidon, a great multitude, when they had heard what great things he did, came to him.
- 9 And he made a request to his disciples to have a little boat ready for him, so that he might not be crushed by the people;
He spoke to his disciples, that a little boat should stay near him because of the crowd, so that they wouldn't press on him.
And he spoke to his disciples, that a small boat should wait on him, because of the multitude, lest they should throng him.
- 10 For he had made such a great number well that all those who were diseased were falling down before him for the purpose of touching him.
For he had healed many, so that as many as had diseases pressed on him that they might touch him.
For he had healed many; so that they pressed upon him to touch him, as many as had diseases.
- 11 And the unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, went down before him, crying out, and saying, You are the Son of God.
The unclean spirits, whenever they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, "You are the Son of God!"
And unclean spirits, when they saw him, fell down before him, and cried, saying, Thou art the Son of God.

- 12 And he gave them special orders not to say who he was.
He sternly warned them that they should not make him known.
And he strictly charged them, that they should not make him known.
- 13 And he went up into the mountain, and sent for those whom it was his pleasure to have with him: and they went to him.
He went up into the mountain, and called to himself whom he wanted, and they went to him.
And he goeth up upon a mountain, and calleth to him whom he would: and they came to him.
- 14 And he took twelve to be with him, so that he might send them out as preachers,
He appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach,
And he ordained twelve, that they should be with him, and that he might send them forth to preach,
- 15 And give them the power of driving out evil spirits:
and to have authority to heal sicknesses and to cast out demons:
And to have power to heal sicknesses, and to cast out demons.
- 16 To Simon he gave the second name of Peter;
Simon, to whom he gave the name Peter;
And Simon he surnamed Peter.
- 17 And to James, the son of Zebedee, and John, the brother of James, he gave the second name of Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder:
James the son of Zebedee; John, the brother of James, and them he surnamed Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder;
And James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, (and he surnamed them Boanerges, which is, Sons of thunder,)
- 18 And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James, the son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon the Zealot;
Andrew; Philip; Bartholomew; Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Thaddaeus; Simon the Zealot;
And Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James the son of Alpheus, and Thaddeus, and Simon the Canaanite,

- 19 And Judas Iscariot, who was false to him.
and Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him. He came into a house.
And Judas Iscariot, who also betrayed him: and they went into a house.
- 20 And he went into a house. And the people came together again, so that they were not even able to take bread.
The multitude came together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
And the multitude cometh together again, so that they could not so much as eat bread.
- 21 And when his friends had news of it, they went out to get him, saying, He is off his head.
When his friends heard it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, "He is insane."
And when his friends heard of it, they went out to lay hold on him: for they said, He is beside himself.
- 22 And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem, said, He has Beelzebub, and, By the ruler of evil spirits he sends evil spirits out of men.
The scribes who came down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub," and, "By the prince of the demons he casts out the demons."
And the scribes who came down from Jerusalem, said, He hath Beelzebub, and by the prince of the demons he casteth out demons.
- 23 And turning to them, he said to them in the form of a story, How is it possible for Satan to put out Satan?
He called them to him, and said to them in parables, "How can Satan cast out Satan?"
And he called them to him, and said to them in parables, How can Satan cast out Satan?
- 24 If there is division in a kingdom, that kingdom will come to destruction;
If a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
And if a kingdom be divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand.
- 25 And if there is division in a house, that house will come to destruction;
If a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand.
And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

- 26 And if Satan is at war with himself, and there is division in him, he will not keep his place but will come to an end.
If Satan has risen up against himself, and is divided, he can't stand, but has an end.
And if Satan rise up against himself, and be divided, he cannot stand, but hath an end.
- 27 But no one is able to go into the house of the strong man and take his goods, without first putting cords round the strong man, and then he will take his goods.
But no one can enter into the house of the strong man to plunder, unless he first binds the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.
No man can enter into a strong man's house, and seize his goods, except he will first bind the strong man; and then he will plunder his house.
- 28 Truly, I say to you, The sons of men will have forgiveness for all their sins and for all the evil words they say:
Most assuredly I tell you, all their sins will be forgiven to the sons of men, and their blasphemies with which they may blaspheme
Verily I say to you, All sins shall be forgiven to the sons of men, and any blasphemies with which they shall blaspheme:
- 29 But whoever says evil things against the Holy Spirit will never have forgiveness, but the evil he has done will be with him for ever:
but whoever may blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never has forgiveness, but is guilty of an eternal sin"
But he that shall blaspheme against the Holy Spirit never hath forgiveness, but is in danger of eternal damnation:
- 30 Because they said, He has an unclean spirit.
-- because they said, "He has an unclean spirit."
Because they said, He hath an unclean spirit.
- 31 And his mother and brothers came and were outside, and sent for him, requesting to see him.
His mother and his brothers came, and standing outside, they sent to him, calling him.
There came then his brethren and his mother, and standing without, they sent to him, calling him.

32 And a great number were seated round him; and they said to him, See, your mother and your brothers are outside looking for you.
A multitude was sitting around him, and they told him, "Behold, your mother, your brothers, and your sisters are outside looking for you."

And the multitude sat about him, and they said to him, Behold, thy mother, and thy brethren without seek for thee.

33 And he said in answer, Who are my mother and my brothers?

He answered them, "Who are my mother and my brothers?"

And he answered them, saying, Who is my mother, or my brethren?

34 And looking round at those who were seated about him, he said, See, my mother and my brothers!

Looking around at those who sat around him, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers!

And he looked around on them who sat about him, and said, Behold, my mother and my brethren!

35 Whoever does God's pleasure, the same is my brother, and sister, and mother.

For whoever may do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother."

For whoever shall do the will of God, the same is my brother, and my sister, and mother.

1 And again he was teaching by the seaside. And a very great number of people had come to him, so that he got into a boat on the sea and took his seat; and all the people were on the land by the seaside.

Again he began to teach by the seaside. A great multitude was gathered to him, so that he entered into a boat in the sea, and sat down. All the multitude were on the land by the sea.

And he began again to teach by the sea-side: and there was gathered to him a great multitude, so that he entered into a boat, and sat on the sea; and the whole multitude was by the sea, on the land.

2 And he gave them teaching about a number of things in the form of stories, and said to them in his teaching, Give ear:

He taught them many things in parables, and told them in his teaching,

And he taught them many things by parables, and said to them in his doctrine,

- 3 A man went out to put seed in the earth:
"Listen! Behold, the farmer went forth to sow, Hearken; Behold, a sower went out to sow:
- 4 And while he was doing it, some was dropped by the wayside, and the birds came and took it for food.
and it happened, as he sowed, some seed fell by the road, and the birds came and devoured it.
And it came to pass as he sowed, some fell by the way-side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it.
- 5 And some went on the stones, where it had not much earth; and it came up straight away, because the earth was not deep:
Others fell on the rocky ground, where it had little soil, and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of soil.
And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of earth.
- 6 And when the sun was high, it was burned; and because it had no root, it became dry and dead.
When the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
But when the sun had risen, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away.
- 7 And some went among the thorns, and the thorns came up, and it had no room for growth and gave no fruit.
Others fell among the thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it, and it yielded no fruit.
- 8 And some, falling on good earth, gave fruit, coming up and increasing, and giving thirty, sixty, and a hundred times as much.
Others fell into the good ground, and yielded fruit, growing up and increasing. Some brought forth thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times as much."
And other fell on good ground, and yielded fruit that sprang up, and increased, and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some a hundred.
- 9 And he said to them, Whoever has ears, let him give ear.
He said, "Whoever has ears to hear, let him hear."
And he said to them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

- 10 And when he was by himself, those who were round him with the twelve put questions to him about the purpose of the stories.
When he was alone, those who were around him with the twelve asked him about the parables.
And when he was alone, they that were about him, with the twelve, asked of him the parable.
- 11 And he said to them, To you is given the secret of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are given in the form of stories;
He said to them, "To you is given the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those who are outside, all things are done in parables,
And he said to them, To you it is given to know the mystery of the kingdom of God: but to them that are without, all these things are done in parables:
- 12 So that seeing they may see, and it will not be clear to them; and hearing it, they will not get the sense; for fear that they may be turned again to me and have forgiveness.
that `seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest perhaps they should turn again, and their sins should be forgiven them.`"
That seeing they may see, and not perceive; and hearing they may hear, and not understand; lest at any time they should be converted, and their sins should be forgiven them.
- 13 And he said to them, If you are not clear about this story, how will you be clear about the others?
He said to them, "Don`t you understand this parable? How will you understand all of the parables?
And he said to them, Know ye not this parable? and how then will ye know all parables?
- 14 The seed is the word.
The farmer sows the word.
The sower soweth the word.
- 15 And these are they by the wayside, where the word is planted; and when they have given ear, the Evil One comes straight away and takes away the word which has been planted in them.
These are they by the road, where the word is sown; and when they have heard, immediately Satan comes, and takes away the word which has been sown in them.
And these are they by the way-side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts.

- 16 And in the same way, these are they who are planted on the stones, who, when the word has come to their ears, straight away take it with joy;
These in like manner are those who are sown on the rocky places, who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with joy.
And these are they likewise who are sown on stony ground; who, when they have heard the word, immediately receive it with gladness;
- 17 And they have no root in themselves, but go on for a time; then, when trouble comes or pain, because of the word, they quickly become full of doubts.
They have no root in themselves, but endure for a while, then, when oppression or persecution arises because of the word, immediately they stumble.
And have no root in themselves, and so endure but for a time: afterward, when affliction or persecution ariseth for the word's sake, immediately they relapse.
- 18 And others are those planted among the thorns; these are they who have given ear to the word,
Others are those who are sown among the thorns. These are those who have heard the word,
And these are they who are sown among thorns; such as hear the word,
- 19 And the cares of this life, and the deceits of wealth, and the desire for other things coming in, put a stop to the growth of the word, and it gives no fruit.
and the cares of this age, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful.
And the cares of this world, and the deceitfulness of riches, and the lusts of other things entering in, choke the word, and it becometh unfruitful.
- 20 And these are they who were planted on the good earth; such as give ear to the word, and take it into their hearts, and give fruit, thirty and sixty and a hundred times as much.
These are those who were sown on the good ground: such as hear the word, and accept it, and bear fruit, some thirty times, some sixty times, and some one hundred times."
And these are they who are sown on good ground; such as hear the word, and receive it, and bring forth fruit, some thirty-fold, some sixty, and some a hundred.
- 21 And he said to them, When the light comes in, do people put it under a vessel, or under the bed, and not on its table?
He said to them, "Is the lamp brought to be put under a basket or under the bed? Isn't it put on the lampstand?
And he said to them, Is a candle brought to be put under a close vessel, or under a bed? and not to be set on a candlestick?

- 22 There is nothing covered which will not be seen openly, and nothing has been made secret which will not come to light.
For there is nothing hidden, except that it should be made known; neither was anything made secret, but that it should come to light.
For there is nothing hid, which shall not be manifested; neither hath any thing been kept secret, but that it should come abroad.
- 23 If any man has ears, let him give ear.
If any man has ears to hear, let him hear."
If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear.
- 24 And he said to them, Take care what you give ear to: in the same measure as you give you will get, and more will be given to you.
He said to them, "Take heed what you hear. With whatever measure you measure, it will be measured to you, and more will be given to you who hear.
And he said to them, Take heed what ye hear: With the measure which ye give, it shall be measured to you: and to you that hear shall more be given.
- 25 He who has, to him will be given: and he who has not, from him will be taken even that which he has.
For whoever has, to him will more be given, and he who has not, from him will be taken away even that which he has."
For he that hath, to him shall be given: and he that hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he hath.
- 26 And he said, Such is the kingdom of God, as if a man put seed in the earth,
He said, "So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed on the earth,
And he said, So is the kingdom of God, as if a man should cast seed into the ground;
- 27 And went to sleep and got up, night and day, and the seed came to growth, though he had no idea how.
and should sleep and rise night and day, and the seed should spring up and grow, he doesn't know how.
And should sleep, and rise night and day, and the seed should spring and grow up, he knoweth not how.
- 28 The earth gives fruit by herself; first the leaf, then the head, then the full grain.
For the earth bears fruit: first the blade, then the ear, then the full grain in the ear.
For the earth bringeth forth fruit of itself; first the blade, then the ear, after that the full corn in the ear.

- 29 But when the grain is ready, he quickly sends men to get it cut, because the time for cutting has come.
But when the fruit is ripe, immediately he puts forth the sickle, because the harvest has come."
But when the fruit is brought forth, immediately he putteth in the sickle, because the harvest is come.
- 30 And he said, What picture may we give of the kingdom of God, or with what story may we make it clear?
He said, "How will we liken the kingdom of God? Or by what parable will we compare it?
And he said, To what shall we liken the kingdom of God? or with what comparison shall we compare it?
- 31 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is put in the earth, is smaller than all the seeds on the earth,
It is like a grain of mustard seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, though it is less than all the seeds that are on the earth,
It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which, when it is sown in the earth, is less than all the seeds that are in the earth.
- 32 But when it is planted, it comes up, and becomes taller than all the plants, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of heaven are able to take rest in its shade.
yet when it is sown, grows up, and becomes greater than all the herbs, and puts out great branches, so that the birds of the sky can lodge under its shadow."
But when it is sown, it groweth up, and becometh greater than all herbs, and shooteth out great branches; so that the fowls of the air may lodge under its shade.
- 33 And with a number of such stories he gave them his teaching, as they were able to take it:
With many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.
And with many such parables he spoke the word to them, as they were able to hear it.
- 34 And without a story he said nothing to them: but privately to his disciples he made all things clear.
Without a parable he didn't speak to them; but privately to his own disciples he explained all things.
But without a parable he spoke not to them: and when they were alone, he expounded all things to his disciples.
- 35 And on that day, when the evening had come, he said to them, Let us go over to the other side.
On that day, when evening had come, he said to them, "Let`s go over to the other side."
And the same day, when the evening was come, he saith to them, Let us pass over to the other side.

- 36 And going away from the people, they took him with them, as he was, in the boat. And other boats were with him.
Leaving the multitude, they took him with them, even as he was, in the boat. Other small boats were also with him.
And when they had sent away the multitude, they took him even as he was in the boat. And there were also with him other small boats.
- 37 And a great storm of wind came up, and the waves came into the boat, so that the boat was now becoming full.
There arose a great wind storm, and the waves beat into the boat, so much that the boat was already filled.
And there arose a great storm of wind, and the waves beat into the boat, so that it was now full.
- 38 And he himself was in the back of the boat, sleeping on the cushion: and they, awaking him, said, Master, is it nothing to you that we are in danger of destruction?
He himself was in the stern, asleep on the cushion, and they woke him up, and told him, "Teacher, don't you care that we are dying?"
And he was in the hinder part of the boat, asleep on a pillow: and they awake him, and say to him, Master, carest thou not that we perish?
- 39 And he came out of his sleep, and gave strong orders to the wind, and said to the sea, Peace, be at rest. And the wind went down, and there was a great calm.
He awoke, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Peace. Be still." The wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
And he arose, and rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, Peace, be still: and the wind ceased, and there was a great calm.
- 40 And he said to them, Why are you full of fear? have you still no faith?
He said to them, "Why are you so afraid? How is it that you have no faith?"
And he said to them, Why are ye so fearful? how is it that ye have no faith?
- 41 And their fear was great, and they said one to another, Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea do his orders?
They were greatly afraid, and said to one another, "Who then is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"
And they feared exceedingly, and said one to another, What manner of man is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?

- 1 And they came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gerasenes.
They came to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.
And they came over to the other side of the sea, into the country of the Gadarenes.
- 2 And when he had got out of the boat, straight away there came to him from the place of the dead a man with an unclean spirit.
When he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,
And when he had come out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man with an unclean spirit,
- 3 He was living in the place of the dead: and no man was able to keep him down, no, not with a chain;
who had his dwelling in the tombs. Nobody could bind him any more, not even with chains,
Who had his dwelling among the tombs; and no man could bind him, no, not with chains:
- 4 Because he had frequently been prisoned in chains and iron bands, and the chains had been parted and the bands broken by him: and no man was strong enough to make him quiet.
because he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been torn apart by him, and the fetters broken in pieces. Nobody had the strength to tame him.
For he had been often bound with fetters and chains, and the chains had been plucked asunder by him, and the fetters broken in pieces: neither could any man tame him.
- 5 And all the time, by day and by night, in the place of the dead, and in the mountains, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones.
Always, night and day, in the tombs and in the mountains, he was crying out, and cutting himself with stones.
And always, night and day, he was on the mountains, and in the tombs, crying, and cutting himself with stones.
- 6 And when he saw Jesus from far off, he went quickly to him and gave him worship;
When he saw Jesus from afar, he ran and bowed down to him,
But when he saw Jesus afar off, he ran and worshiped him,

7 And crying out with a loud voice he said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? In God's name, do not be cruel to me.
and crying out with a loud voice, he said, "What have I to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I adjure you by God, don't torment me."

And cried with a loud voice, and said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of the Most High God? I adjure thee by God, that thou torment me not.

8 For Jesus had said to him, Come out of the man, you unclean spirit.
For he said to him, "Come out of the man, you unclean spirit!"

(For he said to him, Come out of the man, thou unclean spirit.)

9 And Jesus said, What is your name? And he made answer, My name is Legion, because there are a great number of us.

He asked him, "What is your name?" He said to him, "My name is Legion, for we are many."

And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.

10 And he made strong prayers to him not to send them away out of the country.

He begged him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.

11 Now on the mountain side there was a great herd of pigs getting their food.

Now there was there on the mountainside a great herd of pigs feeding.

Now there was there nigh to the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.

12 And they said to him, Send us into the pigs, so that we may go into them.

All the demons begged him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, that we may enter into them."

And all the demons besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.

- 13 And he let them do it. And the unclean spirits came out and went into the pigs; and the herd went rushing down a sharp slope into the sea, about two thousand of them; and they came to their death in the sea.
At once Jesus gave them permission. The unclean spirits came out, and entered into the pigs. The herd of about two thousand rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and they were drowned in the sea.
And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea (they were about two thousand) and were choked in the sea.
- 14 And their keepers went running and gave an account of it in the town and in the country. And people came to see what had taken place.
Those who fed them fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. The people came to see what it was that had happened.
And they that fed the swine fled, and told it in the city, and in the country. And they went out to see what it was that was done.
- 15 And they came to Jesus, and saw the man in whom had been the evil spirits seated, clothed and with full use of his senses, and they were full of fear.
They came to Jesus, and saw him who was possessed by demons sitting, clothed and in his right mind, even him who had the legion; and they were afraid.
And they come to Jesus, and see him that was possessed with the demon, and had the legion, sitting, and clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.
- 16 And those who had seen it gave them an account of what had been done to him who had the evil spirits, and of the fate of the pigs.
Those who saw it declared to them how it happened to him who was possessed by demons, and about the pigs.
And they that saw it told them how it befell him that was possessed with the demon, and also concerning the swine.
- 17 And they made a request to him to go out of their country.
They began to beg him to depart from their borders.
And they began to pray him to depart out of their borders.
- 18 And when he was getting into the boat, the man in whom had been the evil spirits had a great desire to come with him.
As he was entering into the boat, he who had been possessed by demons begged him that he might be with him.
And when he had come into the boat, he that had been possessed with the demon prayed him that he might be with him.

- 19 And he would not let him, but said to him, Go to your house, to your friends, and give them news of the great things the Lord has done for you, and how he had mercy on you.
He didn't allow him, but said to him, "Go to your house, to your friends, and tell them how the Lord has done great things for you, and how he had mercy on you."
Yet Jesus suffered him not, but saith to him, Go home to thy friends, and tell them how great things the Lord hath done for thee, and hath had compassion on thee.
- 20 And he went on his way, and made public in the country of Decapolis what great things Jesus had done for him: and all men were full of wonder.
He went his way, and began to proclaim in Decapolis how Jesus had done great things for him, and everyone marveled.
And he departed, and began to publish in Decapolis how great things Jesus had done for him. And all men wondered.
- 21 And when Jesus had gone over again in the boat to the other side, a great number of people came to him: and he was by the sea.
When Jesus had crossed back over in the boat to the other side, a great multitude was gathered to him; and he was by the sea.
And when Jesus had passed over again in a boat to the other side, much people gathered to him: and he was nigh to the sea.
- 22 And one of the rulers of the Synagogue, Jairus by name, came, and seeing him, went down at his feet,
Behold, one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name, came; and seeing him, he fell at his feet,
And behold, there cometh one of the rulers of the synagogue, Jairus by name; and when he saw him, he fell at his feet,
- 23 And made strong prayers to him, saying, My little daughter is near to death: it is my prayer that you will come and put your hands on her, so that she may be made well, and have life.
and begged him much, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Please come and lay your hands on her, that she may be made healthy, and live."
And besought him greatly, saying, My little daughter lieth at the point of death: I pray thee, come and lay thy hands on her, that she may be healed; and she will live.
- 24 And he went with him; and a great number of people went after him, and came round him.
He went with him, and a great multitude followed him, and they pressed upon him on all sides.
And Jesus went with him; and many people followed him, and thronged him.

- 25 And a woman, who had had a flow of blood for twelve years,
A certain woman, who had an issue of blood for twelve years,
And a certain woman who had an issue of blood twelve years,
- 26 And had undergone much at the hands of a number of medical men, and had given all she had, and was no better, but even worse, and had suffered many things by many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was no better, but rather grew worse,
And had suffered many things from many physicians, and had spent all that she had, and was not relieved, but rather grew worse,
- 27 When she had news of the things which Jesus did, went among the people coming after him, and put her hand on his robe.
having heard the things concerning Jesus, came up behind him in the crowd, and touched his clothes.
When she had heard of Jesus, came in the crowd behind, and touched his garment.
- 28 For she said, If I may only put my hand on his robe, I will be made well.
For she said, "If I just touch his clothes, I will be made well."
For she said, If I may touch but his clothes, I shall be whole.
- 29 And straight away the fountain of her blood was stopped, and she had a feeling in her body that her disease had gone and she was well.
Immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up, and she felt in her body that she was healed of her plague.
And immediately the fountain of her blood was dried up; and she felt in her body that she was healed of that infirmity.
- 30 And straight away Jesus was conscious that power had gone out of him; and, turning to the people, he said, Who was touching my robe?
Immediately Jesus, perceiving in himself that the power had gone forth from him, turned around in the crowd, and asked, "Who touched my clothes?"
And Jesus, immediately knowing in himself that virtue had gone out of him, turned him about in the throng, and said, Who touched my clothes?
- 31 And his disciples said to him, You see the people round you on every side, and you say, Who was touching me?
His disciples said to him, "You see the multitude pressing against you, and you say, `Who touched me?`"
And his disciples said to him, Thou seest the multitude thronging thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?

- 32 And on his looking round to see her who had done this thing,
He looked around to see her who had done this thing.
And he looked around, to see her that had done this thing.
- 33 The woman, shaking with fear, conscious of what had been done to her, came and, falling on her face before him, gave him a true account of everything.
But the woman, fearing and trembling, knowing what had been done to her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
But the woman fearing and trembling, knowing what was done in her, came and fell down before him, and told him all the truth.
- 34 And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace, and be free from your disease.
He said to her, "Daughter, your faith has made you well. Go in peace, and be cured of your disease."
And he said to her, Daughter, thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace, and be healed of thy infirmity.
- 35 And while he was still talking, they came from the ruler of the Synagogue's house, saying, Your daughter is dead: why are you still troubling the Master?
While he was still speaking, they came from the synagogue ruler's house saying, "Your daughter is dead. Why bother the Teacher any more?"
While he was yet speaking, there came from the ruler of the synagogue's house certain who said, Thy daughter is dead: why troublest thou the Master any further?
- 36 But Jesus, giving no attention to their words, said to the ruler of the Synagogue, Have no fear, only have faith.
But Jesus, not heeding the word spoken, immediately said to the ruler of the synagogue, "Don't be afraid, only believe."
As soon as Jesus heard the word that was spoken, he saith to the ruler of the synagogue, Be not afraid, only believe,
- 37 And he did not let anyone come with him, but Peter and James and John, the brother of James.
He allowed no one to follow him, except Peter, James, and John, the brother of James.
And he suffered no man to follow him, save Peter, and James, and John the brother of James.

- 38 And they came to the house of the ruler of the Synagogue; and he saw people running this way and that, and weeping and crying loudly.
He came to the synagogue ruler`s house, and he saw an uproar, weeping, and great wailing.
And he cometh to the house of the ruler of the synagogue, and seeth the tumult, and them that wept and wailed greatly.
- 39 And when he had gone in, he said to them, Why are you making such a noise and weeping? The child is not dead, but sleeping.
When he had entered in, he said to them, "Why do you make an uproar and weep? The child is not dead, but is asleep."
And when he had come in, he saith to them, Why make ye this tumult, and weep? the damsel is not dead, but sleepeth.
- 40 And they were laughing at him. But he, having sent them all out, took the father of the child and her mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was.
They laughed him to scorn. But he, having put them all out, took the father of the child and her mother and those who were with him, and went in where the child was lying.
And they derided him: but when he had put them all out, he taketh the father and the mother of the damsel, and them that were with him, and entereth in where the damsel was lying.
- 41 And taking her by the hand, he said to her, Talitha cumi, which is, My child, I say to you, Get up.
Taking the child by the hand, he said to her, "Talitha cumi;" which means, being interpreted, "Young lady, I tell you, get up."
And he took the damsel by the hand, and said to her, Talitha cumi: which is, being interpreted, Damsel (I say to thee) arise.
- 42 And the young girl got up straight away, and was walking about; she being twelve years old. And they were overcome with wonder.
Immediately the young lady rose up, and walked, for she was twelve years old. They were amazed with great amazement.
And forthwith the damsel arose, and walked; for she was of the age of twelve years. And they were astonished with a great astonishment.
- 43 And he gave them special orders that they were not to say anything of this; and he said that some food was to be given to her.
He charged them much that no one should know this. He commanded that something should be given to her to eat.
And he charged them strictly that no man should know it; and commanded that something should be given her to eat.

- 1 And he went away from there, and came into his country; and his disciples went with him.
He went out from there. He came into his own country, and his disciples followed him.
And he went out from thence, and came into his own country, and his disciples follow him.
- 2 And when the Sabbath day had come, he was teaching in the Synagogue; and a number of people hearing him were surprised, saying, From where did this man get these things? and, What is the wisdom given to this man, and what are these works of power done by his hands?
When the Sabbath had come, he began to teach in the synagogue, and many hearing him were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things?" and, "What is the wisdom that is given to this man, that such mighty works come about by his hands?"
And when the sabbath was come, he began to teach in the synagogue: and many hearing him were astonished, saying, From whence hath this man these things? and what wisdom is this which is given to him, that even such mighty works are wrought by his hands?
- 3 Is not this the woodworker, the son of Mary, and brother of James and Joses and Judas and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were bitter against him.
Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and brother of James, Joses, Judas, and Simon? Aren't his sisters here with us?" They were offended by him.
Is not this the carpenter, the son of Mary, the brother of James, and Joses, and of Judas, and Simon? and are not his sisters here with us? And they were offended at him.
- 4 And Jesus said to them, A prophet is nowhere without honour, but in his country, and among his relations, and in his family.
Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his own country, and among his own relatives, and in his own house."
But Jesus said to them, A prophet is not without honor, but in his own country, and among his own kindred, and in his own house.
- 5 And he was unable to do any work of power there, but only to put his hands on one or two persons who were ill, and make them well.
He could do no mighty work there, except that he laid his hands on a few sick folk, and healed them.
And he could there do no mighty work, save that he laid his hands upon a few sick persons, and healed them.
- 6 And he was greatly surprised because they had no faith. And he went about the country places teaching.
He marveled because of their unbelief. He went around the villages teaching.
And he marveled because of their unbelief. And he went around the villages teaching.

- 7 And he gave orders to the twelve, and sent them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits;
He called to himself the twelve, and began to send them out two by two; and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits.
And he calleth to him the twelve, and began to send them forth by two and two; and gave them power over unclean spirits;
- 8 And he said that they were to take nothing for their journey, but a stick only; no bread, no bag, no money in their pockets;
He charged them that they should take nothing for their journey, except a staff only: no bread, no wallet, no money in their purse,
And commanded them that they should take nothing for their journey, save a staff only; no bag, no bread, no money in their purse:
- 9 They were to go with common shoes on their feet, and not to take two coats.
but to wear sandals, and not put on two tunics.
But be shod with sandals; and not put on two coats.
- 10 And he said to them, Wherever you go into a house, make that your resting-place till you go away.
He said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, stay there until you depart from there.
And he said to them, In whatever place ye enter into a house, there abide till ye depart from that place.
- 11 And whatever place will not take you in and will not give ear to you, when you go away, put off the dust from your feet as a witness against them.
Whoever will not receive you nor hear you, as you depart from there, shake off the dust that is under your feet for a testimony against them. Assuredly, I tell you, it will be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment than for that city!"
And whoever shall not receive you, nor hear you, when ye depart thence shake off the dust under your feet, for a testimony against them. Verily I say to you, It shall be more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah in the day of judgment, than for that city.
- 12 And they went out, preaching the need for a change of heart in men.
They went out, and preached that people should repent.
And they went out and preached that men should repent.

- 13 And they sent out a number of evil spirits, and put oil on a great number who were ill, and made them well.
They cast out many demons, and anointed many with oil who were sick, and healed them.
And they cast out many demons, and anointed with oil many that were sick, and healed them.
- 14 And king Herod had news of him, because his name was on the lips of all; and he said, John the Baptist has come back from the dead, and for this reason these powers are working in him.
King Herod heard this, for his name had become known, and he said, "John the Baptizer has risen from the dead, and therefore these powers work in him."
And king Herod heard of him (for his name was spread abroad:) and he said, That John the Baptist had risen from the dead, and therefore mighty works do show forth themselves in him.
- 15 But others said, It is Elijah. And others said, It is a prophet, even like one of the prophets.
But others said, "It is Elijah." Others said, "It is the Prophet, or like one of the prophets."
Others said, That it is Elijah. And others said, That it is a prophet, or as one of the prophets.
- 16 But Herod, when he had news of it, said, John, whom I put to death, has come back from the dead.
But Herod, when he heard this, said, "This is John, whom I beheaded. He has risen from the dead."
But when Herod heard of him, he said, It is John, whom I beheaded: he hath risen from the dead.
- 17 For Herod himself had sent men out to take John and put him in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, whom he had taken for himself.
For Herod himself had sent out and laid hold on John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, for he had married her.
For Herod himself had sent forth and laid hold upon John, and bound him in prison for the sake of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife: for he had married her.
- 18 For John said to Herod, It is wrong for you to have your brother's wife.
For John said to Herod, "It is not lawful for you to have your brother's wife."
For John had said to Herod, It is not lawful for thee to have thy brother's wife.
- 19 And Herodias was bitter against him, desiring to put him to death; but she was not able;
Herodias set herself against him, and desired to kill him, but she couldn't,
Therefore Herodias had a quarrel against him, and would have killed him; but she could not:

- 20 For Herod was in fear of John, being conscious that he was an upright and holy man, and kept him safe. And hearing him, he was much troubled; and he gave ear to him gladly.
for Herod feared John, knowing that he was a righteous and holy man, and kept him safe. When he heard him, he did many things, and he heard him gladly.
For Herod feared John, knowing that he was a just and holy man, and observed him: and when he heard him, he did many things, and heard him gladly.
- 21 And the chance came when Herod on his birthday gave a feast to his lords, and the high captains, and the chief men of Galilee;
When a convenient day had come, that Herod on his birthday made a supper for his lords, and the high captains, and the chief men of Galilee;
And when a convenient day had come, that Herod on his birth-day made a supper to his lords, high captains, and chief men of Galilee;
- 22 And when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and did a dance, Herod and those who were at table with him were pleased with her; and the king said to the girl, Make a request for anything and I will give it you.
and when the daughter of Herodias herself came in and danced, she pleased Herod and those reclining with him. The king said to the young lady, "Ask me whatever you want, and I will give it to you."
And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in, and danced, and pleased Herod, and them that sat with him, the king said to the damsel, Ask of me whatever thou wilt, and I will give it thee.
- 23 And he took an oath, saying to her, Whatever is your desire I will give it to you, even half of my kingdom.
He swore to her, "Whatever you shall ask of me, I will give you, up to half of my kingdom."
And he swore to her, Whatever thou shalt ask of me, I will give it thee, to the half of my kingdom.
- 24 And she went out and said to her mother, What is my request to be? And she said, The head of John the Baptist.
She went out, and said to her mother, "What shall I ask?" She said, "The head of John the Baptizer."
And she went forth, and said to her mother, What shall I ask? and she said, The head of John the Baptist.
- 25 And she came in quickly to the king, and said, My desire is that you give me straight away on a plate the head of John the Baptist.
She came in immediately with haste to the king, and asked, "I want you to give me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter."
And she came in forthwith with haste to the king, and asked, saying, I will that thou shouldst give me, immediately, in a dish, the head of John the Baptist.

- 26 And the king was very sad; but because of his oaths, and those who were with him at table, he would not say 'No' to her.
The king was exceedingly sorry, but for the sake of his oaths, and of his dinner guests, he didn't wish to refuse her.
And the king was exceeding sorry: yet for his oath's sake, and for their sakes who sat with him, he would not reject her.
- 27 And straight away the king sent out one of his armed men, and gave him an order to come back with the head: and he went and took off John's head in prison,
Immediately the king sent forth a soldier of his guard, and commanded to bring John's head, and he went and beheaded him in the prison,
And immediately the king sent an executioner, and commanded his head to be brought: and he went and beheaded him in the prison,
- 28 And came back with the head on a plate, and gave it to the girl; and the girl gave it to her mother.
and brought his head on a platter, and gave it to the young lady; and the young lady gave it to her mother.
And brought his head in a dish, and gave it to the damsel: and the damsel gave it to her mother.
- 29 And when his disciples had news of it, they came and took up his body, and put it in its last resting-place.
When his disciples heard this, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.
And when his disciples heard of it, they came and took up his corpse, and laid it in a tomb.
- 30 And the twelve came together to Jesus; and they gave him an account of all the things they had done, and all they had been teaching.
The apostles gathered themselves together to Jesus, and they told him all things, whatever they had done, and whatever they had taught.
And the apostles assembled themselves to Jesus, and told him all things, both what they had done, and what they had taught.
- 31 And he said to them, Come away by yourselves to a quiet place, and take a rest for a time. Because there were a great number coming and going, and they had no time even for food.
He said to them, "You come apart into a desert place, and rest awhile." For there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.
And he said to them, Come ye yourselves apart into a desert place, and rest a while: for there were many coming and going, and they had no leisure so much as to eat.

- 32 And they went away in the boat to a waste place by themselves.
They went away in the boat to a desert place by themselves.
And they departed into a desert place in a boat privately.
- 33 And the people saw them going, and a number of them, having knowledge who they were, went running there together on foot from all the towns, and got there before them.
They saw them going, and many recognized him and ran there on foot from all the cities. They arrived before them and came together to him.
And the people saw them departing, and many knew him, and ran on foot thither out of all cities, and out went them, and came together to him.
- 34 And he got out, and saw a great mass of people, and he had pity on them, because they were like sheep without a keeper: and he gave them teaching about a number of things.
Jesus came out, saw a great multitude, and he had compassion on them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.
And Jesus, when he came out, saw many people, and was moved with compassion towards them, because they were as sheep not having a shepherd: and he began to teach them many things.
- 35 And at the end of the day, his disciples came to him and said, This place is waste land, and it is late:
When it was late in the day, his disciples came to him, and said, "This place is a desert, and it is late in the day.
And when the day was now far spent, his disciples came to him, and said, This is a desert place, and now the time is far passed:
- 36 Send them away, so that they may go into the country and small towns round about, and get some food for themselves.
Send them away, that they may go into the surrounding country and villages, and buy themselves bread, for they have nothing to eat."
Send them away, that they may go into the country around, and into the villages, and buy themselves bread:
for they have nothing to eat.
- 37 But he said to them in answer, Give them food yourselves. And they said to him, Are we to go and get bread for two hundred pence, and give it to them?
But he answered them, "You give them something to eat." They asked him, "Shall we go and buy two hundred denarii worth of bread, and give them something to eat?"
He answered and said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they say to him, Shall we go and buy two hundred pennyworth of bread, and give them to eat?"

- 38 And he said to them, How much bread have you? go and see. And when they had seen, they said, Five cakes of bread and two fishes.
He said to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go see." When they knew, they said, "Five, and two fish."
He saith to them, How many loaves have ye? go and see. And when they knew, they say, Five, and two fishes.
- 39 And he made them all be seated in groups on the green grass.
He commanded those that all should sit down by companies on the green grass.
And he commanded them to make all sit down by companies upon the green grass.
- 40 And they were placed in groups, by hundreds and by fifties.
They sat down in ranks, by hundreds and by fifties.
And they sat down in ranks, by hundreds, and by fifties.
- 41 And he took the five cakes of bread and the two fishes and, looking up to heaven, he said words of blessing over them; and when the cakes were broken, he gave them to the disciples to put before the people; and he made division of the two fishes among them all.
He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed, and broke the loaves, and he gave to his disciples to set before them, and he divided the two fish among them all.
And when he had taken the five loaves, and the two fishes, he looked up to heaven, and blessed, and broke the loaves, and gave them to his disciples to set before them; and the two fishes he divided among them all.
- 42 And they all took of the food and had enough.
They all ate, and were filled.
And they all ate, and were satisfied.
- 43 And they took up twelve baskets full of the broken bits and of the fishes.
They took up twelve baskets full of broken pieces and also of the fish.
And they took up twelve baskets full of the fragments, and of the fishes.
- 44 And those who took of the bread were five thousand men.
Those who ate the loaves were five thousand men.
And they that ate of the loaves, were about five thousand men.

- 45 And straight away he made his disciples get into the boat, and go before him to the other side to Beth-saida, while he himself sent the people away.
Immediately he made his disciples enter into the boat, and to go ahead to the other side, to Bethsaida, while he himself sent the multitude away.
And immediately he constrained his disciples to get into the boat, and to go to the other side before to Bethsaida, while he sent away the people.
- 46 And after he had sent them away, he went up into a mountain for prayer.
After he had taken leave of them, he departed into the mountain to pray.
And when he had dismissed them, he departed to a mountain to pray.
- 47 And by evening, the boat was in the middle of the sea, and he by himself on the land.
When evening had come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he was alone on the land.
And when evening was come, the boat was in the midst of the sea, and he alone on the land.
- 48 And seeing that they had trouble in getting their boat through the water, because the wind was against them, about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea; and he would have gone past them;
Seeing them distressed in rowing, for the wind was contrary to them; and about the fourth watch of the night he came to them, walking on the sea, and he would have passed by them,
And he saw them toiling in rowing; for the wind was contrary to them: and about the fourth watch of the night he cometh to them, walking upon the sea, and would have passed by them.
- 49 But they, when they saw him walking on the sea, took him for a spirit, and gave a loud cry:
but they, when they saw him walking on the sea, supposed that it was a ghost, and cried out;
But when they saw him walking upon the sea, they supposed it had been a spirit, and cried out.
- 50 For they all saw him, and were troubled. But straight away he said to them, Take heart, it is I, have no fear.
for they all saw him, and were troubled. But he immediately spoke with them, and said to them, "Cheer up! It is I! Don't be afraid."
(For they all saw him, and were troubled.) And immediately he talked with them, and saith to them, Be of good cheer: It is I; be not afraid.

- 51 And he went to them into the boat, and the wind went down, and they were full of wonder in themselves;
He went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased, and they were very amazed among themselves, and marveled.
And he went up to them into the boat; and the wind ceased: and they were greatly amazed in themselves beyond measure, and wondered.
- 52 For it was not clear to them about the bread; but their hearts were hard.
for they hadn't understood about the loaves, but their hearts were hardened.
For they considered not the miracle of the loaves; for their heart was hardened.
- 53 And when they had gone across, they came to Gennesaret, and got their boat to land.
When they had crossed over, they came to the land to Gennesaret, and moored to the shore.
And when they had passed over, they came into the land of Gennesaret, and drew to the shore.
- 54 And when they had got out of the boat, the people quickly had news of him,
When they had come out of the boat, immediately the people recognized him,
And when they had come out of the boat forthwith they knew him,
- 55 And went running through all the country round about, and took on their beds those who were ill, to where it was said that he was.
and ran around that whole region, and began to carry around those who were sick, on their mats, to where they heard he was.
And ran through that whole region around, and began to carry about in beds those that were sick, where they heard he was.
- 56 And wherever he went, into small towns, or great towns, or into the country, they took those who were ill into the market-places, requesting him that they might put their hands even on the edge of his robe: and all those who did so were made well.
Wherever he entered, into villages, or into cities, or into the country, they laid the sick in the marketplaces, and begged him that they might touch just the fringe of his garment; and as many as touched him were made well.
And whithersoever he entered, into villages, or cities, or country, they laid the sick in the streets, and besought him that they might touch, if it were but the border of his garment: and as many as touched him, were healed.

- 1 And there came together to him the Pharisees and certain of the scribes who had come from Jerusalem,
Then the Pharisees, and some of the scribes gathered together to him, having come from Jerusalem.
Then came together to him the Pharisees, and certain of the scribes, who came from Jerusalem.
- 2 And had seen that some of his disciples took their bread with unclean, that is, unwashed, hands.
Now when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled, that is, unwashed, hands, they found fault.
And when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with defiled (that is to say with unwashed) hands, they found fault.
- 3 Now the Pharisees, and all the Jews, do not take food without washing their hands with care, keeping the old rule which has been handed down to them:
(For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, don't eat unless they wash their hands and forearms, holding to the tradition of the elders.
For the Pharisees, and all the Jews, except they wash their hands often eat not, holding the tradition of the elders.
- 4 And when they come from the market-place, they take no food till their hands are washed; and a number of other orders there are, which have been handed down to them to keep--washings of cups and pots and brass vessels.
They don't eat when they come from the marketplace, unless they bathe themselves, and there are many other things, which they have received to hold to: washings of cups, pitchers, bronze vessels, and couches.)
And when they come from the market, except they wash, they eat not. And many other things there are, which they have received to hold, as the washing of cups, and pots, and of brazen vessels, and tables.
- 5 And the Pharisees and the scribes put the question to him, Why do your disciples not keep the rules of the fathers, but take their bread with unwashed hands?
The Pharisees and the scribes asked him, "Why don't your disciples walk according to the tradition of the elders, but eat their bread with unwashed hands?"
Then the Pharisees and scribes asked him, Why walk not thy disciples according to the tradition of the elders, but eat bread with unwashed hands?
- 6 And he said, Well did Isaiah say of you, you false ones: These people give me honour with their lips, but their heart is far from me.
He answered them, "Well did Isaiah prophesy of you hypocrites, as it is written, `This people honors me with their lips, But their heart is far from me.
He answered and said to them, Well hath Isaiah prophesied concerning you hypocrites, as it is written, This people honoreth me with their lips, but their heart is far from me.

- 7 But their worship is to no purpose, while they give as their teaching the rules of men.
But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as doctrines the commandments of men.`
But, in vain do they worship me, teaching for doctrines the commandments of men.
- 8 For, turning away from the law of God, you keep the rules of men.
"For you set aside the commandment of God, and hold tightly to the tradition of men -- the washing of pitchers and cups, and you do many other such things."
For laying aside the commandment of God, ye hold the tradition of men, as the washing of pots and cups: and many other such like things ye do.
- 9 And he said to them, Truly you put on one side the law of God, so that you may keep the rules which have been handed down to you.
He said to them, "Full well do you reject the commandment of God, that you may keep your tradition.
And he said to them, Full well ye reject the commandment of God, that ye may keep your own tradition,
- 10 For Moses said, Give honour to your father and mother, and, He who says evil of father or mother, let him have the punishment of death:
For Moses said, `Honor your father and your mother;` and, `He who speaks evil of father or mother, let him be put to death.`
For Moses said, Honor thy father and thy mother; and, Whoever curseth father or mother, let him die the death:
- 11 But you say, If a man says to his father or his mother, That by which you might have had profit from me is Corban, that is to say, Given to God,
But you say, `If a man will tell his father or his mother, "Whatever you might have been profited by me is Corban, that is to say, given to God;"`
But ye say, If a man shall say to his father or mother, It is Corban, that is to say, a gift, by whatever thou mightest be profited by me; he shall be free.
- 12 You no longer let him do anything for his father or his mother;
and you no longer allow him to do anything for his father or his mother,
And ye suffer him no more to do aught for his father or his mother;

- 13 Making the word of God of no effect by your rule, which you have given: and a number of other such things you do.
making void the word of God by your tradition, which you have handed down. You do many things like this."
Making the word of God of no effect through your traditions, which ye have delivered: and many such like things ye do.
- 14 And turning to the people again, he said to them, Give ear to me all of you, and let my words be clear to you:
He called all the multitude to himself, and said to them, "Hear me, all of you, and understand.
And when he had called all the people to him, he said to them, Hearken to me every one of you, and understand.
- 15 There is nothing outside the man which, going into him, is able to make him unclean: but the things which come out of the man are those which make the man unclean.
There is nothing from outside of the man, that going into him can defile him; but the things which proceed out of the man are those that defile the man.
There is nothing from without a man, that entering into him, can defile him: but the things which come out of him, those are they that defile the man.
- 16 ¶
If anyone has ears to hear, let him hear!"
If any man hath ears to hear, let him hear.
- 17 And when he had gone into the house away from all the people, his disciples put questions to him about the saying.
When he had entered into the house from the multitude, his disciples asked him about the parable.
And when he had entered into the house from the people, his disciples asked him concerning the parable.
- 18 And he said to them, Have even you so little wisdom? Do you not see that whatever goes into a man from outside is not able to make him unclean,
He said to them, "Are you so without understanding also? Don`t you perceive that whatever goes into the man from outside can`t defile him,
And he saith to them, Are ye so void of understanding also? Do ye not perceive, that whatever thing from without entereth into the man, it cannot defile him.

- 19 Because it goes not into the heart but into the stomach, and goes out with the waste? He said this, making all food clean.
because it doesn't go into his heart, but into his belly, and into the latrine, thus making all foods clean?"
Because it entereth not into his heart, but into the belly, and goeth out into the draught, purging all kinds of food.
- 20 And he said, That which comes out of the man, that makes the man unclean.
He said, "That which proceeds out of the man, that defiles the man."
And he said, That which cometh out of the man, that defileth the man.
- 21 Because from inside, from the heart of men, come evil thoughts and unclean pleasures,
For from within, out of the hearts of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, sexual sins, murders, thefts,
For from within, out of the heart of men, proceed evil thoughts, adulteries, fornications, murders,
- 22 The taking of goods and of life, broken faith between husband and wife, the desire of wealth, wrongdoing, deceit, sins of the flesh, an evil eye, angry words, pride, foolish acts: covetings, wickedness, deceit, lustful desires, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, and foolishness.
Thefts, covetousness, wickedness, deceit, lasciviousness, an evil eye, blasphemy, pride, foolishness;
- 23 All these evil things come from inside, and make the man unclean.
All these evil things proceed from within, and defile the man."
All these evil things come from within, and defile the man.
- 24 And he went away from there to the country of Tyre and Sidon. And he went into a house, desiring that no man might have knowledge of it: and he was not able to keep it secret.
From there he arose, and went away into the borders of Tyre and Sidon. He entered into a house, and wanted no one to know it, but he couldn't escape detection.
And from thence he arose, and went into the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and entered into a house, and would have no man know it: but he could not be hid.
- 25 But a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having had news of him, came straight away and went down at his feet.
For a woman, whose little daughter had an unclean spirit, having heard of him, came and fell down at his feet.
For a certain woman, whose young daughter had an unclean spirit, heard of him, and came and fell at his feet:

- 26 Now the woman was a Greek, a Syro-phoenician by birth: and she made a request to him that he would send the evil spirit out of her daughter.
Now the woman was a Greek, a Syrophoenician by race. She begged him that he would cast the demon out of her daughter.
(The woman was a Greek, a Syrophenician by nation,) and she besought him that he would cast forth the demon out of her daughter.
- 27 And he said to her, Let the children first have their food: for it is not right to take the children's bread and give it to the dogs.
But Jesus said to her, "Let the children be filled first, for it is not appropriate to take the children`s bread and throw it to the dogs."
But Jesus said to her, Let the children first be satisfied: for it is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to the dogs.
- 28 But she said to him in answer, Yes, Lord: even the dogs under the table take the bits dropped by the children.
But she answered him, "Yes, Lord. For even the dogs under the table eat the children`s crumbs."
And she answered and said to him, Yes, Lord: yet the dogs under the table eat of the children's crumbs.
- 29 And he said to her, For this saying go your way; the evil spirit has gone out of your daughter.
He said to her, "For this saying, go your way. The demon has gone out of your daughter."
And he said to her, For this saying, depart; the demon is gone out of thy daughter.
- 30 And she went away to her house, and saw the child on the bed, and the evil spirit gone out.
She went away to her house, and found the child laying on the bed, with the demon gone out.
And when she had come to her house, she found the demon had gone out, and her daughter laid upon the bed.
- 31 And again he went out from Tyre, and came through Sidon to the sea of Galilee, through the country of Decapolis.
Again he departed from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, and came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis.
And again, departing from the borders of Tyre and Sidon, he came to the sea of Galilee, through the midst of the borders of Decapolis.

- 32 And they came to him with one who had no power of hearing and had trouble in talking; and they made a request to him to put his hands on him.
They brought to him one who was deaf and had an impediment in his speech. They begged him to lay his hand on him.
And they bring to him one that was deaf, and had an impediment in his speech; and they beseech him to put his hand upon him.
- 33 And he took him on one side from the people privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he put water from his mouth on the man's tongue with his finger;
He took him aside from the multitude, privately, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spat, and touched his tongue.
And he took him aside from the multitude, and put his fingers into his ears, and he spit, and touched his tongue.
- 34 And looking up to heaven, he took a deep breath, and said to him, Ephphatha, that is, Be open.
Looking up to heaven, he sighed, and said to him, "Ephphatha!" that is, "Be opened!"
And looking up to heaven, he sighed, and saith to him, Effatha, that is, Be opened.
- 35 And his ears became open, and the band of his tongue was made loose, and his words became clear.
Immediately his ears were opened, and the bond of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke clearly.
And immediately his ears were opened, and the string of his tongue was loosed, and he spoke plain.
- 36 And he gave them orders not to give news of it to anyone; but the more he made this request, so much the more they made it public.
He charged them that they should tell no one, but the more he charged them, so much the more widely they proclaimed it.
And he charged them that they should tell no man: but the more he charged them; so much the more a great deal they published it;
- 37 And they were overcome with wonder, saying, He has done all things well: he even gives back the power of hearing and the power of talking to those who have been without them.
They were astonished beyond measure, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes even the deaf hear, and the mute speak!"
And were beyond measure astonished, saying, He hath done all things well; he maketh both the deaf to hear, and the dumb to speak.

1 In those days again, when there was a great mass of people and they had no food, he made his disciples come to him and said to them,
In those days, when there was a very great multitude, and they had nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples to himself, and said to them,
In those days the multitude being very great, and having nothing to eat, Jesus called his disciples, and saith to them,

2 I have pity for these people because they have been with me now three days, and have no food;
"I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat."
I have compassion on the multitude, because they have now been with me three days, and have nothing to eat:

3 If I send them away to their houses with no food, they will be overcome by weariness on the way; and some of them have come from far.
If I send them away fasting to their home, they will faint on the way, for some of them have come a long way."
And if I send them away fasting to their own houses, they will faint by the way: for some of them came from a distance.

4 And his disciples said in answer, How will it be possible to get enough bread for these men here in a waste place?
His disciples answered him, "From where will one be able to fill these men with bread here in a desert place?"
And his disciples answered him, From whence can a man satisfy these men with bread here in the wilderness?

5 And he put the question, How much bread have you? And they said, Seven cakes.
He asked them, "How many loaves do you have?" They said, "Seven."
And he asked them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven.

6 And he made the people be seated on the earth: and he took the seven cakes and, having given praise, he gave the broken bread to his disciples to put before them; and they put it before the people.
He commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground, and he took the seven loaves. Having given thanks, he broke them, and gave them to his disciples to serve, and they served the multitude.
And he commanded the people to sit down on the ground: and he took the seven loaves, and gave thanks, and broke, and gave to his disciples to set before them; and they set them before the people.

- 7 And they had some small fishes; and blessing them he had them put before the people in the same way.
They had a few small fish. Having blessed them, he said to serve these also.
And they had a few small fishes: and he blessed, and commanded to set them also before them.
- 8 And they took the food, and had enough; and they took up seven baskets full of the broken bits.
They ate, and were filled. They took up seven baskets of broken pieces that were left over.
So they ate, and were satisfied: and they took up of the fragments that were left, seven baskets.
- 9 And there were about four thousand people: and he sent them away.
Those who had eaten were about four thousand. Then he sent them away.
And they that had eaten were about four thousand: and he dismissed them.
- 10 And he got into the boat with his disciples straight away, and came into the country of Dalmanutha.
Immediately he entered into the boat with his disciples, and came into the region of Dalmanutha.
And forthwith he entered into a boat with his disciples, and came into the parts of Dalmanutha.
- 11 And the Pharisees came out and put questions to him, requesting from him a sign from heaven, testing him.
The Pharisees came out and began to question him, seeking a sign from heaven from him, and tempting him.
And the Pharisees came forth, and began to question with him, seeking from him a sign from heaven, tempting him.
- 12 And he was very sad in spirit, and said, Why is this generation looking for a sign? truly, I say to you, No sign will be given to this generation.
He sighed deeply in his spirit, and said, "Why does this generation seek a sign? Most assuredly I tell you, there will no sign be given to this generation."
And he sighed deeply in his spirit, and saith, Why doth this generation seek for a sign? Verily I say to you, There shall no sign be given to this generation.
- 13 And he went away from them, and again got into the boat and went across to the other side.
He left them, and again entering into the boat, departed to the other side.
And he left them, and entering into the boat again, departed to the other side.

- 14 And they had taken no thought to get bread; and they had only one cake of bread with them in the boat.
They forgot to take bread; and they didn't have more than one loaf in the boat with them.
Now the disciples had forgotten to take bread, neither had they in the boat with them more than one loaf.
- 15 And he said to them, Take care to be on the watch against the leaven of the Pharisees and the leaven of Herod.
He charged them, saying, "Take heed: beware of the yeast of the Pharisees and the yeast of Herod."
And he charged them saying, Take heed, beware of the leaven of the Pharisees, and of the leaven of Herod.
- 16 And they said to one another, We have no bread.
They reasoned with one another, saying, "It's because we have no bread."
And they reasoned among themselves, saying, It is because we have no bread.
- 17 And Jesus, hearing it, said to them, Why are you reasoning among yourselves because you have no bread? do you still not see, and is it still not clear to you? are your hearts so hard?
Jesus, perceiving it, said to them, "Why do you reason that it's because you have no bread? Don't you perceive yet, neither understand? Is your heart still hardened?
And when Jesus knew it, he saith to them, Why reason ye, because ye have no bread? perceive ye not yet, neither understand? have ye your heart yet hardened?
- 18 Having eyes, do you not see? and having ears, have you no hearing? and have you no memory?
Having eyes, don't you see? Having ears, don't you hear? Don't you remember?
Having eyes, see ye not? and having ears, hear ye not? and do ye not remember?
- 19 When I made a division of the five cakes of bread among the five thousand, what number of baskets full of broken bits did you take up? They said to him, Twelve.
When I broke the five loaves among the five thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Twelve."
When I divided the five loaves among five thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? They say to him, Twelve.

20 And when the seven among the four thousand, what number of baskets full of broken bits did you take up? And they said to him, Seven.
"When the seven loaves fed the four thousand, how many baskets full of broken pieces did you take up?" They told him, "Seven."

And when the seven among four thousand, how many baskets full of fragments took ye up? And they said, Seven.

21 And he said to them, Is it still not clear to you?
He asked them, "Don't you understand, yet?"

And he said to them, How is it that ye do not understand?

22 And they came to Beth-saida. And they took a blind man to him, requesting him to put his hands on him.

He came to Bethsaida. They brought a blind man to him, and begged him to touch him.

And he cometh to Bethsaida; and they bring a blind man to him, and besought him to touch him.

23 And he took the blind man by the hand, and went with him out of the town; and when he had put water from his mouth on his eyes, and put his hands on him, he said, Do you see anything?
He took hold of the blind man by the hand, and brought him out of the village. When he had spit on his eyes, and laid his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

And he took the blind man by the hand, and led him out of the town; and when he had spit on his eyes, and put his hands upon him, he asked him if he saw aught.

24 And looking up, he said, I see men; I see them like trees, walking.

He looked up, and said, "I see men; for I see them like trees walking."

And he looked up, and said, I see men as trees walking.

25 Then again he put his hands on his eyes; and looking hard, he was able to see, and saw all things clearly.

Then again he laid his hands on his eyes. He looked intently, and was restored, and saw everyone clearly.

After that, he put his hands again upon his eyes, and made him look up: and he was restored, and saw every man clearly.

- 26 And he sent him away to his house, saying, Do not even go into the town.
He sent him away to his house, saying, "Don't enter into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."
And he sent him away to his house, saying, Neither go into the town, nor tell it to any in the town.
- 27 And Jesus went out, with his disciples, into the little towns round Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he put a question to his disciples, saying, Who do men say that I am?
Jesus went forth, with his disciples, into the villages of Caesarea Philippi. On the way he asked his disciples, "Who do men say that I am?"
And Jesus went out, and his disciples, into the towns of Caesarea Philippi: and by the way he asked his disciples, saying to them, Who do men say that I am?
- 28 And they made answer, John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; but others, One of the prophets.
They told him, "John the Baptizer, and others, Elijah, but others, one of the prophets."
And they answered, John the Baptist: but some say, Elijah; and others, One of the prophets,
- 29 And he said to them, But who do you say I am? Peter said in answer, You are the Christ.
He asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "You are the Christ."
And he saith to them, But who say ye that I am? And Peter answereth and saith to him, Thou art the Christ.
- 30 And he put them under orders not to say this of him to anyone.
He charged them that they should tell no one about him.
And he charged them that they should tell no man of him.
- 31 And teaching them, he said that the Son of man would have to undergo much, and be hated by those in authority, and the chief priests, and the scribes, and be put to death, and after three days come back from the dead.
He began to teach them that the Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.
And he began to teach them, that the Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and the chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again.

- 32 And he said this openly. And Peter took him, and was protesting.
He spoke to them openly. Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
And he spoke that saying openly. And Peter took him, and began to rebuke him.
- 33 But he, turning about, and seeing his disciples, said sharply to Peter, Get out of my way, Satan: for your mind is not on the things of God, but on the things of men.
But he, turning around, and seeing his disciples, rebuked Peter, and said, "Get behind me, Satan! For you have in mind not the things of God, but the things of men."
But when he had turned about, and looked on his disciples, he rebuked Peter, saying, Get thee behind me, Satan: for thou savorest not the things that are of God, but the things that are of men.
- 34 And turning to the mass of people with his disciples, he said to them, If any man has the desire to come after me, let him give up all other desires, and take up his cross and come after me.
He called the multitude to himself with his disciples, and said to them, "Whoever wants to come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
And when he had called the people to him with his disciples also, he said to them, Whoever will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow me.
- 35 Whoever has a desire to keep his life, will have it taken from him; and whoever gives up his life because of me and the good news, will keep it.
For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; and whoever will lose his life for my sake and the gospel's will save it.
For whoever will save his life, shall lose it; but whoever shall lose his life for my sake and the gospel's, the same shall save it.
- 36 What profit has a man if he gets all the world with the loss of his life?
For what does it profit a man, to gain the whole world, and forfeit his life?
For what shall it profit a man, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose his own soul:
- 37 And what would a man give in exchange for his life?
For what should a man give in exchange for his life?
Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

38 Whoever has a feeling of shame because of me and my words in this false and evil generation, the Son of man will have a feeling of shame because of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, the Son of Man also will be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Whoever therefore shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, in this adulterous and sinful generation; of him also will the Son of man be ashamed, when he cometh in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.

1 And he said to them, Truly I say to you, There are some here who will have no taste of death till they see the kingdom of God come with power.

He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there are some standing here who will in no way taste death, until they see the kingdom of God come with power."

And he said to them, Verily I say to you, that there are some of them that stand here who shall not taste death, till they have seen the kingdom of God come with power.

2 And after six days Jesus took with him Peter and James and John, and made them go up with him into a high mountain by themselves: and he was changed in form before them:

After six days Jesus took with him Peter, James, and John, and brought them up onto a high mountain privately by themselves, and he was changed into another form in front of them.

And after six days, Jesus taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and leadeth them up upon a high mountain apart by themselves; and he was transfigured before them.

3 And his clothing became shining, very white, as no cleaner on earth would make it.

His clothing became glistening, exceedingly white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth can whiten them.

And his raiment became shining, exceeding white as snow; so as no fuller on earth can whiten them.

4 And there came before them Elijah with Moses, and they were talking with Jesus.

Elijah and Moses appeared to them, and they were talking with Jesus.

And there appeared to them Elijah, with Moses: and they were talking with Jesus.

5 And Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tents; one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

Peter answered Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here. Let`s make three tents: one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

And Peter answered and said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah.

- 6 Because he was not certain what to say, for they were in great fear.
For he didn't know what to say, for they were very afraid.
For he knew not what to say: for they were greatly terrified.
- 7 And a cloud came over them; and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my dearly loved Son, give ear to him.
A cloud came, overshadowing them, and a voice came out of the cloud, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."
And there was a cloud that overshadowed them: and a voice came out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
- 8 And suddenly looking round about, they saw no one any longer, but Jesus only with themselves.
Suddenly looking around, they saw no one with them any more, except Jesus only.
And suddenly, when they had looked around, they saw no man any more, save Jesus only with themselves.
- 9 And while they were coming down from the mountain, he gave them orders not to give word to any man of the things they had seen, till the Son of man had come back from the dead.
As they were coming down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no one what things they had seen, until the Son of Man had risen again from the dead.
And as they came down from the mountain, he charged them that they should tell no man what things they had seen, till the Son of man were risen from the dead.
- 10 And they kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the coming back from the dead might be.
They kept the saying, questioning among themselves what the rising again from the dead should mean.
And they kept that saying with themselves, questioning one with another what the rising from the dead should mean.
- 11 And they put a question to him, saying, Why do the scribes say that Elijah has to come first?
They asked him, saying, "Why do the scribes say that Elijah must come first?"
And they asked him, saying, Why say the scribes that Elijah must first come?

- 12 And he said to them, Truly, Elijah does come first, and puts all things in order; and how is it said in the Writings that the Son of man will go through much sorrow and be made as nothing? He said to them, "Elijah indeed comes first, and restores all things. How is it written about the Son of Man, that he should suffer many things and be despised?
And he answered and told them, Elijah verily cometh first, and restoreth all things; and how it is written concerning the Son of man, that he must suffer many things, and be set at naught.
- 13 But I say to you that Elijah has come, and they have done to him whatever they were pleased to do, even as the Writings say about him.
But I tell you, that Elijah has come, and they have also done to him whatever they wanted to, even as it is written about him."
But I say to you, that Elijah is indeed come, and they have done to him whatever they pleased, as it is written concerning him.
- 14 And when they came to the disciples, they saw a great mass of people about them, and scribes questioning them.
Coming to the disciples, he saw a great multitude around them, and scribes questioning them.
And when he came to his disciples, he saw a great multitude about them, and the scribes questioning with them.
- 15 And straight away all the people, when they saw him, were full of wonder, and running to him, gave him worship.
Immediately all the multitude, when they saw him, were greatly amazed, and running to him greeted him.
And immediately all the people, when they beheld him, were greatly amazed, and running to him, saluted him.
- 16 And he said, What are you questioning them about?
He asked the scribes, "What are you asking them?"
And he asked the scribes, What question ye with them?
- 17 And one of the number said to him in answer, Master, I came to you with my son, who has in him a spirit which takes away his power of talking;
One of the multitude answered, "Teacher, I brought to you my son, who has a mute spirit;
And one of the multitude answered and said, Master, I have brought to thee my son, who hath a dumb spirit;

- 18 And wherever it takes him, it puts him down violently, streaming at the lips and twisted with pain; and his strength goes from him; and I made a request to your disciples to send it out, and they were not able.
and wherever it seizes him, it dashes him down, and he foams at the mouth, and grinds his teeth, and wastes away. I asked your disciples to cast it out, and they weren't able."
And wherever he taketh him, he teareth him; and he foameth and gnasheth with his teeth, and pineth away; and I spoke to thy disciples that they should cast him out, and they could not.
- 19 And he said to them in answer, O generation without faith, how long will I have to be with you? how long will I put up with you? let him come to me.
He answered them, "Unbelieving generation, how long will I be with you? How long will I bear with you? Bring him to me."
He answered him, and saith, O faithless generation, how long shall I be with you, how long shall I suffer you? bring him to me.
- 20 And they took him to him: and when he saw him, the spirit in him straight away became violent; and he went down on the earth, rolling about and streaming at the lips.
They brought him to him, and when he saw him, immediately the spirit convulsed him, and he fell on the ground, wallowing and foaming at the mouth.
And they brought him to him: and when he saw him, immediately the spirit tore him; and he fell on the ground, and wallowed, foaming.
- 21 And Jesus questioning the father said, How long has he been like this? And he said, From a child.
He asked his father, "How long has it been since this has come to him?" He said, "From childhood."
And he asked his father, How long is it since this came to him? and he said, From a child.
- 22 And frequently it has sent him into the fire and into the water, for his destruction; but if you are able to do anything, have pity on us, and give us help.
Often it has cast him both into the fire and into the water, to destroy him. But if you can do anything, have compassion on us, and help us."
And often it hath cast him into the fire, and into the waters to destroy him: but if thou canst do any thing, have compassion on us, and help us.
- 23 And Jesus said to him, If you are able! All things are possible to him who has faith.
Jesus said to him, "If you can believe? All things are possible to him who believes."
Jesus said to him, If thou canst believe, all things are possible to him that believeth.

- 24 Straight away the father of the child gave a cry, saying, I have faith; make my feeble faith stronger.
Immediately the father of the child cried out with tears, "I believe. Help my unbelief!"
And immediately the father of the child cried out, and said with tears, Lord, I believe; help thou my unbelief.
- 25 And when Jesus saw that the people came running together, he gave orders to the unclean spirit, saying to him, You, spirit, who are the cause of his loss of voice and hearing, I say to you, come out of him, and never again go into him.
When Jesus saw that a multitude came running together, he rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to him, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him, and enter no more into him!"
When Jesus saw that the people came running together, he rebuked the foul spirit, saying to him, Thou dumb and deaf spirit, I charge thee, come out of him, and enter no more into him.
- 26 And after crying out and shaking him violently, it came out: and the child became like one dead; so that most of them said, He is dead.
Having cried out, and convulsed him greatly, it came out. The boy became like one dead; so much that most of them said, "He is dead."
And the spirit cried, and rent him severely, and came out of him: and he was as one dead; so that many said, He is dead.
- 27 But Jesus took him by the hand, lifting him up; and he got up.
But Jesus took him by the hand, and raised him up; and he arose.
But Jesus took him by the hand, and lifted him up; and he arose.
- 28 And when he had gone into the house, his disciples said to him privately, Why were we unable to send it out?
When he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, "Why couldn't we cast it out?"
And when he had come into the house, his disciples asked him privately, Why could not we cast him out?
- 29 And he said to them, Nothing will make this sort come out but prayer.
He said to them, "This kind can come out by nothing, except by prayer and fasting."
And he said to them, This kind can come forth by nothing, but by prayer and fasting.

- 30 And they went out from there, through Galilee; and it was his desire that no man might have knowledge of it;
They went forth from there, and passed through Galilee. He didn't want anyone to know it.
And they departed thence, and passed through Galilee; and he would not that any man should know it.
- 31 For he was giving his disciples teaching, and saying to them, The Son of man is given up into the hands of men, and they will put him to death; and when he is dead, after three days he will come back from the dead.
For he taught his disciples, and said to them, "The Son of Man is delivered up into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and when he is killed, on the third day he will rise again."
For he taught his disciples, and said to them, The Son of man is delivered into the hands of men, and they will kill him; and after that he is killed, he will rise the third day.
- 32 But the saying was not clear to them, and they were in fear of questioning him about it.
But they didn't understand the saying, and were afraid to ask him.
But they understood not that saying, and were afraid to ask him.
- 33 And they came to Capernaum: and when he was in the house, he put the question to them, What were you talking about on the way?
He came to Capernaum, and when he was in the house he asked them, "What were you arguing among yourselves on the way?"
And he came to Capernaum: and being in the house, he asked them, What was it that ye disputed among yourselves by the way?
- 34 But they said nothing: because they had had an argument between themselves on the way, about who was the greatest.
But they were silent, for they had disputed one with another on the way about who was the greatest.
But they held their peace: for by the way they had disputed among themselves, who should be the greatest.
- 35 And seating himself, he made the twelve come to him; and he said to them, If any man has the desire to be first, he will be last of all and servant of all.
He sat down, and called the twelve; and he said to them, "If any man wants to be first, he will be last of all, and servant of all."
And he sat down, and called the twelve, and saith to them, If any man desireth to be first, the same shall be last of all, and servant of all.

- 36 And he took a little child, and put him in the middle of them; and taking him in his arms, he said to them,
He took a little child, and set him in the midst of them. Taking him in his arms, he said to them,
And he took a child, and set him in the midst of them: and when he had taken him in his arms, he said to them,
- 37 Whoever will give honour to one such little child in my name, gives honour to me: and whoever gives honour to me, gives honour not to me, but to him who sent me.
"Whoever receives one such little child in my name, receives me, and whoever receives me, doesn't receive me, but him who sent me."
Whoever shall receive one of such children in my name, receiveth me: and whoever shall receive me, receiveth not me, but him that sent me.
- 38 John said to him, Master, we saw one driving out evil spirits in your name: and we said that he might not, because he is not one of us.
John said to him, "Teacher, we saw someone who doesn't follow us casting out demons in your name; and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow us."
And John answered him, saying, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name, and he followeth not us; and we forbad him, because he followeth not us.
- 39 But Jesus said, Say not so: for there is no man who will do a great work in my name, and be able at the same time to say evil of me.
But Jesus said, "Don't forbid him, for there is no one who will do a mighty work in my name, and be able quickly to speak evil of me.
But Jesus said, Forbid him not; for there is no man who shall do a miracle in my name, that can lightly speak evil of me.
- 40 He who is not against us is for us.
For whoever is not against us is on our side.
For he that is not against us, is on our part.
- 41 Whoever gives you a cup of water, because you are Christ's, truly I say to you, he will in no way be without his reward.
For whoever will give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because you are Christ's, most assuredly I tell you, he will in no way lose his reward.
For whoever shall give you a cup of water to drink in my name, because ye belong to Christ, verily I say to you, he shall not lose his reward.

- 42 And whoever is a cause of trouble to one of these little ones who have faith in me, it would be better for him if a great stone was put round his neck and he was dropped into the sea.
Whoever will cause one of these little ones who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.
And whoever shall cause one of these little ones that believe in me, to fall into sin, it is better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were cast into the sea.
- 43 And if your hand is a cause of trouble to you, let it be cut off; it is better for you to go into life with one hand than to have two hands and go into hell, into the eternal fire.
If your hand causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life maimed, rather than having your two hands to go into Gehenna, into the unquenchable fire,
And if thy hand causeth thee to fall into sin, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter life maimed, than having two hands to go into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
- 44 ¶
`where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.`
Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
- 45 And if your foot is a cause of trouble to you, let it be cut off: it is better for you to go into life with one foot than to have two feet and go into hell.
If your foot causes you to stumble, cut it off. It is better for you to enter into life lame, rather than having your two feet to be cast into Gehenna, into the fire that will never be quenched --
And if thy foot causeth thee to fall into sin, cut it off: it is better for thee to enter halt into life, than having two feet to be cast into hell, into the fire that never shall be quenched:
- 46 ¶
`where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.`
Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.
- 47 And if your eye is a cause of trouble to you, take it out: it is better for you to go into the kingdom of God with one eye than, having two eyes, to go into hell,
If your eye causes you to stumble, cast it out. It is better for you to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, rather than having two eyes to be cast into the Gehenna of fire,
And if thy eye causeth thee to fall into sin, pluck it out: it is better for thee to enter into the kingdom of God with one eye, than having two eyes, to be cast into hell-fire.

48 Where their worm is ever living and the fire is not put out.

`where their worm doesn't die, and the fire is not quenched.`

Where their worm dieth not, and the fire is not quenched.

49 Everyone will be salted with fire.

For everyone will be salted with fire, and every sacrifice will be seasoned with salt.

For every one shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.

50 Salt is good; but if the taste goes from it, how will you make it salt again? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace one with another.

Salt is good, but if the salt has lost its saltiness, with what will you season it? Have salt in yourselves, and be at peace with one another."

Salt is good: but if the salt hath lost its saltness, with what will ye season it? Have salt in yourselves, and have peace one with another.

1 And he got up, and went into the country of Judaea on the other side of Jordan: and great numbers of people came together to him again; and, as was his way, he gave them teaching.

He arose from there and came into the borders of Judea and beyond the Jordan. Multitudes came together to him again. As he usually did, he taught them again.

And he arose from thence, and cometh into the borders of Judea, by the further side of Jordan: and the people resort to him again; and, as he was accustomed, he taught them again.

2 And Pharisees came to him, testing him with the question, Is it right for a man to put away his wife?

There came to him Pharisees testing him, and asked him, "Is it lawful for a man to divorce his wife?"

And the Pharisees came to him, and asked him, Is it lawful for a man to put away his wife? tempting him.

3 And he said to them in answer, What did Moses say you were to do?

He answered, "What did Moses command you?"

And he answered and said to them, What did Moses command you?

4 And they said to him, Moses let us give her a statement in writing, and be free from her.

They said, "Moses allowed a bill of divorce to be written, and to divorce her."

And they said, Moses suffered to write a bill of divorcement, and to put her away.

- 5 But Jesus said to them, Because of your hard hearts he gave you this law.
But Jesus said to them, "For your hardness of heart, he wrote you this commandment.
And Jesus answered and said to them, For the hardness of your heart, he wrote you this precept.
- 6 But from the first, male and female made he them.
But from the beginning of the creation, `God made them male and female.
But from the beginning of the creation, God made them male and female.
- 7 For this cause will a man go away from his father and mother, and be joined to his wife;
For this cause will a man leave his father and mother, and will join to his wife,
For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and cleave to his wife;
- 8 And the two will become one flesh; so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.
and the two will become one flesh, ` so that they are no longer two, but one flesh.
And they two shall be one flesh: so then they are no more two, but one flesh.
- 9 Let not that which has been joined together by God be parted by man.
What therefore God has joined together, let no man separate."
What therefore God hath joined together, let not man separate.
- 10 And in the house the disciples put questions to him again about this thing.
In the house, his disciples asked him again about the same matter.
And in the house his disciples asked him again of the same matter.
- 11 And he said to them, Whoever puts away his wife and takes another, is false to his wife;
He said to them, "Whoever will divorce his wife, and marry another, commits adultery against her.
And he saith to them, Whoever shall put away his wife, and marry another, committeth adultery against her.

- 12 And if she herself puts away her husband and takes another, she is false to her husband.
If a woman herself divorces her husband, and marries another, she commits adultery."
And if a woman shall put away her husband, and be married to another, she committeth adultery.
- 13 And they took to him little children, so that he might put his hands on them: and the disciples said sharp words to them.
They were bringing to him little children, that he should touch them, but the disciples rebuked those who were bringing them.
And they brought young children to him, that he should touch them; and his disciples rebuked those that brought them.
- 14 And when Jesus saw it, he was angry, and said to them, Let the little children come to me, and do not keep them away; for of such is the kingdom of God.
But when Jesus saw it, he was moved with indignation, and said to them, "Allow the little children to come to me! Don't forbid them, for to such belong the kingdom of God.
But when Jesus saw it, he was much displeased, and said to them, Suffer the little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
- 15 Truly I say to you, Whoever does not put himself under the kingdom of God like a little child, will not come into it at all.
Most assuredly I tell you, whoever will not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, he will in no way enter therein."
Verily I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God, as a little child, he shall not enter it.
- 16 And he took them in his arms, and gave them a blessing, putting his hands on them.
He took them in his arms, and blessed them, laying his hands on them.
And he took them up in his arms, put his hands upon them, and blessed them.
- 17 And while he was going out into the way, a man came running to him, and went down on his knees, saying, Good Master, what have I to do so that I may have eternal life?
As he was going forth into the way, one ran to him, kneeled to him, and asked him, "Good Teacher, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?"
And when he had gone forth into the way, there came one running, and kneeled to him, and asked him, Good Master, what shall I do that I may inherit eternal life?

- 18 And Jesus said to him, Why do you say I am good? no one is good but one, and that is God.
Jesus said to him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good except one -- God.
And Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? there is none good, but one, that is God.
- 19 You have knowledge of what is said in the law, Do not put any one to death, Do not be untrue in married life, Do not take what is not yours, Do not give false witness, Do not get money by deceit, Give honour to your father and mother.
You know the commandments: `Do not murder,` `Do not commit adultery,` `Do not steal,` `Do not give false testimony,` `Do not defraud,` `Honor your father and mother.`"
Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Defraud not, Honor thy father and mother.
- 20 And he said to him, Master, all these laws I have kept from the time when I was young.
He said to him, "Teacher, all these things have I observed from my youth."
And he answered and said to him, Master, all these have I observed from my youth.
- 21 And Jesus, looking on him and loving him, said, There is one thing needed: go, get money for your goods, and give it to the poor, and you will have wealth in heaven: and come with me.
Jesus looking at him loved him, and said to him, "One thing you lack. Go, sell whatever you have, and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven; and come, follow me, taking up the cross."
Then Jesus beholding him loved him, and said to him, One thing thou lackest: go, sell whatever thou hast, and give to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven; and come, take up the cross, and follow me.
- 22 But his face became sad at the saying, and he went away sorrowing: for he was one who had much property.
But his face fell at that saying, and he went away sorrowful, for he was one who had great possessions.
And he was sad at that saying, and went away grieved: for he had great possessions.
- 23 And Jesus, looking round about, said to his disciples, How hard it is for those who have wealth to come into the kingdom of God!
Jesus looked around, and said to his disciples, "How difficult it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!"
And Jesus looked around, and saith to his disciples, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

- 24 And the disciples were full of wonder at his words. But Jesus said to them again, Children, how hard it is for those who put faith in wealth to come into the kingdom of God!
The disciples were amazed at his words. But Jesus answered again, "Children, how hard is it for those who trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
And the disciples were astonished at his words. But Jesus answereth again, and saith to them, Children, how hard is it for them that trust in riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
- 25 It is simpler for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a man of wealth to come into the kingdom of God.
It is easier for a camel to go through the needle`s eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."
It is easier for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
- 26 And they were greatly surprised, saying to him, Who then may have salvation?
They were exceedingly astonished, saying to him, "Then who can be saved?"
And they were astonished beyond measure, saying among themselves, Who then can be saved?
- 27 Jesus, looking on them, said, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for all things are possible with God.
Jesus, looking at them, said, "With men it is impossible, but not with God, for all things are possible with God."
And Jesus looking upon them, saith, With men it is impossible, but not with God: for with God all things are possible.
- 28 Peter said to him, See, we have given up everything, and come after you.
Peter began to tell him, "Behold, we have left all, and have followed you."
Then Peter began to say to him, Lo, we have left all, and have followed thee.
- 29 Jesus said, Truly I say to you, There is no man who has given up house, or brothers, or sisters, or mother, or father, or children, or land, because of me and the good news,
Jesus said, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or brothers, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or land, for my sake, and for the gospel`s sake,
Jesus answered and said, Verily I say to you, There is no man that hath left house, or brethren, or sisters, or father, or mother, or wife, or children, or lands, for my sake, and the gospel's,

- 30 Who will not get a hundred times as much now in this time, houses, and brothers, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and land--though with great troubles; and, in the world to come, eternal life.
but he will receive one hundred times now in this time, houses, brothers, sisters, mothers, children, and land, with persecutions; and in the age to come eternal life.
But he shall receive a hundred-fold now in this time, houses, and brethren, and sisters, and mothers, and children, and lands, with persecutions; and in the world to come, eternal life.
- 31 But a great number who are first will be last: and those who are last will be first.
But many who are first will be last; and the last first."
But many that are first shall be last; and the last first.
- 32 And they were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going before them: and they were full of wonder; but those who came after him were in fear. And again he took the twelve, and gave them word of the things which were to come on him,
They were on the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus was going in front of them, and they were amazed; and those who followed were afraid. He again took the twelve, and began to tell them the things that were going to happen to him.
And they were in the way, going up to Jerusalem; and Jesus went before them: and they were amazed; and as they followed, they were afraid. And he took again the twelve, and began to tell them what things should happen to him,
- 33 Saying, See, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be given up to the chief priests and the scribes; and they will give an order for his death, and will give him up to the Gentiles:
"Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem. The Son of Man will be delivered to the chief priests and the scribes. They will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles.
Saying, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem; and the Son of man will be delivered to the chief priests, and to the scribes; and they will condemn him to death, and will deliver him to the Gentiles;
- 34 And they will make sport of him, and put shame on him, and give him cruel blows, and will put him to death; and after three days he will come back from the dead.
They will mock him, spit on him, scourge him, and kill him. On the third day he will rise again."
And they will mock him, and will scourge him, and will spit upon him, and will kill him: and the third day he will rise again.

- 35 And there came to him James and John, the sons of Zebedee, saying to him, Master, will you give us whatever may be our request?
James and John, the sons of Zebedee, came near to him, saying, "Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we will ask."
And James and John the sons of Zebedee come to him, saying, Master, we would that thou shouldst do for us whatever we shall desire.
- 36 And he said to them, What would you have me do for you?
He said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"
And he said to them, What would ye that I should do for you?
- 37 And they said to him, Let us be seated, one at your right hand and one at your left, in your glory.
They said to him, "Grant to us that we may sit, one at your right hand, and one at your left hand, in your glory."
They said to him, Grant to us that we may sit, one on thy right hand, and the other on thy left hand, in thy glory.
- 38 But Jesus said to them, You have no knowledge of what you are saying. Are you able to take of my cup? or to undergo the baptism which I am to undergo?
But Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you ask. Are you able to drink the cup that I drink, and to be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?"
But Jesus said to them, Ye know not what ye ask: can ye drink of the cup that I drink of? and be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with?
- 39 And they said to him, We are able. And Jesus said to them, You will take of the cup from which I take; and the baptism which I am about to undergo you will undergo:
They said to him, "We are able." Jesus said to them, "You shall indeed drink the cup that I drink, and you shall be baptized with the baptism that I am baptized with;
And they said to him, We can. And Jesus said to them, Ye shall indeed drink of the cup that I drink of: and with the baptism that I am baptized with shalt ye be baptized;
- 40 But to be seated at my right hand or at my left is not for me to give: but it is for those for whom it has been made ready.
but to sit at my right hand and at my left hand is not mine to give, but for whom it has been prepared."
But to sit on my right hand and on my left hand, is not mine to give; but it shall be given to them for whom it is prepared.

- 41 And hearing this, the ten became very angry with James and John.
When the ten heard it, they began to be moved with indignation towards James and John.
And when the ten heard it, they began to be much displeased with James and John.
- 42 And Jesus made them come to him, and said to them, You see that those who are made rulers over the Gentiles are lords over them, and their great ones have authority over them.
Jesus called them to him, and said to them, "You know that they who are recognized as rulers over the Gentiles lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them.
But Jesus called them, and saith to them, Ye know that they who are accounted to rule over the Gentiles, exercise lordship over them; and their great ones exercise authority upon them.
- 43 But it is not so among you: but whoever has a desire to become great among you, let him be your servant:
But it shall not be so among you, but whoever wants to become great among you, will be your servant.
But so it shall not be among you: but whoever will be great among you, shall be your minister:
- 44 And whoever has a desire to be first among you, let him be servant of all.
Whoever of you wants to become first among you, shall be servant of all.
And whoever of you will be the chief, shall be servant of all.
- 45 For truly the Son of man did not come to have servants, but to be a servant, and to give his life for the salvation of men.
For the Son of Man also came not to be served, but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many."
For even the son of man came not to be ministered to, but to minister, and to give his life a ransom for many.
- 46 And they came to Jericho: and when he was going out of Jericho, with his disciples and a great number of people, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind man, was seated by the wayside, with his hand out for money.
They came to Jericho. As he went out from Jericho, with his disciples and a great multitude, the son of Timaeus, Bartimaeus, a blind beggar, was sitting by the road.
And they came to Jericho: and as he went out of Jericho with his disciples, and a great number of people, blind Bartimeus, the son of Timeus, sat by the highway-side begging.

- 47 And when it came to his ears that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he gave a cry, and said, Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.
When he heard that it was Jesus, the Nazarene, he began to cry out, and say, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!"
And when he heard that it was Jesus of Nazareth, he began to cry out, and say, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.
- 48 And some of them, turning in protest, gave him an order to be quiet: but he went on crying out all the more, Son of David, have mercy on me.
Many rebuked him, that he should be quiet, but he cried out the more a great deal, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"
And many charged him that he should hold his peace: but he cried the more a great deal, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.
- 49 And Jesus came to a stop and said, Let him come. And crying out to the blind man, they said to him, Be comforted: come, he has sent for you.
Jesus stood still, and said, "Call him." They called the blind man, saying to him, "Cheer up! Get up. He is calling you."
And Jesus stood still, and commanded him to be called: and they call the blind man, saying to him, Be of good comfort, rise; he calleth thee.
- 50 And he, putting off his coat, got up quickly, and came to Jesus.
He, casting away his cloak, sprang up, and came to Jesus.
And he, casting away his garment, rose, and came to Jesus.
- 51 And Jesus said to him, What would you have me do to you? And the blind man said, Master, make me able to see.
Jesus answered him, "What do you want me to do for you?" The blind man said to him, "Rhabboni, that I may see again."
And Jesus answered and said to him, What wilt thou that I should do to thee? The blind man said to him, Lord, that I may receive my sight.
- 52 And Jesus said to him, Go on your way; your faith has made you well. And straight away he was able to see, and went after him in the way.
Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your faith has made you well." Immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.
And Jesus said to him, Go, thy faith hath made thee whole. And immediately he received his sight, and followed Jesus in the way.

- 1 And when they came near to Jerusalem, to Beth-phage and Bethany, at the Mountain of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
When they drew near to Jerusalem, to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the Mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,
And when they came nigh to Jerusalem, to Bethphage, and Bethany, at the mount of Olives, he sendeth forth two of his disciples,
- 2 And said to them, Go into the little town opposite: and when you come to it, you will see a young ass with a cord round his neck, on which no man has ever been seated; let him loose, and come back with him.
and said to them, "Go your way into the village that is opposite you. Immediately as you enter into it, you will find a colt tied, on which no one has sat. Untie him, and bring him.
And saith to them, Go into the village over against you: and as soon as ye have entered into it, ye shall find a colt tied, on which never man sat; loose him, and bring him.
- 3 And if anyone says to you, Why are you doing this? say, The Lord has need of him and will send him back straight away.
If anyone asks you, `Why are you doing this?` say, `The Lord needs him;` and immediately he will send him back here."
And if any man shall say to you, Why do ye this? say ye that the Lord hath need of him; and immediately he will send him hither.
- 4 And they went away and saw a young ass by the door outside in the open street; and they were getting him loose.
They went away, and found a colt tied at the door outside in the open street, and they untied him.
And they went, and found the colt tied by the door without, in a place where two ways met; and they loose him.
- 5 And some of those who were there said to them, What are you doing, taking the ass?
Some of those who stood there asked them, "What are you doing, untying the colt?"
And certain of them that stood there, said to them, What do ye, loosing the colt?
- 6 And they said to them the words which Jesus had said; and they let them go.
They said to them just as Jesus had said, and they let them go.
And they said to them even as Jesus had commanded; and they let them go.

- 7 And they took the young ass to Jesus, and put their clothing on him, and he got on his back.
They brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their garments on him, and Jesus sat on him.
And they brought the colt to Jesus, and cast their garments on him; and he sat upon him.
- 8 And a great number put down their clothing in the way; and others put down branches which they had taken from the fields.
Many spread their garments on the way, and others were cutting down branches from the trees, and spreading them on the road.
And many spread their garments in the way: and others cut down branches off trees, and strewed them in the way.
- 9 And those who went in front, and those who came after, were crying, Glory: A blessing on him who comes in the name of the Lord:
Those who went in front, and those who followed, cried, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!
And they that went before, and they that followed, cried, saying, Hosanna: Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
- 10 A blessing on the coming kingdom of our father David: Glory in the highest.
Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that is coming in the name of the Lord! Hosanna in the highest!"
Blessed be the kingdom of our Father David, that cometh in the name of the Lord: Hosanna in the highest.
- 11 And he went into Jerusalem into the Temple; and after looking round about on all things, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
Jesus entered into the temple in Jerusalem. When he had looked around at everything, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany with the twelve.
And Jesus entered into Jerusalem, and into the temple: and when he had looked round upon all things, it being now evening, he went out to Bethany, with the twelve.
- 12 And on the day after, when they had come out from Bethany, he was in need of food.
The next day, when they had come out from Bethany, he was hungry.
And on the morrow, when they had come from Bethany, he was hungry,

- 13 And seeing a fig-tree in the distance with leaves, he went to see if by chance it had anything on it: and when he came to it, he saw nothing but leaves, for it was not the time for the fruit.
Seeing a fig tree afar off having leaves, he came to see if perhaps he might find anything on it. When he came to it, he found nothing but leaves, for it was not the season for figs.
And seeing a fig-tree afar off, having leaves, he came, if haply he might find any thing on it: and when he came to it, he found nothing but leaves: for the time of figs had not yet come.
- 14 And he said to it, Let no man take fruit from you for ever. And his disciples took note of his words.
Jesus told it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again!" and his disciples heard it.
And Jesus answered and said to it, Let no man eat fruit of thee hereafter for ever. And his disciples heard it.
- 15 And they came to Jerusalem; and he went into the Temple, and sent out those who were trading there, overturning the tables of the money-changers and the seats of those who were offering doves for money;
They came to Jerusalem, and Jesus entered into the temple, and began to throw out those who sold and those who bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of those who sold the doves.
And they come to Jerusalem: and Jesus went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold and bought in the temple, and overthrew the tables of the money-changers, and the seats of them that sold doves;
- 16 And he would not let any man take a vessel through the Temple.
He would not allow anyone to carry a container through the temple.
And would not suffer that any man should carry any vessel through the temple.
- 17 And he gave them teaching, and said to them, Is it not in the Writings, My house is to be named a house of prayer for all the nations? but you have made it a hole of thieves.
He taught, saying to them, "Isn't it written, `My house will be called a house of prayer for all the nations?` But you have made it a den of robbers!"
And he taught, saying to them, Is it not written, My house shall be called by all nations the house of prayer? but ye have made it a den of thieves.
- 18 And it came to the ears of the chief priests and scribes, and they took thought how they might put him to death; being in fear of him, because all the people were full of wonder at his teaching.
The chief priests and the scribes heard it, and sought how they might destroy him. For they feared him, for all the multitude was astonished at his teaching.
And the scribes and chief priests heard it, and sought how they might destroy him: for they feared him, because all the people were astonished at his doctrine.

- 19 And every evening he went out of the town.
When evening came, he went forth out of the city.
And when evening had come, he went out of the city.
- 20 And when they were going by in the morning, they saw the fig-tree dead from the roots.
As they passed by in the morning, they saw the fig tree withered away from the roots.
And in the morning, as they passed by, they saw the fig-tree dried up from the roots.
- 21 And Peter, having a memory of it, said to him, Master, see, the tree which was cursed by you is dead.
Peter, remembering, said to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree which you cursed has withered away."
And Peter calling to remembrance, saith to him, Master, behold, the fig-tree which thou cursedst is withered.
- 22 And Jesus, answering, said to them, Have God's faith.
Jesus answering said to them, "Have faith in God.
And Jesus answering, saith to them, Have faith in God.
- 23 Truly I say to you, Whoever says to this mountain, Be taken up and be put into the sea; and has no doubt in his heart, but has faith that what he says will come about, he will have his desire.
For most assuredly I tell you, whoever may tell this mountain, `Be taken up and cast into the sea,` and doesn't doubt in his heart, but believes that what he says happens; he shall have whatever he says.
For verily I say to you, that whoever shall say to this mountain, Be thou removed, and be thou cast into the sea; and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that the things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatever he saith.
- 24 For this reason I say to you, Whatever you make a request for in prayer, have faith that it has been given to you, and you will have it.
Therefore I tell you, all things whatever you pray and ask for, believe that you receive them, and you shall have them.
Therefore I say to you, Whatever things ye desire when ye pray, believe that ye receive them, and ye shall have them.

25 And whenever you make a prayer, let there be forgiveness in your hearts, if you have anything against anyone; so that you may have forgiveness for your sins from your Father who is in heaven.
Whenever you stand praying, forgive, if you have anything against anyone; so that your Father, who is in heaven, may also forgive you your transgressions.

And when ye stand praying, forgive, if ye have aught against any: that your Father also who is in heaven may forgive you your trespasses.

But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your transgressions."
But if ye do not forgive, neither will your Father who is in heaven forgive your trespasses.

27 And they came again to Jerusalem: and while he was walking in the Temple, there came to him the chief priests and the scribes and those in authority:
They came again to Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders came to him,
And they come again to Jerusalem: and as he was walking in the temple, there come to him the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders, 28 And they said to him, By what authority do you do these things? or who gave you authority to do these things?

and they were asking him, "By what authority do you these things? Or who gave you this authority to do these things?"
And say to him, By what authority doest thou these things? and who gave thee this authority to do these things?

29 And Jesus said to them, I will put to you one question; give me an answer, and I will say by what authority I do these things.
Jesus said to them, "I will ask you one question. Answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.
And Jesus answered and said to them, I will also ask of you one question, and answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I do these things.

30 The baptism of John, was it from heaven or from men? give me an answer.
The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? Answer me."
The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men? answer me.

- 31 And they gave thought to it among themselves, saying, If we say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did you not have faith in him?
They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we should say, `From heaven;` he will say, `Why then did you not believe him?`
And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then did ye not believe him?
- 32 But if we say, From men--they were in fear of the people, because all took John to be truly a prophet.
If we should say, `From men`"--they feared the people, for all held John to really be a prophet.
But if we shall say, from men; they feared the people: for all men counted John that he was a prophet indeed.
- 33 And they said in answer to Jesus, We have no idea. And Jesus said to them, And I will not say to you by what authority I do these things.
They answered Jesus, "We don't know." Jesus said to them, "Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things."
And they answered and said to Jesus, We cannot tell. And Jesus answering saith to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.
- 1 And he gave them teaching in the form of stories. A man had a vine-garden planted, and put a wall about it, and made a place for crushing out the wine, and put up a tower, and let it out to field-workers, and went into another country.
He began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, set a hedge around it, dug a pit for the winepress, built a tower, rented it out to a farmer, and went into another country.
And he began to speak to them by parables. A certain man planted a vineyard, and set a hedge about it, and digged a place for the wine-vat, and built a tower, and let it out to husbandmen, and went into a far country.
- 2 And when the time came, he sent a servant to get from the workmen some of the fruit of the garden.
When it was time, he sent a servant to the farmer to get from the farmer his share of the fruit of the vineyard.
And at the season he sent to the husbandmen a servant, that he might receive from the husbandmen of the fruit of the vineyard.
- 3 And they took him, and gave him blows, and sent him away with nothing.
They took him, beat him, and sent him away empty.
And they caught him, and beat him and sent him away empty.

- 4 And again he sent to them another servant; and they gave him wounds on the head, and were very cruel to him.
Again, he sent another servant to them; and they threw stones at him, wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully treated.
And again, he sent to them another servant: and at him they cast stones, and wounded him in the head, and sent him away shamefully handled.
- 5 And he sent another; and they put him to death: and a number of others, whipping some, and putting some to death.
Again he sent another; and they killed him; and many others, beating some, and killing some.
And again he sent another; and him they killed, and many others; beating some, and killing some.
- 6 He still had one, a dearly loved son: he sent him last to them, saying, They will have respect for my son.
Therefore he had yet one, a beloved son, he sent him last to them, saying, `They will respect my son.`
Having yet therefore one son, his well-beloved, he sent him also last to them, saying, They will reverence my son.
- 7 But those workmen said among themselves, This is he who will one day be the owner of the property; come, let us put him to death, and the heritage will be ours.
But those farmers said among themselves, `This is the heir. Come, let`s kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.`
But those husbandmen said among themselves, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.
- 8 And they took him and put him to death, pushing his body out of the garden.
They took him, killed him, and cast him forth out of the vineyard.
And they took him, and killed him, and cast him out of the vineyard.
- 9 What then will the master of the garden do? He will come and put the workmen to death, and will give the garden into the hands of others.
What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do? He will come and destroy the farmers, and will give the vineyard to others.
What therefore will the Lord of the vineyard do? he will come and destroy the husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others.

- 10 Have you not seen this which is in the Writings: The stone which the builders put on one side, the same was made the chief stone of the building:
Haven't you even read this scripture: `The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the head of the corner.
And have ye not read this scripture; The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner:
- 11 This was the Lord's doing, and it is a wonder in our eyes?
This was from the Lord, It is marvelous in our eyes`?"
This was the Lord's doing, and it is marvelous in our eyes?
- 12 And they made attempts to take him; but they were in fear of the people, because they saw that the story was against them; and they went away from him.
They tried to seize him, but they feared the multitude; for they perceived that he spoke the parable against them. They left him, and went away.
And they sought to lay hold on him, but feared the people; for they knew that he had spoken the parable against them: and they left him, and departed.
- 13 Then they sent to him certain of the Pharisees and the Herodians, so that they might make use of his words to take him by a trick.
They sent some of the Pharisees and of the Herodians to him, that they might catch him in words.
And they sent to him certain of the Pharisees, and of the Herodians, to catch him in his words.
- 14 And when they had come, they said to him, Master, we are certain that you are true, and have no fear of anyone: you have no respect for a man's position, but you are teaching the true way of God: Is it right to give taxes to Caesar or not?
When they had come, they asked him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and don't defer to anyone; for you aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God. Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?
And when they had come, they say to him, Master, we know that thou art true, and carest for no man: for thou regardest not the person of men, but teachest the way of God in truth: Is it lawful to give tribute to Cesar, or not?
- 15 Are we to give or not to give? But he, conscious of their false hearts, said to them, Why do you put me to the test? give me a penny, so that I may see it.
Shall we give, or shall we not give?" But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why do you test me? Bring me a denarius, that I may see it."
Shall we give, or shall we not give? But he, knowing their hypocrisy, said to them, Why tempt ye me? bring me a penny, that I may see it.

- 16 And they gave him one. And he said to them, Whose is this image and name on it? And they said to him, Caesar's.
They brought it. He said to them, "Whose is this image and inscription?" They said to him, "Caesar`s." And they brought it: and he saith to them, Whose is this image and superscription? And they said to him, Cesar's.
- 17 And Jesus said to them, Give to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's. And they were full of wonder at him.
Jesus answered them, "Render to Caesar the things that are Caesar`s, and to God the things that are God`s." They marveled greatly at him.
And Jesus answering, said to them, Render to Cesar the things that are Cesar's, and to God the things that are God's. And they wondered at him.
- 18 And there came to him Sadducees, who say there is no coming back from the dead; and they put a question to him, saying,
There came to him Sadducees, who say that there is no resurrection. They asked him, saying,
Then come to him the Sadducees, who say there is no resurrection; and they asked him, saying,
- 19 Master, in the law Moses says, If a man's brother comes to his end, and has a wife still living and no child, it is right for his brother to take his wife, and get a family for his brother.
"Teacher, Moses wrote to us, `If a man`s brother dies, and leaves a wife behind him, and leaves no child, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up children to his brother.`
Master, Moses wrote to us, If a man's brother shall die, and leave his wife, and leave no children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise seed to his brother.
- 20 There were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and at his death there were no offspring;
There were seven brothers. The first took a wife, and dying left no children.
Now there were seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and dying left no seed.
- 21 And the second took her, and at his death there were no offspring; and the third the same:
The second took her, and died, leaving no children behind him. The third likewise;
And the second took her, and died, neither left he any seed: and the third likewise.

- 22 And all the seven had no seed. Last of all the woman herself came to her death.
and the seven took her and left no children. Last of all the woman also died.
And the seven had her, and left no seed: last of all the woman died also.
- 23 In the future life, when they come back from the dead, whose wife will she be? for the seven had her for a wife.
In the resurrection, when they rise, whose wife will she be of them? For the seven had her as a wife."
In the resurrection therefore, when they shall rise, whose wife shall she be of them? for the seven had her for a wife.
- 24 Jesus said to them, Is not this the reason for your error, that you have no knowledge of the holy Writings or of the power of God?
Jesus answered them, "Isn't this because you are mistaken, not knowing the scriptures, nor the power of God?
And Jesus answering, said to them, Do ye not therefore err, because ye know not the scriptures, neither the power of God?
- 25 When they come back from the dead, they do not get married, but are like the angels in heaven.
For when they will rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are like angels in heaven.
For when they shall rise from the dead, they neither marry, nor are given in marriage; but are as the angels who are in heaven.
- 26 But as to the dead coming back to life; have you not seen in the book of Moses, about the burning thorn-tree, how God said to him, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
But about the dead, that they are raised; haven't you read in the book of Moses, at the Bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?'
And concerning the dead that they rise; have ye not read in the book of Moses, how in the bush God spoke to him, saying, I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob?
- 27 He is not the God of the dead, but of the living: you are greatly in error.
He is not the God of the dead, but of the living. You are therefore badly mistaken."
He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living: ye therefore do greatly err.

- 28 And one of the scribes came, and hearing their argument together, and seeing that he had given them a good answer, put the question to him, Which law is the first of all?
One of the scribes came, and heard them questioning together. Knowing that he had answered them well, asked him, "What commandment is the greatest of all?"
And one of the scribes came, and having heard them reasoning together, and perceiving that he had answered them well, asked him, Which is the first commandment of all?
- 29 Jesus said in answer, The first is, Give ear, O Israel: The Lord our God is one Lord; Jesus answered, "The greatest is, `Hear, Israel, the Lord our God, the Lord is one:
And Jesus answered him, The first of all the commandments is, Hear, O Israel; The Lord our God is one Lord.
- 30 And you are to have love for the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.
you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your mind, and with all your strength.`
This is the primary commandment.
And thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind, and with all thy strength: this is the first commandment.
- 31 The second is this, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself. There is no other law greater than these.
The second is like this, `You shall love your neighbor as yourself.` There is no other commandment greater than these."
And the second is like, namely this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself: there is no other commandment greater than these.
- 32 And the scribe said to him, Truly, Master, you have well said that he is one, and there is no other but he:
The scribe said to him, "Truly, teacher, you have said well that he is one, and there is none other but he,
And the scribe said to him, Well, Master, thou hast said the truth: for there is one God; and there is no other but he.
- 33 And to have love for him with all the heart, and with all the mind, and with all the strength, and to have the same love for his neighbour as for himself, is much more than all forms of offerings.
and to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt offerings and sacrifices."
And to love him with all the heart, and with all the understanding, and with all the soul, and with all the strength, and to love his neighbor as himself, is more than all whole burnt-offerings and sacrifices.

34 And when Jesus saw that he gave a wise answer, he said to him, You are not far from the kingdom of God. And every man after that was in fear of questioning him any more.
When Jesus saw that he answered wisely, he said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." No one dared ask him any question after that.

And when Jesus saw that he answered discreetly, he said to him, Thou art not far from the kingdom of God. And no man after that durst ask him any question.

35 And Jesus, when he was teaching in the Temple, said, How do the scribes say that the Christ is the Son of David?

Jesus responded, as he taught in the temple, "How is it that the scribes say that the Christ is the son of David?"

And Jesus answered and said, while he taught in the temple, How say the scribes that Christ is the son of David?

36 David himself said in the Holy Spirit, The Lord said to my Lord, Be seated at my right hand, till I put those who are against you under your feet.

For David himself said in the Holy Spirit, `The Lord said to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet.`

For David himself said by the Holy Spirit, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, till I make thy enemies thy footstool.

37 David himself gives him the name of Lord; and how then is he his son? And the common people gave ear to him gladly.

Therefore David himself calls him Lord, so how can he be his son?" The common people heard him gladly.

David therefore himself calleth him Lord, and whence is he then his son? and the common people heard him gladly.

38 And in his teaching he said, Be on your watch against the scribes, whose pleasure it is to go about in long robes and be respected in the market-places,

In his teaching he said to them, "Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and to get greetings in the marketplaces,

And he said to them in his doctrine, Beware of the scribes, who love to go in long clothing, and love salutations in the market-places,

39 And to have the chief seats in the Synagogues and the first places at feasts; and chief seats in the synagogues, and chief places at feasts:

And the chief seats in the synagogues, and the uppermost rooms at feasts:

- 40 Who take away the property of widows, and before the eyes of men make long prayers; these will be judged more hardly.
those who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."
Who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these shall receive greater damnation.
- 41 And he took a seat by the place where the money was kept, and saw how the people put money into the boxes: and a number who had wealth put in much.
Jesus sat down opposite the treasury, and saw how the multitude cast money into the treasury. Many who were rich cast in much.
And Jesus sat over against the treasury, and beheld how the people cast money into the treasury: and many that were rich cast in much.
- 42 And there came a poor widow, and she put in two little bits of money, which make a farthing.
There came a poor widow, and she cast in two lepta, which make a quadrans.
And there came a certain poor widow, and she threw in two mites, which make a farthing.
- 43 And he made his disciples come to him, and said to them, Truly I say to you, This poor widow has put in more than all those who are putting money into the box:
He called his disciples to himself, and said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, this poor widow gave more than all those who are giving into the treasury,
And he called his disciples, and saith to them, Verily I say to you, that this poor widow hath cast in more, than all they who have cast into the treasury.
- 44 Because they all put in something out of what they had no need for; but she out of her need put in all she had, even all her living.
for they all gave out of their abundance, but she, out of her poverty, gave all that she had to live on."
For all they cast in of their abundance: but she of her want cast in all that she had, even all her living.
- 1 And when he was going out of the Temple, one of his disciples said to him, Master, see, what stones and what buildings!
As he went forth out of the temple, one of his disciples said to him, "Teacher, see what kind of stones and what kind of buildings!"
And as he was going out of the temple, one of his disciples saith to him, Master, see what manner of stones, and what buildings are here!

- 2 And Jesus said to him, Do you see these great buildings? there is not one stone here resting on another which will not be overturned.
Jesus said to him, "Do you see these great buildings? There will not be left here one stone on another, which will not be thrown down."
And Jesus answering said to him, Seest thou these great buildings? there shall not be left one stone upon another, that shall not be thrown down.
- 3 And while he was seated on the Mountain of Olives opposite the Temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew said to him privately,
As he sat on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter, James, John, and Andrew asked him privately,
And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, over against the temple, Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, asked him privately,
- 4 Say when these things will be, and what will be the sign when these things are all about to be done.
"Tell us, when will these things be? What is the sign that these things are all about to be accomplished?"
Tell us, when will these things be? and what will be the sign when all these things shall be fulfilled?
- 5 And Jesus said to them, Take care that you are not tricked by anyone.
Jesus, answering, began to tell them, "Be careful that no one leads you astray.
And Jesus answering them, began to say, Take heed lest any man deceive you:
- 6 People will come in my name, saying, I am he; and a number will be turned from the true way.
For many will come in my name, saying, `I am he!` and will lead many astray.
For many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and will deceive many.
- 7 And when you have news of wars and talk of wars, do not be troubled; these things have to be, but it is still not the end.
When you hear of wars and rumors of wars, don't be troubled. For those must happen, but the end is not yet.
And when ye shall hear of wars, and rumors of wars, be ye not troubled: for such things must needs be; but the end will not be yet.

- 8 Nation will go to war with nation, and kingdom with kingdom: there will be earth-shocks in different places; there will be times when there is no food; these things are the first of the troubles.
For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will be earthquakes in various places. There will be famines and troubles. These things are the beginning of birth pains.
For nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there will be earthquakes in divers places, and there will be famines, and troubles: these are the beginnings of sorrows.
- 9 But take care: for they will give you up to the Sanhedrins; and in Synagogues you will be whipped; and you will be taken before rulers and kings because of me, for a sign to them.
But watch yourselves, for they will deliver you up to councils. You will be beaten in synagogues. Before governors and kings will you stand for my sake, for a testimony to them.
But take heed to yourselves: for they will deliver you up to councils; and in the synagogues ye will be beaten: and ye will be brought before rulers and kings for my sake, for a testimony against them.
- 10 And the good news has first to be given to all the nations.
The gospel must first be preached to all the nations.
And the gospel must first be published among all nations.
- 11 And when you are taken and given up to be judged, do not be troubled about what to say: but whatever is given to you in that hour, say: because it is not you who say it, but the Holy Spirit.
When they lead you away and deliver you up, don't be anxious beforehand, or premeditate what you will say, but say whatever will be given you in that hour. For it is not you who speak, but the Holy Spirit.
But when they shall lead you, and deliver you up, be not anxious beforehand what ye shall speak, neither do ye premeditate: but whatever shall be given you in that hour, that speak ye: for it is not ye that speak, but the Holy Spirit.
- 12 And brother will give up brother to death, and the father his child; and children will go against their fathers and mothers, and put them to death.
"Brother will deliver up brother to death, and the father his child. Children will rise up against parents, and cause them to be put to death.
Now the brother will betray the brother to death, and the father the son: and children will rise up against their parents, and will cause them to be put to death.
- 13 And you will be hated by all men, because of my name; but he who goes through to the end will have salvation.
You will be hated by all men for my name's sake, but he who endures to the end, the same will be saved.
And ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake: but he that shall endure to the end, the same shall be saved.

- 14 But when you see the unclean thing which makes destruction, in the place where it has no right to be (let this be clear to the reader), then let those who are in Judaea go quickly to the mountains:
But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let the reader understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains,
But when ye shall see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not, (let him that readeth understand) then let them that are in Judea flee to the mountains:
- 15 And let him who is on the house-top not go down, or go in, to take anything out of his house:
and let him who is on the housetop not go down, nor enter in, to take anything out of his house.
And let him that is on the house-top not go down into the house, neither enter it, to take any thing out of his house:
- 16 And let not him who is in the field go back to take his coat.
Let him who is in the field not return back to take his cloak.
And let him that is in the field not turn back again to take up his garment.
- 17 And it will be hard for women who are with child and for her who has a baby at the breast in those days.
But woe to those who are with child and to those who nurse babies in those days!
But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse infants in those days.
- 18 And say a prayer that it may not be in the winter.
Pray that your flight won't be in the winter.
And pray ye that your flight be not in the winter.
- 19 For in those days there will be sorrow, such as there has not been from the time when God made the world till now, and will not ever be again.
For in those days there will be oppression, such as there has not been the like from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never will be.
For in those days shall be affliction, such as hath not been from the beginning of the creation which God created to this time, neither shall be.

- 20 And if the Lord had not made the time short, no flesh would have been kept from destruction; but because of the saints he has made the time short.
Unless the Lord had shortened the days, no flesh would have been saved; but for the elect's sake, whom he chose, he shortened the days.
And except the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved: but for the elect's sake, whom he hath chosen, he hath shortened the days.
- 21 And then if any man says to you, See, here is Christ; or, See, there; have no faith in it:
Then if anyone tells you, `Look, here is the Christ!` or, `Look, there!` don't believe it.
And then, if any man shall say to you, Lo, here is Christ; or lo, he is there; believe him not.
- 22 Because there will be false Christs and false prophets, and they will give signs and wonders in the hope of turning even the saints from the true way.
For there will arise false christs and false prophets, and will show signs and wonders, that they may lead astray, if possible, also the elect.
For false Christs, and false prophets will rise, and will show signs and wonders, to seduce, if it were possible, even the elect.
- 23 But take care; see, I have made all things clear to you before the time.
But you watch. "Behold, I have told you all things beforehand.
But take ye heed: behold, I have foretold you all things.
- 24 But in those days, after that time of trouble, the sun will be made dark and the moon will not give her light,
But in those days, after that oppression, the sun will be darkened, the moon will not give her light,
But in those days, after that tribulation, the sun shall be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light,
- 25 And the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers which are in the heavens will be moved.
the stars will be falling from the sky, and the powers that are in the heavens will be shaken.
And the stars of heaven shall fall, and the powers that are in heaven shall be shaken.
- 26 And then they will see the Son of man coming in clouds with great power and glory.
Then will they see the Son of Man coming in clouds with great power and glory.
And then they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds with great power and glory.

- 27 And then he will send out the angels, and will get together his saints from the four winds, from the farthest part of the earth to the farthest part of heaven.
Then will he send forth his angels, and will gather together his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of the sky.
And then he will send his angels, and will assemble his elect from the four winds, from the uttermost part of the earth to the uttermost part of heaven.
- 28 Take an example from the fig-tree: when its branches become soft and put out their leaves, you see that the summer is near;
"Now from the fig tree, learn this parable. When the branch has now become tender, and puts forth its leaves, you know that the summer is near;
Now learn a parable of the fig-tree: When its branch is yet tender, and putteth forth leaves, ye know that summer is near:
- 29 Even so, when you see these things taking place, you may be certain that he is near, even at the doors.
even so you also, when you see these things coming to pass, know that it is near, at the doors.
So ye in like manner, when ye shall see these things come to pass, know that it is nigh, even at the doors.
- 30 Truly, I say to you, This generation will not come to an end till all these things are complete.
Most assuredly I say to you, this generation will not pass away until all these things are accomplished.
Verily I say to you, that this generation shall not pass, till all these things shall be done.
- 31 Heaven and earth will come to an end, but my words will not come to an end.
Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.
Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my words shall not pass away.
- 32 But of that day or that hour no one has knowledge, not even the angels in heaven, or the Son, but the Father.
But of that day or that hour no one knows, not even the angels in heaven, neither the Son, but only the Father.
But of that day and that hour knoweth no man, no not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.

- 33 Take care, keep watch with prayer: for you are not certain when the time will be.
Watch, keep alert, and pray; for you don't know when the time is.
Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is.
- 34 It is as when a man who is in another country for a time, having gone away from his house, and given authority to his servants and to everyone his work, gives the porter an order to keep watch.
"It is like a man, traveling to another country, having left his house, and given authority to his servants, and to each one his work, and also commanded the doorkeeper to keep watch.
For the son of man is as a man taking a long journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work; and commanded the porter to watch.
- 35 So you are to keep watch: because you are not certain when the master of the house is coming, in the evening, or in the middle of the night, or at the cock's cry, or in the morning;
Watch therefore, for you don't know when the lord of the house is coming, whether at evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or in the morning;
Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at evening, or at midnight, or at the cock-crowing, or in the morning:
- 36 For fear that, coming suddenly, he sees you sleeping.
lest coming suddenly he might find you sleeping.
Lest coming suddenly, he should find you sleeping.
- 37 And what I say to you, I say to all, Keep watch.
What I tell you, I tell all: Watch."
And what I say to you, I say to all, Watch.
- 1 It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread: and the chief priests and the scribes made designs how they might take him by deceit and put him to death:
It was now two days before the feast of the Passover and the unleavened bread, and the chief priests and the scribes sought how they might sieze him by deception, and kill him.
After two days was the feast of the passover, and of unleavened bread: and the chief priests, and the scribes, sought how they might take him by craft, and put him to death.

- 2 But they said, Not while the feast is going on, for fear there may be trouble among the people.
For they said, "Not during the feast, because there might be a riot of the people."
But they said, Not on the feast-day, lest there should be an uproar of the people.
- 3 And while he was in Bethany in the house of Simon the leper, seated at table, there came a woman with a bottle of perfumed oil of great price; and when the bottle was broken she put the perfume on his head.
While he was at Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at the table, there came a woman having an alabaster jar of ointment of pure nard -- very costly. She broke the jar, and poured it over his head.
And being in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, as he sat at table, there came a woman having an alabaster box of ointment of spikenard, very precious; and she broke the box, and poured it on his head.
- 4 But some of them were angry among themselves, saying, For what purpose has this oil been wasted?
But there were some who had indignation among themselves, saying, "Why has this ointment been wasted?
And there were some that had indignation within themselves, and said, Why was this waste of the ointment made?
- 5 We might have got more than three hundred pence for it, and given the money to the poor. And they said things against her among themselves.
For this might have been sold for more than three hundred denarii, and given to the poor." They grumbled against her.
For it might have been sold for more than three hundred pence, and have been given to the poor. And they murmured against her.
- 6 But Jesus said, Let her be; why are you troubling her? she has done a kind act to me.
But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why do you trouble her? She has done a good work for me.
And Jesus said, Let her alone; why trouble ye her? she hath wrought a good work on me.
- 7 The poor you have ever with you, and whenever you have the desire you may do them good: but me you have not for ever.
For you always have the poor with you, and whenever you want to, you can do them good; but you will not always have me.
For ye have the poor with you always, and whenever ye will ye may do them good: but me ye have not always.

- 8 She has done what she was able: she has put oil on my body to make it ready for its last resting-place.
She has done what she could. She has anointed my body beforehand for the burying.
She hath done what she could: she is come beforehand to anoint my body to the burying.
- 9 And truly I say to you, Wherever the good news goes out through all the earth, what this woman has done will be talked of in memory of her.
Most assuredly I tell you, wherever this gospel may be preached throughout the whole world, that also which this woman has done will be spoken of for a memorial of her."
Verily I say to you, Wherever this gospel shall be preached throughout the whole world, this also that she hath done shall be spoken of, for a memorial of her.
- 10 And Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, so that he might give him up to them.
Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve, went away to the chief priests, that he might deliver him to them.
And Judas Iscariot, one of the twelve, went to the chief priests, to betray him to them.
- 11 And hearing what he said, they were glad, and gave him their word to make him a payment of money. And he took thought how he might best give him up to them.
They, when they heard it, were glad, and promised to give him money. He sought how he might conveniently deliver him.
And when they heard it, they were glad, and promised to give him money. And he sought how he might conveniently betray him.
- 12 And on the first day of unleavened bread, when the Passover lamb is put to death, his disciples said to him, Where are we to go and make ready for you to take the Passover meal?
On the first day of unleavened bread, when they sacrificed the Passover, his disciples asked him, "Where do you want us to go and make ready that you may eat the Passover?"
And the first day of unleavened bread, when they killed the passover, his disciples said to him, Where wilt thou that we go and prepare, that thou mayest eat the passover?
- 13 And he sent two of his disciples, and said to them, Go into the town, and there will come to you a man with a vessel of water: go after him;
He sent two of his disciples, and said to them, "Go into the city, and there you will meet a man carrying a pitcher of water. Follow him,
And he sendeth two of his disciples, and saith to them, Go ye into the city, and there shall meet you a man bearing a pitcher of water: follow him.

- 14 And wherever he goes in, say to the owner of the house, The Master says, Where is my guest-room, where I may take the Passover with my disciples?
and wherever he enters in, tell the master of the house, `The Teacher says, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"`
And wherever he shall go in, say ye to the master of the house, The Master saith, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples?
- 15 And he will take you up himself to a great room with a table and seats: there make ready for us.
He will himself show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make ready for us there."
And he will show you a large upper room furnished and prepared: there make ready for us.
- 16 And the disciples went out and came into the town, and saw that it was as he had said: and they made ready the Passover.
His disciples went out, and came into the city, and found things as he had said to them, and they prepared the Passover.
And his disciples went, and came into the city, and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the passover.
- 17 And when it was evening he came with the twelve.
When it was evening he came with the twelve.
And in the evening he cometh with the twelve.
- 18 And while they were seated taking food, Jesus said, Truly I say to you, One of you will be false to me, one who is taking food with me.
As they sat and were eating, Jesus said, "Most assuredly I tell you, one of you will betray me -- he who eats with me."
And as they sat, and were eating, Jesus said, Verily I say to you, One of you who eateth with me, will betray me.
- 19 They were sad, and said to him one by one, Is it I?
They began to be sorrowful, and to ask him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another said, "Surely not I?"
And they began to be sorrowful, and to say to him one by one, Is it I? and another said, Is it I?
- 20 And he said to them, It is one of the twelve, one who is putting his bread with me into the same plate.
He answered them, "It is one of the twelve, he who dips with me in the dish.
And he answered and said to them, It is one of the twelve that dippeth with me in the dish.

21 The Son of man goes, even as the Writings say of him: but cursed is that man through whom the Son of man is given up! It would have been well for that man if he had never been given birth. For the Son of Man goes, even as it is written about him, but woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would be better for that man if he had not been born."

The Son of man indeed goeth, as it is written concerning him: but woe to that man by whom the Son of man is betrayed! good were it for that man if he had never been born.

22 And while they were taking food, he took bread, and after blessing it, he gave the broken bread to them, and said, Take it: this is my body.

As they were eating, Jesus took bread, and when he had blessed, he broke it, and gave to them, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body."

And as they were eating, Jesus took bread, and blessed, and broke it, and gave to them, and said, Take, eat: this is my body.

23 And he took a cup, and when he had given praise, he gave it to them: and they all had a drink from it.

He took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave to them. They all drank of it.

And he took the cup, and when he had given thanks, he gave it to them: and they all drank of it.

24 And he said to them, This is my blood of the testament, which is given for men.

He said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for many.

And he said to them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.

25 Truly I say to you, I will take no more of the fruit of the vine till the day when I take it new in the kingdom of God.

Most assuredly I tell you, I will no more drink of the fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it anew in the kingdom of God."

Verily I say to you, I will drink no more of the fruit of the vine, until that day that I drink it new in the kingdom of God.

26 And after a song of praise to God they went out to the Mountain of Olives.

When they had sung a hymn, they went out to the Mount of Olives.

And when they had sung a hymn, they went out to the mount of Olives.

- 27 And Jesus said to them, You will all be turned away from me: for it is in the Writings, I will put the keeper of the sheep to death, and the sheep will be put to flight.
Jesus said to them, "All of you will be made to stumble because of me tonight, for it is written, `I will strike the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.`
And Jesus saith to them, All ye will be offended because of me this night: for it is written, I will smite the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered.
- 28 But after I have come back from the dead, I will go before you into Galilee.
However, after I am raised up, I will go before you into Galilee."
But after that I am risen, I will go before you into Galilee.
- 29 But Peter said to him, Though the others may be turned away from you, I will not.
But Peter said to him, "Although all will be offended, yet I will not."
But Peter said to him, Although all shall be offended, yet will not I.
- 30 And Jesus said to him, Truly, I say to you that you, today, even this night, before the cock's second cry, will say three times that you have no knowledge of me.
Jesus said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, that you today, even this night, before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times."
And Jesus saith to him, Verily I say to thee, that this day, even in this night, before the cock shall crow twice, thou wilt deny me thrice.
- 31 But he said with passion, If I have to be put to death with you, I will not be false to you. And they all said the same.
But he spoke all the more, "If I must die with you, I will not deny you." Likewise, they all said so.
But he spoke the more vehemently, If I should die with thee, I will not deny thee in any wise. Likewise also said they all.
- 32 And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he said to his disciples, Be seated here while I say a prayer.
They came to a place which was named Gethsemane. He said to his disciples, "Sit here, while I pray."
And they came to a place which was named Gethsemane: and he saith to his disciples, Sit ye here, while I shall pray.

- 33 And he took with him Peter and James and John, and grief and great trouble came on him.
He took with him Peter, James, and John, and began to be greatly alarmed and distressed.
And he taketh with him Peter, and James, and John, and began to be greatly amazed, and to be very heavy;
- 34 And he said to them, My soul is very sad, even to death: be here a little time, and keep watch.
He said to them, "My soul is exceedingly sorrowful, even to death. Stay here, and watch."
And saith to them, My soul is exceeding sorrowful to death: tarry ye here, and watch.
- 35 And he went forward a little, and falling down on the earth, made request that, if possible, the hour might go from him.
He went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, if it were possible, the hour might pass away from him.
And he went forward a little, and fell on the ground, and prayed that, If it were possible, the hour might pass from him.
- 36 And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to you; take away this cup from me: but even so let not my pleasure, but yours be done.
He said, "Abba, Father, all things are possible to you. Please remove this cup from me. However, not what I want, but what you want."
And he said, Abba, Father, all things are possible to thee; take away this cup from me: nevertheless, not what I will, but what thou wilt.
- 37 And he came, and saw them sleeping, and said to Peter, Simon, are you sleeping? were you not able to keep watch one hour?
He came and found them sleeping, and said to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Couldn't you watch one hour?"
And he cometh, and findeth them sleeping, and saith to Peter, Simon, sleepest thou? couldst not thou watch one hour?
- 38 Keep watch with prayer, so that you may not be put to the test; the spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is feeble.
Watch and pray, that you not enter into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."
Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.
- 39 And again he went away, and said a prayer, using the same words.
Again he went away, and prayed, saying the same words.
And again he went away, and prayed, and spoke the same words.

- 40 And again he came and saw them sleeping, because their eyes were very tired; and they had nothing to say in answer.
Again he returned, and found them sleeping, for their eyes were very heavy, and they didn't know what to answer him.
And when he returned, he found them asleep again (for their eyes were heavy;) neither knew they what to answer him.
- 41 And he came the third time, and said to them, Go on sleeping now and take your rest: it is enough; the hour has come; see, the Son of man is given up into the hands of evil men.
He came the third time, and said to them, "Sleep on now, and take your rest. It is enough. The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
And he cometh the third time, and saith to them, Sleep on now, and take your rest: it is enough, the hour is come; behold, the Son of man is betrayed into the hands of sinners.
- 42 Get up, let us be going; see, he who gives me up is near.
Arise, let us be going. Behold, he who betrays me is at hand."
Rise, let us go; lo, he that betrayeth me is at hand.
- 43 And straight away, while he was still talking, Judas, one of the twelve, came, and with him a great band with swords and sticks, from the chief priests and the scribes and those in authority.
Immediately, while he was still speaking, Judas, one of the twelve, came -- and with him a multitude with swords and clubs, from the chief priests, the scribes, and the elders.
And immediately while he was yet speaking, cometh Judas, one of the twelve, and with him a great multitude with swords and staffs, from the chief priests, and the scribes, and the elders.
- 44 Now he who had been false to him had given them a sign, saying, The one to whom I give a kiss, that is he; take him, and get him away safely.
Now he who betrayed him had given them a sign, saying, "Whoever I will kiss, that is he. Take him, and lead him away safely."
And he that betrayed him, had given them a token, saying, Whomsoever I shall kiss, that same is he; take him, and lead him away safely.
- 45 And when he had come, he went straight to him and said, Master; and gave him a kiss.
When he had come, immediately he came to him, and said, "Rabbi! Rabbi!" and kissed him.
And as soon as he was come, he goeth immediately to him, and saith, Master, master; and kissed him.

- 46 And they put their hands on him, and took him.
They laid their hands on him, and took him.
And they laid their hands on him, and took him.
- 47 But a certain one of those who were near took out his sword, and gave the servant of the high priest a blow, cutting off his ear.
But a certain one of those who stood by drew his sword, and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
And one of them that stood by drew a sword, and smote a servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.
- 48 And Jesus said to them, Have you come out as against a thief, with swords and sticks to take me?
Jesus answered them, "Have you come out, as against a robber, with swords and clubs to seize me?
And Jesus answered and said to them, Have ye come out, as against a thief, with swords and with staffs to take me?
- 49 I was with you every day in the Temple teaching, and you did not take me; but this is done so that the Writings may come true.
I was daily with you in the temple teaching, and you didn't arrest me. But this is so that the scriptures might be fulfilled."
I was daily with you in the temple, teaching, and ye took me not: but the scriptures must be fulfilled.
- 50 And they all went away from him in fear.
They all left him, and fled.
And they all forsook him, and fled.
- 51 And a certain young man went after him, with only a linen cloth about his body; and they put their hands on him;
A certain young man followed with him, having a linen cloth thrown around him, over his naked body. The young men grabbed him,
And there followed him a certain young man, having a linen cloth cast about his naked body; and the young men laid hold on him.
- 52 But he got away unclothed, without the linen cloth.
but he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.
And he left the linen cloth, and fled from them naked.

- 53 And they took Jesus away to the high priest; and there came together with him all the chief priests and those in authority and the scribes.
They led Jesus away to the high priest. There came together with him all the chief priests, the elders, and the scribes.
And they led Jesus away to the high priest: and with him were assembled all the chief priests, and the elders and the scribes.
- 54 And Peter had come after him at a distance, even into the house of the high priest; and he was seated with the captains, warming himself in the light of the fire.
Peter had followed him afar off, until he came into the court of the high priest. He was sitting with the officers, and warming himself in the light of the fire.
And Peter followed him at a distance, even into the palace of the high priest: and he sat with the servants, and warmed himself at the fire.
- 55 Now the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin were looking for witness against Jesus so that they might put him to death; and they were unable to get any.
Now the chief priests and the whole council sought witnesses against Jesus to put him to death, and found none.
And the chief priests, and all the council sought for testimony against Jesus to put him to death; and found none.
- 56 For a number gave false witness against him and their witness was not in agreement.
For many gave false testimony against him, and their testimony didn't agree with each other.
For many bore false testimony against him, but their testimony agreed not together.
- 57 Then some got up and gave false witness against him, saying,
Some stood up, and gave false testimony against him, saying,
And there arose certain, and bore false testimony against him, saying,
- 58 He said in our hearing, I will put an end to this Temple which is made with hands, and in three days I will make another without hands.
"We heard him say, `I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and in three days I will build another made without hands.`"
We heard him say, I will destroy this temple that is made with hands, and within three days I will build another made without hands.

- 59 And even so their witness was not in agreement.
Even so their testimony did not agree.
But neither so did their testimony agree together.
- 60 And the high priest got up in the middle of them, and said to Jesus, Do you say nothing in answer? what is it which these say against you?
The high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, "Have you no answer? What is it which these testify against you?"
And the high priest stood up in the midst, and asked Jesus, saying, Answerest thou nothing? what is it which these testify against thee?
- 61 But he kept quiet and said nothing. Again the high priest questioning him said, Are you the Christ, the son of the Holy One?
But he stayed quiet, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, "Are you the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?"
But he held his peace, and answered nothing. Again the high priest asked him, and said to him, Art thou the Christ, the Son of the Blessed?
- 62 And Jesus said, I am: and you will see the Son of man seated at the right hand of power, and coming with the clouds of heaven.
Jesus said, "I AM. You will see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of the sky."
And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of man sitting on the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.
- 63 And the high priest, violently parting his robes, said, What more need have we of witnesses?
The high priest tore his clothes, and said, "What further need have we of witnesses?"
Then the high priest rent his clothes, and saith, What need we any further witnesses?
- 64 His words against God have come to your ears: what is your opinion? And they all said it was right for him to be put to death.
You have heard the blasphemy! What do you think?" They all condemned him to be worthy of death.
Ye have heard the blasphemy: what think ye? And they all condemned him to be guilty of death.

65 And some put shame on him and, covering his face, gave him blows and said to him, Now say what is to come: and the captains took him and gave him blows with their hands.
Some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to beat him with fists, and to tell him, "Prophecy!" The officers struck him with the palms of their hands.

And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face, and to buffet him, and to say to him, Prophecy: and the servants struck him with the palms of their hands.

66 And while Peter was down in the open square of the building, one of the servant-girls of the high priest came;
As Peter was beneath in the court, one of the maids of the high priest came,
And as Peter was below in the palace, there cometh one of the maids of the high priest:

67 And seeing Peter warming himself by the fire, she gave him a look, and said, You were with this Nazarene, even Jesus.
and seeing Peter warming himself, she looked at him, and said, "You were also with the Nazarene, Jesus."
And when she saw Peter warming himself, she looked upon him, and said, And thou also wast with Jesus of Nazareth.

68 But he said, I have no knowledge of him, or of what you are saying: and he went out into the doorway; and there came the cry of a cock.
But he denied it, saying, "I neither know, nor understand what you are saying." He went out into the porch, and the cock crowed.
But he denied, saying, I know not, neither do I understand what thou sayest. And he went out into the porch; and the cock crowed.

69 And the girl saw him, and said again to those who were near, This is one of them.
The maid saw him, and began again to tell those who stood by, "This is one of them."
And a maid saw him again, and began to say to them that stood by, This is one of them.

70 But again he said it was not so. And after a little time, again those who were near said to Peter, Truly you are one of them; for you are a Galilaean.
But he again denied it. After a little while again those who stood by said to Peter, "You truly are one of them, for you are a Galilean, and your speech shows it."
And he denied it again. And a little after, they that stood by said again to Peter, Surely thou art one of them: for thou art a Galilean, and thy speech agreeth thereto.

- 71 But, with curses and oaths, he said, I have no knowledge of the man about whom you are talking.
But he began to curse, and to swear, "I don't know this man of whom you speak!"
But he began to curse and to swear, saying, I know not this man of whom ye speak.
- 72 And in the same minute, the cock gave a second cry. And it came to Peter's mind how Jesus had said to him, Before the cock's second cry, you will say three times that you have no knowledge of me. And at this thought he was overcome with weeping.
The cock crowed the second time. Peter remembered the word, how that Jesus said to him, "Before the cock crows twice, you will deny me three times." When he thought about that, he wept.
And the second time the cock crowed. And Peter called to mind the word that Jesus said to him, Before the cock shall crow twice, thou wilt deny me thrice. And when he thought thereon, he wept.
- 1 And the first thing in the morning the chief priests, with those in authority and the scribes and all the Sanhedrin, had a meeting, and put cords round Jesus, and took him away, and gave him up to Pilate.
Immediately in the morning the chief priests, with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, held a consultation, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him up to Pilate.
And forthwith in the morning the chief priests held a consultation with the elders and scribes, and the whole council, and bound Jesus, and carried him away, and delivered him to Pilate.
- 2 And Pilate put a question to him, Are you the King of the Jews? And he, answering, said to him, You say so.
Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered, "So you say."
And Pilate asked him, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answering, said to him, Thou sayest it.
- 3 And the chief priests said a number of things against him.
The chief priests accused him of many things.
And the chief priests accused him of many things: but he answered nothing.
- 4 And Pilate again put a question, Do you say nothing in answer? see how much evil they say you have done.
Pilate again asked him, "Have you no answer? See how many things they testify against you!"
And Pilate asked him again, saying, Answerest thou nothing? behold how many things they testify against thee.

- 5 But Jesus gave no more answers, so that Pilate was full of wonder.
But Jesus made no further answer, so Pilate marveled.
But Jesus yet answered nothing: so that Pilate marveled.
- 6 Now at the feast every year he let one prisoner go free at their request.
Now at the feast he used to release to them one prisoner, whom they asked of him.
Now at that feast he released to them one prisoner, whom they desired.
- 7 And there was one named Barabbas, in prison with those who had gone against the government and in the fight had taken life.
There was one called Barabbas, bound with those who had made insurrection, men who in the insurrection had committed murder.
And there was one named Barabbas, who lay bound with them that had made insurrection with him, who had committed murder in the insurrection.
- 8 And the people went up, requesting him to do as he had done for them in other years.
The multitude, crying aloud, began to ask him to do as he always did for them.
And the multitude crying aloud, began to desire him to do as he had ever done to them.
- 9 And Pilate said in answer to them, Is it your desire that I let the King of the Jews go free?
Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you you want me to release to you the King of the Jews?"
But Pilate answered them, saying, Will ye that I release to you the King of the Jews?
- 10 For he saw that the chief priests had given him up through envy.
For he perceived that for envy the chief priests had delivered him up.
(For he knew that the chief priests had delivered him for envy.)
- 11 But the people were moved by the chief priests to make him let Barabbas go free.
But the chief priests stirred up the multitude, that he should release Barabbas to them instead.
But the chief priests moved the people that he should rather release Barabbas to them.

- 12 And Pilate again said in answer to them, What then am I to do to him to whom you give the name of the King of the Jews?
Pilate again asked them, "What then should I do to him whom you call the King of the Jews?"
And Pilate answered, and said again to them, What will ye then that I shall do to him whom ye call the King of the Jews?
- 13 And they said again loudly, To the cross with him!
They cried out again, "Crucify him!"
And they cried out again, Crucify him.
- 14 And Pilate said to them, Why, what evil has he done? But their cry was the louder, To the cross!
Pilate said to them, "Why, what evil has he done?" But they cried out exceedingly, "Crucify him!"
Then Pilate said to them, Why, what evil hath he done? And they cried out the more exceedingly, Crucify him.
- 15 And Pilate, desiring to do what was pleasing to the people, let Barabbas go free, and gave up Jesus, when he had been whipped, to be put to death on the cross.
Pilate, wishing to please the multitude, released Barabbas to them, and delivered Jesus, when he had flogged him, to be crucified.
And so Pilate, willing to content the people, released Barabbas to them, and having scourged Jesus, delivered him to be crucified.
- 16 And the men of the army took him away into the square in front of the building which is the Praetorium, and they got together all the band.
The soldiers led him away within the court, which is the Praetorium; and they called together the whole cohort.
And the soldiers led him away into the hall, called Pretorium; and they call together the whole band;
- 17 And they put a purple robe on him, and twisting a crown of thorns, they put it on him;
They clothed him with purple, and weaving a crown of thorns, they put it on him.
And they clothed him with purple, and platted a crown of thorns, and put it about his head,
- 18 And, as if honouring him, they said, Long life to the King of the Jews!
They began to salute him, "Hail, King of the Jews!"
And began to salute him, Hail, King of the Jews!

- 19 And they gave him blows on the head with a stick and put shame on him and, going down on their knees, gave him worship.
They struck his head with a reed, and spat on him, and bowing their knees, did homage to him.
And they struck him on the head with a reed, and spit upon him, and bowing their knees, worshiped him.
- 20 And when they had made sport of him, they took the purple robe off him and put his clothing on him. And they took him out to put him to death on the cross.
When they had mocked him, they took the purple off of him, and put his own garments on him. They led him out to crucify him.
And when they had mocked him, they took off the purple from him, and put his own clothes on him, and led him out to crucify him.
- 21 And they made one, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, who was going by, coming from the country, go with them, so that he might take his cross.
They compelled one passing by, coming from the country, Simon of Cyrene, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to go with them, that he might bear his cross.
And they constrain one Simon, a Cyrenian, who was passing by, coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, to bear his cross.
- 22 And they took him to the place named Golgotha, which is, Dead Man's Head.
They brought him to the place called Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, "The place of a skull."
And they bring him to the place Golgotha, which is, being interpreted, The place of a skull.
- 23 And they gave him wine mixed with myrrh; but he did not take it.
They offered him wine mixed with myrrh to drink, but he didn't take it.
And they gave him to drink, wine mingled with myrrh: but he received it not.
- 24 And he was nailed to the cross; and they made a division of his clothing among them, putting to the decision of chance what everyone was to take.
Crucifying him, they parted his garments among them, casting lots on them, what each should take.
And when they had crucified him, they parted his garments, casting lots upon them, what every man should take.
- 25 And it was the third hour when they put him on the cross.
It was the third hour, and they crucified him.
And it was the third hour, and they crucified him.

- 26 And the statement of his crime was put in writing on the cross, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
The superscription of his accusation was written over him, "THE KING OF THE JEWS."
And the superscription of his accusation was written over, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 27 And they put two thieves on crosses with him, one on his right side, and one on his left.
With him they crucified two robbers; one on his right hand, and one on his left.
And with him they crucify two thieves, the one on his right hand, and the other on his left.
- 28 ¶
The scripture was fulfilled, which says, "He was numbered with transgressors."
And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, And he was numbered with the transgressors.
- 29 And those who went by made sport of him, shaking their heads, and saying, Ha! you who give the Temple to destruction, and put it up again in three days,
Those who passed by blasphemed him, wagging their heads, and saying, "Ha! You who destroy the temple, and build it in three days,
And they that passed by, railed on him, wagging their heads, and saying, Ah, thou that destroyest the temple, and buildest it in three days,
- 30 Keep yourself from death, and come down from the cross.
save yourself, and come down from the cross!"
Save thyself, and come down from the cross.
- 31 In the same way the chief priests, laughing at him among themselves with the scribes, said, A saviour of others, he has no salvation for himself.
Likewise, also the chief priests mocking among themselves with the scribes said, "He saved others. He can't save himself.
Likewise also the chief priests mocking, said among themselves with the scribes, He saved others, himself he cannot save.

- 32 Let the Christ, the King of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and have belief. And those who were put on crosses with him said evil things against him.
Let the Christ, the King of Israel, now come down from the cross, that we may see and believe him." Those who were crucified with him reproached him.
Let Christ the king of Israel descend now from the cross, that we may see and believe. And they that were crucified with him, reviled him.
- 33 And when the sixth hour had come, it was dark over all the land till the ninth hour.
When the sixth hour had come, there was darkness over the whole land until the ninth hour.
And when the sixth hour was come, there was darkness over the whole land, until the ninth hour.
- 34 And at the ninth hour, Jesus said in a loud voice, Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani? which is, My God, my God, why are you turned away from me?
At the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, "Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?" which is, being interpreted, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"
And at the ninth hour Jesus cried with a loud voice, saying, Eloi, Eloi, lama, sabachthani? which is, being interpreted, My God, my God, why hast thou forsaken me?
- 35 And some of those who were near, hearing it, said, See, he is crying to Elijah.
Some of those who stood by, when they heard it, said, "Behold, he calls Elijah."
And some of them that stood by, when they heard it, said, Behold, he calleth Elijah.
- 36 And one of them went quickly and, getting a sponge full of bitter wine, put it on a rod, and gave it to him for drink, saying, Let be; let us see if Elijah will come to take him down.
One ran, and filling a sponge full of vinegar, put it on a reed, and gave it to him to drink, saying, "Let him be. Let`s see whether Elijah comes to take him down."
And one ran and filled a sponge full of vinegar, and put it on a reed, and gave him to drink, saying, Let alone; let us see whether Elijah will come to take him down.
- 37 And Jesus gave a loud cry, and gave up his spirit.
Jesus cried out with a loud voice, and gave up the spirit.
And Jesus cried with a loud voice, and expired.

- 38 And the curtain of the Temple was parted in two from end to end.
The veil of the temple was torn in two from the top to the bottom.
And the vail of the temple was rent in two, from the top to the bottom.
- 39 And when the captain, who was near, saw how he gave up his spirit, he said, Truly this man was a son of God.
When the centurion, who stood by opposite him, saw that he cried out like this and breathed his last, he said, "Truly this man was the Son of God!"
And when the centurion who stood over against him, saw that he so cried out, and expired, he said, Truly this man was the Son of God.
- 40 And there were women watching from a distance: among them were Mary Magdalene, and Mary, the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome,
There were also women watching from afar, among whom were both Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the less and of Joses, and Salome;
There were also women looking on at a distance, among whom was Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James the younger, and of Joses, and Salome;
- 41 Who went with him when he was in Galilee and took care of him; and a number of other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.
who, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and served him; and many other women who came up with him to Jerusalem.
Who also, when he was in Galilee, followed him, and ministered to him; and many other women who came with him to Jerusalem.
- 42 And when it was evening, because it was the time of getting ready, that is, the day before the Sabbath,
When evening had now come, because it was the Preparation, that is, the day before the Sabbath,
And now, when the evening was come, (because it was the preparation, that is, the day before the sabbath)
- 43 There came Joseph of Arimathea, a responsible man in high honour, who was himself waiting for the kingdom of God; and he went in to Pilate without fear, and made a request for the body of Jesus.
Joseph of Arimathea, a member of the council of honorable estate, who also himself was looking for the kingdom of God, came. He boldly went in to Pilate, and asked for Jesus` body.
Joseph of Arimathea, an honorable counselor, who also waited for the kingdom of God, came, and went in boldly to Pilate, and craved the body of Jesus.

44 And Pilate was surprised that he was dead; and, sending for the captain, he put a question to see if he had been dead for long.
Pilate marveled if he were already dead: and calling to him the centurion, he asked him whether he had been dead for a while.
And Pilate wondered if he was already dead: and calling the centurion, he asked him whether he had been any while dead.

45 And when he had news of it from the captain, he let Joseph have the body.
When he learned it from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.
And when he knew it from the centurion, he gave the body to Joseph.

46 And he got a linen cloth and, taking him down, put the linen cloth round him, and put him in a place for the dead which had been cut out of a rock; and a stone was rolled against the door.
He bought a linen cloth, and taking him down, wound him in the linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb which had been cut out of a rock. He rolled a stone against the door of the tomb.
And he bought fine linen, and took him down, and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a sepulcher which was hewn out of a rock, and rolled a stone to the door of the sepulcher.

47 And Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was put.
Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of Joses, saw where he was laid.
And Mary Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses, beheld where he was laid.

1 And when the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene and Mary, the mother of James, and Salome, got spices, so that they might come and put them on him.
When the Sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices, that they might come and anoint him.
And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had bought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

2 And very early after dawn on the first day of the week, they came at the time of the coming up of the sun to the place where the body had been put.
Very early on the first day of the week, they came to the tomb when the sun had risen.
And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came to the sepulcher at the rising of the sun:

- 3 And they were saying among themselves, Who will get the stone rolled away from the door for us?
They were saying among themselves, "Who will roll away the stone from the door of the tomb for us?"
And they said among themselves, Who shall roll away for us the stone from the door of the sepulcher?
- 4 And looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back; and it was of great size.
for it was very big. Looking up, they saw that the stone was rolled back (And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away) for it was very great.
- 5 And when they went in, they saw a young man seated on the right side, dressed in a white robe; and they were full of wonder.
Entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe, and they were amazed.
And entering into the sepulcher, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were frightened.
- 6 And he said to them, Do not be troubled: you are looking for Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been put to death on the cross; he has come back from the dead; he is not here: see, the place where they put him!
He said to them, "Don't be amazed. You seek Jesus, the Nazarene, who has been crucified. He has risen. He is not here. Behold, the place where they laid him!
And he saith to them, Be not frightened: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him:
- 7 But go, say to his disciples and to Peter, He goes before you into Galilee: there you will see him, as he said to you.
But go, tell his disciples and Peter, `He goes before you into Galilee. There you will see him, as he said to you.`"
But go, tell his disciples and Peter, that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said to you.
- 8 And they went out quickly from the place, because fear and great wonder had come on them: and they said nothing to anyone, because they were full of fear that ...
They went out, and fled from the tomb, for trembling and astonishment had come on them. They said nothing to anyone; for they were afraid.
And they went out quickly, and fled from the sepulcher; for they trembled, and were amazed: neither said they any thing to any man; for they were afraid.

- 9 Now when he came back from the dead early on the first day of the week, he went first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had sent out seven evil spirits.
Now when he had risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, from whom he had cast out seven demons.
Now when Jesus was risen early, the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary Magdalene, out of whom he had cast seven demons.
- 10 She went and gave news of it to those who had been with him, while they were sorrowing and weeping.
She went and told those who had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
And she went and told them that had been with him, as they mourned and wept.
- 11 And they, when it came to their ears that he was living, and had been seen by her, had no belief in it.
When they heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, they disbelieved.
And they, when they had heard that he was alive, and had been seen by her, believed not.
- 12 And after these things he was seen in another form by two of them, while they were walking on their way into the country.
After these things he was revealed in another form to two of them, as they walked, on their way into the country.
After that, he appeared in another form to two of them, as they were walking and going into the country.
- 13 And they went away and gave news of it to the rest; and they had no belief in what was said.
They went away and told it to the rest. They didn't believe them, either.
And they went and told it to the residue: neither believed they them.
- 14 And later he was seen by the eleven themselves while they were taking food; and he said sharp words to them because they had no faith and their hearts were hard, and because they had no belief in those who had seen him after he had come back from the dead.
Afterward he was revealed to the eleven themselves as they sat at the table, and he rebuked them for their unbelief and hardness of heart, because they didn't believe those who had seen him after he had risen.
Afterward he appeared to the eleven, as they sat at table, and upbraided them with their unbelief, and hardness of heart, because they believed not them who had seen him after he was risen.

- 15 And he said to them, Go into all the world, and give the good news to everyone.
He said to them, "Go into all the world, and preach the gospel to the whole creation.
And he said to them, Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature.
- 16 He who has faith and is given baptism will get salvation; but he who has not faith will be judged.
He who believes and is baptized will be saved; but he who disbelieves will be condemned.
He that believeth and is baptized, shall be saved; but he that believeth not shall be damned.
- 17 And these signs will be with those who have faith: in my name they will send out evil spirits; and they will make use of new languages;
These signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will cast out demons; they will speak with new languages;
And these signs shall follow them that believe: In my name shall they cast out demons; they shall speak in new languages;
- 18 They will take up snakes, and if there is poison in their drink, it will do them no evil; they will put their hands on those who are ill, and they will get well.
they will take up serpents, and if they drink any deadly thing, it will in no way hurt them; they will lay hands on the sick, and they will recover."
They shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover.
- 19 So then the Lord Jesus, after he had said these words to them, was taken up into heaven and took his seat at the right hand of God.
So then the Lord Jesus, after he had spoken to them, was received up into heaven, and sat down at the right hand of God.
So then after the Lord had spoken to them, he was received up into heaven, and sat on the right hand of God.
- 20 And they went out, preaching everywhere, the Lord working with them, and giving witness to the word by the signs which came after. So be it.
They went forth, and preached everywhere, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word by the signs that followed.
Amen.
And they went forth, and preached every where, the Lord working with them, and confirming the word with signs following. Amen.

- 1 As a number of attempts have been made to put together in order an account of those events which took place among us,
Because many have undertaken to draw up a narrative concerning those matters which have been fulfilled among us,
Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us,
- 2 As they were handed down to us by those who saw them from the first and were preachers of the word,
even as they delivered them to us, who from the beginning were eyewitnesses and ministers of the word,
Even as they delivered them to us, who from the beginning were eye-witnesses, and ministers of the word;
- 3 It seemed good to me, having made observation, with great care, of the direction of events in their order, to put the facts in writing for you, most noble Theophilus;
it seemed good to me also, having traced the course of all things accurately from the first, to write to you in order, most excellent Theophilus;
It seemed good to me also, having had perfect understanding of all things from the very first, to write to thee in order, most excellent Theophilus,
- 4 So that you might have certain knowledge of those things about which you were given teaching.
that you might know the certainty concerning the things in which you were instructed.
That thou mayest know the certainty of those things in which thou hast been instructed.
- 5 In the days of Herod, king of Judaea, there was a certain priest, by name Zacharias, of the order of Abijah; and he had a wife of the family of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
There was in the days of Herod, the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the priestly division of Abijah. He had a wife of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth.
There was in the days of Herod the king of Judea, a certain priest named Zacharias, of the course of Abia: and his wife was of the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elisabeth.
- 6 They were upright in the eyes of God, keeping all the rules and orders of God, and doing no wrong.
They were both righteous before God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord.
And they were both righteous before God, walking in all the commandments and ordinances of the Lord blameless.

- 7 And they were without children, because Elisabeth had never given birth, and they were at that time very old.
But they had no child, because Elizabeth was barren, and they both were well advanced in years.
And they had no child, because Elisabeth was barren, and they both were far advanced in years.
- 8 Now it came about that in his turn he was acting as priest before God,
Now it happened, while he executed the priest's office before God in the order of his division,
And it came to pass, that, while he executed the priests' office before God in the order of his course,
- 9 And as was the way of the priests, he had to go into the Temple to see to the burning of perfumes.
according to the custom of the priest's office, his lot was to enter into the temple of the Lord and burn incense.
According to the custom of the priests' office, his lot was to burn incense when he went into the temple of the Lord.
- 10 And all the people were offering prayers outside, at the time of the burning of perfumes.
The whole multitude of the people were praying outside at the hour of incense.
And the whole multitude of the people were praying without, at the time of incense.
- 11 And he saw an angel of the Lord in his place on the right side of the altar.
An angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.
And there appeared to him an angel of the Lord, standing on the right side of the altar of incense.
- 12 And Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear came on him.
Zacharias was troubled when he saw him, and fear fell on him.
And when Zacharias saw him, he was troubled, and fear fell upon him.
- 13 But the angel said, Have no fear, Zacharias, for your prayer has come to the ears of God, and your wife Elisabeth will have a son, and his name will be John.
But the angel said to him, "Don't be afraid, Zacharias, because your request has been heard, and your wife, Elizabeth, will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John.
But the angel said to him, Fear not, Zacharias: for thy prayer is heard; and thy wife Elisabeth shall bear thee a son, and thou shalt call his name John.

- 14 And you will be glad and have great delight; and numbers of people will have joy at his birth.
You will have joy and gladness; and many will rejoice at his birth.
And thou shalt have joy and gladness, and many shall rejoice at his birth.
- 15 For he will be great in the eyes of the Lord; he will not take wine or strong drink; and he will be full of the Spirit of God from his birth.
For he will be great in the sight of the Lord, and he will drink no wine nor strong drink. He will be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother`s womb.
For he shall be great in the sight of the Lord, and shall drink neither wine nor strong drink; and he shall be filled with the Holy Spirit, even from his mother`s womb.
- 16 And through him great numbers of the children of Israel will be turned to the Lord their God.
He will turn many of the children of Israel to the Lord, their God.
And many of the children of Israel shall he turn to the Lord their God.
- 17 And he will go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, turning the hearts of fathers to their children, and wrongdoers to the way of righteousness; to make ready a people whose hearts have been turned to the Lord.
He will go before his face in the spirit and power of Elijah, `to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children,` and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord."
And he shall go before him in the spirit and power of Elijah, to turn the hearts of the fathers to the children, and the disobedient to the wisdom of the just; to make ready a people prepared for the Lord.
- 18 And Zacharias said to the angel, How may I be certain of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is far on in years.
Zacharias said to the angel, "How can I be sure of this? For I am an old man, and my wife is well advanced in years."
And Zacharias said to the angel, By what shall I know this? for I am an old man, and my wife far advanced in years.
- 19 And the angel, answering, said, I am Gabriel, whose place is before God; I have been sent to say these words to you and to give you this good news.
The angel answered him, "I am Gabriel, who stands in the presence of God. I was sent to speak to you, and to bring you this good news.
And the angel answering, said to him, I am Gabriel, who stand in the presence of God; and am sent to speak to thee, and to show thee these glad tidings.

- 20 Now, see, you will be without voice or language till the day when these things come about, because you had not faith in my words, which will have effect at the right time.
Behold, you will be silent and not able to speak, until the day that these things will happen, because you didn't believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their proper time."
And behold, thou shalt be dumb, and not able to speak, until the day that these things shall be performed, because thou believest not my words which shall be fulfilled in their season.
- 21 And the people were waiting for Zacharias and were surprised because he was in the Temple for such a long time.
The people were waiting for Zacharias, and they marveled while he delayed in the temple.
And the people waited for Zacharias, and marveled that he tarried so long in the temple.
- 22 And when he came out he was not able to say anything, and they saw that he had seen a vision in the Temple; and he was making signs to them without words.
When he came out, he could not speak to them, and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple. He continued making signs to them, and remained mute.
And when he came out, he could not speak to them: and they perceived that he had seen a vision in the temple; for he beckoned to them, and remained speechless.
- 23 And when the days of his work in the Temple were ended, he went back to his house.
It happened, when the days of his service were fulfilled, he departed to his house.
And it came to pass, that as soon as the days of his ministration were accomplished, he departed to his own house.
- 24 After that time, Elisabeth, being certain that she was to become a mother, kept herself from men's eyes for five months, saying,
After these days Elizabeth, his wife, conceived, and she hid herself five months, saying,
And after those days his wife Elisabeth conceived, and secluded herself five months, saying,
- 25 The Lord has done this to me, for his eyes were on me, to take away my shame in the eyes of men.
"Thus has the Lord done to me in the days in which he looked at me, to take away my reproach among men."
Thus hath the Lord dealt with me in the days in which he looked on me, to take away my reproach among men.

- 26 Now in the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a town in Galilee, named Nazareth,
Now in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent from God to a city of Galilee, named Nazareth,
- 27 To a virgin who was to be married to a man named Joseph, of the family of David; and the name of the virgin was Mary.
to a virgin pledged to be married to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin`s name was Mary.
To a virgin espoused to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David; and the virgin's name was Mary.
- 28 And the angel came in to her and said, Peace be with you, to whom special grace has been given; the Lord is with you.
Having come in to her, the angel said, "Rejoice, you highly favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women!"
And the angel came to her, and said, Hail, thou that art highly favored, the Lord is with thee: blessed art thou among women.
- 29 But she was greatly troubled at his words, and said to herself, What may be the purpose of these words?
But when she saw him, she was greatly troubled at the saying, and considered what kind of salutation this might be.
And when she saw him, she was troubled at his saying, and cast in her mind what manner of salutation this should be.
- 30 And the angel said to her, Have no fear, Mary, for you have God's approval.
The angel said to her, "Don`t be afraid, Mary, for you have found favor with God.
And the angel said to her, Fear not, Mary: for thou hast found favor with God.
- 31 And see, you will give birth to a son, and his name will be Jesus.
Behold, you will conceive in your womb, and bring forth a son, and will call his name JESUS.
And behold, thou shalt conceive in thy womb, and bring forth a son, and shalt call his name JESUS.
- 32 He will be great, and will be named the Son of the Most High: and the Lord God will give him the kingdom of David, his father:
He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. The Lord God will give to him the throne of his father, David,
He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Highest; and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his father David.

- 33 He will have rule over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.
and he will reign over the house of Jacob forever. There will be no end of his kingdom."
And he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.
- 34 And Mary said to the angel, How may this be, because I have had no knowledge of a man?
Mary said to the angel, "How will this be, seeing I am a virgin?"
Then said Mary to the angel, How shall this be, seeing I know not a man?
- 35 And the angel in answer said to her, The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will come to rest on you, and so that which will come to birth will be named holy, Son of God.
The angel answered her, "The Holy Spirit will come on you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. Therefore also the holy one which is born from you will be called the Son of God.
And the angel answered and said to her, The Holy Spirit will come upon thee, and the power of the Highest will overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.
- 36 Even now Elisabeth, who is of your family, is to be a mother, though she is old: and this is the sixth month with her who was without children.
Behold, Elizabeth, your relative, also has conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren.
And behold, thy cousin Elisabeth, she hath also conceived a son in her old age; and this is the sixth month with her who was called barren:
- 37 For there is nothing which God is not able to do.
For no word from God will be void of power."
For with God nothing will be impossible.
- 38 And Mary said: I am the servant of the Lord; may it be to me as you say. And the angel went away.
Mary said, "Behold, the handmaid of the Lord; be it to me according to your word." The angel departed from her.
And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord, be it to me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her.

- 39 Then Mary got up and went quickly into the high lands, to a town of Judah;
Mary arose in those days and went into the hill country with haste, into a city of Judah,
And Mary arose in those days, and went into the hill-country with haste, into a city of Judah,
- 40 And went into the house of Zacharias and took Elisabeth in her arms.
and entered into the house of Zacharias and greeted Elizabeth.
And entered into the house of Zacharias, and saluted Elisabeth.
- 41 And when the voice of Mary came to the ears of Elisabeth, the baby made a sudden move inside her; then Elisabeth was full of the Holy Spirit,
It happened, when Elizabeth heard Mary`s greeting, the baby leaped in her womb, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
And it came to pass, that when Elisabeth heard the salutation of Mary, the babe leaped in her womb: and Elisabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit.
- 42 And she said with a loud voice: May blessing be on you among women, and a blessing on the child of your body.
She called out with a loud voice, and said, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb!
And she spoke with a loud voice, and said, Blessed art thou among women, and blessed is the fruit of thy womb.
- 43 How is it that the mother of my Lord comes to me?
Why am I so favored, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
And whence is this to me, that the mother of my Lord should come to me?
- 44 For, truly, when the sound of your voice came to my ears, the baby in my body made a sudden move for joy.
For behold, when the voice of your greeting came into my ears, the baby leaped in my womb for joy!
For lo, as soon as the voice of thy salutation sounded in my ears, the babe leaped in my womb for joy.
- 45 Happy will she be who had faith that the things which the Lord has said to her will be done.
Blessed is she who believed, for there will be a fulfillment of the things which have been spoken to her from the Lord!"
And blessed is she that believed that there will be a performance of those things which were told her from the Lord.

- 46 And Mary said: My soul gives glory to God;
Mary said, "My soul magnifies the Lord.
And Mary said, My soul doth magnify the Lord,
- 47 My spirit is glad in God my Saviour.
My spirit has rejoiced in God my Savior,
And my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior.
- 48 For he has had pity on his servant, though she is poor and lowly placed: and from this hour will all generations give witness to the blessing which has come to me.
For he has looked at the humble state of his handmaid. For behold, from now on, all generations will call me blessed.
For he hath regarded the low estate of his handmaiden: for behold, from henceforth all generations will call me blessed.
- 49 For he who is strong has done great things for me; and holy is his name.
For he who is mighty has done to me great things; Holy is his name.
For he that is mighty hath done to me great things, and holy is his name.
- 50 His mercy is for all generations in whom is the fear of him.
His mercy is for generations of generations on those who fear him.
And his mercy is on them that fear him, from generation to generation.
- 51 With his arm he has done acts of power; he has put to flight those who have pride in their hearts.
He has shown strength with his arm. He has scattered the proud in the imagination of their heart.
He hath shown strength with his arm; he hath scattered the proud in the imagination of their hearts.
- 52 He has put down kings from their seats, lifting up on high the men of low degree.
He has put down princes from their thrones. Has exalted the lowly.
He hath put down the mighty from their seats, and exalted them of low degree.

- 53 Those who had no food he made full of good things; the men of wealth he sent away with nothing in their hands;
He has filled the hungry with good things. He has sent the rich away empty.
He hath filled the hungry with good things, and the rich he hath sent away empty.
- 54 His help he has given to Israel, his servant, so that he might keep in mind his mercy to Abraham and his seed for ever,
He has given help to Israel, his servant, that he might remember mercy
He hath sustained his servant Israel, in remembrance of his mercy;
- 55 As he gave his word to our fathers.
(As he spoke to our fathers) Toward Abraham and his seed forever."
As he spoke to our fathers, to Abraham, and to his seed for ever.
- 56 And Mary was with her for about three months and then went back to her house.
Mary stayed with her about three months, and returned to her house.
And Mary abode with her about three months, and returned to her own house.
- 57 Now it was time for Elisabeth to give birth, and she had a son.
Now the time that Elizabeth should give birth was fulfilled, and she brought forth a son.
Now Elisabeth's full time came that she should be delivered; and she brought forth a son.
- 58 And it came to the ears of her neighbours and relations that the Lord had been very good to her, and they took part in her joy.
Her neighbors and her relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy towards her; and they rejoiced with her.
And her neighbors and her cousins heard that the Lord had shown great mercy upon her; and they rejoiced with her.
- 59 And on the eighth day they came to see to the circumcision of the child, and they would have given him the name of Zacharias, his father's name;
It happened on the eighth day, that they came to circumcise the child; and they would have called him Zacharias, after the name of the father.
And it came to pass, that on the eighth day they came to circumcise the child; and they called him Zacharias, after the name of his father.

- 60 But his mother made answer and said, No, his name is John.
His mother answered, "Not so; but he will be called John."
And his mother answered and said, Not so; but he shall be called John.
- 61 And they said, Not one of your relations has that name.
They said to her, "There is no one among your relatives who is called by this name."
And they said to her, There is none of thy kindred that is called by this name.
- 62 And they made signs to his father, to say what name was to be given to him.
They made signs to his father, what he would have him called.
And they made signs to his father, how he would have him called.
- 63 And he sent for writing materials and put down: His name is John; and they were all surprised.
He asked for a writing tablet, and wrote, "His name is John." They all marveled.
And he asked for a writing-table, and wrote, saying, His name is John. And they all wondered.
- 64 And straight away his mouth was open and his tongue was free and he gave praise to God.
His mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue freed, and he spoke, blessing God.
And his mouth was opened immediately, and his tongue loosed, and he spoke, and praised God.
- 65 And fear came on all those who were living round about them: and there was much talk about all these things in all the hill-country of Judaea.
Fear came on all who lived around them, and all these sayings were talked about throughout all the hill country of Judea.
And fear came on all that dwelt around them; and all these sayings were noised abroad throughout all the hill-country of Judea.
- 66 And all who had word of them kept them in their minds and said, What will this child be? For the hand of the Lord was with him.
All who heard them laid them up in their heart, saying, "What then will this child be?" The hand of the Lord was with him.
And all they that had heard them, laid them up in their hearts, saying, What manner of child will this be! And the hand of the Lord was with him.

- 67 And his father, Zacharias, was full of the Holy Spirit, and with the voice of a prophet said these words:
His father, Zacharias, was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
And his father Zacharias was filled with the Holy Spirit, and prophesied, saying,
- 68 Praise be to the Lord, the God of Israel, for he has come to his people and made them free,
"Blessed be the Lord, the God of Israel, For he has visited and worked redemption for his people;
Blessed be the Lord God of Israel; for he hath visited and redeemed his people.
- 69 Lifting up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David,
Has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of his servant David
And hath raised up a horn of salvation for us, in the house of his servant David:
- 70 (As he said, by the mouth of his holy prophets, from the earliest times,)
(As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets who have been from of old),
As he spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been since the world began:
- 71 Salvation from those who are against us, and from the hands of those who have hate for us;
Salvation from our enemies, and from the hand of all who hate us;
That we should be saved from our enemies, and from the hand of all that hate us;
- 72 To do acts of mercy to our fathers and to keep in mind his holy word,
To show mercy towards our fathers, To remember his holy covenant,
To perform the mercy promised to our fathers, and to remember his holy covenant:
- 73 The oath which he made to Abraham, our father,
The oath which he spoke to Abraham, our father,
The oath which he swore to our father Abraham,

74 That we, being made free from the fear of those who are against us, might give him worship,
To grant to us that we, being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, should serve him without fear,
That he would grant to us, that we being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, might serve him without fear, 75 In righteousness and holy living before him all our days.

In holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our life.
In holiness and righteousness before him, all the days of our life.

76 And you, child, will be named the prophet of the Most High: you will go before the face of the Lord, to make ready his ways;
And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High, For you will go before the face of the Lord to make ready his ways,
And thou, child, shalt be called the prophet of the Highest, for thou shalt go before the face of the Lord to prepare his ways;

77 To give knowledge of salvation to his people, through the forgiveness of sins,
To give knowledge of salvation to his people by the remission of their sins,
To give knowledge of salvation to his people, by the remission of their sins,

78 Because of the loving mercies of our God, by which the dawn from heaven has come to us,
Because of the tender mercy of our God, Whereby the dawn from on high will visit us,
Through the tender mercy of our God; by which the day-spring from on high hath visited us, 79 To give light to those in dark places, and in the shade of death, so that our feet may be guided into the way of peace.

To shine on those who sit in darkness and the shadow of death; To guide our feet into the way of peace."
To give light to them that sit in darkness and in the shades of death, to guide our feet into the way of peace.

80 And the child became tall, and strong in spirit; and he was living in the waste land till the day when he came before the eyes of Israel.
The child grew, and grew strong in spirit, and was in the desert until the day of his public appearance to Israel.
And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, and was in the deserts till the day of his showing to Israel.

1 Now it came about in those days that an order went out from Caesar Augustus that there was to be a numbering of all the world.
Now it happened in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus that all the world should be enrolled.
And it came to pass in those days, that there went out a decree from Cesar Augustus, that all the world should be taxed.

2 This was the first numbering, which was made when Quirinius was ruler of Syria.
This was the first enrollment made when Quirinius was governor of Syria.
(And this taxing was first made when Cyrenius was governor of Syria.)

3 And all men went to be numbered, everyone to his town.
All went to enroll themselves, everyone to his own city.
And all went to be taxed, every one into his own city.

4 And Joseph went up from Galilee, out of the town of Nazareth, into Judaea, to Beth-lehem, the town of David, because he was of the house and family of David,
Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was of the house and family of David;
And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea, to the city of David, which is called Bethlehem; (because he was of the house and lineage of David)

5 To be put on the list with Mary, his future wife, who was about to become a mother.
to enroll himself with Mary, who was pledged to be married to him as wife, being great with child.
To be taxed with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child.

6 And while they were there, the time came for her to give birth.
It happened, while they were there, that the day had come that she should give birth.
And so it was, that while they were there, the days were accomplished that she should be delivered.

7 And she had her first son; and folding him in linen, she put him to rest in the place where the cattle had their food, because there was no room for them in the house.
She brought forth her firstborn son, and she wrapped him in bands of cloth, and laid him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn.

And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling-clothes, and laid him in a manger; because there was no room for them in the inn.

8 And in the same country there were keepers of sheep in the fields, watching over their flock by night.
There were shepherds in the same country staying in the field, and keeping watch by night over their flock.

And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night.

9 And an angel of the Lord came to them, and the glory of the Lord was shining round about them: and fear came on them.
Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them, and they were terrified.

And lo, the angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone around them; and they were in great fear.

10 And the angel said, Have no fear; for truly, I give you good news of great joy which will be for all the people:
The angel said to them, "Don't be afraid, for behold, I bring you good news of great joy which will be to all the people.

And the angel said to them, Fear not: for behold, I bring you good tidings of great joy which shall be to all people.

11 For on this day, in the town of David, a Saviour has come to birth, who is Christ the Lord.
For there is born to you, this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.
For to you is born this day, in the city of David, a Savior, who is Christ the Lord.

12 And this is the sign to you: you will see a young child folded in linen, in the place where the cattle have their food.
This is the sign to you: you will find a baby wrapped in strips of cloth, lying in a feeding trough."
And this shall be a sign to you; Ye shall find the babe wrapped in swaddling-clothes, lying in a manger.

13 And suddenly there was with the angel a great band of spirits from heaven, giving praise to God, and saying,
Suddenly, there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,
And suddenly there was with the angel a multitude of the heavenly host praising God, and saying,

- 14 Glory to God in the highest, and on the earth peace among men with whom he is well pleased.
"Glory to God in the highest, On earth peace, good will toward men."
Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will towards men.
- 15 And when the angels had gone away from them into heaven, the keepers of the sheep said to one another, Let us go now to Beth-lehem, and see this thing which has come about, which the Lord has made clear to us.
It happened, when the angels went away from them into the sky, that the shepherds said one to another, "Let`s go to Bethlehem, now, and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."
And it came to pass, when the angels had departed from them into heaven, the shepherds said one to another, Let us now go even to Bethlehem, and see this thing which is come to pass, which the Lord hath made known to us.
- 16 And they came quickly, and saw Mary and Joseph, and the child in the place where the cattle had their food.
They came with haste, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the feeding trough.
And they came with haste, and found Mary and Joseph, and the babe lying in a manger.
- 17 And when they saw it, they gave them an account of the things which had been said to them about the child.
When they saw it, they publicized widely the saying which was spoken to them about this child.
And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child.
- 18 And all those to whose ears it came were full of wonder at the things said by the keepers of the sheep.
All who heard it wondered at the things which were spoken to them by the shepherds.
And all they that heard it, wondered at those things which were told them by the shepherds.
- 19 But Mary kept all these words in her heart, and gave much thought to them.
But Mary kept all these sayings, pondering them in her heart.
But Mary kept all these things, and pondered them in her heart.

- 20 Then the keepers of the sheep went back, giving glory and praise to God for all the things which had come to their ears and which they had seen, as it had been said to them.
The shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, even as it was spoken to them.
And the shepherds returned, glorifying and praising God for all the things that they had heard and seen, as it was told to them.
- 21 And when, after eight days, the time came for his circumcision, he was named Jesus, the name which the angel had given to him before his birth.
When eight days were fulfilled for the circumcision of the child, his name was called JESUS, which was given by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
And when eight days were accomplished for the circumcising of the child, his name was called JESUS, who was so named by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.
- 22 And when the necessary days for making them clean by the law of Moses had come to an end, they took him to Jerusalem to give him to the Lord
When the days of their purification according to the law of Moses were fulfilled, they brought him up to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord
And when the days of her purification according to the law of Moses were accomplished, they brought him to Jerusalem, to present him to the Lord;
- 23 (As it says in the law of the Lord, Every mother's first male child is to be holy to the Lord),
(as it is written in the law of the Lord, "Every male who opens the womb shall be called holy to the Lord"),
(As it is written in the law of the Lord, Every male that is the first born of his mother shall be called holy to the Lord)
- 24 And to make an offering, as it is ordered in the law of the Lord, of two doves or other young birds.
and to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, "A pair of turtledoves, or two young pigeons."
And to offer a sacrifice according to that which is said in the law of the Lord, A pair of turtle-doves, or two young pigeons.
- 25 And there was then in Jerusalem a man whose name was Simeon; and he was an upright man, fearing God and waiting for the comfort of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was on him.
Behold, there was a man in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon; and this man was righteous and devout, looking for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was on him.
And behold, there was a man in Jerusalem, whose name was Simeon; and the same man was just and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel: and the Holy Spirit was upon him.

- 26 And he had knowledge, through the Holy Spirit, that he would not see death till he had seen the Lord's Christ.
It had been revealed to him by the Holy Spirit that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.
And it was revealed to him by the Holy Spirit, that he should not see death, before he had seen the Lord's Christ.
- 27 And full of the Spirit he came into the Temple; and when the father and mother came in with the child Jesus, to do with him what was ordered by the law,
He came in the Spirit into the temple. When the parents brought in the child, Jesus, that they might do concerning him according to the custom of the law,
And he came by the spirit into the temple; and when the parents brought in the child Jesus, to do for him after the custom of the law,
- 28 Then he took him in his arms and gave praise to God and said, then he received him into his arms, and blessed God, and said,
Then he took him up in his arms, and blessed God, and said,
- 29 Now you are letting your servant go in peace, O Lord, as you have said;
"Now let you your servant depart, Lord, According to your word, in peace;
Lord, now lettest thou thy servant depart in peace, according to thy word:
- 30 For my eyes have seen your salvation,
For my eyes have seen your salvation,
For my eyes have seen thy salvation,
- 31 Which you have made ready before the face of all nations;
Which you have prepared before the face of all peoples;
Which thou hast prepared before the face of all people;
- 32 A light of revelation to the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel.
A light for revelation to the Gentiles, The glory of your people Israel."
A light to enlighten the Gentiles, and the glory of thy people Israel.

- 33 And his father and mother were full of wonder at the things which were said about him.
Joseph and his mother were marveling at the things which were spoken concerning him,
And Joseph and his mother marveled at those things which were spoken concerning him.
- 34 And Simeon gave them his blessing and said to Mary, his mother, See, this child will be the cause of the downfall and the lifting up of great numbers of people in Israel, and he will be a sign against which hard words will be said;
and Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother, "Behold, this child is set for the falling and the rising of many in Israel, and for a sign which is spoken against.
And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary his mother, Behold, this child is set for the fall and rising again of many in Israel; and for a sign which shall be spoken against;
- 35 (And a sword will go through your heart;) so that the secret thoughts of men may come to light.
Yes, a sword will pierce through your own soul, that thoughts out of many hearts may be revealed."
(And a sword shall pierce through thy own soul also) that the thoughts of many hearts may be revealed.
- 36 And there was one, Anna, a woman prophet, the daughter of Phanuel, of the family of Asher (she was very old, and after seven years of married life
There was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher (she was of a great age, having lived with a husband seven years from her virginity,
And there was one Anna, a prophetess, the daughter of Phanuel, of the tribe of Asher: she was of a great age, and had lived with a husband seven years from her virginity;

- 37 She had been a widow for eighty-four years); she was in the Temple at all times, worshipping with prayers and going without food, night and day.
and she had been a widow for about eighty-four years), who didn't depart from the temple, worshipping with fastings and petitions night and day.
And she was a widow of about eighty four years, who departed not from the temple, but served God with fastings and prayers night and day.
- 38 And coming up at that time, she gave praise to God, talking of him to all those who were waiting for the freeing of Jerusalem.
Coming up at that very hour, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke of him to all those who were looking for redemption in Jerusalem.
And she coming in that instant, gave thanks likewise to the Lord, and spoke of him to all them that looked for redemption in Jerusalem.

- 39 And when they had done all the things which were ordered by the law of the Lord, they went back to Galilee, to Nazareth, the town where they were living.
When they had accomplished all things that were according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city, Nazareth.
And when they had performed all things according to the law of the Lord, they returned into Galilee, to their own city Nazareth.
- 40 And the child became tall and strong and full of wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.
The child grew, and grew strong in spirit, filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was on him.
And the child grew, and became strong in spirit, filled with wisdom: and the grace of God was upon him.
- 41 And every year his father and mother went to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.
His parents went every year to Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover.
Now his parents went to Jerusalem every year at the feast of the passover.
- 42 And when he was twelve years old, they went up, as their way was, to the feast;
When he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast,
And when he was twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem according to the custom of the feast.
- 43 And when the days of the feast came to an end and they were going back, the boy Jesus was still in Jerusalem, but they had no knowledge of it:
and when they had fulfilled the days, as they were returning, the boy, Jesus, stayed behind in Jerusalem. Joseph and his mother didn't know it,
And when they had fulfilled the days, as they returned, the child Jesus tarried behind in Jerusalem; and Joseph and his mother knew not of it.
- 44 And in the belief that he was with some of their number, they went a day's journey; and after looking for him among their relations and friends, but supposing him to be in the company, they went a day's journey, and they looked for him among their relatives and acquaintances.
But they, supposing him to be in the company, went a day's journey; and they sought him among their relations and acquaintance.

- 45 And seeing that he was not there, they went back to Jerusalem, to make search for him.
When they didn't find him, they returned to Jerusalem, looking for him.
And when they found him not, they returned to Jerusalem, seeking him.
- 46 And after three days they came across him in the Temple, seated among the wise men, giving ear to their words and putting questions to them.
It happened, after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them, and asking them questions.
And it came to pass, that after three days they found him in the temple, sitting in the midst of the doctors, both hearing them, and asking them questions.
- 47 And all to whose ears it came were full of wonder at his knowledge and the answers which he gave.
All who heard him were amazed at his understanding and his answers.
And all that heard him were astonished at his understanding and answers.
- 48 And when they saw him they were surprised, and his mother said to him, Son, why have you done this to us? see, your father and I have been looking for you with sorrow.
When they saw him, they were astonished, and his mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Behold, your father and I were anxiously looking for you."
And when they saw him, they were amazed: and his mother said to him, Son, why hast thou thus dealt with us? behold, thy father and I have sought thee sorrowing.
- 49 And he said to them, Why were you looking for me? was it not clear to you that my right place was in my Father's house?
He said to them, "Why were you looking for me? Didn't you know that I must be in my Father's house?"
And he said to them, How is it that ye sought me? knew ye not that I must be about my Father's business?
- 50 And his words seemed strange to them.
They didn't understand the saying which he spoke to them.
And they understood not the saying which he spoke to them.

- 51 And he went down with them and came to Nazareth; and did as he was ordered: and his mother kept all these words in her heart.
He went down with them, and came to Nazareth. He was subject to them, and his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
And he went down with them, and came to Nazareth, and was subject to them: but his mother kept all these sayings in her heart.
- 52 And Jesus was increasing in wisdom and in years, and in grace before God and men.
Jesus advanced in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and men.
And Jesus increased in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and man.

- 2 When Annas and Caiaphas were high priests, the word of the Lord came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the waste land.
in the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John, the son of Zacharias, in the wilderness.
Annas and Caiaphas being the high priests, the word of God came to John the son of Zacharias in the wilderness.
- 3 And he came into all the country round about Jordan, preaching baptism as a sign of forgiveness of sin for those whose hearts were changed.
He came into all the region around the Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance to remission of sins.
And he came into all the country about Jordan, preaching the baptism of repentance, for the remission of sins;
- 4 As it says in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, The voice of one crying in the waste land, Make ready the way of the Lord, make his roads straight.
As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, "The voice of one crying in the wilderness, `Make ready the way of the Lord. Make his paths straight.
As it is written in the book of the words of Isaiah the prophet, saying, The voice of one crying in the wilderness, Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

5 Every valley will be lifted up, and all the mountains and hills made low, and the twisted will be made straight, and the rough ways smooth;
Every valley will be filled. Every mountain and hill will be brought low. The crooked will become straight, And the rough ways smooth.

Every valley shall be filled, and every mountain and hill shall be brought low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough ways shall be made smooth;

6 And all flesh will see the salvation of God.

All flesh will see God`s salvation.`"

And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.

7 So he said to the people who went out to him for baptism: You offspring of snakes, at whose word are you going in flight from the wrath to come?

He said therefore to the multitudes who went out to be baptized by him, "You offspring of vipers, who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

Then said he to the multitude that came forth to be baptized by him, O generation of vipers, who hath warned you to flee from the wrath to come?

8 Make clear by your acts that your hearts have been changed; and do not say to yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you that God is able from these stones to make children of Abraham.

Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and don`t begin to say among yourselves, `We have Abraham for our father;` for I tell you that God is able to raise up children to Abraham from these stones!

Bring forth therefore fruits worthy of repentance, and begin not to say within yourselves, We have Abraham for our father: for I say to you, that God is able of these stones to raise up children to Abraham.

9 And even now the axe is put to the root of the trees; and every tree which does not have good fruit will be cut down and put into the fire.

Even now the ax also lies at the root of the trees. Every tree therefore that doesn`t bring forth good fruit is cut down, and thrown into the fire."

And now also the ax is laid to the root of the trees: every tree therefore which bringeth not forth good fruit, is hewn down, and cast into the fire.

10 And the people put questions to him, saying, What have we to do?

The multitudes asked him, "What then must we do?"

And the people asked him, saying, What shall we do then?

- 11 And he made answer and said to them, He who has two coats, let him give to him who has not even one; and he who has food, let him do the same.
He answered them, "He who has two coats, let him give to him who has none. He who has food, let him do likewise."
He answereth and saith to them, He that hath two coats, let him impart to him that hath none; and he that hath provisions, let him do likewise.
- 12 Then tax-farmers came to him for baptism and said to him, Master, what have we to do?
Tax collectors also came to be baptized, and they said to him, "Teacher, what must we do?"
Then came also publicans to be baptized, and said to him, Master, what shall we do?
- 13 And he said to them, Do not make an attempt to get more money than the right amount.
He said to them, "Extort no more than that which is appointed you."
And he said to them, Exact no more than that which is appointed you.
- 14 And men of the army put questions to him, saying, And what have we to do? And he said to them, Do no violent acts to any man, and do not take anything without right, and let your payment be enough for you.
Soldiers also asked him, saying, "What about us? What must we do?" He said to them, "Extort from no one by violence, neither accuse anyone wrongfully. Be content with your wages."
And the soldiers likewise asked him, saying, And what shall we do? And he said to them, Do violence to no man, neither accuse any falsely, and be content with your wages.
- 15 And while the people were waiting, and all men were questioning in their hearts about John, if he was the Christ or not,
As the people were in expectation, and all men reasoned in their hearts concerning John, whether perhaps he was the Christ,
And as the people were in expectation, and all men mused in their hearts concerning John, whether he was the Christ, or not;
- 16 John made answer, saying to them all, Truly, I give you baptism with water, but one is coming who is greater than I, whose shoes I am not good enough to undo: he will give you baptism with the Holy Spirit, and with fire:
John answered them all, "I indeed baptize you with water, but he comes who is mightier than I, the latchet of whose sandals I am not worthy to loosen. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and fire,
John answered, saying to them all, I indeed baptize you with water; but one mightier than I cometh, the latchet of whose shoes I am not worthy to unloose: he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit, and with fire:

- 17 In whose hand is the instrument with which he will make clean his grain; he will put the good grain in his store, but the waste will be burned in the fire which will never be put out.
whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his threshing floor, and will gather the wheat into his barn; but he will burn up the chaff with unquenchable fire."
Whose fan is in his hand, and he will thoroughly cleanse his floor, and will gather the wheat into his granary; but the chaff he will burn with fire unquenchable.
- 18 And so comforting them with these and other words, he gave the good news to the people;
Then with many other exhortations he preached good news to the people,
And many other things in his exhortation he preached to the people.
- 19 But Herod the king, because John had made a protest on account of Herodias, his brother's wife, and other evil things which Herod had done, but Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him for Herodias, his brother's wife, and for all the evil things which Herod had done,
But Herod the tetrarch, being reprov'd by him on account of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife, and for all the evils which Herod had done,
- 20 Did this most evil thing of all, and had John shut up in prison.
added this also to them all, that he shut up John in prison.
Added yet this above all, that he shut up John in prison.

1 And Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, came back from the Jordan, and was guided by the Spirit in the waste land
Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness
And Jesus being full of the Holy Spirit, returned from Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the wilderness,

2 For forty days, being tested by the Evil One. And he had no food in those days; and when they came to an end, he was in need of food.
for forty days, being tempted by the devil. He ate nothing in those days. Afterward, when they were completed, he was hungry.
Being forty days tempted by the devil. And in those days he ate nothing; and when they were ended, he was afterward hungry.

3 And the Evil One said to him, If you are the Son of God, give orders to this stone to become bread.
The devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, command this stone to become bread."
And the devil said to him, If thou art the Son of God, command this stone that it be made bread.

- 4 And Jesus made answer to him, It has been said in the Writings, Bread is not man's only need.
Jesus answered him, saying, "It is written, `Man will not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.`"
And Jesus answered him, saying, It is written, That man shall not live by bread alone, but by every word of God.
- 5 And he took him up and let him see all the kingdoms of the earth in a minute of time.
The devil, leading him up on a high mountain, showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited world in a moment of time.
And the devil taking him up upon a high mountain, showed to him all the kingdoms of the world in a moment of time.
- 6 And the Evil One said, I will give you authority over all these, and the glory of them, for it has been given to me, and I give it to anyone at my pleasure.
The devil said to him, "I will give you all this authority, and their glory, for it has been delivered to me; and I give it to whomever I want.
And the devil said to him, All this power will I give thee, and the glory of them: for that is delivered to me, and to whomsoever I will, I give it.
- 7 If then you will give worship to me, it will all be yours.
If you therefore will worship before me, it will all be yours."
If thou therefore wilt worship me, all shall be thine.
- 8 And Jesus in answer said to him, It has been said in the Writings, Give worship to the Lord your God, and be his servant only.
Jesus answered him, "Get behind me Satan! For it is written, `You will worship the Lord your God, and him only will you serve.`"
And Jesus answered and said to him, Get thee behind me, Satan: for it is written, Thou shalt worship the Lord thy God, and him only shalt thou serve.
- 9 And he took him to Jerusalem and put him on the highest point of the Temple and said to him, If you are the Son of God, let yourself go down from here; for it is said in the Writings,
He led him to Jerusalem, and set him on the pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, "If you are the Son of God, cast yourself down from here,
And he brought him to Jerusalem, and set him on a pinnacle of the temple, and said to him, If thou art the son of God, cast thyself down from hence.

- 10 He will give his angels orders to take care of you:
for it is written, `He will give his angels charge concerning you, to guard you;`
For it is written, He will give his angels charge over thee, to keep thee:
- 11 And, In their hands they will keep you up, so that your foot may not be crushed against a stone.
and, `On their hands they will bear you up, Lest perhaps you dash your foot against a stone.`"
And in their hands they will bear thee up, lest at any time thou dash thy foot against a stone.
- 12 And Jesus made answer and said to him, It is said in the Writings, You may not put the Lord your God to the test.
Jesus answering, said to him, "It has been said, `You shall not tempt the Lord your God.`"
And Jesus answering, said to him, It is said, Thou shalt not tempt the Lord thy God.
- 13 And when all these tests were ended the Evil One went away from him for a time.
When the devil had completed every temptation, he departed from him for awhile.
And when the devil had ended all the temptation, he departed from him for a season.
- 14 And Jesus came back to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and the news of him went through all the country round about.
Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit to Galilee, and news about him spread through all the surrounding area.
And Jesus returned in the power of the spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the surrounding region.
- 15 And he was teaching in their Synagogues and all men gave him praise.
He taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.
And he taught in their synagogues, being glorified by all.
- 16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been as a child, and he went, as his way was, into the Synagogue on the Sabbath, and got up to give a reading.
He came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up. He entered, as was his custom, into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and stood up to read.
And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath, and stood up to read.

- 17 And the book of the prophet Isaiah was given to him and, opening the book, he came on the place where it is said,
The book of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. He opened the book, and found the place where it was written,
And there was delivered to him the book of the prophet Isaiah. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
- 18 The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because I am marked out by him to give good news to the poor; he has sent me to make well those who are broken-hearted; to say that the prisoners will be let go, and the blind will see, and to make the wounded free from their chains,
"The Spirit of the Lord is on me, Because he anointed me to preach good news to the poor. He has sent me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim release to the captives, Recovering of sight to the blind, To deliver those who are crushed,
The spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the broken-hearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
- 19 To give knowledge that the year of the Lord's good pleasure is come.
And to proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord."
To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
- 20 And shutting the book he gave it back to the servant and took his seat: and the eyes of all in the Synagogue were fixed on him.
He closed the book, gave it back to the attendant, and sat down. The eyes of all in the synagogue were fastened on him.
And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
- 21 Then he said to them, Today this word has come true in your hearing.
He began to tell them, "Today, this scripture has been fulfilled in your hearing."
And he began to say to them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.
- 22 And they were all giving witness, with wonder, to the words of grace which came from his mouth: and they said, Is not this the son of Joseph?
All testified about him, and wondered at the words of grace which proceeded out of his mouth, and they said, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"
And all bore him testimony, and wondered at the gracious words which proceeded out of his mouth. And they said, Is not this Joseph's son?

23 And he said to them, Without doubt you will say to me, Let the medical man make himself well: the things which to our knowledge were done at Capernaum, do them here in your country.
He said to them, "Doubtless you will tell me this parable, `Physician, heal yourself. Whatever we have heard done at Capernaum, do also here in your hometown.`"

And he said to them, Ye will surely say to me this proverb, Physician, heal thyself: whatever we have heard done in Capernaum, do also here in thy country.

24 And he said to them, Truly I say to you, No prophet is honoured in his country.

He said, "Most assuredly I tell you, no prophet is acceptable in his hometown.

And he said, Verily I say to you, No prophet is accepted in his own country.

25 Truly I say to you, There were a number of widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut up for three years and six months and there was no food in the land;

But truly I tell you, there were many widows in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the the sky was shut up three years and six months, when a great famine came over all the land.

But I tell you in truth, many widows were in Israel in the days of Elijah, when the heaven was shut three years and six months when great famine was throughout all the land:

26 But Elijah was not sent to one of them, but only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

Elijah was sent to none of them, except only to Zarephath, in the land of Sidon, to a woman who was a widow.

But to none of them was Elijah sent, save to Sarepta, a city of Sidon, to a woman that was a widow.

27 And there were a number of lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, and not one of them was made clean, but only Naaman the Syrian.

There were many lepers in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet, yet not one of them was cleansed, except Naaman, the Syrian."

And many lepers were in Israel in the time of Elisha the prophet; and none of them was cleansed, saving Naaman the Syrian.

28 And all who were in the Synagogue were very angry when these things were said to them.

They were all filled with wrath in the synagogue, as they heard these things;

And all they in the synagogue, when they heard these things, were filled with wrath,

- 29 And they got up and took him out of the town to the edge of the mountain on which their town was, so that they might send him down to his death.
and they rose up, and threw him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill that their city was built on, that they might throw him off the cliff.
And rose up, and thrust him out of the city, and led him to the brow of the hill on which their city was built, that they might cast him down headlong.
- 30 But he came through them and went on his way.
But he, passing through the midst of them, went his way.
But he passing through the midst of them, went away,
- 31 And he came down to Capernaum, a town of Galilee; and he was giving them teaching on the Sabbath.
He came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee. He was teaching them on the Sabbath day,
And came down to Capernaum, a city of Galilee, and taught them on the sabbath-days.
- 32 And they were surprised at his teaching, for his word was with authority.
and they were astonished at his teaching, for his word was with authority.
And they were astonished at his doctrine: for his word was with power.
- 33 And there was a man in the Synagogue who had an unclean spirit; and he gave a loud cry and said,
In the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon, and he cried out with a loud voice,
And in the synagogue there was a man who had a spirit of an unclean demon; and he cried out with a loud voice,
- 34 Let us be! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? have you come to put an end to us? I have knowledge who you are, the Holy One of God.
saying, "Ah! what have we to do with you, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know you who you are: the Holy One of God!"
Saying, Let us alone; what have we to do with thee, Jesus of Nazareth? art thou come to destroy us? I know thee who thou art, the Holy One of God.

- 35 And Jesus said to him, Be quiet, and come out of him. And when the evil spirit had put him down on the earth in the middle of them, he came out of him, having done him no damage. Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" When the demon had thrown him down in their midst, he came out of him, having done him no harm.
And Jesus rebuked him, saying, Hold thy peace, and come out of him. And when the demon had thrown him in the midst, he came out of him, and hurt him not.
- 36 And wonder came on them all and they said to one another, What are these words? for with authority and power he gives orders to the evil spirits and they come out. Amazement came on all, and they spoke together, one with another, saying, "What is this word? For with authority and power he commands the unclean spirits, and they come out!"
And they were all amazed, and spoke among themselves, saying, What a word is this! for with authority and power he commandeth the unclean spirits, and they come out.
- 37 And there was much talk about him in all the places round about. News about him went forth into every place of the surrounding region.
And the fame of him went out into every place of the surrounding country.
- 38 And he got up and went out of the Synagogue and went into the house of Simon. And Simon's wife's mother was very ill with a burning heat; and in answer to their prayers for her He rose up from the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. Simon's mother-in-law was afflicted with a great fever, and they begged him for her.
And he arose out of the synagogue, and entered into Simon's house. And the mother of Simon's wife was taken with a violent fever; and they besought him for her.
- 39 He went near her, and with a sharp word he gave orders to the disease and it went away from her; and straight away she got up and took care of their needs. He stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her. Immediately she rose up and ministered to them.
And he stood over her, and rebuked the fever; and it left her: and immediately she arose and ministered to them.
- 40 And at sundown all those who had anyone ill with any sort of disease, took them to him, and he put his hands on every one of them and made them well. When the sun was setting, all those who had any sick with various diseases brought them to him; and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.
Now when the sun was setting, all they that had any sick with divers diseases, brought them to him: and he laid his hands on every one of them, and healed them.

- 41 And evil spirits came out of a number of them, crying out and saying, You are the Son of God. But he gave them sharp orders not to say a word, because they had knowledge that he was the Christ.
Demons also came out from many, crying out, and saying, "You are the Christ, the Son of God!" Rebuking them, he didn't allow them to speak, because they knew that he was the Christ.
And demons also came out of many, crying out, and saying, Thou art Christ the Son of God. And he rebuking them, suffered them not to speak: for they knew that he was Christ.
- 42 And when it was day, he came out and went to a waste place; and great numbers of people came looking for him, and they came to him and would have kept him from going away.
When it was day, he came out and went into an uninhabited place, and the multitudes looked for him, and came to him, and held on to him, so that he wouldn't go away from them.
And when it was day, he departed, and went into a desert place; and the people sought him, and came to him, and stayed him, that he should not depart from them.
- 43 But he said to them, I have to give the good news of the kingdom of God in other towns, because that is why I was sent.
But he said to them, "I must preach the good news of the kingdom of God to the other cities also; for this reason I have been sent."
And he said to them, I must preach the kingdom of God to other cities also, for therefore am I sent.
- 44 And he was teaching in the Synagogues of Galilee.
He was preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.
And he preached in the synagogues of Galilee.
- 1 Now it came about that while the people came pushing to be near him, and to have knowledge of the word of God, he was by a wide stretch of water named Gennesaret;
Now it happened, while the multitude pressed on him and heard the word of God, that he was standing by the lake of Gennesaret.
And it came to pass, that as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gennesaret.
- 2 And he saw two boats by the edge of the water, but the fishermen had gone out of them and were washing their nets.
He saw two boats standing by the lake, but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets.
And saw two boats standing by the lake: but the fishermen had gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he got into one of the boats, the property of Simon, and made a request to him to go a little way out from the land. And being seated he gave the people teaching from the boat.
He entered into one of the boats, which was Simon`s, and asked him to put out a little from the land. He sat down and taught the multitudes out of the boat.

And he entered into one of the boats, which was Simon`s, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the boat.

4 And when his talk was ended, he said to Simon, Go out into deep water, and let down your nets for fish.

When he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

Now when he had left speaking, he said to Simon, Lanch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Simon, answering, said, Master, we were working all night and we took nothing: but at your word I will let down the nets.

Simon answered him, "Master, we worked all night, and took nothing; but at your word I will let down the net."

And Simon answering said to him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing; nevertheless, at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had done this, they got such a great number of fish that it seemed as if their nets would be broken;

When they had done this, they caught a great multitude of fish, and their net was breaking.

And when they had done this, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net broke.

7 And they made signs to their friends in the other boat to come to their help. And they came, and the two boats were so full that they were going down.

They beckoned to their partners in the other boat, that they should come and help them. They came, and filled both boats, so that they began to sink.

And they beckoned to their partners, who were in the other boat, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the boats, so that they began to sink.

8 But Simon, when he saw it, went down at the knees of Jesus and said, Go away from me, O Lord, for I am a sinner.

But Simon Peter, when he saw it, fell down at Jesus` knees, saying, "Depart from me, for I am a sinful man, Lord."

When Simon Peter saw it, he fell down at Jesus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

- 9 For he was full of wonder and so were all those who were with him, at the number of fish which they had taken;
For he was amazed, and all who were with him, at the catch of fish which they had caught;
For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:
- 10 And so were James and John, the sons of Zebedee, who were working with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Have no fear; from this time forward you will be a fisher of men. and so also were James and John, sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid.
From now on you will catch men alive."
And so was also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon. And Jesus said to Simon, Fear not: from henceforth thou shalt catch men.
- 11 And when they had got their boats to the land, they gave up everything and went after him.
When they had brought their boats to land, they left everything, and followed him.
And when they had brought their boats to land, they forsook all, and followed him.
- 12 And it came about that while he was in one of the towns, there was a leper there: and when he saw Jesus he went down on his face in prayer to him, saying, Lord, if it is your pleasure, you have power to make me clean.
It happened, while he was in one of the cities, behold, there was a man full of leprosy. When he saw Jesus, he fell on his face, and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you want to, you can make me clean."
And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold, a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jesus, fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.
- 13 And he put out his hand to him and said, It is my pleasure; be clean. And straight away his disease went from him.
He stretched forth his hand, and touched him, saying, "I want to. Be made clean." Immediately the leprosy departed from him.
And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: Be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
- 14 And he gave him orders: Say nothing to any man, but let the priest see you and give an offering so that you may be made clean, as the law of Moses says, and for a witness to them.
He charged him to tell no one, "But go your way, and show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing, according to what Moses commanded, for a testimony to them."
And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and show thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Moses commanded for a testimony to them.

15 But news of him went out all the more, in every direction, and great numbers of people came together to give hearing to his words and to be made well from their diseases.
But the report concerning him spread much more, and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

But so much the more a fame of him went abroad: and great multitudes came together to hear and to be healed by him of their infirmities.

16 But he went away by himself to a waste place for prayer.

But he withdrew himself into the desert, and prayed.

And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came about that on one of these days he was teaching; and some Pharisees and teachers of the law were seated there, who had come from every town of Galilee and Judaea and from Jerusalem; and the power of the Lord was with him, to make those who were ill free from their diseases.

It happened on one of those days, that he was teaching; and there were Pharisees and teachers of the law sitting by, who had come out of every village of Galilee, Judea, and Jerusalem. The power of the Lord was with him to heal them.

And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Pharisees and doctors of the law sitting by, who had come out of every town of Galilee, and Judea, and Jerusalem: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

18 And some men had with them, on a bed, a man who was ill, without power of moving; and they made attempts to get him in and put him before Jesus.

Behold, men brought a paralyzed man on a cot, and they sought to bring him in to lay before him.

And behold, men brought in a bed a man who was taken with the palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.

19 And because of the mass of people, there was no way to get him in; so they went up on the top of the house and let him down through the roof, on his bed, into the middle in front of Jesus.

Not finding a way to bring him in because of the multitude, they went up to the housetop, and let him down through the tiles with his cot into the midst before Jesus.

And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in, because of the multitude, they went upon the house-top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch, into the midst before Jesus.

20 And seeing their faith he said, Man, you have forgiveness for your sins.

Seeing their faith, he said to him, "Man, your sins are forgiven you."

And when he saw their faith, he said to him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.

- 21 And the scribes and Pharisees were having an argument, saying, Who is this, who has no respect for God? who is able to give forgiveness for sins, but God only?
The scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, "Who is this that speaks blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?"
And the scribes and the Pharisees began to reason, saying, Who is this who speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?
- 22 But Jesus, who had knowledge of their thoughts, said to them, Why are you reasoning in your hearts?
But Jesus, perceiving their thoughts, answered them, "Why are you reasoning so in your hearts?"
But when Jesus perceived their thoughts, he answering, said to them, What reason ye in your hearts?
- 23 Which is the simpler: to say, You have forgiveness for your sins; or to say, Get up and go?
Which is easier to say, `Your sins are forgiven you;` or to say, `Arise and walk?`
Which is easier, to say, Thy sins are forgiven thee; or to say, Rise and walk?
- 24 But so that you may see that on earth the Son of man has authority for the forgiveness of sins, (he said to the man who was ill,) I say to you, Get up, and take up your bed, and go into your house.
But that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins" (he said to the paralyzed man), "I tell you, arise, and take up your cot, and go to your house."
But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, He said to the sick with the palsy, I say to thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thy house.
- 25 And straight away he got up before them, and took up his bed and went away to his house giving praise to God.
Immediately he rose up before them, and took up that which he was laying on, and departed to his house, glorifying God.
And immediately he arose before them, and took up that on which he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.
- 26 And wonder overcame them all, and they gave glory to God; and they were full of fear, saying, We have seen strange things today.
Amazement took hold on all, and they glorified God. They were filled with fear, saying, "We have seen strange things today."
And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to-day.

- 27 And after these things he went out, and saw Levi, a tax-farmer, seated at the place where taxes were taken, and said to him, Come after me.
After these things he went out, and saw a tax collector, named Levi, sitting at the tax office, and said to him, "Follow me."
And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican named Levi, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said to him, Follow me.
- 28 And giving up his business, he got up and went after him.
He left everything, and rose up and followed him.
And he left all, arose, and followed him.
- 29 And Levi made a great feast for him in his house: and a great number of tax-farmers and others were seated at table with them.
Levi made him a great feast for him in his house. There was a great crowd of tax collectors and others who were reclining with them.
And Levi made him a great feast in his own house; and there was a great company of publicans, and of others that sat down with them.
- 30 And the Pharisees and their scribes made protests against his disciples, saying, Why do you take food and drink with tax-farmers and sinners?
Their scribes and the Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with the tax collectors and sinners?"
But their scribes and Pharisees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
- 31 And Jesus, answering, said to them, Those who are well have no need of a medical man, but those who are ill.
Jesus answered them, "Those who are healthy have no need for a physician, but those who are sick do.
And Jesus answering, said to them, They that are well need not a physician; but they that are sick.
- 32 I have come, not to get the upright, but sinners, so that they may be turned from their sins.
I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."
I came not to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance.

- 33 And they said to him, The disciples of John frequently go without food, and make prayers, and so do the disciples of the Pharisees; but your disciples take food and drink.
They said to him, "Why do John`s disciples often fast and pray, likewise also the disciples of the Pharisees, but yours eat and drink?"
And they said to him, Why do the disciples of John fast often, and make prayers, and likewise the disciples of the Pharisees; but thine eat and drink?
- 34 And Jesus said, Are you able to make the friends of the newly-married man go without food when he is with them?
He said to them, "Can you make the friends of the bridegroom fast, while the bridegroom is with them?"
And he said to them, Can ye make the children of the bride-chamber fast, while the bridegroom is with them?
- 35 But the days will come when he will be taken away from them, and then they will go without food.
But the days will come when the bridegroom will be taken away from them. Then will they fast in those days."
But the days will come, when the bridegroom shall be taken from them, and then they will fast in those days.
- 36 And he said to them, in a story, No man takes a bit of cloth from a new coat and puts it on to an old coat, for so the new coat would be damaged and the bit from the new would not go well with the old.
He also told a parable to them. "No one puts a piece from a new garment on an old garment, or else he will tear the new, and also the piece from the new will not match the old.
And he spoke also a parable to them: No man putteth a piece of a new garment upon an old: if otherwise, then both the new maketh a rent, and the piece that was taken out of the new, agreeth not with the old.
- 37 And no man puts new wine into old wine-skins, for fear that the skins will be burst by the new wine, and the wine be let out, and the skins come to destruction.
No one puts new wine into old wineskins, or else the new wine will burst the skins, and it will be spilled, and the skins will be destroyed.
And no man putteth new wine into old bottles; else the new wine will burst the bottles, and be spilled, and the bottles will perish.
- 38 But new wine has to be put into new wine-skins.
But new wine must be put into fresh wineskins, and both are preserved.
But new wine must be put into new bottles, and both are preserved.

39 And no man, having had old wine, has any desire for new, for he says, The old is better.

No man having drunk old wine immediately desires new, for he says, `The old is better.`"

No man also having drunk old wine, immediately desireth new: for he saith, The old is better.

1 Now it came about that on the Sabbath he was going through the fields of grain, and his disciples took the heads of the grain for food, crushing them in their hands.

Now it happened on the second Sabbath after the first, that he was going through the grain fields, and his disciples plucked the heads of grain, and ate, rubbing them in their hands.

And it came to pass on the second sabbath after the first, that he went through corn-fields; and his disciples plucked the ears of corn, and ate, rubbing them in their hands.

2 But some of the Pharisees said, Why do you do what it is not right to do on the Sabbath?

But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why do you do that which is not lawful to do on the Sabbath day?"

And certain of the Pharisees said to them, Why do ye that which it is not lawful to do on the sabbath-days?

3 And Jesus said, Have you not seen in the Writings what David did when he was in need of food, he, and those who were with him;

Jesus, answering them, said, "Haven't you read this, what David did, when he was hungry, he, and those who were with him;

And Jesus answering them, said, Have ye not read so much as this, what David did, when himself was hungry, and they who were with him;

4 How he went into the house of God and took for food the holy bread, which only the priests may take, and gave it to those who were with him?

how he entered into the house of God, and took and ate the show bread, and gave also to those who were with him, which is not lawful to eat except for the priests alone?"

How he went into the house of God, and took and ate the show-bread, and gave also to them that were with him, which it is not lawful to eat but for the priests alone?

5 And he said, The Son of man is lord even of the Sabbath.

He said to them, "The Son of Man is lord of the Sabbath."

And he said to them, That the Son of man is Lord also of the sabbath.

- 6 And it came about, on another Sabbath, that he went into the Synagogue and was teaching there. And a man was there whose right hand was dead.
It also happened on another Sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue and taught. There was a man there, and his right hand was withered.
And it came to pass also on another sabbath, that he entered into the synagogue, and taught: and there was a man whose right hand was withered:
- 7 And the scribes and Pharisees were watching him to see if he would make him well on the Sabbath, so that they might be able to say something against him.
The scribes and the Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the Sabbath, that they might find an accusation against him.
And the scribes and Pharisees watched him, to see whether he would heal on the sabbath; that they might find an accusation against him.
- 8 But he had knowledge of their thoughts; and he said to the man whose hand was dead, Get up and come into the middle. And he got up and came forward.
But he knew their thoughts; and he said to the man who had the withered hand, "Rise up, and stand in the middle." He arose and stood.
But he knew their thoughts, and said to the man who had the withered hand, Rise, and stand forth in the midst. And he arose, and stood forth.
- 9 And Jesus said, I put the question to you, Is it right to do good on the Sabbath or to do evil? to give life or to take it away?
Then Jesus said to them, "I will ask you something: Is it lawful on the Sabbath to do good, or to do harm? To save a life, or to kill?"
Then said Jesus to them, I will ask you one thing; Is it lawful on the sabbath-days to do good, or to do evil? to save life, or to destroy it?
- 10 And looking round on all of them, he said to him, Put out your hand. And he did so: and his hand was made well.
He looked around at them all, and said to him, "Stretch out your hand." He did, and his hand was restored as sound as the other.
And looking around upon them all, he said to the man, Stretch forth thy hand. And he did so: and his hand was restored whole as the other.
- 11 But they were full of wrath, and were talking together about what they might do to Jesus.
But they were filled with rage, and talked with one another about what they might do to Jesus.
And they were filled with madness; and communed one with another what they might do to Jesus.

- 12 And it came about in those days that he went out to the mountain for prayer; and he was all night in prayer to God.
It happened in these days, that he went out into the mountain to pray, and he continued all night in prayer to God.
And it came to pass in those days, that he went out to a mountain to pray, and continued all night in prayer to God.
- 13 And the day came and, turning to his disciples, he made a selection from among them of twelve, to whom he gave the name of Apostles;
When it was day, he called his disciples, and from them he chose twelve, whom he also named apostles:
And when it was day, he called to him his disciples: and of them he chose twelve, whom also he named Apostles;
- 14 Simon, to whom he gave the name of Peter, and Andrew, his brother, and James and John and Philip and Bartholomew
Simon, whom he also named Peter; Andrew, his brother; James; John; Philip; Bartholomew; Simon (whom he also named Peter) and Andrew his brother, James and John, and Philip and Bartholomew,
- 15 And Matthew and Thomas and James, the son of Alphaeus, and Simon, who was named the Zealot,
Matthew; Thomas; James, the son of Alphaeus; Simon, who was called the Zealot;
Matthew and Thomas, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon called Zelotes,
- 16 And Judas, the son of James, and Judas Iscariot, he who was false to him.
Judas the son of James; and Judas Iscariot, who also became a traitor.
And Judas the brother of James, and Judas Iscariot, who also was the traitor.
- 17 And he came down with them to a level place, and a great band of his disciples, and a very great number of people from all Judaea and Jerusalem and from the parts of Tyre and Sidon by the sea, came to give hearing to him, and to be made well from their diseases;
He came down with them, and stood on a level place, with a crowd of his disciples, and a great number of the people from all Judea and Jerusalem, and the sea coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;
And he came down with them, and stood in the plain; and the company of his disciples, and a great multitude of people out of all Judea and Jerusalem, and from the sea-coast of Tyre and Sidon, who came to hear him, and to be healed of their diseases;

- 18 And those who were troubled with unclean spirits were made well.
also those who were troubled with unclean spirits, and they were being healed.
And they that were afflicted with unclean spirits: and they were healed.
- 19 And all the people were desiring to be touched by him, for power came from him and made them all well.
All the multitude sought to touch him, for power came forth from him, and healed them all.
And the whole multitude sought to touch him; for there went virtue out of him, and healed them all.
- 20 And turning his eyes to his disciples he said, Happy are you who are poor: for the kingdom of God is yours.
He lifted up his eyes to his disciples, and said, "Blessed are you poor, for yours is the kingdom of God.
And he lifted up his eyes on his disciples, and said, Blessed are ye poor: for yours is the kingdom of God.
- 21 Happy are you who are in need of food now: for you will be made full. Happy are you who are weeping now; for you will be glad.
"Blessed are you who hunger now, for you will be filled. "Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
Blessed are ye that hunger now: for ye shall be filled. Blessed are ye that weep now: for ye shall laugh.
- 22 Happy are you, when men have hate for you, and put you away from among them and say angry words to you, turning away in disgust at your name, because of the Son of man.
"Blessed are you when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from them and reproach you, and throw out your name as evil, for the Son of Man`s sake.
Blessed are ye when men shall hate you, and when they shall separate you from their company, and shall reproach you, and cast out your name as evil, on account of the son of man.
- 23 Be glad in that day, and be lifted up for joy, for your reward in heaven will be great: for their fathers did these same things to the prophets.
Rejoice in that day, and leap for joy, for behold, your reward is great in heaven, for their fathers did the same thing to the prophets.
Rejoice ye in that day, and leap for joy: for behold, your reward is great in heaven: for in the like manner did their fathers to the prophets.
- 24 But unhappy are you who have wealth: for you have been comforted now.
"But woe to you who are rich! For you have received your consolation.
But woe to you that are rich! for ye have received your consolation.

- 25 Unhappy are you who are full of food now: for you will be in need. Unhappy are you who are laughing now: for you will be crying in sorrow.
"Woe to you, you who are full now! For you will be hungry. "Woe to you, you who laugh now! For you will mourn and weep.
Woe to you that are full! for ye shall hunger. Woe to you that laugh now! for ye shall mourn and weep.
- 26 Unhappy are you when all men give you their approval: for so their fathers did to the false prophets.
"Woe, when men will speak well of you! For their fathers did the same thing to the false prophets.
Woe to you, when all men shall speak well of you! for so did their fathers to the false prophets.
- 27 But I say to you who give ear to me, Have love for those who are against you, do good to those who have hate for you,
But I tell you who hear, love your enemies, do good to those who hate you,
But I say to you who hear, Love your enemies, do good to them who hate you,
- 28 Give blessing to those who give you curses, say prayers for those who are cruel to you.
bless them who curse you, and pray for those who insult you.
Bless them that curse you, and pray for them who spitefully use you.
- 29 If a man gives you a blow on one side of your face, then let the other side be turned to him; from him who takes away your coat, do not keep back your robe.
To him who strikes you on the cheek, offer also the other; and from him who takes away your cloak, don't withhold your coat also.
And to him that smiteth thee on the one cheek, offer also the other; and him that taketh away thy cloke, forbid not to take thy coat also.
- 30 Give to everyone who comes with a request, and if a man takes away your property, make no attempt to get it back again.
Give to everyone who asks you, and don't ask him who takes away your goods to give them back again.
Give to every man that asketh of thee; and of him that taketh away thy goods, ask them not again.
- 31 Do to others as you would have them do to you.
"As you desire that men should do to you, likewise do to them also.
And as ye would that men should do to you, do ye also to them likewise.

- 32 If you have love for those who have love for you, what credit is it to you? for even sinners have love for those who have love for them.
If you love those who love you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners love those who love them.
For if ye love them who love you, what thanks have ye? for sinners also love those that love them.
- 33 And if you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is it to you? for even sinners do the same.
If you do good to those who do good to you, what credit is that to you? For even sinners do the same.
And if ye do good to them who do good to you, what thanks have ye? for sinners also do even the same.
- 34 And if you let those have the use of your money, from whom you are hoping to get it back, what credit is it to you? even sinners do so to sinners, hoping to get back as much as they gave.
If you lend to those from whom you hope to receive, what credit is that to you? Even sinners lend to sinners, to receive back as much.
And if ye lend to them from whom ye hope to receive, what thanks have ye? for sinners also lend to sinners, to receive as much in return.
- 35 But be loving to those who are against you and do them good, and give them your money, not giving up hope, and your reward will be great and you will be the sons of the Most High: for he is kind to evil men, and to those who have hard hearts.
But love your enemies, and do good, and lend, expecting nothing back; and your reward will be great, and you will be sons of the Most High; for he is kind toward the unthankful and evil.
But love ye your enemies, and do good, and lend, hoping for nothing again; and your reward shall be great, and ye shall be the children of the Highest: for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil.
- 36 Be full of pity, even as your Father is full of pity.
Therefore be merciful, even as your Father is also merciful.
Be ye therefore merciful, as your Father also is merciful.
- 37 Be not judges of others, and you will not be judged: do not give punishment to others, and you will not get punishment yourselves: make others free, and you will be made free:
Don` t judge, and you will not be judged. Don` t condemn, and you will not be condemned. Set free, and you will be set free.
Judge not, and ye shall not be judged: condemn not, and ye shall not be condemned: forgive, and ye shall be forgiven:

- 38 Give, and it will be given to you; good measure, crushed down, full and running over, they will give to you. For in the same measure as you give, it will be given to you again.
Give, and it will be given to you, good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over, will they give into your bosom. For with the same measure you measure it will be measured back to you."
Give, and it shall be given to you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye give to others, it shall be measured to you again.
- 39 And he gave them teaching in the form of a story, saying, Is it possible for one blind man to be guide to another? will they not go falling together into a hole?
He spoke a parable to them. "Can the blind guide the blind? Won't they both fall into a pit?
And he spoke a parable to them; Can the blind lead the blind? will they not both fall into the ditch?
- 40 The disciple is not greater than his master, but everyone whose learning is complete will be like his master.
A disciple is not above his teacher, but everyone when he is fully trained will be like his teacher.
The disciple is not above his master: but every one that is perfect, shall be as his master.
- 41 And why do you take note of the grain of dust in your brother's eye, but take no note of the bit of wood which is in your eye?
Why do you see the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye, but don't consider the beam that is in your own eye?
And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thy own eye?
- 42 How will you say to your brother, Brother, let me take the grain of dust out of your eye, when you yourself do not see the bit of wood in your eye? O false one! first take the wood out of your eye and then you will see clearly to take the dust out of your brother's eye.
Or how can you tell your brother, `Brother, let me remove the speck of chaff that is in your eye,` when you yourself don't see the beam that is in your own eye? You hypocrite! First remove the beam from your own eye, and then you can see clearly to remove the speck of chaff that is in your brother's eye.
Either how canst thou say to thy brother, Brother, let me pull out the mote that is in thy eye, when thou thyself beholdest not the beam that is in thy own eye? Thou hypocrite, cast out first the beam out of thy own eye, and then shalt thou see clearly to pull out the mote that is in thy brother's eye.
- 43 For no good tree gives bad fruit, and no bad tree gives good fruit.
For there is no good tree that brings forth rotten fruit; nor again a rotten tree that brings forth good fruit.
For a good tree bringeth not forth corrupt fruit; neither doth a corrupt tree bring forth good fruit.

- 44 For every tree is judged by its fruit. Men do not get figs from thorns, or grapes from blackberry plants.
For each tree is known by its own fruit. For people don't gather figs from thorns, nor do they gather grapes from a bramble bush.
For every tree is known by its own fruit: for from thorns men do not gather figs, nor from a bramble bush do they gather grapes.
- 45 The good man, out of the good store of his heart, gives good things; and the evil man, out of his evil store, gives evil: for out of the full store of the heart come the words of the mouth.
The good man out of the good treasure of his heart brings forth that which is good, and the evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart brings forth that which is evil, for out of the abundance of the heart, his mouth speaks.
A good man out of the good treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is good; and an evil man out of the evil treasure of his heart, bringeth forth that which is evil: for from the abundance of the heart his mouth speaketh.
- 46 Why do you say to me, Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
Why do you call me, `Lord, Lord,` and don't do the things which I say?
And why call ye me Lord, Lord, and do not the things which I say?
- 47 Everyone who comes to me and gives ear to my words and does them, I will make clear to you what he is like:
Everyone who comes to me, and hears my words, and does them, I will show you who he is like.
Whoever cometh to me, and heareth my sayings, and doeth them, I will show you to whom he is like.
- 48 He is like a man building a house, who went deep and put the base of it on a rock; and when the water came up and the river was driving against that house, it was not moved, because the building was good.
He is like a man building a house, who dug and went deep, and laid a foundation on the rock. When a flood arose, the stream broke against that house, and could not shake it, because it was founded on the rock.
He is like a man who built a house, and digged deep, and laid the foundation on a rock: and when the flood arose, the stream beat vehemently upon that house, and could not shake it: for it was founded upon a rock.
- 49 But he who gives hearing, without doing, is like a man building a house on the earth without a base for it; and when the force of the river came against it, straight away it came down; and the destruction of that house was great.
But he who hears, and doesn't do, is like a man who built a house on the earth without a foundation, against which the stream broke, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great."
But he that heareth, and doeth not, is like a man that, without a foundation, built a house on the earth, against which the stream beat vehemently, and immediately it fell, and the ruin of that house was great.

- 1 After he had come to the end of all his words in the hearing of the people, he went into Capernaum.
After he had finished speaking in the hearing of the people, he entered into Capernaum.
Now when he had ended all his sayings in the audience of the people, he entered into Capernaum.
- 2 And a certain captain had a servant who was very dear to him; this servant was ill and near to death.
A certain centurion`s servant, who was dear to him, was sick and at the point of death.
And a certain centurion's servant, who was dear to him, was sick, and ready to die.
- 3 And when news of Jesus came to his ears, he sent to him rulers of the Jews, requesting that he would come and make his servant well.
When he heard about Jesus, he sent to him elders of the Jews, asking him to come and save his servant.
And when he heard of Jesus, he sent to him the elders of the Jews, beseeching him that he would come and heal his servant.
- 4 And they, when they came to Jesus, made their request warmly, saying,
When they came to Jesus, they begged him earnestly, saying, "He is worthy for you to do this for him,
And when they came to Jesus, they besought him earnestly, saying, That he was worthy for whom he should do this:
- 5 It is right for you to do this for him, because he is a friend to our nation, and himself has put up a Synagogue for us.
for he loves our nation, and he built our synagogue for us."
For he loveth our nation, and he hath built us a synagogue.
- 6 And Jesus went with them. And when he was not far from the house, the man sent friends to him, saying, Lord, do not give yourself trouble: for I am not important enough for you to come into my house:
Jesus went with them. When he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, "Lord, don`t trouble yourself, for I am not worthy for you to come under my roof.
Then Jesus went with them. And when he was now not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him, saying to him, Lord, trouble not thyself: for I am not worthy that thou shouldest enter under my roof;

- 7 And I had the feeling that I was not even good enough to come to you: but say the word only, and my servant will be well.
Therefore I didn't even think myself worthy to come to you; but say the word, and my servant will be healed.
Wherefore neither thought I myself worthy to come to thee; but say in a word, and my servant shall be healed.
- 8 For I, myself, am a man under authority, having men under me; and I say to this one, Go, and he goes; and to another, Come, and he comes; and to my servant, Do this, and he does it.
For I also am a man placed under authority, having under myself soldiers. I tell this one, `Go!` and he goes; and to another, `Come!` and he comes; and to my servant, `Do this,` and he does it."
For I also am a man set under authority, having under me soldiers, and I say to one, Go, and he goeth; and to another, Come, and he cometh; and to my servant, Do this, and he doeth it.
- 9 And when these things were said to Jesus, he was surprised, and, turning to the mass of people coming after him, said, I have not seen such great faith, no, not in Israel.
When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned and said to the multitude who followed him, "I tell you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel."
When Jesus heard these things, he marveled at him, and turned himself about and said to the people that followed him, I say to you, I have not found so great faith, no, not in Israel.
- 10 And when those who were sent came back to the house they saw that the servant was well.
Those who were sent, returning to the house, found that the servant who had been sick was well.
And they that were sent, returning to the house, found the servant well that had been sick.
- 11 And it came about, after a little time, that he went to a town named Nain; and his disciples went with him, and a great number of people.
It happened soon afterwards, that he went to a city called Nain. Many of his disciples went with him, along with a great multitude.
And it came to pass the day after, that he went into a city called Nain: and many of his disciples went with him, and many people.
- 12 Now when he came near the door of the town, a dead man was being taken out, the only son of his mother, who was a widow: and a great number of people from the town were with her.
Now when he drew near to the gate of the city, behold, one who was dead was carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. Many people of the city were with her.
Now when he came nigh to the gate of the city, behold, there was a dead man carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow: and many people of the city were with her.

- 13 And when the Lord saw her, he had pity on her and said to her, Be not sad.
When the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, "Don` t cry."
And when the Lord saw her, he had compassion on her, and said to her, Weep not.
- 14 And he came near, and put his hand on the stretcher where the dead man was: and those who were moving it came to a stop. And he said, Young man, I say to you, Get up.
He came near and touched the coffin, and the bearers stood still. He said, "Young man, I tell you, arise!"
And he came and touched the bier: And they that bore him stood still. And he said, Young man, I say to thee, Arise.
- 15 And the dead man got up, and words came from his lips. And he gave him to his mother.
He who was dead sat up, and began to speak. He gave him to his mother.
And he that was dead sat up, and began to speak, and he delivered him to his mother.
- 16 And fear came on all, and they gave praise to God, saying, A great prophet is among us: and, God has given thought to his people.
Fear took hold on all, and they glorified God, saying, "A great prophet has arisen among us," and, "God has visited his people."
And there came a fear on all: and they glorified God, saying, That a great prophet hath risen among us; and, That God hath visited his people.
- 17 And this story about him went through all Judaea and the places round about.
This report went out concerning him in the whole of Judea, and in all the surrounding region.
And this rumor of him went forth throughout all Judea, and throughout all the neighboring region.
- 18 And the disciples of John gave him an account of all these things.
The disciples of John told him about all these things.
And the disciples of John informed him of all these things.
- 19 Then John sent two of his disciples to the Lord, saying, Are you he who is to come, or are we waiting for another?
John, calling to himself two of his disciples, sent them to Jesus, saying, "Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?"
And John calling two of his disciples sent them to Jesus, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?

- 20 And when the men came to him they said, John the Baptist has sent us to you, saying, Are you he who is to come, or are we waiting for another?
When the men had come to him, they said, "John the Baptizer has sent us to you, saying, `Are you he who comes, or should we look for another?`"
When the men had come to him, they said, John the Baptist hath sent us to thee, saying, Art thou he that should come? or look we for another?
- 21 At that time, he made a number of people free from their diseases and their pains, and from evil spirits; and to others who were blind he gave back the use of their eyes.
In that hour he cured many of diseases and plagues and evil spirits; and to many who were blind he gave sight.
And in that same hour he cured many of their infirmities, and diseases, and of evil spirits; and to many that were blind he gave sight.
- 22 And answering them he said, Go back and give news to John of what you have seen, and the things which have come to your ears; the blind now see, those who had no power in their legs are walking, lepers are made clean, those who had no hearing now have their ears open, dead men come to life again, and the poor have the good news given to them.
Jesus answered them, "Go and tell John the things which you have seen and heard: that the blind receive their sight, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised up, and the poor have good news preached to them.
Then Jesus answering, said to them, Go, and tell John what things ye have seen and heard; that the blind see, the lame walk, lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached.
- 23 And a blessing will be on him who has no doubts about me.
Blessed is he who is not offended by me."
And blessed is he, to whom I shall not be a stumbling block.
- 24 And when the men who were sent by John had gone away, he said to the people, about John, What did you go out into the waste land to see? a tall stem moving in the wind?
When John`s messengers had departed, he began to tell the multitudes about John, "What did you go out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken by the wind?
And when the messengers of John had departed, he began to speak to the people concerning John, What went ye out into the wilderness to see? A reed shaken with the wind?
- 25 But what did you go out to see? a man in soft clothing? See now, those who have beautiful clothing and delicate food are in kings' houses.
But what did you go out to see? A man clothed in soft clothing? Behold, those who are gorgeously dressed, and live delicately, are in kings` courts.
But what went ye out to see? A man clothed in soft raiment? behold, they who are gorgeously appareled, and live delicately, are in kings' courts.

- 26 But what did you go out to see? a prophet? Yes, I say to you, and more than a prophet.
But what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes, I tell you, and much more than a prophet.
But what went ye out to see? A prophet? Yes, I say to you, and much more than a prophet.
- 27 This is he of whom it has been said, See, I send my servant before your face, who will make ready your way before you.
This is he of whom it is written, `Behold, I send my messenger before your face, Who will prepare your way before you.`
This is he, concerning whom it is written, Behold, I send my messenger before thy face, who shall prepare thy way before thee.
- 28 I say to you, Among all the sons of women, not one is greater than John: but he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he.
"For I tell you, among those who are born of women there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptizer, yet he who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."
For I say to you, Among those that are born of women, there is not a greater prophet than John the Baptist: but he that is least in the kingdom of God, is greater than he.
- 29 (And all the people, and the tax-farmers, to whom John had given baptism, when they had knowledge of these things, gave glory to God.
When all the people and the tax collectors heard this, they justified God, being baptized with John`s baptism.
And all the people that heard him, and the publicans, justified God, being baptized with the baptism of John.
- 30 But the Pharisees and the teachers of the law were against the purpose of God for themselves, not having had his baptism.)
But the Pharisees and the lawyers rejected the counsel of God, not being baptized by him themselves.
But the Pharisees and lawyers rejected the counsel of God against themselves, being not baptized by him.
- 31 What comparison am I to make of the men of this generation? what are they like?
The Lord said, "To what then will I liken the men of this generation? What are they like?"
And the Lord said, To what then shall I liken the men of this generation? and to what are they like?

- 32 They are like children who are seated in the market-place, crying out to one another, and saying, We made music for you, but you did not take part in the dance; we gave cries of sorrow, but you were not sad.
They are like children who sit in the marketplace, and call one to another, saying, `We piped to you, and you didn`t dance. We mourned, and you didn`t weep.`
They are like children sitting in the market-place, and calling one to another, and saying, We have piped to you, and ye have not danced; we have mourned to you, and ye have not wept.
- 33 For John the Baptist came, taking no food or drink, and you say, He has an evil spirit.
For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, `He has a demon.`
For John the Baptist came neither eating bread, nor drinking wine; and ye say, He hath a demon.
- 34 The Son of man came feasting, and you say, Here is a lover of food and wine, a friend of tax-farmers and sinners.
The Son of Man has come eating and drinking, and you say, `Behold, a gluttonous man, and a drunkard; a friend of tax collectors and sinners!`
The Son of man is come eating and drinking; and ye say, Behold, a gluttonous man, and a wine-bibber, a friend of publicans and sinners.
- 35 But wisdom is judged to be right by all her children.
Wisdom is justified by all her children."
But wisdom is justified by all her children.
- 36 And one of the Pharisees made a request that he would take a meal with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house and took his seat at the table.
One of the Pharisees invited him to eat with him. He entered into the Pharisee`s house, and sat at the table.
And one of the Pharisees desired him that he would eat with him. And he went into the Pharisee's house, and sat down at table.
- 37 And there was a woman in the town who was a sinner; and when she had news that he was a guest in the Pharisee's house, she took a bottle of perfume,
Behold, a woman in the city who was a sinner, when she knew that he was reclining in the Pharisee`s house, she brought an alabaster jar of ointment.
And behold, a woman in the city, who was a sinner, when she knew that Jesus sat at table in the Pharisee's house, brought an alabaster-box of ointment,

- 38 And went in and took her place at the back of him, near his feet, weeping, so that his feet were washed with the drops from her eyes, and with her hair she made them dry, and kissing his feet she put the perfume on them.
Standing behind at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears, and she wiped them with the hair of her head, kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
And stood at his feet behind him weeping, and began to wash his feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head, and kissed his feet, and anointed them with the ointment.
- 39 Now when the Pharisee in whose house he was saw it, he said to himself, This man, if he was a prophet, would be conscious what sort of woman this is who has put her hands on him, that she is a sinner.
Now when the Pharisee who had invited him saw it, he said to himself, "This man, if he were a prophet, would have perceived who and what kind of woman this is who touches him, that she is a sinner."
Now when the Pharisee who had invited him, saw it, he spoke within himself, saying, This man, if he were a prophet, would have known who, and what manner of woman this is that toucheth him, for she is a sinner.
- 40 And Jesus, answering, said, Simon, I have something to say to you. And he said, Master, say on.
Jesus answered him, "Simon, I have something to tell you." He said, "Teacher, say on."
And Jesus answering, said to him, Simon, I have somewhat to say to thee. And he saith, Master, speak.
- 41 And he said, Two men were in debt to a certain man of business: one had a debt of five hundred pence, and the other of fifty.
"A certain lender had two debtors. The one owed five hundred denarii, and the other fifty.
There was a certain creditor, who had two debtors: the one owed five hundred pence, and the other fifty.
- 42 When they were unable to make payment, he made the two of them free of their debts. Which of them, now, will have the greater love for him?
When they couldn't pay, he forgave them both. Which of them therefore will love him most?
And when they had nothing to pay, he frankly forgave them both. Tell me therefore, which of them will love him most?
- 43 Simon, in answer, said, It seems he whose debt was greater. And he said, Your decision is right.
Simon answered, "He, I suppose, to whom he forgave the most." He said to him, "You have judged correctly."
Simon answered and said, I suppose that he, to whom he forgave most. And he said to him, Thou hast rightly judged.

- 44 And turning to the woman he said to Simon, You see this woman? I came into your house; you did not give me water for my feet: but she has been washing my feet with the drops from her eyes, and drying them with her hair.
Turning to the woman, he said to Simon, "Do you see this woman? I entered into your house, and you gave me no water for my feet, but she has wet my feet with her tears, and wiped them with the hair of her head.
And he turned to the woman, and said to Simon, Seest thou this woman? I entered into thy house, thou gavest me no water for my feet: but she hath washed my feet with tears, and wiped them with the hairs of her head.
- 45 You did not give me a kiss: but she, from the time when I came in, has gone on kissing my feet.
You gave me no kiss, but she, since the time I came in, has not ceased to kiss my feet.
Thou gavest me no kiss: but this woman, since the time I came in, hath not ceased to kiss my feet.
- 46 You put no oil on my head: but she has put perfume on my feet.
You didn't anoint my head with oil, but she has anointed my feet with ointment.
My head with oil thou didst not anoint: but this woman hath anointed my feet with ointment.
- 47 And so I say to you, She will have forgiveness for her sins which are great in number, because of her great love: but he who has small need of forgiveness gives little love.
Therefore I tell you, her sins, which are many, are forgiven, for she loved much. But to whom little is forgiven, the same loves little."
Wherefore I say to thee, Her sins, which are many, are forgiven; for she loved much: but to whom little is forgiven, the same loveth little.
- 48 And he said to her, You have forgiveness for your sins.
He said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."
And he said to her, Thy sins are forgiven.
- 49 And those who were seated at table with him said to themselves, Who is this who even gives forgiveness of sins?
Those who sat at the table with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"
And they that sat at table with him, began to say within themselves, Who is this that forgiveth sins also?

50 And he said to the woman, By your faith you have salvation; go in peace.

He said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go in peace."

And he said to the woman, Thy faith hath saved thee; go in peace.

1 And it came about, after a short time, that he went through town and country giving the good news of the kingdom of God, and with him were the twelve,

It happened soon afterwards, that he went about through cities and villages, preaching and bringing the good news of the kingdom of God, and with him the twelve,

And it came to pass afterward, that he went throughout every city and village, preaching and showing the glad tidings of the kingdom of God: and the twelve were with him,

2 And certain women who had been made free from evil spirits and diseases, Mary named Magdalene, from whom seven evil spirits had gone out, and certain women who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities: Mary who was called Magdalene, from whom seven demons had gone out;

And certain women, who had been healed of evil spirits and infirmities, Mary called Magdalene, out of whom went seven demons.

3 And Joanna, the wife of Chuza, Herod's chief house-servant, and Susanna and a number of others, who gave him of their wealth for his needs.

and Joanna, the wife of Chuzas, Herod's steward, Susanna; and many others; who ministered to them from their possessions.

And Joanna the wife of Chuza Herod's steward, and Susanna, and many others, who ministered to him of their substance.

4 And when a great number of people came together, and men from every town went out to him, he gave them teaching in the form of a story:

When a great multitude came together, and people from every city were coming to him, he spoke by a parable.

And when many people were collected, and had come to him out of every city, he spoke by a parable:

5 A man went out to put in seed, and while he was doing it, some was dropped by the wayside and it was crushed under foot, and was taken by the birds of heaven.

"The farmer went out to sow his seed. As he sowed, some fell by the road, and it was trampled under foot, and the birds of the sky devoured it.

A sower went out to sow his seed: and as he sowed, some fell by the way side; and it was trodden down, and the fowls of the air devoured it.

- 6 And some went on the rock, and when it came up it became dry and dead because it had no water.
Other seed fell on the rock, and as soon as it grew, it withered away, because it had no moisture.
And some fell upon a rock; and as soon as it was sprung up, it withered, because it lacked moisture.
- 7 And some went among thorns, and the thorns came up with it and it had no room for growth.
Other fell amid the thorns, and the thorns grew with it, and choked it.
And some fell among thorns; and the thorns sprang up with it, and choked it.
- 8 And some falling on good earth, came up and gave fruit a hundred times as much. And with these words he said in a loud voice, He who has ears, let him give ear.
Other fell into the good ground, and grew, and brought forth fruit one hundred times." As he said these things, he called out, "He who has ears to hear, let him hear!"
And other fell on good ground, and sprang up, and bore fruit a hundred-fold. And when he had said these things, he cried, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.
- 9 And his disciples put questions to him about the point of the story.
Then his disciples asked him, "What does this parable mean?"
And his disciples asked him, saying, What doth this parable mean?
- 10 And he said, To you is given knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom of God; but to the others, they are given in stories, so that seeing, they may not see, and though they give hearing, the sense will not be clear to them.
He said, "To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand."
And he said, To you it is given to know the mysteries of the kingdom of God: but to others in parables; that seeing they may not see, and hearing they may not understand.
- 11 Now this is the point of the story: The seed is the word of God.
Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.
Now the parable is this: The seed is the word of God.

- 12 Those by the side of the road are those who have given hearing; then the Evil One comes and takes away the word from their hearts, so that they may not have faith and get salvation.
Those by the road are those who hear, then the devil comes, and takes away the word from their heart, that they may not believe and be saved.
Those by the way side, are they that hear; then cometh the devil, and taketh away the word out of their hearts, lest they should believe and be saved.
- 13 And those on the rock are those who with joy give hearing to the word; but having no root, they have faith for a time, and when the test comes they give up.
Those on the rock are they who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; but these have no root, who believe for a while, and fall away in time of temptation.
They on the rock are they, who, when they hear, receive the word with joy; and these have no root, who for a while believe, and in time of temptation fall away.
- 14 And those which went among thorns are those who have given hearing, and go on their way, but they are overcome by cares and wealth and the pleasures of life, and they give no fruit.
That which fell among the thorns, these are those who have heard, and as they go on their way they are choked with cares, riches, and pleasures of life, and bring no fruit to maturity.
And that which fell among thorns are they, who, when they have heard, go forth, and are choked with cares and riches and pleasures of this life, and bring no fruit to perfection.
- 15 And those in the good earth are those who, having given ear to the word, keep it with a good and true heart, and in quiet strength give fruit.
That in the good ground, these are such as in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, hold it tightly, and bring forth fruit with patience.
But that on the good ground are they, who in an honest and good heart, having heard the word, keep it, and bring forth fruit with patience.
- 16 No man, when the light is lighted, puts a cover over it, or puts it under a bed, but he puts it on its table, so that those who come in may see the light.
"No one, when he has lit a lamp, covers it with a container, or puts it under a bed; but puts it on a stand, that those who enter in may see the light.
No man, when he hath lighted a candle, covereth it with a vessel, or putteth it under a bed; but setteth it on a candlestick, that they who enter in may see the light.

- 17 For nothing is put out of view which will not be made clear, and nothing is secret of which the knowledge will not come to light.
For nothing is hidden, that will not be revealed; nor anything secret, that will not be known and come to light.
For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known, and come abroad.
- 18 So take care how you give hearing, for to him who has will be given, and from him who has not will be taken even what he seems to have.
Be careful therefore how you hear. For whoever has, to him will be given; and whoever doesn't have, from him will be taken away even that which he thinks he has."
Take heed therefore how ye hear: for whoever hath, to him shall be given; and whoever hath not, from him shall be taken even that which he seemeth to have.
- 19 And his mother and his brothers came to him, and they were not able to get near him because of the great number of people.
His mother and brothers came to him, and they could not come near him for the crowd.
Then came to him his mother and his brethren, and could not come near to him for the crowd.
- 20 And someone said to him, Your mother and your brothers are outside desiring to see you.
It was told him by some saying, "Your mother and your brothers stand outside, desiring to see you."
And it was told to him by certain, who said, Thy mother and thy brethren stand without, desiring to see thee.
- 21 But he said to them in answer, My mother and my brothers are those who have knowledge of the word of God and do it.
But he answered them, "My mother and my brothers are these who hear the word of God, and do it."
And he answered and said to them, My mother and my brethren are these who hear the word of God, and do it.
- 22 Now it came about on one of those days that he got into a boat with his disciples; and he said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the water: and they put out the boat.
Now it happened on one of those days, that he entered into a boat, himself and his disciples, and he said to them, "Let's go over to the other side of the lake." So they launched out.
Now it came to pass on a certain day, that he went into a boat with his disciples: and he said to them, Let us go over to the other side of the lake. And they lanced forth.

- 23 But while they were sailing he went to sleep: and a storm of wind came down on the sea, and the boat became full of water and they were in danger.
But as they sailed, he fell asleep. A wind storm came down on the lake, and they were taking on dangerous amounts of water. But as they sailed, he fell asleep: and there came down a storm of wind on the lake; and they were filled with water, and were in jeopardy.
- 24 Then they came to him and, awaking him out of his sleep, said, Master, Master, destruction is near. And he, when he was awake, gave orders to the wind and the rolling waves, and the storm came to an end, and all was calm.
They came to him, and awoke him, saying, "Master, master, we are dying!" He awoke, and rebuked the wind and the raging of the water, and they ceased, and it was calm.
And they came to him, and awoke him, saying, Master, master, we perish. Then he arose, and rebuked the wind, and the raging of the water: and they ceased, and there was a calm.
- 25 And he said to them, Where is your faith? And fear and wonder overcame them, and they said to one another, Who then is this, who gives orders even to the winds and the water and they do what he says?
He said to them, "Where is your faith?" Being afraid they marveled, saying one to another, "Who is this, then, that he commands even the winds and the water, and they obey him?"
And he said to them, Where is your faith? And they being afraid, wondered, saying one to another, What manner of man is this! for he commandeth even the winds and water, and they obey him.
- 26 And they came to the country of the Gerasenes, which is opposite Galilee.
They arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee.
And they arrived at the country of the Gadarenes, which is over against Galilee.
- 27 And when he had come to the land, there came to him a certain man from the town who had evil spirits; and for a long time he had had no clothing on, and was not living in a house but in the place of the dead.
When Jesus stepped ashore, a certain man out of the city met him, who had demons for a long time. He wore no clothes, and didn't live in a house, but in the tombs.
And when he went forth to land, there met him out of the city a certain man, who had demons a long time, and wore no clothes, neither abode in any house, but in the tombs.

- 28 And when he saw Jesus, he gave a loud cry and went down on the earth before him and in a loud voice said, What have I to do with you, Jesus, Son of the Most High God? Do not be cruel to me.
When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, "What do I have to do with you, Jesus, you Son of the Most High God? I beg you, don't torment me!"
When he saw Jesus, he cried out, and fell down before him, and with a loud voice said, What have I to do with thee, Jesus, thou Son of God most high? I beseech thee torment me not.
- 29 For he gave an order to the evil spirit to come out of the man. For frequently it would take a grip of him: and he was kept under control, and prisoned with chains; but parting the chains in two, he would be sent by the driving of the evil spirit into waste places.
For Jesus was commanding the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For the unclean spirit had often seized the man. He was kept under guard, and bound with chains and fetters. Breaking the bands apart, he was driven by the demon into the desert.
(For he had commanded the unclean spirit to come out of the man. For often it had caught him, and he was kept bound with chains, and in fetters: and he broke the bands, and was driven by the demon into the wilderness.)
- 30 And Jesus said to him, What is your name? And he said, Legion; for a number of spirits had gone into him.
Jesus asked him, "What is your name?" He said, "Legion," for many demons had entered into him.
And Jesus asked him, saying, What is thy name? And he said, Legion: because many demons had entered into him.
- 31 And they made a request to him that he would not give them an order to go away into the deep.
They begged him who he would not command them to go into the abyss.
And they besought him, that he would not command them to go out into the deep.
- 32 Now there was a great herd of pigs in that place, getting food on the mountain: and the evil spirits made a request to him that he would let them go into the pigs, and he let them.
Now there was there a herd of many pigs feeding on the mountain, and they begged him that he would allow them to enter into those. He allowed them.
And there was there a herd of many swine feeding on the mountain: and they besought him that he would suffer them to enter into them. And he suffered them.

- 33 And the evil spirits came out of the man and went into the pigs: and the herd went rushing down a sharp slope into the water and came to destruction.
The demons came out from the man, and entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and were drowned.
Then the demons went out of the man, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the lake, and were choked.
- 34 And when the men who took care of them saw what had come about, they went quickly and gave news of it in the town and the country.
When those who fed them saw what had happened, they fled, and told it in the city and in the country.
When they that fed them saw what was done, they fled, and went and told it in the city and in the country.
- 35 And they went out to see what had taken place, and they came to Jesus and saw the man out of whom the evil spirits had gone, seated, clothed and with full use of his senses, at the feet of Jesus; and fear came on them.
People went out to see what had happened. They came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons were gone out, sitting, clothed and in his right mind, at the feet of Jesus; and they were afraid.
Then they went out to see what was done; and came to Jesus, and found the man out of whom the demons had departed, sitting at the feet of Jesus, clothed, and in his right mind: and they were afraid.
- 36 And those who had seen it gave them an account of how the man who had the evil spirits was made well.
Those who saw it told them how he who was possessed with demons was healed.
They also who saw it, told them by what means he that was possessed by the demons was healed.
- 37 And all the people of the country of the Gerasenes made a request to him to go away from them; for they were in great fear: and he got into a boat and went back.
All the people of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes asked him to depart from them, for they were very much afraid. He entered into the boat, and returned.
Then the whole multitude of the surrounding country of the Gadarenes, besought him to depart from them: for they were taken with great fear. And he went into the boat, and returned.
- 38 But the man from whom the evil spirits had gone out had a great desire to be with him, but he sent him away, saying,
But the man from whom the demons had gone out begged him that he might go with him, but Jesus sent him away, saying,
Now the man out of whom the demons had departed, besought him that he might be with him. But Jesus sent him away, saying,

39 Go back to your house and let them have news of all the great things which God has done for you. And he went away, giving word through all the town of the great things which Jesus had done for him.

"Return to your house, and declare what great things God has done for you." He went his way, proclaiming throughout the whole city what great things Jesus had done for him.

Return to thy own house, and show how great things God hath done to thee. And he went away and published throughout the whole city, how great things Jesus had done to him.

40 And when Jesus went back, the people were glad to see him, for they were all waiting for him.

It happened, as Jesus returned, the multitude welcomed him, for they were all waiting for him.

And it came to pass, that, when Jesus had returned, the people gladly received him: for they were all waiting for him.

41 Then there came a man named Jairus, who was a ruler in the Synagogue: and he went down at the feet of Jesus, desiring him to come to his house;

Behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue. He fell down at Jesus' feet, and begged him to come into his house,

And behold, there came a man named Jairus, and he was a ruler of the synagogue: and he fell down at the feet of Jesus, and besought him that he would come into his house:

42 For he had an only daughter, about twelve years old, and she was near to death. But while he was on his way, the people were pushing to be near him.

for he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and she was dying. But as he went, the multitudes thronged him.

For he had one daughter only, about twelve years of age, and she lay dying. (But as he was going, the people thronged him.

43 And a woman, who had had a flow of blood for twelve years, and had given all her money to medical men, and not one of them was able to make her well,

A woman who had a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent all her living on physicians, and could not be healed by any,

And a woman having an issue of blood twelve years, who had spent all her living upon physicians, neither could be healed by any,

44 Came after him and put her hand on the edge of his robe, and straight away the flowing of her blood was stopped.

came behind him, and touched the fringe of his cloak, and immediately the flow of her blood stopped.

Came behind him, and touched the border of his garment: and immediately her issue of blood stanchèd.

- 45 And Jesus said, Who was touching me? And when they all said, It is not I, Peter and those who were with him said, Master, the people are pushing round you on every side.
Jesus said, "Who touched me?" When all denied, Peter and those with him said, "Master, the multitudes press and jostle you, and you say, `Who touched me?`"
And Jesus said, Who touched me? When all denied, Peter, and they that were with him, said, Master, the multitude throng thee, and press thee, and sayest thou, Who touched me?
- 46 But Jesus said, Someone was touching me, for I had the feeling that power had gone out from me.
But Jesus said, "Someone did touch me, for I perceived that power has gone out of me."
And Jesus said, Somebody hath touched me: for I perceive that virtue hath gone out of me.
- 47 And when the woman saw that she was not able to keep it secret, she came, shaking with fear, and falling down before him she made clear before all the people the reason for her touching him, and how she was made well straight away.
When the woman saw that she was not hidden, she came trembling, and falling down before him declared to him in the presence of all the people the reason why she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.
And when the woman saw that she was not hid, she came trembling, and falling down before him, she declared to him before all the people for what cause she had touched him, and how she was healed immediately.
- 48 And he said to her, Daughter, your faith has made you well; go in peace.
He said to her, "Daughter, cheer up. Your faith has made you well. Go in peace."
And he said to her, Daughter, be of good comfort: thy faith hath made thee whole; go in peace.
- 49 While he was still talking, someone came from the house of the ruler of the Synagogue, saying, Your daughter is dead; do not go on troubling the Master.
While he still spoke, one from the ruler of the synagogue`s house came, saying to him, "Your daughter is dead. Don`t trouble the Teacher."
While he was yet speaking, there cometh one from the house of the ruler of the synagogue, saying to him, Thy daughter is dead: trouble not the Master.
- 50 But Jesus at these words said to him, Have no fear, only have faith, and she will be made well.
But Jesus hearing it, answered him, "Don`t be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."
But when Jesus heard it, he answered him, saying, Fear not: believe only, and she shall be healed.

51 And when he came to the house he did not let any man go in with him, but only Peter and John and James, and the father of the girl and her mother.
When he came to the house, he didn't allow anyone to enter in, except Peter, John, James, the father of the girl, and her mother.
And when he came into the house, he suffered no man to go in, save Peter, and James, and John, and the father and the mother of the maiden.

52 And all the people were weeping and crying for her; but he said, Do not be sad, for she is not dead, but sleeping.
All were weeping, and mourning her, but he said, "Don't weep. She isn't dead, but sleeping."
And all wept and bewailed her: but he said, Weep not: she is not dead, but sleepeth.

53 And they were laughing at him, being certain that she was dead.
They laughed him to scorn, knowing that she was dead.
And they derided him, knowing that she was dead.

54 But he, taking her hand, said to her, My child, get up.
But he put them all outside, and taking her by the hand, he called, saying, "Little girl, arise!"
And he put them all out, and took her by the hand, and called, saying, Maid, arise.

55 And her spirit came back to her and she got up straight away: and he gave orders that food was to be given to her.
Her spirit returned, and she rose up immediately. He commanded that something be given to her to eat.
And her spirit came again, and she arose immediately: and he commanded to give her food.

56 And her father and mother were full of wonder, but he gave orders to them to say nothing about it to anyone.
Her parents were amazed, but he charged them to tell no one what had been done.
And her parents were astonished: but he charged them that they should tell no man what was done.

1 And getting the twelve together, he gave them power and authority over all evil spirits and over diseases, to make them well.
He called the twelve together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.
Then he called his twelve disciples together, and gave them power and authority over all demons, and to cure diseases.

- 2 And he sent them out to be preachers of the kingdom of God, and to make well those who were ill.
He sent them forth to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
And he sent them to preach the kingdom of God, and to heal the sick.
- 3 And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, no stick or bag or bread or money, and do not take two coats.
He said to them, "Take nothing for your journey -- neither staffs, nor wallet, nor bread, nor money; neither have two coats apiece.
And he said to them, Take nothing for your journey, neither staffs, nor bag, neither bread, neither money; neither have two coats apiece.
- 4 And if you go into a house, let that house be your resting-place till you go away.
Into whatever house you enter, stay there, and depart from there.
And into whatever house ye enter, there abide, and thence depart.
- 5 And if any people will not take you in, when you go away from that town, put off its dust from your feet for a witness against them.
As many as don't receive you, when you depart from that city, shake off even the dust from your feet for a testimony against them."
And whoever will not receive you, when ye go out of that city, shake off the very dust from your feet for a testimony against them.
- 6 And they went away, journeying through all the towns, preaching the good news and making people free from diseases in all places.
They departed, and went throughout the villages, preaching the gospel, and healing everywhere.
And they departed, and went through the towns, preaching the gospel, and healing every where.
- 7 Now Herod the king had news of all these things: and he was in doubt, because it was said by some people that John had come back from the dead;
Now Herod, the tetrarch, heard of all that was done by him; and he was very perplexed, because it was said by some that John had risen from the dead,
Now Herod the tetrarch heard of all that was done by him: and he was perplexed, because that it was said by some, that John had risen from the dead;

- 8 And by some, that Elijah had come; and by others, that one of the old prophets had come back to life.
and by some that Elijah had appeared, and by others that one of the old prophets had risen again.
And by some, that Elijah had appeared; and by others, that one of the ancient prophets had risen again.
- 9 And Herod said, I put John to death: but who is this, of whom such stories are given to me? And he had a desire to see him.
Herod said, "John I beheaded, but who is this, about whom I hear such things?" He sought to see him.
And Herod said, John have I beheaded; but who is this of whom I hear such things? And he desired to see him.
- 10 And the twelve, when they came back, gave him an account of what they had done. And he took them with him and went away from the people to a town named Bethsaida.
The apostles, when they had returned, told him what things they had done. He took them, and withdrew apart to a deserted place of a city called Bethsaida.
And the apostles, when they had returned, told him all that they had done. And he took them, and went aside privately into a desert place, belonging to the city called Bethsaida.
- 11 But the people, getting news of it, went after him: and he was pleased to see them, and gave them teaching about the kingdom of God, and made those well who were in need of it.
But the multitudes, perceiving it, followed him. He welcomed them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and he cured those who needed healing.
And the people, when they knew it, followed him: and he received them, and spoke to them of the kingdom of God, and healed them that had need of healing.
- 12 And the day went on; and the twelve came to him and said, Send these people away so that they may go into the towns and the country round about and get resting-places and food for themselves, for we are in a waste place.
The day began to wear away; and the twelve came, and said to him, "Send the multitude away, that they may go into the surrounding villages and farms, and lodge, and get provisions, for we are here in a desert place."
And when the day began to decline, then came the twelve, and said to him, Send the multitude away, that they may go into the towns and country around, and lodge, and get victuals: for we are here in a desert place.
- 13 But he said, Give them food yourselves. And they said, We have only five cakes of bread and two fishes, if we do not go and get food for all these people.
But he said to them, "You give them something to eat." They said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we should go and buy food for all these people."
But he said to them, Give ye them to eat. And they said, We have no more than five loaves and two fishes; except we should go and buy provisions for all this people.

- 14 For there were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them be seated in groups, about fifty to a group.
For they were about five thousand men. He said to his disciples, "Make them sit down in groups of about fifty each."
For they were about five thousand men. And he said to his disciples, Make them sit down by fifties in a company.
- 15 And they did so, and made them all be seated.
They did so, and made them all sit down.
And they did so, and made them all sit down.
- 16 And he took the five cakes of bread and the two fishes and, looking up to heaven, he said words of blessing over them, and when they had been broken, he gave them to the disciples to give to the people.
He took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to the sky, he blessed them, and broke them, and gave them to the disciples to set before the multitude.
Then he took the five loaves, and the two fishes, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them, and broke, and gave to the disciples to set before the multitude.
- 17 And they all took the food and had enough; and they took up of the broken bits which were over, twelve baskets full.
They ate, and were all filled. They gathered up twelve baskets of broken pieces that were left over.
And they ate, and were all satisfied: and there was taken up of fragments that remained to them, twelve baskets.
- 18 And it came about that when he was in prayer, by himself, and the disciples were with him, he put a question to them, saying, Who do the people say I am?
It happened, as he was praying alone, the disciples were with him, and he asked them, "Who do the multitudes say that I am?"
And it came to pass, as he was in retirement praying, his disciples were with him; and he asked them, saying, Who say the people that I am?
- 19 And they, answering, said, John the Baptist; but others say Elijah; and others, that one of the old prophets has come back.
They answered, "John the Baptizer, but others say, `Elijah,` and others, that one of the old prophets is risen again."
They answering, said, John the Baptist; but some say, Elijah; and others say, that one of the ancient prophets is risen again.

- 20 And he said, But who do you say that I am? And Peter, answering, said, The Christ of God.
He said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter answered, "The Christ of God."
He said to them, But who say ye that I am? Peter answering, said, Christ of God.
- 21 But he gave them special orders, not to say this to any man;
But he warned them, and commanded them to tell this to no one,
And he strictly charged them, and commanded them to tell no man that thing,
- 22 Saying, The Son of man will undergo much and be put on one side by the rulers and the chief priests and the teachers of the law, and be put to death, and on the third day he will come back to life.
saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, chief priests, and scribes, and be killed, and the third day be raised up."
Saying, The Son of man must suffer many things, and be rejected by the elders, and chief priests, and scribes, and be put to death, and be raised the third day.
- 23 And he said to them all, If any man has a desire to come after me, let him give up all, and take up his cross every day, and come after me.
He said to all, "If anyone desires to come after me, let him deny himself, take up his cross, and follow me.
And he said to them all, If any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me.
- 24 For whoever has a desire to keep his life will have it taken from him, but whoever gives up his life because of me, will keep it.
For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same will save it.
For whoever will save his life, shall lose it: but whoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it.
- 25 For what profit will a man have if he gets all the world, but undergoes loss or destruction himself?
For what does it profit a man if he gains the whole world, and loses or forfeits his own self?
For what is a man profited, if he shall gain the whole world, and lose himself, or be cast away?

- 26 For if any man has a feeling of shame because of me or of my words, the Son of man will have shame because of him when he comes in his glory and the glory of the Father and of the holy angels.
For whoever will be ashamed of me and of my words, of him will the Son of Man be ashamed, when he comes in the glory of himself, of the Father, and of the holy angels.
For whoever shall be ashamed of me, and of my words, of him will the Son of man be ashamed, when he shall come in his own glory, and in that of his Father, and of the holy angels.
- 27 But truly I say to you, Some of those who are here now will have no taste of death till they see the kingdom of God.
But I tell you the truth: There are some of those who stand here, who will in no way taste of death, until they see the kingdom of God."
But I tell you in truth, there are some standing here who shall not taste death till they see the kingdom of God.
- 28 And about eight days after he had said these things, he took Peter and John and James with him and went up into the mountain for prayer.
It happened about eight days after these sayings, that he took with him Peter, John, and James, and went up onto the mountain to pray.
And it came to pass, about eight days after these sayings, he took Peter, and John, and James, and went up upon a mountain to pray.
- 29 And while he was in prayer, his face was changed and his clothing became white and shining.
As he was praying, the appearance of his face was altered, and his clothing became white and dazzling.
And as he prayed, the fashion of his countenance was altered, and his raiment was white and glistening.
- 30 And two men, Moses and Elijah, were talking with him;
Behold, two men talked with him, who were Moses and Elijah,
And behold, there talked with him two men, who were Moses and Elijah.
- 31 Who were seen in glory and were talking of his death which was about to take place in Jerusalem.
who appeared in glory, and spoke of his departure, which he was about to accomplish at Jerusalem.
Who appeared in glory, and spoke of his decease which he should accomplish at Jerusalem.

- 32 Now Peter and those who were with him were overcome with sleep: but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory and the two men who were with him.
Now Peter and those who were with him were heavy with sleep, but when they were fully awake, they saw his glory, and the two men who stood with him.
But Peter and they that were with him were heavy with sleep: and when they were awake, they saw his glory, and the two men that stood with him.
- 33 And when they were about to go away from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here; let us make three tents, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah: having no knowledge of what he was saying.
It happened, as they were parting from him, that Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. Let`s make three tents: one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah," not knowing what he said.
And it came to pass, as they departed from him, Peter said to Jesus, Master, it is good for us to be here: and let us make three tabernacles; one for thee, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah: not knowing what he said.
- 34 And while he said these things, the shade of a cloud came over them, and they were full of fear when they went into the cloud.
While he said these things, a cloud came and overshadowed them, and they were afraid as they entered into the cloud.
While he was thus speaking, there came a cloud and overshadowed them: and they feared as they entered into the cloud.
- 35 And there was a voice from the cloud saying, This is my Son, the man of my selection; give ear to him.
A voice came out of the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him!"
And there came a voice out of the cloud, saying, This is my beloved Son: hear him.
- 36 And after the voice was gone they saw that Jesus was by himself. And they kept quiet, and said nothing at that time to anyone of the things which they had seen.
When the voice came, Jesus was found alone. They were silent, and told no one in those days any of the things which they had seen.
And when the voice was past, Jesus was found alone. And they kept it close, and told no man in those days any of those things which they had seen.
- 37 And on the day after, when they came down from the mountain, a great band of people came to him.
It happened on the next day, when they had come down from the mountain, that a great multitude met him.
And it came to pass, that on the next day, when they had come down from the hill, many people met him.

- 38 And a man from among them, crying out, said, Master, I make a request to you, give a thought to my son, for he is my only child:
Behold, a man from the crowd called out, saying, "Teacher, I beg you to look at my son, for he is my only child.
And behold, a man of the company cried out, saying, Master, I beseech thee look upon my son: for he is my only child.
- 39 And see, a spirit takes him, and suddenly he gives a cry, twisted in pain and streaming at the lips, and when it goes away from him at last, he is marked as from blows.
Behold, a spirit takes him, he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him so that he foams, and it hardly departs from him, bruising him severely.
And lo, a spirit taketh him, and he suddenly crieth out; and it teareth him that he foameth, and bruising him, hardly departeth from him.
- 40 And I made a request to your disciples to send it out of him, but they were not able to do it.
I begged your disciples to cast it out, and they couldn't."
And I besought thy disciples to cast him out, and they could not.
- 41 And Jesus said, O generation without faith and false in heart, how long will I have to be with you and put up with you? let your son come here.
Jesus answered, "Faithless and perverse generation, how long will I be with you and bear with you? Bring your son here."
And Jesus answering, said, O faithless and perverse generation, how long shall I be with you, and suffer you?
Bring thy son hither.
- 42 And while he was coming, he was pushed violently down and twisted by the evil spirit. But Jesus gave sharp orders to the unclean spirit, and made the boy well, and gave him back to his father.
While he was still coming, the demon threw him down and convulsed him violently. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the boy, and gave him back to his father.
And as he was yet coming, the demon threw him down, and tore him. And Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and healed the child, and delivered him again to his father.
- 43 And they were full of wonder at the great power of God. But while they were all wondering at all the things which he did, he said to his disciples,
They were all astonished at the majesty of God. But while all were marveling at all the things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples,
And they were all amazed at the mighty power of God. But while they were all wondering at all things which Jesus did, he said to his disciples,

44 Let these words go deep into your ears, for the Son of man will be given up into the hands of men.

"Let these words sink into your ears, for the Son of Man will be delivered up into the hands of men."

Let these sayings sink down into your ears: for the Son of man will be delivered into the hands of men.

45 But this saying was not clear to them and its sense was kept secret from them so that they were not able to see it: and they had fear of questioning him about it.

But they didn't understand this saying. It was concealed from them, that they should not perceive it, and they were afraid to ask him about this saying.

But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him concerning that saying.

46 Now there was a discussion among them about which of them would be the greatest.

There arose an argument among them about which of them was the greatest.

Then there arose a reasoning among them, which of them should be greatest.

47 But when Jesus saw the reasoning of their hearts, he took a small child and put him by his side,

Jesus, perceiving the reasoning of their heart, took a little child, and set him by his side,

And Jesus perceiving the thought of their heart, took a child, and set him by him, 48 And said to them, Whoever gives honour to this child in my name, gives honour to me: and whoever gives honour to me, gives honour to him who sent me: for whoever is least among you all, that man is great.

and said to them, "Whoever receives this little child in my name receives me. Whoever receives me receives him who sent me. For whoever is least among you all, this one will be great."

And said to them, Whoever shall receive this child in my name, receiveth me; and whoever shall receive me, receiveth him that sent me: for he that is least among you all, the same shall be great.

49 And John, answering, said, Master, we saw a man driving out evil spirits in your name, and we did not let him do it, because he was not one of us.

John answered, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he doesn't follow with us."

And John answered and said, Master, we saw one casting out demons in thy name; and we forbad him, because he followeth not with us.

- 50 But Jesus said to him, Let him do it, for he who is not against you is for you.
Jesus said to him, "Don` t forbid him, for he who is not against us is for us."
And Jesus said to him, Forbid him not: for he that is not against us, is for us.
- 51 And it came about that when the days were near for him to be taken up, his face was turned to go to Jerusalem,
It came to pass, when the days were near that he should be taken up, he intently set his face to go to Jerusalem,
And it came to pass, when the time was come that he should be received up, he steadfastly set his face to go to Jerusalem,
- 52 And he sent men before: and they came to a small town of Samaria to make ready for him.
and sent messengers before his face. They went, and entered into a village of the Samaritans, so as to prepare for him.
And sent messengers before his face: and they went and entered into a village of the Samaritans, to make ready for him.
- 53 But they would not have him there, because he was clearly going to Jerusalem.
They didn` t receive him, because he was traveling with his face set towards Jerusalem.
And they did not receive him, because his face was as though he would go to Jerusalem.
- 54 And when his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, Lord, may we send fire from heaven and put an end to them?
When his disciples, James and John, saw this, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from the sky, and destroy them, just as Elijah did?"
And when his disciples James and John saw this, they said, Lord, wilt thou that we command fire to come down from heaven, and consume them, even as Elijah did?
- 55 But turning round he said sharp words to them.
But he turned and rebuked them, "You don` t know what kind of spirit you are of.
But he turned, and rebuked them, and said, Ye know not what manner of spirit ye are of.
- 56 And they went to another small town.
For the Son of Man didn` t come to destroy men` s lives, but to save them." They went to another village.
For the Son of man is not come to destroy men's lives, but to save them. And they went to another village.

- 57 And when they were on the way, a certain man said to him, I will come after you wherever you go.
As they went on the way, a certain man said to him, "I want to follow you wherever you go, Lord."
And it came to pass, that as they were going in the way, a certain man said to him, Lord, I will follow thee whithersoever thou goest.
- 58 And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes and the birds of the air have resting-places, but the Son of man has nowhere to put his head.
Jesus said to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has no place to lay his head."
And Jesus said to him, Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.
- 59 And he said to another, Come after me. But he said, Lord, let me first go and give the last honours to my father.
He said to another, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, allow me first to go and bury my father."
And he said to another, Follow me. But he said, Lord, suffer me first to go and bury my father.
- 60 But he said to him, Let the dead take care of their dead; it is for you to go and give news of the kingdom of God.
But Jesus said to him, "Leave the dead to bury their own dead, but you go and announce the kingdom of God."
Jesus said to him, Let the dead bury their dead: but go thou and preach the kingdom of God.
- 61 And another man said, I will come with you, Lord, but first let me say a last good-day to those who are at my house.
Another also said, "I want to follow you, Lord, but first allow me to bid farewell to those who are at my house."
And another also said, Lord, I will follow thee; but let me first go and bid them farewell who are at my house.
- 62 But Jesus said, No man, having put his hand to the plough and looking back, is good enough for the kingdom of God.
But Jesus said to him, "No one, having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God."
And Jesus said to him, No man having put his hand to the plow, and looking back, is fit for the kingdom of God.
- 1 Now after these things, the Lord made selection of seventy others and sent them before him, two together, into every town and place where he himself was about to come.
Now after these things the Lord also appointed seventy others, and sent them two by two before his face into every city and place, where he himself was about to come.
After these things, the Lord appointed other seventy also, and sent them two and two before his face into every city, and place, whither he himself would come.

2 And he said to them, There is much grain ready to be cut, but not enough workers: so make prayer to the Lord of the grain-fields that he will send workers to get in the grain.
Then he said to them, "The harvest is indeed plentiful, but the laborers are few. Pray therefore to the Lord of the harvest, that he may send out laborers into his harvest.
Therefore said he to them, The harvest truly is great, but the laborers are few: pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he would send forth laborers into his harvest.

3 Go on your way: see, I send you out like lambs among wolves.
Go your ways. Behold, I send you out as lambs in the midst of wolves.
Go: behold, I send you forth as lambs among wolves.

4 Take no bag for money or for food, and no shoes; say no word to any man on the way.
Carry no purse, nor wallet, nor sandals. Greet no one on the way.
Carry neither purse, nor sack, nor shoes: and salute no man by the way.

5 And whenever you go into a house, first say, Peace be to this house.
Into whatever house you enter, first say, `Peace be to this house.`
And into whatever house ye enter, first say, Peace be to this house.

6 And if a son of peace is there, your peace will be with him: but if not, it will come back to you again.
If a son of peace is there, your peace will rest on him; but if not, it will return to you.
And if the son of peace be there, your peace shall rest upon it: if not, it shall turn to you again.

7 And keep in that same house, taking what food and drink they give you: for the worker has a right to his reward. Do not go from house to house.
Remain in that same house, eating and drinking the things they give, for the laborer is worthy of his wages. Don't go from house to house.
And in the same house remain, eating and drinking such things as they give: for the laborer is worthy of his hire. Go not from house to house.

8 And into whatever town you go, if they take you in, take whatever food is given to you:
Into whatever city you enter, and they receive you, eat the things that are set before you.
And into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you, eat such things as are set before you.

- 9 And make well those in it who are ill and say to them, The kingdom of God is near to you.
Heal the sick who are therein, and tell them, `The kingdom of God has come near to you.`
And heal the sick that are therein, and say to them, The kingdom of God is come nigh to you.
- 10 But if you go into a town where they will not have you, go out into the streets of it and say,
But into whatever city you enter, and they don` t receive you, go out into the streets of it and say,
But into whatever city ye enter, and they receive you not, go out into the streets of the same, and say,
- 11 Even the dust of your town, which is on our feet, we put off as a witness against you; but be certain of this, that the kingdom of God is near.
`Even the dust from your city that clings to us, we wipe off against you. Nevertheless know this, that the kingdom of God has come near to you.`
Even the very dust of your city which cleaveth on us, we do wipe off against you: notwithstanding, be ye sure of this, that the kingdom of God is come nigh to you.
- 12 I say to you, It will be better in that day for Sodom than for that town.
I tell you, it will be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.
But I say to you, that it shall be more tolerable in that day for Sodom than for that city.
- 13 A curse is on you, Chorazin! A curse is on you, Beth-saida! For if such works of power had been done in Tyre and Sidon as have been done in you, they would have been turned from their sins, in days gone by, seated in the dust.
"Woe to you, Chorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon which were done in you, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
Woe to thee, Chorazin! woe to thee Bethsaida! for if the mighty works had been done in Tyre and Sidon, which have been done in you, they had a great while ago repented sitting in sackcloth and ashes.
- 14 But it will be better for Tyre and Sidon, in the day of judging, than for you.
But it will be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon in the judgment than for you.
But it shall be more tolerable for Tyre and Sidon at the judgment, than for you.

- 15 And you, Capernaum, were you not lifted up to heaven? you will go down to hell.
You, Capernaum, who are exalted to heaven, will be brought down to Hades.
And thou, Capernaum, which art exalted to heaven, shall be thrust down to hell.
- 16 Whoever gives ear to you, gives ear to me; and whoever is against you, is against me; and whoever is against me, is against him who sent me.
Whoever listens to you listens to me, and whoever rejects you rejects me. Whoever rejects me rejects him who sent me."
He that heareth you, heareth me; and he that despiseth you, despiseth me; and he that despiseth me, despiseth him that sent me.
- 17 And the seventy came back with joy, saying, Lord, even the evil spirits are under our power in your name.
The seventy returned with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons are subject to us in your name."
And the seventy returned with joy, saying, Lord, even the demons are subject to us through thy name.
- 18 And he said, I was watching for Satan, falling from heaven like a star.
He said to them, "I saw Satan having fall like lightning from heaven.
And he said to them, I beheld Satan as lightning fall from heaven.
- 19 See, I have given you power to put your feet on snakes and evil beasts, and over all the strength of him who is against you: and nothing will do you damage.
Behold, I give you authority to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy. Nothing will in any way hurt you.
Behold, I give to you power to tread on serpents and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy: and nothing shall by any means hurt you.
- 20 Do not be glad, however, because you have power over spirits, but because your names are recorded in heaven.
Nevertheless, don't rejoice in this, that the spirits are subject to you, but rejoice that your names are written in heaven."
Notwithstanding in this rejoice not, that the spirits are subject to you; but rather rejoice, because your names are written in heaven.

- 21 In that same hour he was full of joy in the Holy Spirit and said, I give praise to you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have kept these things secret from the wise and the men of learning, and have made them clear to little children: for so, O Father, it was pleasing in your eyes.
In that same hour Jesus rejoiced in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I thank you, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the wise and understanding, and revealed them to little children. Yes, Father, for so it was well-pleasing in your sight."
In that hour Jesus rejoiced in spirit, and said, I thank thee, O Father, Lord of heaven and earth, that thou hast hid these things from the wise and prudent, and hast revealed them to babes: even so, Father; for so it seemed good in thy sight.
- 22 All things have been given to me by my Father: and no one has knowledge of the Son, but only the Father: and of the Father, but only the Son, and he to whom the Son will make it clear.
Turning to the disciples, he said, "All things have been delivered to me from my Father. No one knows who the Son is, except the Father, and who the Father is, except the Son, and he to whoever the Son desires to reveal him."
All things are delivered to me by my Father: and no man knoweth who the Son is, but the Father; and who the Father is, but the Son, and he to whom the Son will reveal him.
- 23 And, turning to the disciples, he said privately, Happy are the eyes which see the things you see:
Turning to the disciples, he said privately, "Blessed are the eyes which see the things that you see,
And he turned himself to his disciples, and said privately, Blessed are the eyes which see the things that ye see.
- 24 For I say to you that numbers of prophets and kings have had a desire to see the things which you see, and have not seen them, and to have knowledge of the things which have come to your ears, and they had it not.
for I tell you that many prophets and kings desired to see the things which you see, and didn't see them, and to hear the things which you hear, and didn't hear them."
For I tell you, that many prophets and kings have desired to see the things which ye see, and have not seen them; and to hear the things which ye hear, and have not heard them.
- 25 And a certain teacher of the law got up and put him to the test, saying, Master, what have I to do so that I may have eternal life?
Behold, a certain lawyer stood up and tested him, saying, "Teacher, what will I do to inherit eternal life?"
And behold, a certain lawyer stood up, and tempted him, saying, Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?

- 26 And he said to him, What does the law say, in your reading of it?
He said to him, "What is written in the law? How do you read it?"
He said to him, What is written in the law? how readest thou?
- 27 And he, answering, said, Have love for the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind; and for your neighbour as for yourself.
He answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, with all your soul, with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself."
And he answering said, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy strength, and with all thy mind; and thy neighbor as thyself.
- 28 And he said, You have given the right answer: do this and you will have life.
He said to him, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."
And he said to him, Thou hast answered right: this do, and thou shalt live.
- 29 But he, desiring to put himself in the right, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbour?
But he, desiring to justify himself, asked Jesus, "Who is my neighbor?"
But he, willing to justify himself, said to Jesus, And who is my neighbor?
- 30 And Jesus, answering him, said, A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he got into the hands of thieves, who took his clothing and gave him cruel blows, and when they went away, he was half dead.
Jesus answered, "A certain man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among robbers, who both stripped him and beat him, and departed, leaving him half dead."
And Jesus answering said, A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among robbers, who stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him, and departed, leaving him half dead.
- 31 And by chance a certain priest was going down that way: and when he saw him, he went by on the other side.
By chance a certain priest was going down that way. When he saw him, he passed by on the other side.
And by chance there came down a certain priest that way; and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side.

- 32 And in the same way, a Levite, when he came to the place and saw him, went by on the other side.
In the same way a Levite also, when he came to the place, and saw him, passed by on the other side.
And likewise a Levite, when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side.
- 33 But a certain man of Samaria, journeying that way, came where he was, and when he saw him, he was moved with pity for him,
But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was. When he saw him, he was moved with compassion,
But a certain Samaritan, as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him,
- 34 And came to him and put clean linen round his wounds, with oil and wine; and he put him on his beast and took him to a house and took care of him.
came to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring on oil and wine. He set him on his own animal, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
And went to him, and bound up his wounds, pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him.
- 35 And the day after he took two pennies and gave them to the owner of the house and said, Take care of him; and if this money is not enough, when I come again I will give you whatever more is needed.
On the next day, when he departed, he took out two denarii, and gave them to the host, and said to him, `Take care of him. Whatever you spend beyond that, I will repay you when I return.`
And on the morrow, when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said to him, Take care of him: and whatever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee.
- 36 Which of these three men, in your opinion, was neighbour to the man who came into the hands of thieves?
Now which of these three do you think seemed to be a neighbor to him who fell among the robbers?"
Which now of these three, thinkest thou, was neighbor to him that fell among the robbers?
- 37 And he said, The one who had mercy on him. And Jesus said, Go and do the same.
He said, "He who showed mercy on him." Then Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
And he said, He that showed mercy on him. Then said Jesus to him, Go, and do thou likewise.

- 38 Now, while they were on their way, he came to a certain town; and a woman named Martha took him into her house.
It happened as they went on their way, he entered into a certain village, and a certain woman named Martha received him into her house.
Now it came to pass, as they were going, he entered into a certain village: and a certain woman, named Martha, received him into her house.
- 39 And she had a sister, by name Mary, who took her seat at the Lord's feet and gave attention to his words.
She had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.
And she had a sister called Mary, who also sat at Jesus' feet, and heard his word.
- 40 But Martha had her hands full of the work of the house, and she came to him and said, Lord, is it nothing to you that my sister has let me do all the work? Say to her that she is to give me some help.
But Martha was distracted with much serving, and she came up to him, and said, "Lord, don't you care that my sister left me to serve alone? Ask her therefore to help me."
But Martha was cumbered about much serving, and came to him, and said, Lord, dost thou not care that my sister hath left me to serve alone? bid her therefore that she help me.
- 41 But the Lord, answering, said to her, Martha, Martha, you are full of care and troubled about such a number of things:
Jesus answered her, "Martha, Martha, you are anxious and troubled about many things,
And Jesus answered, and said to her, Martha, Martha, thou art anxious, and troubled about many things:
- 42 Little is needed, or even one thing only: for Mary has taken that good part, which will not be taken away from her.
but one thing is needed. Mary has chosen the good part, which will not be taken away from her."
But one thing is needful; and Mary hath chosen that good part, which shall not be taken away from her.
- 1 And it came about that he was in prayer in a certain place, and when he came to an end, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, will you give us teaching about prayer, as John did to his disciples?
It happened, that when he finished praying in a certain place, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, just as John also taught his disciples."
And it came to pass, that as he was praying in a certain place, when he ceased, one of his disciples said to him, Lord, teach us to pray, as John also taught his disciples.

2 And he said to them, When you say your prayers, say, Father, may your name be kept holy and your kingdom come.
He said to them, "When you pray, say, `Our Father in heaven, May your name be kept holy. May your kingdom come. May your desire be done on Earth, as it is in heaven.

And he said to them, When ye pray, say, Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so on earth.

3 Give us every day bread for our needs.

Give us day by day our daily bread.

Give us day by day our daily bread.

4 May we have forgiveness for our sins, as we make free all those who are in debt to us. And let us not be put to the test.

Forgive us our sins, for we ourselves also forgive everyone who is indebted to us. Bring us not into temptation, but deliver us from the evil one.`"

And forgive us our sins; for we also forgive every one that is indebted to us. And lead us not into temptation; but deliver us from evil.

5 And he said to them, Which of you, having a friend, would go to him in the middle of the night and say to him, Friend, let me have three cakes of bread;

He said to them, "Which of you, if you go to a friend at midnight, and tell him, `Friend, lend me three loaves of bread,

And he said to them, Which of you shall have a friend, and shall go to him at midnight, and say to him, Friend, lend me three loaves:

6 Because a friend of mine has come to me on a journey, and I have nothing to put before him; for a friend of mine has come to me from a journey, and I have nothing to set before him,`

For a friend of mine in his journey is come to me, and I have nothing to set before him?

7 And he, from inside the house, would say in answer, Do not be a trouble to me; the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; it is not possible for me to get up and give to you?
and he from within will answer and say, `Don`t bother me. The door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed. I can`t get up and give it to you`?

And he from within shall answer and say, Trouble me not: the door is now shut, and my children are with me in bed; I cannot rise and give thee.

- 8 I say to you, Though he will not get up and give to him, because he is his friend, still, if he keeps on making his request, he will get up and give him as much as he has need of.
I tell you, although he will not rise and give it to him because he is his friend, yet because of his persistence, he will get up and give him as many as he needs.
I say to you, Though he will not rise and give him, because he is his friend, yet because of his importunity he will rise and give him as many as he needeth.
- 9 And I say to you, Make requests, and they will be answered; what you are searching for, you will get; when you give the sign, the door will be open to you.
I tell you, keep asking, and it will be given you. Keep seeking, and you will find. Keep knocking, and it will be opened to you.
And I say to you, Ask, and it shall be given you; seek, and ye shall find; knock, and the door shall be opened to you.
- 10 For to everyone who makes a request, it will be given; and he who is searching will get his desire; and to him who gives the sign, the door will be open.
For everyone who asks receives. He who seeks finds. To him who knocks it will be opened.
For every one that asketh, receiveth; and he that seeketh, findeth; and to him that knocketh, the door shall be opened.
- 11 And which of you, being a father, will give a stone to his son, who makes request for bread? or for a fish, will give him a snake?
Which of you fathers, if your son asks for bread, will give him a stone? Or if he asks for a fish, he won't give him a snake instead of a fish, will he?
If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? or if he shall ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?
- 12 Or for an egg, will give him a scorpion?
Or if he asks for an egg, he won't give him a scorpion, will he?
Or if he shall ask an egg, will he offer him a scorpion?
- 13 If, then, you who are evil are able to give good things to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who make request to him?
If you then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"
If ye then, being evil, know how to give good gifts to your children: how much more will your heavenly Father give the Holy Spirit to them that ask him?

- 14 And he was sending an evil spirit out of a man who was without the power of talking. And it came about that when the spirit had gone the man had the power of talking; and the people were full of wonder.
He was casting out a demon, and it was mute. It happened, when the demon had gone out, the mute man spoke; and the multitudes marveled.
And he was casting out a demon, and it was dumb. And it came to pass when the demon was gone out, the dumb spoke; and the people wondered.
- 15 But some of them said, He sends out evil spirits by Beelzebul, the ruler of evil spirits.
But some of them said, "He casts out demons by Beelzebul, the prince of the demons."
But some of them said, He casteth out demons through Beelzebub, the chief of the demons.
- 16 And others, testing him, were looking for a sign from heaven from him.
Others, testing him, sought from him a sign from heaven.
And others tempting him, sought from him a sign from heaven.
- 17 But he, having knowledge of their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom in which there is division is made waste; and a house in which there is division comes to destruction.
But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation. A house divided against itself falls.
But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and a house divided against a house falleth.
- 18 If, then, Satan is at war with himself, how will he keep his kingdom? because you say that I send evil spirits out of men by the help of Beelzebul.
If Satan also is divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? Because you say that I cast out demons by Beelzebul.
If Satan also is divided against himself, how shall his kingdom stand? because ye say that I cast out demons through Beelzebub.
- 19 And if I, by Beelzebul, send out evil spirits, by whose help do your sons send them out? so let them be your judges.
But if I cast out demons by Beelzebul, by whom do your sons cast them out? Therefore will they be your judges.
And if I by Beelzebub cast out demons, by whom do your sons cast them out? therefore shall they be your judges.

- 20 But if I, by the finger of God, send out evil spirits, then the kingdom of God has overtaken you.
But if I by the finger of God cast out demons, then is the kingdom of God come to you.
But if I with the finger of God cast out demons, no doubt the kingdom of God is come upon you.
- 21 When the strong man armed keeps watch over his house, then his goods are safe:
When the strong man, fully armed, guards his own dwelling, his goods are safe.
When a strong man armed keepeth his palace, his goods are in peace:
- 22 But when one who is stronger makes an attack on him and overcomes him, he takes away his instruments of war, in which he had put his faith, and makes division of his goods.
But when someone stronger comes on him, and overcomes him, he takes from him his whole armor in which he trusted, and divides his spoils.
But when a stronger than he shall come upon him, and overcome him, he taketh from him all his armor in which he trusted, and divideth his spoils.
- 23 He who is not with me is against me, and he who will not give me help in getting people together is driving them away.
He that is not with me is against me. He who doesn't gather with me scatters.
He that is not with me is against me: and he that gathereth not with me scattereth.
- 24 The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of a man, goes through dry places, looking for rest; and when he does not get it, he says, I will go back to my house from which I came.
The unclean spirit, when he has gone out of the man, passes through dry places, seeking rest, and finding none, he says, `I will turn back to my house whence I came out.`
When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest: and finding none, he saith, I will return to my house whence I came out.
- 25 And when he comes, he sees that it has been made fair and clean.
When he returns, he finds it swept and put in order.
And when he cometh, he findeth it swept and garnished.

- 26 Then he goes and gets seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they go in, and take their places there: and the last condition of that man is worse than the first.
Then he goes, and takes seven other spirits more evil than himself, and they enter in and dwell there. The last state of that man becomes worse than the first."
Then he goeth and taketh to him seven other spirits more wicked than himself; and they enter in, and dwell there: and the last state of that man is worse than the first.
- 27 And it came about that when he said these things, a certain woman among the people said in a loud voice, Happy is the body which gave you birth, and the breasts from which you took milk. It came to pass, as he said these things, a certain woman out of the multitude lifted up her voice, and said to him, "Blessed is the womb that bore you, and the breasts which nursed you!"
And it came to pass, as he was speaking these things, a certain woman of the company lifted up her voice, and said to him, Blessed is the womb that bore thee, and the paps which nourished thee.
- 28 But he said, More happy are they who give hearing to the word of God and keep it.
But he said, "On the contrary, blessed are those who hear the word of God, and keep it."
But he said, Yes, rather blessed are they that hear the word of God, and keep it.
- 29 And when a great number of people came together to him, he said, This generation is an evil generation: it is looking for a sign and no sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah. When the multitudes were gathering together to him, he began to say, "This is an evil generation. It seeks after a sign. No sign will be given to it but the sign of Jonah, the prophet.
And when the people were assembled in crowds, he began to say, This is an evil generation: they seek a sign; and there shall no sign be given to it, but the sign of Jonah the prophet.
- 30 For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will the Son of man be to this generation.
For even as Jonah became a sign to the Ninevites, so will also the Son of Man be to this generation.
For as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also shall the Son of man be to this generation.
- 31 The queen of the South will come up on the day of judging and give her decision against the men of this generation: for she came from the ends of the earth to give ear to the wisdom of Solomon; and now something greater than Solomon is here.
The Queen of the South will rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and will condemn them: for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, one greater than Solomon is here.
The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth, to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and behold, a greater than Solomon is here.

- 32 The men of Nineveh will come up in the day of judging and give their decision against this generation: for they were turned away from their sins at the preaching of Jonah; but now something greater than Jonah is here.
The men of Nineveh will stand up in the judgment with this generation, and will condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.
The men of Nineveh shall rise up in the judgment with this generation, and shall condemn it: for they repented at the preaching of Jonah; and behold, a greater than Jonah is here.
- 33 No man, when the light has been lighted, puts it in a secret place, or under a vessel, but on its table, so that those who come in may see the light.
No man, when he has lit a lamp, puts it in a cellar, nor under a basket, but on the stand, that they which enter in may see the light.
No man when he hath lighted a candle, putteth it in a secret place, neither under a close vessel, but on a candlestick, that they who come in may see the light.
- 34 The light of the body is the eye: when your eye is true, all your body is full of light; but when it is evil, your body is dark.
The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is good, your whole body also is full of light; but when it is evil, your body also is full of darkness.
The light of the body is the eye: therefore when thy eye is single, thy whole body also is full of light; but when thy eye is evil, thy body also is full of darkness.
- 35 So take care that the light which is in you is not dark.
Therefore see whether the light that is in you isn't darkness.
Take heed therefore, that the light which is in thee be not darkness.
- 36 If, then, all your body is light, with no part of it dark, it will be completely full of light, as when a flame with its bright shining gives you light.
If therefore your whole body is full of light, having no part dark, it will be wholly full of light, as when the lamp with its bright shining gives you light."
If thy whole body therefore be full of light, having no part dark, the whole shall be full of light; as when the bright shining of a candle doth give thee light.
- 37 Now, while he was talking, a Pharisee made a request that he would come to a meal with him; and he went in and took his seat at the meal.
Now as he spoke, a certain Pharisee asked him to dine with him. He went in, and sat at the table.
And as he was speaking, a certain Pharisee besought him to dine with him: and he went in, and sat down to eat.

- 38 And when the Pharisee saw it, he was surprised because he came to the meal without first washing himself.
When the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed himself before dinner.
And when the Pharisee saw it, he marveled that he had not first washed before dinner.
- 39 And the Lord said to him, You Pharisees make the outside of the cup and the plate clean; but inside you are thieves and full of evil.
The Lord said to him, "Now you Pharisees cleanse the outside of the cup and of the platter, but your inward part is full of extortion and wickedness.
And the Lord said to him, Now do ye Pharisees make clean the outside of the cup and the platter; but your inward part is full of ravening and wickedness.
- 40 O you foolish ones! did not he who made the outside in the same way make the inside?
You foolish ones, didn't he who made the outside make the inside also?
Ye fools, did not he that made that which is without, make that which is within also?
- 41 But if you give to the poor such things as you are able, then all things are clean to you.
But give for alms those things which are within, and behold, all things will be clean to you.
But rather give alms of such things as ye have; and behold, all things are clean to you.
- 42 But a curse is on you, Pharisees! for you make men give a tenth of every sort of plant, and give no thought to right and the love of God; but it is right for you to do these things, and not let the others be undone.
But woe to you Pharisees! For you tithe mint and rue and every herb, and bypass justice and the love of God. You ought to have done these, and not to leave the other undone.
But woe to you, Pharisees! for ye tithe mint, and rue, and all manner of herbs, and pass over judgment and the love of God: these ought ye to have done, and not to leave the others undone.
- 43 A curse is on you, Pharisees! for your desires are for the most important seats in the Synagogues and for words of respect said to you in the market-place.
Woe to you Pharisees! For you love the best seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces.
Woe to you, Pharisees! for ye love the uppermost seats in the synagogues, and greetings in the markets.

- 44 A curse is on you! for you are like the resting-places of dead men, which are not seen, and men go walking over them without knowledge of it.
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like hidden graves, and the men who walk over them don't know it."
Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye are as graves which appear not, and the men that walk over them are not aware of them.
- 45 And one of the teachers of the law, answering, said to him, Master, in saying this, you give a bad name to us as to them.
One of the lawyers answered him, "Teacher, in saying this you insult us also."
Then answered one of the lawyers, and said to him, Master, thus saying, thou reproachest us also.
- 46 And he said, A curse is on you, teachers of the law! for while other men are crushed under the weight of the rules you make for them, you yourselves do not put so much as one finger to them.
He said, "Woe to you lawyers also! For you load men with burdens that are difficult to carry, and you yourselves won't even lift one finger to help carry those burdens.
And he said, Woe to you also, ye lawyers, for ye load men with burdens grievous to be borne, and ye yourselves touch not the burdens with one of your fingers.
- 47 A curse is on you! for you make resting-places for the bodies of the prophets, but your fathers put them to death.
Woe to you! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
Woe to you! for ye build the sepulchers of the prophets, and your fathers killed them.
- 48 So you are witnesses and give approval to the work of your fathers; for they put them to death and you make their last resting-places.
So you testify and consent to the works of your fathers. For they killed them, and you build their tombs.
Truly ye bear testimony, that ye allow the deeds of your fathers: for they indeed killed them, and ye build their sepulchers.
- 49 For this reason the wisdom of God has said, I will send them prophets and teachers, and to some of them they will give death and cruel pains;
Therefore also the wisdom of God said, I will send to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill and persecute.
Therefore also said the wisdom of God, I will send them prophets and apostles, and some of them they will slay and persecute:

- 50 So that punishment may come on this generation for the blood of all the prophets which was given from the earliest days; that the blood of all the prophets, which was shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;
That the blood of all the prophets, which hath been shed from the foundation of the world, may be required of this generation;
- 51 From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who was put to death between the altar and the Temple. Yes, I say to you, It will come on this generation.
from the blood of Abel to the blood of Zachariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary. ` Yes, I tell you, it will be required of this generation.
From the blood of Abel to the blood of Zacharias, who perished between the altar and the temple: verily I say to you, It shall be required of this generation.
- 52 A curse is on you, teachers of the law! for you have taken away the key of knowledge: you did not go in yourselves, and you got in the way of those who were going in.
Woe to you lawyers! For you took away the key of knowledge. You didn` t enter in yourselves, and those who were entering in, you hindered."
Woe to you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye have not entered in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered.
- 53 And when he had come out of that place, the scribes and the Pharisees came round him angrily, questioning him about more things;
As he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to be terribly angry, and to draw many things out of him;
And as he said these things to them, the scribes and the Pharisees began to urge him vehemently, and to solicit him to speak of many things;
- 54 And watching him, for a chance to get something from his words which might be used against him.
laying in wait for him, and seeking to catch him in something he might say, that they might accuse him.
Laying wait for him, and seeking to catch something from his mouth, that they might accuse him.
- 1 At that time, when thousands of the people had come together, in such numbers that they were crushing one another, he said first to his disciples, Have nothing to do with the leaven of the Pharisees, which is deceit.
Meanwhile, when a multitude of many thousands had gathered together, so much so that they trampled on each other, he began to tell his disciples first of all, "Beware of the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.
In the mean time, when there was gathered an innumerable multitude of people, so that they trod one upon another, he began to say to his disciples first of all, Beware ye of the leaven of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy.

- 2 But nothing is covered up, which will not come to light, or secret, which will not be made clear.
But there is nothing covered up, that will not be revealed, nor hidden, that will not be known.
For there is nothing covered, that shall not be revealed; neither hid, that shall not be known.
- 3 So, whatever you have said in the dark, will come to men's hearing in the light, and what you have said secretly inside the house, will be made public from the house-tops.
Therefore whatever you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light. What you have spoken in the ear in the inner chambers will be proclaimed on the housetops.
Therefore, whatever ye have spoken in darkness, shall be heard in the light; and that which ye have spoken in the ear in closets, shall be proclaimed upon the house-tops.
- 4 And I say to you, my friends, Have no fear of those who may put the body to death, and are able to do no more than that.
I tell you, my friends, don't be afraid of those who kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
And I say to you, my friends, Be not afraid of them that kill the body, and after that have no more that they can do.
- 5 But I will make clear to you of whom you are to be in fear: of him who after death has power to send you to hell; yes, truly I say, Have fear of him.
But I will warn you whom you shall fear. Fear him, who after he has killed, has power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him.
But I will forewarn you whom ye shall fear: Fear him, who after he hath killed, hath power to cast into hell; yes, I say to you, Fear him.
- 6 Are not five sparrows given in exchange for two farthings? and God has every one of them in mind.
Aren't five sparrows sold for two assaria? Not one of them is forgotten by God.
Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God?
- 7 But even the hairs of your head are numbered. Have no fear: you are of more value than a flock of sparrows.
But the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Therefore don't be afraid. You are of more value than many sparrows.
But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows.

- 8 And I say to you that to everyone who gives witness to me before men, the Son of man will give witness before the angels of God.
I tell you, everyone who confesses me before men, him will the Son of Man also confess before the angels of God;
Also I say to you, Whoever shall confess me before men, him will the Son of man also confess before the angels of God.
- 9 But if anyone says before men that he has no knowledge of me, I will say that I have no knowledge of him before the angels of God.
but he who denies me in the presence of men will be denied in the presence of the angels of God.
But he that denieth me before men, shall be denied before the angels of God.
- 10 And if anyone says a word against the Son of man, he will have forgiveness: but for him who says evil words against the Holy Spirit, there will be no forgiveness.
Everyone who speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but those who blaspheme against the Holy Spirit will not be forgiven.
And whoever shall speak a word against the Son of man, it shall be forgiven him: but to him that blasphemeth against the Holy Spirit, it shall not be forgiven.
- 11 And when they take you before the Synagogues and the authorities and the rulers, take no thought about what answers you will give, or what you will say:
When they bring you before the synagogues, the rulers, and the authorities, don` t be anxious how or what you will answer, or what you will say;
And when they bring you to the synagogues, and before magistrates, and powers, be not solicitous how or what thing ye shall answer, or what ye shall say:
- 12 For the Holy Spirit will make clear to you in that very hour what to say.
for the Holy Spirit will teach you in that same hour what you must say."
For the Holy Spirit will teach you in the same hour what ye ought to say.
- 13 And one of the people said to him, Master, give an order to my brother to make division of the heritage with me.
One of the multitude said to him, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."
And one of the company said to him, Master, speak to my brother, that he divide the inheritance with me.

- 14 But he said, Man, who made me a judge or a maker of decisions for you?
But he said to him, "Man, who made me a judge or an arbitrator over you?"
And he said to him, Man, who made me a judge, or a divider over you?
- 15 And he said to them, Take care to keep yourselves free from the desire for property; for a man's life is not made up of the number of things which he has.
He said to them, "Beware! Keep yourselves from covetousness, for a man's life doesn't consist of the abundance of the things which he possesses."
And he said to them, Take heed, and beware of covetousness: for a man's life consisteth not in the abundance of the things which he possesseth.
- 16 And he said to them, in a story, The land of a certain man of great wealth was very fertile:
He spoke a parable to them, saying, "The ground of a certain rich man brought forth abundantly.
And he spoke a parable to them, saying, The ground of a certain rich man brought forth plentifully:
- 17 And he said to himself, What is to be done? for I have no place in which to put all my fruit.
He reasoned within himself, saying, `What will I do, because I don't have room to store my crops?`
And he thought within himself, saying, What shall I do, because I have no room where to deposit my fruits?
- 18 And he said, This I will do: I will take down my store-houses and make greater ones, and there I will put all my grain and my goods.
He said, `This is what I will do. I will pull down my barns, and build bigger ones, and there I will store all my grain and my goods.
And he said, This will I do: I will pull down my barns, and build greater; and there will I deposit all my fruits and my goods.
- 19 And I will say to my soul, Soul, you have a great amount of goods in store, enough for a number of years; be at rest, take food and wine and be happy.
I will tell my soul, "Soul, you have many goods laid up for many years. Take your ease, eat, drink, be merry."
And I will say to my soul, Soul, thou hast abundance of goods laid up for many years; take thy ease, eat, drink, and be merry.

- 20 But God said to him, You foolish one, tonight I will take your soul from you, and who then will be the owner of all the things which you have got together?
But God said to him, `You foolish one, tonight your soul is required of you. The things which you have prepared -- whose will they be?`
But God said to him, Thou fool, this night thy soul shall be required of thee: then whose shall those things be which thou hast provided?
- 21 So that is what comes to the man who gets wealth for himself, and has not wealth in the eyes of God.
So is he who lays up treasure for himself, and is not rich toward God."
So is he that layeth up treasure for himself, and is not rich towards God.
- 22 And he said to his disciples, For this reason I say to you, Take no thought for your life, about what food you will take, or for your body, how it may be clothed.
He said to his disciples, "Therefore I tell you, don't be anxious for your life, what you will eat, nor yet for your body, what you will wear.
And he said to his disciples, Therefore I say to you, Be not anxious for your life, what ye shall eat; neither for the body, what ye shall put on.
- 23 Is not life more than food, and the body than its clothing?
Life is more than food, and the body than clothing.
The life is more than food, and the body is more than raiment.
- 24 Give thought to the ravens; they do not put seeds into the earth, or get together grain; they have no store-houses or buildings; and God gives them their food: of how much greater value are you than the birds!
Consider the ravens: they don't sow, they don't reap, they have no warehouse or barn, and God feeds them. How much more valuable are you than birds!
Consider the ravens: for they neither sow nor reap: which neither have store-house, nor barn; and God feedeth them: How much more are ye better than the fowls?
- 25 And which of you by taking thought is able to make himself any taller?
Which of you by being anxious can add a cubit to his height?
And which of you by solicitude can add to his stature one cubit?

- 26 If, then, you are not able to do even that which is least, why are you troubled about the rest?
If then you aren't able to do even the least things, why are you anxious about the rest?
If ye then are not able to do that thing which is least, why are ye anxious for the rest?
- 27 Give thought to the flowers: they do no work, they make no thread; and still I say to you, Even Solomon, in all his glory, was not clothed like one of these.
Consider the lilies, how they grow. They don't toil, neither do they spin; yet I tell you, even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
Consider the lilies how they grow: They toil not, they spin not; and yet I say to you, that Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.
- 28 But if God gives such clothing to the grass in the field, which today is living, and tomorrow will be burned in the oven, how much more will he give clothing to you, O men of little faith?
But if this is how God clothes the grass in the field, which today exists, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, how much more will he clothe you, you of little faith?
If then God so clothe the grass, which is to-day in the field, and to-morrow is cast into the oven; how much more will he clothe you, O ye of little faith?
- 29 And do not give overmuch thought to your food and drink, and let not your mind be full of doubts.
Don't seek what you will eat or what you will drink; neither be anxious.
And seek ye not what ye shall eat, or what ye shall drink, neither be ye of doubtful mind.
- 30 For the nations of the world go in search of all these things: but your Father has knowledge that you have need of them.
For the nations of the world seek after all of these things, but your Father knows that you need these things.
For all these things do the nations of the world seek after: and your Father knoweth that ye have need of these things.
- 31 But let your chief care be for his kingdom, and these other things will be given to you in addition.
Yet seek God's kingdom, and all these things will be added to you.
But rather seek ye the kingdom of God, and all these things shall be added to you.

- 32 Have no fear, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
Don't be afraid, little flock, for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
Fear not, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to give you the kingdom.
- 33 Give what property you have in exchange for money, and give the money to the poor; make for yourselves money-bags which will not get old, wealth stored up in heaven which will be yours for ever, where thieves will not come nor worms put it to destruction.
Sell that which you have, and give alms. Make for yourselves purses which don't grow old, a treasure in the heavens that doesn't fail, where no thief approaches, neither moth destroys.
Sell what ye have, and give alms: provide yourselves bags which become not old, a treasure in the heavens that faileth not, where no thief approacheth, neither moth corrupteth.
- 34 For where your wealth is, there will your heart be.
For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
For where your treasure is, there will your heart be also.
- 35 Be ready, dressed as for a journey, with your lights burning.
Let your loins be girded about, and your lamps burning.
Let your loins be girt, and your lights burning;
- 36 And be like men who are looking for their lord, when he comes back from the bride-feast; so that when he comes to the door, it will be open to him quickly.
Be like men looking for their lord, when he will return from the marriage feast; that, when he comes and knocks, they may immediately open to him.
And ye yourselves like men that wait for their lord, when he shall return from the wedding; that, when he cometh and knocketh, they may open to him immediately.
- 37 Happy are those servants who are watching when the lord comes; truly I say to you, he will make himself their servant and, placing them at the table, he will come out and give them food.
Blessed are those servants, whom the lord will find watching when he comes. Most assuredly I tell you, that he will gird himself, and make them recline, and will come and serve them.
Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say to you, that he will gird himself, and make them to sit down to eat, and will come forth and serve them.

- 38 And if he comes in the second division of the night or in the third, and they are watching for him, happy are those servants.
They will be blessed if he comes in the second or third watch, and finds them so.
And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.
- 39 But be certain of this, that if the master of the house had had knowledge of the time when the thief was coming, he would have been watching, and would not have let his house be broken into.
But know this, that if the master of the house had known in what hour the thief was coming, he would have watched, and not allowed his house to be broken into.
And this know, that if the master of the house knew at what hour the thief would come, he would watch, and not suffer his house to be broken through.
- 40 So be ready: for the Son of man is coming at a time when you are not looking for him.
Therefore be ready also, for the Son of Man is coming in an hour that you don't expect him."
Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.
- 41 And Peter said to him, Lord, are these words said to us only, or to all men?
Peter said to him, "Lord, are you telling this parable to us, or to everybody?"
Then Peter said to him, Lord, speakest thou this parable to us, or even to all?
- 42 And the Lord said, Who then is the wise and responsible servant whom his lord will put in control of his family, to give them their food at the right time?
The Lord said, "Who then is the faithful and wise steward, whom his lord will set over his household, to give them their portion of food at the right times?
And the Lord said, Who then is that faithful and wise steward, whom his lord shall make ruler over his household, to give them their portion of provisions in due season?
- 43 Happy is that servant who, when his lord comes, is doing so.
Blessed is that servant whom his lord will find doing so when he comes.
Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing.

- 44 Truly I say to you, he will put him in control of all his goods.
Truly I tell you, that he will set him over all that he has.
In truth I say to you, that he will make him ruler over all that he hath.
- 45 But if that servant says to himself, My lord is a long time coming; and goes about giving blows to the men-servants and the women-servants, feasting and taking overmuch wine;
But if that servant says in his heart, `My lord delays his coming,` and begins to beat the menservants and the maidservants, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken,
But if that servant shall say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the men-servants, and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken?
- 46 The lord of that servant will come at a time when he is not looking for him, and at an hour when he is not ready for him, and he will have him cut in two and will give him his part in the fate of those who have no faith;
then the lord of that servant will come in a day when he isn't expecting him, and in an hour that he doesn't know, and will cut him apart, and place his portion with the unfaithful.
The lord of that servant will come in a day when he looketh not for him, and at an hour when he is not aware, and will cut him asunder, and will appoint him his portion with the unbelievers.
- 47 And the servant who had knowledge of his lord's desires and was not ready for him and did not do as he was ordered, will be given a great number of blows;
That servant, who knew his lord's will, and didn't prepare, nor do what he wanted, will be beaten with many stripes,
And that servant who knew his lord's will, and prepared not himself, neither did according to his will, shall be beaten with many stripes.
- 48 But he who, without knowledge, did things for which punishment is given, will get only a small number of blows. The man to whom much is given, will have to give much; if much is given into his care, of him more will be requested.
but he who didn't know, and did things worthy of stripes, will be beaten with few stripes. To whoever much is given, of him will much be required; and to whom they deposit much, of him will they ask more.
But he that knew not, and committed things worthy of stripes, shall be beaten with few stripes. For to whomsoever much is given, of him shall much be required: and to whom men have committed much, from him they will ask the more.
- 49 I came to send a fire on the earth, and it may even now have been lighted.
"I came to throw fire on the earth, I wish it were already kindled.
I am come to send fire on the earth, and what will I, if it is already kindled?

- 50 But there is a baptism which I have to undergo; and how am I kept back till it is complete!
But I have a baptism to be baptized with, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!
But I have a baptism to be baptized with; and how am I straitened till it shall be accomplished!
- 51 Is it your opinion that I have come to give peace on earth? I say to you, No, but division:
Do you think that I have come to give peace in the earth? I tell you, no, but rather division.
Suppose ye that I am come to give peace on earth? I tell you, No; but rather division:
- 52 For from this time, a family of five in one house will be on opposite sides, three against two and two against three.
For from now on, there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
For from henceforth there will be five in one house divided, three against two, and two against three.
- 53 They will be at war, the father against his son, and the son against his father; mother against daughter, and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against mother-in-law.
They will be divided, father against son, and son against father; mother against daughter, and daughter against her mother; mother in law against her daughter in law, and daughter in law against her mother in law."
The father will be divided against the son, and the son against the father; the mother against the daughter, and the daughter against the mother; the mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law.
- 54 Then he said to the people, When you see a cloud coming up in the west, straight away you say, There will be rain; and so it is.
He said to the multitudes also, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, immediately you say, `A shower is coming,` and so it happens.
And he said also to the people, When ye see a cloud rising in the west, immediately ye say, There cometh a shower; and so it is.
- 55 And when you see a south wind blowing, you say, There will be heat; and so it is.
When a south wind blows, you say, `There will be a scorching heat,` and it happens.
And when ye perceive the south wind blowing, ye say, There will be heat; and it cometh to pass.

56 O false ones! the face of the earth and the heaven is clear to you; how is it that the signs of these times are not as clear to you?
You hypocrites! You know how to interpret the appearance of the earth and the sky, but how is it that you don't interpret this time?
Ye hypocrites, ye can discern the face of the sky, and of the earth; but how is it, that ye do not discern this time?

57 And why are you, in your hearts, unable to be judges of what is right?
Why don't you judge for yourselves what is right?
And why even of yourselves judge ye not what is right?

58 For if anyone has a cause at law against you, and you are going with him before the ruler, make an attempt, on the way, to come to an agreement with him, for if you do not, he may take you before the judge and the judge will give you up to the police, and they will put you in prison.
For as you are going with your adversary before the magistrate, try diligently on the way to be freed from him, lest perhaps he drag you to the judge, and the judge deliver you to the officer, and the officer throw you into prison.
When thou goest with thy adversary to the magistrate, as thou art in the way, give diligence that thou mayest be delivered from him; lest he draw thee before the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and the officer cast thee into prison.

59 I say to you, You will not come out of it till you have made payment to the very last farthing.
I tell you, you will by no means get out of there, until you have paid the very last lepton."
I tell thee, thou shalt not depart thence, till thou hast paid the very last mite.

1 Now some people who were there at that time, gave him an account of how the blood of some Galilaeans had been mixed by Pilate with their offerings.
Now there were some present at the same time who told him about the Galilaeans, whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.
There were present at that season some that told him of the Galileans, whose blood Pilate had mingled with their sacrifices.

2 And he, in answer, said to them, Are you of the opinion that these Galilaeans were worse than all other Galilaeans, because these things were done to them?
Jesus answered them, "Do you think that these Galilaeans were worse sinners than all the other Galilaeans, because they suffered such things?
And Jesus answering, said to them, Suppose ye that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans, because they suffered such things?

3 I say to you, It is not so: but if your hearts are not changed, you will all come to the same end.
I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way.
I tell you, No; but except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

4 Or those eighteen men who were crushed by the fall of the tower of Siloam, were they worse than all the other men living in Jerusalem?
Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them; do you think that they were worse offenders than all the men who dwell in Jerusalem?
Or those eighteen, upon whom the tower in Siloam fell, and killed them, think ye that they were sinners above all men that dwelt in Jerusalem?

5 I say to you, It is not so: but if your hearts are not changed, you will all come to an end in the same way.
I tell you, no, but, unless you repent, you will all perish in the same way."
I tell you, No; but, except ye repent, ye shall all likewise perish.

6 And he made up this story for them: A certain man had a fig-tree in his garden, and he came to get fruit from it, and there was no fruit.
He spoke this parable. "A certain man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard, and he came seeking fruit on it, and found none.
He spoke also this parable: A certain man had a fig-tree planted in his vineyard; and he came and sought fruit on it, and found none.

7 And he said to the gardener, See, for three years I have been looking for fruit from this tree, and I have not had any: let it be cut down; why is it taking up space?
He said to the vine dresser, `Behold, these three years I came seeking fruit on this fig tree, and found none. Cut it down. Why does it waste the soil?`
Then said he to the dresser of his vineyard, Behold, these three years I come seeking fruit on this fig-tree, and find none: cut it down; why cumbereth it the ground?

8 And he said, Lord, let it be for this year, and I will have the earth turned up round it, and put animal waste on it, to make it fertile:
He answered, `Lord, leave it alone this year also, until I dig around it, and fertilize it.
And he answering, said to him, Lord, let it alone this year also, till I shall dig about it, and dung it:

- 9 And if, after that, it has fruit, it is well; if not, let it be cut down.
If it bears fruit, fine; but if not, after that, you can cut it down.`"
And if it shall bear fruit, well: and if not, then after that thou shalt cut it down.
- 10 And he was teaching in one of the Synagogues on the Sabbath.
He was teaching in one of the synagogues on the Sabbath day.
And he was teaching in one of the synagogues on the sabbath.
- 11 And there was a woman who had had a disease for eighteen years; she was bent, and was not able to make herself straight.
Behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and she was bent over, and could in no way lift herself up.
And behold, there was a woman who had a spirit of infirmity eighteen years, and was bowed together, and could in no wise raise herself.
- 12 And when Jesus saw her, he said to her, Woman, you are made free from your disease.
When Jesus saw her, he called her, and said to her, "Woman, you are freed from your infirmity."
And when Jesus saw her, he called her to him, and said to her, Woman, thou art loosed from thy infirmity.
- 13 And he put his hands on her, and she was made straight, and gave praise to God.
He laid his hands on her, and immediately she stood up straight, and glorified God.
And he laid his hands on her: and immediately she was made straight, and glorified God.
- 14 And the ruler of the Synagogue was angry because Jesus had made her well on the Sabbath, and he said to the people, There are six days in which men may do work: so come on those days to be made well, and not on the Sabbath.
The ruler of the synagogue, being moved with indignation because Jesus had healed on the Sabbath, answered to the multitude, "There are six days in which men ought to work. Therefore come on those days and be healed, and not on the Sabbath day!"
And the ruler of the synagogue answered with indignation, because Jesus had healed on the sabbath, and said to the people, There are six days in which men ought to work: in them therefore come and be healed, and not on the sabbath.

- 15 But the Lord gave him an answer and said, O you false men! do you not, every one of you, on the Sabbath, let loose his ox and his ass and take it to the water?
Therefore the Lord answered him, "You hypocrites! Doesn't each one of you free his ox or his donkey from the stall on the Sabbath, and lead him away to water?
The Lord then answered him, and said, Thou hypocrite, doth not each one of you on the sabbath loose his ox or his ass from the stall, and lead him away to watering?
- 16 And is it not right for this daughter of Abraham, who has been in the power of Satan for eighteen years, to be made free on the Sabbath?
Ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan had bound eighteen long years, to have been freed from this bondage on the Sabbath day?"
And ought not this woman, being a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan hath bound, lo, these eighteen years, to be loosed from this bond on the Sabbath?
- 17 And when he said these things, those who were against him were shamed, and all the people were full of joy because of the great things which were done by him.
As he said these things, all his adversaries were put to shame, and all the multitude rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
And when he had said these things, all his adversaries were ashamed: and all the people rejoiced for all the glorious things that were done by him.
- 18 Then he said, What is the kingdom of God like? what comparison may I make of it?
He said, "To what is the kingdom of God like? To what shall I compare it?
Then said he, To what is the kingdom of God like? and to what shall I resemble it?
- 19 It is like a grain of mustard seed which a man took and put in his garden, and it became a tree, and the birds of heaven made their resting-places in its branches.
It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and threw into his own garden. It grew, and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky lodged in the branches of it."
It is like a grain of mustard-seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden, and it grew, and became a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.
- 20 And again he said, What is the kingdom of God like?
Again he said, "What shall I compare to the kingdom of God?
And again he said, To what shall I liken the kingdom of God?

- 21 It is like leaven, which a woman put into three measures of meal, and it was all leavened.
It is like yeast, which a woman took and hid in three sata of flour, until it was all leavened."
It is like leaven, which a woman took and hid in three measures of meal, till the whole was leavened.
- 22 And he went on his way, through towns and country places, teaching and journeying to Jerusalem.
He went on his way through cities and villages, teaching, and traveling on to Jerusalem.
And he went through the cities and villages, teaching, and journeying towards Jerusalem.
- 23 And someone said to him, Lord, will only a small number have salvation? And he said to them,
One said to him, "Lord, are they few who are saved?" He said to them,
Then said one to him, Lord, are there few that are saved? And he said to them,
- 24 Do your best to go in by the narrow door, for I say to you, A number will make the attempt to go in, but will not be able to do so.
"Strive to enter in by the narrow door, for many, I tell you, will seek to enter in, and will not be able.
Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say to you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.
- 25 When the master of the house has got up, and the door has been shut, and you, still outside, give blows on the door, saying, Lord, let us in; he will make answer and say, I have no knowledge of where you come from.
When once the master of the house has risen up, and has shut the door, and you begin to stand outside, and to knock at the door, saying, `Lord, Lord, open to us!` then he will answer and tell you, `I don` t know you or where you come from.`
When once the master of the house hath risen, and hath shut the door, and ye begin to stand without, and to knock at the door, saying, Lord, Lord, open to us; and he will answer and say to you, I know you not whence ye are:
- 26 Then you will say, We have taken food and drink with you, and you were teaching in our streets.
Then you will begin to say, `We ate and drink in your presence, and you taught in our streets.`
Then ye will begin to say, We have eaten and drank in thy presence, and thou hast taught in our streets.
- 27 But he will say, Truly, I have no knowledge of you or where you come from; go away from me, you workers of evil.
He will say, `I tell you, I don` t know where you come from. Depart from me, all you workers of iniquity.`
But he will say, I tell you, I know you not whence ye are: depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity.

- 28 There will be weeping and cries of sorrow when you see Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, but you yourselves are shut outside.
There will be weeping and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham, Isaac, Jacob, and all the prophets, in the kingdom of God, and yourselves being thrown outside.
There shall be weeping and gnashing of teeth when ye shall see Abraham, and Isaac, and Jacob, and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you yourselves excluded.
- 29 And they will come from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south, and take their places in the kingdom of God.
They will come from the east, west, north, and south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God.
And they will come from the east, and from the west, and from the north, and from the south, and will sit down in the kingdom of God.
- 30 And the last will be first, and the first will be last.
Behold, there are some who are last who will be first, and there are some who are first who will be last."
And behold, there are last, who shall be first; and there are first who shall be last.
- 31 At that time, certain Pharisees came to him and said, Go away from this place, because Herod's purpose is to put you to death.
On that same day, some Pharisees came, saying to him, "Get out of here, and go away, for Herod wants to kill you."
The same day there came certain of the Pharisees, saying to him, Go out, and depart hence; for Herod will kill thee.
- 32 And he said, Go and say to that fox, I send out evil spirits and do works of mercy today and tomorrow, and on the third day my work will be complete.
He said to them, "Go and tell that fox, `Behold, I cast out demons and perform cures today and tomorrow, and the third day I complete my mission.
And he said to them, Go ye and tell that fox, Behold, I cast out demons, and I do cures to-day and to-morrow, and the third day I shall be perfected.
- 33 But I have to go on my way today and tomorrow and the third day, for it is not right for a prophet to come to his death outside Jerusalem.
Nevertheless I must go on my way today and tomorrow and the next day, for it can't be that a prophet perish out of Jerusalem.`
Nevertheless, I must walk to-day and to-morrow, and the day following: for it cannot be that a prophet should perish out of Jerusalem.

- 34 O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, putting to death the prophets, and stoning those who were sent to her! again and again would I have taken your children to myself, as a bird takes her young ones under her wings, but you would not!
"Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those who are sent to her! How often I wanted to gather your children together, like a hen gathers her own brood under her wings, and you refused!
O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that killest the prophets, and stonest them that are sent to thee; how often would I have gathered thy children, as a hen gathereth her brood under her wings, and ye would not!
- 35 Now see, your house is waste, and I say to you, You will not see me again till you say, A blessing on him who comes in the name of the Lord.
Behold, your house is left to you desolate. I tell you, you will not see me, until you say, `Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!`"
Behold, your house is left to you desolate. And verily I say to you, ye shall not see me, until the time shall come when ye shall say, Blessed is he that cometh in the name of the Lord.
- 1 And it came about that when he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees on the Sabbath, to have a meal, they were watching him.
It happened, when he went into the house of one of the rulers of the Pharisees on a Sabbath to eat bread, that they were watching him.
And it came to pass, as he went into the house of one of the chief Pharisees to eat bread on the sabbath, that they watched him.
- 2 And a certain man was there who had a disease.
Behold, a certain man who had dropsy was in front of him.
And behold, there was a certain man before him who had the dropsy.
- 3 And Jesus, answering, said to the scribes and Pharisees, Is it right to make people well on the Sabbath or not?
Jesus, answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, "Is it lawful to heal on the Sabbath?"
And Jesus answering, spoke to the lawyers and Pharisees, saying, Is it lawful to heal on the sabbath?
- 4 But they said nothing. And he made him well and sent him away.
But they were silent. He took him, and healed him, and let him go.
And they held their peace. And he took him and healed him, and let him go;

- 5 And he said to them, Which of you, whose ox or ass has got into a water-hole, will not straight away get him out on the Sabbath?
He answered them, "Which of you, if your son or an ox fell into a well, wouldn't immediately pull him out on a Sabbath day?"
And answered them, saying, Which of you shall have an ass or an ox fallen into a pit, and will not forthwith pull him out on the sabbath?
- 6 And they had no answer to that question.
They couldn't answer him regarding these things.
And they could not answer him again to these things.
- 7 And he gave teaching in the form of a story to the guests who came to the feast, when he saw how they took the best seats; saying to them,
He spoke a parable to those who were invited, when he noticed how they chose the best seats, and said to them,
And he put forth a parable to those who were invited, when he marked how they chose out the chief rooms; saying to them,
- 8 When you get a request to come to a feast, do not take the best seat, for a more important man than you may be coming,
"When you are invited by anyone to a marriage feast, don't sit in the best seat, since perhaps a more honorable man than you might be invited by him,
When thou art invited by any man to a wedding, sit not down in the highest room, lest a more honorable man than thou be invited by him;
- 9 And then the giver of the feast will come to you and say, Give your place to this man; and you, with shame, will have to take the lowest seat.
and he who invited both of you would come and tell you, `Make room for this man.` Then you would begin, with shame, to take the lowest place.
And he that invited thee and him, shall come and say to thee, Give this man place; and thou begin with shame to take the lowest room.
- 10 But when you come, go and take the lowest seat, so that when the giver of the feast comes, he may say to you, Friend, come up higher; and then you will have honour in the eyes of all the others who are there.
But when you are invited, go and sit in the lowest place, so that when he who invited you comes, he may tell you, `Friend, move up higher.` Then you will have glory in the presence of all who sit at the table with you.
But when thou art invited, go and sit down in the lowest room; that when he that invited thee cometh, he may say to thee, Friend, go up higher: then shalt thou have honor in the presence of them that sit at table with thee.

- 11 For every man who gives himself a high place will be put down, but he who takes a low place will be lifted up.
For everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, and whoever humbles himself will be exalted."
For whoever exalteth himself shall be abased, and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
- 12 And he said to the master of the house, When you give a feast, do not send for your friends and your brothers and your family or your neighbours who have wealth, for they may give a feast for you, and so you will get a reward.
He also said to the one who had invited him, "When you make a dinner or a supper, don't call your friends, nor your brothers, nor your kinsmen, nor rich neighbors, or perhaps they might also return the favor, and pay you back.
Then said he also to him that invited him, When thou makest a dinner or a supper, call not thy friends, nor thy brethren, neither thy kinsmen, nor thy rich neighbors; lest they also invite thee again, and a recompense be made thee.
- 13 But when you give a feast, send for the poor and the blind and those who are broken in body:
But when you make a feast, ask the poor, the maimed, the lame, or the blind;
But when thou makest a feast, call the poor, the maimed, the lame, the blind:
- 14 And you will have a blessing, because they will not be able to give you any payment, and you will get your reward when the upright come back from the dead.
and you will be blessed, because they don't have the resources to repay you. For you will be repaid in the resurrection of the righteous."
And thou shalt be blessed: for they cannot recompense thee: for thou shalt be recompensed at the resurrection of the just.
- 15 And, hearing these words, one of those who were at table with him said to him, Happy is the man who will be a guest in the kingdom of God.
When one of those who sat at the table with him heard these things, he said to him, "Blessed is he who will feast in the kingdom of God!"
And when one of them that sat at table with him heard these things, he said to him, Blessed is he that shall eat bread in the kingdom of God.
- 16 And he said to them, A certain man gave a great feast, and sent word of it to a number of people.
But he said to him, "A certain man made a great supper, and he invited many people.
Then said he to him, A certain man made a great supper, and invited many:

- 17 And when the time had come, he sent his servants to say to them, Come, for all things are now ready.
He sent out his servant at supper time to tell those who were invited, `Come, for everything is ready now.`
And sent his servant at supper-time, to say to them that were invited, Come, for all things are now ready.
- 18 And they all gave reasons why they were not able to come. The first said to him, I have got a new field, and it is necessary for me to go and see it: I am full of regret that I am unable to come.
They all as one began to make excuses. The first said to him, `I have bought a field, and I must go and see it. Please have me excused.`
And they all with one consent began to make excuse. The first said to him, I have bought a piece of ground, and I must needs go and see it: I pray thee have me excused.
- 19 And another said, I have got some cattle, and I am going to make a test of them: I am full of regret that I am unable to come.
Another said, `I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I must go try them out. Please have me excused.`
And another said, I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I go to prove them: I pray thee have me excused.
- 20 And another said, I have been married, and so I am not able to come.
Another said, `I have married a wife, and therefore I can't come.`
And another said, I have married a wife: and therefore I cannot come.
- 21 And the servant came back and gave his master an account of these things. Then the master of the house was angry and said to the servant, Go out quickly into the streets of the town and get the poor, the blind, and those who are broken in body.
That servant came, and told his lord these things. Then the master of the house, being angry, said to his servant, `Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in here the poor, maimed, blind, and lame.`
So that servant came, and showed his lord these things. Then the master of the house being angry, said to his servant, Go out quickly into the streets and lanes of the city, and bring in hither the poor, and the maimed, and the halt, and the blind.
- 22 And the servant said, Lord, your orders have been done, and still there is room.
The servant said, `Lord, it is done as you commanded, and there is still room.`
And the servant said, Lord, it is done as thou hast commanded, and yet there is room.

- 23 And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the roads and the fields, and make them come in, so that my house may be full.
The lord said to the servant, `Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
And the lord said to the servant, Go out into the highways and hedges, and compel them to come in, that my house may be filled.
- 24 For I say to you that not one of those who were requested to come will have a taste of my feast.
For I tell you that none of those men who were invited will taste of my supper.`"
For I say to you, that none of those men who were invited, shall taste my supper.
- 25 Now a great number of people went with him.
Now great multitudes went with him. He turned and said to them,
And there went great multitudes with him: and he turned, and said to them,
- 26 And turning round, he said to them, If any man comes to me, and has not hate for his father and mother and wife and children and brothers and sisters, and even for his life, he may not be my disciple.
"If any man comes to me, and doesn't hate his own father, mother, wife, children, brothers, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he can't be my disciple.
If any man cometh to me, and hateth not his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brethren, and sisters, yes, and his own life also, he cannot be my disciple.
- 27 Whoever does not take up his cross and come after me may not be my disciple.
Whoever doesn't bear his own cross, and come after me, can't be my disciple.
And whoever doth not bear his cross, and come after me, cannot be my disciple.
- 28 For which of you, desiring to put up a tower, does not first give much thought to the price, if he will have enough to make it complete?
For which of you, desiring to build a tower, doesn't first sit down and count the cost, to see if he has enough to complete it?
For which of you intending to build a tower, sitteth not down first, and counteth the cost, whether he hath sufficient to finish it?

- 29 For fear that if he makes a start and is not able to go on with it to the end, all who see it will be laughing at him,
Or perhaps, when he has laid a foundation, and is not able to finish, everyone who sees begins to mock him,
Lest perhaps after he hath laid the foundation, and is not able to finish it, all that behold it begin to mock him,
- 30 And saying, This man made a start at building and is not able to make it complete.
saying, `This man began to build, and wasn't able to finish.`
Saying, This man began to build, and was not able to finish.
- 31 Or what king, going to war with another king, will not first take thought if he will be strong enough, with ten thousand men, to keep off him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
Or what king, as he goes to encounter another king in war, will not sit down first and consider whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him who comes against him with twenty thousand?
Or what king going to make war against another king, sitteth not down first, and consulteth whether he is able with ten thousand to meet him that cometh against him with twenty thousand?
- 32 Or while the other is still a great distance away, he sends representatives requesting conditions of peace.
Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sends an envoy, and asks for conditions of peace.
Or else, while the other is yet a great way off, he sendeth an embassy, and desireth conditions of peace.
- 33 And so whoever is not ready to give up all he has may not be my disciple.
So therefore whoever of you who doesn't renounce all that he has, he can't be my disciple.
So likewise, whoever he is of you that forsaketh not all that he hath, he cannot be my disciple.
- 34 For salt is good, but if the taste goes from it, of what use is it?
Salt is good, but if the salt becomes flat and tasteless, with what do you season it?
Salt is good: but if the salt hath lost its savor, with what shall it be seasoned?
- 35 It is no good for the land or for the place of waste; no one has a use for it. He who has ears, let him give ear.
It is fit neither for the soil nor for the manure pile. It is thrown out. He who has ears to hear, let him hear."
It is neither fit for the land, nor yet for the dunghill, but men cast it out. He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.

- 1 Now all the tax-farmers and sinners came near to give ear to him.
Now all the tax collectors and sinners were coming close to him to hear him.
Then drew near to him all the publicans and sinners to hear him.
- 2 And the Pharisees and scribes were angry, saying, This man gives approval to sinners, and takes food with them.
The Pharisees and the scribes murmured, saying, "This man welcomes sinners, and eats with them."
And the Pharisees and scribes murmured, saying, This man receiveth sinners, and eateth with them.
- 3 And he made a story for them, saying,
He told them this parable.
And he spoke this parable to them, saying,
- 4 What man of you, having a hundred sheep, if one of them gets loose and goes away, will not let the ninety-nine be in the waste land by themselves, and go after the wandering one, till he sees where it is?
"Which of you men, if you had one hundred sheep, and lost one of them, wouldn't leave the ninety-nine in the wilderness, and go after the one that was lost, until he found it?"
What man of you having a hundred sheep, if he loseth one of them, doth not leave the ninety and nine in the wilderness, and go after that which is lost, until he findeth it?
- 5 And when he has got it again, he takes it in his arms with joy.
When he has found it, he carries it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
And when he hath found it, he layeth it on his shoulders, rejoicing.
- 6 And when he gets back to his house, he sends for his neighbours and friends, saying to them, Be glad with me, for I have got back my sheep which had gone away.
When he comes home, he calls together his friends and his neighbors, saying to them, `Rejoice with me, for I have found my sheep which was lost!`
And when he cometh home, he calleth together his friends and neighbors, saying to them, Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep which was lost.

- 7 I say to you that even so there will be more joy in heaven when one sinner is turned away from his wrongdoing, than for ninety-nine good men, who have no need of a change of heart.
I tell you that even so there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner who repents, than over ninety-nine righteous people who need no repentance.
I say to you, that likewise joy shall be in heaven over one sinner that repenteth, more than over ninety and nine just persons, who need no repentance.
- 8 Or what woman, having ten bits of silver, if one bit has gone from her hands, will not get a light, and go through her house, searching with care till she sees it?
Or what woman, if she had ten drachma coins, if she lost one drachma, wouldn't light a lamp, sweep the house, and seek diligently until she found it?
Either what woman having ten pieces of silver, if she loseth one piece, doth not light a candle, and sweep the house, and seek diligently till she findeth it?
- 9 And when she has it again, she gets her friends and neighbours together, saying, Be glad with me, for I have got back the bit of silver which had gone from me.
When she has found it, she calls together her friends and neighbors, saying, `Rejoice with me, for I have found the drachma which I had lost.`
And when she hath found it, she calleth her friends and her neighbors together, saying, Rejoice with me; for I have found the piece which I had lost.
- 10 Even so, I say to you, There is joy among the angels of God, when one sinner is turned away from his wrongdoing.
Even so, I tell you, there is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner repenting."
Likewise, I say to you, There is joy in the presence of the angels of God over one sinner that repenteth.
- 11 And he said, A certain man had two sons:
He said, "A certain man had two sons.
And he said, A certain man had two sons:
- 12 And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me that part of your property which will be mine. And he made division of his goods between them.
The younger of them said to his father, `Father, give me my share of your property.` He divided his living to them.
And the younger of them said to his father, Father, give me the portion of goods that falleth to me. And he divided to them his living.

13 And not long after, the younger son got together everything which was his and took a journey into a far-away country, and there all his money went in foolish living.
Not many days after, the younger son gathered all of this together and took his journey into a far country. There he wasted his property with riotous living.

And not many days after, the younger son gathered all together, and took his journey into a far country, and there wasted his substance with riotous living.

14 And when everything was gone, there was no food to be had in that country, and he was in need.

When he had spent all of it, there arose a severe famine in that country, and he began to be in need.

And when he had spent all, there arose a severe famine in that land; and he began to be in want.

15 And he went and put himself into the hands of one of the people of that country, and he sent him into his fields to give the pigs their food.

He went and joined himself to one of the citizens of that country, and he sent him into his fields to feed pigs.

And he went and joined himself to a citizen of that country; and he sent him into his fields to feed swine.

16 And so great was his need that he would have been glad to take the pigs' food, and no one gave him anything.

He wanted to fill his belly with the husks that the pigs ate, but no one gave him any.

And he would fain have filled his belly with the husks that the swine did eat; and no man gave to him.

17 But when he came to his senses, he said, What numbers of my father's servants have bread enough, and more, while I am near to death here through need of food!

But when he came to himself he said, `How many hired servants of my father`s have bread enough to spare, and I`m dying with hunger!

And when he came to himself, he said, How many hired servants of my father have bread enough and to spare, and I am perishing with hunger!

18 I will get up and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have done wrong, against heaven and in your eyes:

I will get up and go to my father, and will tell him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight.

I will arise and go to my father, and will say to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before thee, 19 I am no longer good enough to be named your son: make me like one of your servants.

I am no more worthy to be called your son. Make me as one of your hired servants."

And am no more worthy to be called thy son: make me as one of thy hired servants.

- 20 And he got up and went to his father. But while he was still far away, his father saw him and was moved with pity for him and went quickly and took him in his arms and gave him a kiss. He arose, and came to his father. But while he was still far off, his father saw him, and was moved with compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
And he arose, and came to his father. But when he was yet a great way off, his father saw him, and had compassion, and ran, and fell on his neck, and kissed him.
- 21 And his son said to him, Father, I have done wrong, against heaven and in your eyes: I am no longer good enough to be named your son. The son said to him, `Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in your sight. I am no more worthy to be called your son.`
And the son said to him, Father, I have sinned against heaven, and in thy sight, and am no more worthy to be called thy son.
- 22 But the father said to his servants, Get out the first robe quickly, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand and shoes on his feet: But the father said to his servants, `Bring out the best robe, and put it on him. Put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet.
But the father said to his servants, Bring forth the best robe, and put it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes on his feet:
- 23 And get the fat young ox and put it to death, and let us have a feast, and be glad. Bring the fattened calf, kill it, and let us eat, and celebrate;
And bring hither the fatted calf, and kill it; and let us eat, and be merry:
- 24 For this, my son, who was dead, is living again; he had gone away from me, and has come back. And they were full of joy. for this, my son, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.` They began to be merry.
For this my son was dead, and is alive again; he was lost, and is found. And they began to be merry.
- 25 Now the older son was in the field: and when he came near the house, the sounds of music and dancing came to his ears. Now his elder son was in the field. As he came and drew near to the house, he heard music and dancing.
Now his elder son was in the field: and as he came and drew nigh to the house, he heard music and dancing.
- 26 And he sent for one of the servants, questioning him about what it might be. He called one of the servants to him, and asked what was going on.
And he called one of the servants, and asked what these things meant.

- 27 And he said to him, Your brother has come; and your father has had the young ox put to death because he has come back safely.
He said to him, `Your brother has come, and your father has killed the fattened calf, because he has received him safe and sound.`
And he said to him, Thy brother is come; and thy father hath killed the fatted calf, because he hath received him in health.
- 28 But he was angry and would not go in; and his father came out and made a request to him to come in.
But he was angry, and would not go in. Therefore his father came out, and begged him.
And he was angry, and would not go in; therefore his father came out, and entreated him.
- 29 But he made answer and said to his father, See, all these years I have been your servant, doing your orders in everything: and you never gave me even a young goat so that I might have a feast with my friends:
But he answered his father, `Behold, these many years I served you, and I never disobeyed a commandment of yours, and you never gave me a goat, that I might celebrate with my friends.
And he answering, said to his father, Lo, these many years do I serve thee, neither have I at any time transgressed thy commandment; and yet thou never gavest me a kid, that I might make merry with my friends:
- 30 But when this your son came, who has been wasting your property with bad women, you put to death the fat young ox for him.
But when this, your son, came, who has devoured your living with prostitutes, you killed the fattened calf for him.`
But as soon as this thy son had come, who hath devoured thy living with harlots, thou hast killed for him the fatted calf.
- 31 And he said to him, Son, you are with me at all times, and all I have is yours.
He said to him, `Son, you are always with me, and all that is mine is yours.
And he said to him, Son, thou art ever with me: and all that I have is thine.
- 32 But it was right to be glad and to have a feast; for this your brother, who was dead, is living again; he had gone away and has come back.
But it was appropriate to celebrate and be glad, for this, your brother, was dead, and is alive again. He was lost, and is found.`"
It was meet that we should make merry, and be glad: for this thy brother was dead, and is alive again; and was lost, and is found.

- 1 And another time he said to the disciples, There was a certain man of great wealth who had a servant; and it was said to him that this servant was wasting his goods.
He said also to his disciples, "There was a certain rich man, who had a manager. The same was accused to him of wasting his possessions.
And he said also to his disciples, There was a certain rich man who had a steward; and the same was accused to him that he had wasted his goods.
- 2 And he sent for him and said, What is this which is said about you? give me an account of all you have done, for you will no longer be the manager of my property.
He called him, and said to him, `What is this that I hear about you? Give an accounting of your management, for you can no longer be manager.`
And he called him, and said to him, How is it that I hear this of thee? give an account of thy stewardship: for thou mayest be no longer steward.
- 3 And the servant said to himself, What am I to do now that my lord takes away my position? I have not enough strength for working in the fields, and I would be shamed if I made requests for money from people in the streets.
The steward said within himself, `What will I do, seeing that my lord is taking away the management position from me? I don't have strength to dig. I am ashamed to beg.
Then the steward said within himself, What shall I do? for my lord taketh from me the stewardship: I cannot dig; I am ashamed to beg.
- 4 I have come to a decision what to do, so that when I am put out of my position they will take me into their houses.
I know what I will do, so that when I am removed from management, they may receive me into their houses.`
I am resolved what to do, that when I am removed from the stewardship, they may receive me into their houses.
- 5 And sending for every one who was in debt to his lord he said to the first, What is the amount of your debt to my lord?
Calling each one of his lord's debtors to him, he said to the first, `How much do you owe to my lord?`
So he called every one of his lord's debtors, and said to the first, How much owest thou to my lord?
- 6 And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said, Take your account straight away and put down fifty.
He said, `A hundred batos of oil.` He said to him, `Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write fifty.`
And he said, A hundred measures of oil. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and sit down quickly, and write fifty.

7 Then he said to another, What is the amount of your debt? And he said, A hundred measures of grain. And he said to him, Take your account and put down eighty.
Then said he to another, `How much do you owe?` He said, `A hundred cors of wheat.` He said to him, `Take your bill, and write eighty.`

Then said he to another, And how much owest thou? And he said, A hundred measures of wheat. And he said to him, Take thy bill, and write eighty.

8 And his lord was pleased with the false servant, because he had been wise; for the sons of this world are wiser in relation to their generation than the sons of light.

His lord commended the unrighteous steward because he had done wisely, for the sons of this world are, in their own generation, wiser than the sons of the light.

And the lord commended the unjust steward, because he had done wisely: for the children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.

9 And I say to you, Make friends for yourselves through the wealth of this life, so that when it comes to an end, you may be taken into the eternal resting-places.

I tell you, make for yourselves friends by means of unrighteous mammon, so that when you fail, they may receive you into the eternal tents.

And I say to you, Make to yourselves friends of the mammon of unrighteousness; that when ye fail, they may receive you into everlasting habitations.

10 He who is true in a little, is true in much; he who is false in small things, is false in great.

He who is faithful in a very little is faithful also in much. He who is unrighteous in a very little is also unrighteous in much.

He that is faithful in that which is least, is faithful also in much; and he that is unjust in the least, is unjust also in much.

11 If, then, you have not been true in your use of the wealth of this life, who will give into your care the true wealth?

If therefore you have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

If therefore ye have not been faithful in the unrighteous mammon, who will commit to your trust the true riches?

12 And if you have not been true in your care of the property of other people, who will give you that which is yours?

If you have not been faithful in that which is another`s, who will give you that which is your own?

And if ye have not been faithful in that which is another man's, who will give you that which is your own?

- 13 No man may be a servant to two masters: for he will have hate for the one and love for the other; or he will keep to the one and have no respect for the other. You may not be servants of God and of wealth.
No servant can serve two masters, for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to one, and despise the other. You aren't able to serve God and mammon.
No servant can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.
- 14 And the Pharisees, who had a great love of money, hearing these things, were making sport of him.
The Pharisees, who were lovers of money, also heard all these things, and they scoffed at him.
And the Pharisees also, who were covetous, heard all these things, and they derided him.
- 15 And he said, You take care to seem right in the eyes of men, but God sees your hearts: and those things which are important in the opinion of men, are evil in the eyes of God.
He said to them, "You are those who justify yourselves in the sight of men, but God knows your hearts. For that which is exalted among men is an abomination in the sight of God.
And he said to them, Ye are they who justify yourselves before men; but God knoweth your hearts: for that which is highly esteemed among men, is abomination in the sight of God.
- 16 The law and the prophets were till John: but then came the preaching of the kingdom of God, and everyone makes his way into it by force.
The law and the prophets were until John. From that time the gospel of the kingdom of God is preached, and everyone is forcing his way into it.
The law and the prophets were until John: since that time the kingdom of God is preached, and every man presseth into it.
- 17 But heaven and earth will come to an end before the smallest letter of the law may be dropped out.
But it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than for one tiny stroke of a pen in the law to fail.
And it is easier for heaven and earth to pass away, than one tittle of the law to fail.
- 18 Everyone who puts away his wife and takes another, is a false husband: and he who is married to a woman whose husband has put her away, is no true husband to her.
Everyone who divorces his wife, and marries another, commits adultery. He who marries one who is put away from a husband commits adultery.
Whoever putteth away his wife, and marrieth another, committeth adultery; and whoever marrieth her that is put away from her husband, committeth adultery.

- 19 Now there was a certain man of great wealth, who was dressed in fair clothing of purple and delicate linen, and was shining and glad every day.
"Now there was a certain rich man, and he was clothed in purple and fine linen, living in luxury every day.
There was a certain rich man, who was clothed in purple and fine linen, and fared sumptuously every day:
- 20 And a certain poor man, named Lazarus, was stretched out at his door, full of wounds,
A certain beggar, named Lazarus, was laid at his gate, full of sores,
And there was a certain beggar named Lazarus, who was laid at his gate, full of sores,
- 21 Desiring the broken bits of food which came from the table of the man of wealth; and even the dogs came and put their tongues on his wounds.
and desiring to be fed with the crumbs that fell from the rich man`s table. Yes, even the dogs came and licked his sores.
And desiring to be fed with the crumbs which fell from the rich man's table: moreover, the dogs came and licked his sores.
- 22 And in time the poor man came to his end, and angels took him to Abraham's breast. And the man of wealth came to his end, and was put in the earth.
It happened that the beggar died, and that he was carried away by the angels to Abraham`s bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried.
And it came to pass, that the beggar died, and was carried by angels into Abraham's bosom. The rich man also died, and was buried:
- 23 And in hell, being in great pain, lifting up his eyes he saw Abraham, far away, and Lazarus on his breast.
In Hades, he lifted up his eyes, being in torment, and saw Abraham far off, and Lazarus at his bosom.
And in hell he lifted up his eyes, being in torments, and seeth Abraham afar off, and Lazarus in his bosom.
- 24 And he gave a cry and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me and send Lazarus, so that he may put the end of his finger in water and put it on my tongue, for I am cruelly burning in this flame.
He cried and said, `Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue! For I am in anguish in this flame.`
And he cried, and said, Father Abraham, have mercy on me, and send Lazarus, that he may dip the tip of his finger in water, and cool my tongue: for I am tormented in this flame.

- 25 But Abraham said, Keep in mind, my son, that when you were living, you had your good things, while Lazarus had evil things: but now, he is comforted and you are in pain.
But Abraham said, `Son, remember that you, in your lifetime, received your good things, and Lazarus, in like manner, bad things. But now here he is comforted and you are in anguish.
But Abraham said, Son, remember that thou in thy life-time receivedst thy good things, and likewise Lazarus evil things: but now he is comforted, and thou art tormented.
- 26 And in addition, there is a deep division fixed between us and you, so that those who might go from here to you are not able to do so, and no one may come from you to us.
Besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed, that those who want to pass from here to you are not able, and that none may cross over from there to us.`
And besides all this, between us and you there is a great gulf fixed: so that they who would pass from hence to you, cannot; neither can they pass to us, that would come from thence.
- 27 And he said, Father, it is my request that you will send him to my father's house;
He said, `I ask you therefore, father, that you would send him to my father`s house;
Then he said, I pray thee therefore, father, that thou wouldst send him to my father's house:
- 28 For I have five brothers; and let him give them an account of these things, so that they may not come to this place of pain.
for I have five brothers, that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.`
For I have five brethren; that he may testify to them, lest they also come into this place of torment.
- 29 But Abraham said, They have Moses and the prophets; let them give ear to what they say.
But Abraham said to him, `They have Moses and the prophets. Let them listen to them.`
Abraham saith to him, They have Moses and the prophets; let them hear them.
- 30 And he said, No, father Abraham, but if someone went to them from the dead, their hearts would be changed.
He said, `No, father Abraham, but if one goes to them from the dead, they will repent.`
And he said, No, father Abraham: but if one shall go to them from the dead, they will repent.

- 31 And he said to him, If they will not give attention to Moses and the prophets, they will not be moved even if someone comes back from the dead.
He said to him, `If they don't listen to Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded if one rises from the dead.`"
And he said to him, If they hear not Moses and the prophets, neither will they be persuaded, though one shall rise from the dead.
- 1 And he said to his disciples, It is necessary for causes of trouble to come about, but unhappy is he by whom they come.
He said to the disciples, "It is impossible that occasions of stumbling should not come, but woe to him through whom they come
Then he said to the disciples, It is impossible but that causes of sin will come: but woe to him by whom they come!
- 2 It would be well for him if a great stone was put round his neck and he was dropped into the sea, before he made trouble for any of these little ones.
It would be better for him if a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he were thrown into the sea, rather than that he should cause one of these little ones to stumble.
It were better for him that a millstone were hanged about his neck, and he cast into the sea, than that he should cause one of these little ones to fall into sin.
- 3 Give attention to yourselves: if your brother does wrong, say a sharp word to him; and if he has sorrow for his sin, let him have forgiveness.
Be careful. If your brother sins against you, rebuke him. If he repents, forgive him.
Take heed to yourselves: If thy brother shall trespass against thee, rebuke him; and if he shall repent forgive him.
- 4 And if he does you wrong seven times in a day, and seven times comes to you and says, I have regret for what I have done; let him have forgiveness.
If he sins against you seven times in the day, and seven times turns again, saying, `I repent,` you shall forgive him."
And if he shall trespass against thee seven times in a day, and seven times in a day shall turn again to thee, saying, I repent; thou shalt forgive him.
- 5 And the twelve said to the Lord, Make our faith greater.
The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."
And the apostles said to the Lord, Increase our faith.

- 6 And the Lord said, If your faith was only as great as a grain of mustard seed, you might say to this tree, Be rooted up and planted in the sea; and it would be done.
The Lord said, "If you had faith as a grain of mustard seed, you would tell this sycamore tree, `Be uprooted, and be planted in the sea,` and it would obey you.
And the Lord said, If ye had faith as a grain of mustard-seed, ye might say to this sycamine-tree, Be thou plucked up by the root, and be thou planted in the sea; and it would obey you.
- 7 But which of you, having a servant who is ploughing or keeping sheep, will say to him, when he comes in from the field, Come now and be seated and have a meal,
But who is there of you, having a servant plowing or keeping sheep, that will say, when he comes in from the field, `Come immediately and sit down at the table,`
But which of you having a servant plowing, or feeding cattle, will say to him immediately, when he is come from the field, Go and sit down to eat?
- 8 Will he not say, Get a meal for me, and make yourself ready and see to my needs till I have had my food and drink; and after that you may have yours?
and will not rather tell him, `Prepare my supper, clothe yourself properly, and serve me, while I eat and drink. Afterward you will eat and drink?`
And will not rather say to him, Make ready wherewith I may sup, and gird thyself, and serve me, till I have eaten and drank; and afterward thou shalt eat and drink?
- 9 Does he give praise to the servant because he did what was ordered?
Does he thank that servant because he did the things that were commanded? I think not.
Doth he thank that servant, because he did the things that were commanded him? I suppose not.
- 10 In the same way, when you have done all the things which are given you to do, say, There is no profit in us, for we have only done what we were ordered to do.
Even so you also, when you have done all the things that are commanded you, say, `We are unworthy servants. We have done our duty.`"
So likewise ye, when ye shall have done all the things which are commanded you, say, We are unprofitable servants: we have done that which it was our duty to do.
- 11 And it came about that when they were on the way to Jerusalem he went through Samaria and Galilee.
It happened, as he was on his way to Jerusalem, that he was passing along the borders of Samaria and Galilee.
And it came to pass, as he went to Jerusalem, that he passed through the midst of Samaria and Galilee.

- 12 And when he went into a certain small town he came across ten men who were lepers, and they, keeping themselves at a distance,
As he entered into a certain village, ten men who were lepers met him, who stood far away.
And as he entered into a certain village, there met him ten men that were lepers, who stood at a distance.
- 13 Said, in loud voices, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
They lifted up their voices, saying, "Jesus, Master, have mercy on us!"
And they lifted up their voices, and said, Jesus, Master, have mercy on us.
- 14 And when he saw them he said, Go, and let the priests see you. And, while they were going, they were made clean.
When he saw them, he said to them, "Go and show yourselves to the priests." It happened, as they went, they were cleansed.
And when he saw them, he said to them, Go, show yourselves to the priests. And it came to pass, that as they were going, they were cleansed.
- 15 And one of them, when he saw that he was clean, turning back, gave praise to God in a loud voice;
One of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, glorifying God with a loud voice.
And one of them, when he saw that he was healed, turned back, and with a loud voice glorified God,
- 16 And, falling down on his face at the feet of Jesus, he gave the credit to him; and he was a man of Samaria.
He fell on his face at his feet, giving him thanks. He was a Samaritan.
And fell down on his face at his feet, giving him thanks: and he was a Samaritan.
- 17 And Jesus said, Were there not ten men who were made clean? where are the nine?
Jesus answered, "Weren't the ten cleansed? But where are the nine?"
And Jesus answering said, Were there not ten cleansed? but where are the nine?
- 18 Have not any of them come back to give glory to God, but only this one from a strange land?
Were there none found who returned to give glory to God, except this stranger?"
There are not found returning to give glory to God, save this stranger.

- 19 And he said to him, Get up, and go on your way; your faith has made you well.
He said to him, "Get up, and go your way. Your faith has healed you."
And he said to him, Arise, depart: thy faith hath made thee whole.
- 20 And when the Pharisees put questions to him about when the kingdom of God would come, he gave them an answer and said, The kingdom of God will not come through observation:
Being asked by the Pharisees when the kingdom of God would come, he answered them, "The kingdom of God doesn't come with observation;
And when he was asked by the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation.
- 21 And men will not say, See, it is here! or, There! for the kingdom of God is among you.
neither will they say, `Look, here!` or, `Look, there!` for behold, the kingdom of God is within you."
Neither will they say, Lo here! or lo there! for behold, the kingdom of God is within you.
- 22 And he said to his disciples, The time will come when you will have a great desire to see one of the days of the Son of man, but you will not see it.
He said to the disciples, "The days will come, when you will desire to see one of the days of the Son of Man, and you will not see it.
And he said to his disciples, The days will come, when ye will desire to see one of the days of the son of man, and ye shall not see it.
- 23 And if they say to you, See, it is there! or, It is here! do not go away, or go after them.
They will tell you, `Look, here!` or `Look, there!` Don't go away, nor follow after them,
And they will say to you, See here; or, see there: go not after them, nor follow them.
- 24 For as in a thunderstorm the bright light is seen from one end of the sky to the other, so will the Son of man be when his time comes.
for as the lightning, when it flashes out of the one part under the sky, shines to the other part under the sky; so will the Son of Man be in his day.
For as the lightning that lighteneth from the one part under heaven, shineth to the other part under heaven; so shall also the Son of man be in his day.

- 25 But first, he will have to undergo much and be put on one side by this generation.
But first, he must suffer many things and be rejected by this generation.
But first he must suffer many things, and be rejected by this generation.
- 26 And as it was in the days of Noah, so will it be in the day of the Son of man.
As it happened in the days of Noah, even so will it be also in the days of the Son of Man.
And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man.
- 27 They were feasting and taking wives and getting married, till the day of the overflowing of the waters, when Noah went into the ark, and they all came to destruction.
They ate, they drank, they married, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.
They ate, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark; and the flood came, and destroyed them all.
- 28 In the same way, in the days of Lot; they were feasting and trading, they were planting and building;
Likewise, even as it happened in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;
Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot: they ate, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they built;
- 29 But on the day when Lot went out of Sodom, fire came down from heaven and destruction came on them all.
but in the day that Lot went out from Sodom, it rained fire and sulfur from the sky, and destroyed them all.
But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom, it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all:
- 30 So will it be in the day of the revelation of the Son of man.
It will be the same way in the day that the Son of Man is revealed.
Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed.
- 31 On that day, if anyone is on the roof of the house, and his goods are in the house, let him not go down to take them away; and let him who is in the field not go back to his house.
In that day, he who will be on the housetop, and his goods in the house, let him not go down to take them away. Let him who is in the field likewise not turn back.
In that day, he who shall be upon the house-top, and his furniture in the house, let him not come down to take it away: and he that is in the field, let him likewise not return back.

32 Keep in mind Lot's wife.

Remember Lot's wife!

Remember Lot's wife.

33 If anyone makes an attempt to keep his life, it will be taken from him, but if anyone gives up his life, he will keep it.

Whoever seeks to gain his life loses it, but whoever loses his life preserves it.

Whoever shall seek to save his life, shall lose it; and whoever shall lose his life, shall preserve it.

34 I say to you, In that night there will be two men sleeping in one bed, and one will be taken away and the other let go.

I tell you, in that night there will be two people in one bed. The one will be taken, and the other will be left.

I tell you, in that night there will be two men in one bed; the one will be taken, and the other will be left.

35 Two women will be crushing grain together; one will be taken away and the other let go.

There will be two women grinding together. The one will be taken, and the other will be left."

Two women will be grinding together; the one will be taken, and the other left.

37 And they, answering him, said, Where, Lord? And he said to them, Where the body is, there will the eagles come together.

They answering, asked him, "Where, Lord?" He said to them, "Where the body is, there will the vultures also be gathered together."

And they answered and said to him, Where Lord? And he said to them, Wherever the body is, thither will the eagles be collected.

1 And he made a story for them, the point of which was that men were to go on making prayer and not get tired;

He also spoke a parable to them that they must always pray, and not give up,

And he spoke a parable to them to this end, that men ought always to pray, and not to faint;

2 Saying, There was a judge in a certain town, who had no fear of God or respect for man:

saying, "A certain judge was in a city, who didn't fear God, and didn't respect man.

Saying, There was in a city a judge, who feared not God, neither regarded man.

- 3 And there was a widow in that town, and she kept on coming to him and saying, Give me my right against the man who has done me wrong.
A widow was in that city, and she came often to him, saying, `Defend me from my adversary!`
And there was a widow in that city; and she came to him, saying, Avenge me of my adversary.
- 4 And for a time he would not: but later, he said to himself, Though I have no fear of God or respect for man,
He wouldn't for a while, but afterward he said to himself, `Though I don't fear God, nor respect man,
And he would not for a while: but afterward he said within himself, Though I fear not God, nor regard man;
- 5 Because this widow is a trouble to me, I will give her her right; for if not, I will be completely tired out by her frequent coming.
yet because this widow bothers me, I will defend her, or else she will wear me out by her continual coming.`"
Yet because this widow troubleth me, I will avenge her, lest by her continual coming she weary me.
- 6 And the Lord said, Give ear to the words of the evil judge.
The Lord said, "Listen to what the unrighteous judge says.
And the Lord said, Hear what the unjust judge saith.
- 7 And will not God do right in the cause of his saints, whose cries come day and night to his ears, though he is long in doing it?
Won't God avenge his elect, who are crying out to him day and night, and yet he exercises patience with them?
And will not God avenge his own elect, who cry day and night to him, though he beareth long with them?
- 8 I say to you that he will quickly do right in their cause. But when the Son of man comes, will there be any faith on earth?
I tell you that he will avenge them quickly. Nevertheless, when the Son of Man comes, will he find faith on the earth?"
I tell you that he will avenge them speedily. Nevertheless, when the Son of man cometh, will he find faith on the earth?
- 9 And he made this story for some people who were certain that they were good, and had a low opinion of others:
He spoke also this parable to certain people who were convinced of their own righteousness, and who despised all others.
And he spoke this parable to certain who trusted in themselves that they were righteous, and despised others:

- 10 Two men went up to the Temple for prayer; one a Pharisee, and the other a tax-farmer.
"Two men went up into the temple to pray; one was a Pharisee, and the other was a tax collector.
Two men went up into the temple to pray; the one a Pharisee, and the other a publican.
- 11 The Pharisee, taking up his position, said to himself these words: God, I give you praise because I am not like other men, who take more than their right, who are evil-doers, who are untrue to their wives, or even like this tax-farmer.
The Pharisee stood and prayed to himself like this: `God, I thank you, that I am not like the rest of men, extortioners, unrighteous, adulterers, or even like this tax collector.
The Pharisee stood and prayed thus with himself, God, I thank thee, that I am not as other men are, extortioners, unjust, adulterers, or even as this publican.
- 12 Twice in the week I go without food; I give a tenth of all I have.
I fast twice in the week. I give tithes of all that I get.`
I fast twice in the week, I give tithes of all that I possess.
- 13 The tax-farmer, on the other hand, keeping far away, and not lifting up even his eyes to heaven, made signs of grief and said, God, have mercy on me, a sinner.
But the tax collector, standing far away, wouldn't even lift up as his eyes to heaven, but beat his breast, saying, `God, be merciful to me, a sinner!'
And the publican, standing afar off, would not lift up so much as his eyes to heaven, but smote upon his breast, saying, God be merciful to me a sinner.
- 14 I say to you, This man went back to his house with God's approval, and not the other: for everyone who makes himself high will be made low and whoever makes himself low will be made high.
I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other; for everyone who exalts himself will be humbled, but he who humbles himself will be exalted."
I tell you, this man went down to his house justified rather than the other: for every one that exalteth himself shall be abased; and he that humbleth himself shall be exalted.
- 15 And they took their children to him, so that he might put his hands on them: but when the disciples saw it, they said sharp words to them
They were also bringing their babies to him, that he might touch them. But when the disciples saw it, they rebuked them.
And they brought to him also infants, that he would touch them: but when his disciples saw it, they rebuked them.

- 16 But Jesus sent for them, saying, Let the children come to me, and do not keep them away, for of such is the kingdom of heaven.
Jesus called them near, saying, "Allow the little children to come to me, and don't hinder them, for the kingdom of God belongs to ones like these.
But Jesus called them to him, and said, Suffer little children to come to me, and forbid them not: for of such is the kingdom of God.
- 17 Truly I say to you, Whoever does not put himself under the kingdom of God like a little child, will not come into it at all.
Most assuredly, I tell you, whoever doesn't receive the kingdom of God like a little child, he will in no way enter into it."
Verily I say to you, Whoever shall not receive the kingdom of God as a little child, shall in no wise enter into it.
- 18 And a certain ruler put a question to him, saying, Good Master, what have I to do so that I may have eternal life?
A certain ruler asked him, saying, "Good Teacher, what do I do to inherit eternal life?"
And a certain ruler asked him, saying, Good Master, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?
- 19 And Jesus said to him, Why do you say that I am good? No one is good, but only God.
Jesus asked him, "Why do you call me good? No one is good, except one -- God.
And Jesus said to him, Why callest thou me good? none is good, save one, that is God.
- 20 You have knowledge of what the law says: Do not be untrue to your wife, Do not put anyone to death, Do not take what is not yours, Do not give false witness, Give honour to your father and mother.
You know the commandments: `Don't commit adultery,` `Don't murder,` `Don't steal,` `Don't give false testimony,` `Honor your father and your mother.`"
Thou knowest the commandments, Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honor thy father and thy mother.
- 21 And he said, All these things I have done from the time when I was a boy.
He said, "I have observed all these things from my youth up."
And he said, All these have I kept from my youth.

- 22 And Jesus, hearing it, said to him, One thing you still have need of; get money for your goods, and give it away to the poor, and you will have wealth in heaven; and come after me.
When Jesus heard these things, he said to him, "You still lack one thing. Sell all that you have, and distribute it to the poor. You will have treasure in heaven. Come, follow me."
Now when Jesus heard these things, he said to him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute to the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.
- 23 But at these words he became very sad, for he had great wealth.
But when he heard these things, he became very sad, for he was very rich.
And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.
- 24 And Jesus, looking at him, said, How hard it is for those who have wealth to get into the kingdom of God!
Jesus, seeing that he became very sad, said, "How hard it is for those who have riches to enter into the kingdom of God!
And when Jesus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly will they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!
- 25 It is simpler for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, than for a man who has much money to come into the kingdom of God.
For it is easier for a camel to enter in through a needle`s eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God."
For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.
- 26 And those who were present said, Then who may have salvation?
Those who heard it said, "Then who can be saved?"
And they that heard it, said, Who then can be saved?
- 27 But he said, Things which are not possible with man are possible with God.
But he said, "The things which are impossible with men are possible with God."
Then he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.
- 28 And Peter said, See, we have given up what is ours to come after you.
Peter said, "Look, we have left everything, and followed you."
Then Peter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

- 29 And he said to them, Truly I say to you, There is no man who has given up house or wife or brothers or father or mother or children, because of the kingdom of God,
He said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, there is no one who has left house, or wife, or brothers, or parents, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,
And he said to them, Verily I say to you, there is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children for the sake of the kingdom of God,
- 30 Who will not get much more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life.
who will not receive many times more in this time, and in the world to come, eternal life."
Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.
- 31 And he took with him the twelve and said to them, Now we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things which were said by the prophets will be done to the Son of man.
He took the twelve aside, and said to them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and all the things that are written through the prophets concerning the Son of Man will be completed.
Then he took the twelve, and said to them, Behold, we go up to Jerusalem, and all things that are written by the prophets concerning the Son of man shall be accomplished.
- 32 For he will be given up to the Gentiles, and will be made sport of and put to shame:
For he will be delivered up to the Gentiles, will be mocked, treated shamefully, and spit on.
For he will be delivered to the Gentiles, and will be mocked, and spitefully treated, and spitted on;
- 33 And he will be given cruel blows and put to death, and on the third day he will come back to life.
They will scourge and kill him. On the third day, he will rise again."
And they will scourge him, and put him to death: and the third day he will rise again.
- 34 But they did not take in the sense of any of these words, and what he said was not clear to them, and their minds were not able to see it.
They understood none of these things. This saying was hidden from them, and they didn't understand the things that were said.
And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.

- 35 And it came about that when he got near Jericho, a certain blind man was seated by the side of the road, making requests for money from those who went by.
It happened, as he came near Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the road, begging.
And it came to pass, that as he had come nigh to Jericho, a certain blind man sat by the way side begging;
- 36 And hearing the sound of a great number of people going by, he said, What is this?
Hearing a multitude going by, he asked what this meant.
And hearing the multitude passing by, he asked what it meant.
- 37 And they said to him, Jesus of Nazareth is going by.
They told him that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.
And they told him, that Jesus of Nazareth was passing by.
- 38 And he said in a loud voice, Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me.
He cried out, "Jesus, you son of David, have mercy on me!"
And he cried, saying, Jesus, thou son of David, have mercy on me.
- 39 And those who were in front made protests and said to him, Be quiet: but he said all the more, O Son of David, have mercy on me.
Those who led the way rebuked him, that he should be quiet; but he cried out all the more, "You son of David, have mercy on me!"
And they who went before rebuked him, that he should hold his peace: but he cried so much the more, Thou son of David, have mercy on me.
- 40 And Jesus, stopping, gave orders that he was to come to him, and when he came near, he said to him,
Jesus, standing, commanded him to be brought to him. When he had come near, he asked him,
And Jesus stood and commanded him to be brought to him: and when he had come near, he asked him,
- 41 What would you have me do for you? And he said, Lord, that I may be able to see again.
"What do you want me to do?" He said, "Lord, that I may see again."
Saying, What wilt thou that I shall do to thee? And he said, Lord, that I may receive my sight.

42 And Jesus said, See again: your faith has made you well.

Jesus said to him, "Receive your sight. Your faith has healed you."

And Jesus said to him, Receive thy sight: thy faith hath saved thee.

43 And straight away he was able to see, and he went after him, giving glory to God; and all the people when they saw it gave praise to God.

Immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God. All the people, when they saw it, praised God.

And immediately he received his sight, and followed him, glorifying God: and all the people, when they saw it, gave praise to God.

1 And he went into Jericho, and when he was going through it,

He entered and was passing through Jericho.

And Jesus entered and passed through Jericho.

2 A man, named Zacchaeus, who was the chief tax-farmer, and a man of wealth,

There was a man named Zacchaeus. He was a chief tax collector, and he was rich.

And behold, there was a man named Zaccheus, who was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 Made an attempt to get a view of Jesus, and was not able to do so, because of the people, for he was a small man.

He was trying to see who Jesus was, and couldn't because of the crowd, because he was short.

And he sought to see Jesus who he was; and could not for the crowd, because he was little of stature.

4 And he went quickly in front of them and got up into a tree to see him, for he was going that way.

He ran on ahead, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him, for he was to pass that way.

And he ran before, and climbed up upon a sycamore-tree to see him; for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jesus came to the place, looking up, he said to him, Zacchaeus, be quick and come down, for I am coming to your house today.

When Jesus came to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Zacchaeus, hurry and come down, for today I must stay at your house."

And when Jesus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said to him, Zaccheus, make haste, and come down: for to-day I must abide at thy house.

- 6 And he came down quickly, and took him into his house with joy.
He hurried, came down, and received him joyfully.
And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.
- 7 And when they saw it, they were all angry, saying, He has gone into the house of a sinner.
When they saw it, they all murmured, saying, "He has gone in to lodge with a man who is a sinner."
And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.
- 8 And Zacchaeus, waiting before him, said to the Lord, See, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor, and if I have taken anything from anyone wrongly, I give him back four times as much.
Zacchaeus stood and said to the Lord, "Behold, Lord, half of my goods I give to the poor. If I have wrongfully exacted anything of anyone, I restore four times as much."
And Zaccheus stood, and said to the Lord; Behold, Lord, the half of my goods I give to the poor; and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him four-fold.
- 9 And Jesus said to him, Today salvation has come to this house, for even he is a son of Abraham.
Jesus said to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, because he also is a son of Abraham.
And Jesus said to him, This day is salvation come to this house, forasmuch as he also is a son of Abraham.
- 10 For the Son of man came to make search for those who are wandering from the way, and to be their Saviour.
For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."
For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.
- 11 And while they were giving ear to these words, he made another story for them, because he was near Jerusalem, and because they were of the opinion that the kingdom of God was coming straight away.
As they heard these things, he went on and told a parable, because he was near Jerusalem, and they supposed that the kingdom of God would be revealed immediately.
And as they heard these things, he added and spoke a parable, because he was nigh to Jerusalem, and because they thought that the kingdom of God would immediately appear.

- 12 So he said, A certain man of high birth went into a far-away country to get a kingdom for himself, and to come back.
He said therefore, "A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.
He said therefore, A certain nobleman went into a far country to receive for himself a kingdom, and to return.
- 13 And he sent for ten of his servants and gave them ten pounds and said to them, Do business with this till I come.
He called ten servants of his, and gave them ten minas, and told them, `Conduct business until I come.`
And he called his ten servants, and delivered them ten pounds, and said to them, Occupy till I come.
- 14 But his people had no love for him, and sent representatives after him, saying, We will not have this man for our ruler.
But his citizens hated him, and sent an envoy after him, saying, `We don't want this man to reign over us.`
But his citizens hated him, and sent a message after him, saying, We will not have this man to reign over us.
- 15 And when he came back again, having got his kingdom, he gave orders for those servants to whom he had given the money to come to him, so that he might have an account of what business they had done.
It happened, when he had come back again, having received the kingdom, that he commanded these servants, to whom he had given the money, to be called to him, that he might know what they had gained by conducting business.
And it came to pass, that when he had returned, having received the kingdom, then he commanded these servants to be called to him, to whom he had given the money, that he might know how much every man had gained by trading.
- 16 And the first came before him, saying, Lord, your pound has made ten pounds.
The first came before him, saying, `Lord, your mina has made ten more minas.`
Then came the first, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained ten pounds.
- 17 And he said to him, You have done well, O good servant: because you have done well in a small thing you will have authority over ten towns.
He said to him, `Well done, you good servant! Because you were found faithful in a very little, you shall have authority over ten cities.`
And he said to him, Well, thou good servant: because thou hast been faithful in a very little, have thou authority over ten cities.

- 18 And another came, saying, Your pound has made five pounds.
The second came, saying, `Your mina, Lord, has made five minas.`
And the second came, saying, Lord, thy pound hath gained five pounds.
- 19 And he said, You will be ruler over five towns.
He said to him also, `You also are to be over five cities.`
And he said likewise to him, Be thou also over five cities.
- 20 And another came, saying, Lord, here is your pound, which I put away in a cloth;
Another came, saying, `Lord, behold, your mina, which I kept laid away in a handkerchief,
And another came, saying, Lord, behold, here is thy pound, which I have kept laid up in a napkin:
- 21 Because I was in fear of you, for you are a hard man: you take up what you have not put down, and get in grain where you have not put seed.
for I feared you, because you are an exacting man. You take up that which didn't lay down, and reap that which you didn't sow.`
For I feared thee, because thou art an austere man: thou takest up what thou layedst not down, and reapest what thou didst not sow.
- 22 He said to him, By the words of your mouth you will be judged, you bad servant. You had knowledge that I am a hard man, taking up what I have not put down and getting in grain where I have not put seed;
He said to him, `Out of your own mouth will I judge you, you wicked servant! You knew that I am an exacting man, taking up that which I didn't lay down, and reaping that which I didn't sow.
And he saith to him, Out of thy own mouth will I judge thee, thou wicked servant. Thou knewest me to be an austere man, taking up what I laid not down, and reaping what I did not sow:
- 23 Why then did you not put my money in a bank, so that when I came I would get it back with interest?
Then why didn't you deposit my money in the bank, and I at my coming might have earned interest on it?
Why then gavest thou not my money into the bank, that at my coming I might have required my own with interest?

- 24 And he said to the others who were near, Take the pound away from him, and give it to the man who has ten.
He said to those who stood by, `Take the mina away from him, and give it to him who has the ten minas.`
And he said to them that stood by, Take from him the pound, and give it to him that hath ten pounds.
- 25 And they say to him, Lord, he has ten pounds.
They said to him, `Lord, he has ten minas!`
(And they said to him, Lord, he hath ten pounds.)
- 26 And I say to you that to everyone who has, more will be given, but from him who has not, even what he has will be taken away.
`For I tell you that to everyone who has, will more be given; but from him who doesn't have, even that which he has will be taken away from him.
For I say to you, That to every one who hath shall be given; and from him that hath not, even what he hath shall be taken away from him.
- 27 And as for those who were against me, who would not have me for their ruler, let them come here, and be put to death before me.
But bring those enemies of mine who didn't want me to reign over them here, and kill them before me.`"
But those my enemies, who would not that I should reign over them, bring hither, and slay them before me.
- 28 And when he had said this, he went on in front of them, going up to Jerusalem.
When he had thus spoken, he went on ahead, going up to Jerusalem.
And when he had thus spoken, he went before, ascending towards Jerusalem.
- 29 And it came about that when he got near Beth-phage and Bethany by the mountain which is named the Mountain of Olives, he sent two of the disciples,
It happened, when he drew near to Bethsphage and Bethany, at the mountain that is called Olivet, he sent two of his disciples,
And it came to pass, when he had come nigh to Bethphage and Bethany, at the mount called the mount of Olives, he sent two of his disciples,

- 30 Saying, Go into the little town in front of you, and on going in you will see a young ass fixed with a cord, on which no man has ever been seated; let him loose and take him.
saying, "Go your way into the village on the other side, in which, as you enter, you will find a colt tied, whereon no man ever yet sat. Untie him, and bring him.
Saying, Go ye into the village over against you; in which at your entering ye will find a colt tied, on which yet never man sat: loose him, and bring him hither.
- 31 And if anyone says to you, Why are you taking him? say, The Lord has need of him.
If anyone asks you, `Why are you untying it?` say to him: `The Lord needs it.`"
And if any man shall ask you, Why do ye loose him? thus shall ye say to him, Because the Lord hath need of him.
- 32 And those whom he sent went away, and it was as he said.
Those who were sent went away, and found things just as he had told them.
And they that were sent, went and found even as he had said to them.
- 33 And when they were getting the young ass, the owners of it said to them, Why are you taking the young ass?
As they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, `Why are you untying the colt?`
And as they were loosing the colt, the owners of it said to them, Why loose ye the colt?
- 34 And they said, The Lord has need of him.
They said, `The Lord needs it.`
And they said, The Lord hath need of him.
- 35 And they took him to Jesus, and they put their clothing on the ass, and Jesus got on to him.
They brought it to Jesus. They threw their cloaks on the colt, and set Jesus on them.
And they brought him to Jesus: and they cast their garments upon the colt, and they set Jesus upon him.
- 36 And while he went on his way they put their clothing down on the road in front of him.
As he went, they spread their cloaks in the way.
And as he went, they spread their clothes in the way.

- 37 And when he came near the foot of the Mountain of Olives, all the disciples with loud voices gave praise to God with joy, because of all the great works which they had seen;
As he was now getting near, at the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice for all the mighty works which they had seen,
And when he had come nigh, even now at the descent of the mount of Olives, the whole multitude of the disciples began to rejoice and praise God with a loud voice, for all the mighty works that they had seen.
- 38 Saying, A blessing on the King who comes in the name of the Lord; peace in heaven and glory in the highest.
saying, "Blessed is the King who comes in the name of the Lord! Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!"
Saying, Blessed be the King that cometh in the name of the Lord: Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest.
- 39 And some of the Pharisees among the people said to him, Master, make your disciples be quiet.
Some of the Pharisees from the multitude said to him, "Teacher, rebuke your disciples!"
And some of the Pharisees from among the multitude said to him, Master, rebuke thy disciples.
- 40 And he said in answer, I say to you, if these men keep quiet, the very stones will be crying out.
He answered them, "I tell you that if these were silent, the stones would cry out."
And he answered and said to them, I tell you, that if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.
- 41 And when he got near and saw the town, he was overcome with weeping for it,
When he drew near, he saw the city and wept over it,
And when he had come near, he beheld the city, and wept over it,
- 42 Saying, If you, even you, had knowledge today, of the things which give peace! but you are not able to see them.
saying, "If you, even you, had known today the things which belong to your peace! But now, they are hidden from your eyes.
Saying, If thou hadst known, even thou, at least in this thy day, the things which belong to thy peace! but now they are hid from thy eyes.

- 43 For the time will come when your attackers will put a wall round you, and come all round you and keep you in on every side,
For the days will come on you, when your enemies will throw up a barricade against you, surround you, hem you in on every side,
For the days shall come upon thee, that thy enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and encompass thee, and keep thee in on every side,
- 44 And will make you level with the earth, and your children with you; and there will not be one stone resting on another in you, because you did not see that it was your day of mercy.
and will dash you and your children within you to the ground. They will not leave in you one stone on another, because you didn't know the time of your visitation."
And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee: and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another: because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.
- 45 And he went into the Temple and put out those who were trading there,
He entered into the temple, and began to drive out those who bought and sold in it,
And he went into the temple, and began to cast out them that sold in it, and them that bought,
- 46 Saying to them, It has been said, My house is to be a house of prayer, but you have made it a hole of thieves.
saying to them, "It is written, `My house is a house of prayer,` but you have made it a `den of robbers`!"
Saying to them, It is written, My house is the house of prayer, but ye have made it a den of thieves.
- 47 And every day he was teaching in the Temple. But the chief priests and the scribes and the rulers of the people were attempting to put him to death;
He was teaching daily in the temple, but the chief priests and the scribes and the leading men among the people sought to destroy him.
And he taught daily in the temple. But the chief priests, and the scribes, and the chief of the people sought to destroy him,
- 48 But they were not able to do anything, because the people all kept near him, being greatly interested in his words.
They couldn't find what they might do, for all the people hung on to every word that he said.
And could not find what they might do: for all the people were very attentive to hear him.

1 And it came about on one of those days, when he was teaching the people in the Temple and preaching the good news,
It happened on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple and preaching the gospel, that the chief priests and scribes came to him with the elders.

And it came to pass, that on one of those days, as he was teaching the people in the temple, and preaching the gospel, the chief priests and the scribes came upon him, with the elders,

2 That the chief priests and the scribes and the rulers of the people came to him and said, Make clear to us by what authority you do these things and who gave you this authority.

They asked him, "Tell us: by what authority do you do these things? Or who is giving you this authority?"

And spoke to him, saying, Tell us, By what authority doest thou these things? or who is he that gave thee this authority?

3 And in answer he said to them, I will put a question to you, and do you give me an answer:

He answered them, "I also will ask you one question. Tell me:

And he answered and said to them, I will also ask you one thing; and answer me:

4 The baptism of John, was it from heaven or of men?

the baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?"

The baptism of John, was it from heaven, or from men?

5 And they said among themselves, If we say, From heaven; he will say, Why did you not have faith in him?

They reasoned with themselves, saying, "If we say, `From heaven,` he will say, `Why didn't you believe him?`

And they reasoned with themselves, saying, If we shall say, From heaven; he will say, Why then believed ye him not?

6 But if we say, Of men; we will be stoned by the people, for they are certain that John was a prophet.

But if we say, `From men,` all the people will stone us, for they are persuaded that John was a prophet."

But if we say, From men; all the people will stone us: for they are persuaded that John was a prophet.

7 And they made answer that they had no idea where it came from.

They answered that they didn't know where it was from.

And they answered, that they could not tell whence it was.

- 8 And Jesus said, And I will not make clear to you by what authority I do these things.
Jesus said to them, "Neither will I tell you by what authority I do these things."
And Jesus said to them, Neither do I tell you by what authority I do these things.
- 9 And he gave the people this story: A man made a vine-garden and gave the use of it to some field-workers and went into another country for a long time.
He began to tell the people this parable. "A man planted a vineyard, and rented it out to some farmers, and went into another country for a long time.
Then he began to speak to the people this parable; A certain man planted a vineyard, and let it to husbandmen, and went into a far country for a long time.
- 10 And at the right time he sent a servant to the workers to get part of the fruit from the vines; but the workmen gave him blows and sent him away with nothing.
At the proper season, he sent a servant to the farmers to collect his share of the fruit of the vineyard. But the farmers beat him, and sent him away empty.
And at the season he sent a servant to the husbandmen, that they should give him of the fruit of the vineyard: but the husbandmen beat him, and sent him away empty.
- 11 And he sent another servant, and they gave blows to him in the same way, and put shame on him, and sent him away with nothing.
He sent yet another servant, and they also beat him, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
And again he sent another servant: and they beat him also, and treated him shamefully, and sent him away empty.
- 12 And he sent a third, and they gave him wounds and put him out.
He sent yet a third, and they also wounded him, and threw him out.
And again he sent the third: and they wounded him also, and cast him out.
- 13 And the lord of the garden said, What am I to do? I will send my dearly loved son; they may give respect to him.
The lord of the vineyard said, `What will I do? I will send my beloved son. It may be that seeing him, they will respect him.`
Then said the lord of the vineyard, What shall I do? I will send my beloved son: it may be when they see him they will reverence him.

- 14 But when the workmen saw him, they said to one another, This is he who will one day be the owner of the property: let us put him to death and the heritage will be ours.
But when the farmers saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, `This is the heir. Come, let`s kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.`
But when the husbandmen saw him, they reasoned among themselves, saying, This is the heir; come, let us kill him, that the inheritance may be ours.
- 15 And driving him out of the garden they put him to death. Now what will the lord do to these workmen?
They threw him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them?
So they cast him out of the vineyard, and killed him. What therefore will the lord of the vineyard do to them?
- 16 He will come and put them to destruction and give the garden to others. And when he said this, they said, May it not be so.
He will come and destroy these farmers, and will give the vineyard to others." When they heard it, they said, "God forbid!"
He will come and destroy these husbandmen, and will give the vineyard to others. And when they heard it, they said, may that never be.
- 17 But he, looking on them, said, Is it not in the Writings, The stone which the builders put on one side, the same has become the chief stone of the building?
But he looked at them, and said, "Then what is this that is written, `The stone which the builders rejected, The same was made the chief cornerstone?`
And he beheld them, and said, What is this then that is written, The stone which the builders rejected, the same is become the head of the corner?
- 18 Everyone falling on that stone will be broken, but the man on whom the stone comes down will be crushed to dust.
"Everyone who falls on that stone will be broken to pieces, but it will crush whoever it falls on to dust."
Whoever shall fall upon that stone, shall be broken: but on whomsoever it shall fall, it will grind him to powder.
- 19 And the chief priests and the scribes made attempts to get their hands on him in that very hour; and they were in fear of the people, for they saw that he had made up this story against them.
The chief priests and the scribes sought to lay hands on Him that very hour, but they feared the people -- for they knew He had spoken this parable against them.
And the chief priests and the scribes the same hour sought to lay hands on him; and they feared the people: for they perceived that he had spoken this parable against them.

- 20 And they kept watch on him, and sent out secret representatives, who were acting the part of good men, in order that they might get something from his words, on account of which they might give him up to the government and into the power of the ruler.
They watched him, and sent out spies, who pretended to be righteous, that they might trap him in something he said, so as to deliver him up to the rule and to the authority of the governor.
And they watched him, and sent forth spies, who should feign themselves just men, that they might take hold of his words, that so they might deliver him to the power and authority of the governor.
- 21 And they put a question to him, saying, Master, we are certain that your teaching and your words are right, and that you have no respect for a man's position, but you are teaching the true way of God:
They asked him, "Teacher, we know that you say and teach what is right, and aren't partial to anyone, but truly teach the way of God.
And they asked him, saying, Master, we know that thou sayest and teachest rightly, neither acceptest thou the person of any, but teachest the way of God truly:
- 22 Is it right for us to make payment of taxes to Caesar or not?
Is it lawful for us to pay taxes to Caesar, or not?"
Is it lawful for us to give tribute to Cesar, or not?
- 23 But he saw through their trick and said to them,
But he perceived their slyness, and said to them, "Why do you test me?
But he perceived their craftiness, and said to them, Why tempt ye me?
- 24 Let me see a penny. Whose image and name are on it? And they said, Caesar's.
Show me a denarius. Whose image and inscription are on it?" They answered, "Caesar`s."
Show me a penny. Whose image and superscription hath it? They answered and said, Cesar's.
- 25 And he said, Then give to Caesar the things which are Caesar's, and to God the things which are God's.
He said to them, "Then give to Caesar the things that are Caesar`s, and to God the things that are God`s."
And he said to them, Render therefore to Cesar the things which are Cesar's, and to God the things which are God's.

- 26 And they were not able to get anything from these words before the people: but they were full of wonder at his answer, and said nothing.
They weren't able to trap him in his words before the people. They marveled at his answer, and were silent.
And they could not take hold of his words before the people: and they marveled at his answer, and held their peace.
- 27 And some of the Sadducees came to him, who say that there is no coming back from the dead; and they said to him,
Some of the Sadducees came to him, those who deny that there is a resurrection.
Then came to him certain of the Sadducees (who deny that there is any resurrection) and they asked him,
- 28 Master, Moses said that if a man's brother comes to his end, having a wife, but no children, his brother is to take the wife, and get a family for his brother.
They asked him, "Teacher, Moses wrote to us that if a man's brother dies having a wife, and he is childless, his brother should take the wife, and raise up children for his brother.
Saying, Master, Moses wrote to us, If any man's brother should die, having a wife, and he should die without children, that his brother should take his wife, and raise up seed to his brother.
- 29 Now there were seven brothers, and the first had a wife and came to his end, having no children;
There were therefore seven brothers. The first took a wife, and died childless.
There were therefore seven brothers: and the first took a wife, and died without children.
- 30 And the second;
The second took her as wife, and he died childless.
And the second took her for a wife, and he died childless.
- 31 And the third took her; and in the same way, all the seven, without having any children, came to their end.
The third took her, and likewise the seven all left no children, and died.
And the third took her; and in like manner the seven also: And they left no children, and died.
- 32 And last of all, the woman came to her end.
Afterward the woman also died.
Last of all the woman died also.

- 33 When they come back from the dead, whose wife will she be? for all the seven had her.
Therefore in the resurrection whose wife of them will she be? For the seven had her as a wife."
Therefore in the resurrection, whose wife of them is she? for seven had her to wife.
- 34 And Jesus said to them, The sons of this world are married and have wives;
Jesus said to them, "The sons of this age marry, and are given in marriage.
And Jesus answering, said to them, The children of this world marry, and are given in marriage:
- 35 But those to whom is given the reward of the world to come, and to come back from the dead, have no wives, and are not married;
But those who are considered worthy to attain to that age and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.
But they who shall be accounted worthy to obtain that world, and the resurrection from the dead, neither marry, nor are given in marriage.
- 36 And death has no more power over them, for they are equal to the angels, and are sons of God, being of those who will come back from the dead.
For neither can they die any more, for they are like the angels, and are sons of God, being sons of the resurrection.
Neither can they die any more: for they are equal to the angels; and are the children of God, being the children of the resurrection.
- 37 But even Moses made it clear that the dead come back to life, saying, in the story of the burning thorn-tree, The Lord, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
But that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he called the Lord `The God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.`
Now that the dead are raised, even Moses showed at the bush, when he calleth the Lord the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.
- 38 Now he is not the God of the dead but of the living: for all men are living to him.
Now he is not the God of the dead, but of the living, for all are alive to him."
For he is not a God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him.

39 And some of the scribes, in answer to this, said, Master, you have said well.

Some of the scribes answered, "Teacher, you speak well."

Then certain of the scribes answering, said, Master, thou hast well said.

40 And they had fear of putting any more questions to him.

They didn't dare to ask him any more questions.

And after that, they durst not ask him any question at all.

41 And he said to them, Why do they say that the Christ is the son of David?

He said to them, "Why do they say that the Christ is David's son?"

And he said to them, How say they that Christ is David's son?

42 For David himself says in the book of Psalms, The Lord said to my Lord, Take your seat at my right hand,

David himself says in the book of Psalms, `The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit at my right hand,

And David himself saith in the book of Psalms, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand, 43 Till I put under your feet all those who are against you.

Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."

Till I make thy enemies thy footstool.

44 David then gives him the name of Lord, so how is it possible for him to be his son?

"David therefore calls him Lord, so how is he his son?"

David therefore calleth him Lord, how is he then his son?

45 And in the hearing of all the people he said to his disciples,

In the hearing of all the people, he said to his disciples,

Then in the audience of all the people, he said to his disciples,

- 46 Keep away from the scribes, whose pleasure it is to go about in long robes, and to have words of respect said to them in the market-places, and to take the chief seats in the Synagogues and the first places at feasts;
"Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the marketplaces, the best seats in the synagogues, and the best places at feasts;
Beware of the scribes, who desire to walk in long robes, and love greetings in the markets, and the highest seats in the synagogues, and the chief rooms at feasts;
- 47 Who take the property of widows and before the eyes of men make long prayers; they will get a greater punishment.
who devour widows' houses, and for a pretense make long prayers: these will receive greater condemnation."
Who devour widows' houses, and for a show make long prayers: the same shall receive greater damnation.
- 1 And looking up, he saw the men of wealth putting their offerings in the money-box.
He looked up, and saw the rich people who were putting their gifts into the treasury.
And he looked up, and saw rich men casting their gifts into the treasury.
- 2 And he saw a certain poor widow putting in a farthing.
He saw a certain poor widow casting in two lepta.
And he saw also a certain poor widow, casting in thither two mites.
- 3 And he said, Truly I say to you, This poor widow has given more than all of them:
He said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow put in more than all of them,
And he said, Of a truth I say to you, that this poor widow hath cast in more than they all.
- 4 For they gave out of their wealth, having more than enough for themselves: but she, even out of her need, has put in all her living.
for all these put in gifts for God from their abundance, but she, out of her lack, put in all that she had to live on."
For all these have of their abundance cast in to the offerings of God: but she of her penury hath cast in all the living that she had.
- 5 And some were talking about the Temple, how it was made fair with beautiful stones and with offerings, but he said,
As some were talking about the temple and how it was decorated with beautiful stones and gifts, he said,
And as some spoke of the temple, that it was adorned with goodly stones, and gifts, he said,

- 6 As for these things which you see, the days will come when not one stone will be resting on another, but all will be broken down.
"As for these things which you see, the days will come, in which there will not be left here one stone on another that will not be thrown down."
As for these things which ye behold, the days will come, in which there shall not be left one stone upon another, that will not be thrown down.
- 7 And they said to him, Master, when will these things be? and what sign will there be when these events are to take place?
They asked him, "Teacher, when therefore will these things be? What is the sign that these things are about to happen?"
And they asked him, saying, Master, but when will these things be? and what sign will there be when these things shall come to pass?
- 8 And he said, Take care that you are not tricked: for a number of people will come in my name, saying, I am he; and, The time is near: do not go after them.
He said, "Watch out that you don't get led astray, for many will come in my name, saying, `I AM,` and, `The time is at hand.` Therefore don't follow them.
And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many will come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: therefore go ye not after them.
- 9 And when news of wars and troubled times comes to your ears, have no fear; for these things have to be, but the end will not be now.
When you hear of wars and disturbances, don't be terrified, for these things must happen first, but the end won't come immediately."
But when ye shall hear of wars, and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass: but the end is not immediately.
- 10 Then he said to them, Nation will be moved against nation and kingdom against kingdom:
Then he said to them, "Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom.
Then said he to them, Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom:
- 11 There will be great earth-shocks and outbursts of disease in a number of places, and men will be without food; and there will be wonders and great signs from heaven.
There will be great earthquakes, famines, and plagues in various places. There will be terrors and great signs from heaven.
And great earthquakes will be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences: and fearful sights, and great signs will there be from heaven.

- 12 But before all this, they will take you and be very cruel to you, giving you up to the Synagogues and to prisons, taking you before kings and rulers, because of my name.
But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, delivering you up to synagogues and prisons, bringing you before kings and governors for my name`s sake.
But before all these they will lay their hands on you, and persecute you, delivering you up to the synagogues, and into prisons, being brought before kings and rulers for my name's sake.
- 13 And it will be turned to a witness for you.
It will turn out as a testimony to you.
And it shall turn to you for a testimony.
- 14 So take care not to be troubled before the time comes, about what answers you will give:
Settle it therefore in your hearts not to meditate beforehand how to answer,
Settle it therefore in your hearts, not to meditate before what ye shall answer.
- 15 For I will give you words and wisdom, so that not one of those who are against you will be able to get the better of you, or to put you in the wrong.
for I will give you a mouth and wisdom which all your adversaries will not be able to withstand or to contradict.
For I will give you a mouth and wisdom, which all your adversaries shall not be able to gainsay nor resist.
- 16 But you will be given up even by your fathers and mothers, your brothers and relations and friends; and some of you will be put to death.
But you will be handed over even by parents, brothers, relatives, and friends. Some of you will they cause to be put to death.
And ye will be betrayed both by parents, and brethren, and kinsmen, and friends; and some of you will they cause to be put to death.
- 17 And you will be hated by all men, because of me.
You will be hated by all men for my name`s sake.
And ye will be hated by all men for my name's sake.
- 18 But not a hair of your head will come to destruction.
Not a hair of your head will perish.
But there shall not a hair of your head perish.

- 19 By going through all these things, you will keep your lives.
By your endurance you will win your souls.
In your patience possess ye your souls.
- 20 But when you see armies all round about Jerusalem, then be certain that her destruction is near.
"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then know that its desolation is at hand.
And when ye shall see Jerusalem compassed with armies, then know that its desolation is nigh.
- 21 Then let those who are in Judaea go in flight to the mountains; and those who are in the middle of the town go out; and let not those who are in the country come in.
Then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains. Let them who are in the midst of her depart. Don't let those who are in the country enter therein.
Then let them who are in Judea flee to the mountains; and let them who are in the midst of it depart from it; and let not them that are in the countries enter into it.
- 22 For these are the days of punishment, in which all the things in the Writings will be put into effect.
For these are days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.
For these are the days of vengeance, that all things which are written may be fulfilled.
- 23 It will be hard for women who are with child, and for her with a baby at the breast, in those days. For great trouble will come on the land, and wrath on this people.
Woe to those who are pregnant and to those who nurse infants in those days! For there will be great distress in the land, and wrath to this people.
But woe to them that are with child, and to them that nurse infants in those days! for there shall be great distress in the land, and wrath upon this people.
- 24 And they will be put to death with the sword, and will be taken as prisoners into all the nations; and Jerusalem will be crushed under the feet of the Gentiles, till the times of the Gentiles are complete.
They will fall by the edge of the sword, and will be led captive into all the nations. Jerusalem will be trampled down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are fulfilled.
And they shall fall by the edge of the sword, and shall be led away captive into all nations: and Jerusalem shall be trodden down by the Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles shall be fulfilled.

- 25 And there will be signs in the sun and moon and stars; and on the earth, fear among the nations and doubt because of the loud noise of the sea and the waves;
There will be signs in the sun, moon, and stars; and on the earth anxiety of nations, in perplexity for the roaring of the sea and the waves;
And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring;
- 26 Men's strength will go from them in fear and in waiting for the things which are coming on the earth; for the powers of the heavens will be moved.
men fainting for fear, and for expectation of the things which are coming on the world: for the powers of the heavens will be shaken.
Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for apprehension of those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken.
- 27 And then they will see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory.
Then they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud with power and great glory.
And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory.
- 28 But when these things come about, let your heads be lifted up, because your salvation is near.
But when these things begin to happen, look up, and lift up your heads, because your redemption is near."
And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads: for your redemption draweth nigh.
- 29 And he made a story for them: See the fig-tree, and all the trees;
He told them a parable. "See the fig tree, and all the trees.
And he spoke to them a parable; Behold the fig-tree, and all the trees;
- 30 When they put out their young leaves, you take note of it, and it is clear to you that summer is coming.
When they are already budding, you see it and know by your own selves that the summer is already near.
When they now shoot forth, ye see and know of your ownselves that summer is now nigh at hand.

- 31 In the same way, when you see these things taking place you may be certain that the kingdom of God is near.
Even so you also, when you see these things happening, know that the kingdom of God is near.
So likewise ye, when ye see these things come to pass, know that the kingdom of God is nigh at hand.
- 32 Truly I say to you, This generation will not come to an end till all things are complete.
Most assuredly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all things are accomplished.
Verily I say to you, This generation shall not pass away, till all be fulfilled.
- 33 Heaven and earth will come to an end, but my words will not come to an end.
Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will by no means pass away.
Heaven and earth shall pass away: but my word shall not pass away.
- 34 But give attention to yourselves, for fear that your hearts become over-full of the pleasures of food and wine, and the cares of this life, and that day may come on you suddenly, and take you as in a net:
"So be careful, or your hearts will be loaded down with carousing, drunkenness, and cares of this life, and that day will come on you suddenly.
And take heed to yourselves, lest at any time your hearts be overcharged with surfeiting and drunkenness, and cares of this life, and so that day come upon you unawares.
- 35 For so it will come on all those who are living on the face of all the earth.
For it will come like a snare on all those who dwell on the surface of all the earth.
For as a snare shall it come on all them that dwell on the face of the whole earth.
- 36 But keep watch at all times with prayer, that you may be strong enough to come through all these things and take your place before the Son of man.
Therefore be watchful all the time, asking that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will happen, and to stand before the Son of Man."
Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.

37 And every day he was teaching in the Temple and every night he went out to the mountain which is named the Mountain of Olives to take his rest.
Every day Jesus was teaching in the temple, and every night he went out, and spent the night on the mountain that is called Olivet.

And in the day-time he was teaching in the temple; and at night he went out, and abode in the mount that is called the mount of Olives.

38 And all the people came early in the morning to give ear to his words in the Temple.

All the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

And all the people came early in the morning to him in the temple, to hear him.

1 Now the feast of unleavened bread was near, which is called the Passover.

Now the feast of unleavened bread drew near, which is called the Passover.

Now the feast of unleavened bread drew nigh, which is called the Passover.

2 And the chief priests and the scribes were looking for a chance to put him to death, but they went in fear of the people.

The chief priests and the scribes sought how they might put him to death, for they feared the people.

And the chief priests and scribes sought how they might kill him: for they feared the people.

3 And Satan came into Judas Iscariot, who was one of the twelve.

Satan entered into Judas, who was called Iscariot, being numbered with the twelve.

Then Satan entered into Judas surnamed Iscariot, being of the number of the twelve.

4 And he went away and had a discussion with the chief priests and the rulers, about how he might give him up to them.

He went away, and talked with the chief priests and captains about how he might deliver him to them.

And he went, and communed with the chief priests and captains, how he might betray him to them.

5 And they were glad, and undertook to give him money.

They were glad, and agreed to give him money.

And they were glad, and covenanted to give him money.

- 6 And he made an agreement with them to give him up to them, if he got a chance, when the people were not present.
He consented, and sought an opportunity to deliver him to them in the absence of the multitude.
And he promised, and sought opportunity to betray him to them in the absence of the multitude.
- 7 And the day of unleavened bread came, when the Passover lamb is put to death.
The day of unleavened bread came, on which the Passover must be sacrificed.
Then came the day of unleavened bread, when the passover must be killed.
- 8 And Jesus sent Peter and John, saying, Go and make the Passover ready for us, so that we may take it.
He sent Peter and John, saying, "Go and prepare the Passover for us, that we may eat."
And he sent Peter and John, saying, Go and prepare for us the passover, that we may eat.
- 9 And they said to him, Where are we to get it ready?
They said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare?"
And they said to him, Where wilt thou that we prepare?
- 10 And he said to them, When you go into the town you will see a man coming to you with a vessel of water; go after him into the house into which he goes.
He said to them, "Behold, when you have entered into the city, a man carrying a pitcher of water will meet you. Follow him into the house which he enters.
And he said to them, Behold, when ye have entered into the city, there shall a man meet you, bearing a pitcher of water; follow him into the house where he entereth.
- 11 And say to the master of the house, The Master says, Where is the guest-room, where I may take the Passover with my disciples?
Tell the master of the house, `The Teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?"'
And ye shall say to the master of the house, The Master saith to thee, Where is the guest-chamber, where I may eat the passover with my disciples?
- 12 And he will take you up to a great room with a table and seats: there make ready.
He will show you a large, furnished upper room. Make preparations there."
And he will show you a large upper room furnished: there make ready.

- 13 And they went, and it was as he had said: and they made the Passover ready.
They went, found things as he had told them, and they prepared the Passover.
And they went and found as he had said to them: and they made ready the passover.
- 14 And when the time had come, he took his seat, and the Apostles with him.
When the hour had come, he sat down with the twelve apostles.
And when the hour was come, he sat down, and the twelve apostles with him.
- 15 And he said, I have had a great desire to keep this Passover with you before I come to my death;
He said to them, "I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer,
And he said to them, I have earnestly desired to eat this passover with you before I suffer.
- 16 For I say to you, I will not take it till it is made complete in the kingdom of God.
for I tell you, I will no longer by any means eat of it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God."
For I say to you, I will not any more eat of it until it shall be fulfilled in the kingdom of God.
- 17 And he took a cup and, having given praise, he said, Make division of this among yourselves;
He received a cup, and when he had given thanks, he said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves,
And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and said, Take this, and divide it among yourselves.
- 18 For I say to you, I will not take of the fruit of the vine till the kingdom of God has come.
for I tell you, I will not drink at all again from the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God comes."
For I say to you, I will not drink of the fruit of the vine, until the kingdom of God shall come.
- 19 And he took bread and, having given praise, he gave it to them when it had been broken, saying, This is my body, which is given for you: do this in memory of me.
He took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and gave to them, saying, "This is my body which is given for you. Do this in memory of me."
And he took bread, and gave thanks, and broke it, and gave to them, saying, This is my body which is given for you: this do in remembrance of me.

- 20 And in the same way, after the meal, he took the cup, saying, This cup is the new testament, made with my blood which is given for you.
He took the cup in like manner after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, that which is poured out for you.
Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
- 21 But the hand of him who is false to me is with me at the table.
But behold, the hand of him who betrays me is with me on the table.
But behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.
- 22 For it will be done to the Son of man after the purpose of God, but unhappy is that man by whom he is given up.
The Son of Man indeed goes, as it has been determined, but woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"
And truly the Son of man goeth as it was determined: but woe to that man by whom he is betrayed!
- 23 And they were wondering among themselves which of them it was who would do this thing.
They began to question among themselves, which of them it was that would do this thing.
And they began to inquire among themselves, which of them it was that should do this thing.
- 24 And there was an argument among them about which of them was the greatest.
There arose also a contention among them, which of them was considered to be greatest.
And there was also a strife among them, which of them should be accounted the greatest.
- 25 And he said, The kings of the Gentiles are lords over them, and those who have authority are given names of honour.
He said to them, "The kings of the Gentiles lord it over them, and those who have authority over them are called `benefactors.`"
And he said to them, The kings of the Gentiles exercise lordship over them; and they that exercise authority upon them, are called benefactors.
- 26 But let it not be so with you; but he who is greater, let him become like the younger; and he who is chief, like a servant.
But not so with you. But one who is the greater among you, let him become as the lesser, and one who is governing, as one who serves.
But ye shall not be so: but he that is greatest among you, let him be as the younger; and he that is chief, as he that doth serve.

- 27 For which is greater, the guest who is seated at a meal or the servant who is waiting on him? is it not the guest? but I am among you as a servant.
For who is greater, one who sits at the table, or one who serves? Isn't it he who sits at the table? But I am in the midst of you as one who serves.
For which is greater, he that sitteth at table, or he that serveth? is not he that sitteth at table? but I am among you as he that serveth.
- 28 But you are those who have kept with me through my troubles;
But you are those who have continued with me in my temptations.
Ye are they who have continued with me in my temptations.
- 29 And I will give you a kingdom as my Father has given one to me,
I appoint to you a kingdom, even as my Father appointed to me,
And I appoint to you a kingdom, as my Father hath appointed to me;
- 30 So that you may take food and drink at my table in my kingdom, and be seated like kings, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
that you may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom. You will sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel."
That ye may eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit on thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.
- 31 Simon, Simon, Satan has made a request to have you, so that he may put you to the test as grain is tested:
The Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan asked to have you, that he might sift you as wheat,
And the Lord said, Simon, Simon, behold, Satan hath desired to have you, that he may sift you as wheat:
- 32 But I have made prayer for you, that your faith may not go from you: and when you are turned again, make your brothers strong.
but I prayed for you, that your faith wouldn't fail. You, when once you have turned again, establish your brothers."
But I have prayed for thee, that thy faith fail not; and when thou art converted, strengthen thy brethren.
- 33 And he said to him, Lord, I am ready to go with you to prison and to death.
He said to him, "Lord, I am ready to go with you both to prison and to death!"
And he said to him, Lord, I am ready to go with thee both into prison, and to death.

- 34 And he said, I say to you, Peter, before the cock's second cry today, you will say three times that you have no knowledge of me.
He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster will by no means crow today, before you deny that you know me three times."
And he said, I tell thee, Peter, the cock will not crow this day, before thou wilt thrice deny that thou knowest me.
- 35 And he said to them, When I sent you out without money or bag or shoes, were you in need of anything? And they said, Nothing.
He said to them, "When I sent you out without purse, and wallet, and shoes, did you lack anything?" They said, "Nothing."
And he said to them, When I sent you without purse, and sack, and shoes, lacked ye any thing? And they said, Nothing.
- 36 And he said to them, But now, he who has a money-bag, or a bag for food, let him take it: and he who has not, let him give his coat for money and get a sword.
Then he said to them, "But now, whoever has a purse, let him take it, and likewise a wallet. Whoever has none, let him sell his cloak, and buy a sword.
Then said he to them, But now he that hath a purse, let him take it, and likewise his sack: and he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment, and buy one.
- 37 For I say to you that these words will be put into effect in me, And he was numbered among the evil-doers: for what has been said in the Writings about me has an end.
For I tell you that this which is written must still be fulfilled in me: `He was counted with the lawless.` For that which concerns me has an end."
For I say to you, that this which is written must yet be accomplished in me, And he was reckoned among the transgressors: for the things concerning me have an end.
- 38 And they said, Lord, here are two swords. And he said, It is enough.
They said, "Lord, behold, here are two swords." He said to them, "That is enough."
And they said, Lord, behold, here are two swords. And he said to them, It is enough.
- 39 And he came out, and went, as his way was, to the Mountain of Olives, and the disciples went with him.
He came out, and went, as his custom was, to the Mount of Olives. His disciples also followed him.
And he came out, and went, as he was wont, to the mount of Olives; and his disciples also followed him.

- 40 And when he came to the place, he said to them, Make a prayer that you may not be put to the test.
When he was at the place, he said to them, "Pray that you don't enter into temptation."
And when he was at the place, he said to them, Pray, that ye enter not into temptation.
- 41 And he went a little distance away from them and, falling on his knees in prayer, he said,
He was withdrawn from them about a stone's throw, and he knelt down and prayed,
And he was withdrawn from them about a stone's cast, and kneeled down, and prayed.
- 42 Father, if it is your pleasure, take this cup from me: but still, let your pleasure, not mine, be done.
saying, "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not my will, but yours, be done."
Saying, Father, if thou art willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine be done.
- 43 And an angel from heaven came to him, to give him strength.
An angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him.
And there appeared to him an angel from heaven, strengthening him.
- 44 And being in great trouble of soul, the force of his prayer became stronger, and great drops, like blood, came from him, falling to the earth.
Being in agony he prayed more earnestly. His sweat became like great drops of blood falling down on the ground.
And being in an agony, he prayed more earnestly: and his sweat was as it were great drops of blood falling to the ground.
- 45 And, getting up from prayer, he came to the disciples, and saw that they were sleeping for sorrow.
When he rose up from his prayer, he came to the disciples, and found them sleeping because of grief,
And when he arose from prayer, and had come to his disciples, he found them sleeping for sorrow:
- 46 And he said, Why are you sleeping? Get up, and give yourselves to prayer, so that you may not be put to the test.
and said to them, "Why do you sleep? Rise and pray that you may not enter into temptation."
And said to them, Why sleep ye? rise and pray, lest ye enter into temptation.

- 47 And while he was saying these words, there came a band of people, and Judas, one of the twelve, was in front of them, and he came near to Jesus to give him a kiss.
While he was still speaking, behold, a multitude, and he who was called Judas, one of the twelve, went in front of them. He came near to Jesus to kiss him.
And while he was yet speaking, behold a multitude, and he that was called Judas, one of the twelve, went before them, and drew near to Jesus to kiss him.
- 48 But Jesus said to him, Judas, will you be false to the Son of man with a kiss?
But Jesus said to him, "Judas, do you betray the Son of Man with a kiss?"
But Jesus said to him, Judas, betrayest thou the Son of man with a kiss?
- 49 And when those who were with him saw what was coming, they said, Lord, may we not make use of our swords?
When those who were around him saw what was about to happen, they said, "Lord, shall we strike with the sword?"
When they who were about him, saw what would follow, they said to him, Lord, shall we smite with the sword?
- 50 And one of them gave a blow to the servant of the high priest, cutting off his right ear.
A certain one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
And one of them smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
- 51 But Jesus, answering, said, Put up with this, at least. And touching his ear, he made it well.
But Jesus answered, "Let me at least do this" -- and he touched his ear, and healed him.
And Jesus answered and said, Suffer ye thus far. And he touched his ear, and healed him.
- 52 And Jesus said to the chief priests and the captains of the Temple and the rulers, who had come against him, Have you come out as against a thief, with swords and sticks?
Jesus said to the chief priests, captains of the temple, and elders, who had come against him, "Have you come out as against a robber, with swords and clubs?"
Then Jesus said to the chief priests, and captains of the temple, and the elders who had come to him, Are ye come out as against a thief, with swords and staffs?

53 When I was in the Temple with you every day, your hands were not stretched out against me: but this is your hour, and the authority of the dark power.
When I was with you in the temple daily, you didn't stretch out your hands against me. But this is your hour, and the power of darkness."

When I was daily with you in the temple, ye stretched forth no hands against me: but this is your hour, and the power of darkness.

54 And they made him a prisoner and took him away to the house of the high priest. But Peter went after them at a distance.
They seized him, and led him away, and brought him into the high priest's house. But Peter followed from a distance.
Then they took him, and led him, and brought him into the high priest's house. And Peter followed at a distance.

55 And a fire was lighted in the middle of the open square, and they were seated together, and Peter was among them.
When they had kindled a fire in the midst of the court, and had sat down together, Peter sat in the midst of them.
And when they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall, and were set down together, Peter sat down among them.

56 And a certain woman-servant, seeing him in the light of the fire, and looking at him with attention, said, This man was with him.
A certain servant girl saw him as he sat in the light, and looking intently at him, said, "This man also was with him."
But a certain maid beheld him as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him, and said, This man was also with him.

57 But he said, Woman, it is not true; I have no knowledge of him.
He denied Jesus, saying, "Woman, I don't know him."
And he denied him, saying, Woman, I know him not.

58 And after a little time, another saw him and said, You are one of them; and he said, Man, I am not.
After a little while someone else saw him, and said, "You also are one of them!" But Peter answered, "Man, I am not!"
And after a little while another saw him, and said, Thou art also of them. And Peter said, Man, I am not.

- 59 And after about an hour, another man said, with decision, Certainly this man was with him, for he is a Galilaean.
After about one hour passed, another confidently affirmed, saying, "Truly this man also was with him, for he is a Galilean!"
And about the space of one hour after, another confidently affirmed, saying, In truth this man also was with him; for he is a Galilean.
- 60 And Peter said, Man, I have no knowledge of these things of which you are talking. And straight away, while he was saying these words, there came the cry of a cock.
But Peter said, "Man, I don't know what you are talking about!" Immediately, while he was still speaking, a rooster crowed.
And Peter said, Man, I know not what thou sayest. And immediately, while he was yet speaking, the cock crowed.
- 61 And the Lord, turning, gave Peter a look. And the words of the Lord came to Peter's mind, how he had said, This night, before the hour of the cock's cry, you will be false to me three times.
The Lord turned, and looked at Peter. Peter remembered the Lord's word, how he said to him, "Before the rooster crows you will deny me three times."
And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter. And Peter remembered the word of the Lord, how he had said to him, Before the cock shall crow, thou wilt deny me thrice.
- 62 And he went out, weeping bitterly.
He went out, and wept bitterly.
And Peter went out, and wept bitterly.
- 63 And the men in whose hands Jesus was, made sport of him and gave him blows.
The men who held Jesus mocked him and beat him.
And the men that held Jesus, mocked him, and smote him.
- 64 And, covering his eyes, they said to him, Are you prophet enough to say who gave you that blow?
Having blindfolded him, they struck him on the face and asked him, "Prophecy! Who is the one who struck you?"
And when they had blindfolded him, they struck him on the face, and asked him, saying, Prophecy, who is it that smote thee?

- 65 And they said a number of other evil things against him.
They spoke many other things against him, insulting him.
And many other things blasphemously they spoke against him.
- 66 And when it was day, the rulers of the people came together, with the chief priests and the scribes, and they took him before their Sanhedrin, saying,
As soon as it was day, the assembly of the elders of the people was gathered together, both chief priests and scribes, and they led him away into their council, saying,
And as soon as it was day, the elders of the people, and the chief priests, and the scribes came together, and led him into their council,
- 67 If you are the Christ, say so. But he said, If I say so you will not have belief;
"If you are the Christ, tell us." But he said to them, "If I tell you, you won't believe, Saying, Art thou the Christ? tell us. And he said to them, If I tell you, ye will not believe.
- 68 And if I put a question to you, you will not give an answer.
and if I ask, you will in no way answer me or let me go.
And if I also ask you, ye will not answer me, nor let me go.
- 69 But in the future the Son of man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God.
From now on, the Son of Man will be seated at the right hand of the power of God."
Hereafter will the Son of man sit on the right hand of the power of God.
- 70 And they all said, Are you then the Son of God? and he said, You say that I am.
They all said, "Are you then the Son of God?" He said to them, "You say it, because I AM."
Then said they all, Art thou then the Son of God? And he said to them, Ye say that I am.
- 71 And they said, What more need have we of witness? we have the very words of his mouth.
They said, "Why do we need any more witness? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth!"
And they said, What need have we of any further testimony? for we ourselves have heard from his own mouth.

- 1 And they all went and took him before Pilate.
The whole company of them rose up and brought him before Pilate.
And the whole multitude of them arose, and led him to Pilate.
- 2 And they made statements against him, saying, This man has to our knowledge been teaching our nation to do wrong, and not to make payment of taxes to Caesar, even saying that he himself is Christ, a king.
They began to accuse him, saying, "We found this man perverting the nation, forbidding paying taxes to Caesar, and saying that he himself is Christ, a king."
And they began to accuse him, saying, We found this man perverting the nation, and forbidding to give tribute to Cesar, saying, that he himself is Christ a king.
- 3 And Pilate said to him, Are you the King of the Jews? And he said in answer, You say so.
Pilate asked him, "Are you the King of the Jews?" He answered him, "So you say."
And Pilate asked him, saying, Art thou the King of the Jews? And he answered him and said, Thou sayest it.
- 4 And Pilate said to the chief priests and the people, In my opinion this man has done no wrong.
Pilate said to the chief priests and the multitudes, "I find no basis for a charge against this man."
Then said Pilate to the chief priests, and to the people, I find no fault in this man.
- 5 But they became more violent than before, saying, He has made trouble among the people, teaching through all Judaea from Galilee to this place.
But they insisted, saying, "He stirs up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee even to this place."
And they were the more fierce, saying, He stirreth up the people, teaching throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee to this place.
- 6 But at these words Pilate said, Is the man a Galilaeen?
But when Pilate heard Galilee mentioned, he asked if the man was a Galilean.
When Pilate heard of Galilee, he asked whether the man was a Galilean.

- 7 And when he saw that he was under the authority of Herod, he sent him to Herod, who was in Jerusalem himself at that time.
When he found out that he was in Herod`s jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who was also in Jerusalem in those days.
And as soon as he knew that he belonged to Herod's jurisdiction, he sent him to Herod, who himself was also at Jerusalem at that time.
- 8 Now when Herod saw Jesus he was very glad, having for a long time had a desire to see him, for he had had accounts of him, and was hoping to see some wonders done by him.
Now when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceedingly glad, for he had wanted to see him for a long time, because he had heard many things about him. He hoped to see some miracle done by him.
And when Herod saw Jesus, he was exceeding glad: for he had been for a long time, desirous to see him, because he had heard many things of him; and he hoped to see some miracle done by him.
- 9 And he put a great number of questions to him, but he said nothing.
He questioned him with many words, but he gave no answers.
Then he questioned with him in many words; but he answered him nothing.
- 10 And the chief priests and the scribes were there, making statements against him violently.
The chief priests and the scribes stood, vehemently accusing him.
And the chief priests and scribes stood and vehemently accused him.
- 11 And Herod, with the men of his army, put shame on him and made sport of him, and dressing him in shining robes, he sent him back to Pilate.
Herod with his soldiers humiliated him and mocked him. Dressing him in luxurious clothing, they sent him back to Pilate.
And Herod with his troops set him at naught, and mocked him, and arrayed him in a gorgeous robe, and sent him again to Pilate.
- 12 And that day Herod and Pilate became friends with one another, for before they had been against one another.
Herod and Pilate became friends with each other that very day, for before that they were enemies with each other.
And the same day Pilate and Herod were made friends together; for before they were at enmity between themselves.

- 13 And Pilate sent for the chief priests and the rulers and the people, and said to them,
Pilate called together the chief priests and the rulers and the people,
And Pilate, when he had called together the chief priests, and the rulers, and the people,
- 14 You say that this man has been teaching the people evil things: now I, after going into the question before you, see nothing wrong in this man in connection with the things which you have said against him:
and said to them, "You brought this man to me as one that perverts the people, and see, I have examined him before you, and found no basis for a charge against this man concerning those things of which you accuse him.
Said to them, Ye have brought this man to me, as one that perverteth the people: and behold, I, having examined him before you, have found no fault in this man, touching those things of which ye accuse him;
- 15 And Herod is of the same opinion, for he has sent him back to us; for, you see, he has done nothing for which I might put him to death.
Neither has Herod, for I sent you to him, and see, nothing worthy of death has been done by him.
No, nor yet Herod: for I sent you to him; and lo, nothing worthy of death is done to him:
- 16 And so I will give him punishment and let him go.
I will therefore chastise him and release him."
I will therefore chastise him, and release him.
- 17 ¶
Now he had to release one prisoner to them at the feast.
(For of necessity he must release one to them at the feast.)
- 18 But with loud voices they said all together, Put this man to death, and make Barabbas free.
But they all cried out together, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!" --
And they cried out all at once, saying, Away with this man, and release to us Barabbas:
- 19 Now this man was in prison because of an attack against the government in the town, in which there had been loss of life.
one who was thrown into prison for a certain revolt in the city, and for murder.
(Who, for a certain sedition made in the city, and for murder, was cast into prison.)

- 20 And Pilate again said to them that it was his desire to let Jesus go free.
Pilate spoke to them again, desiring to release Jesus,
Pilate therefore, willing to release Jesus, spoke again to them.
- 21 But crying out they said, To the cross with him!
but they shouted, saying, "Crucify! Crucify him!"
But they cried, saying, Crucify, crucify him.
- 22 And he said to them a third time, Why, what evil has he done? I see no reason for putting him to death: I will give him punishment and let him go.
He said to them the third time, "Why? What evil has this man done? I have found no capital crime in him. I will therefore chastise him and release him."
And he said to them the third time, Why, what evil hath he done? I have found no cause of death in him; I will therefore chastise him, and let him go.
- 23 But they went on crying out loudly, Let him be put to death on the cross. And they had their way.
But they were urgent with loud voices, asking that he might be crucified. Their voices and the voices of the chief priests prevailed.
And they were urgent with loud voices, requiring that he might be crucified: and the voices of them, and of the chief priests prevailed.
- 24 And Pilate gave his decision for their desire to be put into effect.
Pilate adjudged that what they asked for should be done.
And Pilate gave sentence that it should be as they required.
- 25 And in answer to their request, he let that man go free who had been in prison for acting against the government and causing death, and Jesus he gave up to their pleasure.
He released him who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, for whom they asked, but he delivered Jesus up to their will.
And he released to them him that for sedition and murder had been cast into prison, whom they had desired; but he delivered Jesus to their will.

- 26 And while they were taking him away, they put their hands on Simon of Cyrene, who was coming from the country, and made him take the cross after Jesus.
When they led him away, they grabbed one Simon of Cyrene, coming from the country, and laid on him the cross, to carry it after Jesus.
And as they led him away, they laid hold upon one Simon a Cyrenian, coming out of the country, and on him they laid the cross, that he might bear it after Jesus.
- 27 And a great band of people went after him, and of women making signs of grief and weeping for him.
A great multitude of the people followed him, including women who also mourned and lamented him.
And there followed him a great company of people, and of women, who also bewailed and lamented him.
- 28 But Jesus, turning to them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, let not your weeping be for me, but for yourselves and for your children.
But Jesus, turning to them, said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, don't weep for me, but weep for yourselves and for your children.
But Jesus turning to them, said, Daughters of Jerusalem, weep not for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children.
- 29 For the days are coming in which they will say, Happy are those who have had no children, whose bodies have never given birth, whose breasts have never given milk.
For behold, the days are coming in which they will say, `Blessed are the barren, the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.`
For behold, the days are coming, in which they shall say, Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts which never nourished infants.
- 30 And they will say to the mountains, Come down on us, and to the hills, Be a cover over us.
Then will they begin to tell the mountains, `Fall on us!` and to the hills, `Cover us.`
Then shall they begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us; and to the hills, Cover us.
- 31 For if they do these things when the tree is green, what will they do when it is dry?
For if they do these things in the green tree, what will be done in the dry?"
For if they do these things in a green tree, what will be done in the dry?

- 32 And two others, evil-doers, were taken with him to be put to death.
There were also others, two criminals, led with him to be put to death.
And two others, who were malefactors, were led with him to be put to death.
- 33 And when they came to the place which is named Golgotha, they put him on the cross, and the evil-doers, one on the right side, and the other on the left.
When they came to the place that is called The Skull, they crucified him there with the criminals, one on the right and the other on the left.
And when they had come to the place which is called Calvary, there they crucified him, and the malefactors; one on the right hand, and the other on the left.
- 34 And Jesus said, Father, let them have forgiveness, for they have no knowledge of what they are doing. And they made division of his clothing among them by the decision of chance.
Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they don't know what they are doing." Dividing his garments among them, they cast lots.
Then said Jesus, Father, forgive them: for they know not what they do. And they parted his raiment, and cast lots.
- 35 And the people were looking on. And the rulers made sport of him, saying, He was a saviour of others; let him do something for himself, if he is the Christ, the man of God's selection.
The people stood watching. The rulers with them also scoffed at him, saying, "He saved others. Let him save himself, if this is the Christ of God, his chosen one!"
And the people stood beholding. And the rulers also with them derided him, saying, He saved others; let him save himself, if he is Christ the chosen of God.
- 36 And the men of the army made sport of him, coming to him and giving him bitter wine,
The soldiers also mocked him, coming to him and offering him vinegar,
And the soldiers also mocked him, coming to him, and offering him vinegar,
- 37 And saying, If you are the King of the Jews, get yourself free.
and saying, "If you are the King of the Jews, save yourself!"
And saying, If thou art the King of the Jews, save thyself.

- 38 And these words were put in writing over him, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
An inscription was also written over him in letters of Greek, Latin, and Hebrew: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."
And a superscription also was written over him, in letters of Greek, and Latin, and Hebrew, THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 39 And one of the evil-doers on the cross, with bitter feeling, said to him, Are you not the Christ? Get yourself and us out of this.
One of the criminals who was hanged insulted him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us!"
And one of the malefactors, who were hanged, railed on him, saying, If thou art Christ, save thyself and us.
- 40 But the other, protesting, said, Have you no fear of God? for you have a part in the same punishment,
But the other answered, and rebuking him said, "Don` t you even fear God, seeing you are in the same condemnation?"
But the other answering, rebuked him, saying, Dost not thou fear God, seeing thou art in the same condemnation?
- 41 And with reason; for we have the right reward of our acts, but this man has done nothing wrong.
And we indeed justly, for we receive the due reward for our deeds, but this man has done nothing wrong."
And we indeed justly; for we receive the due reward of our deeds: but this man hath done nothing amiss.
- 42 And he said, Jesus, keep me in mind when you come in your kingdom.
He said to Jesus, "Lord, remember me when you come into your kingdom."
And he said to Jesus, Lord, remember me when thou comest into thy kingdom.
- 43 And he said to him, Truly I say to you, Today you will be with me in Paradise.
He said to him, "Most assuredly I tell you, today you will be with me in Paradise."
And Jesus said to him, Verily I say to thee, This day shalt thou be with me in paradise.
- 44 And it was now about the sixth hour; and all the land was dark till the ninth hour;
It was now about the sixth hour, and darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.
And it was about the sixth hour, and there was a darkness over all the land until the ninth hour.

- 45 The light of the sun went out, and the curtain in the Temple was parted in two.
The sun was darkened, and the veil of the temple was torn in two.
And the sun was darkened, and the vail of the temple was rent in the midst.
- 46 And Jesus gave a loud cry and said, Father, into your hands I give my spirit: and when he had said this, he gave up his spirit.
Jesus, crying with a loud voice, said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit!" Having said this, he breathed his last.
And when Jesus had cried with a loud voice, he said, Father, into thy hands I commend my spirit: and having said thus, he expired.
- 47 And when the captain saw what was done, he gave praise to God, saying, Without doubt this was an upright man.
When the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, "Certainly this was a righteous man."
Now when the centurion saw what was done, he glorified God, saying, Certainly this was a righteous man.
- 48 And all the people who had come together to see it, when they saw the things which were done, went back again making signs of grief.
All the multitudes that came together to see this, when they saw the things that were done, returned beating their breasts.
And all the people that came together to that sight, beholding the things which were done, smote their breasts, and returned.
- 49 And all his friends and the women who came with him from Galilee, were waiting at a distance, watching these things.
All his acquaintances, and the women who followed with him from Galilee, stood far away, watching these things.
And all his acquaintance, and the women that followed him from Galilee, stood afar off beholding these things.
- 50 Now there was a man named Joseph, a man of authority and a good and upright man
Behold, a man named Joseph, who was a member of the council, a good and righteous man
And behold, there was a man named Joseph, a counselor: and he was a good man, and a just:
- 51 (He had not given his approval to their decision or their acts), of Arimathaea, a town of the Jews, who was waiting for the kingdom of God:
(he had not consented to their counsel and deed), from Arimathaea, a city of the Jews, who was also waiting for the kingdom of God:
(The same had not consented to the counsel and deed of them) he was of Arimathea, a city of the Jews; who also himself waited for the kingdom of God.

- 52 This man went to Pilate and made a request for the body of Jesus.
this man went to Pilate, and asked for Jesus` body.
This man went to Pilate, and begged the body of Jesus.
- 53 And he took it down, and folding it in a linen cloth, he put it in a place cut in the rock for a dead body; and no one had ever been put in it.
He took it down, and wrapped it in a linen cloth, and laid him in a tomb that was cut in stone, where no man had ever yet lain.
And he took it down, and wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a sepulcher that was hewn in stone, in which man was never before laid.
- 54 Now it was the day of making ready and the Sabbath was coming on.
It was the day of the Preparation, and the Sabbath was coming on.
And that day was the preparation, and the sabbath drew on.
- 55 And the women who had come with him from Galilee went after him and saw the place and how his body had been put to rest;
The women, who had come with him out of Galilee, followed after, and saw the tomb, and how his body was laid.
And the women also, who came with him from Galilee, followed after, and beheld the sepulcher, and how his body was laid.
- 56 And they went back and got ready spices and perfumes; and on the Sabbath they took their rest, in agreement with the law.
They returned, and prepared spices and ointments. On the Sabbath they rested according to the commandment.
And they returned, and prepared spices and ointments; and rested on the sabbath, according to the commandment.
- 1 But on the first day of the week, at dawn, they came to the place where his body had been put, taking the spices which they had got ready.
But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they and some others came to the tomb, bringing the spices which they had prepared.
Now upon the first day of the week, very early in the morning, they came to the sepulcher, bringing the spices which they had prepared, and certain others with them.

- 2 And they saw that the stone had been rolled away.
They found the stone rolled away from the tomb.
And they found the stone rolled away from the sepulcher.
- 3 And they went in, but the body of the Lord Jesus was not there.
They entered in, and didn't find the Lord Jesus' body.
And they entered in, and found not the body of the Lord Jesus.
- 4 And while they were in doubt about it, they saw two men in shining clothing by them:
It happened, while they were greatly perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling clothing.
And it came to pass, as they were much perplexed at this, behold, two men stood by them in shining garments.
- 5 And while their faces were bent down to the earth in fear, these said to them, Why are you looking for the living among the dead?
Becoming terrified, they bowed their faces down to the earth. They said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead?
And as they were afraid, and bowed down their faces to the earth, they said to them, Why seek ye the living among the dead?
- 6 He is not here, he has come back to life: have in mind what he said to you when he was still in Galilee, saying,
He isn't here, but is risen. Remember what he told you when he was still in Galilee,
He is not here, but is risen. Remember how he spoke to you when he was yet in Galilee,
- 7 The Son of man will be given up into the hands of evil-doers, and be put to death on the cross, and on the third day he will come back to life.
saying that the Son of Man must be delivered up into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again?"
Saying, The Son of man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men, and be crucified, and the third day rise again.
- 8 And his words came back into their minds,
They remembered his words,
And they remembered his words,

- 9 And they went away from that place and gave an account of all these things to the eleven disciples and all the others.
returned from the tomb, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
And returned from the sepulcher, and told all these things to the eleven, and to all the rest.
- 10 Now they were Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary, the mother of James: and the other women with them said these things to the Apostles.
Now they were Mary Magdalene, Joanna, and Mary the mother of James. The other women with them told these things to the apostles.
It was Mary Magdalene, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and other women that were with them, who told these things to the apostles.
- 11 But these words seemed foolish to them, and they had no belief in them.
These words seemed to them to be nonsense, and they didn't believe them.
And their words seemed to them as idle tales, and they believed them not.
- 12 But Peter got up and went to the place where the body had been put, and looking in he saw nothing but the linen cloths, and he went to his house full of wonder at what had taken place.
But Peter got up and ran to the tomb. Stooping and looking in, he saw the strips of linen lying by themselves, and he departed to his home, wondering what had happened.
Then Peter arose, and ran to the sepulcher, and stooping down, he beheld the linen clothes laid by themselves, and departed, wondering in himself at that which had come to pass.
- 13 And then, two of them, on that very day, were going to a little town named Emmaus, which was about seven miles from Jerusalem.
Behold, two of them were going that very day to a village named Emmaus, which was sixty stadia from Jerusalem.
And behold, two of them went that same day to a village called Emmaus, which was from Jerusalem about sixty furlongs.
- 14 And they were talking together about all those things which had taken place.
They talked with each other about all of these things which had happened.
And they talked together of all these things which had happened.

- 15 And while they were talking and questioning together, Jesus himself came near and went with them.
It happened, while they talked and questioned together, that Jesus himself came near, and went with them.
And it came to pass, that, while they communed together, and reasoned, Jesus himself drew near, and went with them.
- 16 But their eyes were not open that they might have knowledge of him.
But their eyes were kept from recognizing him.
But their eyes were held, that they should not know him.
- 17 And he said to them, What are you talking about together while you go?
He said to them, "What are you talking about as you walk, and are sad?"
And he said to them, What manner of communications are these that ye have one to another, as ye walk, and are sad?
- 18 Then stopping, and looking sadly at him, one of them, named Cleopas, said to him, Are you the only man living in Jerusalem who has not had news of the things which have taken place there at this time?
One of them, named Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only one travelling in Jerusalem who doesn't know the things which have happened there in these days?"
And one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answering, said to him, Art thou only a stranger in Jerusalem, and hast not known the things which have come to pass there in these days?
- 19 And he said to them, What things? And they said, The things to do with Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet, great in his acts and his words, before God and all the people:
He said to them, "What things?" They said to him, "The things concerning Jesus, the Nazarene, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people;
And he said to them, What things? And they said to him, Concerning Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God, and all the people:
- 20 And how the chief priests and our rulers gave him up to be put to death on the cross.
and how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him up to be condemned to death, and crucified him.
And how the chief priests and our rulers delivered him to be condemned to death, and crucified him.

- 21 But we were hoping that he would be the Saviour of Israel. In addition to all this he has now let three days go by from the time when these things took place;
But we hoped that it was he who would redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things happened.
But we trusted that it had been he who would have redeemed Israel: and besides all this, to-day is the third day since these things were done.
- 22 And certain women among us gave us cause for wonder, for they went early to the place where his body had been put,
Also, certain women of our company amazed us, having been early at the tomb;
Yes, and certain women also of our company made us astonished, who were early at the sepulcher.
- 23 And it was not there; then they came saying that they had seen a vision of angels who said that he was living.
and when they didn't find his body, they came saying that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.
And when they found not his body, they came, saying, that they had also seen a vision of angels, who said that he was alive.
- 24 And some of those who were with us went to the place, and saw that it was as the women had said, but him they did not see.
Some of us went to the tomb, and found it just like the women had said, but they didn't see him."
And certain of them who were with us, went to the sepulcher, and found it even so as the women had said: but him they saw not.
- 25 And he said, O foolish men! how slow you are to give belief to what the prophets have said.
He said to them, "Foolish men, and slow of heart to believe in all that the prophets have spoken!
Then he said to them, O fools, and slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have spoken!
- 26 Was it not necessary for the Christ to go through these things, and to come into his glory?
Didn't the Christ have to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?"
Ought not Christ to suffer these things, and to enter into his glory?

- 27 And he made clear to them all the things in the Writings, from Moses and from all the prophets, which had to do with himself.
Beginning from Moses and from all the prophets, he interpreted to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
And beginning at Moses, and all the prophets, he expounded to them in all the scriptures the things concerning himself.
- 28 And they came near the town to which they were going, and he seemed as if he was going on;
They drew near to the village, where they were going, and he acted like he would go further.
And they drew nigh to the village whither they were going: and he made as though he would go further.
- 29 But they kept him back, saying, Do not go, for evening is near, the day is almost gone. And he went in with them.
They urged him, saying, "Stay with us, for it is almost evening, and the day is almost over." He went in to stay with them.
But they constrained him, saying, Abide with us: for it is towards evening, and the day is far spent. And he went in to tarry with them.
- 30 And when he was seated with them at table, he took the bread, and said words of blessing and, making division of it, he gave it to them.
It happened, when he had sat down at the table with them, he took the bread and gave thanks. Breaking it, he gave to them.
And it came to pass, as he sat at table with them, he took bread, and blessed it, and broke, and gave to them.
- 31 And then their eyes were open, and they had knowledge of him, but he went from their view.
Their eyes were opened, and they recognized him, and he vanished out of their sight.
And their eyes were opened, and they knew him: and he vanished out of their sight.
- 32 And they said to one another, Were not our hearts burning in us while he was talking to us on the way, making clear to us the holy Writings?
They said one to another, "Wasn't our heart burning within us, while he spoke to us along the way, and while he opened the scriptures to us?"
And they said one to another, Did not our heart burn within us while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the scriptures?

- 33 And that very hour they got up and went back to Jerusalem, where the eleven and the others had come together.
They rose up that very hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven gathered together, and those who were with them,
And they rose the same hour, and returned to Jerusalem, and found the eleven assembled, and them that were with them,
- 34 And they said to them, The Lord has truly come back to life again, and Simon has seen him.
saying, "The Lord is risen indeed, and has appeared to Simon!"
Saying, The Lord is risen indeed, and hath appeared to Simon.
- 35 And they gave an account of the things which had taken place on the way, and how, when he gave them bread, they had knowledge of him.
They related the things that happened along the way, and how he was recognized by them in the breaking of the bread.
And they told what things were done in the way, and how he was known to them in breaking of bread.
- 36 And while they were saying these things, he himself was among them, and said to them, Peace be with you!
As they said these things, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and said to them, "Peace be to you."
And as they were thus speaking, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and saith to them, Peace be to you.
- 37 But they were full of fear, being of the opinion that they were seeing a spirit.
But they were terrified and filled with fear, and supposed that they saw a spirit.
But they were terrified and affrighted, and supposed that they had seen a spirit.
- 38 And he said to them, Why are you troubled, and why are your hearts full of doubt?
He said to them, "Why are you troubled? Why do questionings arise in your hearts?
And he said to them, Why are ye troubled? and why do thoughts arise in your hearts?
- 39 See; my hands and my feet: it is I myself; put your hands on me and make certain; for a spirit has not flesh and bones as you see that I have.
See my hands and my feet, that it is I myself. Touch me and see, for a spirit doesn't have flesh and bones, as you see that I have."
Behold my hands and my feet, that it is I myself: handle me, and see; for a spirit hath not flesh and bones, as ye see me have.

40 And when he had said this, he let them see his hands and his feet.

When he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

And when he had thus spoken, he showed them his hands and his feet.

41 And because, for joy and wonder, they were still in doubt, he said to them, Have you any food here?

While they still didn't believe for joy, and wondered, he said to them, "Do you have anything here to eat?"

And while they yet believed not for joy, and wondered, he said to them, Have ye here any thing for food?

42 And they gave him a bit of cooked fish.

They gave him a piece of a broiled fish and some honeycomb.

And they gave him a piece of a broiled fish, and a honey-comb.

43 And before their eyes he took a meal.

He took it, and ate in front of them.

And he took it, and ate before them.

44 And he said to them, These are the words which I said to you when I was still with you, how it was necessary for all the things which are in the writings of Moses and the prophets and in the Psalms about me, to be put into effect.

He said to them, "This is what I told you, while I was still with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which are written in the law of Moses, the prophets, and the psalms, concerning me."

And he said to them, These are the words which I spoke to you, while I was yet with you, that all things must be fulfilled, which were written in the law of Moses, and in the prophets, and in the psalms, concerning me.

45 Then he made the holy Writings clear to their minds.

Then he opened their minds, that they might understand the scriptures.

Then he opened their understanding, that they might understand the scriptures,

46 And he said to them, So it is in the Writings that the Christ would undergo death, and come back to life again on the third day;

He said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer and to rise from the dead the third day,

And said to them, Thus it is written, and thus it behooved Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day:

- 47 And that teaching about a change of heart and forgiveness of sins is to be given to Jerusalem first and to all nations in his name.
and that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
And that repentance and remission of sins should be preached in his name among all nations, beginning at Jerusalem.
- 48 You are witnesses of these things.
You are witnesses of these things.
And ye are witnesses of these things.
- 49 And now I will send to you what my father has undertaken to give you, but do not go from the town, till the power from heaven comes to you.
Behold, I send forth the promise of my Father on you. But wait in the city of Jerusalem until you are clothed with power from on high."
And behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye are endued with power from on high.
- 50 And he took them out till they were near Bethany, and lifting up his hands, he gave them a blessing.
He led them out as far as to Bethany, and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
And he led them out as far as to Bethany: and he lifted up his hands, and blessed them.
- 51 And while he was doing so, he went from them and was taken up into heaven.
It happened, while he blessed them, that he withdrew from them, and was carried up into heaven.
And it came to pass, while he was blessing them, he was parted from them, and carried up into heaven.
- 52 And they gave him worship and went back to Jerusalem with great joy.
They worshipped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy,
And they worshiped him, and returned to Jerusalem with great joy:
- 53 And they were in the Temple at all times, giving praise to God.
and were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.
And were continually in the temple, praising and blessing God. Amen.

1 From the first he was the Word, and the Word was in relation with God and was God.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.
In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God.

2 This Word was from the first in relation with God.
The same was in the beginning with God.
The same was in the beginning with God.

3 All things came into existence through him, and without him nothing was.
All things were made through him. Without him was not anything made that has been made.
All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made.

4 What came into existence in him was life, and the life was the light of men.
In him was life, and the life was the light of men.
In him was life; and the life was the light of men.

5 And the light goes on shining in the dark; it is not overcome by the dark.
The light shines in the darkness, and the darkness hasn't overcome it.
And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

6 There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.
There came a man, sent from God, whose name was John.
There was a man sent from God, whose name was John.

7 He came for witness, to give witness about the light, so that all men might have faith through him.
The same came as a witness, that he might testify about the light, that all might believe through him.
The same came for a witness, to bear testimony of the Light, that all men through him might believe.

- 8 He himself was not the light: he was sent to give witness about the light.
He was not the light, but was sent that he might testify about the light.
He was not that Light, but was sent to bear testimony of that Light.
- 9 The true light, which gives light to every man, was then coming into the world.
The true light that enlightens everyone was coming into the world.
That was the true Light, which lighteth every man that cometh into the world.
- 10 He was in the world, the world which came into being through him, but the world had no knowledge of him.
He was in the world, and the world was made through him, and the world didn't recognize him.
He was in the world, and the world was made by him, and the world knew him not.
- 11 He came to the things which were his and his people did not take him to their hearts.
He came to his own, and those who were his own didn't receive him.
He came to his own, and his own received him not.
- 12 To all those who did so take him, however, he gave the right of becoming children of God--that is, to those who had faith in his name:
But as many as received him, to them he gave the right to become God's children, to those who believe in his name:
But as many as received him, to them he gave power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name:
- 13 Whose birth was from God and not from blood, or from an impulse of the flesh and man's desire.
who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
Who were born, not of blood, nor of the will of the flesh, nor of the will of man, but of God.
- 14 And so the Word became flesh and took a place among us for a time; and we saw his glory--such glory as is given to an only son by his father--saw it to be true and full of grace.
The Word became flesh, and lived among us. We saw his glory, such glory as of the only Son of the Father, full of grace and truth.
And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us, (and we beheld his glory, the glory as of the only begotten of the Father,) full of grace and truth.

- 15 John gave witness about him, crying, This is he of whom I said, He who is coming after me is put over me because he was in existence before me.
John testified about him. He cried out, saying, "This was he of whom I said, `He who comes after me has surpassed me, for he was before me.`"
John testified concerning him, and cried, saying, This was he of whom I spoke, He that cometh after me, is preferred before me; for he was before me.
- 16 From his full measure we have all been given grace on grace.
From his fullness we all received grace upon grace.
And of his fullness have we all received, and grace for grace.
- 17 For the law was given through Moses; grace and the true way of life are ours through Jesus Christ.
For the law was given through Moses. Grace and truth came through Jesus Christ.
For the law was given by Moses, but grace and truth came by Jesus Christ.
- 18 No man has seen God at any time; the only Son, who is on the breast of the Father, he has made clear what God is.
No one has seen God at any time. The only conceived Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has declared him.
No man hath seen God at any time; the only begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he hath declared him.
- 19 And this is the witness of John when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to him with the question, Who are you?
This is John`s testimony, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem to ask him, "Who are you?"
And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem, to ask him, Who art thou?
- 20 He said quite openly and straightforwardly, I am not the Christ.
He confessed, and didn` t deny, but he confessed, "I am not the Christ."
And he confessed, and denied not; but confessed, I am not the Christ.

- 21 And they said to him, What then? Are you Elijah? And he said, I am not. Are you the prophet? And his answer was, I am not.
They asked him, "What then? Are you Elijah?" He said, "I am not." "Are you the prophet?" He answered, "No."
And they asked him, What then? Art thou Elijah? and he saith, I am not. Art thou that prophet? And he answered, No.
- 22 So they said to him, Who are you then? We have to give some answer to those who sent us. What have you to say about yourself?
They said therefore to him, "Who are you? Give us an answer to take back to those who sent us. What do you say about yourself?"
Then said they to him, Who art thou? that we may give an answer to them that sent us. What sayest thou of thyself?
- 23 He said, I am the voice of one crying in the waste land, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said Isaiah the prophet.
He said, "I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, `Make straight the way of the Lord,` as Isaiah the prophet said."
He said, I am the voice of one crying in the wilderness, Make straight the way of the Lord, as said the prophet Isaiah.
- 24 Those who had been sent came from the Pharisees.
The ones who had been sent were from the Pharisees.
And they who were sent were of the Pharisees.
- 25 And they put this question to him, saying, Why then are you giving baptism if you are not the Christ, or Elijah, or the prophet?
They asked him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Christ, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"
And they asked him, and said to him, Why baptizest thou then, if thou art not that Christ, nor Elijah, neither that prophet?
- 26 John's answer was: I give baptism with water; but there is one among you of whom you have no knowledge;
John answered them, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one whom you don't know,
John answered them, saying, I baptize with water: but there standeth one among you, whom ye know not;

- 27 It is he who is coming after me; I am not good enough to undo his shoes.
he who comes after me, whose sandal strap I'm not worthy to untie."
He it is, who coming after me, is preferred before me, whose shoes' latchet I am not worthy to unloose.
- 28 These things took place at Bethany on the other side of the Jordan, where John was giving baptism.
These things were done in Bethany beyond the Jordan, where John was baptizing.
These things were done in Bethabara beyond Jordan, where John was baptizing.
- 29 The day after, John sees Jesus coming to him and says, See, here is the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world!
On the next day, he saw Jesus coming to him, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world!
The next day John seeth Jesus coming to him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, who taketh away the sin of the world.
- 30 This is he of whom I said, One is coming after me who is put over me because he was in existence before me.
This is he of whom I said, `After me comes a man who is preferred before me, for he was before me.`
This is he of whom I said, after me cometh a man who is preferred before me; for he was before me.
- 31 I myself had no knowledge of him, but I came giving baptism with water so that he might be seen openly by Israel.
I didn't know him, but for this reason I came baptizing in water: that he would be revealed to Israel."
And I knew him not: but that he should be made manifest to Israel, therefore am I come baptizing with water.
- 32 And John gave this witness, saying, I saw the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove and resting on him.
John testified, saying, "I have seen the Spirit descending like a dove out of heaven, and it remained on him.
And John bore testimony, saying, I saw the Spirit descending from heaven like a dove, and it abode upon him.
- 33 I had no knowledge who he was, but he who sent me to give baptism with water said to me, The one on whom you see the Spirit coming down and resting, it is he who gives baptism with the Holy Spirit.
I didn't recognize him, but he who sent me to baptize in water, he said to me, `On whoever you will see the Spirit descending, and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizes in the Holy Spirit.`
And I knew him not: but he that sent me to baptize with water, the same said to me, Upon whom thou shalt see the Spirit descending and remaining on him, the same is he who baptizeth with the Holy Spirit.

34 This I saw myself and my witness is that he is the Son of God.

I have seen, and have testified that this is the Son of God."

And I saw and bore testimony, that this is the Son of God.

35 The day after, John was there again with two of his disciples;

Again, on the next day, John was standing with two of his disciples,

Again the next day after, John stood, and two of his disciples;

36 And looking at Jesus while he was walking he said, See, there is the Lamb of God!

and he looked at Jesus as he walked, and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God!"

And looking upon Jesus as he walked, he saith, Behold the Lamb of God!

37 Hearing what he said, the two disciples went after Jesus.

The two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

And the two disciples heard him speak, and they followed Jesus.

38 And Jesus, turning round, saw them coming after him and said to them, What are you looking for? They said to him, Rabbi (which is to say, Master), where are you living?

Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith to them, What seek ye? They said to him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou?

Jesus turned, and saw them following, and said to them, "What are you looking for?" They said to him, "Rabbi" (which is to say, being interpreted, Teacher), "where are you staying?"

Then Jesus turned, and saw them following, and saith to them, What seek ye? They said to him, Rabbi (which is to say, being interpreted, Master) where dwellest thou?

- 39 He said to them, Come and see. They went with him then and saw where he was living; and they were with him all that day: it was then about the tenth hour of the day.
He said to them, "Come, and see." They came and saw where he was staying, and they stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.
He saith to them, Come and see. They came and saw where he dwelt, and abode with him that day: for it was about the tenth hour.
- 40 Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two men who, hearing what John said, went after Jesus.
One of the two who heard John, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
One of the two who heard John speak, and followed him, was Andrew, Simon Peter's brother.
- 41 Early in the morning he came across his brother and said to him, We have made discovery! It is the Messiah! (which is to say, the Christ).
He first found his own brother, Simon, and said to him, "We have found the Messiah!" (which is, being interpreted, Christ).
He first findeth his own brother Simon, and saith to him, We have found the Messiah; which is, being interpreted, the Christ.
- 42 And he took him to Jesus. Looking at him fixedly Jesus said, You are Simon, the son of John; your name will be Cephas (which is to say, Peter).
He brought him to Jesus. Jesus looked at him, and said, "You are Simon the son of Jonah. You shall be called Cephas" (which is by interpretation, Peter).
And he brought him to Jesus. And when Jesus beheld him, he said, Thou art Simon the son of Jona: thou shalt be called Cephas; which is, by interpretation, a stone.
- 43 The day after this, Jesus had a desire to go into Galilee. He came across Philip and said to him, Come and be my disciple.
On the next day, he was determined to go forth into Galilee, and he found Philip. Jesus said to him, "Follow me."
The day following Jesus would go forth into Galilee, and findeth Philip, and saith to him, follow me.
- 44 Now Philip's town was Beth-saida, where Andrew and Peter came from.
Now Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter.
Now Philip was of Bethsaida, the city of Andrew and Peter.

- 45 Philip came across Nathanael and said to him, We have made a discovery! It is he of whom Moses, in the law, and the prophets were writing, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.
Philip found Nathanael, and said to him, "We have found him, of whom Moses in the law, and the prophets, wrote: Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph."
Philip findeth Nathanael, and saith to him, We have found him described by Moses in the law, and by the prophets, Jesus of Nazareth, the son of Joseph.
- 46 Nazareth! said Nathanael, Is it possible for any good to come out of Nazareth? Philip said to him, Come and see.
Nathanael said to him, "Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" Philip said to him, "Come and see."
And Nathanael said to him, Can there any good thing come out of Nazareth? Philip saith to him, Come and see.
- 47 Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him and said of him, See, here is a true son of Israel in whom there is nothing false.
Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and said about him, "Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no deceit!"
Jesus saw Nathanael coming to him, and saith of him, Behold an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!
- 48 Nathanael said to him, Where did you get knowledge of me? In answer Jesus said, Before Philip was talking with you, while you were still under the fig-tree, I saw you.
Nathanael says to him, "How do you know me?" Jesus answered him, "Before Philip called you, when you were under the fig tree, I saw you."
Nathanael saith to him, Whence knowest thou me? Jesus answered and said to him, Before Philip called thee, when thou wast under the fig-tree, I saw thee.
- 49 Nathanael said to him, Rabbi, you are the Son of God, you are King of Israel!
Nathanael answered him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God! You are King of Israel!"
Nathanael answered and said to him, Rabbi, thou art the Son of God; thou art the King of Israel.
- 50 In answer Jesus said to him, You have faith because I said to you, I saw you under the fig-tree. You will see greater things than these.
Jesus answered him, "Because I told you, `I saw you underneath the fig tree,` do you believe? You will see greater things than these."
Jesus answered and said to him, Because I said to thee, I saw thee under the fig-tree, dost thou believe? thou shalt see greater things than these.

- 51 And he said to him, Truly I say to you all, You will see heaven opening and God's angels going up and coming down on the Son of man.
He said to him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, hereafter you will see heaven opened, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."
And he saith to him, Verily, verily, I say to you, Hereafter ye shall see heaven open, and the angels of God ascending and descending upon the Son of man.
- 1 On the third day two people were going to be married at Cana in Galilee. The mother of Jesus was there:
The third day, there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee. Jesus` mother was there.
And the third day there was a marriage in Cana of Galilee; and the mother of Jesus was there.
- 2 And Jesus with his disciples came as guests.
Jesus also was invited, with his disciples, to the marriage.
And both Jesus was called, and his disciples, to the marriage.
- 3 When they had not enough wine, the mother of Jesus said to him, They have no wine.
When the wine ran out, Jesus` Mother said to him, "They have no wine."
And when they wanted wine, the mother of Jesus saith to him, They have no wine.
- 4 Jesus said to her, Woman, this is not your business; my time is still to come.
Jesus said to her, "Woman, what does that have to do with you and me? My hour has not yet come."
Jesus saith to her, Woman, what have I to do with thee? my hour is not yet come.
- 5 His mother said to the servants, Whatever he says to you, do it.
His mother said to the servants, "Whatever he says to you, do it."
His mother saith to the servants, Whatever he saith to you, do it.
- 6 Now six pots of stone, every one taking two or three firkins of water, were placed there for the purpose of washing, as is the way of the Jews.
Now there were six water pots of stone set there after the Jews` manner of purifying, containing two or three metretes apiece.
And there were set there six waterpots of stone, after the manner of the purifying of the Jews, containing two or three firkins apiece.

- 7 Jesus said to the servants, Make the pots full of water. And they made them full to the top.
Jesus said to them, "Fill the water pots with water." They filled them up to the brim.
Jesus saith to them, Fill the waterpots with water. And they filled them to the brim.
- 8 Then he said to them, Now take some, and give it to the master of the feast. So they took it to him.
He said to them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the ruler of the feast." They took it.
And he saith to them, Draw out now, and bear to the governor of the feast. And they bore it.
- 9 After tasting the water which had now become wine, the master of the feast (having no idea where it came from, though it was clear to the servants who took the water out) sent for the newly-married man,
When the ruler of the feast tasted the water now become wine, and didn't know where it came from (but the servants who had drawn the water knew), the ruler of the feast called the bridegroom,
When the ruler of the feast had tasted the water that was made wine, and knew not whence it was; (but the servants who drew the water knew) the governor of the feast called the bridegroom,
- 10 And said to him, Every man first puts out his best wine and when all have had enough he puts out what is not so good; but you have kept the good wine till now.
and said to him, "Everyone serves the good wine first, and when the guests have drunk freely, then that which is worse. You have kept the good wine until now!"
And saith to him, Every man at the beginning presenteth good wine; and when men have well drunk, then that which is worse: but thou hast kept the good wine until now.
- 11 This, the first of his signs, Jesus did at Cana in Galilee and let his glory be seen openly; and his disciples put their faith in him.
This beginning of his signs Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and revealed his glory. His disciples believed in him.
This beginning of miracles Jesus performed in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory; and his disciples believed on him.
- 12 After this he went down to Capernaum, with his mother, his brothers, and his disciples, and they were there not more than two or three days.
After this, he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, his brothers, and his disciples; and there they stayed not many days.
After this he went down to Capernaum, he, and his mother, and his brethren, and his disciples; and they continued there not many days.

- 13 The time of the Passover of the Jews was near and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
The Passover of the Jews was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
And the Jews' passover was at hand, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem,
- 14 And there in the Temple he saw men trading in oxen and sheep and doves, and he saw the changers of money in their seats:
He found in the temple those who sold oxen, sheep, and doves, and the changers of money sitting.
And found in the temple those that sold oxen, and sheep, and doves, and the changers of money, sitting:
- 15 And he made a whip of small cords and put them all out of the Temple, with the sheep and the oxen, sending in all directions the small money of the changers and overturning their tables;
He made a whip of cords, and threw all out of the temple, both the sheep and the oxen; and he poured out the changers' money, and overthrew their tables.
And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple, and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changers' money, and overthrew the tables;
- 16 And to those who were trading in doves he said, Take these things away; do not make my Father's house a market.
To those who sold the doves, he said, "Take these things out of here! Don't make my Father's house a marketplace!"
And said to them that sold doves, Take these things hence: make not my Father's house a house of merchandise.
- 17 And it came to the minds of the disciples that the Writings say, I am on fire with passion for your house.
His disciples remembered that it was written, "Zeal for your house will eat me up."
And his disciples remembered that it was written, The zeal of thy house hath eaten me up.
- 18 Then the Jews put this question to him: What sign of authority have you to give us, seeing that you do these things?
The Jews therefore answered him, "What sign do you show to us, seeing that you do these things?"
Then answered the Jews, and said to him, What sign showest thou to us, seeing that thou doest these things?
- 19 And Jesus said to them, Send destruction on this Temple and I will put it up again in three days.
Jesus answered them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up."
Jesus answered and said to them, Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up.

- 20 The Jews said, The building of this Temple took forty-six years; and you will put it up in three days!
The Jews therefore said, "Forty-six years was this temple in building, and will you raise it up in three days?"
Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days?
- 21 But his words were about that holy building which was his body.
But he spoke of the temple of his body.
But he spoke of the temple of his body.
- 22 So when he had come back again from the dead, the memory of these words came back to the disciples, and they had faith in the holy Writings and in the word which Jesus had said.
When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he said this, and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had said.
When therefore he had risen from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them: and they believed the scripture, and the word which Jesus had spoken.
- 23 Now while he was in Jerusalem at the feast of the Passover, a great number of people came to have faith in his name, after seeing the signs which he did.
Now when he was in Jerusalem at the Passover, during the feast, many believed in his name, observing his signs which he did.
Now when he was in Jerusalem at the passover, in the feast day, many believed in his name, when they saw the miracles which he performed.
- 24 But Jesus did not have faith in them, because he had knowledge of them all.
But Jesus didn't trust himself to them, because he knew all people,
But Jesus did not commit himself to them, because he knew all men.
- 25 He had no need for any witness about man; for he himself had knowledge of what was in man.
and because he didn't need for anyone to testify concerning man; for he himself knew what was in man.
And needed not that any should testify concerning man: for he knew what was in man.
- 1 Now there was among the Pharisees a man named Nicodemus, who was one of the rulers of the Jews.
Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews.
There was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews:

- 2 He came to Jesus by night and said to him, Rabbi, we are certain that you have come from God as a teacher, because no man would be able to do these signs which you do if God was not with him.
The same came to him by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher come from God, for no one can do these signs that you do, unless God is with him."
The same came to Jesus by night, and said to him, Rabbi, we know that thou art a teacher come from God: for no man can do these miracles that thou doest, except God be with him.
- 3 Jesus said to him, Truly, I say to you, Without a new birth no man is able to see the kingdom of God.
Jesus answered him, "Most assuredly, I tell you, unless one is born anew, he can't see the kingdom of God."
Jesus answered and said to him, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.
- 4 Nicodemus said to him, How is it possible for a man to be given birth when he is old? Is he able to go into his mother's body a second time and come to birth again?
Nicodemus said to him, "How can a man be born when he is old? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"
Nicodemus saith to him, How can a man be born when he is old? can he enter the second time into his mother's womb, and be born?
- 5 Jesus said in answer, Truly, I say to you, If a man's birth is not from water and from the Spirit, it is not possible for him to go into the kingdom of God.
Jesus answered, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he can't enter into the kingdom of God!
Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say to thee, Except a man be born of water, and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
- 6 That which has birth from the flesh is flesh, and that which has birth from the Spirit is spirit.
That which is born of the flesh is flesh. That which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
That which is born of the flesh, is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit, is spirit.
- 7 Do not be surprised that I say to you, It is necessary for you to have a second birth.
Don't marvel that I said to you, `You must be born anew.`
Marvel not that I said to thee, Ye must be born again.

- 8 The wind goes where its pleasure takes it, and the sound of it comes to your ears, but you are unable to say where it comes from and where it goes: so it is with everyone whose birth is from the Spirit.
The wind blows where it wants to, and you hear its sound, but don't know where it comes from and where it is going. So is everyone who is born of the Spirit.
The wind bloweth where it will, and thou hearest the sound of it, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.
- 9 And Nicodemus said to him, How is it possible for these things to be?
Nicodemus answered him, "How can these things be?"
Nicodemus answered and said to him, How can these things be?
- 10 And Jesus, answering, said, Are you the teacher of Israel and have no knowledge of these things?
Jesus answered him, "Are you the teacher of Israel, and don't understand these things?"
Jesus answered and said to him, Art thou a teacher of Israel, and knowest not these things?
- 11 Truly, I say to you, We say that of which we have knowledge; we give witness of what we have seen; and you do not take our witness to be true.
Most assuredly I tell you, we speak that which we know, and testify of that which we have seen, and you don't receive our witness.
Verily, verily, I say to thee, We speak what we know, and testify what we have seen; and ye receive not our testimony.
- 12 If you have no belief when my words are about the things of earth, how will you have belief if my words are about the things of heaven?
If I told you earthly things and you don't believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things?
If I have told you earthly things, and ye believe not, how will ye believe if I tell you heavenly things?
- 13 And no one has ever gone up to heaven but he who came down from heaven, the Son of man.
No one has ascended into heaven, but he who descended out of heaven, the Son of Man, who is in heaven.
And no man hath ascended to heaven, but he that came down from heaven, even the Son of man who is in heaven.

- 14 As the snake was lifted up by Moses in the waste land, even so it is necessary for the Son of man to be lifted up:
As Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
And as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, even so must the Son of man be lifted up:
- 15 So that whoever has faith may have in him eternal life.
that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
That whoever believeth in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
- 16 For God had such love for the world that he gave his only Son, so that whoever has faith in him may not come to destruction but have eternal life.
For God so loved the world, that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish, but have eternal life.
For God so loved the world, that he gave his only-begotten Son, that whoever believeth in him, should not perish, but have everlasting life.
- 17 God did not send his Son into the world to be judge of the world; he sent him so that the world might have salvation through him.
For God didn't send his Son into the world to judge the world, but that the world should be saved through him.
For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him may be saved.
- 18 The man who has faith in him does not come up to be judged; but he who has no faith in him has been judged even now, because he has no faith in the name of the only Son of God.
He who believes in him is not judged. He who doesn't believe has been judged already, because he has not believed in the name of the only born Son of God.
He that believeth on him, is not condemned: but he that believeth not, is condemned already, because he hath not believed in the name of the only-begotten Son of God.
- 19 And this is the test by which men are judged: the light has come into the world and men have more love for the dark than for the light, because their acts are evil.
This is the judgment, that the light has come into the world, and men loved the darkness rather than the light; for their works were evil.
And this is the condemnation, that light is come into the world, and men have loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil.

20 The light is hated by everyone whose acts are evil and he does not come to the light for fear that his acts will be seen.
For everyone who does evil hates the light, and doesn't come to the light, for fear that his works would be reprov'd.
For every one that doeth evil hateth the light, neither cometh to the light, lest his deeds should be reprov'd.

21 But he whose life is true comes to the light, so that it may be clearly seen that his acts have been done by the help of God.
But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his works may be revealed, that they have been done with God."
But he that doeth truth, cometh to the light, that his deeds may be made manifest, that they are wrought in God.

22 After these things Jesus and his disciples went into the land of Judaea, and there he was with them for some time, giving baptism.
After these things, Jesus came with his disciples into the land of Judea. He stayed there with them, and baptized.
After these things came Jesus and his disciples into the land of Judea; and there he tarried with them, and baptized.

23 Now John was then giving baptism at Aenon near Salim, because there was much water there; and people came and were given baptism.
John also was baptizing in Enon near Salim, because there was much water there. They came, and were baptized.
And John also was baptizing in Enon, near to Salim, because there was much water there: and they came, and were baptized.

24 For at this time John had not been put into prison.
For John was not yet thrown into prison.
For John was not yet cast into prison.

25 Then a question came up between John's disciples and a Jew about washing.
There arose therefore a questioning on the part of John's disciples with some Jews about purification.
Then there arose a question between some of John's disciples and the Jews, about purifying.

- 26 And they went to John and said to him, Rabbi, the man who was with you on the other side of the Jordan, the man to whom you gave witness, is now giving baptism, and everyone is going to him.
They came to John, and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you beyond the Jordan, to whom you have testified, behold, the same baptizes, and all men come to him."
And they came to John, and said to him, Rabbi, he that was with thee beyond Jordan, to whom thou didst bear testimony, behold, the same baptizeth, and all men come to him.
- 27 And this was John's answer: A man is unable to have anything if it is not given to him from heaven.
John answered, "A man can receive nothing, unless it has been given him from heaven."
John answered and said, A man can receive nothing, except it be given him from heaven.
- 28 You yourselves give witness that I said, I am not the Christ. What I said was, I am sent before the Christ.
You yourselves testify about me, that I said, `I am not the Christ,` but, `I have been sent before him.`
Ye yourselves bear me testimony, that I said I am not the Christ, but that I am sent before him.
- 29 He who has the bride is the husband: but the husband's friend, whose place is by his side and whose ears are open to him, is full of joy because of the husband's voice: such is my joy, and it is complete.
He who has the bride is the bridegroom; but the friend of the bridegroom, who stands and hears him, rejoices greatly because of the bridegroom's voice. This, my joy, therefore is made full.
He that hath the bride, is the bridegroom: but the friend of the bridegroom, who standeth and heareth him, rejoiceth greatly, because of the bridegroom's voice: this my joy therefore is fulfilled.
- 30 He has to become greater while I become less.
He must increase, but I must decrease.
He must increase, but I must decrease.
- 31 He who comes from heaven is greater than all others: he who comes from earth is of the earth, and of the earth are his words: he who comes from heaven is over all.
He who comes from above is above all. He who is from the Earth belongs to the Earth, and speaks of the Earth. He who comes from heaven is above all.
He that cometh from above is above all: he that is of the earth is earthly, and speaketh of the earth: he that cometh from heaven is above all.

- 32 He gives witness of what he has seen and of what has come to his ears; and no man takes his witness as true.
What he has seen and heard, of that he testifies; and no one receives his witness.
And what he hath seen and heard, that he testifieth; and no man receiveth his testimony.
- 33 He who so takes his witness has made clear his faith that God is true.
He who has received his witness has set his seal to this, that God is true.
He that hath received his testimony, hath set to his seal that God is true.
- 34 For he whom God has sent says God's words; and God does not give him the Spirit by measure.
For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; for God gives the Spirit without measure.
For he whom God hath sent, speaketh the words of God: for to him God giveth not the Spirit by measure.
- 35 The Father has love for the Son and has put all things into his hands.
The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand.
The Father loveth the Son, and hath given all things into his hand.
- 36 He who has faith in the Son has eternal life; but he who has not faith in the Son will not see life; God's wrath is resting on him.
He who believes in the Son has eternal life, but he who disobeys the Son won't see life, but the wrath of God remains on him."
He that believeth on the Son, hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son, shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.
- 1 Now when it was clear to the Lord that word had come to the ears of the Pharisees that Jesus was making more disciples than John and was giving them baptism
Therefore when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John
When therefore the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus made and baptized more disciples than John,
- 2 (Though, in fact, it was his disciples who gave baptism, not Jesus himself),
(although Jesus himself didn't baptize, but his disciples),
(Though Jesus himself baptized not, but his disciples,)

- 3 He went out of Judaea into Galilee again.
he left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.
He left Judea, and departed again into Galilee.
- 4 And it was necessary for him to go through Samaria.
He needed to pass through Samaria.
And he must needs go through Samaria.
- 5 So he came to a town of Samaria which was named Sychar, near to the bit of land which Jacob gave to his son Joseph:
So he came to a city of Samaria, called Sychar, near the parcel of ground that Jacob gave to his son, Joseph.
Then he cometh to a city of Samaria, which is called Sychar, near to the parcel of ground, that Jacob gave to his son Joseph.
- 6 Now Jacob's fountain was there. Jesus, being tired after his journey, was resting by the fountain. It was about the sixth hour.
Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore, being tired from his journey, sat down by the well. It was about the sixth hour.
Now Jacob's well was there. Jesus therefore being wearied with his journey, sat thus on the well: and it was about the sixth hour.
- 7 A woman of Samaria came to get water, and Jesus said to her, Give me some water.
A woman of Samaria came to draw water. Jesus said to her, "Give me a drink."
There cometh a woman of Samaria to draw water: Jesus saith to her, Give me to drink.
- 8 For his disciples had gone to the town to get food.
For his disciples had gone away into the city to buy food.
(For his disciples had gone to the city to buy provisions.)
- 9 The woman of Samaria said to him, Why do you, a Jew, make a request for water to me, a woman of Samaria? She said this because Jews have nothing to do with the people of Samaria.
The Samaritan woman therefore said to him, "How is it that you, being a Jew, ask for a drink from me, a Samaritan woman?"
(For Jews have no dealings with Samaritans.)
Then saith the woman of Samaria to him, How is it that thou, being a Jew, askest drink of me, who am a woman of Samaria? for the Jews have no dealings with the Samaritans.

- 10 In answer Jesus said, If you had knowledge of what God gives freely and who it is who says to you, Give me water, you would make your prayer to him, and he would give you living water.
Jesus answered her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is who says to you, `Give me a drink,` you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."
Jesus answered and said to her, If thou knewest the gift of God, and who it is that saith to thee, Give me to drink; thou wouldst have asked him, and he would have given thee living water.
- 11 The woman said to him, Sir, you have no vessel and the fountain is deep; from where will you get the living water?
The woman said to him, "Sir, you have nothing to draw with, and the well is deep. From where then have you that living water?
The woman saith to him, Sir, thou hast nothing to draw with, and the well is deep: from whence then hast thou that living water?
- 12 Are you greater than our father Jacob who gave us the fountain and took the water of it himself, with his children and his cattle?
Are you greater than our father, Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, as did his sons, and his cattle?"
Art thou greater than our father Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank of it himself, and his children, and his cattle?
- 13 Jesus said to her, Everyone who takes this water will be in need of it again:
Jesus answered her, "Everyone who drinks of this water will thirst again,
Jesus answered and said to her, Whoever drinketh of this water, shall thirst again:
- 14 But whoever takes the water I give him will never be in need of drink again; for the water I give him will become in him a fountain of eternal life.
but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him will never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life."
But whoever drinketh of the water that I shall give him, shall never thirst; but the water that I shall give him, shall be in him a well of water springing up into everlasting life.
- 15 The woman said to him, Sir, give me this water, so that I may not be in need again of drink and will not have to come all this way for it.
The woman said to him, "Sir, give me this water, so that I don't get thirsty, neither come all the way here to draw."
The woman saith to him, Sir, give me this water, that I may not thirst, neither come hither to draw.

- 16 Jesus said to her, Go, get your husband and come back here with him.
Jesus said to her, "Go, call your husband, and come here."
Jesus saith to her, Go, call thy husband, and come hither.
- 17 In answer, the woman said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, You have said rightly, I have no husband:
The woman answered, "I have no husband." Jesus said to her, "You said well, `I have no husband,`
The woman answered and said, I have no husband. Jesus said to her, Thou hast well said, I have no husband:
- 18 You have had five husbands, and the man you have now is not your husband: that was truly said.
for you have had five husbands; and he whom you now have is not your husband. This you have said truly."
For thou hast had five husbands, and he whom thou now hast, is not thy husband: in that thou hast spoken truth.
- 19 The woman said to him, Sir, I see that you are a prophet.
The woman said to him, "Sir, I perceive that you are a prophet.
The woman saith to him, Sir, I perceive that thou art a prophet.
- 20 Our fathers gave worship on this mountain, but you Jews say that the right place for worship is in Jerusalem.
Our fathers worshipped in this mountain, and you Jews say that in Jerusalem is the place where people ought to worship."
Our fathers worshiped in this mountain; and ye say, that in Jerusalem is the place where men ought to worship.
- 21 Jesus said to her, Woman, take my word for this; the time is coming when you will not give worship to the Father on this mountain or in Jerusalem.
Jesus said to her, "Woman, believe me, the hour comes, when neither in this mountain, nor in Jerusalem, will you worship the Father.
Jesus saith to her, Woman, believe me, the hour cometh, when ye shall neither in this mountain, nor yet at Jerusalem, worship the Father.
- 22 You give worship, but without knowledge of what you are worshipping: we give worship to what we have knowledge of: for salvation comes from the Jews.
You worship that which you don't know. We worship that which we know; for salvation is from the Jews.
Ye worship ye know not what: we know what we worship, for salvation is from the Jews.

23 But the time is coming, and is even now here, when the true worshippers will give worship to the Father in the true way of the spirit, for these are the worshippers desired by the Father.
But the hour comes, and now is, when the true worshippers will worship the Father in spirit and truth, for the Father seeks such to be his worshippers.

But the hour cometh, and now is, when the true worshipers shall worship the Father in spirit and in truth: for the Father seeketh such to worship him.

24 God is Spirit: then let his worshippers give him worship in the true way of the spirit.

God is a Spirit, and those who worship him must worship in spirit and truth."

God is a Spirit: and they that worship him, must worship him in spirit and in truth.

25 The woman said to him, I am certain that the Messiah, who is named Christ, is coming; when he comes he will make all things clear to us.

The woman said to him, "I know that Messiah comes," (he who is called Christ). "When he has come, he will declare to us all things."

The woman saith to him, I know that Messiah cometh, who is called Christ; when he is come, he will tell us all things.

26 Jesus said to her, I, who am talking to you, am he.

Jesus said to her, "I who speak to you am he."

Jesus saith to her, I that speak to thee am he.

27 At that point the disciples came back, and they were surprised to see him talking to a woman; but not one of them said to him, What is your purpose? or, Why are you talking to her?

At this, his disciples came. They marveled that he was speaking with a woman; yet no one said, "What are you looking for?" or, "Why do you speak with her?"

And upon this came his disciples, and marveled that he talked with the woman: yet no man said, What seekest thou? or, Why talkest thou with her?

28 Then the woman put down her water-pot and went into the town, and said to the people,

So the woman left her water pot, and went away into the city, and said to the people,

The woman then left her waterpot, and went into the city, and saith to the men,

- 29 Come and see a man who has been talking to me of everything I ever did! Is it possible that this is the Christ?
"Come, see a man who told me everything that I did. Can this be the Christ?"
Come, see a man who hath told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?
- 30 So they went out of the town and came to him.
They went out of the city, and were coming to him.
Then they went out of the city, and came to him.
- 31 While this was taking place, the disciples were saying to Jesus, Master, take some food.
In the meanwhile, the disciples urged him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."
In the mean while his disciples prayed him, saying, Master, eat.
- 32 But he said to them, I have food of which you have no knowledge.
But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you don't know about."
But he said to them, I have food to eat that ye know not of.
- 33 So the disciples said one to another, Did anyone give him food?
The disciples therefore said one to another, "Has anyone brought him something to eat?"
Therefore said the disciples one to another, Hath any man brought him aught to eat?
- 34 Jesus said, My food is to do the pleasure of him who sent me and to make his work complete.
Jesus said to them, "My food is to do the will of him who sent me, and to accomplish his work.
Jesus saith to them, My food is to do the will of him that sent me, and to finish his work.
- 35 You would say, Four months from now is the time of the grain-cutting. Take a look, I say to you, at the fields; they are even now white for cutting.
Don't you say, `There are yet four months until the harvest?` Behold, I tell you, lift up your eyes, and look at the fields, that they are white already to harvest.
Say not ye, There are yet four months, and then cometh harvest? behold, I say to you, Lift up your eyes, and look on the fields; for they are white already to harvest.

36 He who does the cutting now has his reward; he is getting together fruit for eternal life, so that he who did the planting and he who gets in the grain may have joy together.
He who reaps receives wages, and gathers fruit to eternal life; that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together.
And he that reapeth receiveth wages, and gathereth fruit to life eternal: that both he that soweth, and he that reapeth, may rejoice together.

37 In this the saying is a true one, One does the planting, and another gets in the grain.
For in this the saying is true, `One sows, and another reaps.`
And herein is that saying true, One soweth, and another reapeth.

38 I sent you to get in grain which you had no hand in planting: other men did that work, and you take the reward.
I sent you to reap that for which you haven't labored. Others have labored, and you have entered into their labor."
I sent you to reap that on which ye bestowed no labor: other men labored, and ye have entered into their labors.

39 Now a number of the people of that town had faith in him because of the woman's witness: He has been talking to me of everything I ever did.
From that city many of the Samaritans believed in him because of the word of the woman, who testified, `He told me everything that I did."
And many of the Samaritans of that city believed on him for the saying of the woman, who testified, He told me all that ever I did.

40 So when the people came to him they made request to him to be among them for a time, and he was there two days.
So when the Samaritans came to him, they begged him to stay with them. He stayed there two days.
So when the Samaritans had come to him, they besought him that he would tarry with them: and he abode there two days.

41 And a great number more of them came to have faith in him because of what he himself said.
Many more believed because of his word.
And many more believed, because of his own word;

- 42 And they said to the woman, Now we have faith, but not because of your story: we ourselves have given ear to his words, and we are certain that he is truly the Saviour of the world.
They said to the woman, "Now we believe, not because of your speaking; for we have heard for ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world."
And said to the woman, Now we believe, not because of thy saying: for we have heard him ourselves, and know that this is indeed the Christ, the Savior of the world.
- 43 And after the two days he went on from there into Galilee.
After the two days he went forth from there and went into Galilee.
Now after two days he departed thence, and went into Galilee.
- 44 For Jesus himself said that a prophet has no honour in the country of his birth.
For Jesus himself testified that a prophet has no honor in his own country.
For Jesus himself testified that a prophet hath no honor in his own country.
- 45 So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans took him to their hearts because of the things which they had seen him do in Jerusalem at the feast--they themselves having been there at the feast.
So when he came into Galilee, the Galilaeans received him, having seen all the things that he did in Jerusalem at the feast, for they also went to the feast.
Then when he had come into Galilee, the Galileans received him, having seen all the things that he did at Jerusalem at the feast: for they also went to the feast.
- 46 So he came to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And there was a certain man of high position whose son was ill at Capernaum.
He came therefore again to Cana of Galilee, where he made the water into wine. There was a certain nobleman whose son was sick at Capernaum.
So Jesus came again into Cana of Galilee, where he made the water wine. And there was a certain nobleman, whose son was sick at Capernaum.
- 47 When it came to his ears that Jesus had come from Judaea into Galilee, he went to him and made a request that he would come down to his son, who was near to death, and make him well.
When he heard that Jesus had come out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and begged him that he would come down and heal his son, for he was at the point of death.
When he heard that Jesus had come from Judea into Galilee, he went to him, and besought him that he would come down, and heal his son: for he was at the point of death.

- 48 Then Jesus said to him, You will not have faith if you do not see signs and wonders.
Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you see signs and wonders, you will in no way believe."
Then said Jesus to him, Except ye see signs and wonders, ye will not believe.
- 49 The man said, Sir, come down before my boy is dead.
The nobleman said to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."
The nobleman saith to him, Sir, come down ere my child dieth.
- 50 And Jesus said, Go in peace; your son is living. The man had faith in the word which Jesus said to him and went away.
Jesus said to him, "Go your way. Your son lives." The man believed the word that Jesus spoke to him, and he went his way.
Jesus saith to him, Go; thy son liveth. And the man believed the word that Jesus had spoken to him, and he departed.
- 51 And while he was going down, his servants came to him and said, Your boy is living.
As he was now going down, his servants met him and reported, saying "your child lives!"
And as he was now going down, his servants met him, and told him, saying, Thy son liveth.
- 52 So he put a question to them as to the hour when he became better; and they said to him, The disease went from him yesterday at the seventh hour.
So he inquired of them the hour when he began to get better. They said therefore to him, "Yesterday at the seventh hour, the fever left him."
Then he inquired of them the hour when he began to amend: and they said to him, Yesterday at the seventh hour the fever left him.
- 53 It was clear then to the father that this was the very time at which Jesus said to him, Your son is living. And he had faith in Jesus, he and all his family.
So the father knew that it was at that hour in which Jesus said to him, "Your son lives." He believed, as did his whole house.
So the father knew that it was at the same hour in which Jesus said to him, Thy son liveth: and he himself believed, and his whole house.
- 54 Now this is the second sign which Jesus did after he had come out of Judaea into Galilee.
This is again the second sign that Jesus did, having come out of Judea into Galilee.
This is again the second miracle that Jesus performed, when he had come from Judea into Galilee.

1 After these things there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
After these things, there was a feast of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.
After this there was a feast of the Jews: and Jesus went up to Jerusalem.

2 Now in Jerusalem near the sheep-market there is a public bath which in Hebrew is named Beth-zatha. It has five doorways.
Now in Jerusalem by the sheep gate, there is a pool, which is called in Hebrew, "Bethesda," having five porches.
Now there is at Jerusalem by the sheep market a pool, which is called in the Hebrew tongue, Bethesda, having five porches.

3 In these doorways there were a great number of people with different diseases: some unable to see, some without the power of walking, some with wasted bodies.
In these lay a great multitude of those who were sick, blind, lame, or paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water;
In these lay a great multitude of impotent persons, of blind, halt, withered, waiting for the moving of the water.

for an angel of the Lord went down at certain times into the pool, and stirred up the water. Whoever stepped in first after the stirring of the water was made whole of whatever disease he was afflicted with.
For an angel went down at a certain season into the pool, and agitated the water: whoever then first after the stirring of the water stepped in, was cured of whatever disease he had.

5 One man was there who had been ill for thirty-eight years.
A certain man was there, who had been sick for thirty-eight years.
And a certain man was there, who had an infirmity thirty and eight years.

6 When Jesus saw him there on the floor it was clear to him that he had been now a long time in that condition, and so he said to the man, Is it your desire to get well?
When Jesus saw him lying there, and knew that he had been sick for a long time, he asked him, "Do you want to be made well?"
When Jesus saw him lying, and knew that he had been now a long time in that case, he saith to him, Wilt thou be healed?

- 7 The ill man said in answer, Sir, I have nobody to put me into the bath when the water is moving; and while I am on the way down some other person gets in before me.
The sick man answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up, but while I`m coming, another steps down before me."
The impotent man answered him, Sir, I have no man, when the water is agitated, to put me into the pool: but while I am coming, another steppeth down before me.
- 8 Jesus said to him, Get up, take your bed and go.
Jesus said to him, "Arise, take up your mat, and walk."
Jesus saith to him, Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.
- 9 And the man became well straight away, and took up his bed and went. Now that day was the Sabbath.
Immediately, the man was made well, and took up his mat and walked. Now it was the Sabbath on that day.
And immediately the man was healed, and took up his bed, and walked: and on the same day was the sabbath.
- 10 So the Jews said to the man who had been made well, It is the Sabbath; and it is against the law for you to take up your bed.
So the Jews said to him who was cured, "It is the Sabbath. It is not lawful for you to carry your mat."
The Jews therefore said to him that was cured, it is the sabbath; it is not lawful for thee to carry thy bed.
- 11 He said to them, But he who made me well, said to me, Take up your bed and go.
He answered them, "He who made me well, the same said to me, `Take up your mat, and walk.`"
He answered them, He that healed me, the same said to me, Take up thy bed, and walk.
- 12 Then they put to him the question: Who is the man who said to you, Take it up and go?
Then they asked him, "Who is the man who said to you, `Take up your mat, and walk`?"
Then they asked him, What man is that who said to thee, Take up thy bed, and walk?
- 13 Now he who had been made well had no knowledge who it was, Jesus having gone away because of the number of people who were in that place.
But he who was healed didn`t know who it was, for Jesus had withdrawn, a crowd being in the place.
And he that was healed knew not who it was: for Jesus had conveyed himself away, a multitude being in that place.

- 14 After a time Jesus came across him in the Temple and said to him, See, you are well and strong; do no more sin for fear a worse thing comes to you.
Afterward Jesus found him in the temple, and said to him, "Behold, you are made well. Sin no more, so that nothing worse happens to you."
Afterward Jesus findeth him in the temple, and said to him, Behold, thou art cured: sin no more, lest a worse thing come to thee.
- 15 The man went away and said to the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
The man went away, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had made him well.
The man departed, and told the Jews that it was Jesus who had healed him.
- 16 And for this reason the Jews were turned against Jesus, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath.
For this cause the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to kill him, because he did these things on the Sabbath.
And therefore the Jews persecuted Jesus, and sought to slay him, because he had done these things on the sabbath.
- 17 But his answer was: My Father is still working even now, and so I am working.
But Jesus answered them, "My Father is still working, so I am working, too."
But Jesus answered them, My Father worketh hitherto, and I work.
- 18 For this cause the Jews had an even greater desire to put Jesus to death, because not only did he not keep the Sabbath but he said God was his Father, so making himself equal with God.
For this cause therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only broke the Sabbath, but also called God his own Father, making himself equal with God.
Therefore the Jews sought the more to kill him, because he not only had broken the sabbath, but said also that God was his Father, making himself equal with God.
- 19 So Jesus made answer and said, Truly I say to you, The Son is not able to do anything himself; he is able to do only what he sees the Father doing; whatever the Father does the Son does it in the same way.
Jesus therefore answered them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, the Son can do nothing of himself, but what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things he does, these the Son also does likewise.
Then answered Jesus, and said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, The Son can do nothing by himself, but what he seeth the Father do: for whatever things he doeth, these also doeth the Son likewise.

- 20 For the Father has love for the Son and lets him see everything which he does: and he will let him see greater works than these so that you may be full of wonder.
For the Father loves the Son, and shows him all things that he himself does. He will show him greater works than these, that you may marvel.
For the Father loveth the Son, and showeth him all things that himself doeth: and he will show him greater works than these, that ye may marvel.
- 21 In the same way, as the Father gives life to the dead, even so the Son gives life to those to whom he is pleased to give it.
For as the Father raises the dead and gives them life, even so the Son also gives life to whom he desires.
For as the Father raiseth the dead, and reviveth them; even so the Son reviveth whom he will.
- 22 The Father is not the judge of men, but he has given all decisions into the hands of the Son;
For neither does the Father judge any man, but he has given all judgment to the Son,
For the Father judgeth no man; but hath committed all judgment to the Son:
- 23 So that all men may give honour to the Son even as they give honour to the Father. He who gives no honour to the Son gives no honour to the Father who sent him.
that all may honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He who doesn't honor the Son doesn't honor the Father who sent him.
That all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father. He that honoreth not the Son, honoreth not the Father who hath sent him.
- 24 Truly I say to you, The man whose ears are open to my word and who has faith in him who sent me, has eternal life; he will not be judged, but has come from death into life.
Most assuredly I tell you, he who hears my word, and believes him who sent me, has eternal life, and doesn't come into judgment, but has passed out of death into life.
Verily, verily, I say to you, He that heareth my word, and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation; but hath passed from death to life.
- 25 Truly I say to you, The time is coming, it has even now come, when the voice of the Son of God will come to the ears of the dead, and those hearing it will have life.
Most assuredly, I tell you, the hour comes, and now is, when the dead will hear the Son of God's voice; and those who hear will live.
Verily, verily, I say to you, The hour is coming, and now is, when the dead shall hear the voice of the Son of God: and they that hear shall live.

- 26 For even as the Father has life in himself, so he has given to the Son to have life in himself.
For as the Father has life in himself, even so he gave to the Son also to have life in himself.
For as the Father hath life in himself, so hath he given to the Son to have life in himself;
- 27 And he has given him authority to be judge because he is the Son of man.
He also gave him authority to execute judgment, because he is a son of man.
And hath given him authority to execute judgment also, because he is the Son of man.
- 28 Do not be surprised at this: for the time is coming when his voice will come to all who are in the place of the dead,
Don` t marvel at this, for the hour comes, in which all that are in the tombs will hear his voice,
Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice,
- 29 And they will come out; those who have done good, into the new life; and those who have done evil, to be judged.
and will come forth; those who have done good, to the resurrection of life; and those who have done evil, to the resurrection of judgment.
And shall come forth; they that have done good to the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, to the resurrection of damnation.
- 30 Of myself I am unable to do anything: as the voice comes to me so I give a decision: and my decision is right because I have no desire to do what is pleasing to myself, but only what is pleasing to him who sent me.
I can of myself do nothing. As I hear, I judge, and my judgment is righteous; because I don` t seek my own will, but the will of my Father who sent me.
I can of my own self do nothing: as I hear, I judge: and my judgment is just; because I seek not my own will, but the will of the Father who hath sent me.
- 31 If I gave witness about myself, my witness would not be true.
"If I testify about myself, my witness is not valid.
If I testify concerning myself, my testimony is not true.

- 32 There is another who gives witness about me and I am certain that the witness he gives about me is true.
It is another who testifies about me. I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true.
There is another that testifieth concerning me, and I know that the testimony which he beareth concerning me is true.
- 33 You sent to John and he gave true witness.
You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth.
Ye sent to John, and he testified to the truth.
- 34 But I have no need of a man's witness: I only say these things so that you may have salvation.
But the testimony which I receive is not from man. However, I say these things that you may be saved.
But I receive not testimony from man: but these things I say, that ye may be saved.
- 35 He was a burning and shining light, and for a time you were ready to be happy in his light.
He was the lamp that burns and shines, and you were willing to rejoice for a while in his light.
He was a burning and a shining light: and ye were willing for a season to rejoice in his light.
- 36 But the witness which I have is greater than that of John: the work which the Father has given me to do, the very work which I am now doing, is a witness that the Father has sent me.
But the testimony which I have is greater than that of John, for the works which the Father has given me to accomplish, the very works that I do, testify about me, that the Father has sent me.
But I have greater testimony than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear testimony concerning me, that the Father hath sent me.
- 37 And the Father himself who sent me has given witness about me. Not one of you has ever given ear to his voice; his form you have not seen.
The Father himself, who sent me, has testified about me. You have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his form.
And the Father himself who hath sent me, hath borne testimony concerning me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.
- 38 And you have not kept his word in your hearts, because you have not faith in him whom he has sent.
You don't have his word living in you; for whom he sent, him you don't believe.
And ye have not his word abiding in you: for whom he hath sent, him ye believe not.

- 39 You make search in the holy Writings, in the belief that through them you get eternal life; and it is those Writings which give witness about me.
You search the scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life; and these are they which testify about me.
Search the scriptures; for in them ye think ye have eternal life: and they are they which testify of me.
- 40 And still you have no desire to come to me so that you may have life.
Yet you will not come to me, that you may have life.
And ye will not come to me, that ye may have life.
- 41 I do not take honour from men;
I don` t receive glory from men.
I receive not honor from men.
- 42 But I have knowledge of you that you have no love for God in your hearts.
But I know you, that you don` t have God` s love in yourselves.
But I know you, that ye have not the love of God in you.
- 43 I have come in my Father's name, and your hearts are not open to me. If another comes with no other authority but himself, you will give him your approval.
I have come in my Father` s name, and you don` t receive me. If another comes in his own name, you will receive him.
I am come in my Father's name, and ye receive me not: if another shall come in his own name, him ye will receive.
- 44 How is it possible for you to have faith while you take honour one from another and have no desire for the honour which comes from the only God?
How can you believe, who receive glory from one another, and you don` t seek the glory that comes from the only God?
How can ye believe, who receive honor one from another, and seek not the honor that cometh from God only?
- 45 Put out of your minds the thought that I will say things against you to the Father: the one who says things against you is Moses, on whom you put your hopes.
"Don` t think that I will accuse you to the Father. There is one who accuses you, even Moses, on whom you have set your hope.
Do not think that I will accuse you to the Father: there is one that accuseth you, even Moses, in whom ye trust.

46 If you had belief in Moses you would have belief in me; for his writings are about me.

For if you believed Moses, you would believe me; for he wrote about me.

For had ye believed Moses, ye would have believed me: for he wrote concerning me.

47 If you have no belief in his writings, how will you have belief in my words?

But if you don't believe his writings, how will you believe my words?"

But if ye believe not his writings, how shall ye believe my words?

1 After these things Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee--that is, the sea of Tiberias.

After these things, Jesus went away to the other side of the sea of Galilee, which is also called the Sea of Tiberias.

After these things Jesus went over the sea of Galilee, which is the sea of Tiberias.

2 And a great number of people went after him because they saw the signs which he did on those who were ill.

A great multitude followed him, because they saw the signs which he did on those who were sick.

And a great multitude followed him, because they saw his miracles which he performed on them that were diseased.

3 Then Jesus went up the mountain and was seated there with his disciples.

Jesus went up into the mountain, and he sat there with his disciples.

And Jesus went upon a mountain, and there he sat with his disciples.

4 Now the Passover, a feast of the Jews, was near.

Now the Passover, the feast of the Jews, was at hand.

And the passover, a feast of the Jews, was nigh.

5 Lifting up his eyes, Jesus saw a great number of people coming to where he was, and he said to Philip, Where may we get bread for all these people?

Jesus therefore lifting up his eyes, and seeing that a great multitude was coming to him, said to Philip, "Where are we to buy bread, that these may eat?"

When Jesus then lifted up his eyes, and saw a great company come to him, he saith to Philip, Whence shall we buy bread that these may eat?

- 6 This he said, testing him: for he had no doubt what he himself would do.
This he said to test him, for he himself knew what he would do.
(And this he said to prove him: for he himself knew what he would do.)
- 7 Philip made answer, Bread to the value of two hundred pence would not be enough even to give everyone a little.
Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that everyone of them may receive a little."
Philip answered him, Two hundred penny-worth of bread is not sufficient for them, that every one of them make take a little:
- 8 One of his disciples, Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, said to Jesus,
One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, said to him,
One of his disciples, Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, saith to him,
- 9 There is a boy here with five barley cakes and two fishes: but what is that among such a number?
"There is a boy here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are these among so many?"
There is a lad here, who hath five barley-loaves, and two small fishes: but what are they among so many?
- 10 Jesus said, Let the people be seated. Now there was much grass in that place. And those seated on the grass were about five thousand.
Jesus said, "Have the people sit down." Now there was much grass in that place. So the men sat down, in number about five thousand.
And Jesus said, Make the men sit down. (Now there was much grass in the place.) So the men sat down in number about five thousand.
- 11 Then Jesus took the cakes and having given praise to God, he gave them to the people who were seated, and the fishes in the same way, as much as they had need of.
Jesus took the loaves; and having given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those who were sitting down; likewise also of the fish as much as they desired.
And Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to them that were set down; and likewise of the fishes, as much as they would.

- 12 And when they had had enough, Jesus said to his disciples, Take up the broken bits which are over, so that nothing may be wasted.
When they were filled, he said to his disciples, "Gather up the broken pieces which are left over, that nothing be lost."
When they were satisfied, he said to his disciples, Gather the fragments that remain, that nothing may be lost.
- 13 So they took them up: twelve baskets full of broken bits of the five cakes which were over after the people had had enough.
So they gathered them up, and filled twelve baskets with broken pieces from the five barley loaves, which were left over by those who had eaten.
Therefore they gathered them, and filled twelve baskets with the fragments of the five barley-loaves, which remained over and above to them that had eaten.
- 14 And when the people saw the sign which he had done, they said, Truly, this is the prophet who is to come into the world.
When therefore the people saw the sign which Jesus did, they said, "This is truly the prophet who comes into the world."
Then those men, when they had seen the miracle that Jesus performed, said, This is truly that prophet that should come into the world.
- 15 Now when Jesus saw that the people were about to come and take him by force to make him a king, he went away again up the mountain by himself.
Jesus therefore, perceiving that they were about to come and take him by force, to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain by himself.
When Jesus therefore perceived that they would come and take him by force, to make him a king, he departed again to a mountain himself alone.
- 16 When evening came the disciples went down to the sea;
When evening came, his disciples went down to the sea,
And when evening had now come, his disciples went down to the sea,
- 17 And they took a boat and went across the sea in the direction of Capernaum. By then it was dark and still Jesus had not come to them.
and they entered into the boat, and were going over the sea to Capernaum. It was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.
And entered into a boat, and went over the sea towards Capernaum. And it was now dark, and Jesus had not come to them.

- 18 The sea was getting rough because of a strong wind which was blowing.
The sea was rising by reason of a great wind that blew.
And the sea arose by reason of a great wind that blew.
- 19 After they had gone three or four miles they saw Jesus walking on the sea and coming near to the boat; and they had great fear.
When therefore they had rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia, they saw Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing near to the boat; and they were afraid.
So when they had rowed about five and twenty or thirty furlongs, they see Jesus walking on the sea, and drawing nigh to the boat: and they were afraid.
- 20 But he said to them, It is I, have no fear.
But he said to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."
But he saith to them, It is I; be not afraid.
- 21 Then they readily took him into the boat: and straight away the boat was at the land to which they were going.
They were willing therefore to receive him into the boat. Immediately the boat was at the land where they were going.
Then they willingly received him into the boat: and immediately the boat was at the land whither they were going.
- 22 The day after, the people who were on the other side of the sea saw that only one small boat had been there, that Jesus had not gone in that boat with the disciples, but that the disciples had gone away by themselves.
On the next day, the multitude that stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, except the one which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus hadn't entered with his disciples into the boat, but his disciples went away alone
The day following, when the people who stood on the other side of the sea saw that there was no other boat there, save that one into which his disciples had entered, and that Jesus went not with his disciples into the boat, but that his disciples had gone away alone;
- 23 Some other boats, however, came from Tiberias near to the place where they had taken the bread after the Lord had given praise.
However boats from Tiberias came near to the place where they ate the bread after the Lord had given thanks.
(Yet there came other boats from Tiberias nigh to the place where they ate bread, after the Lord had given thanks:)

24 So when the people saw that Jesus was not there, or his disciples, they got into those boats and went over to Capernaum looking for Jesus.
When the multitude therefore saw that Jesus wasn't there, neither his disciples, they themselves got into the boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking Jesus.

When the people therefore saw that Jesus was not there, neither his disciples, they also took boats, and came to Capernaum, seeking for Jesus.

25 And when they came across him on the other side of the sea they said, Rabbi, when did you come here?

When they found him on the other side of the sea, they asked him, "Rabbi, when did you come here?"

And when they had found him on the other side of the sea, they said to him, Rabbi, when camest thou hither?

26 Jesus, answering them, said, Truly I say to you, You come after me, not because you saw signs, but because you were given the bread and had enough.

Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, you seek me, not because you saw signs, but because you ate of the loaves, and were filled.

Jesus answered them and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, Ye seek me, not because ye saw the miracles, but because ye ate of the loaves, and were satisfied.

27 Let your work not be for the food which comes to an end, but for the food which goes on for eternal life, which the Son of man will give to you, for on him has God the Father put his mark.

Don't work for the food which perishes, but for the food which remains to eternal life, which the Son of Man will give to you. For the Father, even God, has sealed him."

Labor not for the food which perisheth, but for that food which endureth to everlasting life, which the Son of man will give to you: for him hath God the Father sealed.

28 Then they said to him, How may we do the works of God?

They said therefore to him, "What must we do, that we may work the works of God?"

Then said they to him, What shall we do, that we may work the works of God?

29 Jesus, answering, said to them, This is to do the work of God: to have faith in him whom God has sent.

Jesus answered them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in him whom he has sent."

Jesus answered and said to them, This is the work of God, that ye believe on him whom he hath sent.

- 30 So they said, What sign do you give us, so that we may see and have faith in you? What do you do?
They said therefore to him, "What then do you do for a sign, that we may see, and believe you? What work do you do?
They said therefore to him, What sign showest thou then, that we may see, and believe thee? what dost thou work?
- 31 Our fathers had the manna in the waste land, as the Writings say, He gave them bread from heaven.
Our fathers ate the manna in the wilderness. As it is written, `He gave them bread out of the sky to eat.`"
Our fathers ate manna in the desert; as it is written, He gave them bread from heaven to eat.
- 32 Jesus then said to them, Truly I say to you, What Moses gave you was not the bread from heaven; it is my Father who gives you the true bread from heaven.
Jesus therefore said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, it wasn't Moses who gave you the bread out of heaven, but my Father gives you the true bread out of heaven.
Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Moses gave you not that bread from heaven; but my Father giveth you the true bread from heaven.
- 33 The bread of God is the bread which comes down out of heaven and gives life to the world.
For the bread of God is that which comes down out of heaven, and gives life to the world."
For the bread of God is he who cometh down from heaven, and giveth life to the world.
- 34 Ah, Lord, they said, give us that bread for ever!
They said therefore to him, "Lord, always give us this bread."
Then said they to him, Lord, evermore give us this bread.
- 35 And this was the answer of Jesus: I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will never be in need of food, and he who has faith in me will never be in need of drink.
Jesus said to them. "I am the bread of life. He who comes to me will not be hungry, and he who believes in me will never be thirsty.
And Jesus said to them, I am the bread of life: he that cometh to me, shall never hunger; and he that believeth on me, shall never thirst.

- 36 But it is as I said to you: you have seen me, and still you have no faith.
But I told you that you have seen me, and yet don't believe.
But I said to you, That ye also have seen me, and believe not.
- 37 Whatever the Father gives to me will come to me; and I will not send away anyone who comes to me.
All that which the Father gives me will come to me. Him who comes to me I will in no way throw out.
All that the Father giveth me, shall come to me; and him that cometh to me, I will in no wise reject.
- 38 For I have come down from heaven, not to do my pleasure, but the pleasure of him who sent me.
For I have come down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him who sent me.
For I came down from heaven, not to do my own will, but the will of him that sent me.
- 39 And this is the pleasure of him who sent me, that I am not to let out of my hands anything which he has given me, but I am to give it new life on the last day.
This is the will of my Father who sent me, that of all who he has given to me I should lose nothing, but should raise them up at the last day.
And this is the Father's will who hath sent me, that of all which he hath given me, I should lose nothing, but should raise it up again at the last day.
- 40 This, I say, is my Father's pleasure, that everyone who sees the Son and has faith in him may have eternal life: and I will take him up on the last day.
This is the will of the one who sent me, that everyone who sees the Son, and believes in him, should have eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day."
And this is the will of him that sent me, that every one who seeth the Son, and believeth on him, may have everlasting life: and I will raise him up at the last day.
- 41 Now the Jews said bitter things about Jesus because of his words, I am the bread which came down from heaven.
The Jews therefore murmured concerning him, because he said, "I am the bread which came down out of heaven."
The Jews then murmured at him, because he said, I am the bread which came down from heaven.

- 42 And they said, Is not this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we have seen? How is it then that he now says, I have come down from heaven?
They said, "Isn't this Jesus, the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? How then does he say, 'I have come down out of heaven?'"
And they said, Is not this Jesus the son of Joseph, whose father and mother we know? how is it then that he saith, I came down from heaven?
- 43 Jesus made answer and said, Do not say things against me, one to another.
Therefore Jesus answered them, "Don't murmur among yourselves."
Jesus therefore answered and said to them, Murmur not among yourselves.
- 44 No man is able to come to me if the Father who sent me does not give him the desire to come: and I will take him up from the dead on the last day.
No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I will raise him up in the last day.
No man can come to me, except the Father who hath sent me draw him: and I will raise him up at the last day.
- 45 The writings of the prophets say, And they will all have teaching from God. Everyone whose ears have been open to the teaching of the Father comes to me.
It is written in the prophets, 'They will all be taught by God.' Everyone who hears from the Father, and has learned, comes to me.
It is written in the prophets, And they shall be all taught from God. Every man therefore that hath heard, and hath learned from the Father, cometh to me.
- 46 Not that anyone has ever seen the Father; only he who is from God, he has seen the Father.
Not that any man has seen the Father, except he who is from God. He has seen the Father.
Not that any man hath seen the Father, save he who is from God, he hath seen the Father.
- 47 Truly I say to you, He who has faith in me has eternal life.
Most assuredly, I tell you, he who believes in me has eternal life.
Verily, verily, I say to you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
- 48 I am the bread of life.
I am the bread of life.
I am that bread of life.

- 49 Your fathers took the manna in the waste land--and they are dead.
Your fathers ate the manna in the wilderness, and they died.
Your fathers ate manna in the wilderness, and are dead.
- 50 The bread which comes from heaven is such bread that a man may take it for food and never see death.
This is the bread which comes down out of heaven, that a man may eat of it, and not die.
This is the bread which cometh down from heaven, that a man may eat of it, and not die.
- 51 I am the living bread which has come from heaven: if any man takes this bread for food he will have life for ever: and more than this, the bread which I will give is my flesh which I will give for the life of the world.
I am the living bread which came down out of heaven. If anyone eats of this bread, he will live forever. Yes, the bread which I will give is my flesh, for the life of the world."
I am the living bread which came down from heaven: if any man shall eat of this bread, he shall live for ever: and the bread that I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world.
- 52 Then the Jews had an angry discussion among themselves, saying, How is it possible for this man to give us his flesh for food?
The Jews therefore contended with one another, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"
The Jews therefore contended among themselves, saying, How can this man give us his flesh to eat?
- 53 Then Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you, If you do not take the flesh of the Son of man for food, and if you do not take his blood for drink, you have no life in you.
Jesus therefore said to them, "Most assuredly I tell you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you don't have life in yourselves.
Then Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Except ye eat the flesh of the Son of man, and drink his blood, ye have no life in you.
- 54 He who takes my flesh for food and my blood for drink has eternal life: and I will take him up from the dead at the last day.
He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day.
Whoever eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, hath eternal life; and I will raise him up at the last day.

- 55 My flesh is true food and my blood is true drink.
For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
For my flesh is food indeed, and my blood is drink indeed.
- 56 He who takes my flesh for food and my blood for drink is in me and I in him.
He who eats my flesh and drinks my blood lives in me, and I in him.
He that eateth my flesh, and drinketh my blood, dwelleth in me, and I in him.
- 57 As the living Father has sent me, and I have life because of the Father, even so he who takes me for his food will have life because of me.
As the living Father sent me, and I live because of the Father; so he who feeds on me, he will also live because of me.
As the living Father hath sent me, and I live by the Father: so he that eateth me, even he shall live by me.
- 58 This is the bread which has come down from heaven. It is not like the food which your fathers had: they took of the manna, and are dead; but he who takes this bread for food will have life for ever.
This is the bread which came down out of heaven -- not as our fathers ate the manna, and died. He who eats this bread will live forever."
This is that bread which came down from heaven: not as your fathers ate manna, and are dead: he that eateth of this bread shall live for ever.
- 59 Jesus said these things in the Synagogue while he was teaching at Capernaum.
These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
These things he said in the synagogue, as he taught in Capernaum.
- 60 Then, hearing this, a number of his disciples said, This is a hard saying; who is able to take in such teaching?
Therefore many of his disciples, when they heard this, said, "This is a hard saying! Who can hear it?"
Many therefore of his disciples, when they had heard this, said, This is a hard saying; who can hear it?
- 61 When Jesus became conscious that his disciples were protesting about what he said, he said to them, Does this give you trouble?
But Jesus knowing in himself that his disciples murmured at this, said to them, "Does this cause you to stumble?
When Jesus knew in himself that his disciples murmured at it, he said to them, Doth this offend you?

- 62 What then will you say if you see the Son of man going up to where he was before?
What if you would see the Son of Man ascending to where he was before?
What if ye shall see the Son of man ascend up where he was before?
- 63 The spirit is the life giver; the flesh is of no value: the words which I have said to you are spirit and they are life.
It is the spirit who gives life. The flesh profits nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and are life.
It is the spirit that reviveth; the flesh profiteth nothing: the words that I speak to you, they are spirit, and they are life.
- 64 But still some of you have no faith. For it was clear to Jesus from the first who they were who had no faith, and who it was who would be false to him.
But there are some of you who don't believe." For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were who didn't believe, and who it was who would betray him.
But there are some of you that believe not. For Jesus knew from the beginning who they were that believed not, and who he was that would betray him.
- 65 And he said, This is why I said to you, No man is able to come to me if he is not given the power to do so by the Father.
He said, "For this cause have I said to you that no one can come to me, except it be given to him by my Father."
And he said, Therefore I said to you, that no man can come to me, except it were given to him by my Father.
- 66 Because of what he said, a number of the disciples went back and would no longer go with him.
At this, many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.
From that time many of his disciples went back, and walked no more with him.
- 67 So Jesus said to the twelve, Have you a desire to go away?
Jesus said therefore to the twelve, "You don't also want to go away, do you?"
Then said Jesus to the twelve, Will ye also go away?
- 68 Then Simon Peter gave this answer: Lord, to whom are we to go? you have the words of eternal life;
Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom would we go? You have the words of eternal life.
Then Simon Peter answered him, Lord, to whom shall we go? thou hast the words of eternal life.

69 And we have faith and are certain that you are the Holy One of God.

We have come to believe and know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

And we believe, and are sure that thou art that Christ, the Son of the living God.

70 Then Jesus said, Did I not make a selection of you, the twelve, and one of you is a son of the Evil One?

Jesus answered them, "Didn't I choose you, the twelve, and one of you is a devil?"

Jesus answered them, Have not I chosen you twelve, and one of you is a devil?

71 He was talking of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot. It was he who was to be false to Jesus--one of the twelve.

Now he spoke of Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot, for it was he who would betray him, being one of the twelve.

He spoke of Judas Iscariot the son of Simon: for it was he that was to betray him, being one of the twelve.

1 After this, Jesus went from place to place in Galilee. He did not go about in Judaea, because the Jews were looking for a chance to put him to death.

After these things, Jesus walked in Galilee, for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

After these things Jesus walked in Galilee: for he would not walk in Judea, because the Jews sought to kill him.

2 But the feast of the Jews, the feast of tents, was near.

Now the feast of the Jews, the Feast of Booths, was at hand.

Now the Jews' feast of tabernacles was at hand.

3 So his brothers said to him, Go away from here into Judaea so that your disciples may see the works which you do.

His brothers therefore said to him, "Depart from here, and go into Judea, that your disciples also may see your works which you do.

His brethren therefore said to him, Depart hence, and go into Judea, that thy disciples also may see the works that thou doest.

4 Because no man does things secretly if he has a desire that men may have knowledge of him. If you do these things, let yourself be seen by all men.

For no man does anything in secret, and himself seeks to be known openly. If you do these things, reveal yourself to the world."

For there is no man that doeth any thing in secret, and he himself seeketh to be known openly. If thou doest these things, show thyself to the world.

- 5 For even his brothers had no belief in him.
For even his brothers didn't believe in him.
(For neither did his brethren believe in him.)
- 6 Jesus said to them, My time is still to come, but any time is good for you.
Jesus therefore said to them, "My time has not yet come, but your time is always ready.
Then Jesus said to them, My time is not yet come: but your time is always ready.
- 7 It is not possible for you to be hated by the world; but I am hated by it, because I give witness that what it does is evil.
The world can't hate you, but it hates me, because I testify about it, that its works are evil.
The world cannot hate you; but me it hateth, because I testify concerning it, that its works are evil.
- 8 Go you up to the feast: I am not going up now to the feast because my time has not fully come.
You go up to the feast. I am not yet going up to this feast, because my time is not yet fulfilled."
Go ye up to this feast: I go not yet to this feast, for my time is not yet full come.
- 9 Having said these things to them, he still kept in Galilee.
Having said these things to them, he stayed in Galilee.
When he had said these words to them, he abode still in Galilee.
- 10 But after his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he went up, not publicly, but in secret.
But when his brothers had gone up to the feast, then he also went up, not publicly, but as it were in secret.
But when his brethren had gone up, then he went also to the feast, not openly, but as it were in secret.
- 11 At the feast the Jews were looking for him and saying, Where is he?
The Jews therefore sought him at the feast, and said, "Where is he?"
Then the Jews sought him at the feast, and said, Where is he?

- 12 And there was much discussion about him among the mass of the people. Some said, He is a good man; but others said, No, he is giving people false ideas.
There was much murmuring among the multitudes concerning him. Some said, "He is a good man." Others said, "Not so, but he leads the multitude astray."
And there was much murmuring among the people concerning him: for some said, He is a good man: others said, No; but he deceiveth the people.
- 13 But no man said anything about him openly for fear of the Jews.
Yet no one spoke openly of him for fear of the Jews.
Yet, no man spoke openly of him, for fear of the Jews.
- 14 Now in the middle of the feast Jesus went up to the Temple and was teaching.
But when it was now the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple and taught.
Now about the midst of the feast, Jesus went up into the temple, and taught.
- 15 Then the Jews were surprised and said, How has this man got knowledge of books? He has never been to school.
The Jews therefore marveled, saying, "How does this man know letters, having never been educated?"
And the Jews marveled, saying, How knoweth this man letters, having never learned?
- 16 Jesus gave them this answer: It is not my teaching, but his who sent me.
Jesus therefore answered them, "My teaching is not mine, but his who sent me.
Jesus answered them, and said, My doctrine is not mine, but his that sent me.
- 17 If any man is ready to do God's pleasure he will have knowledge of the teaching and of where it comes from--from God or from myself.
If anyone desires to do his will, he will know of the teaching, whether it is from God, or if I speak from myself.
If any man will do his will, he shall know concerning the doctrine, whether it is from God, or whether I speak from myself.

- 18 The man whose words come from himself is looking for glory for himself, but he who is looking for the glory of him who sent him--that man is true and there is no evil in him.
He who speaks from himself seeks his own glory, but he who seeks the glory of him who sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
He that speaketh from himself, seeketh his own glory: but he that seeketh his glory that sent him, the same is true, and no unrighteousness is in him.
- 19 Did not Moses give you the law? Even so, not one of you keeps the law. Why have you a desire to put me to death?
Didn't Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keeps the law? Why do you seek to kill me?"
Did not Moses give you the law, and yet none of you keepeth the law? Why go ye about to kill me?
- 20 The people said in answer, You have an evil spirit: who has any desire to put you to death?
The multitude answered, "You have a demon! Who seeks to kill you?"
The people answered and said, Thou hast a demon: who goeth about to kill thee?
- 21 This was the answer of Jesus: I have done one work and you are all surprised at it.
Jesus answered them, "I did one work, and you all marvel because of it.
Jesus answered and said to them, I have done one work, and ye all marvel.
- 22 Moses gave you circumcision--not that it comes from Moses, but from the fathers--and even on the Sabbath you give a child circumcision.
Moses has given you circumcision (not that it is of Moses, but of the fathers), and on the Sabbath you circumcise a boy.
Moses therefore gave to you circumcision, (not because it is from Moses, but from the fathers) and ye on the sabbath circumcise a man.
- 23 If a child is given circumcision on the Sabbath so that the law of Moses may not be broken, why are you angry with me because I made a man completely well on the Sabbath?
If a boy receives circumcision on the Sabbath, that the law of Moses may not be broken, are you angry with me, because I made a man every bit whole on the Sabbath?
If a man on the sabbath receiveth circumcision, that the law of Moses should not be broken; are ye angry at me, because I have restored a man to sound health on the sabbath?

- 24 Let not your decisions be based on what you see, but on righteousness.
Don't judge according to appearance, but judge righteous judgment."
Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.
- 25 Then some of the people of Jerusalem said, Is not this the man whose death is desired?
Some therefore of them of Jerusalem said, "Isn't this he whom they seek to kill?
Then said some of them of Jerusalem, Is not this he whom they seek to kill?"
- 26 And here he is talking openly and they say nothing to him! Is it possible that the rulers have knowledge that this is truly the Christ?
Behold, he speaks openly, and they say nothing to him. Can it be that the rulers indeed know that this is truly the Christ?
But lo, he speaketh boldly, and they say nothing to him. Do the rulers know indeed that this is the very Christ?
- 27 However, it is clear to us where this man comes from: but when the Christ comes no one will have knowledge where he comes from.
However we know where this man comes from, but when the Christ comes, no one will know where he comes from."
But we know this man, whence he is: whereas when Christ cometh, no man knoweth whence he is.
- 28 Then, when he was teaching in the Temple, Jesus said with a loud voice, You have knowledge of me and you have knowledge of where I come from; and I have not come of myself; but there is One who has sent me; he is true, but you have no knowledge of him.
Jesus therefore cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "You both know me, and know where I am from. I have not come of myself, but he who sent me is true, whom you don't know.
Then cried Jesus in the temple, as he taught, saying, Ye both know me, and ye know whence I am: and I am not come of myself, but he that sent me is true, whom ye know not.
- 29 I have knowledge of him because I came from him and he sent me.
I know him, because I am from him, and he sent me."
But I know him; for I am from him, and he hath sent me.
- 30 Then they had a desire to take him: but no man put hands on him because his hour was still to come.
They sought therefore to take him. No one laid a hand on him, because his hour was not yet come.
Then they sought to take him: but no man laid hands on him, because his hour was not yet come.

- 31 And numbers of the people had belief in him, and they said, When the Christ comes will he do more signs than this man has done?
But of the multitude, many believed in him. They said, "When the Christ comes, will he do more signs than those which this man has done?"
And many of the people believed on him, and said, When Christ cometh, will he do more miracles than these which this man hath done?
- 32 This discussion of the people came to the ears of the Pharisees; and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent servants to take him.
The Pharisees heard the multitude murmuring these things concerning him, and the chief priests and the Pharisees sent officers to take him.
The Pharisees heard that the people murmured such things concerning him: and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers to take him.
- 33 Then Jesus said, I will be with you a little longer and then I go to him who sent me.
Then Jesus said, "Yet a little while, am I with you, then I go to him who sent me."
Then said Jesus to them, Yet a little while am I with you, and then I go to him that sent me.
- 34 You will be looking for me, and you will not see me: and where I am you may not come.
You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come."
Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come.
- 35 So the Jews said among themselves, To what place is he going where we will not see him? will he go to the Jews living among the Greeks and become the teacher of the Greeks?
The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where will this man go that we won't find him? Will he go to the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks?
Then said the Jews among themselves, Whither will he go, that we shall not find him? will he go to the dispersed among the Gentiles, and teach the Gentiles?
- 36 What is this saying of his, You will be looking for me and will not see me, and where I am you may not come?
What is this word that he said, `You will seek me, and won't find me; and where I am, you can't come?`"
What manner of saying is this that he said, Ye will seek me, and will not find me: and where I am, thither ye cannot come?

- 37 On the last day, the great day of the feast, Jesus got up and said in a loud voice, If any man is in need of drink let him come to me and I will give it to him.
Now on the last and greatest day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried out, "If anyone is thirsty, let him come to me and drink!
In the last day, that great day of the feast, Jesus stood and cried, saying, If any man thirsteth, let him come to me, and drink.
- 38 He who has faith in me, out of his body, as the Writings have said, will come rivers of living water.
He who believes in me, as the scripture has said, from within him will flow rivers of living water."
He that believeth on me, as the scripture hath said, out of his belly shall flow rivers of living water.
- 39 This he said of the Spirit which would be given to those who had faith in him: the Spirit had not been given then, because the glory of Jesus was still to come.
But he said this about the Spirit, which those believing in him were to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because Jesus wasn't yet glorified.
(But this he spoke of the Spirit, which they that believe on him should receive, for the Holy Spirit was not yet given, because that Jesus was not yet glorified.)
- 40 When these words came to their ears, some of the people said, This is certainly the prophet.
Many of the multitude therefore, when they heard these words, said, "This is truly the prophet."
Many of the people therefore, when they heard this saying, said, In truth this is the Prophet.
- 41 Others said, This is the Christ. But others said, Not so; will the Christ come from Galilee?
Others said, "This is the Christ." But some said, "What, does the Christ come out of Galilee?
Others said, This is the Christ. But some said, Will Christ come out of Galilee?
- 42 Do not the Writings say that the Christ comes of the seed of David and from Beth-lehem, the little town where David was?
Hasn't the scripture said that the Christ comes of the seed of David, and from Bethlehem, the village where David was?"
Hath not the scripture said, That Christ cometh from the seed of David, and out of the town of Bethlehem, where David was?
- 43 So there was a division among the people because of him.
So there arose a division in the multitude because of him.
So there was a division among the people because of him.

- 44 And some of them had a desire to take him; but no man put hands on him.
Some of them would have taken him, but no one laid hands on him.
And some of them would have taken him; but no man laid hands on him.
- 45 Then the servants went back to the chief priests and Pharisees, who said to them, Why have you not got him with you?
The officers therefore came to the chief priests and Pharisees, and they said to them, "Why didn't you bring him?"
Then came the officers to the chief priests and Pharisees; and they said to them, Why have ye not brought him?
- 46 The servants made answer, No man ever said things like this man.
The officers answered, "No man ever spoke like this man!"
The officers answered, Never man spoke like this man.
- 47 Then the Pharisees said to them, Have you, like the others, been given false ideas?
The Pharisees therefore answered them, "Are you also led astray?"
Then the Pharisees answered them, Are ye also deceived?
- 48 Have any of the rulers belief in him, or any one of the Pharisees?
Has any of the rulers believed in him, or of the Pharisees?
Have any of the rulers, or of the Pharisees believed on him?
- 49 But these people who have no knowledge of the law are cursed.
But this cursed multitude doesn't know the law."
But this people who know not the law are cursed.
- 50 Nicodemus--he who had come to Jesus before, being himself one of them--said to them,
Nicodemus (he who came to him by night, being one of them) said to them,
Nicodemus saith to them, (he that came to Jesus by night, being one of them)

51 Is a man judged by our law before it has given him a hearing and has knowledge of what he has done?

"Does our law judge a man, unless it first hears from him personally and knows what he does?"

Doth our law judge any man before it heareth him, and knoweth what he doeth?

52 This was their answer: And do you come from Galilee? Make search and you will see that no prophet comes out of Galilee.

They answered him, "Are you also from Galilee? Search, and see that no prophet has arisen out of Galilee."

They answered and said to him, Art thou also from Galilee? Search, and look: for out of Galilee ariseth no prophet.

53 [And every man went to his house;

Everyone went to his own house,

And every man went to his own house.

1 But Jesus went to the Mountain of Olives.

but Jesus went to the Mount of Olives.

Jesus went to the mount of Olives:

2 And early in the morning he came again into the Temple and all the people came to him and he was seated teaching them.

At dawn, he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him. He sat down, and taught them.

And early in the morning he came again into the temple, and all the people came to him; and he sat down and taught them.

3 Now the scribes and Pharisees came, with a woman who had been taken in the act of sinning against the married relation;

The scribes and the Pharisees brought a woman taken in adultery. Having set her in the midst,

And the scribes and Pharisees brought to him a woman taken in adultery: and when they had set her in the midst,

4 And putting her forward, they said to him, Master, this woman has been taken in the very act of sinning against the married relation.

they told him, "Teacher, we found this woman in adultery, in the very act.

They say to him, Master, this woman was taken in adultery, in the very act.

- 5 Now in the law Moses gave directions that such women were to be stoned; what do you say about it?
Now in our law, Moses commanded us to stone such. What then do you say about her?"
Now Moses in the law commanded us, that such should be stoned; but what sayest thou?
- 6 They said this, testing him, so that they might have something against him. But Jesus, with his head bent down, made letters on the floor with his finger.
They said this testing him, that they might have something to accuse him of. But Jesus stooped down, and wrote on the ground with his finger, as if he didn't hear.
This they said, tempting him, that they might have to accuse him. But Jesus stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground, as though he heard them not.
- 7 But when they went on with their questions, he got up and said to them, Let him among you who is without sin be the first to send a stone at her.
But when they continued asking him, he lifted himself up, and said to them, "He who is without sin among you, let him throw the first stone at her."
So when they continued asking him, he raised himself, and said to them, He that is without sin among you, let him first cast a stone at her.
- 8 And again, with bent head, he made letters on the floor.
Again he stooped down, and with his finger wrote on the ground.
And again he stooped down, and wrote on the ground.
- 9 And when his words came to their ears, they went out one by one, starting with the oldest even to the last, because they were conscious of what was in their hearts: and Jesus was there by himself with the woman before him.
They, when they heard it, being convicted by their conscience, went out one by one, beginning from the oldest, even to the last. Jesus was left alone with the woman where she was, in the midst.
And they who heard it, being convicted by their own conscience, went out one by one, beginning at the eldest, even to the last: and Jesus was left alone, and the woman standing in the midst.
- 10 Then Jesus got up, and seeing nobody but the woman, he said to her, Where are the men who said things against you? did no one give a decision against you?
Jesus lifted himself up, and seeing no one but the woman, said to her, "Woman, where are they? Did no one condemn you?"
When Jesus had raised himself, and saw none but the woman, he said to her, Woman, where are those thy accusers? hath no man condemned thee?

- 11 And she said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said, And I do not give a decision against you: go, and never do wrong again.]
She said, "No one, Lord." Jesus said, "Neither do I condemn you. Go your way. From now on, sin no more."
She said, No man, Lord. And Jesus said to her, Neither do I condemn thee: go, and sin no more.
- 12 Then again Jesus said to them, I am the light of the world; he who comes with me will not be walking in the dark but will have the light of life.
Again, therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. He who follows me will not walk in the darkness, but will have the light of life."
Then Jesus spoke again to them, saying, I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness, but shall have the light of life.
- 13 So the Pharisees said to him, The witness you give is about yourself: your witness is not true.
The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You testify about yourself. Your witness is not valid."
The Pharisees therefore said to him, Thou testifiest concerning thyself; thy testimony is not true.
- 14 Jesus said in answer, Even if I give witness about myself, my witness is true, because I have knowledge of where I came from and where I am going; but you have no knowledge of where I come from or of where I am going.
Jesus answered them, "Even if I testify about myself, my witness is true, for I know where I came from, and where I am going; but you don't know where I came from, or where I am going.
Jesus answered and said to them, Though I testify concerning myself, yet my testimony is true: for I know whence I came, and whither I go; but ye cannot tell whence I come, and whither I go.
- 15 You are judging from what you see; I am judging no man.
You judge according to the flesh. I judge no one.
Ye judge after the flesh, I judge no man.
- 16 Even if I am judging, my decision is right, because I am not by myself--with me is the Father who sent me.
Even if I do judge, my judgment is true, for I am not alone, but I am with the Father who sent me.
And yet if I judge, my judgment is true: for I am not alone, but I and the Father that sent me.

- 17 Even in your law it is said that the witness of two men is true.
It`s also written in your law that the testimony of two men is valid.
It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.
- 18 I give witness about myself and the Father who sent me gives witness about me.
I am he who testifies about myself, and the Father who sent me testifies about me."
I am one that testifieth concerning myself; and the Father that sent me, testifieth concerning me.
- 19 Then they said to him, Where is your Father? Jesus said in answer, You have no knowledge of me or of my Father: if you had knowledge of me you would have knowledge of my Father.
They said therefore to him, "Where is your Father?" Jesus answered, "You know neither me, nor my Father. If you knew me, you would know my Father also."
Then said they to him, Where is thy Father? Jesus answered, Ye neither know me, nor my Father: if ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also.
- 20 Jesus said these words in the place where the offerings were stored, while he was teaching in the Temple: but no man took him because his time was still to come.
Jesus spoke these words in the treasury, as he taught in the temple. No one took him, because his hour had not yet come.
These words Jesus spoke in the treasury, as he taught in the temple: and no man laid hands on him, for his hour was not yet come.
- 21 Then he said to them again, I am going away and you will be looking for me, but death will overtake you in your sins. It is not possible for you to come where I am going.
Jesus said therefore again to them, "I am going away, and you will seek me, and will die in your sins. Where I go, you can`t come."
Then said Jesus again to them, I am going away, and ye will seek me, and will die in your sins: whither I go, ye cannot come.
- 22 So the Jews said, Will he take his life? Is that why he says, Where I go it is not possible for you to come?
The Jews therefore said, "Will he kill himself, that he says, `Where I am going, you can`t come?`"
Then said the Jews, will he kill himself? because he saith, Whither I go, ye cannot come.

- 23 And he said to them, You are of the earth; I am from heaven: you are of this world; I am not of this world.
He said to them, "You are from beneath. I am from above. You are of this world. I am not of this world.
And he said to them, Ye are from beneath; I am from above: ye are of this world; I am not of this world.
- 24 For this reason I said to you that death will overtake you in your sins: for if you have not faith that I am he, death will come to you while you are in your sins.
I said therefore to you that you will die in your sins; for unless you believe that I am he, you will die in your sins."
I said therefore to you, that ye will die in your sins: for if ye believe not that I am he, ye will die in your sins.
- 25 Then they said to him, Who are you? Jesus said, What I said to you from the first.
They said therefore to him, "Who are you?" Jesus said to them, "Just what I have been saying to you from the beginning.
Then said they to him, Who art thou? And Jesus saith to them, Even the same that I said to you from the beginning.
- 26 I have much to say about you and against you: but he who sent me is true and what he has said to me I say to the world.
I have many things to speak and to judge concerning you. However he who sent me is true; and the things which I heard from him, these I say to the world."
I have many things to say, and to judge of you: but he that sent me, is true: and I speak to the world those things which I have heard from him.
- 27 They did not see that his words were about the Father.
They didn't perceive that he spoke to them about the Father.
They understood not that he spoke to them concerning the Father.
- 28 So Jesus said, When the Son of man has been lifted up by you, then it will be clear to you who I am, and that I do nothing of myself, but say as the Father gave me teaching.
Jesus therefore said to them, "When you have lifted up the Son of Man, then will you know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself, but as my Father taught me, I say these things.
Then said Jesus to them, When ye have lifted up the Son of man, then shall ye know that I am he, and that I do nothing of myself; but as my Father hath taught me, I speak these things.

- 29 He who sent me is with me; he has not gone from me, because at all times I do the things which are pleasing to him.
He who sent me is with me. The Father hasn't left me alone, for I always do the things that are pleasing to him."
And he that sent me is with me: the Father hath not left me alone; for I do always those things that please him.
- 30 When he said this a number came to have faith in him.
As he spoke these things, many believed in him.
As he spoke these words, many believed on him.
- 31 Then Jesus said to the Jews who had faith in him, If you keep my word, then you are truly my disciples;
Jesus therefore said to those Jews who had believed him, "If you remain in my word, then you are truly my disciples.
Then said Jesus to those Jews who believed on him, If ye continue in my word, ye are my disciples indeed;
- 32 And you will have knowledge of what is true, and that will make you free.
You will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."
And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free.
- 33 They said to him in answer, We are Abraham's seed and have never been any man's servant: why do you say, You will become free?
They answered him, "We are Abraham's seed, and have never yet been in bondage to anyone. How do you say, `You will be made free?`"
They answered him, We are Abraham's offspring, and were never in bondage to any man: how sayest thou, Ye shall be made free?
- 34 And this was the answer Jesus gave them: Truly I say to you, Everyone who does evil is the servant of sin.
Jesus answered them, "Most assuredly I tell you, everyone who commits sin is the bondservant of sin.
Jesus answered them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Whoever committeth sin, is the servant of sin.
- 35 Now the servant does not go on living in the house for ever, but the son does.
A bondservant doesn't live in the house forever. A son remains forever.
And the servant abideth not in the house for ever, but the Son abideth for ever.

- 36 If then the son makes you free, you will be truly free.
If therefore the Son makes you free, you will be free indeed.
If the Son therefore shall make you free, ye shall be free indeed.
- 37 I am conscious that you are Abraham's seed; but you have a desire to put me to death because my word has no place in you.
I know that you are Abraham`s seed, yet you seek to kill me, because my word finds no place in you.
I know that ye are Abraham's offspring; but ye seek to kill me, because my word hath no place in you.
- 38 I say the things which I have seen in my Father's house: and you do the things which come to you from your father's house.
I say the things which I have seen with my Father; and you also do the things which you have seen with your father."
I speak that which I have seen with my Father: and ye do that which ye have seen with your father.
- 39 In answer they said to him, Our father is Abraham. Jesus said to them, If you were Abraham's children you would do what Abraham did.
They answered him, "Our father is Abraham." Jesus said to them, "If you were Abraham`s children, you would do the works of Abraham.
They answered and said to him, Abraham is our father. Jesus saith to them, If ye were Abraham's children, ye would do the works of Abraham.
- 40 But now you have a desire to put me to death, a man who has said to you what is true, as I had it from God: Abraham did not do that.
But now you seek to kill me, a man who has told you the truth, which I heard from God. Abraham didn`t do this.
But now ye seek to kill me, a man that hath told you the truth, which I have heard from God: this did not Abraham.
- 41 You are doing the works of your father. They said to him, We are true sons of Abraham; we have one Father, who is God.
You do the works of your father." They said to him, "We were not born of sexual immorality. We have one Father, God."
Ye do the deeds of your father. Then said they to him, We are not born of fornication; we have one Father, even God.

- 42 Jesus said to them, If God was your Father you would have love for me, because it was from God I came and am here. I did not come of myself, but he sent me.
Therefore Jesus said to them, "If God were your Father, you would love me, for I came forth and have come from God. For neither have I come of myself, but he sent me.
Jesus said to them, If God were your Father, ye would love me: for I proceeded forth and came from God; neither came I of myself, but he sent me.
- 43 Why are my words not clear to you? It is because your ears are shut to my teaching.
Why don't you understand my speech? Because you can't hear my word.
Why do ye not understand my speech? even because ye cannot hear my word.
- 44 You are the children of your father the Evil One and it is your pleasure to do his desires. From the first he was a taker of life; and he did not go in the true way because there is no true thing in him. When he says what is false, it is natural to him, for he is false and the father of what is false.
You are of your Father, the devil, and it is your desire to do the lusts of your father. He was a murderer from the beginning, and doesn't stand in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he speaks of his own; for he is a liar, and the father of it.
Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do: he was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.
- 45 But because I say what is true, you have no belief in me.
But because I tell the truth, you don't believe me.
And because I tell you the truth, ye believe me not.
- 46 Which of you is able truly to say that I am a sinner? If I say what is true, why have you no belief in me?
Which of you convicts me of sin? If I tell the truth, why do you not believe me?
Which of you convicteth me of sin? And if I speak the truth, why do ye not believe me?
- 47 He who is a child of God gives ear to the words of God: your ears are not open to them because you are not from God.
He who is of God hears the words of God. For this cause you don't hear, because you are not of God."
He that is of God, heareth God's words: ye therefore hear them not, because ye are not of God.

- 48 The Jews said to him in answer, Are we not right in saying that you are of Samaria and have an evil spirit?
Then the Jews answered him, "Don`t we say well that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"
Then answered the Jews, and said to him, Say we not well that thou art a Samaritan, and hast a demon?
- 49 And this was the answer of Jesus: I have not an evil spirit; but I give honour to my Father and you do not give honour to me.
Jesus answered, "I don`t have a demon, but I honor my Father, and you dishonor me.
Jesus answered, I have not a demon; but I honor my Father, and ye dishonor me.
- 50 I, however, am not in search of glory for myself: there is One who is searching for it and he is judge.
But I don`t seek my own glory. There is one who seeks and judges.
And I seek not my own glory: there is one that seeketh and judgeth.
- 51 Truly I say to you, If a man keeps my word he will never see death.
Most assuredly, I tell you, if a person keeps my word, he will never see death."
Verily, verily, I say to you, If a man shall keep my saying, he shall never see death.
- 52 The Jews said to him, Now we are certain that you have an evil spirit. Abraham is dead, and the prophets are dead; and you say, If a man keeps my word he will never see death.
Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and the prophets; and you say, `If a man keeps my word, he will never taste of death.`
Then said the Jews to him, Now we know that thou hast a demon. Abraham is dead, and the prophets; and thou sayest, If a man shall keep my saying, he shall never taste death.
- 53 Are you greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: who do you say that you are?
Are you greater than our father, Abraham, who died? The prophets died. Who do you make yourself out to be?"
Art thou greater than our father Abraham, who is dead? and the prophets are dead: whom makest thou thyself?
- 54 Jesus said in answer, If I take glory for myself, my glory is nothing: it is my Father who gives me glory, of whom you say that he is your God.
Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, my glory is nothing. It is my Father who glorifies me, of whom you say that he is our God.
Jesus answered, If I honor myself, my honor is nothing: it is my Father that honoreth me, of whom ye say, that he is your God:

55 You have no knowledge of him, but I have knowledge of him; and if I said I have no knowledge of him I would be talking falsely like you: but I have full knowledge of him, and I keep his word.
You have not known him, but I know him. If I said, `I don't know him,` I would be like you, a liar. But I know him, and keep his word.

Yet ye have not known him; but I know him: and if I should say, I know him not, I should be a liar like you: but I know him, and keep his saying.

56 Your father Abraham was full of joy at the hope of seeing my day: he saw it and was glad.

Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day. He saw it, and was glad."

Your father Abraham rejoiced to see my day: and he saw it, and was glad.

57 Then the Jews said to him, You are not fifty years old; have you seen Abraham?

The Jews therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty years old, and have you seen Abraham?"

Then said the Jews to him, Thou art not yet fifty years old, and hast thou seen Abraham?

58 Jesus said to them, Truly I say to you, Before Abraham came into being, I am.

Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I tell you, before Abraham was born, I AM."

Jesus said to them, Verily, verily, I say to you, Before Abraham was, I am.

59 So they took up stones to send at him: but Jesus got secretly out of their way and went out of the Temple.

They took up stones therefore to throw at him, but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

Then they took up stones to cast at him: but Jesus hid himself, and went out of the temple, going through the midst of them, and so passed by.

1 And when he went on his way, he saw a man blind from birth.

As he passed by, he saw a man blind from his birth.

And as Jesus passed by, he saw a man who was blind from his birth.

2 And his disciples put a question to him, saying, Master, was it because of this man's sin, or the sin of his father and mother, that he has been blind from birth?

His disciples asked him, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he was born blind?"

And his disciples asked him, saying, Master, who sinned, this man, or his parents, that he was born blind?

3 Jesus said in answer, It was not because of his sin, or because of his father's or mother's; it was so that the works of God might be seen openly in him.
Jesus answered, "Neither did this man sin, nor his parents. But, that the works of God might be revealed in him,
Jesus answered, Neither hath this man sinned, nor his parents: but that the works of God should be made manifest in him.

4 While it is day we have to do the works of him who sent me: the night comes when no work may be done.
I must work the works of him who sent me, while it is day. The night is coming, when no one can work.
I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh when no man can work.

5 As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.
When I am in the world, I am the light of the world."
As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world.

6 Having said these words, he put earth, mixed with water from his mouth, on the man's eyes,
When he had said this, he spat on the ground, made mud with the saliva, anointed the blind man's eyes with the mud,
When he had thus spoken, he spit on the ground, and made clay of the spittle, and he anointed the eyes of the blind man with the clay,

7 And said to him, Go and make yourself clean in the bath of Siloam (the sense of the name is, Sent). So he went away and, after washing, came back able to see.
and said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of Siloam" (which means "Sent"). So he went away, washed, and came seeing.
And said to him, Go, wash in the pool of Siloam, (which is by interpretation, Sent.) He went therefore, and washed, and came seeing.

8 Then the neighbours and others who had seen him before in the street, with his hand out for money, said, Is not this the man who got money from people?
The neighbors therefore, and those who saw that he was blind, before, said, "Isn't this he who sat and begged?"
The neighbors therefore, and they who before had seen him that he was blind, said, Is not this he that sat and begged?

9 Some said, It is he: others said, No, but he is like him. He said, I am he.
Others said, "It is he." Still others said, "He is like him." He said, "I am he."
Some said, This is he: others said, He is like him: but he said, I am he.

- 10 So they said to him, How then were your eyes made open?
They said therefore to him, "How were your eyes opened?"
Therefore they said to him, How were thy eyes opened?
- 11 His answer was: The man who is named Jesus put earth mixed with water on my eyes, and said to me, Go and make yourself clean in Siloam: so I went away and, after washing, am now able to see.
He answered, "A man called Jesus made mud, anointed my eyes, and said to me, "Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash." So I went away and washed, and I received sight."
He answered and said, A man that is called Jesus, made clay, and anointed my eyes, and said to me, Go to the pool of Siloam, and wash: and I went and washed, and I received sight.
- 12 And they said to him, Where is he? His answer was: I have no knowledge.
Then they asked him, "Where is he?" He said, "I don't know."
Then said they to him, Where is he? He said, I know not.
-
- 13 They took him before the Pharisees--this man who had been blind.
They brought him who before was blind to the Pharisees.
They brought to the Pharisees him that before was blind.
- 14 Now the day on which the earth was mixed by Jesus and the man's eyes were made open was the Sabbath.
It was a Sabbath when Jesus made the mud and opened his eyes.
And it was the sabbath when Jesus made the clay, and opened his eyes.
- 15 So the Pharisees put more questions to him about how his eyes had been made open. And he said to them, He put earth on my eyes, and I had a wash and am able to see.
Again therefore the Pharisees also asked him how he received his sight. He said to them, "He put mud on my eyes, I washed, and I see."
Then again the Pharisees also asked him how he had received his sight. He said to them, He put clay upon my eyes, and I washed, and do see.

- 16 Then some of the Pharisees said, That man has not come from God, for he does not keep the Sabbath. Others said, How is it possible for a sinner to do such signs? So there was a division among them.
Some therefore of the Pharisees said, "This man is not from God, because he doesn't keep the Sabbath." Others said, "How can a man who is a sinner do such signs?" There was division among them.
Therefore said some of the Pharisees, This man is not from God, because he keepeth not the sabbath. Others said, How can a man that is a sinner do such miracles? And there was a division among them.
- 17 Again they said to the blind man, What have you to say about him for opening your eyes? And he said, He is a prophet.
Therefore they asked the blind man again, "What do you say about him, in that he opened your eyes?" He said, "He is a prophet."
They say to the blind man again, What sayest thou of him, that he hath opened thy eyes? He said, He is a prophet.
- 18 Now the Jews had no belief in the statement that he had been blind and was now able to see, till they sent for the father and mother of the man whose eyes had been made open, The Jews therefore did not believe concerning him, that he had been blind, and had received his sight, until they called the parents of him who had received his sight,
But the Jews did not believe concerning him that he had been blind, and received his sight, until they called the parents of him that had received his sight.
- 19 And put the question to them, saying, Is this your son, of whom you say that he was blind at birth? how is it then that he is now able to see? and asked them, "Is this your son, who you say was born blind? How then does he now see?"
And they asked them, saying, Is this your son, who ye say was born blind? how then doth he now see?
- 20 In answer his father and mother said, We are certain that this is our son and that he was blind at birth:
His parents answered them, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind;
His parents answered them and said, We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind:
- 21 But how it is he is now able to see, or who made his eyes open, we are not able to say: put the question to him; he is old enough to give an answer for himself. but how he now sees, we don't know; or who opened his eyes, we don't know. He is of age. Ask him. He will speak for himself."
But by what means he now seeth, we know not; or who hath opened his eyes, we know not: he is of age; ask him: he will speak for himself.

- 22 They said this because of their fear of the Jews: for the Jews had come to an agreement that if any man said that Jesus was the Christ he would be put out of the Synagogue.
His parents said these things because they feared the Jews; for the Jews had already agreed that if any man would confess him as Christ, he would be put out of the synagogue.
These words his parents spoke, because they feared the Jews: for the Jews had agreed already, that if any man confessed that he was Christ, he should be put out of the synagogue.
- 23 That was the reason why they said, He is old enough; put the question to him.
Therefore his parents said, "He is of age. Ask him."
Therefore said his parents, He is of age; ask him.
- 24 So they sent a second time for the man who had been blind and they said to him, Give glory to God: it is clear to us that this man is a sinner.
So they called the man who was blind a second time, and said to him, "Give glory to God. We know that this man is a sinner."
Then again they called the man that was blind, and said to him, Give God the praise: we know that this man is a sinner.
- 25 He said in answer, I have no knowledge if he is a sinner or not, but one thing I am certain about; I was blind, and now I see.
He therefore answered, "I don't know if he is a sinner. One thing I know: that though I was blind, now I see."
He answered and said, Whether he is a sinner, I know not: one thing I know, that whereas I was blind, now I see.
- 26 Then they said to him, What did he do to you? how did he give you the use of your eyes?
They said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"
Then they said to him again, What did he to thee? how opened he thy eyes?
- 27 His answer was: I have said it before, but your ears were shut: why would you have me say it again? is it your desire to become his disciples?
He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you also want to become his disciples?"
He answered them, I have told you already, and ye did not hear: Why would ye hear it again? will ye also be his disciples?

- 28 And they were angry with him and said, You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.
They became abusive towards him and said, "You are his disciple, but we are disciples of Moses.
Then they reviled him, and said, Thou art his disciple; but we are the disciples of Moses.
- 29 We are certain that God gave his word to Moses: but as for this man, we have no knowledge where he comes from.
We know that God has spoken to Moses. But as for this man, we don't know where he comes from."
We know that God spoke to Moses: as for this man, we know not whence he is.
- 30 The man said in answer, Why, here is a strange thing! You have no knowledge where he comes from though he gave me the use of my eyes.
The man answered them, "How amazing! You don't know where he comes from, yet he opened my eyes.
The man answered and said to them, Why, herein is a marvelous thing, that ye know not from whence he is, and yet he hath opened my eyes.
- 31 We have knowledge that God does not give ear to sinners, but if any man is a worshipper of God and does his pleasure, to him God's ears are open.
We know that God doesn't listen to sinners, but if anyone is a worshipper of God, and does his will, he listens to him.
Now we know that God heareth not sinners: but if any man is a worshiper of God, and doeth his will, him he heareth.
- 32 In all the years nobody has ever before seen the eyes of a man blind from birth made open.
Since the world began it has never been heard of that anyone opened the eyes of a man born blind.
Since the world began hath it not been heard that any man opened the eyes of one that was born blind.
- 33 If this man did not come from God he would be unable to do anything.
If this man were not from God, he could do nothing."
If this man were not from God, he could do nothing.
- 34 Their answer was: You came to birth through sin; do you make yourself our teacher? And they put him out of the Synagogue.
They answered him, "You were altogether born in sins, and do you teach us?" They threw him out.
They answered and said to him, Thou wast altogether born in sins, and dost thou teach us? and they cast him out.

- 35 It came to the ears of Jesus that they had put him out, and meeting him he said, Have you faith in the Son of man?
Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"
Jesus heard that they had cast him out: and when he had found him, he said to him, Dost thou believe on the Son of God?
- 36 He said in answer, And who is he, Lord? Say, so that I may have faith in him.
He answered, "Who is he, Lord, that I may believe in him?"
He answered and said, Who is he, Lord, that I may believe on him?
- 37 Jesus said to him, You have seen him; it is he who is talking to you.
Jesus said to him, "You have both seen him, and it is he who speaks with you."
And Jesus said to him, thou hast both seen him, and it is he that talketh with thee.
- 38 And he said, Lord, I have faith. And he gave him worship.
He said, "Lord, I believe!" and he worshipped him.
And he said, Lord, I believe. And he worshiped him.
- 39 And Jesus said, I came into this world to be a judge, so that those who do not see may see, and those who see may become blind.
Jesus said, "I came into this world for judgment, that those who don't see may see; and that those who see may become blind."
And Jesus said, For judgment I am come into this world, that they who see not, may see; and that they who see, may be made blind.
- 40 These words came to the ears of the Pharisees who were with him and they said to him, Are we, then, blind?
Those of the Pharisees who were with him heard these things, and said to him, "Are we also blind?"
And some of the Pharisees who were with him heard these words, and said to him, Are we blind also?
- 41 Jesus said to them, If you were blind you would have no sin: but now that you say, We see; your sin is there still.
Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sin; but now you say, `We see.` Therefore your sin remains.
Jesus said to them, If ye were blind, ye would have no sin: but now ye say, We see; therefore your sin remaineth.

1 Truly I say to you, He who does not go through the door into the place where the sheep are kept, but gets in by some other way, is a thief and an outlaw.
"Most assuredly, I tell you, he who doesn't enter by the door into the sheep fold, but climbs up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

Verily, verily, I say to you, He that entereth not by the door into the sheep-fold, but climbeth up some other way, the same is a thief and a robber.

2 He who goes in by the door is the keeper of the sheep.
But he who enters in by the door is the shepherd of the sheep.

But he that entereth by the door, is the shepherd of the sheep.

3 The porter lets him in; and the sheep give ear to his voice; he says over the names of the sheep, and takes them out.
The gatekeeper opens the gate for him, and the sheep listen to his voice. He calls his own sheep by name, and leads them out.
To him the porter openeth; and the sheep hear his voice: and he calleth his own sheep by name, and leadeth them out.

4 When he has got them all out, he goes before them, and the sheep go after him, for they have knowledge of his voice.
Whenever he brings out his own sheep, he goes before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.
And when he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him: for they know his voice.

5 They will not go after another who is not their keeper, but will go from him in flight, because his voice is strange to them.
They will by no means follow a stranger, but will flee from him; for they don't know the voice of strangers."
And a stranger will they not follow, but will flee from him: for they know not the voice of strangers.

6 In this Jesus was teaching them in the form of a story: but what he said was not clear to them.
Jesus spoke this parable to them, but they didn't understand what he was telling them.
This parable spoke Jesus to them: but they understood not what things they were which he spoke to them.

7 So Jesus said again, Truly I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.
Jesus therefore said to them again, "Most assuredly, I tell you, I am the sheep's door.
Then said Jesus to them again, Verily, verily, I say to you, I am the door of the sheep.

- 8 All who came before me are thieves and outlaws: but the sheep did not give ear to them.
All who came before me are thieves and robbers, but the sheep didn't listen to them.
All that ever came before me are thieves and robbers: but the sheep did not hear them.
- 9 I am the door: if any man goes in through me he will have salvation, and will go in and go out, and will get food.
I am the door. If anyone enters in by me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and will find pasture.
I am the door: by me if any man shall enter he shall be saved, and shall go in and out, and find pasture.
- 10 The thief comes only to take the sheep and to put them to death: he comes for their destruction: I have come so that they may have life and have it in greater measure.
The thief only comes to steal, kill, and destroy. I came that they may have life, and may have it abundantly.
The thief cometh not, but to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly.
- 11 I am the good keeper of sheep: the good keeper gives his life for the sheep.
I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.
I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.
- 12 He who is a servant, and not the keeper or the owner of the sheep, sees the wolf coming and goes in flight, away from the sheep; and the wolf comes down on them and sends them in all directions:
He who is a hired hand, and not a shepherd, who doesn't own the sheep, sees the wolf coming, leaves the sheep, and flees. The wolf snatches the sheep, and scatters them.
But he that is a hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth, and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
- 13 Because he is a servant he has no interest in the sheep.
The hired hand flees because he is a hired hand, and doesn't care for the sheep.
The hireling fleeth, because he is a hireling, and careth not for the sheep.
- 14 I am the good keeper; I have knowledge of my sheep, and they have knowledge of me,
I am the good shepherd. I know my own, and I'm known by my own;
I am the good shepherd, and know my sheep, and am known by mine.

- 15 Even as the Father has knowledge of me and I of the Father; and I am giving my life for the sheep.
even as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. I lay down my life for the sheep.
As the Father knoweth me, even so I know the Father: and I lay down my life for the sheep.
- 16 And I have other sheep which are not of this field: I will be their guide in the same way, and they will give ear to my voice, so there will be one flock and one keeper.
I have other sheep, which are not of this fold. I must bring them also, and they will hear my voice. They will become one flock with one shepherd.
And other sheep I have which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.
- 17 For this reason am I loved by the Father, because I give up my life so that I may take it again.
Therefore the Father loves me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.
Therefore doth my Father love me, because I lay down my life, that I may take it again.
- 18 No one takes it away from me; I give it up of myself. I have power to give it up, and I have power to take it again. These orders I have from my Father.
No one takes it away from me, but I lay it down by myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. I received this commandment from my Father."
No man taketh it from me, but I lay it down of myself. I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it again. This commandment have I received from my Father.
- 19 There was a division again among the Jews because of these words.
Therefore a division arose again among the Jews because of these words.
There was a division therefore again among the Jews for these sayings.
- 20 And a number of them said, He has an evil spirit and is out of his mind; why do you give ear to him?
Many of them said, "He has a demon, and is mad! Why do you listen to him?"
And many of them said, He hath a demon, and is insane; why hear ye him?
- 21 Others said, These are not the words of one who has an evil spirit. Is it possible for an evil spirit to make blind people see?
Others said, "These are not the sayings of one possessed with a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"
Others said, These are not the words of him that hath a demon. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?

- 22 Then came the feast of the opening of the Temple in Jerusalem: it was winter;
It was the Feast of the Dedication at Jerusalem.
And it was at Jerusalem the feast of the dedication, and it was winter.
- 23 And Jesus was walking in the Temple, in Solomon's covered way.
It was winter, and Jesus was walking in the temple, in Solomon`s porch.
And Jesus walked in the temple in Solomon's porch.
- 24 Then the Jews came round him, saying, how long are you going to keep us in doubt? If you are the Christ, say so clearly.
The Jews therefore came around him and said to him, "How long will you hold us in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us plainly."
Then came the Jews around him, and said to him, How long dost thou make us to doubt? If thou art the Christ, tell us plainly.
- 25 Jesus said in answer, I have said it and you have no belief: the works which I do in my Father's name, these give witness about me.
Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you don`t believe. The works that I do in my Father`s name, these testify about me.
Jesus answered them, I told you, and ye believed not: the works that I did in my Father's name, they testify concerning me.
- 26 But you have no belief because you are not of my sheep.
But you don`t believe, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you.
But ye believe not, because ye are not of my sheep, as I said to you.
- 27 My sheep give ear to my voice, and I have knowledge of them, and they come after me:
My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me.
My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
- 28 And I give them eternal life; they will never come to destruction, and no one will ever take them out of my hand.
I give eternal life to them. They will never perish, and no one will snatch them out of my hand.
And I give to them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any pluck them out of my hand.

- 29 That which my Father has given to me has more value than all; and no one is able to take anything out of the Father's hand.
My Father, who has given them to me, is greater than all. No one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand.
My Father, who gave them to me, is greater than all; and none is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand.
- 30 I and my Father are one.
I and the Father are one."
I and my Father are one.
- 31 Then the Jews took up stones again to send at him.
Therefore Jews took up stones again to stone him.
Then the Jews took up stones again to stone him.
- 32 Jesus said to them in answer, I have let you see a number of good works from the Father; for which of those works are you stoning me?
Jesus answered them, "I have shown you many good works from my Father. For which of those works do you stone me?"
Jesus answered them, Many good works have I shown you from my Father; for which of those works do ye stone me?
- 33 This was their answer: We are not stoning you for a good work but for evil words; because being a man you make yourself God.
The Jews answered him, "We don't stone you for a good work, but for blasphemy: because you, being a man, make yourself God."
The Jews answered him, saying, For a good work we stone thee not; but for blasphemy, and because that thou, being a man, makest thyself God.
- 34 In answer, Jesus said, Is there not a saying in your law, I said, You are gods?
Jesus answered them, "Isn't it written in your law, 'I said, you are gods?'
Jesus answered them, Is it not written in your law, I said, Ye are gods?
- 35 If he said they were gods, to whom the word of God came (and the Writings may not be broken),
If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came (and the scripture can't be broken),
If he called them gods, to whom the word of God came, and the scripture cannot be broken;

- 36 Do you say of him whom the Father made holy and sent into the world, Your words are evil; because I said, I am God's Son?
Do you say of him whom the Father sanctified and sent into the world, `You blaspheme,` because I said, `I am the Son of God?`
Say ye of him, whom the Father hath sanctified, and sent into the world, Thou blasphemest; because I said, I am the Son of God?
- 37 If I am not doing the works of my Father, do not have belief in me;
If I don't do the works of my Father, don't believe me.
If I do not the works of my Father, believe me not.
- 38 But if I am doing them, then have belief in the works even if you have no belief in me; so that you may see clearly and be certain that the Father is in me and I am in the Father.
But if I do them, though you don't believe me, believe the works; that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in the Father."
But if I do, though ye believe not me, believe the works: that ye may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him.
- 39 Then again they made an attempt to take him; but he got away from them.
They sought again to seize him, and he went forth out of their hand.
Therefore they sought again to take him; but he escaped from their hand,
- 40 And he went again to the other side of the Jordan, to the place where John first gave baptism; and he was there for a time.
He went away again beyond the Jordan into the place where John was at the first baptizing, and there he stayed.
And went again beyond Jordan, into the place where John at first baptized; and there he abode.
- 41 And a great number of people came to him, saying, John did no sign: but everything John said of this man was true.
Many came to him. They said, "John indeed did no sign, but everything whatever that John said about this man is true."
And many resorted to him, and said, John performed no miracle; but all things that John spoke of this man were true.
- 42 And a number came to have faith in him there.
Many believed in him there.
And many believed on him there.

1 Now a certain man named Lazarus was ill; he was of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

Now a certain man was sick, Lazarus of Bethany, of the village of Mary and her sister, Martha.

Now a certain man was sick, named Lazarus, of Bethany, the town of Mary and her sister Martha.

2 (The Mary whose brother Lazarus was ill, was the Mary who put perfumed oil on the Lord and made his feet dry with her hair.)

It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother, Lazarus, was sick.

(It was that Mary who anointed the Lord with ointment, and wiped his feet with her hair, whose brother Lazarus was sick.)

3 So the sisters sent to him, saying, Lord, your dear friend is ill.

The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, he for whom you have great affection is sick."

Therefore his sisters sent to him, saying, Lord, behold, he whom thou lovest is sick.

4 When this came to his ears, Jesus said, The end of this disease is not death, but the glory of God, so that the Son of God may have glory because of it.

But when Jesus heard it, he said, "This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that God`s Son may be glorified by it."

When Jesus heard that, he said, This sickness is not to death, but for the glory of God, that the Son of God may be glorified by it.

5 Now Jesus had love in his heart for Martha and her sister and Lazarus.

Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

Now Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.

6 So when the news came to him that Lazarus was ill, he did not go from the place where he was for two days.

When therefore he heard that he was sick, he stayed at that time two days in the place where he was.

When therefore he had heard that he was sick, he abode two days still in the same place where he was.

7 Then after that time he said to his disciples, Let us go into Judaea again.

Then after this he said to the disciples, "Let`s go into Judea again."

Then after that he saith to his disciples, Let us ho into Judea again.

- 8 The disciples said to him, Master, the Jews were attempting only the other day to have you stoned, and are you going back there again?
The disciples told him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just trying to stone you, and are you going there again?"
His disciples say to him, Master, the Jews of late sought to stone thee; and goest thou thither again?
- 9 Then Jesus said in answer, Are there not twelve hours in the day? A man may go about in the day without falling, because he sees the light of this world.
Jesus answered, "Aren't there twelve hours of daylight? If a man walks in the day, he doesn't stumble, because he sees the light of this world."
Jesus answered, Are there not twelve hours in the day? If any man walketh in the day, he stumbleth not, because he seeth the light of this world.
- 10 But if a man goes about in the night, he may have a fall because the light is not in him.
But if a man walks in the night, he stumbles, because the light isn't in him."
But if a man walketh in the night, he stumbleth, because there is no light in him.
- 11 These things said he: and after that he said to them, Lazarus our friend is at rest; but I go so that I may make him come out of his sleep.
He said these things, and after that, he said to them, "Our friend, Lazarus, has fallen asleep, but I am going so that I may awake him out of sleep."
These things he said: and after that he saith to them, Our friend Lazarus sleepeth; but I go that I may awake him out of sleep.
- 12 Then his disciples said to him, Lord, if he is resting he will get well.
The disciples therefore said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, he will recover."
Then said his disciples, Lord, if he sleepeth he will do well.
- 13 Jesus, however, was talking of his death: but they had the idea that he was talking about taking rest in sleep.
Now Jesus had spoken of his death, but they thought that he spoke of taking rest in sleep.
Now Jesus spoke of his death: but they thought that he had spoken of taking rest in sleep.
- 14 Then Jesus said to them clearly, Lazarus is dead.
So Jesus said to them plainly then, "Lazarus is dead."
Then said Jesus to them plainly, Lazarus is dead.

15 And because of you I am glad I was not there, so that you may have faith; but let us go to him.
I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, so that you may believe. Nevertheless, let`s go to him."
And I am glad for your sakes that I was not there, to the intent ye may believe; nevertheless, let us go to him.

16 Then Thomas, who was named Didymus, said to the other disciples, Let us go so that we may be with him in death.
Thomas therefore, who is called Didymus, said to his fellow disciples, "Let`s go also, that we may die with him."
Then said Thomas, who is called Didymus, to his fellow-disciples, Let us also go, that we may die with him.

17 Now when Jesus came, he made the discovery that Lazarus had been put into the earth four days before.
So when Jesus came, he found that he had been in the tomb four days already.
Then when Jesus came, he found that he had lain in the grave four days already.

18 Now Bethany was near to Jerusalem, about two miles away;
Now Bethany was near Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia away.
(Now Bethany was nigh to Jerusalem, about fifteen furlongs distant.)

19 And a number of Jews had come to Martha and Mary to give them comfort about their brother.
Many of the Jews had come to Martha and Mary, to console them concerning their brother.
And many of the Jews came to Martha and Mary, to comfort them concerning their brother.

20 When Martha had the news that Jesus was on the way, she went out to him, but Mary did not go from the house.
Therefore Martha, when she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him, but Mary stayed in the house.
Then Martha, as soon as she heard that Jesus was coming, went and met him: but Mary sat in the house.

21 Then Martha said to Jesus, Lord, if you had been here my brother would not be dead.
Therefore Martha said to Jesus, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn`t have died.
Then said Martha to Jesus, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

- 22 But I am certain that, even now, whatever request you make to God, God will give it to you.
Even now I know that, whatever you ask of God, God will give you."
But I know that even now, whatever thou wilt ask of God, God will give it thee.
- 23 Jesus said to her, Your brother will come to life again.
Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again."
Jesus saith to her, Thy brother shall rise again.
- 24 Martha said to him, I am certain that he will come to life again when all come back from the dead at the last day.
Martha said to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."
Martha saith to him, I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.
- 25 Jesus said to her, I am myself that day and that life; he who has faith in me will have life even if he is dead;
Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me, though he die, yet will he live.
Jesus said to her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live:
- 26 And no one who is living and has faith in me will ever see death. Is this your faith?
Whoever lives and believes in me will never die. Do you believe this?"
And whoever liveth, and believeth in me, shall never die. Believest thou this?
- 27 She said to him, Yes, Lord: my faith is that you are the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.
She said to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, God`s Son, he who comes into the world."
She saith to him, Yes, Lord, I believe that thou art the Christ, the Son of God, who was to come into the world.
- 28 And having said this, she went away and said secretly to her sister Mary, The Master is here and has sent for you.
When she had said this, she went away, and called Mary, her sister, secretly, saying, "The Teacher is here, and is calling you."
And when she had so said, she went and called Mary her sister secretly, saying, The Master is come, and calleth for thee.

29 And Mary, hearing this, got up quickly and went to him.

She, when she heard this, arose quickly, and went to him.

As soon as she heard that, she arose quickly, and came to him.

30 Now Jesus had not at this time come into the town, but was still in the place where Martha had seen him.

Now Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was in the place where Martha met him.

Now Jesus had not yet come into the town, but was in that place where Martha met him.

31 Then the Jews who were with her in the house, comforting her, when they saw Mary get up quickly and go out, went after her in the belief that she was going to the place of the dead and would be weeping there.

Then the Jews who were with her in the house, and were consoling her, when they saw Mary, that she rose up quickly and went out, followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb to weep there."

The Jews then who were with her in the house, and comforted her, when they saw Mary that she rose hastily, and went out, followed her, saying, She goeth to the grave to weep there.

32 When Mary came to where Jesus was and saw him, she went down at his feet, saying, Lord, if you had been here my brother would not be dead.

Mary therefore, when she came to where Jesus was, and saw him, fell down at his feet, saying to him, "Lord, if you would have been here, my brother wouldn't have died."

Then when Mary had come where Jesus was, and saw him, she fell down at his feet, saying to him, Lord, if thou hadst been here, my brother had not died.

33 And when Jesus saw her weeping, and saw the Jews weeping who came with her, his spirit was moved and he was troubled,

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled,

When Jesus therefore saw her weeping, and the Jews also weeping who came with her, he groaned in the spirit, and was troubled;

34 And said, Where have you put him? They said, Come and see, Lord.

and said, "Where have you laid him?" They told him, "Lord, come and see."

And said, Where have ye laid him? They say to him, Lord, come and see.

35 And Jesus himself was weeping.

Jesus wept.

Jesus wept.

36 So the Jews said, See how dear he was to him!

The Jews therefore said, "See how much affection he had for him!"

Then said the Jews, Behold how he loved him!

37 But some of them said, This man, who made open the eyes of the blind man, was he not able to keep his friend from death?

Some of them said, "Couldn't this man, who opened the eyes of him who was blind, have also caused that this man wouldn't die?"

And some of them said, Could not this man, who opened the eyes of the blind, have caused that even this man should not have died?

38 So Jesus, deeply troubled in heart, came to the place of the dead. It was a hole in the rock, and a stone was over the opening.

Jesus therefore, again groaning in himself, came to the tomb. Now it was a cave, and a stone lay against it.

Jesus therefore again groaning in himself, cometh to the grave. It was a cave, and a stone lay upon it.

39 Jesus said, Take away the stone. Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said, Lord, by this time the body will be smelling, for he has been dead four days.

Jesus said, "Take away the stone." Martha, the sister of him who was dead, said to him, "Lord, by this time there is a stench, for he has been dead four days."

Jesus said, Take ye away the stone. Martha, the sister of him that was dead, saith to him, Lord, by this time his body is offensive: for he hath been dead four days.

40 Jesus said to her, Did I not say to you that if you had faith you would see the glory of God?

Jesus said to her, "Didn't I tell you that if you believed, you would see God's glory?"

Jesus saith to her, Said I not to thee, that if thou wouldest believe, thou shouldest see the glory of God?

41 So they took away the stone. And Jesus, looking up to heaven, said, Father, I give praise to you for hearing me.
So they took away the stone from the place where the dead man was lying. Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, "Father, I thank you that you listened to me.
Then they took away the stone from the place where the dead was laid. And Jesus lifted up his eyes, and said, Father, I thank thee that thou hast heard me:

42 I was certain that your ears are at all times open to me, but I said it because of these who are here, so that they may see that you sent me.
I know that you always listen to me, but because of the multitude that stands around I said this, that they may believe that you sent me."
And I knew that thou hearest me always: but because of the people who stand by, I said it, that they may believe that thou hast sent me.

43 Then he said in a loud voice, Lazarus, come out!
When he had said this, he cried with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!"
And when he had thus spoken, he cried with a loud voice, Lazarus, come forth.

44 And he who was dead came out, with linen bands folded tightly about his hands and feet, and a cloth about his face. Jesus said to them, Make him free and let him go.
He who was dead came out, bound hand and foot with wrappings, and his face was wrapped around with a cloth. Jesus said to them, "Free him, and let him go."
And he that was dead came forth, bound hand and foot with grave-clothes: and his face was bound about with a napkin. Jesus saith to them, Loose him, and let him go.

45 Then a number of the Jews who had come to Mary and had seen the things which Jesus did had belief in him.
Therefore many of the Jews, who came to Mary and saw that which Jesus did, believed in him.
Then many of the Jews who came to Mary, and had seen the things which Jesus did, believed on him.

46 But some of them went to the Pharisees with the news of what Jesus had done.
But some of them went away to the Pharisees, and told them the things which Jesus had done.
But some of them went to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done.

- 47 Then the high priests and the Pharisees had a meeting and said, What are we doing? This man is doing a number of signs.
The chief priests therefore and the Pharisees gathered a council, and said, "What are we doing? For this man does many signs. Then the chief priests and the Pharisees convened a council, and said, What do we? for this man performeth many miracles.
- 48 If we let him go on in this way, everybody will have belief in him and the Romans will come and take away our place and our nation.
If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come and take away both our place and our nation."
If we let him thus alone, all men will believe on him: and the Romans will come, and take away both our place and nation.
- 49 But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, You have no knowledge of anything;
But a certain one of them, Caiaphas, being high priest that year, said to them, "You know nothing at all, And one of them, named Caiaphas, being the high priest that same year, said to them, Ye know nothing at all,
- 50 You do not see that it is in your interest for one man to be put to death for the people, so that all the nation may not come to destruction.
nor do you take account that it is advantageous for us that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation not perish."
Nor consider that it is expedient for us, that one man should die for the people, and that the whole nation perish not.
- 51 He did not say this of himself, but being the high priest that year he said, as a prophet, that Jesus would be put to death for the nation;
Now he didn't say this of himself, but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus would die for the nation, And this he spoke not of himself: but being high priest that year, he prophesied that Jesus should die for that nation;
- 52 And not for that nation only, but for the purpose of uniting in one body the children of God all over the world.
and not for the nation only, but that he might also gather together into one the children of God who are scattered abroad.
And not for that nation only, but that also he should assemble in one the children of God that were scattered abroad.

53 And from that day they took thought together how to put him to death.

So from that day forth they took counsel that they might put him to death.

Then from that day forth they took counsel together to put him to death.

54 So Jesus no longer went about publicly among the Jews, but went from there into the country near to the waste land, to a town named Ephraim, where he was for some time with the disciples.

Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews, but departed from there into the country near the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim. He stayed there with his disciples.

Jesus therefore walked no more openly among the Jews; but went thence to a country near to the wilderness, into a city called Ephraim, and there continued with his disciples.

55 Now the Passover of the Jews was near, and numbers of people went up from the country to Jerusalem to make themselves clean before the Passover.

Now the Passover of the Jews was at hand. Many went up to Jerusalem out of the country before the Passover, to purify themselves.

And the Jews' passover was nigh at hand: and many went out of the country to Jerusalem before the passover, to purify themselves.

56 They were looking for Jesus and saying to one another while they were in the Temple, What is your opinion? Will he not come to the feast?

Then they sought for Jesus and spoke one with another, as they stood in the temple, "What do you think? Isn't he coming to the feast?"

Then they sought for Jesus, and spoke among themselves, as they stood in the temple, What think ye, that he will not come to the feast?

57 Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had given orders that if anyone had knowledge where he was, he was to give them word, so that they might take him.

Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had commanded that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, that they might seize him.

Now both the chief priests and the Pharisees had given a commandment, that, if any man knew where he was, he should show it, that they might take him.

1 Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany where Lazarus was, whom Jesus had made to come back from the dead.
Therefore six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus was, who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

Then Jesus, six days before the passover, came to Bethany, where Lazarus was who had been dead, whom he raised from the dead.

2 So they made him a meal there, and he was waited on by Martha, and Lazarus was among those who were seated with him at table.

So they made him a supper there. Martha served, but Lazarus was one of those who sat at the table with him.

There they made him a supper; and Martha served: but Lazarus was one of them that sat at the table with him.

3 Then Mary, taking a pound of perfumed oil of great value, put it on the feet of Jesus and made them dry with her hair: and the house became full of the smell of the perfume.

Mary, therefore, took a pound of ointment of pure nard, very precious, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair. The house was filled with the fragrance of the ointment.

Then Mary took a pound of ointment of spikenard, very costly, and anointed the feet of Jesus, and wiped his feet with her hair: and the house was filled with the odor of the ointment.

4 But one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot (who was to give him up), said,

Then Judas Iscariot, Simon`s son, one of his disciples, who would betray him, said,

Then saith one of his disciples, Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, who was to betray him,

5 Why was not this perfume traded for three hundred pence, and the money given to the poor?

"Why wasn`t this ointment sold for three hundred denarii, and given to the poor?"

Why was not this ointment sold for three hundred pence, and given to the poor?

6 (He said this, not because he had any love for the poor; but because he was a thief, and, having the money-bag, took for himself what was put into it.)

Now he said this, not because he cared for the poor, but because he was a thief, and having the money box, used to steal what was put into it.

This he said, not that he cared for the poor; but because he was a thief, and had the bag, and bore what was put in it.

- 7 Then Jesus said, Let her be. Let her keep what she has for the day of my death.
But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. She has kept this for the day of my burial.
Then said Jesus, Let her alone: against the day of my burial hath she kept this.
- 8 The poor you have ever with you, but me you have not for ever.
For you always have the poor with you, but you don't always have me."
For the poor ye have always with you; but me ye have not always.
- 9 Then a great number of the Jews had news that he was there: and they came, not only because of Jesus, but so that they might see Lazarus who had been dead and to whom he had given life.
A large crowd therefore of the Jews learned that he was there, and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
Many people of the Jews therefore knew that he was there: and they came, not for Jesus' sake only, but that they might see Lazarus also, whom he had raised from the dead.
- 10 Now there was talk among the chief priests of putting Lazarus to death;
But the chief priests conspired to also put Lazarus to death,
But the chief priests consulted that they might put Lazarus also to death;
- 11 For because of him a great number of the Jews went away and had belief in Jesus.
because on account of him many of the Jews went away and believed in Jesus.
Because that by reason of him many of the Jews went away, and believed on Jesus.
- 12 The day after, a great number of people who were there for the feast, when they had the news that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
On the next day a great multitude had come to the feast. When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,
On the next day, many people that had come to the feast, when they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem,

- 13 Took branches of palm-trees and went out to him, crying, A blessing on him who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!
they took the branches of the palm trees, and went out to meet him, and cried out, "Hosanna! Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the King of Israel!"
Took branches of palm-trees, and went forth to meet him, and cried, Hosanna; Blessed is the King of Israel that cometh in the name of the Lord.
- 14 And Jesus saw a young ass and took his seat on it; as the Writings say,
Jesus, having found a young donkey, sat on it. As it is written,
And Jesus, when he had found a young ass, sat thereon; as it is written,
- 15 Have no fear, daughter of Zion: see your King is coming, seated on a young ass.
"Don` t be afraid, daughter of Zion. Behold, your King comes, sitting on a donkey`s colt."
Fear not, daughter of Sion: behold, thy King cometh, sitting on an ass's colt.
- 16 (These things were not clear to his disciples at first: but when Jesus had been lifted up into his glory, then it came to their minds that these things in the Writings were about him and that they had been done to him.)
His disciples didn` t understand these things at first, but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written about him, and that they had done these things to him.
These things his disciples understood not at the first: but when Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things were written concerning him, and that they had done these things to him.
- 17 Now the people who were with him when his voice came to Lazarus in the place of the dead, and gave him life again, had been talking about it.
The multitude therefore that was with him when he called Lazarus out of the tomb, and raised him from the dead, was testifying.
The people therefore that were with him when he called Lazarus out of his grave, and raised him from the dead, bore testimony.
- 18 And that was the reason the people went out to him, because it had come to their ears that he had done this sign.
For this cause also the multitude went and met him, because they heard that he had done this sign.
For this cause the people also met him, for that they heard that he had done this miracle.

19 Then the Pharisees said one to another, You see, you are unable to do anything: the world has gone after him.
The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, "See how you accomplish nothing. Behold, the world has gone after him."
The Pharisees therefore said among themselves, Perceive ye how ye prevail nothing? behold, the world is gone after him.

20 Now there were some Greeks among the people who had come up to give worship at the feast:
Now there were certain Greeks among those that went up to worship at the feast.
And there were certain Greeks among them, that came to worship at the feast.

21 They came to Philip, who was of Beth-saida in Galilee, and made a request, saying, Sir, we have a desire to see Jesus.
These, therefore, came to Philip, who was from Bethsaida of Galilee, and asked him, saying, "Sir, we want to see Jesus."
The same came therefore to Philip, who was of Bethsaida of Galilee, and desired him, saying, Sir, we would see Jesus.

22 Philip went and gave word of it to Andrew; and Andrew went with Philip to Jesus.
Philip came and told Andrew, and in turn, Andrew came with Philip, and they told Jesus.
Philip cometh and telleth Andrew: and again, Andrew and Philip tell Jesus.

23 And Jesus said to them in answer, The hour of the glory of the Son of man has come.
Jesus answered them, "The time has come for the Son of Man to be glorified.
And Jesus answered them, saying, The hour is come, that the Son of man should be glorified.

24 Truly I say to you, If a seed of grain does not go into the earth and come to an end, it is still a seed and no more; but through its death it gives much fruit.
Most assuredly I tell you, unless a grain of wheat falls into the earth and dies, it remains by itself alone. But if it dies, it bears much fruit.
Verily, verily, I say to you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit.

25 He who is in love with life will have it taken from him; and he who has no care for his life in this world will keep it for ever and ever.
He who loves his life will lose it. He who hates his life in this world will keep it to eternal life.
He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world, shall keep it to life eternal.

- 26 If any man is my servant, let him come after me; and where I am, there will my servant be. If any man becomes my servant, my Father will give him honour.
If anyone serves me, let him follow me. Where I am, there will my servant also be. If anyone serves me, the Father will honor him.
If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honor.
- 27 Now is my soul troubled; and what am I to say? Father, keep me from this hour. No: for this purpose have I come to this hour.
"Now my soul is troubled. What will I say? `Father, save me from this time?` But for this cause I came to this time.
Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause I came to this hour.
- 28 Father, give glory to your name. Then there came a voice out of heaven, saying, I have given it glory, and I will give it glory again.
Father, glorify your name!" Then there came a voice out of the sky, saying, "I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again."
Father, glorify thy name. Then came there a voice from heaven, saying, I have both glorified it, and will glorify it again.
- 29 Hearing the sound, a number of people who were there said that it was thunder: others said, An angel was talking to him.
The multitude therefore, who stood by and heard it, said that it had thundered. Others said, "An angel has spoken to him."
The people therefore that stood by, and heard it, said that it thundered. Others said, An angel spoke to him.
- 30 Jesus said in answer, This voice came not for me but for you.
Jesus answered, "This voice hasn't come for my sake, but for your sakes.
Jesus answered and said, This voice came not because of me, but for your sakes.
- 31 Now is this world to be judged: now will the ruler of this world be sent out.
Now is the judgment of this world. Now the prince of this world will be cast out.
Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out.
- 32 And I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will make all men come to me.
I, if I am lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to myself."
And I, if I shall be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men to me.

- 33 (This he said, pointing to the sort of death he would have.)
But he said this, signifying by what kind of death he should die.
(This he said, signifying what death he should die.)
- 34 Then the people in answer said to him, The law says that the Christ will have life without end: how say you then that it is necessary for the Son of man to be lifted up? Who is this Son of man? The multitude answered him, "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains forever. How do you say, `The Son of Man must be lifted up?` Who is this Son of Man?"
The people answered him, We have heard out of the law that Christ abideth for ever: and how sayest thou, The Son of man must be lifted up? Who is this Son of man?
- 35 Jesus said to them, For a little time longer the light will be among you; while you have the light go on walking in it, so that the dark may not overtake you: one walking in the dark has no knowledge of where he is going.
Jesus therefore said to them, "Yet a little while the light is with you. Walk while you have the light, that darkness doesn't overtake you. He who walks in the darkness doesn't know where he is going.
Then Jesus said to them, Yet a little while is the light with you. Walk while ye have the light, lest darkness come upon you: for he that walketh in darkness knoweth not whither he goeth.
- 36 In so far as you have the light, put your faith in the light so that you may become sons of light. With these words Jesus went away and for a time was not seen again by them.
While you have the light, believe in the light, that you may become sons of light." Jesus said these things, and he departed and hid himself from them.
While ye have light, believe in the light, that ye may be the children of light. These things spoke Jesus, and departed, and concealed himself from them.
- 37 But though he had done such a number of signs before them, they still had no belief in him:
But though he had done so many signs before them, yet they didn't believe in him,
But though he had done so many miracles before them, yet they believed not on him:
- 38 So that the words of the prophet Isaiah might come true, when he said, Lord, who has any belief in our preaching? and the arm of the Lord, to whom has it been unveiled? that the word of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, "Lord, who has believed our report? To whom has the arm of the Lord been revealed?"
That the saying of Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which he spoke, Lord, who hath believed our report? and to whom hath the arm of the Lord been revealed?

- 39 For this reason they were unable to have belief, because Isaiah said again,
For this cause they couldn't believe, for Isaiah said again,
Therefore they could not believe, because that Isaiah said again,
- 40 He has made their eyes blind, and their hearts hard; for fear that they might see with their eyes and get knowledge with their hearts, and be changed, and I might make them well.
"He has blinded their eyes and he hardened their heart, Lest they should see with their eyes, And perceive with their heart, And would turn, And I would heal them."
He hath blinded their eyes, and hardened their heart; that they should not see with their eyes, nor understand with their heart, and be converted, and I should heal them.
- 41 (Isaiah said these words because he saw his glory. His words were about him.)
Isaiah said these things when he saw his glory, and he spoke of him.
These things said Isaiah, when he saw his glory, and spoke of him.
- 42 However, a number even of the rulers had belief in him, but because of the Pharisees they did not say so openly for fear that they might be shut out from the Synagogue:
Nevertheless even of the rulers many believed in him, but because of the Pharisees they didn't confess it, so that they wouldn't be put out of the synagogue,
Nevertheless, among the chief rulers also many believed on him; but because of the Pharisees they did not confess him, lest they should be put out of the synagogue:
- 43 For the praise of men was dearer to them than the approval of God.
for they loved men's approval more than God's approval.
For they loved the praise of men more than the praise of God.
- 44 Then Jesus said with a loud voice, He who has faith in me, has faith not in me, but in him who sent me.
Jesus cried out and said, "Whoever believes in me, believes not in me, but in him who sent me."
Jesus cried, and said, He that believeth on me, believeth not on me, but on him that sent me:
- 45 And he who sees me, sees him who sent me.
He who sees me sees him who sent me.
And he that seeth me, seeth him that sent me:

- 46 I have come as a light into the world, so that no one who has faith in me will go on living in the dark.
I have come as a light into the world, that whoever believes in me may not remain in the darkness.
I am come a light into the world, that whoever believeth on me should not abide in darkness.
- 47 And if any man gives ear to my words and does not keep them, I am not his judge: I did not come to be judge of the world but to give salvation to the world.
If anyone listens to my sayings, and doesn't believe, I don't judge him. For I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
And if any man hear my words, and believe not, I judge him not: for I came not to judge the world, but to save the world.
- 48 He who puts me on one side and does not take my words to heart, is not without a judge: the word which I have said will be his judge on the last day.
He who rejects me, and doesn't receive my sayings, has one who judges him. The word that I spoke, the same will judge him in the last day.
He that rejecteth me, and receiveth not my words, hath one that judgeth him: the word that I have spoken, the same shall judge him in the last day.
- 49 For I have not said it on my authority, but the Father who sent me gave me orders what to say and how to say it.
For I spoke not from myself, but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
For I have not spoken from myself; but the Father who sent me, he gave me a commandment, what I should say, and what I should speak.
- 50 And I have knowledge that his order is eternal life: so that the things which I say, I say them even as the Father says them to me.
I know that his commandment is eternal life. The things therefore which I speak, even as the Father has said to me, so I speak."
And I know that his commandment is life everlasting: whatever I speak therefore, even as the Father said to me, so I speak.

- 1 Now before the feast of the Passover, it was clear to Jesus that the time had come for him to go away from this world to the Father. Having once had love for those in the world who were his, his love for them went on to the end.
Now before the feast of the Passover, Jesus knowing that his time had come that he would depart out of this world to his Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.
Now before the feast of the passover, when Jesus knew that his hour was come that he should depart out of this world to the Father, having loved his own who were in the world, he loved them to the end.

2 So while a meal was going on, the Evil One having now put it into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to be false to him,
After supper, the devil having already put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon`s son, to betray him,
And supper being ended (the devil having now put into the heart of Judas Iscariot, Simon's son, to betray him;)

3 Jesus, being conscious that the Father had put everything into his hands, and that he came from God and was going to God,
Jesus, knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he came forth from God, and was going to God,
Jesus knowing that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come from God, and was going to God;

4 Got up from table, put off his robe and took a cloth and put it round him.
arose from supper, and laid aside his outer garments. He took a towel, and wrapped a towel around his waist.
He riseth from supper, and laid aside his garments; and took a towel, and girded himself.

5 Then he put water into a basin and was washing the feet of the disciples and drying them with the cloth which was round him.
Then he poured water into the basin, and began to wash the disciples` feet, and to wipe them with the towel that was wrapped around him.
After that, he poured water into a basin, and began to wash the disciples feet, and to wipe them with the towel with which he was girded.

6 So he came to Simon Peter. Peter said, Lord, are my feet to be washed by you?
Then he came to Simon Peter. He said to him, "Lord, do you wash my feet?"
Then he cometh to Simon Peter: and Peter saith to him, Lord, dost thou wash my feet?

7 And Jesus, answering, said to him, What I do is not clear to you now, but it will be clear to you in time to come.
Jesus answered him, "You don`t know what I am doing now, but you will understand later."
Jesus answered and said to him, What I do thou knowest not now; but thou shalt know hereafter.

8 Peter said, I will never let my feet be washed by you, never. Jesus said in answer, If I do not make you clean you have no part with me.
Peter said to him, "You will never wash my feet!" Jesus answered him, "If I don`t wash you, you have no part with me."
Peter saith to him, Thou shalt never wash my feet. Jesus answered him, If I wash thee not, thou hast no part with me.

- 9 Simon Peter said to him, Lord, not my feet only, but my hands and my head.
Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head!"
Simon Peter saith to him, Lord, not my feet only, but also my hands and my head.
- 10 Jesus said to him, He who is bathed has need only to have his feet washed and then he is clean all over: and you, my disciples, are clean, but not all of you.
Jesus said to him, "Someone who has bathed only needs to have their feet washed, but is completely clean. You are clean, but not all of you."
Jesus saith to him, He that is washed needeth not save to wash his feet, but is wholly clean: and ye are clean, but not all.
- 11 (He had knowledge who was false to him; that is why he said, You are not all clean.)
For he knew him who would betray him, therefore he said, "You are not all clean."
For he knew who would betray him; therefore said he, Ye are not all clean.
- 12 Then, after washing their feet and putting on his robe again, he took his seat and said to them, Do you see what I have done to you?
So when he had washed their feet, put his outer garment back on, and sat down again, he said to them, "Do you know what I have done to you?"
So after he had washed their feet, and had taken his garments, and was set down again, he said to them, Know ye what I have done to you?
- 13 You give me the name of Master and Lord: and you are right; that is what I am.
You call me, `Teacher` and `Lord.` You say so correctly, for so I am.
Ye call me Master, and Lord: and ye say well; for so I am.
- 14 If then I, the Lord and the Master, have made your feet clean, it is right for you to make one another's feet clean.
If I then, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash one another's feet.
If I then, your Lord and Master, have washed your feet; ye also ought to wash one another's feet.
- 15 I have given you an example, so that you may do what I have done to you.
For I have given you an example, that you also should do as I have done to you.
For I have given you an example, that ye should do as I have done to you.

- 16 Truly I say to you, A servant is not greater than his lord; and he who is sent is not greater than the one who sent him.
Most assuredly I tell you, a servant is not greater than his lord, neither one who is sent greater than he who sent him.
Verily, verily, I say to you, The servant is not greater than his lord; neither he that is sent greater than he that sent him.
- 17 If these things are clear to you, happy are you if you do them.
If you know these things, blessed are you if you do them.
If ye know these things, happy are ye if ye do them.
- 18 I am not talking of you all: I have knowledge of my true disciples, but things are as they are, so that the Writings may come true, The foot of him who takes bread with me is lifted up against me.
I speak not of you all. I know whom I have chosen. But that the scripture may be fulfilled, `He who eats bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.`
I speak not of you all; I know whom I have chosen: but that the scripture may be fulfilled, He that eateth bread with me, hath lifted up his heel against me.
- 19 From this time forward, I give you knowledge of things before they come about, so that when they come about you may have belief that I am he.
From now on, I tell you before it happens, that when it happens, you may believe that I AM.
Now I tell you before it cometh, that when it hath come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.
- 20 Truly I say to you, He who takes to his heart anyone whom I send, takes me to his heart; and he who so takes me, takes him who sent me.
Most assuredly I tell you, he who receives whoever I send, receives me; and he who receives me, receives him who sent me."
Verily, verily, I say to you, He that receiveth whomsoever I send, receiveth me; and he that receiveth me, receiveth him that sent me.
- 21 When Jesus had said this he was troubled in spirit, and gave witness, saying, Truly I say to you, that one of you will be false to me.
When Jesus had said this, he was troubled in the spirit, and testified, "Most assuredly I tell you that one of you will betray me."
When Jesus had thus said, he was troubled in spirit, and testified, and said, Verily, verily, I say to you, that one of you will betray me.

- 22 Then the eyes of the disciples were turned on one another, in doubt as to whom he had in mind.
The disciples looked at one another, perplexed about whom he spoke.
Then the disciples looked one on another, doubting of whom he spoke.
- 23 There was at table one of his disciples, the one dear to Jesus, resting his head on Jesus' breast.
One of his disciples, whom Jesus loved, was at the table, leaning against Jesus' breast.
Now there was leaning on Jesus' bosom, one of his disciples, whom Jesus loved.
- 24 Making a sign to him, Simon Peter said, Who is it he is talking about?
Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, and said to him, "Tell us who it is of whom he speaks."
Simon Peter therefore beckoned to him, to ask who it should be of whom he spoke.
- 25 He, then, resting his head on Jesus' breast, said to him, Lord, who is it?
He, leaning back, as he was, on Jesus' breast, asked him, "Lord, who is it?"
He then lying on Jesus' breast, saith to him, Lord, who is it?
- 26 This was the answer Jesus gave: It is the one to whom I will give this bit of bread after I have put it in the vessel. Then he took the bit of bread, put it into the vessel, and gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.
Jesus therefore answered, "It is he who I will give this morsel to when I have dipped it." So when he had dipped the morsel, he gave it to Judas, the son of Simon Iscariot.
Jesus answered, He it is to whom I shall give a sop, when I have dipped it. And when he had dipped the sop, he gave it to Judas Iscariot, the son of Simon.
- 27 And when Judas took the bread Satan went into him. Then Jesus said to him, Do quickly what you have to do.
After the morsel, then Satan entered into him. Jesus therefore said to him, "What you do, do quickly."
And after the sop Satan entered into him. Then said Jesus to him, What thou doest, do quickly.
- 28 Now it was not clear to anyone at table why he said this to him.
Now no man at the table knew why he said this to him.
Now no man at the table knew for what intent he spoke this to him.

- 29 Some were of the opinion that because Judas kept the money-bag Jesus said to him, Get the things we have need of for the feast; or, that he was to give something to the poor.
For some thought, because Judas had the money box, that Jesus said to him, "Buy what things we need for the feast," or that he should give something to the poor.
For some of them thought, because Judas had the bag, that Jesus had said to him, Buy those things that we have need of against the feast; or, that he should give something to the poor.
- 30 So Judas, having taken the bit of bread, straight away went out: and it was night.
Therefore, having received that morsel, he went out immediately. It was night.
He then having received the sop, went immediately out: and it was night.
- 31 Then when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now is glory given to the Son of man, and God is given glory in him.
When he had gone out, Jesus said, "Now the Son of Man is glorified, and God is glorified in him.
Therefore when he had gone out, Jesus said, Now is the Son of man glorified, and God is glorified in him.
- 32 If God is given glory in him, God will give him glory in himself, and will give him glory even now.
If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and he will glorify him immediately.
If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify him in himself, and will immediately glorify him.
- 33 My dear children, I am only to be with you a little longer. Then you will be looking for me: and as I said to the Jews, so now I say to you, Where I am going you may not come.
Little children, yet a little while I am with you. You will seek me, and as I said to the Jews, `Where I am going, you can't come,` so now I tell you.
Little children, yet a little while I am with you. Ye will seek me: and, as I said to the Jews, Whither I go, ye cannot come; so now I say to you.
- 34 I give you a new law: Have love one for another; even as I have had love for you, so are you to have love one for another.
A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another, just like I have loved you; that you also love one another.
A new commandment I give to you, That ye love one another; as I have loved you, that ye also love one another.

- 35 By this it will be clear to all men that you are my disciples, if you have love one for another.
By this everyone will know that you are my disciples, if you have love for one another."
By this shall all men know that ye are my disciples, if ye have love one to another.
- 36 Simon Peter said to him, Lord, where are you going? Jesus said in answer, Where I am going you may not come with me now, but you will come later.
Simon Peter said to him, "Lord, where are you going?" Jesus answered, "Where I am going, you can't follow now, but you will follow afterwards."
Simon Peter said to him, Lord, whither goest thou? Jesus answered him, Whither I go, thou canst not follow me now; but thou shalt follow me afterward.
- 37 Peter said to him, Why may I not come with you even now? I will give up my life for you.
Peter said to him, "Lord, why can't I follow you even now? I will lay down my life for you."
Peter said to him, Lord, why cannot I follow thee now? I will lay down my life for thy sake.
- 38 Jesus said in answer, Will you give up your life for me? Truly I say to you, Before the cry of the cock you will have said three times that you are not my disciple.
Jesus answered him, "Will you lay down your life for me? Most assuredly I tell you, the rooster won't crow until you have denied me three times.
Jesus answered him, Wilt thou lay down thy life for my sake? Verily, verily, I say to thee, The cock will not crow, till thou hast denied me thrice.
- 1 Let not your heart be troubled: have faith in God and have faith in me.
"Don't let your heart be troubled. Believe in God. Believe also in me.
Let not your heart be troubled: ye believe in God, believe also in me.
- 2 In my Father's house are rooms enough; if it was not so, would I have said that I am going to make ready a place for you?
In my Father's house are many mansions. If it weren't so, I would have told you. I am going to prepare a place for you.
In my Father's house are many mansions: if it were not so, I would have told you. I go to prepare a place for you.

3 And if I go and make ready a place for you, I will come back again and will take you to be with me, so that you may be where I am.
If I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again, and will receive you to myself; that where I am, you may be there also.
And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come again and receive you to myself; that where I am, there ye may be also.

4 And you all have knowledge of where I am going, and of the way to it.
Where I go, you know, and you know the way."
And whither I go ye know, and the way ye know.

5 Thomas said, Lord, we have no knowledge of where you are going; how may we have knowledge of the way?
Thomas says to him, "Lord, we don't know where you are going. How can we know the way?"
Thomas saith to him, Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way?

6 Jesus said to him, I am the true and living way: no one comes to the Father but by me.
Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father, but by me.
Jesus saith to him, I am the way, and the truth, and the life: no man cometh to the Father, but by me.

7 If you had knowledge of me, you would have knowledge of my Father: you have knowledge of him now and have seen him.
If you had known me, you would have known my Father also. From now on, you know him, and have seen him."
If ye had known me, ye would have known my Father also: and from henceforth ye know him, and have seen him.

8 Philip said to him, Lord, let us see the Father, and we have need of nothing more.
Philip said to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will be enough for us."
Philip saith to him, Lord, show us the Father, and it sufficeth us.

9 Jesus said to him, Philip, have I been with you all this time, and still you have no knowledge of me? He who has seen me has seen the Father. Why do you say, Let us see the Father?
Jesus said to him, "Have I been with you such a long time, and do you not know me, Philip? He who has seen me has seen the Father. How do you say, 'Show us the Father?'"
Jesus saith to him, Have I been so long time with you, and yet hast thou not known me Philip? he that hath seen me, hath seen the Father; and how sayest thou then, Show us the Father?

10 Have you not faith that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The words which I say to you, I say not from myself: but the Father who is in me all the time does his works.
Don't you believe that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? The words that I tell you, I speak not from myself; but the Father living in me does his works.

Believest thou not that I am in the Father, and the Father in me? the words that I speak to you, I speak not from myself: but the Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works.

11 Have faith that I am in the Father and that the Father is in me: at least, have faith in me because of what I do.

Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me; or else believe me for the very works' sake.

Believe me that I am in the Father, and the Father in me: or else believe me for the very works' sake.

12 Truly I say to you, He who puts his faith in me will do the very works which I do, and he will do greater things than these, because I am going to my Father.

Most assuredly I tell you, he who believes in me, the works that I do, he will do also; and greater works than these will he do; because I am going to my Father.

Verily, verily, I say to you, he that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go to my Father.

13 And whatever request you make in my name, that I will do, so that the Father may have glory in the Son.

Whatever you will ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

And whatever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son.

14 If you make any request to me in my name, I will do it.

If you will ask anything in my name, that will I do.

If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it.

15 If you have love for me, you will keep my laws.

If you love me, keep my commandments.

If ye love me, keep my commandments.

16 And I will make prayer to the Father and he will give you another Helper to be with you for ever,

I will pray to the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, that he may be with you forever,

And I will pray the Father, and he will give you another Comforter, that he may abide with you for ever;

- 17 Even the Spirit of true knowledge. That Spirit the world is not able to take to its heart because it sees him not and has no knowledge of him: but you have knowledge of him, because he is ever with you and will be in you.
-- the Spirit of truth, whom the world can't receive; for it doesn't see him, neither knows him. You know him, for he lives with you, and will be in you.
Even the Spirit of truth; whom the world cannot receive, because it seeth him not, neither knoweth him: but ye know him; for he dwelleth with you, and will be in you.
- 18 I will not let you be without a friend: I am coming to you.
I will not leave you orphans. I will come to you.
I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.
- 19 A little time longer, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me; and you will be living because I am living.
Yet a little while, and the world will see me no more; but you will see me. Because I live, you will live also.
Yet a little while, and the world seeth me no more; but ye see me: because I live, ye shall live also.
- 20 At that time it will be clear to you that I am in my Father, and you are in me, and I in you.
In that day you will know that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you.
At that day ye shall know that I am in my Father, and ye in me, and I in you.
- 21 He who has my laws and keeps them, he it is who has love for me: and he who has love for me will be loved by my Father, and I will have love for him and will let myself be seen clearly by him.
Someone who has my commandments, and keeps them, that person is one who loves me. One who loves me will be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will reveal myself to him."
He that hath my commandments, and keepeth them, he it is that loveth me: and he that loveth me, shall be loved by my Father, and I will love him, and will manifest myself to him.
- 22 Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, How is it that you will let yourself be seen clearly by us and not by the world?
Judas (not Iscariot) said to him, "Lord, what will happen that you will reveal yourself to us, and not to the world?"
Judas, not Iscariot, saith to him, Lord, how is it that thou wilt manifest thyself to us, and not to the world?

- 23 Jesus said to him in answer, If anyone has love for me, he will keep my words: and he will be dear to my Father; and we will come to him and make our living-place with him.
Jesus answered him, "If a man loves me, he will keep my word. My Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our home with him.
Jesus answered and said to him, If a man loveth me, he will keep my words: and my Father will love him, and we will come to him, and make our abode with him.
- 24 He who has no love for me does not keep my words; and the word which you are hearing is not my word but the Father's who sent me.
He who doesn't love me doesn't keep my words. The word which you hear isn't mine, but the Father's who sent me.
He that loveth me not, keepeth not my sayings: and the word which ye hear is not mine, but that of the Father who sent me.
- 25 I have said all this to you while I am still with you.
I have said these things to you, while still living with you.
These things have I spoken to you, being yet present with you.
- 26 But the Helper, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will be your teacher in all things and will put you in mind of everything I have said to you.
But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring to your memory all that I said to you.
But the Comforter, who is the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, he will teach you all things, and bring all things to your remembrance, whatever I have said to you.
- 27 May peace be with you; my peace I give to you: I give it not as the world gives. Let not your heart be troubled; let it be without fear.
Peace I leave with you. My peace I give to you; not as the world gives, give I to you. Don't let your heart be troubled, neither let it be fearful.
Peace I leave with you, my peace I give to you: not as the world giveth, give I to you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.
- 28 Keep in mind how I said to you, I go away and come to you again. If you had love for me you would be glad, because I am going to the Father: for the Father is greater than I.
You heard how I told you, 'I go away, and I come to you.' If you loved me, you would have rejoiced, because I said 'I am going to my Father;' for the Father is greater than I.
Ye have heard that I said to you, I go away, and come again to you. If ye loved me, ye would rejoice, because I said, I go to the Father: for my Father is greater than I.

- 29 And now I have given you word of it before it comes, so that, when it comes, you may have faith.
Now I have told you before it happens so that, when it happens, you may believe.
And now I have told you before it cometh to pass, that when it hath come to pass, ye may believe.
- 30 After this I will not say much to you, because the ruler of this world comes: and he has no power over me;
I will no more speak much with you, for the prince of the world comes, and he has nothing in me.
Hereafter I will not talk much with you: for the prince of this world cometh, and hath nothing in me.
- 31 But he comes so that the world may see that I have love for the Father, and that I am doing as I am ordered by the Father. Get up, and let us go.
But that the world may know that I love the Father, and as the Father commanded me, even so I do. Arise, let us go from here.
But that the world may know that I love the Father; and as the Father gave me commandment, even so I do. Arise, let us go hence.
- 1 I am the true vine and my Father is the gardener.
"I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer.
I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman.
- 2 He takes away every branch in me which has no fruit, and every branch which has fruit he makes clean, so that it may have more fruit.
Every branch in me that doesn't bear fruit, he takes away. Every branch that bears fruit, he prunes, that it may bear more fruit.
Every branch in me that beareth not fruit, he taketh away; and every branch that beareth fruit, he cleaneth it, that it may bring forth more fruit.
- 3 You are clean, even now, through the teaching which I have given you.
You are already pruned clean because of the word which I have spoken to you.
Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken to you.
- 4 Be in me at all times as I am in you. As the branch is not able to give fruit of itself, if it is not still on the vine, so you are not able to do so if you are not in me.
Remain in me, and I in you. As the branch can't bear fruit by itself, unless it remains in the vine, so neither can you, unless you remain in me.
Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine: no more can ye, except ye abide in me.

- 5 I am the vine, you are the branches: he who is in me at all times as I am in him, gives much fruit, because without me you are able to do nothing.
I am the vine. You are the branches. He who remains in me, and I in him, the same bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.
I am the vine, ye are the branches: He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.
- 6 If a man does not keep himself in me, he becomes dead and is cut off like a dry branch; such branches are taken up and put in the fire and burned.
If a man doesn't remain in me, he is thrown out as a branch, and is withered; and they gather them, throw them into the fire, and they are burned.
If a man abideth not in me, he is cast forth as a branch, and is withered: and men gather them, and cast them into the fire, and they are burned.
- 7 If you are in me at all times, and my words are in you, then anything for which you make a request will be done for you.
If you remain in me, and my words remain in you, you will ask whatever you desire, and it will be done to you.
If ye abide in me, and my words abide in you, ye may ask what ye will, and it shall be done to you.
- 8 Here is my Father's glory, in that you give much fruit and so are my true disciples.
In this is my Father glorified, that you bear much fruit; and so you will be my disciples.
In this is my Father glorified, that ye bear much fruit; so shall ye be my disciples.
- 9 Even as the Father has given me his love, so I have given my love to you: be ever in my love.
Even as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you. Remain in my love.
As the Father hath loved me, so have I loved you: continue ye in my love.
- 10 If you keep my laws, you will be ever in my love, even as I have kept my Father's laws, and am ever in his love.
If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and remain in his love.
If ye keep my commandments, ye shall abide in my love; even as I have kept my Father's commandments, and abide in his love.

- 11 I have said these things to you so that I may have joy in you and so that your joy may be complete.
I have spoken these things to you, that my joy may be in you, and that your joy may be made full.
These things have I spoken to you, that my joy may remain in you, and that your joy may be full.
- 12 This is the law I give you: Have love one for another, even as I have love for you.
This is my commandment, that you love one another, even as I have loved you.
This is my commandment, That ye love one another, as I have loved you.
- 13 Greater love has no man than this, that a man gives up his life for his friends.
Greater love has no one than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends.
- 14 You are my friends, if you do what I give you orders to do.
You are my friends, if you do whatever I command you.
Ye are my friends, if ye do whatever I command you.
- 15 No longer do I give you the name of servants; because a servant is without knowledge of what his master is doing: I give you the name of friends, because I have given you knowledge of all the things which my Father has said to me.
No longer do I call you servants, for the servant doesn't know what his lord does. But I have called you friends, for everything that I heard from my Father, I have made known to you.
Henceforth I call you not servants; for the servant knoweth not what his lord doeth: but I have called you friends; for all things that I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you.
- 16 You did not take me for yourselves, but I took you for myself; and I gave you the work of going about and producing fruit which will be for ever; so that whatever request you make to the Father in my name he may give it to you.
You didn't choose me, but I chose you, and appointed you, that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain; that whatever you will ask of the Father in my name, he may give it to you.
Ye have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and ordained you, that ye should go and bring forth fruit, and that your fruit should remain: that whatever ye shall ask of the Father in my name, he may give it you.

- 17 So this is my law for you: Have love one for another.
I command these things to you, that you may love one another.
These things I command you, that ye love one another.
- 18 If you are hated by the world, keep in mind that I was hated by the world before you.
If the world hates you, you know that it has hated me before it hated you.
If the world hateth you, ye know that it hated me before it hated you.
- 19 If you were of the world, you would be loved by the world: but because you are not of the world, but I have taken you out of the world, you are hated by the world.
If you were of the world, the world would love its own. But because you are not of the world, since I chose you out of the world, therefore the world hates you.
If ye were of the world, the world would love its own: but because ye are not of the world, but I have chosen you out of the world, therefore the world hateth you.
- 20 Keep in mind the words I said to you, A servant is not greater than his lord. If they were cruel to me, they will be cruel to you; if they kept my words, they will keep yours.
Remember the word that I said to you: `A servant is not greater than his lord.` If they persecuted me, they will also persecute you. If they kept my word, they will keep yours also.
Remember the word that I said to you, The servant is not greater than his lord. If they have persecuted me, they will also persecute you: if they have kept my saying, they will keep yours also.
- 21 They will do all this to you because of my name--because they have no knowledge of him who sent me.
But all these things will they do to you for my name`s sake, because they don`t know him who sent me.
But all these things will they do to you for my name's sake, because they know not him that sent me.
- 22 If I had not come and been their teacher they would have had no sin: but now they have no reason to give for their sin.
If I had not come and spoken to them, they would not have had sin; but now they have no excuse for their sin.
If I had not come and spoken to them, they had not had sin: but now they have no cloke for their sin.
- 23 He who has hate for me has hate for my Father.
He who hates me, hates my Father also.
He that hateth me, hateth my Father also.

24 If I had not done among them the works which no other man ever did, they would have had no sin: but now they have seen, and they have had hate in their hearts for me and my Father.
If I hadn't done among them the works which none other did, they wouldn't have had sin. But now have they seen and also hated both me and my Father.

If I had not done among them the works which no other man hath done, they had not had sin: but now have they both seen, and hated both me and my Father.

25 This comes about so that the writing in their law may be made true, Their hate for me was without cause.

But that the word may be fulfilled that is written in their law, `They hated me without a cause.`

But this cometh to pass, that the word might be fulfilled that is written in their law, They hated me without a cause.

26 When the Helper comes, whom I will send to you from the Father even the Spirit of true knowledge who comes from the Father--he will give witness about me;

When the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of truth, who proceeds from the Father, he will testify about me.

But when the Comforter is come, whom I will send to you from the Father, even the Spirit of truth, who proceedeth from the Father, he will testify concerning me.

27 And you, in addition, will give witness because you have been with me from the first.

You will also testify, because you have been with me from the beginning.

And ye also shall bear testimony, because ye have been with me from the beginning.

1 I have said these things to you so that you may not be in doubt.

"These things have I spoken to you, so that you wouldn't be caused to stumble.

These things have I spoken to you, that ye should not be offended.

2 They will put you out of the Synagogues: yes, the time is coming when whoever puts you to death will have the belief that he is doing God's pleasure.

They will put you out of the synagogues. Yes, the time comes that whoever kills you will think that he offers service to God.

They shall put you out of the synagogues: yes, the time cometh, that whoever killeth you, will think that he doeth God service.

- 3 They will do these things to you because they have not had knowledge of the Father or of me.
They will do these things because they have not known the Father, nor me.
And these things will they do to you, because they have not known the Father, nor me.
- 4 I have said these things to you so that when the time comes, what I have said may come to your mind. I did not say them to you at the first, because then I was still with you.
But I have told you these things, so that when the time comes, you may remember that I told you about them. I didn't tell you these things from the beginning, because I was with you.
But these things have I told you, that when the time shall come, ye may remember that I told you of them. And these things I said not to you at the beginning, because I was with you.
- 5 But now I am going to him who sent me; and not one of you says to me, Where are you going?
But now I am going to him who sent me, and none of you asks me, `Where are you going?`
But now I go to him that sent me, and none of you asketh me, Whither goest thou?
- 6 But your hearts are full of sorrow because I have said these things.
But because I have told you these things, sorrow has filled your heart.
But because I have said these things to you, sorrow hath filled your heart.
- 7 But what I am saying is true: my going is for your good: for if I do not go away, the Helper will not come to you; but if I go, I will send him to you.
Nevertheless I tell you the truth: It is to your advantage that I go away, for if I don't go away, the Counselor won't come to you. But if I go, I will send him to you.
Nevertheless, I tell you the truth: It is expedient for you that I depart; for if I go not away, the Comforter will not come to you; but if I depart, I will send him to you.
- 8 And he, when he comes, will make the world conscious of sin, and of righteousness, and of being judged:
When he has come, he will convict the world in respect to sin, and righteousness, and judgment;
And when he is come, he will reprove the world of sin, and of righteousness, and of judgment:
- 9 Of sin, because they have not faith in me;
of sin, because they don't believe in me;
Of sin, because they believe not on me;

- 10 Of righteousness, because I go to the Father and you will see me no more;
of righteousness, because I am going to my Father, and you see me no more;
Of righteousness, because I go to my Father, and ye see me no more;
- 11 Of being judged, because the ruler of this world has been judged.
of judgment, because the prince of this world has been judged.
Of judgment, because the prince of this world is judged.
- 12 I have still much to say to you, but you are not strong enough for it now.
I have yet many things to tell you, but you can't bear them now.
I have yet many things to say to you, but ye cannot bear them now.
- 13 However, when he, the Spirit of true knowledge, has come, he will be your guide into all true knowledge: for his words will not come from himself, but whatever has come to his hearing, that he will say: and he will make clear to you the things to come.
However when he, the Spirit of truth, has come, he will guide you into all the truth, for he will not speak from himself; but whatever things he hears, he will speak. He will declare to you the things that are to come.
But, when he, the Spirit of truth is come, he will guide you into all the truth: for he will not speak from himself; but whatever he shall hear, that will he speak: and he will show you things to come.
- 14 He will give me glory, because he will take of what is mine, and make it clear to you.
He will glorify me, for he will take from what is mine, and will declare it to you.
He will glorify me: for he will receive of mine, and will show it to you.
- 15 Everything which the Father has is mine: that is why I say, He will take of what is mine and will make it clear to you.
All things whatever the Father has are mine; therefore I said that he takes of mine, and will declare it to you.
All things that the Father hath are mine: therefore I said, that he will take of mine, and show it to you.
- 16 After a little time you will see me no longer; and then again, after a little time, you will see me.
A little while, and you will not see me. Again a little while, and you will see me."
A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me, because I go to the Father.

- 17 So some of the disciples said one to another, What is this he is saying, After a little time, you will see me no longer; and then again, after a little time, you will see me? and, I am going to the Father?
Some of his disciples therefore said to one another, "What is this that he says to us, `A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me;` and, `Because I go to the Father?`"
Then said some of his disciples among themselves, What is this that he saith to us, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me: and, Because I go to the Father?
- 18 So they said again and again, What is this he is saying, A little time? His words are not clear to us.
They said therefore, "What is this that he says, `A little while?` We don't know what he is saying."
They said therefore, What is this that he saith, A little while? we cannot tell what he saith.
- 19 Jesus saw that they had a desire to put the question to him, so he said to them, Is this what you are questioning one with another, why I said, After a little time, you will see me no longer; and then again, after a little time, you will see me?
Therefore Jesus perceived that they wanted to ask him, and he said to them, "Do you inquire among yourselves concerning this, that I said, `A little while, and you won't see me, and again a little while, and you will see me?`"
Now Jesus knew that they were desirous to ask him, and said to them, Do ye inquire among yourselves of that which I said, A little while, and ye shall not see me: and again, a little while, and ye shall see me?
- 20 Truly I say to you, You will be weeping and sorrowing, but the world will be glad: you will be sad, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.
Most assuredly I tell you, that you will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice. You will be sorrowful, but your sorrow will be turned into joy.
Verily, verily, I say to you, that ye will weep and lament, but the world will rejoice: and ye will be sorrowful, but your sorrow shall be turned into joy.
- 21 When a woman is about to give birth she has sorrow, because her hour is come; but when she has given birth to the child, the pain is put out of her mind by the joy that a man has come into the world.
A woman, when she is in travail, has sorrow, because her time has come. But when she has delivered the child, she doesn't remember the anguish any more, for the joy that a child is born into the world.
A woman when she is in travail hath sorrow, because her hour is come: but as soon as she is delivered of the child, she remembereth no more the anguish, for joy that a man is born into the world.

- 22 So you have sorrow now: but I will see you again, and your hearts will be glad, and no one will take away your joy.
You therefore now have sorrow, but I will see you again, and your heart will rejoice, and no one will take your joy away from you.
And ye now therefore have sorrow: but I will see you again, and your heart shall rejoice, and your joy no man taketh from you.
- 23 And on that day you will put no questions to me. Truly I say to you, Whatever request you make to the Father, he will give it to you in my name.
In that day you will ask me no question. Most assuredly I tell you, whatever you may ask of the Father, he will give it to you in my name.
And in that day ye will ask me nothing: Verily, verily, I say to you, Whatever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you.
- 24 Up to now you have made no request in my name: do so, and it will be answered, so that your hearts may be full of joy.
Until now, you have asked nothing in my name. Ask, and you will receive, that your joy may be made full.
Hitherto ye have asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
- 25 All this I have said to you in veiled language: but the time is coming when I will no longer say things in veiled language but will give you knowledge of the Father clearly.
I have spoken these things to you in figures of speech. But the time comes when I will no more speak to you in figures of speech, but will tell you plainly about the Father.
These things have I spoken to you in proverbs: but the time cometh when I shall no more speak to you in proverbs, but I shall show you plainly concerning the Father.
- 26 In that day you will make requests in my name: and I do not say that I will make prayer to the Father for you,
In that day you will ask in my name; and I don't say to you, that I will pray to the Father for you,
At that day ye will ask in my name: and I say not to you, that I will pray the Father for you:
- 27 For the Father himself gives his love to you, because you have given your love to me and have had faith that I came from God.
for the Father himself loves you, because you have loved me, and have believed that I came forth from God.
For the Father himself loveth you, because ye have loved me, and have believed that I came from God.

- 28 I came out from the Father and have come into the world: again, I go away from the world and go to the Father.
I came out from the Father, and have come into the world. Again, I leave the world, and go to the Father."
I came forth from the Father, and am come into the world: again, I leave the world, and go to the Father.
- 29 His disciples said, Now you are talking clearly and not in veiled language.
His disciples said to him, "Behold, now you speak plainly, and speak no figures of speech.
His disciples said to him, Lo, now speakest thou plainly, and speakest no proverb.
- 30 Now we are certain that you have knowledge of all things and have no need for anyone to put questions to you: through this we have faith that you came from God.
Now we know that you know all things, and don't need for anyone to question you. By this we believe that you came forth from God."
Now are we sure that thou knowest all things, and needest not that any man should ask thee: by this we believe that thou camest from God.
- 31 Jesus made answer, Have you faith now?
Jesus answered them, "Do you now believe?
Jesus answered them, Do ye now believe?
- 32 See, a time is coming, yes, it is now here, when you will go away in all directions, every man to his house, and I will be by myself: but I am not by myself, because the Father is with me.
Behold, the time comes, yes, has now come, that you will be scattered, everyone to his own place, and will leave me alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
Behold, the hour cometh, and is even now come, that ye shall be scattered every man to his own, and shall leave me alone: and yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.
- 33 I have said all these things to you so that in me you may have peace. In the world you have trouble: but take heart! I have overcome the world.
I have told you these things, that in me you may have peace. In the world you have oppression; but cheer up! I have overcome the world."
These things I have spoken to you, that in me ye may have peace. In the world ye will have tribulation, but be of good cheer: I have overcome the world.

1 Jesus said these things; then, lifting his eyes to heaven, he said, Father, the time has now come; give glory to your Son, so that the Son may give glory to you:
Jesus said these things, and lifting up his eyes to heaven, he said, "Father, the time has come. Glorify your Son, that your Son may also glorify you;
These words spoke Jesus, and lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said, Father, the hour is come; glorify thy Son, that thy Son also may glorify thee:

2 Even as you gave him authority over all flesh, to give eternal life to all those whom you have given to him.
even as you gave him authority over all flesh, that to all whom you have given him, he will give eternal life.
As thou hast given him power over all flesh, that he should give eternal life to as many as thou hast given him.

3 And this is eternal life: to have knowledge of you, the only true God, and of him whom you have sent, even Jesus Christ.
This is eternal life, that they should know you, the only true God, and him whom you sent, Jesus Christ.
And this is life eternal, that they may know thee the only true God, and Jesus Christ whom thou hast sent.

4 I have given you glory on the earth, having done all the work which you gave me to do.
I glorified you on the earth. I have accomplished the work which you have given me to do.
I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do.

5 And now, Father, let me have glory with you, even that glory which I had with you before the world was.
Now, Father, glorify me with your own self with the glory which I had with you before the world existed.
And now, O Father, glorify thou me with thy ownself, with the glory which I had with thee before the world was.

6 I have given knowledge of your name to the men whom you gave me out of the world: yours they were, and you gave them to me, and they have kept your words.
I revealed your name to the people whom you have given me out of the world. They were yours, and you have given them to me. They have kept your word.
I have manifested thy name to the men whom thou gavest to me out of the world: thine they were, and thou gavest them to me; and they have kept thy word.

7 Now it is clear to them that whatever you have given to me comes from you:
Now they know that all things whatever you have given me are from you,
Now they have known that all things whatever thou hast given me are from thee.

- 8 Because I have given them the words which you gave to me; and they have taken them to heart, and have certain knowledge that I came from you, and they have faith that you sent me.
for the words which you have given me I have given to them, and they received them, and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they believed that you sent me.
For I have given to them the words which thou gavest me; and they have received them, and have known surely that I came from thee, and they have believed that thou didst send me.
- 9 My prayer is for them: my prayer is not for the world, but for those whom you have given to me, because they are yours
I pray for them. I don't pray for the world, but for those whom you have given me, for they are yours.
I pray for them: I pray not for the world, but for them whom thou hast given to me; for they are thine.
- 10 (All mine are yours, and yours are mine) and I have glory in them.
All things that are mine are yours, and yours are mine, and I am glorified in them.
And all mine are thine, and thine are mine; and I am glorified in them.
- 11 And now I will be no longer in the world, but they are in the world and I come to you. Holy Father, keep them in your name which you have given to me, so that they may be one even as we are one.
I am no more in the world, and these are in the world, and I am coming to you. Holy Father, keep them through your name which you have given me, that they may be one, even as we are.
And now I am no more in the world, but these are in the world, and I come to thee. Holy Father, keep through thy own name those whom thou hast given to me, that they may be one, as we are.
- 12 While I was with them I kept them safe in your name which you have given to me: I took care of them and not one of them has come to destruction, but only the son of destruction, so that the Writings might come true.
While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given me I have kept. None of them is lost, except the son of perdition, that the Scripture might be fulfilled.
While I was with them in the world, I kept them in thy name: those that thou gavest to me I have kept, and none of them is lost but the son of perdition; that the scripture might be fulfilled.
- 13 And now I come to you; and these things I say in the world so that they may have my joy complete in them.
But now I come to you, and I say these things in the world, that they may have my joy made full in themselves.
And now I come to thee, and these things I speak in the world, that they may have my joy fulfilled in themselves.

- 14 I have given your word to them; and they are hated by the world, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
I have given them your word. The world hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
I have given to them thy word; and the world hath hated them, because they are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
- 15 My prayer is not that you will take them out of the world, but that you will keep them from the Evil One.
I pray not that you would take them from the world, but that you would keep them from the evil one.
I pray not that thou shouldst take them out of the world, but that thou shouldst keep them from the evil.
- 16 They are not of the world any more than I am of the world.
They are not of the world even as I am not of the world.
They are not of the world, even as I am not of the world.
- 17 Make them holy by the true word: your word is the true word.
Sanctify them in your truth. Your word is truth.
Sanctify them through thy truth: thy word is truth.
- 18 Even as you have sent me into the world, so I have sent them into the world.
As you sent me into the world, even so I sent them into the world.
As thou hast sent me into the world, even so have I also sent them into the world.
- 19 And for them I make myself holy, so that they may be made truly holy.
For their sakes I sanctify myself, that they themselves also may be sanctified in truth.
And for their sakes I sanctify myself, that they also may be sanctified through the truth.
- 20 My prayer is not for them only, but for all who will have faith in me through their word;
Neither for these only do I pray, but for those also who believe in me through their word,
Neither pray I for these alone; but for them also who shall believe on me through their word.

- 21 May they all be one! Even as you, Father, are in me and I am in you, so let them be in us, so that all men may come to have faith that you sent me.
that they may all be one; even as you, Father, are in me, and I in you, that they also may be one in us; that the world may believe that you sent me.
That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.
- 22 And the glory which you have given to me I have given to them, so that they may be one even as we are one;
The glory which you have given me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one;
And the glory which thou gavest to me, I have given to them; that they may be one, even as we are one.
- 23 I in them, and you in me, so that they may be made completely one, and so that it may become clear to all men that you have sent me and that they are loved by you as I am loved by you.
I in them, and you in me, that they may be perfected into one; that the world may know that you sent me, and loved them, even as you loved me.
I in them, and thou in me, that they may be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me, and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.
- 24 Father, it is my desire that these whom you have given to me may be by my side where I am, so that they may see my glory which you have given to me, because you had love for me before the world came into being.
Father, I desire that they also whom you have given me be with me where I am, that they may see my glory, which you have given me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.
Father, I will that they also whom thou hast given to me be with me where I am; that they may behold my glory which thou hast given to me: for thou lovedst me before the foundation of the world.
- 25 Father of righteousness, I have knowledge of you, though the world has not; and to these it is clear that you sent me;
Righteous Father, the world didn't know you, but I knew you; and these knew that you sent me.
O righteous Father, the world hath not known thee: but I have known thee, and these have known that thou hast sent me.
- 26 And I have given to them knowledge of your name, and will give it, so that the love which you have for me may be in them and I in them.
I made known to them your name, and will make it known; that the love with which you loved me may be in them, and I in them."
And I have declared to them thy name, and will declare it: that the love with which thou hast loved me, may be in them, and I in them.

1 When Jesus had said these words he went out with his disciples over the stream Kedron to a garden, into which he went with his disciples.
When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kidron, where was a garden, into which he entered, himself and his disciples.

When Jesus had spoken these words, he went forth with his disciples over the brook Kedron, where was a garden, into which he entered, and his disciples.

2 And Judas, who was false to him, had knowledge of the place because Jesus went there frequently with his disciples.

Now Judas, who betrayed him, also knew the place, for Jesus often resorted there with his disciples.

And Judas also, who betrayed him, knew the place: for Jesus often resorted thither with his disciples.

3 So Judas, getting a band of armed men and police from the chief priests and Pharisees, went there with lights and with arms.

Judas then, having taken a detachment of soldiers and officers from the chief priests and the Pharisees, came there with lanterns, torches, and weapons.

Judas then, having received a band of men and officers from the chief priests and Pharisees, cometh thither with lanterns, and torches, and weapons.

4 Then Jesus, having knowledge of everything which was coming on him, went forward and said to them, Who are you looking for?

Jesus therefore, knowing all the things that were coming on him, went forth, and said to them, "Who are you looking for?"

Jesus therefore, knowing all things that were coming upon him, went forth, and said to them, Whom seek ye?

5 Their answer was, Jesus the Nazarene. Jesus said, I am he. And Judas, who was false to him, was there at their side.

They answered him, "Jesus of Nazareth." Jesus said to them, "I AM." Judas also, who betrayed him, was standing with them.

They answered him, Jesus of Nazareth. Jesus saith to them, I am he. And Judas also, who betrayed him, stood with them.

6 And when he said to them, I am he, they went back, falling to the earth.

When therefore he said to them, "I AM," they went backward, and fell to the ground.

As soon then as he had said to them, I am he, they went backward, and fell to the ground.

- 7 So again he put the question to them, Who are you looking for? And they said, Jesus the Nazarene.
Again therefore he asked them, "Who are you looking for?" They said, "Jesus of Nazareth."
Then he asked them again, Whom seek ye? And they said, Jesus of Nazareth.
- 8 Jesus made answer, I have said that I am he; if you are looking for me, let these men go away.
Jesus answered, "I told you that I AM. If therefore you seek me, let these go their way," Jesus answered, I have told you that I am he: If therefore ye seek me, let these go away:
- 9 (He said this so that his words might come true, I have kept safe all those whom you gave to me.)
that the word might be fulfilled which he spoke, "Of those whom you have given me, I have lost none."
That the saying might be fulfilled which he spoke, Of them whom thou gavest to me, I have lost none.
- 10 Then Simon Peter, who had a sword, took it out and gave the high priest's servant a blow, cutting off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
Simon Peter therefore, having a sword, drew it, and struck the high priest's servant, and cut off his right ear. The servant's name was Malchus.
Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it, and smote the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.
The servant's name was Malchus.
- 11 Then Jesus said to Peter, Put back your sword: am I not to take the cup which my Father has given to me?
Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put up the sword into its sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, shall I not drink it?"
Then said Jesus to Peter, Put up thy sword into the sheath: the cup which my Father hath given me, shall I not drink it?
- 12 Then the band and the chief captain and the police took Jesus and put cords round him.
So the detachment, the commanding officer, and the officers of the Jews, seized Jesus and bound him,
Then the band, and the captain, and officers of the Jews took Jesus, and bound him,
-
- 13 They took him first to Annas, because Annas was the father-in-law of Caiaphas who was the high priest that year.
and led him to Annas first, for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was high priest that year.
And led him away to Annas first, (for he was father-in-law to Caiaphas, who was the high priest that same year.)

- 14 It was Caiaphas who had said to the Jews that it was in their interest for one man to be put to death for the people.
Now it was Caiaphas who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
Now Caiaphas was he who gave counsel to the Jews, that it was expedient that one man should die for the people.
- 15 And Simon Peter went after Jesus with another disciple. Now that disciple was a friend of the high priest and he went in with Jesus into the house of the high priest;
Simon Peter followed Jesus, as did another disciple. Now that disciple was known to the high priest, and entered in with Jesus into the court of the high priest;
And Simon Peter followed Jesus, and so did another disciple. That disciple was known to the high priest, and went in with Jesus into the palace of the high priest.
- 16 But Peter was kept outside at the door. Then this other disciple, who was a friend of the high priest, came out and had a word with the girl who kept the door, and took Peter in.
but Peter was standing at the door outside. So the other disciple, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to her who kept the door, and brought in Peter.
But Peter stood at the door without. Then went out that other disciple who was known to the high priest, and spoke to her that kept the door, and brought in Peter.
- 17 Then the girl who was the door-keeper said to Peter, Are you not one of this man's disciples? In answer he said, I am not.
Then the maid who kept the door said to Peter, "Are you also one of this man's disciples?" He said, "I am not."
Then saith the damsel that kept the door to Peter, Art not thou also one of this man's disciples? He saith, I am not.
- 18 Now the servants and the police had made a fire of coals because it was cold; they were warming themselves in front of it and Peter was there with them, warming himself.
Now the servants and the officers were standing there, having made a fire of coals, for it was cold. They were warming themselves. Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.
And the servants and officers stood there, who had made a fire of coals; (for it was cold) and they warmed themselves: and Peter stood with them, and warmed himself.
- 19 Then the high priest put questions to Jesus about his disciples and his teaching.
The high priest therefore asked Jesus of his disciples, and of his teaching.
The high priest then asked Jesus concerning his disciples, and concerning his doctrine.

20 Jesus made answer, I said things openly to the world at all times; I have given my teaching in the Synagogues and in the Temple to which all the Jews come; and I have said nothing secretly. Jesus answered him, "I spoke openly to the world. I always taught in synagogues, and in the temple, where the Jews always meet. I said nothing in secret.

Jesus answered him, I spoke openly to the world; I ever taught in the synagogue and in the temple, whither the Jews always resort; and in secret have I said nothing.

21 Why are you questioning me? put questions to my hearers about what I have said to them: they have knowledge of what I said.

Why do you ask me? Ask those who have heard me what I said to them. Behold, these know the things which I said."

Why dost thou ask me? ask them who heard me, what I have said to them: behold, they know what I have said.

22 When he said this, one of the police by his side gave him a blow with his open hand, saying, Do you give such an answer to the high priest?

When he had said this, one of the officers standing by slapped Jesus with his hand, saying, "Do you answer the high priest like that?"

And when he had thus spoken, one of the officers who stood by, struck Jesus with the palm of his hand, saying, Answerest thou the high priest so?

23 Jesus said in answer, If I have said anything evil, give witness to the evil: but if I said what is true, why do you give me blows?

Jesus answered him, "If I have spoken evil, testify of the evil; but if well, why do you beat me?"

Jesus answered him, If I have spoken evil, bear testimony of the evil: but if well, why smitest thou me?

24 Then Annas sent him chained to Caiaphas, the high priest.

Annas sent him bound to Caiaphas, the high priest.

(Now Annas had sent him bound to Caiaphas the high priest.)

25 But Simon Peter was still there warming himself by the fire. They said to him, Are you not one of his disciples? He said, No, I am not.

Now Simon Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "Are you also one of his disciples?" He denied it, and said, "I am not."

And Simon Peter stood and warmed himself. They said therefore to him, Art not thou also one of his disciples? He denied it, and said, I am not.

- 26 One of the servants of the high priest, a relation of him whose ear had been cut off by Peter, said, Did I not see you with him in the garden?
One of the servants of the high priest, being a relative of him whose ear Peter cut off, said, "Didn't I see you in the garden with him?"
One of the servants of the high priest (being the kinsman of him whose ear Peter cut off) saith, Did not I see thee in the garden with him?
- 27 Then again Peter said, No. And straight away a cock gave its cry.
Peter therefore denied again, and immediately the rooster crowed.
Peter then denied again, and immediately the cock crowed.
- 28 So they took Jesus from the house of Caiaphas to the Praetorium. It was early. They themselves did not go into the Praetorium, so that they might not become unclean, but might take the Passover.
They led Jesus therefore from Caiaphas into the Praetorium. It was early, and they themselves didn't enter into the Praetorium, that they might not be defiled, but might eat the Passover.
Then they led Jesus from Caiaphas to the hall of judgment: and it was early; and they themselves went not into the judgment-hall, lest they should be defiled; but that they might eat the passover.
- 29 So Pilate came out to them and put the question: What have you to say against this man?
Pilate therefore went out to them, and said, "What accusation do you bring against this man?"
Pilate then went out to them, and said, What accusation bring ye against this man?
- 30 They said to him in answer, If the man was not a wrongdoer we would not have given him up to you.
They answered him, "If this man weren't an evildoer, we wouldn't have delivered him up to you."
They answered and said to him, If he were not a malefactor, we would not have delivered him up to thee.
- 31 Then Pilate said to them, Take him yourselves and let him be judged by your law. But the Jews said to him, We have no right to put any man to death.
Pilate therefore said to them, "Take him yourselves, and judge him according to your law." Therefore the Jews said to him, "It is not lawful for us to put anyone to death,"
Then said Pilate to them, Take ye him, and judge him according to your law. The Jews therefore said to him, It is not lawful for us to put any man to death:

- 32 (That the word of Jesus might come true, pointing to the sort of death he would have.)
that the word of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying by what kind of death he should die.
That the saying of Jesus might be fulfilled, which he spoke, signifying what death he should die.
- 33 Then Pilate went back into the Praetorium and sent for Jesus and said to him, Are you the King of the Jews?
Pilate therefore entered again into the Praetorium, called Jesus, and said to him, "Are you the King of the Jews?"
Then Pilate entered into the judgment-hall again, and called Jesus, and said to him, Art thou the King of the Jews?
- 34 Jesus made answer, Do you say this of yourself, or did others say it about me?
Jesus answered him, "Do you say this of yourself, or did others tell it to you concerning me?"
Jesus answered him, Sayest thou this thing from thyself, or did others tell it thee concerning me?
- 35 Pilate said, Am I a Jew? Your nation and the chief priests have given you into my hands: what have you done?
Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? Your own nation and the chief priests delivered you to me. What have you done?"
Pilate answered, Am I a Jew? Thy own nation, and the chief priests, have delivered thee to me: What hast thou done?
- 36 Jesus said in answer, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom was of this world, my disciples would have made a good fight to keep me out of the hands of the Jews: but my kingdom is not here.
Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, then my servants would fight, that I wouldn't be delivered to the Jews. But now my kingdom is not from here."
Jesus answered, My kingdom is not of this world: if my kingdom were of this world, then would my servants fight, that I should not be delivered to the Jews: but now is my kingdom not from hence.
- 37 Then Pilate said to him, Are you then a king? Jesus made answer, You say that I am a king. For this purpose was I given birth, and for this purpose I came into the world, that I might give witness to what is true. Every lover of what is true gives ear to my voice.
Pilate therefore said to him, "Are you a king then?" Jesus answered, "You say that I am a king. To this end have I been born, and to this end I have come into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Everyone who is of the truth listens to my voice."
Pilate therefore said to him, Art thou a King then? Jesus answered, Thou sayest that I am a King. To this end was I born, and for this cause came I into the world, that I should testify to the truth. Every one that is of the truth heareth my voice.

- 38 Pilate said to him, True? what is true? Having said this he went out again to the Jews and said to them, I see no wrong in him.
Pilate said to him, "What is truth?" When he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and said to them, "I find no basis for a charge against him.
Pilate saith to him, What is truth? And when he had said this, he went out again to the Jews, and saith to them, I find in him no fault.
- 39 But every year you make a request to me to let a prisoner go free at the Passover. Is it your desire that I let the King of the Jews go free?
But you have a custom, that I should release to you one at the Passover. Therefore do you desire that I release to you the King of the Jews?"
But ye have a custom that I should release to you one at the passover: will ye therefore that I release to you the King of the Jews?
- 40 Then again they gave a loud cry, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was an outlaw.
Then they all cried out again, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a robber.
Then they all cried again, saying, Not this man, but Barabbas. Now Barabbas was a robber.
- 1 Then Pilate took Jesus and had him whipped with cords.
Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and flogged him.
Then Pilate therefore took Jesus, and scourged him.
- 2 And the men of the army made a crown of thorns and put it on his head, and they put a purple robe on him.
The soldiers twisted thorns into a crown, and put it on his head, and dressed him in a purple garment.
And the soldiers platted a crown of thorns, and put it on his head, and they put on him a purple robe,
- 3 And they kept coming and saying, Long life to the King of the Jews! And they gave him blows with their hands.
They said, "Hail, King of the Jews!" and they struck him with their hands.
And said, Hail, King of the Jews! and they smote him with their hands.

4 And Pilate went out again and said to them, See, I let him come out to you to make it clear to you that I see no wrong in him.
Then Pilate went out again, and said to them, "Behold, I bring him out to you, that you may know that I find no basis for a charge against him."

Pilate therefore went forth again, and saith to them, Behold, I bring him forth to you, that ye may know that I find no fault in him.

5 Then Jesus came out with the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate said to them, Here is the man!

Jesus therefore came out, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple garment. Pilate said to them, "Behold, the man!"

Then Jesus came forth, wearing the crown of thorns, and the purple robe. And Pilate saith to them, Behold the man!

6 So when the chief priests and the police saw him they gave a loud cry, To the cross! to the cross! Pilate said to them, Take him yourselves and put him on the cross: I see no crime in him.

When therefore the chief priests and the officers saw him, they cried out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!" Pilate said to them, "Take him yourselves, and crucify him, for I find no basis for a charge against him."

When therefore the chief priests and officers saw him, they cried out, saying, Crucify him, crucify him. Pilate saith to them, Take ye him, and crucify him: for I find no fault in him.

7 And the Jews made answer, We have a law, and by that law it is right for him to be put to death because he said he was the Son of God.

The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God."

The Jews answered him, We have a law, and by our law he ought to die, because he made himself the Son of God.

8 When this saying came to Pilate's ears his fear became greater;

When therefore Pilate heard this saying, he was more afraid.

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he was the more afraid;

9 And he went again into the Praetorium and said to Jesus, Where do you come from? But Jesus gave him no answer.

He entered into the Praetorium again, and said to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus gave him no answer.

And went again into the judgment-hall, and saith to Jesus, Whence art thou? But Jesus gave him no answer.

10 Then Pilate said to him, You say nothing to me? is it not clear to you that I have power to let you go free and power to put you to death on the cross?
Pilate therefore said to him, "Aren't you speaking to me? Don't you know that I have power to release you, and have power to crucify you?"

Then saith Pilate to him, Speakest thou not to me? knowest thou not, that I have power to crucify thee, and have power to release thee?

11 Jesus gave this answer: You would have no power at all over me if it was not given to you by God; so that he who gave me up to you has the greater sin.

Jesus answered, "You would have no power at all against me, unless it were given to you from above. Therefore he who delivered me to you has greater sin."

Jesus answered, Thou couldst have no power against me; except it were given thee from above: therefore he that delivered me to thee hath the greater sin.

12 Hearing this, Pilate had a desire to let him go free, but the Jews said in a loud voice, If you let this man go, you are not Caesar's friend: everyone who makes himself a king goes against Caesar.

At this, Pilate sought to release him, but the Jews cried out, saying, "If you release this man, you aren't Caesar's friend! Everyone who makes himself a king speaks against Caesar!"

And from thenceforth Pilate sought to release him: but the Jews cried out, saying, If thou let this man go, thou art not Cesar's friend. Whoever maketh himself a king, speaketh against Cesar.

13 So when these words came to Pilate's ear, he took Jesus out, seating himself in the judge's seat in a place named in Hebrew, Gabbatha, or the Stone Floor.

When Pilate therefore heard these words, he brought Jesus out, and sat down on the judgment seat at a place called "The Pavement," but in Hebrew, "Gabbatha."

When Pilate therefore heard that saying, he brought Jesus forth, and sat down on the judgment-seat, in a place that is called the Pavement, but in the Hebrew, Gabbatha.

14 (It was the day when they made ready for the Passover; and it was about the sixth hour.) And he said to the Jews, There is your King!

Now it was the Preparation of the Passover, at about the sixth hour. He said to the Jews, "Behold, your King!"

And it was the preparation of the passover, and about the sixth hour: and he saith to the Jews, Behold your King!

- 15 Then they gave a loud cry, Away with him! away with him! to the cross! Pilate said to them, Am I to put your King to death on the cross? The chief priests said in answer, We have no king but Caesar.
They cried out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!" Pilate said to them, "Shall I crucify your King?" The chief priests answered, "We have no king but Caesar!"
But they cried out, Away with him, away with him, crucify him. Pilate saith to them, Shall I crucify your King? The chief priests answered, We have no king but Cesar.
- 16 So then he gave him up to them to be put to death on the cross. And they took Jesus away;
Then therefore he delivered him to them to be crucified. So they took Jesus and led him away.
Then therefore he delivered him to them to be crucified. And they took Jesus, and led him away.
- 17 And he went out with his cross on him to the place which is named Dead Man's Head (in Hebrew, Golgotha):
He went out, bearing his cross, to the place called "The place of a skull," which is called in Hebrew, "Golgotha,"
And he bearing his cross went forth into a place called the place of a skull, which is called in the Hebrew, Golgotha:
- 18 Where they put him on the cross with two others, one on this side and one on that, and Jesus in the middle.
where they crucified him, and with him two others, on either side one, and Jesus in the middle.
Where they crucified him, and two others with him, on each side one, and Jesus in the midst.
- 19 And Pilate put on the cross a statement in writing. The writing was: JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS.
Pilate wrote a title also, and put it on the cross. There was written, "JESUS OF NAZARETH, THE KING OF THE JEWS."
And Pilate wrote a title, and put it on the cross. And the writing was, JESUS OF NAZARETH THE KING OF THE JEWS.
- 20 The writing was seen by a number of the Jews, for the place where Jesus was put to death on the cross was near the town; and the writing was in Hebrew and Latin and Greek.
Therefore many of the Jews read this title, for the place where Jesus was crucified was near the city; and it was written in Hebrew, in Latin, and in Greek.
Many of the Jews then read this title: for the place where Jesus was crucified was nigh to the city: and it was written in Hebrew, Greek, and Latin.

- 21 Then the chief priests of the Jews said to Pilate, Do not put, The King of the Jews, but, He said, I am the King of the Jews.
The chief priests of the Jews therefore said to Pilate, "Don` t write, `The King of the Jews,` but that, `he said, I am King of the Jews.`"
Then said the chief priests of the Jews to Pilate, Write not, The King of the Jews; but that he said, I am King of the Jews.
- 22 But Pilate made answer, What I have put in writing will not be changed.
Pilate answered, "What I have written, I have written."
Pilate answered, What I have written, I have written.
- 23 And when Jesus was nailed to the cross, the men of the army took his clothing, and made a division of it into four parts, to every man a part, and they took his coat: now the coat was without a join, made out of one bit of cloth.
Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also the coat. Now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.
Then the soldiers, when they had crucified Jesus, took his garments, and made four parts, to every soldier a part; and also his coat: now the coat was without seam, woven from the top throughout.
- 24 So they said among themselves, Let this not be cut up, but let us put it to the decision of chance and see who gets it. (They did this so that the Writings might come true, which say, They made a distribution of my clothing among them, and my coat they put to the decision of chance.) This was what the men of the army did.
Then they said to one another, "Let`s not tear it, but cast lots for it, whose it will be," that the scripture might be fulfilled, which says, "They parted my garments among them, For my cloak they cast lots." Therefore the soldiers did these things.
They said therefore among themselves, Let us not rend it, but cast lots for it whose it shall be: that the scripture might be fulfilled, which saith, They parted my raiment among them, and for my vesture they cast lots. These things therefore the soldiers did.
- 25 Now by the side of the cross of Jesus were his mother, and his mother`s sister Mary, the wife of Cleopas, and Mary Magdalene.
But there were standing by the cross of Jesus his mother, and his mother`s sister, Mary the wife of Clopas, and Mary Magdalene.
Now there stood by the cross of Jesus, his mother, and his mother`s sister, Mary the wife of Cleophas, and Mary Magdalene.

- 26 So when Jesus saw his mother and the disciple who was dear to him, he said to his mother, Mother, there is your son!
Therefore when Jesus saw his mother, and the disciple whom he loved standing there, he said to his mother, "Woman, behold your son!"
When Jesus therefore saw his mother, and the disciple standing by, whom he loved, he saith to his mother, Woman, behold thy son!
- 27 Then he said to the disciple, There is your mother! And from that hour the disciple took her to his house.
Then he said to the disciple, "Behold, your mother!" From that hour, the disciple took her to his own home.
Then saith he to the disciple, Behold thy mother! And from that hour that disciple took her to his own home.
- 28 After this, being conscious that all things had now been done so that the Writings might come true, Jesus said, Give me water.
After this, Jesus, seeing that all things were now finished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, said, "I am thirsty."
After this, Jesus knowing that all things were now accomplished, that the scripture might be fulfilled, saith, I thirst.
- 29 Now there was a vessel ready, full of bitter wine, and they put a sponge full of it on a stick and put it to his mouth.
Now a vessel full of vinegar was set there; so they put a sponge full of the vinegar on hyssop, and brought it to his mouth.
Now there was set a vessel full of vinegar: and they filled a sponge with vinegar, and put it upon hyssop, and put it to his mouth.
- 30 So when Jesus had taken the wine he said, All is done. And with his head bent he gave up his spirit.
When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, "It is finished." He bowed his head, and gave up his spirit.
When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, he said, It is finished: and he bowed his head, and expired.
- 31 Now it was the day of getting ready for the Passover, and so that the bodies might not be on the cross on the Sabbath (because the day of that Sabbath was a great day), the Jews made a request to Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
Therefore the Jews, because it was the Preparation, so that the bodies wouldn't remain on the cross on the Sabbath (for that Sabbath was a special one), asked of Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.
The Jews therefore, because it was the preparation, that the bodies should not remain upon the cross on the sabbath, (for that sabbath was a great day,) besought Pilate that their legs might be broken, and that they might be taken away.

- 32 So the men of the army came, and the legs of the first were broken and then of the other who was put to death on the cross with Jesus:
Therefore the soldiers came, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him;
Then came the soldiers, and broke the legs of the first, and of the other who was crucified with him.
- 33 But when they came to Jesus, they saw that he was dead by this time, and so his legs were not broken;
but when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was already dead, they didn't break his legs.
But when they came to Jesus, and saw that he was dead already, they broke not his legs:
- 34 But one of the men made a wound in his side with a spear, and straight away there came out blood and water.
However one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately blood and water came out.
But one of the soldiers with a spear pierced his side, and forthwith came out blood and water.
- 35 And he who saw it has given witness (and his witness is true; he is certain that what he says is true) so that you may have belief.
He who has seen has testified, and his testimony is true. He knows that he tells the truth, that you also may believe.
And he that saw it, testified, and his testimony is true: and he knoweth that he speaketh truth, that ye may believe.
- 36 These things came about so that the Writings might be true, No bone of his body will be broken.
For these things happened, that the scripture might be fulfilled, "A bone of him will not be broken."
For these things were done, that the scripture should be fulfilled, A bone of him shall not be broken.
- 37 And again another verse says, They will see him who was wounded by their spears.
Again another scripture says, "They will look on him whom they pierced."
And again another scripture saith, They shall look on him whom they pierced.

38 After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, made a request to Pilate to let him take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate said he might do so. So he went and took away his body.

After these things, Joseph of Arimathaea, being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews, asked of Pilate that he might take away Jesus` body. Pilate gave him permission. He came therefore, and took away his body.

And after this, Joseph of Arimathea (being a disciple of Jesus, but secretly for fear of the Jews) besought Pilate that he might take away the body of Jesus: and Pilate gave him leave. He came therefore and took the body of Jesus.

39 And Nicodemus came (he who had first come to Jesus by night) with a roll of myrrh and aloes mixed, about a hundred pounds.

Nicodemus also came, he who at first came to Jesus by night, bringing a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred Roman pounds.

And there came also Nicodemus (who at the first came to Jesus by night) and brought a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pound weight.

40 Then they took the body of Jesus, folding linen about it with the spices, as is the way of the Jews when they put the dead to rest.

So they took Jesus` body, and bound it in linen cloths with the spices, as the custom of the Jews is to bury.

Then they took the body of Jesus, and wound it in linen cloths, with the spices, as the manner of the Jews is to bury.

41 Now there was a garden near the cross, and in the garden a new place for the dead in which no man had ever been put.

Now in the place where he was crucified there was a garden. In the garden a new tomb in which no man had ever yet been laid.

Now in the place where he was crucified, there was a garden; and in the garden a new sepulcher, in which was never man yet laid.

42 So they put Jesus there, because it was the Jews' day of getting ready for the Passover, and the place was near.

Then because of the Jews` Preparation (for the tomb was near at hand) they laid Jesus there.

There they laid Jesus therefore, because of the Jews' preparation-day, for the sepulcher was nigh at hand.

1 Now on the first day of the week, very early, while it was still dark, Mary Magdalene came to the place and saw that the stone had been taken away from it.

Now on the first day of the week, Mary Magdalene came early, while it was yet dark, to the tomb, and saw the stone taken away from the tomb.

The first day of the week cometh Mary Magdalene early, when it was yet dark, to the sepulcher, and seeth the stone taken away from the sepulcher.

- 2 Then she went running to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple who was loved by Jesus, and said to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the place of the dead and we have no knowledge where they have put him.
She ran therefore, and came to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and said to them, "They have taken away the Lord out of the tomb, and we don't know where they have laid him!"
Then she runneth, and cometh to Simon Peter, and to the other disciple whom Jesus loved, and saith to them, They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulcher, and we know not where they have laid him.
- 3 So Peter and the other disciple went out to the place of the dead.
Peter therefore went forth, and the other disciple, and they went toward the tomb.
Peter therefore went forth, and that other disciple, and came to the sepulcher.
- 4 They went running together, and the other disciple got in front of Peter and came first to the hole in the rock;
They both ran together. The other disciple outran Peter, and came to the tomb first.
So they ran both together: and the other disciple outran Peter, and came first to the sepulcher.
- 5 And looking in, he saw the linen bands on the earth; but he did not go in,
Stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths lying, yet he didn't enter in.
And he stooping down, saw the linen cloths lying; yet he went not in.
- 6 Then Simon Peter came after him and went into the hole in the rock; and he saw the linen bands on the earth,
Then Simon Peter came, following him, and entered into the tomb. He saw the linen cloths lying,
Then cometh Simon Peter following him, and went into the sepulcher, and seeth the linen cloths lying;
- 7 And the cloth, which had been round his head, not with the linen bands but rolled up in a place by itself.
and the cloth that was on his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but rolled up in a place by itself.
And the napkin that was about his head, not lying with the linen cloths, but wrapped together in a place by itself.
- 8 Then the other disciple who came there first went in; and he saw and belief came to him.
Then the other disciple also entered in therefore, who came first to the tomb, and he saw, and believed.
Then went in also that other disciple who came first to the sepulcher, and he saw, and believed.

- 9 For at that time they had no knowledge that the Writings said that he would have to come again from the dead.
For as yet they didn't know the scripture, that he must rise from the dead.
For as yet they knew not the scripture, that he must rise again from the dead.
- 10 So then the disciples went away again to their houses.
So the disciples went away again to their own homes.
Then the disciples went away again to their own home.
- 11 But Mary was still there outside the hole in the rock, weeping; and while she was weeping and looking into the hole,
But Mary was standing outside at the tomb weeping. So, as she wept, she stooped and looked into the tomb,
But Mary stood without at the sepulcher weeping: and as she wept she stooped down to look into the sepulcher,
- 12 She saw two angels in white seated where the body of Jesus had been, one at the head and the other at the feet.
and she saw two angels in white sitting, one at the head, and one at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
And seeth two angels in white, sitting, the one at the head, and the other at the feet, where the body of Jesus had lain.
- 13 They said to her, Woman, why are you weeping? She said to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I have no knowledge where they have put him.
They told her, "Woman, why are you weeping?" She said to them, "Because they have taken away my Lord, and I don't know where they have laid him."
And they say to her, Woman, why weepest thou? she saith to them, Because they have taken away my Lord, and I know not where they have laid him.
- 14 And then looking round, she saw Jesus there, but had no idea that it was Jesus.
When she had said this, she turned herself back, and saw Jesus standing, and didn't know that it was Jesus.
And when she had thus said, she turned herself about, and saw Jesus standing, and knew not that it was Jesus.

- 15 Jesus said to her, Woman, why are you weeping? who are you looking for? She, taking him for the gardener, said to him, Sir, if you have taken him away from here, say where you have put him and I will take him away.
Jesus said to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?" She, supposing him to be the gardener, said to him, "Sir, if you have carried him away, tell me where you have laid him, and I will take him away."
Jesus saith to her, Woman, why weepest thou? whom seekest thou? She, supposing him to be the gardener, saith to him, Sir, if thou hast borne him hence, tell me where thou hast laid him, and I will take him away.
- 16 Jesus said to her, Mary! Turning, she said to him in Hebrew, Rabboni! (which is to say, Master).
Jesus said to her, "Mary." She turned herself, and said to him, "Rhabbouni!" which is to say, "Teacher!"
Jesus saith to her, Mary. She turned herself, and saith to him, Rabboni, which is to say, Master.
- 17 Jesus said to her, Do not put your hand on me, for I have not gone up to the Father: but go to my brothers and say to them, I go up to my Father and your Father, to my God and your God.
Jesus said to her, "Don` t touch me, for I haven` t yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them, `I am ascending to my Father and your Father, and my God and your God.`"
Jesus saith to her, Touch me not: for I have not yet ascended to my Father: but go to my brethren, and say to them, I ascend to my Father and your Father, and to my God and your God.
- 18 Mary Magdalene went with the news to the disciples, and said she had seen the Lord and that he had said these things to her.
Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had said these things to her.
Mary Magdalene came and told the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and that he had spoken these things to her.
- 19 At evening on that day, the first day of the week, when, for fear of the Jews, the doors were shut where the disciples were, Jesus came among them and said to them, May peace be with you!
When therefore it was evening, on that day, the first day of the week, and when the doors were locked where the disciples were assembled, for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and said to them, "Peace be to you."
Then the same day at evening, being the first day of the week, when the doors were shut where the disciples were assembled for fear of the Jews, Jesus came and stood in the midst, and saith to them, Peace be to you.
- 20 And when he had said this, he let them see his hands and his side. Then the disciples were glad when they saw the Lord.
When he had said this, he showed to them his hands and his side. The disciples therefore were glad when they saw the Lord.
And when he had so said, he showed to them his hands and his side. Then were the disciples glad when they saw the Lord.

- 21 And Jesus said to them again, May peace be with you! As the Father sent me, even so I now send you.
Jesus therefore said to them again, "Peace be to you. As the Father has sent me, even so I send you."
Then said Jesus to them again, Peace be to you: as my Father hath sent me, even so I send you.
- 22 And when he had said this, breathing on them, he said to them, Let the Holy Spirit come on you:
When he had said this, he breathed on them, and said to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit!
And when he had said this, he breathed on them, and saith to them, Receive ye the Holy Spirit.
- 23 Any to whom you give forgiveness, will be made free from their sins; and any from whom you keep back forgiveness, will still be in their sins.
Whoever`s sins you forgive, they are forgiven to them. Whoever`s sins you retain, they are retained."
Whose soever sins ye remit, they are remitted to them; and whose soever sins ye retain, they are retained.
- 24 Now Thomas, one of the twelve, named Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, wasn`t with them when Jesus came.
But Thomas, one of the twelve, called Didymus, was not with them when Jesus came.
- 25 So the other disciples said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, If I do not see in his hands the print of the nails and put my finger into the print of the nails, and if I do not put my hand into his side, I will never have belief.
The other disciples therefore said to him, "We have seen the Lord!" But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my hand into his side, I will not believe."
The other disciples therefore said to him, We have seen the Lord. But he said to them, Except I shall see in his hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into his side, I will not believe.
- 26 And after eight days, his disciples were again in the house and Thomas was with them. Though the doors were shut, Jesus came, and taking his place in the middle of them, he said, May peace be with you!
After eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them. Jesus came, the doors being locked, and stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be to you."
And after eight days again his disciples were within, and Thomas with them: then came Jesus, the doors being shut, and stood in the midst, and said, Peace be to you.

- 27 Then he said to Thomas, Put out your finger, and see my hands; and put your hand here into my side: and be no longer in doubt but have belief.
Then he said to Thomas, "Reach here your finger, and see my hands. Reach here your hand, and put it into my side. Don't be faithless, but believing."
Then saith he to Thomas, Reach hither thy finger, and behold my hands; and reach hither thy hand, and thrust it into my side; and be not faithless, but believing.
- 28 And Thomas said in answer, My Lord and my God!
Thomas answered him, "My Lord and my God!"
And Thomas answered and said to him, My Lord and my God.
- 29 Jesus said to him, Because you have seen me you have belief: a blessing will be on those who have belief though they have not seen me!
Jesus said to him, "Because you have seen me, you have believed. Blessed are those who have not seen, and have believed."
Jesus saith to him, Thomas, because thou hast seen me, thou hast believed: blessed are they that have not seen, and yet have believed.
- 30 A number of other signs Jesus did before his disciples which are not recorded in this book:
Therefore Jesus did many other signs in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book;
And many other signs truly did Jesus in the presence of his disciples, which are not written in this book.
- 31 But these are recorded, so that you may have faith that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and so that, having this faith you may have life in his name.
but these are written, that you may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing you may have life in his name.
But these are written, that ye may believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that believing ye may have life through his name.
- 1 After these things Jesus let himself be seen again by the disciples at the sea of Tiberias; and it came about in this way.
After these things, Jesus revealed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias. He revealed himself this way.
After these things Jesus showed himself again to the disciples at the sea of Tiberias: and in this manner did he show himself.

- 2 Simon Peter, Thomas named Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were all together.
Simon Peter, Thomas called Didymus, Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples were together.
There were together Simon Peter, and Thomas called Didymus, and Nathanael of Cana in Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two others of his disciples.
- 3 Simon Peter said to them, I am going fishing. They said to him, And we will come with you. They went out and got into the boat; but that night they took no fish.
Simon Peter said to them, "I'm going fishing." They told him, "We are also coming with you." They immediately went forth, and entered into the boat. That night, they caught nothing.
Simon Peter saith to them, I go a fishing. They say to him, We also go with thee. They went forth, and entered into a boat immediately; and that night they caught nothing.
- 4 Now very early in the morning Jesus was there by the edge of the sea (though the disciples were not conscious that it was Jesus).
But when day was now breaking, Jesus stood on the beach, yet the disciples didn't know that it was Jesus.
But when the morning had now come, Jesus stood on the shore: but the disciples knew not that it was Jesus.
- 5 So Jesus said to them, Children, have you taken any fish? They made answer, No.
Jesus therefore said to them, "Children, have you anything to eat?" They answered him, "No."
Then Jesus saith to them, Children, have ye any victuals? They answered him, No.
- 6 And he said to them, Let down the net on the right side of the boat and you will get some. So they put it in the water and now they were not able to get it up again because of the great number of fish.
He said to them, "Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and you will find some." They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it in for the multitude of fish.
And he said to them, Cast the net on the right side of the boat, and ye shall find. They cast therefore, and now they were not able to draw it for the multitude of fishes.
- 7 So the disciple who was dear to Jesus said to Peter, It is the Lord! Hearing that it was the Lord, Peter put his coat round him (because he was not clothed) and went into the sea.
That disciple therefore whom Jesus loved said to Peter, "It's the Lord!" So when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he wrapped his coat around him (for he was naked), and threw himself into the sea.
Therefore that disciple whom Jesus loved saith to Peter, It is the Lord. Now when Simon Peter heard that it was the Lord, he girt on his fisher's coat, (for he was naked) and cast himself into the sea.

- 8 And the other disciples came in the little boat (they were not far from land, only about two hundred cubits off) pulling the net full of fish.
But the other disciples came in the little boat (for they were not far from the land, but about two hundred cubits away), dragging the net full of fish.
And the other disciples came in a little boat (for they were not far from land, but as it were two hundred cubits) dragging the net with fishes.
- 9 When they got to land, they saw a fire of coals there, with fish cooking on it, and bread.
So when they got out on the land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid on it, and bread.
As soon then as they had come to land, they saw a fire of coals there, and fish laid upon them, and bread.
- 10 Jesus said to them, Get some of the fish which you have now taken.
Jesus said to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have just caught."
Jesus saith to them, Bring of the fish which ye have now caught.
- 11 So Peter went to the boat and came back pulling the net to land, full of great fish, a hundred and fifty-three; and though there was such a number the net was not broken.
Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land, full of great fish, one hundred fifty-three; and even though there were so many, the net wasn't torn.
Simon Peter went up, and drew the net to land full of great fishes, a hundred and fifty and three: and notwithstanding there were so many, yet the net was not broken.
- 12 Jesus said to them, Come and take some food. And all the disciples were in fear of putting the question, Who are you? being conscious that it was the Lord.
Jesus said to them, "Come and eat breakfast." None of the disciples dared inquire of him, "Who are you?" knowing that it was the Lord.
Jesus saith to them, Come and dine. And none of the disciples durst ask him, Who art thou? knowing that it was the Lord.
- 13 Then Jesus came and took the bread and gave it to them, and the fish in the same way.
Then Jesus came and took the bread, gave it to them, and the fish likewise.
Jesus then cometh, and taketh bread, and giveth them, and fish likewise.

- 14 Now this was the third time that Jesus let himself be seen by the disciples after he had come back from the dead.
This is now the third time that Jesus was revealed to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead.
This is now the third time that Jesus showed himself to his disciples, after he had risen from the dead.
- 15 Then when they had taken food, Jesus said to Simon Peter, Simon, son of John, is your love for me greater than the love of these others? He said to him, Yes, Lord; you are certain of my love for you. He said to him, Then give my lambs food.
So when they had eaten their breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Feed my lambs."
So when they had dined, Jesus saith to Simon Peter, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me more than these? He saith to him, Yes, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my lambs.
- 16 Again, a second time, he said to him, Simon, son of John, have you any love for me? Yes, Lord, he said, you are certain of my love for you. Then take care of my sheep, said Jesus.
He said to him again a second time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I have affection for you." He said to him, "Tend my sheep."
He saith to him again the second time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? He saith to him, Yes, Lord: thou knowest that I love thee. He saith to him, Feed my sheep.
- 17 He said to him a third time, Simon, son of John, am I dear to you? Now Peter was troubled in his heart because he put the question a third time, Am I dear to you? And he said to him, Lord, you have knowledge of all things; you see that you are dear to me. Jesus said to him, Then give my sheep food.
He says to him the third time, "Simon, son of Jonah, do you have affection for me?" Peter was grieved because he asked him the third time, "Do you have affection for me?" He said to him, "Lord, you know everything. You know that I have affection for you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep."
He saith to him the third time, Simon son of Jonas, lovest thou me? Peter was grieved, because he said to him the third time, Lovest thou me? And he said to him, Lord, thou knowest all things; thou knowest that I love thee. Jesus saith to him, Feed my sheep.
- 18 Truly I say to you, When you were young, you made yourself ready and went wherever you had a desire to go: but when you are old, you will put out your hands and another will make you ready, and you will be taken where you have no desire to go.
Most assuredly I tell you, when you were young, you dressed yourself, and walked where you wanted to. But when you are old, you will stretch out your hands, and another will dress you, and carry you where you don't want to go."
Verily, verily, I say to thee, When thou wast young, thou didst gird thyself and walk whither thou wouldst: but when thou shalt be old, thou shalt stretch forth thy hands, and another shall gird thee, and carry thee whither thou wouldst not.

- 19 Now this he said, pointing out the sort of death by which he would give God glory. And after saying this, he said to him, Come after me.
Now he said this, signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. When he had said this, he said to him, "Follow me."
This he spoke, signifying by what death he should glorify God. And when he had spoken this, he saith to him, Follow me.
- 20 Then Peter, turning round, saw the disciple who was dear to Jesus coming after them--the disciple who was resting on his breast at the last meal, and said, Lord, who is it who will be false to you?
Then Peter, turning around, saw a disciple following. This was the disciple whom Jesus sincerely loved, the one who had also leaned on Jesus` breast at the supper and asked, "Lord, who is going to betray You?"
Then Peter turning about, seeth the disciple whom Jesus loved, following; (who also leaned on his breast at supper, and said, Lord, who is he that betrayeth thee?)
- 21 Seeing him, Peter said to Jesus, What about this man?
Peter seeing him, said to Jesus, "Lord, and what will this man do?"
Peter seeing him, saith to Jesus, Lord, and what shall this man do?
- 22 Jesus said to him, If it is my desire for him to be here till I come back, what is that to you? come yourself after me.
Jesus said to him, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you? You follow me."
Jesus saith to him, If I will that he shall tarry till I come, what is that to thee? Follow thou me.
- 23 So this saying went about among the brothers that this disciple would not undergo death: Jesus, however, did not say that he would not undergo death, but, If it is my desire for him to be here till I come back, what is that to you?
This saying therefore went forth among the brothers, that that disciple wouldn` t die. Yet Jesus didn` t say to him that he wouldn` t die, but, "If I desire that he stay until I come, what is that to you?"
Then this saying went abroad among the brethren, that that disciple should not die: yet Jesus said not to him,
He shall not die; but, if I will that he shall tarry till I come, what is that to thee?
- 24 This is the disciple who gives witness about these things and who put them in writing: and we have knowledge that his witness is true.
This is the disciple who testifies about these things, and wrote these things. We know that his witness is true.
This is the disciple who testifieth of these things, and wrote these things: and we know that his testimony is true.

25 And Jesus did such a number of other things that, if every one was recorded, it is my opinion that even the world itself is not great enough for the books there would be.

There are also many other things which Jesus did, which if they would all be written, I suppose that even the world itself wouldn't contain the books that would be written.

And there are also many other things which Jesus did, which, if they should be written every one, I suppose that even the world itself could not contain the books that would be written. Amen.

1 I have given an earlier account, O Theophilus, of all the things which Jesus did, and of his teaching from the first,

The first book I wrote, Theophilus, concerned all that Jesus began both to do and to teach,

The former treatise have I made, O Theophilus, of all that Jesus began both to do and teach,

2 Till the day when he was taken up to heaven after he had given his orders, through the Holy Spirit, to the Apostles of whom he had made selection:

until the day in which he was received up, after he had given commandment through the Holy Spirit to the apostles whom he had chosen.

Until the day in which he was taken up, after that he through the Holy Spirit had given commandments to the apostles whom he had chosen:

3 And to whom he gave clear and certain signs that he was living, after his death; for he was seen by them for forty days, and gave them teaching about the kingdom of God:

To these he also showed himself alive after his suffering by many proofs, appearing to them over a period of forty days, and spoke about God's kingdom.

To whom also he showed himself alive after his passion, by many infallible proofs, being seen by them forty days, and speaking of the things pertaining to the kingdom of God:

4 And when they were all together, with him, he gave them orders not to go away from Jerusalem, but to keep there, waiting till the word of the Father was put into effect, of which, he said, I have given you knowledge:

Being assembled together with them, he charged them, "Don't depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you heard from me.

And being assembled with them, commanded them that they should not depart from Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which, saith he, ye have heard from me.

5 For the baptism of John was with water, but you will have baptism with the Holy Spirit, after a little time.

For John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit not many days from now."

For John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit not many days hence.

- 6 So, when they were together, they said to him, Lord, will you at this time give back the kingdom to Israel?
Therefore, when they had come together, they asked him, "Lord, are you now restoring the kingdom to Israel?"
When they therefore were come together, they asked of him, saying, Lord, wilt thou at this time restore again the kingdom to Israel?
- 7 And he said to them, It is not for you to have knowledge of the time and the order of events which the Father has kept in his control.
He said to them, "It isn't for you to know times or seasons which the Father has set within His own authority.
And he said to them, It is not for you to know the times or the seasons, which the Father hath put in his own power.
- 8 But you will have power, when the Holy Spirit has come on you; and you will be my witnesses in Jerusalem and all Judaea and Samaria, and to the ends of the earth.
But you will receive power when the Holy Spirit has come on you. You will be witnesses to me in Jerusalem, in all Judea and Samaria, and to the uttermost parts of the earth."
But ye shall receive power after the Holy Spirit is come upon you: and ye shall be witnesses to me, both in Jerusalem, and in all Judea, and in Samaria, and to the uttermost part of the earth.
- 9 And when he had said these things, while they were looking, he was taken up, and went from their view into a cloud.
When he had said these things, as they were looking, he was taken up, and a cloud received him out of their sight.
And when he had spoken these things, while they beheld, he was taken up; and a cloud received him out of their sight.
- 10 And while they were looking up to heaven with great attention, two men came to them, in white clothing,
While they were looking steadfastly into the sky as he went, behold, two men stood by them in white clothing,
And while they looked steadfastly towards heaven as he went up, behold, two men stood by them in white apparel;
- 11 And said, O men of Galilee, why are you looking up into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken from you into heaven, will come again, in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.
who also said, "You men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into the sky? This Jesus, who was received up from you into the sky will come back in the same way as you saw him going into the sky."
Who also said, Ye men of Galilee, why stand ye gazing up to heaven? this same Jesus who is taken from you into heaven, shall so come in like manner as ye have seen him go into heaven.

- 12 Then they went back to Jerusalem from the mountain named Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's journey away.
Then they returned to Jerusalem from the mountain called Olivet, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day`s journey away.
Then they returned to Jerusalem, from the mount called Olivet, which is from Jerusalem a sabbath day`s journey.
- 13 And when they came in, they went up into the room where they were living; Peter and John and James and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James, the son of Alphaeus, and Simon the Zealot, and Judas, the son of James.
When they had come in, they went up into the upper chamber, where they were staying; that is Peter, John, James, Andrew, Philip, Thomas, Bartholomew, Matthew, James the son of Alphaeus, Simon the Zealot, and Judas the son of James.
And when they had come in, they went into an upper room, where abode both Peter, and James, and John, and Andrew, Philip, and Thomas, Bartholomew, and Matthew, James the son of Alpheus, and Simon Zelotes, and Judas the brother of James.
- 14 And they all with one mind gave themselves up to prayer, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and his brothers.
All these with one accord continued steadfastly in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary, the mother of Jesus, and with his brothers.
These all continued with one accord in prayer and supplication, with the women, and Mary the mother of Jesus, and with his brethren.
- 15 And in those days Peter got up among the brothers (there were about one hundred and twenty of them), and said,
In these days, Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples (and there was a multitude of persons gathered together, about one hundred twenty), and said,
And in those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, and said (the number of the names together were about a hundred and twenty),
- 16 My brothers, the word of God had to be put into effect, which the Holy Spirit had said before, by the mouth of David, about Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus,
"Brothers, it was necessary that this Scripture should be fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit spoke before by the mouth of David concerning Judas, who was guide to those who took Jesus.
Men, brethren, This scripture must needs have been fulfilled, which the Holy Spirit by the mouth of David spoke before concerning Judas, who was guide to them that took Jesus.

- 17 For he was numbered among us, and had his part in our work.
For he was numbered with us, and received his portion in this ministry.
For he was numbered with us, and had obtained part of this ministry.
- 18 (Now this man, with the reward of his evil-doing, got for himself a field, and falling head first, came to a sudden and violent end there.
Now this man obtained a field with the reward for his wickedness, and falling headlong, his body burst open, and all his intestines gushed out.
Now this man purchased a field with the reward of iniquity; and falling headlong, he burst asunder in the midst, and all his bowels gushed out.
- 19 And this came to the knowledge of all those who were living in Jerusalem, so that the field was named in their language, Akel-dama, or, The field of blood.)
It became known to everyone who lived in Jerusalem that in their language that field was called `Akeldama,` that is, `The field of blood.`
And it was known to all the dwellers at Jerusalem; so that that field is called in their proper tongue, Aceldama, that is to say, The field of blood.
- 20 For in the book of Psalms it says, Let his house be waste, and let no man be living in it: and, Let his position be taken by another.
For it is written in the book of Psalms, `Let his habitation be made desolate, Let no one dwell therein,` and, `Let another take his office.`
For it is written in the book of Psalms, Let his habitation be desolate, and let no man dwell in it: and, His bishopric let another take.
- 21 For this reason, of the men who have been with us all the time, while the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
Of the men therefore who have accompanied us all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and went out among us,
Wherefore, of these men who accompanied us, all the time that the Lord Jesus went in and out among us,
- 22 Starting from the baptism of John till he went up from us, one will have to be a witness with us of his coming back from death.
beginning from the baptism of John, to the day that he was received up from us, of these must one become a witness with us of his resurrection."
Beginning from the baptism of John, to that same day that he was taken up from us, must one be ordained to be a witness with us of his resurrection.

- 23 And they made selection of two, Joseph, named Barsabbas, whose other name was Justus, and Matthias.
They put forward two, Joseph called Barsabbas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
And they appointed two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus, and Matthias.
- 24 And they made prayers and said, Lord, having knowledge of the hearts of all men, make clear which of these two has been marked out by you,
They prayed, and said, "You, Lord, who know the hearts of all men, show which one of these two you have chosen
And they prayed, and said, Thou, Lord, who knowest the hearts of all men, show which of these two thou hast chosen,
- 25 To take that position as a servant and Apostle, from which Judas by his sin was shut out, so that he might go to his place.
to take part in this ministry and apostleship from which Judas fell away, that he might go to his own place."
That he may take part of this ministry and apostleship, from which Judas by transgression fell, that he might go to his own place.
- 26 And they put it to the decision of chance, and the decision was given for Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven Apostles.
They drew lots for them, and the lot fell on Matthias, and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.
And they gave forth their lots; and the lot fell upon Matthias; and he was numbered with the eleven apostles.
- 1 And when the day of Pentecost was come, they were all together in one place.
Now when the day of Pentecost had come, they were all with one accord in one place.
And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
- 2 And suddenly there came from heaven a sound like the rushing of a violent wind, and all the house where they were was full of it.
Suddenly there came from the sky a sound like the rushing of a mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
And suddenly there came a sound from heaven, as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
- 3 And they saw tongues, like flames of fire, coming to rest on every one of them.
Tongues like fire appeared and were distributed to them, and it sat on each one of them.
And there appeared to them, cloven tongues as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

- 4 And they were all full of the Holy Spirit, and were talking in different languages, as the Spirit gave them power.
They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak with other languages, as the Spirit gave them the ability to speak. And they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them utterance.
- 5 Now there were living at Jerusalem, Jews, God-fearing men, from every nation under heaven.
Now there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under the sky. And there were dwelling at Jerusalem Jews, devout men, from every nation under heaven.
- 6 And when this sound came to their ears, they all came together, and were greatly surprised because every man was hearing the words of the disciples in his special language.
When this sound was heard, the multitude came together, and were bewildered, because everyone heard them speaking in his own language. Now when this was noised abroad, the multitude came together, and were confounded, because every man heard them speak in his own language.
- 7 And they were full of wonder and said, Are not all these men Galilaeans?
They were all amazed and marveled, saying to one another, "Behold, aren't all these who speak Galileans? And they were all amazed, and marveled, saying one to another, Behold, are not all these who speak Galileans?"
- 8 And how is it that every one of us is hearing their words in the language which was ours from our birth?
How do we hear, everyone in our own native language? And how do we hear every man in our own language, wherein we were born?
- 9 Men of Parthia, Media, and Elam, and those living in Mesopotamia, in Judaea and Cappadocia, in Pontus and Asia,
Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and people from Mesopotamia, Judea, Cappadocia, Pontus, Asia, Parthians, and Medes, and Elamites, and the dwellers in Mesopotamia, and in Judea, and Cappadocia, in Pontus, and Asia,

- 10 In Phrygia and Pamphylia, in Egypt and the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and those who have come from Rome, Jews by birth and others who have become Jews, Phrygia, Pamphylia, Egypt, the parts of Libya around Cyrene, visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Phrygia, and Pamphylia, in Egypt, and in the parts of Libya about Cyrene, and strangers of Rome, Jews and Proselytes,
- 11 Men of Crete and Arabia, to all of us they are talking in our different languages, of the great works of God.
Cretans and Arabians: we hear them speaking in our languages the mighty works of God!"
Cretes and Arabians we hear them speak in our languages the wonderful works of God.
- 12 And they were all surprised and in doubt saying to one another, What is the reason of this?
They were all amazed, and were perplexed, saying one to another, "What does this mean?"
And they were all amazed, and were in doubt, saying one to another, What meaneth this?
- 13 But others, making sport of them, said, They are full of new wine.
Others, mocking, said, "They are filled with new wine."
Others mocking, said, These men are full of new wine.
- 14 But Peter, getting up, with the eleven, said in a loud voice, O men of Judaea, and all you who are living in Jerusalem, take note of this and give ear to my words.
But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and spoke out to them, "You men of Judea, and all you who dwell at Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to my words.
But Peter standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said to them, Ye men of Judea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known to you, and hearken to my words:
- 15 For these men are not overcome with wine, as it seems to you, for it is only the third hour of the day;
For these aren't drunken, as you suppose, seeing it is only the third hour of the day.
For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
- 16 But this is the thing which was said by the prophet Joel;
But this is what has been spoken through the prophet Joel:
But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel,

- 17 And it will come about, in the last days, says God, that I will send out my Spirit on all flesh; and your sons and your daughters will be prophets, and your young men will see visions, and your old men will have dreams:
`It will be in the last days, says God, I will pour forth of my Spirit on all flesh. Your sons and your daughters will prophesy. Your young men will see visions. Your old men will dream dreams.
And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
- 18 And on my men-servants and my women-servants I will send my Spirit, and they will be prophets.
Yes, and on my servants and on my handmaidens in those days, I will pour out my Spirit, and they will prophesy.
And on my servants, and on my hand-maidens I will, in those days, pour out of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
- 19 And wonders will be seen in heaven, and signs on the earth, blood and fire and smoke:
I will show wonders in the the sky above, And signs on the earth beneath; Blood, and fire, and billows of smoke.
And I will show wonders in heaven above, and signs on the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapor of smoke.
- 20 The sun will become dark and the moon will be turned to blood, before that great day of the Lord comes in glory:
The sun will be turned into darkness, And the moon into blood, Before the great and glorious day of the Lord comes.
The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come.
- 21 And whoever makes his prayer to the Lord will have salvation.
It will be, that whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved.`
And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the name of the Lord, shall be saved.
- 22 Men of Israel, give ear to these words: Jesus of Nazareth, a man who had the approval of God, as was made clear to you by the great works and signs and wonders which God did by him among you, as you yourselves have knowledge,
"You men of Israel, hear these words. Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God to you by mighty works and wonders and signs which God did by him in the midst of you, even as you yourselves know,
Ye men of Israel, hear these words; Jesus of Nazareth, a man approved by God among you by miracles and wonders and signs, which God did by him in the midst of you, as ye yourselves also know:

- 23 Him, when he was given up, by the decision and knowledge of God, you put to death on the cross, by the hands of evil men:
him, being delivered up by the determined counsel and foreknowledge of God, you have taken by the hand of lawless men, crucified and killed;
Him, being delivered by the determinate counsel and foreknowledge of God, ye have taken, and by wicked hands have crucified and slain:
- 24 But God gave him back to life, having made him free from the pains of death because it was not possible for him to be overcome by it.
whom God raised up, having freed him from the agony of death, because it was not possible that he should be held by it.
Whom God hath raised up, having loosed the pains of death: because it was not possible that he should be held by it.
- 25 For David said of him, I saw the Lord before my face at all times, for he is at my right hand, so that I may not be moved:
For David says concerning him, `I saw the Lord always before my face, For he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved.
For David speaketh concerning him, I saw the Lord always before my face, for he is on my right hand, that I should not be moved:
- 26 And for this cause my heart was glad and my tongue full of joy, and my flesh will be resting in hope:
Therefore my heart was glad, and my tongue rejoiced. Moreover my flesh also will dwell in hope;
Therefore did my heart rejoice, and my tongue was glad; moreover also, my flesh shall rest in hope:
- 27 For you will not let my soul be in hell and you will not give up your Holy One to destruction.
Because you will not leave my soul in Hades, Neither will you allow your Holy One to see decay.
Because thou wilt not leave my soul in hell, neither wilt thou suffer thy Holy One to see corruption:
- 28 You have made me see the ways of life; I will be full of joy when I see your face.
You made known to me the ways of life. You will make me full of gladness with your presence.
Thou hast made known to me the ways of life; thou wilt make me full of joy with thy countenance.

- 29 My brothers, I may say to you openly that David came to his death, and was put in the earth, and his resting-place is with us today.
"Brothers, I may tell you freely of the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb is with us to this day.
Men, brethren, let me freely speak to you concerning the patriarch David, that he is both dead and buried, and his sepulcher is with us to this day.
- 30 But being a prophet, and having in mind the oath which God had given to him, that of the fruit of his body one would take his place as a king,
Therefore, being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn with an oath to him that of the fruit of his body, according to the flesh, he would raise up the Christ to sit on his throne,
Therefore being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath, that from the fruit of his loins, according to the flesh, he would raise up Christ to sit on his throne;
- 31 He, having knowledge of the future, was talking of the coming again of Christ from the dead, that he was not kept in hell and his body did not see destruction.
he foreseeing this spoke about the resurrection of the Christ, that neither was his soul left in Hades, nor did his flesh see decay.
He seeing this before, spoke of the resurrection of Christ, that his soul was not left in hell, neither did his flesh see corruption.
- 32 This Jesus God has given back to life, of which we all are witnesses.
This Jesus God raised up, whereof we all are witnesses.
This Jesus hath God raised up, of which we all are witnesses.
- 33 And so, being lifted up to the right hand of God, and having the Father's word that the Holy Spirit would come, he has sent this thing, which now you see and have knowledge of.
Being therefore exalted by the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured forth this, which you now see and hear.
Therefore being by the right hand of God exalted, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he hath shed forth this, which ye now see and hear.
- 34 For David has not gone up into heaven, but says, himself, The Lord said to my Lord, Be seated at my right hand,
For David didn't ascend into the heavens, but he says himself, `The Lord said to my Lord, "Sit by my right hand,
For David did not ascend into the heavens, but he saith himself, The LORD said to my Lord, Sit thou on my right hand,

- 35 Till I put all those who are against you under your feet.
Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet."
Until I make thy foes thy footstool.
- 36 For this reason, let all Israel be certain that this Jesus, whom you put to death on the cross, God has made Lord and Christ.
"Let all the house of Israel therefore know assuredly that God has made him both Lord and Christ, this Jesus whom you crucified."
Therefore let all the house of Israel know assuredly, that God hath made that same Jesus whom ye have crucified, both Lord and Christ.
- 37 Now when these words came to their ears their hearts were troubled, and they said to Peter and the other Apostles, Brothers, what are we to do?
Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart, and said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what will we do?"
Now when they heard this, they were pricked in their heart, and said to Peter and to the rest of the apostles, Men, brethren, what shall we do?
- 38 And Peter said, Let your hearts be changed, every one of you, and have baptism in the name of Jesus Christ, for the forgiveness of your sins; and you will have the Holy Spirit given to you.
Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized, everyone of you, in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins, and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
Then Peter said to them, Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ, for the remission of sins, and ye shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit.
- 39 For the word of God is for you and for your children and for all those who are far off, even all those who may be marked out by the Lord our God.
For to you is the promise, and to your children, and to all who are far off, even as many as the Lord our God will call to himself."
For the promise is to you, and to your children, and to all that are afar off, even as many as the Lord our God shall call.
- 40 And with more such words he gave his witness, offering them salvation and saying, Come out from this evil generation.
With many other words he testified, and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation!"
And with many other words did he testify and exhort, saying, Save yourselves from this perverse generation.

- 41 Then those who gave hearing to his words had baptism: and about three thousand souls were joined to them that day.
Then those who gladly received his word were baptized. There were added that day about three thousand souls.
Then they that gladly received his word, were baptized: and the same day there were added to them about three thousand souls.
- 42 And they kept their attention fixed on the Apostles' teaching and were united together in the taking of broken bread and in prayer.
They continued steadfastly in the apostles' teaching and fellowship, in the breaking of bread, and prayer.
And they continued steadfastly in the apostles doctrine and fellowship, and in breaking of bread, and in prayers.
- 43 But fear came on every soul: and all sorts of wonders and signs were done by the Apostles.
Fear came on every soul, and many wonders and signs were done through the apostles.
And fear came upon every soul: and many wonders and signs were done by the apostles.
- 44 And all those who were of the faith kept together, and had all things in common;
All who believed were together, and had all things common.
And all that believed were together, and had all things common;
- 45 And exchanging their goods and property for money, they made division of it among them all, as they had need.
They sold their possessions and goods, and distributed them to all, according as anyone had need.
And sold their possessions and goods, and parted them to all men, as every man had need.
- 46 And day by day, going in agreement together regularly to the Temple and, taking broken bread together in their houses, they took their food with joy and with true hearts,
Day by day, continuing steadfastly with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread at home, they took their food with gladness and singleness of heart,
And they, continuing daily with one accord in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, ate their food with gladness and singleness of heart,

47 Giving praise to God, and having the approval of all the people; and every day the number of those who had salvation was increased by the Lord.
praising God, and having favor with all the people. The Lord added to the assembly day by day those who were being saved.
Praising God, and having favor with all the people. And the Lord added to the church daily such as should be saved.

1 Now Peter and John were going up to the Temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer;
Peter and John were going up into the temple at the hour of prayer, the ninth hour.
Now Peter and John went up together into the temple, at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour.

2 And a certain man who from birth had had no power in his legs, was taken there every day, and put down at the door of the Temple which is named Beautiful, requesting money from those who went into the Temple;
A certain man who was lame from his mother`s womb was being carried, whom they laid daily at the door of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of those who entered into the temple.
And a certain man lame from his mother's womb was carried, whom they laid daily at the gate of the temple which is called Beautiful, to ask alms of them that entered into the temple.

3 He then, seeing Peter and John going into the Temple, made a request to them.
Seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, he asked to receive alms.
Who, seeing Peter and John about to go into the temple, asked an alms.

4 And Peter, looking at him, with John, said, Keep your eyes on us.
Peter, fastening his eyes on him, with John, said, "Look at us."
And Peter fastening his eyes upon him with John, said, Look on us.

5 And he gave attention to them, hoping to get something from them.
He listened to them, expecting to receive something from them.
And he gave heed to them, expecting to receive something from them.

- 6 But Peter said, I have no silver or gold, but what I have, that I give to you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, get up on your feet.
But Peter said, "Silver and gold have I none, but what I have, that I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise and walk!"
Then Peter said, Silver and gold have I none; but such as I have I give thee: in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk.
- 7 And he took him by his right hand, lifting him up; and straight away his feet and the bones of his legs became strong,
He took him by the right hand, and raised him up. Immediately his feet and his ankle bones received strength.
And he took him by the right hand, and lifted him up: and immediately his feet and ankle bones received strength.
- 8 And, jumping up, he got on to his feet and went into the Temple with them, walking and jumping and giving praise to God.
Leaping up, he stood, and began to walk. He entered with them into the temple, walking, leaping, and praising God.
And he leaping up stood, and walked, and entered with them into the temple, walking, and leaping, and praising God.
- 9 And all the people saw him walking and praising God:
All the people saw him walking and praising God.
And all the people saw him walking and praising God:
- 10 And they saw that it was the man who made requests for money at the door of the Temple, and they were full of wonder and surprise at what had taken place.
They recognized him, that it was he who sat begging for alms at the Beautiful Gate of the temple. They were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.
And they knew that it was he who sat for alms at the Beautiful gate of the temple: and they were filled with wonder and amazement at that which had happened to him.
- 11 And while he kept his hands on Peter and John, all the people came running together to the covered way which is named Solomon's, full of wonder.
As the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.
And as the lame man who was healed held Peter and John, all the people ran together to them in the porch that is called Solomon's, greatly wondering.

- 12 And when Peter saw it he said to the people, You men of Israel, why are you so greatly surprised at this man? or why are you looking at us as if by our power or virtue we had given him the use of his legs?
When Peter saw it, he answered to the people, "You men of Israel, why do you marvel at this man? Why do you fasten your eyes on us, as though by our own power or godliness we had made him walk?
And when Peter saw it, he answered to the people, Ye men of Israel, why marvel ye at this? or why look ye so earnestly on us, as though by our own power or holiness we had made this man to walk?
- 13 The God of Abraham, of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, has given glory to his servant Jesus; whom you gave up, turning your backs on him, when Pilate had made the decision to let him go free.
The God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his Servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and denied before the face of Pilate, when he had determined to release him.
The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers hath glorified his Son Jesus; whom ye delivered up, and denied him in the presence of Pilate, when he was determined to let him go.
- 14 But you would have nothing to do with the Holy and Upright One, and made request for a man of blood to be given to you,
But you denied the Holy and Righteous One, and asked for a murderer to be granted to you,
But ye denied the Holy One, and the Just, and desired a murderer to be granted to you,
- 15 And put to death the Lord of life; whom God gave back from the dead; of which fact we are witnesses.
and killed the Prince of life, whom God raised from the dead, whereof we are witnesses.
And killed the Prince of life, whom God hath raised from the dead; of which we are witnesses.
- 16 And his name, through faith in his name, has made this man strong, whom you see and have knowledge of: yes, the faith which is through him has made him well, before you all.
By faith in his name has his name made this man strong, whom you see and know. Yes, the faith which is through him has given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
And his name, through faith in his name, hath made this man strong, whom ye see and know: yes, the faith which is by him, hath given him this perfect soundness in the presence of you all.
- 17 And now, my brothers, I am conscious that you did this, as did your rulers, without knowledge.
"Now, brothers, I know that you did this in ignorance, as did also your rulers.
And now, brethren, I know that through ignorance ye did it, as did also your rulers.

- 18 But the things which God had made clear before, by the mouth of all the prophets, that the Christ would have to undergo, he has put into effect in this way.
But the things which God announced by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he thus fulfilled.
But those things which God before had shown by the mouth of all his prophets, that Christ should suffer, he hath so fulfilled.
- 19 So then, let your hearts be changed and be turned to God, so that your sins may be completely taken away, and times of blessing may come from the Lord;
Repent therefore, and turn again, that your sins may be blotted out, that so there may come times of refreshing from the presence of the Lord,
Repent ye therefore, and be converted, that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord,
- 20 And that he may send the Christ who was marked out for you from the first, even Jesus:
and that he may send Christ Jesus, who was ordained for you before,
And he will send Jesus Christ, who before was preached to you:
- 21 Who is to be kept in heaven till the time when all things are put right, of which God has given word by the mouth of his holy prophets, who have been from the earliest times.
whom the heaven must receive until the times of restoration of all things, whereof God spoke by the mouth of his holy prophets that have been from ancient times.
Whom the heaven must receive, until the times of restitution of all things, which God hath spoken by the mouth of all his holy prophets, since the world began.
- 22 For Moses said, The Lord will give you a prophet from among your people, like me; you will give ear to everything which he will say to you.
For Moses indeed said to the fathers, `The Lord God will raise up a prophet to you from among your brothers, like me. You will listen to him in all things whatever he says to you.
For Moses truly said to the fathers, A Prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you, of your brethren, like me; him shall ye hear in all things, whatever he shall say to you.
- 23 And every soul who does not give attention to that prophet, will be cut off from among the people.
It will be, that every soul that will not listen to that prophet will be utterly destroyed from among the people.`
And it shall come to pass, that every soul who will not hear that Prophet, shall be destroyed from among the people.

- 24 And all the prophets from Samuel and those who came after, every one of them, gave word of these days.
Yes, and all the prophets from Samuel and those who followed after, as many as have spoken, they also told of these days.
And all the prophets also from Samuel, and those that follow, as many as have spoken, have likewise foretold these days.
- 25 You are the sons of the prophets, and of the agreement which God made with your fathers, saying to Abraham, Through your seed a blessing will come on all the families of the earth.
You are the sons of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, `In your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.`
Ye are the children of the prophets, and of the covenant which God made with our fathers, saying to Abraham, And in thy seed shall all the kindreds of the earth be blessed.
- 26 To you, first, God sent his servant, blessing you by turning every one of you from his sins.
God, having raised up his servant, Jesus, sent him to you first, to bless you, in turning away everyone of you from your wickedness."
To you first, God having raised up his Son Jesus, sent him to bless you, in turning away every one of you from his iniquities.
- 1 And while they were talking to the people, the priests and the captain of the Temple and the Sadducees came up to them,
As they spoke to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple and the Sadducees came to them,
And as they were speaking to the people, the priests, and the captain of the temple, and the Sadducees came upon them,
- 2 Being greatly troubled because they were teaching the people and preaching Jesus as an example of the coming back from the dead.
being upset because they taught the people and proclaimed in Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
Being grieved that they taught the people, and preached through Jesus the resurrection from the dead.
- 3 And they took them and put them in prison till the morning, for it was now evening.
They laid hands on them, and put them in custody until the next day, for it was now evening.
And they laid hands on them, and put them in custody to the next day: for it was now evening.

4 But a number of those who gave hearing to the word had faith; and they were now about five thousand.

But many of those who heard the word believed, and the number of the men came to be about five thousand.

But many of them who heard the word, believed; and the number of the men was about five thousand.

5 And on the day after, the rulers and those in authority and the scribes came together in Jerusalem;

It happened in the morning, that their rulers, elders, and scribes were gathered together in Jerusalem.

And it came to pass on the morrow, that their rulers, and elders, and scribes,

6 And Annas, the high priest, was there, and Caiaphas and John and Alexander, and all the relations of the high priest.

Annas the high priest was there, with Caiaphas, John, Alexander, and as many as were relatives of the high priest.

And Annas the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and as many as were of the kindred of the high priest, were assembled at Jerusalem.

7 Then sending for Peter and John, they said, By what power and in whose name have you done this?

When they had stood them in the midst, they inquired, "By what power, or in what name, have you done this?"

And when they had set them in the midst, they asked, By what power, or by what name have ye done this?

8 Then Peter, being full of the Holy Spirit, said to them, O you rulers of the people and men of authority,

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "You rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, Ye rulers of the people, and elders of Israel,

9 If we are questioned today about a good work done to a man who was ill, as to how he has been made well, if we are examined today concerning a good deed done to a crippled man, by what means this man has been healed,

If we this day are examined concerning the good deed done to the impotent man, by what means he is made sound.

- 10 Take note, all of you, and all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you put to death on the cross, whom God gave back from the dead, even through him is this man now before you completely well.
be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God raised from the dead, in him does this man stand here before you whole.
Be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom ye crucified, whom God raised from the dead, even by him doth this man stand here before you sound.
- 11 He is the stone which you builders had no use for, but which has been made the chief stone of the building.
He is `the stone which was regarded as worthless by you, the builders, which was made the head of the corner.`
This is the stone which was set at naught by you builders, which is become the head of the corner.
- 12 And in no other is there salvation: for there is no other name under heaven, given among men, through which we may have salvation.
There is salvation in none other, for neither is there any other name under heaven, that is given among men, in which we must be saved!"
Neither is there salvation in any other: for there is no other name under heaven given among men, by which we must be saved.
- 13 Now when they saw that Peter and John were without fear, though they were men of no education or learning, they were greatly surprised; and they took note of them that they had been with Jesus.
Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and had perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled. They recognized that they had been with Jesus.
Now when they saw the boldness of Peter and John, and perceived that they were unlearned and ignorant men, they marveled; and they took knowledge of them, that they had been with Jesus.
- 14 And, seeing that the man who had been made well was there with them, they were not able to say anything against it.
Seeing the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
And beholding the man who was healed standing with them, they could say nothing against it.
- 15 But when they had given them orders to go out of the Sanhedrin, they had a discussion among themselves,
But when they had commanded them to go aside out of the council, they conferred among themselves,
But when they had commanded them to withdraw from the council, they conferred among themselves,

- 16 Saying, What are we to do with these men? for certainly it is clear to all who are living in Jerusalem that a most important sign has been done by them, and it is not possible to say that it is not so.
saying, "What will we do to these men? Because indeed a notable miracle has been done through them, as can be plainly seen by all who dwell in Jerusalem, and we can't deny it.
Saying, What shall we do to these men? for that indeed a notable miracle hath been done by them is manifest to all them that dwell in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it.
- 17 But so that it may not go farther among the people, let us put them in fear of punishment if they say anything in future in this name.
But so that this spreads no further among the people, let's threaten them, that from now on they don't speak to anyone in this name."
But that it may spread no further among the people, let us strictly threaten them, that they speak henceforth to no man in this name.
- 18 And they sent for them, and gave them orders not to make statements or give teaching in the name of Jesus.
They called them, and charged them not to speak at all nor teach in the name of Jesus.
And they called them, and commanded them not to speak at all, nor teach in the name of Jesus.
- 19 But Peter and John in answer said to them, It is for you to say if it is right in the eyes of God to give attention to you more than to God:
But Peter and John answered them, "Whether it is right in the sight of God to listen to you rather than to God, judge for yourselves,
But Peter and John answered and said to them, Whether it is right in the sight of God to hearken to you rather than to God, judge ye.
- 20 For it is not possible for us to keep from saying what we have seen and have knowledge of.
for we can't help telling the things which we saw and heard."
For we cannot but speak the things which we have seen and heard.
- 21 And when they had said more sharp words to them, they let them go, not seeing what punishment they might give them, because of the people; for all men were giving praise to God for what had taken place.
They, when they had further threatened them, let them go, finding no way to punish them, because of the people; for everyone glorified God for that which was done.
So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all men glorified God for that which was done.

- 22 For the man on whom this act of power was done was more than forty years old.
For the man was more than forty years old, on whom this miracle of healing was performed.
For the man was above forty years old on whom this miracle of healing was performed.
- 23 And when they had been made free, they came back to their friends, and gave an account of all the things which the chief priests and the authorities had said to them.
Being let go, they came to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and the elders had said to them.
And being dismissed, they went to their own company, and reported all that the chief priests and elders had said to them.
- 24 And hearing it, they all, with one mind, made prayer to God and said, O Lord, maker of heaven and earth and the sea and all things in them:
They, when they heard it, lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, "O Lord, you are God, who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and all that is in them;
And when they heard that, they lifted up their voice to God with one accord, and said, Lord, thou art God, who hast made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and all that is in them;
- 25 Who has said, by the Holy Spirit, through the mouth of our father David your servant, Why are the nations so violently moved, and why are the thoughts of the people so foolish?
who by the mouth of your servant, David, said, `Why do the nations rage, And the peoples plot a vain thing?
Who, by the mouth of thy servant David hast said, Why did the heathen rage, and the people imagine vain things?
- 26 The kings of the earth were lifted up, the rulers came together, against the Lord, and against his Christ:
The kings of the earth take a stand, And the rulers take council together, Against the Lord, and against his Christ.`
The kings of the earth stood up, and the rulers were assembled against the Lord, and against his Christ.
- 27 For, truly, in this town, against your holy servant, Jesus, who was marked out by you as Christ, Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, came together,
For truly, in this city against your holy servant, Jesus, whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles and the people of Israel, were gathered together
For in truth against thy holy child Jesus, whom thou hast anointed, both Herod, and Pontius Pilate, with the Gentiles, and the people of Israel, were assembled,

- 28 To do that which had been fixed before by your hand and your purpose.
to do whatever your hand and your council foreordained to happen.
To do whatever thy hand and thy counsel determined before to be done.
- 29 And now, Lord, take note of their cruel words, and give your servants power to be preachers of your word without fear,
Now, Lord, look at their threats, and grant to your servants to speak your word with all boldness,
And now, Lord, behold their threatenings: and grant to thy servants, that with all boldness they may speak thy word,
- 30 While your hand is stretched out to do works of mercy; so that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy servant Jesus.
while you stretch forth your hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done through the name of your holy Servant Jesus."
By stretching forth thy hand to heal; and that signs and wonders may be done by the name of thy holy child Jesus.
- 31 And when their prayer was ended, the place where they were was violently moved, and they all became full of the Holy Spirit, preaching the word of God without fear.
When they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were gathered together. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.
And when they had prayed, the place was shaken where they were assembled; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness.
- 32 And all those who were of the faith were one in heart and soul: and not one of them said that any of the things which he had was his property only; but they had all things in common.
The multitude of those who believed were of one heart and soul. Not one of them claimed that anything of the things which he possessed was his own, but they had all things common.
And the multitude of them that believed were of one heart, and of one soul: neither said any of them that aught of the things which he possessed was his own; but they had all things common.
- 33 And with great power the Apostles gave witness of the coming back of the Lord Jesus from the dead; and grace was on them all.
With great power, the apostles gave their testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. Great grace was on them all.
And with great power the apostles gave testimony of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all.

34 And no one among them was in need; for everyone who had land or houses, exchanging them for money, took the price of them,
For neither was there among them any who lacked, for as many as were owners of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold,
Neither was there any among them that was in want: for as many as were possessors of lands or houses sold them, and brought the prices of the things that were sold, 35 And put it at the feet of the Apostles for distribution to everyone as he had need.

and laid them at the apostles` feet, and distribution was made to each, according as anyone had need.
And laid them down at the apostles' feet: and distribution was made to every man according as he had need.

36 And Joseph, who was given by the Apostles the name of Barnabas (the sense of which is, Son of comfort), a Levite and a man of Cyprus by birth,
Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas (which is, being interpreted, Son of Exhortation), a Levite, a man of Cyprus by race,
And Joses, who by the apostles was surnamed Barnabas, (which is, being interpreted, The son of consolation,) a Levite, and of the country of Cyprus, 37 Having a field, got money for it and put the money at the feet of the Apostles.

having a field, sold it, and brought the money and laid it at the apostles` feet.
Having land, sold it, and brought the money, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

1 But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, got money for his property,
But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira, his wife, sold a possession,
But a certain man named Ananias, with Sapphira his wife, sold a possession,

2 And kept back part of the price, his wife having knowledge of it, and took the rest and put it at the feet of the Apostles.
and kept back part of the price, his wife also being aware of it, and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles` feet.
And kept back part of the price, (his wife also being privy to it) and brought a certain part, and laid it at the apostles' feet.

3 But Peter said, Ananias, why has the Evil One put it into your heart to be false to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
But Peter said, "Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?
But Peter said, Ananias, Why hath Satan filled thy heart to lie to the Holy Spirit, and to keep back part of the price of the land?"

4 While you had it, was it not your property? and after you had given it in exchange, was it not still in your power? how has this purpose come into your mind? you have been false, not to men, but to God.
While you kept it, didn't it remain your own? After it was sold, wasn't it in your power? How is it that you have conceived this thing in your heart? You haven't lied to men, but to God."
While it remained, was it not thy own? and after it was sold, was it not in thy own power? why hast thou conceived this thing in thy heart? thou hast not lied to men, but to God.

5 And at these words, Ananias went down on the earth, and his life went from him: and great fear came on all who were present.
Ananias, hearing these words, fell down and died. Great fear came on all who heard these things.
And Ananias hearing these words, fell down, and expired. And great fear came on all them that heard these things.

6 And the young men went and made ready his body, and took it out, and put it in the earth.
The young men arose and wrapped him up, and they carried him out and buried him.
And the young men arose, wound him up, and carried him out, and buried him.

7 And about three hours after, his wife, having no knowledge of what had taken place, came in.
About three hours later, his wife, not knowing what was had happened, came in.
And it was about the space of three hours after, when his wife, not knowing what was done, came in.

8 And Peter said to her, Give me an answer: was this amount of money the price of the land? And she said, Yes, it was.
Peter answered her, "Tell me whether you sold the land for so much." She said, "Yes, for so much."
And Peter answered to her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yes, for so much.

- 9 But Peter said to her, Why have you made an agreement together to be false to the Spirit of the Lord? See, the feet of the young men who have put the body of your husband in the earth, are at the door, and they will take you out.
But Peter asked her, "How is it that you have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Behold, the feet of those who have buried your husband are at the door, and they will carry you out."
Then Peter said to her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold the feet of them who have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.
- 10 And straight away she went down at his feet, and her life went from her: and the young men came in and saw her dead, and they took her out and put her in the earth with her husband.
She fell down immediately at his feet, and died. The young men came in and found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her by her husband.
Then she fell down immediately at his feet, and expired. And the young men came in, and found her dead, and carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
- 11 Then great fear came on all the church and on all who had knowledge of these things.
Great fear came on the whole assembly, and on all who heard these things.
And great fear came upon all the church, and upon as many as heard these things.
- 12 Now a number of signs and wonders were done among the people by the hands of the Apostles; and they were all together in Solomon's covered way.
By the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were done among the people. They were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.
And by the hands of the apostles were many signs and wonders wrought among the people; (and they were all with one accord in Solomon's porch.
- 13 The others, in fear, kept back from joining them: but the people made much of them;
None of the rest dared to join them, however the people honored them.
And of the rest durst no man join himself to them: but the people magnified them.
- 14 And a great number of men and women had faith, and were joined to the Lord;
More believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women.
And believers were the more added to the Lord, multitudes both of men and women.)

15 And they even took into the streets people who were ill, and put them on beds, so that when Peter went by, some of them might be in his shade.
They even carried out the sick into the streets, and laid them on cots and mattresses, so that as Peter came by, at the least his shadow might overshadow some of them.

So that they brought forth the sick into the streets, and laid them on beds and couches, that at the least the shadow of Peter passing by might overshadow some of them.

16 And numbers of people came together from the towns round about Jerusalem, with those who were ill and those who were troubled with unclean spirits: and they were all made well.
Multitudes also came together from the cities around Jerusalem, bringing sick people, and those who were tormented by unclean spirits: and they were all healed.

There came also a multitude out of the cities around to Jerusalem, bringing sick persons, and them who were afflicted with unclean spirits: and they were healed every one.

17 But the high priest and those who were with him (the Sadducees) were full of envy,

But the high priest rose up, and all those who were with him (which is the sect of the Sadducees), and they were filled with jealousy,

Then the high priest rose up, and all they that were with him; (which is the sect of the Sadducees) and were filled with indignation, 18 And they took the Apostles and put them in the common prison.

and laid hands on the apostles, and put them in public custody.

And laid their hands on the apostles, and put them in the common prison.

19 But in the night an angel of the Lord, opening the doors of the prison, took them out and said,

But an angel of the Lord opened the prison doors by night, and brought them out, and said,

But the angel of the Lord by night opened the prison-doors, and brought them forth, and said, 20 Go, take your place in the Temple and give the people all the teaching about this Life.

"Go stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life."

Go, stand and speak in the temple to the people all the words of this life.

- 21 And hearing this, they went into the Temple at dawn, and were teaching. But the high priest and those who were with him got together the Sanhedrin and the representatives of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to get them.
When they heard this, they entered into the temple about daybreak, and taught. But the high priest came, and those who were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought. And when they heard that, they entered into the temple early in the morning, and taught. But the high priest came, and they that were with him, and called the council together, and all the senate of the children of Israel, and sent to the prison to have them brought.
- 22 But the men who were sent saw that they were not in the prison, and came back with the news,
But the officers who came didn't find them in the prison. They returned and reported, But when the officers came, and found them not in the prison, they returned, and told,
- 23 Saying, The doors of the prison were safely shut, and the keepers were at the doors, but when they were open, there was nobody inside.
"We found the prison shut and locked, and the guards standing before the doors, but when we had opened it up, we found no one inside."
Saying, The prison truly we found shut with all safety, and the keepers standing without before the doors: but when we had opened, we found no man within.
- 24 Now, at these words, the captain of the Temple and the chief priests were greatly troubled about what might be the end of this business.
Now when the high priest, the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these words, they were very perplexed about them and what might become of this. Now when the high priest, and the captain of the temple, and the chief priests heard these things, they doubted of them to what this would grow.
- 25 And someone came and said to them, The men, whom you put in prison, are in the Temple teaching the people.
One came and told them, "Behold, the men whom you put in prison are in the temple, standing and teaching the people." Then came one and told them, saying, Behold, the men whom ye put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people.

26 Then the captain and some of the police went and took them, but not violently, for fear that they might be stoned by the people.
Then the captain went with the officers, and brought them without violence, for they were afraid that the people might stone them.

Then went the captain with the officers, and brought them without violence: for they feared the people, lest they should have been stoned.

27 And they took them into the Sanhedrin, and the high priest said to them,
When they had brought them, they set them before the council. The high priest questioned them,
And when they had brought them, they set them before the council: and the high priest asked them, 28 We gave you very clear orders not to give teaching in this name: and now Jerusalem is full of your teaching, and you are attempting to make us responsible for this man's death.

saying, "Didn't we strictly charge you not to teach in this name? Behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching, and intend to bring this man's blood on us."
Saying, Did we not strictly command you, that ye should not teach in this name? and behold, ye have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man's blood upon us.

29 But Peter and the Apostles, answering, said, We have to do the orders of God, not of man.
But Peter and the apostles answered, "We must obey God rather than men."
Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, We ought to obey God rather than men.

30 The God of our fathers gave Jesus back to life, whom you had put to death, hanging him on a tree.
The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed, hanging him on a tree.
The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom ye slew and hanged on a tree:

31 Him God has put on high at his right hand, as a Ruler and a Saviour, to give to Israel a change of heart and forgiveness of sins.
God exalted him with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and remission of sins.
Him hath God exalted with his right hand to be a Prince and a Savior, to give repentance to Israel, and forgiveness of sins.

- 32 And we are witnesses of these things, and so is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who keep his laws.
We are His witnesses of these things; and so also is the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."
And we are his witnesses of these things; and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God hath given to them that obey him.
- 33 But when these words came to their ears, they were cut to the heart, and had a mind to put them to death.
But they, when they heard this, were cut to the heart, and determined to kill them.
When they heard that, they were cut to the heart, and took counsel to slay them.
- 34 But one of the Sanhedrin, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a man of learning in the law, of whom all the people had a high opinion, got up and made a suggestion for the men to be put outside for a little time.
But one stood up in the council, a Pharisee named Gamaliel, a teacher of the law, honored by all the people, and commanded to take the apostles out a little while.
Then stood up one in the council, a Pharisee, named Gamaliel, a doctor of the law, had in reputation among all the people, and commanded to put the apostles forth a little time.
- 35 And he said to them, Men of Israel, take care what you do about these men.
He said to them, "You men of Israel, be careful concerning these men, what you are about to do.
And said to them, Ye men of Israel, take heed to yourselves what ye intend to do concerning these men:
- 36 For before this there was Theudas, who said he was someone important, to whom about four hundred men gave their support: he was put to death, and his band was broken up and came to nothing.
For before these days Theudas rose up, making himself out to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were dispersed, and came to nothing.
For before these days rose Theudas, boasting himself to be somebody; to whom a number of men, about four hundred, joined themselves: who was slain; and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered, and brought to naught.
- 37 After this man, there was Judas of Galilee, at the time of the numbering, and some of the people went after him: he was put to death, and all his supporters were put to flight.
After this man, Judas of Galilee rose up in the days of the enrollment, and drew away some people after him. He also perished, and all, as many as obeyed him, were scattered abroad.
After this man rose Judas of Galilee, in the days of the taxing, and drew away many people after him: he also perished; and all, even as many as obeyed him, were dispersed.

- 38 And now I say to you, Do nothing to these men, but let them be: for if this teaching or this work is of men, it will come to nothing:
Now I tell you, refrain from these men, and leave them alone. For if this counsel or this work is of men, it will be overthrown.
And now I say to you, Refrain from these men, and let them alone: for if this counsel or this work is from men, it will come to naught:
- 39 But if it is of God, you will not be able to overcome them, and you are in danger of fighting against God.
But if it is of God, you will not be able to overthrow it, and you would be found even to be fighting against God."
But if it is from God, ye cannot overthrow it; lest haply ye be found even to fight against God.
- 40 And he seemed to them to be right: and they sent for the Apostles, and, after having them whipped and giving them orders to give no teaching in the name of Jesus, they let them go.
They agreed with him. When they had called the apostles to them, they beat them and charged them not to speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
And to him they assented: and when they had called the apostles, and beaten them, they commanded that they should not speak in the name of Jesus, and let them go.
- 41 So they went away from the Sanhedrin, happy to undergo shame for the Name.
They therefore departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer dishonor for Jesus' name.
And they departed from the presence of the council, rejoicing that they were counted worthy to suffer shame for his name.
- 42 And every day, in the Temple and privately, they went on teaching and preaching Jesus as the Christ.
Every day, in the temple and at home, they never stopped teaching and preaching Jesus, the Christ.
And daily in the temple, and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ.
- 1 Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was increasing, protests were made by the Greek Jews against the Hebrews, because their widows were not taken care of in the distribution of food every day.
Now in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplying, there arose a grumbling of the Grecian Jews against the Hebrews because their widows were neglected in the daily service.
And in those days, when the number of the disciples was multiplied, there arose a murmuring of the Grecians against the Hebrews, because their widows were neglected in the daily ministrations.

- 2 And the Apostles sent for all the disciples and said, It is not right for us to give up preaching the word of God in order to make distribution of food.
The twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them and said, "It is not appropriate for us to forsake the word of God and serve tables.
Then the twelve called the multitude of the disciples, and said, It is not reason that we should leave the word of God, and serve tables.
- 3 Take then from among you seven men of good name, full of the Spirit and of wisdom, to whom we may give control of this business.
Therefore select from among you, brothers, seven men of good report, full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
Wherefore, brethren, look ye out among you seven men of honest report, full of the Holy Spirit and wisdom, whom we may appoint over this business.
- 4 Then we will give all our time to prayer and the teaching of the word.
But we will continue steadfastly in prayer and in the ministry of the word."
But we will give ourselves continually to prayer, and to the ministry of the word.
- 5 And this saying was pleasing to all of them: and they made selection of Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip and Prochorus and Nicanor and Timon and Parmenas and Nicolas of Antioch, who had become a Jew:
These words pleased the whole multitude. They chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, Philip, Prochorus, Nicanor, Timon, Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte of Antioch;
And the saying pleased the whole multitude: and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit, and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolas a proselyte of Antioch:
- 6 These they took to the Apostles, who, after prayer, put their hands on them.
whom they set before the apostles. When they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
Whom they set before the apostles: and when they had prayed, they laid their hands on them.
- 7 And the word of God was increasing in power; and the number of the disciples in Jerusalem became very great, and a great number of priests were in agreement with the faith.
The word of God increased and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem exceedingly. A great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.
And the word of God increased; and the number of the disciples multiplied in Jerusalem greatly; and a great company of the priests were obedient to the faith.

- 8 And Stephen, full of grace and power, did great wonders and signs among the people.
Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and signs among the people.
And Stephen, full of faith and power, performed great wonders and miracles among the people.
- 9 But some of those who were of the Synagogue named that of the Libertines, and some of the men of Cyrene and of Alexandria and those from Cilicia and Asia, had arguments with Stephen.
But some of those who were of the synagogue called "The Libertines," and of the Cyrenians, of the Alexandrians, and of those of Cilicia and Asia arose, disputing with Stephen.
Then there arose certain of the synagogue, which is called the synagogue of the Libertines, and Cyrenians, and Alexandrians, and of them of Cilicia, and of Asia, disputing with Stephen.
- 10 But they were not able to get the better of him, for his words were full of wisdom and of the Spirit.
They weren't able to withstand the wisdom and the Spirit by which he spoke.
And they were not able to resist the wisdom and the spirit by which he spoke.
- 11 Then they got men to say, He has said evil against Moses and against God, in our hearing.
Then they secretly induced men who said, "We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses and God."
Then they suborned men, who said, We have heard him speak blasphemous words against Moses, and against God.
- 12 And the people, with the rulers and the scribes, were moved against him, and they came and took him before the Sanhedrin,
They stirred up the people, the elders, and the scribes, and came on him and seized him, and brought him in to the council,
And they stirred up the people, and the elders, and the scribes, and came upon him, and caught him, and brought him to the council,
- 13 And they got false witnesses who said, This man is for ever saying things against this holy place and against the law:
and set up false witnesses who said, "This man never stops speaking blasphemous words against this holy place and the law.
And set up false witnesses, who said, This man ceaseth not to speak blasphemous words against this holy place, and the law:

- 14 For he has said in our hearing that this Jesus of Nazareth will put this place to destruction and make changes in the rules which were handed down to us by Moses.
For we have heard him say that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us."
For we have heard him say, that this Jesus of Nazareth will destroy this place, and will change the customs which Moses delivered to us.
- 15 And all those who were in the Sanhedrin, looking at him, saw that his face was like the face of an angel.
All who sat in the council, fastening their eyes on him, saw his face like it was the face of an angel.
And all that sat in the council, looking steadfastly on him, saw his face as it had been the face of an angel.
- 1 Then the high priest said, Are these things true?
The high priest said, "Are these things so?"
Then said the high priest, Are these things so?
- 2 And he said, My brothers and fathers, give hearing. The God of glory came to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he was living in Haran,
He said, "Brothers and fathers, listen. The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham, when he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran,
And he said, Men, brethren, and fathers, hearken; The God of glory appeared to our father Abraham when he was in Mesopotamia, before he dwelt in Charran,
- 3 And said to him, Go out of your land, and away from your family, and come into the land to which I will be your guide.
and said to him, `Get out of your land, and from your relatives, and come into a land which I will show you.`
And said to him, Depart from thy country, and from thy kindred, and come into the land which I shall show thee.
- 4 Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and went into Haran; and from there, when his father was dead, he was guided by God into this land, where you are living now:
Then he came out of the land of the Chaldaeans, and lived in Haran. From there, when his father was dead, God moved him into this land, where you are now living.
Then he came from the land of the Chaldeans, and dwelt in Charran. And from thence, when his father was dead, he removed him into this land in which ye now dwell.

- 5 And God gave him no heritage in it, not even enough to put his foot on: but he gave him an undertaking that he would give it to him and to his children after him, though he had no child at that time.
He gave him no inheritance in it, no, not so much as to set his foot on. He promised that he would give it to him in possession, and to his seed after him, when he still had no child.
And he gave him no inheritance in it, no not so much as to set his foot on: yet he promised that he would give it to him for a possession, and to his offspring after him, when as yet he had no child.
- 6 And God said that his seed would be living in a strange land, and that they would make them servants, and be cruel to them for four hundred years.
God spoke thus, that his seed would live as aliens in a strange land, and that they would be enslaved and mistreated for four hundred years.
And God spoke on this wise, That his offspring should sojourn in a foreign land; and that they should bring them into bondage, and treat them ill four hundred years.
- 7 And I will be the judge, said God, of that nation which made them servants: and after that, they will come out and give me worship in this place.
`I will judge the nation to which they will be in bondage,` said God, `and after that will they come out, and serve me in this place.`
And the nation to whom they shall be in bondage will I judge, said God: and after that they shall come forth, and serve me in this place.
- 8 And he made with him the agreement of which circumcision was the sign. And so Abraham had a son, Isaac, and gave him circumcision on the eighth day; and Isaac had a son, Jacob, and Jacob was the father of the twelve heads of the families of Israel.
He gave him the covenant of circumcision. So Abraham became the father of Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day. Isaac became the father of Jacob, and Jacob became the father of the twelve patriarchs.
And he gave him the covenant of circumcision. And so Abraham begat Isaac, and circumcised him the eighth day; and Isaac begat Jacob, and Jacob begat the twelve patriarchs.
- 9 And the brothers, moved with envy against Joseph, gave him to the Egyptians for money: but God was with him,
"The patriarchs, moved with jealousy against Joseph, sold him into Egypt. God was with him,
And the patriarchs, moved with envy, sold Joseph into Egypt: but God was with him,
- 10 And made him free from all his troubles, and gave him wisdom and the approval of Pharaoh, king of Egypt, who made him ruler over Egypt and all his house.
and delivered him out of all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom before Pharaoh, king of Egypt. He made him governor over Egypt and all his house.
And delivered him from all his afflictions, and gave him favor and wisdom in the sight of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and he made him governor over Egypt, and all his house.

- 11 Now there was no food to be had in all Egypt and Canaan, and there was great trouble: and our fathers were not able to get food.
Now a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction. Our fathers found no food.
Now there came a dearth over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great affliction; and our fathers found no sustenance.
- 12 But Jacob, hearing that there was grain in Egypt, sent out our fathers the first time.
But when Jacob heard that there was grain in Egypt, he sent forth our fathers the first time.
But when Jacob heard that there was corn in Egypt, he sent out our fathers first.
- 13 And the second time his brothers had a meeting with Joseph, and Pharaoh had knowledge of Joseph's family.
On the second time Joseph was made known to his brothers, and Joseph`s race was revealed to Pharaoh.
And at the second time Joseph was made known to his brethren: and Joseph's kindred was made known to Pharaoh.
- 14 Then Joseph sent for Jacob his father and all his family, seventy-five persons.
Joseph sent, and called Jacob, his father, to him, and all his relatives, seventy-five souls.
Then Joseph sent, and called his father Jacob to him, and all his kindred, seventy five souls.
- 15 And Jacob went down to Egypt, and came to his end there, and so did our fathers;
Jacob went down into Egypt, and he died, himself and our fathers,
So Jacob went down into Egypt, and died, he, and our fathers,
-
- 16 And they were taken over to Shechem, and put to rest in the place which Abraham got for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor in Shechem.
and they were brought back to Shechem, and laid in the tomb that Abraham bought for a price in silver from the sons of Hamor of Shechem.
And were carried over into Sychem, and laid in the sepulcher that Abraham bought for a sum of money of the sons of Emmor the father of Sychem.

- 17 But when the time was near for putting into effect the undertaking which God had given to Abraham, the people were increasing in Egypt,
"But as the time of the promise came close which God swore to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
But when the time of the promise drew nigh, which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew and multiplied in Egypt,
- 18 Till another king came to power, who had no knowledge of Joseph.
until there arose a different king, who didn't know Joseph.
Till another king arose, who knew not Joseph.
- 19 He, having evil designs against our nation, was cruel to our fathers, and they were forced to put out their young children, so that they might not go on living.
The same dealt slyly with our race, and mistreated our fathers, that they should throw out their babies, so that they wouldn't stay alive.
The same dealt subtilly with our kindred, and ill-treated our fathers, so that they cast out their young children, to the end they might not live.
- 20 At which time Moses came to birth, and he was very beautiful; and he was kept for three months in his father's house:
At that time Moses was born, and was exceedingly handsome. He was nourished three months in his father's house.
In which time Moses was born, and was exceeding fair, and nourished in his father's house three months:
- 21 And when he was put out, Pharaoh's daughter took him and kept him as her son.
When he was thrown out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and reared him as her own son.
And when he was cast out, Pharaoh's daughter took him up, and nourished him for her own son.
- 22 And Moses was trained in all the wisdom of Egypt, and was great in his words and works.
Moses was instructed in all the wisdom of the Egyptians. He was mighty in his words and works.
And Moses was learned in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was mighty in words and in deeds.
- 23 But when he was almost forty years old, it came into his heart to go and see his brothers, the children of Israel.
But when he was forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brothers, the children of Israel.
And when he was full forty years old, it came into his heart to visit his brethren the children of Israel.

- 24 And seeing one of them being attacked, he went to his help and gave the Egyptian a death-blow:
Seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him who was oppressed, striking the Egyptian.
And seeing one of them suffer wrong, he defended him, and avenged him that was oppressed, and smote the Egyptian:
- 25 And he was hoping that his brothers would see that God had sent him to be their saviour; but they did not see.
He supposed that his brothers understood that God, by his hand, was giving them deliverance; but they didn't understand.
For he supposed his brethren to understand that God by his hand would deliver them: but they understood not.
- 26 And the day after, he came to them, while they were having a fight, and would have made peace between them, saying, Sirs, you are brothers; why do you do wrong to one another?
The day following, he appeared to them as they fought, and urged them to be at peace again, saying, `Sirs, you are brothers. Why do you wrong one to another?`
And the next day he showed himself to them as they were contending, and would have constrained them to be at peace again, saying, Sirs, ye are brethren: why do ye wrong one to another?
- 27 But the man who was doing wrong to his neighbour, pushing him away, said, Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?
But he who did his neighbor wrong pushed him away, saying, `Who made you a ruler and a judge over us?
But he that did his neighbor wrong, thrust him away, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge over us?
- 28 Will you put me to death as you did the Egyptian yesterday?
Do you want to kill me, as you killed the Egyptian yesterday?`
Wilt thou kill me, as thou didst the Egyptian yesterday?
- 29 And at these words, Moses went in flight to the land of Midian, and was living there for a time, and had two sons.
Moses fled at this saying, and became an alien in the land of Midian, where he became the father of two sons.
Then Moses fled at this saying, and was a stranger in the land of Madian, where he begat two sons.

- 30 At the end of forty years, an angel came to him in the waste land of Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn-tree.
"When forty years were fulfilled, an angel of the Lord appeared to him in the wilderness of Mount Sinai, in a flame of fire in a bush.
And when forty years had expired, there appeared to him in the wilderness of mount Sina, an angel of the Lord in a flame of fire in a bush.
- 31 And Moses, seeing it, was full of wonder, and when he came up to have a nearer view of it, the voice of the Lord came to him, saying,
When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight. As he came close to see, a voice of the Lord came to him,
When Moses saw it, he wondered at the sight; and as he drew near to behold it, the voice of the Lord came to him,
- 32 I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham and of Isaac and of Jacob. And Moses, shaking with fear, kept his eyes from looking at it.
`I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.` Moses trembled, and dared not look.
Saying, I am the God of thy fathers, the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. Then Moses trembled, and durst not behold.
- 33 And the Lord said, Take off the shoes from your feet, for the place where you are is holy.
The Lord said to him, `Take your sandals off of your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground.
Then said the Lord to him, Put off thy shoes from thy feet: for the place where thou standest is holy ground.
- 34 Truly, I have seen the sorrows of my people in Egypt, and their cries have come to my ears, and I have come down to make them free: and now, come, I will send you to Egypt.
I have surely seen the affliction of my people that is in Egypt, and have heard their groaning. I have come down to deliver them. Now come, I will send you into Egypt.`
I have seen, I have seen the affliction of my people who are in Egypt, and I have heard their groaning, and am come down to deliver them. And now come, I will send thee into Egypt.
- 35 This Moses, whom they would not have, saying, Who made you a ruler and a judge? him God sent to be a ruler and a saviour, by the hand of the angel whom he saw in the thorn-tree.
"This Moses, whom they refused, saying, `Who made you a ruler and a judge?` -- God has sent him as both a ruler and a deliverer with the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.
This Moses, whom they refused, saying, Who made thee a ruler and a judge? the same did God send to be a ruler and a deliverer by the hand of the angel who appeared to him in the bush.

- 36 This man took them out, having done wonders and signs in Egypt and in the Red Sea and in the waste land, for forty years.
This man led them forth, having worked wonders and signs in Egypt, in the Red Sea, and in the wilderness forty years.
He brought them out, after he had showed wonders and signs in the land of Egypt, and in the Red sea, and in the wilderness forty years.
- 37 This is the same Moses, who said to the children of Israel, God will give you a prophet from among your brothers, like me.
This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, `The Lord God will raise up a prophet to you from among your brothers, like me.`
This is that Moses, who said to the children of Israel, A prophet will the Lord your God raise up to you of your brethren, like me; him will ye hear.
- 38 This is the man who was in the church in the waste land with the angel who was talking to him in Sinai, and with our fathers; and to him were given the living words of God, so that he might give them to you.
This is he who was in the assembly in the wilderness with the angel that spoke to him in the Mount Sinai, and with our fathers, who received living oracles to give to us,
This is he, that was in the church in the wilderness with the angel who spoke to him on the mount Sina, and with our fathers: who received the living oracles to give to us:
- 39 By whom our fathers would not be controlled; but they put him on one side, turning back in their hearts to Egypt, to whom our fathers wouldn't be obedient, but rejected him, and turned back in their hearts to Egypt,
Whom our fathers would not obey, but thrust him from them, and in their hearts turned back again into Egypt,
- 40 And saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: as for this Moses, who took us out of the land of Egypt, we have no idea what has become of him.
saying to Aaron, `Make us gods that will go before us, for as for this Moses, who led us forth out of the land of Egypt, we don't know what has become of him.`
Saying to Aaron, Make us gods to go before us: for as for this Moses, who brought us out of the land of Egypt, we know not what is become of him.
- 41 And they made the image of a young ox in those days, and made an offering to it, and had joy in the work of their hands.
They made a calf in those days, and brought a sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their hands.
And they made a calf in those days, and offered sacrifice to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

- 42 But God was turned from them and let them give worship to the stars of heaven, as it says in the book of the prophets, Did you make offerings to me of sheep and oxen for forty years in the waste land, O house of Israel?
But God turned, and gave them up to serve the host of the sky, as it is written in the book of the prophets, `Did you offer to me slain animals and sacrifices Forty years in the wilderness, O house of Israel?
Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices during forty years in the wilderness?
- 43 And you took up the tent of Moloch and the star of the god Rephan, images which you made to give worship to them: and I will take you away, farther than Babylon.
You took up the tent of Moloch, The star of your god Rephan, The figures which you made to worship. I will carry you away beyond Babylon.`
Yes, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your God Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon.
- 44 Our fathers had the Tent of witness in the waste land, as God gave orders to Moses to make it after the design which he had seen.
"Our fathers had the tent of the testimony in the wilderness, even as he who spoke to Moses appointed, that he should make it according to the pattern that he had seen.
Our fathers had the tabernacle of testimony in the wilderness, as he had appointed, speaking to Moses, that he should make it according to the fashion that he had seen.
- 45 Which our fathers, in their turn, took with them when, with Joshua, they came into the heritage of the nations whom God was driving out before the face of our fathers, till the time of David,
Which also our fathers, in their turn, brought in with Joshua when they entered into the possession of the nations, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David,
Which also our fathers, that came after, brought in with Jesus into the possession of the Gentiles, whom God drove out before the face of our fathers, to the days of David;
- 46 Who was pleasing to God; and he had a desire to make a holy tent for the God of Jacob.
who found favor in the sight of God, and asked to find a habitation for the God of Jacob.
Who found favor before God, and desired to find a tabernacle for the God of Jacob.
- 47 But Solomon was the builder of his house.
But Solomon built him a house.
But Solomon built him a house.

- 48 But still, the Most High has not his resting-place in houses made with hands, as the prophet says,
However, the Most High doesn't dwell in temples made with hands, as the prophet says,
Yet, the Most High dwelleth not in temples made with hands, as saith the prophet,
- 49 Heaven is the seat of my power, and earth is a resting-place for my feet: what sort of house will you make for me, says the Lord, or what is my place of rest?
`heaven is my throne, And the earth the footstool of my feet. What kind of house will you build me?' says the Lord; `Or what is the place of my rest?
Heaven is my throne, and earth is my footstool: What house will ye build for me? saith the Lord: or what is the place of my rest?
- 50 Did not my hand make all these things?
Didn't my hand make all these things?
Hath not my hand made all these things?
- 51 You whose hearts are hard and whose ears are shut to me; you are ever working against the Holy Spirit; as your fathers did, so do you.
"You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit! As your fathers did, so you do.
Ye stiff-necked, and uncircumcised in heart and ears, ye do always resist the Holy Spirit: as your fathers did, so do ye.
- 52 Which of the prophets was not cruelly attacked by your fathers? and they put to death those who gave them the news of the coming of the Upright One; whom you have now given up and put to death;
Which of the prophets didn't your fathers persecute? They killed those who foretold the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you have now become betrayers and murderers.
Which of the prophets have not your fathers persecuted? and they have slain them who showed before of the coming of the Just One; of whom ye have been now the betrayers and murderers;
- 53 You, to whom the law was given as it was ordered by angels, and who have not kept it.
You received the law as it was ordained by angels, and didn't keep it!"
Who have received the law by the disposition of angels, and have not kept it.

- 54 Hearing these things, they were cut to the heart and moved with wrath against him.
Now when they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed at him with their teeth.
When they heard these things, they were cut to the heart, and they gnashed on him with their teeth.
- 55 But he was full of the Holy Spirit, and looking up to heaven, he saw the glory of God and Jesus at the right hand of God.
But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,
But he, being full of the Holy Spirit, looked up steadfastly into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing on the right hand of God,
- 56 And he said, Now I see heaven open, and the Son of man at the right hand of God.
and said, "Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of Man standing on the right hand of God!"
And said, Behold, I see the heavens opened, and the Son of man standing on the right hand of God.
- 57 But with loud cries, and stopping their ears, they made an attack on him all together,
But they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and rushed at him with one accord.
Then they cried out with a loud voice, and stopped their ears, and ran upon him with one accord,
- 58 Driving him out of the town and stoning him: and the witnesses put their clothing at the feet of a young man named Saul.
They threw him out of the city, and stoned him. The witnesses placed their garments at the feet of a young man named Saul.
And cast him out of the city, and stoned him: and the witnesses laid down their clothes at a young man's feet, whose name was Saul.
- 59 And Stephen, while he was being stoned, made prayer to God, saying, Lord Jesus, take my spirit.
They stoned Stephen, as he called on the Lord, saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my Spirit!"
And they stoned Stephen, calling upon God, and saying, Lord Jesus, receive my spirit.
- 60 And going down on his knees, he said in a loud voice, Lord, do not make them responsible for this sin. And when he had said this, he went to his rest.
He kneeled down, and cried with a loud voice, "Lord, don't hold this sin against them!" When he had said this, he fell asleep.
And he kneeled down and cried with a loud voice, Lord, lay not this sin to their charge. And when he had said this, he fell asleep.

- 1 And Saul gave approval to his death. Now at that time a violent attack was started against the church in Jerusalem; and all but the Apostles went away into all parts of Judaea and Samaria. Saul was consenting to his death. A great persecution arose against the assembly which was in Jerusalem in that day. They were all scattered abroad throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles.
And Saul was consenting to his death. And at that time there was a great persecution against the church which was at Jerusalem; and they were all dispersed throughout the regions of Judea and Samaria, except the apostles.
- 2 And God-fearing men put Stephen's body in its last resting-place, making great weeping over him.
Devout men buried Stephen, and lamented greatly over him.
And devout men carried Stephen to his burial, and made great lamentation over him.
- 3 But Saul was burning with hate against the church, going into every house and taking men and women and putting them in prison.
But Saul ravaged the assembly, entering into every house, and dragged both men and women off to prison.
As for Saul, he made havoc of the church, entering into every house, and hauling men and women committed them to prison.
- 4 But those who had gone in flight went everywhere preaching the word.
Therefore those who were scattered abroad went around preaching the word.
Therefore they that were dispersed went every where preaching the word.
- 5 And Philip went down to Samaria and was teaching them about Christ.
Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and proclaimed to them the Christ.
Then Philip went down to the city of Samaria, and preached Christ to them.
- 6 And all the people gave attention to the words which Philip said, when they saw the signs which he did.
The multitudes listened with one accord to the things that were spoken by Philip, when they heard and saw the signs which he did.
And the people with one accord gave heed to those things which Philip spoke, hearing and seeing the miracles which he performed.

7 For unclean spirits came out from those who had them, crying with a loud voice; and a number of those who were ill and broken in body were made well.
For unclean spirits came out of many of those who had them. They came out, crying with a loud voice. Many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed.

For unclean spirits, crying with loud voice, came out of many that were possessed: and many taken with palsies, and that were lame, were healed.

8 And there was much joy in that town.

There was great joy in that city.

And there was great joy in that city.

9 But there was a certain man named Simon, who in the past had been a wonder-worker and a cause of surprise to the people of Samaria, saying that he himself was a great man:

But there was a certain man, Simon by name, who had used sorcery in the city before, and amazed the people of Samaria, making himself out to be some great one,

But there was a certain man called Simon, who before in the same city used sorcery, and bewitched the people of Samaria, giving out that himself was some great one:

10 To whom they all gave attention, from the smallest to the greatest, saying, This man is that power of God which is named Great.

to whom they all listened, from the least to the greatest, saying, "This man is that great power of God."

To whom they all gave heed, from the least to the greatest, saying, This man is the great power of God.

11 And they gave attention to him, because for a long time his wonder-working powers had kept them under his control.

They listened to him, because for a long time he had amazed them with his sorceries.

And to him they had regard, because that for a long time he had bewitched them with sorceries.

12 But when they had faith in the good news given by Philip about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, a number of men and women had baptism.

But when they believed Philip preaching good news concerning the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized, both men and women.

But when they believed Philip, preaching the things concerning the kingdom of God, and the name of Jesus Christ, they were baptized both men and women.

- 13 And Simon himself had faith and, having had baptism, he went with Philip and, seeing the signs and the great wonders which he did, he was full of surprise.
Simon himself also believed. Being baptized, he continued with Philip. Seeing signs and great miracles done, he was amazed.
Then Simon himself believed also: and when he was baptized, he continued with Philip, and wondered, beholding the miracles and signs which were done.
- 14 Now when the Apostles at Jerusalem had news that the people of Samaria had taken the word of God into their hearts, they sent to them Peter and John;
Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them,
Now when the apostles who were at Jerusalem heard that Samaria had received the word of God, they sent to them Peter and John:
- 15 Who, when they came there, made prayer for them, that the Holy Spirit might be given to them:
who, when they had come down, prayed for them, that they might receive the Holy Spirit;
Who, when they had come down, prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit:
- 16 For up to that time he had not come on any of them; only baptism had been given to them in the name of the Lord Jesus.
for as yet he had fallen on none of them. They had only been baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.
(For as yet he had fallen upon none of them: only they were baptized in the name of the Lord Jesus.)
- 17 Then they put their hands on them, and the Holy Spirit came on them.
Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.
Then they laid their hands on them, and they received the Holy Spirit.
- 18 Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the touch of the Apostles' hands, he made them an offering of money, saying,
Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given through the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money,
And when Simon saw that through laying on of the apostles' hands the Holy Spirit was given, he offered them money,
- 19 Give me this power, so that when I put my hands on anyone he may get the Holy Spirit.
saying, "Give me also this power, that whoever I lay my hands on may receive the Holy Spirit."
Saying, Give me also this power, that on whomsoever I lay hands, he may receive the Holy Spirit.

- 20 But Peter said, May your money come to destruction with you, because you had the idea that what is freely given by God may be got for a price.
But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you thought you could obtain the gift of God with money!
But Peter said to him, Thy money perish with thee, because thou hast thought that the gift of God may be purchased with money.
- 21 You have no part in this business, because your heart is not right before God.
You have neither part nor lot in this matter, for your heart isn't right before God.
Thou hast neither part nor lot in this matter: for thy heart is not right in the sight of God.
- 22 Let your heart be changed, and make prayer to God that you may have forgiveness for your evil thoughts.
Repent therefore of this, your wickedness, and ask God if perhaps the thought of your heart may be forgiven you.
Repent therefore of this thy wickedness, and pray God, if perhaps the thought of thy heart may be forgiven thee.
- 23 For I see that you are prisoned in bitter envy and the chains of sin.
For I see that you are in the gall of bitterness and in the bondage of iniquity."
For I perceive that thou art in the gall of bitterness, and in the bond of iniquity.
- 24 And Simon, answering, said, Make prayer for me to the Lord, so that these things which you have said may not come on me.
Simon answered, "Pray for me to the Lord, that none of the things which you have spoken come on me."
Then answered Simon, and said, Pray ye to the Lord for me, that none of these things which ye have spoken come upon me.
- 25 So they, having given their witness and made clear the word of the Lord, went back to Jerusalem, giving the good news on their way in a number of the small towns of Samaria.
They therefore, when they had testified and spoken the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel to many villages of the Samaritans.
And they, when they had testified and preached the word of the Lord, returned to Jerusalem, and preached the gospel in many villages of the Samaritans.

- 26 But an angel of the Lord said to Philip, Get up, and go to the south, to the road which goes from Jerusalem to Gaza, through the waste land.
But an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, "Arise, and go toward the south to the way that goes down from Jerusalem to Gaza. This is a desert."
And the angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying, Arise, and go towards the south, to the way that goeth down from Jerusalem to Gaza, which is desert.
- 27 And he went and there was a man of Ethiopia, a servant of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, and controller of all her property, who had come up to Jerusalem for worship;
He arose and went. Behold, there was a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace, queen of the Ethiopians, who was over all her treasure, who had come to Jerusalem to worship.
And he arose, and went: and behold, a man of Ethiopia, a eunuch of great authority under Candace queen of the Ethiopians, who had the charge of all her treasure, and had come to Jerusalem to worship,
- 28 He was going back, seated in his carriage, and was reading the book of the prophet Isaiah.
He was returning and sitting in his chariot, and was reading the prophet Isaiah.
Was returning; and sitting in his chariot, read Isaiah the prophet.
- 29 And the Spirit said to Philip, Go near, and get on his carriage.
The Spirit said to Philip, "Go near, and join yourself to this chariot."
Then the Spirit said to Philip, Go near and join thyself to this chariot.
- 30 And Philip, running up to him, saw that he was reading Isaiah the prophet, and said to him, Is the sense of what you are reading clear to you?
Philip ran to him, and heard him reading Isaiah the prophet, and said, "Do you understand you what you are reading?"
And Philip ran thither to him, and heard him reading the prophet Isaiah, and said, Understandest thou what thou readest?
- 31 And he said, How is that possible when I have no guide? And he made Philip get up by his side.
He said, "How can I, unless someone explains it to me?" He begged Philip to come up and sit with him.
And he said, How can I, except some man should guide me? And he desired Philip that he would come up, and sit with him.

- 32 Now the place in the book where he was reading was this: He was taken, like a sheep, to be put to death; and as a lamb is quiet when its wool is being cut, so he made no sound:
Now the passage of the Scripture which he was reading was this, "He was led as a sheep to the slaughter. As a lamb before his shearer is silent, So he doesn't open his mouth.
The place of the scripture which he read was this, He was led as a sheep to the slaughter; and like a lamb dumb before his shearer, so he opened not his mouth:
- 33 Being of low degree, his cause was not given a hearing: who has knowledge of his family? for his life is cut off from the earth.
In his humiliation, his judgment was taken away. Who will declare His generations? For his life is taken from the earth."
In his humiliation his judgment was taken away: and who shall declare his generation? for his life is taken from the earth.
- 34 And the Ethiopian said to Philip, About whom are these words said by the prophet? about himself, or some other?
The eunuch answered Philip, "Please tell who the prophet is talking about: about himself, or about some other?"
And the eunuch answered Philip, and said, I pray thee, of whom speaketh the prophet this? of himself, or of some other man?
- 35 So Philip, starting from this writing, gave him the good news about Jesus.
Philip opened his mouth, and beginning from this Scripture, preached to him Jesus.
Then Philip opened his mouth, and began at the same scripture, and preached to him Jesus.
- 36 And while they were going on their way, they came to some water, and the Ethiopian said, See, here is water; why may I not have baptism?
As they went on the way, they came to some water, and the eunuch said, "Behold, here is water. What is keeping me from being baptized?"
And as they went on their way, they came to a certain water: and the eunuch said, See, here is water; what doth hinder me to be baptized?
- 38 And he gave orders for the carriage to be stopped, and the two of them went down into the water, and Philip gave him baptism.
He commanded the chariot to stand still, and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and he baptized him.
And he commanded the chariot to stand still: and they both went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch; and he baptized him.

39 And when they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord took Philip away; and the Ethiopian saw him no more, for he went on his way full of joy.
When they came up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught Philip away, and the eunuch didn't see him any more, for he went on his way rejoicing.

And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch saw him no more: and he went on his way rejoicing.

40 But Philip came to Azotus, and went through all the towns, preaching the good news, till he came to Caesarea.

But Philip was found at Azotus. Passing through, he preached the gospel to all the cities, until he came to Caesarea.

But Philip was found at Azotus: and passing through, he preached in all the cities, till he came to Caesarea.

1 But Saul, still burning with desire to put to death the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

But Saul, still breathing threats and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

And Saul, yet breathing out threatenings and slaughter against the disciples of the Lord, went to the high priest,

2 And made a request for letters from him to the Synagogues of Damascus, so that if there were any of the Way there, men or women, he might take them as prisoners to Jerusalem.

and asked for letters from him to the synagogues of Damascus, that if he found any who were of the Way, whether men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

And desired from him letters to Damascus to the synagogues, that if he should find any of this way, whether they were men or women, he might bring them bound to Jerusalem.

3 And while he was journeying, he came near Damascus; and suddenly he saw a light from heaven shining round him;

As he traveled, it happened that he got close to Damascus, and suddenly a light from the sky shone around him.

And as he journeyed, he came near Damascus: and suddenly there shined around him a light from heaven:

4 And he went down on the earth, and a voice said to him, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly?

He fell on the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, "Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?"

And he fell to the earth, and heard a voice saying to him, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?

- 5 And he said, Who are you, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus, whom you are attacking:
He said, "Who are you, Lord?" The Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting.
And he said, Who art thou, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest. It is hard for thee to kick against the goads.
- 6 But get up, and go into the town, and it will be made clear to you what you have to do.
But rise up, and enter into the city, and you will be told what you must do."
And he trembling and astonished said, Lord, what wilt thou have me to do? And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the city, and it shall be told thee what thou must do.
- 7 And the men who were with him were not able to say anything; hearing the voice, but seeing no one.
The men who traveled with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but seeing no one.
And the men who journeyed with him stood speechless, hearing a voice, but seeing no man.
- 8 And Saul got up from the earth, and when his eyes were open, he saw nothing; and he was guided by the hand into Damascus.
Saul arose from the ground, and when his eyes were opened, he saw no one. They led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
And Saul arose from the earth; and when his eyes were opened, he saw no man: but they led him by the hand, and brought him into Damascus.
- 9 And for three days he was not able to see, and he took no food or drink.
He was without sight for three days, and neither ate nor drank.
And he was three days without sight, and neither ate nor drank.
- 10 Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and the Lord said to him in a vision, Ananias! and he said, Here I am, Lord.
Now there was a certain disciple at Damascus named Ananias. The Lord said to him in a vision, "Ananias!" He said, "Behold, it's me, Lord."
And there was a certain disciple at Damascus, named Ananias; and to him said the Lord in a vision, Ananias. And he said, Behold, I am here, Lord.

- 11 And the Lord said to him, Get up, and go to the street which is named Straight, and make search at the house of Judas for one named Saul of Tarsus: for he is at prayer;
The Lord said to him, "Arise, and go to the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one named Saul, a man of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying,
And the Lord said to him, Arise, and go into the street which is called Straight, and inquire in the house of Judas for one called Saul of Tarsus: for behold, he prayeth,
- 12 And he has seen a man named Ananias coming in and putting his hands on him, so that he may be able to see.
and in a vision he has seen a man named Ananias coming in, and laying his hands on him, that he might receive his sight."
And hath seen in a vision a man named Ananias, coming in, and putting his hand on him, that he might receive his sight.
- 13 But Ananias said, Lord, I have had accounts of this man from a number of people, how much evil he has done to your saints at Jerusalem:
But Ananias answered, "Lord, I have heard from many about this man, how much evil he did to your saints at Jerusalem.
Then Ananias answered, Lord, I have heard by many of this man, how much evil he hath done to thy saints at Jerusalem:
- 14 And here he has authority from the chief priests to make prisoners all who give worship to your name.
Here he has authority from the chief priests to bind all who call on your name."
And here he hath authority from the chief priests, to bind all that call on thy name.
- 15 But the Lord said, Go without fear: for he is a special vessel for me, to give to the Gentiles and kings and to the children of Israel the knowledge of my name:
But the Lord said to him, "Go your way, for he is my chosen vessel to bear my name before the nations and kings, and the children of Israel.
But the Lord said to him, Go, for he is a chosen vessel to me, to bear my name before the Gentiles, and kings, and the children of Israel.
- 16 For I will make clear to him what troubles he will have to undergo for me.
For I will show him how many things he must suffer for my name`s sake."
For I will show him how great things he must suffer for my name's sake.

- 17 And Ananias went out and came to the house, and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus, whom you saw when you were on your journey, has sent me, so that you may be able to see, and be full of the Holy Spirit.
Ananias departed, and entered into the house. Laying his hands on him, he said, "Brother Saul, the Lord, who appeared to you in the way which you came, has sent me, that you may receive your sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit."
And Ananias went, and entered into the house; and putting his hands on him, said, Brother Saul, the Lord (even Jesus that appeared to thee in the way as thou camest) hath sent me, that thou mayest receive thy sight, and be filled with the Holy Spirit.
- 18 And straight away it seemed as if a veil was taken from his eyes, and he was able to see; and he got up, and had baptism;
Immediately there fell from his eyes as it were scales, and he received his sight. He arose and was baptized.
And immediately there fell from his eyes as it had been scales: and he received sight forthwith, and arose, and was baptized.
- 19 And when he had taken food his strength came back. And for some days he kept with the disciples who were in Damascus.
He took food and was strengthened. Saul stayed several days with the disciples who were at Damascus.
And when he had received food, he was strengthened. Then was Saul certain days with the disciples who were at Damascus.
- 20 And straight away, in the Synagogues, he was preaching Jesus as the Son of God.
Immediately in the synagogues he proclaimed the Christ, that he is the Son of God.
And immediately he preached Christ in the synagogues, that he is the Son of God.
- 21 And all those hearing him were full of wonder and said, Is not this the man who in Jerusalem was attacking all the worshippers of this name? and he had come here so that he might take them as prisoners before the chief priests.
All who heard him were amazed, and said, "Isn't this he who in Jerusalem made havoc of those who called on this name? And he had come here intending to bring them bound before the chief priests!"
But all that heard him were amazed, and said, Is not this he that destroyed them who called on this name in Jerusalem, and came hither for that intent, that he might bring them bound to the chief priests?
- 22 But Saul went on increasing in power, and the Jews in Damascus were not able to give answers to the arguments by which he made it clear that Jesus was the Christ.
But Saul increased more in strength, and confounded the Jews who lived at Damascus, proving that this is the Christ.
But Saul increased the more in strength, and confounded the Jews who dwelt at Damascus, proving that this is very Christ.

- 23 Then, after some days, the Jews made an agreement together to put him to death:
When many days were fulfilled, the Jews conspired together to kill him,
And after many days were fulfilled, the Jews took counsel to kill him.
- 24 But Saul got knowledge of their design. And they kept watch day and night on the roads out of the town, so that they might put him to death:
but their plot became known to Saul. They watched the gates both day and night that they might kill him,
But their laying in wait, was known to Saul. And they watched the gates day and night to kill him.
- 25 But his disciples took him by night and let him down from the wall in a basket.
but his disciples took him by night, and let him down through the wall, lowering him in a basket.
Then the disciples took him by night, and let him down by the wall in a basket.
- 26 And when he came to Jerusalem, he made an attempt to be joined to the disciples, but they were all in fear of him, not taking him for a disciple.
When Saul had come to Jerusalem, he tried to join himself to the disciples. They were all afraid of him, not believing that he was a disciple.
And when Saul had come to Jerusalem, he essayed to join himself to the disciples: but they were all afraid of him, and believed not that he was a disciple.
- 27 But Barnabas took him to the Apostles and gave them an account of how he had seen the Lord on the road, and had given hearing to his words, and how at Damascus he had been preaching in the name of Jesus without fear.
But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how at Damascus he had preached boldly in the name of Jesus.
But Barnabas took him, and brought him to the apostles, and declared to them how he had seen the Lord in the way, and that he had spoken to him, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus.
- 28 And he was with them, going in and out at Jerusalem,
He was with them going in and going out at Jerusalem,
And he was with them coming in and going out at Jerusalem.

- 29 Preaching in the name of the Lord without fear; and he had discussions with the Greek Jews; but they were working for his death.
preaching boldly in the name of the Lord. He spoke and disputed against the Grecian Jews, but they were seeking to kill him.
And he spoke boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, and disputed against the Grecians: but they went about to slay him.
- 30 And when the brothers had knowledge of it, they took him to Caesarea and sent him to Tarsus.
When the brothers knew it, they brought him down to Caesarea, and sent him out to Tarsus.
Which when the brethren knew, they brought him down to Cesarea, and sent him forth to Tarsus.
- 31 And so the church through all Judaea and Galilee and Samaria had peace and was made strong; and, living in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, was increased greatly.
So the assemblies throughout all Judea and Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were built up. They were multiplied, walking in the fear of the Lord and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit.
Then had the churches rest throughout all Judea, and Galilee, and Samaria, and were edified: and walking in the fear of the Lord, and in the comfort of the Holy Spirit, were multiplied.
- 32 And it came about that while Peter was going through all parts of the country he came to the saints who were living at Lydda.
It happened, as Peter went throughout all those parts, he came down also to the saints who lived at Lydda.
And it came to pass, as Peter passed throughout all quarters, he came down also to the saints who dwelt at Lydda.
- 33 And there was a certain man there, named Aeneas, who for eight years had been in bed, without power of moving.
There he found a certain man named Aeneas, who had been bedridden for eight years, because he was paralyzed.
And there he found a certain man named Eneas, who had kept his bed eight years, and was sick with the palsy.
- 34 And Peter said to him, Aeneas, Jesus Christ makes you well: get up and make your bed. And straight away he got up.
Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus Christ heals you. Get up and make your bed!" Immediately he arose.
And Peter said to him, Eneas, Jesus Christ healeth thee: arise, and make thy bed. And he arose immediately.
- 35 And all those living in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and were turned to the Lord.
All who lived at Lydda and in Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.
And all that dwelt at Lydda and Saron saw him, and turned to the Lord.

- 36 Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, that is, Dorcas: this woman was given to good works and acts of mercy at all times.
Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, which when translated, means Dorcas. This woman was full of good works and acts of mercy which she did.
Now there was at Joppa a certain disciple named Tabitha, who by interpretation is called Dorcas: this woman was full of good works and alms-deeds which she did.
- 37 And it came about, in those days, that she got ill and came to her death: and when she had been washed, they put her in a room which was high up.
It happened in those days that she fell sick, and died. When they had washed her, they laid her in an upper chamber.
And it came to pass in those days, that she was sick, and died: whom, when they had washed, they laid in an upper chamber.
- 38 And because Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, having knowledge that Peter was there, sent two men to him, requesting him to come to them straight away.
As Lydda was near Joppa, the disciples, hearing that Peter was there, sent two men to him, imploring him not to delay in coming to them.
And as Lydda was nigh to Joppa, and the disciples had heard that Peter was there, they sent to him two men, desiring him that he would not delay to come to them.
- 39 And Peter went with them. And when he had come, they took him into the room: and all the widows were there, weeping and putting before him the coats and clothing which Dorcas had made while she was with them.
Peter got up and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber. All the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made while she was with them.
Then Peter arose, and went with them. When he had come, they brought him into the upper chamber: and all the widows stood by him weeping, and showing the coats and garments which Dorcas made, while she was with them.
- 40 But Peter made them all go outside, and went down on his knees in prayer; and turning to the body, he said, Tabitha, get up. And, opening her eyes, she saw Peter and got up.
Peter put them all out, and kneeled down and prayed. Turning to the body, he said, "Tabitha, get up!" She opened her eyes, and when she saw Peter, she sat up.
But Peter put them all forth, and kneeled down, and prayed; and turning to the body, said, Tabitha, arise. And she opened her eyes: and when she saw Peter, she sat up.

41 And he took her hand, lifting her up; and, sending for the saints and widows, he gave her to them, living.
He gave her his hand, and raised her up. Calling the saints and widows, he presented her alive.
And he gave her his hand, and lifted her up; and when he had called the saints and widows, presented her alive.

42 And news of it went all through Joppa, and a number of people had faith in the Lord.
It became known throughout all Joppa, and many believed in the Lord.
And it was known throughout all Joppa: and many believed in the Lord.

43 And he was living in Joppa for some time with Simon, a leather-worker.
It happened, that he stayed many days in Joppa with one Simon, a tanner.
And it came to pass, that he tarried many days in Joppa with one Simon a tanner.

1 Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, named Cornelius, the captain of the Italian band of the army;
Now there was a certain man in Caesarea, Cornelius by name, a centurion of what was called the Italian Regiment,
There was a certain man in Cesarea, called Cornelius, a centurion of the band called the Italian band,

2 A serious-minded man, fearing God with all his family; he gave much money to the poor, and made prayer to God at all times.
a devout man, and one who feared God with all his house, who gave alms generously to the people, and always prayed to God.
A devout man, and one that feared God with all his house, who gave much alms to the people, and prayed to God always.

3 He saw in a vision, clearly, at about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of the Lord coming to him and saying to him, Cornelius!
At about the ninth hour of the day, he clearly saw in a vision an angel of God coming to him, and saying to him, "Cornelius!"
He saw in a vision evidently, about the ninth hour of the day, an angel of God coming in to him, and saying to him, Cornelius.

- 4 And he, looking on him in fear, said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Your prayers and your offerings have come up to God, and he has kept them in mind.
He, fastening his eyes on him, and being frightened, said, "What is it, Lord?" He said to him, "Your prayers and your alms have gone up for a memorial before God.
And when he looked on him, he was afraid, and said, What is it, Lord? And he said to him, Thy prayers and thy alms are come up for a memorial before God.
- 5 Now send men to Joppa, and get one Simon, named Peter,
Now send men to Joppa, and get one Simon, who is surnamed Peter.
And now send men to Joppa, and call for one Simon, whose surname is Peter:
- 6 Who is living with Simon, a leather-worker, whose house is by the sea.
He lodges with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the seaside."
He lodgeth with one Simon a tanner, whose house is by the sea-side: he will tell thee what thou oughtest to do.
- 7 And when the angel who said these words to him had gone away, he sent for two of his house-servants, and a God-fearing man of the army, one of those who were waiting on him at all times;
When the angel who spoke to him had departed, Cornelius called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of those who waited on him continually.
And when the angel who spoke to Cornelius had departed, he called two of his household servants, and a devout soldier of them that waited on him continually;
- 8 And having given them an account of everything, he sent them to Joppa.
Having explained everything to them, he sent them to Joppa.
And when he had declared all these things to them, he sent them to Joppa.
- 9 Now the day after, when they were on their journey and were near the town, Peter went up to the top of the house for prayer, about the sixth hour:
Now on the next day, as they were on their journey, and got close to the city, Peter went up on the housetop to pray, at about noon.
On the morrow, as they were going on their journey, and drew nigh to the city, Peter went up upon the house-top to pray, about the sixth hour:

- 10 And he was in need of food: but while they were getting it ready, a deep sleep came on him;
He became hungry, and desired to eat, but while they were preparing, he fell into a trance.
And he became very hungry, and would have eaten: but while they made ready, he fell into a trance,
- 11 And he saw the heavens opening, and a vessel coming down, like a great cloth let down on the earth,
He saw heaven opened, and a certain container descending to him, like a great sheet, let down by four corners on the earth,
And saw heaven opened, and a certain vessel descending to him, as it had been a great sheet knit at the four corners, and let down to the earth:
- 12 In which were all sorts of beasts and birds.
in which were all kinds of four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, reptiles, and birds of the sky.
In which were all manner of four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping animals, and fowls of the air.
- 13 And a voice came to him, saying, Come, Peter; take them for food.
A voice came to him, "Rise, Peter, kill and eat!"
And there came a voice to him, Rise, Peter; kill, and eat.
- 14 But Peter said, No, Lord; for I have never taken food which is common or unclean.
But Peter said, "Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten anything that is common or unclean."
But Peter said, Not so, Lord; for I have never eaten any thing that is common or unclean.
- 15 And the voice came to him a second time, What God has made clean, do not you make common.
A voice came to him again the second time, "What God has cleansed, you must not make unholy."
And the voice spoke to him again the second time, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
- 16 And this was done three times: and then the vessel was taken back into heaven.
This was done three times, and immediately the vessel was received up into heaven.
This was done thrice: and the vessel was received again into heaven.

- 17 Now while Peter was in doubt as to the purpose of this vision, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made search for Simon's house, came to the door,
Now while Peter was very perplexed in himself what the vision which he had seen might mean, behold, the men who were sent by Cornelius, having made inquiry for Simon`s house, stood before the gate,
Now while Peter doubted in himself what this vision which he had seen should mean, behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had made inquiry for Simon's house, and were standing before the gate,
- 18 To see if Simon, named Peter, was living there.
and called and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, was lodging there.
And called, and asked whether Simon, who was surnamed Peter, lodged there.
- 19 And, while Peter was turning the vision over in his mind, the Spirit said to him, See, three men are looking for you.
While Peter thought about the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men seek you.
While Peter thought on the vision, the Spirit said to him, Behold, three men seek thee.
- 20 Go down, then, and go with them, doubting nothing, for I have sent them.
But arise, get down, and go with them, doubting nothing; for I have sent them."
Arise therefore, and go down, and go with them, doubting nothing: for I have sent them.
- 21 And Peter went down to the men, and said, I am the man you are looking for: why have you come?
Peter went down to the men, and said, "Behold, I am he whom you seek. Why have you come?"
Then Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and said, Behold, I am he whom ye seek: what is the cause for which ye have come?
- 22 And they said, Cornelius, a captain, an upright and God-fearing man, respected by all the nation of the Jews, had word from God by an angel to send for you to his house, and to give hearing to your words.
They said, "Cornelius a centurion, a righteous man and one who fears God, and well spoken of by all the nation of the Jews, was directed by a holy angel to invite you to his house, and to listen to what you say.
And they said, Cornelius the centurion, a just man, and one that feareth God, and of good report among all the nation of the Jews, was warned from God by a holy angel to send for thee into his house, and to hear words from thee.

- 23 So he took them in for the night. And the day after, he went with them, taking some of the brothers from Joppa with him.
So he called them in and lodged them. On the next day Peter arose and went out with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him.
Then he called them in, and lodged them. And on the morrow Peter went with them, and certain brethren from Joppa accompanied him.
- 24 And the day after that, they came to Caesarea. And Cornelius was waiting for them, having got together his relations and his near friends.
On the next day they entered into Caesarea. Cornelius was waiting for them, having called together his relatives and his near friends.
And on the morrow they entered into Cesarea. And Cornelius waited for them, and had called together his kinsmen and near friends.
- 25 And when Peter came in, Cornelius came to him and, falling down at his feet, gave him worship.
When it happened that Peter entered, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshipped him.
And as Peter was coming in, Cornelius met him, and fell down at his feet, and worshiped him.
- 26 But Peter, lifting him up, said, Get up, for I am a man as you are.
But Peter raised him up, saying, "Stand up! I myself am also a man."
But Peter took him up, saying, Stand up: I myself also am a man.
- 27 And saying these words, he went in, and saw that a great number of people had come together;
As he talked with him, he went in, and found many come together.
And as he talked with him, he went in, and found many that had come together.
- 28 And he said to them, You yourselves have knowledge that it is against the law for a man who is a Jew to be in the company of one who is of another nation; but God has made it clear to me that no man may be named common or unclean:
He said to them, "You yourselves know how it is an unlawful thing for a man who is a Jew to join himself or come to one of another nation, but God has shown me that I shouldn't call any man unholy or unclean.
And he said to them, Ye know that it is an unlawful thing for a man that is a Jew to keep company, or come to one of another nation; but God hath shown me that I should not call any man common or unclean.

- 29 And so I came without question, when I was sent for. What then is your purpose in sending for me?
Therefore also I came without complaint when I was sent for. I ask therefore, why did you send for me?"
Therefore I came to you without gainsaying, as soon as I was sent for: I ask therefore for what intent ye have sent for me?
- 30 And Cornelius said, Four days from now I was in my house in prayer at the ninth hour; and I saw before me a man in shining clothing, Cornelius said, "Four days ago, I was fasting until this hour, and at the ninth hour, I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,
And Cornelius said, Four days ago I was fasting until this hour; and at the ninth hour I prayed in my house, and behold, a man stood before me in bright clothing,
- 31 Who said, Cornelius, your prayer has come to the ears of God, and your offerings are kept in his memory.
and said, `Cornelius, your prayer is heard, and your alms are remembered in the sight of God.
And said, Cornelius, thy prayer is heard, and thy alms are had in remembrance in the sight of God.
- 32 Send, then, to Joppa, and get Simon, named Peter, to come to you; he is living in the house of Simon, a leather-worker, by the sea.
Send therefore to Joppa, and call to you Simon, who is surnamed Peter. He lodges in the house of Simon a tanner, by the seaside. When he comes, he will speak to you.`
Send therefore to Joppa, and call hither Simon, whose surname is Peter; he lodgeth in the house of one Simon a tanner, by the sea-side: who, when he cometh, will speak to thee.
- 33 So, straight away, I sent for you; and you have done well to come. And now, we are all present before God, ready to give attention to all the things which the Lord has given you to say.
Therefore I sent to you at once, and it was good of you to come. Now therefore we are all here present in the sight of God to hear all things that have been commanded you by God."
Immediately therefore I sent to thee; and thou hast well done that thou hast come. Now therefore we are all here present before God, to hear all things that are commanded thee from God.
- 34 Then Peter said, Truly, I see clearly that God is no respecter of persons:
Peter opened his mouth and said, "Truly I perceive that God doesn't show favoritism,
Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, In truth I perceive that God is no respecter of persons:

- 35 But in every nation, the man who has fear of him and does righteousness is pleasing to him.
but in every nation he who fears him, and works righteousness, is acceptable to him.
But in every nation he that feareth him, and worketh righteousness, is accepted with him.
- 36 The word which he sent to the children of Israel, giving the good news of peace through Jesus Christ (who is Lord of all)--
The word which he sent to the children of Israel, preaching good news of peace by Jesus Christ (he is Lord of all):
The word which God sent to the children of Israel, preaching peace by Jesus Christ: (he is Lord of all:)
- 37 That word you yourselves have knowledge of, which was made public through all Judaea, starting from Galilee, after the baptism of which John was the preacher, that spoken word you yourselves know, which was proclaimed throughout all Judea, beginning from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
That word, I say, ye know, which was published throughout all Judea, and began from Galilee, after the baptism which John preached;
- 38 About Jesus of Nazareth, how God gave the Holy Spirit to him, with power: and how he went about doing good and making well all who were troubled by evil spirits, for God was with him.
even Jesus of Nazareth, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and with power, who went about doing good, and healing all who were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him.
That God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Spirit and with power: who went about doing good, and healing all that were oppressed by the devil; for God was with him.
- 39 And we are witnesses of all the things which he did in the country of the Jews and in Jerusalem; whom they put to death, hanging him on a tree.
We are witnesses of all things which he did both in the country of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they also killed, hanging him on a tree.
And we are witnesses of all things which he did, both in the land of the Jews, and in Jerusalem; whom they slew and hanged on a tree.
- 40 On the third day God gave him back to life, and let him be seen,
God raised him up the third day, and gave him to be revealed,
Him God raised the third day, and showed him openly;

41 Not by all the people, but by witnesses marked out before by God, even by us, who took food and drink with him after he came back from the dead.
not to all the people, but to witnesses who were chosen before by God, to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

Not to all the people, but to witnesses chosen before by God, even to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead.

42 And he gave us orders to give news of this to the people, and to give public witness that this is he whom God has made judge of the living and the dead.
He charged us to preach to the people, and to testify that this is he who is appointed by God as the Judge of the living and the dead.

And he commanded us to preach to the people, and to testify that it is he who was ordained by God to be the Judge of the living and the dead.

43 To him all the prophets give witness, that through his name everyone who has faith in him will have forgiveness of sins.
All the prophets testify about him, that through his name everyone who believes in him will receive remission of sins."
To him give all the prophets testimony, that through his name whoever believeth in him shall receive remission of sins.

44 While Peter was saying these words, the Holy Spirit came on all those who were hearing the word.
While Peter was still speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all those who heard the word.
While Peter was yet speaking these words, the Holy Spirit fell on all them who heard the word.

45 And the Jews of the faith, who had come with Peter, were full of wonder, because the Holy Spirit was given to the Gentiles,
They of the circumcision who believed were amazed, as many as came with Peter, because the gift of the Holy Spirit was also poured out on the Gentiles.
And they of the circumcision who believed, were astonished, as many as came with Peter, because that on the Gentiles also was poured out the gift of the Holy Spirit.

46 And they were talking in tongues, and giving glory to God. Then Peter said,
For they heard them speak with other languages, and magnify God. Then Peter answered,
For they heard them speak in languages and magnify God. Then answered Peter, 47 Will any man say that these may not have baptism who have been given the Holy Spirit as we have?

"Can any man forbid the water, that these who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we should not be baptized,?"
Can any man forbid water, that these should not be baptized, who have received the Holy Spirit as well as we?

48 And he gave orders for them to have baptism in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they kept him with them for some days.
He commanded them to be baptized in the name of Jesus Christ. Then they asked him to stay some days.
And he commanded them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they requested him to tarry certain days.

1 Now the Apostles and the brothers who were in Judaea had news that the word of God had been given to the Gentiles.
Now the apostles and the brothers who were in Judea heard that the Gentiles had also received the word of God.
And the apostles and brethren that were in Judea, heard that the Gentiles also had received the word of God.

2 And when Peter came to Jerusalem, those who kept the rule of circumcision had an argument with him,
When Peter had come up to Jerusalem, those who were of the circumcision contended with him,
And when Peter had come to Jerusalem, they that were of the circumcision contended with him,

3 Saying, You went to men without circumcision, and took food with them.
saying, "You went in to uncircumcised men, and ate with them!"
Saying, Thou wentest in to men uncircumcised, and didst eat with them.

4 But Peter gave them an account of it all in order, saying to them,
But Peter began, and explained to them in order, saying,
But Peter rehearsed the matter from the beginning, and expounded it by order to them, saying,

5 I was in the town of Joppa, at prayer: and falling into a deep sleep, I saw in a vision a vessel like a great cloth let down from heaven, and it came down to me:
"I was in the city of Joppa praying, and in a trance I saw a vision: a certain container descending, like it was a great sheet let down from heaven by four corners. It came as far as me,
I was in the city of Joppa praying: and in a trance I saw a vision, A certain vessel descend, as it had been a great sheet, let down from heaven by four corners; and it came even to me:

- 6 And looking on it with attention I saw in it all sorts of beasts and birds.
on which, when I had looked intently, I considered, and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, wild animals, creeping things, and birds of the sky.
Upon which when I had fastened my eyes, I considered, and saw four-footed beasts of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping animals, and fowls of the air.
- 7 And a voice came to my ears saying, Come, Peter; take them for food.
I also heard a voice saying to me, `Rise, Peter, kill and eat!`
And I heard a voice saying to me, Arise, Peter; slay and eat.
- 8 But I said, No, Lord; for nothing common or unclean has ever come into my mouth.
But I said, `Not so, Lord, for nothing unholy or unclean has ever entered into my mouth.`
But I said, Not so, Lord: for nothing common or unclean hath at any time entered into my mouth.
- 9 But the voice, coming a second time from heaven, said, What God has made clean, do not you make common.
But a voice answered me the second time out of heaven, `What God has cleansed, don't you make unholy.`
But the voice answered me again from heaven, What God hath cleansed, that call not thou common.
- 10 And this was done three times, and they were all taken up again into heaven.
This was done three times, and all were drawn up again into heaven.
And this was done three times: and all were drawn up again into heaven.
- 11 And at that minute, three men, sent from Caesarea, came to the house where we were.
Behold, immediately three men stood before the house where I was, having been sent from Caesarea to me.
And behold, immediately there were three men already come to the house where I was, sent from Cesarea to me.

- 12 And the Spirit gave me orders to go with them, doubting nothing. And these six brothers came with me; and we went into that man's house:
The Spirit told me to go with them, without discriminating. These six brothers also accompanied me, and we entered into the man`s house.
And the Spirit bade me go with them, nothing doubting. Moreover, these six brethren accompanied me, and we entered into the man's house:
- 13 And he gave us an account of how he had seen the angel in his house, saying, Send to Joppa, and get Simon, named Peter, to come to you;
He told us how he had seen the angel standing in his house, and saying to him, `Send to Joppa, and get Simon, whose surname is Peter,
And he showed us how he had seen an angel in his house, who stood and said to him, Send men to Joppa, and call for Simon, whose surname is Peter;
- 14 Who will say words to you through which you and all your family may get salvation.
who will speak to you words whereby you will be saved, you and all your house.`
Who shall tell thee words, by which thou and all thy house shall be saved.
- 15 And, while I was talking to them, the Holy Spirit came on them, as on us at first.
As I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, even as on us at the beginning.
And as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell on them, as on us at the beginning.
- 16 And the words of the Lord came into my mind, how he said, The baptism of John was with water, but you will have baptism with the Holy Spirit.
I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, `John indeed baptized with water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.`
Then I remembered the word of the Lord, how he said, John indeed baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Spirit.
- 17 If then God gave them, when they had faith in the Lord Jesus Christ, the same as he gave to us, who was I to go against God?
If then God gave to them the same gift as us, when we believed in the Lord Jesus Christ, who was I, that I could withstand God?"
Forasmuch then as God gave them the like gift as he did to us, who believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, what was I that I could withstand God?

- 18 And hearing these things they said nothing more, but gave glory to God, saying, Then to the Gentiles as to us has God given a change of heart, so that they may have life.
When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, "Then God has also granted to the Gentiles repentance to life!"
When they heard these things, they held their peace, and glorified God, saying, Then hath God also to the Gentiles granted repentance to life.
- 19 Then those who had gone away at the time of the trouble about Stephen, went as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus, preaching to the Jews only.
They therefore who were scattered abroad by the oppression that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phoenicia, Cyprus, and Antioch, speaking the word to no one except only to Jews.
Now they who were dispersed upon the persecution that arose about Stephen traveled as far as Phenice, and Cyprus, and Antioch, preaching the word to none but to the Jews only.
- 20 But some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, when they came to Antioch, gave the good news about the Lord Jesus to the Greeks.
But there were some of them, men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who, when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Greeks, preaching the Lord Jesus.
And some of them were men of Cyprus and Cyrene, who when they had come to Antioch, spoke to the Grecians, preaching the Lord Jesus.
- 21 And the power of the Lord was with them, and a great number had faith and were turned to the Lord.
The hand of the Lord was with them, and a great number believed and turned to the Lord.
And the hand of the Lord was with them: and a great number believed, and turned to the Lord.
- 22 And news of them came to the ears of the church at Jerusalem: and they sent Barnabas as far as Antioch:
The report concerning them came to the ears of the assembly which was in Jerusalem. They sent forth Barnabas to go as far as Antioch,
Then tidings of these things came to the ears of the church which was in Jerusalem: and they sent forth Barnabas, that he should go as far as Antioch.
- 23 Who, when he came and saw the grace of God, was glad; and he made clear to them the need of keeping near the Lord with all the strength of their hearts:
who, when he had come, and had seen the grace of God, was glad. He exhorted them all, that with purpose of heart they would remain near to the Lord.
Who, when he came, and had seen the grace of God, was glad, and exhorted them all that with purpose of heart they would cleave to the Lord.

- 24 For he was a good man and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith: and a great number were joined to the Lord.
For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and of faith, and many people were added to the Lord.
For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit, and of faith: and many people were added to the Lord.
- 25 Then he went on to Tarsus, looking for Saul;
Barnabas went forth to Tarsus to look for Saul.
Then Barnabas departed to Tarsus, to seek Saul:
- 26 And when he had come across him, he took him to Antioch. And they were with the church there for a year, teaching the people; and the disciples were first given the name of Christians in Antioch.
When he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. It happened, that even for a whole year they were gathered together with the assembly, and taught many people. The disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.
And when he had found him, he brought him to Antioch. And it came to pass, that a whole year they assembled themselves with the church, and taught many people. And the disciples were first called Christians in Antioch.
- 27 Now in those days prophets came from Jerusalem to Antioch.
Now in these days, prophets came down from Jerusalem to Antioch.
And in these days came prophets from Jerusalem to Antioch.
- 28 And one of them, named Agabus, said publicly through the Spirit that there would be serious need of food all over the earth: which came about in the time of Claudius.
One of them named Agabus stood up, and indicated by the Spirit that there should be a great famine over all the world, which also happened in the days of Claudius.
And there stood up one of them named Agabus, and signified by the Spirit that there should be great dearth throughout all the world: which came to pass in the days of Claudius Cesar.
- 29 And the disciples, everyone as he was able, made a decision to send help to the brothers living in Judaea:
The disciples, as anyone had plenty, each determined to send relief to the brothers who lived in Judea;
Then the disciples, every man according to his ability, determined to send relief to the brethren who dwelt in Judea.

30 Which they did, sending it to the rulers of the church by the hand of Barnabas and Saul.
which they also did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.
Which also they did, and sent it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1 Now, about that time, Herod the king made cruel attacks on the Christians.
Now about that time, Herod the king put forth his hands to oppress some of the assembly.
Now about that time, Herod the king stretched forth his hands to afflict certain of the church.

2 And he put James, the brother of John, to death with the sword.
He killed James, the brother of John, with the sword.
And he killed James the brother of John with the sword.

3 And when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he went on to take Peter in addition. This was at the time of the feast of unleavened bread.
When he saw that it pleased the Jews, he proceeded to seize Peter also. This was during the days of unleavened bread.
And because he saw it pleased the Jews, he proceeded further to take Peter also. Then were the days of unleavened bread.

4 And having taken him, he put him in prison, with four bands of armed men to keep watch over him; his purpose being to take him out to the people after the Passover.
When he had captured him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four squads of four soldiers each to guard him, intending to bring him out to the people after the Passover.
And when he had apprehended him, he put him in prison, and delivered him to four quaternions of soldiers to keep him; intending after the passover to bring him forth to the people.

5 So Peter was kept in prison: but the church made strong prayer to God for him.
Peter therefore was kept in the prison, but constant prayer was made by the assembly to God for him.
Peter therefore was kept in prison: but prayer was made without ceasing by the church to God for him.

6 And when Herod was about to take him out, the same night Peter was sleeping in chains between two armed men, and the watchmen were keeping watch before the door of the prison. The same night when Herod was about to bring him out, Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains. Guards in front of the door kept the prison.

And when Herod would have brought him forth, the same night Peter was sleeping between two soldiers, bound with two chains; and the keepers before the door kept the prison.

7 And a great light was seen shining in the room, and an angel of the Lord came to Peter and, touching him on his side so that he came out of his sleep, said, Get up quickly. And his chains came off his hands.

Behold, an angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell. He struck Peter on the side, and woke him up, saying, "Stand up quickly!" His chains fell off from his hands.

And behold, the angel of the Lord came upon him, and a light shined in the prison; and he smote Peter on the side, and raised him up, saying, Arise quickly. And his chains fell off from his hands.

8 Then the angel said, Put on your shoes and get ready to go. And he did so. And he said, Put your coat round you and come with me.

The angel said to him, "Put on your clothes, and tie on your sandals." He did so. He said to him, "Wrap your cloak around you, and follow me."

And the angel said to him, Gird thyself, and bind on thy sandals; and so he did. And he saith to him, Cast thy garment about thee, and follow me.

9 And he went out after him; and he was not certain if what was done by the angel was a fact, for it seemed to him that he was seeing a vision.

He went out, and followed him. He didn't know that what was done by the angel was real, but thought he saw a vision.

And he went out, and followed him, and knew not that it was true which was done by the angel; but thought he saw a vision.

10 And when they had gone past the first and second watchmen they came to the iron door into the town, which came open by itself: and they went out and down one street; and then the angel went away.

When they were past the first and the second guard, they came to the iron gate that leads into the city, which opened to them by itself. They went out, and passed on through one street, and immediately the angel departed from him.

When they were past the first and the second ward, they came to the iron gate that leadeth to the city; which opened to them of its own accord: and they went out, and passed on through one street; and forthwith the angel departed from him.

11 And when Peter came to his senses he said, Now, truly, I am certain that the Lord has sent his angel and taken me out of the hands of Herod, against all the hopes of the Jews.
When Peter had come to himself, he said, "Now I truly know that the Lord has sent forth his angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from everything the Jewish people were expecting."

And when Peter had come to himself, he said, Now I know with certainty, that the Lord hath sent his angel, and hath delivered me out of the hand of Herod, and from all the expectation of the people of the Jews.

12 And when he became clear about this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of John named Mark, where a number of them had come together for prayer.
Thinking about that, he came to the house of Mary, the mother of John whose surname was Mark, where many were gathered together and were praying.

And when he had considered the thing, he came to the house of Mary the mother of John whose surname was Mark; where many were assembled, praying.

13 And he gave a blow on the door, and a young girl came to it, named Rhoda.
When Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a maid named Rhoda came to answer.

And as Peter knocked at the door of the gate, a damsel came to hearken, named Rhoda.

14 And hearing the voice of Peter, in her joy she went running, without opening the door, to say that Peter was outside.
When she recognized Peter's voice, she didn't open the gate for joy, but ran in, and reported that Peter stood before the gate.
And when she knew Peter's voice, she opened not the gate for gladness, but ran in, and told that Peter stood before the gate 15 And they said to her, You are off your head. But still she said, with decision, that it was so. And they said, It is his angel.

They said to her, "You are crazy!" But she insisted that it was so. They said, "It is his angel."
And they said to her, Thou art insane. But she constantly affirmed that it was even so. Then they said, It is his angel.

16 But Peter went on giving blows on the door: and when it was open and they saw him, they were full of wonder.
But Peter continued knocking. When they had opened, they saw him, and were amazed.
But Peter continued knocking. And when they had opened the door, and saw him, they were astonished.

- 17 But he made a sign to them with his hand to be quiet, and gave them an account of how the Lord had taken him out of prison. And he said, Give the news to James and the brothers. And then he went away.
But he, beckoning to them with his hand to be silent, declared to them how the Lord had brought him forth out of the prison. He said, "Tell these things to James, and to the brothers." He departed, and went to another place.
But he beckoning to them with the hand to hold their peace, declared to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. And he said, Go, show these things to James, and to the brethren. And he departed, and went into another place.
- 18 Now when it was day, the armed men were greatly troubled about what had become of Peter.
Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers about what had become of Peter.
Now as soon as it was day, there was no small stir among the soldiers, what was become of Peter.
- 19 And Herod, when he sent for him, and he was not there, after questioning the watchmen, gave orders that they were to be put to death. Then he went down from Judaea to Caesarea for a time.
When Herod had sought for him, and didn't find him, he examined the guards, and commanded that they should be put to death. He went down from Judea to Caesarea, and stayed there.
And when Herod had sought for him, and found him not, he examined the keepers, and commanded that they should be put to death. And he went down from Judea to Cesarea, and there abode.
- 20 Now he was very angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon: and they came to him, all together, and having made friends with Blastus, the controller of the king's house, they made a request for peace, because their country was dependent on the king's country for its food.
Now Herod was highly displeased with those of Tyre and Sidon. They came with one accord to him, and, having made Blastus, the king's chamberlain, their friend, they asked for peace, because their country depended on the king's country for food.
And Herod was highly displeased with them of Tyre and Sidon. But they came with one accord to him, and having made Blastus the king's chamberlain their friend, desired peace, because their country was nourished by the king's country.
- 21 And on the day which had been fixed, Herod, dressed in his robes and seated in his place, made a public statement to them.
On an appointed day, Herod dressed himself in royal clothing, sat on the throne, and gave a speech to them.
And upon a set day, Herod arrayed in royal apparel, sat upon his throne, and made an oration to them.
- 22 And the people, with loud cries, said, It is the voice of a god, not of a man.
The people shouted, "The voice of a god, and not of a man!"
And the people gave a shout, saying, It is the voice of a god, and not of a man.

- 23 And straight away the angel of the Lord sent a disease on him, because he did not give the glory to God: and his flesh was wasted away by worms, and so he came to his end.
Immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he didn't give God the glory, and he was eaten by worms, and he died.
And immediately the angel of the Lord smote him, because he gave not God the glory: and he was eaten by worms, and died.
- 24 But the word of the Lord went on increasing.
But the word of God grew and multiplied.
But the word of God grew and multiplied.
- 25 And Barnabas and Saul came back from Jerusalem, when their work was ended, taking with them John named Mark.
Barnabas and Saul returned to Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their service, also taking with them John whose surname was Mark.
And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, when they had fulfilled their ministry, and took with them John, whose surname was Mark.
- 1 Now there were at Antioch, in the church there, prophets and teachers, Barnabas, and Symeon who was named Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, a relation of Herod the king, and Saul.
Now in the assembly that was at Antioch there were some prophets and teachers: Barnabas, Simeon who was called Niger, Lucius of Cyrene, Manaen the foster-brother of Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
Now there were in the church that was at Antioch certain prophets and teachers; as Barnabas, and Simeon that was called Niger, and Lucius of Cyrene, and Manaen, who had been brought up with Herod the tetrarch, and Saul.
- 2 And while they were doing the Lord's work, and going without food, the Holy Spirit said, Let Barnabas and Saul be given to me for the special work for which they have been marked out by me.
As they served the Lord and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, "Separate Barnabas and Saul for me, for the work to which I have called them."
As they ministered to the Lord, and fasted, the Holy Spirit said, Separate for me Barnabas and Saul, for the work to which I have called them.
- 3 Then, after prayer and going without food they put their hands on them, and sent them away.
Then, when they had fasted and prayed and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.
And when they had fasted and prayed, and laid their hands on them, they sent them away.

4 So, being sent out by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia; and from there they went by ship to Cyprus.

So, being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, they went down to Seleucia. From there they sailed to Cyprus.

So they being sent forth by the Holy Spirit, departed to Seleucia; and from thence they sailed to Cyprus.

5 And at Salamis they were preaching the word of God in the Synagogues of the Jews: and John was with them, helping them.

When they were at Salamis, they proclaimed the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. They had also John as their attendant.

And when they were at Salamis, they preached the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. And they had also John for their minister.

6 And when they had gone through all the island to Paphos, they came across a certain wonder-worker and false prophet, a Jew whose name was Bar-Jesus;

When they had gone through the island to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Bar-Jesus,

And when they had gone through the isle to Paphos, they found a certain sorcerer, a false prophet, a Jew, whose name was Barjesus:

7 Who was with the ruler, Sergius Paulus, an able man. This man sent for Barnabas and Saul, desiring to have knowledge of the word of God.

who was with the proconsul, Sergius Paulus, a man of understanding. The same called Barnabas and Saul to him, and sought to hear the word of God.

Who was with the deputy of the country, Sergius Paulus, a prudent man; who called for Barnabas and Saul, and desired to hear the word of God.

8 But Elymas, the wonder-worker (for that is the sense of his name), put himself against them, with the purpose of turning the ruler from the faith.

But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn aside the proconsul from the faith.

But Elymas the sorcerer (for so is his name by interpretation) withstood them, seeking to turn away the deputy from the faith.

9 But Saul, whose other name is Paul, being full of the Holy Spirit, looking hard at him, said,

But Saul, who is also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fastened his eyes on him,

Then Saul (who also is called Paul) filled with the Holy Spirit, set his eyes on him,

- 10 O you, who are full of false tricks and evil ways, a son of the Evil One, hating all righteousness, will you for ever be turning people from the right ways of the Lord?
and said, "Full of all deceit and all cunning, you son of the devil, you enemy of all righteousness, will you not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
And said, O full of all subtilty, and all mischief, thou child of the devil, thou enemy of all righteousness, wilt thou not cease to pervert the right ways of the Lord?
- 11 And now, see, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind and not able to see the sun for a time. And straight away a dark mist came down on him; and he went about looking for a guide.
Now, behold, the hand of the Lord is on you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a season!" Immediately there fell on him a mist and darkness. He went around seeking someone to lead him by the hand.
And now behold, the hand of the Lord is upon thee, and thou shalt be blind, not seeing the sun for a season. And immediately there fell on him a mist and a darkness; and he went about seeking some to lead him by the hand.
- 12 Then the ruler, when he saw what was done, had faith, being full of wonder at the teaching of the Lord.
Then the proconsul, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the teaching of the Lord.
Then the deputy, when he saw what was done, believed, being astonished at the doctrine of the Lord.
- 13 Then Paul and those who were with him went by ship from Paphos and came to Perga in Pamphylia: and there John went away from them and came back to Jerusalem.
Now Paul and his company set sail from Paphos, and came to Perga in Pamphylia. John departed from them and returned to Jerusalem.
Now when Paul and his company loosed from Paphos, they came to Perga in Pamphylia. And John departing from them, returned to Jerusalem.
- 14 But they, going through from Perga, came to Antioch in Pisidia; and they went into the Synagogue on the Sabbath and were seated.
But they, passing through from Perga, came to Antioch of Pisidia. They went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, and sat down.
But when they departed from Perga, they came to Antioch in Pisidia, and went into the synagogue on the sabbath, and sat down.

- 15 And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the Synagogue sent to them, saying, Brothers, if you have a word of comfort for the people, say on.
After the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, "Brothers, if you have any word of exhortation for the people, speak."
And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the rulers of the synagogue sent to them, saying, Men, brethren, if ye have any word of exhortation for the people, speak.
- 16 And Paul, getting up and making a sign with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and you who have the fear of God, give ear.
Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand said, "Men of Israel, and you who fear God, listen.
Then Paul stood up, and beckoning with his hand, said, Men of Israel, and ye that fear God, give audience.
- 17 The God of this people Israel made selection of our fathers, lifting the people up from their low condition when they were living in the land of Egypt, and with a strong arm took them out of it.
The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they stayed as aliens in the land of Egypt, and with an uplifted arm, he led them forth out of it.
The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and exalted the people when they dwelt as strangers in the land of Egypt, and with a high arm he brought them out of it.
- 18 And for about forty years he put up with their ways in the waste land.
For about the time of forty years he put up with them in the wilderness.
And about the time of forty years he suffered their manners in the wilderness.
- 19 And having put to destruction seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them the land for their heritage for about four hundred and fifty years.
When he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he gave them their land for an inheritance, for about four hundred and fifty years.
And when he had destroyed seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land to them by lot.
- 20 And after these things he gave them judges, till the time of Samuel the prophet.
After these things he gave them judges until Samuel, the prophet.
And after that he gave to them judges, about the space of four hundred and fifty years, until Samuel the prophet.

- 21 Then at their request for a king, God gave them Saul, the son of Kish, a man of the family of Benjamin, who was their king for forty years.
Afterward they asked for a king, and God gave to them Saul, the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, for forty years.
And afterward they desired a king: and God gave to them Saul the son of Kish, a man of the tribe of Benjamin, by the space of forty years.
- 22 And having put him on one side, he made David their king, to whom he gave witness, saying, I have taken David, the son of Jesse, a man dear to my heart, who will do all my pleasure.
When he had removed him, he raised up David to be their king, to whom he also testified, `I have found David, the son of Jesse, a man after my heart, who will do all my will.`
And when he had removed him, he raised up to them David to be their king: to whom also he gave testimony, and said, I have found David the son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who shall fulfill all my will.
- 23 From this man's seed has God given to Israel a Saviour, even Jesus, as he gave his word;
From this man`s seed, God has brought salvation to Israel according to his promise,
Of this man's offspring hath God, according to his promise, raised up to Israel a Savior, Jesus:
- 24 For whose coming John made ready the way by preaching to all the people of Israel the baptism which goes with a change of heart.
before his coming, when John had first preached the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.
John having first preached, before his coming, the baptism of repentance to all the people of Israel.
- 25 And when John was completing his work, he said, What do I seem to you to be? I am not he; but one is coming after me, whose shoes I am not good enough to undo.
As John was fulfilling his course, he said, `What do you suppose that I am? I am not he. But behold, there comes one after me the sandals of whose feet I am not worthy to untie.`
And as John fulfilled his course, he said, Whom think ye that I am? I am not he. But behold, there cometh one after me, whose shoes of his feet I am not worthy to loose.
- 26 My brothers, children of the family of Abraham, and those among you who have the fear of God, to us the word of this salvation is sent.
Brothers, children of the stock of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, the word of this salvation is sent forth to you.
Men, brethren, children of the stock of Abraham, and whoever among you feareth God, to you is the word of this salvation sent.

- 27 For the men of Jerusalem and their rulers, having no knowledge of him, or of the sayings of the prophets which come to their ears every Sabbath day, gave effect to them by judging him.
For those who dwell in Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they didn't know him, nor the voices of the prophets which are read every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning him.
For they that dwell at Jerusalem, and their rulers, because they knew him not, nor yet the words of the prophets which are read every sabbath, they have fulfilled them in condemning him.
- 28 And though no cause of death was seen in him, they made a request to Pilate that he might be put to death.
Though they found no cause of death, they still asked Pilate to have him killed.
And though they found no cause of death in him, yet they desired Pilate that he should be put to death.
- 29 And when they had done all the things said in the Writings about him, they took him down from the tree, and put him in the place of the dead.
When they had fulfilled all things that were written about him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a tomb.
And when they had fulfilled all that was written concerning him, they took him down from the tree, and laid him in a sepulcher.
- 30 But God gave him back from the dead:
But God raised him from the dead,
But God raised him from the dead:
- 31 And for a number of days he was seen by those who came with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are now his witnesses before the people.
and he was seen for many days by those who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.
And he was seen many days by them who came up with him from Galilee to Jerusalem, who are his witnesses to the people.
- 32 And we are giving you the good news of the undertaking made to the fathers,
We bring you good news of the promise made to the fathers,
And we declare to you the glad tidings, that the promise which was made to the fathers,

33 Which God has now put into effect for our children, by sending Jesus; as it says in the second Psalm, You are my Son; this day I have given you being.
that God has fulfilled the same to us, their children, in that he raised up Jesus. As it is also written in the second psalm, `You are my Son. Today I have become your father.`

God hath fulfilled the same to us their children, in that he hath raised up Jesus again; as it is also written in the second psalm, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee.

34 And about his coming back from the dead, never again to go to destruction, he has said these words, I will give you the holy and certain mercies of David.
"Concerning that he raised him up from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he has spoken thus: `I will give you the holy and sure blessings of David.`

And as concerning that he raised him from the dead, now no more to return to corruption, he said on this wise, I will give you the sure mercies of David.

35 Because he says in another Psalm, You will not let your Holy One see destruction.
Therefore he says also in another psalm, `You will not allow your Holy One to see decay.`

Wherefore he saith also in another psalm, Thou wilt not suffer thy Holy One to see corruption.

36 Now David, having done God's work for his generation, went to sleep, and was put with his fathers, and his body came to destruction:
For David, after he had in his own generation served the counsel of God, fell asleep, and was laid with his fathers, and saw decay.

For David, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, fell asleep, and was laid to his fathers, and saw corruption:

37 But he, who was lifted up by God, did not see destruction.
But he whom God raised up saw no decay.
But he whom God raised again, saw no corruption.

38 And so, let it be clear to you, my brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is offered to you:
Be it known to you therefore, brothers, that through this man is proclaimed to you remission of sins,
Be it known to you therefore, men, brethren, that through this man is preached to you the forgiveness of sins;

- 39 And through him everyone who has faith is made free from all those things, from which the law of Moses was not able to make you free.
and by him everyone who believes is justified from all things, from which you could not be justified by the law of Moses.
And by him all that believe are justified from all things, from which ye could not be justified by the law of Moses.
- 40 So take care that these words of the prophets do not come true for you;
Beware therefore, lest that come on you which is spoken in the prophets:
Beware therefore, lest that come upon you which is spoken in the prophets;
- 41 See, you doubters, have wonder and come to your end; for I will do a thing in your days to which you will not give belief, even if it is made clear to you.
`Behold, you scoffers, and wonder, and perish; For I work a work in your days, A work which you will in no way believe, if one declares it to you.`"
Behold, ye despisers, and wonder, and perish: for I work a work in your days, a work which ye will in no wise believe, though a man declare it to you.
- 42 And when they went out, they made a request that these words might be said to them again on the Sabbath after.
So when the Jews went out of the synagogue, the Gentiles begged that these words might be preached to them the next Sabbath.
And when the Jews had gone out of the synagogue, the Gentiles besought that these words might be preached to them the next sabbath.
- 43 Now when the meeting was ended, a number of the Jews and of the God-fearing Gentiles who had become Jews, went after Paul and Barnabas: who put before them how important it was to keep on in the grace of God.
Now when the synagogue broke up, many of the Jews and of the devout proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who, speaking to them, urged them to continue in the grace of God.
Now when the congregation was broken up, many of the Jews and religious proselytes followed Paul and Barnabas; who speaking to them, persuaded them to continue in the grace of God.
- 44 And on the Sabbath after, almost all the town came together to give hearing to the word of God.
The next Sabbath almost the whole city was gathered together to hear the word of God.
And the next sabbath came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God.

- 45 But when the Jews saw such a great number of people, they were full of envy and said evil words against Paul's preaching.
But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with jealousy, and contradicted the things which were spoken by Paul, and blasphemed.
But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spoke against those things which were uttered by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
- 46 Then Paul and Barnabas without fear said, It was necessary for the word of God to be given to you first; but because you will have nothing to do with it, and have no desire for eternal life, it will now be offered to the Gentiles.
Paul and Barnabas spoke out boldly, and said, "It was necessary that God's word should be spoken to you first. Since indeed you thrust it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of eternal life, behold, we turn to the Gentiles.
Then Paul and Barnabas became bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first be spoken to you: but seeing ye reject it, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.
- 47 For so the Lord has given us orders, saying, I have given you for a light to the Gentiles so that you may be for salvation to the ends of the earth.
For so has the Lord commanded us, saying, "I have set you as a light of the Gentiles, That you should be for salvation to the uttermost parts of the earth."
For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldst be for salvation to the ends of the earth.
- 48 And the Gentiles, hearing this, were glad and gave glory to the word of God: and those marked out by God for eternal life had faith.
As the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of God. As many as were appointed to eternal life believed.
And when the Gentiles heard this, they were glad, and glorified the word of the Lord: and as many as were ordained to eternal life, believed.
- 49 And the word of the Lord went through all the country.
The Lord's word was spread abroad throughout all the region.
And the word of the Lord was published throughout all the region.
- 50 But the Jews, working up the feelings of the God-fearing women of high position and of the chief men of the town, got an attack started against Paul and Barnabas, driving them out of those parts.
But the Jews urged on the devout women of honorable estate, and the chief men of the city, and stirred up a persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and threw them out of their borders.
But the Jews stirred up the devout and honorable women, and the chief men of the city, and raised persecution against Paul and Barnabas, and expelled them from their borders.

- 51 But they, shaking off the dust of that place from their feet, came to Iconium.
But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.
But they shook off the dust of their feet against them, and came to Iconium.
- 52 And the disciples were full of joy and of the Holy Spirit.
The disciples were filled with joy with the Holy Spirit.
And the disciples were filled with joy and with the Holy Spirit.
- 1 Now in Iconium they went together to the Synagogue of the Jews and gave such teaching that a great number of Jews and Greeks had faith.
It happened in Iconium that they entered together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke that a great multitude both of Jews and of Greeks believed.
And it came to pass in Iconium, that they went both together into the synagogue of the Jews, and so spoke, that a great multitude both of the Jews, and also of the Greeks, believed.
- 2 But those Jews who had not the faith, made the minds of the Gentiles bitter against the brothers.
But the disobedient Jews stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers.
But the unbelieving Jews stirred up the Gentiles, and made their minds evil-affected against the brethren.
- 3 So they kept there for a long time, taking heart in the Lord, who gave witness to the word of his grace by causing signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
Therefore they stayed there a long time, speaking boldly in the Lord, who testified to the word of his grace, granting signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
A long time therefore they abode speaking boldly in the Lord, who gave testimony to the word of his grace, and granted signs and wonders to be done by their hands.
- 4 But there was a division among the people of the town; some were on the side of the Jews and some on the side of the Apostles.
But the multitude of the city was divided. Part sided with the Jews, and part with the apostles.
But the multitude of the city was divided: and part held with the Jews, and part with the apostles.

5 And when a violent attempt was made by the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, to make an attack on them and have them stoned,
When some of both the Gentiles and the Jews, with their rulers, made a violent attempt to insult them and to stone them,
And when there was an assault made both of the Gentiles, and also of the Jews, with their rulers, to use them despitefully, and to stone them,

6 Having got news of it, they went in flight to the towns of Lycaonia, Lystra, and Derbe, and the country round about:
they became aware of it, and fled to the cities of Lycaonia, Lystra, Derbe, and the surrounding region.
Being apprised of it, they fled to Lystra and Derbe, cities of Lycaonia, and to the region in that vicinity.

7 And went on preaching the good news there.
There they preached the gospel.
And there they preached the gospel.

8 And at Lystra there was a certain man, who from birth had been without the use of his feet, never having had the power of walking.
At Lystra a certain man sat, impotent in his feet, a cripple from his mother's womb, who never had walked.
And there sat a certain man at Lystra, impotent in his feet, being a cripple from his mother's womb, who had never walked.

9 This man was giving ear to the preaching of Paul, who, looking at him, and seeing that he had faith to be made well,
He was listening to Paul speaking, who, fastening eyes on him, and seeing that he had faith to be made whole,
The same heard Paul speak: who steadfastly beholding him, and perceiving that he had faith to be healed,

10 Said in a loud voice, Get up on your feet. And, jumping up, he went walking about.
said with a loud voice, "Stand upright on your feet!" He leaped up and walked.
Said with a loud voice, Stand upright on thy feet. And he leaped and walked.

11 And when the people saw what Paul had done, they said in a loud voice, in the language of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the form of men.
When the multitude saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voice, saying in the language of Lycaonia, "The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men!"
And when the people saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices, saying in the speech of Lycaonia, The gods have come down to us in the likeness of men.

- 12 And they gave the name of Jupiter to Barnabas, and to Paul that of Mercury, because he was the chief talker.
They called Barnabas "Jupiter," and Paul "Mercury," because he was the chief speaker.
And they called Barnabas, Jupiter, and Paul, Mercurius, because he was the chief speaker.
- 13 And the priest of the image of Jupiter, which was before the town, took oxen and flowers to the doors of the town, and was about to make an offering with the people.
The priest of Jupiter, whose temple was in front of their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have made a sacrifice with the multitudes.
Then the priest of Jupiter, who was before their city, brought oxen and garlands to the gates, and would have done sacrifice with the people.
- 14 But when this came to the ears of the Apostles, Paul and Barnabas, they went running out among the people, parting their clothing, and crying out,
But when the apostles, Barnabas and Paul, heard of it, they tore their clothes, and sprang into the multitude, crying out,
Which, when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard of, they rent their clothes, and ran in among the people, crying out,
- 15 Good people, why are you doing these things? We are men with the same feelings as you, and we give you the good news so that you may be turned away from these foolish things to the living God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all things in them:
"Men, why are you doing these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and bring you good news, that you should turn from these vain things to the living God, who made the sky and the earth and the sea, and all that is in them;
And saying, Sirs, why do ye these things? We also are men of like passions with you, and preach to you, that ye should turn from these vanities to the living God, who made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all things that are in them.
- 16 Who in the past let all nations go in the ways which seemed good to them.
who in the generations gone by allowed all the nations to walk in their own ways.
Who in times past suffered all nations to walk in their own ways.
- 17 But he was not without witness, because he did good, and gave you rain from heaven and times of fruit, making your hearts full of food and joy.
Yet he didn't leave himself without witness, in that he did good and gave you rains from the sky and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness."
Nevertheless he left not himself without witness, in that he did good, and gave us rain from heaven, and fruitful seasons, filling our hearts with food and gladness.

- 18 And even with these words, it was hard for them to keep the people from making an offering to them.
Even saying these things, they hardly stopped the multitudes from making a sacrifice to them.
And with these sayings they scarce restrained the people from doing sacrifice to them.
- 19 But some Jews came to that place from Antioch and Iconium, and got control over the people; and after stoning Paul, they had him pulled out of the town, taking him for dead.
But some Jews from Antioch and Iconium came there, and having persuaded the multitudes, they stoned Paul, and dragged him out of the city, supposing that he was dead.
And there came thither certain Jews from Antioch, and Iconium, who persuaded the people, and having stoned Paul, drew him out of the city, supposing him to be dead.
- 20 But when the disciples came round him, he got up and went into the town: and the day after he went away with Barnabas to Derbe.
But as the disciples stood around him, he rose up, and entered into the city. On the next day he went out with Barnabas to Derbe.
But as the disciples stood around him, he rose, and came into the city: and the next day he departed with Barnabas to Derbe.
- 21 And having made a number of disciples through the preaching of the good news in that town, they went back to Lystra and Iconium and Antioch,
When they had preached the gospel to that city, and had made many disciples, they returned to Lystra, Iconium, and Antioch,
And when they had preached the gospel to that city, and had taught many, they returned again to Lystra, and to Iconium, and to Antioch,
- 22 Making strong the souls of the disciples, saying to them that they were to keep the faith, and that we have to go through troubles of all sorts to come into the kingdom of God.
confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that through many afflictions we must enter into the kingdom of God.
Confirming the souls of the disciples, exhorting them to continue in the faith, and that we must through much tribulation enter into the kingdom of God.
- 23 And when they had made selection of some to be rulers in every church, and had given themselves to prayer and kept themselves from food, they put them into the care of the Lord in whom they had faith.
When they had appointed elders for them in every assembly, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they had believed.
And when they had ordained for them elders in every church, and had prayed with fasting, they commended them to the Lord, on whom they believed.

- 24 And they went through Pisidia and came to Pamphylia.
They passed through Pisidia, and came to Pamphylia.
And after they had passed throughout Pisidia, they came to Pamphylia.
- 25 And, after preaching the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia;
When they had spoken the word in Perga, they went down to Attalia.
And when they had preached the word in Perga, they went down into Attalia:
- 26 And from there they went by ship to Antioch, where they had been handed over to the grace of God for the work which they had not done.
From there they sailed to Antioch, from where they had been committed to the grace of God for the work which they had fulfilled.
And thence sailed to Antioch, from whence they had been commended to the grace of God, for the work which they fulfilled.
- 27 And when they came there, and had got the church together, they gave them an account of all the things which God had done through them, and how he had made open a door of faith to the Gentiles.
When they had arrived, and had gathered the assembly together, they reported all the things that God had done with them, and that he had opened a door of faith to the Gentiles.
And when they had come, and had assembled the church, they rehearsed all that God had done with them, and that he had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles.
- 28 And they were with the disciples there for a long time.
They stayed there with the disciples for a long time.
And there they abode a long time with the disciples.
- 1 Now certain men came down from Judaea, teaching the brothers and saying that without circumcision, after the rule of Moses, there is no salvation.
Some men came down from Judea and taught the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised after the custom of Moses, you can't be saved."
And certain men who came down from Judea, taught the brethren, and said, Except ye be circumcised after the manner of Moses, ye cannot be saved.

- 2 And after Paul and Barnabas had had no little argument and discussion with them, the brothers made a decision to send Paul and Barnabas and certain others of them to the Apostles and the rulers of the church at Jerusalem about this question.
Therefore when Paul and Barnabas had no small discord and discussion with them, they appointed Paul and Barnabas, and some others of them, to go up to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.
When therefore Paul and Barnabas had no small dissension and disputation with them, they determined that Paul and Barnabas, and certain others of them, should go to Jerusalem to the apostles and elders about this question.
- 3 So they, being sent on their way by the church, went through Phoenicia and Samaria, giving news of the salvation of the Gentiles, to the great joy of all the brothers.
They, being sent on their way by the assembly, passed through both Phoenicia and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles. They caused great joy to all the brothers.
And being brought on their way by the church, they passed through Phenice, and Samaria, declaring the conversion of the Gentiles: and they caused great joy to all the brethren.
- 4 And when they came to Jerusalem, they had a meeting with the church and the Apostles and the rulers, and they gave an account of all the things which God had done through them.
When they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the assembly and the apostles and the elders, and they reported all things that God had done with them.
And when they had come to Jerusalem, they were received by the church, and by the apostles and elders, and they declared all things that God had done with them.
- 5 But some of the Pharisees, who were of the faith, got up and said, It is necessary for these to have circumcision and to keep the law of Moses.
But some of the sect of the Pharisees who believed rose up, saying, "It is necessary to circumcise them, and to charge them to keep the law of Moses."
But there rose certain of the sect of the Pharisees, who believed, saying, That it was needful to circumcise them, and to command them to keep the law of Moses.
- 6 And the Apostles and the rulers of the church came together and gave thought to the question.
The apostles and the elders were gathered together to see about this matter.
And the apostles and elders came together to consider of this matter.

- 7 And when there had been much discussion, Peter got up and said to them, My brothers, you have knowledge that some time back it was God's pleasure that by my mouth the good news might be given to the Gentiles so that they might have faith.
When there had been much discussion, Peter rose up and said to them, "Brothers, you know that a good while ago God made choice among you, that by my mouth the Gentiles should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
And when there had been much disputing, Peter rose and said to them, Men, brethren, ye know that a good while ago, God made choice among us, that the Gentiles, by my mouth should hear the word of the gospel, and believe.
- 8 And God, the searcher of hearts, was a witness to them, giving them the Holy Spirit even as he did to us;
God, who knows the heart, testified about them, giving them the Holy Spirit, just like he did to us.
And God, who knoweth the hearts, bore them witness, giving to them the Holy Spirit, even as he did to us:
- 9 Making no division between them and us, but making clean their hearts by faith.
He made no distinction between us and them, cleansing their hearts by faith.
And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.
- 10 Why then are you testing God, by putting on the neck of the disciples a yoke so hard that not even our fathers or we were strong enough for it?
Now therefore why do you tempt God, that you should put a yoke on the neck of the disciples which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
- 11 But we have faith that we will get salvation through the grace of the Lord Jesus in the same way as they.
But we believe that we are saved through the grace of the Lord Jesus, just as they are."
But we believe, that through the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, we shall be saved even as they.
- 12 And all the people were quiet while Barnabas and Paul gave an account of the signs and wonders which God had done among the Gentiles by them.
All the multitude kept silence, and they listened to Barnabas and Paul reporting what signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.
Then all the multitude kept silence, and gave audience to Barnabas and Paul, declaring what miracles and wonders God had wrought by them among the Gentiles.

- 13 And when they had come to an end, James, answering, said, My brothers, give ear to me:
After they were silent, James answered, "Brothers, listen to me.
And after they held their peace, James answered, saying, Men, brethren, hearken to me.
- 14 Symeon has given an account of how God was first pleased to take from among the Gentiles a people for himself.
Simeon has reported how God first visited the Gentiles, to take out of them a people for his name.
Simeon hath declared how God at the first visited the Gentiles to take from among them a people for his name.
- 15 And this is in agreement with the words of the prophets, as it is said,
This agrees with the words of the prophets. As it is written,
And to this agree the words of the prophets; as it is written,
- 16 After these things I will come back, and will put up the tent of David which has been broken down, building up again its broken parts and making it complete:
`After these things I will return. I will again build the tent of David, which has fallen. I will again build its ruins. I will set it up:
After this I will return, and will build again the tabernacle of David which is fallen down; and I will build again the ruins of it; and I will set it up:
- 17 So that the rest of men may make search for the Lord, and all the Gentiles on whom my name is named,
That the rest of men may seek after the Lord; All the Gentiles who are called by my name, Says the Lord, who does all these things.
That the residue of men may seek after the Lord, and all the Gentiles, upon whom my name is called, saith the Lord, who doeth all these things.
- 18 Says the Lord, who has made these things clear from the earliest times.
All his works are known to God from eternity.`
Known to God are all his works from the beginning of the world.
- 19 For this reason my decision is, that we do not put trouble in the way of those who from among the Gentiles are turned to God;
"Therefore my judgment is that we don't trouble those from among the Gentiles who turn to God,
Wherefore my sentence is, that we trouble not them, who from among the Gentiles are turned to God:

- 20 But that we give them orders to keep themselves from things offered to false gods, and from the evil desires of the body, and from the flesh of animals put to death in ways against the law, and from blood.
but that we write to them that they abstain from the pollution of idols, from sexual immorality, from what is strangled, and from blood.
But that we write to them that they abstain from pollutions of idols, and from lewdness, and from things strangled, and from blood.
- 21 For Moses, from times long past, has his preachers in every town, reading his law in the Synagogues every Sabbath.
For Moses from generations of old has in every city those who preach him, being read in the synagogues every Sabbath."
For Moses of old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogues every sabbath.
- 22 Then it seemed good to the Apostles and the rulers and all the church, to send men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas; Judas, named Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers:
Then it seemed good to the apostles and the elders, with the whole assembly, to choose men out of their company, and send them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas called Barsabbas, and Silas, chief men among the brothers.
Then it pleased the apostles and elders, with the whole church, to send chosen men of their own company to Antioch, with Paul and Barnabas; namely, Judas surnamed Barsabas, and Silas, chief men among the brethren:
- 23 And they sent a letter by them, saying, The Apostles and the older brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia, may joy be with you:
They wrote these things by their hand: "The apostles, the elders, and the brothers, to the brothers who are of the Gentiles in Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: greetings.
And they wrote letters by them after this manner; The apostles, and elders, and brethren, send greeting to the brethren who are of the Gentiles in Antioch, and Syria, and Cilicia.
- 24 Because we have knowledge that some who went from us have been troubling you with their words, putting your souls in doubt; to whom we gave no such order;
Because we have heard that some who went out from us have troubled you with words, unsettling your souls, saying, `You must be circumcised and keep the law,` to whom we gave no commandment;
Forasmuch as we have heard, that certain who went out from us, have troubled you with words, subverting your souls, saying, Ye must be circumcised, and keep the law; to whom we gave no such commandment:
- 25 It seemed good to us, having come to an agreement together, to send these men to you, with our well loved Barnabas and Paul,
it seemed good to us, having come to one accord, to choose out men and send them to you with our beloved Barnabas and Paul,
It seemed good to us, being assembled with one accord, to send chosen men to you, with our beloved Barnabas and Paul:

- 26 Men who have given up their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
men who have risked their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Men that have hazarded their lives for the name of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 27 And so we have sent Judas and Silas, who will say the same things to you yourselves, by word of mouth.
We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who themselves will also tell you the same things by word of mouth.
We have sent therefore Judas and Silas, who will also tell you the same things by mouth.
- 28 For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us, to put on you nothing more than these necessary things;
For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay no greater burden on you than these necessary things:
For it seemed good to the Holy Spirit, and to us, to lay upon you no greater burden than these necessary things;
- 29 To keep from things offered to false gods, and from blood, and from things put to death in ways which are against the law, and from the evil desires of the body; if you keep yourselves from these, you will do well. May you be happy. that you abstain from things sacrificed to idols, from blood, from things strangled, and from sexual immorality, from which if you keep yourselves, it will be well with you. Farewell."
That ye abstain from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from things strangled, and from lewdness: from which if ye keep yourselves, ye will do well. Fare ye well.
- 30 So they, being sent away, came down to Antioch, and having got the people together, they gave them the letter.
So, when they were sent off, they came to Antioch. Having gathered the multitude together, they delivered the letter.
So when they were dismissed, they came to Antioch: and when they had convened the multitude, they delivered the epistle.
- 31 And after reading it, they were glad of its comfort.
When they had read it, they rejoiced for the consolation.
Which when they had read, they rejoiced for the consolation.

- 32 And Judas and Silas, who themselves were prophets, gave teaching to the brothers and made them strong in the faith.
Judas and Silas, also being prophets themselves, encouraged the brothers with many words, and strengthened them.
And Judas and Silas, being prophets also themselves, exhorted the brethren with many words, and confirmed them.
- 33 And when they had been there for some time, they were sent back in peace by the brothers to those who had sent them.
After they had spent some time there, they were sent back with greetings from the brothers to the apostles.
And after they had tarried there a time, they were dismissed in peace from the brethren to the apostles.
- 35 But Paul and Barnabas kept on in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of God, with a number of others.
But Paul and Barnabas stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.
Paul also and Barnabas continued in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word of the Lord, with many others also.
- 36 And after some days, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go back and see the brothers in every town where we have given the word of God, and see how they are.
After some days Paul said to Barnabas, "Let`s return now and visit our brothers in every city in which we proclaimed the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing."
And some days after, Paul said to Barnabas, Let us go again and visit our brethren, in every city where we have preached the word of the Lord, and see how they do.
- 37 And Barnabas had a desire to take with them John, named Mark.
Barnabas planned to take John with them also, who was called Mark.
And Barnabas determined to take with them John, whose surname was Mark.
- 38 But Paul was of the opinion that it was not right to take with them one who had gone away from them in Pamphylia, and had not gone on with the work.
But Paul didn`t think that it was a good idea to take with them someone who withdrew from them from Pamphylia, and didn`t go with them to do the work.
But Paul thought not good to take him with them, who departed from them from Pamphylia, and went not with them to the work.

39 And there was a sharp argument between them, so that they were parted from one another, and Barnabas took Mark with him and went by ship to Cyprus;
Then there arose a sharp contention, so that they separated from each other. Barnabas took Mark with him, and sailed away to Cyprus,

And the contention was so sharp between them, that they departed, separating one from the other: and so Barnabas took Mark, and sailed to Cyprus.

40 But Paul took Silas and went away with the blessing of the brothers.
but Paul chose Silas, and went out, being commended by the brothers to the grace of God.

And Paul chose Silas, and departed, being commended by the brethren to the grace of God.

41 And he went through Syria and Cilicia, making the churches stronger in the faith.
He went through Syria and Cilicia, strengthening the assemblies.

And he went through Syria and Cilicia, confirming the churches.

1 And he came to Derbe and Lystra: and there was a certain disciple there named Timothy, whose mother was one of the Jews of the faith, but his father was a Greek;
He came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a Jewess who believed; but his father was a Greek.

Then he came to Derbe and Lystra: and behold, a certain disciple was there, named Timothy, the son of a certain woman who was a Jewess, and believed, but his father was a Greek.

2 Of whom the brothers at Lystra and Iconium had a high opinion.
The brothers who were at Lystra and Iconium gave a good testimony about him.

Who was well reported of by the brethren that were at Lystra and Iconium.

3 Paul had a desire for him to go with him, and he gave him circumcision because of the Jews who were in those parts: for they all had knowledge that his father was a Greek.
Paul wanted to have him go forth with him, and he took and circumcised him because of the Jews who were in those parts; for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

Him would Paul have to go forth with him; and took and circumcised him, because of the Jews who were in those quarters: for they all knew that his father was a Greek.

- 4 And on their way through the towns, they gave them the rules which had been made by the Apostles and the rulers of the church at Jerusalem, so that they might keep them.
As they went on their way through the cities, they delivered the decrees to them to keep which had been ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.
And as they went through the cities, they delivered to them the decrees to keep that were ordained by the apostles and elders who were at Jerusalem.
- 5 So the churches were made strong in the faith and were increased in number every day.
So the assemblies were strengthened in the faith, and increased in number daily.
And so were the churches established in the faith, and increased in number daily.
- 6 And after they had gone through the land of Phrygia and Galatia, the Holy Spirit did not let them take the word into Asia;
When they had gone through the region of Phrygia and Galatia, they were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to speak the word in Asia.
Now when they had gone throughout Phrygia, and the region of Galatia, and were forbidden by the Holy Spirit to preach the word in Asia;
- 7 And having come to Mysia, they made an attempt to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit of Jesus did not let them;
When they had come opposite Mysia, they tried to go into Bithynia, but the Spirit didn't allow them.
After they had come to Mysia, they essayed to go into Bithynia: but the Spirit suffered them not.
- 8 And going past Mysia, they came down to Troas.
Passing by Mysia, they came down to Troas.
And they, passing by Mysia, came down to Troas.
- 9 And Paul had a vision in the night; a man of Macedonia came, requesting him, and saying, Come over into Macedonia and give us help.
A vision appeared to Paul in the night. There was a man of Macedonia standing, begging him, and saying, "Come over into Macedonia and help us."
And a vision appeared to Paul in the night: There stood a man of Macedonia, and prayed him, saying, Come over into Macedonia, and help us.

- 10 And when he had seen the vision, straight away we made the decision to go into Macedonia, for it seemed certain to us that God had sent us to give the good news to them.
When he had seen the vision, immediately we sought to go forth into Macedonia, concluding that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.
And after he had seen the vision, immediately we endeavored to go into Macedonia, assuredly gathering, that the Lord had called us to preach the gospel to them.
- 11 So, from Troas we went straight by ship to Samothrace and the day after to Neapolis;
Setting sail therefore from Troas, we made a straight course to Samothrace, and the day following to Neapolis;
Therefore loosing from Troas, we came with a straight course to Samothracia, and the next day to Neapolis;
- 12 And from there to Philippi, which is the most important town of Macedonia and a Roman colony: and we were there for some days.
and from there to Philippi, which is a city of Macedonia, the first of the district, a Roman colony. We were staying some days in this city.
And from thence to Philippi, which is the chief city of that part of Macedonia, and a colony: and we were in that city abiding certain days.
- 13 And on the Sabbath we went outside the town, by the river, where we had an idea that there would be a place of prayer; and, being seated, we had talk with the women who had come together.
On the Sabbath day we went forth outside of the city by a riverside, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down, and spoke to the women who had come together.
And on the sabbath we went out of the city by a river side, where prayer was wont to be made; and we sat down, and spoke to the women who resorted thither.
- 14 And a certain woman named Lydia, a trader in purple cloth of the town of Thyatira, and a God-fearing woman, gave ear to us: whose heart the Lord made open to give attention to the things which Paul was saying.
A certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, one who worshipped God, heard us; whose heart the Lord opened to listen to the things which were spoken by Paul.
And a certain woman named Lydia, a seller of purple, of the city of Thyatira, who worshiped God, heard us: whose heart the Lord opened, that she attended to the things which were spoken by Paul.

15 And when she and her family had had baptism, she made a request to us, saying, If it seems to you that I am true to the Lord, come into my house and be my guests. And she made us come. When she and her household were baptized, she begged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and stay." She urged us.

And when she was baptized, and her household, she besought us, saying, If ye have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come into my house, and abide there: And she constrained us.

16 And when we were going to the place of prayer, we came across a girl with a spirit which gave knowledge of the future, whose masters made great profit from her power.

It happened, as we were going to prayer, that a certain girl having a spirit of divination met us, who brought her masters much gain by fortune telling.

And it came to pass as we went to prayer, a certain damsel possessed with a spirit of divination, met us, who brought her masters much gain by sooth-saying:

17 She came after Paul and us, crying out and saying, These men are the servants of the Most High God, who are giving you news of the way of salvation.

The same, following after Paul and us, cried out, "These men are servants of the Most High God, who proclaim to us the way of salvation!"

The same followed Paul and us, and cried, saying, These men are the servants of the most high God, who show to us the way of salvation.

18 And this she did on a number of days. But Paul was greatly troubled and, turning, said to the spirit, I give you orders in the name of Jesus Christ, to come out of her. And it came out that very hour.

This she did for many days. But Paul, becoming distressed, turned and said to the spirit, "I charge you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her!" It came out that very hour.

And this she did many days. But Paul being grieved, turned and said to the spirit, I command thee in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her. And he came out the same hour.

19 But when her masters saw that their hope of profit was gone, they took Paul and Silas, pulling them into the market-place before the rulers;

But when her masters saw that the hope of their gain was gone, they laid hold on Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the marketplace before the rulers.

And when her masters saw that the hope of their gains was gone, they caught Paul and Silas, and drew them into the market-place to the rulers,

- 20 And when they had taken them before the authorities, they said, These men, who are Jews, are greatly troubling our town;
When they had brought them to the magistrates, they said, "These men, being Jews, are agitating our city,
And brought them to the magistrates, saying, These men, being Jews, do exceedingly trouble our city,
- 21 Teaching rules of living which it is not right for us to have or to keep, being Romans.
and set forth customs which it is not lawful for us to accept or to observe, being Romans."
And teach customs which are not lawful for us to receive, neither to observe, being Romans.
- 22 And the people made an attack on them all together: and the authorities took their clothing off them, and gave orders for them to be whipped.
The multitude rose up together against them, and the magistrates tore their clothes off of them, and commanded them to be beaten with rods.
And the multitude rose together against them: and the magistrates rent off their clothes, and commanded to beat them.
- 23 And when they had given them a great number of blows, they put them in prison, giving orders to the keeper of the prison to keep them safely:
When they had laid many stripes on them, they threw them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely,
And when they had laid many stripes upon them, they cast them into prison, charging the jailer to keep them safely.
- 24 And he, having such orders, put them into the inner prison with chains on their feet.
who, having received such a charge, threw them into the inner prison, and secured their feet in the stocks.
Who, having received such a charge, thrust them into the inner prison, and made their feet fast in the stocks.
- 25 But about the middle of the night, Paul and Silas were making prayers and songs to God in the hearing of the prisoners;
But about midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them.
And at midnight Paul and Silas prayed, and sang praises to God: and the prisoners heard them.

- 26 And suddenly there was an earth-shock, so that the base of the prison was moved: and all the doors came open, and everyone's chains came off.
Suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken; and immediately all the doors were opened, and everyone`s bonds were loosened.
And suddenly there was a great earthquake, so that the foundations of the prison were shaken: and immediately all the doors were opened, and every one's bands were loosed.
- 27 And the keeper, coming out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, took his sword and was about to put himself to death, fearing that the prisoners had got away.
The jailer, being roused out of sleep and seeing the prison doors open, drew his sword and was about to kill himself, supposing that the prisoners had escaped.
And the keeper of the prison awaking out of his sleep, and seeing the prison doors open, he drew out his sword, and would have killed himself, supposing that the prisoners had fled.
- 28 But Paul said in a loud voice, Do yourself no damage, for we are all here.
But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, "Don`t harm yourself, for we are all here!"
But Paul cried with a loud voice, saying, Do thyself no harm: for we are all here.
- 29 And he sent for lights and came rushing in and, shaking with fear, went down on his face before Paul and Silas,
He called for lights and sprang in, and, fell down trembling before Paul and Silas,
Then he called for a light, and sprang in, and came trembling, and fell down before Paul and Silas;
- 30 And took them out and said, Sirs, what have I to do to get salvation?
and brought them out and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"
And brought them out, and said, Sirs, what must I do to be saved?
- 31 And they said, Have faith in the Lord Jesus, and you and your family will have salvation.
They said, "Believe in the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your house."
And they said, Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and thou shalt be saved, and thy house.
- 32 And they gave the word of the Lord to him and to all who were in his house.
They spoke the word of the Lord to him, and to all who were in his house.
And they spoke to him the word of the Lord, and to all that were in his house.

- 33 And that same hour of the night, he took them, and when he had given attention to their wounds, he and all his family had baptism straight away.
He took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes, and was immediately baptized, he and all his household.
And he took them the same hour of the night, and washed their stripes; and was baptized, he and all his, without delay.
- 34 And he took them into his house and gave them food, and he was full of joy, having faith in God with all his family.
He brought them up into his house, and set food before them, and rejoiced greatly, with all his house, having believed in God.
And when he had brought them into his house, he set food before them, and rejoiced, believing in God with all his house.
- 35 But when it was day, the authorities sent the police, saying, Let these men go.
But when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, "Let those men go."
And when it was day, the magistrates sent the sergeants, saying, Let those men go.
- 36 And the keeper said to Paul, The authorities have given orders to let you go: come out now, and go in peace.
The jailer reported these words to Paul, saying, "The magistrates have sent to let you go; now therefore come out, and go in peace."
And the keeper of the prison told this saying to Paul, The magistrates have sent to let you go: now therefore depart, and go in peace.
- 37 But Paul said to them, They have given us who are Romans a public whipping without judging us, and have put us in prison. Will they now send us out secretly? no, truly, let them come themselves and take us out.
But Paul said to them, "They have beaten us publicly, without a trial, men who are Romans, and have cast us into prison! Do they now release us secretly? No, most assuredly, but let them come themselves and bring us out!"
But Paul said to them, They have beaten us openly uncondemned, being Romans, and have cast us into prison; and now do they thrust us out privately? no verily; but let them come themselves and bring us out.
- 38 And the police gave an account of these words to the authorities, and they were full of fear on hearing that they were Romans;
The sergeants reported these words to the magistrates, and they were afraid when they heard that they were Romans,
And the sergeants told these words to the magistrates: and they feared when they heard that they were Romans.

- 39 Then they came and made prayers to them, requesting them, when they had taken them out, to go away from the town.
and they came and begged them. When they had brought them out, they asked them to depart from the city.
And they came and besought them, and brought them out, and desired them to depart out of the city.
- 40 And they came out of the prison and went to the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brothers they gave them comfort and went away.
They went out of the prison, and entered into Lydia`s house. When they had seen the brothers, they comforted them, and departed.
And they went out of the prison, and entered into the house of Lydia: and when they had seen the brethren, they comforted them, and departed.
- 1 Now when they had gone through Amphipolis and Apollonia they came to Thessalonica, where there was a Synagogue of the Jews:
Now when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews.
Now when they had passed through Amphipolis, and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where was a synagogue of the Jews.
- 2 And Paul, as he generally did, went in to them, and on three Sabbath days had discussions with them from the holy Writings,
Paul, as was his custom, went in to them, and for three Sabbath days reasoned with them from the Scriptures,
And Paul, as his manner was, went in to them, and on three sabbaths reasoned with them out of the scriptures,
- 3 Saying to them clearly and openly that Christ had to be put to death and come back to life again; and that this Jesus, whom, he said, I am preaching to you, is the Christ.
explaining and demonstrating that the Christ had to suffer, and to rise again from the dead, and saying, "This Jesus, whom I proclaim to you, is the Christ."
Opening and alledging, that it was needful that Christ should suffer, and rise again from the dead; and that this Jesus, whom I preach to you, is Christ.
- 4 And some of them had faith, and were joined to Paul and Silas; and a number of the God-fearing Greeks, and some of the chief women.
Some of them were persuaded, and joined Paul and Silas, of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and not a few of the chief women.
And some of them believed, and consorted with Paul and Silas: and of the devout Greeks a great multitude, and of the chief women not a few.

- 5 But the Jews, being moved with envy, took with them certain low persons from among the common people, and getting together a great number of people, made an outcry in the town, attacking the house of Jason with the purpose of taking them out to the people.
But the disobedient Jews gathered some wicked men from the marketplace, and gathering a crowd, set the city in an uproar. Assaulting the house of Jason, they sought to bring them forth to the people.
But the Jews who believed not, moved with envy, took to them certain vile fellows of the baser sort, and gathered a company, and set all the city in an uproar, and assaulted the house of Jason, and sought to bring them out to the people.
- 6 And when they were not able to get them, they took Jason and some of the brothers by force before the rulers of the town, crying, These men, who have made trouble all over the world have now come here;
When they didn't find them, they dragged Jason and certain brothers before the rulers of the city, crying, "These who have turned the world upside down have come here also,
And when they found them not, they drew Jason and certain brethren to the rulers of the city, crying, These that have turned the world upside down, have come hither also;
- 7 Whom Jason has taken into his house: and they are acting against the orders of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus.
whom Jason has received. These all act contrary to the decrees of Caesar, saying that there is another king, Jesus!"
Whom Jason hath received: and these all do contrary to the decrees of Cesar, saying, That there is another king, one Jesus.
- 8 And hearing these things the people and the rulers of the town were troubled.
The multitude and the rulers of the city were troubled when they heard these things.
And they troubled the people, and the rulers of the city, when they heard these things.
- 9 And having made Jason and the others give an undertaking to keep the peace, they let them go.
When they had taken security from Jason and the rest, they let them go.
And when they had taken security of Jason and of the other, they let them go.
- 10 And the brothers straight away sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea: and they, when they came there, went to the Synagogue of the Jews.
The brothers immediately sent Paul and Silas away by night to Berea. When they arrived, they went into the Jewish synagogue.
And the brethren immediately sent away Paul and Silas by night to Berea: who coming thither, went into the synagogue of the Jews.

- 11 Now these were more noble than the Jews of Thessalonica, for they gave serious attention to the word, searching in the holy Writings every day, to see if these things were so.
Now these were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of the mind, examining the Scriptures daily, whether these things were so.
These were more noble than those in Thessalonica, in that they received the word with all readiness of mind, and searched the scriptures daily, whether those things were so.
- 12 And a number of them had faith, and no small number of the Greek women of high position and of the men.
Many of them therefore believed; also of the Greek women of honorable estate, and not a few men.
Therefore many of them believed; also of honorable women who were Greeks, and of men not a few.
- 13 But when the Jews of Thessalonica had news that Paul was preaching the word at Berea, they came there, troubling the people and working them up.
But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul at Berea also, they came there likewise, agitating the multitudes.
But when the Jews of Thessalonica had knowledge that the word of God was preached by Paul at Berea, they came thither also, and stirred up the people.
- 14 So the brothers sent Paul straight away to the sea: but Silas and Timothy kept there still.
Then the brothers immediately sent forth Paul to go as far as to the sea, and Silas and Timothy still stayed there.
And then immediately the brethren sent away Paul, to go as it were to the sea: but Silas and Timothy abode there still.
- 15 But those who went with Paul took him as far as Athens, and then went away, with orders from him to Silas and Timothy to come to him quickly.
But those who escorted Paul brought him as far as Athens. Receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy that they should come to him with all speed, they departed.
And they that conducted Paul brought him to Athens: and receiving a commandment to Silas and Timothy to come to him with all speed, they departed.
- 16 Now while Paul was waiting for them at Athens, his spirit was troubled, for he saw all the town full of images of the gods.
Now while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was provoked within him as he saw the city full of idols.
Now, while Paul waited for them at Athens, his spirit was stirred in him, when he saw the city wholly given to idolatry.

- 17 So he had discussions in the Synagogue with the Jews and God-fearing Gentiles, and every day in the market-place with those who were there.
So he reasoned in the synagogue with Jews and the devout persons, and in the marketplace every day with those who met him.
Therefore he disputed in the synagogue with the Jews, and with the devout persons, and in the market daily with them that met with him.
- 18 And some of those who were supporters of the theories of the Epicureans and the Stoics, had a meeting with him. And some said, What is this talker of foolish words saying? And others, He seems to be a preacher of strange gods: because he was preaching of Jesus and his coming back from the dead.
Some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers also encountered him. Some said, "What does this babbler want to say?" Others said, "He seems to be advocating foreign demons," because he preached Jesus and the resurrection.
Then certain philosophers of the Epicureans, and of the Stoics, encountered him. And some said, What will this babbler say? some others, He seemeth to be a setter-forth of strange gods: because he preached to them Jesus, and the resurrection.
- 19 And they took him to Mars' Hill, saying, Will you make clear to us what is this new teaching of yours?
They took hold of him, and brought him to the Areopagus, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, which is spoken by you?
And they took him, and brought him to Areopagus, saying, May we know what this new doctrine is, of which thou speakest?
- 20 For you seem to us to say strange things, and we have a desire to get the sense of them.
For you bring certain strange things to our ears. We want to know therefore what these things mean."
For thou bringest certain strange things to our ears; we would know therefore what these things mean.
- 21 (Now all the Athenians and the men from other lands who come there were giving all their time to talking or hearing of anything new.)
Now all the Athenians and the strangers living there spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell or to hear some new thing.
(For all the Athenians and strangers who were there, spent their time in nothing else, but either to tell, or to hear some new thing.)
- 22 And Paul got to his feet on Mars' Hill and said, O men of Athens, I see that you are overmuch given to fear of the gods.
Paul stood in the midst of the Areopagus, and said, "You men of Athens, I perceive that you are very religious in all things.
Then Paul stood in the midst of Mars-hill, and said, Ye men of Athens, I perceive that in all things ye are too superstitious.

- 23 For when I came by, I was looking at the things to which you give worship, and I saw an altar with this writing on it, TO THE GOD OF WHOM THERE IS NO KNOWLEDGE. Now, what you, without knowledge, give worship to, I make clear to you.
For as I passed along, and observed the objects of your worship, I found also an altar with this inscription: `TO AN UNKNOWN GOD.` What therefore you worship in ignorance, this I announce to you.
For as I passed by, and beheld your devotions, I found an altar with this inscription, TO THE UNKNOWN GOD. Whom therefore ye ignorantly worship, him declare I to you.
- 24 The God who made the earth and everything in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, is not housed in buildings made with hands;
The God who made the world and all things in it, he, being Lord of heaven and earth, dwells not in temples made with hands,
God that made the world, and all things therein, seeing that he is Lord of heaven and earth, dwelleth not in temples made with hands;
- 25 And he is not dependent on the work of men's hands, as if he had need of anything, for he himself gives to all life and breath and all things;
neither is he served by men`s hands, as though he needed anything, seeing he himself gives to all life and breath, and all things.
Neither is worshiped with men's hands, as though he needed any thing, seeing he giveth to all life, and breath, and all things;
- 26 And he has made of one blood all the nations of men living on all the face of the earth, ordering their times and the limits of their lands,
He made from one blood every nation of men to dwell on all the surface of the earth, having determined appointed seasons, and the bounds of their habitation,
And hath made of one blood all nations of men to dwell on all the face of the earth, and hath determined the times before appointed, and the bounds of their habitation;
- 27 So that they might make search for God, in order, if possible, to get knowledge of him and make discovery of him, though he is not far from every one of us:
that they should seek the Lord, if perhaps they might reach out for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us.
That they should seek the Lord, if haply they might feel after him, and find him, though he is not far from every one of us:
- 28 For in him we have life and motion and existence; as certain of your verse writers have said, For we are his offspring.
`For in him we live, and move, and have our being.` As some of your own poets have said, `For we are also his offspring.`
For in him we live, and move, and have our being; as certain also of your own poets have said, for we are also his offspring.

- 29 If then we are the offspring of God, it is not right for us to have the idea that God is like gold or silver or stone, formed by the art or design of man.
Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Divine Nature is like gold, or silver, or stone, engraved by art and device of man.
Being then the offspring of God, we ought not to think that the Godhead is like to gold, or silver, or stone graven by art and man's device.
- 30 Those times when men had no knowledge were overlooked by God; but now he gives orders to all men in every place to undergo a change of heart:
The times of ignorance therefore God overlooked. But now he commands that all men everywhere should repent, And the times of this ignorance God winked at; but now commandeth all men every where to repent:
- 31 Because a day has been fixed in which all the world will be judged in righteousness by the man who has been marked out by him for this work; of which he has given a sign to all men by giving him back from the dead.
because he has appointed a day in which he will judge the world in righteousness by the man whom he has ordained; whereof he has given assurance to all men, in that he has raised him from the dead."
Because he hath appointed a day, in which he will judge the world in righteousness, by that man whom he hath ordained: of which he hath given assurance to all men, in that he hath raised him from the dead.
- 32 Now on hearing about the coming back from death, some of them made sport of it, but others said, Let us go more fully into this another time.
Now when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked; but others said, "We want to hear you yet again concerning this."
And when they heard of the resurrection of the dead, some mocked: and others said, We will hear thee again concerning this matter.
- 33 And so Paul went away from among them.
Thus Paul went out from among them.
So Paul departed from among them.
- 34 But some men gave him their support: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
But certain men joined with him, and believed, among whom also was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.
But certain men adhered to him, and believed: among whom was Dionysius the Areopagite, and a woman named Damaris, and others with them.

- 1 After these things, he went away from Athens, and came to Corinth.
After these things Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth.
After these things, Paul departed from Athens, and came to Corinth;
- 2 And there he came across a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by birth, who not long before had come from Italy with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had given orders that all Jews were to go away from Rome: and he came to them;
He found a certain Jew named Aquila, a man of Pontus by race, who had recently come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla, because Claudius had commanded all the Jews to depart from Rome. He came to them,
And found a certain Jew named Aquila, born in Pontus, lately come from Italy, with his wife Priscilla (because that Claudius had commanded all Jews to depart from Rome) and he came to them.
- 3 And because he was of the same trade, he was living with them, and they did their work together; for by trade they were tent-makers.
and because he practiced the same trade, he lived with them and worked, for by trade they were tent makers.
And because he was of the same occupation, he abode with them, and wrought (for by their occupation they were tent-makers)
- 4 And every Sabbath he had discussions in the Synagogue, turning Jews and Greeks to the faith.
He reasoned in the synagogue every Sabbath, and persuaded Jews and Greeks.
And he reasoned in the synagogue every sabbath, and persuaded the Jews and the Greeks.
- 5 And when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was completely given up to the word, preaching to the Jews that the Christ was Jesus.
But when Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was compelled by the Spirit, testifying to the Jews that Jesus was the Christ.
And when Silas and Timothy had come from Macedonia, Paul was pressed in spirit, and testified to the Jews, that Jesus was Christ.
- 6 And when they put themselves against him, and said evil words, he said, shaking his clothing, Your blood be on your heads, I am clean: from now I will go to the Gentiles.
When they opposed him and blasphemed, he shook out his clothing and said to them, "Your blood be on your own heads! I am clean. From now on, I will go to the Gentiles!"
And when they opposed themselves, and blasphemed, he shook his raiment, and said to them, Your blood be upon your own heads: I am clean: from henceforth I will go to the Gentiles.

- 7 And moving from there, he went into the house of a man named Titus Justus, a God-fearing man, whose house was very near the Synagogue.
He departed there, and went into the house of a certain man named Justus, one who worshipped God, whose house was next door to the synagogue.
And he departed thence, and entered into the house of a certain man named Justus, one that worshiped God, whose house joined close to the synagogue.
- 8 And Crispus, the ruler of the Synagogue, with all his family, had faith in the Lord; and a great number of the people of Corinth, hearing the word, had faith and were given baptism.
Crispus, the ruler of the synagogue, believed in the Lord with all his house. Many of the Corinthians, hearing, believed and were baptized.
And Crispus the chief ruler of the synagogue believed on the Lord with all his house: and many of the Corinthians hearing, believed, and were baptized.
- 9 And the Lord said to Paul in the night, in a vision, Have no fear and go on preaching:
The Lord said to Paul in the night by a vision, "Don` t be afraid, but speak and don` t be silent;
Then the Lord spoke to Paul in the night by a vision, Be not afraid, but speak, and hold not thy peace:
- 10 For I am with you, and no one will make an attack on you to do you damage: for I have a number of people in this town.
for I am with you, and no one will attack you to harm you, for I have many people in this city."
For I am with thee, and no man shall lay hands on thee, to hurt thee: for I have many people in this city.
- 11 And he was there for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
He lived there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
And he continued there a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.
- 12 But when Gallio was ruler of Achaia, all the Jews together made an attack on Paul, and took him to the judge's seat,
But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one accord rose up against Paul and brought him before the judgment seat,
And when Gallio was the deputy of Achaia, the Jews made insurrection with one accord against Paul, and brought him to the judgment-seat,

- 13 Saying, This man is teaching the people to give worship to God in a way which is against the law.
saying, "This man persuades men to worship God contrary to the law."
Saying, This man persuadeth men to worship God contrary to the law.
- 14 But when Paul was about to say something, Gallio said to the Jews, If this was anything to do with wrongdoing or crime, there would be a reason for me to give you a hearing:
But when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "If indeed it were a matter of wrong or of wicked crime, Jews, it would be reasonable that I should bear with you;
And when Paul was now about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, If it were a matter of wrong, or hainous crime, O ye Jews, reason would that I should bear with you:
- 15 But if it is a question of words or names or of your law, see to it yourselves; I will not be a judge of such things.
but if they are questions about words and names and your own law, look to it yourselves. For I don` t want to be a judge of these matters."
But if it is a question of words and names, and of your law, look ye to it: for I will be no judge of such matters.
- 16 And he sent them away from the judge's seat.
He drove them from the judgment seat.
And he drove them from the judgment-seat.
- 17 And they all made an attack on Sosthenes, the ruler of the Synagogue, and gave him blows before the judge's seat; but Gallio gave no attention to these things.
Then all the Greeks laid hold on Sosthenes, the ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment seat. Gallio didn` t care about any of these things.
Then all the Greeks took Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and beat him before the judgment-seat.
And Gallio cared for none of those things.
- 18 And Paul, after waiting some days, went away from the brothers and went by ship to Syria, Priscilla and Aquila being with him; and he had had his hair cut off in Cenchrea, for he had taken an oath.
Paul, having stayed after this yet many days, took his leave of the brothers, and sailed from there for Syria, and Priscilla and Aquila with him. He shaved his head in Cenchreeae, for he had a vow.
And Paul after this tarried there yet a good while, and took his leave of the brethren, and sailed thence into Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila; having shorn his head in Cenchrea: for he had a vow.

- 19 And they came down to Ephesus and he left them there: and he himself went into the Synagogue and had a discussion with the Jews.
He came to Ephesus, and he left them there; but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
And he came to Ephesus, and left them there: but he himself entered into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews.
- 20 And being requested by them to be there for a longer time, he said, No;
When they asked him to stay a longer time, he declined;
When they desired him to tarry longer time with them, he consented not:
- 21 And went from them, saying, I will come back to you if God lets me; and he took ship from Ephesus.
but taking his leave of them, and saying, "I must by all means keep this coming feast in Jerusalem, but I will return again to you if God wills," he set sail from Ephesus.
But bade them farewell, saying, I must by all means keep this feast that cometh in Jerusalem: but I will return to you, if God will. And he sailed from Ephesus.
- 22 And when he had come to land at Caesarea, he went to see the church, and then went down to Antioch.
When he had landed at Caesarea, he went up and greeted the assembly, and went down to Antioch.
And when he had landed at Cesarea, and gone up and saluted the church, he went down to Antioch.
- 23 And having been there for some time, he went through the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, making the disciples strong in the faith.
Having spent some time there, he departed, and went through the region of Galatia, and Phrygia, in order, establishing all the disciples.
And after he had spent some time there, he departed and went over all the country of Galatia and Phrygia in order, strengthening all the disciples.
- 24 Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by birth, and a man of learning, came to Ephesus; and he had great knowledge of the holy Writings.
Now a certain Jew named Apollos, an Alexandrian by race, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus. He was mighty in the scriptures.
And a certain Jew named Apollos, born at Alexandria, an eloquent man, and mighty in the scriptures, came to Ephesus.

- 25 This man had been trained in the way of the Lord; and burning in spirit, he gave himself up to teaching the facts about Jesus, though he had knowledge only of John's baptism:
This man had been instructed in the way of the Lord; and being fervent in spirit, he spoke and taught accurately the things concerning Jesus, although he knew only the baptism of John.
This man was instructed in the way of the Lord: and being fervent in the spirit, he spoke and taught diligently the things of the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John.
- 26 And he was preaching in the Synagogue without fear. But Priscilla and Aquila, hearing his words, took him in, and gave him fuller teaching about the way of God.
He began to speak boldly in the synagogue. But when Priscilla and Aquila heard him, they took him aside, and explained to him the way of God more accurately.
And he began to speak boldly in the synagogue: Whom, when Aquila and Priscilla had heard, they took him to them, and expounded to him the way of God more perfectly.
- 27 And when he had a desire to go over into Achaia, the brothers gave him help, and sent letters to the disciples requesting them to take him in among them: and when he had come, he gave much help to those who had faith through grace:
When he had determined to pass over into Achaia, the brothers encouraged him, and wrote to the disciples to receive him. When he had come, he helped them much, who had believed through grace;
And when he was disposed to pass into Achaia, the brethren wrote, exhorting the disciples to receive him: who, when he had come, helped them much who had believed through grace.
- 28 For he overcame the Jews in public discussion, making clear from the holy Writings that the Christ was Jesus.
for he powerfully refuted the Jews, publicly showing by the scriptures that Jesus was the Christ.
For he mightily convinced the Jews, and that publicly, showing by the scriptures, that Jesus was Christ.
- 1 And it came about that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having gone through the higher country, came to Ephesus, where there were certain disciples:
It happened that, while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul, having passed through the upper country, came to Ephesus, and found certain disciples.
And it came to pass, that while Apollos was at Corinth, Paul having passed through the upper region, came to Ephesus; and finding certain disciples,

2 And he said to them, Did you get the Holy Spirit when you had faith? And they said to him, No, we have had no knowledge of the Holy Spirit.
He said to them, "Did you receive the Holy Spirit when you believed?" They said to him, "No, we did not so much as hear whether there is a Holy Spirit."

He said to them, Have ye received the Holy Spirit since ye believed? And they said to him, We have not so much as heard whether there is any Holy Spirit.

3 And he said, What sort of baptism did you have? And they said, The baptism of John.

He said, "Into what then were you baptized?" They said, "Into John`s baptism."

And he said to them, Into what then were ye baptized? And they said, Into John's baptism.

4 And Paul said, John gave a baptism which goes with a change of heart, saying to the people that they were to have faith in him who was coming after him, that is, in Jesus.

Paul said, "John indeed baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people that they should believe in the one who would come after him, that is, on Jesus."

Then said Paul, John verily baptized with the baptism of repentance, saying to the people, That they should believe on him who should come after him, that is, on Christ Jesus.

5 And hearing this, they had baptism in the name of the Lord Jesus.

When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

When they heard this, they were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus.

6 And when Paul had put his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they had the power of talking in tongues, and acting like prophets.

When Paul had laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came on them, and they spoke with other languages, and prophesied.

And when Paul had laid his hands upon them, the Holy Spirit came on them; and they spoke in languages, and prophesied.

7 And there were about twelve of these men.

They were about twelve men in all.

And all the men were about twelve.

- 8 And he went into the Synagogue, and for three months he was preaching there without fear, reasoning and teaching about the kingdom of God.
He entered into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for a period of three months, reasoning and persuading about the things concerning the kingdom of God.
And he went into the synagogue, and spoke boldly for the space of three months, disputing and persuading the things concerning the kingdom of God.
- 9 But because some of the people were hard-hearted and would not give hearing, saying evil words about the Way before the people, he went away from them, and kept the disciples separate, reasoning every day in the school of Tyrannus.
But when some were hardened and disobedient, speaking evil of the Way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, reasoning daily in the school of Tyrannus.
But when divers were hardened, and believed not, but spoke evil of that way before the multitude, he departed from them, and separated the disciples, disputing daily in the school of one Tyrannus.
- 10 And this went on for two years, so that all those who were living in Asia had knowledge of the word of the Lord, Greeks as well as Jews.
This continued for the space of two years, so that all those who lived in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.
And this continued for the space of two years; so that all they who dwelt in Asia heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.
- 11 And God did special works of power by the hands of Paul:
God worked special miracles by the hands of Paul,
And God wrought special miracles by the hands of Paul:
- 12 So that bits of linen and clothing from his body were taken to people who were ill, and their diseases went away from them and the evil spirits went out.
insomuch that handkerchiefs or aprons were carried away from his body to the sick, and the evil spirits went out.
So that from his body were brought to the sick, handkerchiefs, or aprons, and the diseases departed from them, and the evil spirits went out of them.
- 13 But some of the Jews who went from place to place driving out evil spirits, took it on themselves to make use of the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits, saying, I give you orders, by Jesus, whom Paul is preaching.
But some of the itinerant Jews, exorcists, took on themselves to name over those who had the evil spirits the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preaches."
Then certain of the vagabond Jews, exorcists, took upon them to call over them who had evil spirits, the name of the Lord Jesus, saying, We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul preacheth.

- 14 And there were seven sons of a man named Sceva, a Jew and a chief priest, who did this.
There were seven sons of one Sceva, a Jewish chief priest, who did this.
And there were seven sons of one Sceva a Jew, and chief of the priests, who did so.
- 15 And the evil spirit, answering, said to them, I have knowledge of Jesus, and of Paul, but who are you?
The evil spirit answered, "Jesus I know, and Paul I know, but who are you?"
And the evil spirit answered and said, Jesus I know, and Paul I know; but who are ye?
- 16 And the man in whom the evil spirit was, jumping on them, was stronger than the two of them, and overcame them, so that they went running from that house, wounded and without their clothing.
The man in whom the evil spirit was leaped on them, and overpowered them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
And the man in whom the evil spirit was, leaped on them, and overcame them, and prevailed against them, so that they fled out of that house naked and wounded.
- 17 And this came to the ears of all those, Jews and Greeks, who were living at Ephesus; and fear came on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was made great.
This became known to all, both Jews and Greeks, who lived at Ephesus. Fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
And this was known to all the Jews and Greeks also dwelling at Ephesus: and fear fell on them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was magnified.
- 18 And a number of those who had faith came and made a public statement of their sins and all their acts.
Many also of those who had believed came, confessing, and declaring their deeds.
And many that believed came, and confessed, and showed their deeds.
- 19 And a great number of those who were experts in strange arts took their books and put them on the fire in front of everyone: and when the books were valued they came to fifty thousand bits of silver.
Not a few of those who practiced magical arts brought their books together and burned them in the sight of all. They counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.
Many also of them who used curious arts, brought their books together, and burned them before all men; and they counted the price of them, and found it fifty thousand pieces of silver.

20 So the word of the Lord was increased very greatly and was full of power.

So the word of the Lord was growing and becoming mighty.

So mightily grew the word of God, and prevailed.

21 Now after these things were ended, Paul came to a decision that when he had gone through Macedonia and Achaia he would go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I have a desire to see Rome.

Now after these things had ended, Paul determined in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I have been there, I must also see Rome."

After these things were ended, Paul purposed in the spirit, when he had passed through Macedonia, and Achaia, to go to Jerusalem, saying, After I have been there, I must also see Rome.

22 And having sent two of his helpers, Timothy and Erastus, into Macedonia, he himself went on living in Asia for a time.

Having sent into Macedonia two of those who ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus, he himself stayed in Asia for a while.

So he sent into Macedonia two of them that ministered to him, Timothy and Erastus; but he himself stayed in Asia for a season.

23 And about that time a great outcry took place about the Way.

About that time there arose no small stir concerning the Way.

And the same time there arose no small stir about that way.

24 For there was a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-worker, who made silver boxes for the images of Diana, and gave no small profit to the workmen;

For a certain man named Demetrius, a silversmith, who made silver shrines of Artemis, brought no little business to the craftsmen,

For a certain man named Demetrius, a silver-smith, who made silver shrines for Diana, brought no small gain to the artificers;

25 Whom he got together, with other workmen of the same trade, and said to them, Men, it is clear that from this business we get our wealth.

whom he gathered together, with the workmen of like occupation, and said, "Sirs, you know that by this business we have our wealth.

Whom he called together with the workmen of like occupation, and said, Sirs, ye know that by this craft we have our wealth:

- 26 And you see, for it has come to your ears, that not only at Ephesus, but almost all through Asia, this Paul has been teaching numbers of people and turning them away, saying that those are not gods who are made by men's hands:
You see and hear, that not at Ephesus alone, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul has persuaded and turned away many people, saying that they are no gods, that are made with hands.
Moreover, ye see and hear, that not alone at Ephesus, but almost throughout all Asia, this Paul hath persuaded and turned away many people, saying, that they are no gods which are made with hands.
- 27 And there is danger, not only that our trade may be damaged in the opinion of men, but that the holy place of the great goddess Diana may be no longer honoured, and that she to whom all Asia and the world give worship, will be put down from her high position.
Not only is there danger that this our trade come into disrepute, but also that the temple of the great goddess Artemis will be counted as nothing, and her majesty destroyed, whom all Asia and the world worships."
So that not only this our craft is in danger to be set at naught; but also that the temple of the great goddess Diana should be despised, and her magnificence should be destroyed, whom all Asia, and the world worshipeth.
- 28 And hearing this, they were very angry, crying out and saying, Great is Diana of Ephesus.
When they heard this they were filled with wrath, and cried out, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
And when they heard these sayings, they were full of wrath, and cried out, saying, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.
- 29 And the town was full of noise and trouble, and they all came running into the theatre, having taken by force Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia who were journeying in company with Paul.
The whole city was filled with confusion, and they rushed with one accord into the theater, having seized Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel.
And the whole city was filled with confusion: and having caught Gaius and Aristarchus, men of Macedonia, Paul's companions in travel, they rushed with one accord into the theater.
- 30 And when Paul was about to go in to the people, the disciples did not let him.
When Paul wanted to enter in to the people, the disciples didn't allow him.
And when Paul would have entered in to the people, the disciples suffered him not.
- 31 And some of the rulers of Asia, being his friends, sent to him, requesting him seriously not to put himself in danger by going into the theatre.
Certain also of the Asiarchs, being his friends, sent to him and begged him not to venture into the theater.
And certain of the chief of Asia, who were his friends, sent to him, desiring him that he would not adventure himself into the theater.

- 32 And some said one thing, and some another: for there was no order in the meeting; and most of them had no idea why they had come together.
Some therefore cried one thing, and some another, for the assembly was in confusion. Most of them didn't know why they had come together.
Some therefore cried one thing, and some another: for the assembly was confused, and the greater part knew not why they had come together.
- 33 Then they took Alexander out from among the people, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander, making a sign with his hand, was about to make a statement to the people in answer:
They brought Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. Alexander beckoned with his hand, and would have made a defense to the people.
And they drew Alexander out of the multitude, the Jews putting him forward. And Alexander beckoned with the hand, and would have made his defense to the people.
- 34 But when they saw that he was a Jew, all of them with one voice went on crying out for about two hours, Great is Diana of Ephesus.
But when they perceived that he was a Jew, all with one voice for a time of about two hours cried out, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"
But when they knew that he was a Jew, all with one voice about the space of two hours cried out, Great is Diana of the Ephesians.
- 35 And when the chief secretary had got the people quiet, he said, Men of Ephesus, is any man without knowledge that the town of Ephesus is the keeper of the holy place of the great Diana, who was sent down from Jupiter?
When the town clerk had quieted the multitude, he said, "You men of Ephesus, what man is there who doesn't know that the city of the Ephesians is temple-keeper of the great goddess Artemis, and of the image which fell down from Zeus?
And when the town-clerk had appeased the people, he said, Ye men of Ephesus, what man is there that knoweth not that the city of the Ephesians is a worshiper of the great goddess Diana, and of the image which fell down from Jupiter?
- 36 So then, because these things may not be doubted, it would be better for you to be quiet, and do nothing unwise.
Seeing then that these things can't be denied, you ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rash.
Seeing then that these things cannot be contradicted, ye ought to be quiet, and to do nothing rashly.

- 37 For you have taken these men, who are not doing damage to the holy place or talking against our goddess.
For you have brought these men here, who are neither robbers of temples nor blasphemers of your goddess.
For ye have brought hither these men, who are neither robbers of churches, nor yet blasphemers of your goddess.
- 38 If, then, Demetrius and the workmen who are with him have a protest to make against any man, the law is open to them, and there are judges; let them put up a cause at law against one another.
If therefore Demetrius and the craftsmen who are with him, have a matter against anyone, the courts are open, and there are proconsuls. Let them press charges against one another.
Wherefore, if Demetrius and the artificers who are with him, have a matter against any man, the law is open, and there are deputies: let them implead one another.
- 39 But if any other business is in question, let it be taken up in the regular meeting.
But if you seek anything about other matters, it will be settled in the regular assembly.
But if ye inquire any thing concerning other matters, it shall be determined in a lawful assembly.
- 40 For, truly, we are in danger of being made responsible for this day's trouble, there being no cause for it: and we are not able to give any reason for this coming together.)
For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."
\19:41\And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.
- 40 For, truly, we are in danger of being made responsible for this day's trouble, there being no cause for it: and we are not able to give any reason for this coming together.)
For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."
For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause by which we may give an account of this concourse.
- 40 \19:41\And when he had said this, he sent the meeting away.
For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."
For we are in danger to be called in question for this day's uproar, there being no cause by which we may give an account of this concourse.

40 \19:41\And when he had said this, he sent the meeting away.

For indeed we are in danger of being accused concerning this day's riot, there being no cause. Concerning it, we wouldn't be able to give an account of this commotion."

\19:41\And when he had thus spoken, he dismissed the assembly.

1 And after the noise had come to an end, Paul, having sent for the disciples and given them comfort, went away from them to Macedonia.

After the uproar had ceased, Paul sent for the disciples, took leave of them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

And after the uproar had ceased, Paul called to him the disciples, and embraced them, and departed to go into Macedonia.

2 And when he had gone through those parts and given them much teaching, he came into Greece.

When he had gone through those parts, and had encouraged them with many words, he came into Greece.

And when he had gone over those parts, and had given them much exhortation, he came into Greece,

3 And when he had been there three months, because the Jews had made a secret design against him when he was about to take ship for Syria, he made a decision to go back through Macedonia.

When he had spent three months there, and a plot was made against him by Jews as he was about to set sail for Syria, he determined to return through Macedonia.

And there abode three months. And when the Jews laid wait for him, as he was about to sail into Syria, he purposed to return through Macedonia.

4 And Sopater of Beroea, the son of Pyrrhus, and Aristarchus and Secundus of Thessalonica, and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy, and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia, went with him as far as Asia.

These accompanied him as far as Asia: Sopater of Beroea; Aristarchus and Secundus of the Thessalonians; Gaius of Derbe; Timothy; and Tychicus and Trophimus of Asia.

And there accompanied him into Asia Sopater of Berea; and of the Thessalonians, Aristarchus and Secundus; and Gaius of Derbe, and Timothy; and of Asia, Tychicus, and Trophimus.

5 But these had gone before, and were waiting for us at Troas.

But these had gone ahead, and were waiting for us at Troas.

These going before, tarried for us at Troas.

6 And we went away from Philippi by ship after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days; and we were there for seven days.
We sailed away from Philippi after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them at Troas in five days, where we stayed seven days.

And we sailed away from Philippi, after the days of unleavened bread, and came to them to Troas in five days; where we abode seven days.

7 And on the first day of the week, when we had come together for the holy meal, Paul gave them a talk, for it was his purpose to go away on the day after; and he went on talking till after the middle of the night.

On the first day of the week, when the disciples were gathered together to break bread, Paul talked with them, intending to depart on the next day, and continued his speech until midnight.

And upon the first day of the week, when the disciples came together to break bread, Paul preached to them (ready to depart on the morrow) and continued his speech until midnight.

8 And there were a number of lights in the room where we had come together.

There were many lights in the upper chamber where we were gathered together.

And there were many lights in the upper chamber, where they were assembled.

9 And a certain young man named Eutychus, who was seated in the window, went into a deep sleep; and while Paul went on talking, being overcome by sleep, he had a fall from the third floor, and was taken up dead.

A certain young man named Eutychus sat in the window, weighed down with deep sleep. As Paul spoke still longer, being weighed down by his sleep, he fell down from the third story, and was taken up dead.

And there sat in a window a certain young man named Eutychus, having fallen into a deep sleep: and as Paul was long preaching, he sunk down with sleep, and fell from the third loft, and was taken up dead.

10 And Paul went down and, falling on him, took him in his arms and said, Do not be troubled, for his life is in him.

Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him said, "Don't be troubled, for his life is in him."

And Paul went down, and fell on him, and embracing him, said, Trouble not yourselves; for his life is in him.

11 And when he had gone up, and had taken the broken bread, he went on talking to them for a long time, even till dawn, and then he went away.

When he had gone up, and had broken bread, and eaten, and had talked with them a long while, even until break of day, he departed.

When he had come up again, and had broken bread, and eaten, and discoursed a long while, even till break of day, so he departed.

- 12 And they took the boy in, living, and were greatly comforted.
They brought the boy alive, and were not a little comforted.
And they brought the young man alive, and were not a little comforted.
- 13 But we, going before him by ship, went to Assos with the purpose of taking Paul in there: for so he had given orders, because he himself was coming by land.
But we who went ahead to the ship set sail for Assos, there intending to take in Paul, for he had so arranged, intending himself to go by land.
And we went before to a ship, and sailed to Assos, there intending to take in Paul: for so he had appointed, intending himself to go on foot.
- 14 And when he came up with us at Assos, we took him in the ship and went on to Mitylene.
When he met us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
And when he met with us at Assos, we took him in, and came to Mitylene.
- 15 And going from there by sea, we came on the day after opposite Chios, and touching at Samos on the day after that, we came on the third day to Miletus.
Sailing from there, we came the following day opposite Chios. The next day we touched at Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, and the day after we came to Miletus.
And we sailed thence, and came the next day over against Chios; and the next day we arrived at Samos, and tarried at Trogyllium; and the next day we came to Miletus.
- 16 For Paul's purpose was to go past Ephesus, so that he might not be kept in Asia; for he was going quickly, in order, if possible, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.
For Paul had determined to sail past Ephesus, that he might not have to spend time in Asia; for he was hastening, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem on the day of Pentecost.
For Paul had determined to sail by Ephesus, because he would not spend the time in Asia: for he hasted, if it were possible for him, to be at Jerusalem the day of Pentecost.
- 17 And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus for the rulers of the church.
From Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called to himself the elders of the assembly.
And from Miletus he sent to Ephesus, and called the elders of the church.

- 18 And when they had come, he said to them, You yourselves have seen what my life has been like all the time from the day when I first came into Asia,
When they had come to him, he said to them, "You yourselves know, from the first day that I set foot in Asia, how I was with you all the time,
And when they had come to him, he said to them, Ye know, from the first day that I came into Asia, after what manner I have been with you at all seasons,
- 19 Doing the Lord's work without pride, through all the sorrow and troubles which came on me because of the evil designs of the Jews:
serving the Lord with all humility, with many tears, and with trials which happened to me by the plots of the Jews;
Serving the Lord with all humility of mind, and with many tears and temptations, which befell me by the lying in wait of the Jews:
- 20 And how I kept back nothing which might be of profit to you, teaching you publicly and privately, how I didn't shrink from declaring to you anything that was profitable, teaching you publicly and from house to house,
And how I kept back nothing that was profitable to you, but have shown you, and have taught you publicly, and from house to house,
- 21 Preaching to Jews and to Greeks the need for a turning of the heart to God, and faith in the Lord Jesus Christ.
testifying both to Jews and to Greeks repentance toward God, and faith toward our Lord Jesus Christ.
Testifying both to the Jews, and also to the Greeks, repentance towards God, and faith towards our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 22 And now, as you see, I am going to Jerusalem, a prisoner in spirit, having no knowledge of what will come to me there:
Now, behold, I go bound by the Spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing what will happen to me there;
And now behold, I go bound in the spirit to Jerusalem, not knowing the things that shall befall me there:
- 23 Only that the Holy Spirit makes clear to me in every town that prison and pains are waiting for me.
except that the Holy Spirit testifies in every city, saying that bonds and afflictions wait for me.
Save that the Holy Spirit testifieth in every city, saying, that bonds and afflictions abide me.

- 24 But I put no value on my life, if only at the end of it I may see the work complete which was given to me by the Lord Jesus, to be a witness of the good news of the grace of God.
But these things don't count; nor do I hold my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my race with joy, and the ministry which I received from the Lord Jesus, to fully testify to the gospel of the grace of God.
But none of these things move me, neither count I my life dear to myself, so that I may finish my course with joy, and the ministry which I have received from the Lord Jesus, to testify the gospel of the grace of God.
- 25 And now I am conscious that you, among whom I have gone about preaching the kingdom, will not see my face again.
Now, behold, I know that you all, among whom I went about preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.
And now behold, I know that ye all, among whom I have gone preaching the kingdom of God, will see my face no more.
- 26 And so I say to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men.
Therefore I testify to you this day that I am clean from the blood of all men,
Wherefore I call you to witness this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men.
- 27 For I have not kept back from you anything of the purpose of God.
for I didn't shrink from declaring to you the whole counsel of God.
For I have not shunned to declare to you all the counsel of God.
- 28 Give attention to yourselves, and to all the flock which the Holy Spirit has given into your care, to give food to the church of God, for which he gave his blood.
Take heed, therefore, to yourselves, and to all the flock, in which the Holy Spirit has made you overseers, to shepherd the assembly of the Lord and God which he purchased with his own blood.
Take heed therefore to yourselves, and to all the flock over which the Holy Spirit hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood.
- 29 I am conscious that after I am gone, evil wolves will come in among you, doing damage to the flock;
For I know that after my departure, vicious wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock.
For I know this, that after my departure grievous wolves will enter in among you, not sparing the flock.

- 30 And from among yourselves will come men who will give wrong teaching, turning away the disciples after them.
Men will arise from among your own selves, speaking perverse things, to draw away the disciples after them.
Also from your own selves will men arise, speaking perverse things, to draw away disciples after them.
- 31 So keep watch, having in mind that for three years without resting I was teaching every one of you, day and night, with weeping.
Therefore watch, remembering that for a period of three years I didn't cease to admonish everyone night and day with tears.
Therefore watch, and remember, that by the space of three years I ceased not to warn every one night and day with tears.
- 32 And now, I give you into the care of God and the word of his grace, which is able to make you strong and to give you your heritage among all the saints.
Now, brothers, I entrust you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build up, and to give you the inheritance among all those who are sanctified.
And now, brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them who are sanctified.
- 33 I have had no desire for any man's silver or gold or clothing.
I coveted no one's silver, or gold, or clothing.
I have coveted no man's silver, or gold, or apparel.
- 34 You yourselves have seen that with these hands I got what was necessary for me and those who were with me.
You yourselves know that these hands ministered to my necessities, and to those who were with me.
And ye yourselves know, that these hands have ministered to my necessities, and to them that were with me.
- 35 In all things I was an example to you of how, in your lives, you are to give help to the feeble, and keep in memory the words of the Lord Jesus, how he himself said, There is a greater blessing in giving than in getting.
In all things I gave you an example, that so laboring you ought to help the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, `It is more blessed to give than to receive.`"
I have shown you all things, that so laboring ye ought to support the weak, and to remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he said, It is more blessed to give than to receive.

36 And having said these words, he went down on his knees in prayer with them all.

When he had spoken these things, he kneeled down and prayed with them all.

And when he had thus spoken, he kneeled down, and prayed with them all.

37 And they were all weeping, falling on Paul's neck and kissing him,

They all wept a lot, and fell on Paul's neck and kissed him,

And they all wept bitterly, and fell on Paul's neck, and kissed him, 38 Being sad most of all because he had said that they would not see his face again. And so they went with him to the ship.

sorrowing most of all because of the word which he had spoken, that they should see his face no more. They brought him on his way to the ship.

Sorrowing most of all for the words which he spoke, that they should see his face no more. And they accompanied him to the ship.

1 And after parting from them, we put out to sea and came straight to Cos, and the day after to Rhodes, and from there to Patara:

When it happened that we had parted from them and had set sail, we came with a straight course to Cos, and the next day to Rhodes, and from there to Patara.

And it came to pass, that after we were separated from them, and had lunched, we came with a straight course to Coos, and the day following to Rhodes, and from thence to Patara:

2 And as there was a ship going to Phoenicia, we went in it.

Having found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set sail.

And finding a ship sailing over to Phoenicia, we went aboard, and set forth.

3 And when we had come in view of Cyprus, going past it on our left, we went on to Syria, and came to land at Tyre: for there the goods which were in the ship had to be taken out.

When we had come in sight of Cyprus, leaving it on the left hand, we sailed to Syria, and landed at Tyre, for there the ship was to unload her cargo.

Now when we had discovered Cyprus, we left it on the left hand, and sailed into Syria, and landed at Tyre: for there the ship was to unlade her burden.

- 4 And meeting the disciples we were there for seven days: and they gave Paul orders through the Spirit not to go up to Jerusalem.
Having found disciples, we stayed there seven days. These said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.
And finding disciples, we tarried there seven days: who said to Paul through the Spirit, that he should not go up to Jerusalem.
- 5 And when these days came to an end, we went on our journey; and they all, with their wives and children, came with us on our way till we were out of the town: and after going on our knees in prayer by the sea,
When it happened that we had accomplished the days, we departed and went on our journey. They all, with wives and children, brought us on our way until we were out of the city. Kneeling down on the beach, we prayed.
And when we had accomplished those days, we departed, and proceeded on our way; and they all conducted us with wives and children, till we were out of the city; and we kneeled down on the shore, and prayed.
- 6 We said our last words to one another, and got into the ship, and they went back to their houses.
After saying goodbye to each other, we went on board the ship, and they returned home again.
And when we had taken our leave one of another, we took ship; and they returned home again.
- 7 And journeying by ship from Tyre we came to Ptolemais; and there we had talk with the brothers and were with them for one day.
When we had finished the voyage from Tyre, we arrived at Ptolemais. We greeted the brothers, and stayed with them one day.
And when we had finished our course from Tyre, we came to Ptolemais, and saluted the brethren, and abode with them one day.
- 8 And on the day after, we went away and came to Caesarea, where we were guests in the house of Philip, the preacher, who was one of the seven.
On the next day, we, who were Paul's companions, departed, and came to Caesarea. We entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven, and stayed with him.
And the next day we that were of Paul's company departed, and came to Cesarea; and we entered into the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the seven; and abode with him.
- 9 And he had four daughters, virgins, who were prophets.
Now this man had four virgin daughters, who prophesied.
And the same man had four daughters, virgins, who prophesied.

- 10 And while we were waiting there for some days, a certain prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judaea.
As we stayed there some days, a certain prophet, named Agabus, came down from Judea.
And as we tarried there many days, there came down from Judea a certain prophet, named Agabus.
- 11 And he came to us, and took the band of Paul's clothing, and putting it round his feet and hands, said, The Holy Spirit says these words, So will the Jews do to the man who is the owner of this band, and they will give him up into the hands of the Gentiles.
Coming to us, and taking Paul's belt, he bound his own feet and hands, and said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: `So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man who owns this belt, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.`"
And when he had come to us, he took Paul's girdle, and bound his own hands and feet, and said, Thus saith the Holy Spirit, So will the Jews at Jerusalem bind the man that owneth this girdle, and will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles.
- 12 And hearing these things, we and those who were living in that place made request to him not to go to Jerusalem.
When we heard these things, both we and they of that place begged him not to go up to Jerusalem.
And when we heard these things, both we, and they of that place, besought him not to go up to Jerusalem.
- 13 Then Paul said, What are you doing, weeping and wounding my heart? for I am ready, not only to be a prisoner, but to be put to death at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.
Then Paul answered, "What are you doing, weeping and breaking my heart? For I am ready not only to be bound, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus."
Then Paul answered, What mean ye to weep, and to break my heart? for I am ready not to be bound only, but also to die at Jerusalem for the name of the Lord Jesus.
- 14 And as he might not be moved we did no more, saying, Let the purpose of God be done.
When he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, "The Lord's will be done."
And when he would not be persuaded, we ceased, saying, The will of the Lord be done.
- 15 And after these days we got ready and went up to Jerusalem.
After these days we took up our baggage and went up to Jerusalem.
And after those days we took up our furniture, and went up to Jerusalem.

- 16 And some of the disciples from Caesarea went with us, taking a certain Mnason of Cyprus, one of the early disciples, in whose house we were to be living.
Some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, bringing one Mnason of Cyprus, an early disciple, with whom we would stay.
There went with us also certain of the disciples of Cesarea, and brought with them one Mnason of Cyprus, an old disciple, with whom we should lodge.
- 17 And when we came to Jerusalem, the brothers were pleased to see us.
When we had come to Jerusalem, the brothers received us gladly.
And when we had come to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.
- 18 And on the day after, Paul went with us to James, and all the rulers of the church were present.
The day following, Paul went in with us to James; and all the elders were present.
And the day following Paul went in with us to James: and all the elders were present.
- 19 And when he had said how glad he was to see them, he gave them a detailed account of the things which God had done through his work among the Gentiles.
When he had greeted them, he reported one by one the things which God had worked among the Gentiles through his ministry.
And when he had saluted them, he declared particularly what things God had wrought among the Gentiles by his ministry.
- 20 And hearing it, they gave praise to God; and they said to him, You see, brother, what thousands there are among the Jews, who have the faith; and they all have a great respect for the law:
They, when they heard it, glorified God. They said to him, "You see, brother, how many thousands there are among the Jews of those who have believed, and they are all zealous for the law.
And when they heard it, they glorified the Lord, and said to him, Thou seest, brother, how many thousands of Jews there are who believe; and they are all zealous of the law:
- 21 And they have had news of you, how you have been teaching all the Jews among the Gentiles to give up the law of Moses, and not to give circumcision to their children, and not to keep the old rules.
They have been informed about you, that you teach all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, telling them not to circumcise their children neither to walk after the customs.
And they are informed concerning thee, that thou teachest all the Jews who are among the Gentiles to forsake Moses, saying, That they ought not to circumcise their children, neither to walk after the customs.

22 What then is the position? They will certainly get news that you have come.

What then? The assembly must certainly meet, for they will hear that you have come.

What is it therefore? the multitude must needs come together: for they will hear that thou art come.

23 Do this, then, which we say to you: We have four men who have taken an oath;

Therefore do what we tell you. We have four men who have a vow on them.

Do therefore this that we say to thee: we have four men who have a vow on them;

24 Go with these, and make yourself clean with them, and make the necessary payments for them, so that they may be free from their oath: and everyone will see that the statements made about you are not true, but that you put yourself under rule, and keep the law.

Take them, and purify yourself with them, and pay their expenses for them, that they may shave their heads. Then all will know that there is no truth in the things that they have been informed about you, but that you yourself also walk keeping the law.

Take them, and purify thyself with them, and be at charges with them, that they may shave their heads: and all may know that those things of which they were informed concerning thee, are nothing; but that thou thyself also walkest orderly, and keepest the law.

25 But as to the Gentiles who have the faith, we sent a letter, giving our decision that they were to keep themselves from offerings made to false gods, and from blood, and from the flesh of animals put to death in ways against the law, and from the evil desires of the body.

But concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written our decision that they should observe no such thing, except that they should keep themselves from food offered to idols, from blood, from strangled things, and from sexual immorality."

As concerning the Gentiles who believe, we have written and concluded that they observe no such thing, save only that they keep themselves from things offered to idols, and from blood, and from strangled, and from lewdness.

26 Then Paul took the men, and on the day after, making himself clean with them, he went into the Temple, giving out the statement that the days necessary for making them clean were complete, till the offering was made for every one of them.

Then Paul took the men, and the next day, purified himself and went with them into the temple, declaring the fulfillment of the days of purification, until the offering was offered for every one of them.

Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them, entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until an offering should be offered for every one of them.

- 27 And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews from Asia, seeing him in the Temple, got the people together and put their hands on him,
When the seven days were almost completed, the Jews from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the multitude and laid hands on him,
And when the seven days were almost ended, the Jews who were from Asia, when they saw him in the temple, stirred up all the people, and laid hands on him,
- 28 Crying out, Men of Israel, come to our help: this is the man who is teaching all men everywhere against the people and the law and this place: and in addition, he has taken Greeks into the Temple, and made this holy place unclean.
crying out, "Men of Israel, help! This is the man who teaches all men everywhere against the people, and the law, and this place. Moreover, he also brought Greeks into the temple, and has defiled this holy place!"
Crying out, Men of Israel, help. This is the man that teacheth all men every where against the people, and the law, and this place: and further, hath brought Greeks also into the temple; and hath polluted this holy place.
- 29 For they had seen him before in the town with Trophimus of Ephesus, and had the idea that Paul had taken him with him into the Temple.
For they had seen Trophimus, the Ephesian, with him in the city, and they supposed that Paul had brought him into the temple.
(For they had seen before with him in the city, Trophimus, an Ephesian, whom they supposed that Paul had brought into the temple.)
- 30 And all the town was moved, and the people came running together and put their hands on Paul, pulling him out of the Temple: and then the doors were shut.
All the city was moved, and the people ran together. They seized Paul and dragged him out of the temple. Immediately the doors were shut.
And all the city was moved, and the people ran together: and they took Paul and drew him out of the temple. And forthwith the doors were shut.
- 31 And while they were attempting to put him to death, news came to the chief captain of the band that all Jerusalem was out of control.
As they were trying to kill him, news came up to the commanding officer of the regiment that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
And as they went about to kill him, tidings came to the chief captain of the band, that all Jerusalem was in an uproar.
- 32 And straight away he took some armed men and went quickly down to them: and the Jews, seeing them, gave no more blows to Paul.
Immediately he took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. They, when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, stopped beating Paul.
Who immediately took soldiers and centurions, and ran down to them. And when they saw the chief captain and the soldiers, they left beating Paul.

- 33 Then the chief captain came near and took him, and gave orders for him to be put in chains, questioning them as to who he was and what he had done.
Then the commanding officer came near, arrested him, commanded him to be bound with two chains, and inquired who he was and what he had done.
Then the chief captain came near and took him, and commanded him to be bound with two chains: and inquired who he was, and what he had done.
- 34 And some said one thing and some another, among the people: and as he was not able to get a knowledge of the facts because of the noise, he gave orders for Paul to be taken into the army building.
Some shouted one thing, some another, among the crowd. When he couldn't find out the truth because of the noise, he commanded him to be brought into the barracks.
And some cried one thing, some another, among the multitude: and when he could not know the certainty for the tumult, he commanded him to be carried into the castle.
- 35 And when he came on to the steps, he was lifted up by the armed men, because of the force of the people;
When he came to the stairs, it happened that he was carried by the soldiers because of the violence of the crowd;
And when he came upon the stairs, so it was that he was borne by the soldiers, for the violence of the people.
- 36 For a great mass of people came after them, crying out, Away with him!
for the multitude of the people followed after, crying out, "Away with him!"
For the multitude of the people followed, crying, Away with him.
- 37 And when Paul was about to be taken into the building, he said to the chief captain, May I say something to you? And he said, Have you a knowledge of Greek?
As Paul was about to be brought into the barracks, he asked the commanding officer, "May I say something to you?" He said, "Do you know Greek?"
And as Paul was to be led into the castle, he said to the chief captain, May I speak to thee? Who said, Canst thou speak Greek?
- 38 Are you by chance the Egyptian who, before this, got the people worked up against the government and took four thousand men of the Assassins out into the waste land?
Aren't you then the Egyptian, who before these days stirred up to sedition and led out into the wilderness the four thousand men of the Assassins?"
Art not thou that Egyptian, who before these days madest an uproar, and leddest out into the wilderness four thousand men that were murderers?

- 39 But Paul said, I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia, which is not an unimportant town: I make a request to you to let me say a word to the people.
But Paul said, "I am a Jew, from Tarsus in Cilicia, a citizen of no insignificant city. I beg you, allow me to speak to the people."
But Paul said, I am a man who am a Jew of Tarsus, a city of Cilicia, a citizen of no mean city: and I beseech thee suffer me to speak to the people.
- 40 And when he let him do so, Paul, from the steps, made a sign with his hand to the people, and when they were all quiet, he said to them in the Hebrew language,
When he had given him permission, Paul, standing on the stairs, beckoned with his hand to the people. When there was a great silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,
And when he had given him license, Paul stood on the stairs, and beckoned with the hand to the people. And when there was made entire silence, he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, saying,
- 1 My brothers and fathers, give ear to the story of my life which I now put before you.
"Brothers and fathers, listen to the defense which I now make to you."
Men, brethren, and fathers, hear ye my defense which I make now to you.
- 2 And, hearing him talking in the Hebrew language, they became the more quiet, and he said,
When they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they were even more quiet. He said,
(And when they heard that he spoke to them in the Hebrew language, they kept the more silence: and he saith,)
- 3 I am a Jew of Tarsus in Cilicia by birth, but I had my education in this town at the feet of Gamaliel, being trained in the keeping of every detail of the law of our fathers; given up to the cause of God with all my heart, as you are today.
"I am indeed a Jew, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strict manner of the law of our fathers, being zealous for God, even as you all are this day.
I am verily a man who am a Jew, born in Tarsus, a city in Cilicia, yet brought up in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, and taught according to the perfect manner of the law of the fathers, being zealous towards God, as ye all are this day.
- 4 And I made attacks on this Way, even to death, taking men and women and putting them in prison.
I persecuted this Way to the death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.
And I persecuted this way even to death, binding and delivering into prisons both men and women.

- 5 Of which the high priest will be a witness, and all the rulers, from whom I had letters to the brothers; and I went into Damascus, to take those who were there as prisoners to Jerusalem for punishment.
As also the high priest and all the council of the elders testify, from whom also I received letters to the brothers, and journeyed to Damascus to bring them also who were there to Jerusalem in bonds to be punished.
As also the high priest doth bear me testimony, and all the estate of the elders; from whom also I received letters to the brethren, and went to Damascus, to bring them who were there bound to Jerusalem, to be punished.
- 6 And it came about that while I was on my journey, coming near to Damascus, about the middle of the day, suddenly I saw a great light from heaven shining round me.
It happened that, as I made my journey, and came close to Damascus, about noon, suddenly there shone from the sky a great light around me.
And it came to pass, that as I was passing on my journey, and had come nigh to Damascus about noon, suddenly there shone from heaven a great light around me.
- 7 And when I went down on the earth, a voice came to my ears saying to me, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly?
I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, `Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me?`
And I fell to the ground, and heard a voice saying to me, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me?
- 8 And I, answering, said, Who are you; Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you are attacking.
I answered, `Who are you, Lord?` He said to me, `I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom you persecute.`
And I answered, Who art thou, Lord? And he said to me, I am Jesus of Nazareth, whom thou persecutest.
- 9 And those who were with me saw the light, but the voice of him who was talking to me came not to their ears.
Those who were with me indeed saw the light and were afraid, but they didn't understand the voice of him who spoke to me.
And they that were with me saw indeed the light, and were afraid; but they heard not the voice of him that spoke to me.
- 10 And I said, What have I to do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Get up, and go into Damascus; and it will be made clear to you what you have to do.
I said, `What will I do, Lord?` The Lord said to me, `Arise, and go into Damascus. There you will be told about all things which are appointed for you to do.`
And I said, What shall I do, Lord? And the Lord said to me, Arise, and go into Damascus, and there it shall be told thee concerning all things which are appointed for thee to do.

- 11 And because I was unable to see because of the glory of that light, those who were with me took me by the hand, and so I came to Damascus.
When I couldn't see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of those who were with me, I came into Damascus.
And when I could not see for the glory of that light, being led by the hand of them that were with me, I came into Damascus.
- 12 And one Ananias, a God-fearing man, who kept the law, and of whom all the Jews in that place had a high opinion,
One Ananias, a devout man according to the law, well reported of by all the Jews who lived there,
And one Ananias, a devout man according to the law, having a good report of all the Jews who dwelt there,
- 13 Came to my side and said, Brother Saul, let your eyes be open. And in that very hour I was able to see him.
came to me, and standing by me said to me, `Brother Saul, receive your sight!' In that very hour I looked up at him.
Came to me, and stood, and said to me, Brother Saul, receive thy sight. And the same hour I looked up upon him.
- 14 And he said, You have been marked out by the God of our fathers to have knowledge of his purpose, and to see the Upright One and to give ear to the words of his mouth.
He said, `The God of our fathers has appointed you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear a voice from his mouth.
And he said, The God of our fathers hath chosen thee, that thou shouldst know his will, and see that Just One, and shouldst hear the voice of his mouth.
- 15 For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and of what has come to your ears.
For you will be a witness for him to all men of what you have seen and heard.
For thou shalt be his witness to all men of what thou hast seen and heard.
- 16 And now, why are you waiting? get up, and have baptism, for the washing away of your sins, giving worship to his name.
Now why do you wait? Arise, be baptized, and wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.`
And now why tarriest thou? arise, and be baptized, and wash away thy sins, calling on the name of the Lord.

- 17 And it came about that when I had come back to Jerusalem, while I was at prayer in the Temple, my senses became more than naturally clear,
It happened that, when I had returned to Jerusalem, and while I prayed in the temple, I fell into a trance,
And it came to pass, that when I had come again to Jerusalem, even while I prayed in the temple, I was in a trance;
- 18 And I saw him saying to me, Go out of Jerusalem straight away because they will not give hearing to your witness about me.
and saw him saying to me, `Hurry and get out of Jerusalem quickly, because they will not receive testimony concerning me from you.`
And saw him saying to me, Make haste, and depart quickly from Jerusalem; for they will not receive thy testimony concerning me.
- 19 And I said, Lord, they themselves have knowledge that I went through the Synagogues putting in prison and whipping all those who had faith in you:
I said, `Lord, they themselves know that I imprisoned and beat in every synagogue those who believed in you.
And I said, Lord, they know that I imprisoned, and beat in every synagogue them that believed on thee:
- 20 And when Stephen your witness was put to death, I was there, giving approval, and looking after the clothing of those who put him to death.
When the blood of Stephen, your witness, was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who killed him.`
And when the blood of thy martyr Stephen was shed, I also was standing by, and consenting to his death, and kept the raiment of them that slew him.
- 21 And he said to me, Go, for I will send you far away to the Gentiles.
He said to me, `Depart, for I will send you forth far from here to the Gentiles.`"
And he said to me, Depart: for I will send thee far hence to the Gentiles.
- 22 And they gave him a hearing as far as this word; then with loud voices they said, Away with this man from the earth; it is not right for him to be living.
They listened to him until he said that, then they lifted up their voice, and said, "Rid the earth of this fellow, for he isn't fit to live!"
And they gave him audience to this word, and then lifted up their voices, and said, Away with such a man from the earth: for it is not fit that he should live.

- 23 And while they were crying out, and pulling off their clothing, and sending dust into the air,
As they cried out, and threw off their cloaks, and threw dust into the air,
And as they cried out, and cast off their clothes, and threw dust into the air,
- 24 The chief captain gave orders for him to be taken into the army building, saying that he would put him to the test by whipping, so that he might have knowledge of the reason why they were crying out so violently against him.
the commanding officer commanded him to be brought into the barracks, ordering him to be examined by scourging, that he might know for what crime they shouted against him like that.
The chief captain commanded him to be brought into the castle, and bade that he should be examined by scourging; that he might know for what cause they cried so against him.
- 25 And when they had put leather bands round him, Paul said to the captain who was present, Is it the law for you to give blows to a man who is a Roman and has not been judged?
When they had tied him up with thongs, Paul asked the centurion who stood by, "Is it lawful for you to scourge a man who is a Roman, and not found guilty?"
And as they bound him with thongs, Paul said to the centurion that stood by, Is it lawful for you to scourge a man that is a Roman, and uncondemned?
- 26 And hearing this, the man went to the chief captain and gave him an account of it, saying, What are you about to do? for this man is a Roman.
When the centurion heard it, he went to the commanding officer and told him, "Watch what you are about to do, for this man is a Roman!"
When the centurion heard that, he went and told the chief captain, saying, Take heed what thou doest; for this man is a Roman.
- 27 And the chief captain came to him and said, Give me an answer, are you a Roman? And he said, Yes.
The commanding officer came and asked him, "Tell me, are you a Roman?" He said, "Yes."
Then the chief captain came, and said to him, Tell me, art thou a Roman? He said, Yes.
- 28 And the chief captain said, I got Roman rights for myself at a great price. And Paul said, But I had them by birth.
The commanding officer answered, "I bought my citizenship for a great price." Paul said, "But I was born a Roman."
And the chief captain answered, With a great sum I obtained this freedom. And Paul said, But I was free born.

- 29 Then those who were about to put him to the test went away: and the chief captain was in fear, seeing that he was a Roman, and that he had put chains on him.
Immediately those who were about to examine him departed from him, and the commanding officer also was afraid when he realized that he was a Roman, because he had bound him.
Then forthwith they departed from him who were about to examine him: and the chief captain also was afraid, after he knew that he was a Roman, and because he had bound him.
- 30 But on the day after, desiring to have certain knowledge of what the Jews had to say against him, he made him free, and gave orders for the chief priests and all the Sanhedrin to come together, and he took Paul and put him before them.
But on the next day, desiring to know the truth about why he was accused by the Jews, he freed him from the bonds, and commanded the chief priests and all the council to come together, and brought Paul down and set him before them.
On the morrow, because he would have known the certainty why he was accused by the Jews, he loosed him from his bands, and commanded the chief priests and all their council to appear, and brought Paul down, and set him before them.
- 1 And Paul, looking fixedly at the Sanhedrin, said, My brothers, my life has been upright before God till this day.
Paul, looking steadfastly at the council, said, "Brothers, I have lived before God in all good conscience until this day."
And Paul, earnestly beholding the council, said, Men, brethren, I have lived in all good conscience before God until this day.
- 2 And the high priest, Ananias, gave orders to those who were near him to give him a blow on the mouth.
The high priest, Ananias, commanded those who stood by him to strike him on the mouth.
And the high priest Ananias commanded them that stood by him, to strike him on the mouth.
- 3 Then Paul said to him, God will give blows to you, you whitewashed wall: are you here to be my judge by law, and by your orders am I given blows against the law?
Then said Paul to him, "God will strike you, you whitewashed wall! Do you sit to judge me according to the law, and command me to be struck contrary to the law?"
Then said Paul to him, God shall smite thee, thou whited wall: for sittest thou to judge me according to the law, and commandest me to be smitten contrary to the law?
- 4 And those who were near said, Do you say such words against God's high priest?
Those who stood by said, "Do you malign God's high priest?"
And they that stood by, said, Revilest thou God's high priest?

- 5 And Paul said, Brother, I had no idea that he was the high priest: for it has been said, You may not say evil about the ruler of your people.
Paul said, "I didn't know, brothers, that he was high priest. For it is written, `You shall not speak evil of a ruler of your people.`"
Then said Paul, I knew not, brethren, that he is the high priest: for it is written, Thou shalt not speak evil of the ruler of thy people.
- 6 But when Paul saw that half of them were Sadducees and the rest Pharisees, he said in the Sanhedrin, Brothers, I am a Pharisee, and the son of Pharisees: I am here to be judged on the question of the hope of the coming back from the dead.
But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, "Men and brothers, I am a Pharisee, a son of Pharisees. Concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am being judged!"
But when Paul perceived that the one part were Sadducees, and the other Pharisees, he cried out in the council, Men, brethren, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee: concerning the hope and resurrection of the dead I am called in question.
- 7 And when he had said this, there was an argument between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and a division in the meeting.
When he had said this, there arose an argument between the Pharisees and Sadducees, and the assembly was divided.
And when he had so said, there arose a dissension between the Pharisees and the Sadducees: and the multitude was divided.
- 8 For the Sadducees say that there is no coming back from the dead, and no angels or spirits: but the Pharisees have belief in all these.
For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit; but the Pharisees confess all of these.
For the Sadducees say that there is no resurrection, neither angel, nor spirit: but the Pharisees confess both.
- 9 And there was a great outcry: and some of the scribes on the side of the Pharisees got up and took part in the discussion, saying, We see no evil in this man: what if he has had a revelation from an angel or a spirit?
A great clamor arose, and some of the scribes of the Pharisees part stood up, and contended, saying, "We find no evil in this man. But if a spirit or angel has spoken to him, let's not fight against God!"
And there arose a great cry: and the scribes that were of the Pharisees' part arose, and contended, saying, We find no evil in this man: but if a spirit or an angel hath spoken to him, let us not fight against God.

- 10 And when the argument became very violent, the chief captain, fearing that Paul would be pulled in two by them, gave orders to the armed men to take him by force from among them, and take him into the army building.
When a great argument arose, the commanding officer, fearing that Paul would be torn in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down and take him by force from among them, and bring him into the barracks.
And when there arose a great dissension, the chief captain, fearing lest Paul would have been pulled in pieces by them, commanded the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them, and to bring him into the castle.
- 11 And the night after, the Lord came to his side and said, Be of good heart, for as you have been witnessing for me in Jerusalem, so will you be my witness in Rome.
The following night, the Lord stood by him, and said, "Cheer up, Paul, for as you have testified about me at Jerusalem, so you must testify also at Rome."
And the night following the Lord stood by him, and said, Be of good cheer, Paul: for as thou hast testified concerning me in Jerusalem, so must thou bear testimony also at Rome.
- 12 And when it was day, the Jews came together and put themselves under an oath that they would take no food or drink till they had put Paul to death.
When it was day, some of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying that they would neither eat nor drink until they had killed Paul.
And when it was day, certain of the Jews banded together, and bound themselves under a curse, saying, that they would neither eat nor drink till they had killed Paul.
- 13 And more than forty of them took this oath.
There were more than forty people who had made this conspiracy.
And they were more than forty who had made this conspiracy.
- 14 And they came to the chief priests and the rulers and said, We have taken a great oath to take no food till we have put Paul to death
They came to the chief priests and the elders, and said, "We have bound ourselves under a great curse, to taste nothing until we have killed Paul.
And they came to the chief priests and elders, and said, We have bound ourselves under a great curse, that we will eat nothing until we have slain Paul.

- 15 So now, will you and the Sanhedrin make a request to the military authorities to have him sent down to you, as if you were desiring to go into the business in greater detail; and we, before ever he gets to you, will be waiting to put him to death.
Now therefore, you with the council inform the commanding officer that he should bring him down to you tomorrow, as though you were going to judge his case more exactly. We are ready to kill him before he comes near."
Now therefore ye with the council signify to the chief captain, that he bring him down to you to-morrow, as though ye would inquire something more perfectly concerning him: and we, before he shall come near, are ready to kill him.
- 16 But Paul's sister's son had word of their design, and he came into the army building and gave news of it to Paul.
But Paul's sister's son heard of their lying in wait, and he came and entered into the barracks and told Paul.
And when the son of Paul's sister heard of their lying in wait, he went and entered into the castle, and told Paul.
- 17 And Paul sent for a captain and said, Take this young man to your chief, for he has news for him.
Paul summoned one of the centurions, and said, "Bring this young man to the commanding officer, for he has something to tell him."
Then Paul called one of the centurions to him, and said, Bring this young man to the chief captain: for he hath a certain thing to tell him.
- 18 So he took him to the chief captain and said, Paul, the prisoner, made a request to me to take this young man to you, for he has something to say to you.
So he took him, and brought him to the commanding officer, and said, "Paul, the prisoner, called me to himself, and asked me to bring this young man to you, who has something to tell you."
So he took him, and brought him to the chief captain, and said, Paul the prisoner called me to him, and prayed me to bring this young man to thee, who hath something to say to thee.
- 19 And the chief took him by the hand and, going on one side, said to him privately, What is it you have to say to me?
The commanding officer took him by the hand, and going aside, asked him privately, "What is it that you have to tell me?"
Then the chief captain took him by the hand, and went with him aside privately, and asked him, What is that thou hast to tell me?

- 20 And he said, The Jews are in agreement together to make a request to you for Paul to be taken, on the day after this, into the Sanhedrin, to be questioned in greater detail.
He said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring down Paul tomorrow to the council, as though intending to inquire somewhat more accurately concerning him.
And he said, The Jews have agreed to desire thee, that thou wouldst bring down Paul to-morrow into the council, as though they would inquire somewhat concerning him more perfectly.
- 21 But do not give way to them, for more than forty of them are waiting for him, having taken an oath not to take food or drink till they have put him to death: and now they are ready, waiting for your order.
Therefore don't yield to them, for more than forty men lie in wait for him, who have bound themselves under a curse neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. Now they are ready, looking for the promise from you."
But do not thou yield to them: for there are of them who lie in wait for him more than forty men, who have bound themselves with an oath, that they will neither eat nor drink till they have killed him: and now they are ready, looking for a promise from thee.
- 22 So the chief captain let the young man go, saying to him, Do not say to anyone that you have given me word of these things.
So the commanding officer let the young man go, charging him, "Tell no one that you have told these things to me."
So the chief captain then let the young man depart, and charged him, See thou tell no man that thou hast shown these things to me.
- 23 And he sent for two captains and said, Make ready two hundred men, with seventy horsemen and two hundred spearmen, to go to Caesarea, at the third hour of the night:
He called to himself two of the centurions, and said, "Prepare two hundred soldiers to go as far as Caesarea, with seventy horsemen, and two hundred men armed with spears, at the third hour of the night."
And he called to him two centurions, saying, Make ready two hundred soldiers to go to Cesarea, and seventy horsemen, and spearmen two hundred, at the third hour of the night;
- 24 And get beasts so that they may put Paul on them, and take him safely to Felix, the ruler.
He asked them to provide animals, that they might set Paul on one, and bring him safely to Felix, the governor.
And provide for them beasts, that they may set Paul on, and bring him safe to Felix the governor.
- 25 And he sent a letter in these words:
He wrote a letter like this:
And he wrote a letter after this manner:

- 26 Claudius Lysias, to the most noble ruler, Felix, peace be with you.
"Claudius Lysias to the most excellent governor Felix: Greetings.
Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent governor Felix, sendeth greeting.
- 27 This man was taken by the Jews, and was about to be put to death by them, when I came on them with the army and took him out of danger, having knowledge that he was a Roman.
"This man was seized by the Jews, and was about to be killed by them, when I came on them with the soldiers and rescued him, having learned that he was a Roman.
This man was taken by the Jews, and would have been killed by them: then I came with a body of soldiers, and rescued him, having understood that he was a Roman.
- 28 And, desiring to get at the reason for their attack on him, I took him down to their Sanhedrin:
Desiring to know the cause why they accused him, I brought him down to their council.
And when I would have known the cause for which they accused him, I brought him forth into their council:
- 29 Then it became clear to me that it was a question of their law, and that nothing was said against him which might be a reason for prison or death.
I found him to be accused about questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death or of bonds.
Whom I perceived to be accused of questions of their law, but to have nothing laid to his charge worthy of death, or of bonds.
- 30 And when news was given to me that a secret design was being made against the man, I sent him straight away to you, giving orders to those who are against him to make their statements before you.
When I was told that the Jews lay in wait for the man, I sent him to you immediately, charging his accusers also to bring their accusations against him before you. Farewell."
And when it was told to me that the Jews laid wait for the man, I sent forthwith to thee, and gave commandment to his accusers also, to say before thee what they had against him. Farewell.
- 31 So the armed men, as they were ordered, took Paul and came by night to Antipatris.
So the soldiers, carrying out their orders, took Paul and brought him by night to Antipatris.
Then the soldiers, as it was commanded them, took Paul, and brought him by night to Antipatris.

32 But on the day after, they sent the horsemen on with him, and went back to their place:

But on the next day they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the barracks.

On the morrow they left the horsemen to go with him, and returned to the castle:

33 And they, when they came to Caesarea, gave the letter to the ruler, and took Paul before him.

They, when they came to Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

Who, when they came to Cesarea, and delivered the epistle to the governor, presented Paul also before him.

34 And after reading it, he said, What part of the country do you come from? And, hearing that he was from Cilicia,

When the governor had read it, he asked what province he was from. When he understood that he was from Cilicia, he said,

And when the governor had read the letter, he asked of what province he was. And when he understood that he was of Cilicia, 35 I will give hearing to your cause, he said, when those who are against you have come. And he gave orders for him to be kept in Herod's Praetorium.

"I will hear you fully when your accusers also arrive." He commanded that he be kept in Herod's palace.

I will hear thee, said he, when thy accusers also have come. And he commanded him to be kept in Herod's judgment-hall.

1 And after five days, the high priest, Ananias, came with certain of the rulers, and an expert talker, one Tertullus; and they made a statement to Felix against Paul.

After five days, the high priest, Ananias, came down with certain elders and an orator, one Tertullus. They informed the governor against Paul.

And after five days, Ananias the high priest descended with the elders, and with a certain orator named Tertullus, who informed the governor against Paul.

2 And when he had been sent for, Tertullus, starting his statement, said, Because by you we are living in peace, and through your wisdom wrongs are put right for this nation,

When he was called, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, "Seeing that by you we enjoy much peace, and that excellent measures are coming to this nation,

And when he was called forth, Tertullus began to accuse him, saying, Seeing that by thee we enjoy great quietness, and that very worthy deeds are done to this nation by thy providence,

3 In all things and in all places we are conscious of our great debt to you, most noble Felix.
we accept it in all ways and in all places, most excellent Felix, with all thankfulness.
We accept it always, and in all places, most noble Felix, with all thankfulness.

4 But, so that I may not make you tired, I make a request to you of your mercy, to give hearing to a short statement.
But, that I don't delay you, I entreat you to bear with us and hear a few words.
Notwithstanding, that I may not be further tedious to thee, I pray thee, that thou wouldst of thy clemency hear us a few words.

5 For this man, in our opinion, is a cause of trouble, a maker of attacks on the government among Jews through all the empire, and a chief mover in the society of the Nazarenes:
For we have found this man a pestilent fellow, and an instigator of insurrections among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes.
For we have found this a pestilent man, and a mover of sedition among all the Jews throughout the world, and a ring-leader of the sect of the Nazarenes:

6 Who, in addition, was attempting to make the Temple unclean: whom we took,
He even tried to profane the temple. We arrested him.
Who also hath gone about to profane the temple: whom we took, and would have judged according to our law.

7 But the chief captain Lysias came and with great violence took him out of our hands,

8 And from whom you will be able, by questioning him yourself, to get knowledge of all the things which we say against him.
By examining him yourself you may ascertain all these things of which we accuse him."
Commanding his accusers to come to thee: by examining whom, thou thyself mayest take knowledge of all these things of which we accuse him.

9 And the Jews were in agreement with his statement, saying that these things were so.
The Jews also joined in the attack, affirming that these things were so.
And the Jews also assented, saying, that these things were so.

- 10 Then when the ruler had given him a sign to make his answer, Paul said, Because I have knowledge that you have been a judge over this nation for a number of years, I am glad to make my answer:
When the governor had beckoned to him to speak, Paul answered, "Because I know that you have been a judge of this nation for many years, I cheerfully make my defense,
Then Paul, after the governor had beckoned to him to speak, answered, Forasmuch as I know that thou hast been for many years a judge to this nation, I do the more cheerfully answer for myself:
- 11 Seeing that you are able to make certain of the fact that it is not more than twelve days from the time when I came up to Jerusalem for worship;
seeing that you can recognize that it is not more than twelve days since I went up to worship at Jerusalem.
That thou mayest understand, that there are yet but twelve days since I went up to Jerusalem to worship.
- 12 And they have not seen me in argument with any man in the Temple, or working up the feelings of the people, in the Synagogues or in the town:
In the temple they didn't find me disputing with anyone or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues, or in the city.
And they neither found me in the temple disputing with any man, neither exciting the people to sedition, neither in the synagogues, nor in the city:
- 13 And they are not able to give facts in support of the things which they say against me now.
Nor can they prove to you the things whereof they now accuse me.
Neither can they prove the things of which they now accuse me.
- 14 But this I will say openly to you, that I do give worship to the God of our fathers after that Way, which to them is not the true religion: but I have belief in all the things which are in the law and in the books of the prophets:
But this I confess to you, that after the Way, which they call a sect, so I serve the God of our fathers, believing all things which are according to the law, and which are written in the prophets;
But this I confess to thee, that after the way which they call heresy, so I worship the God of my fathers, believing all things which are written in the law and in the prophets:
- 15 Hoping in God for that which they themselves are looking for, that there will be a coming back from the dead for upright men and wrongdoers.
having hope toward God, which these also themselves look for, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.
And have hope towards God, which they themselves also allow, that there will be a resurrection of the dead, both of the just and unjust.

- 16 And in this, I do my best at all times to have no reason for shame before God or men.
Herein I also practice always having a conscience void of offense toward God and men.
And in this I exercise myself, to have always a conscience void of offense towards God, and towards men.
- 17 Now after a number of years I came to give help and offerings to my nation:
Now after some years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings;
Now after many years, I came to bring alms to my nation, and offerings.
- 18 And having been made clean, I was in the Temple, but not with a great number of people, and not with noise: but there were certain Jews from Asia, amid which they found me purified in the temple, with no crowd, nor yet with tumult. But certain Jews from Asia --
Upon which certain Jews from Asia found me purified in the temple, neither with multitude, nor with tumult.
- 19 And it would have been better if they had come here to make a statement, if they have anything against me.
who ought to have been here before you, and to make accusation, if they had anything against me.
Who ought to have been here before thee, and object if they had aught against me.
- 20 Or let these men here present say what wrongdoing was seen in me when I was before the Sanhedrin,
Or else let these men themselves say what injustice they found in me when I stood before the council,
Or else let these same here say, if they have found any evil-doing in me, while I stood before the council,
- 21 But only this one thing which I said among them in a loud voice, I am this day being judged on the question of the coming back from the dead.
unless it is for this one thing that I cried standing among them, `Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am being judged before you today!`"
Except it is for this one voice, that I cried, standing among them, Concerning the resurrection of the dead I am called in question by you this day.
- 22 But Felix, who had a more detailed knowledge of the Way, put them off, saying, When Lysias, the chief captain, comes down, I will give attention to your business.
But Felix, having more exact knowledge concerning the Way, deferred them, saying, "When Lysias, the commanding officer, comes down, I will decide your case."
And when Felix heard these things, having more perfect knowledge of that way, he deferred them, and said, When Lysias the chief captain shall come down, I will know the uttermost of your matter.

- 23 And he gave orders to the captain to keep Paul under his control, and to let him have everything he had need of; and not to keep his friends from coming to see him.
He ordered the centurion that Paul should be kept in custody, and should have some privileges, and not to forbid any of his friends to serve him or to visit him.
And he commanded a centurion to keep Paul, and to let him have liberty, and that he should forbid none of his acquaintance to minister, or come to him.
- 24 But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla his wife, who was of the Jews by birth, and sent for Paul, and gave hearing to him about faith in Christ Jesus.
But after some days, Felix came with Drusilla, his wife, who was a Jewess, and sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ Jesus.
And after certain days, when Felix came with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and heard him concerning the faith in Christ.
- 25 And while he was talking about righteousness and self-control and the judging which was to come, Felix had great fear and said, Go away for the present, and when the right time comes I will send for you.
As he reasoned about righteousness, self-control, and the judgment to come, Felix was terrified, and answered, "Go your way for this time, and when it is convenient for me, I will call you to me."
And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, depart for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee.
- 26 For he was hoping that Paul would give him money: so he sent for him more frequently and had talk with him.
He hoped that way that money would be given to him by Paul, that he might release him. Therefore also he sent for him more often, and talked with him.
He hoped also that money would have been given him by Paul, that he might loose him: wherefore he sent for him the oftener, and communed with him.
- 27 But after two years Porcius Festus took the place of Felix, who, desiring to have the approval of the Jews, kept Paul in chains.
But when two years were fulfilled, Felix was succeeded by Porcius Festus, and desiring to gain favor with the Jews, Felix left Paul in bonds.
But after two years Porcius Festus came as successor to Felix: and Felix willing to show the Jews a pleasure, left Paul bound.

- 1 So Festus, having come into that part of the country which was under his rule, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.
Festus therefore, having come into the province, after three days went up to Jerusalem from Caesarea.
Now when Festus had come into the province, after three days he ascended from Cesarea to Jerusalem.
- 2 And the chief priests and the chief men of the Jews made statements against Paul,
Then the high priest and the principal men of the Jews informed him against Paul, and they begged him,
Then the high priest and the chief of the Jews informed him against Paul, and besought him,
- 3 Requesting Festus to give effect to their design against him, and send him to Jerusalem, when they would be waiting to put him to death on the way.
asking a favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem; plotting to kill him on the way.
And desired favor against him, that he would send for him to Jerusalem, laying wait in the way to kill him.
- 4 But Festus, in answer, said that Paul was being kept in prison at Caesarea, and that in a short time he himself was going there.
However Festus answered that Paul was kept in custody at Caesarea, and that he himself was about to depart shortly.
But Festus answered, that Paul should be kept at Cesarea, and that he himself would depart shortly thither.
- 5 So, he said, let those who have authority among you go with me, and if there is any wrong in the man, let them make a statement against him.
"Let them therefore," said he, "that are in power among you go down with me, and if there is anything wrong in the man, let them accuse him."
Let them therefore, said he, who among you are able, go down with me, and accuse this man, if there is any wickedness in him.
- 6 And when he had been with them not more than eight or ten days, he went down to Caesarea; and on the day after, he took his place on the judge's seat, and sent for Paul.
When he had stayed among them more than ten days, he went down to Caesarea, and on the next day he sat on the judgment seat, and commanded Paul to be brought.
And when he had tarried among them more than ten days, he went down to Cesarea; and the next day sitting on the judgment-seat, commanded Paul to be brought.

- 7 And when he came, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem came round him, and made all sorts of serious statements against him, which were not supported by the facts.
When he had come, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem stood around him, bringing against him many and grievous charges which they could not prove,
And when he had come, the Jews who came down from Jerusalem stood around, and laid many and grievous complaints against Paul, which they could not prove;
- 8 Then Paul, in his answer to them, said, I have done no wrong against the law of the Jews, or against the Temple, or against Caesar.
while he said in his defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I sinned at all."
While he answered for himself, Neither against the law of the Jews, neither against the temple, nor yet against Cesar have I committed any offense.
- 9 But Festus, desiring to get the approval of the Jews, said to Paul, Will you go up to Jerusalem, and be judged before me there in connection with these things?
But Festus, desiring to gain favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, "Will you go up to Jerusalem, and there be judged of these things before me?"
But Festus, willing to do the Jews a pleasure, answered Paul, and said, Wilt thou go to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these things before me?
- 10 And Paul said, I am before the seat of Caesar's authority where it is right for me to be judged: I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you are well able to see.
But Paul said, "I am standing before Caesar's judgment seat, where I ought to be tried. I have done no wrong to the Jews, as you also know very well.
Then said Paul, I stand at Cesar's tribunal, where I ought to be judged: to the Jews have I done no wrong, as thou very well knowest.
- 11 If, then, I am a wrongdoer and there is a cause of death in me, I am ready for death: if it is not as they say against me, no man may give me up to them. Let my cause come before Caesar.
For if I have done wrong, and have committed anything worthy of death, I don't refuse to die; but if none of those things is true that these accuse me of, no one can give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar!"
For if I am an offender, or have committed any thing worthy of death, I refuse not to die: but if there is none of these things of which these accuse me, no man may deliver me to them. I appeal to Cesar.

- 12 Then Festus, having had a discussion with the Jews, made answer, You have said, Let my cause come before Caesar; to Caesar you will go.
Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, "You have appealed to Caesar. To Caesar you will go."
Then Festus, when he had conferred with the council, answered, Hast thou appealed to Cesar? to Cesar thou shalt go.
- 13 Now when some days had gone by, King Agrippa and Bernice came to Caesarea and went to see Festus.
Now when some days had passed, Agrippa, the King, and Bernice arrived at Caesarea, and greeted Festus.
And after certain days, king Agrippa and Bernice came to Cesarea, to salute Festus.
- 14 And as they were there for some days, Festus gave them Paul's story, saying, There is a certain man here who was put in prison by Felix:
As they stayed there many days, Festus laid Paul's case before the King, saying, "There is a certain man left a prisoner by Felix;
And when they had been there many days, Festus declared Paul's cause to the king, saying, There is a certain man left in bonds by Felix:
- 15 Against whom the chief priests and the rulers of the Jews made a statement when I was at Jerusalem, requesting me to give a decision against him.
about whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, asking for a sentence against him.
About whom, when I was at Jerusalem, the chief priests and the elders of the Jews informed me, desiring to have judgment against him.
- 16 To whom I gave answer that it is not the Roman way to give a man up, till he has been face to face with those who are attacking him, and has had a chance to give an answer to the statements made against him.
To whom I answered that it is not the custom of the Romans to give up any man to destruction, before the accused have met the accusers face to face, and have had opportunity to make his defense concerning the matter laid against him.
To whom I answered, It is not the manner of the Romans to deliver any man to die, before he who is accused hath the accusers face to face, and hath license to answer for himself concerning the crime laid against him.
- 17 So, when they had come together here, straight away, on the day after, I took my place on the judge's seat and sent for the man.
When therefore they were come together here, I didn't delay, but on the next day sat on the judgment seat, and commanded the man to be brought.
Therefore, when they had come hither, without any delay on the morrow I sat on the judgment-seat, and commanded the man to be brought forth;

- 18 But when they got up they said nothing about such crimes as I had in mind:
Concerning whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no charge of such things as I supposed;
Against whom, when the accusers stood up, they brought no accusation of such things as I supposed:
- 19 But had certain questions against him in connection with their religion, and about one Jesus, now dead, who, Paul said, was living.
but had certain questions against him of their own religion, and of one Jesus, who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
But had certain questions against him of their own superstition, and of one Jesus who was dead, whom Paul affirmed to be alive.
- 20 And as I had not enough knowledge for the discussion of these things, I made the suggestion to him to go to Jerusalem and be judged there.
I, being perplexed how to inquire concerning these things, asked whether he would go to Jerusalem and there be judged of these matters.
And because I doubted of such manner of questions, I asked him whether he would go to Jerusalem, and there be judged concerning these matters.
- 21 But when Paul made a request that he might be judged by Caesar, I gave orders for him to be kept till I might send him to Caesar.
But when Paul had appealed to be kept for the decision of the emperor, I commanded him to be kept until I should send him to Caesar."
But when Paul had appealed to be reserved to the hearing of Augustus, I commanded him to be kept till I might send him to Cesar.
- 22 And Agrippa said to Festus, I have a desire to give the man a hearing myself. Tomorrow, he said, you may give him a hearing.
Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear the man myself." "Tomorrow," he said, "you will hear him."
Then Agrippa said to Festus, I would also hear the man myself. To-morrow, said he, thou shalt hear him.
- 23 So on the day after, when Agrippa and Bernice in great glory had come into the public place of hearing, with the chief of the army and the chief men of the town, at the order of Festus, Paul was sent for.
So on the next day, when Agrippa and Bernice had come with great pomp, and they had entered into the place of hearing with the commanding officers and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus, Paul was brought in.
And on the morrow, when Agrippa had come, and Bernice, with great pomp, and had entered into the place of hearing, with the chief captains and principal men of the city, at the command of Festus Paul was brought forth.

- 24 And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all those who are present here with us, you see this man, about whom all the Jews have made protests to me, at Jerusalem and in this place, saying that it is not right for him to be living any longer.
Festus said, "King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, you see this man, about whom all the multitude of the Jews petitioned me, both at Jerusalem and here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.
And Festus said, King Agrippa, and all men who are here present with us, ye see this man about whom all the multitude of the Jews have dealt with me, both at Jerusalem, and also here, crying that he ought not to live any longer.
- 25 But, in my opinion, there is no cause of death in him, and as he himself has made a request to be judged by Caesar, I have said that I would send him.
But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and as he himself appealed to the emperor I determined to send him.
But when I found that he had committed nothing worthy of death, and that he himself hath appealed to Augustus, I have determined to send him.
- 26 But I have no certain account of him to send to Caesar. So I have sent for him to come before you, and specially before you, King Agrippa, so that after the business has been gone into, I may have something to put in writing.
Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Therefore I have brought him forth before you, and especially before you, king Agrippa, that, after examination, I may have something to write.
Of whom I have no certain thing to write to my lord. Wherefore I have brought him forth before you, and specially before thee, O king Agrippa, that after examination had, I may have somewhat to write.
- 27 For it seems to me against reason to send a prisoner without making clear what there is against him.
For it seems to me unreasonable, in sending a prisoner, not to also specify the charges against him."
For it seemeth to me unreasonable to send a prisoner, and not also to signify the crimes laid against him.
- 1 And Agrippa said to Paul, You may put your cause before us. Then Paul, stretching out his hand, made his answer, saying:
Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself." Then Paul stretched out his hand, and made his defense.
Then Agrippa said to Paul, Thou art permitted to speak for thyself. Then Paul stretched forth the hand, and answered for himself:

- 2 In my opinion I am happy, King Agrippa, to be able to give my answer before you today to all these things which the Jews say against me:
"I think myself happy, King Agrippa, that I am to make my defense before you this day concerning all the things whereof I am accused by the Jews,
I think myself happy, king Agrippa, because I shall answer for myself this day before thee, concerning all the things of which I am accused by the Jews:
- 3 The more so, because you are expert in all questions to do with the Jews and their ways: so I make my request to you to give me a hearing to the end.
especially because you are expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews. Therefore I beg you to hear me patiently.
Epecially, because I know thee to be expert in all customs and questions which are among the Jews: wherefore I beseech thee to hear me patiently.
- 4 All the Jews have knowledge of my way of life from my early years, as it was from the start among my nation, and at Jerusalem;
"Indeed, all the Jews know my way of life from my youth up, which was from the beginning among my own nation and at Jerusalem;
My manner of life from my youth, which was at the first among my own nation at Jerusalem, know all the Jews,
- 5 And they are able to say, if they would give witness, that I was living as a Pharisee, in that division of our religion which is most regular in the keeping of the law.
having known me from the first, if they are willing to testify, that after the strictest sect of our religion I lived a Pharisee.
Who knew me from the beginning, (if they would testify) that after the strictest sect of our religion, I lived a Pharisee.
- 6 And now I am here to be judged because of the hope given by God's word to our fathers;
Now I stand here to be judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers,
And now I stand, and am judged for the hope of the promise made by God to our fathers:
- 7 For the effecting of which our twelve tribes have been working and waiting night and day with all their hearts. And in connection with this hope I am attacked by the Jews, O king!
which our twelve tribes, earnestly serving night and day, hope to attain. Concerning this hope I am accused by the Jews, King Agrippa!
To which promise our twelve tribes, assiduously serving God day and night, hope to come. For which hope's sake, king Agrippa, I am accused by the Jews.

- 8 Why, in your opinion, is it outside belief for God to make the dead come to life again?
Why is it judged incredible with you, if God does raise the dead?
Why should it be thought a thing incredible with you, that God should raise the dead?
- 9 For I, truly, was of the opinion that it was right for me to do a number of things against the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
"I most assuredly thought with myself that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth."
I verily thought with myself, that I ought to do many things contrary to the name of Jesus of Nazareth.
- 10 And this I did in Jerusalem: and numbers of the saints I put in prison, having had authority given to me from the chief priests, and when they were put to death, I gave my decision against them.
This I also did in Jerusalem. I both shut up many of the saints in prisons, having received authority from the chief priests, and when they were put to death I gave my vote against them.
Which thing I also did in Jerusalem: and many of the saints did I shut up in prison, having received authority from the chief priests; and when they were put to death, I gave my voice against them.
- 11 And I gave them punishment frequently, in all the Synagogues, forcing them to say things against God; and burning with passion against them, I went after them even into far-away towns.
Punishing them often in all the synagogues, I tried to make them blaspheme. Being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.
And I punished them often in every synagogue, and compelled them to blaspheme; and being exceedingly enraged against them, I persecuted them even to foreign cities.
- 12 Then, when I was journeying to Damascus with the authority and orders of the chief priests,
"Whereupon as I journeyed to Damascus with the authority and commission from the chief priests,
Upon which as I went to Damascus, with authority and commission from the chief priests,
- 13 In the middle of the day, on the road I saw a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, shining round me and those who were journeying with me.
at noon, O King, I saw on the way a light from the sky, brighter than the sun, shining around me and those who traveled with me.
At mid-day, O king, I saw in the way a light from heaven, surpassing the brightness of the sun, shining around me, and them who journeyed with me.

- 14 And when we had all gone down on the earth, a voice came to me, saying in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why are you attacking me so cruelly? It is hard for you to go against the impulse which is driving you.
When we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice saying to me in the Hebrew language, `Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? It is hard for you to kick against the goad.`
And when we had all fallen to the earth, I heard a voice speaking to me, and saying in the Hebrew language, Saul, Saul, why persecutest thou me? It is hard for thee to kick against the goads.
- 15 And I said, Who are you, Lord? And the Lord said, I am Jesus, whom you are attacking.
I said, `Who are you, Lord?` He said, `I am Jesus, whom you persecute.
And I said, Who art thou, Lord? And he said, I am Jesus whom thou persecutest.
- 16 But get up on your feet: for I have come to you for this purpose, to make you a servant and a witness of the things in which you have seen me, and of those in which you will see me;
But arise, and stand on your feet, for to this end have I appeared to you, to appoint you a servant and a witness both of the things which you have seen, and of the things which I will reveal to you;
But rise, and stand upon thy feet: for I have appeared to thee for this purpose, to make thee a minister and a witness both of the things which thou hast seen, and of the things in which I will appear to thee;
- 17 And I will keep you safe from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, delivering you from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom I send you, Delivering thee from the people, and from the Gentiles, to whom now I send thee,
- 18 To make their eyes open, turning them from the dark to the light, and from the power of Satan to God, so that they may have forgiveness of sins and a heritage among those who are made holy by faith in me.
to open their eyes, that they may turn from darkness to light and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive remission of sins and an inheritance among those who are sanctified by faith in me.`
To open their eyes, and to turn them from darkness to light, and from the power of Satan to God, that they may receive forgiveness of sins, and inheritance among them who are sanctified by faith that is in me.
- 19 So, then, King Agrippa, I did not go against the vision from heaven;
"Therefore, King Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, Upon which O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision.

- 20 But I went about, first to those in Damascus and Jerusalem, and through all the country of Judaea, and then to the Gentiles, preaching a change of heart, so that they, being turned to God, might give, in their works, the fruits of a changed heart.
but declared first to them of Damascus, at Jerusalem, and throughout all the country of Judea, and also to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, doing works worthy of repentance.
But showed first to them of Damascus, and at Jerusalem, and throughout all the region of Judea, and then to the Gentiles, that they should repent and turn to God, and do works meet for repentance.
- 21 For this reason, the Jews took me in the Temple, and made an attempt to put me to death.
For this reason the Jews seized me in the temple, and tried to kill me.
For these causes the Jews caught me in the temple, and went about to kill me.
- 22 And so, by God's help, I am here today, witnessing to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses said would come about;
Having therefore obtained the help that is from God, I stand to this day testifying both to small and great, saying nothing but what the prophets and Moses did say should come,
Having therefore obtained help from God, I continue to this day, testifying both to small and great, saying no other things than those which the prophets and Moses did say should come:
- 23 That the Christ would go through pain, and being the first to come back from the dead, would give light to the people and to the Gentiles.
how the Christ must suffer, and how he first by the resurrection of the dead should proclaim light both to these people and to the Gentiles."
That Christ should suffer, and that he should be the first that should rise from the dead, and should show light to the people, and to the Gentiles.
- 24 And when he made his answer in these words, Festus said in a loud voice, Paul, you are off your head; your great learning has made you unbalanced.
As he thus made his defense, Festus said with a loud voice, "Paul, you are crazy! Your great learning is driving you insane!"
And as he was thus speaking for himself, Festus said with a loud voice, Paul, thou art beside thyself; much learning doth make thee insane.
- 25 Then Paul said, I am not off my head, most noble Festus, but my words are true and wise.
But he said, "I am not crazy, most excellent Festus, but speak forth words of truth and soberness.
But he said, I am not insane, most noble Festus; but speak forth the words of truth and soberness.

- 26 For the king has knowledge of these things, to whom I am talking freely; being certain that all this is common knowledge to him; for it has not been done in secret.
For the king knows of these things, to whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things is hidden from him, for this has not been done in a corner.
For the king knoweth of these things, before whom also I speak freely. For I am persuaded that none of these things are hidden from him; for this thing was not done in a corner.
- 27 King Agrippa, have you faith in the prophets? I am certain that you have.
King Agrippa, do you believe the prophets? I know that you believe."
King Agrippa, believest thou the prophets? I know that thou believest.
- 28 And Agrippa said to Paul, A little more and you will be making me a Christian.
Agrippa said to Paul, "With a little persuasion are you trying to make me a Christian?"
Then Agrippa said to Paul, Almost thou persuadest me to be a Christian.
- 29 And Paul said, It is my prayer to God that, in little or great measure, not only you, but all those hearing me today might be even as I am, but for these chains.
Paul said, "I pray to God, that whether with little or with much, not only you, but also all that hear me this day, might become such as I am, except for these bonds."
And Paul said, I would to God, that not only thou, but also all that hear me this day, were both almost, and altogether such as I am, except these bonds.
- 30 And the king and the ruler and Bernice and those who were seated with them got up;
The king rose up, and the governor, and Bernice, and those who sat with them.
And when he had thus spoken, the king rose, and the governor, and Bernice, and they that sat with them:
- 31 And when they had gone away they said to one another, This man has done nothing which might give cause for death or prison.
When they had withdrawn, they spoke one to another, saying, "This man does nothing worthy of death or of bonds."
And when they had gone aside, they talked between themselves, saying, This man doeth nothing worthy of death, or of bonds.

32 And Agrippa said to Festus, This man might have been made free, if he had not put his cause before Caesar.

Agrippa said to Festus, "This man might have been set free if he had not appealed to Caesar."

Then said Agrippa to Festus, This man might have been set at liberty, if he had not appealed to Cesar.

1 And when the decision had been made that we were to go by sea to Italy, they gave Paul and certain other prisoners into the care of a captain named Julius, of the Augustan band.

When it was determined that we should sail for Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to a centurion named Julius, of the Augustan band.

And when it was determined that we should sail into Italy, they delivered Paul and certain other prisoners to one named Julius, a centurion of Augustus' band.

2 And we went to sea in a ship of Adramyttium which was sailing to the sea towns of Asia, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

Embarking in a ship of Adramyttium, which was about to sail to places on the coast of Asia, we put to sea, Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

And entering into a ship of Adramyttium, we lanchd, meaning to sail by the coasts of Asia, one Aristarchus, a Macedonian of Thessalonica, being with us.

3 And on the day after, we came to Sidon; and Julius was kind to Paul, and let him go to see his friends and take a rest.

The next day, we touched at Sidon. Julius treated Paul kindly, and gave him permission to go to his friends and refresh himself.

And the next day we touched at Sidon. And Julius courteously treated Paul, and gave him liberty to go to his friends to refresh himself.

4 And sailing again from there, we went on under cover of Cyprus, because the wind was against us.

Putting to sea from there, we sailed under the lee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

And when we had lanchd from thence, we sailed under Cyprus, because the winds were contrary.

5 And having gone across the sea off Cilicia and Pamphylia we came to Myra, in Lycia.

When we had sailed across the sea which is off Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Myra, a city of Lycia.

And when we had sailed over the sea of Cilicia and Pamphylia, we came to Mira, a city of Lycia.

- 6 And there the captain came across a ship of Alexandria, sailing for Italy, and put us in it.
There the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing for Italy, and he put us on board.
And there the centurion found a ship of Alexandria sailing into Italy; and he put us therein.
- 7 And when we had gone on slowly for a long time, and had had hard work getting across to Cnidus, for the wind was against us, we went under cover of Crete, in the direction of Salmone;
When we had sailed slowly many days, and had come with difficulty opposite Cnidus, the wind not allowing us further, we sailed under the lee of Crete, opposite Salmone.
And when we had sailed slowly many days, and scarce had come over against Cnidus, the wind not suffering us, we sailed under Crete, over against Salmone:
- 8 And sailing down the side of it, as well as we were able, we came to a certain place named Fair Havens, near which was the town of Lasea.
With difficulty sailing along it we came to a certain place called Fair Havens, near the city of Lasea.
And hardly passing it, came to a place which is called, The fair havens; nigh to which was the city of Lasea.
- 9 And as a long time had gone by, and the journey was now full of danger, because it was late in the year, Paul put the position before them,
When much time was spent, and the voyage was now dangerous, because the Fast had now already gone by, Paul admonished them,
Now when much time was spent, and when sailing was now dangerous, because the fast was now already past, Paul admonished them.
- 10 Saying, Friends, I see that this journey will be one of great damage and loss, not only to the goods and the ship, but to ourselves.
and said to them, "Sirs, I perceive that the voyage will be with injury and much loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."
And said to them, Sirs, I perceive that this voyage will be with hurt and much damage, not only of the lading and ship, but also of our lives.
- 11 But the captain gave more attention to the master and the owner of the ship than to what Paul said.
But the centurion gave more heed to the master and to the owner of the ship than to those things which were spoken by Paul.
Nevertheless, the centurion believed the master and the owner of the ship more than the things which were spoken by Paul.

- 12 And as the harbour was not a good one in which to be for the winter, the greater number of them were for going out to sea, in order, if possible, to put in for the winter at Phoenix, a harbour of Crete, looking to the north-east and south-east.
Because the haven was not suitable to winter in, the majority advised to put to sea from there, if by any means they could reach Phoenix, and winter there, which is a port of Crete, looking northeast and southeast.
And because the haven was not commodious to winter in, the greater part advised to depart thence also, if by any means they might attain to Phenice, and there to winter; which is a haven of Crete, and lieth towards the south-west and north-west.
- 13 And when the south wind came softly, being of the opinion that their purpose might be effected, they let the ship go and went sailing down the side of Crete, very near to the land.
When the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, they weighed anchor and sailed along Crete, close to shore.
And when the south wind blew softly, supposing that they had obtained their purpose, loosing thence, they sailed close by Crete.
- 14 But after a little time, a very violent wind, named Euraquilo, came down from it with great force.
But after no long time there beat down from it a tempestuous wind, which is called Euroclydon.
But not long after there arose against it a tempestuous wind, called Euroclydon.
- 15 And when the ship got into the grip of it, and was not able to make headway into the wind, we gave way, and went before it.
When the ship was caught, and couldn't face the wind, we gave way to it, and were driven along.
And when the ship was caught, and could not bear up into the wind, we let her drive.
- 16 And, sailing near the side of a small island named Cauda, we were able, though it was hard work, to make the ship's boat safe:
Running under the lee of a small island called Clauda, we were able, with difficulty, to secure the boat.
And running under a certain isle which is called Clauda, we had much work to come by the boat:
- 17 And having got it up, they put cords under and round the ship; but fearing that they might be pushed on to the Syrtis, they let down the sails and so went running before the wind.
When they had hoisted it up, they used cables to help reinforce the ship. Fearing that they would run aground on the Syrtis sand bars, they lowered the sea anchor, and so were driven.
Which when they had taken up, they used helps, undergirding the ship; and fearing lest they should fall into the quicksands, struck sail, and so were driven.

- 18 And, still fighting the storm with all our strength, the day after they made a start at getting the goods out of the ship;
As we labored exceedingly with the storm, the next day they began to throw things overboard.
And we being exceedingly tossed with a tempest, the next day they lightened the ship;
- 19 And on the third day, they let all the sailing apparatus go over the side.
On the third day, they threw out the ship`s tackle with their own hands.
And the third day we cast out with our own hands the tackling of the ship.
- 20 And as we had not seen the sun or stars for a long time, and a great storm was on us, all hope of salvation was gone.
When neither sun nor stars shone on us for many days, and no small tempest pressed on us, all hope that we should be saved was now taken away.
And when neither sun nor stars in many days appeared, and no small tempest lay on us, all hope that we should be saved was then taken away.
- 21 And when they had been without food for a long time, Paul got up among them and said, Friends, it would have been better if you had given attention to me and not gone sailing out from Crete, to undergo this damage and loss.
When they had been long without food, Paul stood up in the midst of them, and said, "Sirs, you should have listened to me, and not have set sail from Crete, and have gotten this injury and loss.
But after long abstinence, Paul stood forth in the midst of them, and said, Sirs, ye should have hearkened to me, and not have loosed from Crete, and to have gained this harm and loss.
- 22 But now, I say to you, be of good heart, for there will be no loss of life, but only of the ship.
Now I exhort you to cheer up, for there will be no loss of life among you, but only of the ship.
And now I exhort you to be of good cheer: for there shall be no loss of life among you, but of the ship.
- 23 For this night there came to my side an angel of the God who is my Master and whose servant I am,
For there stood by me this night an angel, belonging to the God whose I am and whom I serve,
For there stood by me this night the angel of God, whose I am, and whom I serve,

24 Saying, Have no fear, Paul, for you will come before Caesar, and God has given to you all those who are sailing with you.
saying, `Don`'t be afraid, Paul. You must stand before Caesar. Behold, God has granted you all those who sail with you.`
Saying, Fear not, Paul; thou must be brought before Cesar: and lo, God hath given thee all them that sail with thee.

25 And so, O men, be of good heart, for I have faith in God that it will be as he said to me.
Therefore, sirs, cheer up! For I believe God, that it will be just as it has been spoken to me.
Wherefore, sirs, be of good cheer: for I believe God, that it will be even as it was told to me.

26 But we will be sent on to a certain island.
But we must run aground on a certain island."
But we must be cast upon a certain isle.

27 But when the fourteenth day came, while we were going here and there in the Adriatic sea, about the middle of the night the sailors had an idea that they were getting near land;
But when the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven back and forth in the Adriatic Sea, about midnight the sailors surmised that they were drawing near to some land.
When the fourteenth night was come, as we were driven up and down in Adria, about midnight the shipmen suspected that they drew near to some country:

28 And they let down the lead, and saw that the sea was a hundred and twenty feet deep; and after a little time they did it again and it was ninety feet.
They took soundings, and found twenty fathoms. After a little while, they took soundings again, and found fifteen fathoms.
And sounded, and found it twenty fathoms: and when they had gone a little further, they sounded again, and found it fifteen fathoms.

29 Then, fearing that by chance we might come on to the rocks, they let down four hooks from the back of the ship, and made prayers for the coming of day.
Fearing that we would run aground on rocky ground, they let go four anchors from the stern, and wished for daylight.
Then fearing lest we should fall upon rocks, they cast four anchors out of the stern, and wished for the day.

- 30 Then the sailors made attempts secretly to get away from the ship, letting down a boat as if they were about to put down hooks from the front of the ship;
As the sailors were trying to flee out of the ship, and had lowered the boat into the sea, pretending that they would lay out anchors from the bow,
And as the shipmen were about to flee out of the ship, when they had let down the boat into the sea, under color as though they would cast anchors out of the foreship,
- 31 But Paul said to the captain and his men, If you do not keep these men in the ship, you will not be safe.
Paul said to the centurion and to the soldiers, "Unless these stay in the ship, you can't be saved."
Paul said to the centurion, and to the soldiers, Except these abide in the ship, ye cannot be saved.
- 32 Then the armed men, cutting the cords of the boat, let her go.
Then the soldiers cut away the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
Then the soldiers cut off the ropes of the boat, and let her fall off.
- 33 And when dawn was near, Paul gave them all orders to take food, saying, This is the fourteenth day you have been waiting and taking no food.
While the day was coming on, Paul begged them all to take some food, saying, "This day is the fourteenth day that you wait and continue fasting, having taken nothing.
And while the day was coming on, Paul besought them all to take food, saying, This day is the fourteenth day that ye have tarried, and continued fasting, having taken nothing.
- 34 So I make request to you to take food; for this is for your salvation: not a hair from the head of any of you will come to destruction.
Therefore I beg you to take some food, for this is for your safety; for there will not a hair perish from the head of any of you."
Wherefore I pray you to take some food; for this is for your health: for there shall not a hair fall from the head of any of you.
- 35 And when he had said this and had taken bread, he gave praise to God before them all, and took a meal of the broken bread.
When he had said this, and had taken bread, he gave thanks to God in the presence of all, and he broke it, and began to eat.
And when he had thus spoken, he took bread, and gave thanks to God in presence of them all; and when he had broken it, he began to eat.

- 36 Then they all took heart and did the same.
Then were they all of good cheer, and they also took food.
Then they were all of good cheer, and they also took food.
- 37 And we were, in the ship, two hundred and seventy-six persons.
We were in all in the ship two hundred seventy-six souls.
And we were in all in the ship two hundred and seventy six souls.
- 38 And when they had had enough food, they made the weight of the ship less, turning the grain out into the sea.
When they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, throwing out the wheat into the sea.
And when they had eaten enough, they lightened the ship, and cast the wheat into the sea.
- 39 And when it was day, they had no knowledge of the land, but they saw an inlet of the sea with a floor of sand, and they had the idea of driving the ship up on to it if possible.
When it was day, they didn't recognize the land, but they noticed a certain bay with a beach, and they decided to try to drive the ship onto it.
And when it was day, they knew not the land: but they discovered a certain creek with a shore, into which they purposed, if it were possible, to thrust in the ship.
- 40 So cutting away the hooks, and letting them go into the sea, and freeing the cords of the guiding-blades, and lifting up the sail to the wind, they went in the direction of the inlet.
Casting off the anchors, they left them in the sea, at the same time untying the rudder ropes. Hoisting up the foresail to the wind, they made for the beach.
And when they had taken up the anchors, they committed themselves to the sea, and loosed the rudder bands, and hoisted the mainsail to the wind, and made towards the shore.
- 41 And coming to a point between two seas, they got the ship to land; and the front part was fixed in the sand and not able to be moved, but the back part was broken by the force of the waves.
But coming to a place where two seas met, they ran the vessel aground. The bow struck and remained immovable, but the stern began to break up by the violence of the waves.
And falling into a place where two seas met, they ran the ship aground; and the forepart stuck fast, and remained immovable, but the hinder part was broken with the violence of the waves.

- 42 Then the armed men were for putting the prisoners to death, so that no one would get away by swimming.
The soldiers` counsel was to kill the prisoners, so that none of them would swim out and escape.
And the soldiers' counsel was to kill the prisoners, lest any of them should swim out, and escape.
- 43 But the captain, desiring to keep Paul safe, kept them from their purpose, and gave orders that those who had knowledge of swimming were to go off the ship and get first to land:
But the centurion, desiring to save Paul, stopped them from their purpose, and commanded that those who could swim should throw themselves overboard first to go to the land;
But the centurion, willing to save Paul, kept them from their purpose, and commanded that they who could swim, should cast themselves first into the sea, and get to land:
- 44 And the rest, some on boards and some on things from the ship. And so it came about that they all got safe to land. and the rest, some on planks, and some on other things from the ship. So it happened that they all escaped safely to the land.
And the rest, some on boards, and some on broken pieces of the ship: And so it came to pass, that they all escaped safe to land.
- 1 And when we were safe, we made the discovery that the island was named Melita.
When we had escaped, then we knew that the island was called Malta.
And when they had escaped, then they knew that the isle was called Melita.
- 2 And the simple people living there were uncommonly kind to us, for they made a fire for us, and took us in, because it was raining and cold.
The natives showed us no common kindness; for they kindled a fire, and received us all, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
And the barbarous people showed us no little kindness: for they kindled a fire, and received us every one, because of the present rain, and because of the cold.
- 3 But when Paul had got some sticks together and put them on the fire, a snake came out, because of the heat, and gave him a bite on the hand.
But when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks and laid them on the fire, a viper came out because of the heat, and fastened on his hand.
And when Paul had gathered a bundle of sticks, and laid them on the fire, there came a viper out of the heat, and fastened on his hand.

4 And when the people saw it hanging on his hand, they said to one another, Without doubt this man has put someone to death, and though he has got safely away from the sea, God will not let him go on living.

When the natives saw the creature hanging from his hand, they said one to another, "No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he has escaped from the sea, yet Justice has not allowed to live."

And when the barbarians saw the animal hang on his hand, they said among themselves, No doubt this man is a murderer, whom, though he hath escaped the sea, yet vengeance suffereth not to live.

5 But shaking off the beast into the fire, he got no damage.

However he shook off the creature into the fire, and wasn't harmed.

And he shook off the animal into the fire, and felt no harm.

6 But they had the idea that they would see him becoming ill, or suddenly falling down dead; but after waiting a long time, and seeing that no damage came to him, changing their opinion, they said he was a god.

But they expected that he would have swollen, or fallen down dead suddenly, but when they were long in expectation and saw nothing bad happen to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

Yet they looked when he would have swelled, or fallen down dead suddenly: but after they had looked a great while, and saw no harm come to him, they changed their minds, and said that he was a god.

7 Now near that place there was some land, the property of the chief man of the island, who was named Publius; who very kindly took us into his house as his guests for three days.

Now in the neighborhood of that place were lands belonging to the chief man of the island, named Publius, who received us, and courteously entertained us three days.

In the same quarters were possessions of the chief man of the isle, whose name was Publius; who received us, and lodged us three days courteously.

8 And the father of Publius was ill, with a disease of the stomach; to whom Paul went, and put his hands on him, with prayer, and made him well.

It was so, that the father of Publius lay sick of fever and dysentery. Paul entered in to him, prayed, and laying his hands on him, healed him.

And it came to pass that the father of Publius lay sick with a fever, and a bloody-flux: to whom Paul entered in, and prayed, and laid his hands on him, and healed him.

9 And when this took place, all the others in the island who had diseases came and were made well.

Then when this was done, the rest also that had diseases in the island came, and were cured.

So when this was done, others also who had diseases in the isle, came, and were healed:

- 10 Then they gave us great honour, and, when we went away, they put into the ship whatever things we were in need of.
They also honored us with many honors, and when we sailed, they put on board the things that we needed.
Who also honored us with many honors; and when we departed, they laded us with such things as were necessary.
- 11 And after three months we went to sea in a ship of Alexandria sailing under the sign of the Dioscuri, which had been at the island for the winter.
After three months, we set sail in a ship of Alexandria which had wintered in the island, whose sign was "The Twin Brothers."
And after three months we departed in a ship of Alexandria, which had wintered in the isle, whose sign was Castor and Pollux.
- 12 And going into the harbour at Syracuse, we were waiting there for three days.
Touching at Syracuse, we stayed there three days.
And landing at Syracuse, we tarried there three days.
- 13 And from there, going about in a curve, we came to Rhegium: and after one day a south wind came up and on the day after we came to Puteoli:
From there we circled around and arrived at Rhegium. After one day, a south wind sprang up, and on the second day we came to Puteoli,
And from thence we made a circuit, and came to Rhegium: and after one day the south wind blew, and we came the next day to Puteoli:
- 14 Where we came across some of the brothers, who kept us with them for seven days; and so we came to Rome.
where we found brothers, and were entreated to stay with them seven days. So we came to Rome.
Where we found brethren, and were desired to tarry with them seven days: and so we went towards Rome.
- 15 And the brothers, when they had news of us, came out from town as far as Appii Forum and the Three Taverns to have a meeting with us: and Paul, seeing them, gave praise to God and took heart.
From there the brothers, when they heard of us, came to meet us as far as The Market of Appius and The Three Taverns; whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.
And from thence when the brethren heard of us, they came to meet us as far as Appii-forum, and the Three taverns: whom when Paul saw, he thanked God, and took courage.

- 16 And when we came into Rome, they let Paul have a house for himself and the armed man who kept watch over him.
When we entered into Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard, but Paul was allowed to stay by himself with the soldier who guarded him.
And when we came to Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the captain of the guard: but Paul was suffered to dwell by himself, with a soldier that kept him.
- 17 Then after three days he sent for the chief men of the Jews: and when they had come together, he said to them, My brothers, though I had done nothing against the people or the ways of our fathers, I was given, a prisoner from Jerusalem, into the hands of the Romans.
It happened, that after three days Paul called together those who were the leaders of the Jews. When they had come together, he said to them, "I, brothers, though I had done nothing against the people, or the customs of our fathers, still was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans,
And it came to pass, that after three days, Paul called together the chief of the Jews. And when they were assembled, he said to them, Men, brethren, though I have committed nothing against the people, or customs of our fathers, yet I was delivered prisoner from Jerusalem into the hands of the Romans.
- 18 Who, when they had put questions to me, were ready to let me go free, because there was no cause of death in me.
who, when they had examined me, desired to set me free, because there was no cause of death in me.
Who when they had examined me, would have let me go, because there was no cause of death in me.
- 19 But when the Jews made protest against it, I had to put my cause into Caesar's hands; not because I have anything to say against my nation.
But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Caesar, not that I had anything about which to accuse my nation.
But when the Jews spoke against it, I was constrained to appeal to Cesar; not that I had aught to accuse my nation of.
- 20 But for this reason I sent for you, to see and have talk with you: for because of the hope of Israel I am in these chains.
For this cause therefore did I ask you to see and to speak with me. For because of the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain."
For this cause therefore have I called for you, to see you, and to speak with you: because that for the hope of Israel I am bound with this chain.

- 21 And they said to him, We have not had letters from Judaea about you, and no one of the brothers has come to us here to give an account or say any evil about you.
They said to him, "We neither received letters from Judea concerning you, nor did any of the brothers come here and report or speak any evil of you.
And they said to him, We have neither received letters from Judea concerning thee, neither have any of the brethren that came shown or spoken any harm of thee.
- 22 But we have a desire to give hearing to your opinion: for as to this form of religion, we have knowledge that in all places it is attacked.
But we desire to hear of you what you think. For, as concerning this sect, it is known to us that everywhere it is spoken against."
But we desire to hear from thee, what thou thinkest: for as concerning this sect, we know that every where it is spoken against.
- 23 And when a day had been fixed, they came to his house in great numbers; and he gave them teaching, giving witness to the kingdom of God, and having discussions with them about Jesus, from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning till evening.
When they had appointed him a day, they came to him into his lodging in great number. He explained to them, testifying about the kingdom of God, and persuading them concerning Jesus, both from the law of Moses and from the prophets, from morning until evening.
And when they had appointed him a day, there came many to him into his lodging; to whom he expounded and testified the kingdom of God, persuading them concerning Jesus, both out of the law of Moses, and out of the prophets, from morning till evening.
- 24 And some were in agreement with what he said, but some had doubts.
Some believed the things which were spoken, and some disbelieved.
And some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not.
- 25 And they went away, for there was a division among them after Paul had said this one thing: Well did the Holy Spirit say by the prophet Isaiah to your fathers,
When they didn't agree among themselves, they departed after Paul had spoken one word, "The Holy Spirit spoke well through Isaiah, the prophet, to our fathers,
And when they agreed not among themselves, they departed, after Paul had spoken one word, Well spoke the Holy Spirit by Isaiah the prophet to our fathers,

- 26 Go to this people and say, Though you give ear, you will not get knowledge; and seeing, you will see, but the sense will not be clear to you:
saying, `Go to this people, and say, In hearing, you will hear, and will in no way understand. In seeing, you will see, and will in no way perceive.
Saying, Go to this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive.
- 27 For the heart of this people has become fat and their ears are slow in hearing and their eyes are shut; for fear that they might see with their eyes and give hearing with their ears and become wise in their hearts and be turned again to me, so that I might make them well.
For this people`s heart has grown callous. Their ears are dull of hearing. Their eyes they have closed. Lest they should see with their eyes, Hear with their ears, Understand with their heart, Would turn again, And I would heal them.`
For the heart of this people is become gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
- 28 Be certain, then, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will give hearing.
"Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles. They will also hear."
Be it known therefore to you, that the salvation of God is sent to the Gentiles, and they will hear it.

- 29 []
When he had said these words, the Jews departed, having a great dispute among themselves.
And when he had said these words, the Jews departed, and had great reasoning among themselves.
- 30 And for the space of two years, Paul was living in the house of which he had the use, and had talk with all those who went in to see him,
Paul stayed two whole years in his own rented house, and received all who went in to him,
And Paul dwelt two whole years in his own hired house, and received all that came in to him,

1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, an Apostle by the selection of God, given authority as a preacher of the good news,
Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, set apart for the gospel of God,
Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God,

2 Of which God had given word before by his prophets in the holy Writings, which he promised before through his prophets in the holy scriptures,
(Which he had promised before by his prophets in the holy scriptures)

3 About his Son who, in the flesh, came from the family of David, concerning his Son, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh, Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was born of the seed of David according to the flesh.

4 But was marked out as Son of God in power by the Holy Spirit through the coming to life again of the dead; Jesus Christ our Lord, who was declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead, Jesus Christ our Lord,
And declared to be the Son of God, with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:

5 Through whom grace has been given to us, sending us out to make disciples to the faith among all nations, for his name:
through whom we received grace and apostleship, to obedience of faith among all the nations, for his name`s sake.
By whom we have received grace and apostleship for obedience to the faith among all nations for his name:

6 Among whom you in the same way have been marked out to be disciples of Jesus Christ:
Among whom you are also called to be Jesus Christ`s.
Among whom are ye also the called of Jesus Christ:

7 To all those who are in Rome, loved by God, marked out as saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
To all who are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
To all that are in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 8 First of all, I give praise to my God through Jesus Christ for you all, because news of your faith has gone into all the world.
First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for all of you, that your faith is proclaimed throughout the whole world.
First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.

- 9 For God is my witness, whose servant I am in spirit in the good news of his Son, that you are at all times in my memory and in my prayers,
For God is my witness, whom I serve in my spirit in the gospel of his Son, how unceasingly I make mention of you always in my prayers,
For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers,
- 10 And that I am ever making prayers that God will give me a good journey to you.
requesting, if by any means now at length I may be prospered by the will of God to come to you.
Making request (if by any means now at length I may have a prosperous journey by the will of God) to come to you.
- 11 For I have a strong desire to see you, and to give you some grace of the spirit, so that you may be made strong;
For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established;
For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end ye may be established;
- 12 That is to say, that all of us may be comforted together by the faith which is in you and in me.
that is, that I with you may be comforted in you, each of us by the other`s faith, both yours and mine.
That is, that I may be comforted together with you, by the mutual faith both of you and me.
- 13 You may be certain, my brothers, that it has frequently been in my mind to come to you (but till now I was kept from it), so that I might have some fruit from you in the same way as I have had it from the other nations.
Now I don`t desire to have you unaware, brothers, that often I planned to come to you, and was hindered so far, that I might have some fruit in you also, even as in the rest of the Gentiles.
Now I would not have you ignorant, brethren, that I have often purposed to come to you (but have been hitherto hindered) that I might have some fruit among you also, even as among other Gentiles.

- 14 I have a debt to Greeks and to the nations outside; to the wise and to those who have no learning.
I am debtor both to Greeks and to foreigners, both to the wise and to the foolish.
I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the barbarians, both to the wise, and to the unwise.
- 15 For which reason I have the desire, as far as I am able, to give the knowledge of the good news to you who are in Rome.
So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you also who are in Rome.
So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
- 16 For I have no feeling of shame about the good news, because it is the power of God giving salvation to everyone who has faith, to the Jew first, and then to the Greek.
For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ, for it is the power of God to salvation to everyone who believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God to salvation to every one that believeth; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
- 17 For in it there is the revelation of the righteousness of God from faith to faith: as it is said in the holy Writings, The man who does righteousness will be living by his faith.
For therein is revealed a righteousness of God from faith to faith. As it is written, "But the righteous shall live by faith."
For in this is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.
- 18 For there is a revelation of the wrath of God from heaven against all the wrongdoing and evil thoughts of men who keep down what is true by wrongdoing;
For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of men, who hinder the truth in unrighteousness,
For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness, and unrighteousness of men, who hold the truth in unrighteousness.
- 19 Because the knowledge of God may be seen in them, God having made it clear to them.
because that which is known by God is revealed in them, for God revealed it to them.
Because that which may be known of God, is manifest in them; for God hath shown it to them.

- 20 For from the first making of the world, those things of God which the eye is unable to see, that is, his eternal power and existence, are fully made clear, he having given the knowledge of them through the things which he has made, so that men have no reason for wrongdoing:
For the invisible things of him since the creation of the world are clearly seen, being perceived through the things that are made, even his everlasting power and divinity; that they may be without excuse.
For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, even his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
- 21 Because, having the knowledge of God, they did not give glory to God as God, and did not give praise, but their minds were full of foolish things, and their hearts, being without sense, were made dark.
Because, knowing God, they didn't glorify him as God, neither gave thanks, but became vain in their reasoning, and their senseless heart was darkened.
Because that when they knew God, they glorified him not as God, neither were thankful, but became vain in their imaginations, and their foolish heart was darkened.
- 22 Seeming to be wise, they were in fact foolish,
Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools:
- 23 And by them the glory of the eternal God was changed and made into the image of man who is not eternal, and of birds and beasts and things which go on the earth.
and traded the glory of the incorruptible God for the likeness of an image of corruptible man, and of birds, and four-footed animals, and creeping things.
And changed the glory of the incorruptible God into an image made like to corruptible man, and to birds, and four-footed beasts, and creeping animals.
- 24 For this reason God gave them up to the evil desires of their hearts, working shame in their bodies with one another:
Therefore God also gave them up in the lusts of their hearts to uncleanness, that their bodies should be dishonored among themselves,
Wherefore God also gave them up to uncleanness, through the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies between themselves:

- 25 Because by them the true word of God was changed into that which is false, and they gave worship and honour to the thing which is made, and not to him who made it, to whom be blessing for ever. So be it.
who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature rather than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
Who changed the truth of God into a lie, and worshiped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed for ever. Amen.
- 26 For this reason God gave them up to evil passions, and their women were changing the natural use into one which is unnatural:
For this reason, God gave them up to vile passions. For their women changed the natural function into that which is against nature.
For this cause God gave them up to vile affections. For even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature:
- 27 And in the same way the men gave up the natural use of the woman and were burning in their desire for one another, men doing shame with men, and getting in their bodies the right reward of their evil-doing.
Likewise also the men, leaving the natural function of the woman, burned in their lust toward one another, men doing what is inappropriate with men, and receiving in themselves the due penalty of their error.
And likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one towards another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet.
- 28 And because they had not the mind to keep God in their knowledge, God gave them up to an evil mind, to do those things which are not right;
Even as they refused to have God in their knowledge, God gave them up to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting;
And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient;
- 29 Being full of all wrongdoing, evil, desire for the goods of others, hate, envy, putting to death, fighting, deceit, cruel ways, evil talk, and false statements about others;
being filled with all unrighteousness, sexual immorality, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, strife, deceit, evil habits, secret slanderers,
Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; whisperers,

- 30 Hated by God, full of pride, without respect, full of loud talk, given to evil inventions, not honouring father or mother, backbiters, hateful to God, insolent, haughty, boastful, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, Backbiters, haters of God, spiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
- 31 Without knowledge, not true to their undertakings, unkind, having no mercy:
without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, unforgiving, unmerciful;
Without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:
- 32 Who, though they have knowledge of the law of God, that the fate of those who do these things is death, not only go on doing these things themselves, but give approval to those who do them.
who, knowing the ordinance of God, that those who practice such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but also consent with those who practice them.
Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they who commit such things are worthy of death; not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them.
- 1 So you have no reason, whoever you are, for judging: for in judging another you are judging yourself, for you do the same things.
Therefore you are without excuse, man, whoever you are who judge. For in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself. For you who judge practice the same things.
Therefore thou art inexcusable, O man, whoever thou art, that judgest: for wherein thou judgest another, thou condemnest thyself; for thou that judgest, doest the same things.
- 2 And we are conscious that God is a true judge against those who do such things.
We know that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who practice such things.
But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth, against them who commit such things.
- 3 But you who are judging another for doing what you do yourself, are you hoping that God's decision will not take effect against you?
Do you know this, O man who judges those who practice such things, and do the same, that you will escape the judgment of God?
And thinkest thou this, O man, that judgest them who do such things, and doest the same, that thou shalt escape the judgment of God?

- 4 Or is it nothing to you that God had pity on you, waiting and putting up with you for so long, not seeing that in his pity God's desire is to give you a change of heart?
Or do you despise the riches of his goodness, forbearance, and patience, not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?
Or despisest thou the riches of his goodness, and forbearance, and long-suffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leadeth thee to repentance?
- 5 But by your hard and unchanged heart you are storing up wrath for yourself in the day of the revelation of God's judging in righteousness;
But according to your hardness and impenitent heart you are treasuring up for yourself wrath in the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
But after thy hardness and impenitent heart, treasurest up to thyself wrath against the day of wrath, and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
- 6 Who will give to every man his right reward:
who "will render to every man according to his works:"
Who will render to every man according to his deeds:
- 7 To those who go on with good works in the hope of glory and honour and salvation from death, he will give eternal life:
to those who by patience in well-doing seek for glory and honor and incorruptibility, eternal life;
To them who by patient continuance in well-doing, seek for glory, and honor, and immortality; eternal life:
- 8 But to those who, from a love of competition, are not guided by what is true, will come the heat of his wrath, but to those who are self-seeking, and don't obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, will be wrath and indignation,
But to them that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness; indignation and wrath:
- 9 Trouble and sorrow on all whose works are evil, to the Jew first and then to the Greek; oppression and anguish, on every soul of man who works evil, on the Jew first, and also on the Greek.
Tribulation and anguish upon every soul of man that doeth evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;
- 10 But glory and honour and peace to all whose works are good, to the Jew first and then to the Greek:
But glory and honor and peace to every man who works good, to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
But glory, honor, and peace, to every man that worketh good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile;

- 11 For one man is not different from another before God.
For there is no partiality with God.
For there is no respect of persons with God.
- 12 All those who have done wrong without the law will get destruction without the law: and those who have done wrong under the law will have their punishment by the law;
For as many as have sinned without law will also perish without the law. As many as have sinned under the law will be judged by the law.
For as many as have sinned without law, shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned in the law, shall be judged by the law,
- 13 For it is not the hearers of the law who will be judged as having righteousness before God, but only the doers:
For it isn't the hearers of the law who are righteous before God, but the doers of the law will be justified
(For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.)
- 14 For when the Gentiles without the law have a natural desire to do the things in the law, they are a law to themselves;
(for when Gentiles who don't have the law do by nature the things of the law, these, not having the law, are a law to themselves,
For when the Gentiles, who have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these having not the law, are a law to themselves.
- 15 Because the work of the law is seen in their hearts, their sense of right and wrong giving witness to it, while their minds are at one time judging them and at another giving them approval; in that they show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience testifying with them, and their thoughts among themselves accusing or else excusing them)
Who show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing testimony, and their thoughts the mean while accusing, or else excusing one another)
- 16 In the day when God will be a judge of the secrets of men, as it says in the good news of which I am a preacher, through Jesus Christ.
in the day when God will judge the secrets of men, according to my gospel, by Jesus Christ.
In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ, according to my gospel.

- 17 But as for you who have the name of Jew, and are resting on the law, and take pride in God,
Indeed you bear the name of a Jew, and rest on the law, and glory in God,
Behold, thou art called a Jew, and retest in the law, and makest thy boast of God,
- 18 And have knowledge of his desires, and are a judge of the things which are different, having the learning of the law, and know his will, and approve the things that are excellent, being instructed out of the law,
And knowest his will, and approvest the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law,
- 19 In the belief that you are a guide to the blind, a light to those in the dark, and are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light to those who are in darkness,
And art confident that thou thyself art a guide of the blind, a light of them who are in darkness,
- 20 A teacher of the foolish, having in the law the form of knowledge and of what is true;
a corrector of the foolish, a teacher of babes, having in the law the form of knowledge and of the truth.
An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, who hast the form of knowledge, and of the truth in the law:
- 21 You who give teaching to others, do you give it to yourself? you who say that a man may not take what is not his, do you take what is not yours?
You therefore who teach another, don't you teach yourself? You who preach that a man shouldn't steal, do you steal?
Thou therefore who teachest another, teachest thou not thyself? thou that preachest a man should not steal, dost thou steal?
- 22 You who say that a man may not be untrue to his wife, are you true to yours? you who are a hater of images, do you do wrong to the house of God?
You who say a man shouldn't commit adultery, do you commit adultery? You who abhor idols, do you rob temples?
Thou that sayest a man should not commit adultery, dost thou commit adultery? thou that abhorrest idols, dost thou commit sacrilege?
- 23 You who take pride in the law, are you doing wrong to the honour of God by behaviour which is against the law?
You who glory in the law, through your disobedience of the law do you dishonor God?
Thou that makest thy boast of the law, through breaking the law dishonorest thou God?

- 24 For the name of God is shamed among the Gentiles because of you, as it is said in the holy Writings.
For "the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you," just as it is written.
For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles, through you, as it is written.
- 25 It is true that circumcision is of use if you keep the law, but if you go against the law it is as if you had it not.
For circumcision indeed profits, if you be a doer of the law, but if you be a transgressor of the law, your circumcision has become uncircumcision.
For circumcision verily profiteth, if thou keepest the law; but if thou art a breaker of the law, thy circumcision is made uncircumcision.
- 26 If those who have not circumcision keep the rules of the law, will it not be credited to them as circumcision?
If therefore the uncircumcised keep the ordinances of the law, won't his uncircumcision be accounted as circumcision?
Therefore, if the uncircumcision keepeth the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted for circumcision?
- 27 And they, by their keeping of the law without circumcision, will be judges of you, by whom the law is broken though you have the letter of the law and circumcision.
Won't the uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfills the law, judge you, who with the letter and circumcision are a transgressor of the law?
And shall not uncircumcision which is by nature, if it fulfillleth the law, judge thee, who by the letter and circumcision dost transgress the law?
- 28 The true Jew is not one who is only so publicly, and circumcision is not that which may be seen in the flesh:
For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly, neither is that circumcision which is outward in the flesh;
For he is not a Jew, who is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
- 29 But he is a Jew who is a secret one, whose circumcision is of the heart, in the spirit and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.
but he is a Jew who is one inwardly, and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.
But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

1 How then is the Jew better off? or what profit is there in circumcision?

Then what advantage does the Jew have? Or what is the profit of circumcision?

What advantage then hath the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?

2 Much in every way: first of all because the words of God were given to them.

Much in every way! Because first of all, that they were entrusted with the oracles of God.

Much every way: chiefly, because that to them were committed the oracles of God.

3 And if some have no faith, will that make the faith of God without effect?

For what if some were without faith? Will their lack of faith make of no effect the faithfulness of God?

For what if some did not believe? will their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?

4 In no way: but let God be true, though every man is seen to be untrue; as it is said in the Writings, That your words may be seen to be true, and you may be seen to be right when you are judged.

Certainly not! Yes, let God be found true, but every man a liar. As it is written, "That you might be justified in your words, And might prevail when you come into judgment."

By no means: verily let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mayest be justified in thy sayings, and mayest overcome when thou art judged.

5 But if the righteousness of God is supported by our wrongdoing what is to be said? is it wrong for God to be angry (as men may say)?

But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what will we say? Is God unrighteous who inflicts wrath? I speak like men do.

But if our unrighteousness commendeth the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who taketh vengeance? (I speak as a man.)

6 In no way: because if it is so, how is God able to be the judge of all the world?

Certainly not! For then how will God judge the world?

By no means: for then how shall God judge the world?

- 7 But if, because I am untrue, God being seen to be true gets more glory, why am I to be judged as a sinner?
For if the truth of God through my lie abounded to his glory, why am I also still judged as a sinner?
For if the truth of God hath more abounded through my lie to his glory; why yet am I also judged as a sinner?
- 8 Let us not do evil so that good may come (a statement which we are falsely said by some to have made), because such behaviour will have its right punishment.
Why not (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say), "Let us do evil, that good may come?" Those who say so are justly condemned.
And not rather (as we are slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
- 9 What then? are we worse off than they? In no way: because we have before made it clear that Jews as well as Greeks are all under the power of sin;
What then? Are we better than they? No, in no way. For we previously charged both Jews and Greeks, that they are all under sin.
What then? are we better than they? No, in no wise: for we have before proved both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
- 10 As it is said in the holy Writings, There is not one who does righteousness;
As it is written, "There is no one righteous. No, not one."
As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:
- 11 Not one who has the knowledge of what is right, not one who is a searcher after God;
There is no one who understands. There is no one who seeks after God.
There is none that understandeth, there is none that seeketh God.
- 12 They have all gone out of the way, there is no profit in any of them; there is not one who does good, not so much as one:
They have all turned aside. They have together become unprofitable. There is no one who does good, no, not, so much as one."
They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable: there is none that doeth good, no, not one.

- 13 Their throat is like an open place of death; with their tongues they have said what is not true: the poison of snakes is under their lips:
"Their throat is an open tomb. With their tongues they have used deceit." "The poison of vipers is under their lips;"
Their throat is an open sepulcher; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
- 14 Whose mouth is full of curses and bitter words:
"Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness."
Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness.
- 15 Their feet are quick in running after blood;
"Their feet are swift to shed blood."
Their feet are swift to shed blood.
- 16 Destruction and trouble are in their ways;
Destruction and misery are in their ways.
Destruction and misery are in their ways:
- 17 And of the way of peace they have no knowledge:
The way of peace, they haven't known."
And the way of peace have they not known.
- 18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
"There is no fear of God before their eyes."
There is no fear of God before their eyes.
- 19 Now, we have knowledge that what the law says is for those who are under the law, so that every mouth may be stopped, and all men may be judged by God:
Now we know that whatever things the law says, it speaks to those who are under the law, that every mouth may be closed, and all the world may be brought under the judgment of God.
Now we know that whatever things the law saith, it saith to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.

- 20 Because by the works of the law no man is able to have righteousness in his eyes, for through the law comes the knowledge of sin.
Because by the works of the law, no flesh will be justified in his sight. For through the law comes the knowledge of sin.
Therefore by the deeds of the law, there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
- 21 But now without the law there is a revelation of the righteousness of God, to which witness is given by the law and the prophets;
But now apart from the law, a righteousness of God has been revealed, being testified by the law and the prophets;
But now the righteousness of God without the law is manifested, being testified by the law and the prophets;
- 22 That is, the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ, to all those who have faith; and one man is not different from another, even the righteousness of God through faith in Jesus Christ to all and on all those who believe. For there is no distinction,
Even the righteousness of God, which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all, and upon all them that believe; for there is no difference:
- 23 For all have done wrong and are far from the glory of God;
for all have sinned, and fall short of the glory of God;
For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
- 24 And they may have righteousness put to their credit, freely, by his grace, through the salvation which is in Christ Jesus:
being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus;
Being justified freely by his grace, through the redemption that is in Jesus Christ:
- 25 Whom God has put forward as the sign of his mercy, through faith, by his blood, to make clear his righteousness when, in his pity, God let the sins of earlier times go without punishment;
whom God set forth to be an atoning sacrifice, through faith, in his blood, to show his righteousness because of the passing over of the sins done before, in the forbearance of God;
Whom God hath set forth to be a propitiation, through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;

26 And to make clear his righteousness now, so that he might himself be upright, and give righteousness to him who has faith in Jesus.
for the showing of his righteousness at this present time; that he might himself be just, and the justifier of him who has faith in Jesus.

To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he may be just, and the justifier of him who believeth in Jesus.

27 What reason, then, is there for pride? It is shut out. By what sort of law? of works? No, but by a law of faith.

Where then is the boasting? It is excluded. By what manner of law? Of works? No, but by a law of faith.

Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? No; but by the law of faith.

28 For this reason, then, a man may get righteousness by faith without the works of the law.

We maintain therefore that a man is justified by faith apart from the works of the law.

Therefore we conclude, that a man is justified by faith without the deeds of the law.

29 Or is God the God of Jews only? is he not in the same way the God of Gentiles? Yes, of Gentiles:

Or is God the God of Jews only? Isn't he the God of Gentiles also? Yes, of Gentiles also,

Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:

30 If God is one; and he will give righteousness because of faith to those who have circumcision, and through faith to those who have not circumcision.

if it is so that God is one. He will justify the circumcised by faith, and the uncircumcised through faith.

Seeing it is one God who will justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.

31 Do we, then, through faith make the law of no effect? in no way: but we make it clear that the law is important.

Do we then make the law of no effect through faith? Certainly not! No, we establish the law.

Do we then make void the law through faith? By no means: but we establish the law.

1 What, then, may we say that Abraham, our father after the flesh, has got?

What then will we say that Abraham, our forefather, has found according to the flesh?

What shall we then say that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, hath found?

2 For if Abraham got righteousness by works, he has reason for pride; but not before God.
For if Abraham was justified by works, he has something to boast about, but not toward God.
For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory, but not before God.

3 But what does it say in the holy Writings? And Abraham had faith in God, and it was put to his account as righteousness.
For what does the scripture say? "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness."
For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.

4 Now, the reward is credited to him who does works, not as of grace but as a debt.
Now to him who works, the reward is not accounted as of grace, but as of debt.
Now to him that worketh, is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.

5 But to him who without working has faith in him who gives righteousness to the evil-doer, his faith is put to his account as righteousness.
But to him who doesn't work, but believes in him who justifies the ungodly, his faith is accounted for righteousness.
But to him that worketh not, but believeth on him that justifieth the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.

6 As David says that there is a blessing on the man to whose account God puts righteousness without works, saying,
Even as David also pronounces blessing on the man to whom God counts righteousness apart from works,
Even as David also describeth the blessedness of the man to whom God imputeth righteousness without works,

7 Happy are those who have forgiveness for their wrongdoing, and whose sins are covered.
"Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, Whose sins are covered."
Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.

8 Happy is the man against whom no sin is recorded by the Lord.
Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not charge with sin."
Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.

- 9 Is this blessing, then, for the circumcision only, or in the same way for those who have not circumcision? for we say that the faith of Abraham was put to his account as righteousness.
Is this blessing then pronounced on the circumcised, or on the uncircumcised also? For we say that faith was accounted to Abraham for righteousness.
Cometh this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? For we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
- 10 How, then, was it judged? when he had circumcision, or when he had it not? Not when he had it, but when he did not have it:
How then was it counted? When he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
How then was it reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
- 11 And he was given the sign of circumcision as a witness of the faith which he had before he underwent circumcision: so that he might be the father of all those who have faith, though they have not circumcision, and so that righteousness might be put to their account;
He received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while he was in uncircumcision, that he might be the father of all those who believe, though they be in uncircumcision, that righteousness might also be accounted to them.
And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith, which he had yet being uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they are not circumcised, that righteousness might be imputed to them also;
- 12 And the father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who keep to the way of that faith which our father Abraham had before he underwent circumcision.
The father of circumcision to those who not only are of the circumcision, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father, Abraham, which he had in uncircumcision.
And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham which he had being yet uncircumcised.
- 13 For God's word, that the earth would be his heritage, was given to Abraham, not through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
For not through the law was the promise to Abraham or to his seed that he should be heir of the world, but through the righteousness of faith.
For the promise that he should be the heir of the world was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.

- 14 For if they who are of the law are the people who get the heritage, then faith is made of no use, and the word of God has no power;
For if those who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise is made of no effect.
For if they who are of the law are heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect.
- 15 For the outcome of the law is wrath; but where there is no law it will not be broken.
For the law works wrath, for where there is no law, neither is there disobedience.
Because the law worketh wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
- 16 For this reason it is of faith, so that it may be through grace; and so that the word of God may be certain to all the seed; not only to that which is of the law, but to that which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all,
For this cause it is of faith, that it may be according to grace, to the end that the promise may be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all.
Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed, not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham, who is the father of us all;
- 17 (As it is said in the holy Writings, I have made you a father of a number of nations) before him in whom he had faith, that is, God, who gives life to the dead, and to whom the things which are not are as if they were.
As it is written, "I have made you a father of many nations." This is before him whom he believed, God, who gives life to the dead, and calls the things that are not, as though they were.
(As it is written, I have made thee a father of many nations) before him whom he believed, even God, who reviveth the dead, and calleth those things which are not, as though they were.
- 18 Who without reason for hope, in faith went on hoping, so that he became the father of a number of nations, as it had been said, So will your seed be.
Who in hope believed against hope, to the end that he might become a father of many nations, according to that which had been spoken, "So will your seed be."
Who against hope believed with hope, that he should become the father of many nations; according to that which was spoken, So shall thy seed be.
- 19 And not being feeble in faith though his body seemed to him little better than dead (he being about a hundred years old) and Sarah was no longer able to have children:
Without being weakened in faith, he didn't consider his own body, already having been worn out, (he being about a hundred years old), and the deadness of Sarah's womb.
And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb.

20 Still, he did not give up faith in the undertaking of God, but was made strong by faith, giving glory to God,
Yet, looking to the promise of God, he wavered not through unbelief, but grew strong through faith, giving glory to God,
He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;

21 And being certain that God was able to keep his word.
and being fully assured that what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
And being fully persuaded, that what he had promised, he was able also to perform.

22 For which reason it was put to his account as righteousness.
Therefore also it was "reckoned to him for righteousness."
And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.

23 Now, it was not because of him only that this was said,
Now it was not written that it was accounted to him for his sake alone,
Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;

24 But for us in addition, to whose account it will be put, if we have faith in him who made Jesus our Lord come back again from the dead, but for our sake also, to whom it will be accounted, who believe in him who raised Jesus, our Lord, from the dead,
But for us also, to whom it will be imputed, if we believe on him that raised Jesus our Lord from the dead, 25 Who was put to death for our evil-doing, and came to life again so that we might have righteousness.

who was delivered up for our trespasses, and was raised for our justification.
Who was delivered for our offenses, and raised again for our justification.

1 For which reason, because we have righteousness through faith, let us be at peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;
Being therefore justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ;
Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God, through our Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Through whom, in the same way, we have been able by faith to come to this grace in which we now are; and let us have joy in hope of the glory of God.
through whom we also have our access by faith into this grace in which we stand. We rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
By whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.

3 And not only so, but let us have joy in our troubles: in the knowledge that trouble gives us the power of waiting;
Not only so, but we also rejoice in our sufferings, knowing that suffering works perseverance;
And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also; knowing that tribulation worketh patience;

4 And waiting gives experience; and experience, hope:
and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope:
And patience, experience; and experience, hope:

5 And hope does not put to shame; because our hearts are full of the love of God through the Holy Spirit which is given to us.
and hope doesn't disappoint us, because God's love has been poured out into our hearts through the Holy Spirit which was given to us.
And hope maketh not ashamed, because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts, by the Holy Spirit which is given to us.

6 For when we were still without strength, at the right time Christ gave his life for evil-doers.
For while we were yet weak, at the right time Christ died for the ungodly.
For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.

7 Now it is hard for anyone to give his life even for an upright man, though it might be that for a good man someone would give his life.
For one will hardly die for a righteous man. For perhaps for a righteous person someone would even dare to die.
For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die.

8 But God has made clear his love to us, in that, when we were still sinners, Christ gave his life for us.
But God commends his own love toward us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
But God commendeth his love towards us, in that while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.

- 9 Much more, if we now have righteousness by his blood, will salvation from the wrath of God come to us through him.
Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we will be saved from God's wrath through him.
Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
- 10 For if, when we were haters of God, the death of his Son made us at peace with him, much more, now that we are his friends, will we have salvation through his life;
For if, while we were enemies, we were reconciled to God through the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we will be saved by his life.
For if when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son; much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
- 11 And not only so, but we have joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we are now at peace with God.
Not only so, but we also rejoice in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, through whom we have now received the reconciliation.
And not only so, but we also joy in God, through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
- 12 For this reason, as through one man sin came into the world, and death because of sin, and so death came to all men, because all have done evil:
Therefore, as sin entered into the world through one man, and death through sin; and so death passed to all men, because all sinned.
Wherefore as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin; and so death passed upon all men, for that all have sinned.
- 13 Because, till the law came, sin was in existence, but sin is not put to the account of anyone when there is no law to be broken.
For until the law, sin was in the world; but sin is not charged when there is no law.
For until the law, sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.
- 14 But still death had power from Adam till Moses, even over those who had not done wrong like Adam, who is a picture of him who was to come.
Nevertheless death reigned from Adam until Moses, even over those whose sins weren't like Adam's disobedience, who is a foreshadowing of him who was to come.
Nevertheless, death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned after the similitude of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him that was to come.

- 15 But the free giving of God is not like the wrongdoing of man. For if, by the wrongdoing of one man death came to numbers of men, much more did the grace of God, and the free giving by the grace of one man, Jesus Christ, come to men.
But the free gift isn't like the trespass. For if by the trespass of the one the many died, much more did the grace of God, and the gift by the grace of the one man, Jesus Christ, abound to the many.
But not as the offense, so also is the free gift. For if through the offense of one many are dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, hath abounded to many.
- 16 And the free giving has not the same effect as the sin of one: for the effect of one man's sin was punishment by the decision of God, but the free giving had power to give righteousness to wrongdoers in great number.
The gift is not as through one who sinned: for the judgment came by one to condemnation, but the free gift came of many trespasses to justification.
And not as it was by one that sinned, so is the gift. For the judgment was by one to condemnation, but the free gift is of many offenses to justification.
- 17 For, if by the wrongdoing of one, death was ruling through the one, much more will those to whom has come the wealth of grace and the giving of righteousness, be ruling in life through the one, even Jesus Christ.
For if by the trespass of the one, death reigned through the one; so much more will those who receive the abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness reign in life through the one, Jesus Christ.
For if by one man's offense death reigned by one; much more they who receive abundance of grace, and of the gift of righteousness, shall reign in life by one, Jesus Christ.
- 18 So then, as the effect of one act of wrongdoing was that punishment came on all men, even so the effect of one act of righteousness was righteousness of life for all men.
So then as through one trespass, all men were condemned; even so through one act of righteousness, all men were justified to life.
Therefore, as by the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation, even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men to justification of life.
- 19 Because, as numbers of men became sinners through the wrongdoing of one man, even so will great numbers get righteousness through the keeping of the word of God by one man.
For as through the one man's disobedience many were made sinners, even so through the obedience of the one will many be made righteous.
For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.

- 20 And the law came in addition, to make wrongdoing worse; but where there was much sin, there was much more grace:
The law came in besides, that the trespass might abound; but where sin abounded, grace did abound more exceedingly;
Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
- 21 That, as sin had power in death, so grace might have power through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
that as sin reigned in death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.
That as sin hath reigned to death, even so might grace reign through righteousness to eternal life, by Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 1 What may we say, then? are we to go on in sin so that there may be more grace?
What will we say then? Will we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
- 2 In no way. How may we, who are dead to sin, be living in it any longer?
Certainly not! We who died to sin, how could we live in it any longer?
By no means: how shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer therein?
- 3 Or are you without the knowledge that all we who had baptism into Christ Jesus, had baptism into his death?
Or don't you know that all we who were baptized into Christ Jesus were baptized into his death?
Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ, were baptized into his death?
- 4 We have been placed with him among the dead through baptism into death: so that as Christ came again from the dead by the glory of the Father, we, in the same way, might be living in new life.
We were buried therefore with him through baptism to death, that just like Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we also might walk in newness of life.
Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that as Christ was raised from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.

- 5 For, if we have been made like him in his death, we will, in the same way, be like him in his coming to life again;
For if we have become united with him in the likeness of his death, we will also be part of his resurrection;
For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
- 6 Being conscious that our old man was put to death on the cross with him, so that the body of sin might be put away, and we might no longer be servants to sin.
knowing this, that our old man was crucified with him, that the body of sin might be done away with, so that we would no longer be in bondage to sin.
Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin may be destroyed, that henceforth we should not serve sin.
- 7 Because he who is dead is free from sin.
For he who has died has been freed from sin.
For he that is dead is freed from sin.
- 8 But if we are dead with Christ, we have faith that we will be living with him;
But if we died with Christ, we believe that we will also live with him;
Now if we are dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
- 9 Having knowledge that because Christ has come back from the dead, he will never again go down to the dead; death has no more power over him.
knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dies no more. Death no more has dominion over him!
Knowing that Christ, being raised from the dead, dieth no more; death hath no more dominion over him.
- 10 For his death was a death to sin, but his life now is a life which he is living to God.
For the death that he died, he died to sin once; but the life that he lives, he lives to God.
For in that he died, he died to sin once: but in that he liveth, he liveth to God.
- 11 Even so see yourselves as dead to sin, but living to God in Christ Jesus.
Thus also consider yourselves also to be dead to sin, but alive to God in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Likewise reckon ye also yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.

- 12 For this cause do not let sin be ruling in your body which is under the power of death, so that you give way to its desires;
Therefore don't let sin reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in its lusts.
Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that ye should obey it in the lusts of it.
- 13 And do not give your bodies to sin as the instruments of wrongdoing, but give yourselves to God, as those who are living from the dead, and your bodies as instruments of righteousness to God.
Neither present your members to sin as instruments of unrighteousness, but present yourselves to God, as alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.
Neither yield ye your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin: but yield yourselves to God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God:
- 14 For sin may not have rule over you: because you are not under law, but under grace.
For sin will not have dominion over you. For you are not under law, but under grace.
For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.
- 15 What then? are we to go on in sin because we are not under law but under grace? Let it not be so.
What then? Will we sin, because we are not under law, but under grace? Certainly not!
What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? By no means.
- 16 Are you not conscious that you are the servants of him to whom you give yourselves to do his desire? if to sin, the end being death, or if to do the desire of God, the end being righteousness.
Don't you know that to whom you present yourselves as servants to obedience, his servants you are whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?
Know ye not, that to whom ye yield yourselves servants in obedience, his servants ye are whom ye obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?
- 17 But praise be to God that though you were the servants of sin, you have now given yourselves freely to that form of teaching under which you were placed;
But thanks be to God, that, whereas you were servants of sin, you became obedient from the heart to that form of teaching whereunto you were delivered.
But God be thanked, that ye were the servants of sin; but ye have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered you.

- 18 And being made free from sin you have been made the servants of righteousness.
Being made free from sin, you became servants of righteousness.
Being then made free from sin, ye became the servants of righteousness.
- 19 I am using words in the way of men, because your flesh is feeble: as you gave your bodies as servants to what is unclean, and to evil to do evil, so now give them as servants to righteousness to do what is holy.
I speak in human terms because of the weakness of your flesh, for as you presented your members as servants to uncleanness and to wickedness upon wickedness, even so now present your members as servants to righteousness for sanctification.
I speak after the manner of men, because of the infirmity of your flesh: for as ye have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity, to (work) iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness, to (work) holiness.
- 20 When you were servants of sin you were free from righteousness.
For when you were servants of sin, you were free in regard to righteousness.
For when ye were the servants of sin, ye were free from righteousness.
- 21 What fruit had you at that time in the things which are now a shame to you? for the end of such things is death.
What fruit then did you have at that time in the things of which you are now ashamed? For the end of those things is death.
What fruit had ye then in those things of which ye are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.
- 22 But now, being free from sin, and having been made servants to God, you have your fruit in that which is holy, and the end is eternal life.
But now, being made free from sin, and having become servants of God, you have your fruit of sanctification, and the result of eternal life.
But now being made free from sin, and having become servants to God, ye have your fruit to holiness, and the end everlasting life.
- 23 For the reward of sin is death; but what God freely gives is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.
For the wages of sin is death, but the free gift of God is eternal life in Christ Jesus our Lord.
For the wages of sin is death: but the gift of God is eternal life, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

1 Is it not clear, my brothers (I am using an argument to those who have knowledge of the law), that the law has power over a man as long as he is living?
Or don't you know, brothers (for I speak to men who know the law), that the law has dominion over a man for as long as he lives?
Know ye not, brethren, (for I speak to them that know the law) that the law hath dominion over a man as long as he liveth?

2 For the woman who has a husband is placed by the law under the power of her husband as long as he is living; but if her husband is dead, she is free from the law of the husband.
For the woman that has a husband is bound by law to the husband while he lives, but if the husband dies, she is discharged from the law of the husband.

For the woman who hath a husband, is bound by the law to her husband so long as he liveth; but if the husband is dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.

3 So if, while the husband is living, she is joined to another man, she will get the name of one who is untrue to her husband: but if the husband is dead, she is free from the law, so that she is not untrue, even if she takes another man.
So then if, while the husband lives, she is joined to another man, she would be called an adulteress. But if the husband dies, she is free from the law, so that she is no adulteress, though she is joined to another man.
So then, if while her husband liveth, she is married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband is dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.

4 In the same way, my brothers, you were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, so that you might be joined to another, even to him who came again from the dead, so that we might give fruit to God.
Therefore, my brothers, you also were made dead to the law through the body of Christ, that you would be joined to another, to him who was raised from the dead, that we might bring forth fruit to God.
Wherefore, my brethren, ye also are become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that ye should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to God.

5 For when we were in the flesh, the evil passions which came into being through the law were working in our bodies to give the fruit of death.
For when we were in the flesh, the sinful passions which were through the law, worked in our members to bring forth fruit to death.
For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit to death:

6 But now we are free from the law, having been made dead to that which had power over us; so that we are servants in the new way of the spirit, not in the old way of the letter.
But now we have been discharged from the law, having died to that in which we were held; so that we serve in newness of the spirit, and not in oldness of the letter.

But now we are delivered from the law, that being dead by which we were held; that we should serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.

7 What then is to be said? is the law sin? in no way. But I would not have had knowledge of sin but for the law: for I would not have been conscious of desire if the law had not said, You may not have a desire for what is another's.

What will we say then? Is the law sin? Certainly not! However, I wouldn't have known sin, except through the law. For I wouldn't have known coveting, unless the law had said, "You shall not covet."

What shall we say then? Is the law sin? By no means. No, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, Thou shalt not covet.

8 But sin, taking its chance through that which was ordered by the law, was working in me every form of desire: because without the law sin is dead.

But sin, finding occasion through the commandment, produced in me all kinds of coveting. For apart from the law, sin is dead.

But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of concupiscence. For without the law sin was dead.

9 And there was a time when I was living without the law: but when the law gave its orders, sin came to life and put me to death;

I was alive apart from the law once, but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.

10 And I made the discovery that the law whose purpose was to give life had become a cause of death:

The commandment, which was to life, this I found to be to death;

And the commandment which was ordained to life, I found to be to death.

11 For I was tricked and put to death by sin, which took its chance through the law.

for sin, finding occasion through the commandment, deceived me, and through it killed me.

For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.

- 12 But the law is holy, and its orders are holy, upright, and good.
So that the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and righteous, and good.
Wherefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
- 13 Was then that which is good, death to me? In no way. But the purpose was that sin might be seen to be sin by working death to me through that which is good; so that through the orders of the law sin might seem much more evil.
Did then that which is good become death to me? Certainly not! But sin, that it might be shown to be sin, by working death to me through that which is good; that through the commandment sin might become exceeding sinful.
Was then that which is good made death to me? By no means. But sin, that it might appear sin, working death in me by that which is good; that sin by the commandment might become exceeding sinful.
- 14 For we are conscious that the law is of the spirit; but I am of the flesh, given into the power of sin.
For we know that the law is spiritual, but I am fleshly, sold under sin.
For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.
- 15 And I have no clear knowledge of what I am doing, for that which I have a mind to do, I do not, but what I have hate for, that I do.
For I don't know what I am doing. For I don't practice what I desire to do; but what I hate, that I do.
For that which I do, I allow not: for what I would, that I do not; but what I hate, that I do.
- 16 But, if I do that which I have no mind to do, I am in agreement with the law that the law is good.
But if what I don't desire, that I do, I consent to the law that it is good.
If then I do that which I would not, I consent to the law that it is good.
- 17 So it is no longer I who do it, but the sin living in me.
So now it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.
Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.

- 18 For I am conscious that in me, that is, in my flesh, there is nothing good: I have the mind but not the power to do what is right.
For I know that in me, that is, in my flesh, dwells no good thing. For desire is present with me, but I don't find it doing that which is good.
For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwelleth no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good, I find not.
- 19 For the good which I have a mind to do, I do not: but the evil which I have no mind to do, that I do.
For the good which I desire, I don't do; but the evil which I don't desire, that I practice.
For the good that I would, I do not; but the evil which I would not, that I do.
- 20 But if I do what I have no mind to do, it is no longer I who do it, but the sin living in me.
But if what I don't desire, that I do, it is no more I that do it, but sin which dwells in me.
Now if I do that which I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwelleth in me.
- 21 So I see a law that, though I have a mind to do good, evil is present in me.
I find then the law, that, to me, while I desire to do good, evil is present.
I find then a law, that when I would do good, evil is present with me.
- 22 In my heart I take pleasure in the law of God,
For I delight in God's law after the inward man,
For I delight in the law of God, after the inward man:
- 23 But I see another law in my body, working against the law of my mind, and making me the servant of the law of sin which is in my flesh.
but I see a different law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity under the law of sin which is in my members.
But I see another law in my members warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
- 24 How unhappy am I! who will make me free from the body of this death?
What a wretched man I am! Who will deliver me out of the body of this death?
O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?

- 25 I give praise to God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So with my mind I am a servant to the law of God, but with my flesh to the law of sin.
I thank God through Jesus Christ, our Lord. So then I of myself with the mind, indeed serve the law of God, but with the flesh the law of sin.
I thank God, through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then, with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.
- 1 For this cause those who are in Christ Jesus will not be judged as sinners.
There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who don't walk according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
There is therefore now no condemnation to them who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
- 2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.
For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus made me free from the law of sin and of death.
For the law of the Spirit of life, in Christ Jesus, hath made me free from the law of sin and death.
- 3 For what the law was not able to do because it was feeble through the flesh, God, sending his Son in the image of the evil flesh, and as an offering for sin, gave his decision against sin in the flesh:
For what the law couldn't do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh;
For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God, sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
- 4 So that what was ordered by the law might be done in us, who are living, not in the way of the flesh, but in the way of the Spirit.
that the ordinance of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
That the righteousness of the law may be fulfilled in us, who walk not according to the flesh, but according to the Spirit.
- 5 For those who are living in the way of the flesh give their minds to the things of the flesh, but those who go in the way of the Spirit, to the things of the Spirit.
For those who are after the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
For they that are according to the flesh, do mind the things of the flesh: but they that are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

- 6 For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace:
For the mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace;
For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace:
-
- 7 Because the mind of the flesh is opposite to God; it is not under the law of God, and is not able to be:
because the mind of the flesh is hostile towards God; for it is not subject to God`s law, neither indeed can it be.
Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
- 8 So that those who are in the flesh are not able to give pleasure to God.
Those who are in the flesh can`t please God.
So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
- 9 You are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God is in you. But if any man has not the Spirit of Christ he is not one of his.
But you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if it is so that the Spirit of God dwells in you. But if any man doesn`t have the Spirit of Christ, he is not his.
But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if the Spirit of God dwelleth in you. Now if any man hath not the Spirit of Christ, he is not his.
- 10 And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
If Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin, but the spirit is alive because of righteousness.
And if Christ is in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
- 11 But if the Spirit of him who made Jesus come again from the dead is in you, he who made Christ Jesus come again from the dead will in the same way, through his Spirit which is in you, give life to your bodies which now are under the power of death.
But if the Spirit of him who raised up Jesus from the dead dwells in you, he who raised up Christ Jesus from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies through his Spirit who dwells in you.
But if the Spirit of him that raised Jesus from the dead dwelleth in you, he that raised Christ from the dead will also revive your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwelleth in you.

- 12 So then, my brothers, we are in debt, not to the flesh to be living in the way of the flesh:
So then, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.
Therefore, brethren, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live according to the flesh.
- 13 For if you go in the way of the flesh, death will come on you; but if by the Spirit you put to death the works of the body, you will have life.
For if you live after the flesh, you must die; but if by the Spirit you put to death the deeds of the body, you will live.
For if ye live according to the flesh, ye shall die: but if ye through the Spirit mortify the deeds of the body, ye shall live.
- 14 And all those who are guided by the Spirit of God are sons of God.
For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, these are children of God.
For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
- 15 For you did not get the spirit of servants again to put you in fear, but the spirit of sons was given to you, by which we say, Abba, Father.
For you didn't receive the spirit of bondage again to fear, but you received the spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, "Abba! Father!"
For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, by which we cry, Abba, Father.
- 16 The Spirit is witness with our spirit that we are children of God:
The Spirit himself testifies with our spirit that we are children of God;
The Spirit itself testifieth with our spirit, that we are the children of God:
- 17 And if we are children, we have a right to a part in the heritage; a part in the things of God, together with Christ; so that if we have a part in his pain, we will in the same way have a part in his glory.
and if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if indeed we suffer with him, that we may also be glorified with him.
And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if we suffer with him, that we may be glorified together.

- 18 I am of the opinion that there is no comparison between the pain of this present time and the glory which we will see in the future.
For I consider that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which will be revealed toward us.
For I reckon, that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
- 19 For the strong desire of every living thing is waiting for the revelation of the sons of God.
For the creation waits with eager expectation for the sons of God to be revealed.
For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God.
- 20 For every living thing was put under the power of change, not by its desire, but by him who made it so, in hope
For the creation was subjected to vanity, not of its own will, but by reason of him who subjected it, in hope
For the creature was made subject to vanity, not willingly, but by reason of him who hath subjected the same in hope:
- 21 That all living things will be made free from the power of death and will have a part with the free children of God in glory.
that the creation itself also will be delivered from the bondage of decay into the liberty of the glory of the children of God.
Because the creature itself also shall be delivered from the bondage of corruption, into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
- 22 For we are conscious that all living things are weeping and sorrowing in pain together till now.
For we know that the whole creation groans and travailes in pain together until now.
For we know that the whole creation groaneth, and travaileth in pain together until now:
- 23 And not only so, but we who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we have sorrow in our minds, waiting for the time when we will take our place as sons, that is, the salvation of our bodies.
Not only so, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for adoption, the redemption of our body.
And not only they, but ourselves also, who have the first-fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, to wit, the redemption of our body.

- 24 For our salvation is by hope: but hope which is seen is not hope: for who is hoping for what he sees?
For we were saved in hope, but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for that which he sees?
For we are saved by hope: But hope that is seen, is not hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for?
- 25 But if we have hope for that which we see not, then we will be able to go on waiting for it.
But if we hope for that which we don't see, we wait for it with patience.
But if we hope for what we see not, then with patience we wait for it.
- 26 And in the same way the Spirit is a help to our feeble hearts: for we are not able to make prayer to God in the right way; but the Spirit puts our desires into words which are not in our power to say;
In the same way, the Spirit also helps our weaknesses, for we don't know how to pray as we ought. But the Spirit himself makes intercession for us with groanings which can't be uttered.
Likewise the Spirit also helpeth our infirmities: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself maketh intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
- 27 And he who is the searcher of hearts has knowledge of the mind of the Spirit, because he is making prayers for the saints in agreement with the mind of God.
He who searches the hearts knows what is on the Spirit's mind, because he makes intercession for the saints according to God.
And he that searcheth the hearts knoweth what is the mind of the Spirit, because he maketh intercession for the saints, according to the will of God.
- 28 And we are conscious that all things are working together for good to those who have love for God, and have been marked out by his purpose.
We know that all things work together for good for those who love God, to those who are called according to his purpose.
And we know that all things work together for good, to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
- 29 Because those of whom he had knowledge before they came into existence, were marked out by him to be made like his Son, so that he might be the first among a band of brothers:
For whom he foreknew, he also predestined to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.
For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the first-born among many brethren.

30 And those who were marked out by him were named; and those who were named were given righteousness; and to those to whom he gave righteousness, in the same way he gave glory. Whom he foreordained, them he also called. Whom he called, them he also justified. Whom he justified, them he also glorified. Moreover, whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.

31 What may we say about these things? If God is for us, who is against us?
What then will we say about these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?
What shall we then say to these things? If God is for us, who can be against us?

32 He who did not keep back his only Son, but gave him up for us all, will he not with him freely give us all things?
He who didn't spare his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how would he not also with him freely give us all things?
He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?

33 Who will say anything against the saints of God? It is God who makes us clear from evil;
Who could bring a charge against God's elect? It is God who justifies.
Who will lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifieth:

34 Who will give a decision against us? It is Christ Jesus who not only was put to death, but came again from the dead, who is now at the right hand of God, taking our part.
Who is he who condemns? It is Christ who died, yes rather, who was raised from the dead, who is at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.
Who is he that condemneth? It is Christ that died, or rather that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also maketh intercession for us.

35 Who will come between us and the love of Christ? Will trouble, or pain, or cruel acts, or the need of food or of clothing, or danger, or the sword?
Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? Could oppression, or anguish, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?

- 36 As it is said in the holy Writings, Because of you we are put to death every day; we are like sheep ready for destruction.
Even as it is written, "For your sake we are killed all day long. We were accounted as sheep for the slaughter."
As it is written, For thy sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
- 37 But we are able to overcome all these things and more through his love.
No, in all these things, we are more than conquerors through him who loved us.
But in all these things we are more than conquerors, through him that loved us.
- 38 For I am certain that not death, or life, or angels, or rulers, or things present, or things to come, or powers,
For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor things present, nor things to come, nor powers
For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
- 39 Or things on high, or things under the earth, or anything which is made, will be able to come between us and the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, will be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, will be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.
- 1 I say what is true in Christ, and not what is false, my mind giving witness with me in the Holy Spirit,
I tell the truth in Christ. I am not lying, my conscience testifying with me in the Holy Spirit,
I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me testimony in the Holy Spirit,
- 2 That I am full of sorrow and pain without end.
that I have great sorrow and unceasing pain in my heart.
That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
- 3 For I have a desire to take on myself the curse for my brothers, my family in the flesh:
For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers` sake, my relatives according to the flesh,
For I could wish that myself were accursed from Christ, for my brethren, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

4 Who are Israelites: who have the place of sons, and the glory, and the agreements with God, and the giving of the law, and the worship, and the hope offered by God:
who are Israelites; whose is the adoption, the glory, the covenants, the giving of the law, the service, and the promises;
Who are Israelites; to whom pertain the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;

5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom came Christ in the flesh, who is over all, God, to whom be blessing for ever. So be it.
whose are the fathers, and of whom is Christ as concerning the flesh, who is over all, God, blessed forever. Amen.
Whose are the fathers, and from whom according to the flesh, Christ came, who is over all, God blessed for ever. Amen.

6 But it is not as if the word of God was without effect. For they are not all Israel, who are of Israel:
But it is not as though the word of God has come to nothing. For they are not all Israel, that are of Israel.
Not as though the word of God hath taken no effect. For they are not all Israel, who are descendants from Israel?

7 And they are not all children because they are the seed of Abraham; but, In Isaac will your seed be named.
Neither, because they are Abraham`s seed, are they all children. But, "In Isaac will your seed be called."
Neither because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall thy seed be called.

8 That is, it is not the children of the flesh, but the children of God's undertaking, who are named as the seed.
That is, it is not the children of the flesh who are children of God, but the children of the promise are counted as a seed.
That is, They who are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God; but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.

9 For this is the word of God's undertaking, At this time will I come, and Sarah will have a son.
For this is a word of promise, "At the appointed time I will come, and Sarah will have a son."
For this is the word of promise, At this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.

10 And not only so, but Rebecca being about to have a child by our father Isaac--
Not only so, but Rebecca also conceived by one, by our father Isaac.
And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived by one, even by our father Isaac,

- 11 Before the children had come into existence, or had done anything good or bad, in order that God's purpose and his selection might be effected, not by works, but by him whose purpose it is, For being not yet born, neither having done anything good or bad, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him who calls, (For the children being not yet born, neither having done any good or evil, that the purpose of God, according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calleth)
- 12 It was said to her, The older will be the servant of the younger.
it was said to her, "The elder will serve the younger."
It was said to her, The elder shall serve the younger.
- 13 Even as it is said, I had love for Jacob, but for Esau I had hate.
Even as it is written, "Jacob I loved, but Esau I hated."
As it is written, Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated.
- 14 What may we say then? is God not upright? let it not be said.
What will we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? Certainly not!
What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? By no means.
- 15 For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and pity on whom I will have pity.
For he said to Moses, "I will have mercy on whom I have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I have compassion."
For he saith to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
- 16 So then, it is not by the desire or by the attempt of man, but by the mercy of God.
So then it is not of him who wills, nor of him who runs, but of God who has mercy.
So then, it is not of him that willeth, nor of him that runneth, but of God that showeth mercy.

- 17 For the holy Writings say to Pharaoh, For this same purpose did I put you on high, so that I might make my power seen in you, and that there might be knowledge of my name through all the earth.
For the scripture says to Pharaoh, "For this very purpose I caused you to be raised up, that I might show in you my power, and that my name might be published abroad in all the earth."
For the scripture saith to Pharaoh, Even for this same purpose have I raised thee up, that I might show my power in thee, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
- 18 So then, at his pleasure he has mercy on a man, and at his pleasure he makes the heart hard.
So then, he has mercy on whom he desires, and he hardens whom he desires.
Therefore he hath mercy on whom he will have mercy, and whom he will he hardeneth.
- 19 But you will say to me, Why does he still make us responsible? who is able to go against his purpose?
You will say then to me, "Why does he still find fault? For who withstands his will?"
Thou wilt say then to me, Why doth he yet find fault? for who hath resisted his will?
- 20 But, O man, who are you, to make answer against God? May the thing which is made say to him who made it, Why did you make me so?
But no, man, who are you who replies against God? Will the thing formed ask him who formed it, "Why did you make me like this?"
No, but, O man, who art thou that repliest against God? shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why hast thou made me thus?
- 21 Or has not the potter the right to make out of one part of his earth a vessel for honour, and out of another a vessel for shame?
Or hasn't the potter a right over the clay, from the same lump to make one part a vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?
Hath not the potter power over the clay of the same lump to make one vessel to honor, and another to dishonor?
- 22 What if God, desiring to let his wrath and his power be seen, for a long time put up with the vessels of wrath which were ready for destruction:
What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much patience vessels of wrath made for destruction,
What if God, willing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much long-suffering the vessels of wrath fitted to destruction:

- 23 And to make clear the wealth of his glory to vessels of mercy, which he had before made ready for glory, and that he might make known the riches of his glory on vessels of mercy, which he prepared beforehand for glory,
And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had before prepared for glory,
- 24 Even us, who were marked out by him, not only from the Jews, but from the Gentiles?
us, whom he also called, not from the Jews only, but also from the Gentiles?
Even us whom he hath called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles.
- 25 As he says in Hosea, They will be named my people who were not my people, and she will be loved who was not loved.
As he says also in Hosea, "I will call them `my people,` which were not my people; And her `beloved,` who was not beloved."
As he saith also in Hosea, I will call them My people, who were not my people; and her Beloved, who was not beloved.
- 26 And in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people, there they will be named the sons of the living God.
"It will be that in the place where it was said to them, `You are not my people,` There will they be called `sons of the living God.`"
And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, Ye are not my people; there shall they be called, The children of the living God.
- 27 And Isaiah says about Israel, Even if the number of the children of Israel is as the sand of the sea, only a small part will get salvation:
Isaiah cries concerning Israel, "If the number of the children of Israel are as the sand of the sea, It is the remnant who will be saved;
Isaiah also crieth concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:
- 28 For the Lord will give effect to his word on the earth, putting an end to it and cutting it short.
For He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, Because the LORD will make a short work upon the earth."
For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.

- 29 And, as Isaiah had said before, If the Lord of armies had not given us a seed, we would have been like Sodom and Gomorrah.
As Isaiah has said before, "Unless the Lord of Hosts had left us a seed, We would have become like Sodom, And would have been made like Gomorrah."
And as Isaiah said before, Except the Lord of Sabaoth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like Gomorrah.
- 30 What then may we say? That the nations who did not go after righteousness have got righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith:
What will we say then? That the Gentiles, who didn't follow after righteousness, attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is of faith;
What shall we say then? That the Gentiles who followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, even the righteousness which is by faith:
- 31 But Israel, going after a law of righteousness, did not get it.
but Israel, following after a law of righteousness, didn't arrive at the law of righteousness.
But Israel, who followed after the law of righteousness, hath not attained to the law of righteousness.
- 32 Why? Because they were not searching for it by faith, but by works. They came up against the stone which was in the way;
Why? Because they didn't seek it by faith, but as it were by works of the law. They stumbled over the stumbling stone;
Why? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumbling-stone;
- 33 As it is said, See, I am putting in Zion a stone causing a fall, and a rock in the way: but he who has faith in him will not be put to shame.
even as it is written, "Behold, I lay in Zion a stone of stumbling and a rock of offense. And no one who believes in him will be put to shame."
As it is written, Behold, I lay in Sion a stumbling-stone, and rock of offense: and whoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
- 1 Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God for them is, that they may get salvation.
Brothers, my heart's desire and my prayer to God is for Israel, that they may be saved.
Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they may be saved.

- 2 For I give witness of them that they have a strong desire for God, but not with knowledge.
For I testify about them that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.
For I bear them testimony that they have a zeal of God, but not according to knowledge.
- 3 Because, not having knowledge of God's righteousness, and desiring to give effect to their righteousness, they have not put themselves under the righteousness of God.
For being ignorant of God`s righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, they didn`t subject themselves to the righteousness of God.
For they, being ignorant of God's righteousness, and seeking to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.
- 4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who has faith.
For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone who believes.
For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believeth.
- 5 For Moses says that the man who does the righteousness which is of the law will get life by it.
For Moses writes about the righteousness of the law, "The one who does them will live by them."
For Moses describeth the righteousness which is by the law, That the man who doeth these things shall live by them.
- 6 But the righteousness which is of faith says these words, Say not in your heart, Who will go up to heaven? (that is, to make Christ come down:)
But the righteousness which is of faith says this, "Don`t say in your heart, `Who will ascend into heaven?` (that is, to bring Christ down);
But the righteousness which is by faith speaketh on this wise, Say not in thy heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down.)
- 7 Or, Who will go down into the deep? (that is, to make Christ come again from the dead:)
or, `Who will descend into the abyss?` (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead.)"
Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring Christ again from the dead.)

- 8 But what does it say? The word is near you, in your mouth and in your heart: that is, the word of faith of which we are the preachers:
But what does it say? "The word is near you, in your mouth, and in your heart;" that is, the word of faith, which we preach:
But what saith it? The word is nigh thee, even in thy mouth, and in thy heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach:
- 9 Because, if you say with your mouth that Jesus is Lord, and have faith in your heart that God has made him come back from the dead, you will have salvation:
that if you will confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved.
That if thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thy heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
- 10 For with the heart man has faith to get righteousness, and with the mouth he says that Jesus is Lord to get salvation.
For with the heart, one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
For with the heart man believeth to righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made to salvation.
- 11 Because it is said in the holy Writings, Whoever has faith in him will not be shamed.
For the scripture says, "Whoever believes in him will not be put to shame."
For the scripture saith, whoever believeth on him shall not be ashamed.
- 12 And the Jew is not different from the Greek: for there is the same Lord of all, who is good to all who have hope in his name:
For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; for the same Lord is Lord of all, and is rich to all who call on him.
For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all, is rich to all that call upon him,
- 13 Because, Whoever will give worship to the name of the Lord will get salvation.
For, "Whoever will call on the name of the Lord will be saved."
For whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.

- 14 But how will they give worship to him in whom they have no faith? and how will they have faith in him of whom they have not had news? and how will they have news without a preacher?
How then will they call on him in whom they have not believed? How will they believe in him whom they have not heard? How will they hear without a preacher?
How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
- 15 And how will there be preachers if they are not sent? As it is said, How beautiful are the feet of those who give the glad news of good things.
And how will they preach unless they are sent? As it is written: "How beautiful are the feet of those who preach the gospel of peace, Who bring glad tidings of good things!"
And how shall they preach, except they be sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things?
- 16 But they have not all given ear to the good news. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has had faith in our word?
But they didn't all listen to the glad news. For Isaiah says, "Lord, who has believed our report?"
But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah saith, Lord, who hath believed our report?
- 17 So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.
So faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
So then, faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
- 18 But I say, Did not the word come to their ears? Yes, certainly: Their sound has gone out into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.
But I say, didn't they hear? Yes, most assuredly, "Their sound went out into all the earth, Their words to the ends of the world."
But I say, Have they not heard? Yes verily, their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.
- 19 But I say, Had Israel no knowledge? First Moses says, You will be moved to envy by that which is not a nation, and by a foolish people I will make you angry.
But I ask, didn't Israel know? First Moses says, "I will provoke you to jealousy with that which is no nation, With a nation void of understanding I will make you angry."
But I say, Did not Israel know? First, Moses saith, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are no people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.

- 20 And Isaiah says without fear, Those who were not searching for me made discovery of me; and I was seen by those whose hearts were turned away from me.
Isaiah is very bold, and says, "I was found by those who didn't seek me. I was revealed to those who didn't ask for me."
But Isaiah is very bold, and saith, I was found by them that sought me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not for me.
- 21 But about Israel he says; All the day my hands have been stretched out to a people whose hearts were turned away, and who put themselves against my word.
But as to Israel he says, "All day long I stretched out my hands to a disobedient and contrary people.
But to Israel he saith, All day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and gainsaying people.
- 1 So I say, Has God put his people on one side? Let there be no such thought. For I am of Israel, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
I ask then, Did God reject his people? Certainly not! For I also am an Israelite, a descendant of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
I say then, Hath God cast away his people? By no means. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
- 2 God has not put away the people of his selection. Or have you no knowledge of what is said about Elijah in the holy Writings? how he says words to God against Israel,
God didn't reject his people, which he foreknew. Or don't you know what the scripture says about Elijah? How he pleads with God against Israel:
God hath not cast away his people which he foreknew. Know ye not what the scripture saith of Elijah? how he maketh intercession to God against Israel, saying,
- 3 Lord, they have put your prophets to death, and made waste your altars, and now I am the last, and they are searching for me to take away my life.
"Lord, they have killed your prophets, they have broken down your altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life."
Lord, they have killed thy prophets, and digged down thy altars; and I am left alone, and they seek my life.
- 4 But what answer does God make to him? I have still seven thousand men whose knees have not been bent to Baal.
But how does God answer him? "I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal."
But what saith the answer of God to him? I have reserved to myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to Baal.

- 5 In the same way, there are at this present time some who are marked out by the selection of grace.
Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
- 6 But if it is of grace, then it is no longer of works: or grace would not be grace.
And if by grace, then it is no longer of works; otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it is of works, it is no longer grace; otherwise work is no longer work.
And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no more grace. But if of works, then is it no more grace: otherwise work is no more work.
- 7 What then? That which Israel was searching for he did not get, but those of the selection got it and the rest were made hard.
What then? That which Israel seeks for, that he didn't obtain, but the election obtained it, and the rest were hardened.
What then? Israel hath not obtained that which he seeketh for; but the election hath obtained it, and the rest were blinded.
- 8 As it was said in the holy Writings, God gave them a spirit of sleep, eyes which might not see, and ears which have no hearing, to this day.
According as it is written, "God gave them a spirit of stupor, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear, to this very day."
(According as it is written, God hath given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) to this day.
- 9 And David says, Let their table be made a net for taking them, and a stone in their way, and a punishment:
David says, "Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, A stumbling block, and a retribution to them.
And David saith, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling-block, and a recompense to them:
- 10 Let their eyes be made dark so that they may not see, and let their back be bent down at all times.
Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see. Bow down their back always."
Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always.

- 11 So I say, Were their steps made hard in order that they might have a fall? In no way: but by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, so that they might be moved to envy.
I ask then, did they stumble that they might fall? Certainly not! But by their fall salvation has come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.
I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? By no means: but rather through their fall salvation is come to the Gentiles, to provoke them to jealousy.
- 12 Now, if their fall is the wealth of the world, and their loss the wealth of the Gentiles, how much greater will be the glory when they are made full?
Now if their fall is the riches of the world, and their loss the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?
Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?
- 13 But I say to you, Gentiles, in so far as I am the Apostle of the Gentiles, I make much of my position:
For I speak to you who are Gentiles. Since then as I am an apostle to Gentiles, I glorify my ministry;
For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office:
- 14 If in any way those who are of my flesh may be moved to envy, so that some of them may get salvation by me.
if by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and may save some of them.
If by any means I may incite to emulation them who are my flesh, and may save some of them.
- 15 For, if by their putting away, the rest of men have been made friends with God, what will their coming back again be, but life from the dead?
For if the rejection of them [is] the reconciling of the world, what would the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
For if the rejection of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
- 16 And if the first-fruit is holy, so is the mass: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.
If the first fruit is holy, so is the lump. If the root is holy, so are the branches.
For if the first fruit is holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root is holy, so are the branches.

- 17 But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, an olive-tree of the fields, were put in among them, and were given a part with them in the root by which the olive-tree is made fertile,
But if some of the branches were broken off, and you, being a wild olive, were grafted in among them, and became partaker with them of the root of the richness of the olive tree;
And if some of the branches be broken off, and thou, being a wild olive-tree, art ingrafted among them, and with them partakest of the root and fatness of the olive-tree;
- 18 Do not be uplifted in pride over the branches: because it is not you who are the support of the root, but it is by the root that you are supported.
don't boast over the branches. But if you boast, it is not you who bear the root, but the root you.
Boast not against the branches. But if thou boastest, thou bearest not the root, but the root thee.
- 19 You will say, Branches were broken off so that I might be put in.
You will say then, "Branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in."
Thou wilt say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be ingrafted.
- 20 Truly, because they had no faith they were broken off, and you have your place by reason of your faith. Do not be lifted up in pride, but have fear;
True; by their unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by your faith. Don't be conceited, but fear;
Well; because of unbelief they were broken off, and thou standest by faith. Be not high-minded, but fear:
- 21 For, if God did not have mercy on the natural branches, he will not have mercy on you.
for if God didn't spare the natural branches, neither will he spare you.
For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also spare not thee.
- 22 See then that God is good but his rules are fixed: to those who were put away he was hard, but to you he has been good, on the condition that you keep in his mercy; if not, you will be cut off as they were.
See then the goodness and severity of God. Toward those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness; otherwise you also will be cut off.
Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on them who fell, severity; but towards thee, goodness, if thou shalt continue in his goodness: otherwise thou also shalt be cut off.

- 23 And they, if they do not go on without faith, will be united to the tree again, because God is able to put them in again.
They also, if they don't continue in their unbelief, will be grafted in, for God is able to graft them in again.
And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be ingrafted: for God is able to ingraft them again.
- 24 For if you were cut out of a field olive-tree, and against the natural use were united to a good olive-tree, how much more will these, the natural branches, be united again with the olive-tree which was theirs?
For if you were cut out of that which is by nature a wild olive tree, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree, how much more will these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
For if thou wast cut out of the olive-tree which is wild by nature, and wast ingrafted contrary to nature into a good olive-tree; how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive-tree?
- 25 For it is my desire, brothers, that this secret may be clear to you, so that you may not have pride in your knowledge, that Israel has been made hard in part, till all the Gentiles have come in;
For I don't desire, brothers, to have you ignorant of this mystery, so that you won't be wise in your own conceits, that a hardening in part has happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles have come in,
For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, (lest ye should be wise in your own conceits) that blindness in part hath happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles shall be come in.
- 26 And so all Israel will get salvation: as it is said in the holy Writings, There will come out of Zion the One who makes free; by him wrongdoing will be taken away from Jacob:
and so all Israel will be saved. Even as it is written, "There will come out of Zion the Deliverer, And he will turn away ungodliness from Jacob.
And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
- 27 And this is my agreement with them, when I will take away their sins.
This is my covenant to them, When I will take away their sins."
For this is my covenant to them, when I shall take away their sins.
- 28 As far as the good news is in question, they are cut off from God on account of you, but as far as the selection is in question, they are loved on account of the fathers.
Concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sake. But concerning the election, they are beloved for the fathers' sake.
As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as concerning the election, they are beloved for the father's sakes.

- 29 Because God's selection and his mercies may not be changed.
For the gifts and the calling of God are irrevocable.
For the gifts and calling of God are without repentance.
- 30 For as you, in time past, were not under the rule of God, but now have got mercy through their turning away,
For as you in time past were disobedient to God, but now have obtained mercy by their disobedience,
For as ye in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief;
- 31 So in the same way these have gone against the orders of God, so that by the mercy given to you they may now get mercy.
even so these also have now been disobedient, that by the mercy shown to you they may also obtain mercy.
Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
- 32 For God has let them all go against his orders, so that he might have mercy on them all.
For God has shut up all to disobedience, that he might have mercy on all.
For God hath concluded them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
- 33 O how deep is the wealth of the wisdom and knowledge of God! no one is able to make discovery of his decisions, and his ways may not be searched out.
Oh the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and the knowledge of God! How unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past tracing out!
O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable are his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
- 34 Who has knowledge of the mind of the Lord? or who has taken part in his purposes?
"For who has known the mind of the Lord? Or who has been his counselor?"
For who hath known the mind of the Lord? or who hath been his counselor?
- 35 Or who has first given to him, and it will be given back to him again?
"Or who has first given to him, And it will be repaid to him again?"
Or who hath first given to him, and it shall be recompensed to him again?

36 For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever. So be it.
For of him, and through him, and to him, are all things. To him be the glory for ever! Amen.
For from him, and by him, and to him are all things: to whom be glory for ever. Amen.

1 For this reason I make request to you, brothers, by the mercies of God, that you will give your bodies as a living offering, holy, pleasing to God, which is the worship it is right for you to give him.
Therefore I beg you, brothers, by the mercies of God, to present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your spiritual service.
I beseech you therefore, brethren, by the mercies of God, that ye present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.

2 And let not your behaviour be like that of this world, but be changed and made new in mind, so that by experience you may have knowledge of the good and pleasing and complete purpose of God.
Don't be fashioned according to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, so that you may prove what is the good and acceptable and perfect will of God.
And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good and acceptable, and perfect will of God.

3 But I say to every one of you, through the grace given to me, not to have an over-high opinion of himself, but to have wise thoughts, as God has given to every one a measure of faith.
For I say, through the grace that was given me, to every man who is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think reasonably, as God has apportioned to each person a measure of faith.
For through the grace given to me, I say, to every man that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God hath dealt to every man the measure of faith.

4 For, as we have a number of parts in one body, but all the parts have not the same use,
For even as we have many members in one body, and all the members don't have the same function,
For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same office:

5 So we, though we are a number of persons, are one body in Christ, and are dependent on one another;
so we, who are many, are one body in Christ, and individually members one of another.
So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.

- 6 And having different qualities by reason of the grace given to us, such as the quality of a prophet, let it be made use of in relation to the measure of our faith;
Having gifts differing according to the grace that was given to us, if prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of our faith;
Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
- 7 Or the position of a Deacon of the church, let a man give himself to it; or he who has the power of teaching, let him make use of it;
or service, let us give ourselves to service; or he who teaches, to his teaching;
Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teacheth, on teaching:
- 8 He who has the power of comforting, let him do so; he who gives, let him give freely; he who has the power of ruling, let him do it with a serious mind; he who has mercy on others, let it be with joy.
or he who exhorts, to his exhorting: he who gives, let him do it with liberality; he who rules, with diligence; he who shows mercy, with cheerfulness.
Or he that exhorteth, on exhortation: he that giveth, let him do it with simplicity; he that ruleth, with diligence; he that showeth mercy, with cheerfulness.
- 9 Let love be without deceit. Be haters of what is evil; keep your minds fixed on what is good.
Let love be without hypocrisy. Abhor that which is evil. Cling to that which is good.
Let love be without dissimulation. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.
- 10 Be kind to one another with a brother's love, putting others before yourselves in honour;
In love of the brothers be tenderly affectionate one to another; in honor preferring one another;
Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;
- 11 Be not slow in your work, but be quick in spirit, as the Lord's servants;
not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;
Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;

- 12 Being glad in hope, quiet in trouble, at all times given to prayer, rejoicing in hope; enduring in oppression; continuing steadfastly in prayer;
Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing earnest in prayer;
- 13 Giving to the needs of the saints, ready to take people into your houses.
contributing to the needs of the saints; given to hospitality.
Distributing to the necessity of saints; given to hospitality.
- 14 Give blessing and not curses to those who are cruel to you.
Bless those who persecute you; bless, and don't curse.
Bless them who persecute you; bless, and curse not.
- 15 Take part in the joy of those who are glad, and in the grief of those who are sorrowing.
Rejoice with those who rejoice. Weep with those who weep.
Rejoice with them that rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
- 16 Be in harmony with one another. Do not have a high opinion of yourselves, but be in agreement with common people. Do not give yourselves an air of wisdom.
Be of the same mind one toward another. Don't set your mind on high things, but associate with the humble. Don't be wise in your own conceits.
Be of the same mind one towards another. Mind not high things, but condescend to men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
- 17 Do not give evil for evil to any man. Let all your business be well ordered in the eyes of all men.
Repay no one evil for evil. Respect what is honorable in the sight of all men.
Recompense to no man evil for evil. Provide things honest in the sight of all men.
- 18 As far as it is possible for you be at peace with all men.
If it is possible, as much as it is up to you, be at peace with all men.
If it is possible, as much as lieth in you, live peaceably with all men.

19 Do not give punishment for wrongs done to you, dear brothers, but give way to the wrath of God; for it is said in the holy Writings, Punishment is mine, I will give reward, says the Lord.
Don't seek revenge yourselves, beloved, but give place to God's wrath. For it is written, "Vengeance belongs to me; I will repay, says the Lord."

Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather give place to wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, saith the Lord.

20 But if one who has hate for you is in need of food or of drink, give it to him, for in so doing you will put coals of fire on his head.

Therefore "If your enemy is hungry, feed him. If he is thirsty, give him a drink. For in doing so, you will heap coals of fire on his head."

Therefore if thy enemy hungereth, feed him; if he thirsteth, give him drink: for in so doing thou shalt heap coals of fire on his head.

21 Do not let evil overcome you, but overcome evil by good.

Don't be overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

1 Let everyone put himself under the authority of the higher powers, because there is no power which is not of God, and all powers are ordered by God.

Let every soul be in subjection to the higher authorities, for there is no authority except from God, and those who be are ordained by God.

Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but from God: the powers that are, are ordained by God.

2 For which reason everyone who puts himself against the authority puts himself against the order of God: and those who are against it will get punishment for themselves.

Therefore he who resists the authority, withstands the ordinance of God; and those who withstand will receive to themselves judgment.

Whoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.

3 For rulers are not a cause of fear to the good work but to the evil. If you would have no fear of the authority, do good and you will have praise;

For rulers are not a terror to the good work, but to the evil. Do you desire to have no fear of the authority? Do that which is good, and you will have praise from the same,

For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power; do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise from the same:

4 For he is the servant of God to you for good. But if you do evil, have fear; for the sword is not in his hand for nothing: he is God's servant, making God's punishment come on the evil-doer.
for he is a servant of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid, for he doesn't bear the sword in vain; for he is a minister of God, an avenger for wrath to him who does evil.

For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou doest that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, an avenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 So put yourselves under the authority, not for fear of wrath, but because you have the knowledge of what is right.

Therefore you need to be in subjection, not only because of the wrath, but also for conscience' sake.

Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.

6 For the same reason, make payment of taxes; because the authority is God's servant, to take care of such things at all times.

For this reason you also pay taxes, for they are ministers of God's service, attending continually on this very thing.

For, for this cause ye pay tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.

7 Give to all what is their right: taxes to him whose they are, payment to him whose right it is, fear to whom fear, honour to whom honour is to be given.

Give therefore to everyone what you owe: taxes to whom taxes are due; customs to whom customs; respect to whom respect; honor to whom honor.

Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.

8 Be in debt for nothing, but to have love for one another: for he who has love for his neighbour has kept all the law.

Owe no one anything, except to love one another; for he who loves his neighbor has fulfilled the law.

Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

9 And this, Do not be untrue in married life, Do not put to death, Do not take what is another's, Do not have desire for what is another's, and if there is any other order, it is covered by this word, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself.

For the commandments, "You shall not commit adultery," "You shall not murder," "You shall not steal," "You shall not give false testimony," "You shall not covet," and whatever other commandments there are, are all summed up in this saying, namely, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."

For this, Thou shalt not commit adultery, Thou shalt not kill, Thou shalt not steal, Thou shalt not bear false witness, Thou shalt not covet; and if there is any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.

- 10 Love does no wrong to his neighbour, so love makes the law complete.
Love doesn't harm his neighbor. Love therefore is the fulfillment of the law.
Love worketh no ill to one's neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.
- 11 See then that the time has come for you to be awake from sleep: for now is your salvation nearer than when you first had faith.
This, knowing the time, that it is already time for you to awake out of sleep, for salvation is now nearer to us than when we first believed.
And this, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.
- 12 The night is far gone, and the day is near: so let us put off the works of the dark, arming ourselves with light,
The night is far gone, and the day is near. Let's therefore throw off the works of darkness, and let's put on the armor of light.
The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light.
- 13 With right behaviour as in the day; not in pleasure-making and drinking, not in bad company and unclean behaviour, not in fighting and envy.
Let us walk properly, as in the day; not in reveling and drunkenness, not in sexual promiscuity and lustful acts, and not in strife and jealousy.
Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.
- 14 But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and do not give thought to the flesh to do its desires.
But put on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make no provision for the flesh, for its lusts.
But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the lusts of flesh.
- 1 Do not put on one side him who is feeble in faith, and do not put him in doubt by your reasonings.
But receive him who is weak in faith, not for judging thoughts.
Him that is weak in the faith receive ye, but not to doubtful disputations.

- 2 One man has faith to take all things as food: another who is feeble in faith takes only green food.
One man has faith to eat all things, but he who is weak eats herbs.
For one believeth that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eateth herbs.
- 3 Let not him who takes food have a low opinion of him who does not: and let not him who does not take food be a judge of him who does; for he has God's approval.
Don't let him who eats despise him who doesn't eat. Don't let him who doesn't eat judge him who eats, for God has received him
Let not him that eateth, despise him that eateth not; and let not him who eateth not, judge him that eateth: for God hath received him.
- 4 Who are you to make yourself a judge of another man's servant? it is to his master that he is responsible for good or bad. Yes, his place will be safe, because the Lord is able to keep him from falling.
Who are you who judge the servant of another? To his own lord he stands or falls. Yes, he will be made to stand, for God has power to make him stand.
Who art thou that judgest another man's servant? to his own master he standeth or falleth: and he shall be held up: for God is able to make him stand.
- 5 This man puts one day before another: to that man they are the same. Let every man be certain in his mind.
One man esteems one day above another. Another esteems every day alike. Let each man be fully assured in his own mind.
One man esteemeth one day above another: another esteemeth every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.
- 6 He who keeps the day, keeps it to the Lord; and he who takes food, takes it as to the Lord, for he gives praise to God; and he who does not take food, to the Lord he takes it not, and gives praise to God.
He who observes the day, observes it to the Lord; and he who does not observe the day, to the Lord he does not observe it. He who eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks. He who doesn't eat, to the Lord he doesn't eat, and gives God thanks.
He that regardeth the day, regardeth it to the Lord: and he that regardeth not the day, to the Lord he doth not regard it. He that eateth, eateth to the Lord, for he giveth God thanks; and he that eateth not, to the Lord he eateth not, and giveth God thanks.
- 7 For every man's life and every man's death has a relation to others as well as to himself.
For none of us lives to himself, and none dies to himself.
For none of us liveth to himself, and no man dieth to himself.

- 8 As long as we have life we are living to the Lord; or if we give up our life it is to the Lord; so if we are living, or if our life comes to an end, we are the Lord's.
For if we live, we live to the Lord. Or if we die, we die to the Lord. If therefore we live or die, we are the Lord's.
For whether we live, we live to the Lord; and whether we die, we die to the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
- 9 And for this purpose Christ went into death and came back again, that he might be the Lord of the dead and of the living.
For to this end Christ died, rose, and lived again, that he might be Lord of both the dead and the living.
For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.
- 10 But you, why do you make yourself your brother's judge? or again, why have you no respect for your brother? because we will all have to take our place before God as our judge.
But you, why do you judge your brother? Or you again, why do you despise your brother? For we will all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
But why dost thou judge thy brother? or why dost thou set at naught thy brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment-seat of Christ.
- 11 For it is said in the holy Writings, By my life, says the Lord, to me every knee will be bent, and every tongue will give worship to God.
For it is written, "As I live," says the Lord, "to me every knee will bow. Every tongue will confess to God."
For it is written, As I live, saith the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.
- 12 So every one of us will have to give an account of himself to God.
So then each one of us will give account of himself to God.
So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.
- 13 Then let us not be judges of one another any longer: but keep this in mind, that no man is to make it hard for his brother, or give him cause for doubting.
Therefore Let's not judge one another any more, but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block in his brother's way, or an occasion of falling.
Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling-block, or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.

- 14 I am conscious of this, and am certain in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean in itself; but for the man in whose opinion it is unclean, for him it is unclean.
I know, and am persuaded in the Lord Jesus, that nothing is unclean of itself; except that to him who considers anything to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean by itself: but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
- 15 And if because of food your brother is troubled, then you are no longer going on in the way of love. Do not let your food be destruction to him for whom Christ went into death.
Yet if because of food your brother is grieved, you walk no longer in love. Don't destroy with your food him for whom Christ died.
But if thy brother is grieved with thy food, now walkest thou not charitably. Destroy not him with thy food, for whom Christ died.
- 16 Let it not be possible for men to say evil about your good:
Then don't let your good be slandered,
Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
- 17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness and peace and joy in the Holy Spirit.
for the kingdom of God is not eating and drinking, but righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.
For the kingdom of God is not food and drink, but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.
- 18 And he who in these things is Christ's servant, is pleasing to God and has the approval of men.
For he who serves Christ in these things is acceptable to God and approved by men.
For he that in these things serveth Christ, is acceptable to God, and approved by men.
- 19 So then, let us go after the things which make peace, and the things by which we may be a help to one another.
So then, let us follow after things which make for peace, and things whereby we may build one another up.
Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things with which one may edify another.

20 Do not let the work of God come to nothing on account of food. All things are certainly clean; but it is evil for that man who by taking food makes it hard for another.
Don't overthrow God's work for food's sake. All things indeed are clean, however it is evil for that man who creates a stumbling block by eating.

For the sake of food, destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eateth with offense.

21 It is better not to take meat or wine or to do anything which might be a cause of trouble to your brother.

It is good not to eat meat, drink wine nor do anything by which your brother stumbles, is offended, or is made weak.

It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing by which thy brother stumbleth, or is offended, or is made weak.

22 The faith which you have, have it to yourself before God. Happy is the man who is not judged by that to which he gives approval.

Do you have faith? Have it to yourself before God. Happy is he who doesn't judge himself in that which he approves.

Hast thou faith? have it to thyself before God. Happy is he that condemneth not himself in that thing which he alloweth.

23 But he who is in doubt is judged if he takes food, because he does it not in faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

But he who doubts is condemned if he eats, because it isn't of faith; and whatever is not of faith is sin.

And he that doubteth is damned if he eateth, because he eateth not from faith: for whatever is not from faith is sin.

1 We who are strong have to be a support to the feeble, and not give pleasure to ourselves.

Now we who are strong ought to bear the weaknesses of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.

2 Let every one of us give pleasure to his neighbour for his good, to make him strong.

Let each one of us please his neighbor for that which is good, to be building him up.

Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good to edification.

3 For Christ did not give pleasure to himself, but, as it is said, The bitter words of those who were angry with you came on me.
For Christ also didn't please himself. But, as it is written, "The reproaches of those who reproached you fell on me."
For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached thee fell on me.

4 Now those things which were put down in writing before our time were for our learning, so that through quiet waiting and through the comfort of the holy Writings we might have hope.
For whatever things were written before were written for our learning, that through patience and through comfort of the scriptures we might have hope.
For whatever things were written formerly, were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.

5 Now may the God who gives comfort and strength in waiting make you of the same mind with one another in harmony with Christ Jesus:
Now the God of patience and of comfort grant you to be of the same mind one with another according to Christ Jesus,
Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be like-minded one towards another according to Christ Jesus:

6 So that with one mouth you may give glory to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
that with one accord you may with one mouth glorify the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
That ye may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.

7 So then, take one another to your hearts, as Christ took us, to the glory of God.
Therefore receive one another, even as Christ also received you, to the glory of God.
Wherefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.

8 Now I say that Christ has been made a servant of the circumcision to give effect to the undertakings given by God to the fathers,
Now I say that Christ has been made a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, that he might confirm the promises given to the fathers,
Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers:

- 9 And so that the Gentiles might give glory to God for his mercy; as it is said, For this reason I will give praise to you among the Gentiles, and I will make a song to your name.
and that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore will I give praise to you among the Gentiles, And sing to your name."
And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to thee among the Gentiles, and sing to thy name.
- 10 And again he says, Take part, you Gentiles, in the joy of his people.
Again he says, "Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people."
And again he saith, Rejoice, ye Gentiles, with his people.
- 11 And again, Give praise to the Lord, all you Gentiles; and let all the nations give praise to him.
Again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles! Let all the peoples praise him."
And again, Praise the Lord, all ye Gentiles; and laud him, all ye people.
- 12 And again Isaiah says, There will be the root of Jesse, and he who comes to be the ruler over the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles put their hope.
Again, Isaiah says, "There will be the root of Jesse, He who arises to rule over the Gentiles; On him will the Gentiles hope."
And again Isaiah saith, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.
- 13 Now may the God of hope make you full of joy and peace through faith, so that all hope may be yours in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, in the power of the Holy Spirit.
Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
- 14 And I myself am certain of you, brothers, that you are full of what is good, complete in all knowledge, able to give direction to one another.
I myself am also persuaded about you, my brothers, that you yourselves are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish others.
And I myself also am persuaded concerning you, my brethren, that ye also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.

- 15 But I have, in some measure, less fear in writing to you to put these things before you again, because of the grace which was given to me by God,
But I write the more boldly to you in some measure, as putting you again in memory, because of the grace that was given to me by God,
Nevertheless, brethren, I have written the more boldly to you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me from God.
- 16 To be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, doing the work of a priest in the good news of God, so that the offering of the Gentiles might be pleasing to God, being made holy by the Holy Spirit.
that I should be a servant of Christ Jesus to the Gentiles, serving the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be made acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
- 17 So I have pride in Christ Jesus in the things which are God's.
I have therefore my boasting in Christ Jesus in things pertaining to God.
I have therefore cause for glorying through Jesus Christ, in those things which pertain to God.
- 18 And I will keep myself from talking of anything but those things which Christ has done by me to put the Gentiles under his rule in word and in act,
For I will not dare to speak of any things except those which Christ worked through me, for the obedience of the Gentiles, by word and deed,
For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ hath not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,
- 19 By signs and wonders, in the power of the Holy Spirit; so that from Jerusalem and round about as far as Illyricum I have given all the good news of Christ; in the power of signs and wonders, in the power of God's Spirit; so that from Jerusalem, and around as far as to Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ;
Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and around to Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.

- 20 Making it my purpose not to take the good news where Christ was named, so that my work might not be resting on that of others;
yes, making it my aim so to preach the gospel, not where Christ was already named, that I might not build on another man`s foundation.
And so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
- 21 But as it is said in the holy Writings, They will see, to whom the news of him had not been given, and those to whose ears it had not come will have knowledge.
But, as it is written, "They will see, to whom no news of him came. They who haven`t heard will understand."
But as it is written, They shall see to whom he was not spoken of: and they that have not heard shall understand.
- 22 For which reason I was frequently kept from coming to you:
Therefore also I was hindered these many times from coming to you,
For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.
- 23 But now, having no longer any place in these parts and having had for a number of years a great desire to come to you, but now, no longer having any place in these regions, and having these many years a longing to come to you,
But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you;
- 24 Whenever I go to Spain (for it is my hope to see you on my way, and to be sent on there by you, if first I may in some measure have been comforted by your company)-- whenever I journey to Spain, I will come to you. For I hope to see you on my journey, and to be helped on my way there by you, if first I may enjoy your company for a while.
Whenever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way thitherward by you, if first I shall be somewhat filled with your company.
- 25 But now I go to Jerusalem, taking help for the saints.
But now, I say, I am going to Jerusalem, serving the saints.
But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints.

- 26 For it has been the good pleasure of those of Macedonia and Achaia to send a certain amount of money for the poor among the saints at Jerusalem.
For it has been the good pleasure of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor among the saints who are at Jerusalem.
For it hath pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor of the saints who are at Jerusalem.
- 27 Yes, it has been their good pleasure; and they are in their debt. For if the Gentiles have had a part in the things of the Spirit which were theirs, it is right for them, in the same way, to give them help in the things of the flesh.
Yes, it has been their good pleasure, and they are their debtors. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, they owe it to them also to serve them in fleshly things.
It hath pleased them verily; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things.
- 28 So when I have done this, and have given them this fruit of love, I will go on by you into Spain.
When therefore I have accomplished this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go on by you to Spain.
When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will go by you into Spain.
- 29 And I am certain that when I come, I will be full of the blessing of Christ.
I know that, when I come to you, I will come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
And I am sure that when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.
- 30 Now I make request to you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you will be working together with me in your prayers to God for me;
Now I beg you, brothers, by our Lord Jesus Christ, and by the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me,
Now I beseech you, brethren, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that ye strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
- 31 So that I may be kept safe from those in Judaea who have not put themselves under the rule of God, and that the help which I am taking for Jerusalem may be pleasing to the saints;
that I may be delivered from those who are disobedient in Judea, and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be acceptable to the saints;
That I may be delivered from them in Judea who do not believe; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem, may be acceptable to the saints;

32 So that I may come to you in joy by the good pleasure of God, and have rest with you.
that I may come to you in joy through the will of God, and together with you, find rest.
That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.

33 Now may the God of peace be with you all. So be it.
Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.
Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

1 It is my desire to say a good word for Phoebe, who is a servant of the church in Cenchreae:
I commend to you Phoebe, our sister, who is a servant of the assembly that is at Cenchreae,
I commend to you Phebe our sister, who is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:

2 That you will take her in kindly, after the way of the saints, as one who is the Lord's, and give her help in anything in which she may have need of you: because she has been a help to a great number and to myself.
that you receive her in the Lord, in a way worthy of the saints, and that you assist her in whatever matter she may need from you, for she herself also has been a helper of many, and of my own self.
That ye receive her in the Lord, as it becometh saints, and that ye assist her in whatever business she hath need of you: for she hath been a succorer of many, and of myself also.

3 Give my love to Prisca and Aquila, workers with me in Christ Jesus,
Greet Prisca and Aquila, my fellow workers in Christ Jesus,
Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:

4 Who for my life put their necks in danger; to whom not only I but all the churches of the Gentiles are in debt:
who for my life, laid down their own necks; to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the assemblies of the Gentiles.
Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.

- 5 And say a kind word to the church which is in their house. Give my love to my dear Epaphroditus, who is the first fruit of Asia to Christ.
Greet the assembly that is in their house. Greet Epaphroditus, my beloved, who is the first-fruit of Achaia to Christ.
Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epaphroditus, who is the first-fruit of Achaia to Christ.
- 6 Give my love to Mary, who gave much care to you.
Greet Mary, who labored much for us.
Greet Mary, who bestowed much labor on us.
- 7 Give my love to Andronicus and Junia, my relations, who were in prison with me, who are noted among the Apostles, and who were in Christ before me.
Greet Andronicus and Junias, my relatives and my fellow prisoners, who are notable among the apostles, who also have been in Christ before me.
Salute Andronicus and Junia my kinsmen, and my fellow-prisoners, who are of note among the apostles, who also were in Christ before me.
- 8 Give my love to Amplias, who is dear to me in the Lord,
Greet Amplias, my beloved in the Lord.
Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.
- 9 Give my love to Urbanus, a worker in Christ with us, and to my dear Stachys.
Greet Urbanus, our fellow worker in Christ, and Stachys, my beloved.
Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.
- 10 Give my love to Apelles, who has the approval of Christ. Say a kind word to those who are of the house of Aristobulus.
Greet Apelles, the approved in Christ. Greet those who are of the household of Aristobulus.
Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute them who are of Aristobulus' household.
- 11 Give my love to Herodion, my relation. Say a kind word to those of the house of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.
Greet Herodion, my kinsman. Greet them of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.
Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that are of the household of Narcissus, who are in the Lord.

- 12 Give my love to Tryphaena and Tryphosa, workers in the Lord. Give my love to my dear Persis, who did much work in the Lord.
Greet Tryphaena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Greet Persis, the beloved, who labored much in the Lord.
Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, who labored much in the Lord.
- 13 Give my love to Rufus, one of the Lord's selection, and to his mother and mine.
Greet Rufus, the chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
- 14 Give my love to Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.
Greet Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermes, Patrobas, Hermas, and the brothers who are with them.
Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brethren who are with them.
- 15 Give my love to Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
Greet Philologus and Julia, Nereus and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints who are with them.
- 16 Give one another a holy kiss. All the churches of Christ send their love to you.
Greet one another with a holy kiss. The assemblies of Christ greet you.
Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.
- 17 Now, it is my desire, brothers, that you will take note of those who are causing division and trouble among you, quite against the teaching which was given to you: and keep away from them.
Now I beg you, brothers, mark those who are causing the divisions and occasions of stumbling, contrary to the doctrine which you learned, and turn away from them.
Now I beseech you, brethren, mark them who cause divisions and offenses, contrary to the doctrine which ye have learned; and avoid them.
- 18 For such people are not servants of the Lord Christ, but of their stomachs; and by their smooth and well-said words the hearts of those who have no knowledge of evil are tricked.
For those who are such don't serve our Lord, Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by their smooth and flattering speech, they deceive the hearts of the innocent.
For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.

- 19 For all have knowledge of how you do what you are ordered. For this reason I have joy in you, but it is my desire that you may be wise in what is good, and without knowledge of evil.
For your obedience has reached all. I rejoice therefore over you. But I desire to have you wise to that which is good, but innocent to that which is evil.
For your obedience is come abroad to all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise to that which is good, and simple concerning evil.
- 20 And the God of peace will be crushing Satan under your feet before long. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
Now the God of peace will crush Satan under your feet swiftly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
And the God of peace will soon bruise Satan under your feet. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.
- 21 Timothy, who is working with me, sends his love to you, so do Lucius and Jason and Sosipater, my relations.
Timothy, my fellow worker, greets you, as do Lucius, Jason, and Sosipater, my relatives.
Timothy my work-fellow, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater my kinsmen, salute you.
- 22 I, Tertius, who have done the writing of this letter, send love in the Lord.
I, Tertius, who write the letter, greet you in the Lord.
I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.
- 23 Gaius, with whom I am living, whose house is open to all the church, sends his love, so does Erastus, the manager of the accounts of the town, and Quartus, the brother.
Gaius, my host and host of the whole assembly, greets you. Erastus, the treasurer of the city, greets you, as does Quartus, the brother.
Gaius my host, and of the whole church, saluteth you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city saluteth you, and Quartus a brother.
- 24 ¶
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all! Amen.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

- 1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, and Sosthenes the brother,
Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and our brother Sosthenes,
Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
- 2 To the church of God which is in Corinth, to those who have been made holy in Christ Jesus, saints by the selection of God, with all those who in every place give honour to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, their Lord and ours:
to the assembly of God which is at Corinth; those who are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who call on the name of our Lord Jesus Christ in every place, both theirs and ours:
To the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all that in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours.
- 3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 4 I give praise to my God for you at all times, because of the grace of God which has been given to you in Christ Jesus;
I always thank my God concerning you, for the grace of God which was given you in Christ Jesus;
I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
- 5 So that in him you have wealth in all things, in word and in knowledge of every sort; that in everything you were enriched in him, in all speech and all knowledge;
That in every thing ye are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
- 6 Even as the witness of the Christ has been made certain among you:
even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
Even as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
- 7 So that having every grace you are living in the hope of the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ;
so that you come behind in no gift; waiting for the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ;
So that ye come behind in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 8 Who will give you strength to the end, to be free from all sin in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
who will also confirm you until the end, blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Who will also confirm you to the end, that ye may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 God is true, through whom you have been given a part with his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.
God is faithful, through whom you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ, our Lord.
God is faithful, by whom ye were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 10 Now I make request to you, my brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you will all say the same thing, and that there may be no divisions among you, so that you may be in complete agreement, in the same mind and in the same opinion.
Now I beg you, brothers, through the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing and that there be no divisions among you, but that you be perfected together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
Now I beseech you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that ye be perfectly joined together in the same mind, and in the same judgment.
- 11 Because it has come to my knowledge, through those of the house of Chloe, that there are divisions among you, my brothers.
For it has been reported to me concerning you, my brothers, by those who are from Chloe`s household, that there are contentions among you.
For it hath been declared to me concerning you, my brethren, by them who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
- 12 That is, that some of you say, I am of Paul; some say, I am of Apollos; some say, I am of Cephas; and some say, I am Christ's.
Now I mean this, that each one of you says, "I follow Paul," "I follow Apollos," "I follow Cephas," and, "I follow Christ."
Now this I say, that every one of you saith, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.
- 13 Is there a division in Christ? was Paul nailed to the cross for you? or were you given baptism in the name of Paul?
Is Christ divided? Was Paul crucified for you? Or were you baptized into the name of Paul?
Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were ye baptized in the name of Paul?

- 14 I give praise to God that not one of you had baptism from me, but Crispus and Gaius;
I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius,
I thank God that I baptized none of you, but Crispus and Gaius;
- 15 So that no one may be able to say that you had baptism in my name.
so that no one should say that I had baptized you into my own name.
Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name.
- 16 And I gave baptism to the house of Stephanas; but I am not certain that any others had baptism from me.
(I also baptized the household of Stephanas; besides them, I don't know whether I baptized any other.)
And I baptized also the household of Stephanas; besides, I know not whether I baptized any other.
- 17 For Christ sent me, not to give baptism, but to be a preacher of the good news: not with wise words, for fear that the cross of Christ might be made of no value.
For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel -- not in wisdom of words, so that the cross of Christ wouldn't be made void.
For Christ hath not sent me to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ should be made of no effect.
- 18 For the word of the cross seems foolish to those who are on the way to destruction; but to us who are on the way to salvation it is the power of God.
For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are dying, but to us who are saved it is the power of God.
For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish, foolishness; but to us who are saved, it is the power of God.
- 19 As it says in the holy Writings, I will put an end to the wisdom of the wise, and will put on one side the designs of those who have knowledge.
For it is written, "I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, I will bring the discernment of the discerning to nothing."
For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and will bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.

20 Where is the wise? where is he who has knowledge of the law? where is the man of this world who has a love of discussion? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the lawyer of this world? Hasn't God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? hath not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?

21 For because, by the purpose of God, the world, with all its wisdom, had not the knowledge of God, it was God's pleasure, by so foolish a thing as preaching, to give salvation to those who had faith in him.
For seeing that in the wisdom of God, the world through its wisdom didn't know God, it was God's good pleasure through the foolishness of the preaching to save those who believe.
For when in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom knew not God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.

22 Seeing that the Jews make request for signs, and the Greeks are looking for knowledge:
For Jews ask for signs, Greeks seek after wisdom,
For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek wisdom:

23 But we give the good news of Christ on the cross, a hard thing to the Jews, and a foolish thing to the Gentiles;
but we preach Christ crucified; a stumbling block to Jews, and foolishness to Greeks,
But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling-block, and to the Greeks foolishness;

24 But to those of God's selection, Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power and the wisdom of God.
but to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ is the power of God and the wisdom of God.
But to them who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.

25 Because what seems foolish in God is wiser than men; and what seems feeble in God is stronger than men.
Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

- 26 For you see God's design for you, my brothers, that he has not taken a great number of the wise after the flesh, not the strong, not the noble:
For you see your calling, brothers, that not many are wise according to the flesh, not many mighty, and not many noble;
For ye see your calling, brethren, that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble are called:
- 27 But God made selection of the foolish things of this world so that he might put the wise to shame; and the feeble things that he might put to shame the strong;
but God chose the foolish things of the world that he might put to shame those who are wise. God chose the weak things of the world, that he might put to shame the things that are strong;
But God hath chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God hath chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things which are mighty;
- 28 And the low things of the world, and the things without honour, did God make selection of, yes, even the things which are not, so that he might make as nothing the things which are:
and God chose the lowly things of the world, and the things that are despised, and the things that are not, that he might bring to nothing the things that are:
And base things of the world, and things which are despised, hath God chosen, and things which are not, to bring to naught things that are:
- 29 So that no flesh might have glory before God.
that no flesh should boast before God.
That no flesh should glory in his presence.
- 30 But God has given you a place in Christ Jesus, through whom God has given us wisdom and righteousness and salvation, and made us holy:
But of him, you are in Christ Jesus, who was made to us wisdom from God, and righteousness and sanctification, and redemption:
But of him are ye in Christ Jesus, who from God is made to us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
- 31 So that, as it is said in the holy Writings, Whoever has a desire for glory, let his glory be in the Lord.
that, according as it is written, "He who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."
That, according as it is written, He that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

1 And when I came to you, my brothers, I did not come with wise words of knowledge, putting before you the secret of God.
When I came to you, brothers, I didn't come with excellence of speech or of wisdom, proclaiming to you the testimony of God.
And I, brethren, when I came to you, came not with excellence of speech, or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God.

2 For I had made the decision to have knowledge of nothing among you but only of Jesus Christ on the cross.
For I determined not to know anything among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
For I determined not to know any thing among you, save Jesus Christ, and him crucified.

3 And I was with you without strength, in fear and in doubt.
I was with you in weakness, in fear, and in much trembling.
And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.

4 And in my preaching there were no honeyed words of wisdom, but I was dependent on the power of the Spirit to make it clear to you:
My speech and my preaching were not in persuasive words of human wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power,
And my speech and my preaching was not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit, and of power:

5 So that your faith might be based not on man's wisdom but on the power of God.
that your faith wouldn't stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.

6 But still we have wisdom for those who are complete in knowledge, though not the wisdom of this world, and not of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing:
We speak wisdom, however, among those who are full grown; yet a wisdom not of this world, nor of the rulers of this world, who are coming to nothing.
However, we speak wisdom among them that are perfect: yet not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to naught:

- 7 But we give the news of the secret wisdom of God, which he had kept in store before the world came into existence, for our glory;
But we speak God`s wisdom in a mystery, the wisdom that has been hidden, which God foreordained before the worlds to our glory,
But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom which God ordained before the world to our glory:
- 8 Of which not one of the rulers of this world had knowledge: for if they had, they would not have put the Lord of glory on the cross:
which none of the rulers of this world has known. For had they known it, they wouldn`t have crucified the Lord of glory.
Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
- 9 But as it says in the holy Writings, Things which the eye saw not, and which had not come to the ears or into the heart of man, such things as God has made ready for those who have love for him.
But as it is written, "Things which eye didn`t see, and ear didn`t hear, Which didn`t enter into the heart of man, Whatever things God prepared for those who love him."
But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
- 10 But God has given us the revelation of these things through his Spirit, for the Spirit makes search into all things, even the deep things of God.
But to us, God revealed them through the Spirit. For the Spirit searches all things, yes, the deep things of God.
But God hath revealed them to us by his Spirit; for the Spirit searcheth all things, even the deep things of God.
- 11 For who has knowledge of the things of a man but the spirit of the man which is in him? in the same way, no one has knowledge of the things of God but the Spirit of God.
For who among men knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man, which is in him? Even so, no one knows the things of God, except God`s Spirit.
For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
- 12 But we have not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which comes from God, so that we may have knowledge of the things which are freely given to us by God.
But we received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is from God, that we might know the things that were freely given to us by God.
Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is from God; that we may know the things that are freely given to us by God.

- 13 And these are the things which we say, not in the language of man's wisdom, but in words given to us by the Spirit, judging the things of the spirit by the help of the Spirit.
Which things also we speak, not in words which man`s wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches, comparing spiritual things with spiritual things.
Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Spirit teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
- 14 For the natural man is not able to take in the things of the Spirit of God: for they seem foolish to him, and he is not able to have knowledge of them, because such knowledge comes only through the Spirit.
Now the natural man doesn`t receive the things of the God`s Spirit, for they are foolishness to him, and he can`t know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
- 15 But he who has the Spirit, though judging all things, is himself judged by no one.
But he who is spiritual discerns all things, and he himself is judged by no one.
But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged by no man.
- 16 For who has knowledge of the mind of the Lord, so as to be his teacher? But we have the mind of Christ.
"For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he should instruct him?" But we have Christ`s mind.
For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.
- 1 And the teaching I gave you, my brothers, was such as I was able to give, not to those who have the Spirit, but to those who are still in the flesh, even to children in Christ.
Brothers, I couldn`t speak to you as to spiritual, but as to fleshly, as to babes in Christ.
And I, brethren, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal, even as to babes in Christ.
- 2 I gave you milk and not meat, because you were, then, unable to take it, and even now you are not able;
I fed you with milk, not with meat; for you weren`t yet ready. Indeed, not even now are you ready,
I have fed you with milk, and not with meat: for hitherto ye were not able to bear it, neither yet now are ye able.

- 3 Because you are still in the flesh: for when there is envy and division among you, are you not still walking after the way of the flesh, even as natural men?
for you are still fleshly. For insofar as there is jealousy, strife, and factions among you, aren't you fleshly, and don't you walk in the ways of men?
For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?
- 4 For when one says, I am of Paul; and another says, I am of Apollos; are you not talking like natural men?
For when one says, "I follow Paul," and another, "I follow Apollos," aren't you fleshly?
For while one saith, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are ye not carnal?
- 5 What then is Apollos? and what is Paul? They are but servants who gave you the good news as God gave it to them.
Who then is Apollos, and who is Paul, but servants through whom you believed; and each as the Lord gave to him?
Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom ye believed, even as the Lord gave to every man?
- 6 I did the planting, Apollos did the watering, but God gave the increase.
I planted. Apollos watered. But God gave the increase.
I have planted, Apollos watered: but God hath given the increase.
- 7 So then the planter is nothing, and the waterer is nothing; but God who gives the increase.
So then neither he who plants is anything, nor he who waters, but God who gives the increase.
So then, neither is he that planteth any thing, neither he that watereth: but God that giveth the increase.
- 8 Now the planter and the waterer are working for the same end: but they will have their separate rewards in the measure of their work.
Now he who plants and he who waters are the same, but each will receive his own reward according to his own labor.
Now he that planteth and he that watereth are one: and every man shall receive his own reward, according to his own labor.
- 9 For we are workers with God: you are God's planting, God's building.
For we are God's fellow workers. You are God's farming, God's building.
For we are laborers together with God: ye are God's husbandry, ye are God's building.

- 10 In the measure of the grace given to me, I, as a wise master-builder, have put the base in position, and another goes on building on it. But let every man take care what he puts on it.
According to the grace of God which was given to me, as a wise master builder I laid a foundation, and another builds on it. But let each man be careful how he builds on it.
According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master-builder, I have laid the foundation, and another buildeth upon it. But let every man take heed how he buildeth upon it.
- 11 For there is no other base for the building but that which has been put down, which is Jesus Christ.
For no one can lay any other foundation than that which has been laid, which is Jesus Christ.
For other foundation can no man lay than that which is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
- 12 But on the base a man may put gold, silver, stones of great price, wood, dry grass, cut stems;
But if anyone builds on the foundation with gold, silver, costly stones, wood, hay, or stubble;
Now if any man buildeth upon this foundation, gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
- 13 Every man's work will be made clear in that day, because it will be tested by fire; and the fire itself will make clear the quality of every man's work.
each man`s work will be revealed. For the Day will declare it, because it is revealed in fire; and the fire itself will test what sort of work each man`s work is.
Every man's work will be made manifest: for the day will declare it, because it will be revealed by fire; and the fire will try every man's work, of what sort it is.
- 14 If any man's work comes through the test, he will have a reward.
If any man`s work remains which he built on it, he will receive a reward.
If any man's work abideth which he hath built upon it, he shall receive a reward.
- 15 If the fire puts an end to any man's work, it will be his loss: but he will get salvation himself, though as by fire.
If any man`s work is burned, he will suffer loss, but he himself will be saved, but as through fire.
If any man's work shall be burned, he will suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
- 16 Do you not see that you are God's holy house, and that the Spirit of God has his place in you?
Don`t you know that you are a temple of God, and that God`s Spirit lives in you?
Know ye not that ye are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwelleth in you?

- 17 If anyone makes the house of God unclean, God will put an end to him; for the house of God is holy, and you are his house.
If anyone destroys the temple of God, God will destroy him; for God's temple is holy, which you are.
If any man defileth the temple of God, him will God destroy: for the temple of God is holy, which temple ye are.
- 18 Let no man have a false idea. If any man seems to himself to be wise among you, let him become foolish, so that he may be wise.
Let no one deceive himself. If anyone thinks that he is wise among you in this world, let him become a fool, that he may become wise.
Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
- 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolish before God. As it is said in the holy Writings, He who takes the wise in their secret designs:
For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He has taken the wise in their craftiness."
For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He taketh the wise in their own craftiness.
- 20 And again, The Lord has knowledge of the reasonings of the wise, that they are nothing.
And again, "The Lord knows the reasoning of the wise, that it is worthless."
And again, The Lord knoweth the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
- 21 So let no one take pride in men. For all things are yours;
Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours,
Therefore let no man glory in men: for all things are yours:
- 22 Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come. All are yours,
Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
-
- 23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.
and you are Christ's, and Christ is God's.
And ye are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

- 1 Let us be judged as servants of Christ, and as those who are responsible for the secret things of God.
So let a man think of us as Christ`s servants, and stewards of God`s mysteries.
Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
- 2 And it is right for such servants to be safe persons.
Here, moreover, it is required of stewards, that they be found faithful.
Moreover, it is required in stewards that a man be found faithful.
- 3 But it is a small thing to me that I am judged by you or by man's judging; I am not even a judge of myself.
But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man`s judgment. Yes, I don`t judge my own self.
But with me it is a very small thing that I should be judged by you, or by man's judgment: yes, I judge not my own self.
- 4 For I am not conscious of any wrong in myself; but this does not make me clear, for it is the Lord who is my judge.
For I know nothing against myself. Yet I am not justified by this, but he who judges me is the Lord.
For I know nothing against myself; yet am I not hereby justified: but he that judgeth me is the Lord.
- 5 For this reason let there be no judging before the time, till the Lord comes, who will make clear the secret things of the dark, and the designs of the heart; and then will every man have his praise from God.
Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and reveal the counsels of the hearts. Then each man will get his praise from God.
Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord shall come, who will both bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall every man have praise from God.
- 6 My brothers, it is because of you that I have taken Apollos and myself as examples of these things, so that in us you might see that it is not wise to go farther than what is in the holy Writings, so that no one of you may be lifted up against his brother.
Now these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and Apollos for your sakes, that in us you might learn not to think beyond the things which are written, that none of you be puffed up against one another.
And these things, brethren, I have in a figure transferred to myself, and to Apollos, for your sakes; that ye may learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, that no one of you on account of one, may be puffed up against another.

7 For who made you better than your brother? or what have you that has not been given to you? but if it has been given to you, what cause have you for pride, as if it had not been given to you?
For who makes you different? And what do you have that you didn't receive? But if you did receive it, why do you boast as if you had not received it?

For who maketh thee to differ from another? and what hast thou that thou didst not receive? now if thou didst receive it, why dost thou glory, as if thou hadst not received it?

8 For even now you are full, even now you have wealth, you have been made kings without us: truly, I would be glad if you were kings, so that we might be kings with you.
You are already filled. You have already become rich. You have come to reign without us. Yes, and I wish that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.

Now ye are full, now ye are rich, ye have reigned as kings without us: and I wish ye did reign, that we also might reign with you.

9 For it seems to me that God has put us the Apostles last of all, as men whose fate is death: for we are put on view to the world, and to angels, and to men.
For, I think that God has displayed us, the apostles, last of all, like men sentenced to death. For we are made a spectacle to the world, both to angels and men.

For I think that God hath set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.

10 We are made to seem foolish for Christ, but you are wise in Christ; we are feeble, but you are strong; you have glory, but we have shame.
We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ. We are weak, but you are strong. You have honor, but we have dishonor.

We are fools for Christ's sake, but ye are wise in Christ; we are weak, but ye are strong; ye are honorable, but we are despised.

11 Even to this hour we are without food, drink, and clothing, we are given blows and have no certain resting-place;
Even to this present hour we hunger, thirst, are naked, are beaten, and have no certain dwelling place.

Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no certain dwelling-place;

12 And with our hands we do the hardest work: when they give us curses we give blessings, when we undergo punishment we take it quietly;
We toil, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless. Being persecuted, we endure.

And labor, working with our own hands. Being reviled, we bless; being persecuted, we suffer it;

- 13 When evil things are said about us we give gentle answers: we are made as the unclean things of the world, as that for which no one has any use, even till now.
Being defamed, we entreat. We are made as the filth of the world, the dirt wiped off by all, even until now.
Being defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, the offscouring of all things to this day.
- 14 I am not saying these things to put you to shame, but so that, as my dear children, you may see what is right.
I don't write these things to shame you, but to admonish you as my beloved children.
I write not these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
- 15 For even if you had ten thousand teachers in Christ, you have not more than one father: for in Christ Jesus I have given birth to you through the good news.
For though you have ten thousand tutors in Christ, yet not many fathers. For in Christ Jesus, I became your father through the gospel.
For though ye have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have ye not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
- 16 So my desire is that you take me as your example.
I beg you therefore, be imitators of me.
Wherefore I beseech you, be ye followers of me.
- 17 For this cause I have sent Timothy to you, who is my dear and true child in the Lord; he will make clear to you my ways in Christ, even as I am teaching everywhere in every church.
Because of this I have sent Timothy to you, who is my beloved and faithful child in the Lord, who will remind you of my ways which are in Christ, even as I teach everywhere in every assembly.
For this cause have I sent to you Timothy, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who will bring you into remembrance of my ways which are in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.
- 18 Now some are full of pride, as if I was not coming to you.
Now some are puffed up, as though I were not coming to you.
Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.

19 But I will come to you in a short time, if it is pleasing to the Lord, and I will take note, not of the word of those who are full of pride, but of the power.
But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord is willing. And I will know, not the word of those who are puffed up, but the power.
But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of them who are puffed up, but the power.

20 For the kingdom of God is not in word but in power.
For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

21 What is your desire? is my coming to be with punishment, or is it to be in love and a gentle spirit?
What do you want? Will I come to you with a rod, or in love and a spirit of gentleness?
What will ye? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

1 It is said, in fact, that there is among you a sin of the flesh, such as is not seen even among the Gentiles, that one of you has his father's wife.
It is actually reported that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not even named among the Gentiles, that one has his father`s wife.
It is reported commonly that there is lewdness among you, and such lewdness as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.

2 And in place of feeling sorrow, you are pleased with yourselves, so that he who has done this thing has not been sent away from among you.
You are puffed up, and didn`t rather mourn, that he who had done this deed might be removed from among you.
And ye are puffed up, and have not rather mourned, that he who hath done this deed might be taken away from among you.

3 For I myself, being present in spirit though not in body, have come to a decision about him who has done this thing;
For I most assuredly, as being absent in body but present in spirit, have already, as though I were present, judged him who has done this thing.
For I verily, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already as though I were present, concerning him that hath so done this deed,

- 4 In the name of our Lord Jesus, when you have come together with my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus,
In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, you being gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when ye are assembled, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 5 That this man is to be handed over to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, so that his spirit may have forgiveness in the day of the Lord Jesus.
are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
To deliver such one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
- 6 This pride of yours is not good. Do you not see that a little leaven makes a change in all the mass?
Your boasting is not good. Don't you know that a little yeast leavens the whole lump?
Your boasting is not good. Know ye not, that a little leaven leaveneth the whole lump?
- 7 Take away, then, the old leaven, so that you may be a new mass, even as you are without leaven. For Christ has been put to death as our Passover.
Purge out the old yeast, that you may be a new lump, even as you are unleavened. For indeed Christ, our Passover, has been sacrificed in our place.
Cleanse out therefore the old leaven, that ye may be a new lump, as ye are unleavened. For even Christ our passover is sacrificed for us:
- 8 Let us then keep the feast, not with old leaven, and not with the leaven of evil thoughts and acts, but with the unleavened bread of true thoughts and right feelings.
Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old yeast, neither with the yeast of malice and wickedness, but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
- 9 In my letter I said to you that you were not to keep company with those who go after the desires of the flesh;
I wrote to you in my letter to have no company with sexual sinners;
I have written to you in this epistle, not to associate with persons guilty of lewdness:

10 But I had not in mind the sinners who are outside the church, or those who have a desire for and take the property of others, or those who give worship to images; for it is not possible to keep away from such people without going out of the world completely:
yet not at all meaning with the sexual sinners of this world, or with the covetous and extortioners, or with idolaters; for then you would have to leave the world.

Yet not altogether with lewd persons of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners, or with idolaters: for then ye must needs go out of the world.

11 But the sense of my letter was that if a brother had the name of being one who went after the desires of the flesh, or had the desire for other people's property, or was in the way of using violent language, or being the worse for drink, or took by force what was not his, you might not keep company with such a one, or take food with him.

But as it is, I wrote to you not to keep company, if any man who is named a brother is a sexual sinner, or covetous, or an idolater, or a slanderer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner. Don't even eat with such a person.

But now I have written to you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother is a lewd person, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner: with such person no not to eat.

12 For it is no business of mine to be judging those who are outside; but it is yours to be judging those who are among you;

For what have I to do with also judging those who are outside? Don't you judge those who are within?

For what have I to do to judge them also that are without? do ye not judge them that are within?

13 As for those who are outside, God is their judge. So put away the evil man from among you.

But those who are outside, God judges. "Put away the wicked man from among yourselves."

But them that are without God judgeth. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

1 How is it, that if any one of you has a cause at law against another, he takes it before a Gentile judge and not before the saints?

Dare any of you, having a matter against his neighbor, go to law before the unrighteous, and not before the saints?

Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?

2 Is it not certain that the saints will be the judges of the world? if then the world will be judged by you, are you unable to give a decision about the smallest things?

Don't you know that the saints will judge the world? And if the world is judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

Do ye not know that the saints will judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are ye unworthy to judge the smallest matters?

- 3 Is it not certain that we are to be the judges of angels? how much more then of the things of this life?
Don` t you know that we will judge angels? How much more, things that pertain to this life?
Know ye not that we shall judge angels? how much more, things that pertain to this life?
- 4 If then there are questions to be judged in connection with the things of this life, why do you put them in the hands of those who have no position in the church?
If then, you have to judge things pertaining to this life, do you set them to judge who are of no account in the assembly?
If then ye have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set them to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
- 5 I say this to put you to shame. Is there not among you one wise man who may be able to give a decision between his brothers?
I say this to move you to shame. What, can` t there be one wise man among you who will be able to decide between his brothers;
I speak to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? no, not one that will be able to judge between his brethren?
- 6 But a brother who has a cause at law against another takes it before Gentile judges.
but brother goes to law with brother, and that before unbelievers?
But brother goeth to law with brother, and that before unbelievers.
- 7 More than this, it is not to your credit to have causes at law with one another at all. Why not put up with wrong? why not undergo loss?
Therefore it is already altogether a defect in you, that you have lawsuits one with another. Why not rather be wronged? Why not rather be defrauded?
Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because ye go to law one with another. Why do ye not rather take wrong? why do ye not rather suffer yourselves to be defrauded?
- 8 So far from doing this, you yourselves do wrong and take your brothers' property.
No, but you yourselves do wrong, and defraud, and that against your brothers.
But ye do wrong, and defraud, and that your brethren.

- 9 Have you not knowledge that evil-doers will have no part in the kingdom of God? Have no false ideas about this: no one who goes after the desires of the flesh, or gives worship to images, or is untrue when married, or is less than a man, or makes a wrong use of men,
Or don't you know that the unrighteous will not inherit the kingdom of God? Don't be deceived. Neither the sexually immoral, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor homosexuals, Know ye not that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived; neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor effeminate, nor abusers of themselves with mankind,
- 10 Or is a thief, or the worse for drink, or makes use of strong language, or takes by force what is not his, will have any part in the kingdom of God.
nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor slanderers, nor extortioners, will inherit the kingdom of God.
Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners, shall inherit the kingdom of God.
- 11 And such were some of you; but you have been washed, you have been made holy, you have been given righteousness in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ and in the Spirit of our God.
Such were some of you, but you were washed. But you were sanctified. But you were justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and in the Spirit of our God.
And such were some of you: but ye are washed, but ye are sanctified, but ye are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
- 12 I am free to do all things; but not all things are wise. I am free to do all things; but I will not let myself come under the power of any.
"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but I will not be brought under the power of anything.
All things are lawful to me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
- 13 Food is for the stomach and the stomach for food, and God will put an end to them together. But the body is not for the desires of the flesh, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body:
"Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods," but God will bring to nothing both it and them. But the body is not for sexual immorality, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God will destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for lewdness, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
- 14 And God who made the Lord Jesus come back from the dead will do the same for us by his power.
Now God raised up the Lord, and will also raise us up by his power.
And God hath both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.

15 Do you not see that your bodies are part of the body of Christ? how then may I take what is a part of the body of Christ and make it a part of the body of a loose woman? such a thing may not be.

Don't you know that your bodies are members of Christ? Will I then take away the members of Christ, and make them members of a prostitute? Certainly not!

Know ye not, that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? By no means.

16 Or do you not see that he who is joined to a loose woman is one body with her? for God has said, The two of them will become one flesh.

Or don't you know that he who is joined to a prostitute is one body? For, "The two," says he, "will become one flesh."

What? know ye not that he who is joined to a harlot is one body? for two, saith he, shall be one flesh.

17 But he who is united to the Lord is one spirit.

But he who is joined to the Lord is one spirit.

But he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit.

18 Keep away from the desires of the flesh. Every sin which a man does is outside of the body; but he who goes after the desires of the flesh does evil to his body.

Flee sexual immorality. "Every sin that a man does is outside the body," but he who commits sexual immorality sins against his own body.

Flee lewdness. Every sin that a man doeth, is without the body; but he that committeth lewdness, sinneth against his own body.

19 Or are you not conscious that your body is a house for the Holy Spirit which is in you, and which has been given to you by God? and you are not the owners of yourselves;

Or don't you know that your body is a temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have from God? You are not your own,

What, know ye not that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which ye have from God, and ye are not your own?

20 For a payment has been made for you: let God be honoured in your body.

for you were bought with a price. Therefore glorify God in your body and in your spirit, which are God's.

For ye are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

- 1 Now, as to the things in your letter to me: It is good for a man to have nothing to do with a woman.
Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me. It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
Now concerning the things of which ye wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
- 2 But because of the desires of the flesh, let every man have his wife, and every woman her husband.
But, because of sexual sins, let each man have his own wife, and let each woman have her own husband.
Nevertheless, to avoid lewdness, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.
- 3 Let the husband give to the wife what is right; and let the wife do the same to the husband.
Let the husband render to the wife her due, and likewise also the wife to the husband.
Let the husband render to the wife due benevolence: and likewise also the wife to the husband.
- 4 The wife has not power over her body, but the husband; and in the same way the husband has not power over his body, but the wife.
The wife doesn't have authority over her own body, but the husband. Likewise also the husband doesn't have power over his own body, but the wife.
The wife hath not power of her own body, but the husband: and likewise also the husband hath not power of his own body, but the wife.
- 5 Do not keep back from one another what is right, but only for a short time, and by agreement, so that you may give yourselves to prayer, and come together again; so that Satan may not get the better of you through your loss of self-control.
Don't defraud one another, unless it is by consent for a season, that you may give yourselves to fasting and prayer, and may be together again, that Satan doesn't tempt you because of your lack of self-control.
Defraud ye not one the other, except with consent for a time, that ye may give yourselves to fasting and prayer; and come together again, that Satan may not tempt you for your incontinence.
- 6 But this I say as my opinion, and not as an order of the Lord.
But this I say by way of concession, not of commandment.
But I speak this by permission, and not as a commandment.

- 7 It is my desire that all men might be even as I am. But every man has the power of his special way of life given him by God, one in this way and one in that.
Yet I wish that all men were like me. However each man has his own gift from God, one of this kind, and another of that kind.
For I would that all men were as I myself. But every man hath his proper gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.
- 8 But I say to the unmarried and to the widows, It is good for them to be even as I am.
But I say to the unmarried and to widows, it is good for them if they remain even as I am.
I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they remain even as I.
- 9 But if they have not self-control let them get married; for married life is better than the burning of desire.
But if they don't have self-control, let them marry. For it's better to marry than to burn.
But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.
- 10 But to the married I give orders, though not I but the Lord, that the wife may not go away from her husband
But to the married I command -- not I, but the Lord -- that the wife not leave her husband
And to the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, Let not the wife depart from her husband:
- 11 (Or if she goes away from him, let her keep unmarried, or be united to her husband again); and that the husband may not go away from his wife.
(but if she departs, let her remain unmarried, or else be reconciled to her husband), and that the husband not leave his wife.
But if she shall depart, let her remain unmarried, or be reconciled to her husband: and let not the husband put away his wife.
- 12 But to the rest I say, and not the Lord; If a brother has a wife who is not a Christian, and it is her desire to go on living with him, let him not go away from her.
But to the rest I -- not the Lord -- say, if any brother has an unbelieving wife, and she is content to live with him, let him not leave her.
But to the rest I speak, not the Lord, if any brother hath a wife that believeth not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.

- 13 And if a woman has a husband who is not a Christian, and it is his desire to go on living with her, let her not go away from her husband.
The woman who has an unbelieving husband, and he is content to live with her, let her not leave her husband.
And the woman who hath a husband that believeth not, and if he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
- 14 For the husband who has not faith is made holy through his Christian wife, and the wife who is not a Christian is made holy through the brother: if not, your children would be unholy, but now are they holy.
For the unbelieving husband is sanctified in the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified in the husband. Otherwise your children would be unclean, but now are they holy.
For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else were your children unclean; but now are they holy.
- 15 But if the one who is not a Christian has a desire to go away, let it be so: the brother or the sister in such a position is not forced to do one thing or the other: but it is God's pleasure that we may be at peace with one another.
Yet if the unbeliever departs, let there be separation. The brother or the sister is not under bondage in such cases, but God has called us in peace.
But if the unbelieving departeth, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases; but God hath called us to peace.
- 16 For how may you be certain, O wife, that you will not be the cause of salvation to your husband? or you, O husband, that you may not do the same for your wife?
For how do you know, wife, whether you will save your husband? Or how do you know, husband, whether you will save your wife?
For how knowest thou, O wife, whether thou shalt save thy husband? or how knowest thou, O man, whether thou shalt save thy wife?
- 17 Only, as the Lord has given to a man, and as is the purpose of God for him, so let him go on living. And these are my orders for all the churches.
Only, as the Lord has distributed to each man, as God has called each, so let him walk. So I command in all the assemblies.
But as God hath distributed to every man, as the Lord hath called every one, so let him walk. And so I ordain in all churches.

- 18 If any man who is a Christian has had circumcision, let him keep so; and if any man who is a Christian has not had circumcision, let him make no change.
Was anyone called being circumcised? Let him not become uncircumcised. Has any been called in uncircumcision? Let him not be circumcised.
Is any man called being circumcised? let him not become uncircumcised. Is any called in uncircumcision? let him not become circumcised.
- 19 Circumcision is nothing, and its opposite is nothing, but only doing the orders of God is of value.
Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but the keeping of the commandments of God.
- 20 Let every man keep the position in which he has been placed by God.
Let each man stay in that calling in which he was called.
Let every man continue in the same calling in which he was called.
- 21 If you were a servant when you became a Christian, let it not be a grief to you; but if you have a chance to become free, make use of it.
Were you called being a bondservant? Don't let that bother you, but if you get an opportunity to become free, use it.
Art thou called being a servant? care not for it; but if thou mayest be made free, use it rather.
- 22 For he who was a servant when he became a Christian is the Lord's free man; and he who was free when he became a Christian is the Lord's servant.
For he who was called in the Lord being a bondservant is the Lord's free man. Likewise he who was called being free is Christ's bondservant.
For he that is called in the Lord, being a servant, is the Lord's free-man: likewise also he that is called, being free, is Christ's servant.
- 23 It is the Lord who has made payment for you: be not servants of men.
You were bought with a price. Don't become bondservants of men.
Ye are bought with a price; be not ye the servants of men.
- 24 My brothers, let every man keep in that condition which is the purpose of God for him.
Brothers, let each man, in whatever condition he was called, stay in that condition with God.
Brethren, let every man in the state in which he is called, continue in it with God.

- 25 Now about virgins I have no orders from the Lord: but I give my opinion as one to whom the Lord has given mercy to be true to him.
Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment from the Lord, but I give my judgment as one who has obtained mercy from the Lord to be trustworthy.
Now concerning virgins, I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment as one that hath obtained mercy from the Lord to be faithful.
- 26 In my opinion then, because of the present trouble, it is good for a man to keep as he is.
I think that it is good therefore, because of the distress that is on us, that it is good for a man to be as he is.
I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
- 27 If you are married to a wife, make no attempt to get free from her: if you are free from a wife, do not take a wife.
Are you bound to a wife? Don't seek to be freed. Are you free from a wife? Don't seek a wife.
Art thou bound to a wife? seek not to be loosed. Art thou loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
- 28 If you get married it is not a sin; and if an unmarried woman gets married it is not a sin. But those who do so will have trouble in the flesh. But I will not be hard on you.
But if you marry, you have not sinned. If a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Yet such will have oppression in the flesh, and I want to spare you.
But if thou marry, thou hast not sinned: and if a virgin marry, she hath not sinned. Nevertheless, such will have trouble in the flesh; but I spare you.
- 29 But I say this, my brothers, the time is short; and from now it will be wise for those who have wives to be as if they had them not;
But I say this, brothers: the time is short, that from now on, both those who have wives may be as though they had none;
But this I say, brethren, The time is short. It remaineth, that both they that have wives, be as though they had none;
- 30 And for those who are in sorrow, to give no signs of it; and for those who are glad, to give no signs of joy; and for those who are getting property, to be as if they had nothing;
and those who weep, as though they didn't weep; and those who rejoice, as though they didn't rejoice; and those who buy, as though they didn't possess;
And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;

- 31 And for those who make use of the world, not to be using it fully; for this world's way of life will quickly come to an end.
and those who use the world, as not using it to the fullest. For the mode of this world passes away.
And they that use this world, as not abusing it. For the fashion of this world passeth away.
- 32 But it is my desire for you to be free from cares. The unmarried man gives his mind to the things of the Lord, how he may give pleasure to the Lord:
But I desire to have you to be free from cares. He who is unmarried is concerned for the things of the Lord, how he may please the Lord;
But I would have you without anxious care. He that is unmarried, is anxious for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
- 33 But the married man gives his attention to the things of this world, how he may give pleasure to his wife.
but he who is married is concerned about the things of the world, how he may please his wife.
But he that is married, is anxious for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
- 34 And the wife is not the same as the virgin. The virgin gives her mind to the things of the Lord, so that she may be holy in body and in spirit: but the married woman takes thought for the things of the world, how she may give pleasure to her husband.
There is also a difference between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares about the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit. But she who is married cares about the things of the world -- how she may please her husband.
There is a difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman is anxious for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy, both in body and in spirit: but she that is married, is anxious for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
- 35 Now I say this for your profit; not to make things hard for you, but because of what is right, and so that you may be able to give all your attention to the things of the Lord.
This I say for your own profit; not that I may throw a snare on you, but for that which is appropriate, and that you may attend to the Lord without distraction.
And this I speak for your own profit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is comely, and that ye may attend upon the Lord without distraction.

- 36 But if, in any man's opinion, he is not doing what is right for his virgin, if she is past her best years, and there is need for it, let him do what seems right to him; it is no sin; let them be married.
But if any man thinks that he is behaving inappropriately toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and if need so requires, let him do what he desires. He doesn't sin. Let them marry.
But if any man thinketh that he behaveth himself uncomely towards his virgin, if she hath passed the flower of her age, and need so requireth, let him do what he will, he sinneth not: let them marry.
- 37 But the man who is strong in mind and purpose, who is not forced but has control over his desires, does well if he comes to the decision to keep her a virgin.
But he who stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own heart, to keep his own virgin, will do well.
Nevertheless, he that standeth steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but hath power over his own will, and hath so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, doeth well.
- 38 So then, he who gets married to his virgin does well, and he who keeps her unmarried does better.
So then both he who gives his own virgin in marriage does well, and he who doesn't give her in marriage will do better.
So then he that giveth her in marriage doeth well; but he that giveth her not in marriage doeth better.
- 39 It is right for a wife to be with her husband as long as he is living; but when her husband is dead, she is free to be married to another; but only to a Christian.
A wife is bound by law for so long time as her husband lives; but if the husband is dead, she is free to be married to whoever she desires, only in the Lord.
The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband liveth; but if her husband is dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.
- 40 But it will be better for her to keep as she is, in my opinion: and it seems to me that I have the Spirit of God.
But she is happier if she stays as she is, in my judgment, and I think that I also have God's Spirit.
But she is happier if she so remain, after my judgment; and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.
- 1 Now about things offered to images: we all seem to ourselves to have knowledge. Knowledge gives pride, but love gives true strength.
Now concerning things sacrificed to idols: We know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love builds up.
Now as concerning things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

- 2 If anyone seems to himself to have knowledge, so far he has not the right sort of knowledge about anything;
But if anyone thinks that he knows anything, he doesn't yet know as he ought to know.
And if any man thinketh that he knoweth any thing, he knoweth nothing yet as he ought to know.
- 3 But if anyone has love for God, God has knowledge of him.
But if anyone loves God, the same is known by him.
But if any man loveth God, the same is known by him.
- 4 So, then, as to the question of taking food offered to images, we are certain that an image is nothing in the world, and that there is no God but one.
Therefore concerning the eating of things sacrificed to idols, we know that no idol is anything in the world, and that there is no other God but one.
Therefore as concerning the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.
- 5 For though there are those who have the name of gods, in heaven or on earth, as there are a number of gods and a number of lords,
For though there are things that are called "gods," whether in the heavens or on earth; as there are many "gods" and many "lords;"
For though there are that are called gods, whether in heaven or upon earth, (as there are gods many, and lords many)
- 6 There is for us only one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we are for him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we have our being through him.
yet to us there is one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we to him; and one Lord, Jesus Christ, through whom are all things, and we through him.
Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, from whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
- 7 Still, all men have not that knowledge: but some, being used till now to the image, are conscious that they are taking food which has been offered to the image; and because they are not strong in the faith, their minds are troubled.
However, that knowledge isn't in all men. But some, being used until now to the idol, eat as of a thing sacrificed to an idol, and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.
But there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol to this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience, being weak, is defiled.

- 8 But God's approval of us is not based on the food we take: if we do not take it we are no worse for it; and if we take it we are no better.
But food will not commend us to God. For neither, if we don't eat, are we the worse; nor, if we eat, are we the better.
But food commendeth us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better; neither if we eat not, are we the worse.
- 9 But take care that this power of yours does not give cause for trouble to the feeble.
But be careful that by any means this liberty of yours doesn't become a stumbling block to the weak.
But take heed lest by any means this liberty of yours should become a stumbling-block to them that are weak.
- 10 For if a man sees you, who have knowledge, taking food as a guest in the house of an image, will it not give him, if he is feeble, the idea that he may take food offered to images?
For if a man sees you who have knowledge sitting in an idol's temple, won't his conscience, if he is weak, be emboldened to eat things sacrificed to idols?
For if any man shall see thee, who hast knowledge, sit eating in the idol's temple, will not the conscience of him who is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;
- 11 And so, through your knowledge, you are the cause of destruction to your brother, for whom Christ underwent death.
And through your knowledge, he who is weak perishes, the brother for whose sake Christ died.
And through thy knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?
- 12 And in this way, doing evil to the brothers, and causing trouble to those whose faith is feeble, you are sinning against Christ.
Thus, sinning against the brothers, and wounding their conscience when it is weak, you sin against Christ.
But when ye thus sin against the brethren, and wound their weak conscience, ye sin against Christ.
- 13 For this reason, if food is a cause of trouble to my brother, I will give up taking meat for ever, so that I may not be a cause of trouble to my brother.
Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no meat forevermore, that I don't cause my brother to stumble.
Wherefore, if food maketh my brother to fall into sin, I will eat no flesh while the world standeth, lest I make my brother to fall into sin.
- 1 Am I not free? am I not an Apostle? have I not seen Jesus our Lord? are you not my work in the Lord?
Am I not free? Am I not an apostle? Haven't I seen Jesus Christ, our Lord? Aren't you my work in the Lord?
Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are ye not my work in the Lord?

- 2 If to others I am not an Apostle, at least I am one to you: for the fact that you are Christians is the sign that I am an Apostle.
If to others I am not an apostle, yet at least I am to you; for you are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
If I am not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for ye are the seal of my apostleship in the Lord.
- 3 My answer to those who are judging me is this.
My defense to those who examine me is this.
My answer to them that examine me is this,
- 4 Have we no right to take food and drink?
Have we no right to eat and to drink?
Have we not power to eat and to drink?
- 5 Have we no right to take about with us a Christian wife, like the rest of the Apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
Have we no right to take along a wife who is a believer, even as the rest of the apostles, and the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brethren of the Lord, and Cephas?
- 6 Or I only and Barnabas, have we no right to take a rest from work?
Or have only Barnabas and I no right to not work?
Or I only and Barnabas, have we not power to forbear working?
- 7 Who ever goes to war without looking to someone to be responsible for his payment? who puts in vines and does not take the fruit of them? or who takes care of sheep without drinking of their milk?
What soldier ever serves at his own expense? Who plants a vineyard, and doesn` t eat of its fruit? Or who feeds a flock, and doesn` t drink from the flock` s milk?
Who goeth a warfare at any time at his own charges? who planteth a vineyard, and eateth not of its fruit? or who feedeth a flock, and eateth not of the milk of the flock?

8 Am I talking as a man? does not the law say the same?

Do I speak these things according to the ways of men? Or doesn't the law also say the same thing?

Do I say these things as a man? or saith not the law the same also?

9 For it says in the law of Moses, It is not right to keep the ox from taking the grain when he is crushing it. Is it for the oxen that God is giving orders?

For it is written in the law of Moses, "You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the corn." Is it for the oxen that God cares,

For it is written in the law of Moses, Thou shalt not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treadeth out the corn. Doth God take care for oxen?

10 Or has he us in mind? Yes, it was said for us; because it is right for the ploughman to do his ploughing in hope, and for him who is crushing the grain to do his work hoping for a part in the fruits of it.

or does he say it assuredly for our sake? Yes, for our sake it was written, because he who plows ought to plow in hope, and he who threshes in hope should partake of his hope.

Or saith he this altogether for our sakes? for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he that ploweth should plow in hope; and that he that thresheth in hope should be partaker of his hope.

11 If we have been planting the things of the Spirit for you, does it seem a great thing for you to give us a part in your things of this world?

If we sowed to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we reap your fleshly things?

If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?

12 If others have a part in this right over you, have we not even more? But we did not make use of our right, so that we might put nothing in the way of the good news of Christ.

If others partake of this right over you, don't we yet more? Nevertheless we did not use this right, but we bear all things, that we may cause no hindrance to the gospel of Christ.

If others are partakers of this power over you, are not we rather? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but suffer all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.

13 Do you not see that the servants of the holy things get their living from the Temple, and the servants of the altar have their part in the food which is offered on the altar?

Don't you know that those who serve around sacred things eat from the things of the temple, and those who wait on the altar have their portion with the altar?

Do ye not know that they who minister about holy things live from the things of the temple, and they who wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?

- 14 Even so did the Lord give orders that the preachers of the good news might get their living from the good news.
Even so did the Lord ordain that those who proclaim the gospel should live from the gospel.
Even so hath the Lord ordained that they who preach the gospel should live by the gospel.
- 15 But I have not made use of any of these things: and I am not writing this in the hope that it may be so for me: for it would be better for me to undergo death, than for any man to make this pride of mine of no effect.
But I have used none of these things, and I don't write these things that it may be done so in my case; for I would rather die, than that anyone should make my boasting void.
But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things, that it should be so done to me: for it were better for me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
- 16 For if I am a preacher of the good news, I have no cause for pride in this; because I am forced to do so, for a curse is on me if I do not.
For if I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast about; for necessity is laid on me; but woe is to me, if I don't preach the gospel.
For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to boast of: for necessity is laid upon me; and woe is to me, if I preach not the gospel!
- 17 But if I do it gladly, I have a reward; and if not, I am under orders to do it.
For if I do this of my own will, I have a reward. But if not of my own will, I have a stewardship entrusted to me.
For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed to me.
- 18 What then is my reward? This, that when I am giving the good news, I may give it without payment, not making use of my rights as a preacher of the good news.
What then is my reward? That, when I preach the gospel, I may present the gospel of Christ without charge, so as not to abuse my authority in the gospel.
What is my reward then? Verily that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ without charge, that I may not abuse my power in the gospel.
- 19 For though I was free from all men, I made myself a servant to all, so that more might have salvation.
For though I was free from all, I brought myself under bondage to all, that I might gain the more.
For though I am free from all men, yet I have made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.

- 20 And to the Jews I was as a Jew, so that I might give the good news to them; to those under the law I was the same, not as being myself under the law, but so that I might give the good news to those under the law.
To the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain Jews; to those who are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain those who are under the law;
And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
- 21 To those without the law I was as one without the law, not as being without law to God, but as under law to Christ, so that I might give the good news to those without the law.
to those who are without law, as without law (not being without law toward God, but under law toward Christ), that I might win those who are without law.
To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.
- 22 To the feeble, I was as one who is feeble, so that they might have salvation: I have been all things to all men, so that some at least might have salvation.
To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak. I have become all things to all men, that I may by all means save some.
To the weak I became as weak, that I might gain the weak: I have become all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
- 23 And I do all things for the cause of the good news, so that I may have a part in it.
Now I do this for the gospel's sake, that I may be a joint partaker of it.
And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I may be partaker of it with you.
- 24 Do you not see that in a running competition all take part, but only one gets the reward? So let your minds be fixed on the reward.
Don't you know that those who run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run like that, that you may win.
Know ye not, that they who run in a race, all run, but one receiveth the prize? So run, that ye may obtain.
- 25 And every man who takes part in the sports has self-control in all things. Now they do it to get a crown which is of this world, but we for an eternal crown.
Every man who strives in the games exercises self-control in all things. Now they do it to receive a corruptible crown, but we an incorruptible.
And every man that striveth for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.

- 26 So then I am running, not uncertainly; so I am fighting, not as one who gives blows in the air:
I therefore run like that, as not uncertainly. I fight like that, as not beating the air,
I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so I fight, not as one that beateth the air:
- 27 But I give blows to my body, and keep it under control, for fear that, after having given the good news to others, I myself might not have God's approval.
but I beat my body and bring it into submission, for fear that by any means, that after I have preached to others, I myself should be rejected.
But I keep under my body, and bring it into subjection: lest by any means when I have preached to others, I myself should be a cast-away.
- 1 For it is my desire, my brothers, that you may keep in mind how all our fathers were under the cloud, and they all went through the sea;
Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
Moreover, brethren, I would not that ye should be ignorant, that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
- 2 And they all had baptism from Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
and were all baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
And were all baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
- 3 And they all took the same holy food;
and all ate the same spiritual food;
And all ate the same spiritual food;
- 4 And the same holy drink: for they all took of the water from the holy rock which came after them: and the rock was Christ.
and all drank the same spiritual drink. For they drank of a spiritual rock that followed them, and the rock was Christ.
And all drank the same spiritual drink: (for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.)
- 5 But with most of them God was not pleased: for they came to their end in the waste land.
However with most of them, God was not well pleased, for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.

- 6 Now these things were for an example to us, so that our hearts might not go after evil things, as they did.
Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
- 7 Then do not go after false gods, as some of them did; as it is said in the holy Writings, After resting and feasting, the people got up to take their pleasure.
Neither be idolaters, as some of them were. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play."
Neither be ye idolaters, as were some of them: as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
- 8 Again, let us not give way to the desires of the flesh, as some of them did, of whom twenty-three thousand came to their end in one day.
Neither let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them committed, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell.
Neither let us commit lewdness, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
- 9 And let us not put the Lord to the test, as some of them did, and came to their death by snakes.
Neither let us test the Lord, as some of them tested, and perished by the serpents.
Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents.
- 10 And do not say evil things against the Lord, as some of them did, and destruction overtook them.
Neither grumble, as some of them also grumbled, and perished by the destroyer.
Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
- 11 Now these things were done as an example; and were put down in writing for our teaching, on whom the last days have come.
Now all these things happened to them by way of example, and they were written for our admonition, on whom the ends of the ages have come.
Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.
- 12 So let him who seems to himself to be safe go in fear of a fall.
Therefore let him who thinks he stands be careful that he doesn't fall.
Wherefore let him that thinketh he standeth, take heed lest he fall.

- 13 You have been put to no test but such as is common to man: and God is true, who will not let any test come on you which you are not able to undergo; but he will make with the test a way out of it, so that you may be able to go through it.
No temptation has taken you but such as man can bear. God is faithful, who will not allow you to be tempted above what you are able, but will with the temptation make also the way of escape, that you may be able to endure it.
There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above what ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it.
- 14 For this cause, my dear brothers, give no worship to false gods.
Therefore, my beloved, flee from idolatry.
Wherefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.
- 15 What I am saying is for wise men, do you be the judges of it.
I speak as to wise men. Judge what I say.
I speak as to wise men; judge ye what I say.
- 16 The cup of blessing which we take, does it not give us a part in the blood of Christ? and is not the broken bread a taking part in the body of Christ?
The cup of blessing which we bless, isn't it a communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, isn't it a communion of the body of Christ?
The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
- 17 Because we, being a number of persons, are one bread, we are one body: for we all take part in the one bread.
Seeing that we, who are many, are one bread, one body; for we all partake of the one bread.
For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
- 18 See Israel after the flesh: do not those who take as food the offerings of the altar take a part in the altar?
Consider Israel after the flesh. Don't those who eat the sacrifices have communion with the altar?
Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they who eat of the sacrifices, partakers of the altar?

- 19 Do I say, then, that what is offered to images is anything, or that the image is anything?
What am I saying then? That a thing sacrificed to idols is anything, or that an idol is anything?
What then do I say? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
- 20 What I say is that the things offered by the Gentiles are offered to evil spirits and not to God; and it is not my desire for you to have any part with evil spirits.
But I say that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God, and I don't desire that you would have communion with demons.
But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons, and not to God: and I would not that ye should have fellowship with demons.
- 21 It is not possible for you, at the same time, to take the cup of the Lord and the cup of evil spirits; you may not take part in the table of the Lord and the table of evil spirits.
You can't both drink the cup of the Lord and the cup of demons. You can't both partake of the table of the Lord, and of the table of demons.
Ye cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of demons: ye cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of demons.
- 22 Or may we be the cause of envy to the Lord? are we stronger than he?
Or do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? Are we stronger than he?
Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?
- 23 We are free to do all things, but there are things which it is not wise to do. We are free to do all things, but not all things are for the common good.
"All things are lawful for me," but not all things are expedient. "All things are lawful for me," but not all things build up.
All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
- 24 Let a man give attention not only to what is good for himself, but equally to his neighbour's good.
Let no one seek his own, but each one his neighbor's good.
Let no man seek his own, but every man another's wealth.
- 25 Whatever meat may be had at the public market, take as food without question of right or wrong;
Whatever is sold in the butcher shop, eat, asking no question for the sake of conscience,
Whatever is sold in the provision market, that eat, asking no question for conscience' sake:

- 26 For the earth is the Lord's and all things in it.
for "the earth is the Lord`s, and its fullness."
For the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness.
- 27 If a Gentile makes a feast for you, and you are pleased to go as a guest, take whatever is put before you, without question of right or wrong.
But if one of those who don`t believe invites you to a meal, and you are inclined to go, eat whatever is set before you, asking no questions for the sake of conscience.
If any of them that believe not invites you to a feast, and ye are disposed to go; whatever is set before you, eat, asking no question on account of conscience.
- 28 But if anyone says to you, This food has been used as an offering, do not take it, on account of him who said it, and on account of his sense of right and wrong:
But if anyone says to you, "This was offered to idols," don`t eat it for the sake of the one who told you, and for the sake of conscience. For "the earth is the Lord`s, and all its fullness."
But if any man shall say to you, This is offered in sacrifice to idols, eat not for his sake that showed it, and for conscience' sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and its fullness:
- 29 Right and wrong, I say, not for you, but for the other man; for the fact that I am free is not dependent on another man's sense of right or wrong.
Conscience, I say, not your own, but the other`s conscience. For why is my liberty judged by another conscience?
Conscience, I say, not thy own, but of the other: for why is my liberty judged by another man's conscience?
- 30 But if I give praise to God for the food which I take, let no man say evil of me for that reason.
If I partake with thankfulness, why am I denounced for that for which I give thanks?
For if I by grace am a partaker, why am I evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
- 31 So then, if it is a question of food or drink, or any other thing, whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.
Whether therefore ye eat or drink, or whatever ye do, do all to the glory of God.
- 32 Give no cause of trouble to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the church of God.
Give no occasions for stumbling, either to Jews, or to Greeks, or to the assembly of God;
Give no offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:

33 Even as I give way to all men in all things, not looking for profit for myself, but for the good of others, that they may get salvation.
even as I also please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of the many, that they may be saved.
Even as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

1 So take me for your example, even as I take Christ for mine.
Be imitators of me, even as I also am of Christ.
Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.

2 Now I am pleased to see that you keep me in memory in all things, and that you give attention to the teaching which was handed down from me to you.
Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and hold firm the traditions, even as I delivered them to you.
Now I praise you, brethren, that ye remember me in all things, and keep the ordinances, as I delivered them to you.

3 But it is important for you to keep this fact in mind, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.
But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ, and the head of the woman is the man, and the head of Christ is God.
But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.

4 Every man who takes part in prayer, or gives teaching as a prophet, with his head covered, puts shame on his head.
Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head.
Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonoreth his head.

5 But every woman who does so with her head unveiled, puts shame on her head: for it is the same as if her hair was cut off.
But every woman praying or prophesying with her head unveiled dishonors her head. For it is one and the same thing as if she were shaved.
But every woman that prayeth or prophesieth with her head uncovered, dishonoreth her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaved.

- 6 For if a woman is not veiled, let her hair be cut off; but if it is a shame to a woman to have her hair cut off, let her be veiled.
For if a woman is not covered, let her also be shorn. But if it is shameful for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.
For if the woman is not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it is a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaved, let her be covered.
- 7 For it is not right for a man to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
For a man indeed ought not to have his head covered, because he is the image and glory of God, but the woman is the glory of the man.
For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
- 8 For the man did not come from the woman, but the woman from the man.
For man is not from woman, but woman from man;
For the man is not from the woman, but the woman from the man.
- 9 And the man was not made for the woman, but the woman for the man.
for neither was man created for the woman, but woman for the man.
Neither was the man created for the woman, but the woman for the man.
- 10 For this reason it is right for the woman to have a sign of authority on her head, because of the angels.
For this cause the woman ought to have authority on her head, because of the angels.
For this cause ought the woman to have power on her head, because of the angels.
- 11 But the woman is not separate from the man, and the man is not separate from the woman in the Lord.
Nevertheless, neither is the woman independent of the man, nor the man independent of the woman, in the Lord.
Nevertheless, neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man in the Lord.
- 12 For as the woman is from the man, so the man is through the woman; but all things are from God.
For as the woman is from the man, so is the man also by the woman; but all things are from God.
For as the woman is from the man, even so is the man also by the woman; but all things from God.

- 13 Be judges yourselves of the question: does it seem right for a woman to take part in prayer unveiled?
Judge for yourselves. Is it appropriate that a woman pray to God unveiled?
Judge in yourselves: Is it comely that a woman should pray to God uncovered?
- 14 Does it not seem natural to you that if a man has long hair, it is a cause of shame to him?
Doesn't even nature itself teach you that if a man has long hair, it is a dishonor to him?
Doth not even nature itself teach you, that if a man hath long hair, it is a shame to him?
- 15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given to her for a covering.
But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her, for her hair is given to her for a covering.
But if a woman hath long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
- 16 But if any man will not be ruled in this question, this is not our way of doing things, and it is not done in the churches of God.
But if any man seems to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither do God's assemblies.
But if any man seemeth to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
- 17 But in giving you this order, there is one thing about which I am not pleased: it is that when you come together it is not for the better but for the worse.
But in giving you this command, I don't praise you, that you come together not for the better but for the worse.
Now in this that I declare to you, I praise you not, that ye come together not for the better, but for the worse.
- 18 For first of all, it has come to my ears that when you come together in the church, there are divisions among you, and I take the statement to be true in part.
For first of all, when you come together in the assembly, I hear that divisions exist among you, and I partly believe it.
For first of all, when ye come together in the church, I hear that there are divisions among you; and I partly believe it.
- 19 For divisions are necessary among you, in order that those who have God's approval may be clearly seen among you.
For there must be also factions among you, that those who are approved may be revealed among you.
For there must be also heresies among you, that they who are approved may be made manifest among you.

- 20 But now, when you come together, it is not possible to take the holy meal of the Lord:
When therefore you assemble yourselves together, it is not possible to eat the Lord's supper.
When therefore ye come together in one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
- 21 For when you take your food, everyone takes his meal before the other; and one has not enough food, and another is the worse for drink.
For in your eating each one takes his own supper before others. One is hungry, and another is drunken.
For in eating every one taketh before another his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
- 22 What? have you not houses to take your meals in? or have you no respect for the church of God, putting the poor to shame? What am I to say to you? am I to give you praise? certainly not.
What, don't you have houses to eat and to drink in? Or do you despise God's assembly, and put them to shame who don't have? What will I tell you? Will I praise you? In this I don't praise you.
What? have ye not houses to eat and to drink in? or despise ye the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.
- 23 For it was handed down to me from the Lord, as I gave it to you, that the Lord Jesus, on the night when Judas was false to him, took bread,
For I received from the Lord that which also I delivered to you, that the Lord Jesus on the night in which he was betrayed took bread.
For I have received from the Lord, that which also I delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus, the same night in which he was betrayed, took bread:
- 24 And when it had been broken with an act of praise, he said, This is my body which is for you: do this in memory of me.
When he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, "Take, eat. This is my body, which is broken for you. Do this in memory of me."
And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.
- 25 In the same way, with the cup, after the meal, he said, This cup is the new testament in my blood: do this, whenever you take it, in memory of me.
In the same way he also took the cup, after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in my blood. Do this, as often as you drink, in memory of me."
After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do ye, as often as ye drink it, in remembrance of me.

- 26 For whenever you take the bread and the cup you give witness to the Lord's death till he comes.
For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord`s death until he comes.
For as often as ye eat this bread, and drink this cup, ye do show the Lord's death till he shall come.
- 27 If, then, anyone takes the bread or the cup of the Lord in the wrong spirit, he will be responsible for the body and blood of the Lord.
Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks the Lord`s cup in an unworthy manner, will be guilty of the body and the blood of the Lord.
Wherefore, whoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
- 28 But let no man take of the bread and the cup without testing himself.
But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread, and drink of the cup.
But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.
- 29 For a man puts himself in danger, if he takes part in the holy meal without being conscious that it is the Lord's body.
For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, if he doesn`t discern the Lord`s body.
For he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh condemnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
- 30 For this cause a number of you are feeble and ill, and a number are dead.
For this cause many among you are weak and sickly, and not a few sleep.
For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
- 31 But if we were true judges of ourselves, punishment would not come on us.
For if we discerned ourselves, we wouldn`t be judged.
For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
- 32 But if punishment does come, it is sent by the Lord, so that we may be safe when the world is judged.
But when we are judged, we are punished by the Lord, that we may not be condemned with the world.
But when we are judged, we are chastened by the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.

- 33 So then, my brothers, when you come together to the holy meal of the Lord, let there be waiting for one another.
Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, wait one for another.
Wherefore, my brethren, when ye come together to eat, tarry one for another.
- 34 If any man is in need of food, let him take his meal in his house; so that you may not come together to your damage. And the rest I will put in order when I come.
But if anyone is hungry, let him eat at home, that your coming together may not be to judgment. The rest I will set in order whenever I come.
And if any man hungereth, let him eat at home; that ye come not together to condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.
- 1 But about the things of the spirit, my brothers, it is not right for you to be without teaching.
Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I don't want you to be ignorant.
Now concerning spiritual gifts, brethren, I would not have you ignorant.
- 2 You are conscious that when you were Gentiles, in whatever way you were guided, you went after images without voice or power.
You know that when you were Gentiles, you were led away to those mute idols, however you might be led.
Ye know that ye were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, even as ye were led.
- 3 So it is my desire for you to be clear about this; that no one is able to say by the Spirit of God that Jesus is cursed; and no one is able to say that Jesus is Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.
Therefore I make known to you that no man speaking by God's Spirit says, "Jesus is accursed." No one can say, "Jesus is Lord," but by the Holy Spirit.
Wherefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God, calleth Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.
- 4 Now there are different qualities given to men, but the same Spirit.
Now there are various kinds of gifts, but the same Spirit.
Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
- 5 And there are different sorts of servants, but the same Lord.
There are various kinds of service, and the same Lord.
And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.

- 6 And there are different operations, but the same God, who is working all things in all.
There are various kinds of workings, but the same God, who works all things in all.
And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God who worketh all in all.
- 7 But to every man some form of the Spirit's working is given for the common good.
But to each one is given the manifestation of the Spirit for the profit of all.
But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man for profit.
- 8 For to one are given words of wisdom through the Spirit; and to another words of knowledge through the same Spirit:
For to one is given through the Spirit the word of wisdom, and to another the word of knowledge, according to the same Spirit;
For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another, the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;
- 9 To another faith in the same Spirit; and to another the power of taking away disease, by the one Spirit;
to another faith, by the same Spirit; and to another gifts of healings, by the same Spirit;
To another, faith by the same Spirit; to another, the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
- 10 And to another the power of working wonders; and to another the prophet's word; and to another the power of testing spirits; to another different sorts of tongues; and to another the power of making clear the sense of the tongues:
and to another workings of miracles; and to another prophecy; and to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of languages; and to another the interpretation of languages.
To another, the working of miracles; to another, prophecy; to another, discerning of spirits; to another, divers kinds of languages; to another, the interpretation of languages:
- 11 But all these are the operations of the one and the same Spirit, giving to every man separately as his pleasure is.
But the one and the same Spirit works all of these, distributing to each one separately as he desires.
But all these worketh that one and the same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.
- 12 For as the body is one, and has a number of parts, and all the parts make one body, so is Christ.
For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of the body, being many, are one body; so also is Christ.
For as the body is one, and hath many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.

- 13 For through the baptism of the one Spirit we were all formed into one body, Jews or Greeks, servants or free men, and were all made full of the same Spirit.
For in one Spirit were we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Greeks, whether bond or free; and were all made to drink into one Spirit.
For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether Jews or Gentiles, whether bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.
- 14 For the body is not one part, but a number of parts.
For the body is not one member, but many.
For the body is not one member, but many.
- 15 If the foot says, Because I am not the hand, I am not a part of the body; it is no less a part of the body.
If the foot would say, "Because I`m not the hand, I`m not part of the body," it is not therefore not part of the body.
If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
- 16 And if the ear says, Because I am not the eye, I am not a part of the body; it is a part of the body all the same.
If the ear would say, "Because I`m not the eye, I`m not part of the body," it`s not therefore not part of the body.
And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
- 17 If all the body was an eye, where would be the hearing? if all was hearing, where would be the smelling?
If the whole body were an eye, where would the hearing be? If the whole were hearing, where would the smelling be?
If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?
- 18 But now God has put every one of the parts in the body as it was pleasing to him.
But now God has set the members, each one of them, in the body, just as he desired.
But now hath God set the members every one of them in the body, as it hath pleased him.
- 19 And if they were all one part, where would the body be?
If they were all one member, where would the body be?
And if they were all one member, where were the body?

20 But now they are all different parts, but one body.

But now they are many members, but one body.

But now are they many members, yet but one body.

21 And the eye may not say to the hand, I have no need of you: or again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

The eye can't tell the hand, "I have no need for you," or again the head to the feet, "I have no need for you."

And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of thee: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.

22 No, those parts which seem to be feeble are the more necessary;

No, much rather, those members of the body which seem to be weaker are necessary.

Nay, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:

23 And to those parts of the body which seem to have less honour we give all the more honour; and to those parts of the body which are a cause of shame to us we give the greater respect;

Those parts of the body which we think to be less honorable, on those we bestow more abundant honor; and our unpresentable parts have more abundant propriety;

And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.

24 But those parts of the body which are beautiful have no need of such care: and so the body has been joined together by God in such a way as to give more honour to those parts which had need of it;

whereas our presentable parts have no such need. But God composed the body together, giving more abundant honor to the inferior part,

For our comely parts have no need: but God hath tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked:

25 So that there might be no division in the body; but all the parts might have the same care for one another.

that there should be no division in the body, but that the members should have the same care for one another.

That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.

26 And if there is pain in one part of the body, all the parts will be feeling it; or if one part is honoured, all the parts will be glad.
When one member suffers, all the members suffer with it. Or when one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.
And thus if one member suffers all the members suffer with it; or, if one member is honored, all the members rejoice with it.

27 Now you are the body of Christ, and every one of you the separate parts of it.
Now you are the body of Christ, and members individually.
Now ye are the body of Christ, and members in particular.

28 And God has put some in the church, first, Apostles; second, prophets; third, teachers; then those with wonder-working powers, then those with the power of taking away disease, helpers, wise guides, users of strange tongues.
God has set some in the assembly, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, then miracle workers, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, and various kinds of languages.
And God hath set some in the church, first apostles, secondly prophets, thirdly teachers, next miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of languages.

29 Are all Apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? have all the power of working wonders?
Are all apostles? Are all prophets? Are all teachers? Are all miracle workers?
Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?

30 Are all able to take away disease? have all the power of tongues? are all able to give their sense?
Do all have gifts of healings? Do all speak with various languages? Do all interpret?
Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak in languages? do all interpret?

31 But let your desires be turned to the more important things given by the Spirit. And now I am pointing out to you an even better way.
But desire earnestly the best gifts. Moreover, I show a most excellent way to you.
But covet earnestly the best gifts. And yet I show to you a more excellent way.

1 If I make use of the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am like sounding brass, or a loud-tongued bell.
If I speak with the languages of men and of angels, but don't have love, I have become sounding brass, or a clanging cymbal.
Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

2 And if I have a prophet's power, and have knowledge of all secret things; and if I have all faith, by which mountains may be moved from their place, but have not love, I am nothing.
If I have the gift of prophecy, and know all mysteries and all knowledge; and if I have all faith, so as to remove mountains, but don't have love, I am nothing.
And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing.

3 And if I give all my goods to the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but have not love, it is of no profit to me.
If I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and if I give my body to be burned, but don't have love, it profits me nothing.
And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me nothing.

4 Love is never tired of waiting; love is kind; love has no envy; love has no high opinion of itself, love has no pride;
Love is patient and is kind; love doesn't envy. Love doesn't brag, is not proud,
Charity suffereth long, and is kind; charity envieth not; charity vaunteth not itself, is not puffed up,

5 Love's ways are ever fair, it takes no thought for itself; it is not quickly made angry, it takes no account of evil; doesn't behave itself inappropriately, doesn't seek its own way, is not provoked, takes no account of evil;
Doth not behave itself unseemly, seeketh not its own, is not easily provoked, thinketh no evil;

6 It takes no pleasure in wrongdoing, but has joy in what is true;
doesn't rejoice in unrighteousness, but rejoices with the truth;
Rejoiceth not in iniquity, but rejoiceth in the truth;

7 Love has the power of undergoing all things, having faith in all things, hoping all things.
bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
Beareth all things, believeth all things, hopeth all things, endureth all things.

- 8 Though the prophet's word may come to an end, tongues come to nothing, and knowledge have no more value, love has no end.
Love never fails. But where there are prophecies, they will be done away with. Where there are various languages, they will cease. Where there is knowledge, it will be done away with.
Charity never faileth: but whether there are prophecies, they shall fail; whether there are languages, they shall cease; whether there is knowledge, it shall vanish away.
- 9 For our knowledge is only in part, and the prophet's word gives only a part of what is true:
For we know in part, and we prophesy in part;
For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
- 10 But when that which is complete is come, then that which is in part will be no longer necessary.
but when that which is complete has come, then that which is partial will be done away with.
But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
- 11 When I was a child, I made use of a child's language, I had a child's feelings and a child's thoughts: now that I am a man, I have put away the things of a child.
When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I felt as a child, I thought as a child. Now that I have become a man, I have put away childish things.
When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
- 12 For now we see things in a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now my knowledge is in part; then it will be complete, even as God's knowledge of me.
For now we see in a mirror, dimly, but then face to face. Now I know in part, but then I will know fully, even as I was also fully known.
For now we see through a glass darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.
- 13 But now we still have faith, hope, love, these three; and the greatest of these is love.
But now remain faith, hope, and love: these three. The greatest of these is love.
And now abideth faith, hope, charity, these three; but the greatest of these is charity.

- 1 Go after love; still desiring to have the things which the Spirit gives, but most of all that you may have the prophet's power.
Follow after love, and earnestly desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy.
Follow after charity, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that ye may prophesy.
- 2 For he who makes use of tongues is not talking to men but to God; because no one has the sense of what he is saying; but in the Spirit he is talking of secret things.
For he who speaks in another language speaks not to men, but to God; for no one understands; but in the spirit he speaks mysteries.
For he that speaketh in an unknown language, speaketh not to men, but to God: for no man understandeth him; yet in the spirit he speaketh mysteries.
- 3 But the word of the prophet gives men knowledge and comfort and strength.
But he who prophesies speaks to men for their edification, exhortation, and consolation.
But he that prophesieth, speaketh to men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
- 4 He who makes use of tongues may do good to himself; but he who gives the prophet's word does good to the church.
He who speaks in another language edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the assembly.
He that speaketh in an unknown language edifieth himself; but he that prophesieth edifieth the church.
- 5 Now though it is my desire for you all to have the power of tongues, it would give me more pleasure to be hearing the prophet's word from you; for this is a greater thing than using tongues, if the sense is not given at the same time, for the good of the church.
Now I desire to have you all speak with other languages, but rather that you would prophesy. For he is greater who prophesies than he who speaks with other languages, unless he interprets, that the assembly may be built up.
I would that ye all spoke in languages, but rather that ye prophesied: for greater is he that prophesieth than he that speaketh in languages, except he interpret, that the church may receive edifying.
- 6 But, now, my brothers, if I come to you using tongues, what profit will it be to you, if I do not give you a revelation, or knowledge, or the word of the prophet, or teaching?
But now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with other languages, what would I profit you, unless I speak to you either by way of revelation, or of knowledge, or of prophesying, or of teaching?
Now, brethren, if I come to you speaking in languages, what shall I profit you, except I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?

- 7 Even things without life, having a voice, such as a music-pipe or other instrument, if they do not give out different sounds, who may be certain what is being played?
Even things without life, giving a voice, whether pipe or harp, if they didn't give a distinction in the sounds, how would it be known what is piped or harped?
And even things without life giving sound, whether pipe or harp, except they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
- 8 For if the war-horn gives out an uncertain note, who will get ready for the fight?
For if the trumpet gave an uncertain voice, who would prepare himself for war?
For if the trumpet shall give an uncertain sound, who will prepare himself for battle?
- 9 So if you, in using a strange tongue, say words which have no sense, how will anyone take in what you are saying? for you will be talking to the air.
So also you, unless you uttered by the tongue words easy to understand, how would it be known what is spoken? For you would be speaking into the air.
So likewise ye, except ye utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for ye will speak into the air.
- 10 There are, it may be, a number of different voices in the world, and no voice is without sense.
There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without meaning.
There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
- 11 But if the sense of the voice is not clear to me, I am like a man from a strange country to him who is talking, and he will be the same to me.
If then I don't know the meaning of the voice, I would be to him who speaks a foreigner, and he who speaks will be a foreigner to me.
Therefore, if I know not the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaketh a barbarian, and he that speaketh will be a barbarian to me.
- 12 So if you are desiring the things which the Spirit gives, let your minds be turned first to the things which are for the good of the church.
So also you, since you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may abound to the building up of the assembly.
Even so ye, forasmuch as ye are zealous of spiritual gifts, seek that ye may excel to the edifying of the church.

- 13 For this reason, let the man who has the power of using tongues make request that he may, at the same time, be able to give the sense.
Therefore let him who speaks in another language pray that he may interpret.
Wherefore, let him that speaketh in an unknown language, pray that he may interpret.
- 14 For if I make use of tongues in my prayers, my spirit makes the prayer, but not my mind.
For if I pray in another language, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.
For if I pray in an unknown language, my spirit prayeth, but my understanding is unfruitful.
- 15 What then? let my prayer be from the spirit, and equally from the mind; let my song be from the spirit, and equally from mind.
What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also. I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
- 16 For if you give a blessing with the spirit, how will the man who has no knowledge say, So be it, after your prayer, seeing that he has not taken in what you are saying?
Else if you bless with the spirit, how will he who fills the place of the unlearned say the "Amen" at your giving of thanks, seeing he doesn't know what you say?
Else, when thou shalt bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupieth the room of the unlearned say Amen at thy giving of thanks, seeing he understandeth not what thou sayest?
- 17 For your giving of the blessing is certainly well done, but of no profit to the man without knowledge.
For you most assuredly give thanks well, but the other person is not built up.
For thou verily givest thanks well, but the other is not edified.
- 18 I give praise to God that I am able to make use of tongues more than you all:
I thank my God, I speak with other languages more than you all.
I thank my God, I speak in languages more than ye all:

- 19 But in the church it would be better for me to make use of five words of which the sense was clear, so that others might have profit, than ten thousand words in a strange tongue.
However in the assembly I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that I might instruct others also, than ten thousand words in another language.
Yet in the church I had rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I may teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown language.
- 20 My brothers, do not be children in mind: in evil be as little children, but in mind be of full growth.
Brothers, don't be children in mind, yet in malice be babies, but in mind be men.
Brethren, be not children in understanding: yet in malice be ye children, but in understanding be men.
- 21 In the law it is said, By men of other tongues and by strange lips will my words come to this people; and not even so will they give ear to me, says the Lord.
In the law it is written, "By men of strange languages and by the lips of strangers I will speak to this people. Not even thus will they hear me, says the Lord."
In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that will they not hear me, saith the Lord.
- 22 For this reason tongues are for a sign, not to those who have faith, but to those who have not: but the prophet's word is for those who have faith, and not for the rest who have not.
Therefore other languages are for a sign, not to those who believe, but to the unbelieving; but prophesying is for a sign, not to the unbelieving, but to those who believe.
Wherefore languages are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serveth not for them that believe not, but for them who believe.
- 23 If, then, the church has come together, and all are using tongues, and there come in men without knowledge or faith, will they not say that you are unbalanced?
If therefore the whole assembly is assembled together and all speak with other languages, and unlearned or unbelieving people come in, won't they say that you are crazy?
If therefore the whole church is assembled in one place, and all speak in languages, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that ye are insane?
- 24 But if all are teaching as prophets, and a man without faith or knowledge comes in, he is tested by all, he is judged by all;
But if all prophesy, and someone unbelieving or unlearned comes in, he is reproved by all, and he is judged by all.
But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believeth not, or one unlearned, he is convinced by all, he is judged by all:

- 25 The secrets of his heart are made clear; and he will go down on his face and give worship to God, saying that God is truly among you.
And thus the secrets of his heart are revealed. So he will fall down on his face and worship God, declaring that God is among you indeed.
And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face, he will worship God, and report that God is in you in truth.
- 26 What is it then, my brothers? when you come together everyone has a holy song, or a revelation, or a tongue, or is giving the sense of it. Let everything be done for the common good.
What is it then, brothers? When you come together, each one of you has a psalm, has a teaching, has a revelation, has another language, has an interpretation. Let all things be done to build each other up.
How is it then, brethren? when ye are assembled, every one of you hath a psalm, hath a doctrine, hath a language, hath a revelation, hath an interpretation. Let all things be done to edification.
- 27 If any man makes use of a tongue, let it not be more than two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let someone give the sense:
If any man speaks in another language, let it be two, or at the most three, and in turn; and let one interpret.
If any man speaketh in an unknown language, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
- 28 But if there is no one to give the sense, let him keep quiet in the church; and let his words be to himself and to God.
But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the assembly, and let him speak to himself, and to God.
But if there is no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
- 29 And let the prophets give their words, but not more than two or three, and let the others be judges of what they say.
Let the prophets speak, two or three, and let the others discern.
Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others judge.
- 30 But if a revelation is given to another who is seated near, let the first be quiet.
But if a revelation is made to another sitting by, let the first keep silence.
If any thing is revealed to another that sitteth by, let the first hold his peace.

31 For you may all be prophets in turn so that all may get knowledge and comfort;
For you all can prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be exhorted.
For ye may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.

32 And the spirits of the prophets are controlled by the prophets;
The spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets,
And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.

33 For God is not a God whose ways are without order, but a God of peace; as in all the churches of the saints.
for God is not a God of confusion, but of peace. As in all the assemblies of the saints,
For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.

34 Let women keep quiet in the churches: for it is not right for them to be talking; but let them be under control, as it says in the law.
let your women keep silence in the assemblies, for it is not permitted for them to speak; but let them be in subjection, as the Law also says.
Let your women keep silence in the churches; for it is not permitted to them to speak: but they are commanded to be under obedience, as also saith the law.

35 And if they have a desire for knowledge about anything, let them put questions to their husbands privately: for talking in the church puts shame on a woman.
If they desire to learn anything, let them ask their own husbands at home, for it is shameful for a woman to chatter in the assembly.
And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home; for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.

36 What? was it from you that the word of God went out? or did it only come in to you?
What? Was it from you that the word of God went forth? Or did it come to you alone?
What? came the word of God out from you? or came it to you only?

37 If any man seems to himself to be a prophet or to have the Spirit, let him take note of the things which I am writing to you, as being the word of the Lord.
If any man thinks himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him recognize the things which I write to you, that they are the commandment of the Lord.
If any man thinketh himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.

38 But if any man is without knowledge, let him be so.
But if anyone is ignorant, let him be ignorant.
But if any man is ignorant, let him be ignorant.

39 So then, my brothers, let it be your chief desire to be prophets; but let no one be stopped from using tongues.
Therefore, brothers, desire earnestly to prophesy, and don't forbid speaking with other languages.
Wherefore, brethren, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak in languages.

40 Let all things be done in the right and ordered way.
Let all things be done decently and in order.
Let all things be done decently, and in order.

1 Now I am going to make clear to you, my brothers, what the good news was which I gave to you, and which you took, and on which your faith is based,
Now I declare to you, brothers, the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received, in which you also stand,
Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also ye have received, and in which ye stand;

2 By which you have salvation; that is to say, the form in which it was given to you, if it is fixed in your minds, and if your faith in it is not without effect.
by which also you are saved, if you hold firmly the word which I preached to you -- unless you believed in vain.
By which also ye are saved, if ye keep in memory what I preached to you, unless ye have believed in vain.

3 For I gave to you first of all what was handed down to me, how Christ underwent death for our sins, as it says in the Writings;
For I delivered to you first of all that which also I received: that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures,
For I delivered to you first of all, that which I also received, that Christ died for our sins, according to the scriptures;

4 And he was put in the place of the dead; and on the third day he came back from the dead, as it says in the Writings; that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day according to the Scriptures,
And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:

5 And he was seen by Cephas; then by the twelve;
and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve.
And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve:

6 Then by more than five hundred brothers at the same time, most of whom are still living, but some are sleeping;
Then he appeared to over five hundred brothers at once, most of whom remain until now, but some have also fallen asleep.
After that he was seen by above five hundred brethren at once; of whom the greater part remain to this present, but some have fallen asleep.

7 Then he was seen by James; then by all the Apostles.
Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles,
After that he was seen by James; then by all the apostles.

8 And last of all, as by one whose birth was out of the right time, he was seen by me.
and last of all, as to the child born at the wrong time, he appeared to me also.
And last of all he was seen by me also, as by one born out of due time.

9 For I am the least of the Apostles, having no right to be named an Apostle, because of my cruel attacks on the church of God.
For I am the least of the apostles, who is not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the assembly of God.
For I am the least of the apostles, who am not worthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.

- 10 But by the grace of God, I am what I am: and his grace which was given to me has not been for nothing; for I did more work than all of them; though not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
But by the grace of God I am what I am. His grace which was bestowed on me was not found vain, but I worked more than all of them; yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me, was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
- 11 If then it is I who am the preacher, or they, this is our word, and to this you have given your faith.
Whether then it is I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.
Therefore whether it was I or they, so we preach, and so ye believed.
- 12 Now if the good news says that Christ came back from the dead, how do some of you say that there is no coming back from the dead?
Now if Christ is preached, that he has been raised from the dead, how do some among you say that there is no resurrection of the dead?
Now if Christ is preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
- 13 But if there is no coming back from the dead, then Christ has not come back from the dead:
But if there is no resurrection of the dead, neither has Christ been raised.
But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not raised.
- 14 And if Christ did not come again from the dead, then our good news and your faith in it are of no effect.
If Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain, and your faith also is in vain.
And if Christ is not raised, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
- 15 Yes, and we are seen to be false witnesses of God; because we gave witness of God that by his power Christ came again from the dead: which is not true if there is no coming back from the dead.
Yes, we are found false witnesses of God, because we testified about God that he raised up Christ, whom he didn't raise up, if it is so that the dead are not raised.
And indeed we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified concerning God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not, if in truth the dead rise not.

- 16 For if it is not possible for the dead to come to life again, then Christ has not come to life again:
For if the dead aren't raised, neither has Christ been raised.
For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
- 17 And if that is so, your faith is of no effect; you are still in your sins.
If Christ has not been raised, your faith is vain; you are still in your sins.
And if Christ is not raised, your faith is vain; ye are yet in your sins.
- 18 And, in addition, the dead in Christ have gone to destruction.
Then they also who are fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
Then they also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished.
- 19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most unhappy.
If we have only hoped in Christ in this life, we are of all men most pitiable.
If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
- 20 But now Christ has truly come back from the dead, the first-fruits of those who are sleeping.
But now Christ has been raised from the dead. He became the first fruits of those who are asleep.
But now is Christ raised from the dead, and become the first-fruits of them that slept.
- 21 For as by man came death, so by man there is a coming back from the dead.
For since death came by man, the resurrection of the dead also came by man.
For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
- 22 For as in Adam death comes to all, so in Christ will all come back to life.
For as in Adam all die, so also in Christ all will be made alive.
For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

- 23 But every man in his right order: Christ the first-fruits; then those who are Christ's at his coming.
But each in his own order: Christ the first fruits, then those who are Christ`s, at his coming.
But every man in his own order: Christ the first-fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
- 24 Then comes the end, when he will give up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have put an end to all rule and to all authority and power.
Then the end comes, when he will deliver up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he will have abolished all rule and all authority and power.
Then cometh the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule, and all authority, and power.
- 25 For his rule will go on till he has put all those who are against him under his feet.
For he must reign until he has put all his enemies under his feet.
For he must reign, till he hath put all enemies under his feet.
- 26 The last power to come to an end is death.
The last enemy that will be abolished is death.
The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
- 27 For, as it says, He has put all things under his feet. But when he says, All things are put under him, it is clear that it is not said about him who put all things under him.
For, "He put all things in subjection under his feet." But when he says, "All things are put in subjection," it is evident that he is excepted who subjected all things to him.
For he hath put all things under his feet. But when he saith, all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted who did put all things under him.
- 28 And when all things have been put under him, then will the Son himself be under him who put all things under him, so that God may be all in all.
When all things have been subjected to him, then the Son will also himself be subjected to him who subjected all things to him, that God may be all in all.
And when all things shall be subdued to him, then shall the Son also himself be subject to him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.

- 29 Again, what will they do who are given baptism for the dead? if the dead do not come back at all, why are people given baptism for them?
Or else what will they do who are baptized for the dead? If the dead aren't raised at all, why then are they baptized for the dead?
Else what will they do, who are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
- 30 And why are we in danger every hour?
Why do we also stand in jeopardy every hour?
And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
- 31 Yes, truly, by your pride in me, my brothers in Christ Jesus our Lord, my life is one long death.
I die daily, by your boasting which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord.
I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our Lord, I die daily.
- 32 If, after the way of men, I was fighting with beasts at Ephesus, what profit is it to me? If the dead do not come to life again, let us take our pleasure in feasting, for tomorrow we come to an end.
If I fought with animals at Ephesus like men, what does it profit me? If the dead are not raised, then "let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we die."
If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantage is it to me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for to-morrow we die.
- 33 Do not be tricked by false words: evil company does damage to good behaviour.
Don't be deceived! "Evil companionships corrupt good morals."
Be not deceived: Evil communications corrupt good manners.
- 34 Be awake to righteousness and keep yourselves from sin; for some have no knowledge of God: I say this to put you to shame.
Wake up righteously, and don't sin, for some have no knowledge of God. I say this to your shame.
Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God. I speak this to your shame.
- 35 But someone will say, How do the dead come back? and with what sort of body do they come?
But some one will say, "How are the dead raised?" and, "With what kind of body do they come?"
But some man will say, How are the dead raised? and with what body do they come?

36 Foolish man, it is necessary for the seed which you put into the earth to undergo death in order that it may come to life again:

You foolish one, that which you yourself sow is not made alive unless it dies.

Thou fool, that which thou sowest is not vivified except it die:

37 And when you put it into the earth, you do not put in the body which it will be, but only the seed, of grain or some other sort of plant;

That which you sow, you don't sow the body that will be, but a bare grain, maybe of wheat, or of some other kind.

And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that body that shall be, but bare grain; it may be of wheat, or of some other grain:

38 But God gives it a body, as it is pleasing to him, and to every seed its special body.

But God gives it a body even as it pleased him, and to each seed a body of its own.

But God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed its own body.

39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one flesh of men, another of beasts, another of birds, and another of fishes.

All flesh is not the same flesh, but there is one flesh of men, another flesh of animals, another of fish, and another of birds.

All flesh is not the same flesh; but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of fowls.

40 And there are bodies of heaven and bodies of earth, but the glory of the one is different from that of the other.

There are also celestial bodies, and terrestrial bodies; but the glory of the celestial differs from that of the terrestrial.

There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.

41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for the glory of one star is different from that of another.

There is one glory of the sun, another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differs from another star in glory.

There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars; for one star differeth from another star in glory.

- 42 So is it with the coming back from the dead. It is planted in death; it comes again in life:
So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption.
So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption, it is raised in incorruption:
-
- 43 It is planted in shame; it comes again in glory: feeble when it is planted, it comes again in power:
It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory. It is sown in weakness; it is raised in power.
It is sown in dishonor, it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness, it is raised in power:
- 44 It is planted a natural body; it comes again as a body of the spirit. If there is a natural body, there is equally a body of the spirit.
It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. If there is a natural body, there is also a spiritual body.
It is sown a natural body, it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
- 45 And so it is said, The first man Adam was a living soul. The last Adam is a life-giving spirit.
So also it is written, "The first man, Adam, became a living soul." The last Adam became a life-giving spirit.
And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul, the last Adam was made a vivifying spirit.
- 46 But that which is natural comes before that which is of the spirit.
However that which is spiritual isn't first, but that which is natural, then that which is spiritual.
However, that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
- 47 The first man is from the earth, and of the earth: the second man is from heaven.
The first man is of the earth, made of dust. The second man is the Lord from heaven.
The first man is from the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.
- 48 Those who are of the earth are like the man who was from the earth: and those who are of heaven are like the one from heaven.
As is the one made of dust, such are those who are also made of dust; and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.

- 49 And in the same way as we have taken on us the image of the man from the earth, so we will take on us the image of the one from heaven.
As we have borne the image of those made of dust, let`s also bear the image of the heavenly.
And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
- 50 Now I say this, my brothers, that it is not possible for flesh and blood to have a part in the kingdom of God; and death may not have a part in life.
Now I say this, brothers, that flesh and blood can`t inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
Now this I say, brethren, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.
- 51 See, I am giving you the revelation of a secret: we will not all come to the sleep of death, but we will all be changed.
Behold, I tell you a mystery. We will not all sleep, but we will all be changed,
Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,
- 52 In a second, in the shutting of an eye, at the sound of the last horn: for at that sound the dead will come again, free for ever from the power of death, and we will be changed.
in a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. For the trumpet will sound, and the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we will be changed.
In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet; for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
- 53 For this body which comes to destruction will be made free from the power of death, and the man who is under the power of death will put on eternal life.
For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
- 54 But when this has taken place, then that which was said in the Writings will come true, Death is overcome by life.
But when this corruptible will have put on incorruption, and this mortal will have put on immortality, then what is written will happen: "Death is swallowed up in victory."
So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

55 O death, where is your power? O death, where are your pains?

"Death, where is your sting? Hades, where is your victory?"

O death, where is thy sting? O grave, where is thy victory?

56 The pain of death is sin; and the power of sin is the law:

The sting of death is sin, and the power of sin is the law.

The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.

57 But praise be to God who gives us strength to overcome through our Lord Jesus Christ.

But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.

But thanks be to God, who giveth us the victory, through our Lord Jesus Christ.

58 For this cause, my dear brothers, be strong in purpose and unmoved, ever giving yourselves to the work of the Lord, because you are certain that your work is not without effect in the Lord. Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the Lord's work, because you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Therefore, my beloved brethren, be ye steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as ye know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

1 Now about the giving of money for the saints, as I gave orders to the churches of Galatia, so do you.

Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I commanded the assemblies of Galatia, you do likewise.

Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given order to the churches of Galatia, even so do ye.

2 On the first day of the week, let every one of you put by him in store, in measure as he has done well in business, so that it may not be necessary to get money together when I come.

On the first day of the week, let each one of you save, as he may prosper, that no collections be made when I come.

Upon the first day of the week, let every one of you lay by him in store, as God hath prospered him, that there be no collections when I come.

3 And when I come, I will send the men of your selection with letters to take the money you have got together to Jerusalem.

When I arrive, I will send whoever you approve with letters to carry your gracious gift to Jerusalem.

And when I come, whomsoever ye shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality to Jerusalem.

- 4 And if it is possible for me to go there, they will go with me.
If it is appropriate for me to go also, they will go with me.
And if it be proper that I should go also, they shall go with me.
- 5 But I will come to you after I have gone through Macedonia, for that is my purpose;
But I will come to you when I have passed through Macedonia, for I am passing through Macedonia.
Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I am to pass through Macedonia.
- 6 But I may be with you for a time, or even for the winter, so that you may see me on my way, wherever I go.
But with you it may be that I will stay, or even winter, that you may send me on my journey wherever I go.
And it may be that I shall abide, and even winter with you, that ye may bring me on my journey whithersoever I go.
- 7 For it is not my desire to see you now, on my way; because it is my hope to be with you for some time, if that is the Lord's pleasure.
For I do not wish to see you now in passing, but I hope to stay a while with you, if the Lord permits.
For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.
- 8 But I will be at Ephesus till Pentecost;
But I will stay at Ephesus until Pentecost,
But I shall tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.
- 9 For a great and important door there is open to me, and there are a number of people against me.
for a great and effective door has opened to me, and there are many adversaries.
For a great door and effectual is opened to me, and there are many adversaries.
- 10 Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear; because he is doing the Lord's work, even as I am:
Now if Timothy comes, see that he is with you without fear, for he does the work of the Lord, as I also do.
Now if Timothy come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he worketh the work of the Lord, as I also do.

- 11 See then that he has the honour which is right. But send him on his way in peace, so that he may come to me: for I am looking for him with the brothers.
Therefore let no one despise him. But set him forward on his journey in peace, that he may come to me; for I expect him with the brothers.
Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come to me: for I look for him with the brethren.
- 12 But as for Apollos, the brother, I had a great desire for him to come to you with the brothers, but it was not his pleasure to come now; but he will come when he has a chance.
But concerning Apollos, the brother, I begged him much to come to you with the brothers; and it was not all his desire to come now; but he will come when he has an opportunity.
As concerning our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brethren: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
- 13 Be on the watch, unmoved in the faith, and be strong like men.
Watch! Stand firm in the faith! Be men! Be strong!
Watch ye, stand fast in the faith, acquit yourselves like men, be strong.
- 14 Let all you do be done in love.
Let all that you do be done in love.
Let all your things be done with charity.
- 15 Now I make my request to you, my brothers, for you have knowledge that the house of Stephanas is the first-fruits of Achaia, and that they have made themselves the servants of the saints,
Now I beg you, brothers (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have set themselves to minister to the saints),
I beseech you, brethren, (ye know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
- 16 That you put yourselves under such, and under everyone who is helping the Lord's work.
that you also be in subjection to such, and to everyone who helps in the work and labors.
That ye submit yourselves to such, and to every one that helpeth with us, and laboreth.

- 17 And I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for they have done what was needed to make your work complete.
I rejoice at the coming of Stephanas, Fortunatus, and Achaicus; for that which was lacking on your part, they supplied.
I am glad of the coming of Stephanas, and Fortunatus, and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part, they have supplied.
- 18 For they gave comfort to my spirit and to yours: for which cause give respect to such people.
For they refreshed my spirit and yours. Therefore acknowledge those who are like that.
For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge ye them that are such.
- 19 The churches of Asia send their love to you. So do Aquila and Prisca, with the church which is in their house.
The assemblies of Asia greet you. Aquila and Priscilla greet you much in the Lord, together with the assembly that is in their house.
The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
- 20 All the brothers send their love to you. Give one another a holy kiss.
All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
All the brethren greet you. Greet ye one another with a holy kiss.
- 21 I, Paul, send you these words of love in my writing.
This greeting is by me, Paul, with my own hand.
The salutation of me Paul with my own hand.
- 22 If any man has not love for the Lord, let him be cursed. Maran atha (our Lord comes).
If any man doesn't love the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be accursed. Come, Lord!
If any man loveth not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema, Maran-atha.
- 23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. So be it.

My love to all of you in Christ Jesus. Amen.

My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, and Timothy the brother, to the church of God which is in Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the assembly of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in the whole of Achaia:

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints who are in all Achaia:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace be to you and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and the God of all comfort;

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies and God of all comfort;

Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all consolation.

4 Who gives us comfort in all our troubles, so that we may be able to give comfort to others who are in trouble, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

who comforts us in all our affliction, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any affliction, through the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

Who comforteth us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort them who are in any trouble by the consolation with which we ourselves are comforted by God.

5 For as we undergo more of the pain which Christ underwent, so through Christ does our comfort become greater.

For as the sufferings of Christ abound to us, even so our comfort also abounds through Christ.

For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also aboundeth by Christ.

6 But if we are troubled, it is for your comfort and salvation; or if we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which takes effect through your quiet undergoing of the same troubles which we undergo:
But if we are afflicted, it is for your comfort and salvation. If we are comforted, it is for your comfort, which works in the patient enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer.

And whether we are afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effectual in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we are comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.

7 And our hope for you is certain; in the knowledge that as you take part in the troubles, so you will take part in the comfort.

Our hope for you is steadfast, knowing that, since you are partakers of the sufferings, so also are you of the comfort.

And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as ye are partakers of the sufferings, so shall ye be also of the consolation.

8 For it is our desire that you may not be without knowledge of our trouble which came on us in Asia, that the weight of it was very great, more than our power, so that it seemed that we had no hope even of life:

For we don't desire to have you uninformed, brothers, concerning our affliction which happened to us in Asia, that we were weighed down exceedingly, beyond our power, so much that we despaired even of life.

For we would not, brethren, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, so that we despaired even of life:

9 Yes, we ourselves have had the answer of death in ourselves, so that our hope might not be in ourselves, but in God who is able to give life to the dead:

Yes, we ourselves have had the sentence of death within ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raises the dead,

But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God who raiseth the dead:

10 Who gave us salvation from so great a death: on whom we have put our hope that he will still go on to give us salvation; who delivered us out of so great a death, and does deliver; on whom we have set our hope that he will also still deliver us;

Who delivered us from so great a death, and doth deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us:

11 You at the same time helping together by your prayer for us; so that for what has been given to us through a number of persons, praise may go up to God for us from all of them.

you also helping together on our behalf by your supplication; that, for the gift bestowed on us by means of many, thanks may be given by many persons on your behalf.

Ye also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons, thanks may be given by many on our behalf.

- 12 For our glory is in this, in the knowledge which we have that our way of life in the world, and most of all in relation to you, has been holy and true in the eyes of God; not in the wisdom of the flesh, but in the grace of God.
For our boasting is this: the testimony of our conscience, that in holiness and sincerity of God, not in fleshly wisdom but in the grace of God we behaved ourselves in the world, and more abundantly toward you.
For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our manner of life in the world, and more abundantly toward you.
- 13 For in our letters we say no other things to you, but those which you are reading, and to which you give agreement, and, it is my hope, will go on doing so to the end:
For we write no other things to you, than what you read or even acknowledge, and I hope you will acknowledge to the end;
For we write no other things to you, than what ye read or acknowledge; and I trust ye will acknowledge even to the end;
- 14 Even as you have been ready, in part, to say that we are your glory, in the same way that you are ours, in the day of the Lord Jesus.
as also you acknowledged us in part, that we are your boasting, even as you also are ours, in the day of our Lord Jesus.
As also ye have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as ye also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
- 15 And being certain of this, it was my purpose to come to you before, so that you might have a second grace;
In this confidence, I was determined to come first to you, that you might have a second benefit;
And in this confidence I purposed to come to you before, that ye might have a second benefit;
- 16 And by way of Corinth to go into Macedonia, and from there to come back again to you, so that you might send me on my way to Judaea.
and by you to pass into Macedonia, and again from Macedonia to come to you, and to be sent forward by you on my journey to Judea.
And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again from Macedonia to you, and by you to be brought on my way towards Judea.
- 17 If then I had such a purpose, did I seem to be changing suddenly? or am I guided in my purposes by the flesh, saying, Yes, today, and, No, tomorrow?
When I therefore was thus determined, did I show fickleness? Or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be the "Yes, yes" and the "No, no?"
When I therefore was thus minded, did I use levity? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yea, yea, and nay, nay?

- 18 As God is true, our word to you is not Yes and No.
But as God is faithful, our word toward you was not "Yes and no."
But as God is true, our word towards you was not yea and nay.
- 19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, whom we were preaching among you, even I and Silvanus and Timothy, was not Yes and No, but in him is Yes.
For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, by me, Silvanus, and Timothy, was not "Yes and no," but in him is "Yes."
For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me, and Silvanus, and Timothy, was not yea and nay, but in him was yea.
- 20 For he is the Yes to all the undertakings of God: and by him all the words of God are made certain and put into effect, to the glory of God through us.
For however many are the promises of God, in him is the "Yes." Therefore also through him is the "Amen," to the glory of God through us.
For all the promises of God in him are yea, and in him Amen, to the glory of God by us.
- 21 Now he who makes our faith strong together with you, in Christ, and has given us of his grace, is God;
Now he who establishes us with you in Christ, and anointed us, is God;
Now he who establisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;
- 22 And it is he who has put his stamp on us, even the Spirit, as the sign in our hearts of the coming glory.
who also sealed us, and gave us the down payment of the Spirit in our hearts.
Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the spirit in our hearts.
- 23 But God is my witness that it was in pity for you that I did not come to Corinth at that time.
But I call God for a witness to my soul, that I didn't come to Corinth to spare you.
Moreover, I call God for a witness upon my soul, that to spare you I have not as yet come to Corinth.
- 24 Not that we have authority over your faith, but we are helpers of your joy: for it is faith which is your support.
Not that we have lordship over your faith, but are fellow workers with you for your joy. For you stand firm in faith.
Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith ye stand.

- 1 But it was my decision for myself, not to come again to you with sorrow.
But I determined this for myself, that I would not come to you again in sorrow.
But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
- 2 For if I give you sorrow, who then will make me glad, but he who is made sad by me?
For if I make you sorry, then who will make me glad but he who is made sorry by me?
For if I make you sorry, who is he then that maketh me glad, but the same who is made sorry by me?
- 3 And I said this very thing in my letter, for fear that when I came I might have sorrow from those from whom it was right for me to have joy; being certain of this, that my joy is the joy of you all.
And I wrote this very thing to you, so that, when I came, I wouldn't have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is of you all.
And I wrote this same to you, lest, coming I should have sorrow from them by whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
- 4 For out of much trouble and pain of heart and much weeping I sent my letter to you; not to give you sorrow, but so that you might see how great is the love which I have to you.
For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears, not that you should be made sorry, but that you might know the love that I have so abundantly for you.
For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that ye should be grieved, but that ye might know the love which I have more abundantly to you.
- 5 But if anyone has been a cause of sorrow, he has been so, not to me only, but in some measure to all of you (I say this that I may not be over-hard on you).
But if any has caused sorrow, he has caused sorrow, not to me, but in part (that I not press too heavily) to you all.
But if any hath caused grief, he hath not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
- 6 Let it be enough for such a man to have undergone the punishment which the church put on him;
Sufficient to such a one is this punishment which was inflicted by the many;
Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted by many.

- 7 So that now, on the other hand, it is right for him to have forgiveness and comfort from you, for fear that his sorrow may be over-great.
so that on the contrary you should rather forgive him and comfort him, lest by any means such a one should be swallowed up with his excessive sorrow.
So that on the other hand, ye ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such one should be swallowed up with excessive sorrow.
- 8 For which cause my desire is that you will make your love to him clear by your acts.
Therefore I beg you to confirm your love toward him.
Wherefore I beseech you that ye would confirm your love towards him.
- 9 And for the same reason I sent you a letter so that I might be certain of your desire to do my orders in all things.
For to this end I also wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether you are obedient in all things.
For to this end also I wrote, that I might know the proof of you, whether ye are obedient in all things.
- 10 But if you give forgiveness to anyone, I do the same: for if I have given forgiveness for anything, I have done it because of you, in the person of Christ;
Now I also forgive whomever you forgive anything. For if indeed I have forgiven anything, I have forgiven that one for your sakes in the presence of Christ,
To whom ye forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes I forgave it, in the person of Christ;
- 11 So that Satan may not get the better of us: for we are not without knowledge of his designs.
that no advantage may be gained over us by Satan; for we are not ignorant of his schemes.
Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
- 12 Now when I came to Troas for the good news of Christ, and there was an open door for me in the Lord,
Now when I came to Troas for the gospel of Christ, and when a door was opened to me in the Lord,
Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach the gospel of Christ, and a door was opened to me by the Lord,

- 13 I had no rest in my spirit because Titus my brother was not there: so I went away from them, and came into Macedonia.
I had no relief for my spirit, because I didn't find Titus, my brother, but taking my leave of them, I went forth into Macedonia.
I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother; but taking my leave of them, I went from thence into Macedonia.
- 14 But praise be to God who makes us strong to overcome in Christ, and makes clear through us in every place the value of the knowledge of him.
But thanks be to God, who always leads us in triumph in Christ, and reveals through us the sweet aroma of his knowledge in every place.
Now thanks be to God, who always causeth us to triumph in Christ, and maketh manifest the savor of his knowledge by us in every place.
- 15 For we are a sweet perfume of Christ to God in those who are getting salvation and in those who are going to destruction;
For we are a sweet aroma of Christ to God, in those who are saved, and in those who perish;
For we are to God a sweet savor of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
- 16 To the one it is a perfume of death to death; to the other a perfume of life to life. And who is enough for such things?
to the one a stench from death to death; to the other a sweet aroma from life to life. Who is sufficient for these things?
To the one we are the savor of death to death; and to the other the savor of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?
- 17 For we are not like the great number who make use of the word of God for profit: but our words are true, as from God, being said as before God in Christ.
For we are not as so many, peddling the word of God. But as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God, we speak in Christ.
For we are not as many, who corrupt the word of God: but as from sincerity, but as from God, in the sight of God we speak in Christ.
- 1 Do we seem to be again attempting to put ourselves in the right? or have we need, as some have, of letters of approval to you or from you?
Are we beginning again to commend ourselves? Or do we need, as do some, letters of commendation to you or from you?
Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you.

2 You yourselves are our letter, whose writing is in our heart, open for every man's reading and knowledge;

You are our letter, written in our hearts, known and read by all men;

Ye are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read by all men:

3 For you are clearly a letter of Christ, the fruit of our work, recorded not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in stone, but in hearts of flesh.

being revealed that you are a letter of Christ, ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tablets of stone, but in tablets that are hearts of flesh.

Forasmuch as ye are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not on tables of stone, but on fleshly tables of the heart.

4 And this is the certain faith which we have in God through Christ:

Such confidence we have through Christ toward God;

And such trust we have through Christ toward God.

5 Not as if we were able by ourselves to do anything for which we might take the credit; but our power comes from God; not that we are sufficient of ourselves, to account anything as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God;

Not that we are sufficient by ourselves to think any thing as from ourselves; but our sufficiency is from God;

6 Who has made us able to be servants of a new agreement; not of the letter, but of the Spirit: for the letter gives death, but the Spirit gives life.

who also made us sufficient as servants of a new covenant; not of the letter, but of the spirit. For the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.

Who also hath made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter killeth, but the spirit giveth life.

7 For if the operation of the law, giving death, recorded in letters on stone, came with glory, so that the eyes of the children of Israel had to be turned away from the face of Moses because of its glory, a glory which was only for a time:

But if the service of death, written engraved on stones, came with glory, so that the children of Israel could not look steadfastly on the face of Moses for the glory of his face; which was passing away:

But if the ministration of death, written and engraven on stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away;

- 8 Will not the operation of the Spirit have a much greater glory?
won't rather service of the spirit be rather with more glory?
How shall not the ministration of the Spirit be rather glorious?
- 9 For if the operation of the law, producing punishment, had its glory, how much greater will be the operation of the Spirit causing righteousness?
For if the service of condemnation has glory, much rather does the service of righteousness exceed in glory.
For if the ministration of condemnation was glory, much more doth the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
- 10 For the glory of the first no longer seems to be glory, because of the greater glory of that which comes after.
For most assuredly that which has been made glorious has not been made glorious in this respect, by reason of the glory that surpasses.
For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excellet.
- 11 For if the order which was for a time had its glory, much more will the eternal order have its glory.
For if that which passes away was with glory, much more that which remains is in glory.
For if that which was done away was glorious, much more that which remaineth is glorious.
- 12 Having then such a hope, we keep nothing back,
Having therefore such a hope, we use great boldness of speech,
Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
- 13 And are not like Moses, who put a veil on his face, so that the children of Israel might not see clearly to the end of the present order of things:
and not as Moses, who put a veil on his face, that the children of Israel wouldn't look steadfastly on the end of that which was passing away.
And not as Moses, who put a vail over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:

- 14 But their minds were made hard: for to this very day at the reading of the old agreement the same veil is still unlifted; though it is taken away in Christ.
But their minds were hardened, for until this very day at the reading of the old covenant the same veil remains, because in Christ in passes away.
But their minds were blinded: for until this day the same vail remaineth untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which vail is done away in Christ.
- 15 But to this day, at the reading of the law of Moses, a veil is over their heart.
But to this day, when Moses is read, a veil lies on their heart.
But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.
- 16 But when it is turned to the Lord, the veil will be taken away.
But whenever one turns to the Lord, the veil is taken away.
Nevertheless, when it shall turn to the Lord, the vail shall be taken away.
- 17 Now the Lord is the Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there the heart is free.
Now the Lord is the Spirit and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
- 18 But we all, with unveiled face giving back as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord who is the Spirit.
But we all, with unveiled face beholding as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are transformed into the same image from glory to glory, even as from the Lord, the Spirit.
But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.
- 1 For this reason, because we have been made servants of this new order, through the mercy given to us, we are strong:
Therefore seeing we have this ministry, even as we obtained mercy, we don't faint.
Therefore, seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;

- 2 And we have given up the secret things of shame, not walking in false ways, and not making use of the word of God with deceit; but by the revelation of what is true, as before God, we have the approval of every man's sense of right and wrong.
But we have renounced the hidden things of shame, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by the manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty; not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but, by manifestation of the truth, commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
- 3 But if our good news is veiled, it is veiled from those who are on the way to destruction:
Even if our gospel is veiled, it is veiled in those who perish;
But if our gospel is hid, it is hid to them that are lost:
- 4 Because the god of this world has made blind the minds of those who have not faith, so that the light of the good news of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, might not be shining on them.
in whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of the unbelieving, that the light of the gospel of the glory of Christ, who is the image of God, should not dawn on them.
In whom the god of this world hath blinded the minds of them who believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine to them.
- 5 For our preaching is not about ourselves, but about Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants through Jesus.
For we don't preach ourselves, but Christ Jesus as Lord, and ourselves as your servants for Jesus' sake.
For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
- 6 Seeing that it is God who said, Let light be shining out of the dark, who has put in our hearts the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
Seeing it is God who said, "Light will shine out of darkness," who shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, hath shined into our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
- 7 But we have this wealth in vessels of earth, so that it may be seen that the power comes not from us but from God;
But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the exceeding greatness of the power may be of God, and not from ourselves.
But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellence of the power may be of God, and not from us.

- 8 Troubles are round us on every side, but we are not shut in; things are hard for us, but we see a way out of them;
We are pressed on every side, yet not crushed; perplexed, yet not to despair;
We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
- 9 We are cruelly attacked, but not without hope; we are made low, but we are not without help;
pursued, yet not forsaken; struck down, yet not destroyed;
Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;
- 10 In our bodies there is ever the mark of the death of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be seen in our bodies.
always carrying in the body the putting to death of the Lord Jesus, that the life of Jesus may also be revealed in our body.
Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our body.
- 11 For, while living, we are still being given up to death because of Jesus, so that the life of Jesus may be seen in our flesh, though it is under the power of death.
For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be revealed in our mortal flesh.
For we who live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus may be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
- 12 So then, death is working in us, but life in you.
So then death works in us, but life in you.
So then death worketh in us, but life in you.
- 13 But having the same spirit of faith, as it is said in the Writings, The words of my mouth came from the faith in my heart; in the same way, our words are the outcome of our faith;
But having the same spirit of faith, according to that which is written, "I believed, and therefore I spoke." We also believe, and therefore also we speak;
We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;
- 14 Because we are certain that he who made the Lord Jesus come back from the dead, will do the same for us, and will give us a place in his glory with you.
knowing that he who raised the Lord Jesus will raise us also with Jesus, and will present us with you.
Knowing, that he who raised the Lord Jesus, will raise us also by Jesus, and will present us with you.

15 For we go through all things on account of you, because the greater the number to whom the grace is given, the greater is the praise to the glory of God.
For all things are for your sakes, that the grace, being multiplied through the many, may cause the thanksgiving to abound to the glory of God.

For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace may, through the thanksgiving of many, redound to the glory of God.

16 For which cause we do not give way to weariness; but though our outer man is getting feeble, our inner man is made new day by day.
Therefore we don't faint, but though our outward man is decaying, yet our inward man is renewed day by day.

For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man is wasted, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.

17 For our present trouble, which is only for a short time, is working out for us a much greater weight of glory;

For our light affliction, which is for the moment, works for us more and more exceedingly an eternal weight of glory;

For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, worketh out for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;

18 While our minds are not on the things which are seen, but on the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are for a time; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

while we don't look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporal, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

1 For we are conscious that if this our tent of flesh is taken down, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in heaven.

For we know that if the earthly house of our tent is dissolved, we have a building from God, a house not made with hands, eternal, in the heavens.

For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

2 For in this we are crying in weariness, greatly desiring to be clothed with our house from heaven:

For most assuredly in this we groan, longing to be clothed with our habitation which is from heaven;

For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed with our house which is from heaven:

3 So that our spirits may not be unclothed.
if so be that being clothed we will not be found naked.
If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.

4 For truly, we who are in this tent do give out cries of weariness, for the weight of care which is on us; not because we are desiring to be free from the body, but so that we may have our new body, and death may be overcome by life.
For indeed we who are in this tent do groan, being burdened; not that we desire to be unclothed, but that we desire to be clothed, that what is mortal may be swallowed up by life.
For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not because we would be unclothed, but clothed, that mortality might be swallowed up in life.

5 Now he who has made us for this very thing is God, who has given us the Spirit as a witness of what is to come.
Now he who made us for this very thing is God, who also gave to us the down payment of the Spirit.
Now he that hath wrought us for this same thing is God, who also hath given to us the earnest of the Spirit.

6 So, then, we are ever without fear, and though conscious that while we are in the body we are away from the Lord,
Being therefore always of good courage, and knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord;
Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:

7 (For we are walking by faith, not by seeing,) for we walk by faith, not by sight.
(For we walk by faith, not by sight:)

8 We are without fear, desiring to be free from the body, and to be with the Lord.
We are of good courage, I say, and are willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be at home with the Lord.
We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.

9 For this reason we make it our purpose, in the body or away from it, to be well-pleasing to him.
Therefore also we make it our aim, whether at home or absent, to be well pleasing to him.
Wherefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted by him.

- 10 For we all have to come before Christ to be judged; so that every one of us may get his reward for the things done in the body, good or bad.
For we must all be revealed before the judgment seat of Christ; that each one may receive the things in the body, according to what he has done, whether good or bad.
For we must all appear before the judgment-seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he hath done, whether good or bad.
- 11 Having in mind, then, the fear of the Lord, we put these things before men, but God sees our hearts; and it is my hope that we may seem right in your eyes.
Knowing therefore the fear of the Lord, we persuade men, but we are revealed to God; and I hope that we are revealed also in your consciences.
Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
- 12 We are not again requesting your approval, but we are giving you the chance of taking pride in us, so that you may be able to give an answer to those whose glory is in seeming, and not in the heart.
For we are not commending ourselves to you again, but speak as giving you occasion of boasting on our behalf, that you may have something to answer those who boast in appearance, and not in heart.
For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that ye may have somewhat to answer them who glory in appearance, and not in heart.
- 13 For if we are foolish, it is to God; or if we are serious, it is for you.
For if we are beside ourselves, it is for God. Or if we are of sober mind, it is for you.
For whether we are beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we are sober, it is for your cause.
- 14 For it is the love of Christ which is moving us; because we are of the opinion that if one was put to death for all, then all have undergone death;
For the love of Christ constrains us; because we judge thus, that one died for all, therefore all died.
For the love of Christ constraineth us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:
- 15 And that he underwent death for all, so that the living might no longer be living to themselves, but to him who underwent death for them and came back from the dead.
He died for all, that those who live should no longer live to themselves, but to him who for their sakes died and rose again.
And that he died for all, that they who live should not henceforth live to themselves, but to him who died for them, and rose again.

16 For this reason, from this time forward we have knowledge of no man after the flesh: even if we have had knowledge of Christ after the flesh, we have no longer any such knowledge. Therefore we know no one after the flesh from now on. Even though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet now we know him so no more.

Wherefore henceforth we know no man according to the flesh: though indeed we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now henceforth we know him no more.

17 So if any man is in Christ, he is in a new world: the old things have come to an end; they have truly become new.

Therefore if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation. The old things have passed away. Behold, they have become new.

Therefore, if any man is in Christ, he is a new creature: old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new.

18 But all things are of God, who has made us at peace with himself through Christ, and has given to us the work of making peace;

But all things are of God, who reconciled us to himself through Jesus Christ, and gave to us the ministry of reconciliation;

And all things are from God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;

19 That is, that God was in Christ making peace between the world and himself, not putting their sins to their account, and having given to us the preaching of this news of peace.

namely, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to himself, not reckoning to them their trespasses, and having committed to us the word of reconciliation.

To wit, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and hath committed to us the word of reconciliation.

20 So we are the representatives of Christ, as if God was making a request to you through us: we make our request to you, in the name of Christ, be at peace with God.

We are therefore ambassadors on behalf of Christ, as though God were entreating by us. We beg you on behalf of Christ, be reconciled to God.

Now then we are ambassadors for Christ, as though God did beseech you by us: we pray you in Christ's stead, be ye reconciled to God.

21 For him who had no knowledge of sin God made to be sin for us; so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.

For him who knew no sin he made to be sin on our behalf; so that in him we might become the righteousness of God.

For he hath made him to be sin for us, who knew no sin; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

- 1 We then, working together with God, make our request to you not to take the grace of God to no purpose.
Working together, we entreat also that you not receive the grace of God in vain,
We then, as co-workers with him, beseech you also that ye receive not the grace of God in vain.
- 2 (For he says, I have given ear to you at a good time, and I have been your helper in a day of salvation: see, now is the good time; now is the day of salvation):
for he says, "At an acceptable time I listened to you, In a day of salvation I helped you." Behold, now is the acceptable time.
Behold, now is the day of salvation.
(For he saith, I have heard thee in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I succored thee: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)
- 3 Giving no cause for trouble in anything, so that no one may be able to say anything against our work;
We give no occasion of stumbling in anything, that our service may not be blamed,
Giving no offense in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:
- 4 But in everything making it clear that we are the servants of God, in quiet strength, in troubles, in need, in sorrow, but in everything commending ourselves, as servants of God, in great endurance, in afflictions, in hardships, in distresses,
But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,
- 5 In blows, in prisons, in attacks, in hard work, in watchings, in going without food;
in beatings, in imprisonments, in riots, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;
In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;
- 6 In a clean heart, in knowledge, in long waiting, in being kind, in the Holy Spirit, in true love, in pureness, in knowledge, in patience, in kindness, in the Holy Spirit, in sincere love,
By pureness, by knowledge, by long-suffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned,
- 7 In the true word, in the power of God; with the arms of righteousness on the right hand and on the left, in the word of truth, in the power of God; by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armor of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,

- 8 By glory and by shame, by an evil name and a good name; as untrue, and still true;
by glory and dishonor, by evil report and good report; as deceivers, and yet true;
By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;
- 9 Unnoted, but still kept fully in mind; as near to death, but still living; as undergoing punishment, but not put to death;
as unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as punished, and not killed;
As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;
- 10 As full of sorrow, but ever glad; as poor, but giving wealth to others; as having nothing, but still having all things.
as sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
- 11 Our mouth is open to you, O Corinthians, our heart is wide.
Our mouth is open to you, Corinthians. Our heart is enlarged.
O ye Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged.
- 12 It is not our feelings to you which are narrow, but yours to us.
You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted by your own affections.
Ye are not straitened in us, but ye are straitened in your own bowels.
- 13 Now to give me back payment of the same sort (I am talking as to my children), let your hearts be wide open to me.
Now in return, I speak as to my children, you also be enlarged.
Now for a recompense in the same (I speak as to my children,) be ye also enlarged.
- 14 Do not keep company with those who have not faith: for what is there in common between righteousness and evil, or between light and dark?
Don` t be unequally yoked with unbelievers, for what fellowship have righteousness and iniquity? Or what communion has light with darkness?
Be ye not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion hath light with darkness?

- 15 And what agreement is there between Christ and the Evil One? or what part has one who has faith with one who has not?
What agreement has Christ with Belial? Or what portion has a believer with an unbeliever?
And what concord hath Christ with Belial? or what part hath he that believeth with an infidel?
- 16 And what agreement has the house of God with images? for we are a house of the living God; even as God has said, I will be living among them, and walking with them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people.
What agreement has a temple of God with idols? For you are a temple of the living God. Even as God said, "I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they will be my people."
And what agreement hath the temple of God with idols? for ye are the temple of the living God; as God hath said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
- 17 For which cause, Come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and let no unclean thing come near you; and I will take you for myself, Therefore, "Come out from among them, And be separate," says the Lord, "Touch no unclean thing. I will receive you.
Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you;
- 18 And will be a Father to you; and you will be my sons and daughters, says the Lord, the Ruler of all.
I will be to you a Father. You will be to me sons and daughters," says the Lord Almighty."
And I will be a Father to you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.
- 1 Because God, then, will give us such rewards, dear brothers, let us make ourselves clean from all evil of flesh and spirit, and become completely holy in the fear of God.
Having therefore these promises, beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all defilement of flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
- 2 Let your hearts be open to us: we have done no man wrong, no man has been damaged by us, we have made no profit out of any man,
Open your hearts to us. We wronged no one. We corrupted no one. We took advantage of no one.
Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.

- 3 It is not with the purpose of judging you that I say this: for I have said before that you are in our hearts for life and death together.
I say this not to condemn you, for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die together and live together.
I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that ye are in our hearts to die and live with you.
- 4 My words to you are without fear, I am full of pride on account of you: I have great comfort and joy in all our troubles.
Great is my boldness of speech toward you. Great is my boasting on your behalf. I am filled with comfort. I overflow with joy in all our affliction.
Great is my boldness of speech towards you, great is my glorying concerning you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceeding joyful in all our tribulation.
- 5 For even when we had come into Macedonia our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; there were fightings outside and fears inside.
For even when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no relief, but we were afflicted on every side. Fightings were outside. Fear was inside.
For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; without were fightings, within were fears.
- 6 But God who gives comfort to the poor in spirit gave us comfort by the coming of Titus;
Nevertheless, he who comforts the lowly, God, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
Nevertheless God, that comforteth those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
- 7 And not by his coming only, but by the comfort which he had in you, while he gave us word of your desire, your sorrow, your care for me; so that I was still more glad.
and not by his coming only, but also by the comfort with which he was comforted in you, while he told us your longing, your mourning, and your zeal for me; so that I rejoiced still more.
And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind towards me; so that I rejoiced the more.
- 8 For though my letter gave you pain, I have no regret for it now, though I had before; for I see that the letter gave you pain, but only for a time.
For though I made you sorry with my letter, I do not regret it, though I did regret it. For I see that my letter made you sorry, though just for a while.
For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle hath made you sorry, though it was but for a season.

9 Now I am glad, not that you had sorrow, but that your sorrow was the cause of a change of heart; for yours was a holy sorrow so that you might undergo no loss by us in anything.
I now rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you were made sorry to repentance. For you were made sorry in a Godly way, that you might suffer loss by us in nothing.

Now I rejoice, not that ye were made sorry, but that ye sorrowed to repentance: for ye were made sorry after a godly manner, that ye might receive damage by us in nothing.

10 For the sorrow which God gives is the cause of salvation through a change of heart, in which there is no reason for grief: but the sorrow of the world is a cause of death.

For Godly sorrow works repentance to salvation, which brings no regret. But the sorrow of the world works death.

For godly sorrow worketh penitence to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world worketh death.

11 For you see what care was produced in you by this very sorrow of yours before God, what clearing of yourselves, what wrath against sin, what fear, what desire, what serious purpose, what punishment. In everything you have made it clear that you are free from sin in this business.

For behold, this same thing, that you were made sorry in a godly way, what earnest care it worked in you. Yes, what defense, indignation, fear, longing, zeal, and vengeance! In everything you demonstrated yourselves to be pure in the matter.

For behold this very thing, that ye sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yea, what clearing of yourselves, yea, what indignation, yea, what fear, yea, what vehement desire, yea, what zeal, yea, what avenging! In all things ye have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.

12 So though I sent you a letter, it was not only because of the man who did the wrong, or because of him to whom the wrong was done, but so that your true care for us might be made clear in the eyes of God.

So although I wrote to you, I wrote not for his cause that did the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered the wrong, but that your earnest care for us might be revealed in you in the sight of God.

Wherefore, though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.

13 So we have been comforted: and we had the greater joy in our comfort because of the joy of Titus, for his spirit had been made glad by you all.

Therefore we have been comforted. In our comfort we rejoiced the more exceedingly for the joy of Titus, because his spirit has been refreshed by you all.

Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: and exceedingly the more we rejoiced for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

14 For I was not put to shame in anything in which I may have made clear to him my pride in you; but as we said nothing to you but what was true, so the good things which I said to Titus about you were seen by him to be true.
For if in anything I have boasted to him on your behalf, I was not put to shame. But as we spoke all things to you in truth, so our glorying also which I made before Titus was found to be truth.
For if I have boasted any thing to him concerning you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.

15 And his love to you is the more increased by his memory of you all, how you gave way to his authority, and how you took him to your hearts with fear and honour.
His affection is more abundantly toward you, while he remembers all of your obedience, how with fear and trembling you received him.
And his tender affection is more abundant towards you, whilst he remembereth the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling ye received him.

16 It gives me great joy to see you answering to my good opinion of you in every way.
I rejoice that in everything I am of good courage concerning you.
I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

1 And now we give you news, brothers, about the grace of God which has been given to the churches of Macedonia;
Moreover, brothers, we make known to you the grace of God which has been given in the assemblies of Macedonia;
Moreover, brethren, we make known to you the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;

2 How while they were undergoing every sort of trouble, and were in the greatest need, they took all the greater joy in being able to give freely to the needs of others.
how that in much proof of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality.
That in a great trial of affliction, the abundance of their joy, and their deep poverty, abounded to the riches of their liberality.

3 For I give them witness, that as they were able, and even more than they were able, they gave from the impulse of their hearts,
For according to their power, I testify, yes and beyond their power, they gave of their own accord,
For to their power, I bear testimony, and even beyond their power, they were willing of themselves;

- 4 Seriously requesting us that they might have a part in this grace of being servants to the needs of the saints:
begging us with much entreaty in regard to this grace and the fellowship in the service to the saints.
Praying us with much entreaty, that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
- 5 And going even farther than our hope, they first gave themselves to the Lord and to us after the purpose of God.
This was not as we had hoped, but first they gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us through the will of God.
And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God:
- 6 So that we made a request to Titus that, as he had made a start before, so he might make this grace complete in you.
Insomuch that we exhorted Titus, that as he made a beginning before, so he would also complete in you this grace.
So that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
- 7 And that as you are full of every good thing, of faith, of the word, of knowledge, of a ready mind, and of love to us, so you may be full of this grace in the same way.
But as you abound in everything, in faith, utterance, knowledge, all earnestness, and in your love to us, see that you also abound in this grace.
Therefore, as ye abound in every thing, in faith and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that ye abound in this grace also.
- 8 I am not giving you an order, but using the ready mind of others as a test of the quality of your love.
I speak not by way of commandment, but as proving through the earnestness of others the sincerity also of your love.
I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.
- 9 For you see the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, how though he had wealth, he became poor on your account, so that through his need you might have wealth.
For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might become rich.
For ye know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that ye through his poverty might be rich.

10 And in this I give my opinion: for it is to your profit, who were the first to make a start a year before, not only to do this, but to make clear that your minds were more than ready to do it.
I give a judgment in this: for this is expedient for you, who were the first to start a year ago, not only to do, but also to be willing.
And in this I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.

11 Then make the doing of it complete; so that as you had a ready mind, you may give effect to it as you are able.
But now complete the doing also, that as there was the readiness to be willing, so there may be the completion also out of your ability.
Now therefore finish the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which ye have.

12 For if there is a ready mind, a man will have God's approval in the measure of what he has, and not of what he has not.
For if the readiness is there, it is acceptable according to what you have, not according to what you don't have.
For if there is first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man hath, and not according to what he hath not.

13 And I am not saying this so that others may get off free, while the weight comes on you:
For this is not that others may be eased and you distressed,
For I mean not that other men should be eased, and you burdened:

14 But so that things may be equal; that from those things of which you have more than enough at the present time their need may be helped, and that if you are in any need they may be a help to you in the same way, making things equal.
but for equality. Your abundance at this present time supplies their lack, that their abundance also may become a supply for your lack; that there may be equality.
But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:

15 As it says in the Writings, He who had taken up much had nothing over and he who had little had enough.
As it is written, "He who gathered much had nothing left over, and he who gathered little had no lack."
As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no want.

- 16 But praise be to God, who puts the same care for you into the heart of Titus.
But thanks be to God, who puts the same earnest care for you into the heart of Titus.
But thanks be to God, who put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
- 17 For while he gladly gave ear to our request, he was interested enough to go to you from the impulse of his heart.
For he indeed accepted our exhortation, but being himself very earnest, he went forth to you of his own accord.
For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went to you.
- 18 And with him we have sent a brother whose praise in the good news has gone through all the churches;
We have sent together with him the brother whose praise in the gospel is known through all the assemblies.
And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;
- 19 And not only so, but he was marked out by the churches to go with us in the grace of this giving which we have undertaken to the glory of the Lord and to make clear that our mind was ready:
Not only so, but who was also appointed by the assemblies to travel with us in this grace, which is served by us to the glory of the Lord himself, and to show our readiness.
And not that only, but who was also chosen by the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:
- 20 And so that no man might be able to say anything against us in the business of this giving which has been put into our hands:
We are avoiding this, that any man should blame us in concerning this bounty which is served by us.
Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:
- 21 For the business has been so ordered by us as to have the approval, not only of the Lord, but of men.
Having regard for honorable things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.

- 22 And we have sent with them our brother, whose ready spirit has been made clear to us at times and in ways without number, but it is now all the more so because of the certain faith which he has in you.
We have sent with them our brother, whom we have many times proved earnest in many things, but now much more earnest, by reason of the great confidence which he has in you.
And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have often proved to be diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.
- 23 If any question comes up about Titus, he is my brother-worker, working with me for you; or about the others, they are the representatives of the churches to the glory of Christ.
As for Titus, he is my partner and fellow worker toward you. As for our brothers, they are the messengers of the assemblies, the glory of Christ.
If any inquire concerning Titus, he is my partner and fellow-helper concerning you: or our brethren be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.
- 24 Make clear then to them, as representatives of the churches, the quality of your love, and that the things which we have said about you are true.
Therefore show the proof of your love to them in front of the assemblies, and of our boasting on your behalf.
Wherefore show ye to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.
- 1 But there is no need for me to say anything in my letter about the giving to the saints:
It is indeed unnecessary for me to write to you concerning the service to the saints,
For as concerning the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
- 2 For I have before made clear to those of Macedonia my pride in your ready mind, saying to them that Achaia has been ready for a year back; and a great number have been moved to do the same by your example.
for I know your readiness, of which I boast on your behalf to them of Macedonia, that Achaia has been prepared for a year past. Your zeal has stirred up very many of them.
For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal hath incited very many.
- 3 But I have sent the brothers, so that the good things we said about you may be seen to be true, and that, as I said, you may be ready:
But I have sent the brothers, that our glorying on your behalf may not be made void in this respect, that, even as I said, you may be prepared,
Yet have I sent the brethren, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, ye may be ready:

- 4 For fear that, if any from Macedonia come with me, and you are not ready, we (not to say, you) might be put to shame in this thing.
so that I won't by any means, if there come with me any of Macedonia and find you unprepared, we (to say nothing of you) should be put to shame in this confident boasting.
Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, ye) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
- 5 So it seemed to me wise for the brothers to go before, and see that the amount which you had undertaken to give was ready, so that it might be a cause for praise, and not as if we were making profit out of you.
I thought it necessary therefore to entreat the brothers that they would go before to you, and arrange ahead of time the generous gift that you promised before, that the same might be ready as a matter of generosity, and not of greediness.
Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brethren, that they would go before to you, and make up before hand your bounty, of which ye had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not of covetousness.
- 6 But in the Writings it says, He who puts in only a small number of seeds, will get in the same; and he who puts them in from a full hand, will have produce in full measure from them.
Remember this: he who sows sparingly will also reap sparingly. He who sows bountifully will also reap bountifully.
But this I say, He who soweth sparingly, shall reap also sparingly; and he who soweth bountifully, shall reap also bountifully.
- 7 Let every man do after the purpose of his heart; not giving with grief, or by force: for God takes pleasure in a ready giver.
Let each man give according as he has determined in his heart; not grudgingly, or under compulsion; for God loves a cheerful giver.
Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or by constraint: for God loveth a cheerful giver.
- 8 And God is able to give you all grace in full measure; so that ever having enough of all things, you may be full of every good work:
God is able to make all grace abound to you, that you, always having all sufficiency in everything, may abound to every good work.
And God is able to make all grace abound towards you; that ye always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:

- 9 As it is said in the Writings, He has sent out far and wide, he has given to the poor; his righteousness is for ever.
As it is written, "He has scattered abroad, he has given to the poor. His righteousness remains forever."
(As it is written, He hath dispersed; he hath given to the poor: his righteousness remaineth for ever.
- 10 And he who gives seed for putting into the field and bread for food, will take care of the growth of your seed, at the same time increasing the fruits of your righteousness;
Now may he who supplies seed to the sower and bread for food, supply and multiply your seed for sowing, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;
Now may he that ministereth seed to the sower, both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)
- 11 Your wealth being increased in everything, with a simple mind, causing praise to God through us.
you being enriched in everything to all liberality, which works through us thanksgiving to God.
Being enriched in every thing to all bountifulness, which causeth through us thanksgiving to God.
- 12 For this work of giving not only takes care of the needs of the saints, but is the cause of much praise to God;
For this service of giving that you perform not only makes up for lack among the saints, but abounds also through many givings of thanks to God;
For the administration of this service not only supplieth the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;
- 13 For when, through this work of giving, they see what you are, they give glory to God for the way in which you have given yourselves to the good news of Christ, and for the wealth of your giving to them and to all;
seeing that through the proof given by this service, they glorify God for the obedience of your confession to the gospel of Christ, and for the liberality of your contribution to them and to all;
While by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men;
- 14 While their hearts go out to you in love and in prayer for you, because of the great grace of God which is in you.
while they themselves also, with supplication on your behalf, yearn for you by reason of the exceeding grace of God in you.
And by their prayer for you, who long after you, for the exceeding grace of God in you.

15 Praise be to God for what he has given, which words have no power to say.

Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift!

Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

1 Now I, Paul, myself make request to you by the quiet and gentle behaviour of Christ, I who am poor in spirit when with you, but who say what is in my mind to you without fear when I am away from you:

Now I Paul, myself, entreat you by the humility and gentleness of Christ; I who in your presence am lowly among you, but being absent am of good courage toward you.

Now I Paul myself beseech you, by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold towards you:

2 Yes, I make my request to you, so that when I am with you I may not have to make use of the authority which may be needed against some to whom we seem to be walking after the flesh.

Yes, I beg you, that I may not, when present, show courage with the confidence with which I count to be bold against some, who count of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, who think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.

3 For though we may be living in the flesh, we are not fighting after the way of the flesh

For though we walk in the flesh, we don't wage war according to the flesh;

For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war according to the flesh:

4 (For the arms with which we are fighting are not those of the flesh, but are strong before God for the destruction of high places); for the weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh, but mighty before God to the throwing down of strongholds,

(For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds;)

5 Putting an end to reasonings, and every high thing which is lifted up against the knowledge of God, and causing every thought to come under the authority of Christ;

throwing down imaginations and every high thing that is exalted against the knowledge of God, and bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Christ;

Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;

- 6 Being ready to give punishment to whatever is against his authority, after you have made it clear that you are completely under his control.
and being in readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience will be made full.
And having in a readiness to avenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.
- 7 Give attention to the things which are before you. If any man seems to himself to be Christ's, let him keep in mind that we are as much Christ's as he is.
Do you look at things only as they appear in front of your face? If anyone trusts in himself that he is Christ's, let him consider this again with himself, that, even as he is Christ's, so also we are Christ's.
Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trusteth to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
- 8 For though I might take pride in our authority (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for your destruction), it will not be a cause of shame to me:
For though I should boast somewhat abundantly concerning our authority, (which the Lord gave for building you up, and not for casting you down) I will not be put to shame,
For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord hath given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
- 9 That I may not seem to have the desire of causing you fear by my letters.
that I may not seem as if I desire to terrify you by my letters.
That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
- 10 For his letters, they say, have weight and are strong; but in body he is feeble, and his way of talking has little force.
For, "His letters," they say, "are weighty and strong, but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech is despised."
For his letters (say they) are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
- 11 Let those who say this keep in mind that, what we are in word by letters when we are away, so will we be in act when we are present.
Let such a person consider this, that what we are in word by letters when we are absent, such are we also in deed when we are present.
Let such one think this, that such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.

- 12 For we will not make comparison of ourselves with some of those who say good things about themselves: but these, measuring themselves by themselves, and making comparison of themselves with themselves, are not wise.
For we are not bold to number or compare ourselves with some of those who commend themselves. But they themselves, measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves with themselves, are without understanding.
For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
- 13 We will not give glory to ourselves in over-great measure, but after the measure of the rule which God has given us, a measure which comes even to you.
But we will not boast beyond proper limits, but within the boundaries with which God appointed to us, which reach even to you.
But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God hath distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you.
- 14 For we have no need to make ourselves seem more than we are, as if our authority did not come as far as to you: for we came even as far as you with the good news of Christ:
For we don't stretch ourselves too much, as though we didn't reach to you. For we came even as far as to you in the gospel of Christ,
For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not to you; for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:
- 15 Not taking credit to ourselves for what is not our business, that is, for the work of others; but having hope that, with the growth of your faith, we may get the credit for an increase which is the effect of our work, not boasting beyond proper limits in other men's labors, but having hope that as your faith grows, we will be magnified in you according to our boundaries to abundance,
Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you, according to our rule abundantly,
- 16 So that we may be able to go on and take the good news to countries still farther away than you are, and not take credit for another man's work in making things ready to our hand.
so as to preach the gospel even to the parts beyond you, not to boast in what someone else has already done.
To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
- 17 But whoever has a desire for glory, let his glory be in the Lord.
But "he who boasts, let him boast in the Lord."
But he that glorieth, let him glory in the Lord.

- 18 For the Lord's approval of a man is not dependent on his opinion of himself, but on the Lord's opinion of him.
For it isn't he who commends himself who is approved, but whom the Lord commends.
For not he that commendeth himself is approved, but whom the Lord commendeth.
- 1 Put up with me if I am a little foolish: but, truly, you do put up with me.
I wish that you would bear with me in a little foolishness, but indeed you do bear with me.
I earnestly wish ye could bear with me a little in my folly: and indeed bear with me.
- 2 For I have a very great care for you: because you have been married by me to one husband, and it is my desire to give you completely holy to Christ.
For I am jealous over you with a godly jealousy. For I married you to one husband, that I might present you as a pure virgin to Christ.
For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
- 3 But I have a fear, that in some way, as Eve was tricked by the deceit of the snake, your minds may be turned away from their simple and holy love for Christ.
But I am afraid that by any means, as the serpent deceived Eve in his craftiness, your minds might be corrupted from the simplicity that is toward Christ.
But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his subtilty, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
- 4 For if anyone comes preaching another Jesus from the one whose preachers we are, or if you have got a different spirit, or a different sort of good news from those which came to you, how well you put up with these things.
For if he who comes preaches another Jesus, whom we did not preach, or if you receive a different spirit, which you did not receive, or a different gospel, which you did not accept, you put up with that well enough.
For if he that cometh preacheth another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if ye receive another spirit, which ye have not received, or another gospel, which ye have not accepted, ye might well bear with him.
- 5 For in my opinion, I am in no way less than the most important of the Apostles.
For I reckon that I am not at all behind the very best apostles.
For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very greatest apostles.

6 But though I am rough in my way of talking, I am not so in knowledge, as we have made clear to all by our acts among you.
But though I am unskilled in speech, yet I am not unskilled in knowledge. No, in every way we have been revealed to you in all things.

But though I am rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.

7 Or did I do wrong in making myself low so that you might be lifted up, because I gave you the good news of God without reward?
Or did I commit a sin in humbling myself that you might be exalted, because I preached to you God's gospel for nothing?
Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that ye might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God without reward?

8 I took money from other churches as payment for my work, so that I might be your servant;
I robbed other assemblies, taking wages from them that I might serve you.
I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.

9 And when I was present with you, and was in need, I let no man be responsible for me; for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, gave me whatever was needed; and in everything I kept myself from being a trouble to you, and I will go on doing so.
When I was present with you and was in need, I wasn't a burden on anyone, for the brothers, when they came from Macedonia, supplied the measure of my need. In everything I kept myself from being burdensome to you, and I will continue to do so.
And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brethren who came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself.

10 As the true word of Christ is in me, I will let no man take from me this my cause of pride in the country of Achaia.
As the truth of Christ is in me, no one will stop me from this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.

11 Why? because I have no love for you? let God be judge.
Why? Because I don't love you? God knows.
Why? because I love you not? God knoweth.

- 12 But what I do, that I will go on doing, so that I may give no chance to those who are looking for one; so that, in the cause of their pride, they may be seen to be the same as we are.
But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them that desire an occasion, that in which they boast, they may be found even as we.
But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from them who desire occasion; that in what they glory, they may be found even as we.
- 13 For such men are false Apostles, workers of deceit, making themselves seem like Apostles of Christ.
For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, masquerading as Christ`s apostles.
For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
- 14 And it is no wonder; for even Satan himself is able to take the form of an angel of light.
No wonder, for even Satan masquerades as an angel of light.
And no wonder; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
- 15 So it is no great thing if his servants make themselves seem to be servants of righteousness; whose end will be the reward of their works.
It is no great thing therefore if his ministers also masquerade as servants of righteousness, whose end will be according to their works.
Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also are transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.
- 16 I say again, Let me not seem foolish to anyone; but if I do, put up with me as such, so that I may take a little glory to myself.
I say again, let no one think me foolish. But if so, yet receive me as foolish, that I also may boast a little.
I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
- 17 What I am now saying is not by the order of the Lord, but as a foolish person, taking credit to myself, as it seems.
That which I speak, I don`t speak after the Lord, but as in foolishness, in this confidence of boasting.
That which I speak, I speak it not according to the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
- 18 Seeing that there are those who take credit to themselves after the flesh, I will do the same.
Seeing that many boast after the flesh, I will also boast.
Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.

- 19 For you put up with the foolish gladly, being wise yourselves.
For you bear with the foolish gladly, being wise.
For ye suffer fools gladly, seeing ye yourselves are wise.
- 20 You put up with a man if he makes servants of you, if he makes profit out of you, if he makes you prisoners, if he puts himself in a high place, if he gives you blows on the face.
For you bear with a man, if he brings you into bondage, if he devours you, if he takes you captive, if he exalts himself, if he strikes you on the face.
For ye suffer, if a man bringeth you into bondage, if a man devoureth you, if a man taketh from you, if a man exalteth himself, if a man smiteth you on the face.
- 21 I say this by way of shaming ourselves, as if we had been feeble. But if anyone puts himself forward (I am talking like a foolish person), I will do the same.
I speak by way of disparagement, as though we had been weak. Yet however any is bold (I speak in foolishness), I am bold also.
I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. But in whatever respect any is bold, (I speak foolishly) I am bold also.
- 22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they of Israel? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
Are they Hebrews? So am I. Are they Israelites? So am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? So am I.
Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the offspring of Abraham? so am I.
- 23 Are they servants of Christ? (I am talking foolishly) I am more so; I have had more experience of hard work, of prisons, of blows more than measure, of death.
Are they servants of Christ? (I speak as one beside himself) I am more so; in labors more abundantly, in prisons more abundantly, in stripes above measure, in deaths often.
Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.
- 24 Five times the Jews gave me forty blows but one.
Five times from the Jews I received forty stripes minus one.
From the Jews five times I received forty stripes save one.

- 25 Three times I was whipped with rods, once I was stoned, three times the ship I was in came to destruction at sea, a night and a day I have been in the water;
Three times I was beaten with rods. Once I was stoned. Three times I suffered shipwreck. I have been a night and a day in the deep.
Thrice was I beaten with rods, once I was stoned, thrice I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
- 26 In frequent travels, in dangers on rivers, in dangers from outlaws, in dangers from my countrymen, in dangers from the Gentiles, in dangers in the town, in dangers in the waste land, in dangers at sea, in dangers among false brothers;
I have been in travels often, perils of rivers, perils of robbers, perils from my countrymen, perils from the Gentiles, perils in the city, perils in the wilderness, perils in the sea, perils among false brothers;
In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brethren;
- 27 In hard work and weariness, in frequent watchings, going without food and drink, cold and in need of clothing.
labor and travail, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, and in cold and nakedness.
In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
- 28 In addition to all the other things, there is that which comes on me every day, the care of all the churches.
Besides those things that are outside, there is that which presses on me daily, anxiety for all the assemblies.
Besides those things that are without, that which cometh upon me daily, the care of all the churches.
- 29 Who is feeble and I am not feeble? who is in danger of falling, and I am not angry?
Who is weak, and I am not weak? Who is caused to stumble, and I don't burn?
Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is made to fall into sin, and I burn not?
- 30 If I have to take credit to myself, I will do so in the things in which I am feeble.
If I must boast, I will boast of the things that concern my weakness.
If I must needs glory, I will glory of the things which concern my infirmities.

- 31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, to whom be praise for ever, is witness that the things which I say are true.
The God and Father of the Lord Jesus, he who is blessed forevermore, knows that I don't lie.
The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who is blessed for evermore, knoweth that I lie not.
- 32 In Damascus, the ruler under Aretas the king kept watch over the town of the people of Damascus, in order to take me:
In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king guarded the city of the Damascenes in order to take me.
In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:
- 33 And being let down in a basket from the wall through a window, I got free from his hands.
Through a window I was let down in a basket by the wall, and escaped his hands.
And through a window in a basket I was let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.
- 1 As it is necessary for me to take glory to myself, though it is not a good thing, I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
It is doubtless not profitable for me to boast. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
- 2 I have knowledge of a man in Christ, fourteen years back (if he was in the body, or out of the body, I am not able to say, but God only), who was taken up to the third heaven.
I know a man in Christ, fourteen years ago (whether in the body, I don't know, or whether out of the body, I don't know; God knows), such a one caught up into the third heaven.
I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such one caught up to the third heaven.
- 3 And I have knowledge of such a man (if he was in the body, or out of the body, I am not able to say, but God only),
I know such a man (whether in the body, or apart from the body, I don't know; God knows),
And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knoweth;)
- 4 How he was taken up into Paradise, and words came to his ears which may not be said, and which man is not able to say.
how he was caught up into Paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
That he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.

- 5 On account of such a one I will have glory: for myself I will take no glory, but only in my feeble body.
On behalf of such a one I will boast, but on my own behalf I will not boast, except in my weaknesses.
Of such one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in my infirmities.
- 6 For if I had a desire to take credit to myself, it would not be foolish, for I would be saying what is true: but I will not, for fear that I might seem to any man more than he sees me to be, or has word from me that I am.
For if I would desire to boast, I will not be foolish; for I will speak the truth. But I forbear, so that no man may account of me above that which he sees in me, or hears from me.
For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I forbear, lest any man should think of me above that which he seeth me to be, or what he heareth from me.
- 7 And because the revelations were so very great, in order that I might not be overmuch lifted up, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, one sent from Satan to give me pain.
By reason of the exceeding greatness of the revelations, that I should not be exalted excessively, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, a messenger of Satan to buffet me, that I should not be exalted excessively.
And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
- 8 And about this thing I made request to the Lord three times that it might be taken away from me.
Concerning this thing, I begged the Lord three times that it might depart from me.
For this thing I besought the Lord thrice, that it might depart from me.
- 9 And he said to me, My grace is enough for you, for my power is made complete in what is feeble. Most gladly, then, will I take pride in my feeble body, so that the power of Christ may be on me.
He has said to me, "My grace is sufficient for you, for my power is made perfect in weakness." Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my weaknesses, that the power of Christ may rest on me.
And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
- 10 So I take pleasure in being feeble, in unkind words, in needs, in cruel attacks, in troubles, on account of Christ: for when I am feeble, then am I strong.
Therefore I take pleasure in weaknesses, in injuries, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ's sake. For when I am weak, then am I strong.
Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

- 11 I have been forced by you to become foolish, though it was right for my praise to have come from you: for in no way was I less than the chief of the Apostles, though I am nothing.
I have become foolish. You compelled me, for I ought to have been commended by you, for in nothing was I behind the very best apostles, though I am nothing.
I am become a fool in glorying; ye have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended by you: for in nothing am I behind the very greatest apostles, though I am nothing.
- 12 Truly the signs of an Apostle were done among you in quiet strength, with wonders and acts of power.
Truly the signs of an apostle were worked among you in all patience, by signs and wonders and mighty works.
Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.
- 13 For what is there in which you were made less than the other churches, but in the one thing that I was not a trouble to you? Let me have forgiveness for this wrong.
For what is there in which you were made inferior to the rest of the assemblies, unless it is that I myself was not a burden to you? Forgive me this wrong.
For what is that in which ye were inferior to other churches, except that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.
- 14 This is now the third time that I am ready to come to you; and I will not be a trouble to you: my desire is for you, not for your property: for it is not the children's business to make store for their fathers, but the fathers for the children.
Behold, this is the third time I am ready to come to you, and I will not be a burden to you; for I seek not your possessions, but you. For the children ought not to save up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours, but you. For the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
- 15 And I will gladly give all I have for your souls. If I have the more love for you, am I to be loved the less?
I will most gladly spend and be spent for your souls. If I love you more abundantly, am I loved the less?
And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I am loved.
- 16 But let it be so, that I was not a trouble to you myself; but (someone may say) being false, I took you with deceit.
But be it so, I did not myself burden you. But, being crafty, I caught you with deception.
But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.

- 17 Did I make a profit out of you by any of those whom I sent to you?
Did I take advantage of you by anyone of them whom I have sent to you?
Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you?
- 18 I gave orders to Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus make any profit out of you? were we not guided by the same Spirit, in the same ways?
I exhorted Titus, and I sent the brother with him. Did Titus take any advantage of you? Didn't we walk in the same spirit? Didn't we walk in the same steps?
I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?
- 19 It may seem to you that all this time we have been attempting to put ourselves in the right; but we are saying these things before God in Christ. For all things, dear brothers, are for your profit.
Again, do you think that we are excusing ourselves to you? In the sight of God we speak in Christ. But all things, beloved, are for your edifying.
Again, think ye that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edification.
- 20 For I have a fear that, when I come, you may not be answering to my desire, and that I may not be answering to yours; that there may be fighting, hate, angry feeling, divisions, evil talk about others, secrets, thoughts of pride, outbursts against authority;
For I am afraid that by any means, when I come, I might find you not the way I want to, and that I might be found by you as you don't desire; that by any means there would be strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, factions, slander, whisperings, proud thoughts, riots;
For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found by you such as ye would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:
- 21 And that when I come again, my God may put me to shame among you, and I may have grief for those who have done wrong before and have had no regret for their unclean ways, and for the evil desires of the flesh to which they have given way.
that again when I come my God would humble me before you, and I would mourn for many of those who have sinned before now, and not repented of the uncleanness and sexual immorality and lustfulness which they committed.
And lest, when I come again, my God may humble me among you, and I shall bewail many who have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness, and lewdness, and lasciviousness, which they have committed.

- 1 This is the third time that I am coming to you. From the mouth of two or three witnesses will every word be made certain.
This is the third time I am coming to you. "At the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word established."
This is the third time I am coming to you: By the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.
- 2 I said before, and still say it before I come, as being present for the second time, though I am still away from you, to those who have done wrong before, and to all the others, that if I come again I will not have pity;
I have said beforehand, and I do say beforehand, as when I was present the second time, so now, being absent, I write to those who have sinned before now, and to all the rest, that, if I come again, I will not spare;
I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to them who heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare;
- 3 Seeing that you are looking for a sign of Christ giving out his word in me; who is not feeble in relation to you, but is strong in you:
seeing that you seek a proof of Christ that speaks in me; who toward you is not weak, but is powerful in you.
Since ye seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, who toward you is not weak, but is mighty in you.
- 4 For he was feeble in that he was put to death on the cross, but he is living by the power of God. And we are feeble in him, but we will be living with him through the power of God in relation to you.
For he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives through the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we will live with him through the power of God toward you.
For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he liveth by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God towards you.
- 5 Make a test of yourselves, if you are in the faith; make certain of yourselves. Or are you not conscious in yourselves that Jesus Christ is in you, if you are truly Christ's?
Test your own selves, whether you are in the faith. Test your own selves. Or don't you know as to your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you? Unless indeed you are reprobate.
Examine yourselves, whether ye are in the faith; prove your own selves. Know ye not your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you, except ye are reprobates?
- 6 But it is my hope that you will have no doubt that we are truly Christ's.
But I hope that you will know that we aren't reprobate.
But I trust that ye will know that we are not reprobates.

- 7 Now our prayer to God is that you may do no evil; not in order that it may be put to our credit, but so that you may do what is right, whatever we may seem.
Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we may appear approved, but that you may do that which is honorable, though we are as reprobate.
Now I pray to God that ye do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that ye should do that which is honest, though we should be as reprobates.
- 8 Because we are able to do nothing against what is true, but only for it.
For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
- 9 For we are glad when we are feeble and you are strong: and this is our prayer, even that you may be made complete.
For we rejoice when we are weak and you are strong. This we also pray for, even your perfecting.
For we are glad, when we are weak, and ye are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.
- 10 For this cause I am writing these things while I am away, so that there may be need for me, when I am present, to make use of sharp measures, by the authority which the Lord has given me for building up and not for destruction.
For this cause I write these things while absent, that I may not deal sharply when present, according to the authority which the Lord gave me for building up, and not for tearing down.
Therefore I write these things being absent, lest being present I should use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord hath given me to edification, and not to destruction.
- 11 Let this be my last word, brothers; be glad; be complete; be comforted; be of the same mind; be at peace with one another: and the God of love and peace will be with you.
Finally, brothers, rejoice. Be perfected, be comforted, be of the same mind, live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.
Finally, brethren, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace will be with you.

- 1 Paul, an Apostle (not from men, and not through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who made him come back from the dead),
Paul, an apostle (not from men, neither through man, but through Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead),
Paul, an apostle, (not from men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)
- 2 And all the brothers who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:
and all the brothers who are with me, to the assemblies of Galatia:
And all the brethren who are with me, to the churches of Galatia:
- 3 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and our Lord Jesus Christ,
Grace to you and peace from God the Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ,
Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,

4 Who gave himself for our sins, so that he might make us free from this present evil world, after the purpose of our God and Father:
who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us out of this present evil age, according to the will of our God and Father --
Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:

5 To whom be the glory for ever and ever. So be it.
to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.
To whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

6 I am surprised that you are being so quickly turned away from him whose word came to you in the grace of Christ, to good news of a different sort;
I marvel that you are so quickly deserting him who called you in the grace of Christ to a different gospel;
I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ, to another gospel:

7 Which is not another sort: only there are some who give you trouble, desiring to make changes in the good news of Christ.
and there isn't another gospel. Only there are some who trouble you, and want to pervert the gospel of Christ.
Which is not another; but there are some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.

8 But even if we, or an angel from heaven, were to be a preacher to you of good news other than that which we have given you, let there be a curse on him.
But even though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach to you any gospel other than that which we preached to you, let him be cursed.
But though we, or an angel from heaven, should preach any other gospel to you than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed.

9 As we have said before, so say I now again, If any man is a preacher to you of any good news other than that which has been given to you, let there be a curse on him.
As we have said before, so I now say again: if any man preaches to you any gospel other than that which you received, let him be cursed.
As we said before, so I say now again, If any man preacheth any other gospel to you than that ye have received, let him be accursed.

- 10 Am I now using arguments to men, or God? or is it my desire to give men pleasure? if I was still pleasing men, I would not be a servant of Christ.
For am I now seeking the favor of men, or of God? Or am I striving to please men? For if I were still pleasing men, I wouldn't be a servant of Christ.
For do I now persuade men, or God? or do I seek to please men? for if I yet pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.
- 11 Because I say to you, my brothers, that the good news of which I was the preacher is not man's.
But I make known to you, brothers, concerning the gospel which was preached by me, that it is not according to man.
But I certify you, brethren, that the gospel which was preached by me is not according to man.
- 12 For I did not get it from man, and I was not given teaching in it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.
For neither did I receive it from man, nor was I taught it, but it came to me through revelation of Jesus Christ.
For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
- 13 For news has come to you of my way of life in the past in the Jews' religion, how I was cruel without measure to the church of God, and did great damage to it:
For you have heard of my way of living in time past in the Jews' religion, how that beyond measure I persecuted the assembly of God, and ravaged it.
For ye have heard of my manner of life in time past in the Jews' religion, that beyond measure I persecuted the church of God, and wasted it;
- 14 And I went farther in the Jews' religion than a number of my generation among my countrymen, having a more burning interest in the beliefs handed down from my fathers.
I advanced in the Jews' religion beyond many of my own age among my countrymen, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.
And profited in the Jews' religion above many my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous of the traditions of my fathers.
- 15 But when it was the good pleasure of God, by whom I was marked out even from my mother's body, through his grace,
But when it was the good pleasure of God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me through his grace,
But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,

16 To give the revelation of his Son in me, so that I might give the news of him to the Gentiles; then I did not take the opinion of flesh and blood, to reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles, I didn't immediately confer with flesh and blood,
To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the heathen; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:

17 And I went not up to Jerusalem to those who were Apostles before me; but I went away into Arabia, and again I came back to Damascus. nor did I go up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me, but I went away into Arabia. Then I returned to Damascus.
Neither did I go to Jerusalem to them who were apostles before me: but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.

18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Cephas, and was there with him fifteen days.
Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to visit Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days.
Then after three years I went to Jerusalem to see Peter, and abode with him fifteen days.

19 But of the other Apostles I saw only James, the Lord's brother.
But of the other apostles I saw no one, except James, the Lord's brother.
But I saw no other of the apostles, save James the Lord's brother.

20 Now God is witness that the things which I am writing to you are true.
Now about the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I'm not lying.
Now the things which I write to you, behold, before God, I lie not.

21 Then I came to the parts of Syria and Cilicia.
Then I came to the regions of Syria and Cilicia.
Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;

22 And the churches of Judaea which were in Christ still had no knowledge of my face or person:
I was still unknown by face to the assemblies of Judea which were in Christ,
And was unknown by face to the churches of Judea which were in Christ:

- 23 Only it came to their ears that he who at one time was cruel to us is now preaching the faith which before had been attacked by him;
but they only heard: "He who once persecuted us now preaches the faith that he once tried to destroy."
But they had heard only, That he who persecuted us in times past, now preacheth the faith which once he destroyed.
- 24 And they gave glory to God in me.
They glorified God in me.
And they glorified God in me.
- 1 Then after the space of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus with me.
Then after a period of fourteen years I went up again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, taking Titus also with me.
Then fourteen years after I went again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
- 2 And I went up by revelation; and I put before them the good news which I was preaching among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were of good name, so that the work which I was or had been doing might not be without effect.
I went up by revelation, and I laid before them the gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately before those who were respected, for fear that I might be running, or had run, in vain.
And I went by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to them who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run in vain.
- 3 But not even Titus who was with me, being a Greek, was made to undergo circumcision:
But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised.
But neither Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
- 4 And that because of the false brothers let in secretly, who came searching out our free condition which we have in Christ Jesus, so that they might make servants of us;
This was because of the false brothers secretly brought in, who stole in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage;
And that because of false brethren unawares brought in, who came in privately to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

- 5 To whom we gave way not even for an hour; so that the true words of the good news might still be with you.
to whom we gave no place in the way of subjection, not for an hour, that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
To whom we gave place by subjection, no, not for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
- 6 But from those who seemed to be important (whatever they were has no weight with me: God does not take man's person into account): those who seemed to be important gave nothing new to me;
But from those who were reputed to be important (whatever they were, it makes no difference to me; God doesn't show partiality to man) -- they, I say, who were respected imparted nothing to me,
But of these, who seemed to be somewhat, (whatever they were, it maketh no matter to me: God accepteth no man's person:) for they who seemed to be somewhat, in conference added nothing to me:
- 7 But, quite the opposite, when they saw that I had been made responsible for preaching the good news to those without circumcision, even as Peter had been for those of the circumcision but to the contrary, when they saw that I had been entrusted with the gospel for the uncircumcision, even as Peter with the gospel for the circumcision
But on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel of the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the gospel of the circumcision was to Peter;
- 8 (Because he who was working in Peter as the Apostle of the circumcision was working no less in me among the Gentiles);
(for he who appointed Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision appointed me also to the Gentiles);
(For he that wrought effectually in Peter to the apostleship of the circumcision, the same was mighty in me towards the Gentiles:)
- 9 When they saw the grace which was given to me, James and Cephas and John, who had the name of being pillars, gave to me and Barnabas their right hands as friends so that we might go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision; and when they perceived the grace that was given to me, James and Cephas and John, they who were reputed to be pillars, gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship, that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision.
And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hands of fellowship; that we should go to the heathen, and they to the circumcision.
- 10 Only it was their desire that we would give thought to the poor; which very thing I had much in mind to do.
They only asked us to remember the poor -- which very thing I was also zealous to do.
Only they would that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was forward to do.

- 11 But when Cephas came to Antioch, I made a protest against him to his face, because he was clearly in the wrong.
But when Peter came to Antioch, I resisted him to the face, because he stood condemned.
But when Peter had come to Antioch, I withstood him to the face, because he was to be blamed.
- 12 For before certain men came from James, he did take food with the Gentiles: but when they came, he went back and made himself separate, fearing those who were of the circumcision.
For before some people came from James, he ate with the Gentiles. But when they came, he drew back and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.
For before that certain came from James, he used to eat with the Gentiles: but when they had come, he withdrew, and separated himself, fearing them who were of the circumcision.
- 13 And the rest of the Jews went after him, so that even Barnabas was overcome by their false ways.
The rest of the Jews joined him in his hypocrisy; so much that even Barnabas was carried away with their hypocrisy.
And the other Jews dissembled likewise with him; so that Barnabas also was carried away with their dissimulation.
- 14 But when I saw that they were not living uprightly in agreement with the true words of the good news, I said to Cephas before them all, If you, being a Jew, are living like the Gentiles, and not like the Jews, how will you make the Gentiles do the same as the Jews?
But when I saw that they didn't walk uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, "If you, being a Jew, live as the Gentiles do, and not as the Jews do, why do you compel the Gentiles to live as the Jews do?
But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, If thou, being a Jew, livest after the manner of Gentiles, and not as do the Jews, why compellest thou the Gentiles to live as do the Jews?
- 15 We being Jews by birth, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
"We, being Jews by nature, and not Gentile sinners,
We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,

- 16 Being conscious that a man does not get righteousness by the works of the law, but through faith in Jesus Christ, we had faith in Christ Jesus, so that we might get righteousness by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law: because by the works of the law will no flesh get righteousness.
yet knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law but through the faith of Jesus Christ, even we believed in Christ Jesus, that we might be justified by faith in Christ, and not by the works of the law, because no flesh will be justified by the works of the law.
Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we may be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
- 17 But if, while we were desiring to get righteousness through Christ, we ourselves were seen to be sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? In no way!
But if, while we sought to be justified in Christ, we ourselves also were found sinners, is Christ a servant of sin? God forbid!
But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? By no means.
- 18 For if I put up again those things which I gave to destruction, I am seen to be a wrongdoer.
For if I build up again those things which I destroyed, I prove myself a law-breaker.
For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
- 19 For I, through the law, have become dead to the law, so that I might be living to God.
For I, through the law, died to the law, that I might live to God.
For I through the law am dead to the law, that I may live to God.
- 20 I have been put to death on the cross with Christ; still I am living; no longer I, but Christ is living in me; and that life which I now am living in the flesh I am living by faith, the faith of the Son of God, who in love for me, gave himself up for me.
I have been crucified with Christ, and it is no longer I that live, but Christ living in me. That life which I now live in the flesh, I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself up for me.
I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless, I live; yet not I, but Christ liveth in me: and the life which I now live in the flesh, I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
- 21 I do not make the grace of God of no effect: because if righteousness is through the law, then Christ was put to death for nothing.
I don't make void the grace of God. For if righteousness is through the law, then Christ died for nothing!"
I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness is attainable by the law, then Christ hath died in vain.

1 O foolish Galatians, by what strange powers have you been tricked, to whom it was made clear that Jesus Christ was put to death on the cross?
Foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you not to obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ was openly set forth among you as crucified?

O foolish Galatians, who hath bewitched you, that ye should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ hath been evidently set forth, crucified among you?

2 Give me an answer to this one question, Did the Spirit come to you through the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

I just want to learn this from you. Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?

This only would I learn from you, Received ye the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

3 Are you so foolish? having made a start in the Spirit, will you now be made complete in the flesh?

Are you so foolish? Having begun in the Spirit, are you now completed in the flesh?

Are ye so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are ye now made perfect by the flesh?

4 Did you undergo such a number of things to no purpose? if it is in fact to no purpose.

Did you suffer so many things in vain, if it is indeed in vain?

Have ye suffered so many things in vain? if it is yet in vain.

5 He who gives you the Spirit, and does works of power among you, is it by the works of law, or by the hearing of faith?

He therefore that supplies the Spirit to you, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by hearing of faith?

He therefore that ministereth to you the Spirit, and worketh miracles among you, doeth he this by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?

6 Even as Abraham had faith in God, and it was put to his account as righteousness.

Even as Abraham "believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness."

Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.

7 Be certain, then, that those who are of faith, the same are sons of Abraham.

Know therefore that those who are of faith, the same are sons of Abraham.

Know ye therefore, that they who are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.

8 And the holy Writings, seeing before the event that God would give the Gentiles righteousness by faith, gave the good news before to Abraham, saying, In you will all the nations have a blessing.
The scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the Gentiles by faith, preached the gospel beforehand to Abraham, saying, "In you will all the nations be blessed."

And the scripture foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel to Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.

9 So then those who are of faith have a part in the blessing of Abraham who was full of faith.

So then, those who are of faith are blessed with the faithful Abraham.

So then they who are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

10 For all who are of the works of the law are under a curse: because it is said in the Writings, A curse is on everyone who does not keep on doing all the things which are ordered in the book of the law.

For as many as are of the works of the law are under a curse. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who doesn't continue in all things that are written in the book of the law, to do them."

For as many as are of the works of the law, are under the curse: for it is written, Accursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.

11 Now that no man gets righteousness by the law in the eyes of God, is clear; because, The upright will be living by faith.

Now that no man is justified by the law before God is evident, for, "The righteous will live by faith."

But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

12 And the law is not of faith; but, He who does them will have life by them.

The law is not of faith, but, "He that does them will live in them."

And the law is not of faith: but, The man that doeth them shall live by them.

13 Christ has made us free from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us: because it is said in the Writings, A curse on everyone who is put to death by hanging on a tree:

Christ redeemed us from the curse of the law, having become a curse for us. For it is written, "Cursed is everyone who hangs on a tree,"

Christ hath redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, Accursed is every one that hangeth on a tree:

- 14 So that on the Gentiles might come the blessing of Abraham in Christ Jesus; in order that we through faith might have the Spirit which God had undertaken to give.
that the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Christ Jesus; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
- 15 Brothers, as men would say, even a man's agreement, when it has been made certain, may not be put on one side, or have additions made to it.
Brothers, I speak like men. Though it is only a man's covenant, yet when it has been confirmed, no one makes it void, or adds to it.
Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it is but a man's covenant, yet if it is confirmed, no man disannulleth or addeth to it.
- 16 Now to Abraham were the undertakings given, and to his seed. He says not, And to seeds, as of a great number; but as of one, he says, And to your seed, which is Christ.
Now the promises were spoken to Abraham and to his seed. He doesn't say, "To seeds," as of many, but as of one, "To your seed," which is Christ.
Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
- 17 Now this I say: The law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, does not put an end to the agreement made before by God, so as to make the undertaking without effect.
Now I say this. A covenant confirmed beforehand by God in Christ, the law, which came four hundred and thirty years after, does not annul, so as to make the promise of no effect.
And this I say, that the covenant that was confirmed before by God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of no effect.
- 18 Because if the heritage is by the law, it is no longer dependent on the word of God; but God gave it to Abraham by his word.
For if the inheritance is of the law, it is no more of promise; but God has granted it to Abraham by promise.
For if the inheritance is by the law, it is no more by promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.

- 19 What then is the law? It was an addition made because of sin, till the coming of the seed to whom the undertaking had been given; and it was ordered through angels by the hand of a go-between.
What then is the law? It was added because of transgressions, until the seed should come to whom the promise has been made. It was ordained through angels by the hand of a mediator.
What purpose then serveth the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
- 20 Now a go-between is not a go-between of one; but God is one.
Now a mediator is not between one, but God is one.
Now a mediator is not a mediator of one; but God is one.
- 21 Is the law then against the words of God? in no way; because if there had been a law which was able to give life, truly righteousness would have been by the law.
Is the law then against the promises of God? Certainly not! For if there had been a law given which could make alive, most assuredly righteousness would have been of the law.
Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means: for if there had been a law given which could give life, verily righteousness would have been by the law.
- 22 However, the holy Writings have put all things under sin, so that that for which God gave the undertaking, based on faith in Jesus Christ, might be given to those who have such faith.
But the scriptures shut up all things under sin, that the promise by faith in Jesus Christ might be given to those who believe.
But the scripture hath concluded all under sin, that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
- 23 But before faith came, we were kept in prison under the law, waiting for the revelation of the faith which was to come.
But before faith came, we were kept in custody under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up to the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
- 24 So the law has been a servant to take us to Christ, so that we might have righteousness by faith.
So that the law has become our tutor to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
Wherefore the law was our school-master to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.

- 25 But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a servant.
But now that faith is come, we are no longer under a tutor.
But after faith is come, we are no longer under a school-master.
- 26 Because you are all sons of God through faith in Christ Jesus.
For you are all sons of God, through faith in Christ Jesus.
For ye are all children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
- 27 For all those of you who were given baptism into Christ did put on Christ.
For as many of you as were baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ, have put on Christ.
- 28 There is no Jew or Greek, servant or free, male or female: because you are all one in Jesus Christ.
There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither slave nor free man, there is neither male nor female; for you are all one in Christ Jesus.
There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for ye are all one in Christ Jesus.
- 29 And if you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and yours is the heritage by the right of God's undertaking given to Abraham.
If you are Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, heirs according to promise.
And if ye are Christ's, then are ye Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.
- 1 But I say that as long as the son is a child, he is in no way different from a servant, though he is lord of all;
But I say that so long as the heir is a child, he is no different from a bondservant, though he is lord of all;
Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differeth nothing from a servant, though he is lord of all;
- 2 But is under keepers and managers till the time fixed by the father.
but is under guardians and stewards until the day appointed by the father.
But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father.

- 3 So we, when we were young, were kept under the first rules of the world;
So we also, when we were children, were held in bondage under the elements of the world.
Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:
- 4 But when the time had come, God sent out his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,
But when the fullness of the time came, God sent forth his Son, born to a woman, born under the law,
But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, born of a woman, born under the law,
- 5 That he might make them free who were under the law, and that we might be given the place of sons.
that he might redeem those who were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
- 6 And because you are sons, God has sent out the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, saying, Abba, Father.
Because you are sons, God sent forth the Spirit of his Son into our hearts, crying, "Abba! Father!"
And because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father.
- 7 So that you are no longer a servant, but a son; and if a son, then the heritage of God is yours.
So you are no longer a bondservant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
- 8 But at that time, having no knowledge of God, you were servants to those who by right are no gods:
However at that time, not knowing God, you were in bondage to those who by nature are no gods.
However then, when ye knew not God, ye did service to them which by nature are no gods.
- 9 But now that you have come to have knowledge of God, or more truly, God has knowledge of you, how is it that you go back again to the poor and feeble first things, desiring to be servants to them again?
But now that you have come to know God, or rather to be known by God, why do you turn back again to the weak and miserable elements, to which you desire to be in bondage all over again?
But now, after ye have known God, or rather are known by God, how turn ye again to the weak and beggarly elements, to which ye desire again to be in bondage?

- 10 You keep days, and months, and fixed times, and years.
You observe days, months, seasons, and years.
Ye observe days, and months, and times, and years.
- 11 I am in fear of you, that I may have been working for you to no purpose.
I am afraid for you, that I might have wasted my labor for you.
I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain.
- 12 My desire for you, brothers, is that you may be as I am, because I am as you are. You have done me no wrong;
I beg you, brothers, become as I am, for I also have become as you are. You did me no wrong, Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as ye are: ye have not injured me at all.
- 13 But you have knowledge that with a feeble body I was preaching the good news to you the first time;
but you know that because of weakness of the flesh I preached the gospel to you the first time.
Ye know that in infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel to you at the first.
- 14 And you did not have a poor opinion of me because of the trouble in my flesh, or put shame on it; but you took me to your hearts as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
That which was a temptation to you in my flesh, you didn't despise nor reject; but you received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
And my temptation which was in my flesh ye despised not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, even as Christ Jesus.
- 15 Where then is that happy condition of yours? because I give you witness, that, if possible, you would have taken out your eyes and given them to me.
What has become of the blessing you enjoyed? For I testify to you that, if possible, you would have plucked out your eyes and given them to me.
What then was the blessedness ye spoke of; for I bear you testimony, that, if it had been possible, ye would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
- 16 So then am I no longer your friend, because I give you true words?
So then, have I become your enemy by telling you the truth?
Am I therefore become your enemy because I tell you the truth?

- 17 Their interest in you is not good; but their desire is that you may be shut out, so that you may go after them.
They zealously seek you in no good way. No, they desire to alienate you, that you may seek them.
They zealously affect you, but not well; for, they would exclude you, that ye may affect them.
- 18 But it is good to have an interest in a good cause at all times, and not only when I am present with you.
But it is always good to be zealous in a good cause, and not only when I am present with you.
But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
- 19 My children, of whom I am again in birth-pains till Christ is formed in you,
My little children, of whom I am again in travail until Christ is formed in you--
My little children, of whom I travail in birth again, until Christ be formed in you,
- 20 Truly my desire is to be present with you now, using a changed voice; for I am troubled about you.
but I could wish to be present with you now, and to change my tone, for I am perplexed about you.
I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.
- 21 Say, you whose desire it is to be under the law, do you not give ear to the law?
Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, don't you listen to the law?
Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
- 22 Because it is in the Writings, that Abraham had two sons, one by the servant-woman, and one by the free woman.
For it is written that Abraham had two sons, one by the handmaid, and one by the free woman.
For it is written, that Abraham had two sons; the one by a bond-maid, the other by a free-woman.
- 23 Now the son by the servant-woman has his birth after the flesh; but the son by the free woman has his birth through the undertaking of God.
However, the son by the handmaid was born according to the flesh, but the son by the free woman was born through promise.
But he who was of the bond-woman, was born according to the flesh; but he of the free-woman was by promise.

- 24 Which things have a secret sense; because these women are the two agreements; one from the mountain of Sinai, giving birth to servants, which is Hagar.
These things contain an allegory, for these are two covenants. One is from Mount Sinai, bearing children to bondage, which is Hagar.
Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
- 25 Now this Hagar is the mountain Sinai in Arabia, and is the image of the Jerusalem which now is: which is a servant with her children.
Now this Hagar is Mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to the Jerusalem that exists now, for she is in bondage with her children.
For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
- 26 But the Jerusalem on high is free, which is our mother.
But the Jerusalem that is above is free, which is our mother.
But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
- 27 For it is in the Writings, You who have never given birth, be glad; give cries of joy, you who have had no birth-pains; for the children of her who has been given up by her husband are more than those of the woman who has a husband.
For it is written, "Rejoice, you barren who don't bear. Break forth and shout, you that don't travail. For more are the children of the desolate than of her who has the husband."
For it is written, Rejoice, thou barren that bearest not; break forth and cry, thou that travailest not: for the desolate hath many more children than she who hath a husband.
- 28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of the undertaking of God.
Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are children of promise.
Now we, brethren, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.
- 29 But as in those days he who had birth after the flesh was cruel to him who had birth after the Spirit, even so it is now.
But as then, he who was born according to the flesh persecuted him who was born according to the Spirit, so also it is now.
But as then he that was born according to the flesh persecuted him that was born according to the Spirit, even so it is now.

30 What then do the Writings say? Send away the servant-woman and her son; for the son of the servant-woman will not have a part in the heritage with the son of the free woman.
However what does the scripture say? "Throw out the handmaid and her son, for the son of the handmaid will not inherit with the son of the free woman."

Nevertheless, what saith the scripture? Cast out the bond-woman and her son: for the son of the bond-woman shall not be heir with the son of the free-woman.

31 So, brothers, we are not children of the servant-woman, but of the free woman.
Therefore, brothers, we are not children of a handmaid, but of the free woman.
So then, brethren, we are not children of the bond-woman, but of the free.

1 Christ has truly made us free: then keep your free condition and let no man put a yoke on you again.
Stand firm therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and don't be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.
Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.

2 See, I Paul say to you, that if you undergo circumcision, Christ will be of no use to you.
Behold, I, Paul, tell you that if you receive circumcision, Christ will profit you nothing.
Behold, I Paul say to you, that if ye be circumcised, Christ will profit you nothing.

3 Yes, I give witness again to every man who undergoes circumcision, that he will have to keep all the law.
Yes, I testify again to every man who receives circumcision, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.

4 You are cut off from Christ, you who would have righteousness by the law; you are turned away from grace.
You are alienated from Christ, you desire to be justified by the law. You have fallen away from grace.
Christ is become of no effect to you, whoever of you are justified by the law; ye have fallen from grace.

5 For we through the Spirit by faith are waiting for the hope of righteousness.
For we, through the Spirit, by faith wait for the hope of righteousness.
For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.

- 6 Because in Christ Jesus, having circumcision or not having circumcision are equally of no profit; but only faith working through love.
For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision amounts to anything, nor uncircumcision, but faith working through love.
For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which worketh by love.
- 7 You were going on well; who was the cause of your not giving ear to what is true?
You were running well! Who interfered with you that you should not obey the truth?
Ye did run well, who hindered you that ye should not obey the truth?
- 8 This ready belief did not come from him who had made you his.
This persuasion is not from him who calls you.
This persuasion cometh not from him that calleth you.
- 9 A little leaven makes a change in all the mass.
A little yeast grows through the whole lump.
A little leaven leaveneth the whole lump.
- 10 I am certain about you in the Lord, that you will be of no other mind; but he who is troubling you will have his punishment, whoever he is.
I have confidence toward you in the Lord that you will think no other way. But he who troubles you will bear his judgment, whoever he is.
I have confidence in you through the Lord, that ye will be no otherwise minded: but he that troubleth you shall bear his judgment, whoever he may be.
- 11 But I, brothers, if I am still preaching circumcision, why am I still attacked? then has the shame of the cross been taken away.
But I, brothers, if I still preach circumcision, why am I still persecuted? Then the stumbling-block of the cross has been removed.
And I, brethren, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then hath the offense of the cross ceased.
- 12 My desire is that they who give you trouble might even be cut off themselves.
I wish that those who disturb you would cut themselves off.
I would they were even cut off who trouble you.

- 13 Because you, brothers, were marked out to be free; only do not make use of your free condition to give the flesh its chance, but through love be servants one to another.
For you, brothers, were called for freedom. Only don't use your freedom for gain to the flesh, but through love be servants to one another.
For, brethren, ye have been called to liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.
- 14 For all the law is made complete in one word, even in this, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself.
For the whole law is fulfilled in one word, in this: "You shall love your neighbor as yourself."
For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself.
- 15 But if you are given to fighting with one another, take care that you are not the cause of destruction one to another.
But if you bite and devour one another, be careful that you don't consume one another.
But if ye bite and devour one another, take heed that ye be not consumed one by another.
- 16 But I say, Go on in the Spirit, and you will not come under the rule of the evil desires of the flesh.
But I say, walk by the Spirit, and you won't fulfill the lust of the flesh.
This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye will not fulfill the lust of the flesh.
- 17 For the flesh has desires against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; because these are opposite the one to the other; so that you may not do the things which you have a mind to do.
For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh; for these are contrary the one to the other, that you may not do the things that you desire.
For the flesh lusteth against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other; so that ye cannot do the things that ye would.
- 18 But if you are guided by the Spirit, you are not under the law.
But if you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law.
But if ye are led by the Spirit, ye are not under the law.
- 19 Now the works of the flesh are clear, which are these: evil desire, unclean things, wrong use of the senses,
Now the works of the flesh are obvious, which are: adultery, sexual immorality, uncleanness, lustfulness,
Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these, Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,

- 20 Worship of images, use of strange powers, hates, fighting, desire for what another has, angry feelings, attempts to get the better of others, divisions, false teachings, idolatry, sorcery, hatred, strife, jealousies, outbursts of anger, rivalries, divisions, heresies,
Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,
- 21 Envy, uncontrolled drinking and feasting, and such things: of which I give you word clearly, even as I did in the past, that they who do such things will have no part in the kingdom of God.
envyings, murders, drunkenness, orgies, and things like these; of which I forewarn you, even as I did forewarn you, that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God.
Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revelings, and such like: of which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they who do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
- 22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, a quiet mind, kind acts, well-doing, faith,
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness,
But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long-suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,
- 23 Gentle behaviour, control over desires: against such there is no law.
gentleness, and self-control. Against such things there is no law.
Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
- 24 And those who are Christ's have put to death on the cross the flesh with its passions and its evil desires.
Those who belong to Christ Jesus have crucified the flesh with its passions and lusts.
And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh, with the affections and lusts.
- 25 If we are living by the Spirit, by the Spirit let us be guided.
If we live by the Spirit, let`s also walk by the Spirit.
If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
- 26 Let us not be full of self-glory, making one another angry, having envy of one another.
Let`s not become conceited, provoking one another, and envying one another.
Let us not be desirous of vain-glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

- 1 Brothers, if a man is taken in any wrongdoing, you who are of the Spirit will put such a one right in a spirit of love; keeping watch on yourself, for fear that you yourself may be tested.
Brothers, even if a man is caught in some fault, you who are spiritual must restore such a one in a spirit of gentleness; looking to yourself so that you also aren't tempted.
Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, ye who are spiritual, restore such one in the spirit of meekness; considering thyself, lest thou also be tempted.
- 2 Take on yourselves one another's troubles, and so keep the law of Christ.
Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
Bear ye one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
- 3 For if a man has an idea that he is something when he is nothing, he is tricked by himself.
For if a man thinks himself to be something when he is nothing, he deceives himself.
For if a man thinketh himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceiveth himself.
- 4 But let every man make test of his work, and then will his cause for glory be in himself only, and not in his neighbour.
But let each man test his own work, and then he will take pride in himself and not in his neighbor.
But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
- 5 Because every man is responsible for his part of the work.
For each man will bear his own burden.
For every man shall bear his own burden.
- 6 But let him who gets teaching in the word give a part in all good things to his teacher.
But let him who is taught in the word share all good things with him who teaches.
Let him that is taught in the word communicate to him that teacheth in all good things.
- 7 Be not tricked; God is not made sport of: for whatever seed a man puts in, that will he get back as grain.
Don't be deceived. God is not mocked, for whatever a man sows, that will he also reap.
Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

- 8 Because he who puts in the seed of the flesh will of the flesh get the reward of death; but he who puts in the seed of the Spirit will of the Spirit get the reward of eternal life.
For he who sows to his own flesh will from the flesh reap corruption. But he who sows to the Spirit will from the Spirit reap eternal life.
For he that soweth to his flesh shall from the flesh reap corruption: but he that soweth to the Spirit, shall from the Spirit reap life everlasting.
- 9 And let us not get tired of well-doing; for at the right time we will get in the grain, if we do not give way to weariness.
Let us not be weary in doing good, for we will reap in due season, if we don't give up.
And let us not be weary in well-doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.
- 10 So then, as we have the chance, let us do good to all men, and specially to those who are of the family of the faith.
So then, as we have opportunity, let us work that which is good toward all men, and especially toward those who are of the household of the faith.
As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good to all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.
- 11 See the size of the handwriting which I myself have made use of in writing to you.
See with what large letters I write to you with my own hand.
Ye see how large a letter I have written to you with my own hand.
- 12 Those who have the desire to seem important in the flesh, put force on you to undergo circumcision; only that they may not be attacked because of the cross of Christ.
As many as desire to look good in the flesh, they compel you to be circumcised; only that they may not be persecuted for the cross of Christ.
As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only lest they should suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
- 13 Because even those who undergo circumcision do not themselves keep the law; but they would have you undergo circumcision, so that they may have glory in your flesh.
For even they who receive circumcision don't keep the law themselves, but they desire to have you circumcised, that they may boast in your flesh.
For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.

14 But far be it from me to have glory in anything, but only in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which this world has come to an end on the cross for me, and I for it.
But far be it from me to boast, except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

But may it never be that I should glory, save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I to the world.

15 For having circumcision is nothing, and not having circumcision is nothing, but only a new order of existence.

For neither is circumcision anything, nor uncircumcision, but a new creation.

For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision availeth any thing, nor uncircumcision, but a new creature.

16 And on all who are guided by this rule be peace and mercy, and on the Israel of God.

As many as will walk by this rule, peace and mercy be on them, and on God`s Israel.

And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.

17 From this time on let no man be a trouble to me; because my body is marked with the marks of Jesus.

From now on, let no one cause me any trouble, for I bear the marks of Jesus branded on my body.

From henceforth let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.

18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. So be it.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers. Amen.

Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

1 Paul, an Apostle of Christ Jesus by the purpose of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and those who have faith in Christ Jesus:

Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and the faithful in Christ Jesus:

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints who are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord, Jesus Christ.

Grace be to you, and peace from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has given us every blessing of the Spirit in the heavens in Christ:
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ;
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:
- 4 Even as he made selection of us in him from the first, so that we might be holy and free from all evil before him in love:
even as he chose us in him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and without blemish before him in love;
According as he hath chosen us in him, before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:
- 5 As we were designed before by him for the position of sons to himself, through Jesus Christ, in the good pleasure of his purpose, having predestined us for adoption as sons through Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his desire,
Having predestinated us to the adoption of children to himself by Jesus Christ, according to the good pleasure of his will,
- 6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely gave to us in the Loved One:
to the praise of the glory of his grace, which he freely bestowed on us in the Beloved,
To the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he hath made us accepted in the beloved:
- 7 In whom we have salvation through his blood, the forgiveness of our sins, through the wealth of his grace, in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our trespasses, according to the riches of his grace,
In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
- 8 Which he gave us in full measure in all wisdom and care;
which he made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence,
In which he hath abounded towards us in all wisdom and prudence;

- 9 Having made clear to us the secret of his purpose, in agreement with the design which he had in mind, to put into his hands making known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he purposed in him
Having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he hath purposed in himself:
- 10 The ordering of the times when they are complete, so that all things might come to a head in Christ, the things in heaven and the things on the earth; in him, I say, to an administration of the fullness of the times, to sum up all things in Christ, the things in the heavens, and the things on the earth, in him;
That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might collect in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:
- 11 In whom we have a heritage, being marked out from the first in his purpose who does all things in agreement with his designs;
in whom also we were made a heritage, having been foreordained according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his will;
In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:
- 12 So that his glory might have praise through us who first had hope in Christ:
to the end that we should be to the praise of his glory, we who had before hoped in Christ:
That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
- 13 In whom you, having been given the true word, the good news of your salvation, and through your faith in him, were given the sign of the Holy Spirit of hope, in whom you also, having heard the word of the truth, the gospel of your salvation, -- in whom, having also believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise,
In whom ye also trusted, after ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,
- 14 Which is the first-fruit of our heritage, till God gets back that which is his, to the praise of his glory.
who is a pledge of our inheritance, to the redemption of God`s own possession, to the praise of his glory.
Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.

- 15 For this cause I, having had news of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and which you make clear to all the saints,
For this cause I also, having heard of the faith in the Lord Jesus which is among you, and the love which you have toward all the saints,
Wherefore I also, having heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love to all the saints,
- 16 Give praise without end for you, keeping you in mind in my prayers;
don't cease to give thanks for you, making mention in my prayers,
Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
- 17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him;
that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him;
That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:
- 18 And that having the eyes of your heart full of light, you may have knowledge of what is the hope of his purpose, what is the wealth of the glory of his heritage in the saints, having the eyes of your hearts enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of his calling, what are the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
- 19 And how unlimited is his power to us who have faith, as is seen in the working of the strength of his power, and what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to that working of the strength of his might
And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,
- 20 By which he made Christ come back from the dead, and gave him a place at his right hand in heaven, which he worked in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and made him to sit at his right hand in the heavenly places,
Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 Far over all rule and authority and power and every name which is named, not only in the present order, but in that which is to come:
far above all rule, and authority, and power, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come.

Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And he has put all things under his feet, and has made him to be head over all things to the church,
He put all things in subjection under his feet, and gave him to be head over all things to the assembly,
And put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,

23 Which is his body, the full measure of him in whom all things are made complete.
which is his body, the fullness of him who fills all in all.
Which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all.

1 And to you did he give life, when you were dead through your wrongdoing and sins,
You were made alive when you were dead through your trespasses and sins,
And you hath he revived, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 In which you were living in the past, after the ways of this present world, doing the pleasure of the lord of the power of the air, the spirit who is now working in those who go against the purpose of God;
in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the powers of the air, of the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience;
In which in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:

3 Among whom we all at one time were living in the pleasures of our flesh, giving way to the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and the punishment of God was waiting for us even as for the rest.
among whom we also all once lived in the lust of our flesh, doing the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, even as the rest.
Among whom also we all had our manner of life in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

- 4 But God, being full of mercy, through the great love which he had for us,
But God, being rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,
But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,
- 5 Even when we were dead through our sins, gave us life together with Christ (by grace you have salvation), even when we were dead through our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace have you been saved),
Even when we were dead in sins, hath made us alive together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
- 6 So that we came back from death with him, and are seated with him in the heavens, in Christ Jesus;
and raised us up with him, and made us to sit with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus,
And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places, in Christ Jesus:
- 7 That in the time to come he might make clear the full wealth of his grace in his mercy to us in Christ Jesus:
that in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus;
That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness towards us, through Christ Jesus.
- 8 Because by grace you have salvation through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is given by God:
for by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God,
For by grace are ye saved, through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
- 9 Not by works, so that no man may take glory to himself.
not of works, that no one would boast.
Not by works, lest any man should boast.
- 10 For by his act we were given existence in Christ Jesus to do those good works which God before made ready for us so that we might do them.
For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared before that we would walk in them.
For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus to good works, which God hath before ordained that we should walk in them.

- 11 For this reason keep it in mind that in the past you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are looked on as being outside the circumcision by those who have circumcision, in the flesh, made by hands;
Therefore remember that once you, the Gentiles in the flesh, who are called "uncircumcision" by that which is called "circumcision," (in the flesh, made by hands);
Wherefore remember, that ye being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
- 12 That you were at that time without Christ, being cut off from any part in Israel's rights as a nation, having no part in God's agreement, having no hope, and without God in the world.
that you were at that time separate from Christ, alienated from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of the promise, having no hope and without God in the world.
That at that time ye were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers from the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:
- 13 But now in Christ Jesus you who at one time were far off are made near in the blood of Christ.
But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far off are made near in the blood of Christ.
But now, in Christ Jesus, ye, who formerly were far off, are made nigh by the blood of Christ.
- 14 For he is our peace, who has made the two into one, and by whom the middle wall of division has been broken down,
For he is our peace, who made both one, and broke down the middle wall of partition,
For he is our peace, who hath made both one, and hath broken down the middle wall of partition between us;
- 15 Having in his flesh put an end to that which made the division between us, even the law with its rules and orders, so that he might make in himself, of the two, one new man, so making peace;
having abolished in the flesh the hostility, the law of commandments contained in ordinances, that he might create in himself one new man of the two, making peace;
Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances: to make in himself of two one new man, so making peace;
- 16 And that the two might come into agreement with God in one body through the cross, so putting an end to that division.
and might reconcile them both in one body to God through the cross, having killed the hostility thereby.
And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having by it slain the enmity:

- 17 And he came preaching peace to you who were far off, and to those who were near;
He came and preached peace to you who were far off, and peace to those who were near.
And came and preached peace to you who were afar off, and to them that were nigh.
- 18 Because through him the two of us are able to come near in one Spirit to the Father.
For through him we both have our access in one Spirit to the Father.
For through him we both have an access by one Spirit to the Father.
- 19 So then you are no longer as those who have no part or place in the kingdom of God, but you are numbered among the saints, and of the family of God,
So then you are no longer strangers and sojourners, but you are fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God,
Now therefore ye are no more strangers and foreigners, but fellow-citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;
- 20 Resting on the base of the Apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief keystone, being built on the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Christ Jesus himself being the chief cornerstone;
And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief cornerstone;
- 21 In whom all the building, rightly joined together, comes to be a holy house of God in the Lord;
in whom the whole building, fitted together, grows into a holy temple in the Lord;
In whom all the building fitly framed together, groweth to a holy temple in the Lord:
- 22 In whom you, with the rest, are united together as a living-place of God in the Spirit.
in whom you also are built together for a habitation of God in the Spirit.
In whom ye also are built together, for a habitation of God through the Spirit.
- 1 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles,
For this cause I, Paul, am the prisoner of Christ Jesus on behalf of you Gentiles,
For this cause, I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,

2 If that ordering of the grace of God has come to your knowledge, which was given to me for you, if it is so that you have heard of the administration of that grace of God which was given me toward you;
If ye have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me on your account.

3 How by revelation the secret was made clear to me, as I said before in a short letter, how that by revelation the mystery was made known to me, as I wrote before in few words,
That by revelation he made known to me the mystery, as I wrote before in few words;

4 By the reading of which you will be clear about my knowledge of the secret of Christ;
whereby, when you read, you can perceive my understanding in the mystery of Christ;
By which when ye read, ye may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ,

5 Which in other generations was not given to the sons of men, but the revelation of it has now been made to his holy Apostles and prophets in the Spirit; which in other generations was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed to his holy apostles and prophets in the Spirit;
Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;

6 Which is that the Gentiles have a part in the heritage, and in the same body, and in the same hope in Christ through the good news, that the Gentiles are fellow heirs, and fellow members of the body, and fellow partakers of the promise in Christ Jesus through the gospel,
That the Gentiles should be joint-heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the Gospel:

7 Of which I was made a preacher, through that grace of God which was given to me in the measure of the working of his power.
whereof I was made a servant, according to the gift of that grace of God which was given me according to the working of his power.
Of which I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effectual working of his power.

- 8 To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, was this grace given, so that I might make clear to the Gentiles the good news of the unending wealth of Christ:
To me, the very least of all saints, was this grace given, to preach to the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ,
To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;
- 9 And make all men see what is the ordering of the secret which from the first has been kept in God who made all things; and to make all men see what is the administration of the mystery which for ages has been hidden in God, who created all things through Jesus Christ;
And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:
- 10 So that now to the rulers and the authorities in the heavens might be made clear through the church the wide-shining wisdom of God, to the intent that now through the assembly the manifold wisdom of God might be made known to the principalities and the powers in the heavenly places,
To the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,
- 11 Which is seen in his eternal purpose in Christ Jesus our Lord:
according to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus, our Lord;
According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:
- 12 By whom we come near to God without fear through faith in him.
in whom we have boldness and access in confidence through our faith in him.
In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him,
- 13 For this reason it is my prayer that you may not become feeble because of my troubles for you, which are your glory.
Therefore I ask that you may not lose heart at my troubles for you, which are your glory.
Wherefore I desire that ye faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.

- 14 For this cause I go down on my knees before the Father,
For this cause, I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ,
For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
- 15 From whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
from whom every family in heaven and on earth is named,
Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,
- 16 That in the wealth of his glory he would make you strong with power through his Spirit in your hearts; that he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, that you may be strengthened with power through his Spirit in the inward man;
That he would grant you according to the riches of his glory to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;
- 17 So that Christ may have his place in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and based in love, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; to the end that you, being rooted and grounded in love,
That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that ye, being rooted and grounded in love,
- 18 May have strength to see with all the saints how wide and long and high and deep it is, may be strengthened to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth,
May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and highth.
- 19 And to have knowledge of the love of Christ which is outside all knowledge, so that you may be made complete as God himself is complete.
and to know Christ`s love which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled to all the fullness of God.
And to know the love of Christ, which passeth knowledge, that ye may be filled with all the fullness of God.
- 20 Now to him who is able to do in full measure more than all our desires or thoughts, through the power which is working in us,
Now to him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,
Now to him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.

- 21 To him be the glory in the church and in Christ Jesus to all generations for ever and ever. So be it.
to him be the glory in the assembly and in Christ Jesus to all generations forever and ever. Amen.
To him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.
- 1 I then, the prisoner in the Lord, make this request from my heart, that you will see that your behaviour is a credit to the position which God's purpose has given you,
I therefore, the prisoner in the Lord, beg you to walk worthily of the calling with which you were called,
I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that ye walk worthy of the vocation by which ye are called,
- 2 With all gentle and quiet behaviour, taking whatever comes, putting up with one another in love; with all lowliness and humility, with longsuffering, bearing with one another in love;
With all lowliness and meekness, with long-suffering, forbearing one another in love;
- 3 Taking care to keep the harmony of the Spirit in the yoke of peace.
being eager to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
- 4 There is one body and one Spirit, even as you have been marked out by God in the one hope of his purpose for you;
There is one body, and one Spirit, even as you also were called in one hope of your calling;
There is one body, and one Spirit, even as ye are called in one hope of your calling;
- 5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
one Lord, one faith, one baptism,
One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
- 6 One God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in all.
one God and Father of all, who is over all, and through all, and in us all.
One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.

- 7 But to every one of us has grace been given in the measure of the giving of Christ.
But to each one of us was the grace given according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
But to every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
- 8 For this reason he says, He went up on high, taking his prisoners with him, and gave freely to men.
Therefore he says, "When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men."
Wherefore he saith, When he ascended on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.
- 9 (Now this, He went up, what is it but that he first went down into the lower parts of the earth?
Now this, "He ascended," what is it but that he also first descended into the lower parts of the earth?
Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
- 10 He who went down is the same who went up far over all the heavens so that he might make all things complete.)
He who descended is the same also who ascended far above all the heavens, that he might fill all things.
He that descended is the same also that ascended far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.
- 11 And he gave some as Apostles, and some, prophets; and some, preachers of the good news; and some to give care and teaching;
He gave some to be apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, shepherds and teachers;
And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
- 12 For the training of the saints as servants in the church, for the building up of the body of Christ:
for the perfecting of the saints, to the work of serving, to the building up of the body of Christ;
For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
- 13 Till we all come to the harmony of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to full growth, to the full measure of Christ:
until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a full grown man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ;
Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a perfect man, to the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:

14 So that we may be no longer children, sent this way and that, turned about by every wind of teaching, by the twisting and tricks of men, by the deceits of error;
that we may no longer be children, tossed back and forth and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the trickery of men, in craftiness, after the wiles of error;

That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, by which they lie in wait to deceive:

15 But saying true words in love, may come to full growth in him, who is the head, even Christ;
but speaking truth in love, we may grow up in all things into him, who is the head, Christ;
But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, who is the head, even Christ:

16 Through whom all the body, being rightly formed and united together, by the full working of every part, is increased to the building up of itself in love.
from whom all the body, being fitted and knit together through that which every joint supplies, according to the working in measure of each individual part, makes the body increase to the building up of itself in love.
From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplieth, according to the effectual working in the measure of every part, maketh increase of the body to the edifying of itself in love.

17 This I say, then, and give witness in the Lord, that you are to go no longer in the way of the Gentiles whose minds are turned to that which has no profit,
This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you no longer walk as the rest of the Gentiles also walk, in the vanity of their mind,
This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that ye henceforth walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

18 Whose thoughts are dark, to whom the life of God is strange because they are without knowledge, and their hearts have been made hard;
being darkened in their understanding, alienated from the life of God, because of the ignorance that is in them, because of the hardening of their hearts;
Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:

19 Who having no more power of feeling, have given themselves up to evil passions, to do all unclean things with overmuch desire.
who having become callous gave themselves up to lust, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
Who being past feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.

20 For this was not the teaching of Christ which was given to you;

But you did not learn Christ that way;
But ye have not so learned Christ;

21 If in fact you gave ear to him, and were given teaching in him, even as what is true is made clear in Jesus:

if indeed you heard him, and were taught in him, even as truth is in Jesus:
If indeed ye have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:

22 That you are to put away, in relation to your earlier way of life, the old man, which has become evil by love of deceit;

that you put away, as concerning your former way of life, the old man, that grows corrupt after the lusts of deceit;
That ye put off concerning the former manner of life the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts:

23 And be made new in the spirit of your mind,

and that you be renewed in the spirit of your mind,
And be renewed in the Spirit of your mind;

24 And put on the new man, to which God has given life, in righteousness and a true and holy way of living.

and put on the new man, that like God has been created in righteousness and holiness of truth.
And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

25 And so, putting away false words, let everyone say what is true to his neighbour: for we are parts one of another.

Therefore, putting away falsehood, speak truth each one with his neighbor. For we are members one of another.
Wherefore putting away lying, speak every man truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.

26 Be angry without doing wrong; let not the sun go down on your wrath;

"Be angry, and don't sin." Don't let the sun go down on your wrath,
Be ye angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down upon your wrath:

- 27 And do not give way to the Evil One.
neither give place to the devil.
Neither give place to the devil.
- 28 Let him who was a thief be so no longer, but let him do good work with his hands, so that he may have something to give to him who is in need.
Let him who stole steal no more; but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing that is good, that he may have something to give to him who has need.
Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needeth.
- 29 Let no evil talk come out of your mouth, but only what is good for giving necessary teaching, and for grace to those who give ear.
Let no corrupt speech proceed out of your mouth, but such as is good for building up as the need may be, that it may give grace to those who hear.
Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers.
- 30 And do not give grief to the Holy Spirit of God, by whom you were marked for the day of salvation.
Don't grieve the Holy Spirit of God, in whom you were sealed to the day of redemption.
And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed to the day of redemption.
- 31 Let all bitter, sharp and angry feeling, and noise, and evil words, be put away from you, with all unkind acts;
Let all bitterness, wrath, anger, outcry, and slander, be put away from you, with all malice.
Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and evil-speaking, be put away from you, with all malice:
- 32 And be kind to one another, full of pity, having forgiveness for one another, even as God in Christ had forgiveness for you.
Be kind to one another, tenderhearted, forgiving each other, just as God also in Christ forgave you.
And be ye kind one to another, tender-hearted, forgiving one another, even as God for Christ's sake hath forgiven you.

- 1 Let it then be your desire to be like God, as well-loved children;
Be therefore imitators of God, as beloved children.
Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children;
- 2 And be living in love, even as Christ had love for you, and gave himself up for us, an offering to God for a perfume of a sweet smell.
Walk in love, even as Christ also loved you, and gave himself up for us, an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling fragrance.
And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savor.
- 3 But evil acts of the flesh and all unclean things, or desire for others' property, let it not even be named among you, as is right for saints;
But sexual immorality, and all uncleanness, or covetousness, let it not even be mentioned among you, as becomes saints;
But lewdness and all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as becometh saints;
- 4 And let there be no low behaviour, or foolish talk, or words said in sport, which are not right, but in place of them the giving of praise.
nor filthiness, nor foolish talking, or jesting, which are not appropriate; but rather giving of thanks.
Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not convenient: but rather giving of thanks.
- 5 Being certain of this, that no man who gives way to the passions of the flesh, no unclean person, or one who has desire for the property of others, or who gives worship to images, has any heritage in the kingdom of Christ and God.
Know this for sure, that no sexually immoral person, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and God.
For this ye know, that no lewd, nor unclean person, nor covetous man, who is an idolater, hath any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
- 6 Do not be turned from the right way by foolish words; for because of these things the punishment of God comes on those who do not put themselves under him.
Let no man deceive you with empty words. For because of these things, the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience.
Let no man deceive you with vain words: for because of these things cometh the wrath of God upon the children of disobedience.

- 7 Have no part with such men;
Don't be therefore partakers with them.
Be ye not therefore partakers with them.
- 8 For you at one time were dark, but now are light in the Lord: let your behaviour be that of children of light
For you were once darkness, but are now light in the Lord. Walk as children of light,
For ye were sometime darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: walk as children of light;
- 9 (Because the fruit of the light is in all righteousness and in everything which is good and true), for the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth,
(For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness, and righteousness, and truth;)
- 10 Testing by experience what is well-pleasing to the Lord;
proving what is well-pleasing to the Lord.
Proving what is acceptable to the Lord.
- 11 And have no company with the works of the dark, which give no fruit, but make their true quality clear;
Have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather even reprove them.
And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.
- 12 For the things which are done by them in secret it is shame even to put into words.
For the things which are done by them in secret, it is a shame even to speak of.
For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret.
- 13 But all things, when their true quality is seen, are made clear by the light: because everything which is made clear is light.
But all things, when they are reprov'd, are revealed by the light, for everything that is revealed is light.
But all things that are reprov'd, are made manifest by the light: for whatever doth make manifest is light.

- 14 For this reason he says, Be awake, you who are sleeping, and come up from among the dead, and Christ will be your light.
Therefore he says, "Awake, you who sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ will shine on you."
Wherefore he saith, Awake, thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ will give thee light.
- 15 Take care then how you are living, not as unwise, but as wise;
Therefore watch carefully how you walk, not as unwise, but as wise;
See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,
- 16 Making good use of the time, because the days are evil.
redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
- 17 For this reason, then, do not be foolish, but be conscious of the Lord's pleasure.
Therefore don't be foolish, but understand what the will of the Lord is.
Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
- 18 And do not take overmuch wine by which one may be overcome, but be full of the Spirit;
Don't be drunken with wine, in which is an abandoned life, but be filled with the Spirit,
And be not drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
- 19 Joining with one another in holy songs of praise and of the Spirit, using your voice in songs and making melody in your heart to the Lord;
speaking to one another in psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs; singing, and singing praises in your heart to the Lord;
Speaking to yourselves in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord,
- 20 Giving praise at all times for all things in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father; giving thanks always for all things in the name of our Lord, Jesus Christ, to God, even the Father;
Giving thanks always for all things to God and the Father, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;

- 21 Letting yourselves be ruled by one another in the fear of Christ.
submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of Christ.
Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
- 22 Wives, be under the authority of your husbands, as of the Lord.
Wives, be subject to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as to the Lord.
- 23 For the husband is the head of the wife, as Christ is the head of the church, being himself the saviour of the body.
For the husband is the head of the wife, and Christ also is the head of the assembly, being himself the savior of the body.
For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the Savior of the body.
- 24 And as the church is under Christ's authority, so let wives be under the rule of their husbands in all things.
But as the assembly is subject to Christ, so let the wives also be to their husbands in everything.
Therefore as the church is subject to Christ, so let wives be to their own husbands in every thing.
- 25 Husbands, have love for your wives, even as Christ had love for the church, and gave himself for it;
Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the assembly, and gave himself up for it;
Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
- 26 So that he might make it holy, having made it clean with the washing of water by the word, that he might sanctify it, having cleansed it by the washing of water with the word,
That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
- 27 And might take it for himself, a church full of glory, not having one mark or fold or any such thing; but that it might be holy and complete.
that he might present the assembly to himself gloriously, not having spot or wrinkle or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.

- 28 Even so it is right for husbands to have love for their wives as for their bodies. He who has love for his wife has love for himself:
Even so ought husbands also to love their own wives as their own bodies. He who loves his own wife loves himself.
So ought men to love their wives, as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife, loveth himself.
- 29 For no man ever had hate for his flesh; but he gives it food and takes care of it, even as Christ does for the church;
For no man ever hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, even as Christ also the assembly;
For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord the church:
- 30 Because we are parts of his body.
because we are members of his body, of his flesh and bones.
For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
- 31 For this cause will a man go away from his father and mother and be joined to his wife, and the two will become one flesh.
"For this cause a man will leave his father and mother, and will be joined to his wife. The two will become one flesh."
For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined to his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
- 32 This is a great secret: but my words are about Christ and the church.
This mystery is great, but I speak in regard of Christ and of the assembly.
This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
- 33 But do you, everyone, have love for his wife, even as for himself; and let the wife see that she has respect for her husband.
Nevertheless each of you must also love his own wife even as himself; and let the wife see that she respects her husband.
Nevertheless, let every one of you in particular so love his wife even as himself: and the wife see that she reverence her husband.
- 1 Children, do what is ordered by your fathers and mothers in the Lord: for this is right.
Children, obey your parents in the Lord, for this is right.
Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.

- 2 Give honour to your father and mother (which is the first rule having a reward),
"Honor your father and mother," which is the first commandment with a promise:
Honor thy father and mother (which is the first commandment with promise)
- 3 So that all may be well for you, and your life may be long on the earth.
"that it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth."
That it may be well with thee, and thou mayest live long on the earth.
- 4 And, you fathers, do not make your children angry: but give them training in the teaching and fear of the Lord.
You fathers, don't provoke your children to wrath, but nurture them in the discipline and instruction of the Lord.
And, ye fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
- 5 Servants, do what is ordered by those who are your natural masters, having respect and fear for them, with all your heart, as to Christ;
Servants, be obedient to those who according to the flesh are your masters, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ;
Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as to Christ;
- 6 Not only under your master's eye, as pleasers of men; but as servants of Christ, doing the pleasure of God from the heart;
not in the way of service only when eyes are on you, as men-pleasers; but as servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
Not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
- 7 Doing your work readily, as to the Lord, and not to men:
with good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men;
With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
- 8 In the knowledge that for every good thing anyone does, he will have his reward from the Lord, if he is a servant or if he is free.
knowing that whatever good thing each one does, he will receive the same again from the Lord, whether he is bound or free.
Knowing that whatever good thing any man doeth, the same will he receive from the Lord, whether he be bond or free.

- 9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, not making use of violent words: in the knowledge that their Master and yours is in heaven, and he has no respect for a man's position.
You masters, do the same things to them, and give up threatening, knowing that he who is both their Master and yours is in heaven, and there is no partiality with him.
And, ye masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
- 10 Lastly, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his power.
Finally, be strong in the Lord, and in the strength of his might.
Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
- 11 Take up God's instruments of war, so that you may be able to keep your position against all the deceits of the Evil One.
Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
- 12 For our fight is not against flesh and blood, but against authorities and powers, against the world-rulers of this dark night, against the spirits of evil in the heavens.
For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world's rulers of the darkness of this age, and against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places.
For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.
- 13 For this reason take up all the arms of God, so that you may be able to be strong in the evil day, and, having done all, to keep your place.
Therefore, put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand.
Wherefore take to you the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
- 14 Take your place, then, having your body clothed with the true word, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness;
Stand therefore, having the utility belt of truth buckled around your waist, and having put on the breastplate of righteousness,
Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breast-plate of righteousness;

- 15 Be ready with the good news of peace as shoes on your feet;
and having fitted your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
- 16 And most of all, using faith as a cover to keep off all the flaming arrows of the Evil One.
above all, taking up the shield of faith, with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the evil one.
Above all, taking the shield of faith, with which ye will be able to extinguish all the fiery darts of the wicked.
- 17 And take salvation for your head-dress and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
Take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God;
And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
- 18 With prayers and deep desires, making requests at all times in the Spirit, and keeping watch, with strong purpose, in prayer for all the saints, with all prayer and requests, praying at all times in the Spirit, and being watchful to this end in all perseverance and requests for all the saints:
Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching for this purpose with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;
-
- 19 And for me, that words may be given to me in the opening of my mouth, to make clear without fear the secret of the good news,
On my behalf, that utterance may be given to me in opening my mouth, to make known with boldness the mystery of the gospel,
And for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,
- 20 For which I am a representative in chains, and that I may say without fear the things which it is right for me to say.
for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
For which I am an ambassador in bonds: that therein I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.

21 But so that you may have knowledge of my business, and how I am, Tychicus, the well-loved brother and tested servant in the Lord, will give you news of all things:
But that you also may know my affairs, how I am doing, Tychicus, the beloved brother and faithful servant in the Lord, will make known to you all things;

But that ye also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, will make known to you all things:

22 Whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, so that you may have knowledge of our position, and that he may give comfort to your hearts.
whom I have sent to you for this very purpose, that you may know our state, and that he may comfort your hearts.

Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that ye may know our affairs, and that he may comfort your hearts.

23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Peace be to the brethren, and love with faith from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

24 Grace be with all those who have true love for our Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace be with all those who love our Lord Jesus Christ with incorruptible love.

Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

1 Paul and Timothy, servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus at Philippi, with the Bishops and Deacons of the church:

Paul and Timothy, servants of Christ Jesus; To all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons:

Paul and Timothy, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus who are at Philippi, with the bishops and deacons:

2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you, and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord, Jesus Christ.

Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 I give praise to my God at every memory of you,
I thank my God whenever I remember you,
I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,

4 And in all my prayers for you all, making my request with joy, always in every request of mine on behalf of you all making my requests with joy,
Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 Because of your help in giving the good news from the first day till now;
for your fellowship in furtherance of the gospel from the first day until now;
For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 For I am certain of this very thing, that he by whom the good work was started in you will make it complete till the day of Jesus Christ:
being confident of this very thing, that he who began a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ.
Being confident of this very thing, that he who hath begun a good work in you, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:

7 So it is right for me to take thought for you all in this way, because I have you in my heart; for in my chains, and in my arguments before the judges in support of the good news, making clear that it is true, you all have your part with me in grace.
It is even right for me to think this way on behalf of all of you, because I have you in my heart, inasmuch as, both in my bonds and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers with me of grace.
Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, ye all are partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my witness, how my love goes out to you all in the loving mercies of Christ Jesus.
For God is my witness, how I long after all of you in the tender mercies of Christ Jesus.
For God is my witness, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jesus Christ.

9 And my prayer is that you may be increased more and more in knowledge and experience;
This I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment;
And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;

10 So that you may give your approval to the best things; that you may be true and without wrongdoing till the day of Christ;
so that you may approve the things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense to the day of Christ;
That ye may approve things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ;

11 Being full of the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are through Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.
Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, to the glory and praise of God.

12 Now it is my purpose to make clear to you, brothers, that the cause of the good news has been helped by my experiences;
Now I desire to have you know, brothers, that the things which happened to me have turned out rather to the progress of the gospel;
But I would ye should understand, brethren, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather to the furtherance of the gospel;

13 So that it became clear through all the Praetorium, and to all the rest, that I was a prisoner on account of Christ;
so that my bonds became revealed in Christ throughout the whole praetorian guard, and to all the rest;
So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;

14 And most of the brothers in the Lord, taking heart because of my chains, are all the stronger to give the word of God without fear.
and that most of the brothers in the Lord, being confident through my bonds, are more abundantly bold to speak the word of God without fear.
And many of the brethren in the Lord, becoming confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Though some are preaching Christ out of envy and competition, others do it out of a good heart:
Some indeed preach Christ even out of envy and strife, and some also out of good will.
Some indeed preach Christ even from envy and strife; and some also from good will.

16 These do it from love, conscious that I am responsible for the cause of the good news:
The former preach Christ from selfish ambition, not sincerely, thinking that they add affliction to my chains;
The one preach Christ from contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

- 17 But those are preaching Christ in a spirit of competition, not from their hearts, but with the purpose of giving me pain in my prison.
but the latter out of love, knowing that I am appointed for the defense of the gospel.
But the other from love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel.
- 18 What then? only that in every way, falsely or truly, the preaching of Christ goes on; and in this I am glad, and will be glad.
What does it matter? Only that in every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is proclaimed. I rejoice in this, yes, and will rejoice.
What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretense or in truth, Christ is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.
- 19 For I am conscious that this will be for my salvation, through your prayer and the giving out of the stored wealth of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
For I know that this will turn out to my salvation, through your supplication and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
For I know that this will turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
- 20 In the measure of my strong hope and belief that in nothing will I be put to shame, but that without fear, as at all times, so now will Christ have glory in my body, by life or by death.
according to my earnest expectation and hope, that I will in no way be put to shame, but with all boldness, as always, now also Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.
According to my earnest expectation and hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also, Christ will be magnified in my body, whether by life, or by death.
- 21 For to me life is Christ and death is profit.
For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
- 22 But if I go on living in the flesh--if this is the fruit of my work--then I do not see what decision to make.
But if to live in the flesh, this will bring fruit from my work; then I don't make known what I will choose.
But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I know not.
- 23 I am in a hard position between the two, having a desire to go away and be with Christ, which is very much better:
But I am in a dilemma between the two, having the desire to depart and be with Christ, for that is very far better.
For I am in a strait betwixt two, having a desire to depart, and to be with Christ; which is far better:

- 24 Still, to go on in the flesh is more necessary because of you.
Yet, to remain in the flesh is more needful for your sake.
Nevertheless, to abide in the flesh is more needful for you.
- 25 And being certain of this, I am conscious that I will go on, yes, and go on with you all, for your growth and joy in the faith;
Having this confidence, I know that I will remain, yes, and remain with you all, for your progress and joy in the faith,
And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;
- 26 So that your pride in me may be increased in Christ Jesus through my being present with you again.
that your rejoicing may abound in Christ Jesus in me through my presence with you again.
That your rejoicing for me may be more abundant in Jesus Christ by my coming to you again.
- 27 Only let your behaviour do credit to the good news of Christ, so that if I come and see you or if I am away from you, I may have news of you that you are strong in one spirit, working together with one soul for the faith of the good news;
Only let your manner of life be worthy of the gospel of Christ, that, whether I come and see you or am absent, I may hear of your state, that you stand firm in one spirit, with one soul striving for the faith of the gospel;
Only let your manner of life be as it becometh the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that ye stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
- 28 Having no fear of those who are against you; which is a clear sign of their destruction, but of your salvation, and that from God;
and in nothing frightened by the adversaries, which is for them a proof of destruction, but to you of salvation, and that from God.
And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that from God.
- 29 Because to you it has been given in the cause of Christ not only to have faith in him, but to undergo pain on his account:
Because it has been granted to you on behalf of Christ, not only to believe in him, but also to suffer on his behalf,
For to you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;

- 30 Fighting the same fight which you saw in me, and now have word of in me.
having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear is in me.
Having the same conflict which ye saw in me, and now hear to be in me.
- 1 If then there is any comfort in Christ, any help given by love, any uniting of hearts in the Spirit, any loving mercies and pity,
If there is therefore any exhortation in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tender mercies and compassion,
If there is therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any bowels and mercies,
- 2 Make my joy complete by being of the same mind, having the same love, being in harmony and of one mind;
make my joy full, that you be of the same mind, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind;
Fulfill ye my joy, that ye be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
- 3 Doing nothing through envy or through pride, but with low thoughts of self let everyone take others to be better than himself;
doing nothing through rivalry or through conceit, but in humility, each counting others better than himself;
Let nothing be done through strife or vain glory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
- 4 Not looking everyone to his private good, but keeping in mind the things of others.
each of you not just looking to his own things, but each of you also to the things of others.
Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
- 5 Let this mind be in you which was in Christ Jesus,
Have this in your mind, which was also in Christ Jesus,
Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
- 6 To whom, though himself in the form of God, it did not seem that to take for oneself was to be like God;
who, existing in the form of God, didn't consider it robbery to be equal with God,
Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:

- 7 But he made himself as nothing, taking the form of a servant, being made like men;
but emptied himself, taking the form of a servant, being made in the likeness of men.
But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
- 8 And being seen in form as a man, he took the lowest place, and let himself be put to death, even the death of the cross.
Being found in human form, he humbled himself, becoming obedient to death, yes, the death of the cross.
And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient to death, even the death of the cross.
- 9 For this reason God has put him in the highest place and has given to him the name which is greater than every name;
Therefore God also highly exalted him, and gave to him the name which is above every name;
Wherefore God also hath highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
- 10 So that at the name of Jesus every knee may be bent, of those in heaven and those on earth and those in the underworld, that at the name of Jesus every knee would bow, of those in heaven, those on earth, and those under the earth,
That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things on earth, and things under the earth;
- 11 And that every tongue may give witness that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
and that every tongue would confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God, the Father.
And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
- 12 So then, my loved ones, as you have at all times done what I say, not only when I am present, but now much more when I am not with you, give yourselves to working out your salvation with fear in your hearts;
So then, my beloved, even as you have always obeyed, not only in my presence, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
Wherefore, my beloved, as ye have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.

- 13 For it is God who is the cause of your desires and of your acts, for his good pleasure.
For it is God who works in you both to will and to work, for his good pleasure.
For it is God who worketh in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
- 14 Do all things without protests and arguments;
Do all things without murmurings and disputes,
Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
- 15 So that you may be holy and gentle, children of God without sin in a twisted and foolish generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world, that you may become blameless and harmless, children of God without blemish in the midst of a crooked and perverse generation, among whom you are seen as lights in the world,
That ye may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom ye shine as lights in the world;
- 16 Offering the word of life; so that I may have glory in you in the day of Christ, because my running was not for nothing and my work was not without effect.
holding up the word of life; that I may have something to boast in the day of Christ, that I didn't run in vain nor labor in vain.
Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain.
- 17 And even if I am offered like a drink offering, giving myself for the cause and work of your faith, I am glad and have joy with you all:
Yes, and if I am poured out on the sacrifice and service of your faith, I rejoice, and rejoice with you all.
And if I am even offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
- 18 And in the same way do you be glad and have a part in my joy.
In the same way, you also rejoice, and rejoice with me.
For the same cause also do ye joy, and rejoice with me.
- 19 But I am hoping in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you before long, so that I may be comforted when I have news of you.
But I hope in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy to you soon, that I also may be cheered up when I know how you are doing.
But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timothy shortly to you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.

- 20 For I have no man of like mind who will truly have care for you.
For I have no one else like-minded, who will truly care about you.
For I have no man like-minded, who will naturally care for your state.
- 21 For they all go after what is theirs, not after the things of Christ.
For they all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.
For all seek their own, not the things of Jesus Christ.
- 22 But his quality is clear to you; how, as a child is to its father, so he was a help to me in the work of the good news.
But you know the proof of him, that, as a child serves a father, so he served with me in furtherance of the gospel.
But ye know the proof of him, that as a son with the father, he hath served with me in the gospel.
- 23 Him then I am hoping to send as quickly as possible, when I am able to see how things will go for me:
Therefore I hope to send him at once, as soon as I see how it will go with me.
Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
- 24 But I have faith in the Lord that I myself will come before long.
But I trust in the Lord that I myself also will come shortly.
But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
- 25 But it seemed to me necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, who has taken part with me in the work and in the fight, and your servant, sent by you for help in my need;
But I counted it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, fellow worker, fellow soldier, and your messenger and minister to my need;
Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow-soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
- 26 Because his heart was with you all, and he was greatly troubled because you had news that he was ill:
since he longed for you all, and was very troubled, because you had heard that he was sick.
For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because ye had heard that he was sick.

- 27 For in fact he was ill almost to death: but God had mercy on him; and not only on him but on me, so that I might not have grief on grief.
For indeed he was sick, nearly to death, but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, that I might not have sorrow on sorrow.
For indeed he was sick nigh to death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
- 28 I have sent him, then, the more gladly, so that when you see him again, you may be happy and I may have the less sorrow.
I have sent him therefore the more diligently, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
I sent him therefore the more speedily, that, when ye see him again, ye may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
- 29 So take him to your hearts in the Lord with all joy, and give honour to such as he is:
Receive him therefore in the Lord with all joy, and hold such in honor,
Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:
- 30 Because for the work of Christ he was near to death, putting his life in danger to make your care for me complete.
because for the work of Christ he came near to death, risking his life to supply that which was lacking in your service toward me.
Because for the work of Christ he was nigh to death, not regarding his life, to supply the want of your service towards me.
- 1 For the rest, my brothers, be glad in the Lord. Writing the same things to you is no trouble to me, and for you it is safe.
Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not tiresome, but for you it is safe.
Finally, my brethren, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
- 2 Be on the watch against dogs, against the workers of evil, against those of the circumcision:
Beware of the dogs, beware of the evil workers, beware of the false circumcision.
Beware of dogs, beware of evil-workers, beware of the concision.

- 3 For we are the circumcision, who give worship to God and have glory in Jesus Christ, and have no faith in the flesh:
For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh;
For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
- 4 Even though I myself might have faith in the flesh: if any other man has reason to have faith in the flesh, I have more:
though I myself might have confidence even in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has confidence in the flesh, I yet more:
Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinketh that he hath reason to trust in the flesh, I more:
- 5 Being given circumcision on the eighth day, of the nation of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; in relation to the law, a Pharisee:
circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of Hebrews; concerning the law, a Pharisee;
Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; with respect to the law, a Pharisee;
- 6 In bitter hate I was cruel to the church; I kept all the righteousness of the law to the last detail.
concerning zeal, persecuting the assembly; concerning the righteousness which is in the law, found blameless.
Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; with respect to the righteousness which is by the law, blameless.
- 7 But those things which were profit to me, I gave up for Christ.
However, what things were gain to me, these have I counted loss for Christ.
But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
- 8 Yes truly, and I am ready to give up all things for the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, which is more than all: for whom I have undergone the loss of all things, and to me they are less than nothing, so that I may have Christ as my reward,
Yes most assuredly, and I count all things to be loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus, my Lord, for whom I suffered the loss of all things, and count them nothing but refuse, that I may gain Christ
Yes doubtless, and I count all things to be loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them to be dung, that I may win Christ,

- 9 And be seen in him, not having my righteousness which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
and be found in him, not having a righteousness of my own, that which is of the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith;
And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith:
- 10 That I may have knowledge of him, and of the power of his coming back from the dead, and a part with him in his pains, becoming like him in his death;
that I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, becoming conformed to his death;
That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable to his death;
- 11 If in any way I may have the reward of life from the dead.
if by any means I may attain to the resurrection from the dead.
If by any means I may attain to the resurrection of the dead.
- 12 Not as if I had even now got the reward or been made complete: but I go on in the hope that I may come to the knowledge of that for which I was made the servant of Christ Jesus.
Not that I have already obtained, or am already made perfect; but I press on, if it is so that I may take hold of that for which also I was laid hold of by Christ Jesus.
Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I pursue, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended by Christ Jesus.
- 13 Brothers, it is clear to me that I have not come to that knowledge; but one thing I do, letting go those things which are past, and stretching out to the things which are before,
Brothers, I don't regard myself as yet having laid hold, but one thing I do. Forgetting the things which are behind, and stretching forward to the things which are before,
Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forward to those things which are before,
- 14 I go forward to the mark, even the reward of the high purpose of God in Christ Jesus.
I press on toward the goal to the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
I press towards the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.

- 15 Then let us all, who have come to full growth, be of this mind: and if in anything you are of a different mind, even this will God make clear to you:
Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, think this way. If in anything you think otherwise, this God will also reveal that to you.
Let us therefore, as many as are perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing ye are otherwise minded, God will reveal even this to you.
- 16 Only, as far as we have got, let us be guided by the same rule.
Nevertheless, to the extent that we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule. Let us be of the same mind.
Nevertheless, to what we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.
- 17 Brothers, take me as your example, and take note of those who are walking after the example we have given.
Brothers, be imitators together of me, and note those who walk this way, even as you have us for an example.
Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark them who walk so as ye have us for an example.
- 18 For there are those, of whom I have given you word before, and do so now with sorrow, who are haters of the cross of Christ;
For many walk, of whom I told you often, and now tell you even weeping, as the enemies of the cross of Christ,
(For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:
- 19 Whose end is destruction, whose god is the stomach, and whose glory is in their shame, whose minds are fixed on the things of the earth.
whose end is destruction, whose god is the belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who think about earthly things.
Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)
- 20 For our country is in heaven; from where the Saviour for whom we are waiting will come, even the Lord Jesus Christ:
For our citizenship is in heaven, from where we also wait for a Savior, the Lord, Jesus Christ;
For our conversation is in heaven; from whence also we look for the Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ:
- 21 By whom this poor body of ours will be changed into the image of the body of his glory, in the measure of the working by which he is able to put all things under himself.
who will change the body of our humiliation to be conformed to the body of his glory, according to the working whereby he is able even to subject all things to himself.
Who will change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like to his glorious body, according to the working by which he is able even to subdue all things to himself.

- 1 So my brothers, well loved and very dear to me, my joy and crown, be strong in the Lord, my loved ones.
Therefore, my brothers, beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand firm in the Lord, my beloved.
Therefore, my brethren dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
- 2 I make request to Euodias and Syntyche to be of the same mind in the Lord.
I exhort Euodia, and I exhort Syntyche, to think the same way in the Lord.
I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
- 3 And I make request to you, true helper in my work, to see to the needs of those women who took part with me in the good news, with Clement and the rest of my brother-workers whose names are in the book of life.
Yes, I beg you also, true yoke-fellow, help these women, for they labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and the rest of my fellow workers, whose names are in the book of life.
And I entreat thee also, true yoke-fellow, help those women who labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow-laborers, whose names are in the book of life.
- 4 Be glad in the Lord at all times: again I say, Be glad.
Rejoice in the Lord always. Again I will say, Rejoice!
Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.
- 5 Let your gentle behaviour be clear to all men. The Lord is near.
Let your mildness be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.
Let your moderation be known to all men. The Lord is at hand.
- 6 Have no cares; but in everything with prayer and praise put your requests before God.
In nothing be anxious, but in everything, by prayer and petition with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.
Be anxious for nothing; but in every thing by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God.

- 7 And the peace of God, which is deeper than all knowledge, will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus.
The peace of God, which passes all understanding, will guard your hearts and your thoughts in Christ Jesus.
And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, will keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
- 8 For the rest, my brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things have honour, whatever things are upright, whatever things are holy, whatever things are beautiful, whatever things are of value, if there is any virtue and if there is any praise, give thought to these things.
Finally, brothers, whatever things are true, whatever things are honorable, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think about these things.
Finally, brethren, whatever things are true, whatever things are honest, whatever things are just, whatever things are pure, whatever things are lovely, whatever things are of good report; if there is any virtue, and if there is any praise, think on these things.
- 9 The things which came to you by my teaching and preaching, and which you saw in me, these things do, and the God of peace will be with you.
The things which you learned, received, heard, and saw in me: do these things, and the God of peace will be with you.
Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace will be with you.
- 10 But I am very glad in the Lord that your care for me has come to life again; though you did in fact take thought for me, but you were not able to give effect to it.
But I rejoice in the Lord greatly, that now at length you have revived your thought for me; in which you did indeed take thought, but you lacked opportunity.
But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me hath flourished again; wherein ye were also careful, but ye lacked opportunity.
- 11 But I will not say anything about my needs, for I am able, wherever I am, to be dependent on myself.
Not that I speak in respect to lack, for I have learned in whatever state I am, to be content in it.
Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatever state I am, with that to be content.
- 12 It is the same to me if I am looked down on or honoured; everywhere and in all things I have the secret of how to be full and how to go without food; how to have wealth and how to be in need.
I know how to be humbled, and I know also how to abound. In everything and in all things have I learned the secret both to be filled and to be hungry, both to abound and to be in need.
I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.

- 13 I am able to do all things through him who gives me strength.
I can do all things through Christ, who strengthens me.
I can do all things through Christ who strengtheneth me.
- 14 But you did well to have care for me in my need.
However you did well that you had fellowship with my affliction.
Notwithstanding ye have done well, that ye did communicate with my affliction.
- 15 And you have knowledge, Philippians, that when the good news first came to you, when I went away from Macedonia, no church took part with me in the business of giving to the saints, but you only;
You yourselves also know, you Philippians, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no assembly had fellowship with me in the matter of giving and receiving but you only.
Now, ye Philippians, know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but ye only.
- 16 Because even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to me in my need.
For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again to my need.
For even in Thessalonica ye sent once and again to my necessity.
- 17 Not that I am looking for an offering, but for fruit which may be put to your credit.
Not that I seek for the gift, but I seek for the fruit that increases to your account.
Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.
- 18 I have all things and more than enough: I am made full, having had from Epaphroditus the things which came from you, a perfume of a sweet smell, an offering well pleasing to God.
But I have all things, and abound. I am filled, having received from Epaphroditus the things that came from you, a sweet-smelling fragrance, an acceptable and well-pleasing sacrifice to God.
But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well-pleasing to God.

19 And my God will give you all you have need of from the wealth of his glory in Christ Jesus.
My God will supply every need of yours according to his riches in glory in Christ Jesus.
But my God will supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.

20 Now to God our Father be glory for ever and ever. So be it.
Now to our God and Father be the glory forever and ever. Amen.
Now to God and our Father be glory for ever and ever. Amen.

21 Give words of love to every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me send you their love.
Greet every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers who are with me greet you.
Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brethren who are with me greet you.

22 All the saints send their love to you, specially those who are of Caesar's house.
All the saints greet you, especially those who are of Caesar's household.
All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Cesar's household.

23 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit.
The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the purpose of God, and Timothy our brother,
Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus through the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,

2 To the saints and true brothers in Christ at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God our Father.
To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ [who are] at Colossae: Grace to you and peace from God, our Father, and the Lord, Jesus Christ.
To the saints and faithful brethren in Christ who are at Colosse: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 We give praise to God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, making prayer for you at all times,
We give thanks to God, the Father of our Lord, Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,

4 After hearing of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have for all the saints, having heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have toward all the saints,
Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which ye have to all the saints,

5 Through the hope which is in store for you in heaven; knowledge of which was given to you before in the true word of the good news, because of the hope which is laid up for you in the heavens, whereof you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel,
For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which ye have heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;

6 Which has come to you; and which in all the world is giving fruit and increase, as it has done in you from the day when it came to your ears and you had true knowledge of the grace of God;
which has come to you; even as it is also in all the world bearing fruit and increasing, as it does in you also, since the day you heard and knew the grace of God in truth;
Which is come to you, as it is in all the world; and bringeth forth fruit, as it doth also in you, since the day ye heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:

7 As it was given to you by Epaphras, our well-loved helper, who is a true servant of Christ for us, even as you learned of Epaphras our beloved fellow-servant, who is a faithful minister of Christ on our behalf,
As ye also learned from Epaphras our dear fellow-servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;

8 And who, himself, made clear to us your love in the Spirit.
who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.
Who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.

- 9 For this reason, we, from the day when we had word of it, keep on in prayer for you, that you may be full of the knowledge of his purpose, with all wisdom and experience of the Spirit,
For this cause, we also, since the day we heard this, haven't ceased to pray and make requests for you, that you may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all spiritual wisdom and understanding,
For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that ye may be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
- 10 Living uprightly in the approval of the Lord, giving fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
to walk worthily of the Lord, to please him in all respects, bearing fruit in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
That ye may walk worthy of the Lord to all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
- 11 Full of strength in the measure of the great power of his glory, so that you may undergo all troubles with joy;
strengthened with all power, according to the might of his glory, to all patience and perseverance with joy;
Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all patience and long-suffering with joyfulness;
- 12 Giving praise to the Father who has given us a part in the heritage of the saints in light;
giving thanks to the Father, who made us fit to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light;
Giving thanks to the Father, who hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
- 13 Who has made us free from the power of evil and given us a place in the kingdom of the Son of his love;
who delivered us out of the power of darkness, and translated us into the kingdom of the Son of his love;
Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his beloved Son:
- 14 In whom we have our salvation, the forgiveness of sins:
in whom we have our redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of our sins;
In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:
- 15 Who is the image of the unseen God coming into existence before all living things;
who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation.
Who is the image of the invisible God, the first-born of every creature:

- 16 For by him all things were made, in heaven and on earth, things seen and things unseen, authorities, lords, rulers, and powers; all things were made by him and for him;
For in him were all things created, in the heavens and on the earth, things visible and things invisible, whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers; all things have been created through him, and to him.
For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are upon earth, visible and invisible, whether thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers: all things were created by him, and for him:
- 17 He is before all things, and in him all things have being.
He is before all things, and in him all things are held together.
And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
- 18 And he is the head of the body, the church: the starting point of all things, the first to come again from the dead; so that in all things he might have the chief place.
He is the head of the body, the assembly, who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.
And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the first-born from the dead; that in all things he may have the pre-eminence.
- 19 For God in full measure was pleased to be in him;
For all the fullness was pleased to dwell in him;
For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell;
- 20 Through him uniting all things with himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross; through him, I say, uniting all things which are on earth or in heaven.
and through him to reconcile all things to himself, having made peace through the blood of his cross. Through him, I say, whether things on the earth, or things in the heavens.
And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether they are things on earth, or things in heaven.
- 21 And you, who in the past were cut off and at war with God in your minds through evil works, he has now made one
You, being in past times alienated and enemies in your mind in your evil works,
And you, that were formerly alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now hath he reconciled,

22 In the body of his flesh through death, so that you might be holy and without sin and free from all evil before him:
yet now he has reconciled in the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and without blemish and blameless before him,

In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and unblamable and unreprouvable in his sight:

23 If you keep yourselves safely based in the faith, not moved from the hope of the good news which came to you, and which was given to every living being under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

if it is so that you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard, which was preached in all creation under heaven; of which I, Paul, was made a servant.

If ye continue in the faith grounded and settled, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which ye have heard, and which hath been preached to every creature which is under heaven; of which I Paul am made a minister;

24 Now I have joy in my pain because of you, and in my flesh I undergo whatever is still needed to make the sorrows of Christ complete, for the salvation of his body, the church;

Now I rejoice in my sufferings for your sake, and fill up on my part that which is lacking of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the assembly;

Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and fill up that which is behind of the afflictions of Christ in my flesh for his body's sake, which is the church:

25 Of which I became a servant by the purpose of God which was given to me for you, to give effect to the word of God, of which I was made a servant, according to the stewardship of God which was given me toward you, to fulfill the word of God,

Of which I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God;

26 The secret which has been kept from all times and generations, but has now been made clear to his saints, the mystery which has been hidden for ages and generations. But now it has been revealed to his saints,

Even the mystery which hath been hid from ages, and from generations, but now is made manifest to his saints:

27 To whom God was pleased to give knowledge of the wealth of the glory of this secret among the Gentiles, which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

to whom God was pleased to make known what are the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles, who is Christ in you, the hope of glory;

To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:

28 Whom we are preaching; guiding and teaching every man in all wisdom, so that every man may be complete in Christ;
whom we proclaim, admonishing every man and teaching every man in all wisdom, that we may present every man perfect in Christ;

Whom we preach, warning every man, and teaching every man in all wisdom; that we may present every man perfect in Christ Jesus.

29 And for this purpose I am working, using all my strength by the help of his power which is working in me strongly.
for which I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

For which I also labor, striving according to his working, which worketh in me mightily.

1 For it is my desire to give you news of the great fight I am making for you and for those at Laodicea, and for all who have not seen my face in the flesh;
For I desire to have you know how greatly I strive for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

For I would that ye knew what great conflict I have for you, and for them at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;

2 So that their hearts may be comforted, and that being joined together in love, they may come to the full wealth of the certain knowledge of the secret of God, even Christ, that their hearts may be comforted, they being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, that they may know the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ,

That their hearts may be comforted, being knit together in love, and to all riches of the full assurance of understanding to the acknowledgment of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;

3 In whom are all the secret stores of wisdom and knowledge.
in whom are all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden.

In whom are hid all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.

4 I say this so that you may not be turned away by any deceit of words.
This I say that no one may delude you with persuasiveness of speech.
And this I say, lest any man should deceive you with enticing words.

5 For though I am not present in the flesh, still I am with you in the spirit, seeing with joy your order, and your unchanging faith in Christ.
For though I am absent in the flesh, yet am I with you in the spirit, rejoicing and seeing your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, joying and beholding your order, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.

6 As, then, you took Christ Jesus the Lord, so go on in him,
As therefore you received Christ Jesus, the Lord, walk in him,
As ye have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk ye in him:

7 Rooted and based together in him, strong in the faith which the teaching gave you, giving praise to God at all times.
rooted and built up in him, and established in your faith, even as you were taught, abounding in it in thanksgiving.
Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as ye have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.

8 Take care that no one takes you away by force, through man's wisdom and deceit, going after the beliefs of men and the theories of the world, and not after Christ:
Be careful that you don't let anyone rob you through his philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the elements of the world, and not after Christ.
Beware lest any man make a prey of you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.

9 For in him all the wealth of God's being has a living form,
For in him all the fullness of the Godhead dwells bodily,
For in him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

10 And you are complete in him, who is the head of all rule and authority:
and in him you are made full, who is the head of all principality and power;
And ye are complete in him, who is the head of all principality and power:

- 11 In whom you had a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ;
in whom you were also circumcised with a circumcision not made with hands, in the putting off of the body of the sins of the flesh, in the circumcision of Christ;
In whom also ye are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
- 12 Having been put to death with him in baptism, by which you came to life again with him, through faith in the working of God, who made him come back from the dead.
having been buried with him in baptism, in which you were also raised with him through faith in the working of God, who raised him from the dead.
Buried with him in baptism, in which also ye are raised with him through the faith of the operation of God, who hath raised him from the dead.
- 13 And you, being dead through your sins and the evil condition of your flesh, to you, I say, he gave life together with him, and forgiveness of all our sins;
You were dead through your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh. He made you alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses;
And you, being dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, hath he made alive together with him, having forgiven you all trespasses;
- 14 Having put an end to the handwriting of the law which was against us, taking it out of the way by nailing it to his cross;
having blotted out the bond written in ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us: and he has taken it out that way, nailing it to the cross;
Blotting out the hand-writing of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to his cross;
- 15 Having made himself free from the rule of authorities and powers, he put them openly to shame, glorying over them in it.
having stripped the principalities and the powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
And having despoiled principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
- 16 For this reason let no man be your judge in any question of food or drink or feast days or new moons or Sabbaths:
Let no man therefore judge you in eating, or in drinking, or with respect to a feast day or a new moon or a Sabbath day,
Let no man therefore judge you in food, or in drink, or in respect of a holy-day, or or the new-moon, or of the sabbaths:

- 17 For these are an image of the things which are to come; but the body is Christ's.
which are a shadow of the things to come; but the body is Christ's.
Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
- 18 Let no man take your reward from you by consciously making little of himself and giving worship to angels; having his thoughts fixed on the things which he has seen, being foolishly lifted up in his natural mind,
Let no man rob you of your prize by a voluntary humility and worshipping of the angels, dwelling in the things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
Let no man beguile you of your reward in a voluntary humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he hath not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
- 19 And not joined to the Head, from whom all the body, being given strength and kept together through its joins and bands, has its growth with the increase of God.
and not holding firmly to the Head, from whom all the body, being supplied and knit together through the joints and ligaments, grows with God's growth.
And not holding the head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increaseth with the increase of God.
- 20 If you were made free, by your death with Christ, from the rules of the world, why do you put yourselves under the authority of orders
If you died with Christ from the elements of the world, why, as though living in the world, do you subject yourselves to ordinances,
Wherefore, if ye are dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are ye subject to ordinances,
- 21 Which say there may be no touching, tasting, or taking in your hands,
"Don't handle, nor taste, nor touch" (Touch not; taste not; handle not;
- 22 (Rules which are all to come to an end with their use) after the orders and teaching of men?
(all which things are to perish with the using), after the precepts and doctrines of men?
Which all are to perish with the using;) according to the commandments and doctrines of men?

23 These things seem to have a sort of wisdom in self-ordered worship and making little of oneself, and being cruel to the body, not honouring it by giving it its natural use.
Which things indeed appear like wisdom in self-imposed worship, and humility, and severity to the body; but aren't of any value against the indulgence of the flesh.

Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in will-worship, and humility, and neglecting of the body; not in any honor to the satisfying of the flesh.

1 If then you have a new life with Christ, give your attention to the things of heaven, where Christ is seated at the right hand of God.
If then you were raised together with Christ, seek the things that are above, where Christ is, seated on the right hand of God.
If ye then be raised with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sitteth on the right hand of God.

2 Keep your mind on the higher things, not on the things of earth.
Set your mind on the things that are above, not on the things that are on the earth.
Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.

3 For your life on earth is done, and you have a secret life with Christ in God.
For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.

4 At the coming of Christ who is our life, you will be seen with him in glory.
When Christ, our life, is revealed, then you will also be revealed with him in glory.
When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then will ye also appear with him in glory.

5 Then put to death your bodies which are of the earth; wrong use of the flesh, unclean things, passion, evil desires and envy, which is the worship of strange gods;
Put to death therefore your members which are on the earth: sexual immorality, uncleanness, passion, evil desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry;
Mortify therefore your members which are upon the earth; lewdness, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil concupiscence, and covetousness, which is idolatry:

- 6 Because of which the wrath of God comes on those who go against his orders; for which things` sake the wrath of God comes on the sons of disobedience.
For which things the wrath of God cometh on the children of disobedience:
- 7 Among whom you were living in the past, when you did such things.
You also once walked in those, when you lived in these things;
In which ye also walked formerly, when ye lived with them.
- 8 But now it is right for you to put away all these things; wrath, passion, bad feeling, curses, unclean talk;
but now you also put them all away: anger, wrath, malice, slander, and shameful speaking out of your mouth.
But now ye also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, blasphemy, filthy communication out of your mouth.
- 9 Do not make false statements to one another; because you have put away the old man with all his doings,
Don` t lie to one another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his doings,
Lie not one to another, seeing ye have put off the old man with his deeds;
- 10 And have put on the new man, which has become new in knowledge after the image of his maker;
and have put on the new man, that is being renewed in knowledge after the image of his Creator,
And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:
- 11 Where there is no Greek or Jew, no one with circumcision or without circumcision, no division between nations, no servant or free man: but Christ is all and in all.
where there can` t be Greek and Jew, circumcision and uncircumcision, barbarian, Scythian, bondservant, freeman; but Christ is all, and in all.
Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
- 12 As saints of God, then, holy and dearly loved, let your behaviour be marked by pity and mercy, kind feeling, a low opinion of yourselves, gentle ways, and a power of undergoing all things;
Put on therefore, as God`s elect, holy and beloved, a heart of compassion, kindness, lowliness, humility, and perseverance;
Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, bowels of mercies, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, long-suffering;

- 13 Being gentle to one another and having forgiveness for one another, if anyone has done wrong to his brother, even as the Lord had forgiveness for you:
bearing with one another, and forgiving each other, if any man has a complaint against any; even as the Lord forgave you, so also do.
Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another, if any man hath a quarrel against any: even as Christ forgave you, so also do ye.
- 14 And more than all, have love; the only way in which you may be completely joined together.
Above all these things, walk in love, which is the bond of perfection.
And above all these things put on charity, which is the bond of perfectness.
- 15 And let the peace of Christ be ruling in your hearts, as it was the purpose of God for you to be one body; and give praise to God at all times.
Let the peace of Christ rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body. Be thankful.
And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.
- 16 Let the word of Christ be in you in all wealth of wisdom; teaching and helping one another with songs of praise and holy words, making melody to God with grace in your hearts.
Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly; in all wisdom teaching and admonishing one another with psalms, hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to God.
Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms, and hymns, and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
- 17 And whatever you do, in word or in act, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving praise to God the Father through him.
Whatever you do, in word or in deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God, the Father, through him.
And whatever ye do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
- 18 Wives, be under the authority of your husbands, as is right in the Lord.
Wives, be in subjection to your husbands, as is fitting in the Lord.
Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as it is fit in the Lord.

- 19 Husbands, have love for your wives, and be not bitter against them.
Husbands, love your wives, and don't be bitter against them.
Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.
- 20 Children, do the orders of your fathers and mothers in all things, for this is pleasing to the Lord.
Children, obey your parents in all things, for this pleases the Lord.
Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well-pleasing to the Lord.
- 21 Fathers, do not be hard on your children, so that their spirit may not be broken.
Fathers, don't provoke your children, so that they won't be discouraged.
Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
- 22 Servants, in all things do the orders of your natural masters; not only when their eyes are on you, as pleasers of men, but with all your heart, fearing the Lord:
Servants, obey in all things those who are your masters according to the flesh, not just when they are looking, as men-pleasers, but in singleness of heart, fearing the Lord.
Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eye-service, as men-pleasers; but in singleness of heart, fearing God:
- 23 Whatever you do, do it readily, as to the Lord and not to men;
Whatever you do, work heartily, as for the Lord, and not for men,
And whatever ye do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to men;
- 24 Being certain that the Lord will give you the reward of the heritage: for you are the servants of the Lord Christ.
knowing that from the Lord you will receive the reward of the inheritance; for you serve the Lord, Christ.
Knowing that from the Lord ye will receive the reward of the inheritance: for ye serve the Lord Christ.
- 25 For the wrongdoer will have punishment for the wrong he has done, without respect for any man's position.
For he who does wrong will receive again for the wrong that he has done, and there is no partiality.
But he that doeth wrong, will receive for the wrong which he hath done: and there is no respect of persons.

- 1 Masters, give your servants what is right and equal, conscious that you have a Master in heaven.
Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal, knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.
Masters, give to your servants that which is just and equal; knowing that ye also have a Master in heaven.
- 2 Give yourselves to prayer at all times, keeping watch with praise;
Continue steadfastly in prayer, watching therein with thanksgiving;
Continue in prayer, and watch in the same with thanksgiving;
- 3 And making prayer for us, that God may give us an open door for the preaching of the word, the secret of Christ, for which I am now in chains;
praying together for us also, that God may open to us a door for the word, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds;
At the same time praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for which I am also in bonds:
- 4 So that I may make it clear, as it is right for me to do.
that I may reveal it as I ought to speak.
That I may make it manifest, as I ought to speak.
- 5 Be wise in your behaviour to those who are outside, making good use of the time.
Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time.
Walk in wisdom towards them that are without, redeeming the time.
- 6 Let your talk be with grace, mixed with salt, so that you may be able to give an answer to everyone.
Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.
Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that ye may know how ye ought to answer every man.
- 7 Tychicus will give you news of all my business: he is a dear brother and true servant and helper in the word;
All my affairs will be made known to you by Tychicus, the beloved brother, faithful servant, and fellow bondservant in the Lord.
All my state shall Tychicus declare to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow-servant in the Lord:

- 8 And I have sent him to you for this very purpose, so that you may have news of how we are, and so that he may give your hearts comfort;
I am sending him to you for this very purpose, that he may know your circumstances and comfort your hearts,
Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he may know your state, and comfort your hearts;
- 9 And with him I have sent Onesimus, the true and well-loved brother, who is one of you. They will give you word of everything which is taking place here.
together with Onesimus, the faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things that are going on here.
With Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They will make known to you all things which are done here.
- 10 Aristarchus, my brother-prisoner, sends his love to you, and Mark, a relation of Barnabas (about whom you have been given orders: if he comes to you, be kind to him),
Aristarchus, my fellow prisoner greets you, and Mark, the cousin of Barnabas (concerning whom you received commandments, "if he comes to you, receive him"),
Aristarchus, my fellow-prisoner, saluteth you; and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (concerning whom ye received commandments: if he should come to you, receive him;)
- 11 And Jesus, whose other name is Justus; these are of the circumcision: they are my only brother-workers for the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me.
and Jesus who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These are my only fellow workers to the kingdom of God, men who have been a comfort to me.
And Jesus, who is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow-workers to the kingdom of God, who have been a comfort to me.
- 12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, sends you his love, ever taking thought for you in his prayers, that you may be complete and fully certain of all the purpose of God.
Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ Jesus, salutes you, always striving for you in his prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, saluteth you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that ye may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
- 13 For I give witness of him that he has undergone much trouble for you and for those in Laodicea and in Hierapolis.
For I testify about him, that he has great zeal for you, and for those in Laodicea, and for those in Hierapolis.
For I bear him testimony, that he hath a great zeal for you, and them that are in Laodicea, and them in Hierapolis.

14 Luke, our well-loved medical friend, and Demas, send you their love.
Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas greet you.
Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

15 Give my love to the brothers in Laodicea and to Nymphas and the church in their house.
Greet the brothers who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the assembly that is in his house.
Salute the brethren who are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.

16 And when this letter has been made public among you, let the same be done in the church of Laodicea; and see that you have the letter from Laodicea.
When this letter has been read among you, cause it to be read also in the assembly of the Laodiceans; and that you also read the letter from Laodicea.
And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that ye likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.

17 Say to Archippus, See that you do the work which the Lord has given you to do.
Tell Archippus, "Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it."
And say to Archippus, take heed to the ministry which thou hast received in the Lord, that thou fulfill it.

18 I, Paul, give you this word of love in my handwriting. Keep in memory that I am a prisoner. Grace be with you.
The salutation of me, Paul, with my own hand. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you.
The salutation by the hand of me Paul. Remember my bonds. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace.
Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the assembly of the Thessalonians in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father, and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

2 We give praise to God at all times for you, keeping you in memory in our prayers;
We always give thanks to God for all of you, mentioning you in our prayers,
We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;

3 Having ever in mind your work of faith and acts of love and the strength of your hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father;
remembering without ceasing your work of faith and labor of love and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, before our God and Father.

Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;

4 Being conscious, my brothers, dear to God, that you have been marked out by God's purpose;

We know, brothers loved by God, that you are chosen,

Knowing, brethren beloved by God, your election.

5 Because our good news came to you, not in word only, but in power, and in the Holy Spirit, so that you were completely certain of it; even as you saw what our behaviour to you was like from our love to you.

and that our gospel came to you not in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and with much assurance. You know what kind of men we showed ourselves to be among you for your sake.

For our gospel came not to you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as ye know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.

6 And you took us and the Lord as your example, after the word had come to you in much trouble, with joy in the Holy Spirit;

You became imitators of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit,

And ye became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit:

7 So that you became an example to all those who have faith in Christ in Macedonia and Achaia.

so that you became an example to all who believe in Macedonia and in Achaia.

So that ye were examples to all that believe, in Macedonia and Achaia.

8 For not only was the word of the Lord sounding out from you in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith in God is made clear; so that we have no need to say anything.

For from you has sounded forth the word of the Lord, not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but in every place your faith toward God has gone forth; so that we need not to say anything.

For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.

9 For they themselves give the news of how we came among you; and how you were turned from images to God, to the worship of a true and living God,
For they themselves report concerning us what kind of a reception we had from you; and how you turned to God from idols, to serve a living and true God,
For they themselves show of us what manner of entrance we had to you, and how ye turned to God from idols, to serve the living and true God;

10 Waiting for his Son from heaven, who came back from the dead, even Jesus, our Saviour from the wrath to come.
and to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead -- Jesus, who delivers us from the wrath to come.
And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, even Jesus, who delivered us from the wrath to come.

1 For you yourselves, brothers, are conscious that our coming among you was not without effect:
For you yourselves know, brothers, our visit to you hasn't been found vain,
For yourselves, brethren, know our entrance to you, that it was not in vain:

2 But after we had first undergone much pain and been cruelly attacked as you saw, at Philippi, by the help of God we gave you the good news without fear, though everything was against us.
but having suffered before and been shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we grew bold in our God to tell you the gospel of God in much conflict.
But even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as ye know, at Phillippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God with much contention.

3 For our witness does not come from error or from an unclean heart or from deceit:
For our exhortation is not of error, nor of uncleanness, nor in deception.
For our exhortation was not from deceit, nor from impurity, nor in guile;

4 But even as the good news was given to us by the approval of God, so we give it out; not as pleasing men, but God by whom our hearts are tested.
But even as we have been approved by God to be entrusted with the gospel, so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who tests our hearts.
But as we were allowed by God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts.

- 5 For it is common knowledge among you that we never made use of smooth-sounding false words, and God is witness that at no time were we secretly desiring profit for ourselves,
For neither were we at any time found using words of flattery, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness (God is witness),
For neither at any time used we flattering words, as ye know, nor a cloke of covetousness; God is witness:
- 6 Or looking for glory from men, from you or from others, when we might have made ourselves a care to you as Apostles of Christ.
nor seeking glory from men (neither from you nor from others), when we might have claimed authority as apostles of Christ.
Nor from men sought we glory, neither from you, nor yet from others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
- 7 But we were gentle among you, like a woman caring for her little ones:
But we were gentle in the midst of you, as when a nurse cherishes her own children.
But we were gentle among you, even as a nurse cherisheth her children:
- 8 Even so, being full of loving desire for you, we took delight in giving you not only God's good news, but even our lives, because you were dear to us.
Even so, affectionately longing for you, we were well pleased to impart to you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because you had become very dear to us.
So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted to you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because ye were dear to us.
- 9 For you have the memory, my brothers, of our trouble and care; how, working night and day, so that we might not be a trouble to any of you, we gave you the good news of God.
For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail. Working night and day, that we might not burden any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.
For ye remember, brethren, our labor and toil: for laboring night and day, because we would not be chargeable to any of you, we preached to you the gospel of God.
- 10 You are witnesses, with God, how holy and upright and free from all evil was our way of life among you who have faith;
You are witnesses with God, how holy, righteously, and blamelessly we behaved ourselves toward you who believe.
Ye are witnesses, and God also, how holily, and justly, and unblamably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:

- 11 Even as you saw how, like a father with his children, we were teaching and comforting you all, and giving witness,
As you know how we exhorted, comforted, and implored everyone of you, as a father does his own children,
As ye know how we exhorted, and comforted, and charged every one of you, as a father doth his children,
- 12 So that your lives might be pleasing to God, who has given you a part in his kingdom and his glory.
to the end that you should walk worthily of God, who calls you into his own kingdom and glory.
That ye would walk worthy of God, who hath called you into his kingdom and glory.
- 13 And for this cause we still give praise to God, that, when the word came to your ears through us, you took it, not as the word of man, but, as it truly is, the word of God, which has living power in you who have faith.
For this cause we also thank God without ceasing, that, when you received from us the word of the message of God, you accepted it not as the word of men, but, as it is in truth, the word of God, which also works in you who believe.
For this cause also we thank God without ceasing, because, when ye received the word of God which ye heard from us, ye received it not as the word of men, but (as it is in truth) the word of God, which effectually worketh also in you that believe.
- 14 For you, my brothers, took as your examples the churches of God which are in Judaea in Christ Jesus; because you underwent the same things from your countrymen as they did from the Jews;
For you, brothers, became imitators of the assemblies of God which are in Judea in Christ Jesus; for you also suffered the same things from your own countrymen, even as they did from the Jews;
For ye, brethren, became followers of the churches of God which in Judea are in Christ Jesus: for ye also have suffered like things from your own countrymen, even as they have from the Jews:
- 15 Who put to death the Lord Jesus and the prophets, violently driving us out; who are displeasing to God and against all men; who killed the Lord Jesus and the prophets, and drove us out, and didn't please God, and are contrary to all men;
Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:
- 16 Who, to make the measure of their sins complete, kept us from giving the word of salvation to the Gentiles: but the wrath of God is about to come on them in the fullest degree.
forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved; to fill up their sins always. But wrath has come on them to the uttermost.
Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they may be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.

- 17 But we, my brothers, being away from you for a short time, in body but not in heart, had all the more desire to see your face;
But we, brothers, being bereaved of you for a short season, in presence, not in heart, tried even harder to see your face with great desire,
But we, brethren, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
- 18 For which reason we made attempts to come to you, even I, Paul, once and again; but Satan kept us from coming.
because we wanted to come to you -- indeed, I, Paul, once and again -- but Satan hindered us.
Wherefore we would have come to you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
- 19 For what is our hope or joy or crown of glory? Are not even you, before our Lord Jesus, at his coming?
For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Isn't it even you, before our Lord Jesus at his coming?
For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even ye in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?
- 20 For you are our glory and our joy.
For you are our glory and our joy.
For ye are our glory and joy.
- 1 At last our desire to have news of you was so strong that, while we ourselves were waiting at Athens,
Therefore, when we couldn't stand it any longer, we thought it good to be left behind at Athens alone,
Wherefore, when we could no longer forbear, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
- 2 We sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the good news of Christ, to give you strength and comfort in your faith;
and sent Timothy, our brother and God's servant in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith;
And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow-laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:

- 3 So that no man might be moved by these troubles; because you see that these things are part of God's purpose for us.
that no one be moved by these afflictions. For you know that we are appointed to this task.
That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for yourselves know that we are appointed to it.
- 4 And when we were with you, we said to you that trouble was before us; and so it came about, as you see.
For most assuredly, when we were with you, we told you beforehand that we are to suffer affliction, even as it happened, and you know.
For verily, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; even as it came to pass, and ye know.
- 5 For this reason, when I was no longer able to keep quiet, I sent to get news of your faith, fearing that you might be tested by the Evil One and that our work might come to nothing.
For this cause I also, when I couldn't stand it any longer, sent that I might know your faith, for fear that by any means the tempter had tempted you, and our labor would have been in vain.
For this cause, when I could no longer forbear, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter may have tempted you, and our labor be in vain.
- 6 But now that Timothy has come to us from you, and has given us good news of your faith and love, and that you have happy memories of us, desiring greatly to see us, even as we do to see you;
But when Timothy came just now to us from you, and brought us glad news of your faith and love, and that you have good memories of us always, longing to see us, even as we also long to see you;
But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and charity, and that ye have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:
- 7 For this cause, brothers, in all our trouble and grief we were comforted about you because of your faith; for this cause, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our distress and affliction through your faith.
Therefore, brethren, by your faith we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress:
- 8 For it is life to us if you keep your faith in the Lord unchanged.
For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.
For now we live, if ye stand fast in the Lord.

- 9 For how great is the praise which we give to God for you, and how great the joy with which we are glad because of you before our God;
For what thanksgiving can we render again to God for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God;
For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we rejoice for your sakes before our God;
- 10 Night and day requesting God again and again that we may see your face and make your faith complete.
night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
Night and day praying exceedingly that we may see your face, and may perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
- 11 Now may our God and Father himself and our Lord Jesus make a way for us to come to you;
Now may our God and Father himself, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you;
Now God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way to you.
- 12 And the Lord give you increase of love in fullest measure to one another and to all men, even as our love to you; and the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, even as we also do toward you,
And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one towards another, and towards all men, even as we do towards you:
- 13 So that your hearts may be strong and free from all sin before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.
to the end he may establish your hearts blameless in holiness before our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus with all his saints.
To the end he may establish your hearts unblamable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.
- 1 And last of all, the prayer which we make to you from our heart and in the name of the Lord Jesus, is this: that as we made clear to you what sort of behaviour is pleasing to God, as in fact you are doing now, so you will go on in these ways, but more and more.
Finally then, brothers, we beg and exhort you in the Lord Jesus, that, as you received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, -- that you abound more and more.
Furthermore then we beseech you, brethren, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as ye have received from us how ye ought to walk and to please God, so ye would abound more and more.

2 Because you have in mind the orders we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
For you know what charge we gave you through the Lord Jesus.
For ye know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.

3 For the purpose of God for you is this: that you may be holy, and may keep yourselves from the desires of the flesh;
For this is the will of God: your sanctification, that you abstain from sexual immorality,
For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that ye should abstain from lewdness.

4 So that every one of you may keep his body holy and in honour; that each one of you know how to possess himself of his own vessel in sanctification and honor,
That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor;

5 Not in the passion of evil desires, like the Gentiles, who have no knowledge of God;
not in the passion of lust, even as the Gentiles who don't know God;
Not in the lust of concupiscence, even as the Gentiles who know not God:

6 And that no man may make attempts to get the better of his brother in business: for the Lord is the judge in all these things, as we said to you before and gave witness.
that no one should take advantage of and wrong a brother or sister in this matter; because the Lord is an avenger in all these things, as also we forewarned you and testified.
That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.

7 Because it is God's purpose that our way of life may be not unclean but holy.
For God called us not for uncleanness, but in sanctification.
For God hath not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.

8 Whoever, then, goes against this word, goes against not man but God, who gives his Holy Spirit to you.
Therefore he who rejects, doesn't reject man, but God, who has also given his Holy Spirit to you.
He therefore that despiseth, despiseth not man, but God, who hath also given to us his holy Spirit.

- 9 But about loving the brothers, there is no need for me to say anything to you in this letter: for you have the teaching of God that love for one another is right and necessary;
But concerning brotherly love, you have no need that one write to you. For you yourselves are taught by God to love one another,
But concerning brotherly love ye need not that I write to you: for ye yourselves are taught by God to love one another.
- 10 And, truly, you are lovers of all the brothers in Macedonia; but it is our desire that your love may be increased still more;
for indeed you do it toward all the brothers who are in all Macedonia. But we exhort you, brothers, that you abound more and more;
And indeed ye do it towards all the brethren who are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brethren, that ye increase more and more;
- 11 And that you may take pride in being quiet and doing your business, working with your hands as we gave you orders;
and that you make it your ambition to lead a quiet life, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, even as we charged you;
And that ye study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
- 12 That you may be respected by those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.
that you may walk properly toward those who are outside, and may have need of nothing.
That ye may walk honestly towards them that are without, and that ye may have need of nothing.
- 13 But it is our desire, brothers, that you may be certain about those who are sleeping; so that you may have no need for sorrow, as others have who are without hope.
But we don't want you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who have fallen asleep, so that you don't grieve like the rest, who have no hope.
But I would not have you to be ignorant, brethren, concerning them who are asleep, that ye sorrow not, even as others who have no hope.
- 14 For if we have faith that Jesus underwent death and came back again, even so those who are sleeping will come again with him by God's power.
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so those who have fallen asleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also who sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are still living at the coming of the Lord, will not go before those who are sleeping.
For this we tell you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left to the coming of the Lord, will in no way precede those who have fallen asleep.

For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we who are alive and remain to the coming of the Lord shall not precede them who are asleep.

16 Because the Lord himself will come down from heaven with a word of authority, with the voice of the chief angel, with the sound of a horn: and the dead in Christ will come to life first;
For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with God's trumpet. The dead in Christ will rise first,

For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:

17 Then we who are still living will be taken up together with them into the clouds to see the Lord in the air: and so will we be for ever with the Lord.

then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air. So we will be with the Lord forever.

Then we who are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.

18 So then, give comfort to one another with these words.

Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Wherefore, comfort one another with these words.

1 But about the times and their order, my brothers, there is no need for me to say anything to you.

But concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that anything be written to you.

But of the times and the seasons, brethren, ye have no need that I write to you.

2 For you yourselves have the knowledge that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night.

For you yourselves know well that the day of the Lord comes like a thief in the night.

For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.

3 When they say, There is peace and no danger, then sudden destruction will come on them, as birth-pains on a woman with child; and they will not be able to get away from it.
For when they are saying, "Peace and safety," then sudden destruction will come on them, like birth pains on a pregnant woman; and they will in no way escape.

For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.

4 But you, my brothers, are not in the dark, for that day to overtake you like a thief:

But you, brothers, aren't in darkness, that the day should overtake you like a thief.

But ye, brethren, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.

5 For you are all sons of light and of the day: we are not of the night or of the dark.

You are all sons of light, and sons of the day. We don't belong to the night, nor to darkness,

Ye are all children of light, and children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.

6 So then, let us not take our rest as the others do, but let us be self-controlled and awake.

so then let's not sleep, as the rest do, but let us watch and be sober.

Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.

7 For those who are sleeping do so in the night; and those who are the worse for drink are so in the night;

For those who sleep, sleep in the night, and those who are drunken are drunken in the night.

For they that sleep, sleep in the night; and they that are drunken, are drunken in the night.

8 But let us, who are of the day, be serious, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and on our heads, the hope of salvation.

But let us, since we belong to the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love, and, for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breast-plate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.

9 For God's purpose for us is not wrath, but salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

For God didn't appoint us to wrath, but to the obtaining of salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ,

For God hath not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,

- 10 Who was put to death for us, so that, awake or sleeping, we may have a part in his life.
who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.
Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.
- 11 So then, go on comforting and building up one another, as you have been doing.
Therefore exhort one another, and build each other up, even as you also do.
Wherefore, comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, even as also ye do.
- 12 But we make this request to you, my brothers: give attention to those who are working among you, who are over you in the Lord to keep order among you;
But we beg you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you,
And we beseech you, brethren, to know them who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
- 13 And have a high opinion of them in love because of their work. Be at peace among yourselves.
and to respect and honor them in love for their work's sake. Be at peace among yourselves.
And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
- 14 And our desire is that you will keep control over those whose lives are not well ordered, giving comfort to the feeble-hearted, supporting those with little strength, and putting up with much from all.
We exhort you, brothers, admonish the disorderly, encourage the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all.
Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are disorderly, comfort the feeble-minded, support the weak, be patient towards all men.
- 15 Let no one give evil for evil; but ever go after what is good, for one another and for all.
See that no one returns evil for evil to anyone, but always follow after that which is good, towards one another, and towards all.
See that none render evil for evil to any man; but ever follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.
- 16 Have joy at all times.
Rejoice always.
Rejoice evermore.

- 17 Keep on with your prayers.
Pray without ceasing.
Pray without ceasing.
- 18 In everything give praise: for this is the purpose of God in Christ Jesus for you.
In everything give thanks, for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus toward you.
In every thing give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
- 19 Do not put out the light of the Spirit;
Don` t quench the Spirit.
Quench not the spirit.
- 20 Do not make little of the words of the prophets;
Don` t despise prophesies.
Despise not prophesyings.
- 21 Let all things be tested; keep to what is good;
Test all things, and hold firmly that which is good.
Prove all things; hold fast that which is good.
- 22 Keep from every form of evil.
Abstain from every form of evil.
Abstain from all appearance of evil.
- 23 And may the God of peace himself make you holy in every way; and may your spirit and soul and body be free from all sin at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
May the God of peace himself sanctify you completely. May your whole spirit, soul, and body be preserved blameless at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body may be preserved blameless to the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.

24 God, by whom you have been marked out in his purpose, is unchanging and will make it complete.

Faithful is he who calls you, who will also do it.

Faithful is he that calleth you, who also will do it.

25 Brothers, keep us in mind in your prayers.

Brothers, pray for us.

Brethren, pray for us.

26 Give all the brothers a holy kiss.

Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.

Greet all the brethren with a holy kiss.

27 I give orders in the name of the Lord that all the brothers are to be present at the reading of this letter.

I solemnly charge you by the Lord that this letter be read to all the holy brothers.

I charge you by the Lord that this epistle be read to all the holy brethren.

28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

1 Paul and Silvanus and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Paul, Silvanus, and Timothy, To the assembly of the Thessalonians in God, our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ:

Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:

2 Grace to you and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

- 3 It is right for us to give praise to God at all times for you, brothers, because of the great increase of your faith, and the wealth of your love for one another;
We are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers, even as it is appropriate, because your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of each and every one of you towards one another abounds;
We are bound to thank God always for you, brethren, as it is meet, because your faith groweth exceedingly, and the charity of every one of you all towards each other aboundeth;
- 4 So that we ourselves take pride in you in the churches of God for your untroubled mind and your faith in all the troubles and sorrows which you are going through;
so that we ourselves boast about you in the assemblies of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and in the afflictions which you endure.
So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God, for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that ye endure:
- 5 Which is a clear sign of the decision which God in his righteousness has made; to give you a part in his kingdom, for which you have undergone this pain;
This is an obvious sign of the righteous judgment of God, to the end that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer.
Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that ye may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which ye also suffer:
- 6 For it is an act of righteousness on God's part to give trouble as their reward to those who are troubling you,
Since it is a righteous thing with God to repay affliction to those who afflict you,
Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
- 7 And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus comes from heaven with the angels of his power in flames of fire, and to give relief to you that are afflicted with us, when the Lord Jesus is revealed from heaven with his mighty angels in flaming fire,
And to you who are troubled, rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
- 8 To give punishment to those who have no knowledge of God, and to those who do not give ear to the good news of our Lord Jesus:
giving vengeance to those who don't know God, and to those who don't obey the gospel of our Lord Jesus,
In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:

- 9 Whose reward will be eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his strength, who will pay the penalty: eternal destruction from the face of the Lord and from the glory of his might,
Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;
- 10 At his coming, when he will have glory in his saints, and will be a cause of wonder in all those who had faith (because our witness among you had effect) in that day.
when he comes to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired among all those who have believed (because our testimony to you was believed) in that day.
When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired by all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.
- 11 For this reason, you are ever in our prayers, that you may seem to our God such as may have a part in his purpose and that by his power he will make all his good purpose, and the work of faith, complete;
To this end we also pray always for you, that our God may count you worthy of your calling, and fulfill every desire of goodness and work of faith, with power;
Wherefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:
- 12 So that glory may be given to the name of our Lord Jesus through you, and you may have glory in him, by the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.
that the name of our Lord Jesus may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.
That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and ye in him, according to the grace of our God, and of the Lord Jesus Christ.
- 1 Now as to the coming of the Lord Jesus Christ, and our meeting with him, it is our desire, my brothers,
Now we beg you, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and our gathering together to him,
Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering to him.
- 2 That you may not be moved in mind or troubled by a spirit, or by a word, or by a letter as from us, with the suggestion that the day of the Lord is even now come; to the end that you won't be quickly shaken in your mind, nor yet be troubled, either by spirit, or by word, or by letter as from us, saying that the day of Christ had come.
That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.

3 Give no belief to false words: because there will first be a falling away from the faith, and the revelation of the man of sin, the son of destruction,
Let no one deceive you in any way. For it will not be, unless the falling away comes first, and the man of sin is revealed, the son of destruction,

Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;

4 Who puts himself against all authority, lifting himself up over all which is named God or is given worship; so that he takes his seat in the Temple of God, putting himself forward as God.
he who opposes and exalts himself against all that is called God or that is worshipped; so that he sits as God in the temple of God, setting himself up as God.

Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshiped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.

5 Have you no memory of what I said when I was with you, giving you word of these things?

Don` t you remember that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?

Remember ye not, that when I was yet with you, I told you these things?

6 And now it is clear to you what is keeping back his revelation till the time comes for him to be seen.

Now you know what is restraining him, to the end that he may be revealed in his own season.

And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.

7 For the secret of evil is even now at work: but there is one who is keeping back the evil till he is taken out of the way.

For the mystery of lawlessness does already work. Only there is one who restrains now, until he is taken out of the way.

For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now restraineth will restrain, until he be taken out of the way.

8 And then will come the revelation of that evil one, whom the Lord Jesus will put to death with the breath of his mouth, and give to destruction by the revelation of his coming;

Then will the lawless one be revealed, whom the Lord will kill with the breath of his mouth, and bring to nothing by the brightness of his coming;

And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord will consume with the spirit of his mouth, and will destroy with the brightness of his coming:

- 9 Even the one whose coming is marked by the working of Satan, with all power and signs and false wonders, even he whose coming is according to the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan, with all power, and signs, and lying wonders,
- 10 And with every deceit of wrongdoing among those whose fate is destruction; because they were quite without that love of the true faith by which they might have salvation.
and with all deception of wickedness for those who are being lost, because they didn't receive the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
- 11 And for this cause, God will give them up to the power of deceit and they will put their faith in what is false:
Because of this, God sends them a working of error, that they should believe a lie;
And for this cause God will send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
- 12 So that they all may be judged, who had no faith in what is true, but took pleasure in evil.
that they all might be judged who didn't believe the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
That they all may be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.
- 13 But it is right for us to give praise to God at all times for you, brothers, loved by the Lord, because it was the purpose of God from the first that you might have salvation, being made holy by the Spirit and by faith in what is true:
But we are bound to always give thanks to God for you, brothers loved by the Lord, because God chose you from the beginning for salvation in sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth;
But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brethren, beloved by the Lord, because God hath from the beginning chosen you to salvation, through sanctification of the Spirit, and belief of the truth:
- 14 And in this purpose he gave you a part through the good news of which we were the preachers, even that you might have part in the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
whereunto he called you through our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
To which he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.

- 15 So then, brothers, be strong in purpose, and keep the teaching which has been given to you by word or by letter from us.
So then, brothers, stand firm, and hold the traditions which you were taught by us, whether by word, or by letter.
Therefore, brethren, stand fast, and hold the traditions which ye have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.
- 16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God our Father who had love for us and has given us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,
Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, our Father, who loved us and gave us eternal comfort and good hope through grace,
Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, who hath loved us, and hath given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,
- 17 Give you comfort and strength in every good work and word.
comfort your hearts and establish you in every good work and word.
Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.
- 1 For the rest, my brothers, let there be prayer for us that the word of the Lord may go forward with increasing glory, even as it does with you;
Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may run and be glorified, even as also with you;
Finally, brethren, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, even as it is with you;
- 2 And that we may be made free from foolish and evil men; for not all have faith.
and that we may be delivered from unreasonable and evil men; for not all have faith.
And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.
- 3 But the Lord is true, who will give you strength and keep you safe from evil.
But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and guard you from the evil one.
But the Lord is faithful, who will establish you, and keep you from evil.

4 And we have faith in the Lord about you, that you are doing and will do the things about which we give you orders.
We have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that you both do and will do the things which we command.
And we have confidence in the Lord concerning you, that ye both do and will do the things which we command you.

5 And may your hearts be guided by the Lord into the love of God and quiet waiting for Christ.
May the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patience of Christ.
And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.

6 Now we give you orders, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, to keep away from all those whose behaviour is not well ordered and in harmony with the teaching which they had from us.
Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother who walks in rebellion, and not after the tradition which they received from us.
Now we command you, brethren, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that ye withdraw yourselves from every brother that walketh disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received from us.

7 For you yourselves are used to taking us as your example, because our life among you was ruled by order,
For you know how you ought to imitate us. For we didn't behave ourselves rebelliously among you,
For yourselves know how ye ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;

8 And we did not take food from any man for nothing, but were working hard night and day not to be a trouble to any of you:
neither did we eat bread for nothing from any man's hand, but in labor and travail, working night and day, that we might not burden any of you;
Neither did we eat any man's bread for naught; but wrought with labor and toil night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:

9 Not because we have not the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, so that you might do the same.
not because we don't have the right, but to make ourselves an example to you, that you should imitate us.
Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves a pattern to you to follow us.

- 10 For even when we were with you we gave you orders, saying, If any man does no work, let him not have food.
For even when we were with you, we commanded you this: "If anyone will not work, neither let him eat."
For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
- 11 For it has come to our ears that there are some among you whose behaviour is uncontrolled, who do no work at all, but are over-interested in the business of others.
For we hear of some who walk among you in rebellion, who don't work at all, but are busybodies.
For we hear that there are some who walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busy-bodies.
- 12 Now to such we give orders and make request in the Lord Jesus, that, working quietly, they get their living.
Now those who are that way, we command and exhort in the Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
- 13 And you, my brothers, do not get tired of well-doing.
But you, brothers, don't be weary in doing well.
But ye, brethren, be not weary in well-doing.
- 14 And if any man does not give attention to what we have said in this letter, take note of that man, and keep away from him, so that he may be shamed.
If any man doesn't obey our word by this letter, note that man, that you have no company with him, to the end that he may be ashamed.
And if any man obeyeth not our word by this epistle, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
- 15 Have no feeling of hate for him, but take him in hand seriously as a brother.
Don't count him as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
- 16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times and in every way. May the Lord be with you all.
Now may the Lord of peace himself give you peace at all times in all ways. The Lord be with you all.
Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.

- 17 These words of love to you at the end are in my writing, Paul's writing, and this is the mark of every letter from me.
The greeting of me, Paul, with my own hand, which is the sign in every letter. This is how I write.
The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token in every epistle: so I write.
- 18 May the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
- 1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, by the order of God our Saviour and Christ Jesus our hope;
Paul, an apostle of Christ Jesus according to the commandment of God, our Savior, and Christ Jesus, our hope;
Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Savior, and Lord Jesus Christ, who is our hope;
- 2 To Timothy, my true child in the faith: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
to Timothy, my true child in faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father, and Christ Jesus, our Lord.
To Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.
- 3 It was my desire, when I went on into Macedonia, that you might make a stop at Ephesus, to give orders to certain men not to put forward a different teaching,
As I exhorted you to stay at Ephesus, when I was going into Macedonia, that you might charge certain men not to teach a different doctrine,
As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some that they teach no other doctrine,
- 4 Or to give attention to stories and long lists of generations, from which come questionings and doubts, in place of God's ordered way of life which is in faith;
neither to pay attention to myths and endless genealogies, which cause disputes, rather than God's stewardship, which is in faith --
Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith; so do.

- 5 But the effect of the order is love coming from a clean heart, and a knowledge of what is right, and true faith:
But the end of the charge is love, out of a pure heart and a good conscience and unfeigned faith;
Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned;
- 6 From which some have been turned away, giving themselves to foolish talking;
from which things some, having missed the mark, have turned aside to vain talking;
From which some having swerved, have turned aside to vain jangling;
- 7 Desiring to be teachers of the law, though they have no knowledge of what they say or of the statements which they make so certainly.
desiring to be teachers of the law, though they understand neither what they say, nor about what they strongly affirm.
Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor concerning what they affirm.
- 8 We are conscious that the law is good, if a man makes a right use of it,
But we know that the law is good, if a man uses it lawfully,
But we know that the law is good, if a man useth it lawfully;
- 9 With the knowledge that the law is made, not for the upright man, but for those who have no respect for law and order, for evil men and sinners, for the unholy and those who have no religion, for those who put their fathers or mothers to death, for takers of life, as knowing this, that law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and insubordinate, for the ungodly and sinners, for the unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers, Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers, and murderers of mothers, for man-slayers,
- 10 For those who go after loose women, for those with unnatural desires, for those who take men prisoners, who make false statements and false oaths, and those who do any other things against the right teaching, for the sexually immoral, for homosexuals, for slave-traders, for liars, for perjurers, and for any other thing contrary to the sound doctrine;
For lewd persons, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for men-stealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there is any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine,

- 11 Which may be seen in the good news of the glory of the great God, which was given into my care.
according to the gospel of the glory of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.
- 12 I give praise to him who gave me power, Christ Jesus our Lord, because he took me to be true, making me his servant,
And I thank him who enabled me, Christ Jesus, our Lord, because he counted me faithful, appointing me to service;
And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, for that he counted me faithful, putting me into the ministry;
- 13 Though I had said violent words against God, and done cruel acts, causing great trouble: but I was given mercy, because I did it without knowledge, not having faith;
although I was before a blasphemer, a persecutor, and insolent. However, I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief.
Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief:
- 14 And the grace of our Lord was very great, with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
The grace of our Lord abounded exceedingly with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
- 15 It is a true saying, in which all may put their faith, that Christ Jesus came into the world to give salvation to sinners, of whom I am the chief:
The saying is faithful, and worthy of all acceptance, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.
- 16 But for this reason I was given mercy, so that in me, the chief of sinners, Jesus Christ might make clear all his mercy, as an example to those who in the future would have faith in him to eternal life.
However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me as chief, Jesus Christ might display all his patience, for an example of those who were going to believe in him to eternal life.
However, for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might show forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them who should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

- 17 Now to the King eternal, ever-living, unseen, the only God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. So be it.
Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, to God who alone is wise, be honor and glory forever and ever. Amen.
Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, God the only wise, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- 18 This order I give to you, Timothy my son, in harmony with the words of the prophets about you, so that by them you may be strong, fighting the good fight,
This charge I commit to you, my child Timothy, according to the prophecies which led the way to you, that by them you may wage the good warfare;
This charge I commit to thee, son Timothy, according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mayest war a good warfare;
- 19 Keeping faith, and being conscious of well-doing; for some, by not doing these things, have gone wrong in relation to the faith:
holding faith and a good conscience; which some having thrust away made a shipwreck concerning the faith;
Holding faith and a good conscience; which some having put away, concerning faith have made shipwreck:
- 20 Such are Hymenaeus and Alexander, whom I have given up to Satan, so that they may say no more evil words against God.
of whom is Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I delivered to Satan, that they might be taught not to blaspheme.
Of whom is Hymeneus and Alexander; whom I have delivered to Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.
- 1 My desire is, first of all, that you will make requests and prayers and give praise for all men;
I exhort therefore, first of all, that petitions, prayers, intercessions, and givings of thanks, be made for all men:
I exhort therefore, that first of all supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for all men;
- 2 For kings and all those in authority; so that we may have a calm and quiet life in all fear of God and serious behaviour.
for kings and all who are in high places; that we may lead a tranquil and quiet life in all godliness and reverence.
For kings, and for all that are in authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.
- 3 This is good and pleasing in the eyes of God our Saviour;
For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God, our Savior;
For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God our Savior;

- 4 Whose desire is that all men may have salvation and come to the knowledge of what is true.
who desires to have all men to be saved, and come to full knowledge of the truth.
Who will have all men to be saved, and to come to the knowledge of the truth.
- 5 For there is one God and one peacemaker between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,
For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus,
For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;
- 6 Who gave himself as an offering for all; witness of which was to be given at the right time;
who gave himself as a ransom for all; the testimony in its own times;
Who gave himself a ransom for all, to be testified in due time.
- 7 And of this I became a preacher and an Apostle (what I say is true, not false,) and a teacher of the Gentiles in the true faith.
to which I was appointed a preacher and an apostle (I am telling the truth in Christ, not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and truth.
For which I am ordained a preacher and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.
- 8 It is my desire, then, that in every place men may give themselves to prayer, lifting up holy hands, without wrath or argument.
I desire therefore that the men in every place pray, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
I will therefore that men pray every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.
- 9 And that women may be dressed in simple clothing, with a quiet and serious air; not with twisted hair and gold or jewels or robes of great price;
In the same way, that women also adorn themselves in decent clothing, with modesty and propriety; not just with braided hair, and gold or pearls or costly clothing;
In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in decent apparel, with modesty and sobriety; not with broidered hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array,
- 10 But clothed with good works, as is right for women who are living in the fear of God.
but (which becomes women professing godliness) through good works.
But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

- 11 Let a woman quietly take the place of a learner and be under authority.
Let a woman learn in quietness with all subjection.
Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.
- 12 In my opinion it is right for a woman not to be a teacher, or to have rule over a man, but to be quiet.
But I don`t permit a woman to teach, nor to exercise authority over a man, but to be in quietness.
But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.
- 13 For Adam was first formed, then Eve;
For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
For Adam was first formed, then Eve.
- 14 And Adam was not taken by deceit, but the woman, being tricked, became a wrongdoer.
Adam wasn` t deceived, but the woman, being deceived, has fallen into disobedience;
And Adam was not deceived, but the woman being deceived was in the transgression.
- 15 But if they go on in faith and love and holy self-control, she will be kept safe at the time of childbirth.
but she will be saved through her child-bearing, if they continue in faith, love, and sanctification with sobriety.
Notwithstanding, she will be saved in child-bearing, if they continue in faith, and charity, and holiness, with sobriety.
- 1 This is a true saying, A man desiring the position of a Bishop has a desire for a good work.
This is a faithful saying: if a man seeks the office of an overseer, he desires a good work.
This is a true saying, If a man desireth the office of a bishop, he desireth a good work.
- 2 The Bishop, then, is to be a man of good name, the husband of one wife, self-controlled, serious-minded, having respect for order, opening his house freely to guests, a ready teacher;
The overseer therefore must be without reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, sensible, modest, hospitable, good at teaching;
A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behavior, given to hospitality, apt to teach;

- 3 Not quickly moved to wrath or blows, but gentle; no fighter, no lover of money;
not a drinker, not violent, not greedy for money, but gentle, not quarrelsome, not covetous;
Not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre, but patient; not a brawler, not covetous;
- 4 Ruling his house well, having his children under control with all serious behaviour;
one who rules his own house well, having children in subjection with all reverence;
One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity;
- 5 (For if a man has not the art of ruling his house, how will he take care of the church of God?)
(but if a man doesn't know how to rule his own house, how will he take care of the assembly of God?)
(For if a man knoweth not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)
- 6 Not one newly taken into the church, for fear that, through his high opinion of himself, he may come into the same sin as the Evil One.
not a novice, to avoid being puffed up and falling into the condemnation of the devil.
Not a novice, lest being lifted up with pride he fall into the condemnation of the devil.
- 7 And he is to have a good name among those outside the church, so that nothing may be said against him and he may not be taken by the designs of the Evil One.
Moreover he must have good testimony from those who are outside, to avoid falling into reproach and the snare of the devil.
Moreover, he must have a good report of them who are without; lest he fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.
- 8 Deacons, in the same way, are to be serious in their behaviour, not false in word, not given to taking much wine or greatly desiring the wealth of this world;
Deacons, in the same way, must be reverent, not double-tongued, not addicted to much wine, not greedy for money;
Likewise must the deacons be grave, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy of filthy lucre,
- 9 Keeping the secret of the faith in a heart free from sin.
holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.
Holding the mystery of the faith in a pure conscience.

- 10 And let these first be put to the test; then let them become Deacons if there is nothing against them.
Let them also first be tested; then let them serve as deacons, if they are blameless.
And let these also first be proved; then let them use the office of a deacon, being found blameless.
- 11 Women are to be serious in behaviour, saying no evil of others, controlling themselves, true in all things.
Their wives in the same way must be reverent, not slanderers, temperate, faithful in all things.
Even so must their wives be grave, not slanderers, sober, faithful in all things.
- 12 Let Deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their houses well.
Let deacons be husbands of one wife, ruling their children and their own houses well.
Let the deacons be the husbands of one wife, ruling their children, and their own houses well.
- 13 For those who have done good work as Deacons get for themselves a good position and become free from fear in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
For those who have served well as deacons gain to themselves a good standing, and great boldness in the faith which is in Christ Jesus.
For they that have used the office of a deacon well, purchase to themselves a good degree, and great boldness in the faith, which is in Christ Jesus.
- 14 I am writing these things to you, though I am hoping to come to you before long;
These things I write to you, hoping to come to you shortly;
These things I write to thee, hoping to come to thee shortly:
- 15 But if I am long in coming, this will make clear to you what behaviour is right for men in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and base of what is true.
but if I wait long, that you may know how men ought to behave themselves in the house of God, which is the assembly of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.
But if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth.

- 16 And without argument, great is the secret of religion: He who was seen in the flesh, who was given God's approval in the spirit, was seen by the angels, of whom the good news was given among the nations, in whom the world had faith, who was taken up in glory.
Without controversy, the mystery of godliness is great: God was revealed in the flesh, Justified in the spirit, Seen by angels, Preached among the nations, Believed on in the world, And received up in glory.
And without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifest in the flesh, justified in the Spirit, seen by angels, preached to the Gentiles, believed on in the world, received up into glory.
- 1 But the Spirit says clearly that in later times some will be turned away from the faith, giving their minds to spirits of deceit, and the teachings of evil spirits,
But the Spirit says expressly that in later times some will fall away from the faith, paying attention to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons,
Now the Spirit speaketh expressly, that in the latter times some will depart from the faith, giving heed to seducing spirits and doctrines of demons;
- 2 Through the false ways of men whose words are untrue, whose hearts are burned as with a heated iron;
through the hypocrisy of men who speak lies, branded in their own conscience as with a hot iron;
Speaking lies in hypocrisy, having their conscience seared with a hot iron;
- 3 Who keep men from being married and from taking food which God made to be taken with praise by those who have faith and true knowledge.
forbidding marriage and commanding to abstinence from foods which God created to be received with thanksgiving by those who believe and know the truth.
Forbidding to marry, and commanding to abstain from meats, which God hath created to be received with thanksgiving by them who believe and know the truth.
- 4 Because everything which God has made is good, and nothing is evil, if it is taken with praise:
For every creature of God is good, and nothing is to be rejected, if it is received with thanksgiving.
For every creature of God is good, and nothing to be refused, if received with thanksgiving:
- 5 For it is made holy by the word of God and by prayer.
For it is sanctified through the word of God and prayer.
For it is sanctified by the word of God, and prayer.

6 If you keep these things before the minds of the brothers, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, trained in the words of the faith and of the right teaching which has been your guide:
If you instruct the brothers of these things, you will be a good servant of Christ Jesus, nourished in the words of the faith, and of the good doctrine which you have followed.

If thou shalt put the brethren in remembrance of these things, thou wilt be a good minister of Jesus Christ, nourished by the words of faith and of good doctrine, to which thou hast attained.

7 But have nothing to do with unclean and foolish stories. Give yourself training in religion:

But refuse profane and old wives' fables. Exercise yourself toward godliness.

But refuse profane and old wives' fables, and exercise thyself rather to godliness.

8 For the training of the body is of profit for a little, but religion is of profit in every way, giving hope for the life which now is, and for that which is to come.

For bodily exercise has some value, but godliness has value for all things, having the promise of the life which is now, and of that which is to come.

For bodily exercise profiteth little: but godliness is profitable to all things, having promise of the life that now is, and of that which is to come.

9 This is a true saying, in which all may put their faith.

This saying is faithful and worthy of all acceptance.

This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptance.

10 And this is the purpose of all our work and our fighting, because our hope is in the living God, who is the Saviour of all men, and specially of those who have faith.

For to this end we both labor and suffer reproach, because we have set our trust in the living God, who is the Savior of all men, especially of those who believe.

For therefore we both labor and suffer reproach, because we trust in the living God who is the Savior of all men, especially of those that believe.

11 Let these be your orders and your teaching.

Command and teach these things.

These things command and teach.

- 12 Let no one make little of you because you are young, but be an example to the church in word, in behaviour, in love, in faith, in holy living.
Let no man despise your youth; but be an example to those who believe, in word, in your way of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, and in purity.
Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in deportment, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.
- 13 Till I come, give attention to the reading of the holy Writings, to comforting the saints, and to teaching.
Until I come, pay attention to reading, to exhortation, and to teaching.
Till I come, give attendance to reading, to exhortation, to doctrine.
- 14 Make use of that grace in you, which was given to you by the word of the prophets, when the rulers of the church put their hands on you.
Don't neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the elders.
Neglect not the gift that is in thee, which was given thee by prophecy, with the laying on of the hands of the presbytery.
- 15 Have a care for these things; give yourself to them with all your heart, so that all may see how you go forward.
Be diligent in these things. Give yourself wholly to them, that your progress may be revealed to all.
Meditate upon these things; give thyself wholly to them; that thy profiting may appear to all.
- 16 Give attention to yourself and your teaching. Go on in these things; for in doing so you will get salvation for yourself and for those who give hearing to you.
Pay attention to yourself, and to your teaching. Continue in these things, for in doing this you will save both yourself and those who hear you.
Take heed to thyself and to thy doctrine; continue in them: for in doing this thou wilt both save thyself, and them that hear thee.
- 1 Do not say sharp words to one who has authority in the church, but let your talk be as to a father, and to the younger men as to brothers:
Don't rebuke an older man, but exhort him as a father; the younger men as brothers;
Rebuke not an elder, but entreat him as a father; and the younger men as brethren;

2 To the older women as to mothers, to the younger as to sisters, with a clean heart.

the elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, in all purity.

The elder women as mothers; the younger as sisters, with all purity.

3 Give honour to widows who are truly widows.

Honor widows who are widows indeed.

Honor widows that are widows indeed.

4 But if any widow has children or children's children, let these see that it is right to take care of their family and their fathers and mothers: for this is pleasing in the eyes of God.

But if any widow has children or grandchildren, let them learn first to show piety towards their own family, and to repay their parents, for this is acceptable in the sight of God.

But if any widow hath children or nephews, let them learn first to show piety at home, and to requite their parents: for that is good and acceptable before God.

5 Now she who is truly a widow and without family puts her hope in God, giving herself to prayer day and night.

Now she who is a widow indeed, and desolate, has her hope set on God, and continues in petitions and prayers night and day.

Now she that is a widow indeed, and desolate, trusteth in God, and continueth in supplications and prayers night and day.

6 But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she is living.

But she who gives herself to pleasure is dead while she lives.

But she that liveth in pleasure, is dead while she liveth.

7 Give orders to this effect, so that no evil may be said of anyone.

Also command these things, that they may be without reproach.

And these things give in charge, that they may be blameless.

- 8 If anyone has no care for his family and those in his house, he is false to the faith, and is worse than one who has no faith.
But if anyone doesn't provide for his own, and specially his own household, he has denied the faith, and is worse than an unbeliever.
But if any provideth not for his own, and especially for those of his own house, he hath denied the faith, and is worse than an infidel.
- 9 Let no woman be numbered among the widows who is under sixty years old, and only if she has been the wife of one man,
Let none be enrolled as a widow under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man,
Let not a widow be taken into the number under sixty years old, having been the wife of one man.
- 10 And if witness is given of her good works; if she has had the care of children, if she has been kind to travellers, washing the feet of the saints, helping those who are in trouble, giving herself to good works.
well reported of for good works; if she has brought up children, if she has used hospitality to strangers, if she has washed the saints' feet, if she has relieved the afflicted, if she has diligently followed every good work.
Well reported of for good works; if she hath brought up children, if she hath lodged strangers, if she hath washed the saints' feet, if she hath relieved the afflicted, if she hath diligently followed every good work.
- 11 But to the younger widows say No: for when their love is turned away from Christ, they have a desire to be married;
But refuse younger widows, for when they have grown wanton against Christ, they desire to marry;
But the younger widows refuse: for when they have begun to grow wanton against Christ, they will marry;
- 12 And they are judged because they have been false to their first faith;
having condemnation, because they have rejected their first pledge.
Having damnation, because they have cast off their first faith.
- 13 And they get into the way of doing no work, going about from house to house; and not only doing no work, but talking foolishly, being over-interested in the business of others, saying things which they have no right to say.
Besides, they also learn to be idle, going about from house to house. Not only idle, but also gossips and busybodies, saying things which they ought not.
And at the same time they learn to be idle, wandering about from house to house, and not only idle, but tattlers also, and busy-bodies, speaking things which they ought not.

14 So it is my desire that the younger widows may be married and have children, controlling their families, and giving the Evil One no chance to say anything against them,
I desire therefore that the younger widows marry, bear children, rule the household, and give no occasion to the adversary for reviling.

I will therefore that the younger women marry, bear children, guide the house, give no occasion to the adversary to speak reproachfully.

15 For even now some are turned away to Satan.

For already some have turned aside after Satan.

For some are already turned aside after Satan.

16 If any woman of the faith has relations who are widows, let her give them help, so that the care of them does not come on the church, and so it may give help to those who are truly widowed.
If any man or woman who believes has widows, let them relieve them, and don't let the assembly be burdened; that it might relieve those who are widows indeed.

If any man or woman that believeth hath widows, let them relieve them, and let not the church be charged; that it may relieve them that are widows indeed.

17 Let rulers whose rule is good be honoured twice over, specially those whose work is preaching and teaching.

Let the elders who rule well be counted worthy of double honor, especially those who labor in the word and in teaching.

Let the elders that rule well, be counted worthy of double honor, especially they who labor in the word and doctrine.

18 For the Writings say, It is not right to keep the ox from taking the grain when he is crushing it. And, The worker has a right to his reward.

For the scripture says, "You shall not muzzle the ox when he treads out the grain." And, "The laborer is worthy of his wages."

For the scripture saith, Thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth out the corn. And, The laborer is worthy of his reward.

19 Do not take as true any statement made against one in authority, but only if two or three give witness to it.

Don't receive an accusation against an elder, except at the word of two or three witnesses.

Against an elder receive not an accusation, but before two or three witnesses.

- 20 Say sharp words to sinners when all are present, so that the rest may be in fear.
Those who sin, reprove in the sight of all, that the rest also may be in fear.
Them that sin rebuke before all, that others also may fear.
- 21 I give you orders before God and Christ Jesus and the angels of God's selection, to keep these orders without giving thought to one side more than another.
I charge you in the sight of God, and Christ Jesus, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without prejudice, doing nothing by partiality.
I charge thee before God and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that thou observe these things without preferring one before another, doing nothing by partiality.
- 22 Do not put hands on any man without thought, and have no part in other men's sins: keep yourself clean.
Lay hands hastily on no one, neither be a participant in other men's sins. Keep yourself pure.
Impose hands hastily on no man, neither be partaker of other men's sins: keep thyself pure.
- 23 Do not take only water as your drink, but take a little wine for the good of your stomach, and because you are frequently ill.
Be no longer a drinker of water only, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent infirmities.
Drink no longer water, but use a little wine for thy stomach's sake, and thy frequent infirmities.
- 24 The sins of some men are clearly seen, going before them to be judged; but with others, their sins go after them.
Some men's sins are evident, going before to judgment, and some men also they follow after.
Some men's sins are open beforehand, going before to judgment: and some men they follow after.
- 25 In the same way, there are good works which are clearly seen; and those which are not so, may not be kept secret.
In the same way also there are good works that are obvious, and those that are otherwise can't be hidden.
Likewise also the good works of some are manifest beforehand; and they that are otherwise cannot be hid.
- 1 Let all who are servants under the yoke give all honour to their masters, so that no evil may be said against the name of God and his teaching.
Let as many as are bondservants under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and the doctrine not be blasphemed.
Let as many servants as are under the yoke count their own masters worthy of all honor, that the name of God and his doctrine may not be blasphemed.

2 And let those whose masters are of the faith have respect for them because they are brothers, working for them the more readily, because those who take part in the good work are of the faith and are dear. Give orders and teaching about these things.

Those who have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brothers, but rather let them serve them, because those who partake of the benefit are believing and beloved. Teach and exhort these things.

And they that have believing masters, let them not despise them, because they are brethren; but rather do them service, because they are faithful and beloved, partakers of the benefit. These things teach and exhort.

3 If any man gives different teaching, not in agreement with the true words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and with the teaching which is in agreement with true religion,

If anyone teaches a different doctrine, and doesn't consent to sound words, the words of our Lord, Jesus Christ, and to the doctrine which is according to godliness;

If any man teacheth otherwise, and consenteth not to wholesome words, even the words of our Lord Jesus Christ, and the doctrine which is according to godliness,

4 He has an over-high opinion of himself; being without knowledge, having only an unhealthy love of questionings and wars of words, from which come envy, fighting, cruel words, evil thoughts, he is conceited, knowing nothing, but obsessed with arguments, disputes, and word battles, from which come envy, strife, reviling, evil suspicions,

He is proud, knowing nothing, but doting about questions and strifes of words, from which cometh envy, strife, railings, evil surmisings,

5 Bitter talk of men who, being evil in mind and dead to what is true, take the faith to be a way of making profit.

constant friction of men of corrupt minds and destitute of the truth, who suppose that godliness is a means of gain. Withdraw yourself from such.

Perverse disputings of men of corrupt minds, and destitute of the truth, supposing gain to be godliness: from such withdraw thyself.

6 But true faith, with peace of mind, is of great profit:

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

But godliness with contentment is great gain.

7 For we came into the world with nothing, and we are not able to take anything out;

For we brought nothing into the world, and we certainly can't carry anything out.

For we brought nothing into this world, and it is certain we can carry nothing out.

- 8 But if we have food and a roof over us, let that be enough.
But having food and clothing, we will be content with that.
And having food and raiment, with these let us be content.
- 9 But those who have a desire for wealth are falling into danger, and are taken as in a net by a number of foolish and damaging desires, through which men are overtaken by death and destruction.
But those who are determined to be rich fall into a temptation and a snare and many foolish and harmful lusts, such as drown men in ruin and destruction.
But they that will be rich, fall into temptation, and a snare, and into many foolish and hurtful lusts, which drown men in destruction and perdition.
- 10 For the love of money is a root of all evil: and some whose hearts were fixed on it have been turned away from the faith, and been wounded with unnumbered sorrows.
For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some have been led astray from the faith in their greed, and have pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
For the love of money is the root of all evil: which while some have coveted, they have erred from the faith, and pierced themselves through with many sorrows.
- 11 But you, O man of God, keep yourself from these things, and go after righteousness, religion, faith, love, a quiet mind, gentle behaviour.
But you, man of God, flee these things, and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, and gentleness.
But thou, O man of God, flee from these things; and follow after righteousness, godliness, faith, love, patience, meekness.
- 12 Be fighting the good fight of the faith; take for yourself the life eternal, for which you were marked out, and of which you gave witness in the eyes of all.
Fight the good fight of the faith. Lay hold of the eternal life, whereunto you were called, and confessed the good confession in the sight of many witnesses.
Fight the good fight of faith, lay hold on eternal life, to which thou art also called, and hast professed a good profession before many witnesses.
- 13 I give you orders before God, the giver of life, and Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate gave witness to the faith,
I charge you in the sight of God, who gives life to all things, and of Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified the good confession,
I give thee charge in the sight of God, who maketh alive all things, and before Christ Jesus, who before Pontius Pilate testified a good confession;

- 14 To keep the word untouched by evil, clear from all shame, till the revelation of our Lord Jesus Christ:
that you keep the commandment, without spot, without reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ;
That thou keep this commandment without spot, unrebukable, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ:
- 15 Which at the right time he will make clear, who is the eternal and only Ruler, King of kings, and Lord of lords;
which in its own times he will show, who is the blessed and only Ruler, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
Which in his times he will show who is the blessed and only Potentate, the King of kings, and Lord of lords;
- 16 Who only has life for ever, living in light to which no man may come near; whom no man has seen or is able to see: to whom be honour and power for ever. So be it.
who alone has immortality, dwelling in unapproachable light; whom no man has seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and eternal power. Amen.
Who only hath immortality, dwelling in the light which no man can approach; whom no man hath seen, nor can see: to whom be honor and power everlasting. Amen.
- 17 Give orders to those who have money and goods in this life, not to be lifted up in their minds, or to put their hope in the uncertain chances of wealth, but in God who gives us in full measure all things for our use;
Charge those who are rich in this present world, that they not be haughty, nor have their hope set on the uncertainty of riches, but on the living God, who richly provides us with everything to enjoy;
Charge them that are rich in this world, that they be not high-minded, nor trust in uncertain riches, but in the living God, who giveth us richly all things to enjoy;
- 18 And to do good, having wealth in good works, being quick to give, taking part with one another;
that they do good, that they be rich in good works, that they be ready to distribute, willing to communicate;
That they do good, that they be rich in good works, ready to distribute, willing to communicate;
- 19 Making ready for themselves a safe place for the time to come, so that the true life may be theirs.
laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold of eternal life.
Laying up in store for themselves a good foundation against the time to come, that they may lay hold on eternal life.

20 O Timothy, take good care of that which is given to you, turning away from the wrong and foolish talk and arguments of that knowledge which is falsely so named;
Timothy, guard that which is committed to you, turning away from the empty chatter and oppositions of the knowledge which is falsely so called;

O Timothy, keep that which is committed to thy trust, avoiding profane and vain babblings, and oppositions of science falsely so called;

21 Through which some, who gave their minds to it, have been turned away from the faith. Grace be with you.

which some professing have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with you. Amen.

Which some professing, have erred concerning the faith. Grace be with thee. Amen.

1 Paul, an Apostle of Jesus Christ by the purpose of God, in the hope of the life which is in Christ Jesus,

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, according to the promise of the life which is in Christ Jesus,

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,

2 To Timothy, my well-loved child: Grace, mercy, peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

to Timothy, my beloved child: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God, the Father, and Christ Jesus, our Lord.

To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.

3 I give praise to God, whose servant I have been, with a heart free from sin, from the time of my fathers, because in my prayers at all times the thought of you is with me, night and day

I thank God, whom I serve as my forefathers did, with a pure conscience. How unceasing is my memory of you in my petitions, night and day

I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of thee in my prayers night and day;

4 Desiring to see you, keeping in my memory your weeping, so that I may be full of joy; longing to see you, remembering your tears, that I may be filled with joy;

Greatly desiring to see thee, being mindful of thy tears, that I may be filled with joy;

- 5 Having in mind your true faith, which first was in your mother's mother Lois, and in your mother Eunice, and, I am certain, is now in you.
having been reminded of the unfeigned faith that is in you; which lived first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice, and, I am persuaded, in you also.
When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in thee, which dwelt first in thy grandmother Lois, and thy mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in thee also.
- 6 For this reason I say to you, Let that grace of God which is in you, given to you by my hands, have living power.
For this cause, I remind you that you should stir up the gift of God which is in you through the laying on of my hands.
For which cause I put thee in remembrance, that thou stir up the gift of God, which is in thee by the imposition of my hands.
- 7 For God did not give us a spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of self-control.
For God didn't give us a spirit of fear, but of power and love and discipline.
For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
- 8 Have no feeling of shame, then, for the witness of our Lord or for me, his prisoner: but undergo all things for the good news in the measure of the power of God;
Don't be ashamed therefore of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me, his prisoner; but suffer hardship with the gospel according to the power of God,
Be not thou therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be thou partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
- 9 Who gave us salvation, marking us out for his purpose, not on account of our works, but in the measure of his purpose and his grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal, who saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before times eternal,
Who hath saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given to us in Christ Jesus before the world began;
- 10 But has now been made clear by the revelation of our Saviour Christ Jesus, who put an end to death and made life unending come to light through the good news, but has now been revealed by the appearing of our Savior, Christ Jesus, who abolished death, and brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.
But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Savior Jesus Christ, who hath abolished death, and hath brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:

- 11 Of which I was made a preacher and an Apostle and a teacher;
For this, I was appointed as a preacher, an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
To which I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
- 12 And for which I undergo these things: but I have no feeling of shame. For I have knowledge of him in whom I have faith, and I am certain that he is able to keep that which I have given into his care till that day.
For this cause I suffer also these things. Yet I am not ashamed, for I know him whom I have believed, and I am persuaded that he is able to guard that which I have committed to him against that day.
For which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed to him against that day.
- 13 Keep the form of those true words which you had from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
Hold the pattern of sound words which you have heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
Hold fast the form of sound words, which thou hast heard from me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
- 14 That good thing which was given to you keep safe, through the Holy Spirit which is in us.
That good thing which was committed to you, guard through the Holy Spirit which dwells in us.
That good thing which was committed to thee keep by the Holy Spirit which dwelleth in us.
- 15 You have had news that all those in Asia went away from me; among whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes:
This you know, that all who are in Asia turned away from me; of whom are Phygelus and Hermogenes.
This thou knowest, that all they who are in Asia are turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
- 16 May the Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus because he frequently gave me help, and had no feeling of shame because I was in chains;
May the Lord grant mercy to the house of Onesiphorus, for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain,
The Lord give mercy to the house of Onesiphorus; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:
- 17 But when he was in Rome, he went in search of me everywhere, and came to me but when he was in Rome, he sought me diligently, and found me
But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.

18 (May he have the Lord's mercy in that day); and of all he did for me at Ephesus you have full knowledge.
(the Lord grant to him to find the Lord`s mercy in that day); and in how many things he served at Ephesus, you know very well.
The Lord grant to him that he may find mercy from the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, thou knowest very well.

1 So then, my child, be strong in the grace which is in Christ Jesus.
You therefore, my child, be strengthened in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
Thou therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.

2 And the things which I have said to you before a number of witnesses, give to those of the faith, so that they may be teachers of others.
The things which you have heard from me among many witnesses, commit the same to faithful men, who will be able to teach others also.
And the things that thou hast heard from me among many witnesses, the same commit thou to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.

3 Be ready to do without the comforts of life, as one of the army of Christ Jesus.
You therefore must endure hardship, as a good soldier of Christ Jesus.
Thou therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.

4 A fighting man, when he is with the army, keeps himself free from the business of this life so that he may be pleasing to him who has taken him into his army.
No soldier on service entangles himself in the affairs of life, that he may please him who enrolled him as a soldier.
No man that warreth entangleth himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who hath chosen him to be a soldier.

5 And if a man takes part in a competition he does not get the crown if he has not kept the rules.
If also a man competes in the games, he is not crowned, unless he has competed by the rules.
And if a man also striveth for masteries, yet is he not crowned, except he striveth lawfully.

6 It is right for the worker in the fields to be the first to take of the fruit.
The farmers who labor must be the first to get a share of the crops.
The husbandman that laboreth must be first partaker of the fruits.

- 7 Give thought to what I say; for the Lord will give you wisdom in all things.
Consider what I say, and may the Lord give you understanding in all things.
Consider what I say; and the Lord give thee understanding in all things.
- 8 Keep in mind Jesus Christ, of the seed of David, who came back from the dead, as my good news gives witness:
Remember Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, of the seed of David, according to my gospel,
Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:
- 9 In which I put up with the hardest conditions, even prison chains, like one who has done a crime; but the word of God is not in chains.
in which I suffer hardship to bonds, as a criminal. But God`s word isn`t bound.
In which I suffer trouble, as an evil-doer, even to bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
- 10 But I undergo all things for the saints, so that they may have salvation in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
Therefore I endure all things for the elect`s sake, that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
Therefore I endure all things for the sake of the elect, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
- 11 This is a true saying: If we undergo death with him, then will we be living with him:
This saying is faithful: For if we died with him, we will also live with him.
It is a faithful saying: For if we are dead with him, we shall also live with him:
- 12 If we go on to the end, then we will be ruling with him: if we say we have no knowledge of him, then he will say he has no knowledge of us:
If we endure, we will also reign with him. If we will deny him, he also will deny us.
If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:
- 13 If we are without faith, still he keeps faith, for he will never be untrue to himself.
If we are faithless, he remains faithful -- he can`t deny himself.
If we believe not, yet he abideth faithful: he cannot deny himself.

- 14 Put these things before them, giving them orders in the name of the Lord to keep themselves from fighting about words, which is of no profit, only causing error in their hearers.
Remind them of these things, charging them in the sight of the Lord, that they don't argue about words, to no profit, to the subverting of those who hear.
Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they contend not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
- 15 Let it be your care to get the approval of God, as a workman who has no cause for shame, giving the true word in the right way.
Give diligence to present yourself approved by God, a workman who doesn't need to be ashamed, properly handling the Word of Truth.
Study to show thyself approved to God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
- 16 But take no part in wrong and foolish talk, for those who do so will go farther into evil,
But shun empty chatter, for they will proceed further in ungodliness,
But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase to more ungodliness.
- 17 And their words will be like poisoned wounds in the flesh: such are Hymenaeus and Philetus;
and their word will consume like gangrene, of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;
And their word will eat as doth a canker: of whom is Hymeneus and Philetus;
- 18 Men whose ideas are all false, who say that the coming back from the dead has even now taken place, overturning the faith of some.
men who have erred concerning the truth, saying that the resurrection is already past, and overthrowing the faith of some.
Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
- 19 But God's strong base is unchanging, having this sign, The Lord has knowledge of those who are his: and, Let everyone by whom the name of the Lord is named be turned away from evil.
However God's firm foundation stands, having this seal, "The Lord knows those who are his," and, "Let every one who names the name of the Lord depart from unrighteousness."
Nevertheless the foundation of God standeth firm, having this seal, The Lord knoweth them that are his. And, Let every one that nameth the name of Christ depart from iniquity.

- 20 Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but others of wood and earth, and some which are honoured and some without honour.
Now in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of clay. Some are for honor, and some for dishonor.
But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor.
- 21 If a man makes himself clean from these, he will be a vessel for honour, made holy, ready for the master's use, ready for every good work.
If a man therefore purges himself from these, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, prepared for every good work.
If a man therefore will cleanse himself from these, he will be a vessel to honor, sanctified and meet for the master's use, and prepared to every good work.
- 22 But keep yourself from those desires of the flesh which are strong when the body is young, and go after righteousness, faith, love, peace, with those whose prayers go up to the Lord from a clean heart.
Flee from youthful lusts; but pursue righteousness, faith, love, and peace with those who call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, charity, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
- 23 And put away foolish and uncontrolled questionings, seeing that they are a cause of trouble.
But refuse foolish and ignorant questionings, knowing that they generate strife.
But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they gender contentions.
- 24 For it is not right for the Lord's servant to make trouble, but he is to be gentle to all, ready in teaching, putting up with wrong,
The Lord's servant must not quarrel, but be gentle towards all, able to teach, patient,
And the servant of the Lord must not contend; but be gentle to all men, apt to teach, patient,
- 25 Gently guiding those who go against the teaching; if by chance God may give them a change of heart and true knowledge, in gentleness correcting those who oppose him; if perhaps God may give them repentance to the knowledge of the truth,
In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God perhaps will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth:

26 And so they may get themselves free from the net of the Evil One, being made the prisoners of the Lord's servant, for the purpose of God.
and they may recover themselves out of the devil's snare, having been taken captive by him to his will.
And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

1 But be certain of this, that in the last days times of trouble will come.
But know this, that in the last days, grievous times will come.
This know also, that in the last days perilous times will come.

2 For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, uplifted in pride, given to bitter words, going against the authority of their fathers, never giving praise, having no religion,
For men will be lovers of self, lovers of money, boastful, arrogant, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
For men will be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,

3 Without natural love, bitter haters, saying evil of others, violent and uncontrolled, hating all good, without natural affection, unforgiving, slanderers, without self-control, fierce, no lovers of good,
Without natural affection, truce-breakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,

4 False to their friends, acting without thought, lifted up in mind, loving pleasure more than God;
traitors, headstrong, conceited, lovers of pleasure rather than lovers of God;
Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;

5 Having a form of religion, but turning their backs on the power of it: go not with these.
holding a form of godliness, but having denied the power thereof. Turn away from these, also.
Having a form of godliness, but denying its power: from such turn away.

6 For these are they who go secretly into houses, making prisoners of foolish women, weighted down with sin, turned from the way by their evil desires,
For of these are those who creep into houses, and take captive gullible women loaded down with sins, led away by various lusts,
For of this sort are they who creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with divers lusts;

- 7 Ever learning, and never coming to the knowledge of what is true.
always learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
- 8 And as James and Jambres went against Moses, so do these go against what is true: men of evil minds, who, tested by faith, are seen to be false.
Even as Jannes and Jambres opposed Moses, so do these also oppose the truth; men corrupted in mind, reprobate concerning the faith.
Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
- 9 But they will go no farther: for their foolish behaviour will be clear to all men, as theirs was in the end.
But they will proceed no further. For their folly will be evident to all men, as theirs also came to be.
But they shall proceed no further: for their folly will be manifest to all men, as theirs also was.
- 10 But you took as your example my teaching, behaviour, purpose, and faith; my long waiting, my love, my quiet undergoing of trouble;
But you did follow my teaching, conduct, purpose, faith, patience, love, steadfastness,
But thou hast fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, long-suffering, charity, patience,
- 11 My punishments and pain; the things which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; the cruel attacks made on me: and the Lord made me free from them all.
persecutions, and sufferings; those things that happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; those persecutions that I endured. Out of them all the Lord delivered me.
Persecutions, afflictions which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
- 12 Yes, and all whose purpose is to be living in the knowledge of God in Christ Jesus, will be cruelly attacked.
Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.
And all indeed that will live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution.
- 13 Evil and false men will become worse and worse, using deceit and themselves overcome by deceit.
But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived.
But evil men and seducers will become worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.

- 14 But see that you keep to the teaching you have been given and the things of which you are certain, conscious of who has been your teacher;
But you remain in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them.
But continue thou in the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing from whom thou hast learned them;
- 15 And that from the time when you were a child, you have had knowledge of the holy Writings, which are able to make you wise to salvation, through faith in Christ Jesus.
From infancy, you have known the sacred writings which are able to make you wise to salvation through faith, which is in Christ Jesus.
And that from a child thou hast known the sacred scriptures, which are able to make thee wise to salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
- 16 Every holy Writing which comes from God is of profit for teaching, for training, for guiding, for education in righteousness:
Every scripture inspired by God is also profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction, for instruction which is in righteousness,
All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
- 17 So that the man of God may be complete, trained and made ready for every good work.
that the man of God may be complete, furnished completely to every good work.
That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished to all good works.
- 1 I give you orders, before God and Christ Jesus, who will be the judge of the living and the dead, and by his revelation and his kingdom;
I charge you therefore before God and the Lord, Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at His appearing and His kingdom:
I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who will judge the living and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
- 2 Be preaching the word at all times, in every place; make protests, say sharp words, give comfort, with long waiting and teaching;
preach the word; be urgent in season and out of season; reprove, rebuke, and exhort, with all patience and teaching.
Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all long-suffering and doctrine.

3 For the time will come when they will not take the true teaching; but, moved by their desires, they will get for themselves a great number of teachers for the pleasure of hearing them;
For the time will come when they will not listen to the sound doctrine, but, having itching ears, will heap up for themselves teachers after their own lusts;
For the time will come, when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts will they multiply to themselves teachers, having itching ears;

4 And shutting their ears to what is true, will be turned away to belief in foolish stories.
and will turn away their ears from the truth, and turn aside to fables.
And they will turn away their ears from the truth, and will be turned to fables.

5 But be self-controlled in all things, do without comfort, go on preaching the good news, completing the work which has been given you to do.
But you be sober in all things, suffer hardship, do the work of an evangelist, and fulfill your ministry.
But watch thou in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of thy ministry.

6 For I am even now being offered, and my end is near.
For I am already being offered, and the time of my departure has come.
For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.

7 I have made a good fight, I have come to the end of my journey, I have kept the faith:
I have fought the good fight. I have finished the course. I have kept the faith.
I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:

8 From now on, the crown of righteousness is made ready for me, which the Lord, the upright judge, Will give to me at that day: and not only to me, but to all those who have had love for his revelation.
From now on, there is stored up for me the crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, will give to me at that day; and not to me only, but also to all those who have loved his appearing.
Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous Judge, will give me at that day: and not to me only, but to all them also that love his appearing.

- 9 Do your best to come to me before long:
Be diligent to come to me soon,
Do thy diligence to come shortly to me:
- 10 For Demas has gone away from me, for love of this present life, and has gone to Thessalonica: Crescens has gone to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.
for Demas left me, having loved this present world, and went to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, and Titus to Dalmatia.
For Demas hath forsaken me, having loved this present world, and hath departed to Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus to Dalmatia.
- 11 Only Luke is with me. Get Mark and take him with you; for he is of use to me in the work.
Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you, for he is useful to me for ministering.
Luke only is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with thee: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.
- 12 Tychicus I sent to Ephesus.
But I sent Tychicus to Ephesus.
And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.
- 13 The coat which I did not take from Troas and which is with Carpus, get when you come, and the books, specially the papers.
Bring the cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when you come, and the books, especially the parchments.
The cloke that I left at Troas with Carpus, when thou comest, bring with thee, and the books, but especially the parchments.
- 14 Alexander the copper-worker did me much wrong: the Lord will give him the reward of his works:
Alexander, the coppersmith, did much evil to me. The Lord will repay him according to his works,
Alexander the copper-smith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:
- 15 But be on the watch for him, for he was violent in his attacks on our teaching.
of whom you also must beware; for he greatly opposed our words.
Of whom be thou aware also; for he hath greatly withstood our words.

- 16 At my first meeting with my judges, no one took my part, but all went away from me. May it not be put to their account.
At my first defense, no one took my part, but all left me. May it not be held against them.
At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.
- 17 But the Lord was by my side and gave me strength; so that through me the news might be given out in full measure, and all the Gentiles might give ear: and I was taken out of the mouth of the lion.
But the Lord stood by me, and strengthened me, that through me the message might be fully proclaimed, and that all the Gentiles might hear; and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
Notwithstanding, the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
- 18 The Lord will keep me safe from every evil work and will give me salvation in his kingdom in heaven: to whom be glory for ever and ever. So be it.
And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will save me to his heavenly kingdom; to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.
And the Lord will deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me to his heavenly kingdom; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- 19 Give my love to Prisca and Aquila and those of the house of Onesiphorus.
Greet Prisca and Aquila, and the house of Onesiphorus.
Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
- 20 Erastus was stopping at Corinth; but Trophimus, when I last saw him was at Miletus, ill.
Erastus remained at Corinth, but I left Trophimus at Miletus sick.
Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus I have left at Miletum sick.
- 21 Do your best to come before the winter. Eubulus sends you his love, and Pudens and Linus and Claudia, and all the brothers.
Be diligent to come before winter. Eubulus salutes you, as do Pudens, Linus, Claudia, and all the brothers.
Do thy diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greeteth thee, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brethren.

22 The Lord be with your spirit. Grace be with you.

The Lord, Jesus Christ, be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Lord Jesus Christ be with thy spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

1 Paul, a servant of God, and an Apostle of Jesus Christ, in agreement with the faith of the saints of God and the full knowledge of what is true in harmony with religion,

Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God`s elect, and the knowledge of the truth which is according to godliness,

Paul, a servant of God, and an apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the acknowledging of the truth which is according to godliness;

2 In the hope of eternal life, which was made certain before eternal time, by the word of God who is ever true;

in hope of eternal life, which God, who can`t lie, promised before eternal times;

In hope of eternal life, which God, who cannot lie, promised before the world began;

3 Who, in his time, made clear his word in the good news, of which, by the order of God our Saviour, I became a preacher;

but in his own time revealed his word in the message with which I was entrusted according to the commandment of God, our Savior;

But hath in due times manifested his word through preaching, which is committed to me according to the commandment of God our Savior;

4 To Titus, my true child in our common faith: Grace and peace from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Saviour.

to Titus, my true child according to a common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace from God, the Father, and the Lord, Jesus Christ, our Savior.

To Titus, my own son after the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ our Savior.

5 I did not take you with me when I went away from Crete, so that you might do what was necessary to put things in order there, placing men in authority over the churches in every town, as I said to you;

I left you in Crete for this reason, that you would set in order the things that were lacking, and appoint elders in every city, as I directed you;

For this cause I left thee in Crete, that thou shouldst set in order the things that are wanting, and ordain elders in every city, as I had appointed thee:

- 6 Men having a good record, husbands of one wife, whose children are of the faith, children of whom it may not be said that they are given to loose living or are uncontrolled.
if anyone is blameless, the husband of one wife, having children who believe, who are not accused of loose or unruly behavior.
If any is blameless, the husband of one wife, having faithful children, not accused of riot, or disorderly.
- 7 For it is necessary for a Bishop to be a man of virtue, as God's servant; not pushing himself forward, not quickly moved to wrath or blows, not desiring profit for himself;
For the overseer must be blameless, as God's steward; not self-pleasing, not easily angered, not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for dishonest gain;
For a bishop must be blameless, as the steward of God; not self-willed, not soon angry, not given to wine, no striker, not given to filthy lucre;
- 8 But opening his house freely to guests; a lover of what is good, serious-minded, upright, holy, self-controlled;
but given to hospitality, as a lover of good, sober-minded, fair, holy, self-controlled;
But a lover of hospitality, a lover of good men, sober, just, holy, temperate;
- 9 Keeping to the true word of the teaching, so that he may be able to give comfort by right teaching and overcome the arguments of the doubters.
holding to the faithful word which is according to the teaching, that he may be able to exhort in the sound doctrine, and to convict those who contradict him.
Holding fast the faithful word as he hath been taught, that he may be able by sound doctrine both to exhort and to convince the gainsayers.
- 10 For there are men who are not ruled by law; foolish talkers, false teachers, specially those of the circumcision,
For there are also many unruly men, vain talkers and deceivers, especially those of the circumcision,
For there are many disorderly and vain talkers and deceivers, specially they of the circumcision:
- 11 By whom some families have been completely overturned; who take money for teaching things which are not right; these will have to be stopped.
whose mouths must be stopped; men who overthrow whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for dishonest gain's sake.
Whose mouths must be stopped, who subvert whole houses, teaching things which they ought not, for the sake of sordid gain.

- 12 One of their prophets has said, The men of Crete are ever false, evil beasts, lovers of food, hating work.
One of them, a prophet of their own, said, "Cretans are always liars, evil beasts, and idle gluttons."
One of themselves, even a prophet of their own, said, The Cretians are always liars, evil beasts, slow bellies.
- 13 This witness is true. So say sharp words to them so that they may come to the right faith,
This testimony is true. For this cause, reprove them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith,
This testimony is true: wherefore rebuke them sharply, that they may be sound in the faith;
- 14 Giving no attention to the fictions of the Jews and the rules of men who have no true knowledge.
not paying attention to Jewish fables and commandments of men who turn away from the truth.
Not giving heed to Jewish fables, and commandments of men that turn from the truth.
- 15 To the clean in heart all things are clean: but to those who are unclean and without faith nothing is clean; they become unclean in mind and in thought.
To the pure, all things are pure; but to those who are defiled and unbelieving, nothing is pure; but both their mind and their conscience are defiled.
To the pure all things are pure: but to them that are defiled and unbelieving is nothing pure; but even their mind and conscience is defiled.
- 16 They say that they have knowledge of God, while by their acts they are turning their backs on him; they are hated by all, hard-hearted, and judged to be without value for any good work.
They profess that they know God, but by their works they deny him, being abominable, disobedient, and unfit for any good work.
They profess that they know God; but in works they deny him, being abominable, and disobedient, and to every good work reprobate.
- 1 But let your words be in agreement with true and right teaching:
But say the things which fit the sound doctrine,
But speak thou the things which become sound doctrine:
- 2 That old men are to be simple in their tastes, serious, wise, true in faith, in love, and of a quiet mind.
that older men should be temperate, sensible, sober-minded, sound in faith, in love, and in patience:
That the aged men be sober, grave, temperate, sound in faith, in charity, in patience;

3 That old women are to be self-respecting in behaviour, not saying evil of others, not given to taking much wine, teachers of that which is good, and that older women likewise be reverent in behavior, not slanderers nor enslaved to much wine, teachers of that which is good;

The aged women likewise, that they be in behavior as becometh holiness, not false accusers, not given to much wine, teachers of good things;

4 Training the younger women to have love for their husbands and children, that they may train the young women to love their husbands, to love their children,

That they may teach the young women to be sober, to love their husbands, to love their children,

5 To be wise in mind, clean in heart, kind; working in their houses, living under the authority of their husbands; so that no evil may be said of the word of God.
to be sober-minded, chaste, workers at home, kind, being in subjection to their own husbands, that God`s word may not be blasphemed.

To be discreet, chaste, keepers at home, good, obedient to their own husbands, that the word of God be not blasphemed.

6 To the young men give orders to be wise and serious-minded:
Likewise, exhort the younger men to be sober-minded;
Young men likewise exhort to be sober-minded.

7 In all things see that you are an example of good works; holy in your teaching, serious in behaviour, in all things showing yourself an example of good works; in your teaching showing integrity, seriousness, incorruptibility,
In all things showing thyself a pattern of good works: in doctrine showing incorruptness, gravity, sincerity,

8 Saying true and right words, against which no protest may be made, so that he who is not on our side may be put to shame, unable to say any evil of us.
and soundness of speech that can`t be condemned; that he who opposes you may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say about us.
Sound speech that cannot be condemned; that he that is of the contrary part may be ashamed, having no evil thing to say concerning you.

- 9 Servants are to be under the authority of their masters, pleasing them in all things, without argument;
Exhort servants to be in subjection to their own masters, and to be well-pleasing in all things; not contradicting;
Exhort servants to be obedient to their own masters, and to please them well in all things; not answering again;
- 10 Not taking what is not theirs, but giving clear signs of their good faith, in all things doing credit to the teaching of God our Saviour.
not stealing, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God, our Savior, in all things.
Not purloining, but showing all good fidelity; that they may adorn the doctrine of God our Savior in all things.
- 11 For the grace of God has come, giving salvation to all men,
For the grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all men,
For the grace of God that bringeth salvation hath appeared to all men,
- 12 Training us so that, turning away from evil and the desires of this world, we may be living wisely and uprightly in the knowledge of God in this present life;
instructing us to the intent that, denying ungodliness and worldly lusts, we would live soberly, righteously, and godly in this present world;
Teaching us, that denying ungodliness, and worldly lusts, we should live soberly, righteously, and piously, in this present world;
-
- 13 Looking for the glad hope, the revelation of the glory of our great God and Saviour Jesus Christ;
looking for the blessed hope and appearing of the glory of the great God and our Savior, Jesus Christ;
Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God, and our Savior Jesus Christ;
- 14 Who gave himself for us, so that he might make us free from all wrongdoing, and make for himself a people clean in heart and on fire with good works.
who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself a people for his own possession, zealous for good works.
Who gave himself for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify to himself a peculiar people, zealous of good works.
- 15 On all these points give teaching and help, and make clear what is right with all authority. Let all men give you honour.
Say these things and exhort and reprove with all authority. Let no man despise you.
These things speak, and exhort, and rebuke with all authority. Let no man despise thee.

- 1 Make clear to them that they are to put themselves under rulers and authorities, to do what they are ordered, to be ready for every good work,
Remind them to be in subjection to rulers and to authorities, to be obedient, to be ready to every good work,
Put them in mind to be subject to principalities and powers, to obey magistrates, to be ready to every good work,
- 2 To say no evil of any man, not to be fighters, to give way to others, to be gentle in behaviour to all men.
to speak evil of no one, not to be contentious, to be gentle, showing all gentleness toward all men.
To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, showing all meekness to all men.
- 3 For in the past we were foolish, hard in heart, turned from the true way, servants of evil desires and pleasures, living in bad feeling and envy, hated and hating one another.
For we were also once foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving various lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
For we ourselves also were sometimes foolish, disobedient, deceived, serving divers lusts and pleasures, living in malice and envy, hateful, and hating one another.
- 4 But when the mercy of God our Saviour, and his love to man was seen,
But when the kindness of God, our Savior, and his love toward man, appeared,
But when the kindness and love of God our Savior towards man appeared,
- 5 Not by works of righteousness which we did ourselves, but in the measure of his mercy, he gave us salvation, through the washing of the new birth and the giving of new life in the Holy Spirit, not by works of righteousness, which we did ourselves, but according to his mercy, he saved us, through the washing of regeneration and renewing by the Holy Spirit,
Not by works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy he saved us, by the washing of regeneration, and renewing of the Holy Spirit;
- 6 Which he gave us freely through Jesus Christ our Saviour;
which he poured out on us richly, through Jesus Christ, our Savior;
Which he shed on us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our Savior;

- 7 So that, having been given righteousness through grace, we might have a part in the heritage, the hope of eternal life.
that, being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
That being justified by his grace, we should be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.
- 8 This is a true saying; and it is my desire that you may give certain witness about these things, so that those who have had faith in God may give attention to good works. These things are good and of profit to men;
This saying is faithful, and concerning these things I desire that you affirm confidently, to the end that they who have believed God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men;
This is a faithful saying, and these things I will that thou affirm constantly, that they who have believed in God may be careful to maintain good works. These things are good and profitable to men.
- 9 But have nothing to do with foolish questionings, and lists of generations, and fights and arguments about the law; for they are of no profit and foolish.
but shun foolish questionings, genealogies, strife, and disputes about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
But avoid foolish questions, and genealogies, and contentions, and strivings about the law; for they are unprofitable and vain.
- 10 A man whose opinions are not those of the church, after a first and second protest, is to be kept out of your society;
Avoid a factious man after a first and second warning;
A man that is a heretic, after the first and second admonition, reject;
- 11 Clearly he is in error and a sinner, being self-judged.
knowing that such a one is perverted, and sins, being self-condemned.
Knowing that he who is such, is subverted, and sinneth, being condemned by himself.
- 12 When I send Artemas or Tychicus to you, do your best to come to me at Nicopolis: for it is my purpose to be there for the winter.
When I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis, for I have determined to winter there.
When I shall send Artemas to thee, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me to Nicopolis: for I have determined there to winter.

13 Send Zenas, the man of law, and Apollos on their journey with all care, so that they may be in need of nothing.
Send Zenas, the lawyer, and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing may be lacking for them.
Bring Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their journey diligently, that nothing may be wanting to them.

14 And let our people go on with good works for necessary purposes, so that they may not be without fruit.
Let our people also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.
And let ours also learn to maintain good works for necessary uses, that they may not be unfruitful.

15 All who are with me send you their love. Give our love to our friends in the faith. Grace be with you all.
All who are with me greet you. Greet those who love us in faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.
All that are with me salute thee. Greet them that love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

1 Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our dear helper in the faith,
Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon, our beloved fellow worker,
Paul, a prisoner of Jesus Christ, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly beloved, and fellow-laborer,

2 And to Apphia, our sister, and to Archippus, our brother in God's army, and to the church in your house:
to the beloved Apphia, to Archippus, our fellow soldier, and to the assembly in your house:
And to our beloved Apphia, and Archippus our fellow-soldier, and to the church in thy house:

3 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

4 I give praise to God at all times and make prayer for you,
I thank my God always, making mention of you in my prayers,
I thank my God, making mention of thee always in my prayers,

- 5 Hearing of the love and the faith which you have to the Lord Jesus and to all the saints;
hearing of your love, and of the faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus, and toward all the saints;
Hearing of thy love and faith, which thou hast towards the Lord Jesus, and towards all saints;
- 6 That the faith which you have in common with them may be working with power, in the knowledge of every good thing in you, for Christ.
that the fellowship of your faith may become effective, in the knowledge of every good thing which is in us, in Christ Jesus.
That the communication of thy faith may become effectual by the acknowledging of every good thing which is in you in Christ Jesus.
- 7 For I had great joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been made strong again through you, brother.
For we have much joy and comfort in your love, because the hearts of the saints have been refreshed through you, brother.
For we have great joy and consolation in thy love, because the bowels of the saints are refreshed by thee, brother.
- 8 And so, though I might, in the name of Christ, give you orders to do what is right,
Therefore, though I have all boldness in Christ to command you that which is appropriate,
Wherefore, though I might be very bold in Christ to enjoin thee that which is convenient.
- 9 Still, because of love, in place of an order, I make a request to you, I, Paul, an old man and now a prisoner of Christ Jesus:
yet for love`s sake I rather beg, being such a one as Paul, the aged, and now a prisoner also of Christ Jesus.
Yet for love's sake I rather beseech thee, being such one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ.
- 10 My request is for my child Onesimus, the child of my chains,
I beg you for my child, whom I have fathered in my bonds, Onesimus,
I beseech thee for my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds:
- 11 Who in the past was of no profit to you, but now is of profit to you and to me:
who once was useless to you, but now is useful to you and to me;
Who in time past was to thee unprofitable, but now profitable to thee and to me:

- 12 Whom I have sent back to you, him who is my very heart:
I am sending him back. You therefore receive him, that is, my own heart,
Whom I have sent again: thou therefore receive him, that is, my own bowels:
- 13 Though my desire was to keep him with me, to be my servant in the chains of the good news, in your place:
whom I wanted to keep with me, that in your behalf he might minister to me in the bonds of the gospel.
Whom I would have retained with me, that in thy stead he might have ministered to me in the bonds of the gospel:
- 14 But without your approval I would do nothing; so that your good works might not be forced, but done freely from your heart.
But I was willing to do nothing without your consent, that your goodness would not be as of necessity, but of free will.
But without thy mind I would do nothing; that thy benefit should not be as it were of necessity, but willingly.
- 15 For it is possible that for this reason he was parted from you for a time, so that you might have him for ever;
For perhaps he was therefore separated from you for a while, that you would have him forever,
For perhaps he therefore departed for a season, that thou shouldst receive him for ever;
- 16 No longer as a servant, but more than a servant, a brother, very dear to me specially, but much more to you, in the flesh as well as in the Lord.
no longer as a slave, but more than a slave, a beloved brother, specially to me, but how much rather to you, both in the flesh and in the Lord.
Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, specially to me, but how much more to thee, both in the flesh, and in the Lord?
- 17 If then you take me to be your friend and brother, take him in as myself.
If then you count me a partner, receive him as you would receive me.
If thou accountest me therefore a partner, receive him as myself.
- 18 If he has done you any wrong or is in debt to you for anything, put it to my account.
But if he has wronged you at all, or owes you anything, put that to my account.
If he hath wronged thee, or oweth thee aught, put that on my account;

19 I, Paul, writing this myself, say, I will make payment to you: and I do not say to you that you are in debt to me even for your life.
I, Paul, write this with my own hand: I will repay it (not to mention to you that you owe to me even your own self besides).
I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it: although I do not say to thee that thou owest to me even thy own self besides.

20 So brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord: give new life to my heart in Christ.
Yes, brother, let me have joy from you in the Lord. Refresh my heart in the Lord.
Yes, brother, let me have joy of thee in the Lord: refresh my bowels in the Lord.

21 Being certain that you will do my desire, I am writing to you, in the knowledge that you will do even more than I say.
Having confidence in your obedience, I write to you, knowing that you will do even beyond what I say.
Having confidence in thy obedience I wrote to thee, knowing that thou wilt also do more than I say.

22 And make a room ready for me; for I am hoping that through your prayers I will be given to you.
Also, prepare a guest room for me, for I hope that through your prayers I will be restored to you.
But at the same time prepare me also a lodging; for I trust that through your prayers I shall be given to you.

23 Epaphras, my brother-prisoner in Christ Jesus, sends you his love;
Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus, greets you,
There salute thee Epaphras, my fellow-prisoner in Christ Jesus;

24 And so do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my brother-workers.
as do Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow workers.
Marcus, Aristarchus, Demas, Lucas, my fellow-laborers.

25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. So be it.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

- 1 In times past the word of God came to our fathers through the prophets, in different parts and in different ways;
God, having in the past spoken to the fathers through the prophets at many times and in various ways,
God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spoke in time past to the fathers by the prophets,
- 2 But now, at the end of these days, it has come to us through his Son, to whom he has given all things for a heritage, and through whom he made the order of the generations;
has at the end of these days spoken to us by his Son, whom he appointed heir of all things, through whom also he made the worlds.
Hath in these last days spoken to us by his Son, whom he hath appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
- 3 Who, being the outshining of his glory, the true image of his substance, supporting all things by the word of his power, having given himself as an offering making clean from sins, took his seat at the right hand of God in heaven;
His Son is the radiance of his glory, the very image of his substance, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification for our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself made purification of our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high;
- 4 Having become by so much better than the angels, as the name which is his heritage is more noble than theirs.
having become so much better than the angels, as he has inherited a more excellent name than they have.
Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
- 5 To which of the angels did God say at any time, You are my Son, this day I have given you being? or, I will be his Father, and he will be my Son?
For to which of the angels did he say at any time, "You are my Son, Today have I become your father?" and again, "I will be to him a Father, And he will be to me a Son?"
For to which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
- 6 And again, when he is sending his only Son into the world, he says, Let all the angels of God give him worship.
When he again brings in the firstborn into the world he says, "Let all the angels of God worship him."
And again, when he bringeth in the first-begotten into the world, he saith, And let all the angels of God worship him.

- 7 And of the angels he says, Who makes his angels winds, and his servants flames of fire:
Of the angels he says, "Who makes his angels winds, And his servants a flame a fire."
And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
- 8 But of the Son he says, Your seat of power, O God, is for ever and ever; and the rod of your kingdom is a rod of righteousness.
but of the Son he says, "Your throne, God, is forever and ever; The scepter of uprightness is the scepter of your kingdom.
But to the Son, he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of thy kingdom.
- 9 You have been a lover of righteousness and a hater of evil; and so God, your God, has put the oil of joy on your head more than on the heads of those who are with you.
You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; Therefore God, your God, has anointed you With the oil of gladness above your fellows."
Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.
- 10 You, Lord, at the first did put the earth on its base, and the heavens are the works of your hands:
And, "You, Lord, in the beginning, laid the foundation of the earth. The heavens are the works of your hands.
And, Thou, Lord, in the beginning hast laid the foundation of the earth: and the heavens are the works of thy hands.
- 11 They will come to their end; but you are for ever; they will become old as a robe;
They will perish, but you continue. They all will grow old like a garment does.
They shall perish; but thou remainest: and they all shall become old as doth a garment;
- 12 They will be rolled up like a cloth, even like a robe, and they will be changed: but you are the same and your years will have no end.
As a mantle you will roll them up. And they will be changed. But you are the same. Your years will not fail."
And as a vesture wilt thou fold them up, and they shall be changed; but thou art the same, and thy years shall not fail.

13 But of which of the angels has he said at any time, Take your seat at my right hand till I put all those who are against you under your feet?
But of which of the angels has he said at any time, "Sit at my right hand, Until I make your enemies the footstool of your feet?"
But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make thy enemies thy footstool?

14 Are they not all helping spirits, who are sent out as servants to those whose heritage will be salvation?
Aren't they all ministering spirits, sent forth to do service for the sake of those who will inherit salvation?
Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall inherit salvation?

1 For this reason there is the more need for us to give attention to the things which have come to our ears, for fear that by chance we might be slipping away.
Therefore we ought to pay greater attention to the things that were heard, lest perhaps we drift away.
Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.

2 Because if the word which came through the angels was fixed, and in the past every evil act against God's orders was given its full punishment;
For if the word spoken through angels proved steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense;
For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;

3 What will come on us, if we do not give our minds to such a great salvation? a salvation of which our fathers first had knowledge through the words of the Lord, and which was made certain to us by those to whom his words came;
how will we escape, if we neglect so great a salvation -- which at the first having been spoken through the Lord, was confirmed to us by those who heard;
How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed to us by them that heard him;

4 And God was a witness with them, by signs and wonders, and by more than natural powers, and by his distribution of the Holy Spirit at his pleasure.
God also bearing witness with them, both by signs and wonders, and by various works of power, and by gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?
God also bearing them testimony, both with signs and wonders, and with divers miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?

- 5 For he did not make the angels rulers over the world to come, of which I am writing.
For he didn't subject the world to come, whereof we speak, to angels.
For to the angels he hath not put in subjection the world to come, concerning which we speak.
- 6 But a certain writer has given his witness, saying, What is man, that you keep him in mind? what is the son of man, that you take him into account?
But one has somewhere testified, saying, "What is man, that you think of him? Or the son of man, that you care for him?
But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that thou art mindful of him? or the son of man, that thou visitest him?
- 7 You made him a little lower than the angels; you gave him a crown of glory and honour, and made him ruler over all the works of your hands:
You made him a little lower than the angels; You crowned him with glory and honor.
Thou madest him a little lower than the angels; thou crownedst him with glory and honor, and didst set him over the works of thy hands:
- 8 You put all things under his feet. For in making man the ruler over all things, God did not put anything outside his authority; though we do not see everything under him now.
You have put all things in subjection under his feet." For in that he subjected all things to him, he left nothing that is not subject to him. But now we don't see all things subjected to him, yet.
Thou hast put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not made subject to him. But now we see not yet all things subjected to him.
- 9 But we see him who was made a little lower than the angels, even Jesus, crowned with glory and honour, because he let himself be put to death so that by the grace of God he might undergo death for all men.
But we see him who has been made a little lower than the angels, Jesus, because of the suffering of death crowned with glory and honor, that by the grace of God he should taste of death for everyone.
But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.
- 10 Because it was right for him, for whom and through whom all things have being, in guiding his sons to glory, to make the captain of their salvation complete through pain.
For it became him, for whom are all things, and through whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the author of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons to glory, to make the Captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.

11 For he who makes holy and those who are made holy are all of one family; and for this reason it is no shame for him to give them the name of brothers,
For both he who sanctifies and those who are sanctified are all from one, for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brothers,
For both he that sanctifieth, and they who are sanctified, are all of one: for which cause he is not ashamed to call them brethren, 12 Saying, I will give the knowledge of your name to my brothers, I will make a song of praise to you before the church.

saying, "I will declare your name to my brothers, In the midst of the congregation will I sing your praise."
Saying, I will declare thy name to my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise to thee.

13 And again he says, I will put my faith in him. And again, See, I am here, and the children which God has given to me.
Again, "I will put my trust in him." Again, "Behold, here am I and the children whom God has given me."
And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold, I, and the children which God hath given me.

14 And because the children are flesh and blood, he took a body himself and became like them; so that by his death he might put an end to him who had the power of death, that is to say, the Evil One;
Since then the children have shared in flesh and blood, he also himself in like manner partook of the same, that through death he might bring to nothing him who had the power of death, that is, the devil,
Since then the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;

15 And let those who all their lives were in chains because of their fear of death, go free.
and might deliver all of them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
And deliver them, who, through fear of death, were all their life-time subject to bondage.

16 For, truly, he does not take on the life of angels, but that of the seed of Abraham.
For most assuredly, not to angels does he give help, but he gives help to the seed of Abraham.
For verily he took not on him the nature of angels; but he took on him the seed of Abraham.

17 Because of this it was necessary for him to be made like his brothers in every way, so that he might be a high priest full of mercy and keeping faith in everything to do with God, making offerings for the sins of the people.
Therefore he was obligated in all things to be made like his brothers, that he might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make atonement for the sins of the people.
Wherefore in all things it behooved him to be made like his brethren; that he might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.

18 For having been put to the test himself, he is able to give help to others when they are tested.
For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help those who are tempted.
For in that he himself hath suffered, being tempted, he is able to succor them that are tempted.

1 For this reason, holy brothers, marked out to have a part in heaven, give thought to Jesus the representative and high priest of our faith;
Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of a heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our confession, Jesus;
Wherefore, holy brethren, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;

2 Who kept faith with God who gave him his place, even as Moses did in all his house.
who was faithful to him who appointed him, as also was Moses in all his house.
Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.

3 And it was right for this man to have more honour than Moses, even as the builder of a house has more honour than the house.
For he has been counted worthy of more glory than Moses, by so much as he who built the house has more honor than the house.
For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who hath built the house, hath more honor than the house.

4 For every house has a builder; but the builder of all things is God.
For every house is built by someone; but he who built all things is God.
For every house is built by some man; but he that built all things is God.

- 5 And Moses certainly kept faith as a servant, in all his house, and as a witness of those things which were to be said later;
Moses indeed was faithful in all his house as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterward to be spoken,
And Moses verily was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were afterwards to be spoken.
- 6 But Christ as a son, over his house; whose house are we, if we keep our hearts fixed in the glad and certain hope till the end.
but Christ as a Son, over his house; whose house are we, if we hold fast our boldness and the glorying of our hope firm to the end.
But Christ as a son over his own house: whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence, and the rejoicing of the hope firm to the end.
- 7 And so, as the Holy Spirit says, Today if you let his voice come to your ears,
Therefore, even as the Holy Spirit says, "Today if you will hear his voice, Wherefore (as the Holy Spirit saith, To-day if ye will hear his voice,
- 8 Be not hard of heart, as when you made me angry, on the day of testing in the waste land,
Don` t harden your hearts, as in the provocation, Like as in the day of the trial in the wilderness,
Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
- 9 When your fathers put me to the test, and saw my works for forty years.
Where your fathers tested me by proving me, And saw my works for forty years.
When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
- 10 So that I was angry with this generation, and I said, Their hearts are in error at all times, and they have no knowledge of my ways;
Therefore I was displeased with that generation, And said, `They always err in their heart, But they didn` t know my ways;`
Wherefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
- 11 And being angry I made an oath, saying, They may not come into my rest.
As I swore in my wrath, `They will not enter into my rest.`"
So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)

- 12 My brothers, take care that there is not by chance in any one of you an evil heart without belief, turning away from the living God:
Beware, brothers, lest perhaps there will be in any one of you an evil heart of unbelief, in falling away from the living God;
Take heed, brethren, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
- 13 But give comfort to one another every day as long as it is still Today; so that no one among you may be made hard by the deceit of sin:
but exhort one another day by day, so long as it is called "today;" lest any one of you be hardened by the deceitfulness of sin.
But exhort one another daily, while it is called To-day; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
- 14 For if we keep the substance of the faith which we had at the start, even till the end, we have a part with Christ;
For we have become partakers of Christ, if we hold fast the beginning of our confidence firm to the end:
For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast to the end;
- 15 As it is said, Today if you will let his voice come to your ears, be not hard of heart, as when you made him angry.
while it is said, "Today if you will hear his voice, Don`t harden your hearts, as in the provocation."
While it is said, To-day if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
- 16 Who made him angry when his voice came to them? was it not all those who came out of Egypt with Moses?
For who, when they heard, did provoke? No, didn`t all those who came out of Egypt by Moses?
For some, when they had heard, did provoke: yet, not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
- 17 And with whom was he angry for forty years? was it not with those who did evil, who came to their deaths in the waste land?
With whom was he displeased forty years? was it not with those who sinned, whose bodies fell in the wilderness?
But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
- 18 And to whom did he make an oath that they might not come into his rest? was it not to those who went against his orders?
To whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to those who were disobedient?
And to whom did he swear that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?

19 So we see that they were not able to go in because they had no belief.
We see that they were not able to enter in because of unbelief.
So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

1 Let us then, though we still have God's word that we may come into his rest, go in fear that some of you may be unable to do so.
Let us fear therefore, lest perhaps a promise being left of entering into his rest, anyone of you should seem to have come short of it.
Let us therefore fear, lest a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

2 And, truly, the good news came to us, even as it did to them; but the hearing of the word did them no good, because they were not united in faith with the true hearers.
For indeed we have had good news preached to us, even as also they, but the word of hearing did not profit them, because it was not mixed with faith by those who heard.
For to us was the gospel preached, as well as to them: but the word which they heard did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

3 For those of us who have belief come into his rest; even as he has said, As I said in my oath when I was angry, They may not come into my rest: though the works were done from the time of the making of the world.
For we who have believed do enter into that rest, even as he has said, "As I swore in my wrath, They will not enter into my rest;" although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
For we who have believed do enter into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.

4 For in one place he has said of the seventh day, And God had rest from all his works on the seventh day;
For he has said somewhere about the seventh day like this, "God rested on the seventh day from all his works;"
For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested the seventh day from all his works.

5 And in the same place he says again, They will not come into my rest.
and in this place again, "They will not enter into my rest."
And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.

6 So that as it is clear that some have to go in, and that the first hearers of the good news were not able to go in because they went against God's orders,
Seeing therefore it remains that some should enter therein, and they to whom the good news were before preached failed to enter in because of disobedience,
Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter into it, and they to whom it was first preached entered not because of unbelief:

7 After a long time, again naming a certain day, he says in David, Today (as he had said before), Today if you will let his voice come to your ears, be not hard of heart, he again defines a certain day, today, saying through David so long a time afterward (just as has been said), "Today if you will hear his voice, Don't harden your hearts."
(Again, he limiteth a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, To-day, if ye will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.

8 For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have said anything about another day.
For if Joshua had given them rest, he would not have spoken afterward of another day.
For if Jesus had given them rest, then he would not afterward have spoken of another day.

9 So that there is still a Sabbath-keeping for the people of God.
There remains therefore a Sabbath rest for the people of God.
There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God.

10 For the man who comes into his rest has had rest from his works, as God did from his.
For he who has entered into his rest has himself also rested from his works, as God did from his.
For he that hath entered into his rest, he also hath ceased from his own works, as God did from his.)

11 Because of this, let us have a strong desire to come into that rest, and let no one go after the example of those who went against God's orders.
Let us therefore give diligence to enter into that rest, that no man fall after the same example of disobedience.
Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.

- 12 For the word of God is living and full of power, and is sharper than any two-edged sword, cutting through and making a division even of the soul and the spirit, the bones and the muscles, and quick to see the thoughts and purposes of the heart.
For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discern the thoughts and intents of the heart.
For the word of God is living, and powerful, and sharper than any two-edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
- 13 And there is nothing made which is not completely clear to him; there is nothing covered, but all things are open to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
There is no creature that is hidden from his sight, but all things are naked and laid open before the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened to the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
- 14 Having then a great high priest, who has made his way through the heavens, even Jesus the Son of God, let us be strong in our faith.
Having then a great high priest, who has passed through the heavens, Jesus, the Son of God, let us hold tightly to our confession.
Seeing then that we have a great High Priest, that hath passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
- 15 For we have not a high priest who is not able to be touched by the feelings of our feeble flesh; but we have one who has been tested in all points as we ourselves are tested, but without sin.
For we don't have a high priest who can't be touched with the feeling of our infirmities, but one who has been in all points tempted like we are, yet without sin.
For we have not a high priest who cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but who was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin.
- 16 Then let us come near to the seat of grace without fear, so that mercy may be given to us, and we may get grace for our help in time of need.
Let us therefore draw near with boldness to the throne of grace, that we may receive mercy, and may find grace for timely help.
Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

1 Every high priest who is taken from among men is given his position to take care of the interests of men in those things which have to do with God, so that he may make offerings for sins.
For every high priest, being taken from among men, is appointed for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins.

For every high priest taken from among men, is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:

2 He is able to have feeling for those who have no knowledge and for those who are wandering from the true way, because he himself is feeble;
The high priest can deal gently with those who are ignorant and going astray, because he himself is also surrounded with weakness.

Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.

3 And being feeble, he has to make sin-offerings for himself as well as for the people.

Because of this, he must offer sacrifices for sins for the people, as well as for himself.

And by reason of this he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.

4 And no man who is not given authority by God, as Aaron was, takes this honour for himself.

No man takes this honor on himself, but he is called by God, just like Aaron was.

And no man taketh this honor to himself, but he that is called by God, as was Aaron:

5 In the same way Christ did not take for himself the glory of being made a high priest, but was given it by him who said, You are my Son, this day I have given you being:

So also Christ didn't glorify himself to be made a high priest, but he who said to him, "You are my Son. Today I have become your father."

So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said to him, Thou art my Son, to-day have I begotten thee.

6 As he says in another place, You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.

As he says also in another place, "You are a priest forever, After the order of Melchizedek."

As he saith also in another place, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

- 7 Who in the days of his flesh, having sent up prayers and requests with strong crying and weeping to him who was able to give him salvation from death, had his prayer answered because of his fear of God.
Who in the days of his flesh, having offered up prayers and petitions with strong crying and tears to him who was able to save him from death, and having been heard for his godly fear,
Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears to him that was able to save him from death, and was heard, in that he feared;
- 8 And though he was a Son, through the pain which he underwent, the knowledge came to him of what it was to be under God's orders;
though he was a Son, yet learned obedience by the things which he suffered;
Though he was a Son, yet he learned obedience by the things which he suffered;
- 9 And when he had been made complete, he became the giver of eternal salvation to all those who are under his orders;
and having been made perfect, he became to all of those who obey him the author of eternal salvation,
And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation to all them that obey him;
- 10 Being named by God a high priest of the order of Melchizedek. named by God a high priest after the order of Melchizedek.
Called by God a high priest after the order of Melchisedec.
- 11 Of whom we have much to say which it is hard to make clear, because you are slow of hearing.
Of whom we have many words to say, and hard to interpret, seeing you have become dull of hearing.
Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing ye are dull of hearing.
- 12 And though by this time it would be right for you to be teachers, you still have need of someone to give you teaching about the first simple rules of God's revelation; you have become like babies who have need of milk, and not of solid food.
For when by reason of the time you ought to be teachers, you again need to have someone teach you the rudiments of the first principles of the oracles of God. You have come to need milk, and not solid food.
For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need of one to teach you again which are the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food.

- 13 For everyone who takes milk is without experience of the word of righteousness: he is a child.
For everyone who lives on milk is not experienced in the word of righteousness, for he is a baby.
For every one that useth milk, is unskillful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
- 14 But solid food is for men of full growth, even for those whose senses are trained by use to see what is good and what is evil.
But solid food is for full grown men, those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern good and evil.
But strong food belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.
- 1 For this reason let us go on from the first things about Christ to full growth; not building again that on which it is based, that is, the turning of the heart from dead works, and faith in God,
Therefore leaving the doctrine of the first principles of Christ, let us press on to perfection -- not laying again a foundation of repentance from dead works, of faith toward God,
Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on to perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith towards God,
- 2 The teaching of baptisms, and of the putting on of hands, and of the future life of the dead, and of the judging on the last day.
of the teaching of baptisms, of laying on of hands, of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of the resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
- 3 Now we will do this, if God lets us.
This will we do, if God permits.
And this will we do, if God permit.
- 4 As for those who at one time saw the light, tasting the good things from heaven, and having their part in the Holy Spirit,
For concerning those who were once enlightened and tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit,
For it is impossible for those who have been once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift, and have been made partakers of the Holy Spirit.

- 5 With knowledge of the good word of God, and of the powers of the coming time, and tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the age to come,
And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
- 6 And then let themselves be turned away, it is not possible for their hearts to be made new a second time; because they themselves put the Son of God on the cross again, openly shaming him.
and then fell away, it is impossible to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify the Son of God for themselves again, and put him to open shame.
If they shall fall away, to renew them again to repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
- 7 For a land, drinking in the frequent rain and producing good plants for those for whom it is worked, has a blessing from God:
For the land which has drunk the rain that comes often on it, and brings forth a crop suitable for them for whose sake it is also tilled, receives blessing from God;
For the earth which drinketh in the rain that cometh often upon it, and bringeth forth herbs fit for them by whom it is dressed, receiveth blessing from God:
- 8 But if it sends up thorns and evil plants, it is of no use and is ready to be cursed; its only end is to be burned.
but if it bears thorns and thistles, it is rejected and near a curse, whose end is to be burned.
But that which beareth thorns and briers is rejected, and is nigh to cursing; whose end is to be burned.
- 9 But, my loved ones, though we say this, we are certain that you have better things in you, things which go with salvation;
But, beloved, we are persuaded of better things for you, and things that accompany salvation, though we speak like this,
But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
- 10 For God is true, and will not put away from him the memory of your work and of your love for his name, in the help which you gave and still give to the saints.
for God is not unrighteous, so as to forget your work and the labor of love which you showed toward his name, in that you served to the saints, and still do serve them.
For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which ye have shown towards his name, in that ye have ministered to the saints, and do minister.

- 11 And it is our desire that you may all keep the same high purpose in certain hope to the end:
We desire that each one of you may show the same diligence to the fullness of hope even to the end,
And we desire every one of you to show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope to the end:
- 12 So that you may not be slow in heart, but may take as your example those to whom God has given their heritage, because of their faith and their long waiting.
that you won't be sluggish, but imitators of those who through faith and patience inherited the promises.
That ye be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
- 13 For when God made his oath to Abraham, because there was no greater oath, he made it by himself,
For when God made a promise to Abraham, since he could swear by none greater, he swore by himself,
For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,
-
- 14 Saying, Be certain that I will give you my blessing, and make your numbers very great.
saying, "Most surely I will bless you, and I will surely multiply you."
Saying, Surely blessing I will bless thee, and multiplying I will multiply thee.
- 15 And so, when he had been waiting calmly for a long time, God's word to him was put into effect.
Thus, having patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
- 16 For men at all times make their oaths by what is greater; and any argument is ended by the decision of the oath.
For men indeed swear by a greater one, and in every dispute of theirs the oath is final for confirmation.
For men verily swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all contradiction.
- 17 So that when it was God's desire to make it specially clear to those who by his word were to have the heritage, that his purpose was fixed, he made it more certain with an oath;
Wherein God, being determined to show more abundantly to the heirs of the promise the immutability of his counsel, interposed with an oath;
Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show to the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:

18 So that we, who have gone in flight from danger to the hope which has been put before us, may have a strong comfort in two unchanging things, in which it is not possible for God to be false; that by two immutable things, in which it is impossible for God to lie, we may have a strong encouragement, who have fled for refuge to take hold of the hope set before us,

That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:

19 And this hope is like a strong band for our souls, fixed and certain, and going in to that which is inside the veil; which we have as an anchor of the soul, a hope both sure and steadfast and entering into that which is within the veil;
Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which entereth into that within the veil;

20 Where Jesus has gone before us, as a high priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek. where as a forerunner Jesus entered for us, having become a high priest forever after the order of Melchizedek.
Whither the forerunner hath for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.

1 For this Melchizedek, the king of Salem, a priest of the Most High God, who gave Abraham his blessing, meeting him when he came back after putting the kings to death, For this Melchizedek, king of Salem, priest of God Most High, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings and blessed him,
For this Melchisedec, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;

2 And to whom Abraham gave a tenth part of everything which he had, being first named King of righteousness, and then in addition, King of Salem, that is to say, King of peace; to whom also Abraham divided a tenth part of all (being first, by interpretation, King of righteousness, and then also King of Salem, which is King of peace);
To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;

3 Being without father or mother, or family, having no birth or end to his life, being made like the Son of God, is a priest for ever. without father, without mother, without genealogy, having neither beginning of days nor end of life, but made like the Son of God), remains a priest continually.
Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like to the Son of God; abideth a priest continually.

- 4 Now see how great this man was, to whom our father Abraham gave a tenth part of what he had got in the fight.
Now consider how great this man was, to whom even Abraham, the patriarch, gave a tenth out of the best spoils.
Now consider how great this man was, to whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.
- 5 And it is true that by the law, those of the sons of Levi who have the position of priests may take a tenth part of the people's goods; that is to say, they take it from their brothers though these are the sons of Abraham.
They indeed of the sons of Levi who receive the priest's office have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though these have come out of the loins of Abraham,
And verily they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes from the people according to the law, that is, from their brethren, though they come from the loins of Abraham:
- 6 But this man, who was not of their family, took the tenth from Abraham, and gave a blessing to him to whom God had given his undertaking.
but he whose genealogy is not counted from them has taken tithes of Abraham, and has blessed him who has the promises.
But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes from Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
- 7 But there is no doubt that the less gets his blessing from the greater.
But without any dispute the less is blessed of the better.
And without all contradiction the less is blessed by the better.
- 8 Now at the present time, men over whom death has power take the tenth; but then it was taken by one of whom it is witnessed that he is living.
Here men who die receive tithes, but there one, of whom it is testified that he lives.
And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receiveth them, of whom it is testified that he liveth.
- 9 And we may say that in Abraham, even Levi, who has a right to take the tenth part, gave it;
So to say, through Abraham even Levi, who receives tithes, has paid tithes,
And as I may say, Levi also, who receiveth tithes, payed tithes in Abraham.

- 10 Because he was still in his father's body when Melchizedek came to him.
for he was yet in the loins of his father when Melchizedek met him.
For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedec met him.
- 11 Now if it was possible for things to be made complete through the priests of the house of Levi (for the law was given to the people in connection with them), what need was there for another priest who was of the order of Melchizedek and not of the order of Aaron?
Now if there was perfection through the Levitical priesthood (for under it have the people received the law), what further need was there for another priest to arise after the order of Melchizedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood (for under it the people received the law) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedec, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
- 12 Because if the priests are changed, it is necessary to make a change in the law.
For the priesthood being changed, there is of necessity a change made also of the law.
For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
- 13 For he of whom these things are said comes of another tribe, of which no man has ever made offerings at the altar.
For he of whom these things are said belongs to another tribe, from which no man has given attendance at the altar.
For he of whom these things are spoken pertaineth to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
- 14 Because it is clear that our Lord comes out of Judah, and Moses said nothing about priests from that tribe.
For it is evident that our Lord has sprung out of Judah, as to which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
For it is evident that our Lord sprang from Judah; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
- 15 And this is even more clear if a second priest has come up who is like Melchizedek,
This is yet more abundantly evident, if after the likeness of Melchizedek there arises another priest,
And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedec there ariseth another priest,

- 16 That is to say, not made by a law based on the flesh, but by the power of a life without end:
who has been made, not after the law of a fleshly commandment, but after the power of an endless life:
Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
- 17 For it has been witnessed of him, You are a priest for ever after the order of Melchizedek.
for it is testified, "You are a priest forever, According to the order of Melchizedek."
For he testifieth, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec.
- 18 So the law which went before is put on one side, because it was feeble and without profit.
For there is an annulling of a foregoing commandment because of its weakness and uselessness
For there is verily a disannulling of the preceding commandment on account of its weakness and unprofitableness.
- 19 (Because the law made nothing complete), and in its place there is a better hope, through which we come near to God.
(for the law made nothing perfect), and a bringing in thereupon of a better hope, through which we draw near to God.
For the law made nothing perfect, but the introduction of a better hope did; by which we draw nigh to God.
- 20 And as this is not without the taking of an oath
Inasmuch as it is not without the taking of an oath,
And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
- 21 (For those were made priests without an oath, but this one was made a priest with an oath by him who says of him, The Lord gave his oath, which he will not take back, that you are a priest for ever);
for they indeed have been made priests without an oath; but he with an oath by him that says of him, "The Lord swore and will not change his mind, `You are a priest forever, According to the order of Melchizedek`".
(For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath, by him that said to him, The Lord swore, and will not repent, Thou art a priest for ever after the order of Melchisedec:)
- 22 By so much is it a better agreement which we have through Jesus.
By so much has Jesus become the collateral of a better covenant.
By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.

- 23 And it is true that there have been a great number of those priests, because death does not let them go on for ever;
Many, indeed, have been made priests, because they are hindered from continuing by death.
And they truly were many priests, because they were not suffered to continue by reason of death:
- 24 But this priest, because his life goes on for ever, is unchanging.
But he, because he lives forever, has his priesthood unchangeable.
But this man, because he continueth ever, hath an unchangeable priesthood.
- 25 So that he is fully able to be the saviour of all who come to God through him, because he is ever living to make prayer to God for them.
Therefore he is also able to save to the uttermost those who draw near to God through him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them.
Wherefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come to God by him, seeing he ever liveth to make intercession for them.
- 26 It was right for us to have such a high priest, one who is holy and without evil, doing no wrong, having no part with sinners, and made higher than the heavens:
For such a high priest was fitting for us: holy, guiltless, undefiled, separated from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;
For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;
- 27 Who has no need to make offerings for sins every day, like those high priests, first for himself, and then for the people; because he did this once and for ever when he made an offering of himself.
who doesn't need, like those high priests, to daily offer up sacrifices, first for his own sins, and then for the sins of the people.
For this he did once for all, when he offered up himself.
Who needeth not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.
- 28 The law makes high priests of men who are feeble; but the word of the oath, which was made after the law, gives that position to a Son, in whom all good is for ever complete.
For the law appoints men high priests, having infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, appoints a Son, perfected forevermore.
For the law maketh men high priests who have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was after the law, maketh the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

1 Now of the things we are saying this is the chief point: We have such a high priest, who has taken his place at the right hand of God's high seat of glory in heaven,
Now in the things which we are saying, the main point is this. We have such a high priest, who sat down on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens,

Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;

2 As a servant of the holy things and of the true Tent, which was put up by God, not by man.

a minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tent, which the Lord pitched, not man.

A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.

3 Now every high priest is given authority to take to God the things which are given and to make offerings; so that it is necessary for this man, like them, to have something for an offering.

For every high priest is appointed to offer both gifts and sacrifices. Therefore it is necessary that this high priest also have something to offer.

For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: wherefore it is of necessity that this man should have somewhat also to offer.

4 If he had been on earth he would not have been a priest at all, because there are other priests who make the offerings ordered by the law;

For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest at all, seeing there are priests who offer the gifts according to the law;

For if he were on earth, he would not be a priest, seeing there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:

5 Being servants of that which is a copy and an image of the things in heaven, as Moses, when he was about to make the Tent, had special orders from God: for, See, he said, that you make everything like the design which you saw in the mountain.

who serve a copy and shadow of the heavenly things, even as Moses was warned by God when he was about to make the tent, for, "See," he said, "that you make all things according to the pattern that was shown you on the mountain."

Who serve to the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished by God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See (saith he) that thou make all things according to the pattern shown to thee in the mount.

6 But now his position as priest is higher. because through him God has made a better agreement with man, based on the giving of better things.

But now he has obtained a more excellent ministry, by so much as he is also the mediator of a better covenant, which has been enacted on better promises.

But now hath he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.

- 7 For if that first agreement had been as good as possible, there would have been no place for a second.
For if that first covenant had been faultless, then no place would have been sought for a second.
For if that first covenant had been faultless, then would no place have been sought for the second.
- 8 For, protesting against them, he says, See, the days are coming when I will make a new agreement with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah;
For finding fault with them, he said, "Behold, the days come," says the Lord, "That I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah;
For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
- 9 Not like the agreement which I made with their fathers when I took them by the hand, to be their guide out of the land of Egypt; for they did not keep the agreement with me, and I gave them up, says the Lord.
Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, In the day that I took them by the hand to lead them forth out of the land of Egypt; For they didn't continue in my covenant, And I disregarded them," says the Lord.
Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers, in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
- 10 For this is the agreement which I will make with the people of Israel after those days: I will put my laws into their minds, writing them in their hearts: and I will be their God, and they will be my people:
"For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel. After those days," says the Lord; "I will put my laws into their mind, I will also write them on their heart. I will be to them a God, And they will be to me a people.
For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
- 11 And there will be no need for every man to be teaching his brother, or his neighbour, saying, This is the knowledge of the Lord: for they will all have knowledge of me, great and small.
They will not teach every man his fellow citizen, Every man his brother, saying, `Know the Lord,` For all will know me, From the least of them to the greatest of them.
And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.

- 12 And I will have mercy on their evil-doing, and I will not keep their sins in mind.
For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness. I will remember their sins and lawless deeds no more."
For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
- 13 When he says, A new agreement, he has made the first agreement old. But anything which is getting old and past use will not be seen much longer.
In that he says, "A new covenant," he has made the first old. But that which is becoming old and grows aged is near to vanishing away.
In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and groweth old is ready to vanish away.
- 1 Now the first agreement had its rules of worship, and a holy order.
Now indeed even the first covenant had ordinances of divine service, and an earthly sanctuary.
Then verily the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.
- 2 For the first Tent was made ready, having in it the vessels for the lights and the table and the ordering of the bread; and this is named the holy place.
For there was a tent prepared, the first, in which were the lampstand, the table, and the show bread; which is called the Holy Place.
For there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the show-bread; which is called the sanctuary.
- 3 And inside the second veil was the place which is named the Holy of holies;
After the second veil, the tent which is called the Holy of Holies,
And after the second vail, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;
- 4 Having a vessel of gold in it for burning perfumes, and the ark of the agreement, which was covered with gold and which had in it a pot made of gold for the manna, and Aaron's rod which put out buds, and the stones with the writing of the agreement;
having a golden altar of incense, and the ark of the covenant overlaid on all sides with gold, in which was a golden pot holding the manna, Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;
Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid around with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;

- 5 And over it were the winged ones of glory with their wings covering the mercy-seat; about which it is not possible now to say anything in detail.
and above it cherubim of glory overshadowing the mercy seat, of which things we can't now speak in detail.
And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy-seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
- 6 Now while these things were in existence, the priests went into the first Tent at all times, for prayer and the making of offerings.
Now these things having been thus prepared, the priests go in continually into the first tent, accomplishing the services,
Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God:
- 7 But only the high priest went into the second, once a year, not without making an offering of blood for himself and for the errors of the people:
but into the second the high priest alone, once in the year, not without blood, which he offers for himself, and for the errors of the people.
But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:
- 8 The Holy Spirit witnessing by this that the way into the holy place had not at that time been made open, while the first Tent was still in being;
The Holy Spirit is signifying this, that the way into the Holy Place has not yet been revealed, while the first tent is yet standing;
The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while the first tabernacle was yet standing:
- 9 And this is an image of the present time; when the offerings which are given are not able to make the heart of the worshipper completely clean, which is an illustration of the present age, where gifts and sacrifices are offered that are incapable, concerning the conscience, of making the worshipper perfect;
Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;
- 10 Because they are only rules of the flesh, of meats and drinks and washings, which have their place till the time comes when things will be put right.
being only (with meats and drinks and various washings) fleshly ordinances, imposed until a time of reformation.
Which stood only in meats and drinks, and divers washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.

- 11 But now Christ has come as the high priest of the good things of the future, through this greater and better Tent, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this world,
But Christ having come as a high priest of the coming good things, through the greater and more perfect tent, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this creation,
But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
- 12 And has gone once and for ever into the holy place, having got eternal salvation, not through the blood of goats and young oxen, but through his blood.
nor yet through the blood of goats and calves, but through his own blood, entered in once for all into the Holy Place, having obtained eternal redemption.
Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood; he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.
- 13 For if the blood of goats and oxen, and the dust from the burning of a young cow, being put on the unclean, make the flesh clean:
For if the blood of goats and bulls, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling those who have been defiled, sanctify to the cleanness of the flesh:
For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of a heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctify to the purifying of the flesh:
- 14 How much more will the blood of Christ, who, being without sin, made an offering of himself to God through the Holy Spirit, make your hearts clean from dead works to be servants of the living God?
how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
- 15 And for this cause it is through him that a new agreement has come into being, so that after the errors under the first agreement had been taken away by his death, the word of God might have effect for those who were marked out for an eternal heritage.
For this cause he is the mediator of a new covenant, that a death having taken place for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first covenant, those who have been called may receive the promise of the eternal inheritance.
And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they who are called may receive the promise of eternal inheritance.

- 16 Because where there is a testament, there has to be the death of the man who made it.
For where a last will and testament is, there must of necessity be the death of him who made it.
For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
- 17 For a testament has effect after death; for what power has it while the man who made it is living?
For a will is in force where there has been death, for it is never in force while he who made it lives.
For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator liveth.
- 18 So that even the first agreement was not made without blood.
Therefore even the first covenant has not been dedicated without blood.
Hence even the first testament was not dedicated without blood.
- 19 For when Moses had given all the rules of the law to the people, he took the blood of goats and young oxen, with water and red wool and hyssop, and put it on the book itself and on all the people,
For when every commandment had been spoken by Moses to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of the calves and the goats, with water and scarlet wool and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book itself and all the people,
For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book and all the people,
- 20 Saying, This blood is the sign of the agreement which God has made with you.
saying, "This is the blood of the covenant which God commanded toward you."
Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God hath enjoined to you.
- 21 And the blood was put on the Tent and all the holy vessels in the same way.
Moreover he sprinkled the tent and all the vessels of the ministry in like manner with the blood.
Moreover, he sprinkled likewise with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
- 22 And by the law almost all things are made clean with blood, and without blood there is no forgiveness.
According to the law, nearly everything is cleansed with blood, and apart from shedding of blood there is no remission.
And almost all things are by the law cleansed with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.

23 For this cause it was necessary to make the copies of the things in heaven clean with these offerings; but the things themselves are made clean with better offerings than these.
It was necessary therefore that the copies of the things in the heavens should be cleansed with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.

24 For Christ did not go into a holy place which had been made by men's hands as the copy of the true one; but he went into heaven itself, and now takes his place before the face of God for us.
For Christ entered not into a holy place made with hands, similar in pattern to the true, but into heaven itself, now to appear before the face of God for us;

For Christ hath not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:

25 And he did not have to make an offering of himself again and again, as the high priest goes into the holy place every year with blood which is not his;
nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place year by year with blood not his own,
Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest entereth into the holy place every year with blood of others;

26 For then he would have undergone a number of deaths from the time of the making of the world: but now he has come to us at the end of the old order, to put away sin by the offering of himself.
or else he must have suffered often since the foundation of the world. But now once at the end of the ages, he has been revealed to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world hath he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.

27 And because by God's law death comes to men once, and after that they are judged;
Inasmuch as it is appointed for men to die once, and after this, judgment,
And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment:

28 So Christ, having at his first coming taken on himself the sins of men, will be seen a second time, without sin, by those who are waiting for him, for their salvation.
so Christ also, having been once offered to bear the sins of many, will appear a second time, without sin, to those who are eagerly waiting for him for salvation.
So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to them that look for him he will appear the second time without sin to salvation.

- 1 For the law, being only a poor copy of the future good things, and not the true image of those things, is never able to make the people who come to the altar every year with the same offerings completely clean.
For the law, having a shadow of the good to come, not the very image of the things, can never with the same sacrifices year by year, which they offer continually, make perfect those who draw near.
For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers to them perfect.
- 2 For if this had been possible, would there not have been an end of those offerings, because the worshippers would have been made completely clean and would have been no longer conscious of sins?
Or else wouldn't they have ceased to be offered, because the worshippers, having been once cleansed, would have had no more consciousness of sins?
For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshipers once cleansed, would have had no more conscience of sins.
- 3 But year by year there is a memory of sins in those offerings.
But in those sacrifices there is a memory made of sins year by year.
But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.
- 4 Because it is not possible for the blood of oxen and goats to take away sins.
For it is impossible that the blood of bulls and goats should take away sins.
For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.
- 5 So that when he comes into the world, he says, You had no desire for offerings, but you made a body ready for me;
Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, "Sacrifice and offering you didn't desire, But a body did you prepare for me;
Wherefore, when he cometh into the world, he saith, Sacrifice and offering thou wouldst not, but a body hast thou prepared me:
- 6 You had no joy in burned offerings or in offerings for sin.
In whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you had no pleasure.
In burnt-offerings and sacrifices for sin thou hast had no pleasure.

- 7 Then I said, See, I have come to do your pleasure, O God (as it is said of me in the roll of the book).
Then I said, `Behold, I have come (In the scroll of the book it is written of me) To do your will, God.`"
Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written concerning me,) to do thy will, O God.
- 8 After saying, You had no desire for offerings, for burned offerings or offerings for sin (which are made by the law) and you had no pleasure in them,
Saying above, "Sacrifices and offerings and whole burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you didn't desire, neither had pleasure in them" (those which are offered according to the law),
Above, when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt-offerings and offering for sin thou wouldst not, neither hadst pleasure in them; which are offered by the law;
- 9 Then he said, See, I have come to do your pleasure. He took away the old order, so that he might put the new order in its place.
then has he said, "Behold, I have come to do your will." He takes away the first, that he may establish the second,
Then said he, Lo, I come to do thy will, O God. He taketh away the first, that he may establish the second.
- 10 By that pleasure we have been made holy, by the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once and for ever.
by which will we have been sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
By which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
- 11 And every priest takes his place at the altar day by day, doing what is necessary, and making again and again the same offerings which are never able to take away sins.
Every priest indeed stands day by day ministering and often offering the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins,
And every priest standeth daily ministering and offering often the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:
- 12 But when Jesus had made one offering for sins for ever, he took his place at the right hand of God;
but he, when he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;
But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins, for ever sat down on the right hand of God;
- 13 And has been waiting there from that time, till all who are against him are made a foot-rest for his feet.
henceforth expecting until his enemies to be made the footstool of his feet.
From henceforth waiting till his enemies are made his footstool.

- 14 Because by one offering he has made complete for ever those who are made holy.
For by one offering he has perfected forever those who are sanctified.
For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.
- 15 And the Holy Spirit is a witness for us: for after he had said,
The Holy Spirit also testifies to us, for after he has said,
Of this the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,
- 16 This is the agreement which I will make with them after those days, says the Lord; I will put my laws in their hearts, writing them in their minds; he said,
"This is the covenant that I will make with them: `After those days,` says the Lord, `I will put my laws on their heart, I will also write them on their mind;`" then,
This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, saith the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;
- 17 And I will keep no more memory of their sins and of their evil-doings.
"I will remember their sins and their iniquities no more."
And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.
- 18 Now where there is forgiveness of these, there is no more offering for sin.
Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
- 19 So then, my brothers, being able to go into the holy place without fear, because of the blood of Jesus,
Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holy place by the blood of Jesus,
Having therefore, brethren, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,
- 20 By the new and living way which he made open for us through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;
by the way which he dedicated for us, a new and living way, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;
By a new and living way, which he hath consecrated for us, through the vail, that is to say, his flesh;

- 21 And having a great priest over the house of God,
and having a great priest over the house of God;
And having a high priest over the house of God;
- 22 Let us go in with true hearts, in certain faith, having our hearts made free from the sense of sin and our bodies washed with clean water:
let us draw near with a true heart in fullness of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and having our body washed with pure water,
Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
- 23 Let us keep the witness of our hope strong and unshaking, for he is true who has given his word:
let us hold fast the confession of our hope unyieldingly. For he who promised is faithful.
Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; for he is faithful that promised:
- 24 And let us be moving one another at all times to love and good works;
Let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good works,
And let us consider one another to excite to love and to good works:
- 25 Not giving up our meetings, as is the way of some, but keeping one another strong in faith; and all the more because you see the day coming near.
not forsaking our own assembling together, as the custom of some is, but exhorting one another; and so much the more, as you see the Day approaching.
Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as ye see the day approaching.
- 26 For if we do evil on purpose after we have had the knowledge of what is true, there is no more offering for sins,
For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more a sacrifice for sins,
For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remaineth no more sacrifice for sins,

- 27 But only a great fear of being judged, and of the fire of wrath which will be the destruction of the haters of God.
but a certain fearful expectation of judgment, and a fierceness of fire which will devour the adversaries.
But a certain fearful apprehension of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
- 28 A man who has gone against the law of Moses is put to death without pity on the word of two or three witnesses:
A man who has set at nothing Moses' law dies without compassion on the word of two or three witnesses.
He that despised Moses' law, died without mercy under two or three witnesses:
- 29 But will not the man by whom the Son of God has been crushed under foot, and the blood of the agreement with which he was washed clean has been taken as an unholy thing, and who has had no respect for the Spirit of grace, be judged bad enough for a very much worse punishment?
How much worse punishment, do you think, will he be judged worthy of, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant with which he was sanctified an unholy thing, and has insulted the Spirit of grace?
Of how much more severe punishment, suppose ye, shall he be thought worthy, who hath trodden under foot the Son of God, and hath counted the blood of the covenant, by which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and hath done despite to the Spirit of grace?
- 30 For we have had experience of him who says, Punishment is mine, I will give reward. And again, The Lord will be judge of his people.
For we know him who said, "Vengeance belongs to me," says the Lord, "I will repay." Again, "The Lord will judge his people."
For we know him that hath said, Vengeance belongeth to me, I will recompense, saith the Lord. And again, The Lord will judge his people.
- 31 We may well go in fear of falling into the hands of the living God.
It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
- 32 But give thought to the days after you had seen the light, when you went through a great war of troubles;
But remember the former days, in which, after you were enlightened, you endured a great struggle with sufferings;
But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after ye were illuminated, ye endured a great fight of afflictions;

- 33 In part, in being attacked by angry words and cruel acts, before the eyes of everyone, and in part, in being united with those who were attacked in this way.
partly, being exposed to both reproaches and oppressions; and partly, becoming partakers with those who were treated so.
Partly, while ye were made a gazing-stock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while ye became companions of them that were so used.
- 34 For you had pity on those who were in prison, and had joy in the loss of your property, in the knowledge that you still had a better property and one which you would keep for ever.
For you both had compassion on me in my chains, and joyfully accepted the plundering of your possessions, knowing that you have for yourselves a better possession and an enduring one in the heavens.
For ye had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the seizing of your goods, knowing in yourselves that ye have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
- 35 So do not give up your hope which will be greatly rewarded.
Therefore don't throw away your boldness, which has a great reward.
Cast not away therefore your confidence, which hath great recompense of reward.
- 36 For, having done what was right in God's eyes, you have need of waiting before his word has effect for you.
For you need patience, so that, having done the will of God, you may receive the promise.
For ye have need of patience, that, after ye have done the will of God, ye may receive the promise.
- 37 In a very little time he who is coming will come; he will not be slow.
"For yet a very little while, He who comes will come, and will not wait.
For yet a little while, and he that is coming will come, and will not tarry.
- 38 But the upright man will be living by his faith; and if he goes back, my soul will have no pleasure in him.
But the righteous will live by faith. If he shrinks back, my soul has no pleasure in him."
Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man shall draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
- 39 But we are not of those who go back to destruction; but of those who have faith even to the salvation of the soul.
But we are not of those who shrink back to destruction, but of those who have faith to the saving of the soul.
But we are not of them who draw back to perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

- 1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, and the sign that the things not seen are true.
Now faith is assurance of things hoped for, proof of things not seen.
Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
- 2 For by it our fathers had God's approval.
For by this, the elders obtained testimony.
For by it the elders obtained a good report.
- 3 By faith it is clear to us that the order of events was fixed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made from things which only seem to be.
By faith, we understand that the universe has been framed by the word of God, so that what is seen has not been made out of things which are visible.
Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which appeared.
- 4 By faith Abel made a better offering to God than Cain, and he had witness through it of his righteousness, God giving his approval of his offering: and his voice still comes to us through it though he is dead.
By faith, Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, through which he had testimony given to him that he was righteous, God bearing witness with respect to his gifts; and through it he, being dead, still speaks.
By faith Abel offered to God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained testimony that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it he being dead yet speaketh.
- 5 By faith Enoch was taken up to heaven so that he did not see death; he was seen no longer, for God took him away: for before he was taken, witness had been given that he was well-pleasing to God:
By faith, Enoch was translated, so that he should not see death, and he was not found, because God translated him. For he has had testimony given to him that before his translation he had been well pleasing to God.
By faith Enoch was translated, that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
- 6 And without faith it is not possible to be well-pleasing to him, for it is necessary for anyone who comes to God to have the belief that God is, and that he is a rewarder of all those who make a serious search for him.
Without faith it is impossible to be well pleasing to him, for he who comes to God must believe that he exists, and that he is a rewarder of those who seek him.
But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.

- 7 By faith Noah, being moved by the fear of God, made ready an ark for the salvation of his family, because God had given him news of things which were not seen at the time; and through it the world was judged by him, and he got for his heritage the righteousness which is by faith.
By faith, Noah, being warned about things not yet seen, moved with godly fear, prepared an ark for the saving of his house, through which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is according to faith.
By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by which he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.
- 8 By faith Abraham did as God said when he was ordered to go out into a place which was to be given to him as a heritage, and went out without knowledge of where he was going.
By faith, Abraham, when he was called, obeyed to go out to the place which he was to receive for an inheritance. He went out, not knowing where he went.
By faith Abraham, when he was called to remove into a place which he should afterwards receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out not knowing whither he was going.
- 9 By faith he was a wanderer in the land of the agreement, as in a strange land, living in tents with Isaac and Jacob, who had a part with him in the same heritage:
By faith, he lived as an alien in the land of promise, as in a land not his own, dwelling in tents, with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise.
By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a foreign country, dwelling in tabernacles with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
- 10 For he was looking for the strong town, whose builder and maker is God.
For he looked for the city which has the foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
For he looked for a city which hath foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
- 11 And by faith Sarah herself had power to give birth, when she was very old, because she had faith in him who gave his word;
By faith, even Sarah herself received power to conceive, and she bore a child when she was past age, since she counted him faithful who had promised.
Through faith also Sarah herself received strength to conceive seed, and was delivered of a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.

- 12 So that from one man, who was near to death, came children in number as the stars in heaven, or as the sand by the seaside, which may not be numbered.
Therefore they were fathered by one, and him as good as dead, as many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as innumerable as the sand which is by the sea shore.
Therefore there sprang even from one, and him as good as dead, so many as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea-shore innumerable.
- 13 All these came to their end in faith, not having had the heritage; but having seen it with delight far away, they gave witness that they were wanderers and not of the earth.
These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them and embraced them from afar, and having confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
- 14 For those who say such things make it clear that they are searching for a country for themselves.
For those who say such things make it clear that they are seeking after a country of their own.
For they that say such things declare plainly that they seek a country.
- 15 And truly if they had kept in mind the country from which they went out, they would have had chances of turning back.
If indeed they had been thinking of that country from which they went out, they would have had enough time to return.
And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from whence they came, they might have had opportunity to return.
- 16 But now their desire is for a better country, that is to say, for one in heaven; and so it is no shame to God to be named their God; for he has made ready a town for them.
But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed of them, to be called their God, for he has prepared a city for them.
But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly: wherefore God is not ashamed to be called their God; for he hath prepared for them a city.
- 17 By faith Abraham made an offering of Isaac, when he was tested: and he with whom the agreement had been made gave up as an offering the only son of his body,
By faith, Abraham, being tested, offered up Isaac. Yes, he who had gladly received the promises was offering up his one and only son;
By faith Abraham, when he was tried, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only-begotten son,

- 18 Of whom it had been said, From Isaac will your seed take their name:
even he to whom it was said, "In Isaac will your seed be called;"
Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall thy seed be called:
- 19 Judging that God was able to give life even to the dead; and because of this he did get him back as if from death.
accounting that God is able to raise up, even from the dead. Figuratively speaking, he also did receive him back from the dead.
Accounting that God was able to raise him even from the dead; from whence also he received him in a figure.
- 20 By faith Isaac, blessing Jacob and Esau, gave news of things to come.
By faith, Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau, even concerning things to come.
By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
- 21 By faith Jacob gave a blessing to the two sons of Joseph, when he was near to death; and gave God worship, supported by his stick.
By faith, Jacob, when he was dying, blessed each of the sons of Joseph, and worshipped, leaning on the top of his staff.
By faith Jacob, when he was dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
- 22 By faith Joseph, when his end was near, said that the children of Israel would go out of Egypt; and gave orders about his bones.
By faith, Joseph, when his end was near, made mention of the departure of the children of Israel; and gave instructions concerning his bones.
By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave commandment concerning his bones.
- 23 By faith Moses was kept secretly by his father and mother for three months after his birth, because they saw that he was a fair child; and they had no fear of the king's orders.
By faith, Moses, when he was born, was hidden for three months by his parents, because they saw that he was a beautiful child, and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.
By faith Moses when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a proper child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.

- 24 By faith Moses, when he became a man, had no desire to be named the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
By faith, Moses, when he had grown up, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter,
By faith Moses, when he had come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
- 25 Feeling that it was better to undergo pain with the people of God, than for a short time to have a taste of the pleasures of sin;
choosing rather to share ill treatment with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a time;
Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
- 26 Judging a part in the shame of Christ to be better than all the wealth of Egypt; for he was looking forward to his reward.
accounting the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt; for he looked to the reward.
Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures of Egypt: for he had respect to the recompense of the reward.
- 27 By faith he went out of Egypt, not being turned from his purpose by fear of the wrath of the king; for he kept on his way, as seeing him who is unseen.
By faith, he left Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king; for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
- 28 By faith he kept the Passover, and put the sign of the blood on the houses, so that the angel of destruction might not put their oldest sons to death.
By faith, he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of the blood, that the destroyer of the firstborn should not touch them.
Through faith he kept the passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the first-born should touch them.
- 29 By faith they went through the Red Sea as if it had been dry land, though the Egyptians were overcome by the water when they made an attempt to do the same.
By faith, they passed through the Red sea as by dry land. When the Egyptians tried to do so, they were swallowed up.
By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which the Egyptians essaying to do were drowned.
- 30 By faith the walls of Jericho came down, after they had been circled for seven days.
By faith, the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.
By faith the walls of Jericho fell down after they had been encompassed seven days.

- 31 By faith Rahab, the loose woman, was not put to death with those who had gone against God's orders, because she had taken into her house in peace those sent to see the land.
By faith, Rahab, the prostitute, didn't perish with those who were disobedient, having received the spies in peace.
By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, as she had received the spies with peace.
- 32 What more am I to say? For there would not be time to give the stories of Gideon, Barak, Samson, and Jephthah, of David and Samuel and the prophets:
What will I more say? For the time will fail me if I tell of Gideon, Barak, Samson, Jephthah, David, Samuel, and the prophets;
And what shall I say more? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthah, of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:
- 33 Who through faith overcame kingdoms, did righteousness, got their reward, kept the mouths of lions shut, who, through faith, subdued kingdoms, worked out righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions,
- 34 Put out the power of fire, got safely away from the edge of the sword, were made strong when they had been feeble, became full of power in war, and put to flight the armies of the nations.
quenched the power of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, from weakness were made strong, grew mighty in war, and turned to flight armies of aliens.
Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, became valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
- 35 Women had their dead given back to them living; others let themselves be cruelly attacked, having no desire to go free, so that they might have a better life to come;
Women received their dead by resurrection. Others were tortured, not accepting their deliverance, that they might obtain a better resurrection.
Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; that they might obtain a better resurrection:
- 36 And others were tested by being laughed at or by blows, and even with chains and prisons:
Others were tried by mocking and scourging, yes, moreover by bonds and imprisonment.
And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, and, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:

- 37 They were stoned, they were cut up with knives, they were tested, they were put to death with the sword, they went about in sheepskins and in goatskins; being poor and in pain and cruelly attacked,
They were stoned. They were sawn apart. They were tempted. They were slain with the sword. They went around in sheepskins, in goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, ill-treated
They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheep-skins, and goat-skins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
- 38 Wandering in waste places and in mountains and in holes in the rocks; for whom the world was not good enough.
(of whom the world was not worthy), wandering in deserts and mountains and caves, and the holes of the earth.
(Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserts, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
- 39 And not one of these got the good things of the agreement, though they all had a good record through faith,
These all, having had testimony given to them through their faith, didn't receive the promise,
And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
- 40 Because God had kept some better thing for us, so that it was not possible for them to become complete without us.
God having provided some better thing concerning us, so that apart from us they should not be made perfect.
God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.
- 1 For this reason, as we are circled by so great a cloud of witnesses, putting off every weight, and the sin into which we come so readily, let us keep on running in the way which is marked out for us,
Therefore let us also, seeing we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, lay aside every weight and the sin which so easily entangles us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
Wherefore, seeing we also are encompassed with so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
- 2 Having our eyes fixed on Jesus, the guide and end of our faith, who went through the pains of the cross, not caring for the shame, because of the joy which was before him, and who has now taken his place at the right hand of God's seat of power.
looking to Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
Looking to Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 Give thought to him who has undergone so much of the hate of sinners against himself, so that you may not be tired and feeble of purpose.
For consider him who has endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, that you don't grow weary, fainting in your souls.

For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest ye be wearied and faint in your minds.

4 Till now you have not given your blood in your fight against sin:
You have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin;
Ye have not yet resisted to blood, striving against sin.

5 And you have not kept in mind the word which says to you as to sons, My son, do not make little of the Lord's punishment, and do not give up hope when you are judged by him;
and you have forgotten the exhortation which reasons with you as with sons, "My son, don't take lightly the chastening of the Lord, Nor faint when you are reproved by him;
And ye have forgotten the exhortation which speaketh to you as to children, My son, despise not thou the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when thou art rebuked by him:

6 For the Lord sends punishment on his loved ones; everyone whom he takes as his son has experience of his rod.
For whom the Lord loves, he chastens, And scourges every son whom he receives."
For whom the Lord loveth he chasteneth, and scourgeth every son whom he receiveth.

7 It is for your training that you undergo these things; God is acting to you as a father does to his sons; for what son does not have punishment from his father?
It is for discipline that you endure. God deals with you as with sons, for what son is there whom his father doesn't discipline?
If ye endure chastening, God dealeth with you as with sons: for what son is he whom the father chasteneth not?

8 But if you have not that punishment of which we all have our part, then you are not true sons, but children of shame.
But if you are without discipline, whereof all have been made partakers, then are you illegitimate, and not sons.
But if ye are without chastisement, of which all are partakers, then are ye bastards and not sons.

- 9 And again, if the fathers of our flesh gave us punishment and had our respect, how much more will we be under the authority of the Father of spirits, and have life?
Furthermore, we had the fathers of our flesh to chasten us, and we paid them respect. Shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
Furthermore, we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them reverence: shall we not much rather be in subjection to the Father of spirits, and live?
- 10 For they truly gave us punishment for a short time, as it seemed good to them; but he does it for our profit, so that we may become holy as he is.
For they indeed, for a few days, punished us as seemed good to them; but he for our profit, that we may be partakers of his holiness.
For they verily for a few days chastened us after their own pleasure; but he for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
- 11 At the time all punishment seems to be pain and not joy: but after, those who have been trained by it get from it the peace-giving fruit of righteousness.
All chastening seems for the present to be not joyous but grievous; yet afterward it yields the peaceful fruit of righteousness to those who have been exercised thereby.
Now no chastening for the present seemeth to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless, afterward it yieldeth the peaceable fruit of righteousness to them who are exercised by it.
- 12 For this cause let the hands which are hanging down be lifted up, and let the feeble knees be made strong,
Therefore, lift up the hands that hang down and the feeble knees,
Wherefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
- 13 And make straight roads for your feet, so that the feeble may not be turned out of the way, but may be made strong.
and make straight paths for your feet, that that which is lame may not be dislocated, but rather be healed.
And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.
- 14 Let your desire be for peace with all men, and to be made holy, without which no man may see the Lord;
Follow after peace with all men, and the sanctification without which no man will see the Lord,
Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:

- 15 Looking with care to see that no man among you in his behaviour comes short of the grace of God; for fear that some bitter root may come up to be a trouble to you, and that some of you may be made unclean by it;
looking carefully lest there be any man who falls short of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby the many be defiled;
Looking diligently, lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up, trouble you, and by it many be defiled;
- 16 And that there may not be any evil liver, or any man without respect for God, like Esau, who let his birthright go for a plate of food.
lest there be any sexually immoral person, or profane person, as Esau, who sold his birthright for one meal.
Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birth-right.
- 17 For you have knowledge that even long after, when he was desiring the blessing for his heritage, he was turned away, though he made his request frequently and with weeping; because the past might not be changed.
For you know that even when he afterward desired to inherit the blessing, he was rejected, for he found no place for a change of mind though he sought it diligently with tears.
For ye know that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it carefully with tears.
- 18 You have not come to a mountain which may be touched, and is burning with fire, and to a black cloud, and a dark smoke, and a violent wind,
For you have not come to a mountain that might be touched, and that burned with fire, and to blackness, darkness, tempest,
For ye are not come to the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor to blackness, and to darkness, and tempest,
- 19 And to the sound of a horn, and the voice of words, the hearers of which made request that not a word more might be said to them:
the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which those who heard it begged that not one more word should be spoken to them,
And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard, entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
- 20 For the order which said, If the mountain is touched even by a beast, the beast is to be stoned, seemed hard to them; for they could not stand that which was enjoined, "If even a animal touch the mountain, it will be stoned;"
(For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:

- 21 And the vision was so overpowering that even Moses said, I am shaking and full of fear.
and so fearful was the appearance, that Moses said, "I am terrified and trembling."
And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and tremble:)
- 22 But you have come to the mountain of Zion, to the place of the living God, to the Jerusalem which is in heaven, and to an army of angels which may not be numbered,
But you have come to Mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to innumerable hosts of angels,
But ye are come to mount Sion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
- 23 To the great meeting and church of the first of those who are named in heaven, and to God the judge of all, and to the spirits of good men made complete, to the general assembly and assembly of the firstborn who are enrolled in heaven, to God, the Judge of all, to the spirits of just men made perfect,
To the general assembly and church of the first-born, who are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
- 24 And to Jesus by whom the new agreement has been made between God and man, and to the sign of the blood which says better things than Abel's blood.
to Jesus, the mediator of a new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling that speaks better than that of Abel.
And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.
- 25 See that you give ear to his voice which comes to you. For if those whose ears were shut to the voice which came to them on earth did not go free from punishment, what chance have we of going free if we give no attention to him whose voice comes from heaven?
See that you don't refuse him who speaks. For if they didn't escape when they refused him who warned on the Earth, how much more will we not escape who turn away from him who warns from heaven,
See that ye refuse not him that speaketh. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaketh from heaven:
- 26 Whose voice was the cause of the shaking of the earth; but now he has made an oath, saying, There will be still one more shaking, not only of the earth, but of heaven.
whose voice shook the earth, then, but now he has promised, saying, "Yet once more will I shake not only the earth, but also the heavens."
Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he hath promised, saying, Yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.

- 27 And the words, Still one more, make it clear that there will be a taking away of those things which are shaking, as of things which are made, so that there may be only those things of which no shaking is possible.
This phrase, "Yet once more," signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that have been made, that those things which are not shaken may remain.
And this word, Yet once more, signifieth the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
- 28 If then, we have a kingdom which will never be moved, let us have grace, so that we may give God such worship as is pleasing to him with fear and respect:
Therefore, receiving a kingdom that can` t be shaken, let us have grace, whereby we may offer service well pleasing to God, with reverence and awe,
Wherefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, by which we may serve God acceptably, with reverence and godly fear.
- 29 For our God is an all-burning fire.
for our God is a consuming fire.
For our God is a consuming fire.
- 1 Go on loving your brothers in the faith.
Let brotherly love continue.
Let brotherly love continue.
- 2 Take care to keep open house: because in this way some have had angels as their guests, without being conscious of it.
Don` t forget to show hospitality to strangers, for in doing so, some have entertained angels without knowing it.
Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for by this some have entertained angels unawares.
- 3 Keep in mind those who are in chains, as if you were chained with them, and those who are in trouble, as being yourselves in the body.
Remember those who are in bonds, as bound with them; and those who are ill-treated, since you are also in the body.
Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them who suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.

- 4 Let married life be honoured among all of you and not made unclean; for men untrue in married life will be judged by God.
Let marriage be held in honor among all, and let the bed be undefiled: but God will judge the sexually immoral and adulterers.
Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but lewd persons and adulterers God will judge.
- 5 Be free from the love of money and pleased with the things which you have; for he himself has said, I will be with you at all times.
Be free from the love of money, content with such things as you have, for he has said, "I will in no way leave you, neither will I in any way forsake you."
Let your manner of life be without covetousness; and be content with such things as ye have: for he hath said, I will never leave thee, nor forsake thee.
- 6 So that we say with a good heart, The Lord is my helper; I will have no fear: what is man able to do to me?
So that with good courage we say, "The Lord is my helper. I will not fear. What will man do to me?"
So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me.
- 7 Keep in mind those who were over you, and who gave you the word of God; seeing the outcome of their way of life, let your faith be like theirs.
Remember your leaders, men who spoke to you the word of God, and considering the results of their conduct, imitate their faith.
Remember them who have the rule over you, who have spoken to you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their manner of life.
- 8 Jesus Christ is the same yesterday and today and for ever.
Jesus Christ is the same yesterday, today, and forever.
Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and to-day, and for ever.
- 9 Do not be turned away by different strange teachings, because it is good for your hearts to be made strong by grace, and not by meats, which were of no profit to those who took so much trouble over them.
Don't be carried away by various and strange teachings, for it is good that the heart be established by grace, not by food, through which those who were so occupied were not benefited.
Be not carried about with divers and strange doctrines: for it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with meats, which have not profited them that have been occupied in them.

- 10 We have an altar from which those priests who are servants in the Tent may not take food.
We have an altar from which those who serve the holy tent have no right to eat.
We have an altar, of which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.
- 11 For the bodies of the beasts whose blood is taken into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin are burned outside the circle of the tents.
For the bodies of those animals, whose blood is brought into the holy place by the high priest as an offering for sin, are burned outside of the camp.
For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned without the camp.
- 12 For this reason Jesus was put to death outside the walls, so that he might make the people holy by his blood.
Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people through his own blood, suffered outside of the gate.
Wherefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered without the gate.
- 13 Let us then go out to him outside the circle of the tents, taking his shame on ourselves.
Let us therefore go forth to him outside of the camp, bearing his reproach.
Let us go forth therefore to him without the camp, bearing his reproach.
- 14 For here we have no fixed resting-place, but our search is for the one which is to come.
For we don't have here an enduring city, but we seek that which is to come.
For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.
- 15 Let us then make offerings of praise to God at all times through him, that is to say, the fruit of lips giving witness to his name.
Through him, then, let us offer up a sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of lips which make confession to his name.
By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips, giving thanks to his name.
- 16 But go on doing good and giving to others, because God is well-pleased with such offerings.
But don't forget to be doing good and sharing, for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
But to do good, and to communicate, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.

- 17 Give ear to those who are rulers over you, and do as they say: for they keep watch over your souls, ready to give an account of them; let them be able to do this with joy and not with grief, because that would be of no profit to you.
Obey those who have the rule over you, and submit to them, for they watch on behalf of your souls, as those who will give account, that they may do this with joy, and not with groaning, for that would be unprofitable for you.
Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.
- 18 Make prayers for us, for we are certain that our hearts are free from the sense of sin, desiring the right way of life in all things.
Pray for us, for we are persuaded that we have a good conscience, desiring to live honorably in all things.
Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
- 19 I make this request more strongly, in the hope of coming back to you more quickly.
I strongly urge you to do this, that I may be restored to you sooner.
But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.
- 20 Now may the God of peace, who made that great keeper of his flock, even our Lord Jesus, come back from the dead through the blood of the eternal agreement,
Now may the God of peace, who brought again from the dead the great shepherd of the sheep with the blood of an eternal covenant, our Lord Jesus,
Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great Shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,
- 21 Make you full of every good work and ready to do all his desires, working in us whatever is pleasing in his eyes through Jesus Christ; and may the glory be given to him for ever and ever. So be it.
make you complete in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ, to whom be the glory forever and ever. Amen.
Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well-pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory for ever and ever. Amen.
- 22 But, brothers, take kindly the words which I have said for your profit; for I have not sent you a long letter.
But I exhort you, brothers, endure the word of exhortation, for I have written to you in few words.
And I beseech you, brethren, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter to you in few words.

23 Our brother Timothy has been let out of prison; and if he comes here in a short time, he and I will come to you together.
Know that our brother Timothy has been freed, with whom, if he comes shortly, I will see you.
Know ye, that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.

24 Give words of love from me to those who are rulers over you, and to all the saints. Those who are in Italy send you their love.
Greet all of your leaders and all the saints. The Italians Greet you.
Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.

25 May grace be with you all.
Grace be with you all. Amen.
Grace be with you all. Amen.

1 James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, sends words of love to the twelve tribes of the Jews living in all parts of the earth.
James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are in the Dispersion: greetings.
James, a servant of God and of the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 Let it be all joy to you, my brothers, when you undergo tests of every sort;
Count it all joy, my brothers, when you fall into various temptations,
My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.

3 Because you have the knowledge that the testing of your faith gives you the power of going on in hope;
Knowing that the testing of your faith produces patience.
Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let this power have its full effect, so that you may be made complete, needing nothing.
Let patience have its perfect work, that you may be perfect and complete, lacking in nothing.
But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

- 5 But if any man among you is without wisdom, let him make his request to God, who gives freely to all without an unkind word, and it will be given to him.
But if any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach; and it will be given him.
If any of you lacketh wisdom, let him ask of God, who giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given to him.
- 6 Let him make his request in faith, doubting nothing; for he who has doubt in his heart is like the waves of the sea, which are troubled by the driving of the wind.
But let him ask in faith, without any doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea, driven by the wind and tossed.
But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea driven with the wind and tossed.
- 7 Let it not seem to such a man that he will get anything from the Lord;
For let that man not think that he will receive anything from the Lord.
For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing from the Lord.
- 8 For there is a division in his mind, and he is uncertain in all his ways.
He is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.
A man unsettled in his opinions is unstable in all his ways.
- 9 But let the brother of low position be glad that he is lifted up;
But let the brother in humble circumstances glory in his high position;
Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:
- 10 But the man of wealth, that he is made low; because like the flower of the grass he will come to his end.
and the rich, in that he is made humble, because like the flower in the grass, he will pass away.
But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.
- 11 For when the sun comes up with its burning heat, the grass gets dry and the grace of its form is gone with the falling flower; so the man of wealth comes to nothing in his ways.
For the sun arises with the scorching wind, and withers the grass, and the flower in it falls, and the beauty of its appearance perishes. So also will the rich man fade away in his pursuits.
For the sun hath no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and its flower falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

- 12 There is a blessing on the man who undergoes testing; because, if he has God's approval, he will be given the crown of life, which the Lord has said he will give to those who have love for him.
Blessed is the man who endures temptation, for when he has been approved, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord promised to those who love him.
Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.
- 13 Let no man say when he is tested, I am tested by God; for it is not possible for God to be tested by evil, and he himself puts no man to such a test:
Let no man say when he is tempted, "I am tempted by God," for God can't be tempted with evil, and he himself tempts no one.
Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted by God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:
- 14 But every man is tested when he is turned out of the right way by the attraction of his desire.
But each one is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed.
But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away by his own lust, and enticed.
- 15 Then when its time comes, desire gives birth to sin; and sin, when it is of full growth, gives birth to death.
Then the lust, when it has conceived, bears sin; and the sin, when it is full grown, brings forth death.
Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.
- 16 Do not be turned from the right way, dear brothers.
Don't be deceived, my beloved brothers.
Do not err, my beloved brethren.
- 17 Every good and true thing is given to us from heaven, coming from the Father of lights, with whom there is no change or any shade made by turning.
Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of lights, with whom can be no variation, nor turning shadow.
Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

- 18 Of his purpose he gave us being, by his true word, so that we might be, in a sense, the first-fruits of all the things which he had made.
Of his own will he brought us forth by the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first fruits of his creatures.
Of his own will he hath begotten us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of first-fruits of his creatures.
- 19 You have knowledge of this, dear brothers. But let every man be quick in hearing, slow in words, slow to get angry;
So, then, my beloved brothers, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, and slow to anger;
Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:
- 20 For the righteousness of God does not come about by the wrath of man.
for the anger of man doesn't produce the righteousness of God.
For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.
- 21 For this reason, putting away all dirty behaviour and the overweight of evil, take into your souls without pride the word which, being planted there, is able to give you salvation.
Therefore, putting away all filthiness and overflowing of wickedness, receive with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls.
Wherefore lay apart all filthiness and superfluity of naughtiness, and receive with meekness the ingrafted word, which is able to save your souls.
- 22 But be doers of the word, and not only hearers of it, blinding yourselves with false ideas.
But be doers of the word, and not only hearers, deluding your own selves.
But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.
- 23 Because if any man is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man looking at his natural face in a glass;
For if anyone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a mirror;
For if any is a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like a man beholding his natural face in a glass:
-
- 24 For after looking at himself he goes away, and in a short time he has no memory of what he was like.
for he sees himself, and goes away, and immediately forgets what kind of man he was.
For he beholdeth himself, and goeth away, and immediately forgetteth what manner of man he was.

- 25 But he who goes on looking into the true law which makes him free, being not a hearer without memory but a doer putting it into effect, this man will have a blessing on his acts.
But he who looks into the perfect law, the law of freedom, and continues, not being a hearer who forgets but a doer of the work, this man will be blessed in what he does.
But he who looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth in it, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.
- 26 If a man seems to have religion and has no control over his tongue but lets himself be tricked by what is false, this man's religion is of no value.
If anyone among you thinks himself to be religious, while he doesn't bridle his tongue, but deceives his heart, this man's religion is worthless.
If any man among you seemeth to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.
- 27 The religion which is holy and free from evil in the eyes of our God and Father is this: to take care of children who have no fathers and of widows who are in trouble, and to keep oneself untouched by the world.
Pure religion and undefiled before our God and Father is this: to visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep oneself unstained by the world.
Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.
- 1 My brothers, if you have the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ of glory, do not take a man's position into account.
My brothers, don't hold the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, [the Lord] of glory, with respect of persons.
My brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.
- 2 For if a man comes into your Synagogue in fair clothing and with a gold ring, and a poor man comes in with dirty clothing,
For if a man with a gold ring, in fine clothing, comes into your assembly, and there come in also a poor man in filthy clothing;
For if there come into your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;
- 3 And you do honour to the man in fair clothing and say, Come here and take this good place; and you say to the poor man, Take up your position there, or be seated at my feet;
and you pay special attention to him who wears the fine clothing, and say, "Sit here in a good place;" and you tell the poor man, "Stand there," or "Sit by my footstool;"
And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say to him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

- 4 Is there not a division in your minds? have you not become judges with evil thoughts?
haven` t you shown partiality among yourselves, and become judges with evil thoughts?
Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?
- 5 Give ear, my dear brothers; are not those who are poor in the things of this world marked out by God to have faith as their wealth, and for their heritage the kingdom which he has said he will give to those who have love for him?
Listen, my beloved brothers. Didn` t God choose those who are poor in this world to be rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he promised to those who love him?
Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?
- 6 But you have put the poor man to shame. Are not the men of wealth rulers over you? do they not take you by force before their judges?
But you have dishonored the poor man. Don` t the rich oppress you, and personally drag you before the courts?
But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment-seats?
- 7 Do they not say evil of the holy name which was given to you?
Don` t they blaspheme the honorable name by which you are called?
Do they not blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?
- 8 But if you keep the greatest law of all, as it is given in the holy Writings, Have love for your neighbour as for yourself, you do well:
However, if you fulfill the royal law, according to the Scripture, "You shall love your neighbor as yourself," you do well.
If ye fulfill the royal law according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself, ye do well:
- 9 But if you take a man's position into account, you do evil, and are judged as evil-doers by the law.
But if you show partiality, you commit sin, being convicted by the law as transgressors.
But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convicted by the law as transgressors.
- 10 For anyone who keeps all the law, but makes a slip in one point, is judged to have gone against it all.
For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet stumble in one point, he has become guilty of all.
For whoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

- 11 For he who said, Do not be untrue in married life, is the same who said, Put no man to death. Now if you are not untrue in married life, but you put a man to death, the law is broken.
For he who said, "Do not commit adultery," said also, "Do not commit murder." Now if you do not commit adultery, but murder, you have become a transgressor of the law.
For he that said, Do not commit adultery; said also, Do not kill. Now if thou committest no adultery, yet if thou killest, thou art become a transgressor of the law.
- 12 Let your words and your acts be those of men who are to be judged by the law which makes free.
So speak, and so do, as men who are to be judged by a law of freedom.
So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.
- 13 For the man who has had no mercy will be judged without mercy, but mercy takes pride in overcoming judging.
For judgment is without mercy to him who has showed no mercy. Mercy triumphs over judgment.
For he shall have judgment without mercy that hath shown no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.
- 14 What use is it, my brothers, for a man to say that he has faith, if he does nothing? will such a faith give him salvation?
What good is it, my brothers, if a man says he has faith, but has no works? Can that faith save him?
What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man sayeth he hath faith, and hath not works? can faith save him?
- 15 If a brother or a sister is without clothing and in need of the day's food,
And if a brother or sister is naked and in lack of daily food,
If a brother or sister is naked, and destitute of daily food,
- 16 And one of you says to them, Go in peace, be warm and full of food; but you do not give them the things of which their bodies have need, what profit is there in this?
and one of you tells them, "Go in peace, be warmed and filled;" and yet you didn't give them the things the body needs, what good is it?
And one of you sayeth to them, Depart in peace, be you warmed and filled; notwithstanding ye give them not those things which are needful to the body; what doth it profit?
- 17 Even so faith without works is dead.
Even so faith, if it has no works, is dead in itself.
Even so faith, if it hath not works, is dead, being alone.

- 18 But a man may say, You have faith and I have works; let me see your faith without your works, and I will make my faith clear to you by my works.
Yes, a man will say, "You have faith, and I have works." Show me your faith without your works, and I by my works will show you my faith.
Also a man may say, Thou hast faith, and I have works: show me thy faith without thy works, and I will show thee my faith by my works.
- 19 You have the belief that God is one, and you do well: the evil spirits have the same belief, shaking with fear.
You believe that God is one. You do well. The demons also believe, and shudder.
Thou believest that there is one God; thou doest well: the demons also believe, and tremble.
- 20 Do you not see, O foolish man, that faith without works is of no use?
But do you want to know, vain man, that faith apart from works is dead?
But wilt thou know, O vain man, that faith without works is dead?
- 21 Was not the righteousness of Abraham our father judged by his works, when he made an offering of Isaac his son on the altar?
Wasn't Abraham, our father, justified by works, in that he offered up Isaac his son on the altar?
Was not Abraham our father justified by works, when he had offered Isaac his son upon the altar?
- 22 You see that his faith was helping his works and was made complete by them;
You see that faith worked with his works, and by works faith was perfected;
Seest thou how faith wrought with his works, and by works was faith made perfect?
- 23 And the holy Writings were put into effect which said, And Abraham had faith in God and it was put to his account as righteousness; and he was named the friend of God.
and the scripture was fulfilled which says, "Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him as righteousness;" and he was called the friend of God.
And the scripture was fulfilled, which saith, Abraham believed God, and it was imputed to him for righteousness: and he was called the Friend of God.
- 24 You see that a man's righteousness is judged by his works and not by his faith only.
You see then that by works, a man is justified, and not only by faith.
Ye see then that by works a man is justified, and not by faith only.

25 And in the same way, was not the righteousness of Rahab, the loose woman, judged by her works, when she took into her house those who were sent and let them go out by another way?
In like manner wasn't Rahab the prostitute also justified by works, in that she received the messengers, and sent them out another way?

Likewise also was not Rahab the harlot justified by works, when she had received the messengers, and had sent them out another way?

26 For as the body without the spirit is dead even so faith without works is dead.
For as the body apart from the spirit is dead, even so faith apart from works is dead.
For as the body without the spirit is dead, so faith without works is dead also.

1 Do not all be teachers, my brothers, because we teachers will be judged more hardly than others.
Let not many of you be teachers, my brothers, knowing that we will receive heavier judgment.
My brethren, be not many teachers, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation.

2 For we all go wrong in a number of things. If a man never makes a slip in his talk, then he is a complete man and able to keep all his body in control.
For in many things we all stumble. If anyone doesn't stumble in word, the same is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole body also.
For in many things we all offend. If any man offendeth not in word, the same is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

3 Now if we put bits of iron into horses' mouths so that they may be guided by us, we have complete control of their bodies.
Indeed, we put bits into the horses' mouths so that they may obey us, and we turn about their whole body.
Behold, we put bits in the mouths of horses, that they may obey us; and we turn about their whole body.

4 And again ships, though they are so great and are moved by violent winds, are turned by a very small guiding-blade, at the impulse of the man who is using it.
Behold, the ships also, though they are so big and are driven by fierce winds, are yet turned about by a very small rudder, wherever the pilot desires.
Behold also the ships, which though they are so great, and are driven by fierce winds, yet they are turned about with a very small helm, withersoever the governor willeth.

- 5 Even so the tongue is a small part of the body, but it takes credit for great things. How much wood may be lighted by a very little fire!
So the tongue is also a little member, and boasts great things. Behold, how much wood is kindled by how small a fire!
Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things. Behold, how great a matter a little fire kindleth!
- 6 And the tongue is a fire; it is the power of evil placed in our bodies, making all the body unclean, putting the wheel of life on fire, and getting its fire from hell.
And the tongue is a fire. The world of iniquity among our members is the tongue, which defiles the whole body, and sets on fire the course of nature, and is set on fire by Gehenna.
And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire from hell.
- 7 For every sort of beast and bird and every living thing on earth and in the sea has been controlled by man and is under his authority;
For every kind of animal, bird, creeping thing, and thing in the sea, is tamed, and has been tamed by mankind.
For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of animals in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed by mankind:
- 8 But the tongue may not be controlled by man; it is an unresting evil, it is full of the poison of death.
But nobody can tame the tongue. It is a restless evil, full of deadly poison.
But the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison.
- 9 With it we give praise to our Lord and Father; and with it we put a curse on men who are made in God's image.
With it we bless our God and Father, and with it we curse men, who are made in the image of God.
With this we bless God, even the Father; and with this we curse men, who are made after the similitude of God.
- 10 Out of the same mouth comes blessing and cursing. My brothers, it is not right for these things to be so.
Out of the same mouth comes forth blessing and cursing. My brothers, these things ought not to be so.
Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.
- 11 Does the fountain send from the same outlet sweet and bitter water?
Does a spring send forth from the same opening fresh and bitter water?
Doth a fountain send forth at the same place sweet water and bitter?

- 12 Is a fig-tree able to give us olives, my brothers, or do we get figs from a vine, or sweet water from the salt sea?
Can a fig tree, my brothers, yield olives, or a vine figs? Thus no spring yields both salt water and fresh water.
Can the fig-tree, my brethren, bear olive-berries? or a vine, figs? so no fountain can yield both salt water and fresh.
- 13 Who has wisdom and good sense among you? let him make his works clear by a life of gentle wisdom.
Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show his deeds done in gentleness of wisdom by his good life.
Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show by a good deportment his works with meekness of wisdom.
- 14 But if you have bitter envy in your heart and the desire to get the better of others, have no pride in this, talking falsely against what is true.
But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, don't boast and don't lie against the truth.
But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth.
- 15 This wisdom is not from heaven, but is of the earth and the flesh and the Evil One.
This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, sensual, and demonic.
This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, demoniacal.
- 16 For where envy is, and the desire to get the better of others, there is no order, but every sort of evil-doing.
For where jealousy and selfish ambition are, there is confusion and every evil deed.
For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.
- 17 But the wisdom which is from heaven is first holy, then gentle, readily giving way in argument, full of peace and mercy and good works, not doubting, not seeming other than it is.
But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceful, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.
But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, and without hypocrisy.
- 18 And the fruit of righteousness is planted in peace for those who make peace.
Now the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.
And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by them that make peace.

- 1 What is the cause of wars and fighting among you? is it not in your desires which are at war in your bodies?
Where do wars and fightings among you come from? Don't they come from your pleasures that war in your members?
From whence come wars and fightings among you? come they not hence, even from your lusts that war in your members?
- 2 You are burning with desire, and have not your desire, so you put men to death; you are full of envy, and you are not able to get your desire, so you are fighting and making war; you have not your desire, because you do not make request for it.
You lust, and don't have. You kill, covet, and can't obtain. You fight and make war. Yet you don't have, because you don't ask.
Ye lust and have not: ye kill, and desire to have, and cannot obtain: ye fight and war, yet ye have not, because ye ask not.
- 3 You make your request but you do not get it, because your request has been wrongly made, desiring the thing only so that you may make use of it for your pleasure.
You ask, and don't receive, because you ask amiss, so that you may spend it for your pleasures.
Ye ask, and receive not, because ye ask amiss, that ye may consume it upon your lusts.
- 4 O you who are false to God, do you not see that the friends of this world are not God's friends? Every man desiring to be a friend of this world makes himself a hater of God.
You adulterers and adulteresses, don't you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes himself an enemy of God.
Ye adulterers and adulteresses, know ye not that the friendship of the world is enmity with God? whoever therefore will be a friend of the world is the enemy of God.
- 5 Or does it seem to you that it is for nothing that the holy Writings say, The spirit which God put into our hearts has a strong desire for us?
Or do you think that the Scripture says in vain, "The Spirit who lives in us yearns jealously"?
Do ye think that the scripture saith in vain, The spirit that dwelleth in us lusteth to envy?
- 6 But he gives more grace. So that the Writings say, God is against the men of pride, but he gives grace to those who make themselves low before him.
But he gives more grace. Therefore it says, "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."
But he giveth more grace. Wherefore he saith, God resisteth the proud, but giveth grace to the humble.

- 7 For this cause be ruled by God; but make war on the Evil One and he will be put to flight before you.
Be subject therefore to God. But resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you.
- 8 Come near to God and he will come near to you. Make your hands clean, you evil-doers; put away deceit from your hearts, you false in mind.
Draw near to God, and he will draw near to you. Cleanse your hands, you sinners; and purify your hearts, you double-minded.
Draw nigh to God, and he will draw nigh to you. Cleanse your hands, ye sinners, and purify your hearts, ye double-minded.
- 9 Be troubled, with sorrow and weeping; let your laughing be turned to sorrow and your joy to grief.
Lament, mourn, and weep. Let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to gloom.
Be afflicted, and mourn, and weep: let your laughter be turned to mourning, and your joy to heaviness.
- 10 Make yourselves low in the eyes of the Lord and you will be lifted up by him.
Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will exalt you.
Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will lift you up.
- 11 Do not say evil against one another, my brothers. He who says evil against his brother or makes himself his brother's judge, says evil against the law and is judging the law: and in judging the law you become, not a doer of the law but a judge.
Don` t speak against one another, brothers. He who speaks against a brother and judges his brother, speaks against the law and judges the law. But if you judge the law, you are not a doer of the law, but a judge.
Speak not evil one of another, brethren. He that speaketh evil of his brother, and judgeth his brother, speaketh evil of the law, and judgeth the law: but if thou judgest the law, thou art not a doer of the law, but a judge.
- 12 There is only one judge and law-giver, even he who has the power of salvation and of destruction; but who are you to be your neighbour's judge?
Only one is the lawgiver, who is able to save and to destroy. But who are you to judge another?
There is one lawgiver, who is able to save, and to destroy: who art thou that judgest another?

- 13 How foolish it is to say, Today or tomorrow we will go into this town, and be there for a year and do business there and get wealth:
Come now, you who say, "Today or tomorrow let`s go into this city, and spend a year there, and trade, and get gain."
Come now, ye that say, To-day or to-morrow we will go into such a city, and continue there a year, and buy, and sell, and get gain:
- 14 When you are not certain what will take place tomorrow. What is your life? It is a mist, which is seen for a little time and then is gone.
Whereas you don`t know what your life will be like tomorrow. For what is your life? For you are a vapor, that appears for a little time, and then vanishes away.
Whereas ye know not what will be on the morrow: For what is your life? It is even a vapor, that appeareth for a little time, and then vanisheth away.
- 15 But the right thing to say would be, If it is the Lord's pleasure and if we are still living, we will do this and that.
For you ought to say, "If the Lord wills, we will both live, and do this or that."
Instead of that ye ought to say, If the Lord will, we shall live, and do this, or that.
- 16 But now you go on glorying in your pride: and all such glorying is evil.
But now you glory in your boasting. All such boasting is evil.
But now ye rejoice in your boastings: all such rejoicing is evil.
- 17 The man who has knowledge of how to do good and does not do it, to him it is sin.
To him therefore who knows to do good, and doesn`t do it, to him it is sin.
Therefore to him that knoweth to do good, and doeth it not, to him it is sin.
- 1 Come now, you men of wealth, give yourselves to weeping and crying because of the bitter troubles which are coming to you.
Come now, you rich, weep and howl for your miseries that are coming on you.
Come now, ye rich men, weep and howl for your miseries that shall come upon you.
- 2 Your wealth is unclean and insects have made holes in your clothing.
Your riches are corrupted and your garments are moth-eaten.
Your riches are corrupted, and your garments are moth-eaten.

- 3 Your gold and your silver are wasted and their waste will be a witness against you, burning into your flesh. You have put by your store in the last days.
Your gold and your silver are corroded, and their corrosion will be for a testimony against you, and will eat your flesh like fire.
You have laid up your treasure in the last days.
Your gold and silver is cankered; and the rust of them shall be a testimony against you, and shall eat your flesh as it were fire. Ye have amassed treasure for the last days.
- 4 See, the money which you falsely kept back from the workers cutting the grass in your field, is crying out against you; and the cries of those who took in your grain have come to the ears of the Lord of armies.
Behold, the wages of the laborers who mowed your fields, which you have kept back by fraud, cries out, and the cries of those who reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Hosts.
Behold, the hire of the laborers who have reaped your fields, which is by you kept back by fraud, crieth: and the cries of them who have reaped have entered into the ears of the Lord of Sabaoth.
- 5 You have been living delicately on earth and have taken your pleasure; you have made your hearts fat for a day of destruction.
You have lived delicately on the earth, and taken your pleasure. You have nourished your hearts as in a day of slaughter.
Ye have lived in pleasure on the earth, and been wanton; ye have nourished your hearts, as in a day of slaughter.
- 6 You have given your decision against the upright man and have put him to death. He puts up no fight against you.
You have condemned, you have murdered the righteous one. He doesn't resist you.
Ye have condemned and killed the just; and he doth not resist you.
- 7 Go on waiting calmly, my brothers, till the coming of the Lord, like the farmer waiting for the good fruit of the earth till the early and late rains have come.
Be patient therefore, brothers, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer waits for the precious fruit of the earth, being patient over it, until it receives the early and late rain.
Be patient, therefore, brethren, to the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receiveth the early and the latter rain.
- 8 Be as calm in your waiting; let your hearts be strong: because the coming of the Lord is near.
You also be patient. Establish your hearts, for the coming of the Lord is at hand.
Be ye also patient; establish your hearts; for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

- 9 Say no hard things against one another, brothers, so that you will not be judged; see, the judge is waiting at the doors.
Don` t grumble, brothers, against one another, so that you won` t be judged. Behold, the judge stands at the door.
Grudge not one against another, brethren, lest ye be condemned: behold, the judge standeth before the door.
- 10 Take as an example of pain nobly undergone and of strength in trouble, the prophets who gave to men the words of the Lord.
Take, brothers, for an example of suffering and of patience, the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord.
Take, my brethren, the prophets, who have spoken in the name of the Lord, for an example of suffering affliction, and of patience.
- 11 We say that those men who have gone through pain are happy: you have the story of Job and the troubles through which he went and have seen that the Lord was full of pity and mercy in the end.
Behold, we call them blessed who endured. You have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the Lord in the end, and how the Lord is full of compassion and mercy.
Behold, we count them happy who endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy.
- 12 But most of all, my brothers, do not take oaths, not by the heaven, or by the earth, or by any other thing: but let your Yes be Yes, and your No be No: so that you may not be judged.
But above all things, my brothers, don` t swear, neither by heaven, nor by the earth, nor by any other oath; but let your yes be yes, and your no, no; so that you don` t fall into hypocrisy.
But above all things, my brethren, swear not, neither by heaven, neither by the earth, neither by any other oath: but let your yea, be yea: and your nay, nay; lest ye fall into condemnation.
- 13 Is anyone among you in trouble? let him say prayers. Is anyone glad? let him make a song of praise.
Is any among you suffering? Let him pray. Is any cheerful? Let him sing praises.
Is any among you afflicted? let him pray. Is any cheerful? let him sing psalms.
- 14 Is anyone among you ill? let him send for the rulers of the church; and let them say prayers over him, putting oil on him in the name of the Lord.
Is any among you sick? Let him call for the elders of the assembly, and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord,
Is any sick among you? let him call for the elders of the church; and let them pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord:

- 15 And by the prayer of faith the man who is ill will be made well, and he will be lifted up by the Lord, and for any sin which he has done he will have forgiveness.
and the prayer of faith will heal him who is sick, and the Lord will raise him up. If he has committed sins, it will be forgiven him.
And the prayer of faith will save the sick, and the Lord will raise him up; and if he hath committed sins, they will be forgiven him.
- 16 So then, make a statement of your sins to one another, and say prayers for one another so that you may be made well. The prayer of a good man is full of power in its working.
Confess your offenses one to another, and pray one for another, that you may be healed. The effective, earnest prayer of a righteous man is powerfully effective.
Confess your faults one to another, and pray one for another, that ye may be healed. The effectual fervent prayer of the righteous man availeth much.
- 17 Elijah was a man of flesh and blood as we are, and he made a strong prayer that there might be no rain; and there was no rain on the earth for three years and six months.
Elijah was a man with a nature like ours, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain, and it didn't rain on the earth for three years and six months.
Elijah was a man subject to like passions as we are, and he prayed earnestly that it might not rain: and it rained not on the earth by the space of three years and six months.
- 18 And he made another prayer, and the heaven sent down rain and the earth gave her fruit.
He prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.
And he prayed again, and the heaven gave rain, and the earth brought forth its fruit.
- 19 My brothers, if one of you has gone out of the way of the true faith and another has made him see his error,
Brothers, if any among you wanders from the truth, and someone turns him back,
Brethren, if any one of you should err from the truth, and one should convert him;
- 20 Be certain that he through whom a sinner has been turned from the error of his way, keeps a soul from death and is the cause of forgiveness for sins without number.
let him know, that he who converts a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will cover a multitude of sins.
Let him know, that he who converteth a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death, and will hide a multitude of sins.

1 Peter, an Apostle of Jesus Christ, to the saints who are living in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the chosen ones who are living as aliens in the Dispersion in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,
Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Who, through the purpose of God, have been made holy by the Spirit, disciples of Jesus, made clean by his blood: May you have grace and peace in full measure.
according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, in sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you and peace be multiplied.
Elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, through sanctification of the Spirit, to obedience and sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace to you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who through his great mercy has given us a new birth and a living hope by the coming again of Jesus Christ from the dead,
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his great mercy became the father of us again to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again to a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 And a heritage fair, holy and for ever new, waiting in heaven for you, to an incorruptible and undefiled inheritance, and that doesn't fade away, reserved in heaven for you,
To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you,

5 Who, by the power of God are kept, through faith, for that salvation, which will be seen at the last day.
who by the power of God are guarded through faith to a salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.
Who are kept by the power of God through faith to salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 You have cause for great joy in this, though it may have been necessary for you to be troubled for a little time, being tested in all sorts of ways,
Wherein you greatly rejoice, though now for a little while, if need be, you have been put to grief in various trials,
In which ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season (if need be) ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

- 7 So that the true metal of your faith, being of much greater value than gold (which, though it comes to an end, is tested by fire), may come to light in praise and glory and honour, at the revelation of Jesus Christ:
that the proof of your faith, which is more precious than gold that perishes even though it is tested by fire, may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ --
That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though tried with fire, might be found to praise, and honor, and glory, at the appearing of Jesus Christ:
- 8 To whom your love is given, though you have not seen him; and the faith which you have in him, though you do not see him now, gives you joy greater than words and full of glory:
whom not having known you love; on whom, though now you don't see him, yet believing, you rejoice greatly with joy unspeakable and full of glory --
Whom having not seen, ye love; in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable, and full of glory:
- 9 For so you have the true end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
receiving the end of your faith, the salvation of your souls.
Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.
- 10 For the prophets who gave the news of the grace which would come to you, made search with all care for knowledge of this salvation;
Concerning this salvation, the prophets sought and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that would come to you,
Concerning which salvation the prophets have inquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come to you:
- 11 Attempting to see what sort of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them was pointing to, when it gave witness to the pains which Christ would undergo and the glories which would come after them.
searching for what or what kind of time the Spirit of Christ, which was in them, pointed to, when he testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glories that should follow them.
Searching what, or what manner of time the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

- 12 And it was made clear to those prophets that they were God's servants not for themselves but for you, to give you word of the things which have now come to your ears from the preachers of the good news through the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; things which even angels have a desire to see.
To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to you, did they minister these things, which now have been announced to you through those who preached the gospel to you by the Holy Spirit sent forth from heaven; which things angels desire to look into.
To whom it was revealed, that not to themselves, but to us they ministered the things which are now reported to you by them that have preached the gospel to you, with the Holy Spirit sent down from heaven; which things the angels desire to look into.
- 13 So make your minds ready, and keep on the watch, hoping with all your power for the grace which is to come to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
Therefore, prepare your minds for action, be sober and set your hope perfectly on the grace that will be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ --
Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope to the end for the grace that is to be brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ;
- 14 Like children ruled by God, do not go back to the old desires of the time when you were without knowledge:
as children of obedience, not conforming yourselves according to your former lusts as in your ignorance,
As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former lusts in your ignorance:
- 15 But be holy in every detail of your lives, as he, whose servants you are, is holy;
but just as he who called you is holy, you yourselves also be holy in all of your behavior;
But as he who hath called you is holy, so be ye holy in all manner of deportment.
- 16 Because it has been said in the Writings, You are to be holy, for I am holy.
because it is written, "You shall be holy; for I am holy."
Because it is written, Be ye holy; for I am holy.
- 17 And if you give the name of Father to him who, judging every man by his acts, has no respect for a man's position, then go in fear while you are on this earth:
If you call on him as Father, who without respect of persons judges according to each man`s work, pass the time of your living as strangers here in reverent fear:
And if ye call on the Father, who without respect of persons judgeth according to every man's work, pass the time of your sojourning here in fear:

- 18 Being conscious that you have been made free from that foolish way of life which was your heritage from your fathers, not through a payment of things like silver or gold which come to destruction, knowing that you were redeemed, not with corruptible things, with silver or gold, from the useless way of life handed down from your fathers,
Forasmuch as ye know that ye were not redeemed with corruptible things, as silver and gold, from your vain course of life received by tradition from your fathers;
- 19 But through holy blood, like that of a clean and unmarked lamb, even the blood of Christ:
but with precious blood, as of a lamb without spot, the blood of Christ;
But with the precious blood of Christ, as of a lamb without blemish and without spot:
- 20 Who was marked out by God before the making of the world, but was caused to be seen in these last times for you, who was foreknown indeed before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of times for your sake,
Who verily was fore-ordained before the foundation of the world, but was manifested in these last times for you,
- 21 Who through him have faith in God who took him up again from the dead into glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.
who through him are believers in God, that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; so that your faith and hope might be in God.
Who by him do believe in God, that raised him from the dead, and gave him glory; that your faith and hope might be in God.
- 22 And as you have made your souls clean, being ruled by what is true, and loving one another without deceit, see that your love is warm and from the heart:
Seeing you have purified your souls in your obedience to the truth through the Spirit in sincere brotherly affection, love one another from the heart fervently:
Seeing ye have purified your souls in obeying the truth through the Spirit to unfeigned love of the brethren, see that ye love one another with a pure heart fervently:
- 23 Because you have had a new birth, not from the seed of man, but from eternal seed, through the word of a living and unchanging God.
having been born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, through the word of God, which lives and remains forever.
Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.

24 For it is said, All flesh is like grass, and all its glory like the flower of the grass. The grass becomes dry and the flower dead:
For, "All flesh is like grass, And all of man`s glory like the flower in the grass. The grass withers, and its flower falls;
For all flesh is as grass, and all the glory of man as the flower of grass. The grass withereth, and its flower falleth away:

25 But the word of the Lord is eternal. And this is the word of the good news which was given to you.
But the Lord`s word endures forever." This is the word of good news which was preached to you.
But the word of the Lord endureth for ever. And this is the word which by the gospel is preached to you.

1 So putting away all wrongdoing, and all tricks and deceits and envies and evil talk,
Putting away therefore all wickedness, all deceit, hypocrisies, envies, and all evil speaking,
Wherefore, laying aside all malice, and all guile, and hypocrisies, and envies, and all evil-speakings,

2 Be full of desire for the true milk of the word, as babies at their mothers' breasts, so that you may go on to salvation;
as newborn babes, long for the pure milk of the Word, that you may grow thereby,
As new-born babes, desire the pure milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

3 If you have had a taste of the grace of the Lord:
if indeed you have tasted that the Lord is gracious:
If indeed ye have tasted that the Lord is gracious.

4 To whom you come, as to a living stone, not honoured by men, but of great and special value to God; coming to him, a living stone, rejected indeed by men, but chosen by God, precious.
To whom coming as to a living stone, disallowed indeed by men, but chosen by God, and precious,

5 You, as living stones, are being made into a house of the spirit, a holy order of priests, making those offerings of the spirit which are pleasing to God through Jesus Christ.
You also, as living stones, are built up as a spiritual house, to be a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God through Jesus Christ.
Ye also, as living stones, are built up a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer up spiritual sacrifices, acceptable to God by Jesus Christ.

- 6 Because it is said in the Writings, See, I am placing a keystone in Zion, of great and special value; and the man who has faith in him will not be put to shame.
Because it is contained in scripture, "Behold, I lay in Zion a chief cornerstone, elect, precious: He who believes in him will not be put to shame."
Wherefore also it is contained in the scripture, Behold, I lay in Sion a chief corner-stone, elect, precious: and he that believeth on him shall not be confounded.
- 7 And the value is for you who have faith; but it is said for those without faith, The very stone which the builders put on one side, was made the chief stone of the building;
For you therefore who believe is the honor, but for such as are disobedient, "The stone which the builders rejected, Has become the chief cornerstone,"
To you therefore who believe he is precious: but to them who are disobedient, the stone which the builders disallowed, the same is made the head of the corner,
- 8 And, A stone of falling, a rock of trouble; the word is the cause of their fall, because they go against it, and this was the purpose of God.
and, "A stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense." For they stumble at the word, being disobedient, whereunto also they were appointed.
And a stone of stumbling, and a rock of offense, even to them who stumble at the word, being disobedient: to which also they were appointed.
- 9 But you are a special people, a holy nation, priests and kings, a people given up completely to God, so that you may make clear the virtues of him who took you out of the dark into the light of heaven.
But you are an elect race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for God's own possession, that you may show forth the excellencies of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:
But ye are a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a peculiar people; that ye should show forth the praises of him who hath called you out of darkness into his marvelous light:
- 10 In the past you were not a people, but now you are the people of God; then there was no mercy for you, but now mercy has been given to you.
who in time past were no people, but now are the people of God, who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
Who in time past were not a people, but are now the people of God: who had not obtained mercy, but now have obtained mercy.
- 11 My loved ones, I make this request with all my heart, that, as those for whom this world is a strange country, you will keep yourselves from the desires of the flesh which make war against the soul;
Beloved, I beg you as sojourners and pilgrims, to abstain from fleshly lust, which war against the soul;
Dearly beloved, I beseech you as strangers and pilgrims, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;

- 12 Being of good behaviour among the Gentiles; so that though they say now that you are evil-doers, they may see your good works and give glory to God when he comes to be their judge.
having good behavior among the nations, so in that which they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they see, glorify God in the day of visitation.
Having your manner of life honest among the Gentiles: that, whereas they speak against you as evil-doers, they may by your good works, which they shall behold, glorify God in the day of visitation.
- 13 Keep all the laws of men because of the Lord; those of the king, who is over all,
Therefore subject yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord`s sake: whether to the king, as supreme;
Submit yourselves to every ordinance of man for the Lord's sake: whether to the king, as supreme;
- 14 And those of the rulers who are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers and for the praise of those who do well.
or to governors, as sent by him for vengeance on evil-doers and for praise to those who do well.
Or to governors, as to them that are sent by him for the punishment of evil-doers, and for the praise of them that do well.
- 15 Because it is God's pleasure that foolish and narrow-minded men may be put to shame by your good behaviour:
For so is the will of God, that by well-doing you should put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
For so is the will of God, that with well-doing ye may put to silence the ignorance of foolish men:
- 16 As those who are free, not using your free position as a cover for wrongdoing, but living as the servants of God;
as free, and not using your freedom for a cloak of wickedness, but as bondservants of God.
As free, and not using your liberty for a cloke of maliciousness, but as the servants of God.
- 17 Have respect for all, loving the brothers, fearing God, honouring the king.
Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.
Honor all men. Love the brotherhood. Fear God. Honor the king.
- 18 Servants, take orders from your masters with all respect; not only if they are good and gentle, but even if they are bad-humoured.
Servants, be in subjection to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the wicked.
Servants, be subject to your masters with all fear; not only to the good and gentle, but also to the froward.

- 19 For it is a sign of grace if a man, desiring to do right in the eyes of God, undergoes pain as punishment for something which he has not done.
For it is commendable if someone endures pain, suffering unjustly, because of conscience toward God.
For this is thank-worthy, if a man for conscience towards God endureth grief, suffering wrongfully.
- 20 What credit is it if, when you have done evil, you take your punishment quietly? but if you are given punishment for doing right, and take it quietly, this is pleasing to God.
For what glory is it, if, when you sin, you patiently endure beating? But if, when you do well, you patiently endure suffering, this is commendable with God.
For what glory is it, if, when ye are buffeted for your faults, ye bear it patiently? but if, when ye do well, and suffer for it, ye bear it patiently, this is acceptable with God.
- 21 This is God's purpose for you: because Jesus himself underwent punishment for you, giving you an example, so that you might go in his footsteps:
For to this were you called, because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that you should follow his steps,
For even to this were ye called: because Christ also suffered for us, leaving us an example, that ye should follow his steps:
- 22 Who did no evil, and there was no deceit in his mouth:
who did not sin, "neither was deceit found in his mouth."
Who committed no sin, neither was guile found in his mouth:
- 23 To sharp words he gave no sharp answer; when he was undergoing pain, no angry word came from his lips; but he put himself into the hands of the judge of righteousness:
Who, when he was reviled, didn't revile back. When he suffered, didn't threaten, but committed himself to him who judges righteously;
Who, when he was reviled, reviled not again; when he suffered, he threatened not; but committed himself to him that judgeth righteously:
- 24 He took our sins on himself, giving his body to be nailed on the tree, so that we, being dead to sin, might have a new life in righteousness, and by his wounds we have been made well.
who his own self bore our sins in his body on the tree, that we, having died to sins, might live to righteousness; by whose stripes you were healed.
Who himself bore our sins in his own body on the tree, that we, being dead to sins, should live to righteousness; by whose stripes ye were healed.

25 Because, like sheep, you had gone out of the way; but now you have come back to him who keeps watch over your souls.

For you were going astray like sheep; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Overseer of your souls.

For ye were as sheep going astray; but are now returned to the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

1 Wives, be ruled by your husbands; so that even if some of them give no attention to the word, their hearts may be changed by the behaviour of their wives,

In like manner, wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; so that, even if any don't obey the Word, they may be gained by the behavior of their wives without a word;

Likewise, ye wives, be in subjection to your own husbands; that, if any obey not the word, they also may without the word be won by the deportment of the wives;

2 When they see your holy behaviour in the fear of God.

seeing your pure behavior in fear.

While they behold your chaste manner of life coupled with fear.

3 Do not let your ornaments be those of the body such as dressing of the hair, or putting on of jewels of gold or fair clothing;

Let your beauty be not just the outward adorning of braiding the hair, and of wearing jewels of gold, or of putting on fine clothing;

Whose adorning let it not be that outward adorning of plaiting the hair, and of wearing gold, or of putting on apparel;

4 But let them be those of the unseen man of the heart, the ever-shining ornament of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is of great price in the eyes of God.

but in the hidden person of the heart, in the incorruptible adornment of a gentle and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God very precious.

But let it be the hidden man of the heart, in that which is not corruptible, even the ornament of a meek and quiet spirit, which is in the sight of God of great price.

5 And these were the ornaments of the holy women of the past, whose hope was in God, being ruled by their husbands:

For this is how the holy women before, who hoped in God, also adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands:

For after this manner in former times the holy women also, who trusted in God, adorned themselves, being in subjection to their own husbands:

- 6 As Sarah was ruled by Abraham, naming him lord; whose children you are if you do well, and are not put in fear by any danger.
as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord, whose children you now are, if you do well, and are not put in fear by any terror.
Even as Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him lord: whose daughters ye are, as long as ye do well, and are not afraid with any amazement.
- 7 And you husbands, give thought to your way of life with your wives, giving honour to the woman who is the feebler vessel, but who has an equal part in the heritage of the grace of life; so that you may not be kept from prayer.
You husbands, in like manner, live with your wives according to knowledge, giving honor to the woman, as to the weaker vessel, as being also joint heirs of the grace of life; not cutting off your prayers.
Likewise, ye husbands, dwell with them according to knowledge, giving honor to the wife, as to the weaker vessel, and as being heirs together of the grace of life; that your prayers be not hindered.
- 8 Last of all, see that you are all in agreement; feeling for one another, loving one another like brothers, full of pity, without pride:
Finally, be all like-minded, compassionate, loving as brothers, tenderhearted, courteous,
Finally, be ye all of one mind, having compassion one of another; love as brethren, be pitiful, be courteous:
- 9 Not giving back evil for evil, or curse for curse, but in place of cursing, blessing; because this is the purpose of God for you that you may have a heritage of blessing.
not rendering evil for evil, or reviling for reviling; but instead blessing; knowing that to this were you called, that you may inherit a blessing.
Not rendering evil for evil, or railing for railing: but on the contrary, blessing; knowing that ye are called to this, that ye should inherit a blessing.
- 10 For it is said, Let the man who has a love of life, desiring to see good days, keep his tongue from evil and his lips from words of deceit:
For, "He who would love life, And see good days, Let him keep his tongue from evil, And his lips from speaking deceit.
For he that will love life, and see good days, let him restrain his tongue from evil, and his lips that they speak no guile:
- 11 And let him be turned from evil and do good; searching for peace and going after it with all his heart.
Let him turn away from evil, and do good. Let him seek peace, and pursue it.
Let him shun evil, and do good; let him seek peace, and pursue it.

- 12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the upright, and his ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil.
For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, And his ears open to their prayer; But the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."
For the eyes of the Lord are over the righteous, and his ears are open to their prayers: but the face of the Lord is against them that do evil.
- 13 Who will do you any damage if you keep your minds fixed on what is good?
Now who is he who will harm you, if you become imitators of that which is good?
And who is he that will harm you, if ye are followers of that which is good?
- 14 But you are happy if you undergo pain because of righteousness; have no part in their fear and do not be troubled;
But even if you should suffer for righteousness' sake, you are blessed. "Don't fear what they fear, neither be troubled."
But if ye suffer for righteousness' sake, happy are ye: and be not afraid of their terror, neither be troubled;
- 15 But give honour to Christ in your hearts as your Lord; and be ready at any time when you are questioned about the hope which is in you, to give an answer in the fear of the Lord and without pride;
But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and always be ready to give an answer to everyone who asks you a reason concerning the hope that is in you, with humility and fear:
But sanctify the Lord God in your hearts: and be ready always to give an answer to every man that asketh you a reason of the hope that is in you, with meekness and fear.
- 16 Being conscious that you have done no wrong; so that those who say evil things about your good way of life as Christians may be put to shame.
having a good conscience; that, while you are spoken against as evildoers, they may be put to shame who revile your good manner of life in Christ.
Having a good conscience; that, whereas they speak evil of you, as of evil-doers, they may be ashamed that falsely accuse your good deportment in Christ.
- 17 Because if it is God's purpose for you to undergo pain, it is better to do so for well-doing than for evil-doing.
For it is better, if the will of God should so will, that you suffer for doing well than for doing evil.
For it is better, if the will of God is so, that ye suffer for well-doing, than for evil-doing.

- 18 Because Christ once went through pain for sins, the upright one taking the place of sinners, so that through him we might come back to God; being put to death in the flesh, but given life in the Spirit;
Because Christ also suffered for sins once, the righteous for the unrighteous, that he might bring you to God; being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit;
For Christ also hath once suffered for sins, the just for the unjust, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive by the Spirit:
- 19 By whom he went to the spirits in prison, preaching to those in which he also went and preached to the spirits in prison,
By which also he went and preached to the spirits in prison;
- 20 Who, in the days of Noah, went against God's orders; but God in his mercy kept back the punishment, while Noah got ready the ark, in which a small number, that is to say eight persons, got salvation through water:
who before were disobedient, when the longsuffering of God waited patiently in the days of Noah, while the ark was being built. In it, few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.
Who formerly were disobedient, when once the long-suffering of God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was preparing, in which few, that is, eight souls, were saved by water.
- 21 And baptism, of which this is an image, now gives you salvation, not by washing clean the flesh, but by making you free from the sense of sin before God, through the coming again of Jesus Christ from the dead;
This is a symbol of baptism, which now saves you - not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience toward God, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
The like figure to which, even baptism, doth also now save us (not the putting away of the filth of the flesh, but the answer of a good conscience towards God,) by the resurrection of Jesus Christ:
- 22 Who has gone into heaven, and is at the right hand of God, angels and authorities and powers having been put under his rule.
who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, angels and authorities and powers being made subject to him.
Who is gone into heaven, and is on the right hand of God; angels, and authorities, and powers being made subject to him.

- 1 So that as Jesus was put to death in the flesh, do you yourselves be of the same mind; for the death of the flesh puts an end to sin;
Forasmuch then as Christ suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves also with the same mind; for he who has suffered in the flesh has ceased from sin;
Forasmuch then as Christ hath suffered for us in the flesh, arm yourselves likewise with the same mind: for he that hath suffered in the flesh hath ceased from sin;
- 2 So that you may give the rest of your lives in the flesh, not to the desires of men, but to the purpose of God.
that you no longer should live the rest of your time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.
That he no longer should live the rest of his time in the flesh to the lusts of men, but to the will of God.
- 3 Because for long enough, in times past, we have been living after the way of the Gentiles, given up to the desires of the flesh, to drinking and feasting and loose behaviour and unclean worship of images;
For we have spent enough of our past time living in doing the desire of the Gentiles, and to have walked in lasciviousness, lusts, drunken binges, orgies, carousings, and abominable idolatries.
For the time past of our life may suffice us to have wrought the will of the Gentiles, when we walked in lasciviousness, lusts, excess of wine, revelings, banquetings, and abominable idolatries:
- 4 And they are wondering that you no longer go with them in this violent wasting of life, and are saying evil things of you:
They think it is strange that you don't run with them into the same excess of riot, blaspheming:
In which they think it strange that ye run not with them to the same excess of riot, speaking evil of you:
- 5 But they will have to give an account of themselves to him who is ready to be the judge of the living and the dead.
who will give account to him who is ready to judge the living and the dead.
Who shall give account to him that is ready to judge the living and the dead.
- 6 For this was the reason why the good news of Jesus was given even to the dead, so that they might be judged as men in the flesh, but might be living before God in the spirit.
For to this end was the gospel preached even to the dead, that they might be judged indeed as men in the flesh, but live as to God in the spirit.
For, for this cause was the gospel preached also to them that are dead, that they might be judged according to men in the flesh, but live according to God in the spirit.

- 7 But the end of all things is near: so be serious in your behaviour and keep on the watch with prayer;
But the end of all things is near. Therefore be of sound mind, self-controlled, and sober in prayer.
But the end of all things is at hand: be ye therefore sober, and watch to prayer.
- 8 And most of all be warm in your love for one another; because in love there is forgiveness for sins without number:
And above all things be earnest in your love among yourselves, for love covers a multitude of sins.
And above all things have fervent charity among yourselves: for charity will cover a multitude of sins.
- 9 Keep open house for all with a glad heart;
Be hospitable one to another without grumbling.
Use hospitality one to another without grudging.
- 10 Making distribution among one another of whatever has been given to you, like true servants of the unmeasured grace of God;
According as each has received a gift, be ministering it among yourselves, as good stewards of the grace of God in its various forms.
As every man hath received the gift, even so minister the same one to another, as good stewards of the manifold grace of God.
- 11 If anyone has anything to say, let it be as the words of God; if anyone has the desire to be the servant of others, let him do it in the strength which is given by God; so that in all things God may have the glory through Jesus Christ, whose are the glory and the power for ever.
If any man speaks, let it be as it were oracles of God. If any man serves, let it be as of the strength which God supplies, that in all things God may be glorified through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.
If any man speaketh let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man ministereth let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ; to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
- 12 Dear brothers, do not be surprised, as if it was something strange, if your faith is tested as by fire:
Beloved, don` t be astonished at the fiery trial which has come upon you, to test you, as though a strange thing happened to you.
Beloved, think it not strange concerning the fiery trial which is to try you, as though some strange thing happened to you:

- 13 But be glad that you are given a part in the pains of Christ; so that at the revelation of his glory you may have great joy.
But because you are partakers of Christ's sufferings, rejoice; that at the revelation of his glory also you may rejoice with exceeding joy.
But rejoice, seeing ye are partakers of Christ's sufferings; that, when his glory shall be revealed, ye may be glad also with exceeding joy.
- 14 If men say evil things of you because of the name of Christ, happy are you; for the Spirit of glory and of God is resting on you.
If you are insulted for the name of Christ, blessed are you; because the Spirit of glory and of God rests on you. On their part he is blasphemed, but on your part he is glorified.
If ye are reproached for the name of Christ, happy are ye; for the spirit of glory and of God resteth upon you. On their part he is evil spoken of, but on your part he is glorified.
- 15 Let no one among you undergo punishment as a taker of life, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as one who is over-interested in other men's business;
For let none of you suffer as a murderer, or a thief, or an evil doer, or as a meddler in other men's matters.
But let none of you suffer as a murderer, or as a thief, or as an evil-doer, or as a busy-body in other men's matters.
- 16 But if he undergoes punishment as a Christian, that is no shame to him; let him give glory to God in this name.
But if one of you suffers for being a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God in this matter.
Yet if any man suffereth as a Christian, let him not be ashamed; but let him glorify God on this behalf.
- 17 For the time has come for the judging, starting with the church of God; but if it makes a start with us, what will be the end of those who are not under the rule of God?
For the time [has come] for judgment to begin at the house of God. If it begins first at us, what will happen to those who don't obey the gospel of God?
For the time is come that judgment must begin at the house of God: and if it first beginneth at us, what will be the end of them that obey not the gospel of God?
- 18 And if it is hard for even the good man to get salvation, what chance has the man without religion or the sinner?
"If it is hard for the righteous to be saved, what will happen to the ungodly and the sinner?"
And if the righteous is scarcely saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?

19 For this reason let those who by the purpose of God undergo punishment, keep on in well-doing and put their souls into the safe hands of their Maker.
Therefore let them also who suffer according to the will of God in doing good entrust their souls to him, as to a faithful Creator.
Wherefore, let them that suffer according to the will of God, commit the keeping of their souls to him in well-doing, as to a faithful Creator.

1 I who am myself one of the rulers of the church, and a witness of the death of Christ, having my part in the coming glory, send this serious request to the chief men among you:
I exhort the elders among you, as a fellow elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and who will also share in the glory that will be revealed.

The elders who are among you I exhort, who am also an elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and also a partaker of the glory that shall be revealed:

2 Keep watch over the flock of God which is in your care, using your authority, not as forced to do so, but gladly; and not for unclean profit but with a ready mind;
Tend the flock of God which is among you, exercising the oversight, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, not for dishonest gain, but willingly;
Feed the flock of God which is among you, taking the oversight of it, not by constraint, but willingly; not for filthy lucre, but from a ready mind;

3 Not as lords over God's heritage, but making yourselves examples to the flock.
neither as lording it over the charge allotted to you, but making yourselves examples to the flock.
Neither as being lords over God's heritage, but being examples to the flock.

4 And at the coming of the chief Keeper of the sheep, you will be given the eternal crown of glory.
When the chief Shepherd will be revealed, you will receive the crown of glory that doesn't fade away.
And when the chief Shepherd shall appear, ye shall receive a crown of glory that fadeth not away.

5 And in the same way, let the younger men be ruled by the older ones. Let all of you put away pride and make yourselves ready to be servants: for God is a hater of pride, but he gives grace to those who make themselves low.
Likewise, you younger ones, be subject to the elder. Yes, all of you gird yourselves with humility, to subject yourselves to one another; for "God resists the proud, but gives grace to the humble."
Likewise, ye younger, submit yourselves to the elder. Yes, all of you be subject one to another, and be clothed with humility: for God resisteth the proud, and giveth grace to the humble.

- 6 For this cause make yourselves low under the strong hand of God, so that when the time comes you may be lifted up;
Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time;
Humble yourselves therefore under the mighty hand of God, that he may exalt you in due time:
- 7 Putting all your troubles on him, for he takes care of you.
casting all your worries on him, because he cares for you.
Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you.
- 8 Be serious and keep watch; the Evil One, who is against you, goes about like a lion with open mouth in search of food;
Be sober and self-controlled. Be watchful. Your adversary the devil, walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.
Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil, as a roaring lion, walketh about, seeking whom he may devour:
- 9 Do not give way to him but be strong in your faith, in the knowledge that your brothers who are in the world undergo the same troubles.
Withstand him steadfast in your faith, knowing that your brothers who are in the world are undergoing the same sufferings.
Whom resist steadfast in the faith, knowing that the same afflictions are accomplished in your brethren that are in the world.
- 10 And after you have undergone pain for a little time, the God of all grace who has given you a part in his eternal glory through Christ Jesus, will himself give you strength and support, and make you complete in every good thing;
But may the God of all grace (who called you to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus), after you have suffered a while, perfect, establish, strengthen, and settle you.
But the God of all grace, who hath called us to his eternal glory by Christ Jesus, after ye have suffered a while, make you perfect, establish, strengthen, settle you.
- 11 His is the power for ever. So be it.
To him be the glory and the power forever and ever. Amen.
To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

12 I have sent you this short letter by Silvanus, a true brother, in my opinion; comforting you and witnessing that this is the true grace of God; keep to it.
Through Silvanus, our faithful brother, as I consider him, I have written to you briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which you stand.
By Silvanus, a faithful brother to you, as I suppose, I have written briefly, exhorting, and testifying that this is the true grace of God in which ye stand.

13 She who is in Babylon, who has a part with you in the purpose of God, sends you her love; and so does my son Mark.
She who is in Babylon, elect together with you, greets you; and so does Mark, my son.
The church that is at Babylon, elected together with you, saluteth you; and so doth Mark my son.

14 Give one another the kiss of love. Peace be to you all in Christ.
Greet one another with a kiss of love. Peace be to you all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.
Greet ye one another with a kiss of charity. Peace be with you all that are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

1 Simon Peter, a servant and Apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who with us have a part in the same holy faith in the righteousness of our God and Saviour Jesus Christ:
Simon Peter, a servant and apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained a like precious faith with us in the righteousness of our God and Savior, Jesus Christ:
Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to them that have obtained like precious faith with us through the righteousness of God and our Savior Jesus Christ:

2 May grace and peace ever be increasing in you, in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord;
Grace to you and peace be multiplied in the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord,
Grace and peace be multiplied to you through the knowledge of God, and of Jesus our Lord,

3 Because by his power he has given us everything necessary for life and righteousness, through the knowledge of him who has been our guide by his glory and virtue;
seeing that his divine power has granted to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us by his own glory and virtue;
According as his divine power hath given to us all things that pertain to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue:

- 4 And through this he has given us the hope of great rewards highly to be valued; so that by them we might have our part in God's being, and be made free from the destruction which is in the world through the desires of the flesh.
whereby he has granted to us his precious and exceedingly great promises; that through these you may become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped from the corruption that is in that world by lust.
Whereby are given to us exceeding great and precious promises; that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust.
- 5 So, for this very cause, take every care; joining virtue to faith, and knowledge to virtue,
Yes, and for this very cause adding on your part all diligence, in your faith supply moral excellence; and in moral excellence, knowledge;
And besides this, giving all diligence, add to your faith virtue; and to virtue knowledge;
- 6 And self-control to knowledge, and a quiet mind to self-control, and fear of God to a quiet mind, and in knowledge, self-control; and in self-control patience; and in patience godliness;
And to knowledge temperance; and to temperance patience; and to patience godliness;
- 7 And love of the brothers to fear of God, and to love of the brothers, love itself.
and in godliness brotherly affection; and in brotherly affection, love.
And to godliness brotherly kindness; and to brotherly kindness charity.
- 8 For if you have these things in good measure, they will make you fertile and full of fruit in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
For if these things are yours and abound, they make you to be not idle nor unfruitful to the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
For if these things be in you, and abound, they make you that ye shall neither be barren nor unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 9 For the man who has not these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having no memory of how he was made clean from his old sins.
For he who lacks these things is blind, seeing only what is near, having forgotten the cleansing from his old sins.
But he that lacketh these things is blind, and cannot see afar off, and hath forgotten that he was purified from his old sins.

10 For this reason, my brothers, take all the more care to make your selection and approval certain; for if you do these things you will never have a fall:
Therefore, brothers, be more diligent to make your calling and election sure. For if you do these things, you will never stumble.
Wherefore the rather, brethren, give diligence to make your calling and election sure: for if ye do these things, ye shall never fall:

11 For so the way will be open to you into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.
For thus will be richly supplied to you the entrance into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.
For so an entrance shall be ministered to you abundantly into the everlasting kingdom of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ.

12 For this reason I will be ready at all times to keep your memory of these things awake, though you have the knowledge of them now and are well based in your present faith.
Therefore I will not be negligent to remind you of these things, though you know them, and are established in the present truth.
Wherefore I will not be negligent to put you always in remembrance of these things, though ye know them, and are established in the present truth.

13 And it seems right to me, as long as I am in this tent of flesh, to keep your minds awake by working on your memory;
I think it right, as long as I am in this tent, to stir you up by reminding you;
Indeed, I think it meet, as long as I am in this tabernacle, to stir you up by putting you in remembrance;

14 For I am conscious that in a short time I will have to put off this tent of flesh, as our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me.
knowing that the putting off of my tent comes swiftly, even as our Lord, Jesus Christ, made clear to me.
Knowing that shortly I must put off this my tabernacle, even as our Lord Jesus Christ hath shown me.

15 And I will take every care so that you may have a clear memory of these things after my death.
Yes, I will make every effort that you may always be able to remember these things even after my departure.
Moreover, I will endeavor that ye may be able, after my decease, to have these things always in remembrance.

- 16 For when we gave you news of the power and the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, our teaching was not based on stories put together by art, but we were eye-witnesses of his glory.
For we did not follow cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord, Jesus Christ, but we were eyewitnesses of his majesty.
For we have not followed cunningly devised fables, when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but were eye-witnesses of his majesty.
- 17 For God the Father gave him honour and glory, when such a voice came to him out of the great glory, saying, This is my dearly loved Son, with whom I am well pleased.
For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when the voice came to him from the Majestic Glory, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."
For he received from God the Father honor and glory, when there came such a voice to him from the excellent glory, This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.
- 18 And this voice came from heaven even to our ears, when we were with him on the holy mountain.
This voice we heard come out of heaven, when we were with him in the holy mountain.
And this voice which came from heaven we heard, when we were with him on the holy mount.
- 19 And so the words of the prophets are made more certain; and it is well for you to give attention to them as to a light shining in a dark place, till the dawn comes and the morning star is seen in your hearts;
We have the more sure word of prophecy; whereunto you do well that you take heed, as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns, and the day star arises in your hearts:
We have also a more sure word of prophecy; to which ye do well that ye take heed, as to a light that shineth in a dark place, until the day dawn, and the day-star arise in your hearts:
- 20 Being conscious in the first place that no man by himself may give a special sense to the words of the prophets.
knowing this first, that no prophecy of scripture is of private interpretation.
Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the scripture is of any private interpretation.
- 21 For these words did not ever come through the impulse of men: but the prophets had them from God, being moved by the Holy Spirit.
For no prophecy ever came by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke, being moved by the Holy Spirit.
For prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spoke as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

- 1 But there were false prophets among the people, as there will be false teachers among you, who will secretly put forward wrong teachings for your destruction, even turning away from the Lord who gave himself for them; whose destruction will come quickly, and they themselves will be the cause of it.
But there also arose false prophets among the people, as among you also there will be false teachers, who will secretly bring in destructive heresies, denying even the Master who bought them, bringing on themselves swift destruction.
But there were false prophets also among the people, even as there will be false teachers among you, who will privately bring in damnable heresies, even denying the Lord that bought them, and bring upon themselves swift destruction.
- 2 And a great number will go with them in their evil ways, through whom the true way will have a bad name.
Many will follow their destructive ways, and as a result, the way of the truth will be maligned.
And many will follow their pernicious ways; by reason of whom the way of truth will be evil spoken of.
- 3 And in their desire for profit they will come to you with words of deceit, like traders doing business in souls: whose punishment has been ready for a long time and their destruction is watching for them.
In covetousness will they exploit you with deceptive words: whose sentence now from of old doesn't linger, and their destruction will not slumber.
And through covetousness they will with feigned words make merchandise of you: whose judgment now of a long time lingereth not, and their damnation slumbereth not.
- 4 For if God did not have pity for the angels who did evil, but sent them down into hell, to be kept in chains of eternal night till they were judged;
For if God didn't spare angels when they sinned, but cast them down to Tartarus, and committed them to pits of darkness, to be reserved to judgment;
For if God spared not the angels that sinned, but cast them down to hell, and delivered them into chains of darkness, to be reserved to judgment;
- 5 And did not have mercy on the world which then was, but only kept safe Noah, a preacher of righteousness, with seven others, when he let loose the waters over the world of the evil-doers; and didn't spare the ancient world, but preserved Noah with seven others, a preacher of righteousness, when he brought a flood on the world of the ungodly;
And spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person, a preacher of righteousness, bringing the flood upon the world of the ungodly;

- 6 And sent destruction on Sodom and Gomorrah, burning them up with fire as an example to those whose way of life might in the future be displeasing to him; and turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them to destruction, having made them an example to those who would live ungodly;
And turning the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah into ashes, condemned them with an overthrow, making them an example to those that afterwards should live ungodly lives.
- 7 And kept safe Lot, the upright man, who was deeply troubled by the unclean life of the evil-doers and delivered righteous Lot, very distressed by the lustful life of the wicked
And delivered just Lot, grieved with the habitual lewdness of the wicked:
- 8 (Because the soul of that upright man living among them was pained from day to day by seeing and hearing their crimes):
(for that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, tormented his righteous soul from day to day with lawless deeds):
(For that righteous man dwelling among them, in seeing and hearing, grieved his righteous soul from day to day with their unlawful deeds;)
- 9 The Lord is able to keep the upright safe in the time of testing, and to keep evil-doers under punishment till the day of judging; the Lord knows how to deliver the godly out of temptation, and to keep the unrighteous under punishment to the day of judgment;
The Lord knoweth how to deliver the godly out of temptations, and to reserve the unjust to the day of judgment to be punished:
- 10 But specially those who go after the unclean desires of the flesh, and make sport of authority. Ready to take chances, uncontrolled, they have no fear of saying evil of those in high places: but chiefly those who walk after the flesh in the lust of defilement, and despise authority. Daring, self-willed, they are not afraid to speak evil of dignitaries;
But chiefly them that walk after the flesh in the lust of uncleanness, and despise government. Presumptuous are they, self-willed; they are not afraid to speak evil of dignities.
- 11 Though the angels, who are greater in strength and power, do not make use of violent language against them before the Lord. whereas angels, though greater in might and power, don't bring a railing judgment against them before the Lord.
Whereas angels, who are greater in power and might, bring not railing accusation against them before the Lord.

- 12 But these men, like beasts without reason, whose natural use is to be taken and put to death, crying out against things of which they have no knowledge, will undergo that same destruction which they are designing for others;
But these, as creatures without reason, born mere animals to be taken and destroyed, speaking evil in matters about which they are ignorant, will in their destroying surely be destroyed,
But these, as natural brute beasts, made to be taken and destroyed, speak evil of the things that they understand not; and shall utterly perish in their own corruption;
- 13 For the evil which overtakes them is the reward of their evil-doing: such men take their pleasure in the delights of the flesh even in the daytime; they are like the marks of a disease, like poisoned wounds among you, feasting together with you in joy;
receiving the wages of unrighteousness; people who count it pleasure to revel in the day-time, spots and blemishes, reveling in their deceit while they feast with you;
And shall receive the reward of unrighteousness, as they that count it pleasure to riot in the day-time. Spots they are and blemishes, sporting themselves with their own deceivings while they feast with you;
- 14 Having eyes full of evil desire, never having enough of sin; turning feeble souls out of the true way; they are children of cursing, whose hearts are well used to bitter envy;
having eyes full of adultery, and who can't cease from sin; enticing unsettled souls; having a heart trained in greed; children of cursing;
Having eyes full of adultery, and that cannot cease from sin; beguiling unstable souls: they have a heart exercised with covetous practices; cursed children:
- 15 Turning out of the true way, they have gone wandering in error, after the way of Balaam, the son of Beor, who was pleased to take payment for wrongdoing;
forsaking the right way, they went astray, having followed the way of Balaam the son of Beor, who loved the wages of wrongdoing;
Who have forsaken the right way, and gone astray, following the way of Balaam the son of Bosor, who loved the wages of unrighteousness;
- 16 But his wrongdoing was pointed out to him: an ass, talking with a man's voice, put a stop to the error of the prophet.
but he was rebuked for his own disobedience. A mute donkey spoke with man`s voice and stopped the madness of the prophet.
But was rebuked for his iniquity: the dumb ass speaking with man's voice, forbad the madness of the prophet.
- 17 These are fountains without water, and mists before a driving storm; for whom the eternal night is kept in store.
These are wells without water, clouds driven by a storm; for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.
These are wells without water, clouds that are carried with a tempest; to whom the mist of darkness is reserved for ever.

- 18 For with high-sounding false words, making use of the attraction of unclean desires of the flesh, they get into their power those newly made free from those who are living in error;
For, uttering great swelling words of emptiness, they entice in the lusts of the flesh, by licentiousness, those who are indeed escaping from those who live in error;
For when they speak great swelling words of vanity, they allure through the lusts of the flesh, through much wantonness, those that had quite escaped from them who live in error.
- 19 Saying that they will be free, while they themselves are the servants of destruction; because whatever gets the better of a man makes a servant of him.
promising them liberty, while they themselves are bondservants of corruption; for by whom a man is overcome, by the same is he also brought into bondage.
While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for by whom a man is overcome, by the same is he brought into bondage.
- 20 For if, after they have got free from the unclean things of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ, they are again taken in the net and overcome, their last condition is worse than their first.
For if, after they have escaped the defilement of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, they are again entangled therein and overcome, the last state has become worse with them than the first.
For if after they have escaped the pollutions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ, they are again entangled in them, and overcome, the latter end is worse with them than the beginning.
- 21 For it would have been better for them to have had no knowledge of the way of righteousness, than to go back again from the holy law which was given to them, after having knowledge of it.
For it would be better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment delivered to them.
For it had been better for them not to have known the way of righteousness, than, after they have known it, to turn from the holy commandment delivered to them.
- 22 They are an example of that true saying, The dog has gone back to the food it had put out, and the pig which had been washed to its rolling in the dirty earth.
But it has happened to them according to the true proverb, "The dog turns to his own vomit again," and "the sow that had washed to wallowing in the mire."
But it hath happened to them according to the true proverb, The dog is turned to his own vomit again; and, The sow that was washed, to her wallowing in the mire.

- 1 My loved ones, this is now my second letter to you, and in this as in the first, I am attempting to keep your true minds awake;
This is now, beloved, the second letter that I have written to you; and in both of them I stir up your sincere mind by reminding you;
This second epistle, beloved, I now write to you; in both which I stir up your pure minds by way of remembrance:
- 2 So that you may keep in mind the words of the holy prophets in the past, and the law of the Lord and Saviour which was given to you by his Apostles.
that you should remember the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and the commandments of us, the apostles of the Lord and Savior:
That ye may be mindful of the words which were spoken before by the holy prophets, and of the commandment of us the apostles of the Lord and Savior:
- 3 Having first of all the knowledge that in the last days there will be men who, ruled by their evil desires, will make sport of holy things, knowing this first, that in the last days mockers will come, walking after their own lusts,
Knowing this first, that there will come in the last days scoffers, walking after their own lusts,
- 4 Saying, Where is the hope of his coming? From the death of the fathers till now everything has gone on as it was from the making of the world.
and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming?" For, from the day that the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.
And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.
- 5 But in taking this view they put out of their minds the memory that in the old days there was a heaven, and an earth lifted out of the water and circled by water, by the word of God;
For this they willfully forget, that there were heavens from of old, and an earth formed out of water and amid water, by the word of God;
For this they willingly are ignorant of, that by the word of God the heavens were of old, and the earth standing out of the water and in the water:
- 6 And that the world which then was came to an end through the overflowing of the waters.
by which means the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished.
By which the world that then was, being overflowed with water, perished:

- 7 But the present heaven and the present earth have been kept for destruction by fire, which is waiting for them on the day of the judging and destruction of evil men.
But the heavens that now are, and the earth, by the same word have been stored up for fire, being reserved against the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly men.
But the heavens and the earth, which are now, by the same word are kept in store, reserved to fire against the day of judgment and perdition of ungodly men.
- 8 But, my loved ones, keep in mind this one thing, that with the Lord one day is the same as a thousand years, and a thousand years are no more than one day.
But don't forget this one thing, beloved, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
But, beloved, be not ignorant of this one thing, that one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day.
- 9 The Lord is not slow in keeping his word, as he seems to some, but he is waiting in mercy for you, not desiring the destruction of any, but that all may be turned from their evil ways.
The Lord is not slow concerning his promise, as some count slowness; but is longsuffering towards us, not wishing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
The Lord is not slack concerning his promise, as some men count slackness; but is long-suffering toward us, not willing that any should perish, but that all should come to repentance.
- 10 But the day of the Lord will come like a thief; and in that day the heavens will be rolled up with a great noise, and the substance of the earth will be changed by violent heat, and the world and everything in it will be burned up.
But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will be dissolved with fervent heat, and the earth and the works that are in it will be burned up.
But the day of the Lord will come as a thief in the night; in which the heavens will pass away with a great noise, and the elements will melt with fervent heat, the earth also and the works that are therein will be burned up.
- 11 Seeing then that all these things are coming to such an end, what sort of persons is it right for you to be, in all holy behaviour and righteousness,
Therefore since all these things are thus to be destroyed, what manner of persons ought you to be in holy living and godliness,
Seeing then that all these things will be dissolved, what manner of persons ought ye to be in all holy deportment and godliness,

- 12 Looking for and truly desiring the coming of the day of God, when the heavens will come to an end through fire, and the substance of the earth will be changed by the great heat?
looking for and earnestly desiring the coming of the day of God, by reason of which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?
Looking for and hasting to the coming of the day of God, in which the heavens being on fire will be dissolved, and the elements will melt with fervent heat?
- 13 But having faith in his word, we are looking for a new heaven and a new earth, which will be the resting-place of righteousness.
But, according to his promise, we look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwells righteousness.
Nevertheless we, according to his promise, look for new heavens and a new earth, in which dwelleth righteousness.
- 14 For this reason, my loved ones, as you are looking for these things, take great care that when he comes you may be in peace before him, free from sin and every evil thing.
Therefore, beloved, seeing that you look for these things, be diligent to be found in peace, without blemish and blameless in his sight.
Wherefore, beloved, seeing that ye look for such things, be diligent that ye may be found by him in peace, without spot, and blameless.
- 15 And be certain that the long waiting of the Lord is for salvation; even as our brother Paul has said in his letters to you, from the wisdom which was given to him;
Regard the patience of our Lord as salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, wrote to you;
And account that the long-suffering of our Lord is salvation; even as our beloved brother Paul also, according to the wisdom given to him, hath written to you;
- 16 And as he said in all his letters, which had to do with these things; in which are some hard sayings, so that, like the rest of the holy Writings, they are twisted by those who are uncertain and without knowledge, to the destruction of their souls.
as also in all of his letters, speaking in them of these things. In those are some things hard to be understood, which the ignorant and unsettled twist, as they do also to the other scriptures, to their own destruction.
As also in all his epistles, speaking in them of these things; in which are some things hard to be understood, which they that are unlearned and unstable wrest, as they do also the other scriptures, to their own destruction.

17 For this reason, my loved ones, having knowledge of these things before they take place, take care that you are not turned away by the error of the uncontrolled, so falling from your true faith. You therefore, beloved, knowing these things beforehand, beware lest, being carried away with the error of the wicked, you fall from your own steadfastness.

Ye therefore, beloved, seeing ye know these things before, beware lest ye also, being led away with the error of the wicked, fall from your own steadfastness.

18 But be increased in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ. May he have glory now and for ever. So be it.

But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be the glory both now and forever. Amen.

But grow in grace, and in the knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

1 That which was from the first, which has come to our ears, and which we have seen with our eyes, looking on it and touching it with our hands, about the Word of life

That which was from the beginning, that which we have heard, that which we have seen with our eyes, that which we saw, and our hands touched, concerning the Word of life

That which was from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked upon, and our hands have handled, of the word of life;

2 (And the life was made clear to us, and we have seen it and are witnessing to it and giving you word of that eternal life which was with the Father and was seen by us);

(and the life was revealed, and we have seen, and testify, and declare to you the life, the eternal life, which was with the Father, and was revealed to us);

(For the life was manifested, and we have seen it, and testify, and show to you that eternal life which was with the Father, and was manifested to us;)

3 We give you word of all we have seen and everything which has come to our ears, so that you may be united with us; and we are united with the Father and with his Son Jesus Christ:

that which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that you also may have fellowship with us. Yes, and our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son, Jesus Christ.

That which we have seen and heard we declare to you, that ye also may have fellowship with us: and truly our fellowship is with the Father, and with his Son Jesus Christ.

4 And we are writing these things to you so that our joy may be made complete.

And we write these things to you, that our joy may be fulfilled.

And these things we write to you, that your joy may be full.

- 5 This is the word which came to us from him and which we give to you, that God is light and in him there is nothing dark.
This is the message which we have heard from him and announce to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
This then is the message which we have heard from him, and declare to you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.
- 6 If we say we are joined to him, and are walking still in the dark, our words are false and our acts are untrue:
If we say that we have fellowship with him and walk in the darkness, we lie, and don't tell the truth.
If we say that we have fellowship with him, and walk in darkness, we lie, and do not the truth:
- 7 But if we are walking in the light, as he is in the light, we are all united with one another, and the blood of Jesus his Son makes us clean from all sin.
But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ, his Son, cleanses us from all sin.
But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanseth us from all sin.
- 8 If we say that we have no sin, we are false to ourselves and there is nothing true in us.
If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.
- 9 If we say openly that we have done wrong, he is upright and true to his word, giving us forgiveness of sins and making us clean from all evil.
If we confess our sins, he is faithful and righteous to forgive us the sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.
- 10 If we say that we have no sin, we make him false and his word is not in us.
If we say that we haven't sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.
If we say that we have not sinned, we make him a liar, and his word is not in us.

- 1 My little children, I am writing these things to you so that you may be without sin. And if any man is a sinner, we have a friend and helper with the Father, Jesus Christ, the upright one:
My little children, I write these things to you so that you may not sin. If anyone sins, we have a Counselor with the Father, Jesus Christ, the righteous.
My little children, these things I write to you, that ye sin not. And if any man sinneth, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous:
- 2 He is the offering for our sins; and not for ours only, but for all the world.
And he is the atoning sacrifice for our sins, and not for ours only, but also for the whole world.
And he is the propitiation for our sins: and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.
- 3 And by this we may be certain that we have knowledge of him, if we keep his laws.
This is how we know that we know him: if we keep his commandments.
And by this we do know that we know him, if we keep his commandments.
- 4 The man who says, I have knowledge of him, and does not keep his laws, is false, and there is nothing true in him:
He who says, "I know him," and doesn't keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
He that saith, I know him, and keepeth not his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him.
- 5 But in every man who keeps his word, the love of God is made complete. By this we may be certain that we are in him:
But whoever keeps his word, God's love has most assuredly been perfected in him. This is how we know that we are in him:
But whoever keepeth his word, in him verily is the love of God perfected: by this we know that we are in him.
- 6 He who says that he is living in him, will do as he did.
he who says he remains in him ought himself also to walk just like he walked.
He that saith he abideth in him, ought himself also so to walk, even as he walked.
- 7 My loved ones, I do not give you a new law, but an old law which you had from the first; this old law is the word which came to your ears.
Brothers, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which you had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word which you heard from the beginning.
Brethren, I write no new commandment to you, but an old commandment which ye had from the beginning:
The old commandment is the word which ye have heard from the beginning.

- 8 Again, I give you a new law, which is true in him and in you; for the night is near its end and the true light is even now shining out.
Again, I write a new commandment to you, which thing is true in him and in you; because the darkness is passing away, and the true light already shines.
Again, a new commandment I write to you, which thing is true in him and in you: because the darkness is past, and the true light now shineth.
- 9 He who says that he is in the light, and has hate in his heart for his brother, is still in the dark.
He who says he is in the light and hates his brother, is in the darkness even until now.
He that saith he is in the light, and hateth his brother, is in darkness even until now.
- 10 He who has love for his brother is in the light, and there is no cause of error in him.
He who loves his brother remains in the light, and there is no occasion for stumbling in him.
He that loveth his brother abideth in the light, and there is no occasion of stumbling in him.
- 11 But he who has hate for his brother is in the dark, walking in the dark with no knowledge of where he is going, unable to see because of the dark.
But he who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and doesn't know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.
But he that hateth his brother is in darkness, and walketh in darkness, and knoweth not whither he goeth, because darkness hath blinded his eyes.
- 12 I am writing to you, my children, because you have forgiveness of sins through his name.
I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.
I write to you, little children, because your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake.
- 13 I am writing to you, fathers, because you have knowledge of him who was from the first. I am writing to you, young men, because you have overcome the Evil One. I have sent a letter to you, children, because you have knowledge of the Father.
I write to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because you have overcome the evil one. I write to you, little children, because you know the Father.
I write to you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I write to you, young men, because ye have overcome the wicked one. I write to you, little children, because ye have known the Father.

- 14 I have sent a letter to you, fathers, because you have knowledge of him who was from the first. I have sent a letter to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God is in you, and because you have overcome the Evil One.
I have written to you, fathers, because you know him who is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because you are strong, and the word of God remains in you, and you have overcome the evil one.
I have written to you, fathers, because ye have known him that is from the beginning. I have written to you, young men, because ye are strong, and the word of God abideth in you, and ye have overcome the wicked one.
- 15 Have no love for the world or for the things which are in the world. If any man has love for the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
Don't love the world, neither the things that are in the world. If anyone loves the world, the Father's love isn't in him.
Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If any man loveth the world, the love of the Father is not in him.
- 16 Because everything in the world, the desire of the flesh, the desire of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not of the Father but of the world.
For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, isn't the Father's, but is the world's.
For all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life, is not from the Father, but is from the world.
- 17 And the world and its desires is coming to an end: but he who does God's pleasure is living for ever.
The world is passing away with its lusts, but he who does God's will remains forever.
And the world passeth away, and the lust of it: but he that doeth the will of God abideth for ever.
- 18 Little children, it is the last hour; and as you were given word that the Antichrist would come, so now a number of Antichrists have come to you; and by this we are certain that it is the last hour.
Little children, these are the end times, and as you heard that the Antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen. By this we know that it is the end times.
Little children, it is the last time: and as ye have heard that antichrist cometh, even now are there many antichrists; by which we know that it is the last time.
- 19 They went out from us but they were not of us; if they had been of us they would still be with us: but they went out from us so that it might be made clear that they were not of us.
They went out from us, but they didn't belong to us; for if they had belonged to us, they would have continued with us. But they left, that they might be revealed that none of them belong to us.
They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would no doubt have continued with us: but they went out, that they might be made manifest that they were not all of us.

- 20 And you have the Spirit from the Holy One and you all have knowledge.
You have an anointing from the Holy One, and you know the truth.
But ye have an unction from the Holy One, and ye know all things.
- 21 I have not sent you this letter because you have no knowledge of what is true, but because you have knowledge, and because that which is false has nothing in common with that which is true.
I have not written to you because you don't know the truth, but because you know it, and because no lie is of the truth.
I have not written to you because ye know not the truth, but because ye know it, and that no lie is of the truth.
- 22 Who is false but he who says that Jesus is not the Christ? He is the Antichrist who has no belief in the Father or the Son.
Who is the liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? This is the Antichrist, he who denies the Father and the Son.
Who is a liar but he that denieth that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist, that denieth the Father and the Son.
- 23 He who has no belief in the Son has not the Father: he who makes clear his belief in the Son has the Father.
Whoever denies the Son, the same doesn't have the Father. He who confesses the Son has the Father also.
Whoever denieth the Son, the same hath not the Father: but he that acknowledgeth the Son hath the Father also.
- 24 But as for you, keep in your hearts the things which were made clear to you from the first. If you keep these things in your hearts you will be kept in the Father and the Son.
Therefore, as for you, let that remain in you which you heard from the beginning. If that which you heard from the beginning remains in you, you also will remain in the Son, and in the Father.
Let that therefore abide in you, which ye have heard from the beginning. If that which ye have heard from the beginning shall remain in you, ye also shall continue in the Son, and in the Father.
- 25 And this is the hope which he gave you, even eternal life.
This is the promise which he promised us, the eternal life.
And this is the promise that he hath promised us, even eternal life.
- 26 I am writing these things to you about those whose purpose is that you may be turned out of the true way.
These things I have written to you concerning those who would lead you astray.
These things have I written to you concerning them that seduce you.

- 27 As for you, the Spirit which he gave you is still in you, and you have no need of any teacher; but as his Spirit gives you teaching about all things, and is true and not false, so keep your hearts in him, through the teaching which he has given you.
As for you, the anointing which you received from him remains in you, and you don't need for anyone to teach you. But as his anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is no lie, and even as it taught you, you will remain in him.
But the anointing which ye have received from him abideth in you, and ye need not that any man should teach you: but as the same anointing teacheth you concerning all things, and is truth, and is no lie, and even as it hath taught you, ye shall abide in him.
- 28 And now, my children, keep your hearts in him; so that at his revelation, we may have no fear or shame before him at his coming.
Now, little children, remain in him, that when he appears, we may have boldness, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
And now, little children, abide in him; that when he shall appear, we may have confidence, and not be ashamed before him at his coming.
- 29 If you have knowledge that he is upright, it is clear to you that everyone who does righteousness is his offspring.
If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of him.
If ye know that he is righteous ye know that every one that doeth righteousness is born of him.
- 1 See what great love the Father has given us in naming us the children of God; and such we are. For this reason the world does not see who we are, because it did not see who he was.
Behold, how great a love the Father has bestowed on us, that we should be called children of God! For this cause the world doesn't know us, because it didn't know him.
Behold, what manner of love the Father hath bestowed upon us, that we should be called the sons of God: therefore the world knoweth us not, because it knew him not.
- 2 My loved ones, now we are children of God, and at present it is not clear what we are to be. We are certain that at his revelation we will be like him; for we will see him as he is.
Beloved, now we are children of God, and it is not yet revealed what we will be. But we know that, when he is revealed, we will be like him; for we will see him just as he is.
Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.
- 3 And everyone who has this hope in him makes himself holy, even as he is holy.
Everyone who has this hope set on him purifies himself, even as he is pure.
And every man that hath this hope in him purifieth himself, even as he is pure.

- 4 Everyone who is a sinner goes against the law, for sin is going against the law.
Everyone who sins also commits lawlessness. Sin is lawlessness.
Whoever committeth sin transgresseth also the law; for sin is the transgression of the law.
- 5 And you have knowledge that he came to take away sin: and in him there is no sin.
You know that he was revealed to take away our sins, and in him is no sin.
And ye know that he was manifested to take away our sins; and in him is no sin.
- 6 Anyone who is in him does no sin; anyone who is a sinner has not seen him and has no knowledge of him.
Whoever remains in him doesn't sin. Whoever sins hasn't seen him, neither knows him.
Whoever abideth in him sinneth not: whoever sinneth hath not seen him, neither known him.
- 7 My little children, let no man take you out of the true way: he who does righteousness is upright, even as he is upright;
Little children, let no one lead you astray. He who does righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
Little children, let no man deceive you: he that doeth righteousness is righteous, even as he is righteous.
- 8 The sinner is a child of the Evil One; for the Evil One has been a sinner from the first. And the Son of God was seen on earth so that he might put an end to the works of the Evil One.
He who sins is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. To this end the Son of God was revealed, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
He that committeth sin is of the devil; for the devil sinneth from the beginning. For this purpose the Son of God was manifested, that he might destroy the works of the devil.
- 9 Anyone who is a child of God does no sin, because he still has God's seed in him; he is not able to be a sinner, because God is his Father.
Whoever is born of God doesn't commit sin, because his seed remains in him; and he can't sin, because he is born of God.
Whoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God.

10 In this way it is clear who are the children of God and who are the children of the Evil One; anyone who does not do righteousness or who has no love for his brother, is not a child of God.
In this the children of God are revealed, and the children of the devil. Whoever doesn't do righteousness is not of God, neither is he who doesn't love his brother.

In this the children of God are manifest, and the children of the devil: whoever doeth not righteousness is not of God, neither he that loveth not his brother.

11 Because this is the word which was given to you from the first, that we are to have love for one another;
For this is the message which you heard from the beginning, that we should love one another;
For this is the message that ye have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another.

12 Not being of the Evil One like Cain, who put his brother to death. And why did he put him to death? Because his works were evil and his brother's works were good.
unlike Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. Why did he kill him? Because his works were evil, and his brother's righteous.
Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother. And why did he slay him? Because his own works were evil, and his brother's righteous.

13 Do not be surprised, my brothers, if the world has no love for you.
Don't be surprised, my brothers, if the world hates you.
Marvel not, my brethren, if the world hate you.

14 We are conscious that we have come out of death into life because of our love for the brothers. He who has no love is still in death.
We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brothers. He who doesn't love his brother remains in death.
We know that we have passed from death to life, because we love the brethren. He that loveth not his brother, abideth in death.

15 Anyone who has hate for his brother is a taker of life, and you may be certain that no taker of life has eternal life in him.
Whoever hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life remaining in him.
Whoever hateth his brother, is a murderer: and ye know that no murderer hath eternal life abiding in him.

- 16 In this we see what love is, because he gave his life for us; and it is right for us to give our lives for the brothers.
By this we know love, because he laid down his life for us. We ought to lay down our lives for the brothers.
By this we perceive the love of God, because he laid down his life for us: and we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.
- 17 But if a man has this world's goods, and sees that his brother is in need, and keeps his heart shut against his brother, how is it possible for the love of God to be in him?
But whoever has the world's goods, and sees his brother in need, and shuts up his compassion from him, how does the love of God remain in him?
But he who hath this world's good, and seeth his brother have need, and shutteth up his bowels of compassion from him, how dwelleth the love of God in him?
- 18 My little children, do not let our love be in word and in tongue, but let it be in act and in good faith.
My little children, let's not love in word only, neither with the tongue only, but in deed and truth.
My little children, let us not love in word, neither in tongue, but in deed and in truth.
- 19 In this way we may be certain that we are true, and may give our heart comfort before him,
And by this we know that we are of the truth, and persuade our hearts before him,
And by this we know that we are of the truth, and shall assure our hearts before him.
- 20 When our heart says that we have done wrong; because God is greater than our heart, and has knowledge of all things.
because if our heart condemns us, God is greater than our heart, and knows all things.
For if our heart condemneth us, God is greater than our heart, and knoweth all things.
- 21 My loved ones, if our heart does not say that we have done wrong, we have no fear before him;
Beloved, if our hearts don't condemn us, we have boldness toward God;
Beloved, if our heart doth not condemn us, then have we confidence towards God.
- 22 And he gives us all our requests, because we keep his laws and do the things which are pleasing in his eyes.
and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments and do the things that are pleasing in his sight.
And whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we keep his commandments, and do those things that are pleasing in his sight.

- 23 And this is his law, that we have faith in the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love for one another, even as he said to us.
This is his commandment, that we should believe in the name of his Son, Jesus Christ, and love one another, even as he commanded.
And this is his commandment; That we should believe on the name of his Son Jesus Christ, and love one another, as he gave us commandment.
- 24 He who keeps his laws is in God and God is in him. And the Spirit which he gave us is our witness that he is in us.
He who keeps his commandments remains in him, and he in him. By this we know that he remains in us, by the Spirit which he gave us.
And he that keepeth his commandments, dwelleth in him, and he in him. And by this we know that he abideth in us, by the Spirit which he hath given us.
- 1 My loved ones, do not put your faith in every spirit, but put them to the test, to see if they are from God: because a great number of false prophets have gone out into the world.
Beloved, don't believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God, because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets have gone out into the world.
- 2 By this you may have knowledge of the Spirit of God: every spirit which says that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God:
By this you know the Spirit of God: every spirit who confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is of God,
By this ye know the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ hath come in the flesh, is from God:
- 3 And every spirit which does not say this is not from God: this is the spirit of Antichrist, of which you have had word; and it is in the world even now.
and every spirit who doesn't confess that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh is not of God, and this is the spirit of the antichrist, of whom you have heard that it comes. Now it is in the world already.
And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, is not from God. And this is that spirit of antichrist, of which ye have heard that it should come; and even now already it is in the world.
- 4 You are of God, my little children, and you have overcome them because he who is in you is greater than he who is in the world.
You are of God, little children, and have overcome them; because greater is he who is in you than he who is in the world.
Ye are of God, little children, and have overcome them: because greater is he that is in you, than he that is in the world.

- 5 They are of the world, so their talk is the world's talk, and the world gives ear to them.
They are of the world. Therefore they speak of the world, and the world hears them.
They are of the world: therefore they speak from the world, and the world heareth them.
- 6 We are of God: he who has the knowledge of God gives ear to us; he who is not of God does not give ear to us. By this we may see which is the true spirit, and which is the spirit of error.
We are of God. He who knows God listens to us. He who is not of God doesn't listen to us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
We are of God. He that knoweth God, heareth us; he that is not of God, heareth not us. By this we know the spirit of truth, and the spirit of error.
- 7 My loved ones, let us have love for one another: because love is of God, and everyone who has love is a child of God and has knowledge of God.
Beloved, let us love one another, for love is of God; and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God.
Beloved, let us love one another: for love is from God; and every one that loveth is born of God, and knoweth God.
- 8 He who has no love has no knowledge of God, because God is love.
He who doesn't love doesn't know God, for God is love.
He that loveth not, knoweth not God; for God is love.
- 9 And the love of God was made clear to us when he sent his only Son into the world so that we might have life through him.
By this was God's love revealed in us, that God has sent his only born Son into the world that we might live through him.
In this was manifested the love of God towards us, because that God sent his only begotten Son into the world, that we might live through him.
- 10 And this is love, not that we had love for God, but that he had love for us, and sent his Son to be an offering for our sins.
In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the atoning sacrifice for our sins.
In this is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son to be the propitiation for our sins.
- 11 My loved ones, if God had such love for us, it is right for us to have love for one another.
Beloved, if God loved us so, we also ought to love one another.
Beloved, if God so loved us, we ought also to love one another.

- 12 No man has ever seen God: if we have love for one another, God is in us and his love is made complete in us:
No one has seen God at any time. If we love one another, God remains in us, and his love has been perfected in us.
No man hath seen God at any time. If we love one another, God dwelleth in us, and his love is perfected in us.
- 13 And his Spirit which he has given us is the witness that we are in him and he is in us.
By this we know that we remain in him and he in us, because he has given us of his Spirit.
By this we know that we dwell in him, and he in us, because he hath given us of his Spirit.
- 14 And we have seen and give witness that the Father sent the Son to be the Saviour of the world.
We have seen and testify that the Father has sent the Son as the Savior of the world.
And we have seen and do testify, that the Father sent the Son to be the Savior of the world.
- 15 Everyone who says openly that Jesus is the Son of God, has God in him and is in God.
Whoever will confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God remains in him, and he in God.
Whoever shall confess that Jesus is the Son of God, God dwelleth in him, and he in God.
- 16 And we have seen and had faith in the love which God has for us. God is love, and everyone who has love is in God, and God is in him.
We know and have believed the love which God has in us. God is love, and he who remains in love remains in God, and God remains in him.
And we have known and believed the love that God hath to us. God is love: and he that dwelleth in love, dwelleth in God, and God in him.
- 17 In this way love is made complete in us, so that we may be without fear on the day of judging, because as he is, so are we in this world.
In this love has been made perfect with us, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment, because as he is, even so are we in this world.
In this is our love made perfect, that we may have boldness in the day of judgment: because as he is, so are we in this world.

18 There is no fear in love: true love has no room for fear, because where fear is, there is pain; and he who is not free from fear is not complete in love.
There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear has punishment. He who fears is not made perfect in love.
There is no fear in love; but perfect love casteth out fear: because fear hath torment. He that feareth, is not made perfect in love.

19 We have the power of loving, because he first had love for us.
We love Him, because he first loved us.
We love him, because he first loved us.

20 If a man says, I have love for God, and has hate for his brother, his words are false: for how is the man who has no love for his brother whom he has seen, able to have love for God whom he has not seen?
If a man says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who doesn't love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?
If a man sayeth, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar. For he that loveth not his brother, whom he hath seen, how can he love God, whom he hath not seen?

21 And this is the word which we have from him, that he who has love for God is to have the same love for his brother.
This commandment have we from him, that he who loves God should also love his brother.
And this commandment have we from him, That he who loveth God, love his brother also.

1 Everyone who has faith that Jesus is the Christ is a child of God: and everyone who has love for the Father has love for his child.
Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God. Whoever loves the father also loves the child who is born of him.
Whoever believeth that Jesus is the Christ, is born of God: and every one that loveth him that begat, loveth him also that is begotten by him.

2 In this way, we are certain that we have love for the children of God, when we have love for God and keep his laws.
By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God and keep his commandments.
By this we know that we love the children of God, when we love God, and keep his commandments.

- 3 For loving God is keeping his laws: and his laws are not hard.
For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments. His commandments are not grievous.
For this is the love of God, that we keep his commandments; and his commandments are not grievous.
- 4 Anything which comes from God is able to overcome the world: and the power by which we have overcome the world is our faith.
For whatever is born of God overcomes the world. This is the victory that has overcome the world: your faith.
For whatever is born of God, overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith.
- 5 Who is able to overcome the world but the man who has faith that Jesus is the Son of God?
Who is he who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?
Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?
- 6 This is he who came by water and by blood, Jesus Christ; not by water only but by water and by blood.
This is he who came by water and blood, Jesus Christ; not with the water only, but with the water and the blood.
This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth testimony, because the Spirit is truth.
- 7 And the Spirit is the witness, because the Spirit is true.
It is the Spirit who bears witness, because the Spirit is the truth.
For there are three that bear testimony in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit, and these three are one.
- 8 There are three witnesses, the Spirit, the water, and the blood: and all three are in agreement.
For there are three who bear witness, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood; and the three agree as one.
And there are three that bear testimony on earth, the spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.

9 If we take the witness of men to be true, the witness of God is greater: because this is the witness which God has given about his Son.
If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater; for this is God`s testimony which he has testified concerning his Son.

If we receive the testimony of men, the testimony of God is greater: for this is the testimony of God which he hath testified of his Son.

10 He who has faith in the Son of God has the witness in himself: he who has not faith in God makes him false, because he has not faith in the witness which God has given about his Son.
He who believes in the Son of God has the witness in him. He who doesn`t believe God has made him a liar, because he has not believed in the testimony that God has given concerning his Son.

He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God, hath made him a liar, because he hath not believed the testimony that God gave of his Son.

11 And his witness is this, that God has given us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

The testimony is this, that God gave to us eternal life, and this life is in his Son.

And this is the testimony, that God hath given to us eternal life: and this life is in his Son.

12 He who has the Son has the life; he who has not the Son of God has not the life.

He who has the Son has the life. He who doesn`t have God`s Son doesn`t have the life.

He that hath the Son, hath life; and he that hath not the Son of God, hath not life.

13 I have put these things in writing for you who have faith in the name of the Son of God, so that you may be certain that you have eternal life.

These things I have written to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know that you have eternal life, and that you may continue to believe in the name of the Son of God.

These things have I written to you that believe on the name of the Son of God; that ye may know that ye have eternal life, and that ye may believe on the name of the Son of God.

14 And we are certain that if we make any request to him which is right in his eyes, he will give ear to us:

This is the boldness which we have toward him, that, if we ask anything according to his will, he listens to us.

And this is the confidence that we have in him, that if we ask any thing according to his will, he heareth us:

- 15 And if we are certain that he gives ear to all our requests, we are equally certain that we will get our requests.
And if we know that he listens to us whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions which we have asked of him.
And if we know that he heareth us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we desired from him.
- 16 If a man sees his brother doing a sin which is not bad enough for death, let him make a prayer to God, and God will give life to him whose sin was not bad enough for death. There is a sin whose punishment is death: I do not say that he may make such a request then.
If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not leading to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life for those who sin not to death. There is a sin leading to death. I don't say that concerning this he should make a request.
If any man shall see his brother sin a sin which is not to death, he shall ask, and he will give him life for them that sin not to death. There is a sin to death: I do not say that he shall pray for it.
- 17 All evil-doing is sin: but death is not the punishment for every sort of sin.
All unrighteousness is sin, and there is a sin not leading to death.
All unrighteousness is sin: and there is a sin not to death.
- 18 We are certain that one who is a child of God will do no sin, but the Son of God keeps him so that he is not touched by the Evil One.
We know that whoever is born of God doesn't sin, but he who was born of God keeps himself, and the evil one doesn't touch him.
We know that whoever is born of God, sinneth not; but he that is begotten of God, keepeth himself, and that wicked one toucheth him not.
- 19 We are certain that we are of God, but all the world is in the power of the Evil One.
We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies in the power of the evil one.
And we know that we are of God, and the whole world lieth in wickedness.
- 20 And we are certain that the Son of God has come, and has given us a clear vision, so that we may see him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. He is the true God and eternal life.
We know that the Son of God has come, and has given us an understanding, that we know him who is true, and we are in him who is true, in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.
And we know that the Son of God hath come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God, and eternal life.

21 My little children, keep yourselves from false gods.

Little children, keep yourselves from idols.

Little children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

1 I, a ruler in the church, send word to the noble sister who is of God's selection, and to her children, for whom I have true love; and not only I, but all who have knowledge of what is true;

The elder, to the elect lady and her children, whom I love in truth; and not I only, but also all those who know the truth;

The elder to the elect lady, and her children, whom I love in the truth; and not I only, but also all they that have known the truth;

2 Because of this true knowledge which is in us, and will be with us for ever:

for the truth's sake, which remains in us, and it will be with us forever:

For the truth's sake which dwelleth in us, and shall be with us for ever.

3 May grace, mercy, and peace be with us from God the Father, and from Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in all true love.

Grace, mercy, and peace will be with us, from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

Grace be with you, mercy, and peace from God the Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ, the Son of the Father, in truth and love.

4 It gave me great joy to see some of your children walking in the true way, even as we were ordered to do by the Father.

I rejoice greatly that I have found some of your children walking in truth, even as we have been commanded by the Father.

I rejoiced greatly, that I found of thy children walking in truth, as we have received a commandment from the Father.

5 And now, my sister, I make a request to you, not sending you a new law, but the law which we had from the first, that we have love for one another.

Now I beg you, dear lady, not as though I wrote to you a new commandment, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

And now I beseech thee, lady, not as though I wrote a new commandment to thee, but that which we had from the beginning, that we love one another.

- 6 And love is the keeping of his laws. This is the law which was given to you from the first, so that you might keep it.
This is love, that we should walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, even as you heard from the beginning, that you should walk in it.
And this is love, that we walk according to his commandments. This is the commandment, that as ye have heard from the beginning, ye should walk in it.
- 7 Because a number of false teachers have gone out into the world, who do not give witness that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. Such a one is a false teacher and Antichrist.
For many deceivers have gone out into the world, those who don't confess that Jesus Christ came in the flesh. This is the deceiver and the Antichrist.
For many deceivers have entered into the world, who confess not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh. This is a deceiver, and an antichrist.
- 8 Keep watch over yourselves, so that you do not make our work of no effect, but may get your full reward.
Watch yourselves, that we don't lose the things which we have accomplished, but that we receive a full reward.
Look to yourselves, that we lose not those things which we have wrought, but that we receive a full reward.
- 9 Anyone who goes on and does not keep to the teaching of Christ, has not God: he who keeps to the teaching has the Father and the Son.
Whoever transgresses and doesn't remain in the teaching of Christ, doesn't have God. He who remains in the teaching, the same has both the Father and the Son.
Whoever transgresseth, and abideth not in the doctrine of Christ, hath not God. He that abideth in the doctrine of Christ, he hath both the Father and the Son.
- 10 If anyone comes to you not having this teaching, do not take him into your house or give him words of love:
If anyone comes to you, and doesn't bring this teaching, don't receive him into your house, and don't welcome him,
If any one cometh to you, and bringeth not this doctrine, receive him not into your house, neither wish him happiness:
- 11 For he who gives him words of love has a part in his evil works.
for he who welcomes him participates in his evil works.
For he that wisheth him happiness, is partaker of his evil deeds.

- 12 Having much to say to you, it is not my purpose to put it all down with paper and ink: but I am hoping to come to you, and to have talk with you face to face, so that your joy may be full.
Having many things to write to you, I don't want to do so with paper and ink, but I hope to come to you, and to speak face to face, that our joy may be made full.
Having many things to write to you, I would not write with paper and ink: but I trust to come to you, and speak face to face, that our joy may be full.
- 13 The children of your noble sister, who is of God's selection, send you their love.
The children of your chosen sister greet you. Amen.
The children of thy elect sister greet thee. Amen.
- 1 I, a ruler in the church, send word to the well loved Gaius, for whom I have true love.
The elder to Gaius the beloved, whom I love in truth.
The elder to the well-beloved Gaius, whom I love in truth.
- 2 My loved one, it is my prayer that you may do well in all things, and be healthy in body, even as your soul does well.
Beloved, I pray that you may prosper in all things and be healthy, even as your soul prospers.
Beloved, I wish above all things that thou mayest prosper and be in health, even as thy soul prospereth.
- 3 For it gave me great joy when some of the brothers came and gave witness that you had the true faith and were walking in the true way.
For I rejoiced greatly, when brothers came and testified about your truth, even as you walk in truth.
For I rejoiced greatly, when the brethren came and testified of the truth that is in thee, even as thou walkest in the truth.
- 4 I have no greater joy than to have news that my children are walking in the true way.
I have no greater joy than this, to hear about my children walking in truth.
I have no greater joy than to hear that my children walk in truth.
- 5 My loved one, you are doing a good work in being kind to those brothers who come from other places;
Beloved, you do a faithful work in whatever you accomplish for those who are brothers and strangers.
Beloved, thou doest faithfully whatever thou doest to the brethren, and to strangers;

- 6 Who have given witness to the church of your love for them: and you will do well to send them on their way well cared for, as is right for servants of God:
They have testified about your love before the assembly. You will do well to send them forward on their journey in a manner worthy of God,
Who have borne testimony of thy charity before the church: whom if thou shalt bring forward on their journey after a godly sort, thou wilt do well:
- 7 For they went out for love of the Name, taking nothing from the Gentiles.
because for the sake of the Name they went out, taking nothing from the Gentiles.
Because for his name's sake they went forth, taking nothing from the Gentiles.
- 8 So it is right for us to take in such men as guests, so that we may take our part in the work of the true faith.
We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow workers for the truth.
We therefore ought to receive such, that we may be fellow-helpers to the truth.
- 9 I sent a letter to the church, but Diotrephes, whose desire is ever to have the first place among them, will not have us there.
I wrote to the assembly, but Diotrephes, who loves to be first among them, doesn't accept what we say.
I wrote to the church: but Diotrephes, who loveth to have the pre-eminence among them, receiveth us not.
- 10 So if I come, I will keep in mind the things he does, talking against us with evil words: and as if this was not enough, he does not take the brothers into his house, and those who are ready to take them in, he keeps from doing so, putting them out of the church if they do.
Therefore, if I come, I will call attention to his deeds which he does, unjustly accusing us with wicked words. Not content with this, neither does he himself receive the brothers, and those who would, he forbids and throws out of the assembly.
Wherefore, if I come, I will remember his deeds which he doeth, prating against us with malicious words: and not content with that, neither doth he himself receive the brethren, and forbiddeth them that would, and casteth them out of the church.
- 11 My loved one, do not be copying what is evil, but what is good. He who does good is of God: he who does evil has not seen God.
Beloved, don't imitate that which is evil, but that which is good. He who does good is of God. He who does evil hasn't seen God.
Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God.

12 Demetrius has the approval of all men and of what is true: and we give the same witness, and you are certain that our witness is true.
Demetrius has the testimony of all, and of the truth itself; yes, we also testify, and you know that our testimony is true.
Demetrius hath good report by all men, and by the truth itself: and we also bear testimony; and ye know that our testimony is true.

13 I had much to say to you, but it is not my purpose to put it all down with ink and pen:
I had many things to write to you, but I am unwilling to write to you with ink and pen;
I had many things to write, but I will not with ink and pen write to thee:

14 But I am hoping to see you in a short time, and to have talk with you face to face.\
but I hope to see you soon, and we will speak face to face. Peace be to you. The friends greet you. Greet the friends by name.
But I trust I shall shortly see thee, and we shall speak face to face.

1 Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ and the brother of James, to those of God's selection who have been made holy by God the Father and are kept safe for Jesus Christ:
Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and kept for Jesus Christ:
Jude, the servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to them that are sanctified by God the Father, and preserved in Jesus Christ, and called:

2 May mercy and peace and love be increased in you.
Mercy to you and peace and love be multiplied.
Mercy to you, and peace, and love, be multiplied.

3 My loved ones, while my thoughts were full of a letter which I was going to send you about our common salvation, it was necessary for me to send you one requesting you with all my heart to go on fighting strongly for the faith which has been given to the saints once and for ever.
Beloved, while I was very eager to write to you about our common salvation, I was constrained to write to you exhorting you to contend earnestly for the faith which was once for all delivered to the saints.
Beloved, when I gave all diligence to write to you concerning the common salvation, it was needful for me to write to you, and exhort you that ye should earnestly contend for the faith, which was once delivered to the saints.

- 4 For certain men have come among you secretly, marked out before in the holy Writings for this evil fate, men without the fear of God, turning his grace into an unclean thing, and false to our only Master and Lord, Jesus Christ.
For there are certain men who crept in secretly, even they who were of old written of beforehand to this condemnation: ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying our only Master, God, and Lord, Jesus Christ.
For certain men have crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ.
- 5 Now it is my purpose to put you in mind, though you once had knowledge of all these things, of how the Lord, having taken a people safely out of Egypt, later sent destruction on those who had no faith;
Now I desire to remind you, though you already know this, that the Lord, having saved a people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed those who didn't believe.
I will therefore put you in remembrance, though ye once knew this, that the Lord, having saved the people out of the land of Egypt, afterward destroyed them that believed not.
- 6 And the angels who did not keep to their kingdom but went out from the place which was theirs, he has put in eternal chains and in dark night till the great day of the judging.
Angels who didn't keep their first domain, but deserted their own dwelling place, he has kept in everlasting bonds under darkness for the judgment of the great day.
And the angels who kept not their first state, but left their own habitation, he hath reserved in everlasting chains under darkness to the judgment of the great day.
- 7 Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the towns near them, having like these, given themselves up to unclean desires and gone after strange flesh, have been made an example, undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.
Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities around them, having, in the same way as these, given themselves over to sexual immorality and gone after strange flesh, are set forth as an example, suffering the punishment of eternal fire.
Even as Sodom and Gomorrah, and the cities about them in like manner, giving themselves over to impurity, and going after strange flesh, are set forth for an example, suffering the vengeance of eternal fire.
- 8 In the same way these dreamers make the flesh unclean, having no respect for authorities, and say evil of rulers.
Yet in like manner these also in their dreaming defile the flesh, despise authority, and slander celestial beings.
Likewise also these filthy dreamers defile the flesh, despise dominion, and speak evil of dignities.

9 Now when Michael, one of the chief angels, was fighting against the Evil One for the body of Moses, fearing to make use of violent words against him, he only said, May the Lord be your judge.
But Michael, the archangel, when contending with the devil and arguing about the body of Moses, dared not bring against him an abusive condemnation, but said, "May the Lord rebuke you!"

Yet Michael the archangel, when contending with the devil he disputed about the body of Moses, durst not bring against him a railing accusation, but said, The Lord rebuke thee.

10 But these men say evil about such things as they have no knowledge of; and the things of which they have natural knowledge, like beasts without reason, are the cause of their destruction. But these speak evil of whatever things they don't know. What they understand naturally, like the creatures without reason, in these things are they destroyed.

But these speak evil of those things which they know not: but what they know naturally, as brute beasts, in those things they corrupt themselves.

11 A curse on them! They have gone in the way of Cain, running uncontrolled into the error of Balaam for reward, and have come to destruction by saying evil against the Lord, like Korah. Woe to them! For they went in the way of Cain, and ran riotously in the error of Balaam for hire, and perished in Korah's rebellion.

Woe to them! for they have gone in the way of Cain, and run greedily after the error of Balaam for reward, and perished in the gainsaying of Core.

12 These men are unseen rocks at your love-feasts, when they take part in them with you, keepers of sheep who without fear take the food of the sheep; clouds without water rushing before the wind, wasted trees without fruit, twice dead, pulled up by the roots,

These are hidden rocky reefs in your love feasts when they feast with you, shepherds who without fear feed themselves; clouds without water, carried along by winds; autumn leaves without fruit, twice dead, plucked up by the roots;

These are spots in your feasts of charity, when they feast with you, feeding themselves without fear: clouds they are without water, carried about by winds; withered autumnal trees, without fruit, twice dead, plucked out by the roots;

13 Violent waves of the sea, streaming with their shame, wandering stars for whom the darkest night is kept in store for ever.

wild waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, for whom the blackness of darkness has been reserved forever.

Raging waves of the sea, foaming out their own shame; wandering stars, to whom is reserved the blackness of darkness for ever.

- 14 The prophet Enoch, who was the seventh after Adam, said of these men, The Lord came with tens of thousands of his saints,
To these also Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied, saying, "Behold, the Lord came with ten thousands of his holy ones, And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints,
- 15 To be the judge of all, and to give a decision against all those whose lives are displeasing to him, because of the evil acts which they have done, and because of all the hard things which sinners without fear of God have said against him.
to execute judgment on all, and to convict all the ungodly of all their works of ungodliness which they have done in an ungodly way, and of all the hard things which ungodly sinners have spoken against him."
To execute judgment upon all, and to convict all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have impiously committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.
- 16 These are the men who make trouble, ever desiring change, going after evil pleasures, using high-sounding words, respecting men's position in the hope of reward.
These are murmurers and complainers, walking after their lusts (and their mouth speaks proud things), showing respect of persons for the sake of advantage.
These are murmurers, complainers, walking after their own lusts; and their mouth speaketh great swelling words, having men's persons in admiration because of advantage.
- 17 But you, my loved ones, keep in memory the words which were said before by the Apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ,
But you, beloved, remember the words which have been spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ.
But, beloved, remember ye the words which were spoken before by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ;
- 18 How they said to you, In the last days there will be men who, guided by their evil desires, will make sport of holy things.
They said to you that "In the last time there will be mockers, walking after their own ungodly lusts."
That they told you there would be mockers in the last time, who would walk after their own ungodly lusts.
- 19 These are the men who make divisions, natural men, not having the Spirit.
These are they who cause divisions, and are sensual, not having the Spirit.
These are they who separate themselves, sensual, having not the Spirit.

- 20 But you, my loved ones, building yourselves up on your most holy faith, and making prayers in the Holy Spirit,
But you, beloved, keep building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit.
But ye, beloved, building up yourselves on your most holy faith, praying by the Holy Spirit,
- 21 Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for life eternal through the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ.
Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.
Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ to eternal life.
- 22 And have pity on those who are in doubt;
On some have compassion, making a distinction,
And of some have compassion, making a difference:
- 23 And to some give salvation, pulling them out of the fire; and on some have mercy with fear, hating even the clothing which is made unclean by the flesh.
and some save, snatching them out of the fire with fear, hating even the clothing stained by the flesh.
And others save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating even the garment spotted by the flesh.
- 24 Now to him who is able to keep you from falling, and to give you a place in his glory, free from all evil, with great joy,
Now to him who is able to keep them from stumbling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory in great joy,
Now to him that is able to keep you from falling, and to present you faultless before the presence of his glory with exceeding joy,
- 25 To the only God our Saviour, through Jesus Christ our Lord, let us give glory and honour and authority and power, before all time and now and for ever. So be it.
to God our Savior, who alone is wise, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and forever. Amen.
To God the only wise, our Savior, be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now and ever. Amen.
- 1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ which God gave him so that his servants might have knowledge of the things which will quickly take place: and he sent and made it clear by his angel to his servant John;
This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave him to show to his servants the things which must happen soon, which he sent and made known by his angel to his servant, John,
The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him, to show to his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel to his servant John:

- 2 Who gave witness of the word of God, and of the witness of Jesus Christ, even of all the things which he saw.
who testified to God`s word, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, about everything that he saw.
Who bore testimony of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
- 3 A blessing be on the reader, and on those who give ear to the prophet's words, and keep the things which he has put in the book: for the time is near.
Blessed is he who reads and those who hear the words of the prophecy, and keep the things that are written in it, for the time is at hand.
Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.
- 4 John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from him who is and was and is to come; and from the seven Spirits which are before his high seat;
John, to the seven assemblies that are in Asia: Grace to you and peace, from God, who is and who was and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne;
John to the seven churches which are in Asia: Grace be to you, and peace, from him who is, and who was, and who is to come; and from the seven Spirits who are before his throne;
- 5 And from Jesus Christ, the true witness, the first to come back from the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who had love for us and has made us clean from our sins by his blood; and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn of the dead, and the ruler of the kings of the earth. To him who loves us, and washed us from our sins by his blood;
And from Jesus Christ, who is the faithful witness, and the first-begotten of the dead, and the prince of the kings of the earth. To him that loved us, and washed us from our sins in his own blood,
- 6 And has made us to be a kingdom and priests to his God and Father; to him let glory and power be given for ever and ever. So be it.
and he made us to be a kingdom, priests to his God and Father; to him be the glory and the dominion forever and ever. Amen.
And hath made us kings and priests to God and his Father; to him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.
- 7 See, he comes with the clouds, and every eye will see him, and those by whom he was wounded; and all the tribes of the earth will be sorrowing because of him. Yes, so be it.
Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye will see him, including those who pierced him. All the tribes of the earth will mourn over him. Even so, Amen.
Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also who pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

8 I am the First and the Last, says the Lord God who is and was and is to come, the Ruler of all.
"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End," says the Lord God, "who is and who was and who is to come, the Almighty."

I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the ending, saith the Lord, who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty.

9 I, John, your brother, who have a part with you in the trouble and the kingdom and the quiet strength of Jesus, was in the island which is named Patmos, for the word of God and the witness of Jesus.

I John, your brother and partaker with you in oppression and kingdom and perseverance which are in Jesus, was on the isle that is called Patmos because of God`s Word and the testimony of Jesus Christ.

I John, who also am your brother, and companion in tribulation, and in the kingdom and patience of Jesus Christ, was in the isle that is called Patmos, for the word of God, and for the testimony of Jesus Christ.

10 I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and a great voice at my back, as of a horn, came to my ears,

I was in the Spirit on the Lord`s day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, as of a trumpet

I was in the Spirit on the Lord's day, and heard behind me a great voice, as of a trumpet,

11 Saying, What you see, put in a book, and send it to the seven churches; to Ephesus and to Smyrna and to Pergamos and to Thyatira and to Sardis and to Philadelphia and to Laodicea. saying, "What you see, write in a book and send to the seven assemblies: to Ephesus, Smyrna, Pergamum, Thyatira, Sardis, Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

Saying, I am Alpha and Omega, the first and the last: and, What thou seest, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia; to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamos, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea.

12 And turning to see the voice which said these words to me, I saw seven gold vessels with lights burning in them;

I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. Having turned, I saw seven golden lampstands.

And I turned to see the voice that spoke with me. And having turned, I saw seven golden candlesticks;

13 And in the middle of them one like a son of man, clothed with a robe down to his feet, and with a band of gold round his breasts.

And in the midst of the lampstands was one like a son of man, clothed with a robe reaching down to his feet, and with a golden sash around his chest.

And in the midst of the seven candlesticks one like the Son of man, clothed with a garment down to the foot, and girt about the paps with a golden girdle.

- 14 And his head and his hair were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
His head and his hair were white as white wool, like snow. His eyes were like a flame of fire.
His head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow; and his eyes were as a flame of fire;
- 15 And his feet like polished brass, as if it had been burned in a fire; and his voice was as the sound of great waters.
His feet were like burnished brass, as if it had been refined in a furnace. His voice was like the voice of many waters.
And his feet like fine brass, as if they burned in a furnace; and his voice as the sound of many waters.
- 16 And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth came a sharp two-edged sword: and his face was like the sun shining in its strength.
He had seven stars in his right hand. Out of his mouth proceeded a sharp two-edged sword. His face was like the sun shining at its brightest.
And he had in his right hand seven stars: and out of his mouth went a sharp two-edged sword: and his countenance was as the sun shineth in his strength.
- 17 And when I saw him, I went down on my face at his feet as one dead. And he put his right hand on me, saying, Have no fear; I am the first and the last and the Living one;
When I saw him, I fell at his feet like a dead man. He laid his right hand on me, saying, "Don't be afraid. I am the first and the last,
And when I saw him, I fell at his feet as dead. And he laid his right hand upon me, saying to me, Fear not; I am the first and the last:
- 18 And I was dead, and see, I am living for ever, and I have the keys of death and of Hell.
and the Living one. I was dead, and behold, I am alive forevermore. I have the keys of Death and of Hades.
I am he that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive for evermore, Amen; and have the keys of hell and of death.
- 19 Put in writing, then, the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will be after these;
Write therefore the things which you have seen, and the things which are, and the things which will happen hereafter;
Write the things which thou hast seen, and the things which are, and the things which shall be hereafter;

20 The secret of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and of the seven gold vessels with burning lights. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven lights are the seven churches.

the mystery of the seven stars which you saw in my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands. The seven stars are the angels of the seven assemblies. The seven lampstands are seven assemblies.

The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches.

1 To the angel of the church in Ephesus say: These things says he who has the seven stars in his right hand, who is walking in the middle of the seven gold lights:

To the angel of the assembly in Ephesus write: "He who holds the seven stars in his right hand, he who walks in the midst of the seven golden lampstands says these things:

To the angel of the church of Ephesus write; These things saith he that holdeth the seven stars in his right hand, who walketh in the midst of the seven golden candlesticks;

2 I have knowledge of your doings, and of your hard work and long waiting, and that you will not put up with evil men, and have put to the test those who say they are Apostles and are not, and have seen that they are false;

"I know your works, and your toil and perseverance, and that you can't tolerate evil men, and have tested those who call themselves apostles, and they are not, and found them false.

I know thy works, and thy labor, and thy patience, and that thou canst not bear them who are evil; and thou hast tried them who say they are apostles, and are not; and hast found them liars:

3 And you have the power of waiting, and have undergone trouble because of my name, without weariness.

You have perseverance and have endured for my name's sake, and have not grown weary.

And hast borne, and hast patience, and for my name's sake hast labored, and hast not fainted.

4 But I have this against you, that you are turned away from your first love.

But I have this against you, that you left your first love.

Nevertheless, I have somewhat against thee, because thou hast left thy first love.

5 So keep in mind where you were at first, and be changed in heart and do the first works; or I will come to you, and will take away your light from its place, if your hearts are not changed.
Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do the first works; or else I am coming to you, and will move your lampstand out of its place, unless you repent.

Remember therefore from whence thou hast fallen, and repent, and do the first works; or else I will come to thee quickly, and will remove thy candlestick out of its place, except thou repent.

6 But at least you have the credit of hating the works of the Nicolaitans, as I do.

But this you have, that you hate the works of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

But this thou hast, that thou hatest the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate.

7 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give of the fruit of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of God.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes I will give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the Paradise of my God.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

8 And to the angel of the church in Smyrna say: These things says the first and the last, who was dead and is living:

"To the angel of the assembly in Smyrna write: "The first and the last, who was dead, and has come to life says these things:

And to the angel of the church in Smyrna, write; These things saith the first and the last, who was dead, and is alive;

9 I have knowledge of your troubles and how poor you are (but you have true wealth), and the evil words of those who say they are Jews, and are not, but are a Synagogue of Satan.

"I know your oppression, and your poverty (but you are rich), and the blasphemy of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but are a synagogue of Satan.

I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them who say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.

- 10 Have no fear of the things which you will have to undergo: see, the Evil One will send some of you into prison, so that you may be put to the test; and you will have great trouble for ten days. Be true till death, and I will give you the crown of life.
Don't be afraid of the things which you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, that you may be tested; and you will have oppression for ten days. Be faithful to death, and I will give you the crown of life.
Fear none of those things which thou shalt suffer. Behold, the devil will cast some of you into prison, that ye may be tried; and ye shall have tribulation ten days. Be thou faithful to death, and I will give thee a crown of life.
- 11 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. He who overcomes will not come under the power of the second death.
He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. He who overcomes won't be hurt by the second death. He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; He that overcometh, shall not be hurt by the second death.
- 12 And to the angel of the church in Pergamos say: These things says he who has the sharp two-edged sword:
"To the angel of the assembly in Pergamum write: "He who has the sharp two-edged sword says these things:
And to the angel of the church in Pergamos write; These things saith he who hath the sharp sword with two edges;
- 13 I have knowledge that your living-place is where Satan has his seat: and you are true to my name, and were not turned away from your faith in me, even in the days of Antipas, my true witness, who was put to death among you, where Satan has his place.
"I know your works and where you dwell, where Satan's throne is. You hold firmly to my name, and didn't deny my faith, even in the days of Antipas my witness, my faithful one, who was killed among you, where Satan dwells.
I know thy works, and where thou dwellest, even where Satan's seat is: and thou holdest fast my name, and hast not denied my faith, even in those days wherein Antipas was my faithful martyr, who was slain among you, where Satan dwelleth.
- 14 But I have some things against you, because you have with you those who keep the teaching of Balaam, by whose suggestion Balak made the children of Israel go out of the right way, taking food which was offered to false gods, and going after the desires of the flesh.
But I have a few things against you, because you have there some who hold the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to throw a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit sexual immorality.
But I have a few things against thee, because thou hast there them that hold the doctrine of Balaam, who taught Balak to cast a stumbling-block before the children of Israel, to eat things sacrificed to idols, and to commit lewdness.

- 15 And you have those who keep the teaching of the Nicolaitans.
So you also have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans in the same way.
So hast thou also them that hold the doctrine of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate.
- 16 See, then, that you have a change of heart; or I will come to you quickly, and will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.
Repent therefore, or else I am coming to you quickly, and I will make war against them with the sword of my mouth.
Repent; or else I will come to thee quickly, and will fight against them with the sword of my mouth.
- 17 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches. To him who overcomes I will give of the secret manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name, of which no one has knowledge but he to whom it is given.
He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies. To him who overcomes, to him will I give of the hidden manna, and I will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no one knows but he who receives it.
He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches; To him that overcometh will I give to eat of the hidden manna, and will give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name written, which no man knoweth, he excepted, that receiveth it.
- 18 And to the angel of the church in Thyatira say: These things says the Son of God, whose eyes are like a flame of fire, and his feet like polished brass:
"To the angel of the assembly in Thyatira write: "The Son of God, who has his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like burnished brass, says these things:
And to the angel of the church in Thyatira write; These things saith the Son of God, who hath his eyes like a flame of fire, and his feet are like fine brass;
- 19 I have knowledge of your works, and your love and faith and help and strength in trouble, and that your last works are more than the first.
I know your works, your love, faith, service, patient endurance, and that your last works are more than the first.
I know thy works, and charity, and service, and faith, and thy patience, and thy works; and the last to be more than the first:

- 20 But I have this against you, that you let the woman Jezebel say she is a prophet and give false teaching, making my servants go after the desires of the flesh and take food offered to false gods.
But I have this against you, that you tolerate your woman, Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess. She teaches and seduces my servants to commit sexual immorality, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.
Notwithstanding, I have a few things against thee, because thou sufferest that woman Jezebel, who calleth herself a prophetess, to teach and to seduce my servants to commit lewdness, and to eat things sacrificed to idols.
- 21 And I gave her time for a change of heart, but she has no mind to give up her unclean ways.
I gave her time to repent, but she refuses to repent of her sexual immorality.
And I gave her time to repent of her lewdness, and she repented not.
- 22 See, I will put her into a bed, and those who make themselves unclean with her, into great trouble, if they go on with her works.
Behold, I will throw her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great oppression, unless they repent of her works.
Behold, I will cast her into a bed, and them that commit adultery with her into great tribulation, except they repent of their deeds.
- 23 And I will put her children to death; and all the churches will see that I am he who makes search into the secret thoughts and hearts of men: and I will give to every one of you the reward of your works.
I will kill her children with Death, and all the assemblies will know that I am he who searches the minds and hearts. I will give to each one of you according to your deeds.
And I will kill her children with death; and all the churches shall know that I am he who searcheth the reins and hearts: and I will give to every one of you according to your works.
- 24 But to you I say, to the rest in Thyatira, even to those who have not this teaching, and have no knowledge of the secrets of Satan, as they say; I put on you no other weight.
But to you I say, to the rest who are in Thyatira, as many as don't have this teaching, who don't know what some call `the deep things of Satan,` to you I say, I don't lay on you any other burden.
But to you I say, and to the rest in Thyatira, As many as have not this doctrine, and who have not known the depths of Satan, as they speak; I will put upon you no other burden:

- 25 But what you have, keep safe till I come.
Nevertheless that which you have, hold firmly until I come.
But that which ye have already hold fast till I come.
- 26 He who overcomes, and keeps my works to the end, to him I will give rule over the nations,
He who overcomes, and he who keeps my works to the end, to him will I give authority over the nations.
And he that overcometh, and keepeth my works to the end, to him will I give power over the nations:
- 27 And he will be ruling them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of the potter they will be broken, even as I have power from my Father:
He will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them like clay pots; as I also have received of my Father:
(And he shall rule them with a rod of iron; as the vessels of a potter shall they be broken to shivers:) even as I received of my Father.
- 28 And I will give him the morning star.
and I will give him the morning star.
And I will give him the morning-star.
- 29 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.
He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.
He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.
- 1 And to the angel of the church in Sardis say: These things says he who has the seven Spirits of God and the seven stars: I have knowledge of your works, that you seem to be living but are dead.
"And to the angel of the assembly in Sardis write: He who has the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars says these things: "I know your works, that you have a reputation of being alive, but you are dead.
And to the angel of the church in Sardis write; These things saith he that hath the seven Spirits of God, and the seven stars; I know thy works, that thou hast a name, that thou livest, and art dead.

2 Be on the watch, and make strong the rest of the things which are near to death; because as judged by me your works have not come up to God's measure.
Wake up, and establish the things that remain, which were ready to die, for I have found no works of yours perfected before my God.

Be watchful, and strengthen the things which remain, that are ready to die: for I have not found thy works perfect before God.

3 Keep in mind, then, the teaching which was given to you, and be ruled by it and have a change of heart. If then you do not keep watch, I will come like a thief, and you will have no knowledge of the hour when I will come on you.

Remember therefore how you have received and heard. Keep it, and repent. If therefore you won't watch, I will come as a thief, and you won't know what hour I will come on you.

Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.

4 But you have some names in Sardis who have kept clean their robes; and as a reward they will go in white with me.

Nevertheless you have a few names in Sardis that did not defile their garments. They will walk with me in white, for they are worthy.

Thou hast a few names even in Sardis which have not defiled their garments; and they shall walk with me in white: for they are worthy.

5 He who overcomes will be dressed in white, and I will not take his name from the book of life, and I will give witness to his name before my Father, and before his angels.

He who overcomes will be arrayed like this in white garments, and I will in no way blot his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

He that overcometh, the same shall be clothed in white raiment; and I will not blot out his name out of the book of life, but I will confess his name before my Father, and before his angels.

6 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.

He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.

He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.

- 7 And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia say: These things says he who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, opening the door so that it may be shut by no one, and shutting it so that it may be open to no one.
"To the angel of the assembly in Philadelphia write: "He who is holy, he who is true, he who has the key of David, he who opens and no one can shut, and that shuts and no one opens, says these things:
And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia write; These things saith he that is holy, he that is true, he that hath the key of David, he that openeth, and no man shutteth; and shutteth, and no man openeth:
- 8 I have knowledge of your works (see, I have put before you an open door which may be shut by no one), and that you have a little strength, and have kept my word, and have been true to my name.
"I know your works (behold, I have set before you an open door, which no one can shut), that you have a little power, and kept my word, and didn't deny my name.
I know thy works: behold, I have set before thee an open door, and no man can shut it: for thou hast a little strength, and hast kept my word, and hast not denied my name.
- 9 See, I will make those of the Synagogue of Satan who say they are Jews, and are not, but say what is false; I will make them come and give worship before your feet, and see my love for you.
Behold, I give of the synagogue of Satan, of those who say they are Jews, and they are not, but lie. Behold, I will make them to come and worship before your feet, and to know that I have loved you.
Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, who say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.
- 10 Because you have kept my word in quiet strength, I will keep you from the hour of testing which is coming on all the world, to put to the test those who are on earth.
Because you kept the word of my patience, I also will keep you from the hour of testing, that which is to come on the whole world, to test those who dwell on the earth.
Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.
- 11 I come quickly: keep that which you have, so that no one may take your crown.
I come quickly. Hold firmly that which you have, so that no one takes your crown.
Behold, I come quickly: hold that fast which thou hast, that no man take thy crown.

- 12 Him who overcomes I will make a pillar in the house of my God, and he will go out no more: and I will put on him the name of my God, and the name of the town of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my new name.
He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will go out from there no more. I will write on him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, the new Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and my own new name.
Him that overcometh, will I make a pillar in the temple of my God, and he shall go out no more: and I will write upon him the name of my God, and the name of the city of my God, which is new Jerusalem, which cometh down out of heaven from my God: and I will write upon him my new name.
- 13 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.
He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies.
He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.
- 14 And to the angel of the church in Laodicea say: These things says the true and certain witness, the head of God's new order:
"To the angel of the assembly in Laodicea write: "The Amen, the Faithful and True Witness, the Head of God's creation, says these things:
And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans write; These things saith the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the beginning of the creation of God;
- 15 I have knowledge of your works, that you are not cold or warm: it would be better if you were cold or warm.
"I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish you were cold or hot.
I know thy works, that thou art neither cold nor hot: I would thou wert cold or hot.
- 16 So because you are not one thing or the other, I will have no more to do with you.
So, because you are lukewarm, and neither hot nor cold, I will vomit you out of my mouth.
So then, because thou art luke-warm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit thee out of my mouth:
- 17 For you say, I have wealth, and have got together goods and land, and have need of nothing; and you are not conscious of your sad and unhappy condition, that you are poor and blind and without clothing.
Because you say, `I am rich, and have gotten riches, and have need of nothing;` and don't know that you are the wretched one, miserable, poor, blind, and naked;
Because thou sayest, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; and knowest not that thou art wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked:

- 18 If you are wise you will get from me gold tested by fire, so that you may have true wealth; and white robes to put on, so that your shame may not be seen; and oil for your eyes, so that you may see.
I counsel you to buy from me gold refined by fire, that you may become rich; and white garments, that you may clothe yourself, and that the shame of your nakedness may not be revealed; and eye salve to anoint your eyes, that you may see.
I counsel thee to buy of me gold tried in the fire, that thou mayest be rich; and white raiment, that thou mayest be clothed, and that the shame of thy nakedness may not appear; and anoint thy eyes with eye-salve, that thou mayest see.
- 19 To all those who are dear to me, I give sharp words and punishment: then with all your heart have sorrow for your evil ways.
As many as I love, I reprove and chasten. Be zealous therefore, and repent.
As many as I love, I rebuke and chasten: be zealous therefore, and repent.
- 20 See, I am waiting at the door and giving the sign; if my voice comes to any man's ears and he makes the door open, I will come in to him, and will take food with him and he with me.
Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him, and will dine with him, and he with me.
Behold, I stand at the door, and knock: If any man shall hear my voice, and open the door, I will come in to him, and will sup with him, and he with me.
- 21 To him who overcomes I will give a place with me on my high seat, even as I overcame, and am seated with my Father on his high seat.
He who overcomes, I will give to him to sit down with me on my throne, as I also overcame, and sat down with my Father on his throne.
To him that overcometh will I grant to sit with me on my throne, even as I also overcame, and am set down with my Father on his throne.
- 22 He who has ears, let him give ear to what the Spirit says to the churches.
He who has an ear, let him hear what the Spirit says to the assemblies."
He that hath an ear, let him hear what the Spirit saith to the churches.
- 1 After these things I saw a door open in heaven, and the first voice came to my ears, like the sound of a horn, saying, Come up here, and I will make clear to you the things which are to come.
After these things I looked and saw a door opened in heaven, and the first voice that I heard, like a trumpet speaking with me, was one saying, "Come up here, and I will show you the things which must happen after this."
After this I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard, was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will show thee things which must be hereafter.

- 2 Straight away I was in the Spirit: and I saw a high seat in heaven, and one was seated on it;
Immediately I was in the Spirit. Behold, there was a throne set in heaven, and one sitting on the throne
And immediately I was in the spirit: and behold, a throne was set in heaven, and one sat on the throne.
- 3 And to my eyes he was like a jasper and a sardius stone: and there was an arch of light round the high seat, like an emerald.
that looked like a jasper stone and a sardius. There was a rainbow around the throne, like an emerald to look at.
And he that sat was in appearance like a jasper and a sardine stone: and there was a rainbow around the throne in sight like an emerald.
- 4 And round about the high seat were four and twenty seats: and on them I saw four and twenty rulers seated, clothed in white robes; and on their heads crowns of gold.
Around the throne were twenty-four thrones. On the thrones were twenty-four elders sitting, dressed in white garments, with crowns of gold on their heads.
And around the throne were four and twenty seats; and upon the seats I saw four and twenty elders sitting, clothed in white raiment; and they had on their heads crowns of gold.
- 5 And out of the high seat came flames and voices and thunders. And seven lights of fire were burning before the high seat, which are the seven Spirits of God;
Out of the throne proceed lightnings, sounds, and thunders. There were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.
And out of the throne proceeded lightnings and thunderings and voices. And there were seven lamps of fire burning before the throne, which are the seven Spirits of God.
- 6 And before the high seat there was, as it seemed, a clear sea of glass; and in the middle of the high seat, and round about it, four beasts full of eyes round about.
Before the throne was something like a sea of glass, like a crystal. In the midst of the throne, and around the throne were four living creatures full of eyes before and behind.
And before the throne there was a sea of glass like crystal: And in the midst of the throne, and around the throne, were four living beings full of eyes before and behind.
- 7 And the first beast was like a lion, and the second like an ox, and the third had a face like a man, and the fourth was like an eagle in flight.
The first creature was like a lion, and the second creature like a calf, and the third creature had a face like a man, and the fourth creature was like a flying eagle.
And the first living being was like a lion, and the second living being like a calf, and the third living being had a face as a man, and the fourth living being was like a flying eagle.

- 8 And the four beasts, having every one of them six wings, are full of eyes round about and inside: and without resting day and night, they say, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God, Ruler of all, who was and is and is to come.
and the four living creatures, having each one of them six wings, are full of eyes around about and within. They have no rest day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God, the Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come.
And the four living beings had each of them six wings about him; and they were full of eyes within: and they rest not day and night, saying, Holy, holy, holy, Lord God Almighty, who was, and is, and is to come.
- 9 And when the beasts give glory and honour to him who is seated on the high seat, to him who is living for ever and ever,
When the living creatures give glory, honor, and thanks to him who sits on the throne, to him who lives forever and ever,
And when those living beings give glory, and honor, and thanks to him that sat on the throne, who liveth for ever and ever,
- 10 The four and twenty rulers go down on their faces before him who is seated on the high seat, and give worship to him who is living for ever and ever, and take off their crowns before the high seat, saying, the twenty-four elders fall down before him who sits on the throne, and worship him who lives forever and ever, and will throw their crowns before the throne, saying,
The four and twenty elders fall down before him that sat on the throne, and worship him that liveth for ever and ever, and cast their crowns before the throne, saying,
- 11 It is right, our Lord and our God, for you to have glory and honour and power: because by you were all things made, and by your desire they came into being.
"Worthy are you, our Lord and our God, to receive the glory, the honor, and the power, for you created all things, and because of your desire they existed, and were created."
Thou art worthy, O Lord, to receive glory, and honor, and power: for thou hast created all things, and for thy pleasure they are and were created.
- 1 And I saw in the right hand of him who was seated on the high seat, a book with writing inside it and on the back, shut with seven stamps of wax.
I saw, in the right hand of him who sat on the throne, a book written within and on the back, sealed shut with seven seals.
And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.
- 2 And I saw a strong angel saying in a loud voice, Who is able to make the book open, and to undo its stamps?
I saw a mighty angel proclaiming with a loud voice, "Who is worthy to open the book, and to break its seals?"
And I saw a strong angel proclaiming with a loud voice, Who is worthy to open the book, and to loose its seals?

- 3 And no one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to get the book open, or to see what was in it.
No one in heaven, or on the earth, or under the earth, was able to open the book, or to look in it.
And no man in heaven, nor in earth, neither under the earth, was able to open the book, neither to look upon it.
- 4 And I was very sad, because there was no one able to get the book open or to see what was in it.
And I wept much, because no one was found worthy to open the book, or to look in it.
And I wept much, because no man was found worthy to open, and to read the book, neither to look upon it.
- 5 And one of the rulers said to me, Do not be sad: see, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome, and has power to undo the book and its seven stamps.
One of the elders said to me, "Don't weep. Behold, the Lion who is of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, has overcome to open the book and its seven seals."
And one of the elders saith to me, Weep not: behold, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, hath prevailed to open the book, and to loose its seven seals.
- 6 And I saw in the middle of the high seat and of the four beasts, and in the middle of the rulers, a Lamb in his place, which seemed as if it had been put to death, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent out into all the earth.
I saw in the midst of the throne and of the four living creatures, and in the midst of the elders, a Lamb standing, as though it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God, sent forth into all the earth.
And I beheld, and lo, in the midst of the throne, and of the four living beings, and in the midst of the elders stood a Lamb as it had been slain, having seven horns, and seven eyes, which are the seven Spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.
- 7 And he came and took it out of the right hand of him who was seated on the high seat.
Then he came, and he took it out of the right hand of him who sat on the throne.
And he came and took the book out of the right hand of him that sat upon the throne.
- 8 And when he had taken the book, the four beasts and the four and twenty rulers went down on their faces before the Lamb, having every one an instrument of music, and gold vessels full of perfumes, which are the prayers of the saints.
Now when he had taken the book, the four living creatures and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one having a harp, and golden bowls full of incense, which are the prayers of the saints.
And when he had taken the book, the four living beings, and four and twenty elders fell down before the Lamb, having every one of them harps, and golden vials full of odors, which are the prayers of saints.

- 9 And their voices are sounding in a new song, saying, It is right for you to take the book and to make it open: for you were put to death and have made an offering to God of your blood for men of every tribe, and language, and people, and nation,
They sang a new song, saying, "You are worthy to take the book, And to open its seals: For you were killed, And bought us for God with your blood, Out of every tribe, language, people, and nation,
And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book, and to open the seals of it: for thou wast slain, and hast redeemed us to God by thy blood out of every kindred, and language, and people, and nation;
- 10 And have made them a kingdom and priests to our God, and they are ruling on the earth.
And made them kings and priests to our God, And they reign on earth."
And hast made us to our God kings and priests: and we shall reign on the earth.
- 11 And I saw, and there came to my ears the sound of a great number of angels round about the high seat and the beasts and the rulers; and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;
I saw, and I heard a voice of many angels around the throne, the living creatures, and the elders; and the number of them was ten thousands of ten thousands, and thousands of thousands;
And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels around the throne, and the living beings, and the elders:
and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands;
- 12 Saying with a great voice, It is right to give to the Lamb who was put to death, power and wealth and wisdom and strength and honour and glory and blessing.
saying with a loud voice, "Worthy is the Lamb who has been killed to receive the power, riches, wisdom, might, honor, glory, and blessing!"
Saying with a loud voice, Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honor, and glory, and blessing.
- 13 And to my ears came the voice of everything in heaven and on earth and under the earth and in the sea, and of all things which are in them, saying, To him who is seated on the high seat, and to the Lamb, may blessing and honour and glory and power be given for ever and ever.
I heard every created thing which is in heaven, on the earth, under the earth, on the sea, and everything in them, saying, "To him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb be the blessing, the honor, the glory, and the dominion, forever and ever. Amen."
And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, I heard saying, Blessing, and honor, and glory, and power, be to him that sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb for ever and ever.

14 And the four beasts said, So be it. And the rulers went down on their faces and gave worship.
The four living creatures said, "Amen!" The elders fell down and worshipped.
And the four living beings said, Amen. And the four and twenty elders fell down and worshiped him that liveth for ever and ever.

1 And I saw when the Lamb undid one of the stamps, and the voice of one of the four beasts came to my ears, saying as with a voice of thunder, Come and see.
I saw that the Lamb opened one of the seven seals, and I heard one of the four living creatures saying, as with a voice of thunder, "Come and see!"
And I saw when the Lamb opened one of the seals, and I heard, as it were the noise of thunder, one of the four living beings saying, Come and see.

2 And I saw a white horse, and he who was seated on it had a bow; and there was given to him a crown: and he went out with power to overcome.
I saw, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it had a bow. A crown was given to him, and he came forth conquering, and to conquer.
And I saw, and behold, a white horse: and he that sat on him had a bow; and a crown was given to him: and he went forth conquering, and to conquer.

3 And when the second stamp was undone, the voice of the second beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see.
When he opened the second seal, I heard the second living creature saying, "Come!"
And when he had opened the second seal, I heard the second living being say, Come and see.

4 And another horse came out, a red horse; and it was given to him who was seated on it to take peace from the earth, so that people might put one another to death: and there was given to him a great sword.
Another came forth, a red horse. To him who sat on it was given to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another. There was given to him a great sword.
And there went out another horse that was red: and power was given to him that sat upon him to take peace from the earth, and that they should kill one another: and there was given to him a great sword.

5 And when the third stamp was undone, the voice of the third beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see. And I saw a black horse; and he who was seated on it had scales in his hand.
When he opened the third seal, I heard the third living creature saying, "Come and see!" I saw, and behold, a black horse. He who sat on it had a balance in his hand.
And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third living being say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo, a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand.

6 And a voice came to my ears, from the middle of the four beasts, saying, A measure of grain for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny: and see that you do no damage to the oil and the wine.

I heard a voice in the midst of the four living creatures saying, "A choenix of wheat for a denarius, and three choenix of barley for a denarius! Don't damage the oil and the wine!"

And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings say, A measure of wheat for a penny, and three measures of barley for a penny; and see thou hurt not the oil and the wine.

7 And when the fourth stamp was undone, the voice of the fourth beast came to my ears, saying, Come and see.

When he opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living creature saying, "Come and see!"

And when he had opened the fourth seal, I heard the voice of the fourth living being say, Come and see.

8 And I saw a grey horse, and the name of him who was seated on it was Death; and Hell came after him. And there was given to them authority over the fourth part of the earth, to put to destruction by the sword, and by taking away their food, and by death, and by the beasts of the earth.

I saw, and behold, a pale horse. He who sat on him, his name was Death. Hades followed with him. Authority over one fourth of the earth, to kill with the sword, with famine, with death, and by the wild animals of the earth was given to them.

And I looked, and behold, a pale horse: and his name that sat on him was Death, and hell followed with him. And power was given to them over the fourth part of the earth, to kill with sword, and with hunger, and with death, and with the beasts of the earth.

9 And when the fifth stamp was undone, I saw under the altar the souls of those who had been put to death for the word of God, and for the witness which they kept.

When he opened the fifth seal, I saw underneath the altar the souls of those who had been killed for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held.

And when he had opened the fifth seal, I saw under the altar the souls of them that were slain for the word of God, and for the testimony which they held:

10 And they gave a great cry, saying, How long will it be, O Ruler, holy and true, before you take your place as judge and give punishment for our blood to those on the earth?

They cried with a loud voice, saying, "How long, Master, the holy and true, do you not judge and avenge our blood on those who dwell on the earth?"

And they cried with a loud voice, saying, How long, O Lord, holy and true, dost thou not judge and avenge our blood on them that dwell on the earth?

- 11 And there was given to every one a white robe, and they were ordered to take their rest for a little time, till the number was complete of the other servants, their brothers, who would be put to death, even as they had been.
There was given to each one of them a white robe. It was said to them that they should rest yet for a little time, until their fellow servants and their brothers, who would also be killed even as they were, had been fulfilled.
And white robes were given to every one of them; and it was said to them, that they should rest yet for a little season, until their fellow-servants also and their brethren, that should be killed as they were, should be fulfilled.
- 12 And I saw when the sixth stamp was undone, and there was a great earth-shock; and the sun became black as haircloth, and all the moon became as blood;
I saw when he opened the sixth seal, and there was a great earthquake. The sun became black as sackcloth made of hair, and the whole moon became as blood.
And I beheld when he had opened the sixth seal, and lo, there was a great earthquake; and the sun became black as sackcloth of hair, and the moon became as blood:
- 13 And the stars of heaven were falling to the earth, like green fruit from a tree before the force of a great wind.
The stars of the sky fell to the earth, as a fig tree drops its unripe figs when it is shaken by a great wind.
And the stars of heaven fell to the earth, even as a fig-tree casteth its untimely figs, when it is shaken by a mighty wind.
- 14 And the heaven was taken away like the roll of a book when it is rolled up; and all the mountains and islands were moved out of their places.
The sky was removed as a scroll when it is rolled up. Every mountain and island were moved out of their places.
And the heaven departed as a scroll when it is rolled together; and every mountain and isle were moved out of their places.
- 15 And the kings of the earth, and the rulers, and the chief captains, and the men of wealth, and the strong, and every servant and free man, took cover in the holes and the rocks of the mountains;
The kings of the earth, the princes, the commanding officers, the rich, the strong, and every slave and freeman, hid themselves in the caves and in the rocks of the mountains.
And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich men, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bond-man, and every free-man, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains;

16 And they say to the mountains and to the rocks, Come down on us, covering us from the face of him who is seated on the high seat, and from the wrath of the Lamb:
They told the mountains and the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him who sits on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb,
And said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us, and hide us from the face of him that sitteth on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb:

17 For the great day of their wrath is come, and who may keep his place?
for the great day of his wrath has come; and who is able to stand?"
For the great day of his wrath is come; and who will be able to stand?

1 After this I saw four angels in their places at the four points of the earth, keeping back the four winds in their hands, so that there might be no moving of the wind on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.
After this, I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow on the earth, or on the sea, or on any tree.
And after these things I saw four angels standing on the four corners of the earth, holding the four winds of the earth, that the wind should not blow on the earth, nor on the sea, nor on any tree.

2 And I saw another angel coming up from the east, having the mark of the living God: and he said with a great voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to do damage to the earth and the sea,
I saw another angel ascend from the sunrise, having the seal of the living God. He cried with a loud voice to the four angels to whom it was given to harm the earth and the sea,
And I saw another angel ascending from the east, having the seal of the living God: and he cried with a loud voice to the four angels, to whom it was given to hurt the earth and the sea,

3 Do no damage to the earth, or the sea, or the trees, till we have put a mark on the servants of our God.
saying, "Don't harm the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, until we have sealed the bondservants of our God on their foreheads!"
Saying, Hurt not the earth, neither the sea, nor the trees, till we have sealed the servants of our God in their foreheads.

4 And there came to my ears the number of those who had the mark on their brows, a hundred and forty-four thousand, who were marked out of every tribe of the people of Israel.
I heard the number of those who were sealed, one hundred forty-four thousand, sealed out of every tribe of the children of Israel:
And I heard the number of them who were sealed: and there were sealed a hundred and forty four thousand of all the tribes of the children of Israel.

5 Of the tribe of Judah were marked twelve thousand: of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand: of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Gad twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Judah were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Reuben were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Gad were sealed twelve thousand.

6 Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand: of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand: of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Asher twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Manasseh twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Asher were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Naphtalim were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Manasses were sealed twelve thousand.

7 Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand: of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand: of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand:
Of the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Levi twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand,
Of the tribe of Simeon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Levi were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Isachar were sealed twelve thousand.

8 Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand: of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand: of the tribe of Benjamin were marked twelve thousand.
Of the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand, Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.
Of the tribe of Zabulon were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Joseph were sealed twelve thousand. Of the tribe of Benjamin were sealed twelve thousand.

9 After these things I saw a great army of people more than might be numbered, out of every nation and of all tribes and peoples and languages, taking their places before the high seat and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, and with branches in their hands,
After these things I saw, and behold, a great multitude, which no man could number, out of every nation and of all tribes, peoples, and languages, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, with palm branches in their hands.
After this I beheld, and lo, a great multitude, which no man could number, of all nations, and kindreds, and people, and languages, stood before the throne, and before the Lamb, clothed with white robes, and palms in their hands;

10 Saying with a loud voice, Salvation to our God who is seated on the high seat, and to the Lamb.
They cried with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation be to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb."
And cried with a loud voice, saying, Salvation to our God who sitteth upon the throne, and to the Lamb.

11 And all the angels were round about the high seat, and about the rulers and the four beasts; and they went down on their faces before the high seat, and gave worship to God, saying,
All the angels were standing around the throne, the elders, and the four living creatures; and they fell before the throne on their faces, and worshipped God,
And all the angels stood around the throne, and about the elders and the four living beings, and fell before the throne on their faces, and worshiped God, 12 So be it. Let blessing and glory and wisdom and praise and honour and power and strength be given to our God for ever and ever. So be it.

saying, "Amen! Blessing, glory, wisdom, thanksgiving, honor, power, and might, be to our God forever and ever! Amen."
Saying, Amen: Blessing, and glory, and wisdom, and thanksgiving, and honor, and power, and might, be to our God for ever and ever. Amen.

13 And one of the rulers made answer, saying to me, These who have on white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?
One of the elders answered, saying to me, "These who are arrayed in white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?"
And one of the elders answered, saying to me, Who are these that are arrayed in white robes? and whence came they?

14 And I said to him, My lord, you have knowledge. And he said to me, These are they who came through the great testing, and their robes have been washed and made white in the blood of the Lamb.
I told him, "My lord, you know." He said to me, "These are those who came out of the great oppression. They washed their robes, and made them white in the Lamb's blood."
And I said to him, Sir, thou knowest. And he said to me, These are they who came out of great tribulation, and have washed their robes, and made them white in the blood of the Lamb.

15 This is why they are before the high seat of God; and they are his servants day and night in his house: and he who is seated on the high seat will be a tent over them.
Therefore are they before the throne of God, they serve him day and night in his temple. He who sits on the throne will spread his tent over them.
Therefore they are before the throne of God, and serve him day and night in his temple: and he that sitteth on the throne will dwell among them.

16 They will never be in need of food or drink: and they will never again be troubled by the burning heat of the sun:
They will never be hungry, neither thirsty any more; neither will the sun beat on them, nor any heat;
They shall hunger no more, neither thirst any more; neither shall the sun light on them, nor any heat.

17 For the Lamb who is on the high seat will be their keeper and their guide to fountains of living water: and God will make glad their eyes for ever.
for the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will be their shepherd, and will guide them to living springs of waters. God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."

For the Lamb who is in the midst of the throne will feed them, and will lead them to living fountains of waters: and God will wipe away all tears from their eyes.

1 And when the seventh stamp was undone there was quiet in heaven for about half an hour.

When he opened the seventh seal, there followed a silence in heaven for about half an hour.

And when he had opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven about the space of half an hour.

2 And I saw the seven angels who had their place before God; and seven horns were given to them.

I saw the seven angels who stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them.

And I saw the seven angels who stood before God; and to them were given seven trumpets.

3 And another angel came and took his place at the altar, having a gold vessel for burning perfume; and there was given to him much perfume, so that he might put it with the prayers of all the saints on the gold altar which was before the high seat.

Another angel came and stood over the altar, having a golden censer. Much incense was given to him, that he should add it to the prayers of all the saints on the golden altar which was before the throne.

And another angel came and stood at the altar, having a golden censer; and there was given to him much incense, that he should offer it with the prayers of all saints upon the golden altar which was before the throne.

4 And the smoke of the perfume, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

The smoke of the incense, with the prayers of the saints, went up before God out of the angel's hand.

And the smoke of the incense, which came with the prayers of the saints, ascended before God out of the angel's hand.

5 And the angel took the vessel; and he made it full of the fire of the altar, and sent it down on the earth: and there came thunders and voices and flames and a shaking of the earth.

The angel took the censer, and he filled it with the fire of the altar, and threw it on the earth. There followed thunders, sounds, lightnings, and an earthquake.

And the angel took the censer, and filled it with fire of the altar, and cast it upon the earth: and there were voices, and thunderings, and lightnings, and an earthquake.

- 6 And the seven angels who had the seven horns made ready for sounding them.
The seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets prepared themselves to sound.
- 7 And at the sounding of the first, a rain of ice and fire, mixed with blood, was sent on the earth: and a third part of the earth, and of the trees, and all green grass was burned up.
The first sounded, and there followed hail and fire, mingled with blood, and they were thrown on the earth. One third of the earth was burnt up, and one third of the trees were burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
The first angel sounded, and there followed hail and fire mingled with blood, and they were cast upon the earth: and the third part of trees was burnt up, and all green grass was burnt up.
- 8 And at the sounding of the second angel, it was as if a great mountain burning with fire was sent into the sea: and a third part of the sea became blood,
The second angel sounded, and something like a great mountain burning with fire was thrown into the sea. One third of the sea became blood,
And the second angel sounded, and as it were a great mountain burning with fire was cast into the sea: and the third part of the sea became blood;
- 9 And destruction came on a third part of the living things which were in the sea, and on a third part of the ships.
and one third of the creatures which were in the sea died, those who had life. One third of the ships were destroyed.
And the third part of the creatures which were in the sea, and had life, died; and the third part of the ships were destroyed.
- 10 And at the sounding of the third angel, there went down from heaven a great star, burning like a flame, and it came on a third part of the rivers, and on the fountains of water.
The third angel sounded, and a great star fell from the sky, burning like a torch, and it fell on one third of the rivers, and on the springs of the waters.
And the third angel sounded, and there fell a great star from heaven, burning as it were a lamp, and it fell upon the third part of the rivers, and upon the fountains of waters;
- 11 And the name of the star is Wormwood: and a third part of the waters became bitter; and a number of men came to their end because of the waters, for they were made bitter.
The name of the star is called "Wormwood." One third of the waters became wormwood. Many men died from the waters, because they were made bitter.
And the name of the star is called Wormwood: and the third part of the waters became wormwood; and many men died by the waters, because they were made bitter.

- 12 And at the sounding of the fourth angel, a third part of the sun, and of the moon, and of the stars was made dark, so that there was no light for a third part of the day and of the night.
The fourth angel sounded, and one third of the sun was struck, and one third of the moon, and one third of the stars; so that one third of them would be darkened, and the day wouldn't shine for one third of it, and the night in the same way.
And the fourth angel sounded, and the third part of the sun was smitten, and the third part of the moon, and the third part of the stars; so that the third part of them was darkened, and the day shone not for a third part of it, and the night likewise.
- 13 And there came to my ears the cry of an eagle in flight in the middle of heaven, saying with a great voice, Trouble, trouble, trouble, to all on the earth, because of the other voices of the horns of the three angels, whose sounding is still to come.
I saw, and I heard an eagle, flying in mid heaven, saying with a loud voice, "Woe! Woe! Woe for those who dwell on the earth, because of the other voices of the trumpets of the three angels, who are yet to sound."
And I beheld, and heard an angel flying through the midst of heaven, saying with a loud voice, Woe, woe, woe, to the inhabitants of the earth, by reason of the other voices of the trumpet of the three angels, which are yet to sound!
- 1 And at the sounding of the fifth angel I saw a star falling from heaven to the earth: and there was given to him the key of the great deep.
The fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star from the sky fallen to the earth. The key to the pit of the abyss was given to him.
And the fifth angel sounded, and I saw a star fall from heaven to the earth: and to him was given the key of the bottomless pit.
- 2 And he made the great deep open and a smoke went up from it, like the smoke of a great oven; and the sun and the air were made dark because of the smoke.
He opened the pit of the abyss, and smoke went up out of the pit, like the smoke from a great furnace. The sun and the air were darkened because of the smoke from the pit.
And he opened the bottomless pit; and there arose a smoke out of the pit, as the smoke of a great furnace; and the sun and the air were darkened by reason of the smoke of the pit.
- 3 And from the smoke locusts came out on the earth; and power was given them, like the power of scorpions.
Then out of the smoke came forth locusts on the earth, and power was given to them, as the scorpions of the earth have power.
And there came out of the smoke locusts upon the earth: and to them was given power, as the scorpions of the earth have power.

- 4 And they were ordered to do no damage to the grass of the earth, or any green thing, or any tree, but only to such men as have not the mark of God on their brows.
They were told that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree, but only those men who don't have God's seal on their foreheads.
And it was commanded them that they should not hurt the grass of the earth, neither any green thing, neither any tree; but only those men who have not the seal of God in their foreheads.
- 5 And orders were given them not to put them to death, but to give them great pain for five months: and their pain was as the pain from the wound of a scorpion.
They were given power not to kill them, but to torment them for five months. Their torment was like the torment of a scorpion, when it strikes a man.
And to them it was given that they should not kill them, but that they should be tormented five months: and their torment was as the torment of a scorpion, when he striketh a man.
- 6 And in those days men will be hoping for death, and it will not come to them; and they will have a great desire for death, and death will go in flight from them.
In those days men will seek death, and will in no way find it. They will desire to die, and death will flee from them.
And in those days shall men seek death, and shall not find it; and shall desire to die, and death shall flee from them.
- 7 And the forms of the locusts were like horses made ready for war; and on their heads they had crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
The shapes of the locusts were like horses prepared for war. On their heads were something like gold crowns, and their faces were like men's faces.
And the shapes of the locusts were like to horses prepared for battle; and on their heads were as it were crowns like gold, and their faces were as the faces of men.
- 8 And they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.
They had hair like women's hair, and their teeth were like those of lions.
And they had hair as the hair of women, and their teeth were as the teeth of lions.
- 9 And they had breastplates like iron, and the sound of their wings was as the sound of carriages, like an army of horses rushing to the fight.
They had breastplates, like breastplates of iron. The sound of their wings was like the sound of chariots, or of many horses rushing to war.
And they had breast-plates, as it were breast-plates of iron; and the sound of their wings was as the sound of chariots of many horses running to battle.

- 10 And they have pointed tails like scorpions; and in their tails is their power to give men wounds for five months.
They have tails like those of scorpions, and stings. In their tails is their power to harm men for five months.
And they had tails like scorpions, and there were stings in their tails: and their power was to hurt men five months.
- 11 They have over them as king the angel of the great deep: his name in Hebrew is Abaddon, and in the Greek language Apollyon.
They have over them as king the angel of the abyss. His name in Hebrew is "Abaddon," but in Greek, he has the name "Apollyon."
And they had a king over them, who is the angel of the bottomless pit, whose name in the Hebrew language is Abaddon, but in the Greek language he hath his name Apollyon.
- 12 The first Trouble is past: see, there are still two Troubles to come.
The first woe is past. Behold, there are still two woes coming after this.
One woe is past; and behold, there come two woes more hereafter.
- 13 And at the sounding of the sixth angel a voice came to my ears from the horns of the gold altar which is before God,
The sixth angel sounded. I heard a voice from the horns of the golden altar which is before God,
And the sixth angel sounded, and I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar which is before God,
- 14 Saying to the sixth angel who had the horn, Make free the four angels who are chained at the great river Euphrates.
saying to the sixth angel who had one trumpet, "Free the four angels who are bound at the great river Euphrates."
Saying to the sixth angel who had the trumpet, Loose the four angels who are bound in the great river Euphrates.
- 15 And the four angels were made free, who were ready for the hour and day and month and year, that they might put to death a third part of men.
The four angels were freed who had been prepared for that hour and day and month and year, so that they would kill one third of mankind.
And the four angels were loosed, who were prepared for an hour, and a day, and a month, and a year, to slay the third part of men.

- 16 And the number of the armies of the horsemen was twice ten thousand times ten thousand: the number of them came to my ears.
The number of the armies of the horsemen was two hundred million. I heard the number of them.
And the number of the army of the horsemen was two hundred thousand thousand: and I heard the number of them.
- 17 And so I saw the horses in the vision, and those who were seated on them, having breastplates of fire and glass and of burning stone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions; and out of their mouths came fire and smoke and a smell of burning.
Thus I saw the horses in the vision, and those who sat on them, having breastplates of fiery red, hyacinth blue, and sulfur yellow; and the heads of lions. Out of their mouths proceed fire, smoke, and sulfur.
And thus I saw the horses in the vision, and them that sat on them, having breast-plates of fire, and of jacinth, and brimstone: and the heads of the horses were as the heads of lions: and out of their mouths issued fire, and smoke, and brimstone.
- 18 By these evils a third part of men was put to death, by the fire, and the smoke, and the burning smell which came out of their mouths.
By these three plagues were one third of mankind killed: by the fire, the smoke, and the sulfur, which proceeded out of their mouths.
By these three was the third part of men killed, by the fire, and by the smoke, and by the brimstone, which issued out of their mouths.
- 19 For the power of the horses is in their mouths and in their tails: because their tails are like snakes, and have heads, and with them they give wounds.
For the power of the horses is in their mouths, and in their tails. For their tails are like serpents, and have heads, and with them they harm.
For their power is in their mouth, and in their tails: for their tails were like to serpents, and had heads, and with them they do hurt.
- 20 And the rest of the people, who were not put to death by these evils, were not turned from the works of their hands, but went on giving worship to evil spirits, and images of gold and silver and brass and stone and wood which have no power of seeing or hearing or walking:
The rest of mankind, who were not killed with these plagues, didn't repent of the works of their hands, that they wouldn't worship demons, and the idols of gold, and of silver, and of brass, and of stone, and of wood; which can neither see, nor hear, nor walk.
And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues yet repented not of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and idols of gold, and silver, and brass, and stone, and of wood: which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk:

- 21 And they had no regret for putting men to death, or for their use of secret arts, or for the evil desires of the flesh, or for taking the property of others.
They didn't repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their sexual immorality, nor of their thefts.
Neither repented they of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their lewdness, nor of their thefts.

- 1 And I saw another strong angel coming down out of heaven, clothed with a cloud; and an arch of coloured light was round his head, and his face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire;
I saw another mighty angel coming down out of the sky, clothed with a cloud. A rainbow was on his head. His face was like the sun, and his feet like pillars of fire.
And I saw another mighty angel come down from heaven, clothed with a cloud: and a rainbow was upon his head, and his face was as it were the sun, and his feet as pillars of fire:
- 2 And he had in his hand a little open book: and he put his right foot on the sea, and his left on the earth;
He had in his hand a little book open. He set his right foot on the sea, and his left on the land.
And he had in his hand a little book open: and he set his right foot upon the sea, and his left foot on the earth,
- 3 And he gave a loud cry, like the angry voice of a lion: and at his cry the voices of the seven thunders were sounding.
He cried with a loud voice, as a lion roars. When he cried, the seven thunders uttered their voices.
And cried with a loud voice, as when a lion roareth: and when he had cried, seven thunders uttered their voices.
- 4 And when the seven thunders had given out their voices, I was about to put their words down: and a voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Keep secret the things which the seven thunders said, and do not put them in writing.
When the seven thunders sounded, I was about to write; but I heard a voice from the sky saying, "Seal up the things which the seven thunders said, and don't write them."
And when the seven thunders had uttered their voices, I was about to write: and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, Seal up those things which the seven thunders uttered, and write them not.
- 5 And the angel which I saw taking his position on the sea and on the earth, put up his right hand to heaven,
The angel who I saw standing on the sea and on the land lifted up his right hand to the sky,
And the angel which I saw stand upon the sea and upon the earth lifted up his hand to heaven,

6 And took his oath by him who is living for ever and ever, who made the heaven and the things in it, and the earth and the things in it, and the sea and the things in it, that there would be no more waiting:
and swore by him who lives forever and ever, who created heaven and the things that are in it, the earth and the things that are in it, and the sea and the things that are in it, that there will no longer be delay,
And swore by him that liveth for ever and ever, who created heaven, and the things that are in it, and the earth, and the things that are in it, and the sea, and the things which are in it, that there should be time no longer:

7 But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when the sound of his horn is about to come, then will the secret of God be complete, of which he gave the good news to his servants the prophets.
but in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he is about to sound, then the mystery of God is finished, as he declared to his servants, the prophets.
But in the days of the voice of the seventh angel, when he shall begin to sound, the mystery of God should be finished, as he hath declared to his servants the prophets.

8 And the voice came to me again from heaven, saying, Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who has his place on the sea and on the earth.
The voice which I heard from heaven, again speaking with me, said, "Go, take the book which is open in the hand of the angel who stands on the sea and on the land."
And the voice which I heard from heaven spoke to me again, and said, Go, and take the little book which is open in the hand of the angel which standeth upon the sea and upon the earth.

9 And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me: Put it in your mouth; and it will make your stomach bitter, but in your mouth it will be sweet as honey.
I went to the angel, saying, "Give me the little book." He said to me, "Take it, and eat it up. It will make your belly bitter, but in your mouth it will be as sweet as honey."
And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it, and it shall make thy belly bitter, but it shall be in thy mouth sweet as honey.

10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand and did as he said; and it was sweet as honey in my mouth: and when I had taken it, my stomach was made bitter.
I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up. It was as sweet as honey in my mouth. When I had eaten it, my belly was made bitter.
And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it my belly was bitter.

- 11 And they said to me, You are to give word again of what is coming in the future to the peoples and nations and languages and kings.
He told me, "You must prophesy again over many peoples, nations, languages, and kings."
And he said to me, Thou must prophesy again before many peoples, and nations, and languages, and kings.
- 1 And there was given to me a measuring rod: and one said, Go up and take the measure of the house of God, and the altar, and the worshippers in it.
A reed like a rod was given to me. One said, "Rise, and measure God`s temple, and the altar, and those who worship in it.
And there was given me a reed like a rod: and the angel stood, saying, Rise, and measure the temple of God, and the altar, and them that worship in it.
- 2 But do not take the measure of the space outside the house; because it has been given to the nations: and the holy town will be under their feet for forty-two months.
Leave out the court which is outside of the temple, and don`t measure it, for it has been given to the gentiles. They will tread the holy city under foot for forty-two months.
But the court which is without the temple, leave out, and measure it not; for it is given to the Gentiles: and the holy city shall they tread under foot forty and two months.
- 3 And I will give orders to my two witnesses, and they will be prophets for a thousand, two hundred and sixty days, clothed with haircloth.
I will give power to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy one thousand two hundred sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.
And I will give power to my two witnesses, and they shall prophesy a thousand two hundred and sixty days, clothed in sackcloth.
- 4 These are the two olive-trees and the two lights, which are before the Lord of the earth.
These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands, standing before the Lord of the earth.
These are the two olive-trees, and the two candlesticks standing before the God of the earth.
- 5 And if any man would do them damage, fire comes out of their mouth and puts an end to those who are working against them: and if any man has a desire to do them damage, in this way will he be put to death.
If anyone desires to harm them, fire proceeds out of their mouth and devours their enemies. If anyone desires to harm them, he must be killed in this way.
And if any man will hurt them, fire proceedeth out of their mouth, and devoureth their enemies: and if any man will hurt them, he must in this manner be killed.

- 6 These have the power to keep the heaven shut, so that there may be no rain in the days when they are prophets: and they have power over the waters to make them into blood, and to send every sort of disease on the earth as their pleasure is.
These have the power to shut up the sky, that it may not rain during the days of their prophecy. They have power over the waters, to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with every plague, as often as they desire.
These have power to shut heaven, that it rain not in the days of their prophecy: and have power over waters to turn them to blood, and to smite the earth with all plagues, as often as they will.
- 7 And when they have come to the end of their witness, the beast which comes up out of the great deep will make war on them and overcome them and put them to death.
When they have finished their testimony, the beast that comes up out of the abyss will make war with them, and overcome them, and kill them.
And when they shall have finished their testimony, the beast that ascendeth out of the bottomless pit shall make war against them, and shall overcome them, and kill them.
- 8 And their dead bodies will be in the open street of the great town, which in the spirit is named Sodom and Egypt, where their Lord was put to death on the cross.
Their dead bodies will be in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also their Lord was crucified.
And their dead bodies shall lie in the street of the great city, which spiritually is called Sodom and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified.
- 9 And the peoples and tribes and languages and nations will be looking on their dead bodies three days and a half, and will not let their dead bodies be put in the earth.
From among the peoples, tribes, languages, and nations will people look at their dead bodies for three and a half days, and will not allow their dead bodies to be laid in a tomb.
And they of the people, and kindreds, and languages, and nations, shall see their dead bodies three days and a half, and shall not suffer their dead bodies to be put in graves.
- 10 And those who are on the earth will have pleasure and delight over them; and they will send offerings one to another because these two prophets gave great trouble to all on the earth.
Those who dwell on the earth will rejoice over them, and make merry. They will send gifts to one another, because these two prophets tormented those who dwell on the earth.
And they that dwell upon the earth shall rejoice over them, and make merry, and shall send gifts one to another; because these two prophets tormented them that dwelt on the earth.

- 11 And after three days and a half the breath of life from God went into them, and they got up on their feet; and great fear came on those who saw them.
After the three and a half days, the breath of life from God entered into them, and they stood on their feet. Great fear fell on those who saw them.
And after three days and a half the Spirit of life from God entered into them, and they stood upon their feet; and great fear fell upon them who saw them.
- 12 And a great voice from heaven came to their ears, saying to them, Come up here. And they went up into heaven in the cloud, and were seen by those desiring their death.
I heard a loud voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here!" They went up into heaven in the cloud, and their enemies saw them.
And they heard a great voice from heaven, saying to them, Come up hither. And they ascended to heaven in a cloud; and their enemies beheld them.
- 13 And in that hour there was a great earth-shock and a tenth part of the town came to destruction; and in the earth-shock seven thousand persons came to their end: and the rest were in fear, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
In that hour there was a great earthquake, and a tenth of the city fell. Seven thousand people were killed in the earthquake, and the rest were terrified, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
And the same hour was there a great earthquake, and the tenth part of the city fell, and in the earthquake were killed of men seven thousand: and the remnant were affrighted, and gave glory to the God of heaven.
- 14 The second Trouble is past: see, the third Trouble comes quickly.
The second woe is past. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.
The second woe is past; and behold, the third woe cometh quickly.
- 15 And at the sounding of the seventh angel there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ, and he will have rule for ever and ever.
The seventh angel sounded, and there followed great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdom of the world has become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ. He will reign forever and ever!"
And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, The kingdoms of this world are become the kingdoms of our Lord, and of his Christ; and he will reign for ever and ever.
- 16 And the four and twenty rulers, who are seated before God on their high seats, went down on their faces and gave worship to God, saying,
The twenty-four elders, who sit before God on their thrones, fell on their faces and worshipped God,
And the four and twenty elders, who sat before God on their seats, fell upon their faces, and worshiped God,

- 17 We give you praise, O Lord God, Ruler of all, who is and who was; because you have taken up your great power and are ruling your kingdom.
saying: "We give you thanks, Lord God, the Almighty, the one who is and who was; because you have taken your great power, and reigned.
Saying, We give thee thanks, O Lord God Almighty, who art, and wast, and art to come; because thou hast taken to thee thy great power, and hast reigned.
- 18 And the nations were angry, and your wrath has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and the time of reward for your servants, the prophets, and for the saints, and for those in whom is the fear of your name, small and great, and the time of destruction for those who made the earth unclean.
The nations were angry, and your wrath came, as did the time for the dead to be judged, and to give your servants, the prophets, their reward, as well as the saints, and those who fear your name, the small and the great; and to destroy those who destroy the earth."
And the nations were angry, and thy wrath is come, and the time of the dead, that they should be judged, and that thou shouldest give reward to thy servants the prophets, and to the saints, and them that fear thy name, small and great; and shouldest destroy them who destroy the earth.
- 19 And the house of God which is in heaven was open; and the ark of his agreement was seen in his house, and there were flames and voices and thunders and an earth-shock and a rain of ice.
God`s temple that is in heaven was opened, and the ark of the Lord`s covenant was seen in his temple. There followed lightnings, sounds, thunders, an earthquake, and great hail.
And the temple of God was opened in heaven, and there was seen in his temple the ark of his testament: and there were lightnings, and voices, and thunderings, and an earthquake, and great hail.
- 1 And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and with the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
A great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars.
And there appeared a great wonder in heaven; a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and upon her head a crown of twelve stars:
- 2 And she was with child; and she gave a cry, in the pains of childbirth.
She was with child. She cried out, laboring and in pain, giving birth.
And she being with child, cried, travailing in birth, and pained to be delivered.

- 3 And there was seen another sign in heaven; a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns.
Another sign was seen in heaven. Behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns.
And there appeared another wonder in heaven; and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and seven crowns upon his heads.
- 4 And his tail was pulling a third part of the stars of heaven down to the earth, and the dragon took his place before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when the birth had taken place he might put an end to her child.
His tail drew one third of the stars of the sky, and threw them to the earth. The dragon stood before the woman who was about to give birth, so that when she gave birth he might devour her child.
And his tail drew the third part of the stars of heaven, and cast them to the earth: and the dragon stood before the woman who was ready to be delivered, to devour her child as soon as it was born.
- 5 And she gave birth to a son, a male child, who was to have rule over all the nations with a rod of iron: and her child was taken up to God and to his high seat.
She gave birth to a son, a male child, who is to rule all the nations with a rod of iron. Her child was caught up to God, and to his throne.
And she brought forth a male child, who was to rule all nations with a rod of iron: and her child was caught up to God, and to his throne.
- 6 And the woman went in flight to the waste land, where she has a place made ready by God, so that there they may give her food a thousand, two hundred and sixty days.
The woman fled into the wilderness, where she has a place prepared by God, that there they may nourish her one thousand two hundred sixty days.
And the woman fled into the wilderness, where she hath a place prepared by God, that they should feed her there a thousand two hundred and sixty days.
- 7 And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels going out to the fight with the dragon; and the dragon and his angels made war,
There was war in the sky. Michael and his angels made war on the dragon. The dragon and his angels made war.
And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels,
- 8 And they were overcome, and there was no more place for them in heaven.
They didn't prevail, neither was a place found for him any more in heaven.
And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven.

- 9 And the great dragon was forced down, the old snake, who is named the Evil One and Satan, by whom all the earth is turned from the right way; he was forced down to the earth, and his angels were forced down with him.
The great dragon was thrown down, the old serpent, he who is called the Devil and Satan, the deceiver of the whole world. He was thrown down to the earth, and his angels were thrown down with him.
And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent, called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out upon the earth, and his angels were cast out with him.
- 10 And a great voice in heaven came to my ears, saying, Now is come the salvation, and the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ: because he who says evil against our brothers before our God day and night is forced down.
I heard a loud voice in heaven, saying, "Now is come the salvation, the power, and the kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brothers has been thrown down, who accuses them before our God day and night.
And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, who accused them before our God day and night.
- 11 And they overcame him through the blood of the Lamb and the word of their witness; and loving not their lives they freely gave themselves up to death.
They overcame him because of the Lamb`s blood, and because of the word of their testimony. They didn`t love their life, even to death.
And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives to the death.
- 12 Be glad then, O heavens, and you who are in them. But there is trouble for the earth and the sea: because the Evil One has come down to you, being very angry, having the knowledge that he has but a short time.
Therefore rejoice, heavens, and you who dwell in them. Woe for the earth and for the sea, because the devil has gone down to you, having great wrath, knowing that he has but a short time."
Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth, and of the sea! for the devil is come down to you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.
- 13 And when the dragon saw that he was forced down to the earth, he made cruel attacks on the woman who gave birth to the male child.
When the dragon saw that he was thrown down to the earth, he persecuted the woman who gave birth to the male child.
And when the dragon saw that he was cast to the earth, he persecuted the woman who brought forth the male-child.

- 14 And there were given to the woman two wings of a great eagle, so that she might go in flight into the waste land, to her place, where she is given food for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the snake.
Two wings of the great eagle were given to the woman, that she might fly into the wilderness to her place, where she was nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.
And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.
- 15 And the snake sent out of his mouth after the woman a river of water, so that she might be taken away by the stream.
The serpent spewed water out of his mouth after the woman like a river, that he might cause her to be carried away by the stream.
And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away by the flood.
- 16 And the earth gave help to the woman, and with open mouth took up the river which the dragon sent out of his mouth.
The earth helped the woman, and the earth opened its mouth and swallowed up the river which the dragon spewed out of his mouth.
And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.
- 17 And the dragon was angry with the woman and went away to make war on the rest of her seed, who keep the orders of God, and the witness of Jesus:
The dragon grew angry with the woman, and went away to make war with the rest of her seed, who keep God's commandments and hold Jesus' testimony.
And the dragon was wrath with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, who keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.
- 1 \13:1\And I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads, and on his horns ten crowns, and on his heads unholy names.
Then I stood on the sand of the sea. I saw a beast coming up out of the sea, having ten horns and seven heads. On his horns were ten crowns, and on his heads, blasphemous names.
\13:1\and saw a beast rise out of the sea, having seven heads and ten horns, and upon his horns ten crowns, and upon his heads the name of blasphemy.

- 2 And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power and his seat and great authority.
The beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were like those of a bear, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. The dragon gave him his power, his throne, and great authority.
And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.
- 3 And I saw one of his heads as if it had been given a death-wound; and his death-wound was made well: and all the earth was wondering at the beast.
One of his heads looked like it had been wounded fatally. His fatal wound was healed, and the whole earth marveled at the beast.
And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast.
- 4 And they gave worship to the dragon, because he gave authority to the beast; and worshipping the beast, they said, Who is like the beast? and who is able to go to war with him?
They worshipped the dragon, because he gave his authority to the beast, and they worshipped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to make war with him?"
And they worshiped the dragon which gave power to the beast: and they worshiped the beast, saying, Who is like the beast? who is able to make war with him?
- 5 And there was given to him a mouth to say words of pride against God; and there was given to him authority to go on for forty-two months.
A mouth speaking great things and blasphemy was given to him. Authority to continue for forty-two months was given to him.
And there was given to him a mouth speaking great things and blasphemies; and power was given to him to continue forty and two months.
- 6 And his mouth was open to say evil against God, and against his name and his Tent, even against those who are in heaven.
He opened his mouth for blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tent, those who dwell in heaven.
And he opened his mouth in blasphemy against God, to blaspheme his name, and his tabernacle, and them that dwell in heaven.
- 7 And it was given to him to make war on the saints and to overcome them: and there was given to him authority over every tribe and people and language and nation.
It was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them. Authority over every tribe, people, language, and nation was given to him.
And it was given to him to make war with the saints, and to overcome them: and power was given him over all kindreds, and languages, and nations.

- 8 And all who are on the earth will give him worship, everyone whose name has not been from the first in the book of life of the Lamb who was put to death.
All who dwell on the earth will worship him, everyone whose name has not been written from the foundation of the world in the book of life of the Lamb who has been killed.
And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world.
- 9 If any man has ears, let him give ear.
If anyone has an ear, let him hear.
If any man hath an ear, let him hear.
- 10 If any man sends others into prison, into prison he will go: if any man puts to death with the sword, with the sword will he be put to death. Here is the quiet strength and the faith of the saints.
If anyone gathers into captivity, into captivity he goes. If anyone will kill with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.
He that leadeth into captivity shall go into captivity: he that killeth with the sword must be killed with the sword. Here is the patience and the faith of the saints.
- 11 And I saw another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and his voice was like that of a dragon.
I saw another beast coming up out of the earth. He had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke like a dragon.
And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth, and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spoke as a dragon.
- 12 And he makes use of all the authority of the first beast before his eyes. And he makes the earth and those who are in it give worship to the first beast, whose death-wound was made well.
He exercises all the authority of the first beast in his presence. He makes the earth and those who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose fatal wound was healed.
And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them who dwell in it to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed.
- 13 And he does great signs, even making fire come down from heaven on the earth before the eyes of men.
He performs great signs, even making fire come down out of the sky on the earth in the sight of men.
And he doeth great wonders, so that he maketh fire come down from heaven on the earth in the sight of men,

- 14 And those who are on the earth are turned from the true way by him through the signs which he was given power to do before the beast; giving orders to those who are on the earth to make an image to the beast, who was wounded by the sword, and came to life.
He deceives my own people who dwell on the earth because of the signs which it was given him to do in front of the beast; saying to those who dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast who had the sword wound and lived.
And deceiveth them that dwell on the earth by the means of those miracles which he had power to do in the sight of the beast; saying to them that dwell on the earth, that they should make an image to the beast, which had the wound by a sword, and lived.
- 15 And he had power to give breath to the image of the beast, so that words might come from the image of the beast, and that he might have all those who did not give worship to the image of the beast put to death.
It was given to him to give breath to it, to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause as many as wouldn't worship the image of the beast to be killed.
And he had power to give life to the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed.
- 16 And he gives to all, small and great, the poor and those who have wealth, the free and those who are not free, a mark on their right hand or on their brows;
He causes all, the small and the great, the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to be given a mark on their right hand, or on their forehead;
And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:
- 17 So that no man might be able to do trade but he who has the mark, even the name of the beast or the number of his name.
and that no one would be able to buy or to sell, unless he has that mark, the name of the beast or the number of his name.
And that no man might buy or sell, save him that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.
- 18 Here is wisdom. He who has knowledge let him get the number of the beast; because it is the number of a man: and his number is Six hundred and sixty-six.
Here is wisdom. He who has understanding, let him calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a man. His number is six hundred sixty-six.
Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is six hundred and sixty six.

- 1 And I saw the Lamb on the mountain of Zion, and with him a hundred and forty-four thousand, marked on their brows with his name and the name of his Father.
I saw, and behold, the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him one hundred forty-four thousand, having his name, and the name of his Father, written on their foreheads.
And I looked, and lo, a lamb stood on the mount Sion, and with him a hundred and forty four thousand, having his Father's name written in their foreheads.
- 2 And a voice from heaven came to my ears, like the sound of great waters, and the sound of loud thunder: and the voice which came to me was like the sound of players, playing on instruments of music.
I heard a sound from heaven, like the sound of many waters, and like the sound of a great thunder. The sound which I heard was like that of harpers playing on their harps.
And I heard a voice from heaven, as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of a great thunder: and I heard the voice of harpers harping with their harps:
- 3 And they made as it seemed a new song before the high seat, and before the four beasts and the rulers: and no man might have knowledge of the song but the hundred and forty-four thousand, even those from the earth whom God has made his for a price.
They sing something like a new song before the throne, and before the four living creatures and the elders. None could learn the song except the one hundred forty-four thousand, those who had been redeemed out of the earth.
And they sung as it were a new song before the throne, and before the four beasts, and the elders: and no man could learn that song but the hundred and forty four thousand, who were redeemed from the earth.
- 4 These are they who have not made themselves unclean with women; for they are virgins. These are they who go after the Lamb wherever he goes. These were taken from among men to be the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.
These are those who were not defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are those who follow the Lamb wherever he goes. These were redeemed by Jesus from among men, the first fruits to God and to the Lamb.
These are they who were not defiled with women; for they are virgins. These are they who follow the Lamb whithersoever he goeth. These were redeemed from among men, being the first-fruits to God and to the Lamb.
- 5 And in their mouth there was no false word, for they are untouched by evil.
In their mouth was found no lie. They are without fault.
And in their mouth was found no guile: for they are without fault before the throne of God.

- 6 And I saw another angel in flight between heaven and earth, having eternal good news to give to those who are on the earth, and to every nation and tribe and language and people,
I saw another angel flying in mid heaven, having an eternal gospel to proclaim to those who dwell on the earth, and to every nation, tribe, language, and people.
And I saw another angel fly in the midst of heaven, having the everlasting gospel to preach to them that dwell on the earth, and to every nation, and kindred, and language, and people,
- 7 Saying with a loud voice, Have fear of God and give him glory; because the hour of his judging is come; and give worship to him who made heaven and earth and the sea and the fountains of water.
He said with a loud voice, "Fear God, and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come. Worship him who made the heaven, the earth, the sea, and the springs of waters!"
Saying with a loud voice, Fear God, and give glory to him; for the hour of his judgment is come: and worship him that made heaven, and earth, and the sea, and the fountains of waters.
- 8 And a second angel came after, saying, Destruction has come to Babylon the great, which gave to all the nations the wine of the wrath of her evil ways.
Another, a second angel, followed, saying, "Babylon the great has fallen, which has made all the nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality."
And there followed another angel, saying, Babylon is fallen, is fallen, that great city, because she made all nations drink of the wine of the wrath of her lewdness.
- 9 And a third angel came after them, saying with a loud voice, If any man gives worship to the beast and his image, and has his mark on his brow or on his hand,
Another angel, a third, followed them, saying with a great voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and receives a mark on his forehead, or on his hand,
And the third angel followed them, saying with a loud voice, If any man worshipeth the beast and his image, and receiveth his mark in his forehead, or in his hand,
- 10 To him will be given of the wine of God's wrath which is ready unmixed in the cup of his wrath and he will have cruel pain, burning with fire before the holy angels and before the Lamb:
he also will drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is prepared unmixed in the cup of his anger. He will be tormented with fire and sulfur in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb.
The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God, which is poured out without mixture into the cup of his indignation; and he shall be tormented with fire and brimstone in the presence of the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb:

- 11 And the smoke of their pain goes up for ever and ever; and they have no rest day and night, who give worship to the beast and his image, and have on them the mark of his name.
The smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. They have no rest day and night, those who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receives the mark of his name.
And the smoke of their torment ascendeth up for ever and ever: and they have no rest day nor night, who worship the beast and his image, and whoever receiveth the mark of his name.
- 12 Here is the quiet strength of the saints, who keep the orders of God, and the faith of Jesus.
Here is the patience of the saints, those who keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."
Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus.
- 13 And a voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Put in writing, There is a blessing on the dead who from now on come to their end in the Lord: yes, says the Spirit, that they may have rest from their troubles; for their works go with them.
I heard the voice from heaven saying, "Write, `Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from now on.`" "Yes," says the Spirit, "that they may rest from their labors; for their works follow with them."
And I heard a voice from heaven, saying to me, Write, Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord from henceforth: Verily, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labors; and their works follow them.
- 14 And I saw a white cloud, and on the cloud I saw one seated, like a son of man, having on his head a crown of gold, and in his hand a sharp curved blade.
I looked, and behold, a white cloud; and on the cloud one sitting like a son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and upon the cloud one sat like the Son of man, having on his head a golden crown, and in his hand a sharp sickle.
- 15 And another angel came out from the house of God, crying with a loud voice to him who was seated on the cloud, Put in your blade, and let the grain be cut: because the hour for cutting it is come; for the grain of the earth is over-ready.
Another angel came out from the temple, crying with a loud voice to him who sat on the cloud, "Send forth your sickle, and reap; for the hour to reap has come; for the harvest of the earth is ripe!"
And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.
- 16 And he who was seated on the cloud sent in his blade on the earth; and the grain of the earth was cut.
He who sat on the cloud thrust his sickle on the earth, and the earth was reaped.
And he that sat on the cloud thrust in his sickle on the earth; and the earth was reaped.

- 17 And another angel came out from the house of God which is in heaven, having a sharp curved blade.
Another angel came out from the temple which is in heaven. He also had a sharp sickle.
And another angel came out of the temple which is in heaven, he also having a sharp sickle.
- 18 And another angel came out from the altar, who has power over fire; and he gave a loud cry to him who had the sharp curved blade, saying, Put in your sharp blade, and let the grapes of the vine of the earth be cut; for her grapes are fully ready.
Another angel came out from the altar, he who has power over fire, and he called with a great voice to him who had the sharp sickle, saying, "Send forth your sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth, for her grapes are fully ripe!"
And another angel came out from the altar, who had power over fire; and cried with a loud cry to him that had the sharp sickle, saying, Thrust in thy sharp sickle, and gather the clusters of the vine of the earth; for her grapes are fully ripe.
- 19 And the angel sent his blade into the earth, and the vine of the earth was cut, and he put it into the great wine-crusher of the wrath of God.
The angel thrust his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vintage of the earth, and threw it into the great winepress of the wrath of God.
And the angel thrust in his sickle into the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and cast it into the great wine-press of the wrath of God.
- 20 And the grapes were crushed under foot outside the town, and blood came out from them, even to the head-bands of the horses, two hundred miles.
The winepress was trodden outside of the city, and blood came out from the winepress, even to the bridles of the horses, as far as one thousand six hundred stadia.
And the wine-press was trodden without the city, and blood came out of the wine-press, even to the horses' bridles, by the space of a thousand and six hundred furlongs.
- 1 And I saw another sign in heaven, great and strange; seven angels having the seven last punishments, for in them the wrath of God is complete.
I saw another great and marvelous sign in the sky: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for in them God's wrath is finished.
And I saw another sign in heaven, great and marvelous, seven angels having the seven last plagues; for in them is filled up the wrath of God.

- 2 And I saw a sea which seemed like glass mixed with fire; and those who had overcome the beast and his image and the number of his name, were in their places by the sea of glass, with God's instruments of music in their hands.
I saw something like a sea of glass mixed with fire. Those who overcame the beast, and his image, and the number of his name, standing on the sea of glass, having harps of God.
And I saw as it were a sea of glass mingled with fire: and them that had gained the victory over the beast, and over his image, and over his mark, and over the number of his name, stand on the sea of glass, having the harps of God.
- 3 And they give the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and full of wonder are your works, O Lord God, Ruler of all; true and full of righteousness are your ways, eternal King.
They sang the song of Moses, the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, "Great and marvelous are your works, Lord God, the Almighty; Righteous and true are your ways, you King of the nations.
And they sing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, saying, Great and marvelous are thy works, Lord God Almighty; just and true are thy ways, thou King of saints.
- 4 What man is there who will not have fear before you, O Lord, and give glory to your name? because you only are holy; for all the nations will come and give worship before you; for your righteousness has been made clear.
Who wouldn't fear you, Lord, And glorify your name? For you only are holy. For all the nations will come and worship before you. For your righteous acts have been revealed.
Who shall not fear thee, O Lord, and glorify thy name? for thou only art holy: for all nations shall come and worship before thee; for thy judgments are made manifest.
- 5 And after these things I saw, and the house of the Tent of witness in heaven was open:
After these things I looked, and the temple of the tent of the testimony in heaven was opened.
And after that I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of the testimony in heaven was opened:
- 6 And the seven angels who had the seven punishments came out from the house of God, clothed with linen, clean and bright and with bands of gold about their breasts.
The seven angels who had the seven plagues came out from the temple, clothed with pure, bright linen, and wearing golden sashes around their breasts.
And the seven angels came out of the temple, having the seven plagues, clothed in pure and white linen, and having their breasts girded with golden girdles.

7 And one of the four beasts gave to the seven angels seven gold vessels full of the wrath of God, who is living for ever and ever.
One of the four living creatures gave to the seven angels seven golden bowls full of the wrath of God, who lives forever and ever.
And one of the four living beings gave to the seven angels seven golden vials full of the wrath of God, who liveth for ever and ever.

8 And the house of God was full of smoke from the glory of God, and from his power, and no one was able to go into the house of God, till the seven punishments of the seven angels were ended.
The temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power. No one was able to enter into the temple, until the seven plagues of the seven angels would be finished.
And the temple was filled with smoke from the glory of God, and from his power; and no man was able to enter into the temple, till the seven plagues of the seven angels were fulfilled.

1 And a great voice out of the house of God came to my ears, saying to the seven angels, Go, and let that which is in the seven vessels of the wrath of God come down on the earth.
I heard a loud voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the seven bowls of the wrath of God on the earth!"
And I heard a great voice out of the temple, saying to the seven angels, Go, and pour out the vials of the wrath of God upon the earth.

2 And the first went, and let what was in his vessel come down on the earth; and it became an evil poisoning wound on the men who had the mark of the beast, and who gave worship to his image.
The first went, and poured out his bowl into the earth, and it became a harmful and evil sore on the men that had the mark of the beast, and that worshipped his image.
And the first went, and poured out his vial upon the earth; and there fell a noisome and grievous sore upon the men who had the mark of the beast, and upon them who worshiped his image.

3 And the second let what was in his vessel come out into the sea; and it became blood as of a dead man; and every living thing in the sea came to an end.
The second angel poured out his bowl into the sea, and it became blood as of a dead man. Every living thing in the sea died.
And the second angel poured out his vial upon the sea; and it became as the blood of a dead man: and every living soul died in the sea.

4 And the third let what was in his vessel come out into the rivers and the fountains of water; and they became blood.
The third poured out his bowl into the rivers and springs of water, and it became blood.
And the third angel poured out his vial upon the rivers and fountains of waters; and they became blood.

5 And the voice of the angel of the waters came to my ears, saying, True and upright is your judging, O Holy One, who is and was from all time:
I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, who are and who were, you Holy One, because you judged this way.
And I heard the angel of the waters say, Thou art righteous, O Lord, who art, and wast, and wilt be, because thou hast judged thus.

6 For they made the blood of saints and prophets come out like a stream, and blood have you given them for drink; which is their right reward.
For they poured out the blood of the saints and the prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They deserve this."
For they have shed the blood of saints and prophets, and thou hast given them blood to drink; for they are worthy.

7 And a voice came from the altar, saying, Even so, O Lord God, Ruler of all, true and full of righteousness is your judging.
I heard the altar saying, "Yes, Lord God, the Almighty, true and righteous are your judgments."
And I heard another from the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

8 And the fourth let what was in his vessel come out on the sun; and power was given to it that men might be burned with fire.
The fourth poured out his bowl on the sun, and it was given to him to scorch men with fire.
And the fourth angel poured out his vial upon the sun; and power was given to him to scorch men with fire.

9 And men were burned with great heat: and they said evil things against the name of the God who has authority over these punishments; and they were not turned from their evil ways to give him glory.
Men were scorched with great heat, and they blasphemed the name of God who has the power over these plagues. They didn't repent and give him glory.
And men were scorched with great heat, and blasphemed the name of God, who hath power over these plagues: and they repented not to give him glory.

10 And the fifth let what was in his vessel come out on the high seat of the beast; and his kingdom was made dark; and they were biting their tongues for pain.
The fifth poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast, and his kingdom was darkened. They gnawed their tongues because of the pain,
And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,

- 11 And they said evil things against the God of heaven because of their pain and their wounds; and they were not turned from their evil works.
and they blasphemed the God of heaven because of their pains and their sores. They didn't repent of their works.
And blasphemed the God of heaven, because of their pains and their sores, and repented not of their deeds.
- 12 And the sixth let what was in his vessel come out on the great river Euphrates; and it became dry, so that the way might be made ready for the kings from the east.
The sixth poured out his bowl on the great river, the Euphrates. Its water was dried up, that the way might be made ready for the kings that come from the sunrise.
And the sixth angel poured out his vial upon the great river Euphrates; and the water of it was dried up, that the way of the kings of the east might be prepared.
- 13 And I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, like frogs.
I saw coming out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, something like frogs;
And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.
- 14 For they are evil spirits, working signs; who go out even to the kings of all the earth, to get them together to the war of the great day of God, the Ruler of all.
for they are spirits of demons, performing signs; which go forth to the kings of the whole world, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God, the Almighty.
For they are the spirits of demons, working miracles, which go forth to the kings of the earth, and of the whole world, to gather them to the battle of that great day of God Almighty.
- 15 (See, I come as a thief. Happy is he who is watching and keeps his robes, so that he may not go unclothed, and his shame be seen.)
"Behold, I come like a thief. Blessed is he who watches, and keeps his clothes, so that he doesn't walk naked, and they see his shame."
Behold, I come as a thief. Blessed is he that watcheth, and keepeth his garments, lest he walk naked, and they see his shame.
- 16 And they got them together into the place which is named in Hebrew Armageddon.
He gathered them together into the place which is called in Hebrew, "Har-magedon."
And he gathered them into a place called in the Hebrew tongue Armageddon.

- 17 And the seventh let what was in his vessel come out on the air; and there came out a great voice from the house of God, from the high seat, saying, It is done.
The seventh poured out his bowl into the air. A loud voice came forth out of the temple, from the throne, saying, "It is done!"
And the seventh angel poured out his vial into the air; and there came a great voice out of the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, It is done.
- 18 And there were flames and voices and thunders; and there was a great earth-shock so that never, from the time when men were on the earth, had there been so great an earth-shock, so full of power.
There were lightnings, sounds, and thunders; and there was a great earthquake, such as was not since there were men on the earth, so great an earthquake, so mighty.
And there were voices, and thunders, and lightnings; and there was a great earthquake, such as hath not been since men were upon the earth, so mighty an earthquake, and so great.
- 19 And the great town was cut into three parts, and the towns of the nations came to destruction: and Babylon the great came into mind before God, to be given the cup of the wine of his wrath.
The great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell. Babylon the great was remembered in the sight of God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
And the great city was divided into three parts, and the cities of the nations fell: and great Babylon came in remembrance before God, to give to her the cup of the wine of the fierceness of his wrath.
- 20 And every island went in flight, and the mountains were seen no longer.
Every island fled away, and the mountains were not found.
And every isle fled away, and the mountains were not found.
- 21 And great drops of ice, every one about the weight of a talent, came down out of heaven on men: and men said evil things against God because of the punishment of the ice-drops; for it is very great.
Great hailstones, about the weight of a talent, came down out of the sky on men. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, for the plague of it is exceeding great.
And there fell upon men a great hail out of heaven, every stone about the weight of a talent: and men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail; for the plague of it was exceeding great.
- 1 And one of the seven angels who had the seven vessels came and said to me, Come here, so that you may see the judging of the evil woman who is seated on the great waters;
One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters,
And there came one of the seven angels who had the seven vials, and talked with me, saying to me, Come hither; I will show to thee the judgment of the great harlot that sitteth upon many waters;

- 2 With whom the kings of the earth made themselves unclean, and those who are on the earth were full of the wine of her evil desires.
with whom the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality, and those who dwell in the earth were made drunken with the wine of her sexual immorality."
With whom the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds, and the inhabitants of the earth have been made drunk with the wine of her lewdness.
- 3 And he took me away in the Spirit into a waste land: and I saw a woman seated on a bright red beast, full of evil names, having seven heads and ten horns,
He carried me away in the Spirit into a wilderness. I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet-colored animal, full of blasphemous names, having seven heads and ten horns.
So he carried me away in the spirit into the wilderness: and I saw a woman sit upon a scarlet-colored beast, full of names of blasphemy, having seven heads and ten horns.
- 4 And the woman was clothed in purple and bright red, with ornaments of gold and stones of great price and jewels; and in her hand was a gold cup full of evil things and her unclean desires;
The woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having in her hand a golden cup full of abominations, even the unclean things of her sexual immorality,
And the woman was arrayed in purple and scarlet-color, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls, having a golden cup in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her lewdness:
- 5 And on her brow was a name, SECRET, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE EVIL WOMEN AND OF THE UNCLEAN THINGS OF THE EARTH.
and on her forehead a name written, "MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF THE PROSTITUTES AND OF THE ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH."
And upon her forehead was a name written, MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT, THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS, AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.
- 6 And I saw the woman overcome as with the wine of the blood of the saints, and the blood of those put to death because of Jesus. And when I saw her, I was overcome with a great wonder.
I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. When I saw her, I wondered with great amazement.
And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.

7 And the angel said to me, Why were you surprised? I will make clear to you the secret of the woman, and of the beast on which she is seated, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.
The angel said to me, "Why do you wonder? I will tell you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carries her, which has the seven heads and the ten horns.

And the angel said to me, Why didst thou wonder? I will tell thee the mystery of the woman, and of the beast that carrieth her, which hath the seven heads and ten horns.

8 The beast which you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the great deep, and to go into destruction. And those who are on the earth, whose names have not been put in the book of life from the first, will be full of wonder when they see the beast, that he was, and is not, and still will be.

The beast that you saw was, and is not; and is about to come up out of the abyss, and to go into destruction. Those who dwell on the earth will wonder, whose name has not been written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they see the beast, how that he was, and is not, and will come.

The beast that thou sawest, was, and is not; and shall ascend out of the bottomless pit, and go into perdition: and they that dwell on the earth shall wonder, whose names were not written in the book of life from the foundation of the world, when they behold the beast that was, and is not, and yet is.

9 Here is the mind which has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman is seated:

Here is the mind that has wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sits.

And here is the mind which hath wisdom. The seven heads are seven mountains, on which the woman sitteth.

10 And they are seven kings; the five have come to an end, the one is, the other has not come; and when he comes, he will have to go on for a little time.

They are seven kings. Five have fallen, the one is, the other is not yet come. When he comes, he must continue a little while.

And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short time.

11 And the beast which was, and is not, is himself the eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes into destruction.

The beast that was, and is not, is himself also an eighth, and is of the seven; and he goes to destruction.

And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.

12 And the ten horns which you saw are ten kings, which still have been given no kingdom; but they are given authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour.

The ten horns that you saw are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet, but they receive authority as kings, with the beast, for one hour.

And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, who have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

- 13 These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.
These have one mind, and they give their power and authority to the beast.
These have one mind, and shall give their power and strength to the beast.
- 14 These will make war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because he is the Lord of lords and King of kings; and those who are with him are named, marked out, and true.
These will war against the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings. They also will overcome who are with him, called and chosen and faithful."
These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them: for he is Lord of lords, and King of kings; and they that are with him are called, and chosen, and faithful.
- 15 And he said to me, The waters which you saw, where the evil woman is seated, are peoples, and armies, and nations and languages.
He said to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, are peoples, multitudes, nations, and languages.
And he saith to me, The waters which thou sawest, where the harlot sitteth, are peoples, and multitudes, and nations, and languages.
- 16 And the ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will be turned against the evil woman, and will make her waste and uncovered, and will take her flesh for food, and will have her burned with fire.
The ten horns which you saw, and the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and will make her desolate and naked, and will eat her flesh, and will burn her utterly with fire.
And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the harlot, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.
- 17 Because God has put it in their hearts to do his purpose, and to be of one mind, giving their kingdom to the beast, till the words of God have effect and are complete.
For God has put in their hearts to do what he has in mind, and to come to unity of mind, and to give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God should be accomplished.
For God hath put in their hearts to fulfill his will, and to agree, and give their kingdom to the beast, until the words of God shall be fulfilled.
- 18 And the woman whom you saw is the great town, which is ruling over the kings of the earth.
The woman whom you saw is the great city, which reigns over the kings of the earth."
And the woman whom thou sawest is that great city, which reigneth over the kings of the earth.

- 1 After these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority; and the earth was bright with his glory.
After these things, I saw another angel coming down out of the sky, having great authority. The earth was illuminated with his glory.
And after these things I saw another angel come down from heaven, having great power; and the earth was lightened with his glory.
- 2 And he gave a loud cry, saying, Babylon the great has come down from her high place, she has come to destruction and has become a place of evil spirits, and of every unclean spirit, and a hole for every unclean and hated bird.
He cried with a mighty voice, saying, "Fallen, fallen is Babylon the great, and has become a habitation of demons, and a prison of every unclean spirit, and a prison of every unclean and hateful bird!
And he cried mightily with a strong voice, saying, Babylon the great is fallen, is fallen, and is become the habitation of demons, and the hold of every foul spirit, and a cage of every unclean and hateful bird.
- 3 For through the wine of the wrath of her evil desires all the nations have come to destruction; and the kings of the earth made themselves unclean with her, and the traders of the earth had their wealth increased by the power of her evil ways.
For all the nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her sexual immorality, the kings of the earth committed sexual immorality with her, and the merchants of the earth grew rich from the abundance of her luxury."
For all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her lewdness, and the kings of the earth have committed lewd deeds with her, and the merchants of the earth have become rich through the abundance of her delicacies.
- 4 And another voice from heaven came to my ears, saying, Come out of her, my people, so that you may have no part in her sins and in her punishments.
I heard another voice from heaven, saying, "Come forth, my people, out of her, that you have no participation her sins, and that you don't receive of her plagues,
And I heard another voice from heaven, saying, Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.
- 5 For her sins have gone up even to heaven, and God has taken note of her evil-doing.
for her sins have reached to the sky, and God has remembered her iniquities.
For her sins have reached to heaven, and God hath remembered her iniquities.

- 6 Give to her as she gave, even an increased reward for her works; in the cup which was mixed by her, let there be mixed as much again for herself.
Return to her just as she returned, and double to her the double according to her works. In the cup which she mixed, mix to her double.
Reward her even as she rewarded you, and double to her double according to her works: in the cup which she hath filled, fill to her double.
- 7 As she gave glory to herself, and became more evil in her ways, in the same measure give her pain and weeping: for she says in her heart, I am seated here a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see sorrow.
However much she glorified herself, and grew wanton, so much give her of torment and mourning. For she says in her heart, `I sit a queen, and am no widow, and will in no way see mourning.`
How much she hath glorified herself, and lived deliciously, so much torment and sorrow give her: for she saith in her heart, I sit a queen, and am no widow, and shall see no sorrow.
- 8 For this reason in one day will her troubles come, death and sorrow and need of food; and she will be completely burned with fire; for strong is the Lord God who is her judge.
Therefore in one day her plagues will come: death, mourning, and famine; and she will be utterly burned with fire; for the Lord God who has judged her is strong.
Therefore shall her plagues come in one day, death, and mourning, and famine; and she shall be utterly burned with fire: for strong is the Lord God who judgeth her.
- 9 And the kings of the earth, who made themselves unclean with her, and in her company gave themselves up to evil, will be weeping and crying over her, when they see the smoke of her burning,
The kings of the earth, who committed sexual immorality and lived wantonly with her, will weep and wail over her, when they look at the smoke of her burning,
And the kings of the earth, who have committed lewdness and lived deliciously with her, shall bewail her, and lament for her, when they shall see the smoke of her burning,
- 10 Watching from far away, for fear of her punishment, saying, Sorrow, sorrow for Babylon, the great town, the strong town! for in one hour you have been judged.
standing far away for the fear of her torment, saying, `Woe, woe, the great city, Babylon, the strong city! For your judgment has come in one hour.`
Standing afar off for the fear of her torment, saying, Alas, alas, that great city Babylon, that mighty city! for in one hour is thy judgment come.

- 11 And the traders of the earth are weeping and crying over her, because no man has any more desire for their goods,
The merchants of the earth weep and mourn over her, for no one buys their merchandise any more;
And the merchants of the earth shall weep and mourn over her; for no man buyeth their merchandise any more:
- 12 Gold, and silver, and stones of great price, and jewels, and delicate linen, and robes of purple and silk and red; and perfumed wood, and every vessel of ivory, and every vessel made of fair wood, and of brass, and iron, and stone;
merchandise of gold, silver, precious stones, pearls, fine linen, purple, silk, scarlet, all expensive wood, every vessel of ivory, every vessel made of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble;
The merchandise of gold, and silver, and precious stones, and of pearls, and fine linen, and purple, and silk, and scarlet, and all thine wood, and all vessels of ivory, and all vessels of most precious wood, and of brass, and iron, and marble,
- 13 And sweet-smelling plants, and perfumes, and wine, and oil, and well crushed grain, and cattle and sheep; and horses and carriages and servants; and souls of men.
and cinnamon, spices, incense, ointment, frankincense, wine, oil, fine flour, wheat, cattle, and sheep; and merchandise of horses and chariots and slaves; and souls of men.
And cinnamon, and odors, and ointments, and frankincense, and wine, and oil, and fine flour, and wheat, and beasts, and sheep, and horses, and chariots, and slaves, and souls of men.
- 14 And the fruit of your soul's desire has gone from you, and all things delicate and shining have come to an end and will never again be seen.
The fruits which your soul lusted after have been lost to you, and all things that were dainty and sumptuous have perished from you, and you will find them no more at all.
And the fruits that thy soul lusted after have departed from thee, and all things which were dainty and goodly have departed from thee, and thou shalt find them no more at all.
- 15 The traders in these things, by which their wealth was increased, will be watching far off for fear of her punishment, weeping and crying;
The merchants of these things, who were made rich by her, will stand far away for the fear of her torment, weeping and mourning;
The merchants of these things who were made rich by her, shall stand afar off, for the fear of her torment, weeping and wailing,

- 16 Saying, Sorrow, sorrow for the great town, she who was clothed in delicate linen, and purple, and red; with ornaments of gold and stones of great price and jewels!
saying, `Woe, woe, the great city, she who was dressed in fine linen, purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold and precious stones and pearls!
And saying, Alas, alas, that great city, that was clothed in fine linen, and purple, and scarlet, and decked with gold, and precious stones, and pearls!
- 17 For in one hour such great wealth has come to nothing. And every shipmaster, and all who are sailing on the sea, and sailors and all who get their living by the sea, were watching from far away,
For in an hour such great riches are made desolate. ` Every shipmaster, and everyone who sails anywhere, and mariners, and as many as gain their living by sea, stood far away,
For in one hour so great riches is come to naught. And every ship-master, and all the company in ships, and sailors, and as many as trade by sea, stood afar off,
- 18 And crying out when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What town is like the great town?
and cried out as they looked at the smoke of her burning, saying, `What is like the great city?`
And cried when they saw the smoke of her burning, saying, What city is like this great city!
- 19 And they put dust on their heads, and were sad, weeping and crying, and saying, Sorrow, sorrow for the great town, in which was increased the wealth of all who had their ships on the sea because of her great stores! for in one hour she is made waste.
They cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and mourning, saying, `Woe, woe, the great city, in which all who had their ships in the sea were made rich by reason of her great wealth!` For in one hour is she made desolate.
And they cast dust on their heads, and cried, weeping and wailing, saying, Alas, alas, that great city, in which were made rich all that had ships in the sea by reason of her opulence! for in one hour is she made desolate.
- 20 Be glad over her, heaven, and you saints, and Apostles, and prophets; because she has been judged by God on your account.
Rejoice over her, O heaven, you saints, you apostles, and you prophets; for God has judged your judgment on her."
Rejoice over her thou heaven, and ye holy apostles and prophets; for God hath avenged you on her.
- 21 And a strong angel took up a stone like the great stone with which grain is crushed, and sent it into the sea, saying, So, with a great fall, will Babylon, the great town, come to destruction, and will not be seen any more at all.
A mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone and cast it into the sea, saying, "Thus with violence will Babylon, the great city, be thrown down, and will be found no more at all.
And a mighty angel took up a stone like a great millstone, and cast it into the sea, saying, Thus with violence shall that great city Babylon be thrown down, and shall be no more found.

- 22 And the voice of players and makers of music will never again be sounding in you: and no worker, expert in art, will ever again be living in you; and there will be no sound of the crushing of grain any more at all in you;
The voice of harpers and minstrels and flute players and trumpeters will be heard no more at all in you. No craftsman, of whatever craft, will be found any more at all in you. The sound of a mill will be heard no more at all in you.
And the voice of harpers, and musicians, and of pipers, and trumpeters, shall be no more heard in thee; and no artificer, of whatever craft he be, shall be found any more in thee; and the sound of a millstone shall be no more heard in thee;
- 23 And never again will the shining of lights be seen in you; and the voice of the newly-married man and the bride will never again be sounding in you: for your traders were the lords of the earth, and by your evil powers were all the nations turned out of the right way.
The light of a lamp will shine no more at all in you. The voice of the bridegroom and of the bride will be heard no more at all in you; for your merchants were the princes of the earth; for with your sorcery all the nations were deceived.
And the light of a candle shall shine no more in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.
- 24 And in her was seen the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been put to death on the earth.
In her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, and of all who have been slain on the earth."
And in her was found the blood of prophets, and of saints, and of all that were slain upon the earth.
- 1 After these things there came to my ears a sound like the voice of a great band of people in heaven, saying, Praise to the Lord; salvation and glory and power be to our God:
After these things I heard something like a loud voice of a great multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation, glory, and power belong to our God:
And after these things I heard a great voice of many people in heaven, saying, Alleluia: Salvation, and glory, and honor, and power, to the Lord our God:
- 2 For true and upright are his decisions; for by him has the evil woman been judged, who made the earth unclean with the sins of her body; and he has given her punishment for the blood of his servants.
for true and righteous are his judgments. For he has judged the great prostitute, her who corrupted the earth with her sexual immorality, and he has avenged the blood of his servants at her hand."
For true and righteous are his judgments: for he hath judged the great harlot, who corrupted the earth with her lewdness, and hath avenged the blood of his servants at her hand.

- 3 And again they said, Praise to the Lord. And her smoke went up for ever and ever.
A second time they said, "Hallelujah! Her smoke goes up forever and ever."
And again they said, Alleluia. And her smoke rose up for ever and ever.
- 4 And the four and twenty rulers and the four beasts went down on their faces and gave worship to God who was seated on the high seat, saying, Even so, praise to the Lord.
The twenty-four elders and the four living creatures fell down and worshipped God who sits on the throne, saying, "Amen! Hallelujah!"
And the four and twenty elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God who sat on the throne, saying, Amen; Alleluia.
- 5 And a voice came from the high seat, saying, Give praise to our God, all you his servants, small and great, in whom is the fear of him.
A voice came forth from the throne, saying, "Give praise to our God, all you his servants, you who fear him, the small and the great!"
And a voice came out of the throne, saying, Praise our God, all ye his servants, and ye that fear him, both small and great.
- 6 And there came to my ears the voice of a great army, like the sound of waters, and the sound of loud thunders, saying, Praise to the Lord: for the Lord our God, Ruler of all, is King.
I heard something like the voice of a great multitude, and like the voice of many waters, and like the voice of mighty thunders, saying, "Hallelujah! For the Lord our God, the Almighty, reigns!
And I heard as it were the voice of a great multitude, and as the voice of many waters, and as the voice of mighty thunderings, saying, Alleluia: for the Lord God omnipotent reigneth.
- 7 Let us be glad with delight, and let us give glory to him: because the time is come for the Lamb to be married, and his wife has made herself ready.
Let us rejoice and be exceedingly glad, and let us give the glory to him. For the marriage of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready."
Let us be glad and rejoice, and give honor to him: for the marriage of the Lamb is come, and his wife hath made herself ready.
- 8 And to her it was given to be clothed in delicate linen, clean and shining: for the clean linen is the righteousness of the saints.
It was given to her that she would array herself in bright, pure, fine linen: for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.
And to her was granted that she should be arrayed in fine linen, clean and white: for the fine linen is the righteousness of saints.

- 9 And he said to me, Put in the book, Happy are the guests at the bride-feast of the Lamb. And he said to me, These are the true words of God.
He said to me, "Write, `Blessed are those who are invited to the marriage supper of the Lamb.`" He said to me, "These are true words of God."
And he saith to me, Write, Blessed are they who are called to the marriage supper of the Lamb. And he saith to me, These are the true sayings of God.
- 10 And I went on my face before his feet to give him worship. And he said to me, See you do it not: I am a brother-servant with you and with your brothers who keep the witness of Jesus: give worship to God: for the witness of Jesus is the spirit of the prophet's word.
I fell down before his feet to worship him. He said to me, "Look! Don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers who hold the testimony of Jesus. Worship God, for the testimony of Jesus is the Spirit of Prophecy."
And I fell at his feet to worship him. And he said to me, See thou do it not: I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus: worship God: for the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.
- 11 And the heaven was open; and I saw a white horse, and he who was seated on it was named Certain and True; and he is judging and making war in righteousness.
I saw the heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he who sat on it is called Faithful and True. In righteousness he judges and makes war.
And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse; and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and make war.
- 12 And his eyes are a flame of fire, and crowns are on his head; and he has a name in writing, of which no man has knowledge but himself.
His eyes are a flame of fire, and on his head are many crowns. He has names written and a name written which no one knows but he himself.
His eyes were as a flame of fire, and on his head were many crowns; and he had a name written, that no man knew, but he himself.
- 13 And he is clothed in a robe washed with blood: and his name is The Word of God.
He is clothed in a garment sprinkled with blood. His name is called "The Word of God."
And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called, The Word of God.
- 14 And the armies which are in heaven went after him on white horses, clothed in delicate linen, white and clean.
The armies which are in heaven followed him on white horses, clothed in white, pure, fine linen.
And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.

- 15 And out of his mouth comes a sharp sword, with which he overcomes the nations: and he has rule over them with a rod of iron: and he is crushing with his feet the grapes of the strong wrath of God the Ruler of all.
Out of his mouth proceeds a sharp, two-edged sword, that with it he should strike the nations. He will rule them with a rod of iron. He treads the winepress of the fierceness of the wrath of God, the Almighty.
And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the wine-press of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
- 16 And on his robe and on his leg is a name, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS.
He has on his garment and on his thigh a name written, "KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS."
And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS AND LORD OF LORDS.
- 17 And I saw an angel taking his place in the sun; and he was crying with a loud voice, saying to all the birds in flight in the heavens, Come together to the great feast of God;
I saw an angel standing in the sun. He cried with a loud voice, saying to all the birds that fly in the sky, "Come! Be gathered together to the great supper of God,
And I saw an angel standing in the sun; and he cried with a loud voice, saying to all the fowls that fly in the midst of heaven, Come, and assemble yourselves to the supper of the great God;
- 18 So that you may take for your food the flesh of kings, and of captains, and of strong men, and of horses and of those who are seated on them, and the flesh of all men, free and unfree, small and great.
that you may eat the flesh of kings, the flesh of captains, the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses and of those who sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and slave, and small and great."
That ye may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of captains, and the flesh of mighty men, and the flesh of horses, and of them that sit on them, and the flesh of all men, both free and bond, both small and great.
- 19 And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, come together to make war against him who was seated on the horse and against his army.
I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, gathered together to make war against him who sat on the horse, and against his army.
And I saw the beast, and the kings of the earth, and their armies, assembled to make war against him that sat on the horse, and against his army.

- 20 And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who did the signs before him, by which they were turned from the true way who had the mark of the beast, and who gave worship to his image: these two were put living into the sea of ever-burning fire.
The beast was taken, and with him the false prophet who worked the signs in his sight, with which he deceived those who had received the mark of the beast and those who worshipped his image. They two were thrown alive into the lake of fire that burns with sulfur.
And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshiped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone.
- 21 And the rest were put to death with the sword of him who was on the horse, even the sword which came out of his mouth: and all the birds were made full with their flesh.
The rest were killed with the sword of him who sat on the horse, the sword which came forth out of his mouth. All the birds were filled with their flesh.
And the remnant were slain with the sword of him that sat upon the horse, which sword proceedeth out of his mouth: and all the fowls were filled with their flesh.
- 1 And I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the great deep and a great chain in his hand.
I saw an angel coming down out of heaven, having the key of the abyss and a great chain in his hand.
And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand.
- 2 And he took the dragon, the old snake, which is the Evil One and Satan, and put chains on him for a thousand years,
He seized the dragon, the old serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for one thousand years,
And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.
- 3 And put him into the great deep, and it was shut and locked over him, so that he might put the nations in error no longer, till the thousand years were ended: after this he will be let loose for a little time.
and cast him into the abyss, and shut it, and sealed it over him, that he should deceive the nations no more, until the thousand years were finished. After this, he must be freed for a short time.
And cast him into the bottomless pit, and shut him up, and set a seal upon him, that he should deceive the nations no more, till the thousand years should be fulfilled; and after that he must be loosed a little season.

4 And I saw high seats, and they were seated on them, and the right of judging was given to them: and I saw the souls of those who were put to death for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and those who did not give worship to the beast, or to his image, and had not his mark on their brows or on their hands; and they were living and ruling with Christ a thousand years. I saw thrones, and they sat on them, and judgment was given to them. I saw the souls of those who had been beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and such as didn't worship the beast nor his image, and didn't receive the mark on their forehead and on their hand. They lived, and reigned with Christ one thousand years.

And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given to them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the testimony of Jesus, and for the word of God, and who had not worshiped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

5 The rest of the dead did not come to life again till the thousand years were ended. This is the first coming back from the dead.

The rest of the dead didn't live until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

But the rest of the dead lived not again until the thousand years were finished. This is the first resurrection.

6 Happy and holy is he who has a part in this first coming: over these the second death has no authority, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will be ruling with him a thousand years.

Blessed and holy is he who has part in the first resurrection. Over these, the second death has no power, but they will be priests of God and of Christ, and will reign with him one thousand years.

Blessed and holy is he that hath part in the first resurrection: on such the second death hath no power, but they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

7 And when the thousand years are ended, Satan will be let loose out of his prison,

And after the thousand years, Satan will be freed out of his prison,

And when the thousand years have expired, Satan shall be loosed from his prison,

8 And will go out to put in error the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to get them together to the war, the number of whom is like the sands of the sea.

and will come forth to deceive the nations which are in the four corners of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them together to the war; the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

And shall go out to deceive the nations which are in the four quarters of the earth, Gog and Magog, to gather them to battle: the number of whom is as the sand of the sea.

9 And they went up over the face of the earth, and made a circle about the tents of the saints, and the well loved town: and fire came down out of heaven for their destruction. They went up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the camp of the saints, and the beloved city. Fire came down out of heaven, and devoured them.

And they went up on the breadth of the earth, and encompassed the camp of the saints, and the beloved city: and fire came down from God out of heaven, and devoured them.

10 And the Evil One who put them in error was sent down into the sea of ever-burning fire, where the beast and the false prophet are, and their punishment will go on day and night for ever and ever.

The devil who deceived them was thrown into the lake of fire and sulfur, where are also the beast and the false prophet. They will be tormented day and night forever and ever.

And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever.

11 And I saw a great white seat, and him who was seated on it, before whose face the earth and the heaven went in flight; and there was no place for them.

I saw a great white throne, and him who sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away. There was found no place for them.

And I saw a great white throne, and him that sat on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away; and there was found no place for them.

12 And I saw the dead, great and small, taking their places before the high seat; and the books were open, and another book was open, which is the book of life; and the dead were judged by the things which were in the books, even by their works.

I saw the dead, the great and the small, standing before the throne. Books were opened. Another book was opened, which is the book of life. The dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works.

And I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God; and the books were opened: and another book was opened, which is the book of life: and the dead were judged out of the things which were written in the books, according to their works.

13 And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and Hell gave up the dead which were in them; and they were judged every man by his works.

The sea gave up the dead who were in it. Death and Hades gave up the dead who were in them. They were judged, each one according to his works.

And the sea gave up the dead which were in it; and death and hell delivered up the dead which were in them: and they were judged every man according to their works.

- 14 And death and Hell were put into the sea of fire. This is the second death, even the sea of fire.
Death and Hades were thrown into the lake of fire. This is the second death, the lake of fire.
And death and hell were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death.
- 15 And if anyone's name was not in the book of life, he went down into the sea of fire.
If anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.
And whoever was not found written in the book of life was cast into the lake of fire.
- 1 And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were gone; and there was no more sea.
I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth have passed away, and the sea is no more.
And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth had passed away; and there was no more sea.
- 2 And I saw the holy town, new Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, like a bride made beautiful for her husband.
I saw the holy city, New Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God, made ready as a bride adorned for her husband.
And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.
- 3 And there came to my ears a great voice out of the high seat, saying, See, the Tent of God is with men, and he will make his living-place with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God.
I heard a loud voice out of heaven saying, "Behold, God`s tent is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they will be his people, and God himself will be with them as their God.
And I heard a great voice out of heaven, saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself will be with them, and be their God.
- 4 And he will put an end to all their weeping; and there will be no more death, or sorrow, or crying, or pain; for the first things have come to an end.
He will wipe away every tear from their eyes. Death will be no more; neither will there be mourning, nor crying, nor pain, any more. The first things have passed away.
And God will wipe away all tears from their eyes; and there shall be no more death, neither sorrow, nor crying, neither shall there be any more pain: for the former things have passed away.

- 5 And he who is seated on the high seat said, See, I make all things new. And he said, Put it in the book; for these words are certain and true.
He who sits on the throne said, "Behold, I make all things new." He said, "Write, for these words are faithful and true."
And he that sat upon the throne said, Behold, I make all things new. And he said to me, Write: for these words are true and faithful.
- 6 And he said to me, It is done. I am the First and the Last, the start and the end. I will freely give of the fountain of the water of life to him who is in need.
He said to me, "It is done! I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I will give freely to him who is thirsty from the spring of the water of life.
And he said to me, It is done. I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end. I will give to him that is thirsty of the fountain of the water of life freely.
- 7 He who overcomes will have these things for his heritage; and I will be his God, and he will be my son.
He who overcomes, I will give him these things. I will be his God, and he will be my son.
He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.
- 8 But those who are full of fear and without faith, the unclean and takers of life, those who do the sins of the flesh, and those who make use of evil powers or who give worship to images, and all those who are false, will have their part in the sea of ever-burning fire which is the second death.
But for the cowardly, unbelieving, sinners, abominable, murderers, sexually immoral, sorcerers, idolaters, and all liars, their part is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."
But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and lewd men, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

- 9 And one of the seven angels who had the seven vessels in which were the seven last punishments, came and said to me, Come here, and see the bride, the Lamb's wife.
One of the seven angels who had the seven bowls, who were laden with the seven last plagues came, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come here. I will show you the wife, the Lamb's bride."
And there came to me one of the seven angels, who had the seven vials full of the seven last plagues, and talked with me, saying, Come hither, I will show thee the bride, the Lamb's wife.

- 10 And he took me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and let me see the holy town Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
He carried me away in the Spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me the holy city, Jerusalem, coming down out of heaven from God,
And he carried me away in the spirit to a great and high mountain, and showed me that great city, the holy Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God,
- 11 Having the glory of God: and her light was like a stone of great price, a jasper stone, clear as glass:
having the glory of God. Her light was like a most precious stone, as if it was a jasper stone, clear as crystal;
Having the glory of God: and her light was like to a stone most precious, even like a jasper-stone, clear as crystal;
- 12 She had a wall great and high, with twelve doors, and at the doors twelve angels; and names on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.
having a great and high wall; having twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels; and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.
And had a wall great and high, and had twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the children of Israel.
- 13 And on the east were three doors; and on the north three doors; and on the south three doors; and on the west three doors.
On the east were three gates; and on the north three gates; and on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.
On the east three gates; on the north three gates; on the south three gates; and on the west three gates.
- 14 And the wall of the town had twelve bases, and on them the twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.
The wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them twelve names of the twelve Apostles of the Lamb.
And the wall of the city had twelve foundations, and on them the names of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.
- 15 And he who was talking with me had a gold measuring-rod to take the measure of the town, and of its doors, and its wall.
He who spoke with me had for a measure a golden reed to measure the city, its gates, and its walls.
And he that talked with me, had a golden reed to measure the city, and its gates, and its wall.

- 16 And the town is square, as wide as it is long; and he took the measure of the town with the rod, one thousand and five hundred miles: it is equally long and wide and high.
The city lies foursquare, and its length is as great as its breadth. He measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand stadia. Its length, breadth, and height are equal.
And the city lieth foursquare, and the length is as large as the breadth: and he measured the city with the reed, twelve thousand furlongs. The length and the breadth and the hight of it are equal.
- 17 And he took the measure of its wall, one hundred and forty-four cubits, after the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.
He measured its wall, one hundred forty-four cubits, by the measure of a man, that is, of an angel.
And he measured the wall of it a hundred and forty four cubits, according to the measure of a man, that is, of the angel.
- 18 And the building of its wall was of jasper, and the town was clear gold, clear as glass.
The construction of its wall was jasper. The city was pure gold, like pure glass.
And the building of the wall of it was of jasper: and the city was pure gold, like clear glass.
- 19 The bases of the wall of the town had ornaments of all sorts of beautiful stones. The first base was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;
The foundations of the city's wall were adorned with all kinds of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, chalcedony; the fourth, emerald;
And the foundations of the wall of the city were garnished with all manner of precious stones. The first foundation was jasper; the second, sapphire; the third, a chalcedony; the fourth, an emerald;

- 20 The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprase; the eleventh, jacinth; the twelfth, amethyst.
the fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, topaz; the tenth, chrysoprasus; the eleventh, jacinth; and the twelfth, amethyst.
The fifth, sardonyx; the sixth, sardius; the seventh, chrysolite; the eighth, beryl; the ninth, a topaz; the tenth, a chrysoprase; the eleventh, a jacinth; the twelfth, an amethyst.
- 21 And the twelve doors were twelve pearls; every door was made of one pearl; and the street of the town was clear gold, as clear as glass.
The twelve gates were twelve pearls. Each one of the gates was made of one pearl. The street of the city was pure gold, like transparent glass.
And the twelve gates were twelve pearls; every several gate was of one pearl; and the street of the city was pure gold, as it were transparent glass.

- 22 And I saw no Temple there; because the Lord God, the Ruler of all, and the Lamb are its Temple.
I saw no temple in it, for the Lord God, the Almighty, and the Lamb, are its temple.
And I saw no temple in it: for the Lord God Almighty and the Lamb are the temple of it.
- 23 And the town has no need of the sun, or of the moon, to give it light: for the glory of God did make it light, and the light of it is the Lamb.
The city has no need for the sun, neither of the moon, to shine, for the very glory of God illuminated it, and its lamp is the Lamb.
And the city had no need of the sun, neither of the moon, to shine in it: for the glory of God enlightened it, and the Lamb is the light of it.
- 24 And the nations will go in its light: and the kings of the earth will take their glory into it.
The nations will walk in its light. The kings of the earth bring their glory into it.
And the nations of them who are saved shall walk in the light of it: and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it.
- 25 And the doors of it will never be shut by day (for there is no night there):
Its gates will in no way be shut by day (for there will be no night there),
And the gates of it shall not be shut by day: for there shall be no night there.
- 26 And the glory and honour of the nations will come into it:
and they will bring the glory and the honor of the nations into it.
And they shall bring the glory and honor of the nations into it.
- 27 And nothing unclean may come into it, or anyone whose works are cursed or false; but only those whose names are in the Lamb's book of life.
There will in no way enter into it anything profane, or one who causes an abomination or a lie, but only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.
And there shall in no wise enter into it any thing that defileth, neither whatever worketh abomination, or maketh a lie; but they who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

1 And I saw a river of water of life, clear as glass, coming out of the high seat of God and of the Lamb,
He showed me a river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb,
And he showed me a pure river of water of life, clear as crystal, proceeding out of the throne of God and of the Lamb.

2 In the middle of its street. And on this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, having twelve sorts of fruits, giving its fruit every month; and the leaves of the tree give life to the nations.
in the midst of its street. On this side of the river and on that was the tree of life, bearing twelve kinds of fruits, yielding its fruit every month. The leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.
In the midst of the street of it, and on each side of the river, was there the tree of life, which bore twelve kinds of fruits, and yielded her fruit every month: and the leaves of the tree were for the healing of the nations.

3 And there will be no more curse: and the high seat of God and of the Lamb will be there; and his servants will be worshipping him;
There will be no curse any more. The throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him.
And there shall be no more curse: but the throne of God and of the Lamb shall be in it; and his servants shall serve him:

4 And they will see his face; and his name will be on their brows.
They will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads.
And they shall see his face; and his name shall be in their foreheads.

5 And there will be no more night; and they have no need of a light or of the shining of the sun; for the Lord God will give them light: and they will be ruling for ever and ever.
There will be no more night, and they need no lamp light, neither sunlight; for the Lord God will give them light. They will reign forever and ever.
And there shall be no night there; and they need no candle, neither light of the sun; for the Lord God giveth them light: and they shall reign for ever and ever.

6 And he said to me, These words are certain and true: and the Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angel to make clear to his servants the things which are now to come about.
He said to me, "These words are faithful and true. The Lord, the God of the spirits of the prophets, sent his angels to show to his servants the things which must happen soon."
And he said to me, These sayings are faithful and true. And the Lord God of the holy prophets sent his angel to show to his servants the things which must shortly be done.

- 7 See, I come quickly. A blessing on him who keeps the words of this book of the prophet.
"Behold, I come quickly. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."
Behold, I come quickly: blessed is he that keepeth the sayings of the prophecy of this book.
- 8 And I, John, am he who saw these things and to whose ears they came. And when I had seen and given ear, I went down on my face to give worship at the feet of the angel who made these things clear to me.
Now I, John, am the one who heard and saw these things. When I heard and saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
And I John saw these things, and heard them. And when I had heard and seen, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who showed me these things.
- 9 And he said to me, See you do it not; I am a brother-servant with you and with your brothers the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book: give worship to God.
He said to me, "See you don't do it! I am a fellow bondservant with you and with your brothers, the prophets, and with those who keep the words of this book. Worship God."
Then saith he to me, See thou do it not: for I am thy fellow-servant, and of thy brethren the prophets, and of them who keep the sayings of this book: worship God.
- 10 And he said to me, Let not the words of this prophet's book be kept secret, because the time is near.
He said to me, "Don't seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, for the time is at hand."
And he saith to me, Seal not the sayings of the prophecy of this book: for the time is at hand.
- 11 Let the evil man go on in his evil: and let the unclean be still unclean: and let the upright go on in his righteousness: and let the holy be holy still.
He who acts unjustly, let him act unjustly still. He who is filthy, let him be filthy still. He who is righteous, let him do righteousness still. He who is holy, let him be holy still."
He that is unjust, let him be unjust still: and he who is filthy, let him be filthy still: and he that is righteous, let him be righteous still: and he that is holy, let him be holy still.
- 12 See, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give to every man the outcome of his works.
"Behold, I come quickly. My reward is with me, to repay to each man according to his work."
And behold, I come quickly; and my reward is with me, to give to every man according as his work shall be.

- 13 I am the First and the Last, the start and the end.
I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.
I am Alpha and Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.
- 14 A blessing on those whose robes are washed, so that they may have a right to the tree of life, and may go in by the doors into the town.
Blessed are those who do his commandments, that they may have the right to the tree of life, and may enter in by the gates into the city.
Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city.
- 15 Outside are the dogs, and those who make use of evil powers, those who make themselves unclean, and the takers of life, and those who give worship to images, and everyone whose delight is in what is false.
Outside are the dogs, the sorcerers, the sexually immoral, the murderers, the idolaters, and everyone who loves and practices falsehood.
For without are dogs, and sorcerers, and lewd men, and murderers, and idolaters, and whoever loveth and maketh a lie.
- 16 I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give witness to you of these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, the bright and morning star.
I, Jesus, have sent my angel to testify these things to you for the assemblies. I am the root and the offspring of David; the Bright and Morning Star. "
I Jesus have sent my angel to testify to you these things in the churches. I am the root and the offspring of David, and the bright and morning-star.
- 17 And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him who gives ear, say, Come. And let him who is in need come; and let everyone desiring it take of the water of life freely.
The Spirit and the bride say, "Come!" He who hears, let him say, "Come!" He who is thirsty, let him come. He who desires, let him take the water of life freely.
And the Spirit and the bride say, Come. And let him that heareth, say, Come. And let him that is thirsty, come: And whoever will, let him take the water of life freely.

- 18 For I say to every man to whose ears have come the words of this prophet's book, If any man makes an addition to them, God will put on him the punishments which are in this book:
I testify to every man who hears the words of the prophecy of this book, if anyone adds to them, may God add to him the plagues which are written in this book.
For I testify to every man that heareth the words of the prophecy of this book, if any man shall add to these things, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book:
- 19 And if any man takes away from the words of this book, God will take away from him his part in the tree of life and the holy town, even the things which are in this book.
If anyone takes away from the words of the book of this prophecy, may God take away his part from the tree of life, and out of the holy city, which are written in this book.
And if any man shall take away from the words of the book of this prophecy, God will take away his part out of the book of life, and out of the holy city, and from the things which are written in this book.
- 20 He who gives witness to these things says, Truly, I come quickly. Even so come, Lord Jesus.
He who testifies these things says, "Yes, I come quickly." Amen! Come, Lord Jesus.
He who testifieth these things saith, Surely I come quickly: Amen. Even so, come, Lord Jesus.
- 21 The grace of the Lord Jesus be with the saints. So be it.
The grace of the Lord Jesus be with all the saints. Amen.
The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
